Mercury Hits July 3 Low: Predict Fair Weather Today

The Special Wire from Universal City, N. Y., July 4.—After the thermometer had gone down to 55, setting a new record for July, the weather bureau predicted that today will be fair and cool.

Yesterday's low of 55, recorded at Middletown, was 18 degrees below the normal average and 16 degrees below the previous record set in 1928.

Roosevelt Plans Price Boost

Washington, July 4.—Thinking it back in Europe, the Roosevelt administration was suffering today for an intensive three-month campaign to restore commodity prices.

No international commitment that would hamper the domestic program will be countenanced. The goal is to restore a price level approximating the 1929 average. This means a general increase of about 30 percent.

The program entails further currency devaluation. That is a major policy.

These considerations, administrative officials reveal, dictated President Roosevelt's rejection of even temporary and indirect stabilization proposals in London.

Storm Batters Jersey Coast

Long Branch, July 4.—A high tide, driven by a strong easterly wind, broke the barrier of high water along the Jersey coast from Atlantic Highlands to Deal, and in several places, flooded a low ground behind the bulkheads. Little property damage was reported, however, although a few houses in many places were badly washed over.

Inhabitants of several summer homes in the low section of Seabright were marooned for several hours while the water swelled to the point of supporting the houses. There were numerous reports of

R. F. C. May Finance Russia

Washington, July 4.—Further hints in Soviet Russia, possibly reaching $100,000,000 to finance purchases of American livestock, agricultural machinery and industrial products, are under consideration by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, it is learned.

The new project follows close on the heels of a loan of $100,000,000 to finance the purchase of 500,000 bushels of American wheat through the Amorg Corporation, New York, for shipment this month.

Megawatt, it is learned from high administration officials, that diplomatic recognition of Soviet Russia is imminent. The new policy in trade relations, embodied in the R. F. C. initiative, is a forerunner of formal recognition, it is said.

Predict Dollar Decline

London, July 4.—President Roosevelt is going to permit the dollar to drop to a new extreme, it is predicted by a group of world economists.

The group, which includes the leading financial authorities of the world, predicted that the dollar will decline to a new low of $1.50 to the pound, according to belief expressed in high financial circles today.

At the same time, diplomatic circles reported that if the dollar depreciates to this extent, European nations, and especially France, will impose import surtaxes on American imports similar to the surtaxes already imposed by the French of British goods because of the depreciated pound.

Report "Recovery" Progress

Annapolis, Md., July 4.—Holding the first cabinet meeting since July 1, President Roosevelt was advised yesterday substantial progress has been made on putting into operation his domestic recovery program.

For more than three hours, the chief executive and his official family discussed Federal affairs in the wardrobe of the Cruiser Indianapolis which was anchored about four miles off this port in Chesapeake Bay.

Among the problems discussed were public works, industrial control, and farm policy. The President was told progress has been made on all three, and that several problems have cropped up for his decision.

"Blot Out" Tax Witnesses

New York, July 4.—Violent death has slowed recovery. For the men upon whom the United States government counted for evidence to prove its charges of income tax evasion against Waxed London.

And, added Assistant United States District Attorney Dewey, who made the statement before Judge Frank Diffey, "a situation has arisen where by we have to make public the names of our expected witnesses because we do not know what will happen to them."

Mercury Hits July 3 Low Predict Fair Weather Today

By Special Wire from Universal Service
New York, July 4.—After the thermometer had gone down to 55, setting a new record low for July 3, the weather bureau predicted that today will be fair and cool.

Yesterday's low of 55, recorded at 9 a. m., was 18 degrees below the normal average and one degree below the previous record set in 1922.

Roosevelt Plans Price Boost

Washington, July 4.—Turning its back on Europe, the Roosevelt administration was organizing today for an intensive three-month campaign to restore commodity prices.

No international commitment that would impede the domestic program will be contemplated. The goal is to restore a price level approximating the 1926 average. This means a general increase of about 30 percent.

The program entails further currency depreciation. That is a major policy.

These considerations, administration officials reveal, dictated President Roosevelt's blunt rejection of even temporary and indirect stabilization proposals in London.

Storm Batters Jersey Coast

Long Branch, July 4.—A high tide driven by a strong easterly gale late yesterday battered the bulkheads along the Jersey coast from Atlantic Highlands to Deal, and in several places inundated low ground behind the bulkheads. Little property damage was reported, however, although the beach in many places was badly washed out.

Inhabitants of several summer bungalows in the low section of Seabright were marooned for several hours while the water swelled to the tilting supporting the houses. There were no casualties reported.

R. F. C. May Finance Russia

Washington, July 4.—Further loans to Soviet Russia, possibly reaching $100,000,000 to finance purchases of American livestock, agricultural machinery and industrial products, are under consideration by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, it is learned.

The new project follows close on the heels of the loan announced Sunday night, to finance Russian purchases of 80,000 bales of American cotton through the Amtorg Corporation, New York, for shipment this month.

Meanwhile, it is learned from high administration officials, that diplomatic recognition of Soviet Russia is imminent. The new policy in trade relations, embodied in the R. F. C. attitude, is a forerunner of formal recognition, it is said.

Predict Dollar Decline

London, July 4.—President Roosevelt is going to permit the dollar to decline on world exchanges until it reaches "off gold" parity with the pound sterling at the previous gold rate of $4.86 to the pound, according to belief expressed in high British banking circles today.

At the same time, diplomatic circles reported that if the dollar depreciates to this extent, European nations, and especially France, will probably impose surtaxes on American imports similar to the surtaxes already imposed by the French on British goods because of the depreciated pound.

Report "Recovery" Progress

Annapolis, Md., July 4.—Holding the first cabinet meeting since President Roosevelt was advised yesterday substantial progress has been made on putting into operation his domestic recovery program.

For more than three hours, the chief executive and his official family discussed Federal affairs in the war room of the Cruiser Indianapolis which was anchored about four miles off this port in Chesapeake Bay.

Among the problems discussed were public works, industrial control, and farm relief. The President was told progress has been made on all three, and that several problems have cropped up for his decision.

"Blot Out" Tax Witnesses

New York, July 4.—Violent death has silenced forever four of the men upon whom the United States government counted for evidence to prove its charges of income tax evasion against Waxed Gordon.

"And," added Assistant United States District Attorney Dewey who made the statement before Judge Frank Patterson, "the situation has been worsened by the fact that the four men who were expected to make public the names of our other expected witnesses because we do not know what might happen to them."

Children Deposited $13,695.15 In School Bank During Year

Balance of $32,100.45 in Fund on July 1, the Abraham Clark school in Clark Township deposited $13,695.15 in the school savings system, of which the Rahway Savings Institution is the depository, during the past year, Walter Freeman, president of the bank, informed The Record yesterday.

Boys and girls in the Rahway high school and six grammar schools in this city, and the Abraham Clark school in Clark Township, deposited $13,695.15 in the school savings system, of which the Rahway Savings Institution is the depository, during the past year, Walter Freeman, president of the bank, informed The Record yesterday.

This systematic saving of the pennies by the school children of Rahway began on May 21, 1926, in Franklin school, a year after the method was copyrighted. It spread to the other seven schools in the city and since that time many thousands of dollars have been saved by the children of Rahway. During the past school year the Clark Township school united the system and now eight schools are solicited every Tuesday or "School Saving Day."

How well the system has developed the saving habit among children is evidenced by the fact that $13,695.15 was deposited during the year ending June 30, 1933. The deposits totaled $13,695.15, compared with $10,000.00 in 1932, and $11,000.00 in 1931.

The continued economic depression somewhat affected the school savings deposits during the year ending June 30, 1933. The deposits totaled $13,695.15, compared with $10,000.00 in 1932, and $11,000.00 in 1931.

Former Rahway Man Charged With Newark Woman's Murder

Arrested Here Yesterday Afternoon in Home by Local Police

Traced through a telephone conversation made from a booth in a store in the business section shortly before 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Capt. Baisano, 24, of 300 Morris avenue, Newark, was arrested by the local police at 430 yesterday afternoon in a home in the central part of the city, charged with the murder of Mrs. Julia Fisher, of Newark.

Baisano, a married man, 34 years old, was arrested by the local police at 430 yesterday afternoon in a home in the central part of the city, charged with the murder of Mrs. Julia Fisher, of Newark.

Graves of 54 Soldiers of '76 Will be Decorated Here Today; D. A. R. Plans 10 A. M. Program

Rebecca Cornell, Chapter W'll Conduct Services at Grave of Signer of Declaration of Independence; Vocal Solos Will be Heard

The Rev. Robert W. Elliott, Rector of the Church of the Holy Comforter, to Speak at Clark Grave

City-wide observance of the 157th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence today will be featured by the services which Rebecca Cornell, chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold at the grave of Abraham Clark, patriot and one of the 54 signers of the Declaration, in Rahway cemetery at 10 a. m. today.

Other celebration plans include the annual athletic carnival which the Ramble A. A. and three other athletic associations will sponsor at Riverside park, General avenue, at 9 a. m. and a baseball game between the Rahway A. A. nine and the Reformers' Innings at 2 p. m.

The Rev. Robert W. Elliott, Rector of the Church of the Holy Comforter, will deliver a short address at the grave of Abraham Clark as the only speaker in the informal services to be held there.

Several vocal solos will be presented by Mrs. Harry W. Menner, Mrs. A. G. Kishallinger in charge of the arrangements and will be assisted by Mrs. Edith Gallaway.

The organization also plans to decorate with home-grown flowers the graves of 54 Rahway Revolutionary soldiers buried in Rahway cemetery. These men were veterans of the War of Independence and today's observance makes this ceremony particularly appropriate.

The list of names includes many familiar to old Rahway families. There are five members of the Clark family named, including that of Abraham Clark, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, but one other family in the community contributed more fighting men for the cause of liberty. This was the Marsh family which sent eight men to the Revolutionary War.

The graves of the Rev. Aaron Richards, preacher-patriot of First Presbyterian church of that town and one son, Maurice L. Richards, Jr., also of the town, will also be graced with flowers.

At 10 a. m. the "Lullaby" ceremony into the Rev. Richards' activities as a "rebel" patriot become a "rebel" that he was forced to leave town and stay in hiding.

32 Girl Scouts at Camp Enact Lives of Many Foreign Peoples

Customs, manners and traditions of the peoples of most of the important countries of Europe are being studied at the Girl Scout Camp, Camp Waukena, in the Palisades Interstate Park, near Bear Mountain, N. Y., according to a communication from Miss Irene Hoffman, director of the camp.

The girls are divided into three groups with the youngest in the Gaudin group, studying and acting the manners of the Gallic countries of France, Italy and Spain. The girls are learning the most important Latin musical compositions and instruments.

At the camp for a four-week stay, but some of the younger girls can only be there two weeks.

General night we had our first general campfire. We all gathered on the rocks, and the girls sang songs and played games. The girls from each unit carried a torch and a small flag.

Celebrating the Fourth

One hundred and fifty-seven years ago today there was born a act of signing the Declaration of Independence in Philadelphia, a new country, or rather a new form of government, that came into being at that time to take its place in the front ranks of the great nations of the earth. Rahway is one of the few communities to have celebrated this great historic document. The local D. A. R. chapter will be holding a service at its grave in the Rahway cemetery this morning and then placing flowers on the graves of its Revolutionary soldiers whose names are inscribed in this historic cemetery.

Independence Day is deeply patronized and the youth of the nation are enthusiastic over the day which marks the founding of a great republic. The character of celebration, however, involves considerable longer both in person and property. There is scarcely a city or town that has not restricted the use of fireworks.

Today a certain number of people will be killed by fireworks; more will be accidentally drowned and a very large number will die under the wheels of automobiles. This morning a number of accidents will not be escaped in a certain number of instances, and a certain number, as a result, will not see the sun rise tomorrow.

A Civic Leader, A Friend

With the passing of James M. Pettit, Rahway loses not only a community leader, but a friend as well.

Few individuals in Rahway had more true or lasting friends. He was a man of the right people, sympathetic in his conduct and in his life. He was a man of the right sense of the word, for he knew how to smile. Hundreds of persons who have known his warm handshake and his heartening smile will never forget his association.

Let us pause for a moment and reveal for a moment those high attributes which governed his career. Not only was he a builder in many civic projects, but he was a builder in the sense of the word, for he knew how to smile. Hundreds of persons who have known his warm handshake and his heartening smile will never forget his association.

The article has set with him on many occasions, and today we can look back and better understand why he was so universally loved. He was a civic builder, interested in those things which contributed to the general welfare of the community. He was likewise interested in his church to the degree that he gave freely of his time and effort and money.

Mr. Pettit was interested in a number of organizations. He was a member of the Kiwanis Club. As a charter member and past president of the Rahway Kiwanis club he was constantly on the alert for ways of bettering the group and widening its scope of service.

Mr. Pettit was not only in the midst of the immediate future, but in the past. In the various places where his daily presence lent sunshine and hope. Whitcomb Riley had in mind the Jim Pettit when he penned the following lines:

A good man never dies,
He's worthy dead and prayer,
And helpful hands and honest eyes,
He smiles or tears he sheds,
Who lives for you or me,
Lives for the world he tries
To help—he lives eternally.
A good man never dies.

Who lives to brave life,
His share of toil and stress,
And for his weaker fellows sake,
Makes every burden less,
He may, at last, seem weary,
Who lives for you or me,
Lives for the world he tries
To help—he lives eternally.
A good man never dies.

Forty-three State Legislatures that have been in session this year have passed only 7,000 new laws, which is much less than the legislative grid for many years.

Autobiography of a Great Grandmother

By Hattie Chapin Bernard

The supper manner in which she sang this song appealed so strongly to me that I was determined to have her sing it again. She was a wonderful singer, and her voice was a beautiful contralto. She sang it with such feeling and pathos that it was a pleasure to listen to her. She was a great-grandmother, and her story was a story of a life well lived.

She was a great-grandmother, and her story was a story of a life well lived. She was a woman of many talents, and her life was a life of service to her family and to her community. She was a woman of many talents, and her life was a life of service to her family and to her community.

How to Be Financially Independent

I have always wondered how the town of Rahway, in Southern New Jersey, came to be known. A. H. Glendinning, Rahway, writes the explanation of how this place received its name. He says that the name was given to the town by a man named Rahway, who was a member of the first settlement of Rahway. He says that the name was given to the town by a man named Rahway, who was a member of the first settlement of Rahway.

In this way their farms and other property were sold, and the money was used to build the town. The town was a fine one, and the people who lived there were very happy.
