It's A Take
by Chris Vainella

For 1992 Sayreville's yearbook theme is "It's a take!" To fully appreciate this year, it seems fitting to look at it as if one were watching a film. So quiet on the set; lights, camera, action!

As our story begins, buses and cars file into the once empty parking lot. Our opening scene concludes as the walkers and remaining cars rush their way towards the Sayreville building, hoping to enter before the first of its many bells. As the scenes roll by, the leaves fall off the trees, the temperature drops, and the reality of endless school sets in on our main characters, who by now have joined their clubs, played their sports, met their friends, and spread their gossip. Action and adventure scenes are also added as students scramble through crowded hallways to safely reach their next class. Then spring rears it head, melting away the bitter weather of winter. Suddenly our story's climax is played out. A baseball her hits the winning homerun; the struggling student gathers his courage to pass his final test; the valedictorian writes a moving graduation speech. The battle is over and our heroes have survived. Finally our story concludes as, one by one, the buses, cars, and walkers depart, leaving the parking lot once again empty on a warm, late June day. Cut. It's a take!

What a picture! Displays the pinnacle of charm, and suave in a Sayreville student.

Too good to be true, everyone knows the answer.

Another two Sayreville-ets converse on how cute cameraman is.

you five always walk like that?

The three amigos chow down in the cafeteria.

"Welcome to our wacky world of psychotic television!"

While posing for a group shot, three arm-linked students exhibit the proper form for blocking hallways.

Mike figures that since these glasses fit so well, he might as well keep them.

While teaching one of his technology courses, Mr. Rupp plots his revenge on the students who stripped his machinery.

Someone should have mentioned to Rita that singing wasn't necessary for this picture.

Michelle excitedly raises her hand, hoping to gain extra points.

Jerry expresses Mrs. McCormack's rule that "Algebra II is fun!"

Jamal works hard to make the grade in his C.P. Biology class.

Warning objects may appear happier than they actually are.

“Check out that girl over in the corner I’d love to find out what type of person she is and have a meaningful relationship with her. Wouldn’t you?”

Usually when you have so many different types of poses it doesn’t work, and it doesn’t here either.

Lights, Camera, Action . . .

No matter who you are. Whether you're a loafer coasting through school with little effort or a brainiac no-life who feels immune to emotion, you can never escape the yearning for a relationship. Even though SWMHS is set up to be a place of learning about languages, histories, literatures, sciences, and equations, it always winds up being something much more important than that. It becomes a breeding ground for relationships. The desire for other student's companionship runs stronger through the hearts of Sayreville's pupils than the desire for the last bell to ring. Whether it happens at the best time or worst time, "love", for lack of a better word, strikes at will, without warning, and to everyone.

Is chemistry so funny that even a graduated cylinder looks amusing?

Tamer attempts to show off his aviation ability.

Nicole symbolizes the quintessence of pose, beauty, gracefulness, all while staying alertly attent during class.

A smorgasbord of adolescence gathering together create an award winning photograph.

Nothing like a little laugh with a cool teacher.

Lunch time is not only for eating!

Typical case of senioritis.

Nurse Baumann spots remnants of this sick student's breakfast.

Only talented students can write while not looking down at the paper.

These girls anxiously await eligible Sayreville bachelors to fill their remaining seats.

Boy, Anthony must really be proud of the extraordinary graffiti amassed within the confines of his locker.

Chris and Sean are so far ahead of the rest, we needed them to turn their heads to get a shot.

Renee's fingers grow weary as another hour of typing elapses.

"Two more drops of this and goodbye chem. lab!"

ROLL 'EM

Enter the school ... Get to homeroom as the bell rings ... Scramble to do last night's homework ... Periods 1, 2, and 3 fly by ... Fourth period boredom rolls in ... run to fifth period lunch to get the latest gossip ... Period six gym outside chills your bones ... Sprint to seventh period still tying your shoes ... count the minutes down till 2:30 in eighth ... D-R-R-R-R-I-N-G!

Thank heavens for fire drills.

"Honestly, it's here somewhere!"

"Excuse me, do you mind?" We're trying to catch up on our gossip."

Joe handles the formality of book covering as Erin gets a head start on copying her neighbors homework.

"Take the picture already, we've been waiting for-ever."

Leave it to Mrs. Kearney to break up a great group shot.

DRIVING TO SCHOOL

When a junior in high school becomes a senior, a lot more happens than a move up in grade. Their bus passes are traded in for car keys. The typical Sayreville student no longer relies on school transportation to get him or her to and from school. They simply hop in their cars, turn on their car stereos, and prepare for the task of battling the traffic in their own cars. The only problem with this set up is that since it appears so easy to get to school, seniors may leave too late to arrive at school on time. Still, the freedom, convenience, and responsibility of handling one's own car is always a nice change from the screaming undergrads one has to deal with on a bus ride to school.

LONG LIVE THE QUEEN ....

If you asked 20 senior students who they were going to nominate for Homecoming Queen, 19 of those would pick out who they thought was the best looking girl in the senior class. But Sayreville's 1992 Homecoming Queen, Nicole Birardi displayed more than just a pretty face. Involved in clubs like S.A.D.D., Deca, and Student council, Nicole left all the stereo-types behind.

Nicole, who was ironically good friends with her opponents, was modestly surprised when she was nominated and won. She's a very conscientious student who feels the homecoming queen's actions are a reflection of the school and accepts that responsibility. Due to her homecoming victory, scholarships are now open to her, which may come in handy since she wants to go to Syracuse or U. Mass. to become an English teacher.

SAYREVILLE'S ACADEMIC ELITE

With all of the activities and events Sayreville takes pride in, academics is sometimes overlooked. But here at Sayreville, we still stress that education is its primary function. The students that attain the ten highest grade point averages symbolize the pinnacle of this goal. We applaud their achievement and hope that all of Sayreville will strive for this goal as well.

SENIORS ... TAKE TWO!

Yearbook finally accommodates those who wondered how their face would look on a computer screen.

People of all sizes are welcome to try Sayreville's fries.

Some students just can't accept help with a straight face.

Keri counts down the seconds until class is over.

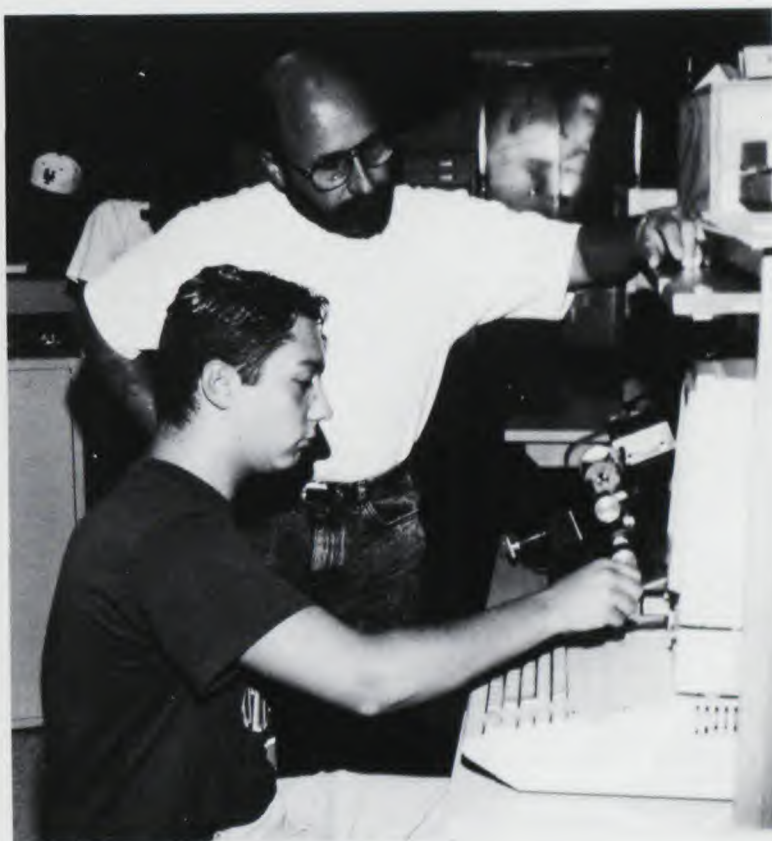

"God, I can't wait until this appointment's over."

Giggles escape Marcy's lips as she works on her assignment.

It is so difficult to get out of work with the teacher looking over your shoulder.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

For one night last year, the Sayreville juniors had an opportunity to live in elegance at their Junior Prom. But that night would not have been possible without the work of the Junior Prom Committee. Day after day, for more than half the school year, this group of hard working students and teachers labored away, determined to make their prom a success. By the time it was all over, the advisors and students had put up a waterfall, arranged the seats, had all the food paid for, and had all the scenery painted for a night many current seniors may never forget.

SETTLING CULTURAL DIFFERENCES

Over the years Sayreville seniors have observed frequent bickering between different peoples. But the seniors, along with the contributions of the other three classes, formed a multi-cultural awareness group. This group was formed in hopes that the cultural walls between students would begin to break down. This has turned out to be one of Sayreville's most important groups. The need for acceptance and understanding of people who differ from each other is a need finally being addressed. So far it has been successful, and hopefully it will continue to grow in participation and results.

SENIORS ... TAKE ONE!

One of Sayreville's social masterminds ponders the stunning appearance of the girl in the second row.

So many people want to be included in the yearbook that we can't always get them all in.

You'll often find while viewing yearbook photos that some people really know how to smile, while others just don't care so much.

The walks down Sayreville's hallways can be so strenuous that rest periods are sometimes necessary.

Don't you just hate it when you have a great portrait set up, and two people crush someone between their smiles and someone else loses their eyesight just before you take it?

Teacher-student friendships are so seldom recognized, that we just had to put one in.

Now how's this for a great pose?

If they smiled any harder, their teeth would fall out.

Don't just sit there Danny, get up and play tennis.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

For the junior class to function as a whole, officers are required. Without them a prom would be impossible. They organize and fund it through countless meetings and bake sales. The discipline, attendance, and participation are imperative for the demands set on the officers and advisors. Still, year after year they get the job done, meeting all their deadlines.

The advisors who fearlessly lead the juniors are Mrs. Tomczyk, Ms. Feltz, and Ms. Senker. President Nicole Wistuba heads off the list of officers, followed by Vice-President Heather Truchan, Treasurer Mandy Ambrosio, and secretaries Sandra Arango and Kim Fischer.

GROWING EVERY DAY ...

Some time last year, Ms. Lamprect and Ms. Goscienski must have gotten together and noticed that Sayerville had a lack of plant life around it and decided to get their science classes to further beautify the school grounds by planting flowers and such. So one day last fall, they put on their coats, grabbed their shovels and rakes ect., and ventured out-doors and began their mission. The project promoted ecological awareness as well as class participation and decoration for the outside of the school.

PEP RALLY, OCTOBER 15, 1992

The junior class came away with top honors in tug of war as well as dominating the rest of the events. All in all it was a great prelude to an exciting Homecoming Day.

Last But Not Least

Half time at Homecoming . . . In the midst of the queen being crowned and the Bombers clashing with rival Woodbridge, Sayreville took a few moments to award the winners of the class float competition. The theme, "It's a Small World After All" should have been named "It's a Small Award Ceremony After All." Within five minutes the Juniors took first, Seniors came in second, sophomores received third, and the freshmen had to settle for last. But the award could not fully exemplify the immense time and effort, put into making the floats. The freshmen theme was "Melting Pot, Class of '96, United We Stand." Well united they all stood, and hopefully they held their heads high because all the efforts were first class.

EDUCATIONAL LEADERS

Dr. Marie Parnell
Superintendent Of Schools

The Class of 1993 is now moving on to another stage of learning. Elementary school and high school were only the beginning of what you will know as a life-long pursuit of learning. Graduation is the recognition that you have completed the first stage and that you have, hopefully, acquired the tools that will enable you to move along, ever increasing your store of knowledge. All you have achieved thus far, and this class has been a successful one, is no more than the strong foundation for what you will now build for yourself. Your parents, your family, and your teachers have given great assistance to the building of this foundation. From here on it is your responsibility to construct what eventually will be the meaning and essence of your life. Build strongly; build surely; and create a lasting contribution to society. Be able in your maturity to look back and say that you made the best use of a strong foundation.

Dr. Parnell

Mr. William Bauer
Assistant Superintendent

PRINCIPAL

To the Graduates:

I wish you the best of luck in all that you do. I have enjoyed knowing you and working with you. We have had an excellent school year and your class has been a vital and important part of it.

The next step for you is an exciting one. Embrace the moment and make the most of it. Be well and happy.

An important ingredient in any school's faculty is a creditable English department. Sayreville's staff happens also to be extremely varied. The English courses cover every conceivable area of the English curriculum, including literature, composition, and vocabulary. Electives include creative writing, journalism, mythology, theater, in addition to more conventional course like Honors English and SAT Prep. In addition, Sayreville also welcomed a new member, Ms. Scordinsky, to its staff. With her added talents Sayreville's English department is certainly an important ingredient in the academic success of its students.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

For a Sayreville student to graduate, two years of a foreign language must be completed. To aid in making this process a painless and sometimes fun one, the Sayreville Foreign Language Staff works on making sure students are properly educated in French, Italian, or Spanish. These courses not only teach the grammar and literature of the language; they also delve into the different peoples who speak the language, their life-styles and distinct customs.

We wish to bid farewell to Mrs. Parks, a long time member of the staff. At the same time we wish to welcome Mr. Kawalec. We will miss Mrs. Parks, but we know that Mr. Kawalec will succeed her ably.

Carla Sutherland; TAG/Humanities; AP American History I, TAG; M Ed; Kean; OM, ACT

One may believe that the Humanities Department is just another name for History classes, but that is not accurate!

True, its most renown subjects are World and US History, but Humanities courses deal with much more. Its courses also offer students a chance to study current history, a course in which they analyze and discuss recent news. Economics allows one to learn about the "Do's" and "Don't's" of the American budget, while Advanced Placement courses prepare students for AP History Exam. So even though Humanities deal mostly with history, its courses do cover a wide range.

Ms. Sutherland carefully prepares her AP History students for the grueling exam.

Ms. McCormack makes excellent use of her time on hall duty.

The Math Department provides Sayreville with a host of courses and is filled with teachers who aid students in the complicated task of solving tough equations. In addition, the order in which one must take these classes is also specific. They start with general math, algebra, and geometry. Then trigonometry, probability and calculus follow. Optional courses are computer math, computer programming and S.A.T. preparation.

"This, boys and girls, is a computer."

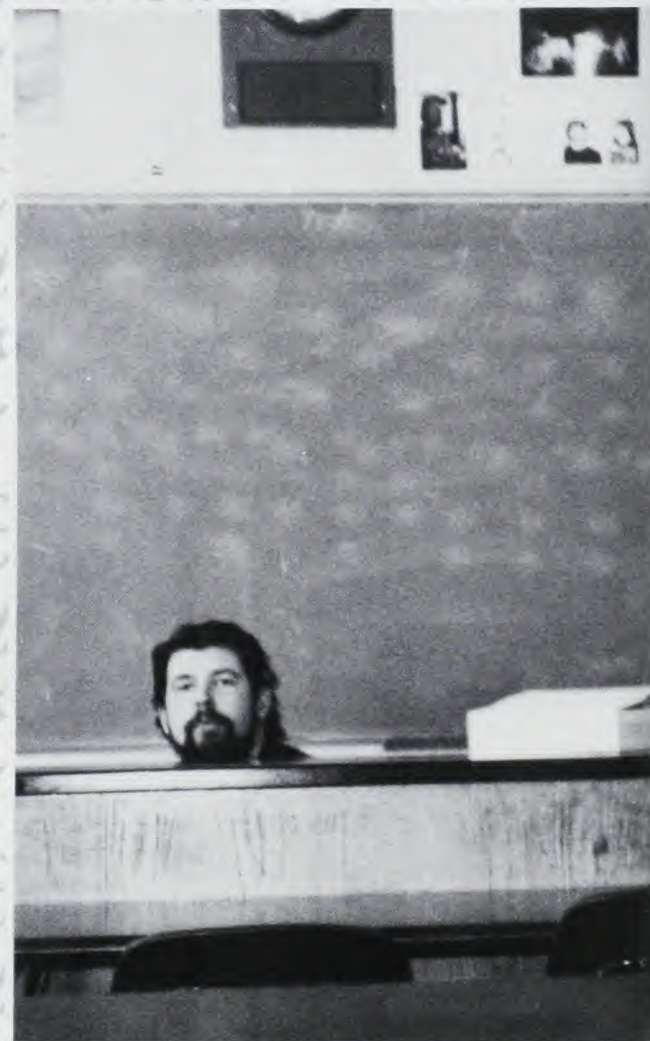

SCIENCE

Michael P. Black; science; Physical Science, C.P. Biology; MAT; Monmouth College; Senior Class Advisor

SWMHS's Science Department offers an important selection of courses. Classes such as physical science, chemistry, physics, biology, ecology, and Human Experience collectively create a clever cluster of coordinated Science courses. One can't seem to find the right words to properly convey the importance of the department that contains the knowledge and technology that will aid all future generations. So let's just say that it is pivotal in the education process of a Sayreville student.

IT'S A TAKE

"I'm small now, but I've been drinking milk ... in a few years ..."

Mr. Klitzke carefully monitors his Physical Science class.

PHYSICAL ED.

Unquestionably, the most truly energetic course students take in High School seems to be Phys. Ed., allows students to display and increase their athletic ability, as well as teaching coordination and discipline. Not only does the department provide energy, it also stimulates their thought processes. A semester of health must be taken every year as well, making physical education a well rounded department filled with multiple ways to exert one's body and mind.

Jack Hefelfinger; Physical Ed., Athletic Director, supervisor of Health, and Driver Education; M. Ed; Trenton State.

ART

Since life is so jam-packed with art, Sayreville couldn't ignore its existence. Therefore, optional art classes have always been a part of its outline of courses. Introduction to design, Jewelry I and II, and commercial art are all among these. They all play a crucial role in a student manufacturing an artistic talent, in a world overflowing with artistic features.

The jewelry classes proudly display their handiwork in the lobby showcase.

Judith A. Sforza; Art; Advanced Art, Creative Crafts, Special Ed Art; BA; Douglass College; Advisor to Images.

Lee Voza; Art; Jewelry , Intro To Design; BA; Jersey City State College; Student Council Advisor.

John Resh; Humanities; Art Workshop, Commercial Art, Sculptured Ceramics, Introduction to Art; Rutgers; Stage Design.

Obviously Debbie didn't mind this picture being taken; do you think Ms. Voza did?

MUSIC

For students who have a talent for music, Sayreville provides courses specifically geared for them. The music department is the only place in the school system where students can express and develop their abilities and talents. These include concert chorus, voice training, theory and harmony, concert band, and jazz studies. All of them offer ample opportunities to express a free spirit and a creative mind.

Homecoming rehearsals serve to perfect the Band's formidable talents.

Debra Chmielewski; Business Education; Marketing education II/Co-op, Marketing I, Career Development; BS; Rider College; Deca Advisor

Business Vocational Education Typing, accounting, introduction to business and business law all combine to amass a Business Vocational Education department. These courses are part of the plan Sayreville has to properly educate and prepare students for the real world. The interest of the students rests largely in the typing classes, but that is no reflection on the importance of the others. They aid tremendously in an attempt to arm Sayreville students with a weapon of knowledge so they can attack the business world head on.

Business Basics: "This, Young lady, is a typewriter."

I don't think Ms. Haltli expected a photographer today.

The Home Economics staff is the most important "ingredient" to helping students learn to cook, sew, and other activities necessary to running a household. Without their help, when Sayreville students went on their own, they would never be able to run an efficient home. So remember to thank them for all their instruction and guidance.

Mrs. Hilda Weisburg; Library/ Media Center;

With the addition of Sayreville's new library, our librarians needed to put forth a greater effort to manage a bigger library. Luckily for us we received that efforts Mrs. Weisburg and Mrs. Krupp. They constantly keep the library in working order with the help of a handful of students. The aid they give virtually all Sayreville students with their research should not be forgotten.

Rarely can you walk into the guidance office in Sayreville and see all of the counselors lounging around, waiting for something to do. That is because they are the busiest department in the school. Their responsibilities do not stop with setting up pupils with their courses. Their duties also involve assisting Seniors in filling out college applications, as well as sponsoring an enlightening look at careers at the end of the year called Career Day. On top of all that, they also teach freshman career development courses. All of the counselors deserve our respect, attention, and thanks.

COLOR GUARD

Unlike other clubs, Sayreville's Color Guard begins practicing in late August instead of September. They can consistently be seen performing hand in hand with the band. Fueled by energetic members who are willing to work long, hard hours, the Sayreville Color Guard dazzled us all continually throughout the football season.

After they twirl the rings around, they do a juggling act.

The elite French students inhabiting the halls of SWMHS have proved themselves to be hard working and successful students. They have to maintain a straight A average for at least three years. Talk about hard work! Now with their new French teacher, maybe they'll be encouraged to strive harder for that A.

Is this a new love match, or what?

IMAGES

Without a group of students who reshelve returned books, distribute overdue notices, among other library tasks, the library would be a mess. Fortunately, Sayreville's new library can still be kept clean by the diligent Library Council. So the next time you see a sparkling library, that's the Library Council.

MATH CLUB

This is a club of pure competition. During the year, students who sign up for the club take six different math tests. Filled with very advanced Math problems, the highest scorers can go on and compete state wide and eventually nationally.

The noise of chit-chat grows enormously loud as friends converse. Couples break up and make up. A folder is dropped and papers fly everywhere. Lockers flip open and students frantically shuffle through papers and books to locate the right materials for the class. The lockers slam shut and the rustling feet can be heard as the crowd scatters. Then there is silence once again until the next bell rings in Bomber Alley.

SWMHS BAND

This year the Sayreville band received high acclaim for their efforts. They competed successfully due to diligent and loyal musically inclined students who give a lot of valuable time and effort. ## ODYSSEY OF THE MIND

We write articles and captions for pictures that have been fitted into their appropriate spaces. Tireless work, consistently done after school, help contrast a hilarious environment of colorful characters that create the yearbook.

MULTI- CULTURAL CLUB

In their attempts to close the gap between cultures, Sayreville created a Multi- Cultural Club. It meets to make the gallant effort of generating an understanding between students of different backgrounds. This effort is long overdue and hopefully it will grow in popularity and success.

SPRING MUSICAL "ANNIE"

Melinda, Kristy, and Rebecca enjoy a laugh on the set.

In the spring of '93, Sayreville will bring the magic of the movie musical Annie to the stage. Starring Joanna Lajewski and Shari Kaplan as Annie, Michael Anderson as Daddy Warbucks and a whole host of other characters. Annie is one of two plays Sayreville acted out this year, and it's just as entertaining.

STUDENT COUNCIL

IT'S A

The most recognizable club in Sayreville is the Student Council. Their tasks are to motivate Sayreville students to be involved with school elections, ignite school spirit for class competitions, and create attendance at school dances. They also visit Holiday Hospital and Sponsor the "Say No to Drugs" Program.

It's easy. Just like bowling. Hit the pin.

When they are not fighting for class points, the Senior, Junior and Sophomore student councils take time out to remind us that they pretend to be friends too.

Don't you wish you were Pat Walsh?

ALMOST ANYTHING GOES

HOMECOMING '92

Last years' Bomber baseball team was not as successful as they had hoped in being a contender in the Red division. Their record was 3-18. During the season the Bombers lost many key players, such as Brian Grossmann, Artie Chionchio, and Paul Hermann. Jim Gotti also had some back problems during the season but still played. It hurt the Sayreville offense and defense somewhat that Gotti was not healthy. Due to these problems, about 6 games into the season Coach Gozora had to call players from the J.V. team. These players gained experience, and while this did not help the team's record, it does make the future look much brighter.

IT'S A
TAKE

Sayreville's head managers attend another game.

The Sayreville Bomber varsity softball team, coached by Miss Ryan, had a winning season of 12-7. The Bombers went up against tough competitors like J.P. Stephens, Piscataway and Edison. Senior and one of the captains, Colleen Waxmunskey led the team with a batting average of .368. Joanne Pachkowski was close behind with .361. Pachkowski was chosen for All Conference and the Division All-Star Team. Karen Kabara, the first baseman, led the team with 77 put outs. Jessica Gondek, the other captain, topped the stats with 18 RBI's. Tracy Brewer also contributed extraordinary talent and athletic ability throughout the entire season.

The Bombers are looking forward to another successful season. The team won the first round of the GMC Tournament but lost a heartbreaking game in the quarterfinals to Edison by the score of 1-0. Sayreville was ranked second in the county and qualified for the the States. The J.V. team, led by Miss Popowski, was also satisfied with a winning season. They, too, have high hopes for the upcoming season.

"First, I fire it to the second baseman, she relays it to first and we pull off another double play."

With this play, Sayreville adroit fielder becomes the potential M.V.P. of the game.

Joanne has been up two times today. So far she's nailed the first baseman's knee, the second baseman's shin, and is now setting her sights for the shortstop's head.

The Bomber softball hurler unleashes another underhand curve as the fielders anxiously await it's result.

"Oh, you thought you'd get away with calling me a rag arm didn't you? Well take this!"

Karen patiently stands poised ready to catch the relay throw for another Sayreville out.

GIRLS SPRING TRACK

The 1992 Girls Spring Track Team had an exceptionally good season. Led by head coach Bill Doll the team attained a record of 5 wins and 3 losses.

Senior Karen Hill showed great strength in the sprinting events while senior Jen Johnson ran distance. Nancy Arrial reached great distances with the shot-put and the discus. Juniors Kathleen Walsh and Stephanie Vivas hurdled their way to the finish line. Melissa Jones had great times in the middle distance events. Stacey Maher and Kara Quick performed astonishingly in the high jump.

Sophomores Tara Brazzel, Carolyn Yung, Becky Jacheo leaped over many hurdles during the season. Mandy Riccardi, Kelly Miano, and Cindy Tobin also ran distance. In the middle distance Audrey Behrens and Stacy Piscitelli had outstanding performances. Audrey also proved her strong determination in the long jump.

Three freshman athletes who had an exciting season were Jessica Roneree, Marissa Ferraro, and Laura Zemsky.

The camera-conscious girl's track members manage to celebrate their victory and avoid a picture.

Someone tell Jodi that if she's not ready and set she can't go!

Becky uses her last ounce of agility to easily handle the hurdle.

"Run around the track eleven times? What are you crazy?"

"Now let's see, once they start the race, I run until I reach the finish line. I think I can remember that."

Tara takes her final strides toward the finish line.

"Oh, this is going to hurt!"

Moral support from the Bomber teammates has never been so obvious.

"Good discus, nice discus. You want to go far, don't you?"

Thoroughly drenched and exhausted, Brian summons his last bit of energy to finish the race.

BOYS SPRING TRACK

Adrian signs in relief that his victory is well in hand.

IT'S A
TAKE

The '92 Spring Track team coalesced to run, throw, hurdle, and pole vault around. Sayreville's track for another attempt at a successful season. Almost coming away with an even record, Sayreville's track stars displayed all facets of discipline and heart. Three wins and four losses really doesn't give the track team enough credit.

Coach Scarola and assistant Coach Correll managed the Bombers past Edison in a tough upset victory. Meanwhile captains Matt Doherty, Adrian Malato, Chris Johnson, and Jim Kurk, along with important members like Jim Clandriello, Aaron Bennis, and Sid Sardar held the team together and turned in a very respectable performance. Although they didn't qualify for a tournament as a team, individual athletes did win awards.

Jim's first place finish in the county 800 meters, and Rich Downy's third place finish in the javelin. So keep your head's up high, boys, and good luck next year.

Aaron asks himself, "How much further before I win and can go home?!"

I hate to tell you this Anthony, but it's a long drop from where you are.

A group of Sayreville's top golfers discuss the severity of their upcoming match.

Brian intensely muses over how makeable his next is.

Chris watches as yet another putt makes its way into the hole.

Sometimes you hit such a bad shot, it leaves this expression on your face.

Will you look at that? That ball is coming right at us.

Coach Helwig watches as Sayreville routs another opposer.

VARSITY GOLF

IT'S A
TAKE

That ball flew so far they were forced to squint into the sun to follow its flight.

The '92 golf team lost its number one, two, three, and four ranked players, and its roster of new ranked golfers lacked a senior.

Most guessed that the team would simply roll over and play dead. But much to the surprise of the doubters, SWMHS's '92 golf team, despite handling tough losses, survived the season by coming out even. Coach Larry Helwig motivated his young talents to 10 wins, 9th in the county, and a place in the Greater Middlesex County Tournament.

So how did they pull off this unexpected act? Freshman. In '92, Sayreville's talent was argumented by the arrival of Karl Sadowski, Paul Thurston, and Dan LaFranchi. Because of them, the golf team's absence of its former stars was not felt as much. In addition its 5th, 6th, and 7th ranked players from the previous year's team were bumped up to lead the squad. They consisted of Dan Buchanan, Jason Fajardo, and Chris Vainella, who helped continue Sayreville's respectable golf team record. With the worst behind them, Sayreville can look forward to next season.

Zahrol hammers a topspin backhand, ala Jim Courier, the French Open champ.

The wrist-snap is essential to an effective, penetrating serve.

Always the strategist, Chris throws up a defensive lob when pulled wide out of court.

Adam punches a forehand volley during warmups.

"Head down . . . Knees bent . . . Racket head perpendicular . . . Hit through the ball!"

BOYS VARSITY TENNIS

The 1992 boys varsity tennis team had a successful year. In their winnings of 9 wins and 8 losses, all of their starters contributed to this success. Leading the team into victory was first singles, senior Scott Russ, and third singles senior Samar DeSai. Their double starters include, sophomore Saurav DeSai, and sophomore Chris Ryphinski at first doubles and junior Sunny Mehta and sophomore Shamel Khan at second doubles. Other varsity starters include freshman Adam Grossman, sophomore Craig Yetsko, and sophomore Anthony Emma. The last match of the season was the most exciting when Sayreville defeated the state champs East Brunswick 3-2. Let's hope that the 1993 tennis will be just as successful as '92!

The western forehand grip, popularized by Bjorn Borg in the '70's, is still prevalent today.

Unfortunately, I only have two paragraphs to sum up what rightly deserves page after page of praise. What I'm referring to is the success of Sayreville's 1992 football team.

They finished the season with their best record ever, 8-3. They also brought thousands of people into the stands to witness victories over arch rival Woodbridge, Edison, and Bridgewater. Still, even in their rare losses, they displayed the spirit and heart most professional football players lack. Coached by Sal Mistretta, Sayreville persevered despite losses of important senior members. Led by legendary q-back Harry Nakielny and superstar wide receiver D.J. Cleary, Sayreville won enough games to tie for the red division title and a spot in the NJ state tournament for the first time in the history of the team. Other stars were Joey Cavallaro, Chris Felice, Tom Roberts, Craig Nalitt, Pat and John Walsh.

Great time for a sing along, wouldn't you say?

As Joe takes his bow, he reveals that behind his talent rests a modest man.

"And then you put it in the oven and bake at 350"

"Nice jacket!"

Jessica cleverly maneuvers her way through the defense to score a goal!

Debbie expressing her extraordinary talents.

BOYS VARSITY SOCCER

The 1992 Sayreville Varsity Soccer team, despite a torrid start, wound up with an even record and an optimistic outlook for the future.

Starting a team of almost all Juniors, Coach Jegou guided his team through adversity and triumph. Along with players like Juniors Brendan Major and Don Kall; goalie Adam Grossman and Senior goalie Frank Gorman; captains Jeff America, Kevin Marley, and Jeremy Major combined for an extremely potent soccer squad.

The team's record ended at 9 and 9, with first round loses in both the GMC and State Tournaments. But in this case, the success of the team pales in comparison to the skill of the dedicated Bombers. But with all the young talent Sayreville possesses; the future is looking.

GIRLS VARSITY SOCCER

The 1992 girls' varsity soccer team led by Coach Fischer finished the season with an impressive record of 11 and 8. The team played in the State Tournament and made it into the semi-finals of the GMC's. In the semi-finals, they met their biggest rival, East Brunswick. They played a very competitive game but fell short scoring more goals against them than any other competitor this year.

The captains of the 1992

GIRLS VARSITY FIELD HOCKEY

The Varsity Field Hockey team set out in late August on a Mission. Coach Popowski, the senior captains, Jamie Garbowski, Janet Browning, and Rebecca Prebola and the rest of the girls set their sights on the county championship. The team finished the regular season undefeated with a record of 15-0-1, capturing the GMC Title. Ranked first in Middlesex county, the girls defeated South Plainfield 1-0 to win the county tournament championship.

The season came to an end with a 3-2 overtime loss to Middletown North in the Group IV State semi-final. Congratulations to all the girls on an excellent season. MISSION ACCOMPLISHED!

Playing field hockey can really be a hair raising experience, especially for the girl in the back of this photo.

GIRLS X-COUNTRY

Even though the girls X-country team consisted of only a few runners, they still managed to have a very successful season. The team didn't get discouraged even when they faced opposing teams with double the number of members. One of the best things about the Girls X-Country team was that they always were good sports about their wins and losses.

The entire team included 11 members. Junior runners were Audrey Behrens, Stacey Piscitelli, and capt. Mandie Riccardi. Sophomore members were Marisa Ferraro, Stephanie Pilip, Rosemarie Sclafani, and Laura Zemsky. The team also included 3 very supporting managers. The coach Mrs. Carney, tried her best to be there for the team even though she had her leg in a cast for almost half the season. Because of everyone's strong efforts, they were able to finish the season on a winning note.

BOYS X-COUNTRY

"Hut two, three, four. Hut two, three, four, step it up men!"

The Sayreville Cross-Country team finished another season with an impressive record of five wins and five losses. Leading the way for the Bombers were Seniors: Jim Calandriello, Aaron Bennis, and Phil Lesniak.

An important win came in at Roosevelt Park where Sayreville defeated St. Mary's in a close match. Senior Captain Jim Calandriello defeated his former teammate John Kugol, of St. Mary's, by about 40 second. He remained second only to Aaron Bennis who made all red division in the GMC.

Other veterans who showed much improvement were Jan Pattanayak, Tarum Bhalla and Eric Kwiecinski. Some new comers on to the running were sophomores Kurt Schrek and D.J. Hartman. Varsity runners at the GMC Tournament included Jim Calandriello, Eric Kuiecinski, Tarum Bhalla, Kurt Schrek and D.J. Hartman.

GIRLS TENNIS

This year for the Sayreville Girls Tennis Team has been a rebuilding one. Coached by Mr. Nicolaison, the team has many new starters, including both double teams, with a lot of young talent yet to be seen.

The Varsity team consists of First singles-senior Joanne Pachkowski; Second singles-sophomore Amy Kukulya; Third singles-senior Jaime Morrell; First doubles-sophomores Tracey Thomsen and Kristen Sosulski; and Second doubles-sophomores Deidre Kolarick and Debbie Collela. Other Varsity starters are Jen Zdan (junior), Danielle Sautner (freshman), and Elise Givand (freshman). The remaining team members are Junior-Christine Nastri; Sophomore-Christine Schultz; Freshmen-Dana Bender, Tara Eiseman, and Wendy Foley.

GYMNASTICS

Sharon, Sandra, and Colleen exhibit their new method of walking.

In '92 Sayreville's gymnastic's squad, led by Coach Donlan, managed to uphold their standards of excellence and discipline by competing and finishing with a fine record. On the team were juniors Nikki O'Neil, Sandra Arrango, Lorie Braine and a host of other young ladies gifted with agility, dexterity, and enthusiasm.

Thanks to continuous wins around their division, the team wound up with an 8 and 3 record, making it one of Sayreville's most successful sports team. Supported by a lot of young talent and intelligently coached, this gymnastics team should continue to hear even greater praise in the future.

"Mom said this hairspray would work, but I want to see for myself."

The uneven parallel bars demand concentration, strength, and hours of practice.

Tom stands poised at the foul line as he prepares to launch his free throw.

Paul pulls down another rebound as the Sayreville bench looks on.

Sayreville's "Michael" puts up a jump shot from the perimeter.

BOYS VARSITY BASKETBALL

Sola drives the lane and throws up a one hander.

The boys varsity basketball team finished their first winning season in eight years and only their second winning season in fourteen years. They can finally get the reputation of a losing team off their backs with their 11-10 record. With all their hard work and skill, as well as their youth, will hopefully give them the reputation of a big winning team instead.

O'Neil carefully views the court before making his pass.

Jamal sure looks like he's ready to jump right in there, don't you think?

Even though this shot is only worth one point, it is vital to the game.

"Remember, shoot the ball in the hoop, and don't let them score either. It's easy!"

Mike searches down court for someone to pass to.

The Edison basketballer stops and asks, "Well, are you going to pass it or what?"

As Chris ponders over who he should pass to, his opponent notices that his shirt is two sizes too big.

Mike Clark does his Michael Jordan impression as he takes off for the hoop!

Joanne picks up speed preparing to leave her opponents in the dust.

Sometimes 2 points are so easy to score it leaves the Bomber girls in shock.

Getting the hoop into focus is an important step in scoring points as illustrated here.

"Remember, they're bigger, stronger, faster, but you're prettier than they are."

Sayreville is so intimidating, that the opponents resort to closing their eyes and raising their arms to the spirits above, praying for us to miss.

This girl's battle for the ball grows so intense that the ref even heads towards the exits.

GIRLS V. BASKETBALL

The girl's varsity basketball team finished another season with their consistent success. Their teamwork and hard work pay off in quality victories. Just like Sayreville's other teams, the girl's varsity basketball has enough young, spirited talent to continue their success for many seasons to come.

1st: A. Gerguler, J. Pachkowski, S. Allocco, B. Awell. 2nd: F. Samuels, K. Thomas, J. Kanc, T. Bouchard. 3rd: K. Rozd, D. Feltz, R. Robe, J. Gunshefski. 4th: J. Pasewark, L. Smith

Free throws are an important part of any basketball game.

Joanne tries to dodge her opponent but realizes that it is not as easy as it looks.

Stephanie looks to penetrate the opponents defensive set-up.

The two teams crash the boards in an effort to grab a defensive rebound.

With poise and concentration, Jodi launches a foul shot toward the basket.

VARSITY WRESTLING

In the 92-93 season, Sayreville's wrestling team compiled their second best record they ever had. This years 12-4 was one shy of last years 13-4-1. Their team was filled with wres tlers from weights of 103 to 189 lbs. With all of their experienced young talent the Sayreville Wrestlers can look forward to near record breaking season for along time to come.

"Hey, Chris, your shoes are untied!"

Now count arms and legs and try to figure out if there's another person hiding in this picture somewhere.

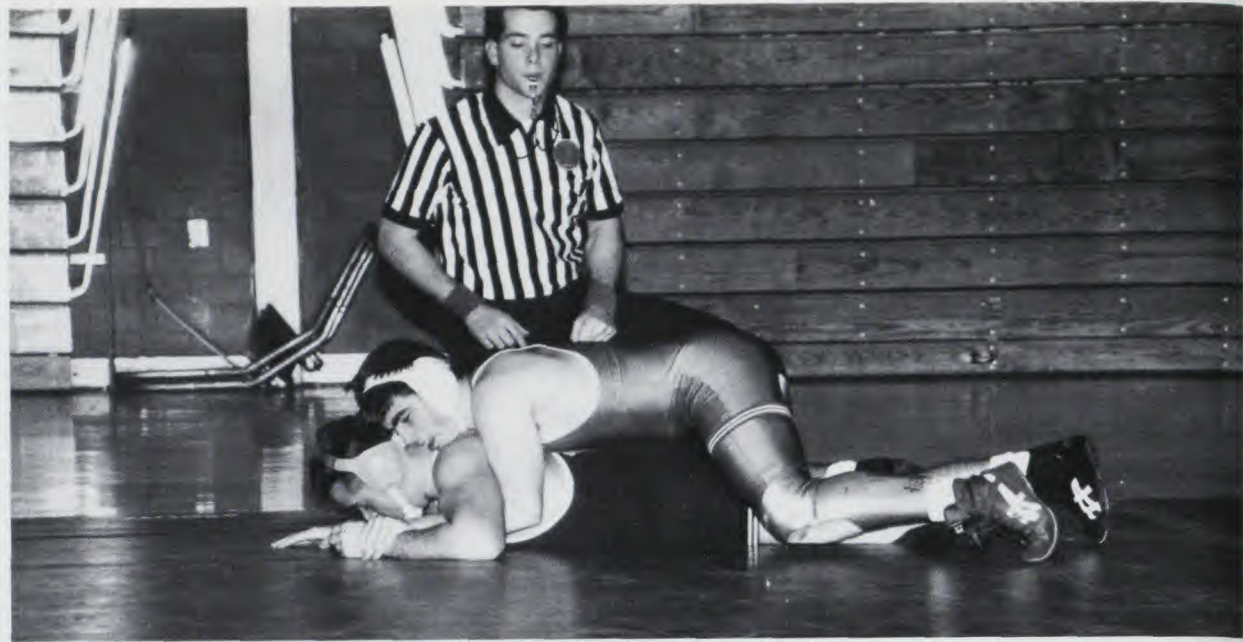

"The match is over. You can get off my arm now!"

Just when you thought it was safe to go back on the wrestling mat, he came back again! Every wrestler's worst nightmare. It's "Friday the 13th Part XX Jason the Wrestler!"

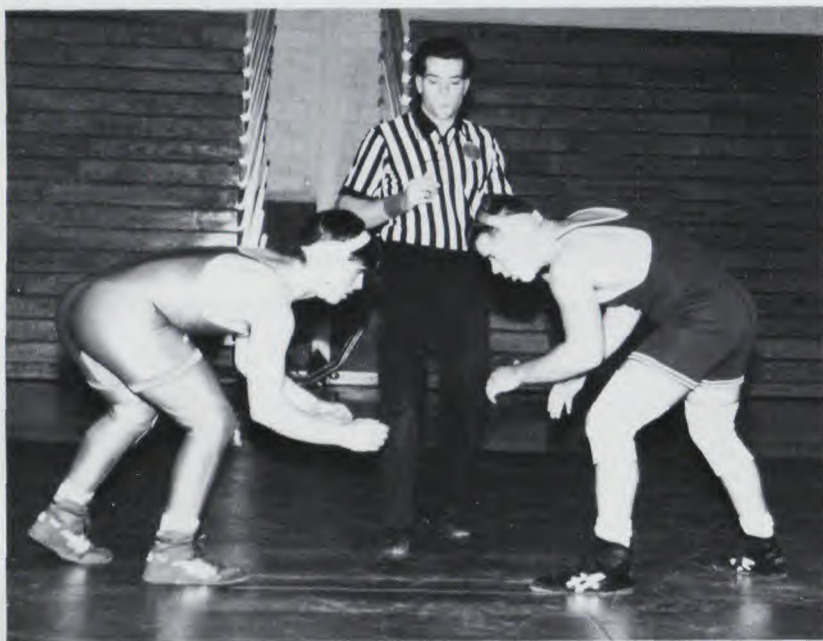

It's amazing, even though this wrestler was battling his opponent in an attempt to win the match, when we yelled, "A photo opportunity!" he still smiled for the camera.

"I've fallen and I can't get up!"

Pat impatiently waits as he faces the match of his life!

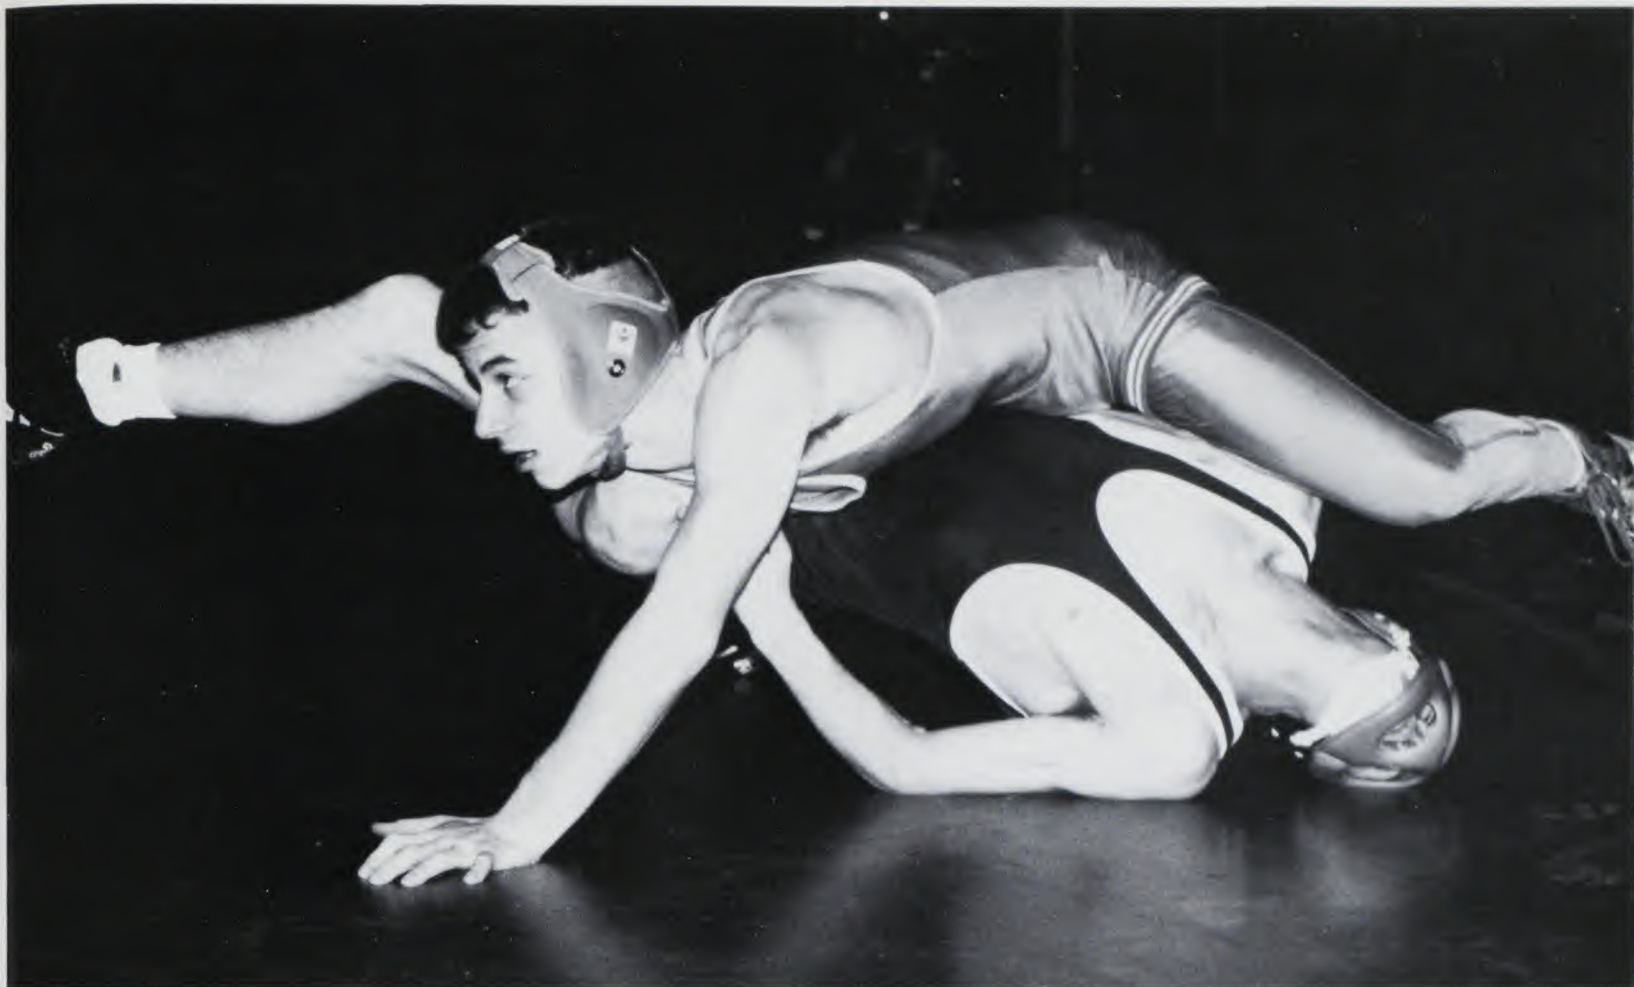

Sean struggles to upend his opponent with a clever move.

Two antagonists square off in combat.

"I hope this guy used an effective deodorant this morning!"

A Bomber vies to make good his escape from his opponent's grasp.

As in all sports, an attentive official plays an integral role in the contest.

"Would you mind getting that camera out of my face? This is a strenuous situation as it is, without you taking pictures of me!"

Are they managers or just really determined autograph hounds? You make the call!

"I hope you don't mind, Aaron, but I'm hitching a ride on the back of your shirt."

Oh sure, they're all smiling now, but wait until you see their expressions once they've finished running a few miles, uphill, bothways, against the wind.

Top Row: S. Vivas, J. Roneree, L. Zemsky, Mgr. C. Natri, B. Jacheo, C. Miano, C. Tobin, M. Riccardi. Middle Row: M. Burley, S. Bulmer, M. Ferraro, J. Grillo, K. Zurawski, K. Walsh. Bottom Row: S. Valentino, S. Piscitelli

"Oh I see, you don't run under these things, you jump over them!"

WINTER TRACK

The 92/93 Boys and Girls Winter Track seasons both finished successfully. Competing on the same days and at the same times, each team seemed to complement the other. The boy's team finished with a 4-3 record, while the girls ended with an even record of 3-3. Both teams had their share of big contributors as well. For instance, on the boy's side there were stars like Anthony Pisano, Jim Calandriello, Aaron Bennis, and Jeff Innis. The girls had athletes such as Cindy Tobin, Laura Zemsky, Mandi Riccardi, Stefani Vivas, and Jessica Roneree. With all of their contributions, Sayreville's team defeated such powerful squads as J.P. Stevens, Edison, and Colonia.

The team becomes jubilant after another aquatic victory.

A "Sayreville submariner" is lost in a pensive thought over her scheme for victory.

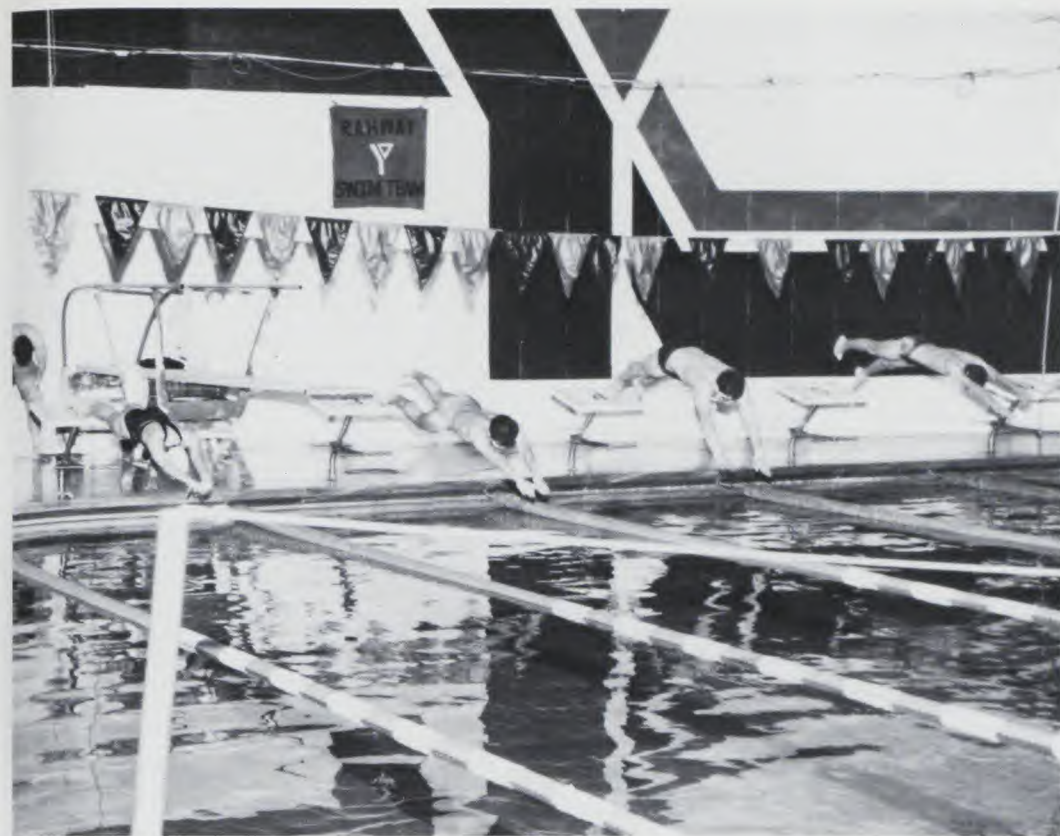

And what a powerful spring off the blocks our Sayreville swimmer perfected!

Carianne talks to her teammates about her plans to win the final race.

Another rough day of practice — "We've got to do this dive until we get it right."

One very talented swimmer shows off his trick jumping abilities.

VARSITY SWIMMING

This year's Swimming team finished another successful season with an assorted group of strong experienced swimmers. Beating quality teams and receiving a slew of individual awards the swimmers impressed their division and surpassed their previous team's records. With this season the team should be motivated to do even better next season.

Jamie Garbowski

Dear Jamie,

To us as parents it sometimes seems as if life is a series of "can't wait's". We can't wait until the baby is born; can't wait until she starts to walk and talk (well, perhaps we were a little hasty with that); can't wait until she starts school; can't wait until she graduates, etc. And, for the child there are the "can't wait's" too. She can't wait until Santa arrives; can't wait for her driver's license; can't wait until the big game; can't wait for the prom; can't wait to go to college.

We don't want to embarrass you, but for us, these "can't wait's" have zoomed by too quickly. It seems as if it were only yesterday that you and your friend were coming home for a lunch of grilled cheese sandwiches and that you were Mrs. Rabbit in the kindergarten play. From your classroom achievements to all the honors you've earned playing field hockey, we hope you know how proud we are of you. We know all you went through to be the player you are.

Do not change the way you are. Enjoy life every day the way you have since day 1. Always keep that great sense of humor! Find the opening and go to goal. You are a joy!! Didn't we just prove the doctors wrong? For someone who wasn't supposed to be: YOU SURE ARE!

We Love You!

Mom, Dad, Chris & Kerry

Karen Lovasz

Karen,

You have a quiet quality that makes you very special. You are always there when things need to be done. We are very proud of you, even though we don't always say or show it. Best of luck in the future, and with God's help may you accomplish your dreams.

Love,

Mom, Dad and Chris

Aaron Bennis

Dear Aaron,

October 2, 1974, was a very special day in our lives — the day God gave "our boy" to us. As we have watched you grow from the cheerful, affectionate baby you were to the responsible, caring young man you are today — we are very proud to be your parents. On your venture down the road of life, always remember:

There are no failure — Only less learned; If you have a complaint — Find a solution; If you choose to do it — do it right!

We love you "Buddy",
Dad & Mom

Louise Marie Myers

Dear Louise,

You were a wonderful little girl, always a helper, always involved, forever caring and always sharing. You have made us very proud in all you've done, the times you lost and the times you won. Enjoy all your hopes and plans knowing we'll be there throughout life's demands. God bless you in all you do. We love you, Weezie!

Dad, Mom, Patrick,
Timothy

How could we ever put into words how much you mean to us and how proud of you we are.

You have always been very special. You have given us many years of happiness and pride. Words could never express how much we love you. You have added greatly to our lives with your love, sensitivity, and strength.

You're not a child anymore and you are starting to take responsibility for your own life. It's not easy growing up in today's world, but we know we can rely on your good judgment to make the right choices in life.

You are one of our greatest joys and we admire you for the man you've become.

We want to give you gifts that money can't buy. The gift of respect and belief in you. We want to give you freedom to live your own life. We want you to have faith that God will always be with you and love you.

We wish you happiness, good health, success, and love. We know whatever you do in life, you will do it well.

Remember we will always be here for you and we will always love you.

Thank you for being such a wonderful son; you are very special to us.

Congratulations

Love

Kimberly Ann Thomas

Dear Kim,

You are our precious "special angel" sent to us from heaven. Where has the time gone? We close our eyes and see a fast-forward of you from the day we saw your sweet little newborn face for the very first time, all the way up to seeing the always-smiling face of a beautiful young woman of today, whom we are so very proud of!

You have brought nothing but pride and joy into our lives. It is not only your outstanding academic achievements we are so proud of—we always knew you were bright—how many 5 year olds can read the New York Times?!? It is you as a person, our bright, shining star. We'd like to believe that we had a hand in the way you turned out, but the truth is that you were a "natural" to begin with, and you made our job as parents very easy. From a tiny little girl, you have always been giving, loving, sweet, caring, dedicated, hard-working, loyal, compassionate, sensitive, generous, patient, and kind-hearted. You have always been so full of determination, honesty and courage. You have the magic to touch people's lives. You have never been envious of the more advantaged, and you've been warm and giving to the less fortunate. You always see the good in people and do not sit in judgment. You are a true friend to those who know you.

We are so lucky to have so many wonderful memories of our "little girl." You will also always cherish your childhood in your heart. It was so full of love and good, happy times, wonderful trips and adventures and lots of laughter. We wish we could hold on to our "little girl" forever but, as with a delicate butterfly, we must set you free and allow you to grow. You will always have our love and support. Time and change does not alter a family's love, and we will always be here for you. We wish you love, happiness, and success. Take today's opportunities and turn them into tomorrow's successes.

May God bestow His blessings on you as you pursue your goals and dreams now and throughout your life. Always believe in yourself, as we believe in you. We love you so much.

Love, Mom, Dad, your brother Bobby
& the whole family

Congratulations; you've made it. Now you are going to be a big college student. I hope you get into whatever school you have chosen, and good luck. Well, anyway, I know we've had our good times and bad, but that's all over. All that matters is we are here for each other now and I love you. Have a great summer and good luck in whatever you decide to study. (P.S.-Party hard like the class of '92" did.)

Dear Carrie,

You have matured into a beautiful young lady, ready to face the future. Your potential knows no bounds. We've always believed in you — now the time has come for you to believe in yourself.

Congratulations on your graduation! We are very proud of you and all your accomplishments.

Love,

Mommy, Daddy and

Lauren

Dear Jamie Dawn,
You have given us only happiness since the moment you were born. Thank you for knowing when to make us smile, just when we needed it. You are our baby, daddy's little girl. Whatever you dream we know will come true because your determination has already proven your success. Never forget how proud we are of you and how very much we love you. Thanks for just being you and for being our #1 scooper.

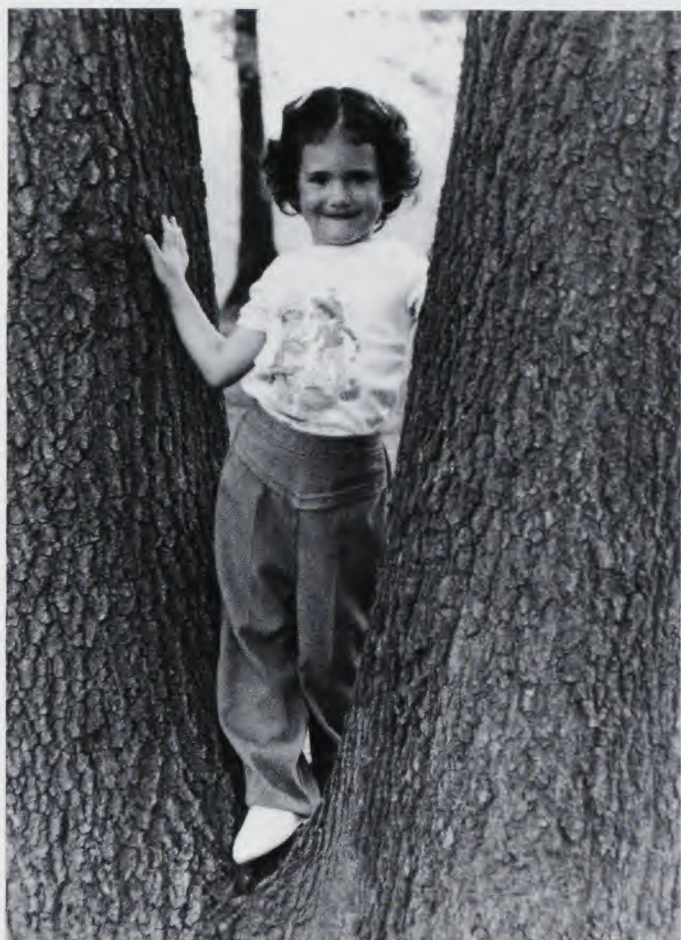

Loving you more and more,
Ma/Shell, Da/Mic, and Eric

Carrie Ann Eberhardt

Nicole Birardi

To my daughter, Nicole,

I can not help wondering where the years have gone since you were just my little girl, reaching out for me to hold you, to protect you, to love you . . . and upon your graduation I can not help remembering those days, but I also see you as you are now, mature and strong, no longer in need of me to protect you. As you continue in your future, I want you to keep in mind that I am always here for you both as your mother and your friend. I am so proud of all you have accomplished in your young life. I thank you for being such a continued source of happiness in my life. May you always be inspired to reach your dreams and be your own person. I love you very much and wish you success in all of your endeavors.

Love,
Mom

Rebecca Prebola

The time has come for graduation day.
Yet, it seems like only yesterday
You were so small and full of dreams.

We watched you grow in body and in mind
To the person you are, thoughtful and kind
And beautiful as rainbow beams.

We are as proud of you as we can be.
We'll always be here for you, Dad and me.

Aaron Bennis

Aaron,

You've always been there to confide in or to stand up for me. Most brothers could care less about their bratty kid sister, but you're a true friend. I know when I was little I dreamed of being an only child, but now that's coming back to haunt me. They'll be no one to share secrets or stories with and no accomplice to help raid the kitchen when Mom and Dad are out. No matter where you are I'll always be there for you, and I know you'll be there for me. I'll always be proud to be "Bennis's sister."

Love,
Jess

Taralyn Guiamano

Tara,

We watched you grow from our little princess into a fine young woman. Always follow your dreams and be the best you can be. We love you and are very proud of all your accomplishments. Good Luck in the future.

Love,

Mom & Dad

P.S. "BABY!!"

Kevin Ciak

Dear Kevin,

It's hard to believe 18 years have gone by since our first born was brought into this world. Through the years, our adorable little boy turned into a fine, handsome young man. You're an ideal son and a perfect brother. We love you and we'll always be here for you! God Bless you and good luck in the future!

Love you,

Mom, Dad,

Jason & Anthony

Joanna Lajewski

God could have made you different,
But loves you as you are;
It's good character that matters,
It pleases Him by far.
Each one has capabilities,
Each one is quite unique,
Each one has potentialities
That pop out if we seek.
God gave each distinct gifts,
And you have quite a few,
Determine to make use of them,
The world has need of you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Jeanne,
Johnny, and Joe

Kevin Karr

Dear Kevin,

The world is your stage and you are one of its players. Follow your heart and your dreams will become reality. We love you and are so proud of you!

Love,
Mom and Dad

P.S. This picture represents your happiest times. Always keep these moments with you. Think surreal!

Nicole Birardi

Dear Daddy,

There have been so many times in my life that I have missed your presence, but I have always thought of you as good things happened in my life. Although I know you are watching from above, I can not help but wish that you could be here to share in all of my joys. I miss being able to tell you of my many dreams and aspirations. I hold the memories very close to my heart and carry them with me everywhere. Through you, I have learned that time is precious and you must make the best of each moment . . . as I plan to do in whatever my future may bring. You are and always will be in my thoughts everyday. I love you dearly.

Wasn't it yesterday,
When we first started school?
Running around the playground,
Laughing and screaming like fools.
And wasn't it yesterday,
When we graduated from eighth grade?
We moved to a bigger school,
And one of the first steps was made.
Wasn't it yesterday,
When we were in the halls of junior high?
Going to our first dance,
Never thinking about saying goodbye.

And wasn't it yesterday,
When our first day of high school came?
Pep rallies, football games, parties and proms,
Part of our lives will never be the same.
And now the time has come,
The day is finally here,
Although we thought it would never come,
We are leaving our senior year.
And maybe sometime, looking back ...
We will laugh and say,
"Remember high school?
It seems like only yesterday."

Kelly Ann Gallagher

You are beautiful without and even more beautiful within. How lucky we are to have you, and 5 more of the same. We wish you love, peace, and joy.

Dear Bobby,

It seemed like only yesterday that you were in love with your Kindergarten teacher, Mrs. Alfano. Now its your Graduation Day!

We shared a lot of memories . . . from laughter to tears. I can remember the time you brought home the baby chicken in your bookbag. And the 4 kittens you held in your little arms. I can still hear you saying, "But Mom, why can't I keep them?"

Now there will be many paths in front of you to choose from. We know you will be a success in your future endeavors.

Kristin,

When you were a little girl it was so much fun to watch you play because you always played very hard. But you also worked very hard for what you wanted and found time to be helpful to everyone around you. You did that from your heart, not just because someone expected it from you. That makes you special.

You have grown into a beautiful, caring young woman with more determination than anyone we could think of. We know you're ready to work ever harder to attain your goals. Don't forget to have fun along the way!!

You have made us SO proud.

As an infant she was mom & dad's little bundle of joy. Always smiling & laughing. As she grew the smiles just got larger & it was easier to make her laugh. She grew into a very special & loving young girl. Now she is a beautiful young woman. Mom & I look at you & can't believe you will be going off to college & then into the working world to claim your own fortunes. Mom and I look back & think where did the years go; they were gone in the blink of an eye. But Jennifer will always be our little bundle of joy.

Victoria E. Eck

Dear Vicky,

All through a child's life a parent keeps preaching. "Remember your manners"; "Say Excuse me"; Pardon me, Please, Thank you, Etc., the list is endless.

But one thing a parent can't do is live that child's life for them. That's up to the child.

Well we have watched you grow. Grow into a wonderful young woman who has made us very proud.

Well now it's time for a parent to remember his manners and say Thank You. Thank you very much for being You.

With all our love we wish you the Best of Luck, and True Happiness now and in your Future.

Love,
Daddy & Chrissy

John Walsh

Dear John,

We are proud of your accomplishments and the happiness you have brought to our lives. We know you'll be successful in college and in life. Congratulations! We love you.

Dad, Mom, Patrick, & Erin

Holly Beshada

Dear Holly,

You were always my older sister, someone for me to look up to. Now we're all grown up, and this year you are graduating. This is supposed to be a happy time for you, but I know inside your heart it hurts. Hol, Daddy might not be here to congratulate you, but make him proud, show him his little girl is grown into a beautiful young woman. I'll always be here for you and I always have been.

Holly, there's a star out there with your name on it. So never give up reaching for that star. Make your dreams come true. Go for the best, and don't accept any less, only because you would just be cheating yourself of what you really deserve.

Always remember I am here for you. I am behind you all the way.

I love you, Sis

Love,

Joyce

P.S. Reach for that star.

Lisa Ann Malik

Dear Lisa,

Congratulations on your graduation! May love, health, happiness, luck and success be yours in all the years to come. You truly deserve life's best. You're beautiful, warm smile and sunny disposition have always been a source of inspiration and joy.

We are so proud of all you have achieved and of the loving, sensitive, thoughtful young woman you have become.

May God bless you and keep you. May all your dreams come true. Always remember that for you the sky is the limit.

With all our love and best wishes,

Mom, Dad, Jenn, Denise, Kevin, and Meagan
