Sayreville, My Home

I'm now a high school graduate so it's time to travel and roam,
I'll take my spirit of adventure
when I leave Sayreville, my home.

I'll pick shamrocks in Ireland,
and tell the time with Big Ben,
visit pyramids in Egypt
and then learn the art of Zen.

I'll swim in tropical waters
and join in the polka dance,
eat lots of pasta in Italy and marvel at the Tower in France.

I'll visit Peruvian ruins,
safari the African plains,
build snowmen at the North Pole
and go to the bullfights in Spain.

*I'll visit all our national parks and for a day wear wooden shoes,
I'll climb to the top of Everest and then hug a koala or two.*

*I'll visit the Taj Mahal, ride with Royal Mounted Police,
then watch the ballet in Russia and eat baklava in Greece.*

*I'll take my spirit of adventure
wherever I travel and roam
but I'll leave my heart in Sayreville for that is my one true home.*

Junior Prom

The Class of 2010 enjoyed a night of memories to last a lifetime at their "Picture Perfect" Junior Prom, held on May 15, 2009 at the Heldrich Hotel in New Brunswick. It was the facility's first prom and, with the help of class advisors, Ms. Loch, Mr. Howard, and Ms. Farese, the establishment proved to be an ideal location for such an affair. The night was beautiful, as were the ladies and gentlemen who took part in it. The students danced the night away, with a brief moment set aside as Joe Janela and Jennifer Pollard were named Prom Prince and Princess. Additionally, to compliment the picture theme, a slide show was played on a large screen throughout the night, film rolls were placed in clear, decorative tubes, and a picture of the junior class was set at the center of each table. The night was truly one to remember.

Powderpuff Football

On May 28, 2009 the Classes of 2009 and 2010 faced off in the annual powderpuff football game. The lead went back and forth leaving the spectators on the edge of their seats. Though the game was close, the Seniors edged out a 40-25 victory. Adding to the excitement provided by the game, sideline performances by the cheerleaders were enjoyed by all. Both football players and cheerleaders performed exceptionally well and left the school anxiously awaiting next year's game.

Summer vacation, the vacation every student eagerly awaits all throughout the school year. It is the time of year when a person makes some of their finest memories filled with the multitude of adventures summer has to offer. Whether it be in Sayreville, in a different part of the U.S., in an eccentric country, a visit to Grandma's house, a family vacation, a trip to the beach, sports, or maybe even an educational program, the summer is filled with endless opportunities for fun and enjoyment! While the school year does have its moments, one cannot deny the unique excitement of summer. And students at SWMHS sure do take advantage of those glorious summer months!

First Day of School

The first day of school on September 10, 2009 was a hectic and nerve-wracking one for students of all grade levels this year. With the near completion of construction, the school gained a number of additional hallways that confused both new and old students alike! It was a first day like no other. Nevertheless, the surprise of hot lunches compensated for any discomfort returning students may have felt. For students who formerly dined in the temporary auxiliary gym-cafeteria, this change was welcomed with wide open arms. As usual, the day was filled with students dressed in some of their finest wear, striving to make the best first impression possible. And while it is always a lot of pressure to come to school for the first time in two months, us students have learned handle it! After all, how many have we gone through already by now?

Alyssa McCormick, Cassidy Ritter, and Michelle Quinn

How do you feel about the first day of school?

"I was super excited to see all of my friends again, but I was also very nervous about finding my way around the building after the construction. I did end up getting lost and confused!"

PEP RALLY

Pep Rally has always been, and continues to be, one of SWMHS's most anticipated events of the school year. This year, the event took place on the afternoon of October 9, 2009. Luckily, the weather held up and the affair went very well. All in all, it was once again an afternoon of enjoyment. The juniors were excited to show off their strength during the annual tug of war, coming out on top ahead of the other classes. Continuing with the excitement, the second annual Homecoming King was announced. Daniel Bredenbeck, this year's winner, competed for this honor against Kene Eze, Michael Monaghan, David Milewski and J.R. Myatt. With the excitement building for the upcoming game, pep rally never ceases to be the best demonstration of "Bomber Pride."

Homecoming

This year, the Homecoming football game took place on October 9, 2009 and honored current students and alumni alike. The game was played against Freehold Township, and the Bombers did not fail to make its town proud with a dominating victory of 20-7. The theme was "Change is in the Air" as represented by the seasons of the year. The halftime festivities brought much of the excitement of the night with the juniors winning the class float competition and the crowning of Stephanie Reyes as 2009 Homecoming Queen. She and Homecoming King Daniel Bredenbeck were even surprised with their very own "chariot", which paraded them around the field several times. Once again, Homecoming night lived up to its expectations and the evening was filled with unforgettable memories.

2010 SWMHS Variety Show

Each year, the SWMHS Variety Show sheds a new light on our seemingly ordinary classmates whom we see walk the hallways everyday. This time, Friday, March 12, 2010 was the night to shine for some of the very talented students we have here at SWMHS. Hosted by the Class of 2011, the variety show serves as the junior class's biggest fundraiser. This year, the show was emceed by juniors Michelle Lin, Tara Rappleyea, Michelle Welna, Daniel Carr, and Jose Portillo. Seniors Samantha Braine, Katryn Flynn, Adalyse Pena, Hayley Linares, and Amber Danku performed dances ranging all the way from ballet to hip-hop. In addition, seniors Kathryn Pentek, Mike Letton, Rhonette Smith, and Megan Campbell gave their own renditions of popular musical pieces on vocals and piano. Also "wow-ing" the audience was freshman Maggie Bera who performed an outstanding version of "Sweet Child O' Mine". As always, the night was one filled with talent and heart with each of the students giving performances that no spectator will ever forget.

Steven Buscar

He is driven by desire to complete his goals. He is competitive and willing to rise to the challenge. He is too attached to the things he wants in life. He does not know what his future beholds, but knows one thing. He is working to pursue his goals: to make a difference in society, to discover his limits, and to pursue happiness. He works with his strengths and acknowledges his weaknesses. He is inspired to learn what he does not know. He does not wish to be better than everybody else, but to be the best person and learner he can be. He has failed, but he is not a failure. He has lost many battles, but never the war. He believes in himself and will never give up because "Many of life's failures are men who have given up without knowing how close they were to success." He is Steven Buscar.

Jaimie John

"Hold fast to dreams, for if dreams die, life is a broken winged bird that cannot fly."

- Lanston Hughes

Ever the ambitious optimist, Jaimie John believes in her ability to make her own dreams come true. Throughout her high school career, Jaimie has participated in various extracurricular activities. She is an executive board member of the National Honor Society, Red Cross Club, and Future Business Leaders of America. Additionally, she works behind the scenes as a Stage Manager for the school plays. Other activities she is involved with include Spanish Honor Society, Mu Alpha Theta, and History Honor Society. Upon graduating from high school, Jaimie plans to pursue her dream of becoming a doctor. She has no doubt that with the continued help of her family and friends, she will achieve her goals.

3

Nicholas Szamreta

"I think, therefore I am." -- Rene Descartes

Making the top ten is a proud accomplishment for Nick. He has worked very hard for four years to get to this point. Some of his classes include AP Chemistry, AP Physics, AP English, and AP History. Due to his academic excellence, Nick has earned himself many distinctions, such as the Edward J. Bloustein Scholars Award, the Fensselaer Medal, and the selection as a 2009 New Jersey Governor's Scholar of Engineering. In school, he is involved with the science club, academic competition team, Science Honor Society, Mu Alpha Theta, History Honor Society, Spanish Honor Society, and National Honor Society. Nick also plays tennis, and has played an active role on a division winning squad for several years. After high school, Nick plans to attend university and earn a degree in chemical engineering. He hopes to do practical research to make industrial processes more efficient, and to help make life better for the average consumer.

4

Erik Sherman

"If a man does his best, what else is there?" -- General George S. Patton

Ambitious and perseverant, Erik constantly strives for success in all aspects of his life. In addition to a rigorous academic schedule, Erik is involved in a number of extracurricular and volunteer activities. For four years Erik has worked on the Quo Vadis Yearbook staff, and was named an editor in his senior year. Other activities that Erik participates in include National Honor Society, Mu Alpha Theta, Spanish Honor Society, Science Honor Society and History Honor Society. Outside of school, Erik is a volunteer EMT for the Sayreville Emergency Squad, where he serves proudly as Captain of the Cadet Corps. After high school, Erik plans to attend a four year university, and major in biology. Ultimately, he hopes to attend medical school and become a doctor. He would like to pay special thanks to his family, friends and teachers, who have made him the person he is today.

Dana Quinn

As if a blossoming butterfly, Dana Quinn emerges from the cocoon of her high school years, ready to journey off into an awaiting world. As she spreads her wings, eager to embark on the next chapter of her life, she pensively reflects on the myriad trails and enlightening experiences her high school years have afforded her. Hard working and driven, Dana thrived on the challenge of dedicating her time to numerous school activities, in addition to her favorite delights, such as traveling, restaurant connoisseurship, being with her grandparents, and training to achieve her pilot's license. After graduation, she plans on continuing her studies and expanding her view of the world through travel. Dana owes her success to the encouragement of her family, support of her teachers, and entertainment provided by her best friends.

"In order for success, you need to have a plan."

Sanzar has been working hard to help others. Her dedication for success is evident in all of her family support. She is today's next pilot, and does not plan to stop. She plans to continue her studies and expand her view of the world through travel. Dana owes her success to the encouragement of her family, support of her teachers, and entertainment provided by her best friends.

SENIORS

6 Sanzana Faroque

"In order to succeed, your desire for success should be greater than your fear of failure." - Bill Cosby

Sanzana's high school career has been very successful. She has worked very hard and takes great pride in all of her accomplishments. Her dedication and constant strive for success have helped her reach all of her goals. Her friends and family have been a constant support system for her and have helped her become the person she is today. She is very excited for the next phase in her life and looks forward to college. Although she does not know what to expect she plans to take advantage of every opportunity that comes her way and encourages her fellow classmates to do the same. Her confident attitude in everything she pursues has helped her to make the best of high school and she knows this same attitude will help lead her to future success.

Brianna Heatai

Brianna Heatai is a dedicated student that has worked hard while also enjoying her experiences at Sayreville War Memorial High School. She participated in the girls soccer program all four years of high school and was involved in numerous clubs, including International Society, TIGS, Interact Club, Rebel, and the National Honor Society. She enjoys spending time with family and friends, playing sports, and going to the beach. Brianna plans to attend a four year college while majoring in nursing. Ultimately, she hopes to become a registered nurse and earn her Master's degree. She is exceptionally thankful for the support of her family and friends, and owes much of her success to their encouragement.

Kristen Batko

"If we did all the things that we are capable of doing, we would astound ourselves." Thomas Edison

In the years at SWMHS, Kristen has displayed her enthusiasm for involvement by participating in diverse activities. Her pride in her accomplishments has driven her to persevere at everything she has ever tried. Whether she was in the auditorium as the Student Tech Director or managing a swim meet, she has strived to do the best she could. Kristen's achievements are shown by her Presidency in National Honor Society and membership in Spanish Honor Society and Mu Alpha Theta. Besides academics, Kristen has played soccer all four years, culminating in the captain position her senior year and participated in Peer Leadership, Fedora Productions, and Odyssey of the Mind. She has appreciated the opportunities high school has provided for her as well as the support from those surrounding her.

Shannon McKenna

"If you don't go after what you want, you'll never have it. If you don't ask, the answer is always no. If you don't step forward, you're always in the same place." - Nora Roberts

During the past four years at SWMHS, Shannon has truly made the most of the opportunities she has been given. Shannon serves as an executive of NHS, Spanish Honor Society, Character Ed. Committee, and FBLA. In addition, she is a member of Mu Alpha Theta, Peer Leadership, Fedora Productions and Stage Crew. Shannon is a four year varsity member of three athletic teams, cross country, swimming, and spring track. She served as captain of all three during her senior season. Outside of school, Shannon works as a lifeguard and assistant swim coach. She was the recipient of the NJCPA Scholarship. Shannon plans to attend a four year university and major in accounting. She would like to thank her family, friends, and teachers for all of their support.

Forum Patel

Over the past four years Forum Patel has been extremely hard working, and in the end it has paid off. Next year she plans on attending NJIT as a student of the seven year optometry program. Since freshman year Forum has participated in various activities, including playing on the tennis team for two years and has been active in numerous clubs. She was the president of the International Society and vice president of the Interact Club, as well as active on other club boards including Rebel and Indian Club. Throughout her life she has dedicated her time to volunteering and helping others as much as possible. Being part of the National, Science, History, Spanish and Math Honor Societies Forum looks fondly back at her past four years. Her hobbies include shopping and spending time with her friends. The measure of success is what you think about what you've done and Forum looks back at her high school career with not one regret. Her family and friends are the reason behind her success and she appreciates everyone that has helped her become who she is today.

BASEBALL

The 2009 Bombers baseball team had a great season, finishing with a final record of 13-9-1. Led by Coach Michael Novak, the team earned several important wins against local rivals. The boys were led by senior captains Joe Bongiorno, Jake Campbell, and Mike McLafferty, who had 86 hits and 45 RBI's combined during the season. The Bombers' success was driven by this outstanding hitting. Overall, the team posted a .340 batting average. Although the team lost many seniors, the strength exhibited by the underclassmen is sure to bring success during the 2010 season.

SPRING TRACK

The 2009 Spring Track team had a remarkable season this year. The boys' team won the White Division with an undefeated 7-0 record. At GMCs, the boys' 4x400 team won the championship with a time of 3:26:91 and senior Sean Mosser won the 800 meter race. In addition, freshman Emeka Eze set a school triple jump record with an impressive distance of 43'7". The girls' team had an equally successful season, as they finished with a 7-0 record and won at the White Division Relay Championship. This victory secured the conference and White Division individual title. The Most Outstanding Athlete Award was given to senior Chantel King for her record in the 200 meter race.

BOYS' TENNIS

The 2009 boys' tennis team continued their dominance by claiming the White Division title for the second season in a row. The boys earned a division record of 15-0 and an overall record of 184. Individual state qualifiers on the team included Tanay Patel, Ravi Trivedi and Patrick Khaleel, who were also named All Division players along with Amar Karki, Nicholas Szamreta, Apoorv Kakar, and Vaibhav Verma. Coach Michael Provenza was named Coach of the Year for the white division. In 2010, the boys will look to take the county by storm and hopefully stay atop the white division. Congratulations on a great season!

Nicholas Szamreta

Apoorv Kakar scores a point to win the match.

Patrick Khaleel steps into a perfect hit.

Ryan Zucker volleys the ball back over to his opponent.

Deval Desai follows through with his perfected forehand.

Zill Christian gets ready to lob the ball to the opposing player.

GOLF

The 2009 golf season was one marked by perseverance and dedication from the Bombers. With each player having the common goal of improving his or her game throughout the season, the team progressed to great lengths from where they started on day one. Although the team came up short in its hopes of qualifying for the state tournament, this did not put a damper on the positive aspects of the season.

On some days, the outcome would come down to the final few strokes of the match with a favorable ending for the Bombers. Unquestionably, it was this close competition that built the excitement of the game and encouraged the Bombers to work harder. The 2010 season is sure to be a great one as seniors Bryan Adamcik, Amber Danku, Eric Ryan and Mike Galvin lead the team to a spot at the top.

WRESTLING

The Sayreville Bombers wrestling team came up strong during the 2009-2010 season, despite a few obstacles. Under the direction of a new head coach, Anton Atterbury, the team was trained to achieve many victories throughout the season, including the home match against North Brunswick. Of noteworthy achievement during the season was Gary Siriday's qualification in the Wrestling Championships that took place in Atlantic City. This year, Siriday was the only Sayreville wrestler to reach this level of competition. # CHEERLEADING

The Bombers Cheerleading team never disappoints with their cheers and dances at football and basketball games. Under the direction of Coach Mastrangelo and Coach Pesci, the girls mastered their crowd-inspiring routines. The cheerleaders lifted the spirits of the teams and the crowd, ensuring a fun time for everyone.

Whether basketball or football, the cheerleaders attended every game and always kept the crowd on their feet. Without the Bomber Cheerleaders present, the games would not have been the same. # Quo Vadis

The school yearbook, Quo Vadis, is the most complete record of a student's years at SWMHS. The yearbook contains sections devoted to the faculty and administration, seniors and underclassmen. Also included are sections concerning sports and extra-curricular activities. Selected in the spring, the new staff begins choosing themes and layouts, and book specifications. The students then compile the photographs and information into the yearbook.

National Honor Society

National Honor Society is the highest honor which a high school student can receive. Membership is restricted to those juniors and seniors who maintain a 3.25 GPA during their high school years and who exhibit the positive traits of leadership, service, and good character. Members take part in after school tutoring and meet bi-weekly with their advisor, Mrs. Magaw, to create new community service projects, including the annual coat drive. Every spring, the NHS hosts a spaghetti dinner to benefit Sayreville BIC.

Mu Alpha Theta

Mu Alpha Theta is a Mathematics Honor Society whose purpose is to provide recognition of superior mathematical scholarship. Membership is granted to those students who have maintained a final average of an A- in each full year math course taken up to and including Pre Calculus (Algebra I, Geometry, Algebra II).

Science Honor Society

The Science Honor Society has been formed this year to encourage and recognize scientific and intellectual thought. This society advances the students' knowledge of classical and modern science and communicates with the scientific community. It also provides a clear indication to universities and colleges of one's achievements. Membership is eligible for students with an overall 3.0 grade point average and a B+ average in science. Mr. Coleman advises this society.

African History Club

The African History Club explores the roots of African Americans in the United States as well as around the world. Members are able to learn more about the African American culture by taking trips to other places. Mr. Lewis advises this club.

Spanish Honor Society

Spanish Honor Society introduces the students of Sayreville to an in-depth understanding of Spanish. Students are selected if they maintain an A- final year average in Spanish III. Students take part in a variety of activities including Spanish tutoring, craft making, and writing letters to veterans. At the end of the year, the students take a trip to Six Flags and Jose Tejas. Señor Alcolea serves as the advisor.

History Honor Society

The goal of the History Honor Society is to promote the study of history through the encouragement of research, publication, and community service. To earn membership into the society, students must have taken the Advanced Placement US History course and earned either a 4 or 5 on the AP Examination. Mr. Szabo is the advisor.

FBLA, DECA, CBE

FBLA, run by Mrs. Hall, and DECA, run by Mrs. Berman are both competitive groups that focus on business and marketing skills. Each year, they have multiple competitions in which the members compete with students from other schools in a certain subject. CBE is the Cooperative Business course that allows seniors to earn school credit while entering the work force. It is taught by Mrs. Hall.

ACT

ACT stands for Academic Competition Team and is run by Mrs. Jaysnovitch. Members are able to compete against other schools throughout the school year in the state of New Jersey. They compete in college-bowl type competitions where students answer as many questions to earn points. Students are quizzed on various topics, but it is not all just learning. ACT provides fun experiences for all.

Odyssey of the Mind

OM is a club that explores a student's creativity by allowing students to work on problem-solving activities to arrive at solutions. Students are given a specific problem to solve and work in small teams coming up with the most innovative ideas to complete their task. They go on to perform in regional competitions, and advance to state and world competitions depending on their performance with Mrs. McCabe as the advisor.

Peer Leadership

Peer Leadership is a five-credit course that meets five days a week. Twelfth grade students can apply for this class as juniors and are put through a vigorous selection process. Chosen seniors meet with a group of freshmen, once a week, to discuss a variety of topics including, relationships, academic pressures, and drugs and alcohol. They help the freshmen become acclimated to the high school. The seniors take two overnight trips per year and are looked up to as the school role models. The advisors are Mr. Cifelli, Miss Loch, Miss Panza, and Mr. Weinert.

EDGE

EDGE is a student led organization that is dedicated to building strong leaders in SWMHS, hoping to better the school and community. In performing these acts, students learn about the four key points: Education, Determination, Gratitude and most of all Endurance. Upon learning and experiencing these four points, students will grow not only as leaders but as individuals. This organization gives the students of SWMHS an EDGE in society.

REBEL

Rebel stands for Reaching Everyone by Exposing Lies. It is a youth-led anti-tobacco advocacy group of New Jersey. REBEL members want to be heard and want big Tobacco companies to know that New Jersey's young people are "Not for Sale." This club focuses on conveying the negative effects of tobacco. High school students should know the consequences of smoking and this club advocates this message, with Ms. Fass as the advisor.

SAVE

Save stands for Students Against Violence Everywhere and is run by Mr. Schlaline. This national association has earned its recognition by promoting nonviolence in school and community settings. Students learn about alternatives to violence as well as crime prevention and conflict management skills. This club allows students to learn good citizenship, civility, and nonviolence.

Red Cross Club

The Red Cross club involves community service to help others. The members take part in activities such as the Walk-a-Thon, blood drives and even going to the elementary schools to teach the younger children about first aid. At the meetings, the members have written letters to troops overseas and made cards for sick children. The club has been recognized by the state for raising a significant amount of money in the Walk-a-Thon and for helping raise money for Haiti.

SADD

SADD stands for Students Against Destructive Decisions. Over the years, their message has evolved from just saying no to drinking and drugs to preventing others from destructive decisions. This club, led by Ms. Corrales, spreads the message of positive peer pressure and provides strategies to help avoid problems a teenager might face in high school.

TIGS

TIGS stands for Teen Interest Generates Success. This club, advised by Mr. Veres, advocates against drugs and alcohol by teaching kids alternative ways to have fun and "get high on life". The purpose of the club is to teach students to make the right decisions at a time where they may feel pressured to do otherwise. The meetings show that there are other ways to have fun without drugs and alcohol.

Chess Club

Chess Club is open to all students who like the game of chess. Mrs. Sachar advises this club while students compete against each other to find out who is the best chess player amongst them. They explore different techniques and strategies in order to beat out their opponents.

Book Club

The SWMHS Book Club meets monthly to discuss their opinions about each book that they are assigned to read. Along with reading books, they also know how to have a good time by relaxing and snacking. Ms. Powell is the club's advisor.

Images

Images is the SWMHS Literary Magazine. It is published annually and continues to win numerous awards year after year. The club meets throughout the school year collecting artwork, poetry, and photographs from students to complete the book. The club is advised by Ms. Scarpari.

Echo Lites

Echo Lites is the SWMHS newspaper. It comes out three times per year. The major goals are to accurately report events that occur within the school as well as in the community, state, and country, and to discuss the manner to which those events affect the students and the world in which we live. Each issue represents long hours of hard work and dedication to journalism by all members of the staff. Ms. Farese is the advisor.

Character Ed Council

Character Education Council is a group of students who participate in a variety of community service projects. This winter, they ran the Toys from Teens drive in which students donated toys to less fortunate families in our community. They also put together the SWMHS Wall of Honor which honors those who have served in the armed forces who graduated from this school. Ms. Nakienly is the advisor.

Science Club

The Science Club, run by Mr. Coleman, provides students with a fun experiment every month and helps members explore the world of science. Members interact through creative experiments that everyone can enjoy. Students are able to learn about science hands-on while having fun. One of their most memorable experiments included lighting bubbles on fire.

Robotics

The Robotics club at SWMHS is a club for students with an interest in designing and building robots. The students have a mastery in electronics, mechanics, as well as software and are planning to enter a competition with their final project. Ms. Gerstein is the club's advisor.

International Society

International Society shows their respect for every culture and race by honoring one country every month. At their meetings, they allow students to learn about that specific country and also get to taste a little of their traditional foods. Ms. Woolf advises the club and the club helps to broaden students' awareness of the world.

Choir

The Sayreville Mixed Chorus is open to all interested students without a mandatory audition. Various styles are performed; from classical to jazz/pop choral arrangements. The major concerts are held during the holiday and spring seasons. The members participate in spring trips, festivals and competitions. Additional performing groups include Sayreville Singers and Vox Humana.

Concert Band/Jazz Band

The Concert Band, led by Mr. Caruso, is a class that integrates playing instruments as well as learning music theory. Each student works towards the mastery of their instruments. The band competes in various state competitions throughout the year. They have also appeared in prestigious venues, such as Carnegie Hall and Avery Fisher Hall in Lincoln Center. The Concert Band can also be seen selling pizza after school in the lobby.

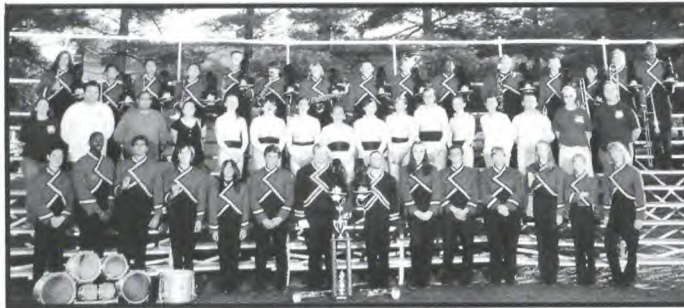

The Jazz Ensemble is a group of select brass and woodwind players who gather to play the music of Duke Ellington, The Beatles, Bon Jovi, and other modern musicians as well as classical jazz artists. They compete regionally and work with and observe jazz clinicians. Mr. Caruso conducts the ensemble.

Marching Band/ Winterguard

The Sayreville Marching Band can be found playing at all of the high school football games. They have competed in state competitions, making them first in Central-New Jersey, second in Northern States, and second in New Jersey. Mr. Eric Boehm is the Board Director. Mr. Scott Paul is the Percussion Director. Winterguard instructor Elyse Hajdusek led the team to competitions at the state level.

REP Workshop

REP Workshop is the SWMHS student run record label. Students work in different departments from business to marketing to engineering to talent searching. They are able to get a first-hand look at the recording industry. This year's album is entitled "Surreal Sounds" and was released in May. The class is run by Mr. Craft.

Perpetual Motion

Perpetual Motion is the school's dance team, coached by Ms. Victorero-Mongone. They can be seen performing at basketball games, school fundraisers, and the Variety Show. This hardworking group meets three times a week and has been invited to many prestigious events to perform.

Crews

The Stage, Light and Sound Crews make sure everything is running smoothly during the theatrical productions. With Mr. Craft in charge, students learn to interact with the actors and properly store props and work the spotlights, sound and light-boards. They are in charge of maintaining the stage, lights, and sounds. The Make-up and Costume Crews are also an important part for the success of the theatrical productions. With Ms. Farrell leading the Make-up Crew, actors are sure to have full make-up so their expressions can be seen at a distance. They work together with the Costume Crew, led by Ms. Farese, which creates the proper fashion look. Both work together to provide the realism needed for successful productions.

Makeup Crew

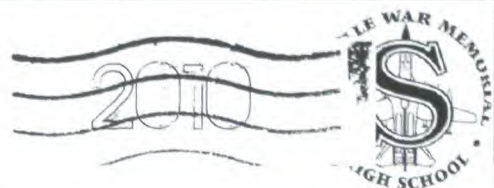

Stage Crew, Sound Crew, and Light Crew

Platinum Soundz

Step originated from African tribal routines involving rhythmic movements such as hand clapping and feet stomping. The Platinum Soundz Step Squad is an extra curricular activity that involves coordination, skill, discipline, and teamwork. Students must commit to practice atleast once a week and learn to build duration, intensity, and stamina. They have many performances during basketball games and pep rally. Mrs. Goscienceski-Lynch is the Platinum Soundz coach.

Academics

Learn, Achieve, Succeed!

English

"I'd like my students to get an appreciation for reading and knowledge of how to write better. Overall appreciation and joy for learning." - Mrs. Scordinsky

Social Studies

"I love the interaction with the students and being able to see them grow intellectually and develop into the outstanding young leaders of tomorrow." - Mr. Szabo

Science

"The main thing I'd like my students to get out of my class is a love for biology and a thirst for learning. I want them to be inquisitive and know that there's so much more to learn." - Mrs. Bill

Mathematics

"My favorite part of this job is teaching ideas that will be used by students immediately in classes and state testing, as well as building logical skills used throughout life." - Mr. Pereira

Foreign Language

"I'd like students to get the basics of the Spanish language and appreciate the language and culture. I like when students finally learn how to do their things on their own. I like autonomy which is being responsible for yourself, thinking for yourself and creative thinking." - Mrs. Rosen

BUSINESS

"Primarily I want my students to have a love of learning and secondly develop interest in the business world." - Mrs. Feldman

The Arts

"From my class, I want my students to get confidence in themselves being able to get up in front of their peers and express themselves in a creative way." Dr. Piccuiro

Physical Education

"The best part of my job is having fun, working with good people and getting kids active." - Ms. Ciser

Gregg,

Where have the years gone? We're so proud of your accomplishments and of the fine young man you've become. Best of luck in college. Follow your dreams!

Love,
Mom, Bob, Grandma,
Aunt Barbara & Uncle Rick

Andrew Droulette

Congratulations! We have watched you grow up into a fine young man. You have filled our lives with so much love and laughter. Remember everything is within your reach and nothing is impossible. We love you very much.

Mom, Jon, Melissa and Mom-Mom

Chris Clark

As a young child things came so easy for you. We took your training wheels off and never had to run alongside you, you never fell. It was always like that for you. You were always so independent and that is not easy for a parent or a teacher. You were always so concerned that everything was fair not just for yourself but for everyone. These two qualities are admirable traits to possess. We are so proud of all you have done and know you will be a success at whatever you choose to do in life. We will always be here for you, we love you very much.

Love Mom, Dad, and your brothers

Michael Clark

You have always been full of surprises, you were unpredictable, so funny, so adorable. You were a bundle of energy and had the greatest smile. You have been an excellent student through all your years in high school. We are very proud of all your accomplishments. You will make a great teacher. We wish you all the success and happiness in all you do. We love you very much.

Tyler Clark

You have always been the "quiet" one, the most laid back, earning you the nickname, "low maintenance". You were such a joy to watch grow up, there are so many special memories. Time has gone by so quickly but you have grown into such a great young man and have excelled in everything you put your heart into. You are going to make a great teacher. We have always been so proud of you and love you very much.

Kristen Batko

As the years quickly passed it was with great pride that we have watched you grow from an adorable baby to a beautiful young lady. You should be as proud as we are of all you have achieved. We have truly enjoyed watching you grow through the years from your first dance recital through your varsity soccer career. Your transition from high school to college will be the beginning of an exciting new chapter in your life. While it will be sad for us to see you leave home, we know you will be entering the realm of new opportunities, experiences, and memories. Follow your dreams and you will find the path to success. Remember to keep smiling and most importantly have fun. No matter what the future holds know that we will always be there for you.

Love you,
Mom, Dad, and Michael

Shannon McKenna

"I hope your dreams take you... to the corners of your smiles,
to the highest of your hopes,
to the windows of your

We are so proud of all your accomplishments from swimming, to running, and to your academics!
Best of luck in everything you do!
We know you will do great things!
We love you!

Ryan Matos

Ryan,

A son brings special pride and joy from year to year. He shares his laughter and love and makes life bright for everyone whenever he is near.

There was joy in loving the little boy you once were and in watching you grow, love for who you are and pride for all you've accomplished in being the wonderful son you are. Believe in the impossible. Your dreams are within reach. We are very proud of you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Ryan Matos

To My Grandson Ryan,

What a wonderful year full of challenges and joys. I'm proud of your ambition and the way you get things done. You have a willingness to work hard and a warm and caring attitude. You are always there to help and support others. Always strive to be the best in everything you do. Your dreams are within reach. Trust yourself and continue to work hard. For all the love you've given and all the memories you've brought, Congratulations on your graduation.

Love Ya Lots

Peter Elaqua

Peter,

It's hard to believe that our chubby, little baby boy has grown into such a handsome young man in just the blink of an eye. We never want you to forget how much we love you and how proud we are of you. Take that with you through your life and be the best you can be; in college, in your career and most importantly in your personal life. Remember we are always here to love and support you along the way.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Anthony Nunez

Anthony,

Time flies by us too fast! You went from a cutie pie smiling infant to a dynamic toddler then a fun filled school age boy.

Before we knew it you were in high school growing taller, maturing by the day and here we are today.

Today we are planning for college and preparing to pave the road for you to continue to drive down your road of success. We want you to know we love you very much, are very proud of you, and will always be here for you.

Congrats!
Mom & Dad

Matthew Monte

Life will always throw you curves, just keep fouling them off... the right pitch will come, but when it does, be prepared to run the bases. Now go hit a home run!

Wishing you all the best you can be in your life.
All our love Mom, Dad, Tommy, Victoria, and Molly

Brittany Nowicki

Dear Brittany,

I cannot believe my "babe" is graduating! It seems like only yesterday I found you sitting on the kitchen table scoping out where next to explore - maybe the countertop?

Always climbing.

You've always been a multi-tasker, involved in many things at one time and I never knew how you did it, but you managed well and always mastered what was dealt your way.

I know you will face many NEW avenues and challenges in life. I'm sure with your strong will yet humor filled personality, your love for versatility, your passion to enjoy life and your caring yet vivacious manner you will succeed. At least that's what we wish for you.

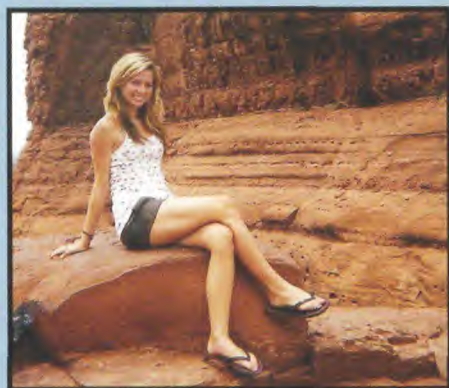

I will always hear your laugh in my mind and heart- it brings a smile to my face, too.

Keep climbing, Britt, the Ladder of Life awaits you! You are so amazing, honey and we wish you the best in whatever you do in life.

Love,
Mom & Brian

Dana Quinn

Dana, you have not only been a wonderful daughter in every way to your father and me, but an amazing role model to your sister. You are not only intelligent and hard-working, but creative, easy going, and truly inspiring to everyone's life you touch!

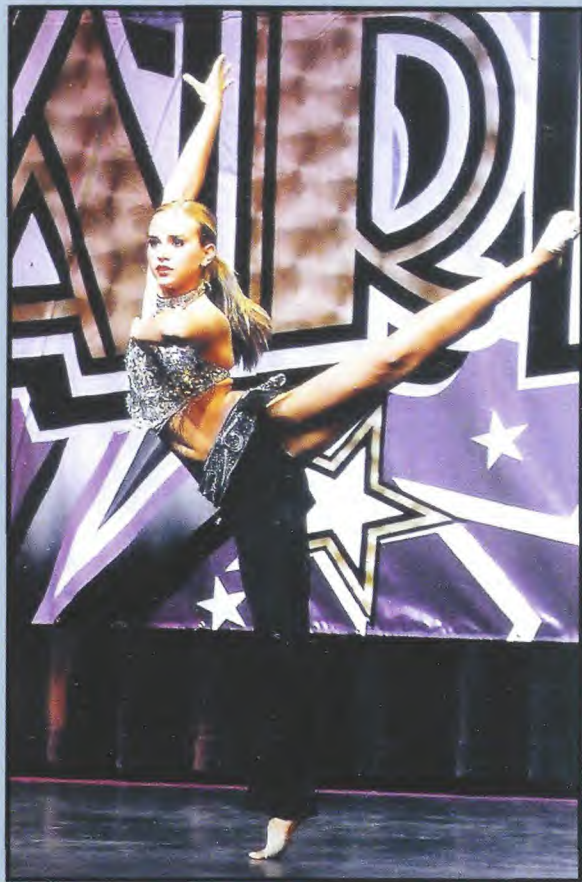

Dana, you are without a doubt one of the most loving, reliable, responsible, and motivating people around. You light up any room you enter! Mom and I know you will go far in life because you try so hard and inspire so many, you are the complete package.

We could not be more proud!
Congratulations and the best of luck
in all your endeavors!

We love you so much,
Dad, Mom, and Michelle

Samantha Braine

It seems like only yesterday that you were our little girl. You are such a special blessing that was brought into our lives. With all that you do day-to-day some how you always seem to make us smile. All your hard work and determination has made you the strong young woman you are today. You have such a passion with everything you do that we couldn't be more proud. Always believe in yourself and you can achieve anything you set your mind too. Remember wherever life takes you; we will always be there every step of the way. We love you and you will always
"BE OUR SUNSHINE"

Love always,
Mom , Dad , Patrick & Megan
Grandma & PopPop

Dana Lefkowitz

Dana... it is truly amazing watching you grow from a shy little girl to this outgoing, beautiful young woman. You have become funny, intelligent and thoughtful. Your love of friends and family make us proud. Life is full of challenges; just know that Mom, Jay and I will always be there to help you meet them head on. Always remember, you are never alone, you will always have us and your friends to help you. Live your life, and make the most of your life.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Jason

Jacqueline Ciak

Dear Jacqueline,

Pre-school, elementary school and now high school- where did the time go? It is so hard to believe the years have gone by, and our precious baby girl turned into a lovely young lady. Laughter. Jokes. You always have us laughing and bring us much joy.

Sports. From the time you started walking, you were always interested in sports. Your love of softball and basketball kept us busy, and we loved every minute of it.

Daddy and I always said that high school is the best time of your life, and I know you found that to be true. We are very proud of you and will always be here for you.

We love you,

Mom, Dad, Kevin, Jason, Anthony and Tara

From the day you set foot in Sayreville War Memorial High School, you brought with you a tremendous energy, passion and enthusiasm for life. You dared to dream and those dreams have become big. Whether it be basketball, softball, co-op or one of your many other endeavors, you have left an indelible mark on those who you have come to know, befriend, and love.

And so it is too, with the two of us. From the day you entered my life, you would leave that same indelible mark on my life and grow up to be a beautiful young lady with an incredible future full of energy, passion, drive, talent, and great things to come.

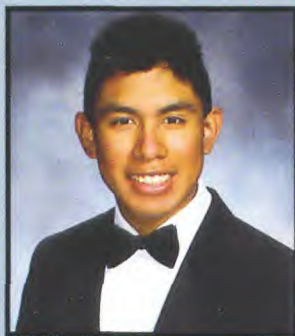

You know I always said that graduation is a night I truly enjoy and look forward to all year long. It's a night I can be proud of our students. This one will be extra special because it is also a night that I can be prouder than I have ever been of my sister.

Your future is bright. Work hard. Play hard. But most importantly, take the time to truly appreciate the things in the world that are most important: family, friends, and the wonderful gift we call life.

Congratulations and God Bless. I am so proud of you!

Love, Kevin

Anuj Shah

Anuj,

It is amazing how fast you have grown up. You already finished one entire phase of your life and now are about to start an even more important and exciting chapter that will lead you to all kinds of places in the future. We are very proud of you and all that you have accomplished. All we want is for you to be happy and know that we are always here for you. Congratulations and Good Luck!

Love,
Dad, Mom, and Palak

Bryan Adamcik

Dear Bryan,

Congratulations on your high school graduation. We are all so proud of you. You have grown into a caring and responsible young man. We wish you continued success in your future and keep reaching for all of your dreams. You have the determination and ability to make them all come true. We love you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Jackie, & Matthew

Jordanna Lembo

Jordanna,

We can't believe the years have gone by so quickly. It seems like yesterday that you were walking up the street to start kindergarten at Truman. There are no words to describe how much you will be missed when you go off to college. We are very proud of you and know you will be successful at anything that you apply yourself to. Our wish for you is a lifetime of a good health, happiness and prosperity.

Congratulations on your graduation.

Love,
Mom, Dad & Julianna

Elizabeth Bracey

Dearest Liz;

You should be extremely proud of yourself, for you have accomplished so much in such little time. Your Mom has her wings wrapped around you, showering you with many blessings. She is so proud of you!

Recognize your blessings - it will give you the strength to achieve your goals. Remember we are always here for you!

Your biggest fans,
Uncle Vincent, Aunt Vallie, Jah'Nair and Lil Vincent

Francesco Franciamore

Frank, Congratulations on your Graduation! As you are about to open a new chapter of your life, we all wish you much success in college and in all your future endeavors.

I wish I could turn back the hands of time. I've watched you grow into an outstanding, incredible young man! I know your talent will give you many paths to choose from. Remember to always keep your positive outlook and determination in life as this will give you the ability to succeed in all that you do. You have given me many gifts in the past eighteen years of your journey, but none more precious than the smiles you give my heart!

We are all so very proud of you!!!
Love, Mom, Dad, Giovanni, and Michael

Elizabeth Bracey

Dear Liz,

Reach for the stars for you are one of them !

We love you,
Grandma, Nanny, and Grandpee

David Fleming

Congrats, David Kyle Fleming!

We are so proud of you. Your journey just began.
Always remember we love you and will always have your back.

Love, Mom, Dad, and Sister

Elena Santiago

We are so very proud of you. It seems like just yesterday you were toddling around, learning how to walk. And now you are preparing to embark on a journey out into the real world. All this happened in a blink of an eye. We wish you luck, perseverance, happiness and fulfillment of your dreams. Spread your wings and reach for the stars, for all is possible and within your grasp.

Love,
Mom, Grandma and Christian

Nicholas Szamreta

To our aspiring engineer:

Whether on the court, or in the classroom, you always give your best.

Continue to hang in there buddy... and hold on to those shades, because the future sure looks bright!

Love,
Dad, Mom & Liz

Anthony Colon

Dear Anthony,

It seems like only yesterday we were holding you in our arms and now you're graduating from high school. Time goes by so fast, so make every moment count, live life to the fullest. Remember, only you hold the key to your future so unlock those doors and shine like the star you are. We are all very proud of you. Congratulations, Best Wishes and Good Luck in College. We all LOVE YOU...

Love,
Mom, Dad, Angelina & Christian

Kristen Wagner

Mookie,

Our sweetheart. We will never forget your first year of school, the picture says it all. You have grown into a beautiful and happy young lady. You are a terrific daughter and sister. We are so proud of you. Follow your dreams. You can do anything you put your mind to. Congratulations and we wish you lots of success and happiness.

Love,
Dad, Mom, Valerie, Glenn, & Jennifer

Michael Huggins

Michael,

As a little boy you were always a pleasure to be around. You played hard and worked hard, yet you demonstrated kindness and compassion. As this chapter in your life is coming to a close and another is about to begin, we want you to know that we will always be here for you. You have grown into a fine young man and as you face the many challenges ahead we are confident you will face it with integrity and courage. And as the song goes "when the world attacks and you slide offtrack remember one fact we got your back."

Love you son,
Mom, Dad, Terri and Mommom

Amanda Cavney

Amanda, we can't believe how the years have gone by, it feels like yesterday that we were taking you to kindergarten. Life would be so incomplete without you and we will always be there for you. We are proud of the wonderful person you have become and so very proud to call you
OUR DAUGHTER.

Congratulations on your graduation and good luck to you always.

With much Love,
Mom & Dad

Jane Maldonado

Dear Jane,

"Success means having the courage, the determination, and the will to become the person you believe you were meant to be." (G. Sheehan)

Much success always.

Love,
Mom and David

Caitlin Morris

Congratulations! You will now enter the next phase of life. Take it for all it's worth. Follow your dreams and do not settle for anything else. You deserve all the happiness that life has to offer. You were awesome dancing in the Christmas Parade in Disney World! That is something to cherish forever.

Love Always,

Mom, Dad, Kerri, and Mom-Mom

Jay Kadakia

Congratulations, Jay!

We are extremely proud of you! We wish you the very best for your journey of life in a new era [college]. We know you will successfully fulfill all your goals and dreams with the grace of God! Keep believing in yourself and move up! We love you all from the bottom of our heart!

Lots of Love and Best Wishes,
Mom, Dad and Nishi

Amber Danku

On May 6, 1992 we were blessed with a beautiful baby girl who turned into the most active baby, toddler, child, and teen. You kept us hopping – going to dance recitals, gymnastic competitions, marching band and winter guard shows, music concerts and following the bands of the many friends you made through the years. You kept us young trying to keep up with your schedule. Now you will be on your own, keeping up with whatever life brings your way. We are so proud of your commitment to all your activities, academics and accomplishments thus far and know you will keep making us proud in the future.

Congratulations and GO RU!

With all our love,
Mom and Dad

Tiffany Gobac

Congratulations on everything you have done. You have grown up so fast in front of our eyes. Best of luck in everything that crosses your journey. We know you will do so well at Rider University.

Love,
Mommy, Daddy, Dave, MaryAnne, and Steven

Jaime Unkel

We know it hasn't always been easy for you growing up as the youngest of five children, but it has made you a stronger person. You have learned to be tough and stand up for yourself against criticism, yet you have developed a caring and loving heart not only for your family but also for your friends. We have enjoyed cheering you on at Field Hockey games and track meets and loved watching you grow from an enthusiastic Leprechaun Cheerleader into a beautiful Bomber Cheerleader. We have watched in wonder as you knocked down tough opponents on the field one season and yet were so graceful as a Cheerleader the next season. Always remember that you have the love and support of your entire family. We look forward to watching you play Field Hockey in college, wherever that may be, but, wherever you go, we know you will be a success because you are "THE BEAST".

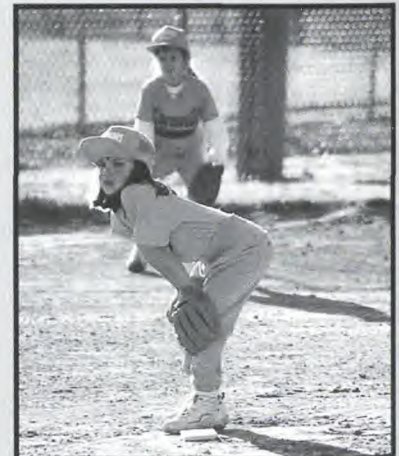

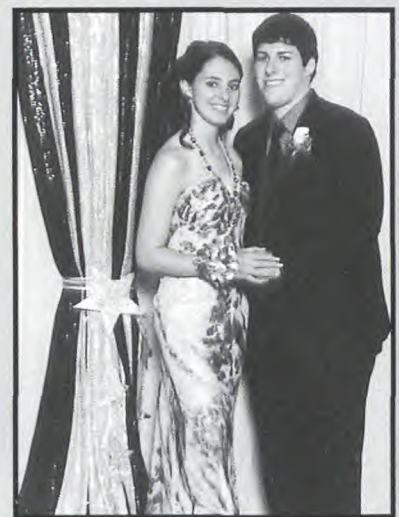

Love, Mom, Dad, and the Entire Family

Jennifer Pollard

Jennifer,
Honestly we don't know where to begin. We can't believe the time has gone by so fast. It seems like just yesterday you and Amanda were starting pre-school together. Throughout the years you have traveled some rough roads, both physical and emotional, but always managed to come out on top. This, we believe, is due to your strength, compassion, love and understanding. We love you, and always remember there is nothing that you can't achieve, the sky is the limit. - She believed she could so she did!
Love, Mom, Dad & Casey

Jennifer,
I cannot believe that you are graduating high school already. Where has the time gone? Over the years you have gone from being my annoying little sister to one of my best friends. You constantly amaze me with your kindness, confidence, and willingness to do what is right. Whatever path you choose in life, you will succeed if you follow your heart.
Love, Casey
P.S. Remember to relax and breathe...everything will be ok =)

Rhonette Smith

We are so proud of you and your accomplishments. Continue to keep God first and everything else will be added unto you. Remember the sky is the limit. Reach for your dreams. You are truly our blessing.

Love you,
Mom and Dad &
Grandma and Paka,
Rhonda & Edmund

Brittany Burkhardt

Brittany... No matter how much you grow, or how old you get, you will always be my baby girl chasing bubbles, laughing and smiling, and full of dreams. Don't ever let go of those dreams no matter what challenges life brings your way. Cherish where you've been and memories made with friends, but most of all... Never forget I believe in you always...

I Love You Infinity
Mommy

Abdilrahman B. Mohidin

The day has finally come. The end of high school and an entirely new beginning. However, I will miss my friends, teachers, and the great time we spent together. I would also like to say thanks to all the people who made a difference in my life and wish you the best luck ever! And as you know that mountains may fly, rivers may dry, you may forget me, but never will I.

Jake Werb

Jake

You Have Made
Us So Proud.
Continue To Achieve
And Be Happy
Always Follow Your Heart

Love,

Rachel Harning

Rae Rae,

We are all extremely proud of you and love you more than words can describe! We wish you "Enough" in life and know you are going to exceed all expectations!

Forever,
Megan, Luke, & Dad

Katryn Flynn

Katryn,

Look how far you've come! We are so proud of you!
Our precious little girl has grown into a beautiful young lady. May our love for you be your roots while you spread your wings and fly.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Sandy, and Wesley

Gino Schifano

Congratulations Gino,

Your family is extremely proud of you. You can't imagine the sense of happiness we are experiencing ... Graduation is only a concept, in a real life everyday you graduate, Graduation is a process that goes on until the last day of your life. If you can grasp that, you'll make a difference.

"Stand your Ground with friends family forever"

Love you more than the world.
Mom, Dad, Jessica, Millie, Gabby,
Grandma, Pop, and NanNan,

Robert K. Spade

A dream is the door to tomorrow. It's time for you to open that door & fly.

We will always be by your side. Good luck & Congrats!

Love always & forever,

Mom, Dad, & Kristina

Marisa Kilgallen

A person should wear what he wants to
And not just what other folks say.

A person should do what she wants to.

A person's a person that way.

From "Free to Be You & Me"

Dear Marisa,

You have chosen to work very hard and we are proud of you and all you have accomplished. Now a new beginning waits as you head off to college. Take time to enjoy the new experiences and to pursue the dreams you want to pursue.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Daniel, Gramma

Jennifer Fulham

Seems like yesterday that you started Kindergarten, now 12 years later its graduation time. What a beautiful woman you have grown into.

Remember that whatever you decide to do, work hard and you will achieve all of your dreams.

Love You Always,
Mom & Dad

Brian Truchan

Dear Brian,

You've grown up in the blink of an eye. It seems like just yesterday you played with power rangers and playdough. Next came wrestling, toys, and baseball. Then came the drums and more baseball. Now it's baseball and track. We've always been so proud of you in whatever you've done. You have always been very special to us. You are a wonderful son and brother. May all your dreams come true.

Love, Mom, Dad, and Eric.

Jonathan Paiva

Dear Jon,

Where has the time gone! It seems like yesterday that I was sending you off to kindergarten. The years have passed quickly as you have gone from a rambunctious little boy to a self-assured and witty young man. Whether you are on the SWMHS stage or singing in the choir, you have amazed me and made me extremely proud of you. As you graduate, be proud of what you have accomplished in high school. Using your given talents, I know you can achieve anything you set your mind to. Congratulations!

Love,
Mom

Erik Sherman

Erik,

Words can not express how proud I am of you and all of your accomplishments. Your continuous hard work and commitment to excellence has never ceased to amaze me. You are the light of my life and always keep me laughing. Congratulations on your High School graduation, becoming an EMT and giving back to your community. All my love and support as you move on to college.

Love Always,
Mom

"You have brains in your head, you have feet in your shoes, you can steer yourself any direction you choose."

Dana Quinn, Erik Sherman, Sanzana Faroque and Megan Hewitt

Congratulations on your graduation! It has been great working with you guys on yearbook the past four years. Good luck in all your future endeavors. Make the most out of college, travel and enjoy yourselves. I wish you all the best.

Love,
Miss Fallon

Anthony Moro (Piggy)

You have always made us very proud.
We can only wish and hope that you will continue to do so.
We love you very much.
Always remember the decisions you make today, will fulfill your dreams tomorrow.

From,
Dad, Mom & Christopher

Arielle - Marie Sarroca

Good Luck, Arielle!
We are very proud of you!

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Rochelle, Zachary
& Teddy

Joseph Janela

Joseph,

You've got style, confidence, intelligence and charm. You are an amazing young man, and we are very proud of you.

Never forget who you are and always reach for the brightest star!

We love you always,
Mom, Dad, Mike & Brian

Christopher Amat

Dear Chris,
We are very proud of you. Keep up the good work.

"You can have anything you want - if you want it badly enough. You can be anything you want to be, do anything you set out to accomplish if you hold to that desire with the singleness of purpose." - Abraham Lincoln

Love Always,
