Rahway police were out in full force Saturday night, anticipating a visit from Linden rooters. The Lindenites, 150 strong, started the trek to Rahway but police broke them up on the city line. Police report they had more trouble with Rahway enthusiasts who lined the streets waiting for a Linden visit. The locals were armed with fruit ranging from pineapples to small green tomatoes and police collected much of the ammunition and took it to headquarters. Four youths break them or give them up. They proke 'em and ate them, assuring
