Service

The Junior auxiliary of Railway post, No. 5, American Legion, will sponsor a program in Roosevelt school auditorium December 14, the proceeds from which will be used to bring cheer to 950 disabled veterans in the hospital in Millington.

This organization, composed of girls ranging from 6 to 12 years of age, is giving a splendid example of rendering service to others. With the funds raised during the program, the veterans who were disabled while serving their country will be able to purchase tobacco, candy and reading matter from which they will derive a good share of happiness and recreation.

These young girls, the women of tomorrow, are learning early the significance of service to others. They deserve support in their efforts and should be rewarded by a large attendance at the coming performance.

For The Good Of All

In Tuesday's Record the need for a business men's organization to look after the interests of city merchants was suggested in comment regarding purchases by city agencies from concerns outside the city.

A business organization has long been talked of here but for some unknown reason, merchants never succeeded in forming a permanent organization.

Business men's groups of this type are becoming common in the smaller communities which have no chamber of commerce. One of the most efficient organizations of this type is located in Summit where holiday street lighting and annual sales days do much to promote sales for merchants there. These are only two of the many functions of the Summit business association and merchants who are affiliated with the group will testify that it is a worthy one and brings them satisfactory returns.

The independent merchant today has been greatly affected by the chain organizations but comparatively few of these smaller merchants do anything to benefit themselves. A few of the benefits which may be derived from such an organization in Railway follows.

Regular meetings would be held during which leaders in merchandising would discuss present-day problems with the members and offer suggestions enabling them to keep abreast of the trend in modern merchandising.

A committee would be appointed to receive all requests from organizations for donations, contributions to advertising programs and the like, and members would abide by the committee's decision. Thus merchants would not constantly be forced to "dig down" and contribute.

Another group named by the members would see that merchants benefited by the city's purchase that could possibly be made in the city, quality and price being equal to that of outside competitors.

Sales promotional plans, such as sales days and other modern merchandising stunts, would be staged to promote business.

These are a few of the salient services available to merchants who affiliate in a live-wire association. We do not mean to insinuate that local merchants do not know how to handle their affairs. But since all are trying to keep abreast of the time in merchandising and expending many individual efforts, wouldn't it be more advisable to put these efforts behind a well co-ordinated movement aiming for the betterment of conditions for all?

Fix Cars—Not Tickets

"With much fixing of automobiles and no fixing of tickets, there should be a material reduction in Chicago's motor vehicle death rate," said Mayor Kelly in opening a new "safety lane" in which automobiles are given tests to determine mechanical safety.

Chicago's experience with the lane bears that out. During the first week of its operation, 78 percent of all cars passing through it failed to earn the safety "O. K." The bulk of them had defective brakes, many had wheels out of alignment, while lack of proper lights, mirrors, windshield wipers and horns caused the failure of the rest.

It was then complained that the tests were too stringent, and that only cars in first-class condition were able to pass. The tests were then modified to give automobiles in poor condition a chance. Even when this was done, 40 percent of the cars going through the tests failed to meet specifications.

It is probable that the percentage of Chicago cars which meet specifications is higher than in any other city, as the owner of a machine whose condition is obviously bad would not subject his car to the tests.

Portland, Oregon, has recently carried on similar examinations, under the direction of the state police. The experience has been about the same. The cars around half of the cars examined proved to be unsafe in one or more fundamentals.

The unsafe automobile is almost as great a hazard to the public as the reckless driver. Every driver interested in reducing the horrible toll of street and highway fatalities should carry on automobile inspections—and then see to it that defects are corrected. In these days of high speeds and super-highways, there is no room for the car with brakes that won't hold, lights that won't illuminate, and horns that won't sound.

Railway 55 Years Ago

From The Railway Record—November 23, 1879

There was a good attendance at the sale of Bechler's property by Johnson and Miller, Auctioneers, on Monday last. The people were mostly from this city, but Newark, Elizabeth, New York and Brooklyn were all represented. The bidding was very spirited from the beginning to the close of the sale, and both purchasers and sellers were satisfied. The property lies to the north of the Westfield road, and runs back to the north branch of the Rahway river, and contains a very fine knoll, from which some very fine views of the surrounding country including the Orange Mountains may be obtained.

Benjamin M. Price has been elected president of the National Bank of Rahway in place of Mr. Abram F. Shotwell, who resigned. Mr. Shotwell has been president of the bank ever since it became a national bank in 1865.

Mrs. William B. Durie attended the exhibition of Arts and Crafts in Jersey City Friday last, under the auspices of the grammar school, of which Professor Durie is principal. The corps of thirty-five teachers were also present.

Railway 15 Years Ago

From The Railway Record—November 23, 1919

Whether or not their lives were endangered Saturday by the blowing off of a cap on a 100-pound cylinder of chlorine gas at the plant of the Mangano Chemical plant, 17 Seminary avenue, formerly the Gordon Press Works, is a much mooted question among the uptown residents and those living near the factory site. About 9:30 police headquarters were notified "that a tank of gas had exploded and it was dangerous to people passing and also to the people in the surrounding neighborhood."

Railway 5 Years Ago

From The Railway Record—November 23, 1929

The plant of the Royal Coach Manufacturing company, on St. George avenue, next to the Franklin school, has been sold to the Direct-Saving Furniture company, a newly organized company which has announced plans for a new extensive business which is to be purely a Rahway enterprise.

State Commission Denies Rate Change Application

An application made by Public Service Co-ordinated Transport seeking the approval of the state commission of certain sections of the Rahway-Elizabeth route with the line now operating between Newark and New Brunswick was denied by the Public Utility commission in Newark, N. J., last night.

In addition the company sought commission approval on a route change between Newark and Woodbridge after the proposed change had been effected. The commission approved the change on an alternative Newark route.

"I never listen to an outstanding educator without thinking of the fine gentleman who was president of my college. He has been gone many years, but his memory of his influence still lingers in my mind. So strong was my impression upon me that I often wish every young fellow, and girl, too, could have known him and thereby made richer in the finest of all human possessions—the companionship and sympathetic understanding of a person of deep and worthwhile character."

A frankish or foolish youthful mistake never comes to my attention but I think of that college president and his philosophy of young folks. He always said that while at home boys and girls are actually boyed and girled by ethics and traditions of family circle, a particular religion, particular ways of handling themselves among people and by particular thoughts about life and its problems. Then, he said, when youth leaves home, he has been rightly and wrongly governed by home and home-town principles, he should be set free to learn his own ways. In other words, the bounds should be cut and he should be given the freedom possible to find his own groove in life. He should not have particular rules to follow, and few regular hours should be forced upon him; he should never be made to do this or to do that—he should be given the opportunity to grow and develop. With that philosophy in mind, our president directed his college, and the co-operation and assistance of the students was so complete that he did a splendid and commendable job.

The co-operative spirit of the men engaged in the housing-repair survey being made by the Federal Housing Administration in Rahway was highly commendable. Coming together for their first meeting Wednesday, the men readily interchanged prospects and planned a further campaign. Such co-operation bodes well for campaign progress and Rahway people will eventually be benefited by the employment advantages accruing.

The reason why banks most of his good resolutions is because he goes well.

ALONG THE AMUSEMENT RIALTO

JEAN MUIR RISES TO STARDOM
Jean Muir comes to the Railway tomorrow and Thursday in a role which should send her to the heights of stardom. "Desirable," with a fine supporting cast gives Miss Muir an excellent opportunity to show to best advantage.

Playing the part of an unrepentant girl who is suddenly thrown into the brilliant madhouse that is New York, Miss Muir has the opportunity to show to best advantage.

The fact that Vera Trask, the actress mother of Miss Muir, had sent the girl off to boarding school where she would have no chance of threatening her own popularity, further complicates the situation once the girl has returned to her New York circle.

George Brent also contributes an excellent performance. Others in the cast are Pauline Tru, Joan Wheeler, Barbara Leonard, and Virginia Hammond.

The companion feature, "Gift of Gab" starring Edmund Lowe and Gloria Stuart has a supporting cast that includes Phil Baker, Victor Moore, Alice White and Hugh O'Connell.

RUBY KEELER AT REGENT

Another voter who had dashed off a strain line in back of the candidates the apparently preferred also voted in vain. His ballot was declared void with Chairman Zor declaring in a humorous vein, "That fellow may just as well have remained home and sleep."

The count will take an indefinite period to complete. Estimates place the time at about seven days, however.

Campaign Ends 12 o'Clock Saturday Noon

Cast All Ballots This Week In Sealed Ballot Box Located At Rahway Trust Co., Irving Street

Details of Final Count

In order to maintain the utmost secrecy as to the number of subscriptions turned in by each candidate this, the last week of The Record $5,000 Cash Campaign, the race will be brought to a close under a Sealed Ballot Box.

No subscription whatever will be accepted through the Campaign Department this week, but instead, candidates themselves will deposit their final collections in the SEALED BALLOT BOX located at the Rahway Trust Co. And by so doing, no one, not even the campaign manager, or the publisher, can possibly know the voting strength of the respective candidates, which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest degree.

Locked and sealed, the Ballot Box has been placed in the lobby of the bank, where it will remain until the closing hour of the campaign, 12 Saturday noon, December 1. When the final hour arrives the campaign will be declared closed, then the judges will break the seals, unlock the box and immediately thereafter, or as soon as votes can be issued on subscriptions contained therein, the last count will begin. The winners will be determined by merely adding the published vote totals, which will appear in Friday's issue of The Record to reserve votes and those contained in the ballot box. There will be no waiting; no complicated count, but simply a matter of adding the vote totals and announcing the winners.

It is calculated that it will take some time, however, to canvass the findings in the box and to determine the winners. The official results will be published in the Tuesday, December 4 issue of The Record.

Prizes will be in the hands of all winners early Monday.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

All subscriptions deposited in the Sealed Box must be accompanied by cash, money order or check for the full amount to cover Personal checks are acceptable, provided no two checks are signed by the same party. This is made in full and fairness to all candidates and will be strictly adhered to.

LAST PERIOD
Embracing the last week, terminating December 1, the following number of votes will be issued on subscriptions:

1 Year ..... 1,000
2 Years ..... 10,000
3 Years ..... 20,000
4 Years ..... 40,000
5 Years ..... 80,000
6 Years ..... 160,000

A special ballot good for 100,000 votes will be issued on every "club" of $15 turned in. This is in addition to regular number of votes allowed on every subscription secured up until 12 noon Saturday, December 1, the last hour of the campaign.

Rule No. 16
If there will be several big cash prizes awarded, besides a 20% commission, guaranteed to all subscribers. Cash contributions will be paid to candidates immediately upon their report. However, it must be distinctly understood that prizes will be awarded less the 20% already paid.

CANDIDATES MUST CERTIFY AND ATTEST TO THE CORRECTNESS OF THEIR COUNT BY

WEDNESDAY

Yes—A Welcome Visitor

Incidents have recently come to our attention which themselves seem unimportant, but when considered together are of such importance that they deserve comment.

The first concerns a Railway person who says he does not read The Record because he says the newspaper is Democratic in principle and because he did not agree with a certain article published in the paper some time ago.

The second incident deals with a Railway man who says he does not read The Record but gives as his reasons his belief that the paper is Republican in principle and his disappointment when the paper did not print a certain article in which he was mentioned as a merchant manager, banker, lecturer and showman.

The incidents very clearly prove two principles are inherent in the publication of The Record—principles upon which every honest and public-spirited newspaper is founded and without which no newspaper can fulfill its obligations to the people.

First, the incidents indicate that regardless of personal opinions of its editors and publishers and regardless of which party those editors and publishers believe to be the most worthy of public support, The Record regularly prints the news accounts of the happenings of both major political parties, without malice and without favor.

Secondly, the incidents show that the editors and publishers of The Record are constantly alert to their responsibility of making wise selection of the material published, knowing that the paper is a regular and welcome visitor in thousands of homes and that the occupants of those homes expect to find in their Record cross-sections of all the interesting news of the community.

Every newspaperman knows that every progressive newspaper collects much more than the actual amount of news the paper can print, thereby creating a responsibility of sifting the good from the bad; the important from the unimportant. That this is done by The Record, ever with the best interests of its readers in mind, is clearly shown by the two incidents of which we write.

We do not aim to make enemies, but we know that we cannot help but make some as we go about our accepted duties. Our only hope is that in doing our job as we see it we can continue to maintain the respect and confidence of the great masses of people.

Home-Spun Stuff

In his talk during a huge public meeting Thursday evening sponsored by the Railway parent-teacher association, Dr. Robert C. Clothier, president of Rutgers university, advised that it was to be the kind of adults you want your children to become.

By their very attendance at the meeting, some 700 Railway parents proved that that very thought is uppermost in their minds and that they are striving for upright, honest citizens who can be the kind of adults you want your children to become.

Dr. Clothier's remarks were home-spun and of the stuff that is a real inspiration for parents who are honestly trying to live up to their responsibilities to their children and to society.

Every word that the university president uttered was of value, but outstanding was his declaration that one of the crying needs of the day is "a sense of social responsibility" in the minds of our people. It is such meetings as the one Thursday night and such talks as that of Dr. Clothier that give us the sense of social responsibility in the minds of our people.

The parent-teacher associations of the city as well as our local school administrators are to be congratulated upon planning and conducting such a gathering as that enjoyed Thursday night. It was so well attended and has already received such public commendation that its value cannot be overlooked. Plans should be made for forming for other such public gatherings. Railway people, and parents in particular, would receive untold profit.

And From The Public

Our commendation today goes to members of the Railway Republican club, who recognize the city problem and take steps for friendly and co-operative effort to solve it.

Members of the club, through an especially appointed committee, will study the present situation which makes part time attendance mandatory for many local children.

If that committee approaches the problem with an open mind and with the intention of studying the actual facts and then offering constructive suggestions, it will have done a fine job. This is its intention. We feel that the committee will receive every aid and from school authorities and will, in fact, be heartily encouraged by school authorities.

Those vested with the job of properly conducting our schools have a continuous difficult task and are constantly on the alert to receive any friendly help such as the Republican committee expects to give. It is by such activities that political groups, regardless of party, can be of untold service to the city. If they are ever careful not to give the impression that they are trying to "run things" but rather are trying to help, there is hardly a city department but what would welcome the citizens with open arms—and to the benefit of the entire community. Railway may well wait with interest for the findings of the Republican committee and for the results of its work.

Railway 65 Years Ago
From The National Democrat—November 23, 1869

BOOK AGENTS WANTED FOR "THE STRUGGLES AND TRIUMPHS OF THE RAILWAY."
Written by himself, in one large octavo volume, nearly 800 pages—printed in English and German, 33 elegant full page engravings. It embraces forty years' recollections of his busy life, as a merchant manager, banker, lecturer and showman.
J. B. Burr and Co., Publishers, Hartford, Conn.

Railway 50 Years Ago
From The Railway Advocate—November 26, 1884

Yesterday morning Superintendent Bunn turned the water off at the fountain in the park opposite the Pennsylvania railroad station, for the winter season.

Railway 25 Years Ago
From The Railway News-Herald—November 25, 1909

A fine hedge of arbutus has been placed by Manager A. R. Wendell about the Wheatena plant and rosebushes of all hues and hundreds of varieties being planted in corners, nooks and alongside the walks in all directions, making a "wilderness to blossom" like ten thousand roses all at once when the rose season comes.

Railway 15 Years Ago
From The Railway Record—November 12, 1919

The Railway-high school football team will play the Alumni of not more than two years back at River-side park tomorrow afternoon. The Alumni team comprises: Mossman, W. Yuckman, N. Yuckman, Ritchie, ends; tackles, Wigginton, N. Chase, guards, H. Chase, Love, Elliott; center, Bauer; quarterback, Jones; halfbacks, Lindsay, Brown, Herer, Brachhausen; fullback, Mills.

Railway 5 Years Ago
From The Railway Record—November 18, 1929

The old Franklin school property, which has been the topic of discussion, and at times, the bone of contention, of numerous organizations and municipal bodies' meetings in the city, was again introduced in the form of a discussion at the meeting of the Herbert Hoover Republican club on Friday night. The simplification of considerably many of the clouded issues marked the meeting with the resultant statement of L. C. Santomasso, who had circulated petitions in protest against the transfer of the property from the Board of Education to the Common Council requested by the latter in a previous resolution.

The Rambler A. C. football team will have a big game with the Jersey City Wanderers on Thanksgiving Day afternoon at 3 o'clock, at Riverside park.

The game smacks of all the atmosphere of a big college game with the Wanderers bringing out a large following to root them on to victory. They have a record similar to the Ramblers, they have lost only one game in two seasons.

Dr. Clothier's remarks were home-spun and of the stuff that is a real inspiration for parents who are honestly trying to live up to their responsibilities to their children and to society.
