ROSIE Beckenstein Found:—On Thursday Inform Elizabeth, called on Officer Cleorge Conger to get him to assist in inding Rosie, the seventeen year old daughter in good hands. She returned to Rosie, canned from a girl with whom Rosie was intimate, that the missing girl was in New York, somewhere in Carmine street, at a Mrs.

Offenbach's Dancing Without? a Master, and Ball-Room Manual,—As it is not always convenient to have recourse to a teacher of dancing this work aims to supply the denciency. In this it has been very successful. By a series of practical and hueld instructions, the BURNS, SUNBURNS, DIARRHEA, CHAFf bractical and lucid Instructions, ti art of Danding is so simplified that any one can become predicted in the art without the aid of a master. Injuddition to specific detailed instrucmaster. Injudition to specific defauted matric-tions as to how to dance, it gives some very val-uable information relating to organizing a ball-ball-room, toilet, etiquette of the ball-room, manuging and arranging the bull-room. All the popular dances are given, and the whole is illus-trated by humorous cuts and diagrams. Price, post-paid. THE WONDER OF HEALING!
