some of the problems that are confronting the nation to-day. It will be an opportunity for all those who wish to avail themselves of it.
Enough has been already written about the bowling schedule to satisfy our friends. Bowling is organized. Over fifty men are on one or another of the eight teams which compose the Members League. Their schedule will run till the last of March, bowling twice weekly. There is in addition the Tri-County League, in which Summit has a strong team. This league bowls every Thursday night and will run until the middle of March. Mixed bowling will be every Tuesday night.
Four entertainments will be given during the course of the season, which will continue to the first of May. Besides these, it is hoped dramatics among the seniors will prove successful enough to produce a play.
Tournaments will be in order in pool and billiards. A billiard exhibition is promised for this fall.

General Plans for the Boys' Division—1919-1920.

Efforts will be made to make this year count more than any previous year in the Association's four-fold program for boys, and activities are arranged to meet the physical, religious, educational and social development of members of the Boys' Division. Of course, to be efficient, each boy should be helped to take up as much of the general program as it applies to his everyday life, which means that he give more attention to particular development on physical, religious, educational, and social lines, and not so much attention to others. This will give the boy a well-rounded life. The program on Christian Citizenship Training which will be carried out with three groups of boys is known by all Association workers with boys as the best program so far worked out to bring about satisfactory results in producing well-rounded lives for boys. The Christian Citizenship Training program is being adopted this year in a number of Associations throughout the United States, and it is urged upon all Association Boys' Secretaries to assist Sunday School leaders in also adopting the program with groups of boys that come together in the Sunday School classes.
The program is quite elaborate as it does not cover the leisure time of a boy, but takes in his whole life. Briefly, it aims, first to help the boy take account-of-stock of himself. This is done by a directed, personal interview by the leader, generally known as "charting a boy." It aims, second, to bring the boy to a place where he has a wholesome discontent for his present attainments. It aims, third, to make it possible for the boy to bring his life up to the standard, all-round minimum. This is done by means of the program of activities and required tests.

Every member of the Boys' Division has been assigned to a gymnasium class. The division of groups are thus: Employed Boys, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings; High School Boys, Tuesday and Friday afternoons and Saturday mornings; Juniors, Monday and Thursday afternoons and Saturday mornings. The schedule of activities will comprise drills, calisthenics, marching, apparatus work, team games, team contests and exhibitions, swimming contests and exhibitions and gym mat talks. The Leaders' Corps will assist in forming teams which will compete with each other for honors in all events. Basketball and baseball leagues will be formed between these teams. It is the purpose to assist every boy in the department to become a good swimmer.
In religious work, nine Bible Classes are formed; two discussion classes for older high school boys; three classes conducted under the program of Christian Citizenship Training; two classes for intermediate boys; and two classes for Junior boys. Sunday afternoon meetings for boys started last Sunday with a good attendance. These meetings will continue until Easter, and only speakers with real, live messages for boys are being secured. It is planned that the Boys' Division send at least twelve delegates to the Older Boys Conference at Montclair, on December 6, 7, 8.

The Boy Scout Radio Club of Summit, conducted as an activity of the Boys' Division, and open to all scouts who wish to learn radio telegraphy, will be one form of educational work. It is confidently expected to secure an adult, expert in this particular line, to act as a counselor and instructor to the club. When there are enough employed boys interested to make it worthwhile, the Association is ready to conduct evening classes in business English and stenography. Other forms of educational work will be in lectures, practical talks and educational trips to industrial and civic institutions.
Boys sixteen years of age and over will be permitted to use the bowling alleys and tennis courts at certain times, in addition to the regular social privileges enjoyed by the entire membership. Socials, suppers and special entertainments will be announced as planned.
The entire membership in the Boys' Division is now 250, the highest number reached since the organization of the Division. This includes 40 out of town boys who hold a full year's membership, and are as follows: 1 from Chatham, 1 from Chester, 1 from Gillette, 6 from Millburn, 4 from Murray Hill, 1 from Millington, 8 from New Providence, 7 from Short Hills, 7 from Springfield, 1 from Scotch Plains, 2 from Stirling, 1 from Wyoming.

This promises to be the largest year for the Summit High School Club both in attendance and spiritual results. Thousands of maturer boys of public and private high schools of the United States and Canada are now enlisted in a vigorous campaign seeking the highest standards of Christian character, and clubs similar to the one conducted by the boys of Summit High School, are to be found in most every high school. The first two meetings of this season saw the largest number of boys present than ever before, the average being 92. Fifteen of the leading workers with boys in the United States and Canada were secured at Silver Bay, N. Y. conference this summer, to bring to the Summit boys vital messages and challenges of the day. However, there are thirty-six sessions of the High School Club and the Superintendent of Schools and Principal of the High School agree with the Boys' Secretary that only the best speakers that can be secured will be invited to come and talk to the boys.
The boys themselves are showing great enthusiasm over the weekly program, and the majority of them are coming out strong for clean habits, clean speech, clean sports, and clean scholarship.

Department of Physical Education.
The plans for the fall and winter are now in progress. The class work has opened with a goodly number of the men and boys attending. Conditions are favorable for a big year. There will be class activities for the boy in all his stages of development. The men are not to be shirked.
For the boy we are planning a scientific way to help him become an efficient man in the future. We believe he must develop muscularly as well as mentally. Education of boys has in the past been conducted solely along mental channels. His muscular system has been left to grow as it would, with no particular attention paid to coordination.
We aim to make the work in these classes recreative as much as it is possible.
The Athletic Association will renew its activities by first putting two basketball teams in the field of competition. Wrestling will be another form of work. An effort will be made to renew the swimming enthusiasm. The board met recently and expressed a desire to hold meetings this winter to serve refreshments and call men to lecture to us.
We are hoping that all the old and new members will enter into this season's work with a zest and be boosters.

HOW MUCH IS A CHILD WORTH?

Turn for a moment, if you will, from your own cozy family circle to those 800,000 starving, ragged, helpless Jewish children in Eastern Europe. Consider their lot. You'll have to stretch your imagination to the breaking point—and even then you will not exaggerate the grim, terrible facts.

Think of it!

Almost a million innocent children robbed of their birthright! Their childhood is awry. Ever since their prattling baby days they have known only War. Peace to them is an utter stranger. For years thousands of them have wandered, refugees from contending armies. Other thousands are orphaned. None has known a full meal in five years. They can't remember what milk tastes like.

Think of the long dreary days, with the hunger pangs ever gnawing at their little vitals. Think of the terrible endless nights—spent alone and unprotected out in the fields under the stars or on dirty city streets. Think of the rags and the dirt and the lack of loving kindness, of the sickness and the suffering and the heartaches of myriads of little tots "out on their own" in a world gone mad.

Could but a part of the sufferings of little Jewish children throughout Eastern Europe in the past five years be summed up in words the world would stand aghast. Surely the heart of the loving God must be sorely wounded at what these little ones have been through.

Here is a situation where race, creed nationality—nothing counts except humanity. It is a blot on the escutcheon of the human race. Nor can America ever clear herself if she permits these conditions to continue.

Those multitudes of Jewish children in Eastern Europe must have food. They must have clothing. They must have a decent place to live.

And they must have a little of the care and loving kindness that is the birthright of every child born into the world—of the child of your heart and of these numberless Jewish children!

The first consideration of American Jewry is to care for the untended, unfed, unclothed—and unloved—offspring of the race across the sea. But it is the first consideration not only of Jewry, but of America as a whole. The $35,000,000 that the American Jewish Relief Committee needs from the United States this year will go primarily to save the Jewish childhood abroad.

Shall it ever be said that for a few paltry dollars a host of little children were allowed to perish?

SHARE—DON'T DODGE!

Here are the facts:

With $200 you can save one child's life in Eastern Europe for a whole year.

For $20 you can feed one little girl for a month, even in Poland, where food costs twice as much as it does here.

For 25 cents you can buy a ten-year-old boy more food than he has had to eat at one time for the past five years.

There are 6,000,000 Jews in Eastern Europe whom the war has left dependent upon us for aid. About 800,000 of them are children.

One change of clothes may save a boy or girl from the terrible typhus epidemic which is raging now in Eastern Europe.

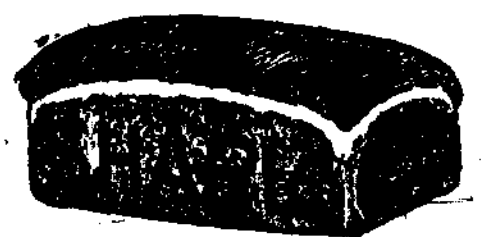

Poland is full of children of eight or ten years old, no larger than infants of a few months, who cannot walk because of lack of food.

There are hundreds of thousands of Jewish children in Poland, Palestine, Czecho-Slovakia, Lithuania, Roumania, Siberia and the Orient, left helpless and homeless by the war. Thousands of them, unable to get into the already overcrowded orphanages, beg on the streets by day and sleep on the streets by night. And there, but for the grace of God, goes your own little boy or girl!

CAPT. FREDDIE WELSH HELD.

Ex-Manager Accuses Former Champion Puglist of Biting Him.

Captain Freddie Welsh, U. S. A., a resident of Long Hill and former lightweight champion, was arraigned before Magistrate Alexander Brough in the West Side Court, New York, Tuesday morning on a charge of mayhem. The complainant, Harry Pollok, Welsh's former manager, was unable to attend the hearing, being at the Polyclinic Hospital, suffering from a lacerated ear. Captain Welsh was held in $1,000 bail for examination next Tuesday.

According to Detectives Fitzgerald and Brady of the West Forty-seventh Street Station, who arrested Captain Welsh Monday night upon the complaint of Pollok, the puglist during an altercation with his former manager in a restaurant at Fiftieth Street and Broadway, bit Pollok's right ear in half.

John C. Dyer, an attorney of 51 Chambers street, who represented Captain Welsh, said that Saturday night Pollok followed him into the restaurant and persisted in annoying him. Captain Welsh, so his counselor stated, told Pollok to remain quiet. According to Dyer, Pollok failed to heed the advice, and Captain Welsh hit him so that he fell on a broken bottle, which cut off his ear.

MAKE AMERICA THRIFTY AIM OF NEW DRIVE

Absence of Red Fire and Rocket Marks Quiet Campaign for
Government.

A campaign throughout New York State and northern New Jersey to gain the support of leading citizens of every community in the new movement by the United States Treasury Department to "Make America Thrifty" was formally launched on September 15 last.

Without red fire, noise or flashy advertisements letters were posted that day to 100,000 citizens informing them that Treasury Savings Certificates in denominations of $100 and $1,000 are now on sale and that leadership only is needed to start the purchase of these Government securities. During October they can be obtained for $84.20 and $842 respectively.

The letters call to the attention of all citizens that it is within their power to become charter members of the "Thrifty Citizens" movement merely by the purchase through their banks or the Federal Reserve Bank of New York of the Treasury Savings Certificates.

"The object of this Thrifty Citizens' movement is to help put the Nation quickly on a stable economic basis as the first essential toward solving the momentous reconstruction problems at this moment pressing for solution," the letter reads. Those addressed are also informed exactly what they must do to become Thrifty Citizens. This is to encourage associates to join in the movement by investing in Treasury Savings Certificates.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS.

Repatriating Prisoners.

When hostilities ceased there were in the hands of their Teuton captors millions of prisoners of war of all Allied countries, the terrible plight of whom is well known to all the world. Red Cross workers, carrying relief supplies of clothing, medicines and supplementary foodstuffs, penetrated the Central Powers as soon after the armistice as the military authorities would permit, and the work of getting the prisoners started back to their own countries was soon begun. In this photograph a group of these men are seen packed up and restored to something like normal health, awaiting the train that will carry them out of bondage.

ARMY OF SCHOOL CHILDREN SWELL UNCLE SAM'S PURSE BY VACATION SAVINGS

During the first week of this year's session of the public schools in New York city hundreds of thousands of pupils marched proudly to improvised desks of secretaries of thrift clubs and exchanged their summer savings for Thrift and War Savings Stamps. In the congested sections of the East Side of the great city the response to appeals last June by teachers was particularly gratifying. Many of the schools reported 100 per cent returns of the little Thrift banks which had been distributed through co-operation of principals of schools with the School Bureau, Government Loan Organization.

In one school where practically all of the children are sons or daughters of foreign born parents there was keen rivalry in class rooms in a race to pile up the greatest amount of money saved for investment in War Savings Stamps. Many of the youthful believers in regular savings and thrift told very interesting stories regarding their ways and means for acquiring funds for War Savings Stamps. All of them seemed to have grasped the fundamental idea of the Treasury Department's thrift movement throughout the United States, that one should save to attain something worth while and that reticence in frittering away pennies results in amassing dollars with which more worthy things can be purchased. Photos show scenes in one of the New York schools.

Splendid Record Made by General Electric Workers

The General Electric War Savings Society of Schenectady reports that 2,895 members bought $1,724 worth of Thrift and War Savings Stamps during August. This is a new savings organization, formed with the co-operation of heads of departments at the well known plant of the General Electric Company and the employees are becoming more and more interested in practicing thrift and the need for saving some amount of their earnings regularly. The secretary of the savings society is H. L. Baltzer.

Help yourself and your Government at the same time. Pennies quickly mount into quarters. Invest these in Thrift Stamps, and watch your W. S. S. total climb.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS.

Soon after the entrance of the United States in the war the successes of the Central Powers in Roumania had reduced that country to a most tragic condition and in the summer of 1917, the American Red Cross despatched its first Roumanian relief contingent. Two hospitals were at once taken over and operated by the Red Cross, a canteen for the starving refugees established and food and clothing distributed over a large area. Transportation was one of the toughest problems with which the Red Cross workers in Roumania had to deal. Here is seen an oxcart used by the Red Cross to carry its relief supplies up into the mountains.

Discretion of speech is more than eloquence, and to speak agreeably of him with whom we deal is more than to speak in good words or in order.
 —Bacon.

Grit.
 The cause of many failures is the lack of grit. The way to accomplish anything is first, to find your goal or object—we, second, to start at the bottom and work up, and, third, to let nothing keep you from accomplishing your aim. Use your grit. Do not get discouraged, but keep your faith. Do not let some little obstacle make you lose hope, but move around it and fight on. If you have made up your mind to do something, then, do it, for it is the only way to put a thing over.
 If in football you get a few knocks, then make the best of it, and go on.
 Keep working, and follow this motto:
 "Use your grit and do not quit."

Assembly.
 On Tuesday, October 7th, we were eager to hear the assembly report of the previous Saturday's game with Rahway. We heard, and it was excellent. Mr. Bartholomew spoke showing his appreciation that the school, en masse, for the first time, came out to the game, kept in a body, and made excellent material for the cheerleaders. He also commended the spirit of the boys who are willing to work for the team and praised Mr.
 Schmidt's fine coaching.

Just three days later, on Friday, Mr. Sprague addressed us. First, he dealt in a few figures. Evidently Mr.
 Sprague believes we can well appreciate them, and he is correct in his belief. The figures were about the increase of population in the town and High School since early times. We most appreciate the fact that Mr. Carter, who was the Principal of our school in its infancy, is now Principal of Garfield School in Newark, and the oldest principal of Newark still in active service. It just makes us wonder in what city Mr.
 Sprague will be the oldest active principal before we get our new High School.

Mr. Short's Talk in Assembly.
 All who heard Mr. Short's speech in the Assembly, Thursday, October 9th, will agree that school spirit should not be lacking among any of us now.
 He gave us a very interesting talk on "football," and, naturally, this was a very appealing topic, because we are right in the midst of our football season, having won two splendid victories. He told us of several instances in which the true loyalty or spirit of the school practically won the games.
 He surely filled the whole school with the spirit of loyalty. It is a hopeful future which lies before us.

Summit vs. Morristown.
 Still unbeaten, but barely so! We had a close shave last Saturday when we ran up against the team of Morristown School. They outwitted us considerably, and it was fine work on the part of the fellows to hold them to a tie. By virtue of their weight they ought to have wiped up the field with our fellows, but they were too slow and couldn't stand the knocks as well as our men. The game was fast and clean, with no casualties except a few bruises and bumps.

Summit scored her touchdown in the first quarter, Graydon carrying the ball over the line. Bowen tried the goal but did not succeed. The ball went up and down the field for the next two quarters. Morristown did not score her touchdown until the last five minutes of play. There was great suspense as Morristown tried for the goal. Imagine our relief when the ball failed to cross the bar. The remainder of the game saw no result.
 There was a very good crowd out to see the game considering that it was only on Thursday that we knew there would be a game. There were about two hundred and fifty tickets sold; the
 A. A. making over thirty-five dollars toward the new football uniforms. The people and pupils of Summit are backing up the team in a fine way.
 Keep it up and we will pay all of the two hundred dollars that we owe for uniforms. It helps the team to win too. Thanks, and keep it up.

Senior Class Meeting.
 The Seniors held their usual class meeting, October 8th. The President explained how an orderly business meeting should be conducted and asked that all make an effort to cooperate. The business before the class was the question of pins and rings. It was decided by a unanimous vote that a committee consisting of three girls and two boys be elected to make the business arrangements.
 The committee consists of Alva Moore, Annette Brown, Ruth Hall, Harold Eastmond, and Rome Betts.
 As there was no other business of importance to come before the class, the meeting adjourned.

R. M. S. C.
 Many new fellows have joined the High School Club this year. To these the officers and old members wish to extend warmest greeting. We hope these fellows will each enjoy the privileges of the club as much as the old members have enjoyed them and benefit by them accordingly. This week's meeting was attended by eighty-eight fellows. After lunch Mr.

 R. K. Hanson gave us a ripping good talk. Mr. Hanson, who is a director of Boys' Work in Newark, presented to us some fine ideals and told us how we might realize them in a practical way, saying that he was sure the new fellows would keep up the high standards and principles of Summit High School as set by the fellows before them.
 Next week there will probably be over one hundred fellows out. Everyone is welcome. Bring your partner and don't forget to buy your tickets on Monday.

The Girls' High School Club.
 Nearly one half of the High School came to this meeting of the Girls' High School Club this week, for there were 102 girls there, besides an alumna and three teachers.

The girls at the table in the Fortnightly Club room were very curious about one of our P. G.'s, but for further information ask any one who participated in the fun.

After a satisfying meal of sandwiches and cocoa, Mrs. Mosher gave a talk on "The Fine Art of Co-operation."

As the time had flown too fast for every report to be read, the report of the Social Committee was left for next week.
"The Fine Art of Co-operation." At the Girls' High School Club, Wednesday, October 8th, Mrs. Mosher talked to us about "The Fine Art of Co-operation." She gave an example of Y. W. C. A. Hostess House in southern New Jersey where it took them six or seven months to get running smoothly just because several members of the committee would not cooperate. It gave the community a bad idea of the people who were managing it and it was a long time before that Hostess House had their support.
 If an organization is to succeed, it must in the very first place have the co-operation of all its members. Each member must have his own opinions and be ready and willing to express it.
 But, on the other hand, he must be willing to listen to the views of others and if the majority think differently from him, then the spirit of cooperation must help him to stand by and work for the organization even if things are not going according to his plans.

Mrs. Mosher closed by urging that the girls strengthen the fine art of cooperation, and that they become better acquainted with each other and so cultivate the friendship of the blue triangle—body, mind, and spirit.

The Control of Street Traffic.
 Have you ever stood on the pavement of a busy city street and watched the traffic cop as he stands in the center of all the hurrying people, noisy cars, and cumbersome trucks? With one wave of his hand he may stop the whole train of impatient humans and vehicles on one side of the street, while he nods assent for those on the other to pass on. How orderly he keeps his street and how well the people obey him!

I have a little city all my own, called the City of the Mind, and I have a traffic cop, too, who is very, very wise and as old as the ages. His name is Conscience. In my city his job is a difficult and discouraging one. It isn't the fault of the traffic cop, either, but the citizens of the Mind City, Thoughts and Feelings, seem absolutely lawless. These citizens are rather interesting, however, for every one is entirely different. In this queer city there are Good Thoughts and Bad Thoughts, beautiful ones and ugly ones, silly ones and cheerful ones, sad ones and glad ones.

Sometimes there are very happy days in my Mind City when all the beautiful happy thoughts and fine jolly feelings come out for a block-dance on the peaceful street, while the horrid ugly ones slink away. Then the traffic cop smiles and sits down for a well-earned rest. But alas! some days all the good citizens seem fast asleep in bed, and the bad ones come out to make a rumpus, while the poor cop tries to control them and keep the street in order. The queer thing about it is, that it takes only one ugly citizen to bribe all the other bad ones. Often, when one of these wicked thoughts pops up and attempts to start something, some beautiful thought or feeling like Love or Honor, who hasn't stayed in bed so late, comes out and talks gently to the wicked one until he scuttles away in shame.

Old Temper, with his horrid selfish face, is my most disreputable citizen, who always seems to come back no matter how often he is driven out.
 Sometimes he tears down the street, knocking over poor conscience and every good thought in sight, putting the whole city in confusion. Conscience soon picks himself up, however, and gets back to business, nodding his approval at the good citizens and shaking his head at the bad ones, often accompanying his disapproval with a wheel of his hand, whose name, of course, is Duty. Once in a while (I'm sorry I can only say "once in a while") plain Common Sense comes out to act as assistant to the busy traffic cop. So he goes up to the thought city, above the little town, that is always sleeping, and to his school-neighbors, where the white-robed, worthwhile thoughts are always trying to drive away the little, all-sleepy dreams, where Self-control tries to keep Temper locked in the attic; and where Love and Kindness walk hand in hand. It's a mighty responsibility for the traffic cop and me to have such a city, isn't it?

—Phyllis Abbott.

"Greater Love Hath No Man,"

PART II.
 One man moved uncomfortably. He drew himself further back into the dark corner. The Captain glanced at him, turned away, and then met his eyes squarely and steadily for fully a moment. The face of the other flushed a deep red under his firm gaze, and he whispered so low that only the captain heard.
 "I—I can't BHP!" and hid his face in his hands. With one stride the captain was at his side. His arm went around his shaken shoulders.
 "Curt! Curt!" he said huskily.
 "Wish me luck. I'm going, and I'll never—never—if I never—come back.
 Curt, you'll write, won't you? Ready?
 Curt! All right! So long, old pal!"
 Their hands met in a clasp that hurt, and when Curt looked up again, Billy had gone.

He sank back onto the old bench and sat staring into the darkness beyond him. For hours, for days, it seemed to him, he sat thus, waiting—waiting for what? Supposing what Billy had said were true? And if I never come back," and he—Curt—land Bernard had let him go out there into that roaring turmoil, while he, nothing more than a coward, was sitting here, in safety, bemoaning his fate. Then—from somewhere in the blank darkness outside came a shout, and three blackened forms came stumbling in! Four had gone out.
 "The captain!" gasped a choked voice. "Can't find him any where! Fired wires. Captain missing—whe—he—!" and the voice sank to a whisper as the man fell headlong.

Bernard sprang to his feet. He grabbed the shoulders of one of the men.

"Where did you go?" he demanded fiercely. "Which direction? Tell me quick man, or I'll—!"

"Fast about five hundred feet from number 7!"
 East about five hundred feet from number 7! Number 7 was the most dangerous zone of all the stations out in "No Man's Land," and five hundred feet east! And Billy out there dead—captured—wounded—lying somewhere on the cold muddy ground. Bernard groaned. He closed his eyes, and then something seemed to snap within him.
 With a horse, "I'm going to get him!" he rushed out, leaving the remaining men staring after him open-mouthed.

"Crazy!" he caught the words of one man. "A coward gone crazy!"
 But he was not a "coward gone crazy." It was true, he had been a coward, but he was one no longer, and he was not crazy. He'd show 'em.
 And in the next instant he was out on the battlefield.

Over the muddy and shell torn ground he half stumbled and half crawled stopping only now and then to flatten out as the sudden burst of a star shell sent a word and glimmering light over "No Man's Land," off in the distance the booming of heavy artillery was the only sound in

A GLORIOUS SHOWING OF Exquisite Lingerie

Designed Particularly to Interest the October Bride.

No longer does lingerie mean those billowy mounds of white of a few years ago, and much less those rather too sturdily built garments of rather ridiculously heavy materials of our grandmothers' time, not by any means!

Today lingerie means the diaphanous exotics of fancy lingers—thin they wear quite as well as the less picturesque ones. But, then, that's all in the way of advancement in weaving and making and so on!

Today the bride and the particular brides and maids choose lingerie of color, ornamentation that is quite a part of the frock or blouse, and of course, some of the plainer things for general wear!

We might divide this great assemblage (all of which is exceptional in value, due to early buying) thusly:

COLORS: Ten rose, leanne blue, orchid, turquoise, French blue, gold, emerald, pink, light blue, coral, black, white, rose and open.

MATERIALS: Georgette, chiffon, tulle satin, crepe de chine, fine net and satin—and, of course, nainsook and batiste.

GARMENTS: Nightgowns, boudoir jackets, envelope chemises, bloomers, petticoats, camisoles and pajamas.

TRIMMINGS: Metal lace, fancy lace with colored stones inset like jewels, real fillet, real Irish, real Val, hand embroidery and hand embroidered net applied on silk, and, of course, the imitation laces.

DESIGNS: Extremely novel in cut—rows of Calais lace ruffings, all sorts of unexpected workings in and out of lace and insets, shirtings and worlds of glorious stitcheries, pleatings and lacy trimmings—or EVER SO PLAINLY tailored.

PRICES: Your heart's desire from 1.00 for a dear little satin camisole to 91.95 for a negligee and 159.13, including Federal Tax, for a matched satin set.

And above all else, prices that are exceptional in their value giving.

THE Chrysanthemum, the "Queen of Autumn," is now blooming away in numberless beautiful shapes and colors. From these we can fashion becoming bouquets for dance, dinner or theatre; or, just one chic arrangement for "her."

We are specialists in making up particular bouquets for particular people for particular occasions, and will fill your phone order to your perfect satisfaction if it is not convenient to call.

Flowers delivered to any part of the United States or Canada the same day the order is given. We accomplish this through our F. T. D. System that death like stillness, a chill passed thru him; his body quivered. Where was number 7? Would he never reach it? He hurried on, falling over stumps and overturned earth that he could not discern in the darkness. Over one object he fell headlong.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS.

"Number 7," he gasped. Five hundred feet more, and what—? Billy? He shuddered. How could any one live in such a ghastly—Suddenly from out of the darkness beyond him came a sound so long that he barely caught it. Wheeling about sharply, he turned toward the direction from which it came. He waited breathlessly, and then as if on second thought flattened out upon the damp ground. He did not know how long he lay there, eyes glued on the blackness in front of him, ears intensely listening for the sound that might come again from the faky depths. Soon he was rewarded for there it was again—he could hear it plainly now, that long drawn out moan—for it seemed to be closer. On hands and knees he crawled forward. He had no fear, all that he had ever known had left him back in the daylight, and he went forward about twenty paces. Suddenly, directly above him burst a starshell.

(To be concluded.)

A Square Deal.

In this busy world of ours we are apt to think mostly of ourselves and hardly at all of the other fellow. In the street, for instance, we care nothing about the other fellows' right of way—we hurry by him, jostling his arm knocking his bundles out of his hand, or even nearly knocking him over without an "excuse me" or if one, merely out of courtesy and not waiting even to see if he does excuse us. We also neither think of old age or small children, and what does this hurrying amount to? Nothing only giving the other fellow discomfort. In the same way we act in school—always pushing and jamming never waiting if we run a pen into the next one's arm or step on his toes. But Oh My! if we are pushed, or our toes are stepped on, it is a perfect crime! We resent or feel like resenting with a brick or at least some cutting remark. Now if everyone thought of even the one next to him, the universe would go around with fewer knocks and unpleasantness than it does now. Therefore think of the other fellow and give him a square deal.

Chapter IV.

By Ivan Ivanoffitch.

The paper was tattered and torn and there were blood spots spattered upon it. I opened my wallet after a few moments inspection and dropped it into its depths.

"This paper," he said, "was pinned to the body of my twin brother, Harold Murphy, who was Italian. He was found murdered in the doorway of his home, just one week ago tomorrow night. Since then I have felt strange premonitions of approaching misfortune."

"For instance," I said.

"Well, the other day, while walking along a main street in our village, a brick was dropped from a building under the course of construction

"Enough!" I said coldly, "you should have called me in at the beginning. I will do what I can, however. Follow my advice and all will be well! These are my instructions: (To be continued.)

Here's your chance!

Uncle Sam has, as you know, a big Navy and gives red-blooded young fellows like you an opportunity to step aboard and "shove off".

What will you get out of it? Just this:

The chance for good honest work on shipboard—the kind of work that teaches you something real: the kind of work that puts beef on your shoulders and hair on your chest.

You will get 30 care-free vacation days a year, not counting shore leave in home or foreign ports.

You will have the kind of comradeship in travel that sailors know.

You will have regular pay, over and above your meals, lodging and your first uniform outfit—good stuff all of it.

You can join for two years. When you get through you'll be physically and mentally "tuned up" for the rest of your life. You'll be ready through and through for SUCCESS.

Large Crowd from Summit Hears Famous Artist.

A very large representation of Summit music lovers heard the recital by Amelita Galli-Curci, the much-heralded coloratura soprano, before an audience of approximately 4,500 people last Saturday night in the Newark Armory. Her recital inaugurated the series of artists' concerts, under the direction of Joseph Puerstmann, and seemed to indicate that there is considerable interest in the course directed by him and his associates. Mme. Galli-Curci had arranged a program which contained examples of the operatic arias with which she scored her initial triumphs in this country a few years ago, some French songs, a Spanish number and some modern songs by Ronald, Buzzi-Pecchia and Homer Samuels. Assisting her in the interpretation of these numbers were Mr. Samuels, at the piano, and Manuel Berenguer, flutist.

The first of the series of musical treats drew an unusually large number of Summit people, conservatively estimated at three hundred. Except for the storm of the evening the armory where the concert was held would have been very accessible for people from this vicinity and it is likely that the other treats in store during the rest of the series will draw very largely from this territory.

The appeal of Madame Galli-Curci's voice as displayed last Saturday night lay particularly in the exquisite quality of her mezzo voice tones, which she molded skillfully and with such excellent control as to excite admiration. Spinning out long-sustained tones to a pianissimo that faded into nothingness was a feat which was performed repeatedly in the course of the evening. Her ease of vocal utterance, her skill of shading and the velvety quality of her tones were displayed with consummate art in the program, which allowed full scope for their exhibition. It was to be expected that in the "Caro Noma" aria, and in the "Shadow Song" from "Dinorah" she would dazzle with vocal pyrotechnics, and the expectations of her audience were fully realized.

The interpretation of the fifteenth century French song, "L'Amour de moi," which with the better known "Lass with the Delicate Air" comprised the first group were exquisitely done. Benedict's florid, "The Wren," with flute obligato by Mr. Berenguer, was well received, and Massenet's "Dusk," sung in French, also met with approval of the audience. In fine contrast to the sustained measures of the Massenet song was the Spanish "Carcelera," by Chopin, which was a marvel of clear and distinct articulation.

Less effective was the Liszt "Oh, in my dreams" Delibes' "Bolero," so pleased the audience that Madame Galli-Curci was recalled several times and added "Annie Laurie" and another Spanish number. Ronald's "Down in the Forest," Buzzi-Pecchia's "Little Birdies" and accompanist Samuels' "When Chloris Sleeps" brought further additions, the singer responding to the recalls with "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "Robin Adair."

Her encores were given most generously and her singing at the very end of "Home Sweet Home," playing her own accompaniment, was particularly delightful.

Cho-Cho.

The children of the public schools were entertained at the Lyric Theatre on Wednesday afternoon, under the auspices of the Department of Medical Inspection, by Cho-Cho, the Health Clown.

Cho-Cho, in the costume of a Harlequin, performed tricks and captivated his audience by his merry antics, and at the same time taught the children many vital and important truths about the way to preserve health by eating those fruits and vegetables which were good for them and avoiding food which does them harm, such as tea, coffee, pickles, etc.

The Child Health Organization, of New York City, has found in Cho-Cho a means of appealing directly to children and of teaching them the gospel of health and happiness in a way they cannot forget. He came to Summit to spread this gospel, in his own inimitable way, and the school children have had an indelible lesson in right living and correct hygiene.

The expense of the entertainment was borne by private subscription, and thanks are due to Mrs. Brown for the use of the Lyric Theatre without charge.

Carlton Wins First Game of Season.

Carlton Academy opened its football season with a victory over Carteret Academy of Orange. Although the teams were evenly matched, Carlton played better ball than its opponents and won by a score of 6-0.

Capt. Edwards, Kenny, Etzel and Longstreth were the stars of the game. Excellent forward pass work was done by the latter, and Kenny crossed Carteret's goal line after Carlton had nursed the ball the entire length of the field. Line plunges by Edwards and Etzel netted many gains for the home team.

Capt. DeHart played a good game for his team. The line-up:

Carlton	Carlton
Finlay ..... Left End	Carron
Chardon ..... Left Tackle	Serracante
Cameron ..... Left Guard	Botero
Shelly ..... Center	Minahan
Barbour ..... Right Guard	M. Peon
Kampo ..... Right Tackle	Haggerty

Lowatt ..... Fullback	Edwards

The Franklin Sedan

Ride once in a Franklin Sedan, and its striking resiliency will be the impression by which you distinguish it. Its other merits you will appreciate fully only when you own it, drive it, and pay the bills.

It is light-weight and flexible construction, applied evenly and scientifically throughout, that irons the ruts and bumps from the road of the Franklin Sedan, and allows it to cover unusually long distances in a day with safety and comfort.

These same principles reduce the killing pound on tires, and give to Franklin owners on the average:

20 miles to the gallon of gasoline 12,500 miles to the set of tires
50% slower yearly depreciation

Ease of control lightens the burdens of the driver to the point where he shares the pleasure and relaxation of the trip with the rest of his party.

It never occurs to him to worry about temperature troubles, because the Franklin is direct air-cooled, has no water to boil or freeze. It can be used the year 'round without extra attention.

Structurally, it is both convenient and attractive. Its Wide Observation Windows give unobstructed outlook; its two Wide Doors increase riding view and facilitate entrance; its Slanting V-Shaped Windshield adds fine lines and broadens driving vision. Together with the Sloping French-style Hood, these features give the Sedan its attractiveness.

Back Roosevelt Memorial Drive

Prominent State and County Men Make Plans For the Campaign

Will Begin Next Monday

With virtually every city and town intent on securing the honor of being the most generous giver in proportion to population and resources, there is every prospect that New Jersey will contribute even more than $225,000, the sum it has been asked to subscribe toward the fund of $5,000,000 to be raised for the Roosevelt Memorial during National Roosevelt Week, which begins next Monday, October 20.

Col. Austen Colgate, chairman of the Roosevelt Memorial Association in this state, has received from the chairman of the county associations reports which indicate that not a single community of any importance will neglect to conduct an organized effort to place New Jersey on the roll in the national campaign. The eyes of the nation will be upon New Jersey, which is recognized as the center of population as to Roosevelt admirers, and it is the hope of Chairman Colgate and the members of the state executive committee that New Jersey may give a demonstration of practical patriotism which will gain the envy of other states.

The following country-wide canvass is designed to equip the National Roosevelt Memorial Association to erect a suitable monument to Theodore Roosevelt. The association is a strictly non-partisan, non-political organization. It has two aims: (1) To have as many meetings as possible on Roosevelt's birthday, October 27, in order to give the people public opportunity to express their admiration of his high principles of citizenship and their determination to adhere to them; and (2) to provide permanent memorials that will perpetuate and correctly interpret to future generations the character and staunch Americanism of Theodore Roosevelt.

Many suggestions have been made for the permanent memorials but the time has been too short and the responsibility too great for the committee to determine as yet their exact character or to estimate their costs. The committee is giving to this very important part of its work vigorous attention. Tentative plans include a memorial park at Oyster Bay close to Sagamore Hill, the home of the soldier president, and a monument at the national capital. Whatever form may be determined upon by the national committee, the Roosevelt Memorial will be a lasting inspiration to all peoples by virtue of the standards of citizenship which it will perpetuate, and likewise a stimulus to the young men and women of all time as a reminder of what they can achieve in character and ideals.

Committees composed of men and women of all creeds and political faiths have been formed in all states to institute local Roosevelt associations and conduct the memorial fund canvass next week. In New Jersey every county has a strong committee directing the work in their local communities. Their members report the same intense interest in the broad idea of perpetuating Roosevelt's character and Americanism as is shown daily at his burial place at Oyster Bay, where people from all sections of the country are coming by the thousands to pay respect to his memory.

Union County Back of Drive.

Union county got solidly behind the Nation-wide movement to establish a fitting memorial as a tribute to the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, at a meeting held last Friday night in Elizabeth. Representative citizens from all sections of the county were there.

Governor Rhayon was the chief speaker and in his eulogy of the former President, paid a tribute to him as a "truly great man." No more pronounced need has ever been felt for a man of Roosevelt's type than in the present period of industrial and social unrest, declared the Governor. Officials from various county municipalities pledged support to the movement. A Union County Branch of the Roosevelt Memorial Association was formed. The meeting was presided over by Edgar A. Knapp, at one time a member of Roosevelt's Rough Riders and a close personal friend of the late colonel. Mr. Knapp has been a leading spirit in urging that fitting honor of a lasting type be paid the brilliant fighter and statesman, and he is chairman of the drive in Union County.

Come to Battery Headquarters

Just because some garage man says, "I'll fix it and it'll be good as new," don't trust your battery to an amateur.

Come to battery headquarters where we have the equipment to really test your battery and the knowledge of what it needs.

Only a careful hydrometer reading can show if a battery needs charging. Only the proper instruments can give it a discharge test showing that it is properly recharged. It costs a little more to make repairs in the right way, but a thorough job is always worth while.

Be Boss of Your Heater

You control a Boynton Square Pot Boiler or Furnace. You needn't coax it, for Square Pots are never balky.

A few minutes in morning and again at night does the trick, unless the cold is unusually severe. Then give one extra stoking.

The square firepot—a patented feature—is built like a locomotive firebox.
Your fire is all live coal, without ash or clinker.
Gratebars operate with an even motion under the whole firebed.

Temperature is steady, neither too low nor unbearably hot. Anytime you need more heat quickly, you have a clean bed of coals and perfect draft.

Any dealer will tell you the whole story. Or write us today.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

At the monthly meeting of the Board of Managers, held on Monday, it was decided that the standing committees must be enlarged immediately to cope with the rapidly growing work of the association.

It was also decided to hold a Publicity meeting in November so that the people of Summit may know the scope of the Y. W.'s present work and may realize what might be accomplished by the Association with the loyal support of all citizens.

The Business girls held their usual fortnightly supper and meeting last week and part of the time was given to a rehearsal of an entertainment to be given in the near future, for which Mrs. Kinsolving is acting as coach.

Fleur-de-lis Scout troop went for a supper hike on Columbus day with Miss Beck and Miss Underwood as chaperones.

The girls in Thistle troop are making scrap books, under Miss Jones' direction, for the children in Institutions of this community. Those not needed in this vicinity will be sent to a hospital in Newark.

The Exchange is continually receiving consignments of holiday goods.
Begin your selection of gifts early.

One hundred and two High School girls attended the lunch club at the Y. W. on Wednesday. The social committee provided some typed copies of favorite songs, which helped to make the hour a very pleasant one. Dr.
Rockwell Brank was the speaker for the occasion, his theme being "Our influence." Dr. Brank urged the girls to be seekers after the truth and to keep their character above reproach, so that the influence which they would exert would be for good and not for evil. Dr. Brank said that the will, was a strong factor in creating influence, and that if we desire to shed abroad an influence that shall be of benefit to others, we may do so by willing to next week the speaker will be Miss Cutter of the National Board of the Y. W.
