Cour vote varies so widely that with favorable conditions there is always a chance for the republicans to hope for success. In 1876 on the electoral vote there was a democratic majority of 12,484; in 1880 it was 2,010. In 1880 the democratic Governor was elected by a majority of 6,809. In 1880 the total vote polled was over 245,000; in 1883 a trifle over 208,000. "Hardly that, madam, but what do you refer to?"

"Way sir, this passage in the oblituary where you say the was consigned to a roasting place with his fathers."

"Ahem, madam, ahem; let me see," and the editor grabbed tile paper and the democrats on a full vote cast about him, except that he had been in his place several times. returns of the last ten years show that the democrats on a full vote cast about him, except that he had been 123,000 hallots. From these data it is clear that the heavier the vote the more likely are the republicans to win. If therefore at the next election the republican candidates are sufficiently popular to call out a full republican vote in this State the chances of their success are at least enough to encourt.

It can thus be seen that if any import to come back," said Detective Smith, "in ance is to be attached to the electoral vote the presence of Officer Boylan," of New Jersey it is a matter of consequence to nominate men amrinatively popular among us. There probably is quite a say so, although Officer Boylan also said difference of opinion among us when we talk about names; but all will agree that to sees the qualifications necessary to call out the full republican vote, and in addition to secure, say fifteen hundred out of the one hundred and twenty-three thousand demonstrates.

The man still declared that he did not the say so, although Officer Boylan also said that he did. He said that he could identify the man who went out with Mr. Kennedy at any time. The Judge was not satisfied at any time. The Judge was not satisfied to see the candidates must post with his statement and remanded him to other young man, who was arrested on the full republican vote, and in addition to suspicion, was brought out, but could not be identified by the old farmer.

The man still declared that he did not that he did not would identify the man who went out with Mr. Kennedy "No, not exactly: I am going to be married next week, and I would like you to perform the ceremony."

A troubled look came over the face of the minister as he replied:

"He was taller than this one," said Kenady, "and I never remember seeing this appoint some other clergyman in my stead secure, say fifteen hundred out of the one hundred and twenty-three thousand demonstratic votes.

Now if this view is correct we can at once eliminate several names. Blane could not get a single democratic vote. Besides, there is a small but determited class of republicans that hold him in high regard but fear that those bold and brilliant qualities that gave him such personal magnetism as a member of the House might be too impulsive in a President. Logan would be strong perhaps with the soldier element, but our conservatives don't regard him as carry.

Suspicion, was prought out, but could not but could not be identified by the old farmer.

"He was taller than this one," said Kennedy, was discharged at once. "I've been here once for trouble with my wife," he said as he walked out, "but I don't know what I was arrested for last night."

Mr. Kennedy was told that he would have to stay in the lock-up for some time. Yet it is not by any means impossible that this vote may decide the election. Generally speaking, the State is demogratic. Its last republican Governor was elected in 1865. The last republican electoral ticket that succeeded was in 1879. Indeed we believe that was the only time our State ever gave its electoral vote for a Republican President.

Dear Sirs—I have suffered frim kidney complaint and biliousness for infleen years. Have tried everything and never got any good. Last January, before I commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparall-La, everything I ate bloated me all up, pain in my chest and arms, headache and dizzy. I could not get up without feeling weary and all fagged out. Many mornings I was obliged to lie down on the lounge. To do any work seemed almost impossible. Have taken two bottles. The backache, dizziness, pain in my chest and arms, and that feeling of intense wehriness are all gone. I can eat anything and it does not press me at all. Feel just like work; in fact, like a new man. Can heartly recommend Hood's Sahsaparalla, and hope all who desire to know anything about it will come to me and ask what I think of it. Very truly yours.
