THE RECORD'S PROGRAM FOR A BETTER RAILWAY

Selection of Councilmen and employees best qualified for the task of running the city, regardless of political affiliation, race or creed.

Maintenance of a non-partisan police commission and a sufficient staff of trained men not controlled by politicians and appointed after competitive examinations open to all as well as Railway residents.

Constant activity of the police against motor code violators, a minimum of suspended sentences and no "ticket cities."

A modern high school with complete equipment and facilities, including a gymnasium.

Formation of an industrial and mercantile commission which will further the interests of Railway and adjacent local business and industry.

Improvement of appearance of railroad station and viaducts.

Initiation of improvement of unsightly buildings, unsightly and private, making the community a more attractive place, schools, churches and public welfare agencies.

Completion of the Union Lake project, including restoration of the terrace and development of surrounding territory into a park and residential site.

Active which will take advantage of the offer of free land for a municipal athletic field and construction of a modern athletic plant on the site as soon as conditions warrant.

Sanity In Voting

The close of the Democratic convention will see the campaign under way in earnest, probably the most momentous in our history. Certainly the most important since the Civil War.

Unfortunately, political campaigns are not always conducted in the best interests of the people. Fundamentals of the American system are at stake. To a great extent we will be voting upon whether we desire to change our system, whether we wish to diminish the power of the individual citizen and the states and to and bitter epithets hurled also is apparent.

Those who will do the voting have a greater obligation than there will be appeals to class hatred, efforts to align one class of citizens against another and bitter epithets hurled also is apparent.

Those who will do the voting have a greater obligation than there will be appeals to class hatred, efforts to align one class of citizens against another and bitter epithets hurled also is apparent.

Only a small percentage of the electorate went to the polls in the hard-fought 1932 campaign. If in 1936 there could be 60,000,000 votes cast instead of 40,000,000 and each voter were to fully realize the sacred right which he was exercising, there would then be little reason to fear for the future of these United States.

Scenes Of Carnage

A writer in a recent issue of American Mercury presented a new and interesting view on the automobile accident problem. He observed that, in the light of present-day conditions, it is not remarkable that 36,000 persons are being killed in traffic accidents annually—but that it is remarkable that the number is not several times as great.

In the average state, almost anyone not completely crippled can obtain a license to drive a car, irrespective of his ability, responsibility, intelligence or judgment. If he chooses, he can operate a car that belongs by the junk heap to the junk heap, and he can drive on feeble or glaring lights, uncertain brakes, and a steering wheel affected with St. Vitus dance. If he drives that car in a dangerous manner, cutting curves, weaving in and out of traffic, and "giving her the gun" whenever possible, the chances are that he will escape arrest—and that if he is arrested, he will be assessed a relatively small fine and permitted to go right on driving. When the inevitable finally occurs, and someone is killed or injured because of his recklessness or incompetence, he may have a harder time getting out of the mess—but that won't bring a dead person to life.

If any progress is to be made in reducing the horrible toll of automobile deaths and injuries, stringent methods must be adopted. Traffic codes must be more modern and enforced with the utmost strictness and impartiality. Much higher qualifications for the issuance of drivers' licenses must be established. And the unsafe automobile, as well as the unsafe driver, must be banished from the road. Otherwise, America's streets and highways will continue to be scenes of carnage.

I think that it might be wise to start with our schools and especially the institutions of higher learning. Perhaps we are too materialistic in our methods of teaching. Instead of teaching students to think with their minds, I feel that we are trying to make them think with their eyes and ears. In plain words, we are trying to think for them. Their views are manufactured views fashioned, in many cases, by the hands of the instructor. If the instructor is suffering from a spiritual ailment, the student is liable to contract the disease. I have no fault to find with the person who has an honest conviction, but I do think that unless the conviction conforms to accepted standards of convention it is much better to reserve it for personal consumption.

However, it would be mighty unfair to place all the blame for the trend away from religious principles entirely upon the shoulders of radical teachers. Our churches are not entirely without fault. Many of them have a confused idea of what constitutes spiritual teaching. They have substituted bigotry and prejudice for religious ideals, and by so doing, have driven many away from the tempering influence of the church. I suppose that I should never have attempted to express my views on a subject so highly controversial in nature as religion. I know that I will be misinterpreted, but I am not trying to conceal anything between the lines. I am not as religious as I would like to be, but I hope some day to attain that state. I am thoroughly in accord with President Angell's appeal for a revival of true religion and I think that now is as good a time as any to start. When times are prosperous we forget, which happens to be just another of our materialistic traits.

Let our teachers and our preachers get together and work in unison. I do not mean to suppress real knowledge if it appears to endanger religion. That is not necessary. It might be well for each one of us to ask ourselves, "Where do thoughts come from and where do they go when they leave us?" Do you know? Well, neither do I. We're pretty small potatoes and if we had no God, we would create one otherwise this thing called civilization could not exist. We must admit that religion is a part of life's fantastic pattern, and who are we to question its importance?

Railway 65 Years Ago

From The New Jersey Advocate—June 16, 1871

The anniversary exercises of the First Baptist Sunday school were postponed last Sabbath on account of the rain and will take place next Sabbath at 3 o'clock. Mr. White, formerly superintendent of the First Baptist Sunday school, will give an interesting blackboard exercise—subject "The Feeding of the Multitudes."

G. T. Harris sold this week a house and lot in New Brunswick, belonging to Rufus N. Edgar, for $12,000; also some unimproved property at $5,000; twelve lots in Elizabeth belonging to H. A. Quackenbush, for $8,000.

The New York Christian Advocate says that a few Sundays since a clergyman in Englewood, Bergen County, desiring to obtain funds to enlarge the edifice, locked all the doors of the church but one, and standing there made all the people pay or promise to pay $5 each for the object.

The promenade concert and festival for the benefit of the Railway Reading Room comes off next Thursday evening at the Washington Hall. Fee $1.

Rev. H. D. Opydyke, pastor of the First M. E. Church, Rahway, will deliver the last of a series of sermons to the young on Sunday, when his subject will be "Alcohol."

Railway 15 Years Ago

From The Railway Record—June 24, 1921

Commencement week culminated last night in the graduation of a class of 31, 30 girls and 21 boys. From the Railway Record—June 24, 1921

One of the most notable programs in Rahway history was held Wednesday night at the Empire Theatre when 57 girls and 51 boys, nearly all of whom will enter high school, graduated from the eighth grade. A capacity audience viewed the proceedings.

The class of 1921 of St. Mary's Parochial School held an excellent class program in St. Mary's Hall yesterday in the presence of parents and friends.

One of the most notable weddings in June took place Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Roberts of 148 Elm avenue, where their daughter, Miss Eleanor Roberts, became the bride of Allan Dale Cioke, son of Mrs. Mary C. Cioke, of this city.

Railway 5 Years Ago

From The Railway Record—June 25, 1931

A total of $2,165 toward the $13,000 maintenance campaign was reported during a meeting of workers held last night in the Y. M. C. A. The meeting, which was alive with enthusiasm, was in charge of Fayette N. Talley, chairman of the drive committee.

Philosophy: Hope is like the sun, which shines only when it is not there. Even when she returns, she is not the same as when she left.

Fishing Note: There are two times when fishing is best—before you get the fish and after you leave.

Advice To Lovelorn: Speaking of terms, in love what you think a girl can do for you is not what she can do for you.

Oscar Says: Deep down in her heart, a woman thinks that there are people who are not as good as she is, and she is not as good as she is.

Collection: A tall collector was trying to get a small account settled. He said: "You can't get out of a collection unless you pay it."

Famous Last Words: "We'll have to wait and see if the lights on the car find their way to the car."

Answers Mr. Kinnally: Editor, The Record. "Having lived in Rahway many years, having seen good things and poor things, I am convinced that the proper course is to let the city alone."

Mrs. Samuel Cassaway was a guest at the home of Mrs. Ernest Kronfeld, 77 Ludlow street, Wednesday afternoon.

The guests were summer after-noon frocks of pastel which were a pleasing picture with the garden and the house.

The fashion show was held in the large amphitheatre on the lawn. The models showed frocks and gowns of all varieties, including ten-ten, evening, and formal afternoon wear, Sunday night dresses and formal evening frocks.

THE LADY has SPOKEN

MILLIONS OF LADIES have called Sheffield Farms to leave an order. (Incidentally, that's one of the handiest ways to start Sheffield.) Each telephone request becomes a royal command. And Sheffield customers never give thought to tomorrow's milk. They know it will arrive, cool and fresh, on time.

Thousands of courteous, trained men with faithful horses and dependable trucks devote their lives to maintaining traditional Sheffield Service... a service that never rests, night or day, in the interests of the vast number of families who look to Sheffield Farms for their daily milk requirements.

Before dawn each day this loyal legion is slipping quickly away from Sheffield loading platforms... their clean wagons and trucks loaded with hundreds of bottles of rich, pure milk.

Thoughtful service to the customer's kitchen is the final flourish in the daily chapter of SHEPHERD MILK. Glistening bottles of SHEPHERD MILK will bring a gracious "good morning" to you, tomorrow. Pick up the telephone and give your order to the nearest Sheffield Branch.

Sheffield Farms pioneered in pasteurization--the development of certified milk--in the introduction of graded milk and in the soft-curd certified milk.

Dodgers Crush Merck Club to Tighten Dusk Loop

Colonia Golf Tournament Moving Toward Finals
Hoblitzell and Jerome Play
In Class A Semi-FinalsTom Kenyon, Herb Mooney and A. H. Dunham
Remain in Running in Upper Bracket

The tournament to decide the spring championship of Colonia Country Club will move into the semi-finals this weekend with two important matches scheduled in the first flight. In these, Tom Kenyon will take on Herb Mooney for the right to oppose A. H. Dunham in the semi-finals while in the lower bracket, Charley Jerome will square off in a match against Bill Hoblitzell.

The winner of the lower bracket will enter the finals. With such favorites as Ray Rehak, last year's champion, Bill Dietz and Doc Armstrong, Kenyon is given an edge over Mooney who is nevertheless highly regarded. Dunham, conqueror of Merck who had previously eliminated Armstrong, is regarded as the hurdle Kenyon must get over to get into the final.

Hoblitzell is given a slight edge because in the lower bracket, although anything can happen in this match as the tournament chairman is touting them high, wide and handsome this season. There will be plenty of action where 14 golfers still remain.

One of the feature matches will be a contest between two majors, Jack Burger of Rahway and Jack Greiner of Woodbridge. Both are in their first-round matches.

Other second-round matches in Class B will pit Otis H. Day against Bob Miller, Jr., Vanhook against Joe Deane, R. H. Howell against L. M. Steele, W. H. Robinson against E. Cleveland and C. Mitchell against Joe Kenna.

J. Edwin Pettit and W. L. Tombs have played their second-round matches and will be tied over the weekend until their opponents choose to play another 18 holes.

Best Eight Matches: Two matches involving the best eight in the championship flight will pair Armstrong and A. S. Vansant and Dunham and A. Talbot and Cliff Woolter.

The best 16 of Class B will pair off in eight matches scheduled for the weekend. Favorites include the following: Ray Rehak, who is expected to win the tournament, will play against Joe Kenna.

Seven players will survive in the first flight of the tournament which started two weeks ago with 51 players entered. Frank Johnson is paired with T. Cannon, P. R. Porman meets J. L. Quinn and Joseph Mark clashes with Ralph Swinton. G. Hattner has won his opening match in this flight and will meet the winner of the Mark-Swinton match for the right to play the upper bracket winner in the final.

Elks Will Honor Newark Pilot

The most important invitation into foreign territory last the pace setting Newark Bears. Before playing on the road, however, the fighting Bruins will play three series on their own grounds, Rupert Stadium, Newark.

The leaders, in order to protect their advantage before going on the road, must annex the majority of the games from the various Orioles, the Albany Senators and the Syracuse Chiefs, who come in order named. The Orioles are still in the thick of the race and many think might move up the set of the chase. The Senators and the Chiefs are the tailenders.

The Orioles came to Newark this week to open their series with an afternoon game.

Touhant Manager Oscar Vitt of the Bears is to be honored by his fellow players in the various leagues in Northern New Jersey. Vitt is a member of the Oakland, California League. It is expected over $3000 will be raised for the principal fundraiser for the district. Vitt is on hand to cheer the Bears in their clash with the Orioles.

Slipping Rahway A. A. Will Clash
With Plainfield and Elmora Here

Rahway will bring its second round schedule to a close in the Union County League with games on local speed track and Sun. Tomorrow the Collingwood clash with the Plainfield club will be the last of the season. Rahway will be met in Rahway River Park.

Plainfield, led by the lead of Crawford and the Elmora A. A. has been the best club in the league this season. The locals are clearly the underdog in this match, but they will try to win.

With an outside chance of placing in the first division of the New Jersey Tennis League, the local tennis team will meet Elmora on the local courts tomorrow.

Hideran is setting the pace for a triangular competition for fourth place honors, with Orange and Elmora the other two vertices. The championship will be decided in the final round.

As a result of tomorrow's matches, Rahway suddenly acquired second place in the league. The Bears are expected to win the tournament.

Seven players will survive in the first flight of the tournament which started two weeks ago with 51 players entered. Frank Johnson is paired with T. Cannon, P. R. Porman meets J. L. Quinn and Joseph Mark clashes with Ralph Swinton.

Pitchers Rapped Hard By Youngsters

The first-half championship of the City Twilight League was a wide open affair today with three teams still owning good chances of taking the title. The Dodgers, without a victory this year, were responsible for the muddled situation. They turned giant killers and crushed the previously unbeaten Merck team by an 8 to 2 score Wednesday night.

The result left the Rahway A. A. the only unbeaten team in the league with Merck and Linden in second place. The Dodgers' victory was a surprise, as they had not won since the start of the season.

Horseshoe Pitching Comes To Rahway

Horseshoe pitching, which is advancing in popularity on the sports stage each year, may soon be a hot sport here in Rahway. From the Union County Park Commission comes word that plans are under way for the construction of six courts in Rahway River Park. Time was when horseshoe pitching was little more than a barnyard sport and because most of the players were in the West, most of the tossing of Dobbin's footware was done in that section of the country. The game has spread to the East and now regular competition is being held throughout the country. Union County now has a league and quite a bit of interest is being built up. The best part of horseshoe pitching is that it requires little equipment. A court and a pair of shoes is all that is needed. It is suitable to young and old alike and affords plenty of excitement for player and spectator.

FABLES IN SLANG

YOU TWO LOVE—HAVEN'T I—ANYTHING TO SAY—CHEER UP!—I'VE GOT A DIVORCE—

Just the girl for you, I like to wonder. You two love—haven't I—anything to say? Cheer up! I've got a divorce.

Just the girl for you, I like to wonder. You two love—haven't I—anything to say? Cheer up! I've got a divorce.
