*Just find a song
and you're holding hands
with the world.
A happy song
that snuffs out your worries;
A lonely song
that makes you share
the sadness of others;
A young song
that brims with life, vigor, hope.
This is the song of our times,
of our country and our peoples:
"We've got a song to sing
All over this land . . .
It's the song about the love between our brothers and our sisters
All over this land."*

*"Oh! I want to be in that number,
When the saints go marchin' in!"*

"WELCOME TO A NEW YEAR AT R.B.C.," says Michael Fischer, Student Council President, on the first day of school.

NEW BOOKS, NEW COVERS—Daniel Monahan, Lawrence La Pare, Patrick Farrell, James Gambacorto, John Golden, Ralph Cesarano, and Jeffrey Costura go through the annual job of covering books.

ADVICE AND ENCOURAGEMENT are given by Monsignor Monahan at the beginning of the year.

"Autumn To May"

As the doors of RBC are flung open, a rejuvenated spirit fills the deserted corridors.
Soon we hear familiar conversations sweeping throughout the halls.
Some fellow Caseys are busy renewing old friendships and searching for new ones,
while still others are grumbling
at the news of an eight o'clock class.
But the real beginning of our school year is the Mass of the Holy Spirit, during which we join with Monsignor Monahan in praying for another year of fame and fortune
for ourselves and for our Alma Mater.

THE CASEY CODE is explained to Timothy Farrell, Francis Hennigan, Patricia Dunne, and Joan Farrington by Harry Copperthwaite.

"NO STUDY!" exclaims Kathleen Healy as Jeffrey Costura and Robert Cook look at Ellen White's schedule.

1965 STUDENT COUNCIL

Front Row: Regina Curtis, Secretary; Michael Fischer, President; Margaret McCue, Vice-President; Brian Dempsey, Treasurer. Second Row: Richard Havel, Assembly Chairman; Peter Armstrong, Athletic Chairman; Dorothy Satterly, Bulletin Board Chairman; Judith Piccolie, Clubs Chairman; Christine Glading, Guidance Chairman; Elizabeth Movelle, Mission Crusade Chairman; Raymond McCue, Service Chairman. Back Row: Rita Held, Social Chairman; Lorraine Sasson, Social Welfare Chairman; Mary Mullins, Spiritual Chairman; Harry Copperthwaite, Traffic Chairman; Patricia Nortz, Secretary of Monmouth County Association of High School Councils; Mark Sohl, Senior Class President; Dennis O'Keefe, Junior Class President; Peter Eagan, Sophomore Class President.

The gavel falls
and the school springs to life.
Clubs and committees, dances, assembly programs, p. a. messages—all originate in efforts of the Student Council.
Guided by Sister Mary Theresina, Council members lead fellow Caseys in everything from Project YOUTH to pep rallies.
Work of officers and student body
was rewarded this year when RBC was named Honor School
by the New Jersey Association of High School Councils.
This group's success makes it one of the school's biggest assets toward its goal of service to God and Country.

CASEYS ARE KEPT INFORMED of Student Council news by the Student Council bulletin board. Reading last week's events are Freshman Class President Thomas McBride and Student Council Chairmen Christine Glading and Judith Piccolie.

"MUSIC TO EAT LUNCH BY?" queries Mary Mullins of Rita Held. Lorraine Sasson awaits the decision as Mark Sohl calls for attention.

Council

RETURNING FROM A MEETING of the Monmouth County Association of High School Councils are Student Council officers, Margaret McCue, Brian Dempsey, Michael Fischer and Regina Curtis.

"THAT'S A GOOD SUGGESTION—a three day weekend!" Dennis O'Keefe and Michael Fischer empty the suggestion box as Peter Eagan dictates to Regina Curtis a possible question for discussion.

Assemblies

CASEY BAKERS, Alan Bey and George Carroll, add more Casey spirit to the batter at the pep rally for the Holy Cross game on October 23.

"IT WON'T MOVE!" exclaims Kathleen Kolar to Robert Fortune as Mr. Rick Olschevi explains the properties of the gyroscope.

RBC's GLEE CLUB presented The World of Music for the Middle States Committee during their visit in November.

A small yet powerful Casey football team, under new head coach John Dondero and assistants Thomas Murdock, Peter Brennan, and James McNamara, compiled a 2-6 record against some of the roughest opposition in the state.

Vigorous workouts at the Farmers' and Gardeners' Association Camp from September 1 to 7 got the team into fighting shape.

After an opening day setback by Red Bank High, a fired-up Casey team bounced back to defeat a tough Long Branch squad 12-0, as Mark Sohl and Gene Arnone played an excellent defensive game. The Caseys then played one of their best games of the season against Seton Hall Prep; a strong defensive unit allowed only one tally. Costly fumbles kept the Green and Gold from scoring, however, and Seton Hall was victorious 6-0.

After successive losses to Sayreville, Holy Cross, and Shore Conference Champion Middletown, the Caseys defeated St. Peter's in a thrilling and hotly contested game. With only 33 seconds remaining, the defensive unit swarmed over the St. Peter's quarterback for a touchback and a 2-0 victory. The season ended with a 32-7 Thanksgiving setback from a highly rated Rumson squad.

Post-season honors were heaped on Mark Sohl, who received All-Shore, All-Catholic, All-Diocese, and second string All-State recognition. Peter Armstrong, Eugene Arnone, and Marty Mihok earned honorable mention in the All-Shore ratings. All-Diocese honors also went to Marty Mihok.

The Casey defense foils a touchdown drive of the Sayreville eleven on the one yard line.

Junior Tim Hennessy (28) and senior Gene Arnone (38) double team a Holy Cross player, opening a hole for seniors Bob Keagle (16) and Doug Hillman (10).

Senior Pat Farrell leaps high in the air to snag a pass for a quick 20 yards against Red Bank High.

The lone Casey in a sea of white jerseys is Peter Armstrong. It takes three Middletown men to stop Pete after one of his long gainers.

Head Coach Dondero goes over the defensive strategy in the final minutes of the St. Peter's game with team captain Mark Sohl.

Phil Jankouskas (49), Dennis O'Keefe and Bob Keagle (16) form a wall of blockers for fleet halfback Doug Hillman.

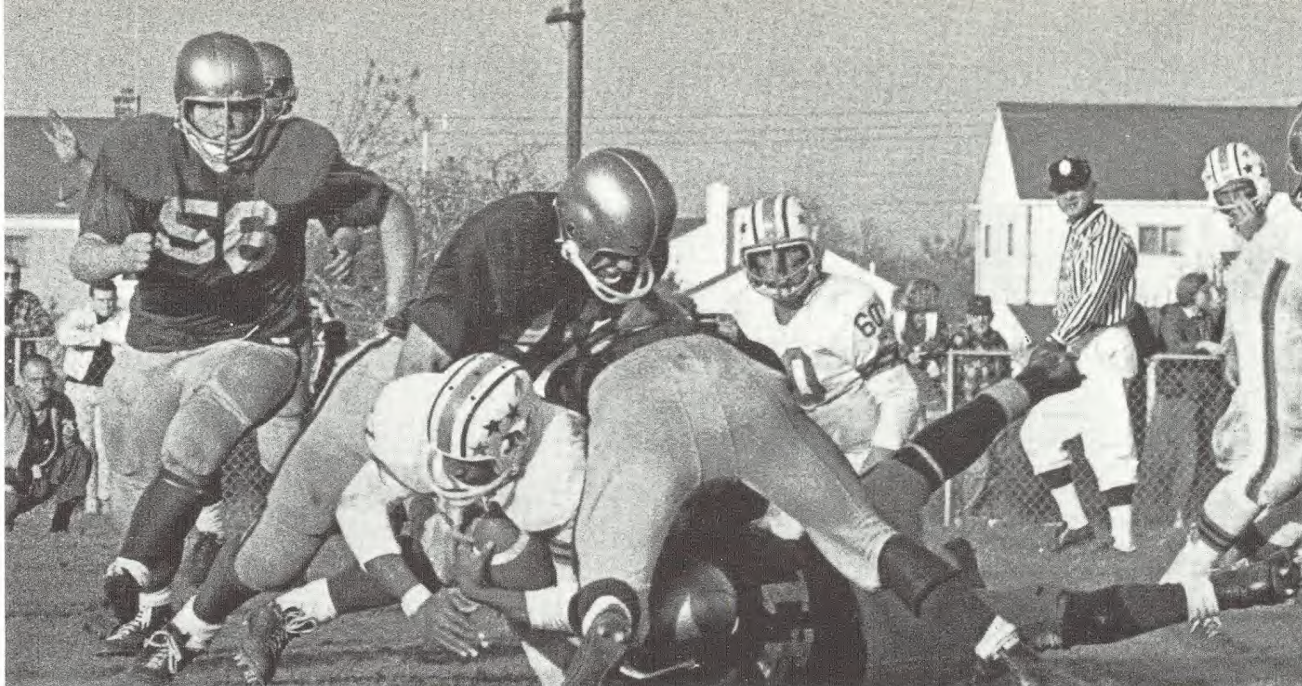

Casey linemen Phil Jankouskas and Marty Mihok form a protective pass pocket for quarterback Dennis O'Keefe to throw from.

Doug Hillman goes for good yardage against Seton Hall Prep with the help of a vicious block from Dennis O'Keefe.

Caseys Mark Sohl (41), Pat Farrell, and Alfonse DeMaria swarm over a Middletown back, as Joe Bouffard (56) comes to the aid of his three teammates.

Fullback Bob Keagle (16) awaits the on-rushing Holy Cross defense as Junior quarterback Dennis O'Keefe (15) uncorks a pass to one of his receivers.

Bob Keagle drives for extra yardage against a tough Holy Cross team.

The opening of the '64-65 school year brought many new people and events to Red Bank Catholic. The most recent arrival, Mr. Joseph Kristofik revamped the boys' intramural program. His efforts have been met with high interest from the Caseys.

The boys faithfully came on their appointed afternoons to do battle on the makeshift grid-iron. For the finals, a large audience was on hand to watch 12A defeat 11C, 20 to 0.

Mrs. Evelyn Russo handled the girls' program, and the response was equally enthusiastic. Twenty-seven homerooms entered their teams in the girls' volleyball tournament. After a six week period 11E and 12F remained; 12F won in a thrill packed contest.

The senior elimination match pitted 12C against 12A. Here John Golden and Bob Grimm of 12C do their best to stop the strong rush of Mike Basile and Bob Tafilowski on 12C's Q.B. Jose Delgado.

Casey Tri-Captains Joseph Schweers, John Mautner, and Brian Dempsey discuss pre-meet strategy before the Shore Regional contest.

After posting a 14-3 record last year, the Casey Cross Country team prepared for this year's campaign by holding summer practices at the beach and before school during the early morning hours. The hard work paid off for coach Jack Rafter's runners as they swept their first nine meets.

Paced by Bob Byron, Bill Ptak, John Mautner, and the Dempsey brothers, the cindermen finished sixth in the annual Roselle Catholic Turkey Trot at Waranoco Park. Bob Byron led the team to fifth place in the Monmouth College Invitational as he placed first, setting a new meet record. In the New Jersey Inter-scholastic Athletic Association Parochial Division, the Caseys placed eighth overall, winding up the season with a 9-2 record.

AFTER 1600 ENVELOPES Barbara Jean De Mio and Veronica Ostrander finally come to the end.

"PUT MORE PUNCH in your football copy," Mr. Hintelmann advises Thomas Cavanagh.

Six times a year an expectant quiet prevails at Red Bank Catholic; students eagerly await their copies of the Signpost. Finally! Then they settle down to do some serious reading, like "Spot for Tot" and "Casey Carousel."

No outsider really knows what goes on at the staff meetings. Does Editor George Severini give assignments and the staff instantly fall to their tasks? Or do Sister Mary Anina and Mr. Hintelmann endure blank stares and groans of pain? By efficiency or inspiration, the product rates First Place from Quill and Scroll and Scholastic Press Association of New Jersey, and 2600 subscribers a year.

With experienced moderators and a staff who work beyond the call of duty—five editors attended summer classes in journalism at Long Branch High School—The Signpost has brought the students twenty-one years of news, views, sports, and humor as the voice of Red Bank Catholic.

Project

The challenge: to plant our seeds of love.
How to meet it: through Project YOUTH, our annual opportunity to realize our importance and responsibilities as Catholic youth in a modern world.
The reward: a tree of unity for all mankind.

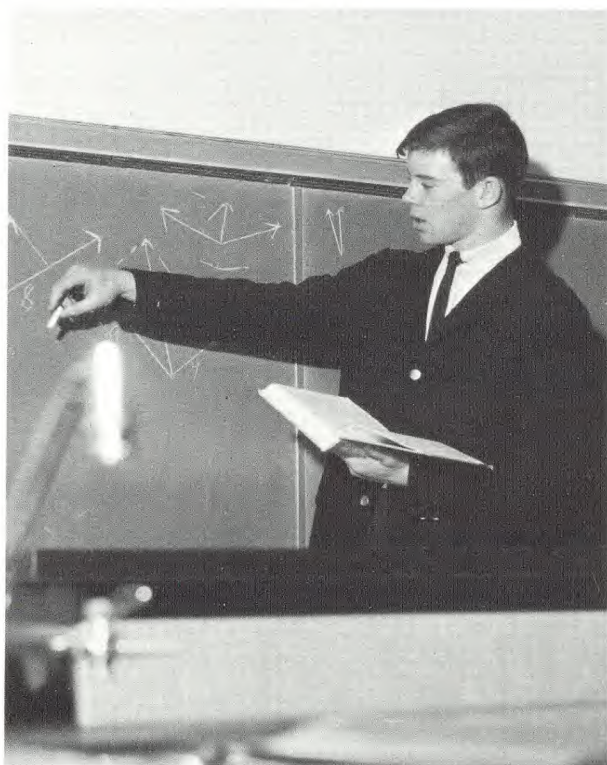

From the daily public address announcements from late October to the end of November came encouragement to plant our seeds of love through the sacraments.
By following Christ the Leader
in all phases of school life,
we could deepen these roots in love.
With posters and weekly bulletins
the Student Council led us in its endeavors to nourish these growing roots with knowledge and grace.
Our parents observed our efforts
during Open House
On Student Leadership Day we tried our hands at teaching and administering the school.
Joining in sacrifice at Mass, we culminated our cultivation of the tree of unity.
As long as we continue to nourish it,
we and all men will enjoy its fruit.

EXTENDING A WELCOME to Mrs. Copperthwaite and Mrs. Mullins during Open House are Brian Dempsey, Rita Held, Margaret Sheridan, and Mary Jo Strollo.

"GOOD MORNING," says Michael Fischer, principal of Red Bank Catholic, as he starts Student Leadership Day.

STUDENT TEACHER Daniel Monahan explains resultant forces to the physics class.

Youth

"THIS BAD APPLE won't do for Teacher Appreciation Day," says Harry Copperthwaite to Margaret McCue, Richard Havel, and Regina Curtis.

THE CLIMAX OF PROJECT YOUTH, a Mass of Thanksgiving, is offered for the students of Red Bank Catholic.

Shining Moment A Place Camelot"

JUNIOR PROM

The shining moment of our junior year is prom night when the hardy efforts of the long-suffering committees are rewarded by the medieval aura of "A Night In Camelot."

As we make our grand entrance over the royal drawbridge, we leave the bustle of the roaring 60's and for these few hours admire the beautiful decor of King Arthur's palace. While we dance the night away to the music of the Cavaliers, the clock rapidly pushes its way towards midnight and the anticipated coronation of Magdalena Korczynski and James Martin as our king and queen.

Queen Guinevere and King Arthur, Magdalena Korczynski and James Martin, reign over their kingdom.

Juniors dance away the hours at "A NIGHT IN CAMELOT."

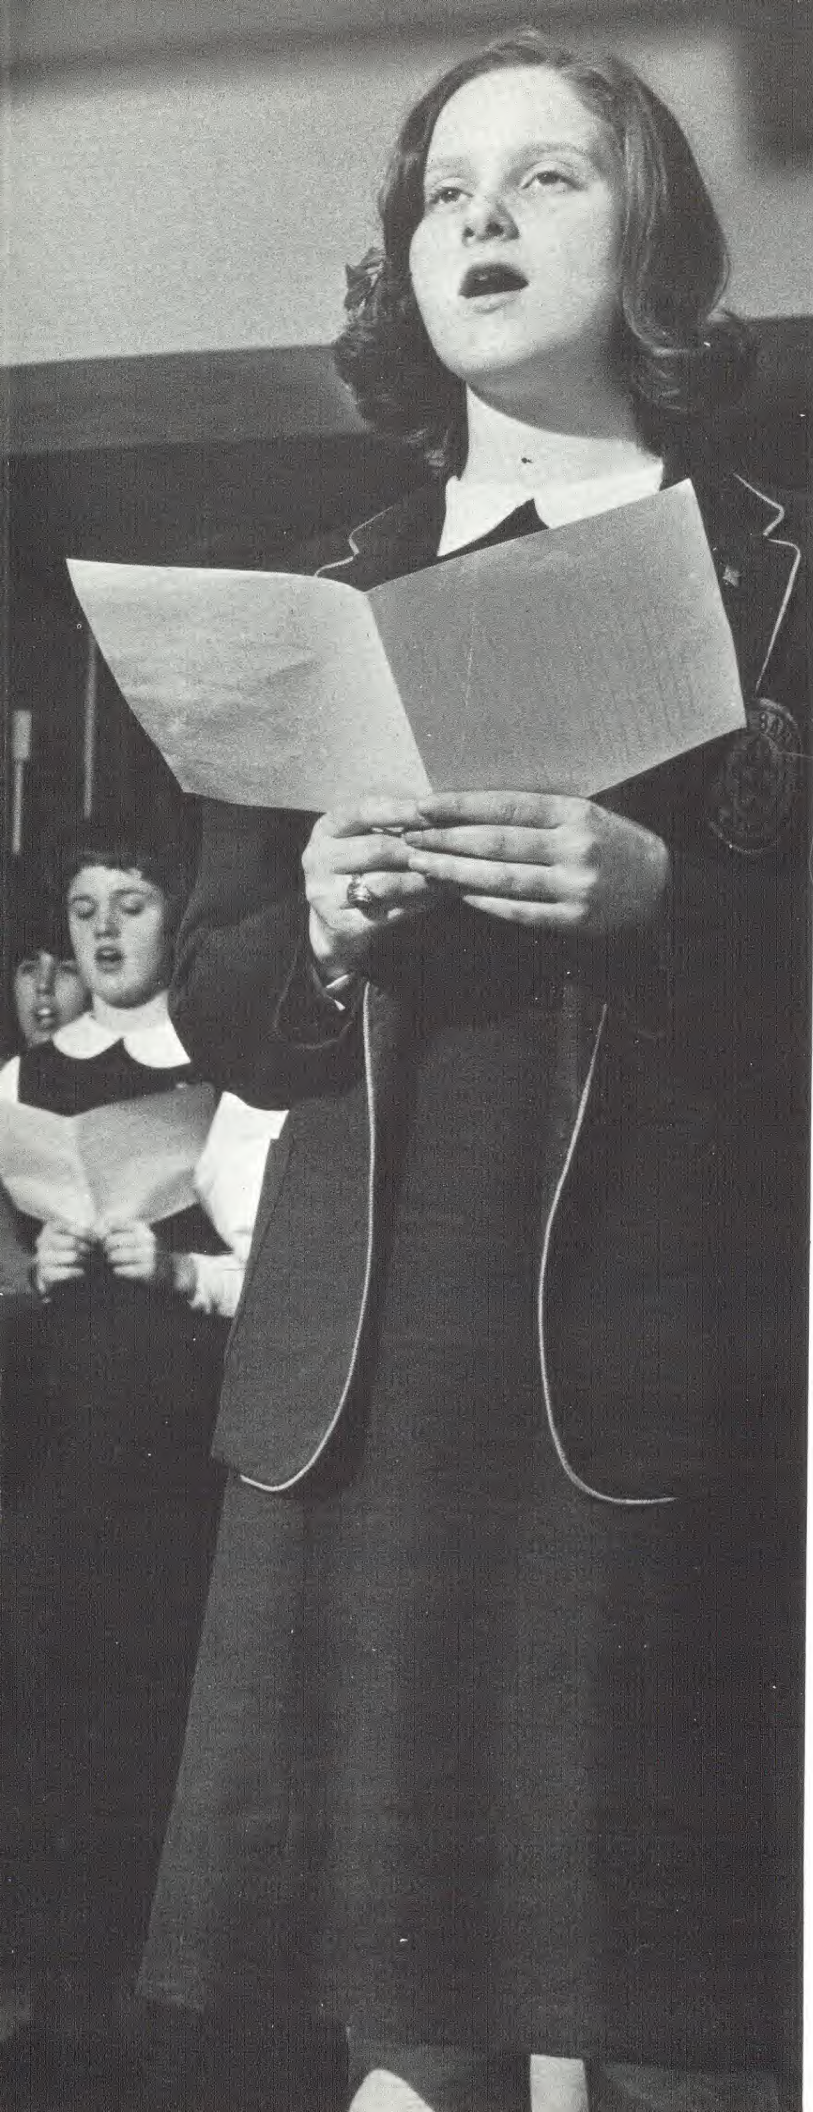

Mary Ann Dietz and her date pause for a few moments as the photographer snaps a picture.

Even  $H_2O$  presents a challenge when it has to be distilled. Sister Thomas Aquinas smiles approvingly as Patricia Maloney and Carol Gallagher demonstrate "how to" and John Mautner records the results.

The new electric typewriters make typing a breeze for future secretaries Eleanor Welsh, Jeanne Akers, Frances Blair, and Regina Skelton, while Margaret Conk busies herself with progressive filing.

The Fort Monmouth Museum is the scene as Lawrence LaPare, John Bellantoni and Patricia Gil argue the necessity of further space exploration. The space exhibit holds more interest for Mary Ellen McDonald.

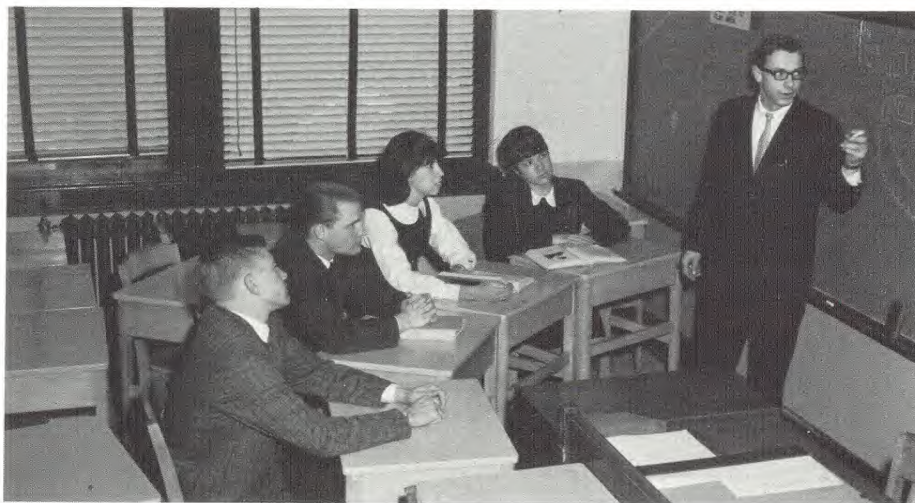

"No habla español!" pleads José Delgado to Miss Dragotta's inquiry. Spanish III students Mary Ellen McDonald, Catherine Shaughnessy, Cynthia Gresham and Linda Smythe laugh in sympathy.

Sounds from far-off lands intrigue Radio Club members Ward Biondi, John Chrepta, Robert King, and David Noland.

Cancelled stamps, garnered after weeks of collecting, are packed off to their mission destinations by Lawrence Kenny, Douglas Longo, Martha McNiskin, Margaret Buckley, and Elizabeth Movelle.

Great Minds at work pondering their next moves . . . Thomas Occhiogrosso versus Michael Powers and Gregory Johnson versus Brian O'Connell. Richard Havel, Margaret Sedlak, and Jeffrey Costura anxiously await the outcome.

Checking the upcoming tournaments and speech festivals for the year are Patricia Maloney, Mary Anne Munning, Phyllis Feniello, Suzanne Klaver, Frances Tyluki, and Jan Wenning.

At the Christmas assembly

Each morning,

Senior Snowball

The echoing laughter of spirited voices and the shuffling of fast-moving feet are the sounds enlivening the cafeteria on Saturday morning as the Seniors begin the great task of preparing an indoor "Fantasy in Frost." After completing the decorations, they are homeward bound, ready to spend the remaining hours preparing themselves for the big event. All the long hours are rewarded by the marvel of a winter wonderland, the sweet scent of pine trees, and the gleaming splendor of snow covered mountains. Momentarily the gaiety of the night is interrupted as they joyously crown Brian Dempsey and Rita Held king and queen of the '65 Snowball.

Jerry Buckalew drives past two Brancher players for a layup and score.

After an opening season loss at the hands of St. Rose, Coach Jack Rafter's quintet rebounded for a 59-48 defeat of Rumson as Charlie Dowd and Jerry Buckalew starred.

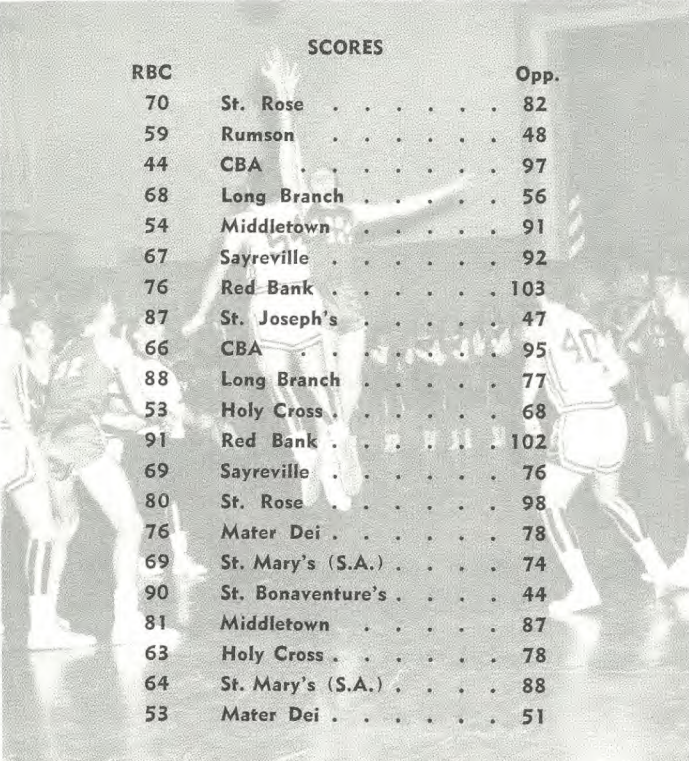

In the Casey Holiday Tournament the Green and Gold downed unbeaten Shore Regional 60-55, en route to a strong second place finish in this annual event. Middletown defeated the Caseys for top honors as Shore Regional placed third.

Bob Fraley and José Delgado paced the Caseys to two fine, hard-fought victories over Long Branch. Hot shooting by the Green and Gold rolled up high scoring games as the team defeated St. Joseph's (Tom's River) 87-47, St. Bonaventure's 90-44, but lost to rival Red Bank 102-91. Avenging a previous overtime loss to Mater Dei, a fired-up squad defeated the Seraphs 53-51; banners, signs, and spirit accompanied the season finale.

The future looks bright for Red Bank Catholic's basketball team as the J.V. squad, playing some of the best teams in the shore, compiled a 13-7 record under Coach Tom Murdock. The freshman team, coached by Mr. Joe Cieri, racked up a 16-2 record, winning 12 in a row. Standouts on the team were Tom McBride, Mike Schulz, John O'Shea, and Frank Kineavy.

"If Religion Were a Thing That Money Could Buy, the Rich Would Live and the Poor Would Die"

Senior Catherine Shaughnessy enjoys a friendly chat with Father Reilly following a morning conference.

The spiritual highlight of the year is the three-day retreat during which we make a self-evaluation from the spiritual point of view. From Father Reilly the girls receive a deeper understanding of the fact that "God loves you," while the boys draw from Father Hammond "a realization of what you are in the sight of God." Daily Mass, Confession, Benediction, and private conferences supply nourishment for our spiritual growth. Before returning to the routine of school life, we climax our retreat with a Mass of Thanksgiving.

Father Paul Hammond, Sacred Heart, Trenton, Boys' Retreat Master.

"Body of Christ." "Amen." Receiving Christ's body during daily Mass was an essential part of retreat for all.

Senior Boys contemplate Father Hammond's words during an afternoon conference.

Each year Red Bank Catholic opens a door for the creative talents of young artists and journalists, a door called the Gleeman. After students submit short stories, essays, and poetry, the staff makes the final decisions and edits the material under the supervision of Sister Mary Fides and Sister Mary Lorraine. ## Sodalities

Freshmen are received into the boys' Sodality by Father Gall.

Through Jesus, life has meaning;
through Mary, life has beauty.
The Sodalists have as their double aim fostering personal holiness and spreading Christian ideals throughout the world.

By sponsoring contests, quizzes,
and a book sale during retreat,
they encourage interest in vocations and in Catholic literature.

The girls' apostolate also includes the hospitals and orphanages they visit.
Casual dances sponsored by both organizations finance an inspiring week for the officers at Fordham's Summer School of Catholic Action.
Through their meetings and spiritual exercises,
the Sodalists come to know Mary and her Son.
Through their work and activity,
they bring this knowledge to others.
The efforts of the Sodality truly make our school—and our world—a better place.

"A little to the right," suggests treasurer Mary Adele Meehan to secretary Martha McNiskin as they prepare the Sodality bulletin board.

Taking notes from The Common Rules, vice-prefect Margaret Buckley listens as instructor Mary Lee Boesewetter finds an important precept.

Prefect Mary Mullins and Spiritual Director, Father William C. Anderson, discuss the effectiveness of modern liturgical art.

RBC 1965 VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM

Kneeling: Douglas Longo, Michael Truex, Marc Scoles, Justin Rosato, James Lambertson, Douglas Hillman, Frederick Geiger, Hector Delgado, John Romano and Manager Martin McCue. Standing: Coach Mr. Joseph Kristofik, Manager Robert Alchus, David Clark, Donald Esposito, José Delgado, Michael Ferguson, Charles Cook, Thomas Loewenstine, Gerald Horn, Gerald Buckalew, and Manager Leon Genciana.

Red Bank Catholic's new head coach, Mr. Joseph Kristofik, is optimistic about this year's team. The Caseys have the benefit of six returning lettermen and the best players from last year's good J.V. team. This year's team has power in the persons of José Delgado, Charles Cook, and Michael Ferguson; speed, with Doug Hillman, Hector Delgado, and Jerry Horn, and experienced pitching with Jerry Buckalew and Doug Longo returning from last year and Don Esposito and Jim Lambertson, the new moundsmen. With a little bit of luck and a lot of hard work, this year's team will go all the way to the Parochial A Championship.

The sure arm of third sacker Jim Lambertson throws out a would-be baserunner from St. Joseph's, Toms River.

Sophomore Rick Geiger strokes a double to deep left center during the Mater Dei game. This was one of two hits he collected that day.

Thomas Loewenstine rounds first base as he delivers a clutch pinch hit single in the Mater Dei game.

Varsity Baseball

Hector Delgado takes second base on a futile attempt to throw out a runner at home plate.

Senior Charlie Cook stretches to take Doug Hillman's throw, nabbing the runner by a good margin.

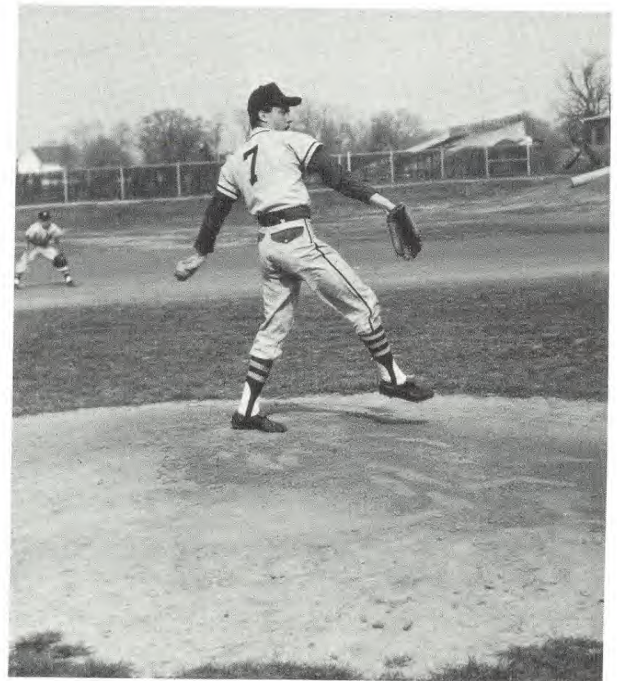

Jerry Buckalew puts down a perfect bunt, good for a base hit and a run against St. Joseph's.

Always quick to take advantage, Jerry Horn watches for a possible extra base against Rumson.

Senior John Mautner sprints for the tape, fifty yards ahead of the rest of the pack, to take first place in the mile run against Shore Regional.

Boys' Track and Field

The 1965 boys' track team, after three previous seasons, has a well balanced attack, and they have proven that it is a team to be feared in the shore area.

The distance runners are rated as one of the team's strong sections. Runners John Mautner, Bob Byron, John and Brian Dempsey, and Harry Copperthwaite give the team an immediate edge in points, many times sweeping these events 1, 2, 3. The sprints have sure point-getters in James Smith and John Massetti. The field events have two school record holders in Charles Mayer for the shot put and Peter Armstrong for the javelin.

The team has enough strength to be a real contender in the shore and enough youth to continue its winning ways for many years to come.

Bernie Keigher clears the bar at nine feet with a lot to spare against St. Rose and St. Joseph's of Tom River.

Charles Mayer, Casey record holder for the shot put, throws the shot 48 feet plus, in the St. Rose and St. Joseph's tri-meet. The throw was good for first place honors.

Thomas Ryan puts his best foot forward in the broad jump against Shore Regional.

Paul Hencoski, John Movelle, Captain Daniel Monahan, Kevin Coleman, Coach Mr. Joseph Cieri, Patrick Killeen, Thomas Robbins, Chandler Mapes, and Robert Mihok.

The golf team expects a successful season under head coach Mr. Joseph Cieri. The team has a fifteen match schedule, the largest in the team's history and journeys to Bam Hollow Country Club in Lincroft for practice sessions and home matches.

Coach Joseph Cieri and Captain Daniel Monahan prepare to tee off during practice.

Golf

Coach Joseph Cieri instructs Daniel Monahan on the proper alignment of the driver as team members look on.

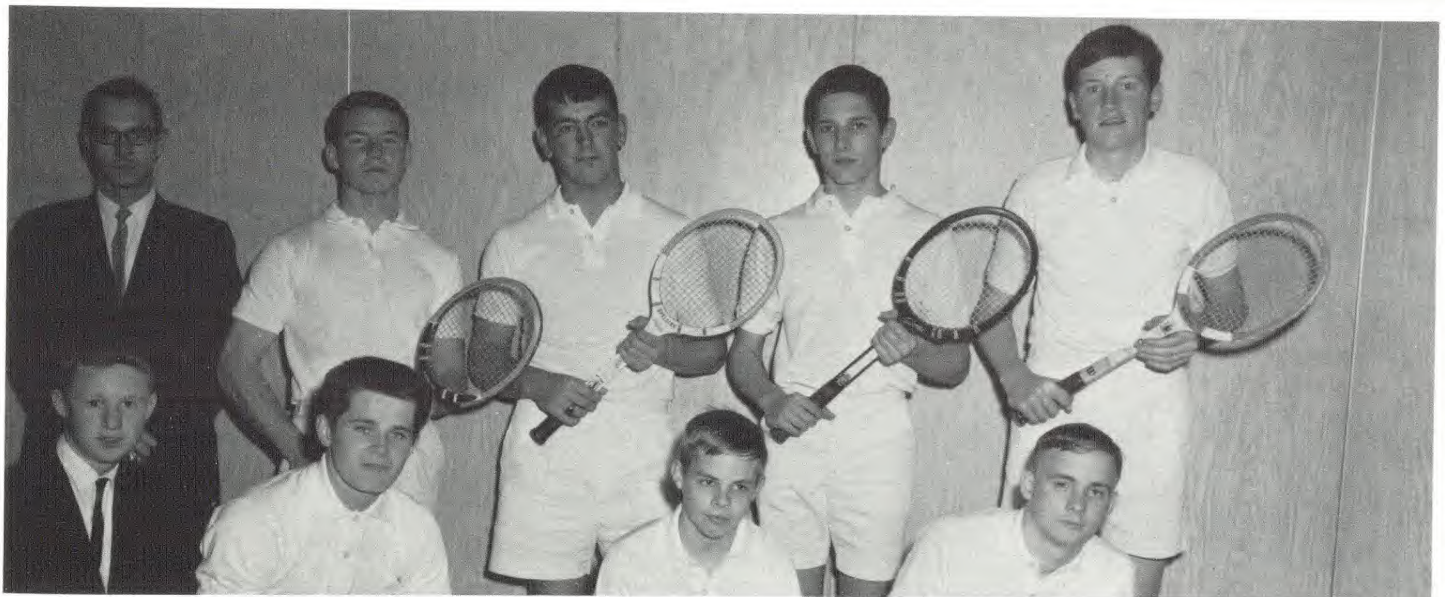

Mr. Robert Fortier believes his nine man tennis team will be one of the toughest in the shore area. Joining veterans Ray McCue and Kevin Bull are younger talents Michael Kearney and James MacFarlane. With these players Mr. Fortier hopes to surprise many opponents, during the season, who underestimate the strength of the team.

Kevin Nugent makes the first serve to his opponent in the Rumson High match.

A record turnout tried out for the team this year, much to the pleasure of coaches Mr. Jack Rafter and Mr. James McNamara. Red Bank Catholic has many of last year's fine team back, plus several new faces that should help the team this season and many more seasons to come.

The girls were honored with an invitation to participate in the Penn Relays in Philadelphia.

Red Bank Catholic's better half will be shooting for the top spot among all the girls' track teams in the state, when they take part in the second girls' track team championships, jointly sponsored by the Asbury Park Press and Red Bank Catholic High School. This is the second year of track for girls, and they have carried on the winning tradition of RBC. The future is sure to hold equally as much success for our girls.

Anchorman Carol Lettieri takes handoff from Karen Ptak as the 880 relay quartet outdistances Mater Dei. Pat Thorpe and Joanne Novak combined with this duo for a fast 2:07.6 clocking.

Kathleen Riviere streaks to the finish line in the 100 yard dash. Following her in fast succession are Maureen Johnson, Margaret Daly and Helene Hickey.

Girls' Track and Field

Junior Pat Thorpe clears the bar at 4' 10" to break her old mark and establish a new record in the girls' high jump, as Maureen Mulheren stares in open-mouthed wonder.

Team captain Maureen Oakley displays her championship form as she throws the shot put.

Sophomore standout Karen Ptak reaches out for extra distance against Mater Dei as senior brother Bill (fifth from right) and Coach Rafter look on.

Ahead of all the rest, Karen Trotter and Linda Marascio finish second and first respectively in the Mater Dei meet, which the Casey girls won to continue their undefeated record in interscholastic dual competition.

Signs of Spring

Spring Cleaning Time . . . Marianne Ribley gives advice to Ted Bratton and Raymond Lafurge on the art of cleaning windows.

Mary Jane Torpey, Paula Burns, and Donna Penta board the bus to tour St. Vincent's Hospital, New York City, with the Future Nurses Club.

Leigh Harraway and Marie McCue window shop for Easter outfits at Steinbach's after school.

The student body views tennis team members James McFarlane and Kevin Bull during Spring Sports Assembly.

Girls' track captain Maureen Oakley introduces team members during the Spring Sports Assembly.

Senior Christine Ciallella casts an upward eye for rain before a ride in Lynn Maloney's convertible with MaryAnne Schulz and Mary Adele Meehan.

In an assembly in honor of Mother Catherine McAuley, Maureen Conroy, Kathleen Conroy, Elizabeth Movelle, Regina Curtis, and Kathleen Quinn portray young women in different stages of the religious life.

The Senior Prom

"Oh! They're beautiful!" exclaims Marilee Petillo to Thomas Bow, as she receives her corsage.

A helping hand is extended to Valery Bennet by James Smith.

Seniors stop on their way to the Deal Country Club to say hello to Sister Mary Theresina and Sister Mary Loretto.

"Raindrops on Roses..."

Starlight and satin highlighted the 1965 Senior Prom, held at Deal Country Club on the evening of June 2. Far into the night the Seniors and their dates danced to the inviting rhythms of Pete Galatro's band, which featured melodies from the last three school plays. The delicious buffet, the music, and the sparkling array of gowns and white jackets add up to one of each senior's "favorite things"—the Senior Prom.

Our photographer finds seniors Jacqueline Barba, Michael Bowie, Karen McCaffery, and Charles Dowd enjoying some fresh air on the porch of the Deal Country Club.

Sitting this one out are Maureen Grogan and William Russo.

Seniors enjoy dancing to "The Sound of Music"—Pete Galatro's music.

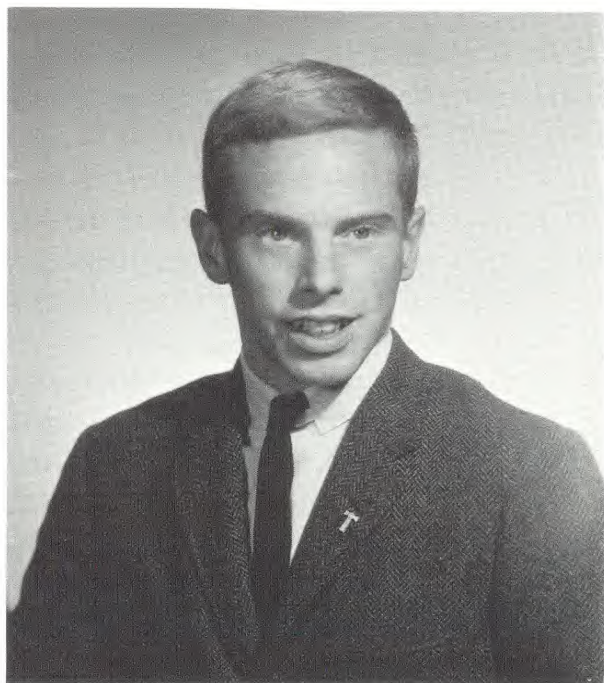

FROM THE SENIORS,
A PARTING NOTE . . .

*"I leave you now
with a last farewell;
I love you more,
more than words can tell.
I hear the call
and am bound to go;
I leave you now
with a last farewell."*

UNDERCLASSMEN

CLASS OF 1966

As juniors, led by Dennis O'Keefe, we learn to overcome new obstacles: the pungent reek of the chemistry lab, the tension which fills a room during a College Boards test, an ad drive challenge from the homeroom next door. We reach the peak of our social life with the long-awaited Junior Prom, when we transform the familiar cafeteria into the medieval atmosphere of "A Night in Camelot." Magda Korczynski and James Martin reign as king and queen. Finally the day arrives when we receive the symbol of lasting loyalty to RBC—our emerald-and-gold senior class rings.

CLASS OF 1967

No longer are we strangers in the halls of RBC, migrating from Cabrini to the main building.
With Peter Eagan as our spokesman we hold a prominent position on the Student Council.
Exploring fields new to underclassmen, we pioneer in chemistry and speech classes.
During football and basketball games
the players we cheer on to victory are our own.
Is a sophomore really a wise fool?
Yes! We learn this is so true
as we find ourselves too wise to believe that our school has an elevator
yet too foolish to talk our way out of carrying an upperclassman's books.

THE FIRST SNOWFALL finds freshman homeroom presidents Donald Sedlak, William Mason, Thomas Smith, Frank Kineavy, John Borden, Timothy Farrell, and John Minton shoveling paths from Cabrini House to the main building.

Our first glimpse of high school life is—gingerly peering into a Math I book, edging our way through seething corridors,
listening to exotic sounds.

So this is French!

The Signpost drive presents
our first challenge, and we no longer feel like probationary Caseys.

Next we become dynamic politicians and elect cast-clad

Thomas McBride president.

At our first pep rally we re-fuel
the Casey Express

and send it on its way with a deafening,
“All Aboard!”

Through all of these things

We gradually develop that certain feeling which flourishes throughout

Red Bank Catholic—
the feeling of belonging.

Saying—this land was made for you and me."*
