OUR HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY

The city of Rahway probably holds the largest high school faculty to be found in the state of New Jersey, in proportion to the number of students attending. It has 50 active members on the staff, with seven instructors in military service, leaves of absence, or return to their school duties as soon as the war is over.

The possibilities, thus revealed, for the boys and girls of Rahway, perhaps have never been pointed out to them so clearly as they are today.

An analysis of the faculty page in the Allegro, shows 10 instructors in English, with two on leave; seven in mathematics, geography, the languages, the sciences, the industrial arts, history, social studies, the arts and crafts, chemistry, home economics and mechanics. This is a marvelous array of educational facilities, that does not have many members on its faculty as the Rahway High school.

However, what should interest every student that is graduating this week from the high school, is the fact that there is a possibility of opportunity to take two years of junior college work right here at home, and thus save the expense of going away to school.

A glance over the list of subjects taught, makes it appear to be altogether possible, in credits obtained on a high school diploma, aside from those necessary for a high school diploma. But, if not all can be secured in this way, probably it can be arranged to obtain these credits through the present faculty members.

In the Rahway faculty there are two teachers of European history, besides other leaves also two teachers of mathematics, and one on leave, one of whom probably could teach higher mathematics on to calculus, three teachers of Latin, one of whom might be able to teach Latin above Virgil; and four teachers of modern languages, teachers in English there would certainly be found those who could provide an advanced course on modern writers of English; and there are four instructors of science subjects, with two on leave, teaching biology and chemistry, both of which are college subjects, as well as each of the other subjects mentioned.

As long as the Rahway High school has these men and women, qualified, no doubt, to teach these advanced subjects, why should not a special effort be made to see that the students of Rahway receive every advantage of the high school to keep our boys and girls at home one or two years more before they need to go away to complete their college training?

OLD GLORY

One hundred and sixty-six years ago next Monday Old Glory was given official sanction as the flag of the United States.

It was the Continental Congress, in session on June 14, 1777, that passed the resolution, declaring "the flag of the United States shall be of stripes, alternate red and white; and the union shall be 13 stars, white, in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

Thus, for over a century and a half, the United States has had a flag of which it could not only be proud, but the beauty of which is beyond the flag of any other nation in the world.

The American flag has had a wonderful history throughout these years. It stood for liberty and independence during many years in which it was somewhat uncertain whether it would be permitted to survive. But the outcome of the Revolutionary war established the right of the United States to the flag of freedom from religious persecutions and restrictions.

When the union was threatened and another flag sought to supersede it in the '60's, again it stood as the symbol of a united nation, no longer half slave and half free, but having all its citizens free and equal, with but one government and one flag.

It carried freedom to the land of Cuba in 1898; and in the first World War, kept imperishable from triumphing over those who believed that authority came only from the consent of the governed.

And today, over the world wherever the Axis powers have unfurled their flag of despotism, dictation and tyranny, the American flag, with an Army and Navy ten million strong, backed by 132,000,000 of its citizens, leads unnumbered columns of roaring tanks and great waves of bombing planes to declare that liberty is an inalienable right in all the earth, and that no man shall deprive another of it.

The American flag had its birth in the Constitution of the United States, and guarantees the enforcement of that document. Wherever the flag is unfurled the Constitution of the United States and all those laws that are framed according to its provisions "must be enforced."

No citizen of this Union is worthy the protection Old Glory affords who has not buckled on his constitutional sword in defense of that flag.

just between you and me

What followed? A month later, October 3, James F. Byrnes ordered wages frozen as of September 15, and all salaries above $5,000, with a ceiling on those over $25,000. Leon Henderson ordered rents to be frozen and farm prices to be stabilized as of September 15, and on January 6, President Roosevelt requested legislation to collect $16,000,000,000 by taxation.

What has happened to this anti-inflation program? Not a single requirement except that of rents, the least important, has been met. Wages have been climbing, merely by leaps and bounds, even though President Roosevelt declared a ceiling—49 percent above the "little steel formula," was as high as wages could go, with John L. Lewis defying the Government to prevent his men from receiving $2 more per day, 50,000 workmen on strike in the rubber plants, who went back to work last week, only when they were assured that the wage increase would be arbitrated and would be retroactive; over a million railroad employees have asked for a 20 percent increase in wages, and while 8 percent has been assured them, they are not satisfied, and a statement in a daily paper last week declared "there are no more strikes in the United States."

The ceiling measure of $5,000 for salaries has been repealed and farmers are being granted increased prices for all products, in keeping with the "little steel formula" of the nation for the year. The government has been forced to pay for the war, in spite of an over-whelming demand of the nation for the year. The plan, which has been delayed now six months, but is to go into effect July 1, with only a slight modification.

The fact is, that the perfect anti-inflation plan, that would have kept the nation on an even keel, had it been thrown overboard, so that there is nothing now but a derailing inflation on steadily increasing. The Ruml plan will add a little in holding it back.

But notice what must be overcome. There is now $40,000,000,000 more purchasing power than there are goods that the people are going to buy. Furthermore, whenever the Government sells bonds, as in the $13,000,000,000 drive, and $8,000,000,000 is purchased by the banks, the banks do not pay out currency for those bonds as the people do, they are merely charged with them, and the U. S. Treasury pays its bills by making checks against these banks, which, instead of deflating the checking deposits, actually inflates them by exactly $8,000,000,000. That is, why, instead of allowing banks to buy bonds, only those that cannot be sold to the public, should be taken over and purchased by the banks. That is the reason the Ruml plan is so necessary.

Subsidies, costing $10,000,000,000, are being proposed to pay the farmer the extra cost of production, because of increasing wages in the manufacturing of farm implements, etc., and in marketing the farm products, so as to Great Britain are holding down inflation by this plan, but in this there is danger. Subsidies is really inflation in disguise, for the simple reason that they guarantee the producer his profits, which tends to encourage him to extend the public to buy and not more money in circulation, which is exactly what must be avoided, if there is any danger of inflation.

Congress should not let all expenses to the bone, taxes should be doubled, to prevent any more money being put into circulation, that is actually necessary to carry on the government, thereby squeezing out of the pockets of the general public the $40,000,000,000 the nation now has on hand to spend and can't, yet, for the opportunity, the people are all waiting; all wages and prices should be frozen—and rolled back as of September, 1941, if such a freeze were possible—and, as near as possible, an absolute pay-as-you-go plan of running the Government and carrying on the war, with bonds sold to the public and not to the banks, should be set up.

A withholding tax, in addition to an increased general tax, should be placed as high as possible, so as to practically absorb all the surplus money the $4,000,000,000 of this country are making, above their savings, while ceilings on the profits of manufacturers should be carefully established to avoid any excess profits, such as has characterized many government contracts already in this war.

For economy and efficiency the selection of James E. Byrnes, as "War Production Chief," is the wisest step made since the war began, and for which we probably have Winston Churchill to thank. No other person could have been able to induce President Roosevelt to take that step and create a five-man War Mobilization committee.

Inflation is licked, if Mr. Byrnes and his board are determined to lick it. But it is possible only at a tremendous sacrifice on the part of every farmer, merchant, manufacturer and individual of this nation.

History of Rahway From Record Files

Rahway 55 Years Ago

There were one or two things about last week's reunion of the veterans of the War, which were too significant to deny Hayes, a silence which was more remarkable because President Hayes was himself a soldier, and a member of the Army of the Potomac. On the other hand every student to General Grant was cheered with an enthusiastic devotion, and if he could have been here, he would have been the idol of the assembly. It was further noted that General McClellan is now a forgotten hero, Sherman,

Common Sense FOR THE DURATION

Grant, Sheridan, Hancock, Burnside and Hooker are now the military heroes whom the veterans delight to honor.

Word has been received of the safe arrival overseas of Sergeant William Gage, Bruce McWhinney, Wilbur Russell, Andrew Broberg and Charles Knick, who are connected with an ambulance unit.

A Mercy Committee has been formed to devote the greater part of their time to making surgical dressings for the government hospital at Colonia.
