Cor. of Cherry & Campbell Street,

"SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER."

"Psha! what matters his name to me! Gisela, I may as well tell you at once that this portrait is the cause of my sudden visit. The story of your romantic introduction to the artist has reached on ears, coupled with a rumor that you have refused your neighbor, Lord Nettlecombe, after a twelvemonth's wooing. What does it mean?"

"It means that I would not marry Lord Nettlecombe if he were to woo me a hundred years, instead of one!" she answered, vehemently.

"It means that I should sell myself a second time? I did it once, and so to believe that I should sell myself a second time? I did it once, and so to grace the head of his trust the sast which make it of more rested Lady rather of Lady Crewe?" he added, stepping nearer in his eagerness, with a wistful petition in his added, stepping nearer in his eagerness, with the background stood the artist himself, furtively comparing his completed work with the fair original beside him.

I add Castlewood, finished at last. The added to much, Lady Crewe?" he added, stepping nearer in his eagerness, with a wistful petition in his added, stepping nearer in his eagerness, with a wistful petition in his dark eloquent eyes.

Her cheek blanched, her fingers began to fidget nervonsly with the bracelet on her arm. How hard it was to speak!

"It pains me to refuse you," she said, slowly, stealing a glance at his good-night. The light of it falls upon her sweet, fair face and ruffled bodice and delicate lace, and plays on the folds of the gorgeous skirt, stiff with richness and dignity.

"It am so sorry the sittings are solved; they have been very pleasant. Even Snowball has quite mjoyed them."

She stood before him pale and trembling in her gorgeous dress, with downcast eyes she dared not raise to the fair or and the sax did to more, and she caused to much. Rupture

Its relief and cure as certain as day follows day by Dr. J. A. SHERMAN'S method without the injury trusses inflict, hindrance from labor or danger of inflamed or strangulated rupture, of which thousands die yearly. No one is safe with rupture and truss; both are a physical and mental tax, ruin the nervous system, induce kidney, bladder and other organic aliments which affect general health more than age or latior, besides affecting manhood and destroying all incentives to social pleasure. These distressing aliments, by Dr. Sherman's trratment, are avoided, and where they exist removed in patients of any age. No man is safe who has a rupture, though everyone who has died from it feit so. The horrors of strangulated rupture are equaled only by hydrophobia. Since the reduction of Dr. Sherman's tromes thousands are coming from all parts of the country for treatment, even those examined years ago. Patients from abroad can receive treatment and leave for home same day. HOOD & Co.: Gentleme  • • My youngest son has always been troubled with Scrofulous Humor; sores in his head discharging from his ears, and a riming sore on the back of his ear for two years; his cyclids would fester and ulcerate, years; his eyelids would fester and ulcerate, discharging so that I was oblized to wish them open every morning, his eyelashes nearly all coming out; he was exceedingly dainty, most of the time eating but two slight meals a day. We were unable to find anything that had the least effect upon him till last spring, 1876, we gave him two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla. His appetite improved at once. • • The back of his ear healed up without a sear, and not a sore in his head since. Bincerely yours,

"We do not as a rule allow ourselves to use our editorial columns to speak of any remedy we advertise, but we feel warranted in saying a word for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sarsaparilla has been known as a remedial agent for centuries and is recognized by all schools of practice as a valuable blood purifier. It is put up in forms of almost inmite variety, but Messrs, Hood & Co., (Lowell, Mass.) who are thoroughly reliable pharmacists, have, hit upon a remedy of unusual value. Certainly they have vouchers of cures which we know to be most extraor. dinary."—Editors Lowell Weekly Journal.
