I WANT TO HEAR ONE GOOD REASON FOR DIVIDING THE WARD.—PUT THAT UNDER YOUR TONGUES AND CHW ON IT.—Senator Councilman, Third Ward.

Trenton draws a deep sigh of relief at the temporary respite granted.

Senator Schenck's term expires this year.
In all probability the senator will politically expire along with his term.

With our contemporary's kind permission we will use its war slogan, altering the type slightly a little.

April showers and March winds make up the mixture furnished us the last few days by the eccentric clerk of the weather.

The fashionable world after its long Leuten rest is prepared to plunge more wildly than ever into the excesses of gayety.

The Republicans are well pleased with the ticket nominated at the convention last night. The names on the ward tickets will add strength to the whole. The candidate for Mayor needs no words of encouragement as his record is known to every citizen and it is doubtful whether the strongest man our opponents can name can beat him.

The effort to move the state capital to Newark resulted in a compromise. A bill was passed to the effect that the Governor, Secretary of State, Comptroller and Treasurer, be appointed a commission to repair the old building at a cost not to exceed $50,000, and that this commission report plans to the next Legislature for the erection of a new capitol either at Trenton or Newark.

The President has violated in not a few instances his declarations that he would not turn out faithful, honest and competent office holders to make room for to-be-rewarded Democrats. His treatment by the Republican Senate in the way of confirmations has certainly been most courteous and only in glaringly flagrant instances have his nominations been rejected or laid over. The treatment he will receive at the hands of the Senate in this matter will depend largely on the manner in which he exercises his right of temporary appointment during the interim. If he acts up to his professions he will be cordially supported by the Senate, but if his actions show his professions to be mere humbug-gery the Republican Senators can be relied on to exercise that salutary check, which the welfare of the nation shall demand.

A DILEMMA.

Gen. Black, Commissioner of Pensions, caught a Tartar when he tackled Miss Ada C. Sweet. United States Pension Agent at Chicago. Miss Sweet was first appointed by President Grant on April 16, 1874, and backed by popular sentiment in her favor, has been twice reappointed. On Saturday she received the following telegram:

"WASHINGTON, April 4.—Will you send to this office your resignation to take effect on June 30. You will readily appreciate the fact, which I gladly state, that there is no reason personal to yourself or to your management of your office which induces this request. I am, very respectfully yours, JOHN C. BLACK, Commissioner.

Please reply."

To this she immediately replied that she could not resign in justice to herself, and since it was conceded that the request for resignation was groundless, she declined to resign. She also sent the following dispatch to the President:

"The Commissioner of Pensions telegraph me today asking me to send him my resignation as United States Pension Agent, to take effect June 30, 1885. At the same time he declares that no reason personal to myself, or to my management of my office, induces the request. My commission from the President runs for four years, my term not ending until April 16, 1888. I have performed all the duties of my office with an eye single to the interests confided to my charge. Consistent with this I do not wish to resign, and I know of no reason why I should take action that might seem to be voluntary, when in reality it would be taken under protest. Very respectfully, your obedient servant, ADA C. SWEET.

United States Pension Agent."

THE PEOPLE'S VOICE.

expressing honest opinions, respecting the right to elect those of a different or maliciously abusive character. Correspondents must furnish confidentially their names and addresses as a guarantee of good faith.]

A DEMOCRATIC FALL.

Mr. Editor: "Lo! What a fall was there, my countrymen."
This quotation naturally came into my mind upon reading the reply to Councilman Gay's article by the editor of the Democrat this week. Can it be the same writer who only last week was lashing himself so furiously and who with such virtuous indignation "hurled the charge back in his teeth" that he had been guilty of misrepresentation? Is it the same who with such a blood and thunder shout launched out the defiant challenge to Mr.
G. and his "associate agitators," to point out one single solitary individual in the wherein he had ever "misrepresented" any party or individual, and when the challenge is accepted and a few of the many cases of misrepresentation that can be quoted are "hurled" back at him, meets them in the following manly (?) style?

"The second chapter of (political) Matthew (according to the latest revision) appears in the Advocate of Wednesday.
As the signature to this chapter is M. T.
(empty G), it is possibly the last chapter." He probably desires it to be the "last chapter," for a more complete annihilation of a unbecome article than that by Mr.
Gay in his reply has seldom been met with and the usually urbane and judicial editor will do better in the future to confine his articles to their long established character of humorous and personal only, not overlooking the ennobling occupation of manufacturing puns on the names of the objects of his attacks. In this he excels, but when endeavoring to debate or argue on questions of fact he labors under a great disadvantage. Still he should be dealt with gently; his mission is to support his party through thick and thin, right or wrong, and in defending them from the effective attacks of those he calls "agitators," etc. he is but following out the "Constitution and the laws." Meanwhile I trust the gentlemen who are the subject of the humor and personalism of the Democrat will continue to worry our rulers for their shortcomings and keep this matter of the mismanagement of the roads before the people until the spring election, when they will have an opportunity to rebuke that extravagance which has spent nearly $10,000 on road account with so very little to show for it during the past three years.

Respectfully Yours,
A CITIZEN.

LET PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH REPORTS.

We have received the reports of the 1st Presbyterian Church for the year ending March 31, 1885. The Treasurer's report shows a balance of $120.35 and the total debt of church to be $216.63. During the past year the interest bearing debt has been decreased $700.00. The receipts from the Cemetery have been $1604.17 and there remains a balance to this account of $391.
97. The Ladies' Missionary Society's receipts were $27.00 of which $23.35 was paid to the home board and $3.65 to the foreign board. The amount received by the Sunday School from May 17, 1884 March 31, 1885 was $269.54, of which there remains a balance of $54.41. The Centennial Association reports the amount of subscriptions at $10,201.65, of which $1,023.90 is unpaid. The books of the board of deacons show a balance of $23.
98. The Ladies' Association has received $489.30 and has a balance of $37.86. The receipts of the Ladies' Sewing Society have been $69.70 of the Sharon Mission Band $200.34, and of the Memorial Mission Band $31.02.

EASTER SERVICES AT ST. PAUL'S.

There were very large congregations at the three services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church on Easter Sunday. The church was most artistically decorated with white flowers. The lectern and communion table were trimmed with amaranth, palms, and Easter and calla lilies. A large collected plants was one of the chief floral ornaments. On the communion table was a magnificent azalea in growth. The gas fixtures were trimmed with amaranth. The general effect of the whole was beautiful.

The elaborate programme of music published in our last issue, was well rendered by the choir under the direction of Mr.
John M. Tufts, Jr., who presided at the organ. In the afternoon, the children of the Sunday school held their Easter festival in the church. The banners of the different classes were erected in the church, and the children marched in procession from the Sunday school room. The carols were sung with that hearty good will always to be expected from boys and girls.
At the evening service the music included Bach's Cantata in G, Bach's "Benedictus," and selections from Dudley Buck's "Glorias."

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republican city convention was held at Chamberlin's Hall last night. Mr.
John D. Chapin was called to the chair and Mr. H. T. Gay was chosen secretary.
The following candidates were nominated by acclamation: For Mayor—J. K. F. Mansfield.
For Water Commissioner—William Howard, Edward Martin.
For School Commissioner—George Bechler.

For Coroner—Dr. C. B. Holmes.
For Assessor—L. Bodwell, 2d district, Jas. H. Clark.

The following were named by the wards as members of the city executive committee: 1st ward, David J.
Bunn; 2nd ward, W. E. Clark; 3d ward, H. C. Carman; 4th ward, W. R. Frazee.
On motion it was decided to appoint a committee consisting of the officers of the convention and one from each ward, which should have power to fill all vacancies that might occur. The committee appointed was as follows: John D. Chapin, M. T.
Gay, W. E. Clark, B. A. Vall, G. P. Edgar, and J. L. Bodwell.
The secretary was directed to notify the candidates of the nomination.

A WALKING SKELETON.

Mr. E. Springer, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., writes: "I was afflicted with lung fever and abscess of the lungs, and was unable to walk. I bought a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and after using three bottles, found myself once more a man, completely restored to health, with a hearty appetite, and again in flesh of 140 lbs." Call

BROUGHT HOME IN A WAGON.

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—Mr. J. Helms, Vice President of the City Brewery, was brought home in a wagon, carried up stairs by two of his men and laid on the bed. He was suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism contracted in the ice vaults of the brewery.
He refused to have a doctor, but dispatched a servant for a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, with the result that in one week he was entirely cured and able to return to his desk.

That Tired Feeling

The warm weather has a debilitating effect, especially upon those who are within doors most of the time. The peculiar, yet common, complaint known as "that tired feeling," is the result. This feeling can be entirely overcome by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives new life and strength to all the functions of the body.

"I could not sleep; had no appetite. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon began to sleep soundly; could get up without that tired and languid feeling; and my appetite improved." R. A. SANFORD, Kent, Ohio.

Strengthen the System

Hood's Sarsaparilla is characterized by three peculiarities: 1st, the combination of remedial agents; 2d, the proportion; 3d, the process of securing the active medicinal qualities. The result is a medicine of unusual strength, effecting cures hitherto unknown.
Send for containing additional evidence.
"Hood's Sarsaparilla tones up my system, purifies my blood, sharpens my appetite, and seems to make me over." J. L. THOMPSON, Register of Deeds, Lowell, Mass.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla beats all other, and is worth its weight in gold." I. BARKINGTON, Messrs. WILKINSON, GADDIS & CO., Gentlemen—In reference to the Commerce Flour, it is the best I have ever used. It is fine, and overcomes everything in the line of flour in the market. In one word it is "unexcelled" and cannot be matched, and it defies competition.

Yours, respectfully,
EDWARD SIMON.

It is noticed and remarked that the "Commerce" Flour always has a rich creamy color and that it will produce more than the same quantity of ordinary flour. For this reason the "Commerce" is cheaper to the consumer than the ordinary flour that is generally sold at about the same price. In a word it is the "poor man's" as well as the "ch-man's" flour.

Be sure to get the GENUINE "COM. BR." which is always branded as follows:—
