RAHWAY, N. J., JULY 4, 1885.

Hubert O. Thompson was left personally, but he was not left at the same.

I should "past favors" enter at all into the question of true civil service reform? We wonder how the city democrats are getting along in their task of pacifying the Mayor.

A short time ago had the question been asked, "Who is Helden?" few could have answered it.

United States bonds sell for 103½ while British bonds are at par. Let the American eagle flap his wings.

With both Blaine and Logan on the stump the Ohio campaign will be a lively one and a victory one too, and don't you forget it.

The Elizabeth newspaper readers are sorely afflicted. It is hard to tell which is the greater affliction, the Journal's domestic suggestions or the Herald's prose poetry.

It is stated that Governor Abbott has cast his fortunes with his old enemies, the Kelley crowd, and will in future be allied against the Macpherson one man power.

Kiley, first appointed to Italy, then, the blunder being evident, transferred to Austria, now is said to be about to be recalled. This is certainly a pretty hotch all around.

Twelve numbered streets in the Eastern District of Brooklyn have been renamed so that it will be no longer necessary to add "E. D." to complete an address.

Mr. Beecher is sure Mr. Ingersoll is as good a man as any who stand in the pulpit. Such a compliment from such a source is pretty rough on Bala.

The Trenton jail fine has been transferred to Jersey City, and thus the last argument in favor of the retention of the capital in Trenton has been swept away.

Beecher continues to "evolute." He has taken a big contract in attempting to make every thing on the face of the earth consistent with every thing else.

The new Broadway railroad is doing an immense business. If the street is ruined, as some claim, the stockholders of the company at present do not seem to stand in the same danger.

Dennis Kearney has announced his intention of taking the stump once more and of running for Governor of the Golden State. The Californians deserve the pity of their eastern brethren.

Minister Phelps is "getting" solid with the British aristocracy. Now is a chance for some of the "tail twisters" who used to howl against Mr. Lowell. "It is a poor rule that does not work both ways."

Secretary Lamar has appointed his son to his private secretaryship. There is no earthly reason why he should not, but why do not the democrats now be consistent and howl "nepotism?"

Fredrick Frothingham, son of the late secretary, has been elected a trustee of Rutgers College from which he graduated in 1868. This is the fourth generation of the family that has filled that position.

About two thousand bicyclers are to visit Niagara Falls on Saturday on their wheels. The hackmen will hold an indignation meeting on account of so much prey slipping through their fingers.

Kissing hands to pretty girls is held to be a violation of naval discipline. This is a pretty severe restriction to put on such professional lady killers as all brass button men pride themselves on being.

The President is reported to have sent a Virginia girl a silk necktie, from which to make a patch for a crazy quilt. No doubt when it is fully known he will reap the whirlwind of his folly.

The Newark Journal has an editorial on "Literary Democrats." Its list of living writers is made up of Cox, Phelps, and McDermott. All the other "literary Democrats" which it eulogizes, are beneath the soil.

Some very funny boys played a straw man on the track at Summit and stopped a train. Such funny boys are too funny to be at large and should be locked up along with the man who pulls the bell rope just for fun. Railroad jokes are criminal.

Trenton and other cities are getting up excursions for poor children. Will Rahway be behind in providing a day's pleasure for the little ones? What philanthropic citizen will take the lead? Should any one take the initiative doubtless many will be found to assist.

Professor Tyndall has done a very graceful and generous thing. He has given to Harvard, Columbia, and the University of Pennsylvania the proceeds of his lecture tour. He is one of the few Englishmen who have come here to lecture for the country's good rather than their own.

The World has been knocking out the Herald on circulation and advertising, and has been beating it in its own field of "entertainment." The World gave Liberty a place to stand on. The Herald now shows a mean, petty jealousy in trying to run down the Bartholdi statue on "artistic grounds."

Says an exchange: "Of the 2,500,000 men who enlisted in the Union army during the war, it is supposed that 1,000,000 are still living. According to orator Fow, who preached to the faithful last fall, at least 500,000 of these are Democrats. The returns show that 600,000 have been appointed to office by Mr. Cleveland."

The new democratic postmaster of Camden has asked the republican letter carriers for their resignations. They have refused to comply with the request and claim that the notification of their discharge must come from the Postmaster-General. That's right, boys, make the path of mock civil service reform as stony as possible.

The chorus of approval at the establishment of the whipping post for wife beaters by the State of Maryland completely drowned the faint cry of regret from a few over-sensitive humanitarians. Such ladies as wife beaters cannot be controlled by the tender methods of civilization. Barbarous crimes demand barbarous treatment. The doctrine of similia similibus could never be more fully applied than in this case.

Our local contemporaneous brother has our sincerest sympathy in his latest affliction. He has been made the victim of some of the Elizabeth Herald's monstrous prose poetry as follows:

Just as the deck question comes to be hugely discussed hereabouts the Rahway Democrat begins to strike its lyre on Rahway's federal lyre. Proceed, Brother Hye."

This is terrible retribution visited on the head of the erring punster.

Speaking of the recent New York custom house appointments the World says: "The new appointments will be received with entire satisfaction by the Mugwump supporters of President Cleveland. If they strengthen the Democracy in the State it will not be because of any enthusiasm they excite in the ranks of the party." That the appointment of the tool of Hubert O. Thompson will be satisfactory to the Mugwumps seems strange, but the World ought to know.

Is it not customary and courteous, Mr. President of the Council, to wait an instant before putting the question to see whether or not there may be some amendment to be offered? The republican members of the Council have been checked off on several occasions in this way notably when any question as to the street commissioners is under discussion. There are eight democrats in the council to four republicans. Surely these eight ought to be able to conquer the four, without any aid from the president in the way of suppression. As the minority are powerless when it comes to a vote, at least let them have the privilege of free speech, even though it may avail them nothing.

The lie is going the rounds of the democratic press that Abraham Lincoln and his coadjutors advocated the suppression of slavery merely as a year measure and not as a principle. Could the spirits of departed ones revisit the earth, the ghosts of the murdered President and the dead martyrs for the liberty of the black man would surely visit these calumniators of the loved departed. This lie, however well suited to will never gain for itself even a semblance of truth, but will reject on its promulgators an hundred fold. There was a time when no Northern man would have dared breathe such a foul falsehood, but, with the advent of the old slave owners to power, times have changed.

The Philadelphia policemen are to have new caps. In view of the statements made about when we would suggest nightcaps as an appropriate style of head dress.

"Eck's comet was found last night by Professor Young of Princeton College. This is very kind of Professor Young. Mr. Eck should look the comet up in future."

The tree in Japan from which the varnish for the famous lacquer work is made is disappearing, and dealers now have to depend entirely upon Connecticut for their goods.

The electricians are getting up a new word, the "motorer," for the man who attends to the motor. Mr. Keely does not come under that head. He is not even near a motor.

"All a woman asks is to be loved," and to be taken to the opera, theater, balls, parties, have six new silk dresses and a seal skin suit every year. At least, that is our experience.

"Unabhängiger Gegenständlicher Kranken Unterstützungs Verein von Boston Highlands" is the name of a Boston temperance society. The pass word in the name, and no drunken man ever gets in.

John Ruskin, the long-haired art apostle, has joined a famous English chess club. Mr. Ruskin will probably make a poor chess player, as one of the rules of the game prohibits talking at the table.

"Sugar is cheap now, and there is no good reason why any body should not preserve his temper, observes the Boston Transcript. Judging from results, a good many people preserve their temper in vinegar.

John Swinton says the saddest sound in this city is the humming of the tough beefsteak set on boiling house tables. No, indeed. The saddest sound is what the boarders say when the beef comes on the table.

The defeated candidate for the Boston Mayorality, who is the present incumbent of that office has been given a subscription banquet by his friends and admirers. It doesn't make much difference to a Bostonian whether he is successful or not so long as he can eat.

The discussion of religion is often conducted with warmth. Years ago John Howard, the barber, who was a violent Unitarian, got into a controversy with one of his customers, who was an Episcopalian. Finally, Mr. Howard said: "Who are you that knows so much more than the rest of us?" "Who am I?" said his aged opponent with his face covered with wrath, "why I am an humble, praying Christian, you do—a heathen you!"

A woman may be as true as steel, but then, you know, some steel is too highly tempered.

A man in Oscoda, Mich., has three daughters, all of whom are mutes. He is probably the champion dumb-bell raiser of the world.

Shopkeeper: "Art pound of tea, ment, black or green?" Female: "Black, please, it's for a funeral."

The giraffe has never been known to utter a sound. In this respect it resembles a young lady in a street car when a gentleman gives her his seat.

A number of Boston society ladies recently gave a performance of "Patience." Twenty loveless maidens all wearing eyeglasses must have been a thrilling sight.

"Yes," said Mrs. Spriggins, when she read the menu of a recent fashionable dinner, "the man who got up that there feast must have been an epicure."

A student of international circumstances says that England has had her last king. He should have said that she has mated her last bluff.

"Well," said an irate Whitehall to another, "the only trouble with you is that you run every thing with a big I." "That's better than you do," was the reply, "for you run every thing with a big O."

A well-known professional man who has a brand new baby was advised by friends to rub the little one with lard and camphor, as it was the healthiest and surest way that treatment was sure to cure.

The father went down into the kitchen, got some lard out of a pan, and mixing it with camphor, rubbed it all over the baby's feet, face and neck. Next morning a mother found that the poor little thing was covered with a crust of cold-mashed potatoes.

One day a Munich nurse put her charge down on the grass for a short time. Suddenly a great eagle came swooping down and attacked the baby. In an instant the nurse threw her shawl at the bird. It fortunately went over his head so it not only prevented his seeing the child, but stopped his flying away. The nurse then caught hold of him, and clung to him with the shawl right over his head, till some one came to help her. When the King heard the story he sent her a handsome present, and ordered the bird to be kept in the menagerie.

The St. Louis asks, "Why does Kerensky explode?" Generally because some stupid idiot tries to light a fire with it.

When Baby was sick, we gave her CASTORIA. When she was a child, she cried for CASTORIA. When she became a man, she gave to CASTORIA. When she had children, she gave them CASTORIA.

Nebraska comes to the front with two natural curiosities, a pig with a trunk like an elephant and the Democrat who doesn't want a Federal office.

Next to a crab's under jaw he has three pairs of feet. A crab who put his foot in his mouth has need to be about as careful as a politician.

"I DON'T FEEL LIKE WORK." It makes no difference what business you are engaged in; whether you are a preacher, a merchant, a mechanic, a lawyer or a common laborer, you can't do your work well while you are half sick. Thousands try to, but all in vain. How much better to keep your organs in good order by taking Parker's Tonic when you feel lare 10 cents. Cuffs, 12 cents.

The number of wheelmen in Elizabeth by some that that city contains more wheelmen in proportion to its population than any city in the Union.

The office of the water commissioners has been moved to the basement of the city hall entrance on Main street. By this change both the fire receiver and water clock can in more ample accommodations.

In our account of the public school closing, we spoke of it as occurring "last night." Today. We should have said Monday.
This account was written on Tuesday, which will account for the error in forgetting the date of issue, which can occur very easily.

DEFECTION. PLEA.—At 6:15 A.M. on Wednesday the roof of A. Bartholomew caught near the chimney from a defective joint. An alarm was given. No. 1 hose arrived quickly and put out the flames before much damage was done.

WHAT'S THE MATTER?—Health Inspector Marsh appeared before Justice Tolson on Thursday to make complaints against four violators of the health law.
The justice refused to issue warrants on the ground that he had no jurisdiction under the ordinance or the statute.

FIREMAN'S GATHERING.—There will be a gathering of the fire chiefs and foremen of the fire departments in the cities and towns of the United States, at Long Branch, N. J., while the body is in session.
There will be a firemen's parade, under the direction of the committee, in which fire organizations throughout the State will be invited to participate.

BASE BALL.—Among the base ball games arranged for the Fourth are those of the No. 3's, Hook and Ladder Co., on the town grounds at 9 A.M., two picked teams from the Columbia Union Corps on the town grounds at 2 P.M., the No. 1's and No. 2's, on the town grounds at 4 P.M., and two picked sides on the Columbia grounds.

REAL ESTATE.—The purchaser of the Gatchell and Bartholomew properties reported sold in our last issue was Mr. William McMahon. Mr. Henry Dyckman bought the Simpson property. The largest offer for the Savings Institution to stabilize real estate is so great that the owner very little of its real estate will remain in the market.

POLICE COURT NEWS.—Lower Salem was brought before Justice Tolson on Thursday on a charge of disorderly conduct. He was sentenced to five days, imprisonment and to pay a fine of five dollars and costs.

Michael Swartz was brought before the court on the same day on a charge of petitioning without a license. He was fined $10.00 and costs.

A HINT TO YOUNG MEN.—An exchange offers a friendly suggestion to the young men who are disposed to pass on the other side of the street and in other unfeeling ways dodge for cream saloons when on walking with their dear girls. They should remember that all during the long winter these same girls will be in the uncomplainingly furnish lights and fuel for their comfort, and the little ice cream, strawberries, and similar necessities they are willing to accept are but an inadequate return, at the best, for last winter's favors.

REFORM CLUB.—The Reform club have through the kindness of Mrs. Helen Clark and Messrs. Woodard and Orville D.
Chapman secured the building on Elm avenue formerly occupied by the Free Methodist Society for their Sunday afternoon meetings, and are repairing and refitting the same. If the repairs can be made it will be reopened by the club on Sunday afternoon next at 4 o'clock. Addresses will then be made by members of the club.

VICTORIAN TURNERS.—The Newark team of Turners which succeeded in taking the first prize at the late Banded Feet in Newark are making preparations to sail next week to take part in the Euro-Pest to be held in Dresden, Germany July 19th to July 26th. The committee of wealthy German, Gottfried Krueger and Flegelman among the number, propose to defray their expenses. The team will be composed of six men, and will be selected for the purpose, with one substitute to provide for an emergency, and George Kalkel, the teacher of the German Association.

TESTIMONIAL BY FRANKLIN.—The reporter had to leave before the conclusion of the lengthy programme of the public school closing on Monday night. At the close of the exercises Superintendent Lindsay presented to Henry S. Anderson, principal of Franklin school, a handsome and costly basket of fruit from his pu-ils as a token of their esteem. Mr. George Forman, principal of Columbian school, received a handsome nickel-plated student lamp from his graduating class, and a book and a gold scarf pin, and a bookmark from his under class.

A VALUABLE HINT FOR THE SEASON.
The following hint is in circulation and is worth remembering. Notice the last suggestion especially. "In cases of prostration from heat of sun stroke remove the person to a cool, shady place. Loosen his clothing. Lay the bystanders rub the legs and arms with pieces of ice wrapped in towels until the excessive heat of surface is allayed. Give twenty drops of aromatic spirits of hartshorn in a little water every twenty minutes or half hour. No effort to rise or walk should be allowed till the person is quite restored. Hartshorn is said to be better than brandy in cases of sunstroke."

JERSEY FISHERMEN DISOBTAINED.—The concessions made by Governor Allen and Attorney General Stockton, of New Jersey, to the Delaware authorities, in the recent conference as to the right to fish in the Delaware Bay, are considered by the New Jersey fishermen as a complete abandonment of their common right to work in the navigable waters of the United States.
The fishermen have been informed that not to fish west of the channel of the Delaware Bay cuts the sturgeon fishing industry in two, leaving the head in Delaware and the tail in New Jersey. According to the belief of the fishermen of the latter State, the Delaware law, passed on April 8, was expressly designed to drive the sturgeon men from fishing off Bowers Flat, about twenty miles above the Breakers. The fishermen have been accused of being there for the past eighteen years in the first part of the season, when they make nearly all their profits, and now they will have to move to Delaware in order to carry on their business successfully.

FIRE AT A MOSQUITO AND HIT LAZY JOE.—Max Trager, a pocketbook maker of Fairview, N. J., filled himself with the popular beverage of his adopted State and made things lively in Norfolk street yesterday morning. He thought he was pursuing a jolly merriment, and fired a building revolver at it. The bullet struck a man called Lazy Joe. He was not seriously hurt, and was too lazy to walk.
Essex Market and make a complaint against Max, who was held in default of $100 bail for bringing a pistol in the street.—N. Y. Sun of Thursday.

TEN KESSEL SNOW.—The plans and specifications for the new building to be erected next month at Waverly fair grounds by the New Jersey Agricultural Society for the exhibition of dogs next September are out. The building will be 175x81 feet. In the center there will be a judge's stall in size 80x15 feet by which the dogs will be brought for inspection by the judges. There will be 500 stalls 3x3.

HUNTON RIVER EXCURSIONS.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company's pleasure "Richard Stockton" will resume daily trips between Jersey City and Newburgh on Thursday, July 24. The steamer will leave Jersey City as heretofore, at 9 A.M., stopping at West Point (Grant's) and Long Island, and arriving on return trip at Jersey City at 2:30 P.M. These excursions, for the past few years, have been the most desirable pleasure trips offered to the people of this section. Being brought out very cheap, they penetrate a territory hardly surpassed in America for the beauty of its scenery and wealth of historical association. The route takes in the most picturesque portion of the Highlands of the Hudson, and excursions enjoy the pleasure of viewing the scenery in both directions by daylight. The boat is equipped and furnished with every convenience for the comfort of passengers. The corps of officers will be the same, and the general regulations under which she has heretofore run will be maintained. Music will be dispensed by a prominent New York band. The round-trip fare from Jersey City will be fifty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for children between five and twelve years of age.
Dinners will be served on board at fifty cents, and a restaurant a la carte will be a new and desirable feature.

WAGON AND RESCUE OF THE REDUCED.— The particular Reduc, which is referred to in the last issue, was a 14 ft. yacht belonging to Michael Roark. The owner, Henry Condon, and David McGrath left the Reduc on Monday morning for a sail. At Perth Amboy McGrath left the boat in the hands of the other two. On the return sail, when opposite Woodbridge, the boat was "knocked down" by the boat, and failing to recover she capsize, emptying the crew into the water. They managed, however, to climb onto her bottom, and were there waiting rescue for an hour. It then came in the person of a boatman, who towed them ashore. Here they got a boat and rowed to the scene of the wreck. They reached the spot where they had left her. The Reduc, oh where was she? She had sunk beneath the wave, and the gulfed bosom of the deep, told no tale of her departure.
They returned to this city with with a heavy and minus a coat and a pair of shoes to tell Michael the sad tale of the loss of his idolized Reduc. The boat carried ten sand bags, and these no doubt made her go down. On Wednesday Condon went down to Woodbridge. To his joy the Reduc had risen from her watery grave and once more floated proudly on the surface. The tide had evidently loosened the boat from the sand bags and she had risen. Michael welcomed her return to the land of the living with tears of joy, or in some other expressive way, or he ought to have done so if he did not.
