I am the drop of spring rain mudging ripples to awake which reach the shores before them of a once still and silent lake.

I am the golden summer sun that illuminates the day and the white translucent moon which lightens the darkened way.

I am the voice in a canyon whose far-reaching echoes are heard resounding with encouragement and pure tender-hearted words.

I am the cool qust of wind surprising you with a kiss, stirring memories of love and those times to reminisce.

I know I'm just one person but I'm never alone, you see, for when I impact others' lives the "I" in my life becomes "We."

Pep Rally October 24, 2014

On Friday, October 24th, 2014, the halls of SWMHS were filled with school spirit as the students awaited the annual Fall Pep Rally. The fall sports teams were recognized as well as the cheerleaders and marching band performed to make it an afternoon to remember. The theme of this years Pep Rally was a "pink out" to raise awareness for breast cancer. Mr. Brown was brave enough to take on the ALS Ice Bucket challenge in front of the entire student body.

Liz Berberena-Carvajal

Liz can barely believe how much has happened in her four years at SWMHS. In such a short time, the Honor Roll student has changed so much from the timid person she used to be - dyeing her hair for the first time, challenging herself to learn a new language, and even volunteering at an animal shelter. Her duty as graphic designer for the French Honor Society has given her a sense of belonging and usefulness; her experiences in programming classes and in IT Girls and the Computer Club have helped her plan her future; her time spent with friends and classmates has made her a happier person. Additionally, Liz demonstrated her artistic abilities in the Images Literary Magazine and displays in her room her WordWright Challenge Champion Medal and Certificates of Recognition. Outside of school, Liz is a proud winner for New Jersey in the NCWIT Aspirations in Computing Competition. She plans to attain a BS in Computer Science and minor in French and German. Finally, Liz would like to thank all her family, friends, and teachers for their support and guidance over these difficult yet rewarding years.

Phillip Calik

"Wow!" This was Phil's reaction when he found out he made it to the top 10. Phil has been involved in a number of activities around school including DECA, TIGS, and Science Honor Society. He plans on studying Finance at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Samantha Evans

Sam's time at SWMHS has had a major impact on her life. There, she learned to be an honest, hardworking individual who always strived to do her best. Sam is a member of three honor societies, Mu Alpha Theta, the Science Honors Society and the Spanish Honors Society. She is also captain of the girl's Varsity Golf Team and a member of the Math Competition Team. Outside of school, Sam played ice hockey for the New Jersey Rockets. Her teammates and coaches played a major role in helping define her, teaching her loyalty and determination, as well as how to deliver a decent body check. Sam will continue with her love of hockey at the University of Rhode Island, which she will be attending in the fall. There, she will play club ice hockey for the Rams and major in Mathematics. Sam would like to thank her family, friends, teammates, coaches, and teachers because without them and their constant support, none of this would have been possible.

Lukas Szpindor

Lukas has went through his high school career with one goal in mind: to prove that one does not need be a typical nerd to be smart, but can live a great social life along with it. For his four years, he has succeeded in a range of classes, but mostly focused on his physical sciences and mathematics. With the motivation from his teachers, family, and friends he was able to achieve many of his long-term goals he set for himself in high school. He was involved in various school clubs, which include SADD, TIGS, Mu Alpha Theta, Science Honor Society, National Honor Society, Spanish Honor Society, International, Red Cross, Downhill Club, and Science club. When he is not at school you could find him shredding some fresh powder on the mountains for he is an avid snowboarder, playing some volleyball, and even bartending! Perhaps the most important thing he realized this year is that jet fuel cant melt steel beams but you didn't hear it from him. He plans to go to Steven's Institute of Technology to pursue a career in chemical engineering. Lukas has greatly enjoyed his time at Sayreville War Memorial High School and he thanks everyone who shared in his experience, for if it wasn't for every one else, it wouldn't have been the greatest four years he will always remember.

Christopher Nunes

Chris' experience at SWMHS started just four short years ago, and he cannot believe that his time here has come to an end. Throughout his high school career he has worked hard in his studies and extracurricular activities. Through this hard work and dedication he has become a member of Spanish Honor Society, Mu Alpha Theta, and National Honor Society. However, his day does not end when the final bell rings. He is a member of three sports teams - cross country. winter track, and spring track - and has earned nine varsity letters. In his senior year, he was named a captain of all three teams and was elected Student Council President. He loves to lead his peers and be the person that they look to when they need help. Outside of school, Chris is a member of the Boy Scouts and has earned the rank of Eagle Scout. He cherishes the memories he made at and outside of SWMHS these last four years, but he is excited to see what his future holds. Finally, he would like to thank his friends, family, teachers, and coaches for their support throughout his high school journey.

Angeline Jacob

Angeline has had a great four years at SWMHS. These four years were filled with great experiences that have changed her as a person and she cherishes these moments greatly. Angeline loves to be involved in numerous extracurricular activities. She has done Odyssey of the Mind for two years, and was captain her second year. She is Mu Alpha Theta President and has been involved in the Theatre Society for three years. She is also a member of Science National Honor Society and French Honor Society. Angeline loves to run marathons on Netflix and especially loves math pick-up lines. Outside of school, she volunteers at St. Peter's Hospital and helps out in her church. She likes to hang out with her friends and listen to music. She loves to dance bhangra even though she is incapable of doing so. In the fall, Angeline plans to attend Rutgers University and pursue a dual major in Electrical and Computer Engineering and Computer Science. She would like to thank her family and friends for the ongoing support since day one. If it were not for them, she would not be the determined and motivated person she is today. She wishes the Class of 2015 the best of luck!

Jensen Benko

Jensen is so proud of how far she has come by working hard and having a genuine interest in learning everything thrown her way. Her combination of leadership and creativity helped her become the President of Theatre Society and a member of Spanish Honor Society, Jewelry Club, and Images. Jensen was also chosen to be a delegate at New Jersey Girls State which influenced her into planning to become a political journalist in the future. Not only does she aspire for greatness, but she hopes everyone else does the same. No one achieves greatness on their own though, so she would like to thank her family, friends, and teachers for supporting her, challenging her, and believing in her.

Mohamed Seck

Mohamed's hard work actually did pay off after all. Four years of killing himself for good grades, even if it meant sitting at home doing homework for hours upon hours. That hard work transformed into the Spanish Honors Society and a shocking invitation to be a part of Mu Alpha Theta. Not only is he a hard worker, he gives back to his community as well. Whenever he has spare time, he will make a quick run to Elijah's Promise or the New Jersey Veteran's of that, he is a family man; he spends a lot of time with his relatives. Mohamed may be an only child, but his family makes him feel like he has brothers and sisters everywhere. He also had friends who helped and supported him throughout his life and beyond thankful for them. High school was a long road for Mohamed and it will be hard for him to say chapters in his life that await him.

Robert Frank

FRANKly, Robert cannot believe that his senior year in highschool is coming to an end. He has come a long way since his freshman year and he values the memories with his friends more than anything. Robert's favorite memories are the ski trips he has been a part of over the last three years. There is nothing like the feeling of carving down the side of a mountain with your best friends. Much like riding on a chair lift, highschool brings us to the top of the mountain where we then choose the trail that will take us to our destination. Although we may choose different paths after highschool, the connections developed along the way will last a lifetime. Whether you end up on a green, blue, or black trail, Robert wishes the best for the class of 2015. P.S. If you end up at the terrain park... Wear a helmet.

Shahen Shah

It is crazy to believe that our youngest child is already graduating high school. You went from being a cute little rugrat to a talented, hilarious, and creative young man. You've accomplished so much with your leadership as Class President and your thought-provoking and inspirational artwork. You're a wonderful little brother and a great son. Your confidence, humor, intelligence, and undoubted unique sense of style is only a small part of your enormous personality. We can't wait to see what is in store for you!

Good luck in college and congratulations!

Love, Mom, Dad, Crystal, and Pearl

Class of 2015 223

Amanda Evette Granieri

Dear Amanda,

You are my last baby to graduate high school, so this is a bitter sweet moment for me. I know that Daddy is looking down from heaven with joyful tears in his pride-filled eyes. You are going places, young lady. Don't let anyone stop you. Wishing you success in all that you set out to do. Congratulations my baby girl. Love you always and forever, Mom (and Dad), your brothers and sisters, and nephews and niece, Grandma and Grandpa, and all uncles, aunts and cousins.

Samantha Evans

Kristen Milligan

In just a few short months you will be heading off to college.

You will do great! We are very proud of you and I know

Graduation Day! We look at you and wonder where did the years go? It seems like yesterday you were starting pre-school and now you're graduating high school. You turned into a lovely young lady and your brothers, sister, dad and mom are so proud of you! We wish you the best on your journey of life!

Love You Always. Mom, Dad, Jason, Anthony and Jacqueline

Dear Tara,

It's hard to believe that 18 years have passed since you were born and that you are now graduating high school. What impressed me most is the confident young lady you have become. You believe in yourself and act with a confidence that you absolutely can change the world. Don't ever lose that confidence, dream big, and execute well.

You know that commencement is one of my favorite nights of the year because it's a night that i am exceptionally proud of our students. This year, it will hold extra special meaning because i am exceptionally proud of you. It will be an honor to hand my youngest sister her diploma on graduation night. Congratulations and best wishes in all you do!

Love, Kevin

Its been an amazing journey from the moment you were born, to each pride filled milestone, to now seeing the young man you've become, who is now graduating high school.

I know your Dad is smiling down from heaven with great pride.

LISTEN to your heart, FOLLOW your dreams, and ALWAYS reach for the stars, The happy times you've had so far with the friends you have met will always be a part of life you'll never forget.

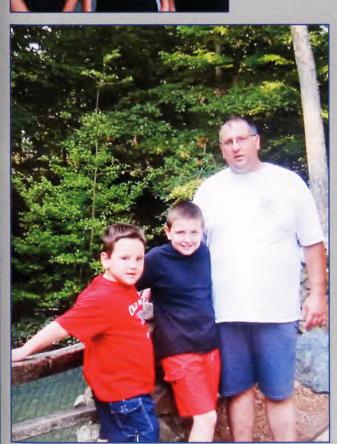

For every ending, there's a new beginning and for every memory, there's a dream ahead.

So DREAM your dreams and start now to make them all come true.
