

~~1982~~ 1990

1990

p. B-2

Westfield celebrates

The Rake and Hoe Garden Club of Westfield will present "Deck the Halls II" on Dec. 7 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., when four Westfield homes decorated for the holidays will be open to the public. Each home will be decorated by a team of Rake and Hoe members.

One of the homes is an elegant Georgian Colonial that evokes an era of opulence which the members will carry through the house with gilded angels and wreaths. Another home is a charming country cottage with an abundance of handmade crafts and teddy bears throughout. All of the decorations will be of natural materials, wheat and dried flowers. A third house is a Colonial home, where the charm of Williamsburg reaches out. Fresh greens and fresh fruit will be accented by soaring angels on the Christmas tree. A Colonial revival-style house is the fourth home open to the public, where a Christmas wedding will be celebrated. In addition to the decorated homes, a flower show by the Rake and Hoe Junior Garden Club will be presented at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. There will be refreshments and a boutique from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Tickets are available from any Rake and Hoe Garden Club member, from Rorden's Realtors and Jeanette's Gift Shop in Westfield and at the Crafty Kitchen in Union.