It all comes out of the blue and grey spirit!

Danielle Ambrozia stands out in the crowd as she puts her heart into the class competition cheer.

Members of the class of 2004 show they are into the spirit of the day as they cheer on their team in the Tug-of-War.

Injured but still standing Rob Galante introduces members of the soccer team as Jan Doroba and Trini Flavaney look on.

Blue and grey, right down to the roots of their hair, Jess Limatola, Alicia Montemurro and Christine Fatianow go all out to show the big blue spirit.

Their lips aren't blue, just their uniforms. But Ashley Clack and Christa Curry huddle together for warmth as they wait to perform with the Step Squad.

BLACK AND BLUE

Felipe Saragiotto, Jose Aponte', Patsy Palma, and Ryan Holder chose to represent in suits instead of face paint at the Pep Rally but the show of spirit was the same.

BIG BLUE

They don't come much bigger than John DeMild as far as size goes but he and his classmate Kyle Budney are all "big blue" and grey and proud of it.

We have all heard this phrase before. Yet, in the context of our high school career, it now takes on a whole new meaning. Something that occurs - out of the blue - is usually unexpected, a surprise. In some ways, this is what life at SWMHS can be - the unexpected, an adventure, and often, a surprise. But, if we say, it comes out of the blue & gray, our school colors, we are saying it comes from the heart of Bomber pride. As with all things, we don't always get out of it what we would expect. We can only hope that our time here will result in us getting much more out of our high school days than we ever thought we would. So we will try to capture everything, every amazing event, and every action born of pride, that will shape this year. We will be watching to see what comes, out of the blue.

Out of the blue and grey

A group of Juniors enjoys the fruits of their labors, as they relax at a Renaissance picnic. It is a reward for achieving A - B Honor Roll. Some are gifted "out of the blue", others work at it.

Original poetry is a gift that comes to some "out of the blue". Lauren Reingold reads her work at a poetry reading session at a local restaurant.

"Out of the Blue", for the last time as a Bomber Football team member, Craig Connors takes the walk with his parents on Senior night.

Hair has been the topic of controversy over the years. Dave Palmer and Dan Occhipinti have do's that are most definitely "Out of the Blue".

Beyond the Blue

If we could plan every aspect of our lives we would make it perfect. But, of course, it isn't ever that easy. We go along doing the best we can, experiencing life, often in awe of what we will endure. Yet we are here for such a short time and we will remember these days forever. The days that were our lives as students, the days that often came and went too quickly, out of the blue.

Students involved in after school activities can usually be found in the East Parking Lot waiting for the "late bus."

Dressed all in blue, marching to their graduation ceremony, the Class of 2003 will be heading out of the blue and into the "wild blue yonder" of their futures.

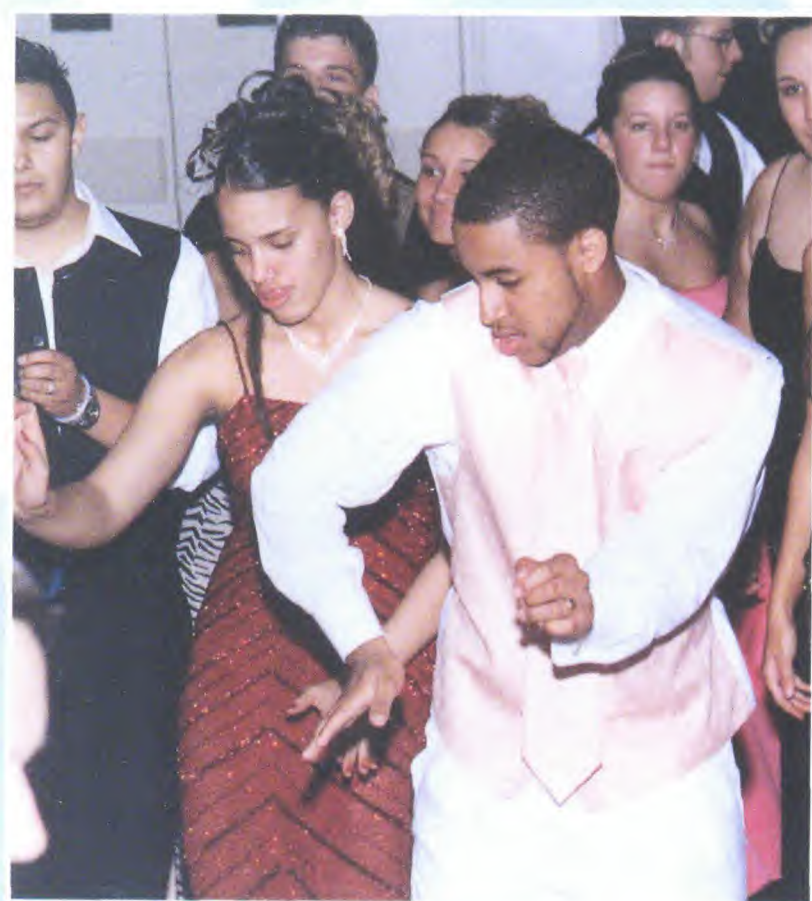

Mr. Brown joins members of the Class of 2003 as they pose for a "guys" photo during the class trip to Disney World in Orlando, Florida.

Danny Correia practices his skate boarding skills after school on the platform behind the cafeteria .

Jessica Bauman doesn't mind getting her hands dirty, as she works on a coil pot in Ms. Donald's Sculpture and Ceramics class.

Members of the Class of 2004 are all smiles as they wait for the bus to leave for the ride to The Garden Manor for the evening's festivities.

Michael Schifman and Melissa Ruzsala were elected Prince and Princess for the evening by their peers.

A Night in Hollywood

JUNIOR PROM - MAY 16, 2003

The Garden Manor in Aberdeen was the setting for the Class of 2004's Junior Prom. Couples entered "A Night In Hollywood" on a red carpet flanked by large cut outs of movie legends Marilyn Monroe and Humphrey Bogart, where they paused for a moment to be interviewed, Oscar style, while the whole event was captured on video tape by film student Jordon Holmes. Elected by their peers as Prince and Princess for the evening were Michael Schifman and Melissa Ruzsala. In true Hollywood fashion, awards were given for best hair, best dress and tuxedo, best couple dressed to theme, and best couple. Even the class advisers, Miss Jayson, Ms. Amato and Mrs. Bloom got into the spirit of the theme and coordinated their attire for the evening, all choosing to wear black and white. The dinner was sumptuous. The music, provided by Noble Productions was awesome. Students and chaperones alike filled the dance floor for most of the evening, taking a break from their usual roles to just let loose and relax for this memorable occasion.

Class Advisers Ms. Tricia Jayson, Ms. Donna Amato, and Mrs. Lucy Bloom pose with film legend Humphrey Bogart before joining their students inside the ballroom.

Out of School Spirit

OCTOBER 17, 2003

It was one of the warmest days so far in October; every member of the student body had painted and prepared for the occasion. All of the teams were represented on the field and the Cheerleaders and Step Squad performed for the raucous crowd. The class cheer competition was won by the Juniors, who outshouted all others in their enthusiastic effort to accumulate class competition points. Faces were painted; hair was colored and outrageous attire was the rule of the day. This was when we showed our true colors. This was what every day should be; everyone joined together with pride in our school and its traditions. Everyone respecting their peers and cheering their efforts to be part of a winning team and to represent their school with honor and dignity. All the while anticipating the Homecoming events that would follow that evening.

Even the candidates for Homecoming Queen got into the Big Blue spirit but they would be all elegance and poise later that night for the Homecoming event.

Field Hockey Captains Jess Antonucci and Lynn Olender introduce team members to those assembled.

The Cheerleaders reached new heights as they showed their stuff for the assembled student body during the annual Pep Rally.

The Step Squad did their best to get the crowd ready for the cheer competition with their up beat routine.

UNDEFEATED & UNDETERRED

HOMECOMING - OCTOBER 17, 2003

The Candidates for Homecoming Queen shivered in the cold damp night air and then the rain came. The theme "On the 20th Century Express" was reflected in the class floats as we prepared to celebrate Homecoming 2003. The Freshmen Class of 2007, won First Place in an upset in the float competition. Cori Jensen was crowned Queen in a steady downpour but maintained her poise and radiant smile. Cori was crowned by last year's Queen Gina Makowski. Also present were returning alumni from the classes of '93, through '43. The Football team won a stunning 20 - 6 victory over South Brunswick to post their sixth win of the season, as they remained undefeated. Fans turned out to cheer on their team undeterred by the rainy night. Spirits ran high among everyone who turned out to enjoy this special celebration.

The Varsity team takes the field in the rain at the start of the game, ready to post another win.

The Bombers huddle together on the field after their victory over South Brunswick.

The fans remained throughout the game despite the rain. They were rewarded by another team victory.

Class of 2005 - MOST CREATIVE

Smiling despite the rain, Cori Jensen basks in the applause of the crowd as she is crowned Homecoming Queen. Her escort, Keith Carne, stands proudly by her side.

Jennifer Carnevali waits with her date Marc Peterson for the pictures to be done so she can but her coat back on.

Daniella Vargas and her escort Omar Guidote sit for all those who wanted to take their picture before the rain started to fall.

Amanda Figueroa disappointed all the young men who had hoped to be her escort; she brought her brother Lionel.

Melissa Ruzala and long time boyfriend Chris Brus made a valiant attempt to look warm on this cold night.

Farewell to the Blue

When we look back on the past four years, they will seem to have flown by; gone before we knew it; swept away, "out of the blue." There have been many varying experiences that have shaped our days and, ultimately, who we have become. We have experienced many joys and shared many sorrows in these days. We have, for the most part, come through unscathed. Yet there will be moments and events that will remain with us always. Times and memories that will come back to us through out our lives "out of the blue."

Smiles and flowers were the order of the evening, as Christine Huegel takes her last walk on the football field with her parents, in celebration of Senior Night.

Jenn Carnevali, Jess Limatola, Amanda Figueroa, Alison Buchanan, Tina Kelly, Omar Guidote, Clement Biney, Melissa Ruszala and Chris Brus share one of their final lunches in the cafeteria.

The days remaining may be few, but the friendships will last a lifetime. Nichelle Guadalupe and Jackie Rodriguez are proof of that.

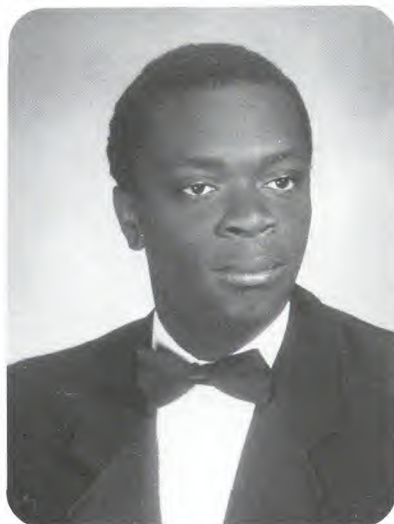

Members of the Class of 2004 assured themselves a spot in the Yearbook with their creative shirt slogan on Pep Rally day.

In the Art room, Courtney Fraind works to complete one of the last Advanced Art projects of her high school career.

For the Love of Sports

ROB GALANTE - UNDAUNTED BY INJURY

Since the age of four, Rob Galante has been playing soccer. He has been goalie for various club teams throughout New Jersey. His participation in these club teams afforded him the opportunity to play at Giant Stadium at age 14 and even travel to Argentina to compete. A Varsity starter since his Freshman year, Rob broke the shut out record with 20 over three years and nine in one season. His awards have included All State Honorable Mention, GMC White Division Goalie, GMC 2003 Sportsmanship Award and Who's Who in Sports. But it hasn't been all fun and glory. While playing in the game for first place in the White Division against Monroe this season, Rob suffered a serious knee injury that required reconstructive surgery. As a result of this injury, he missed out on the final games of his last high school soccer season. But Rob was undeterred by this major set back. He dealt with the pain and rehabilitation and is, for all intents and purposes back to normal.

Rob has also been involved in baseball for four years, achieving the 2nd highest batting average in the 2003 season with .398. He has managed to find the time to participate in the Student Council and Peer Leadership programs as well. He plans to attend a four year college and is determined to continue to play soccer at a high level.

He would like to thank some people who have had a positive effect on his life including Mr. Brown, Mr. Cifelli, Mr. Cress, Mrs. Bloom, and Mr. Scarola, the #1 Sayreville Soccer Fan. Special thanks to his parents and his Grandma for all their love, support and understanding.

On the Fast Track

HEATHER JONES - THE NEED FOR SPEED

Heather is just like any other student at SWMHS. She has her group of friends and is known by many people. But in her free time the unexpected occurs. That is because Heather spends her free time involved in drag racing. When Heather was younger she would go to Raceway Park in Englishtown, New Jersey and watch the cars go down the track. She dreamed of someday being one of the racers. Watching her best friend race since he was 8 years old, Heather realized her own dream at age 13, when she too began to race in the Junior Dragster division. She races a 15 foot long dragster from March through November at Raceway Park. At seventeen, she is running 7.90 seconds at 85 m.p.h. on an 1/8 mile track. "It doesn't sound very fast but when you are in the car the distance just shoots by you. It seems like you just started and it's all over already," said Heather. She enjoys intimidating the boys on the circuit and has beaten many of them over the years. Her happiest moments are spent in her car. When she isn't racing, she is getting the car ready or just polishing it. Heather admires female racer Shirley Muldowney and hopes to be like her someday, setting many records as a racer. Traveling to Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Maryland to race has been part of the fun of the sport. Heather hopes to attend college and is interested in a career as an x-ray technician.

Valedictorian

JENNIFER SMITH

Proud to be the Valedictorian of the Class of 2004, Jennifer Smith has lived in Sayreville all her life. She has worked hard throughout high school, perennially earning a place on the Principal's Honor Roll while enrolled in AP courses. She is a recipient of the Edward J. Blostein Distinguished Scholar Award and the University of Rochester Humanities and Social Sciences Award. She is also a National Merit Scholarship Finalist.

Outside the classroom, Jen is active in many extracurricular activities including the Echo Lites newspaper, of which she is editor-in-chief; the literary magazine, Images, of which she is managing editor; and the Odyssey of the Mind program. She has also attended the programs at Arts High School for fiction and advanced writing, and has been a Girl Scout since age five.

However, the most important things to Jennifer are her loving, always supportive, family (which consists of her parents and her brother, Michael), and her large circle of crazy, wonderful friends; all of whom she could not possibly survive without. Jen also finds fulfillment through her writing. A poet and creative writer since third grade, she plans to use her writing skills in college, where she will major in English, and in her adult life, in which she hopes to be an editor and novelist.

When she isn't writing, Jen also enjoys reading, watching movies, hanging out with her friends, surfing the Internet, and playing six degrees of separation. In school, she particularly enjoys English and Spanish classes and considers herself lucky to have been taught these courses by amazing teachers.

A fan of the Broadway musical RENT and the movies Newsies and Dead Poets Society, Jennifer's major goal in life is to follow the message of those stories and truly live life to the fullest, without regrets. Her life motto, therefore, is this: "Seize the day. No day but today. Carpe Diem."

Salutatorian

DANIELLA VARGAS

Daniella was born in Brooklyn, where she lived until she was five years old. During her four years at SWMHS, she participated in numerous extracurricular activities including Class Council, Student Council, Math Club, Science Olympiad, ACT, TAG, Peer Leadership and the annual Variety Show, just to name a few. Her academic achievements include Principal's Honor Roll, the Edward J. Bloustein Distinguished Scholar Award and the National Honor Roll. Daniella is also a member of the National Honor Society, the Spanish Honor Society and Mu Alpha Theta. She has been President of her class in 9th, 10th and 12th grades, as well as President of the Spanish Honor Society. She has been on the girls' soccer, softball, cross country, and basketball teams. Being named Varsity Captain in her Junior and Senior years was a highlight of her Basketball career.

When she was not in school, she could usually be found at the gym, playing basketball at boro hall, at bible study or catching up on her sleep. Some of her most cherished memories of Senior year are being nominated for homecoming Queen, playing in the Varsity's first and only winning game, and achieving the position of Salutatorian. She thanks God for everything He has given her and is grateful for the support of her Mom, Dad, siblings, friends, coaches, and teachers. She hopes that she can be the best possible person in the future and aspires to one day become a neurosurgeon. Daniella admits to some doubts and fears about the road ahead but says she lives by this statement; "I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and fortune." Jeremiah 29:11 She wants to thank everyone for four wonderful years and hopes to one day make them proud.

#3 - Nazmul Hasan

A hard working individual, Nazmul has done very well academically throughout his high school career. He participates in many after school activities and dedicates his free time to volunteer work at a local hospital. He is thankful for all of the people who have helped him during his high school years. Nazmul is going to miss SWMHS but is ready for the next stage of his educational adventure. He is planning to pursue a career in the field of optometry after obtaining his bachelor's degree.

#4 - Justine Ng

A hard working individual, Justine, strives to be successful in everything she does. A perfectionist, she dedicates herself to her work and maintains the determination to perform at the best of her ability. In addition to her accomplishments as one of the Top Ten, Justine is proud to be a member of Mu Alpha Theta, NHS, Spanish Honor Society, and Peer Leadership. Although she has shown great commitment and perseverance throughout high school, she wouldn't be where she is without the help and support of her family and friends.

#5 - Charles Maderal

After transferring from Saint Mary's High School, Charles has enjoyed being at Sayreville. His positive attitude is what motivates him in class. His strong sense of dedication has helped him do well in school and as a sprinter for winter and spring track. Known for his "cheery smile" and also as "Chuck" to his friends, he enjoys playing video games, driving his car, watching NASCAR racing and being with friends. His three years here have been challenging but filled with memories that will last him a lifetime.

#6 - Colleen Fisher

What stands out about Colleen is her determination, persistence, and positive attitude. She is proudest of her positions as Captain of the Field Hockey Team, President of NHS, Treasurer of T.I.G.S., sports editor of the Echo Lites newspaper and being a Sunday school teacher and peer leader. In her free time, Colleen enjoys music, reading, playing softball, lifeguarding, and eating animal-free foods. She thanks family, friends, teachers, and coaches for making her Sayreville years so memorable. In college, she plans to study biomedical engineering.

2004 - Top

The Top Ten Seniors of the Class of 2003 are young people with unique and diverse interests. They are chosen for this honor because of their academic excellence. They are the students with the Top Ten grade point averages and they are shining examples of what the educational system strives to achieve. They come from different cultures and backgrounds. Some are outgoing; some are shy. Yet they are united by a common thread, and that is their love of learning. They have chosen their photographs to enhance their words, hopefully, the picture tells who they are even more than the words. They are the best of the Class of 2004.

#1 - Jennifer Smith (Valedictorian)

#2 - Daniella Vargas (Salutatorian)

Ten Seniors

#7 - Montana Barone

A dedicated and optimistic student, Montana's enthusiasm is evident in everything she does. She is especially proud to have been the Treasurer of the Spanish Honor Society, the Board of Education Student Council Representative and an executive member of T.I.G.S. She would like to thank her parents, family, friends, and teachers for their never ending support and encouragement. Montana will be attending Rutgers University next year as a member of the honors program.

#8 - Eric Bondar

Of all the accomplishments in Eric's educational career, making the Top Ten is surely one of the greatest. He has been a diligent and hard working student, receiving high honors throughout the years. He is the secretary of Mu Alpha Theta, a member of the Spanish Honor Society, FBLA, and many other activities. He hopes to continue to be active in college where Eric plans to study Computer Engineering. "The roots of education are bitter, but the fruit is sweet." - Aristotle

#9 - Michael Pangilinan

A young man of striking contrasts, Michael has always helped other students with schoolwork before doing his own, which can be interpreted either as a show of generosity or procrastination. The president of the Chess Club, member of the Boys' Tennis Team, and secretary of the Math Club plans to figure out his future in college, as he has certainly failed to do so in high school. "I never let schooling interfere with my education." - Mark Twain

#10 - Patsy Palma

Throughout his high school career, Patsy has been involved in numerous extracurricular activities, while somehow maintaining his academic excellence. These included National Honor Society, Spanish Honor Society, Class Council, and Baseball, to name a few. He especially enjoyed the Sayreville Singers, the Theatre Society, and being a student director for his Senior Musical. He also enjoys performing with his band, Camren. Patsy thanks, God, his family, friends, and all his teachers for making him the individual he is today. "If you want to view paradise, simply look around and view it..." - Wonka

On Top of the Blue

It hardly seems possible but the Junior class is half way there; half way to the finish line. The finish line that will mark the end of these high school years. It will fly by from now on and, like all those who have gone before them, they will face the finale with mixed emotions. Right now graduation seems far away but it will be here before they know it. They can only wait and hope that what comes in between is as memorable as what has gone before. In the end, the memories will be all that they will have.

Brandon Aich has only his senior season left after this year, a bitter sweet thought.

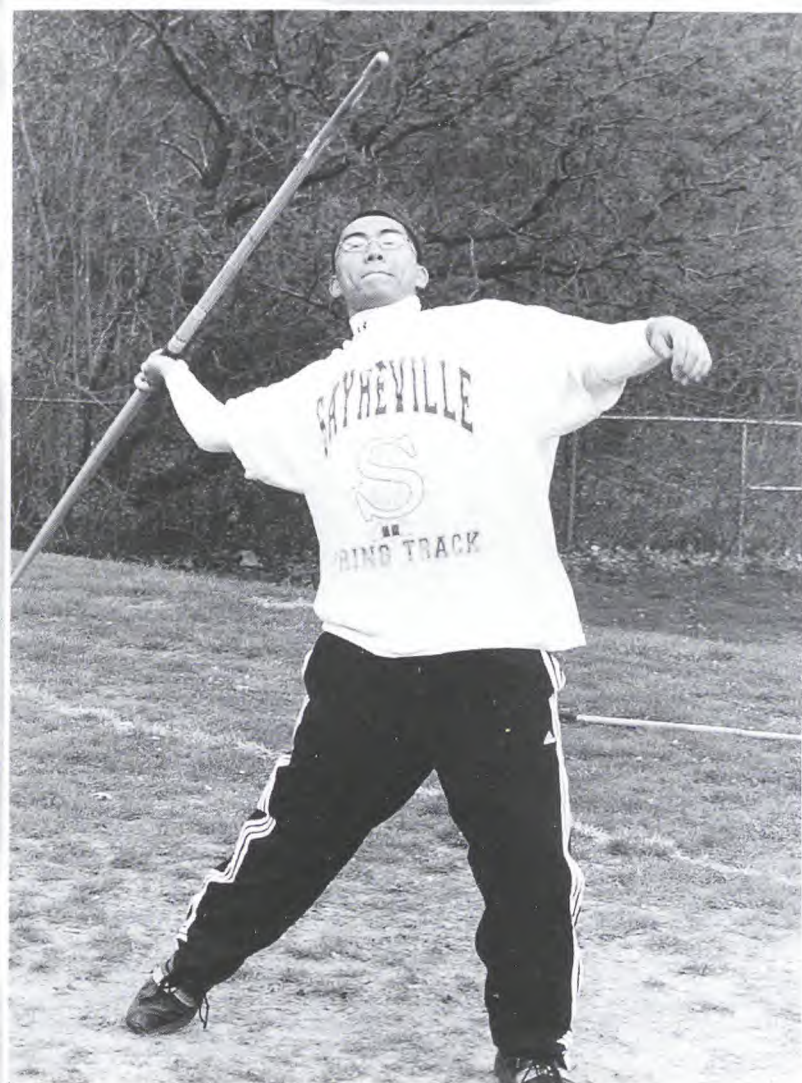

Jesse Sosnowski played injured and can only wonder if this will be her last season.

Mike Roy, John Monaco, Cory Vaughn, and Eric Hornecker relax during lunch in the cafeteria.

Imtiaz Ahmad seems to be enjoying his Junior Math class.

Throwing the javlin will be a thing of the past for Lance Viernes after his final season next year.

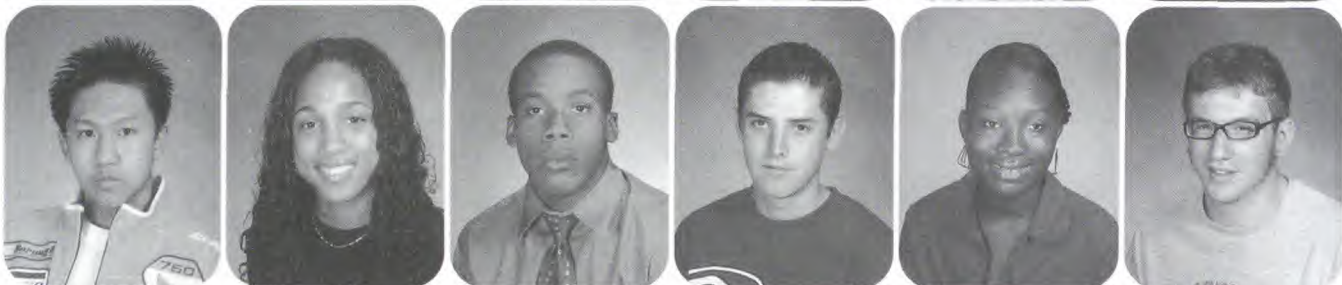

Pondering another test, Kristen La Master will have many more to deal with in Senior year.

THEY ARE HALF WAY THERE!

The realization sets in that the time they will spend here is half over! However, there are still a lot of memories to make and a lot of lessons to learn. The Class of 2005 will still have a long way to go but their next appearance in this book will be as Seniors and they will have finished their journey through high school in what seems like the blink of an eye.

Making the Move

Moving to the middle of their time here, Sophomores are half way through their time in high school when this year is done. So much has occurred and so much is still ahead of them. It is the an overwhelming experience sometimes but they have risen to the challenge and are not worse for the wear. They are looking forward to being Juniors and the new adventures that will come their way "out of the blue."

The second time for anything is always easier than the first. Once you have gotten the "lay of the land" and know your way around, things just seem to flow. Most of the strangeness has gone; things are more familiar. We are fitting into this place. We are, in fact, half way through our time here. It will all pass too fast but for now we are settled in.

New to the Blue

When things are new we are often in awe of them. This is never more evident than when we enter this place for the first time. So many new faces, so many new teachers, so many new corridors to navigate. But, as with all things, time is our salvation. For it is with time that we gain confidence and develop a level of comfort with our surroundings. And then suddenly, "out of the Blue", all that was so new and scary is now part of our routine. We have adjusted, we belong.

The Heart of the Blue

The people at the heart of the Big Blue spirit are, without a doubt, the faculty members who devote their time and knowledge to the building of young minds. They are the keepers of order, the trainers of athletes, the coordinators of lessons and activities, the surrogate parents, who spend their days in this place where learning is the primary focus. But their involvement does not end there; they are the support, the confidants, the advisers and the mentors of the endless numbers of students who pass through their classes in the span of their careers. They are influences never to be forgotten.

Keeping a watchful eye on the upper A Wing, Mr. Preston and Mr. Gibbs are visible between classes.

Just in case they lose their way, Mr. Milan, Mrs. Goscinski, Mr. Gilfillan, Ms. Maldonado, Mr. Gluchowski, Mrs. Saucier, and Mr. Cifelli, who teach in the D Wing, had shirts inscribed with their room numbers on the back.

In Loving Memory of Mr. Stewart Cress

Cress, The Best

To the teacher that everyone loved, no one above him, he was the greatest. Now what do we do for the teacher who was the greatest? Be what he wanted us to be, the greatest. He was the teacher that made you laugh, even when you were sad. He always wanted you to do your best. Even when you felt you couldn't do it, he believed in you and made you feel that you could. He was the coolest teacher, someone who you would want as a father. He made you feel so comfortable. You could talk to him about anything. He was always there to listen to whatever you needed to say. He had the heart of a soldier. He did not die, so do not stand by his grave and weep. He did not die. He is the bright light that is in everyone's eye, so don't stand by his grave and cry; for he did not die. Be sure not to cry, be sure not to weep. Be sure to be what he wanted you to be. Be the best you can be. So do not stand by his grave and cry, because he did not die. He is still here in all our hearts, never say good-bye.

It will never be good-bye; we will see him soon; remember, he did not die. A piece of him is in all of us. Be the best you can be, because that's what he wanted. He did not die.

~~ Richard Landin ~~

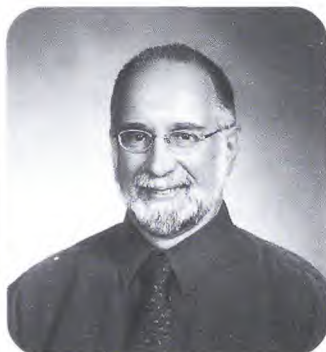

He was many things to many people. He was a son, a brother, a husband, a father, a teacher, a coach, a colleague, and a friend. He could make you laugh or make you cry but most importantly he was a part of this diverse and eclectic group that gathers here daily in the name of education. Those who knew him and were taught by him have suffered a great loss. Those who will never know him or be taught by him will suffer an even greater loss. He will be sorely missed.

Secretaries

In every aspect of school life there is paper work, sometimes more than we care to think about. In every office in this building there are secretaries who's job it is to help us with that massive collection of files, schedules, memos, vouchers, referrals, and time cards. They can find us whatever we need with the click of a mouse. And those of us who deal with endless grade books, lesson plan books, bubble sheets, and forms appreciate all that they do to make our paper work a little less overwhelming.

Custodians

In a school that houses over sixteen hundred students there will inevitably be a need to keep things clean. That is where the custodial staff takes over. They are responsible for cleaning all areas of the building, from the lavatories to the gymnasium as well as disposing of all of the trash generated by the students and staff. They are here in shifts and do their best to keep this facility in tip top shape.

Cafeteria

In a learning environment, it is essential to feed the body as well as the mind. We are fortunate to have the ladies of the cafeteria staff, who see to it that we are kept well fed. They are responsible for providing us with an endless array of pizza, fries, sandwiches, snacks and beverages. They get into the spirit of whatever holiday may be at hand by dressing for the occasion and, for the most part, doing it all with a smile.

Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Caro and Granny Annie work the counter during a busy lunch period.

Security Monitors

In these times when nothing is certain, it is always a consolation to know that there is someone watching over you. Several years ago the Sayreville school system instituted the positions of security monitors for the high school. There have been some changes in the positions over the years but the guards are a constant presence in the building and are known by the students. They are there to take control if there is an incident of any kind, to escort student to the office when necessary and to assist law enforcement officers if need be. This year has seen the appointment of an SRO (School Resource Officer), a position funded by a state grant, that has added Officer Matthew O'Such to our security staff.

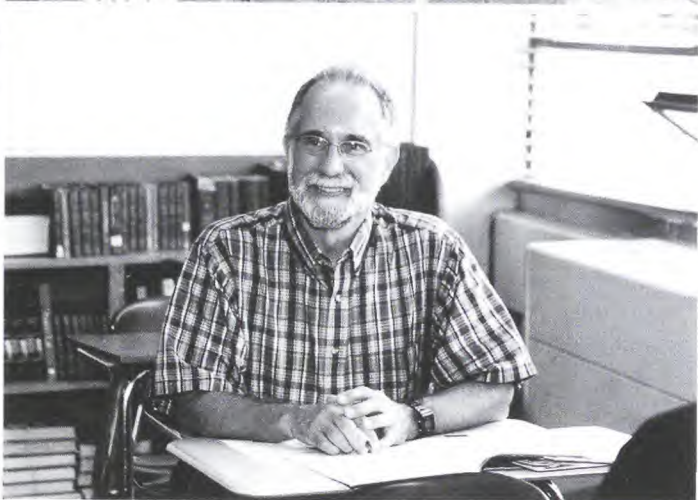

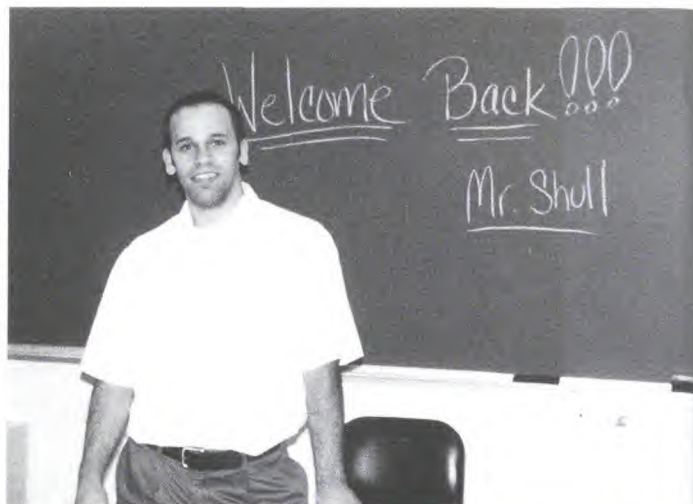

Ms. Michelle Ciprich, Officer O'Such and Ms. Valyrie Satorski work the lunch periods in the cafeteria.

Mr. Ron Morgan and Mr. Clarence Tay are a constant presence during lunch.

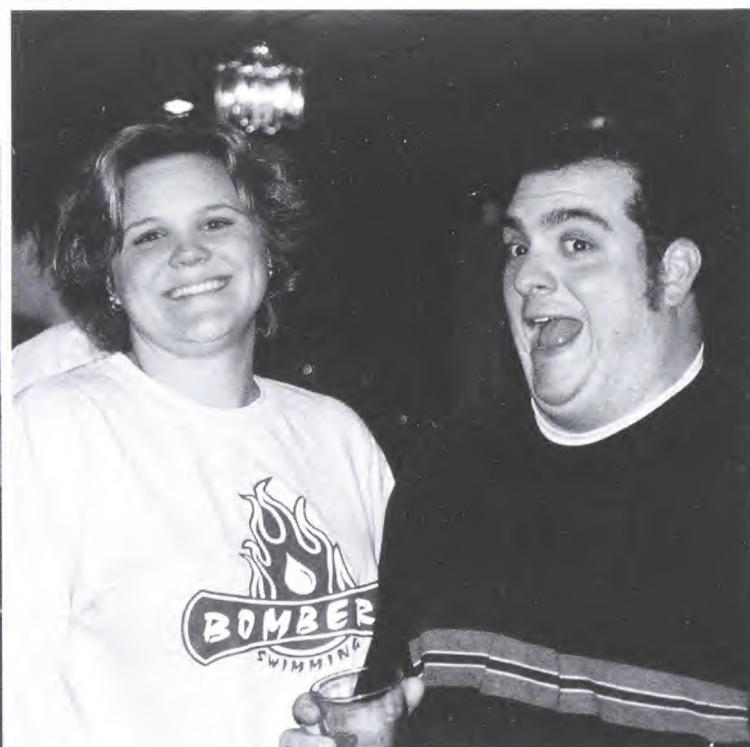

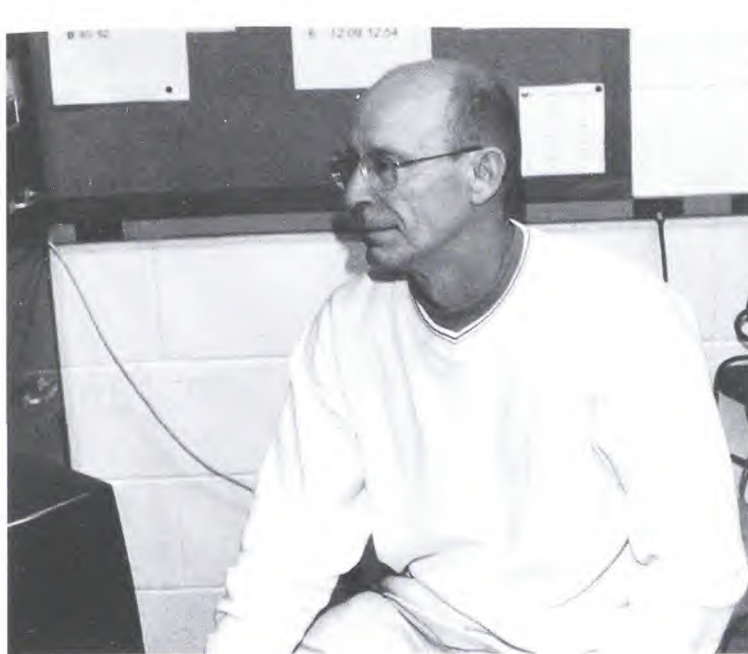

Mr. Tay takes time to chat with some students.

The Big Blue Spirit

There are things that we do in our lives that make us better people. There are things that we do for the joy of the competition. There are things that we do to please ourselves. Most often, these are the things we do out of love and pride. These are the things that give us the most satisfaction. The tasks we take on because we want to accomplish them are the tasks that shape our lives. We compete because we want to be a part of the team or because we want to be where the excitement is. What we get out of it depends on what we put in. The rewards are often unexpected, coming to us - "out of the blue."

A Field of Dreams

Dreams Became Reality

Head Coach Michael Novak took great pride in stating that "this team qualified for States and that's the first time since 1998!" Mark Poore was the team's ace pitcher, finishing the season with the best record, 5 - 1. He also posted an ERA of 3.60.

All Division honors went to Jeff Toth for Short Stop. Toth was also the team's top hitter with a batting average of .418. Mark Poore took All Division Pitching honors. Rob Galante had the second best batting average with an impressive .389. The teams have all made great strides over last year's finish. They set their goals and did their best to attain them. ## Higher and Higher

The Bomber Cheerleading Squad has made many advances over the years. These ladies are, for all intents and purposes, gymnastic athletes. Under the direction of Head Coach Lynne Baber and Assistant Coach Vanessa Sabadics, they flip and fly, tumble and twirl, spot and lift, and never stop smiling through it all. They are an outstanding competition team and have shown their stuff this season by achieving several winning finishes. The team took home two first place awards from local competitions, one at Saint John Vianney and the other at Manchester. At the National Americheer Competition in Orlando Florida, the girls performed at Disney World and finished with a third place award. This year three members, Jacyann Florio, Alyssa Florio and Monica D'Addio, attended the Pro Bowl in Honolulu to perform during the half time show. The team also traveled to Philadelphia to perform in a pregame show with the Step Squad and Chorus for the 76er's. Team Captains were; Jennifer Carnevali, Christine Huegel, and Danielle Sanchez.

Committment and Character

The 2003 Varsity Football team returned to the field this year determined to make it to the State Championship. Although they finished the season with an amazing undefeated nine and zero record, their loss to Scotch Plains-Fanwood in the Semifinals meant that their season was over. Their undefeated status earned them the title of GMC Red Division Champions.

Coach George Najjar and his assistants have molded a group of fine young men, who will emerge from their disappointment with their heads held high. Named to the GMC All Red Division Team were: Ron Connors, Keith Simpkins, Mark Poore, Dan Krainski, Carmen Serignese, Nick Starace, Vinnie Otero, and Shawn Thomas. Quarterback Mark Poore was named to the 1st Team All County and 1st Team All Area. ## Twists and Turns

Getting It All In Perspective

The Girls' Gymnastics Team concluded their season with a respectable finish. They are a team that is still in the building process. Though small in numbers they are big on heart. Anyone who has witnessed their extraordinary efforts can attest to this. These ladies twist, flip, fly, and tumble, all in an effort to become the best at what they do. They compete in the areas of vault, balance beam, bars, and floor exercise.

Although the ladies aren't breaking any records yet they are always optimistic. Their Coach, Denise Marsh is encouraged by the great team spirit that has been shown and by the camaraderie that exists among teams in the division. The Team is on the rise in the GMC. Each Gymnast has made significant gains throughout the season. According to Coach Marsh the continuing growth of the team is critical within the next few years.

Blue Memories

Would we do it all the same? Would we change anything? We can ask ourselves these questions but in our hearts we know that we wouldn't change a thing. We wouldn't change a single memory. They are each a part of us. They are our high school days. They are finished, all too soon. We can not change them; we are them. We will now become the memories.

What kind of memories will Michele Burke have of Math class?

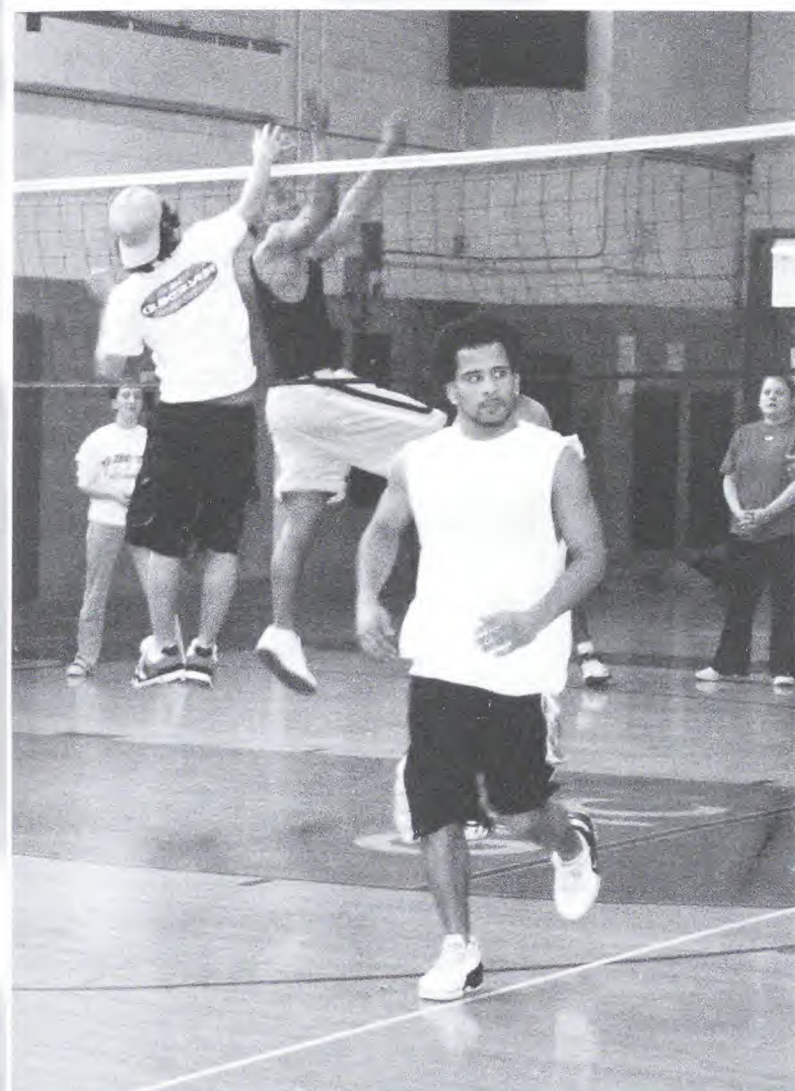

We can't forget the football season and the loyal fans; Ryan Bartlett, Kenny Lyons, Bob Galante, and Archie Arigorat.

We will always remember Ryan Holder's friendly smile.

Losing You

*We're all in this together;
we share the joy and tears.
The hardest thing to deal with
is the end of high school years.
The memories that we'll cherish
will make the future bright.
We'll try to bear the losses
and keep that burden light.
You're looking toward the future.
You're wishing on a star.
You're trying to move forward
No matter where you are.
Your hearts this year are heavy.
A "favorite" one is gone.
Please, do your best to honor him
And somehow you'll move on.
For out there is the future
You know what you must do.
Reach for it with both your hands
as you move "out of the blue."
We can not stop your progress.
We know we're losing you.*

Eighteen years ago a beautiful, blue eyed, golden haired little girl was placed in our arms and we fell in love with you at first sight. We watched you grow as you experienced a life full of love, happiness, disappointment, friendship, challenges and success. You astounded us with the depth of your writing. Before long you were earning straight A's and winning awards. You were also winning hearts - your teachers respected you and your circle of friends grew. Now you prepare to take the next step. Go for the golden ring. And remember that we will always be there to support you and love you.

Lynda Babo & Kaitlen Bellina

We met in preschool when we were so small,
And now we work for "After Hours"
at the mall.

In girl scouts, we had so much fun.
At soccer all we ever did was run.
That was back when we were in first grade,
And now there's high school graduation
plans to be made.

We went to the same hairdresser, and always had our nails done
For all of the Sweet 16 parties, which were all so much fun.

Now we have our licenses and cars to drive
And our coach bags we need to survive.
After all the late night calls on the phone,
Having each other as friends
we'll never be alone.

Mitchell Siegler

To my Son, Mitchell Edward,

When you were born you were my little peanut.

Soon after, my Honey Bunny.

On your first day of preschool, I had to wear sunglasses

So no one could see the tears in my eyes.

( You were growing up so fast)

Now tears of joy stream down my face...

You have grown into a handsome, fun loving, responsible, and respectable young man.

Of whom i am very proud!

You have what it takes to be successful.

Follow your dreams and make them come true.

*" May the good Lord be with you
Down every road you roam.
And may sunshine and happiness
Surround you when you're far from home.
And my you grow to be proud
Dignified and true
And do unto others
As you'd have done to you.
Be courageous and be brave
And in my heart you'll always stay Forever young..."*

Dear Mitchell,

I know you will meet each one with the dignity, honesty, passion, and compassion that have brought you to where you are today.

Be true to yourself, to those you love,
and to those who love you.

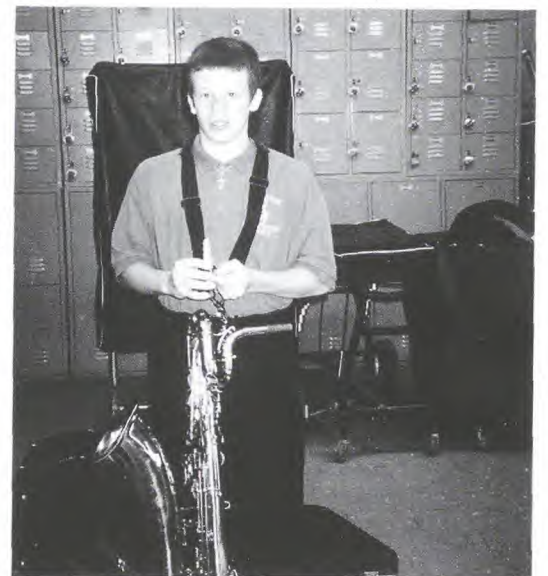

Congratulations, on the first of what,
I am sure will be, many accomplishments.

I Love You and I'm Very Proud of you.

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings -- nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run --
Yours is the earth and everything that's in it,
And -- which is more -- you'll be a Man, my son!

Eric,

I can't believe your senior year is already over. It seems like the other day that I was graduating, but now it's your turn. I am so proud of you. You're an incredibly intelligent person and I love that about you (you know that). But not only that, you're also sweet, kind, caring, charming and a perfect gentleman. I don't know where I'd be today without you and just know that I will always be there for you. You are my first, my one and only. I wish you the best of luck. ## Jennifer Smith

Granddaughter,

Big blue eyes and a dimpled smile, arms outstretched and running on little legs to her "Onga"; lots of love and hugs and kisses; sitting under the kitchen table and laughing cause Mommy and Daddy can't find us. Those are a few of the memories of you that I will cherish forever. My first grandchild and my heart was bursting with love, happiness, joy, and pride - you were my sun, moon, and stars.

That was yesterday (at least it seems like it was just yesterday) and here you are today graduating from high school, soon to leave for college and on to what I am sure will be a wonderful, happy, successful life, making that sun, moon and stars shine that much brighter.

One thought that I ask you to keep constant through all the trials, tribulations, failures and eventual successes that will be part of your life, is that the love, happiness, joy and pride I felt when I first saw you will forever surround you, even when I am not there physically to remind you of just how much I love you.

And life changes
And if you're feeling sad

Sharon Ann Lasko

Dear Shas,

I can't believe that you're graduating high school this year! It seems like only yesterday that we were across the street playing "war" with Kayleigh and Chris, or going on fire calls with Daddy. Never forget the late night trips to Dunkin' Donuts, "scavenger hunts" with Karbs and Haney to find stuff to decorate my room at school with, speaking Spanish and "besos," and, of course, the night we "stole" Babci's kitchen table! These are only some of the memories that we've had over the years, but I know that there will be many more to come! After all, there's always room in the car for my favorite sister! I know that wherever you decide to go to college, you'll do great! Enjoy the experience... you'll have the best time of your life! Congratulations!

Love Always, Laura

Shastina,

"If you find one true friend in life,
you have truly found a treasure."

I thank God each and every day for bringing yu into my life. It's not every day that you find a friend who will be there forever. I trust you with everything and I don't even have to look around because I know you will be right there. Words can't express how much I value your friendship. My world could all be going wrong but I know this is one thing I have that will be right. I know our friendship will only grow stronger. You are truly my angel.
I love you with all my heart.
~Jess~

Jess-
Life is just one big, endless, crazy, rollercoaster and I want to thank you for coming along on the ride with me. I know I can always count on you to be there for me. We both know what a rare friendship we have (ESP Baby!) and we share a great appreciation for our "treasure". I'll always be here to fill any (and every) position you need - counselor, guru, friend, sister, mother, stylist,
etc. LOL Thanks for the countless memories that can never be forgotten, nor replaced. I love you so much!
~Justine~

wish you all the luck in the world. You have become my best friend, always there when I need someone to talk to, or to laugh or cry with. I know I got on your nerves but you always watched over me, sometimes too much but I know it was for the best. I can't believe I won't have you around next year. I love you Julie, good luck.

Your Little Sister,
Paola "Papaya"

P.S. Uhoh, who's gonna watch out for me now? LOL

Melanie DeLaRosa

Dear Melanie,

Well you finished high school without any third degree burns or severed limbs. You even managed to make it through with me by your side. Ever since you pulled me from the wreckage of my Subaru, I haven't left your side. But even as you cross over the bridge of higher learning, remember that I love you and I am here for you. You are a wonderful, smart, beautiful, person with wit that's sharper than a tack. Please, don't forget about your man with the spectacles. I love you.

Love,
Eric Truchan
P.S. Call me

Your hard work, diligence, and intelligence are inspiring and admirable. Your beauty is absolutely breathtaking and your personality is lovable. Your soul is beautiful and your free spirit is contagious. Our moments together will be forever embedded in my mind and heart. Love, Archie
