GENERAL NEWS.
MURDER.—A shocking homicide occurred in Philadelphia Tuesday at noon, the victim being a young Irish girl, who has been only a few years in this country. Her slayer, John Caldwell, a married man, whose wife is in an insane asylum, who was very drunk when he committed the crime.

No one witnessed the killing, the girl must have died instantly and the man remembers nothing of the circumstances.

All of the facts which are known are that Caldwell, who is a painter, aged 36, and boards in a room adjoining that of the murdered girl, left the house early. He returned greatly under the influence of liquor and asked the landlady if he could rest for awhile. After a few minutes of further conversation she said: "Where is Mary?" He was informed that she was upstairs. The poor girl occupied the third-story front of the house, and Monday being a holiday where she was employed, she was at home in her room. She was a quiet person and very generally respected. She had occupied the third story front room, separated from that of Caldwell, when the latter's wife lived with him, before she was adjudged insane and sent to an asylum.

Without a word of reply, Caldwell at once mounted to the third floor. He had been gone perhaps five minutes, when an explosion was heard from above, followed instantly by piercing screams. No one had heard a word uttered.

Mrs. McKoon, the housekeeper, rushed up stairs, where she was confronted by Caldwell, who held an old army musket in his hand, and was looking wildly from his room through the doorway into Miss Kelly's room.

Mrs. McKoon exclaimed: "Have you shot Mary?" To which Caldwell replied: "Yes, I did, and if I had another load in the gun I would shoot you." At this the woman ran down stairs, and in a few minutes the police arrived and arrested Caldwell with the murderous weapon in his hands.

The unfortunate girl was found lying dead on the floor of her room, with a bullet through her abdomen, which caused almost instant death. Caldwell was staggering with drink.

The motive for the crime cannot be explained by any one who is acquainted with either the victim or her slayer. The woman bore a perfectly good character. Caldwell was known to be on friendly terms with her, but to improper intimacy is suggested.

It is supposed that the girl spoke sharply to Caldwell about his drunken condition, when he in a drunken fit picked up the musket and shot her. Up to midnight, last night he had not regained consciousness, and could not talk about the affair.

Caldwell, who is a painter, is a very industrious, but when drunk is very violent. Some time ago he stabbed a policeman who attempted to arrest him when he was drunk, and is said to have killed a man in New Jersey in a drunken fit seventeen years ago, and was convicted of manslaughter, but was subsequently pardoned.

A RUM-MAKING SELLING.—J. F. Edward Mitchell, a resident of Tarentum, Pa., has been drinking to excess for some time, and in consequence has had numerous quarrels with his wife and the members of the family. He went to the office of a Justice of the Peace and tried to induce the magistrate to enter an information against his wife. He was unsuccessful, and was greatly incensed in consequence. Going home he compelled a young son to turn a grindstone while he put a keener edge on a hatchet, and then returned to an outbuilding, locking the door after him. He then deliberately placed his left arm on a block, and with one blow severed it at the wrist, expecting to bleed to death before assistance could be summoned. Two of his children forced open the door and found him weltering in blood and almost dead from exhaustion. He will probably die.

THREE CHILDREN BURNED.—On Brier Hill, a suburb of Youngstown, Ohio, on Sunday night four children of Mrs. Ann Murphy, aged four, three, two and one, were burned to death. The children were playing with a match and set fire to a pile of straw. The children were rescued, but the youngest, a boy aged one, died. The other three, a girl aged three, and a boy aged two, were badly burned, but the flesh peeled off their bodies, and they died within an hour. The fourth and eldest child jumped from the second-story window and escaped with slight burns. Mrs. Murphy says there was no fire or light in the room. It is supposed that an Italian neighbor playfully threw a lighted stump of a cigar in at the children when retiring.

SHE AXED HER FATHER.—James Burgis, a negro, of Franklin County, Ga., had two young daughters. While the girls were preparing to go to church, Sunday, a dispute arose between them about the ownership of some article of wearing apparel. Their noisy demonstrations attracted the attention of their father, who, after investigation, decided that Lulu, aged 17, was the one in fault. He took her aside for punishment, and was fogging her, when Martha, her sister, caught him by the arm and pulled him away. Lulu, finding herself released, grew furious, and grasping an axe, slipped up to her father, who had his back to her, and buried the axe in his head. He died three hours afterward. At the inquest the maddest act was attested by looking at the dead body of her father without a quiver.

TRADE DOLLARS.—Senator Cameron's resolution discharging the Finance Committee from further consideration of the bill for the retirement and redemption of the trade dollar was defeated in the Senate yesterday. Mr. Cameron then introduced a joint resolution directing the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase the trade dollar to an amount not to exceed $40,000,000 in its face value, paying therefor standard silver dollars, provided the purchase be made prior to September 1st, 1894. Mr. Morrill objected to its present consideration, and the joint resolution went over.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., July 1.—Charles Spurlock, implicated with the Hill boys in the murder of young Alvin Woods and the shooting of Jack Woods in the latter part of May last, appeared in the Circuit Court this morning and pleaded guilty to murder in the first degree. The Hills were both lynched. This leaves Spurlock's case in the hands of Judge Guthrie. Death or the penitentiary for life will be his lot.

KILLED WHILE SAVING HER MOTHER.—At Helena, Mont., yesterday afternoon, Mrs. C. E. Kemp, while ill, and in great pain, was attempted to shoot herself. Her daughter Ellen, nearly twenty years old, tried to take the pistol from her, and in the struggle it was discharged. The bullet passed through the daughter's brain, and instantly killed her.

MOVEMENTS OF OAKMAN.—The four-acted crew which is to compete in the Fourth of July Regatta at Boston, viz., Nagle, Vall, Danvers and Jones, left for the city yesterday. Wallace Koon also left yesterday for Oak Point, N. Y. He received a letter on Saturday announcing that Teemer had covered his debt.
