THE INDICTMENTS FOR LIBEL UPON EX-SENATOR VAIL.

The Newark Daily gives the following very correct abstract of the evidence offered upon the trial of the first of the above indictments...

There is serious regret that the prosecution of the Newark county libel indictments was so greatly hampered by the strange rulings of the Common Pleas Judge, before whom they were tried...

Just now it is not Mr. Vail but those charged with the preparation and administration of criminal justice in Union County who are on trial at the bar of public opinion...

The Rev. Mr. Beecher is delivering a series of sermons on evolution. Of these sermons the Truth Seeker, an avowed infidel journal, says...

At the undertakers' convention in New York, the other day, a minister prayed for the success of the association. We hope that Providence in its mercy will not answer this prayer.

The new word "Shool," you have given us and all a three-fold measure of compliance and pleasure. We must say that if it were possible for any one to manufacture a pun...

By a law passed at the last session of the Legislature chap. 97, overseers of the high ways may use broken stones as well as gravel for repairs. When they cannot procure these, the township committees may procure them at a cost not exceeding ten per cent of the whole amount of road tax assessed in that year...

It is greatly to be doubted whether Mrs. Stewart's attempt to establish a cathedral town in the United States, after the pattern of those existing in England, will prove a success. Garden City is certainly not large enough to support the cathedral and its adjuncts in the way of patronage...

The Hon. Charles A. Dana, ex-Assistant Secretary of War; the Hon. Hugh McCulloch, ex-Secretary of the Treasury; the Hon. Elihu B. Washburne, ex-Senator; the Hon. Leonard Sweet (Mr. Lincoln's former law partner), Judge Lawrence Weldon and General McClellan are among the writers who are to contribute to the New York Tribune a series of papers embodying their reminiscences of the character and policy of Abraham Lincoln...

Gen. McClellan's idea of the cause of the war, as it appears from his Decoration Day speech at Antietam, is that "it was brought and even made necessary by the extremities of both sides." It strikes us that this is a very cowardly and untrue way of putting it...

The New Jersey Democratic press candidly admits that it is in favor of the doctrine that "to the victor belong the spoils." The distributors seem to be withholding them because the supply of victor spoils appears to be greater than the supply of victor spoils...

That old traitor Jeff Davis is down with the blues and thinks the country he loves so well is going to a "democratic dog." He thinks the people love not the dear old constitution as they used to before the war. Coming from such a source the prophecy is particularly valuable.

Keiley is running in hard. Now the Viennese have put their backs up, and say that they have been insulted in having sent to them a man who was not good enough to be sent to another court. He will be received officially, they say, but socially it will be very cold for Mr. and Mrs. K.

The Reform Democratic Administration is opposed to an active partisan holding office, of course. Yet all the same the chairman of the Democratic Congressional committee has just been appointed. Register of the Treasury. Manning, somehow, seems a sort of active partisan office holder too.

The great type setting match in New York, on Thursday, between McCann of the Herald and Somers of the World, resulted in the victory of the former, he having succeeded in setting 9,350 ems of solid mason in three hours, to his opponent's 6,075. Both of these scores beat the record.

The business stringency is shown very forcibly by the falling off of $2,000,000 in the United States revenue collections in ten months. We have had the change in administration, now when is the promised change in business prospects coming?

Fred Archer, the great English jockey, rode his fourth Derby winner on Wednesday. It is safe to say that on that day he and Lord Hastings, the owner of the winner, were the most famous men in Great Britain, so great is the importance attached to this annual sporting event.

New Brunswick and Jersey City have neither of them the ghost of a show of having the State capitol. Jersey City's ball nine is last in the race for the Eastern League pennant and New Brunswick has no professional ball nine at all. The choice lies clearly between Trenton and Newark.

Mark Twain is said to be worth $425,000. The old saying should have a supplement added, so as to read, "Laugh and grow fat; make people laugh and grow rich."

The Cincinnati Enquirer thinks that "Democrats are cheated by the infamous Civil Service law." The Democratic press is furnishing hundreds of clippings for use in the next campaign. By their own words they will be condemned.

Another bank official has danced the Canada quickstep to the tune of $180,000. This time the staunch old Manhattan Company was the victim. It is fortunate that the loss fell on one so well able to bear it.

Carter Harrison has ordered the Chicago gamblers to close their places. They do not, however, scare for a cent and continue fleecing the lambs as usual. They have been under his rule for four years and they know their man.

An embelizer is a thief in all reason, yet under the treaty a man can be extradited for stealing, but not for embelizing. This is a crying evil and should be remedied at once by an amendment of the treaty.

During a term of eight years as City Judge of Plainfield, Mr. P. P. Good, says that 1138 cases were brought before him of which 1,011 were "attributed to liquor and its associations."

And now the Muggies talk of running a candidate of their own for Governor of New York. Let them do it by all means, that we may "size them up" for future calculations.

The yacht building industry of the country is not led by any means, whatever may be said of the merchant marine. There are now 1,718 yachts in this country against 507 in 1871.

The Norristown Herald defines profanity as the remarks made by a Democrat when he is informed that the office he seeks has been given to a Mugwump.

As usual not satisfied with licking the Republicans, for the first time in twenty-four years, the Democrats now have turned their attention to licking one another.

The New York Times praises President Cleveland in general and condemns him in particular. Paying your money, of course, you take your choice.

The Atlanta Constitution refers to Gen. William Curtis, Schurz, Beecher and the rest of them as "mugwump squabs." This is ingratitude indeed.

The St. Paul Globe gives us a new definition. "An offensive partisan is a fellow whose party got licked."

The official guillotine has been oiled and is now working as freely as the most exacting partisan could reasonably demand.

The Hocking Valley miners have voluntarily reduced their own wages to 40 cents per ton.

The only Republican machine that the Democrats did not want to go—the Dolphin.

The latest Parisian freak is a ball at which each guest impersonates some animal.

They have been given the rope and they are hanging themselves as per prophecy.

THE ROOT OF THE EVIL. To thoroughly cure scrofula it is necessary to strike directly at the root of the evil. This is exactly what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, by acting upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing it of all impurities, and leaving not even a taint of scrofula in the vital fluid. Thousands who have been cured of scrofula by Hood's Sarsaparilla, testify to its wonderful blood purifying qualities. Sold by all druggists.

NOT A SINGLE GRAY HAIR. "You may laugh and think me a vain thing," writes Mrs. J. R. C., of San Francisco, to a friend in this city, "but I have not a gray hair in my head, and yet (and to say) I am fifty and a day. Recently my hair was not only quite gray but quite thin, too. Parker's Hair Balsam—made in New York, I think—did wonders for me. Try it if you have occasion. It really does what I say, and restores the color also. Not a live, not greasy, highly perfumed. Only reliable 50c. dressing."

A GREAT DISCOVERY. Mr. Wm. Thomas of Newton, Ia., says: "My wife has been seriously affected with a cough for twenty-five years, and this spring more severely than ever before. She had used many remedies without relief, and being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery, did so, with most gratifying result. The first bottle relieved her very much, and the second bottle has absolutely cured her. She has not had so good health for thirty years."

QUAKER MEETING.—About sixty of our citizens attended the appointed meeting of the Quakers in the old meeting house on Irving street Sunday evening, and listened to a very interesting discourse by Franklin H. Hume of Rahway, during the course of which he expounded the doctrine and belief of the sect. Speaking of the peculiar custom of the Quakers in holding silent meetings he said first in so doing they believe that they receive inspiration from God, whenever and wherever they thus on truthfulness will upon Him. They believe that all other sects, whatever their form of worship, were the recipients of the same divine influence when they wait upon the Lord in truthfulness.

BEDFORDS OF PATER.—A paper-making firm in New Jersey has for several years been turning out counterpane and pillow cases. No 1 manilla paper is used, two large sheets being held together by a slender wire at intervals of three or four inches, the wire is gummed so as to hold the sheets firmly together where it lies. A hem is placed on the counterpane to keep it from tearing, the safety edge is composed of twine. Ornamental designs stamped in the outer surface of the covers and cases, giving them a neat, attractive appearance. When these counterpanes and pillow cases become wrinkled from use, they can easily be smoothed out with a hot flatiron. The counterpane can be left on the bed when it is occupied, and in cold weather can be found a warm covering, paper preventing the escape of heat. The new paper bed clothing is very five cents per set, and will probably become very popular. Paper Maker.

FOR CRUISING HIS WIFE'S TROUB.—Jacob Moore, the young negro convicted of an attempt to kill his wife in Rahway about 1870 years ago, by cutting her throat with a razor, was just arraigned. The jury in his case especially recommended him to the mercy of the Court, and this morning an eloquent plea in his behalf was made by Counselor Blaine of Rahway.

In passing sentence, Judge McCormick said he could not see one reason why the prisoner should have been recommended to the mercy of the Court, and as one member of the Court, he felt that the term should be ten years in State Prison. The crime was a frightful one. Had the razor been drawn one eighth of an inch further a vein would have been severed, and the death of the woman the result. There was no reason why the prisoner should have carried a razor and the Court felt it a duty to teach the delinquent, young and old, that the use of deadly weapons will not be tolerated. The recommendation of the jury was strong, however, the Court had not that account only, decreased the number of years, and instead of making the sentence for the full extent, had decided to send the prisoner to State Prison for the term of five years.—Yesterday's Journal.

A VICKSBURG STOLE RELIC.—Mr. Joseph Oliver of Upper Rahway has shown us a very valuable relic in his possession. At the later days of the siege of Vicksburg, Miss, the stock of paper for printing newspapers ran short and the publishers were forced to resort to supply the "Daily Citizen" on paper, the American press, north or south, could and can never be suppressed. In these days of extremity, G. M. Swift, proprietor of the Daily Citizen, got hold in some way of some unused wall paper, and on the reverse side of it printed a four column edition of his paper. When the Union soldiers entered the city they found the type all set up for the edition of Thursday, July 2, 1863. In type was the following: "Oh Dr.—That the great Ulysses—the Yankee Generalissimo, surrounded Grant—has expressed his intention of dining in Vicksburg on Saturday next, and celebrating the 4th of July by a grand dinner, and so forth. When asked if he would invite Gen. A. Johnston to join he said 'No' for fear there will be a row at the table. Ulysses must get into the city before he dines in it. The way to do this is 'first catch the rabbit,' etc.

The soldiers issued the paper but added the following postscript: "NOTE. July 4th, 1863. Two days bring about great changes. The banner of the Union flows over Vicksburg. Grant has caught the rabbit; he has dined in Vicksburg, and he did bring his dinner with him. The 'Citizen' lives to see it. For the time it appears on 'Wall-paper.' No more will it exult in the luxury of multi-colored and fringed edition—targe southern warriors to such diet never more. This is the last wall-paper edition, and is, excepting this note from the types as we found them. It will be valuable hereafter as a curiosity."

In another part of the paper appears the statement that flour was selling at five dollars a pound, molasses at ten dollars a gallon, and corn at ten dollars a bushel.

"100 Doves One Dollar" is true only of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it is an unanswerable argument as to strength and economy.

Sir Frederick Leighton, president of the Royal Academy, is painting a fresco, "The Arts of Peace," in the great hall of the British Museum.

The pupils of the public schools of San Francisco are regularly given a spring vacation, which this year extended from the 20th to the 30th of March.

There is in possession of the Potter family of Rhode Island," said a distant relative of that family living in New York, "a Bible, which is not only notable for its antiquity, but for the history connected with it. It belonged to John Rogers, the martyr. During the persecutions of the early martyrs he hid it to keep it from falling into the hands of his persecutors and burned at the stake more than three centuries and a quarter ago. After his death the Bible fell into the hands of his eldest son, descendants of whom came to America in 1635, bringing the book with them. This was the family of James Rogers, who, in traveling through the New England wilderness, carried the Bible in his bosom and used it for a pillow. It was believed that it was an antidote to the evil spirits of the Indians, and that kept off the devil and the Indians. The Bible has been in the possession of the Potter family ever since. It is Matthew's or Cranmer's Bible and is not divided into verses.

MISS BEAUCHAMP'S WILL.

In the drawing-room of a small but comfortable country house on the outskirts of the village of Bloomfield sat a lady and gentleman of middle age. Both were evidently ill at ease, and the cause of their disquietude was to be found in the person of a young man who stood before them pleading with velance and persisting for some favor.

"I don't ask to marry your daughter to-day or to-morrow," explained the young man, Walter Keeling; "I only want you to allow things to remain in their present state."

"But things are entirely altered, and your pretensions now are preposterous," replied the lady, Mrs. Foster. "Your engagement to Mabel was sanctioned under the belief that you would inherit Woolcroft."

"And having lost the property, I lose her too; that is hard." "Hard or not, you have expressed the case exactly. Having lost the property you lose Mabel too."

"Mr. Foster," cried Keeling, appealing now to the husband as possessed probably of more tenderness of heart than his plain-spoken partner. "Mr. Foster, I am not quite a pauper, although Woolcroft has gone, and I can command some influence to advance me in my career; so will you not permit our engagement to stand? With such a stimulus as the hope of marrying Mabel I should soon attain a position."
