Sorry You Couldn't Be Here

Go Davy! you can do it!!

The new J.C. Penny models of 1989.

Just hangin around.

Dear Matt,

So, how are things going? Have you made any new friends in school yet? I know how hard it must have been starting in a new school in April. Just want you to know, we've all been thinking about you.

In an effort to keep you informed, we made a scrap book. We've really worked hard to show you everybody and everything that has happened since last April. I hope you still remember everybody. Don't worry, all of the good pictures have been included.

Well, I guess that's everything. I hope you enjoy the scrap book. Remember, we all miss you.

> Love, From all of us

It's official, Patty Boehm made it.

N.H.S. Induction Ceremony

Once again, the brightest and best of us were inducted into the National Honor Society. The juniors and seniors who met the requirements (3.25 grade average and membership in at least three school sponsored activities) attended the candle lit ceremony. The speeches were spoken and the new members inducted. During the ceremony, the jazz band played their songs and Doreen Olsen sang a tune. At the close of the ceremony, refreshments were supplied by the catering club. Truly an evening to remember.

Fall Drama

The cast of "PHANTOM"!

From the dark, cold depths of the Paris Opera House erupts a crazed laughter. It is the laughter of a man torn between two worlds - the subterranean labyrinth and the outside world, where the girl he secretly loves is. But the outside world knows not of Erik (the Phantom), for he lives in seclusion due to his horribly disfigured face. But, Erik will do anything to get what he desires, even if it drives him to murder. And so when the Paris Opera House players hear the laughter and strange noises, they are struck with FEAR, realizing that somewhere in the dark shadows lurks . . .

THE PHANTOM

Sayreville's Theatre was haunted from September 5th to December 3rd, under the direction of Mr. Piccuirro. It featured many members of the Sayreville Theatre Society, each of which played a most important part in "The Phantom of the Opera".

Shall we dance? What a face!

"I'll find him, and when I do . . ."

Halloween

Meagan Rathbun & Kim Zera

October 31... HALLOWEEN. Finally the only day of 180 school days when the dress code undergoes a radical change, in other words OBLITERATED! In the short 6 hours of school, our local freaks of nature came forth wearing dazzling displays of horror, comedy and sheer stupidity (not every costume was exceptional!)

We've attempted to feature as many of the costumes here as we could. But of course, not everyone could be honored with a spot of such prestige . . .

P.S. Matt, does Halloween exist way over there in GERMANY???

In The South Pacific

During the bitter years of World War II American G.I.'s were stationed in the south of the Pacific. The musical of 1989 details the ups and downs of life on the high seas, on the surface it is a simple love story between a man and a woman. But on a deeper level the underlying racism becomes prevalent, and reveals it to be the vulgarity that it is.

The musical was performed on March 16, 17 and 18 under the direction of Mr. Michael Piccuro. Rehersal for the play started right after Christmas break. Long hours, hard work and dedication went into making it a success. Some of the character players were, Kim Stefani as Nelle Forebush, Rajat Shah as Emile DeBeaue, Joe Refano as Lt. Joe Cable, Krysten Chiarello as Bloody Mary, Jimi Spaulding as Luther Billis and Hugh Klitzke as Commander Brackett. The cast also included many more students as sailors, islanders and nurses.

WOW! Look at all of Jimi's chest hair.

PICNIC FEVER!!

Bamboo picnics Rule.

Picnics make everyone happy.

With the realization that Mc-Donald's food was not all that it was made out to be, plus the fact that it doesn't taste like home-made food caused the next generation of lunch eaters to look elsewhere for lunch. Students began searching all over for alternative foods. After testing several fast food and pizza joints, as well as many diners, it was decided that none of these would do. The only solution: bring food from home on a picnic.

And so armed with Blankets, Blens, (for those uniformed about the activity of Blenning, a Blen is a spiritual body movement of extremly overpowering physical and emotional release. But to truly comprehend a Blen one must expierence a Blen) and Baskets of food new fields of grass or bamboo and wet docks were invaded by thousands of picnicking students. The air was filled with music as people gorged on a vast multitude of sandwichs. Soon tumbling, singing and blenning began to take place.

And all was well and happy again.

A picnic can happen anywhere.

Even Mr. Szabo picnics! Nick and Lauren expierence picnicking bliss.

A Blen.

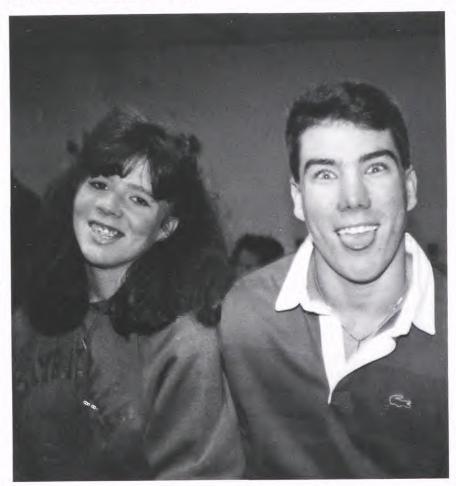

The Blenning Circle.

Come Join The Fiesta

The Spanish Club Fiesta is "direct hit".

El Circulo Espanol, more commonly known as the Spanish Club, enjoyed yet another successful year. As in the past the club's membership exceeded 300 students, making it one of the largest clubs in the school.

Members actively participated in the m;any events sponsored by the club throughout the year. Traditional activities such as: the Dia de la Raza party, the Halloween Candy Contest and the Thanksgiving Food drive.

This year's officers were: Rajat Shah-President; Cheryl Amsterdam and Lisa DiAngelis-Co-Vice-Presidents; Liz Neves-Secretary; Steve Evenago-Treasurer; and Advisors Mrs. Ludlow and Miss Kwiatkowski.

Spanish Honor Society

"La Esperanza" . . . The hope of the future.

With so many students electing to learn the Spanish language, what reward is there for those that succeed? The answer is the Spanish Honor Society. With the good grades comes a special orginization that involves itself in several diversified activities like poster sales, mail for Tots programs, a tutoring service and much more. These activities are led by advisor Miss C. Kwiatkowski, and officers Derek Czernikowski (President), Aimee Derent (Vice President), Lisa DiAngelis (Treasurer), and Carisa Candela and Kristin Howells (Co-Secretaries). These, along with the many who strove to succeed, form "La Esperanza", the 'hope' of S.W.M.H.S.

Vive Le France

Under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Parks, the French Club enjoyed yet another year. This year under the leadership of Tiffany Williams (President), Jennifer Twardos (Vice President), and Gail Wisnewski (Secretary/Treasurer), the French Club continued to uphold the French tradition on which the club was based. The members of the organization participated in the annual Halloween Party, Holiday Festival, a trip at the conclusion of the year, and fundraisers.

It's members, numbering about 40, found it very enjoyable to participate in French Club activities. To widen the range of numbers able to join the club, enrollment in French classes is not required, only a fun loving spirit and love of French culture.

National Honor Society

The NHS officers renew their induction vows.

The thrill of being in the NHS overcomes Raj.

Election to the National Honor Society is the highest honor which a high school student can receive. Membership is restricted to those juniors and seniors who have maintained a 3.25 cumulative rank average during their high school years, and who exhibit the positive traits of leadership, service and good character.

In order for a student to be considered eligible for National Honor Society membership, a student:

- 1) must maintain a 3.25 cumulative rank average;
- 2) must be active in at least three scholl sponsored activities:
- 3) should have consecutive year memberships in activities.

Any student meeting these requirements will be considered eligible for N.H.S. membership. These students must submit to the Faculty Council and activity form showing specific information regarding activities and offices held. This form, however, does not gaurentee membership. All records of students who submit an activity form will be reviewed by the Faculty Council.

The Faculty Council shall consist of five faculty members appointed by the principal; the chapter advisor will be an ex-officio member of the council. Each student must receive a 3.5 average of the characteristic ratings of the Faculty Council, according to established guidelines. This final rating by the Faculty Council will determine those students who will become members of the National Honor Society.

The National Honor Society members are involved with other school activities and aim to improve relationships within the school. Its other functions include fund-raising activities which are aimed at the purchase of N.H.S. supplies, the donations of graduation awards, and the contribution to other worthy causes.

Echo Lites: Enlightening the Student Body

News Editor, Cheryl Amsterdam, and advisor, Mrs. J. Mischne, make the necessary revisions for the next edition of Echo Lites.

Published October through June, Echo Lites, the school newspaper, serves as a forum for the creative and unbiased exchange of ideas. The members of Echo Lites aim to report accurately any event which affects the student body; whether it be the Presidential Election or the annexation of a new wing.

In addition to its coverage of news and sporting events, Echo Lites welcomes the submission of letters to the Editor, controversial editorials, movie and record reviews, and humorous feature stories.

A vital component of the newspaper's success if the combined leadership and experience of advisor, Mrs. Judy Mischne along with expertise of the editorial staff.

The Images Staff

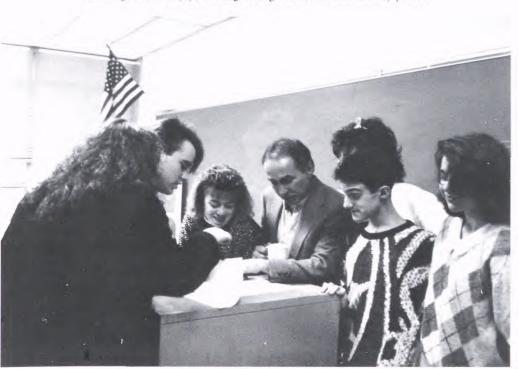

Images is the annual literary magazine of the high school, featuring carefully selected and tightly-crafted work, including the best poems, artwork, and short stories submitted by the student body. In a society where the voices of young people are often denied, Images provides the forum to share creative works with others. Our loose theme for the year explores the idea of a "sweet release", interpreted broadly.

Jimmy, "The Mad Flasher", strikes once again when he thinks Mr. Marotta isn't looking.

The Images staff enjoys reading through the submitted literary pieces.

ACTING UP

The Sayreville 2nd City Improv Troupe, under the direction of Mr. Michael Piccuirro is a club unlike any other. All students are welcome to participate. The club's main goal is to make students feel comfortable with the theatre and its atmosphere.

A usual meeting consists of performing improvizations, which are spontaneous dialogues without any script. Some are dramatic, others are absurd, but all of the hypothetical situations allow members to experience new methods of acting. No rules, no memorization, and no directing. It's all part of the fun!

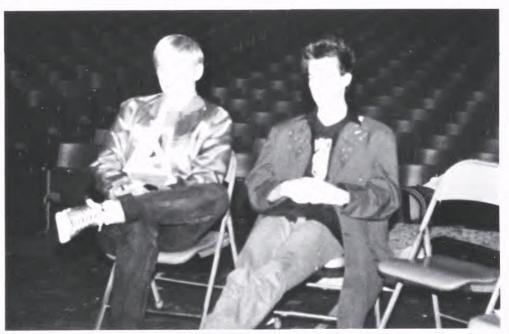

This year, under the leadership of President Hugh Klitzke, Vice President Stan Laikowski, Secretary Lisa Koye, and Treasurer Krysten Chiarello, the troupe hopes to raise enough funds to give members the opportunity to view a professional performance in New York.

S.A.D.D.ly Speaking

S.A.D.D. (Students Against Drunk Driving) is a 450 member Club which was started in 1986 by Mrs. Judy Sforza. The club is increasing in size rapidly and it's message is being heard louder than ever. Activities sponsored by S.A.D.D. include a S.A.D.D. day, holiday card and poster contests, homecoming, displays, and distribution of materials to faculty and students. One major purpose of S.A.D.D. is to alert and educate the students, faculty and community about the effects and dangers of alcohol and driving drunk. Just remember that "FRIENDS DON'T LET FRIENDS DRIVE DRUNK!"

Co-operative Office Experience The Induction Ceremony

For those interested in a business career, Co-operative Office Experience (COE) is an important step. Through this program, students received an opportunity to learn about business first hand. Mrs. Dulemba, the club's advisor, did many things to help students gain experience. She advised them in various areas of secretarial expertise and planned related activities. Thanks to their dedication and interest, the students graduated with an important head start on life.

Created to develop future leaders of marketing, merchandising and management, DECA has proven itself to be a championship organization. Guided by Ms. Bowman, club members soar to success. In the regional competition 7I members receiveds awards and qualified for the state conference to be held at the Parsippany Hilton.

A half day school schedule and a part-time job is required of a senior DECA member. Participants in this work program have been placed in Macy's, Au Coton, Foodtown, Units, Best and many more.

The DECA symbol is a diamond with a present in the middle. This symbolizes a job well done which all of the members have accomplished.

The officers of this organization are President Tony Russo, First Vice-President Charlene Macaluso, Second Vice-President Lea Ann Berry, Third Vice-President Gail Kobstad, Treasurer Cindy Pancurak, Recording Secetary Jennifer Caso, Corresponding Secetary Gail Buckler, Reporter Greg Gardner, Historian Judi Fuoti and Parlimentarian Gene Conselyea.

A Winning Season!!

SET!!

Thus began the 1988-1989 season of Sayreville's Marching Bomber Band. Under the direction of Advisor Mr. Peter Vala and Drum Majorettes Sue Ferraro and Kimberly Stefani, the band reached their ultimate goal . . . Atlantic Coast Championships, held in Allentown, Pennsylvania. This year's show, written by Mr. Vala, was based on the new Broadway musical, Phantom of the Opera. Playing the selections Angel of Music, Think of Me, Masquerade, and a few others, the band thrilled audiences throughout the state of New Jersey. "When we first encountered Mr. Vala's enthusiastic attitude towards the up coming season we were a bit reluctant to believe it was possible. He brought us a long way." commented Kim. Through Mr. Vala's optimism and unyielding support and dedication, the band truly has had "A Winning Season".

Future Stars Of Jeopardy

Ever wonder where the contestants on Jeopardy come from? Well one club that certainly breeds the young geniuses is the Academic Competitions Team (A.C.T.). Students on the team have the opportunity to showcase their vast knowledge, via College Bowl type competitions, on not only trivia, but in subjects such as mathematics and physics as well.

Under the guidance of Ms. Carla Sutherland, the team is open to anyone who wishes to try out in the form of completing a two-part written/oral test. Seeing the most competition this year were seniors Scott Muller, Derek Czernikowski, Mike Wittke, Bill Statelman, and Dennis Jacko along with sophomore wonder kid Nitin Moholkar. Other members who proved to be vital assets were Grace Yong, Scott Kelly, Chris Lovasz, Barry and Brian Tetro.

The A.C.T. team traveled to competitions in Bridgewater and Perth Amboy this year, each time faring better than the previous year. With upcoming talent in the form of underclassmen, the A.C.T. team should become a more noticed orginization over the next year or so and soon enough, former members will more than likely turn up on Jeopardy to continue to stun the world with their treasure of useless knowledge.

Ms. Sutherland looks over the applications for A.C.T.

Students enjoy practices.

Nadine finds her calling in life with a piece of chalk.

A.C.T. students eagerly wait for Ms. Sutherland to reveal the next trivia question.

Does anyone know the answer? Anyone? Anyone?

I don't know. How about you Martin?

Team captains Scott Muller and Nitin Moholkar are glad to share their wealth of knowledge.

What's this? A suntanning session? No, it's just the A.C.T. Team after a long day of tough questions.

Odyssey Of The Minds (OM)

"Off with her head!!!"

Preparing for a competition.

OM'ers learn how to spell.

Why would a person sit for hours on end building balsa wood structures or cars? What's the motivating factor in trying to find out the number of dimples on a golf ball or naming possible uses for a million bars of soap? These and many other perplexing problems draw creative individuals to the Odyssey of the Mind team.

As a part of the National Odyssey of the Mind orginization, students in OM competed against other schools in spontaneous problem solving. They also developed long-term projects such as creating an original musical piece of constructing a robot to complete a specific task.

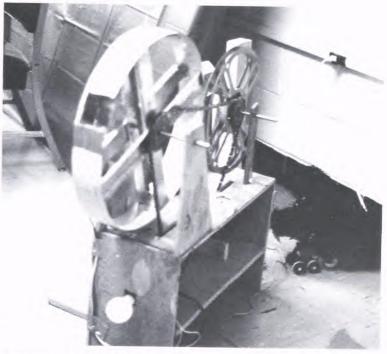

Lisa and Chris put the finishing touches on one of their props.

They Have The Look . . .

"Watch out here I come," a line from the popular tune heard at every football and basketball game, and the fans sitting on the edge of their seats waiting for the cheerleaders to perform their innovative pom pon routine. Under the direction of Mrs. Anne Bandola, these dance/cheer selections have certainly become a main attraction."

This year, because of Varsity Captain, Kelly Nakielny, the cheerleaders have done a superior job of maintaining school spirit and boosting the morale of the entire community. These goals have been achieved through squad meetings, long, hot practices during the summer continuing through fall and winter, and positive attitudes. In the "spirit" of things, the boys' locker room was decorated with balloons, streamers, posters, and candy for each game. However, for the Seniors game, not only was the locker room decorated, but the girls travelled throughout the town decorating each boy's home.

Many enjoyable moments have been spent by our fans admiring the vivacious S.W.M.H.S. cheerleaders. Our cheerleaders are, by far, show-stoppers and - - They Have The Look . . .!

Keeping Order

"Can I help you???"

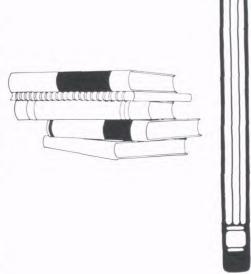

Although Nadine and Steve are on Library Council, they sometimes have trouble finding the library.

Library Council

The Library Council is made up of a group of students, under the direction of Mrs. Weisberg, who work in the library during homeroom and their spare time. In order to keep the library in top condition, their duties include: shelving books, stamping books in and out, and keeping the books in correct order on the shelves. Another service the Library Council provides is the signing in and out of audio and video equipment needed by teachers for their lessons. Without the Library Council, the library wouldn't be able to function.

Leadership, Pride, Quality And Success . . . . The Student Council!

A leader is a person who enjoys taking charge of matters to ensure that planned events or activities are carried out successfully. A leader is a person who gives that little extra effort to achieve his/her goals. A leader is an organizer who can work with others. A leader is a Student Council member.

Student Council has achieved its many goals for both school and community by giving that extra effort this year. In particular, Freshman Orientation, Homecoming, National Smokeout Day, and the "Say No To Drugs" campaign are just a few of its major accomplishments. This organization also promotes school spirit through pep rallies and annual class competition, always asking the question-"Who Will Be The Next To Be The Best?" And it doesn't end there-Student Council also does charity work raising money for the statewide charity and making its annual visit to Robert Wood Johnson Hospital to carol and spread cheer during the holiday season.

So, when you think of leadership at Sayreville War Memorial High School, Student Council should come to mind. To sum up this organization in four words-

LEADERSHIP, PRIDE, QUALITY AND SUCCESS!!

Guidance is the office with which everyone is familiar. Although their offices are tucked away in a corner of the administrative wing, the counselors reach out to every student in the building.

The guidance counselors have many responsibilities. They assist students in scheduling appropriate classes, completing college applications and spend a great deal of time helping students cope with their personal and academic problems.

Whether it be talking to your parents, finding a student a tutor, or discussing you SAT scores, the counselors are a part of every student's life.

"Congratulations, Mrs. Suminski, it's twin penguins!"

The Sayreville English Department, run by Georgia Baumann, offers a wide range of classes for students of all levels. The staff of experienced teachers tries to make English interesting as well as educational. Honors and advanced placement courses are offered for those that excel in English. Many electives, such as journalism, creative writing, and SAT english round out the courses offered under the English department.

This year only two languages were offered by the foreign language department, Spanish and French. These courses offer the chance for the students to learn about the cultures and history of foreign lands outside of the history class. Even for those who do not plan to attend college, these courses are still worthwhile.

Twenty one years ago Sayreville High School welcomed the first, very small special education class. Since then the department has grown rapidly, gaining many new students along the way. Now, there are several different classifications for these students, such as educable, trainable, learning disabled, perceptually impaired or neurologically impaired. The child study team which consists of a school pshycologist, Joel Burkam; social worker LaVerne Kalafor; and learning consultant, Terri Morasco, works closely with the special education department. This committee also organizes individual educational plans, IEP. Some students that are in the special education program can learn such things as tying their shoes, reading and writing simple sentences, and hammering nails. Other students attend normal classes to the best of their abilities.

Although it may seem like these students are in isolation, in fact just the opposite is true. They lead active student lifes, participating in such diverse activities as sports, theatre, and the arts. Because of the small student-teacher ratio and all the improvements made over the years these students are receiving the best possible education.

Mr. Solomon explains to his gym class how to play the next game. Special Ed students patiently wait for the bell to ring.

One area of the curriculum which is generally overlooked is the Music Department. Through classes of Concert Band, Concert Choir, Jazz Band, Theory and Music Appreciation, students have the chance to learn more about many types of music. Mr. Vala, the enthusiastic new band director and the recently married Mrs. Malara (formerly Miss O.) have organized their curriculum to be educational as well as FUN! In fact, their performance classes do not end at 2:30, but rather continue in after-school practices, concerts, and competitions. These events are a very big part of the program, enhancing the learning experience and the enjoyment of the

Through the guidance of the Art Department, students are able to express their creative drives. A wide variety of art classes are offered to satisfy the most striking and unusual tastes. Among those offered are Intro to Design, Jewelry and Ceramics to name a few. Mr. Resh, Mrs. Sforza, and Ms. Vozza guide the students through the programs which allow them to express creativity in a visual manner.

Physically Fit

Mr Inman relaxes in the simulators room while he waits for his next class to start.

Jumping jacks! Ready??? Begin. One, two, three, one. One, two, three, two..... These are the familiar sounds of a gym class exercising before the day's activities actually begin. However, in February, the regular calaesthetics were replaced with a new series of warm-ups. These included running in place for 30 seconds, crunches, and stretching exercises. Although some students were disoriented at first, the fitness craze caught on after a few weeks.

In the fall and spring, students go outside, weather permitting. The outdoor activities include football, soccer, softball, tennis, track, golf, and archery. However, in the winter, students participate in gymnastics, wrestling, aerobics, tumbling, volleyball, and indoor games. Through these sports, students learn coordination, endurance, and self-discipline.

The physical education department also offers health and driver education to students. Starting with the freshman year, students are given a health course which introduces them to dating, partner selection, and daily living skills. Instead of health, sophomores receive driver ed theory. Based on age, simulators and behind the wheel follow. Material covered in the freshman year is reviewed in junior health. In addition, students are given more in depth explanations of human reproductive anatomy. In "Family Living", senior health, students discuss AIDS, birth control, abortion, marriage, and other topics which were once considered taboo.

Coach Mistretta counts his students that once again did not change.

Useful Arts

After working hard to finish her wood shop project, Carolyn Pytel spends a few moments wondering what to do next.

Although most of the curricula at Sayreville is focused on the traditional academic skills, students can also pursue vocational training. Programs offered include auto shop, engineering drawing, elements of design, architechtural design, and machine drawing. The industrial arts department also offers courses in graphic arts, machine shop, photography, and woodshop.

In addition, the industrial arts department is a vital part of many school activities. For example, Mr. Paul's drafting and wood shops build the scenary for all theatrical productions. Moreover, the graphics arts classes print programs, posters, and newsletters which are used on a variety of occasions. Many talented and gifted programs also work hand-in-hand with this department.

Danny Loeffler rifles through his papers in an attemp to find a suitable shop idea.

Through Mr. Paul's hours of dedication, Liz Rincon is able to finish her cabinet on time.

Charles DelGatto

Dear Charlie,

We are proud of you today and grateful for all the joy and happiness that having you for a son has brought to us. From young age you were sensitive, compassionate and intelligent. We see these qualities along with your leadership abilities making you an outstanding young man. You have the ability to work for the goals that you know are important to you and the balance to enjoy the good times of life. God bless you always.

Love, Mom and Dad Nicole Malaquias

TO OUR DAUGHTER

FROM YOUR MOM

You were always such a sweet little girl, my little helper, and your questions helped me to find new beauty in the world. I learned a lot from helping you to grow up. I love the woman you've become, confident, talented, and self-assured, but sometimes I miss the little girl you once were.

FROM YOUR DAD

You're all grown up and independent now, and you've become a wonderful woman, but you are still, and always will be, my little girl. I can't help worrying about you, even though I know you can take care of yourself. Caring for you is a habit I've had for a long time.

All Our Love, Mom and Dad Edward Stevens

Ed,

Congratulations and other long-winded thoughts from the heart - - -

I've been searching, thinking for the right words to say, - - Something sharp, something neat; perhaps a bit of wisdom to pass your way.

And so,

I wish you sunny days and quiet beaches,

I wish you peace of mind and rainbows and imagined reaches.

I wish you the security of comfortable friends; hugs and stars so bright,

I wish you the eternal warmth of Christmas and fireworks just about every night.

I wish you RBI's and saves, and stolen bases.

I wish you goals and hits and friendly faces.

I wish you the beauty of snow, the joy of winning and much laughter,

I wish you the good times and Special Times and, of course, a love ever-after.

I wish you great things I cannot imagine; new heights and glories and beauty all about,

I wish you ingenuity, flexibility and creativity and a sense of romance, without a doubt!

I wish you good perspectives and positive perceptions, magical visions and a youthful attitude evermore.

I wish you causes to follow, persistence, curiosity, sensitivity: all great gifts to explore.

I wish you all the joy and happiness God can give. Try to take the risks and taste all that life has available. You deserve the gold, the very best; again, again and again.

I know your Mom would be very proud,

Love You, Dad Kristine Dunworth

Dear Kristine,

No one knows what the future will hold, but may you find success and happiness in everything you do. You've made us very proud. Good luck.

> Love, Dad, Mom and Bobby

To our very special Deana,

May your coming years be filled with kindness, understanding, love and respect, for you not only possess these qualities, but are deserving receiving them as well. Congratulations!

Love always, Mommy, Daddy and Kristen Alison Terebush

To Our Alison - - -

Maybe you didn't always listen - - - or do what you were told

But whenever the chips were down - - - we knew you wouldn't fold

We can always count on you - - - for a story or anecdote

And if it's down to sink or swim - - - you'll always be afloat

You're not so easy to understand - - - a lot of times, it seems

But you're usually there with a smile - - - a face from which youth beams

And perhaps we don't express ourselves - - - as much as we'd like to

But when it comes right down to it - - - we're glad that you are you

With Pride and Love - - -Mom, Dad, Dan and Andy

The Editors in their infinite wisdom would like to thank Steve for all the rye bread, Grace for cursing, Hugh for stealing Annette's paper and then resubmitting it, JOSTENS FOR THE WONDERFUL COMPUT-ER PROGRAM THAT SAVED US SO MUCH TIME, K. and K. for the entertainment in first period calc, Maggie for smiling at us today, Ross and Jimi for kissing Grace, Megan for loudly shouting nasty words during bio class, Kim and Chris for Steve's most memorable day in physics before the "survival" assembly. Karen for not showing up at any of our meetings (at least while we were here), Teri for her unique layouts, Karen for her compelling articles, the Catering Club for all of their treats, Charles Dickens for writing A Tale of Two Cities, Mrs. Pfeil pfor her pfabulous pfashions, Ray for finally completing the yearbook receipts, the omnigoddesses of math, Dave Phillips for his inspiration, the Mini Mall Pizza for delivering, Jodi for her wholesome surveys, the State of New Jersey for delaying the construction, Steve for being obnoxious, Kim for spending most of her time in the South Pacific, the Top Ten for not wanting to be "scooped", Miss J. for nagging us, Annette for not killing Hugh, the Golden Arches, any pizza parlor within a 10 miles radius of the high school, Evil Bob for trying to cumulatively drop Dennis out of A.P. History, Coach Conceited, Greg Louganis for winning a double double gold in the Olympics, Ross for breaking up with Teri so she could be happy once again, Raj for never being here, Nadine for not being "A.P." material, the men's Olympic volleyball team for being so gorgeous, Kathy for working so diligently on her section, Harvard for accepting Karen, Karen for turning them down, the janitors for making us go home early, Jodi for not (ice) creaming the Top Ten, all the people who told us to go home when we were collecting money for yearbooks, Eastern Airlines for going out on strike, George "a kinder and gentler president" Bush, David Phillips' niece Katie Elisabeth, Zoe, Miss J's dogs (Mark and Nikki), our parents for having us, and all of the people we know.

(Well, they say it in all of the film awards.)

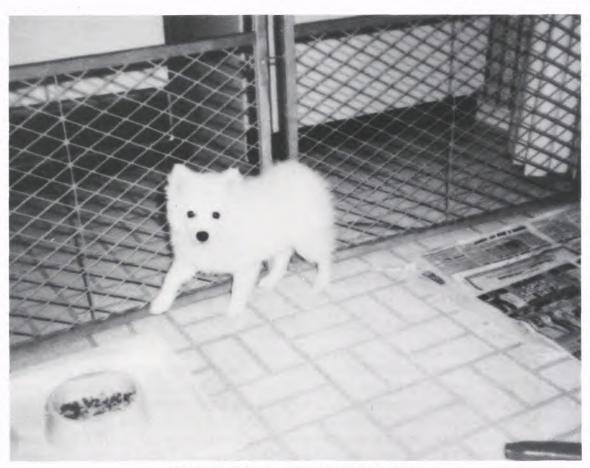

Take care and God bless . . . .

Love,

The Editors

This year several new additions were added to the Quo Vadis family. Along the most noted of these was Nikki, a 20 Ib American eskimo belonging to advisor Miss Barbara Johnson. This slender American eskimo comes from a long line of purple ribbon winners and joins Miss Johnson's other American eskimo Mark. Mark a 40 lb dog will be nine on April Ist and Nikki will celebrate her lst birthday on May 2nd. Miss Johnson says that these two dogs are so talented they peel their grapes before they eat them.

Another new addition to the Quo Vadis staff was Sammy, who belongs to editor in chief Steve Goldie. Sammy pictured on the next page is a purebread Basset Artesian Norman. This very talented dog can eat, sleep and walk better than most dogs, and practices these skills constantly. He is also very skilled at leaving puddles of water with his ears, which always ends up in his water dish. Between these three winning prize pooches, the staff had many interesting meetings especially when the dogs went for walks on the roof outside of A 207.
