ECONOMY, THE MAYOR'S WATCHWORD

The statement of Mayor David Armstrong, in his communication to the Common Council, that "economy in our finances is imperative in view of the additional burden of heavy taxation facing the country," will receive the hearty approval of every citizen in Rahway.

One of the strangest anomalies of modern times is instead of applying the same rules with which business in general is always conducted, exercising prudence, economy and sound judgment as to the investment, whatever goes through. It is really nothing more nor less than polite racketeering, and so much of this has been and is being done today
