

Paintings of Late F. Luis Mora In Current Showing

Among the work by a number of American artists no longer living, included in the annual Founders Show at the Vanderbilt Avenue division of the Grand Central Galleries in New York City, are paintings of the late F. Luis Mora, N. A., at one time a resident of Summit.

Since the exhibition will be on view until November 13th, the well known artist's old friends in this vicinity will have numerous opportunities to visit it.

The galleries are open to the public from 9:30 to 5:30 daily except Saturday and Sunday.

Summit Sales Days News

Summit is sold on Summit Days, Friday and Saturday, August 15 and 16!

Have you watched the idea grow? And seen the list of official stores expand? Two weeks ago when the first list appeared it carried about twenty names; now, scarcely two weeks later, there are over 100 business men signed up. All of Summit has joined the band-wagon to make Summit Days a real success!

Among Summit merchants are those who own their own stores and those who manage branches of a centrally located firm. They are all as much a part of the town as any of us, and so all are equally as enthusiastic about Summit Days. If approval must come from the main office, then arrangements have been made so that it comes. And with central offices enthusiastic about Summit Days also, all of our merchants are cooperating.

The following letter was received last week. It is an example of the support accorded Summit Days:
Endicott Johnson Shoe Co.
Endicott, New York
July 28, 1941

Mr. J. Edwin Carter,
Summit Herald,
357 Springfield Avenue,
Summit, N. J.

Dear Mr. Carter:
This will acknowledge your letter of July 23rd relative to our cooperating with the special "Summit Days" that is being sponsored by your good paper and the Chamber of Commerce.

We most certainly want to go along with this event and are therefore, enclosing our check for $10.00 in payment of our share of the expenses.

We are today notifying our Summit manager, Mr. Adams, of our decision and assume that he will get in touch with you to procure the material for windows, etc., as outlined in the pamphlet that you sent us.

Trusting this event will be a marked success, we remain,
Yours very truly,
ENDICOTT JOHNSON
SHOE COMPANY,
(Signed)
H. R. Salem,
Retail Stores Dept.

And Summit business men are equally as enthusiastic over Summit Days! They are all talking about it, and the things they say, show how they feel.

H. Douglas Wahl, Wahl's Sporting Goods Store: "I think Summit Days is a splendid idea. It is something that should have been done long ago, and I feel confident that now it has been undertaken it will be successful to Summit—both for the merchants and customers."

Manager T. O'Brien, A & P Super

Market: "Summit Days certainly should prove successful for Summit business. It should stimulate consumer interest because of the fact that Summit has everything that is necessary for a good shopping center. It is up to us merchants to acquaint the people of our town with the opportunities it has to offer."

Manager C. L. Adams, Endicott Johnson Shoe Store: "I think Summit Days is a splendid idea. Any sales promotion of this kind is certainly worthy of the merchants' support and I feel sure that with full cooperation from us all Summit Days should be an outstanding success."

Alfonse Pepe, proprietor of Pepe's Modern Shoe Repair: "Undoubtedly Summit Days is one of the finest mediums of boosting business in Summit that has come to my knowledge in many years. Certainly the Chamber of Commerce and The Summit Herald should be congratulated for their ingenious method of stimulating local business."

M. Nedell, Red Cross Shoe Store: "Summit Days is a splendid idea. Counting at this time of year, it affords the merchant an opportunity to introduce his new fall merchandise and at the same time to become better acquainted with the buying public from the surrounding communities. We are very enthused over the idea and have no doubt that it will be a tremendous success."

Manager Mae de Muccio, Loft's Candy Shop: "It is a pleasure for Loft's to participate for the first time with the Summit merchants. We are especially happy to be able to cooperate at this time, for located in our new store, it will be a splendid opportunity to join a real Summit project. We are going to give our wholehearted cooperation, hoping that it will be a tremendous success for everyone in the community."

Mrs. H. Seigel, Seigel's Stationery: "After 31 years of business here in Summit we are only too glad to do anything we can to help our town, its customers and merchants. We feel that Summit Days are going to mean a great deal to the town and the many friends that we have made here in Summit, and we are sure that it will be most successful."

A. Bargemann, Martens Confectionery: "Summit Days is a splendid idea. It should bring a lot of extra business to town which is especially welcome at this time of the year."

On Fishing Trip

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Chur of Essex road, left Friday for a three weeks' fishing trip on their cabin with their groups. In addition to the skills of leadership they will be given instruction in rules and regulations for all kinds of boys' games and activities, as well as life saving instruction and instruction in beginners' swimming lessons.

Those who have made application for the corps are Robert Baldwin, Eugene Damm and Edward Demorjian.

Because of the heavy drain on the Leaders' Corps of last year through graduation and other causes, an effort is being made to build up the corps with new leaders for the fall program. Mature High School boys interested in leadership work are invited to make application for the corps.

"Metal Mobilization" Community Campaign

An Urgent Business Appeal With A Patriotic Purpose To Begin Today, Monday

The uncollected accumulation of Aluminum and other metals and waste products in the home presents an unlimited source of raw materials needed to complement the NATIONAL DEFENSE SECURITY PRODUCTION PROGRAM. As a worthy and patriotic movement this ROUND UP and collection of old metals can afford employment for many and release considerable labor for direct production purposes. Every person can do his or her part by assisting in salvaging and collecting these various metals.

You ask, "What can WE do to help. What can I do?" The ANSWER is: It is our job to give "all out" aid to OUR OWN Industries FIRST. Today, we may all do our bit for PREPAREDNESS.

ATTENTION EVERYONE: NOW IS THE TIME to "round up" and turn in the old ALUMINUM POTS and PANS—also copper, brass, bronze, small pieces of iron and steel scrap, etc., from YOUR HOME and business establishment.

WHAT IS NEEDED — WHAT IS WANTED

- Old ALUMINUM coffee pots, dishes, trays, frying pans, spoons, etc.
- Old CAST IRON utensils, pipe, furnace grates, flat-irons, etc.
- Old LEAD PIPE, batteries, solder joints, BRASS rods, faucets, etc.
- Old COPPER wire, water tank coils, ZINC jar tops, etc.
- Old TIN, Shaving and Tooth-paste tubes, AUTO inner tubes, etc.
- Old Silver, Gold, pewter, plated trinkets, jewelry, mercury, etc.

WHAT IS VALUABLE—WHAT TO CONSERVE

- From the Home:
  - connecting rod bearings, borings and turnings, inner tubes, tires,
  - Plumbing and Repair Shops: Lead and Tin piping, solder joints, iron pipe, brass and copper pieces, etc.
  - Hotels and Restaurants: Old tableware, spoons, cast iron kettles, waste paper, magazines, tooth and shaving cream paste tubes, razor blades, etc.
- Copper, zinc plates, old cuts, routings, stereotype, linotype dross and messis, electrolyte plates, old halftones, etc.
- Office, Public Buildings and Apartments: Waste paper, magazines, rags, newspapers, tin and aluminum foil, etc.

ATTENTION!

Those wishing to learn how they may increase or raise funds for welfare or budget expenditures—Adult and Juvenile societies, veteran and fraternal organizations, local clubs, churches, ladies' aid, auxiliary groups, scoutmasters, Cubs, Camp Fire and Girl Scouts, public and private school principals, civic groups, city firemen, building owners, etc., write "Pots for Planes," Secretary, Louis J. Gargiulo, 183 Mountain Avenue, Phone Summit 6-3852.

THIS IS "METAL MOBILIZATION MONTH" IN NEW JERSEY

A Good way for organizations to increase their treasury funds and at the same time do a service for our defense program.

Please see that any and all of the above materials are delivered to the "Pots for Planes" old metal Collection Depot BOXES as designated.

Let us do our part to make America invincible by a "swift and driving increase in Armament production" as President Roosevelt has urged. Now, we can all assist in this OLD METAL ROUND-UP and help present a creditable record for patriotic aid to our local and National Industries.

Notes of Interest

New Providence Township
Aluminum contributed by residents of New Providence Township, was weighed by Lewis Baldwin, Murray Hill. Mr. Baldwin certified the weight to be 435 pounds. This aluminum was taken by truck to Sea Girt by Coney Della, on Thursday. If there are any other residents in the township who have not already contributed, and wish to do so, they may bring their contributions to the Town Hall.

Miss Virginia M. Curtis, Plainfield avenue, and Miss Esther Alpaugh of Murray Hill, left Saturday for their vacation at Point Pleasant.

Women's Auxiliary of the Community Association will meet tonight in the home of Mrs. Randall A. Boyle, Plainfield avenue.

New Providence Township Committee will meet Wednesday night for its regular monthly meeting in the Town Hall.

Chief of Police Dominick V. Russo, Jr., has returned from his vacation and will resume his duties tomorrow.

Frank Jeckel, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jeckel, Maple avenue, is building a new home on Springfield avenue.

Misses Flora and Clara Spencer, Plainfield avenue, are constructing a new home on Bolton boulevard. It is expected to be ready for occupancy by September 15th.

McGregor Co. Uses Added Storage Space

McGregor Sportswear Manufacturers, of 430-438 Morris avenue, as a temporary expedient these days, are using the Collin Building at 356 Springfield avenue for added storage space for surplus products. Trucks were busy last week moving the materials in. The building had been occupied for a number by Sears Roebuck & Co. previous to their moving to their new quarters on Springfield avenue just east of Summit avenue.

Back from the Gaspe

Miss Lillian Jones of the Chatham Public Library returned on Saturday from a month's motor trip to the Gaspe Peninsula. Accompanying her was Miss Grace D. Rose of the Morrisown Library.

OBITUARY

Richard R. Roe

Richard R. Roe, 34, assistant purser on the SS. Algonquin, died Tuesday aboard ship while enroute from Puerto Rico to New York. A native of Newton, he was a graduate of Newton High School.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Edythe Roe, and daughter, Janet of New Orleans; his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Roe of Newton; a brother, David of Summit, and three sisters, Mrs. Harold Yetter and Miss Margaret Roe of Newton and Mrs. Joseph De Puy of Blairstown. Funeral services were Saturday at 2:30 p. m. at his mother's home in Morningside Park.

Robert Falconer

Robert B. Falconer, 44, of 261 Springfield avenue, died Thursday. A graduate of Cornell University and a member of Alpha Chi Rho fraternity, Mr. Falconer was for many years engaged in the insurance-business in Falconer, N. Y. He moved here three years ago from Jamestown, N. Y. He is survived by his aunt, Miss L. E. Brown and a sister, Katherine Falconer Slater, M. D., both of Summit and a brother, Frank M. Falconer, M. D. of New York City. Funeral services will be held in Hillsdale, Michigan, tomorrow morning.

Honored at Party

Honor guests at a surprise party given by their friends on Saturday evening, were Mr. and Mrs. Amos J. Bradley of Springfield avenue, New Providence, the occasion being the Bradley's twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Some forty-five people were present at the party which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Davis, sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Bradley, in New Providence. A large wedding cake of silver trim and silver decorations were artistically arranged to carry out the twenty-fifth anniversary silver tradition. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley received from their friends many and varied silver pieces. Members of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley's bridal party were among those present.

Now if they'll find a way to put vitamins in cigars the trick will be done.—Arion Beacon Journal.

The Tale of a Modern Invention, a "Snore" Ball

Short Hills
If accident is the mother of invention, the story of the invention of the "snore" ball is certainly a case in point.
One night last fall, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Boots of Lake Ulrine, decided to entertain friends for dinner. After dinner, the conversation turned to inventions and Mr. Boots said: "It is easy enough to invent. Why, I could take this tennis ball and invent something right now—what shall it be? I know! The world needs an invention to stop snoring!"

And so, as the crowd looked on, he rigged up a contraption out of the ball and everyone was greatly amused. The gadget was strapped to the back of the snorer and as he snored, the ball squeaked and woke him up. No one thought it as anything more than an after dinner joke. However, Mr. Boots considered the idea seriously and after perfecting it—his "Snore Ball" was patented and put on the market just before Christmas and became an immediate success.

West Trips East In Lackawanna League's Second Annual All-Star Series Battle, 3 to 2

All-Star Observations
Lackawanna League officials are still attempting to figure out why the attendance at the East-West All-Star game at Millburn on Saturday was only half of what it was in 1940.

Outside of the decrease in attendance, the lack of regular umpires was the only other serious mishap in the 1941 battle of stars. It seems that wires were crossed, somewhere in the officialdom of the loop and as a result no umpire or umpires could be found at game time.

From the standpoint of performance, both offensive and defensive, the 1941 battle was superior to the 1940 contest. While the outfielders had trouble with wind that whipped the ball just where it wasn't expected in a few cases, the defensive play of both clubs was a credit to any amateur league.

No one in the gathering of around 1,000 was heard to voice protest about the game. Many expressed themselves as thoroughly enjoying a good ball game, well-played, well-managed and well-umpired.

P.S.—A Millburn fan offered a prize for the first Western performer to clout a home run. Since there were no four-base smashes, the reward is being retained until the game at Irvington this Saturday.

Choo-Choo Players Advance
At least five Lackawanna League performers are being given trials by big league clubs this year.

Scouts from the Brooklyn Dodgers, Cleveland Indians and New York Yankees are known to have checked on boys in the Choo-Choo circuit. Several have been given trial work outs at the big league club's ball park.

College scholarships in most cases are issued in a semi-mysterious atmosphere, although several boys have admitted being approached and accepting offers.

It can be said that the Lackawanna is making definite progress when its players are being accepted in better baseball circles. Three boys were sent to big league farms last year, and it appears that at least that number will be farmed out this season.

Betting Plans at Freehold
Expected to be one of the busiest sports centers in New Jersey is the new Freehold trotting track, where legal pari-mutuel betting will be resumed after many years this coming Saturday.

The "note" board in the center of the field is practically completed and the power will be turned on this Wednesday, when Harry S. Gould of Park Ridge, president of the Freehold Trotting Association, will give a press inspection party.

Of the twenty-four betting booths now completed under the grandstand, fifteen in all probability will be for two dollar bets, five for five dollar wagers, and the remainder for ten dollar mistakes (sic: bets). All of the betting booths are under the east wall of the grandstand.

Now they're talking about instigating a dope sheet so that the pay-trons can drop another quarter or more in the profit box. If you want the best tip on all of the races—don't bet.

Professional Baseball Jottings

Although his great pitching has been completely overshadowed by his teammates' terrific slugging, Jack Lindell has been giving the Newark Bears their most effective pitching since Marjano Russo's short International League term in 1938.

hurdling champion, Lindell was also a javelin star at the University of California before breaking into baseball, with Joplin in 1936 at the age of 19.

Awards Presented At Camp Cannundus Parents Program

The YMCA gymnasium was the scene of excitement last Thursday evening as 25 junior and senior Cannundus campers presented an Indian Council fire ceremony before about 40 parents and guests.

Achievement feathers were awarded to the junior campers by J. B. Hoff, director of the younger group and to the senior campers by Director H. H. McGiffin.

The program in the gymnasium was followed by a craft exhibit and the "Aquadance" where each camper featured some of the stunts he had learned in the swimming pool.

Horseshoe tournaments will be conducted at Warinanco Park, Roselle and Elizabeth, beginning at 7:00 o'clock Tuesday evening, August 12, to select representatives for the various municipalities in Union County including Summit, who will be eligible to compete in the Second Annual New Jersey Municipal Horseshoe Pitching Tournament.

The Warinanco tournaments are being sponsored by The Union County Park Commission and will be conducted for every county municipality except Elizabeth, Plainfield, Linden, and Union, in which towns the local recreation commissions are sponsoring the event.

In case of rain the tournaments will be conducted the first clear evening following August 12.

Two winners will be selected to represent each municipality in the State championship. Rules of the National Horseshoe Pitchers' Association will govern the competition.

Advance entries are not required. Further information about the local tournaments or the State tournament may be secured from F. S. Mathewson, superintendent of recreation, at the park office, Administration Building, Warinanco Park.

Development Meet At Warinanco Park
Under the auspices of the New Jersey A. A. U. an athletes development meet, open to athletes registered in the New Jersey Association, will be conducted at Warinanco Park, Elizabeth, on Sunday, August 10th.

The program will consist of seven handicap events namely: 100 yard dash; 300 yards dash; 600 yard dash; 1,000 yard run; two mile run; high jump; and 16 lb. shot put.

This is the first of a series of such meets to be arranged by the New Jersey Association, and the dates of future meets will be announced shortly.

The following clubs are expected to take part: The Warinanco A. C. of Elizabeth; Patterson A. C., Irish American A. C. of Dumont; Asbury Park Athletic Club and the Prudential Insurance Co. A. A. of Newark.

Entry blanks and information may be obtained from the A. A. U. office, 49 Clinton street, Newark.

"Flapper" to Victory
In the midweek Class A sneak-box race off Mantoloking on Wednesday, Jack Benedict of Short Hills skipped his "Flapper" around a 5.5 mile course in an hour and twenty minutes scoring a 1 1/2 minute victory over "Wigwam" piloted by Edwin Lewis of Villa Nova.

Jenkins to Fight Zozda at Bowl
For the second time in one week a world's champion will box in a New Jersey ring this evening, Lew Jenkins, favorite son of Sweetwater, Texas, holder of the lightweight title, takes on Joey Zozda of Newark in a scheduled ten rounder at Newark's Meadowbrook Bowl.

Unlike Frankie Zito, whose welterweight title was wrested from him by Elizabeth's Pedro and Joe, earlier topped Freddy Redd, Zozda, at Ruppert Stadium last Thursday evening, Jenkins will not make his title in the ring. The Zozda battle is listed as an open-weight affair.

Three-Run Outbreak In Seventh Inning Decides In Close Contest At Millburn

Summit Red Sox Pitchers Stand Out in 3-2 Victory Before Crowd of Close To 1,000. McDonald's Two-Run Single Spoils Araneo's Bid. For Eastern Pitching Triumph. Belko Fielding Luminary of Game.

Western Lackawanna Baseball League All-Star performers—Summit Red Sox, Millburn Blues and Madison Dodgers—tallied three runs in a seventh inning uprising on Saturday afternoon at Taylor Park, Millburn, to trip the Eastern Choo-Choo All-Star club—Irvington Stanleys, East Orange Tigers and Livingston A. C.—3-2, in a contest before close to 1,000 spectators. It was the second successive victory for the West, having trounced the Easterners, 8-1, in the initial All-Star fray last year.

The battle at Millburn was the first of a three-game All-Star series that will be resumed this coming Saturday at Irvington's Chancellor Avenue Field. A final game is scheduled at Taylor Park again on August 16th, although the Summit Red Sox are petitioning the league for a transfer of the final contest to Soldiers Memorial Field.

As the seventh inning, when the Western stars shone brightly, the Saturday game was an all-Eastern affair. East Orange's chubby Frank Araneo set the Westerners down with six scattered hits, struck out seven and issued three bases on balls. His Eastern teammates, meanwhile, capitalized on six hits, three walks and two errors, to score two runs off the slants of the Western pitchers—Summit's Francis (Mater) Moroney, Summit's Bill Spencer, and Millburn's Warren (Seabiscuit) DePalma.

DePalma was the least effective of the Western mound artists. In his three innings of twirling he was touched for three hits, two bases on balls, and a single run. In the closing inning he loaded the bases with one man out, but managed to retire East Orange's Nick Mastro on strikes and get Araneo on an easy roller back to the box.

Summit's contributions to the pitching ranks—Moroney and Spencer—were in little if any trouble during their six innings of combined effort. Moroney was touched for a run in the third by outfielder Don Marshall misjudging a fly ball for three bases. Only one man reached base while Spencer was on the hill.

Heroes of the game were Madison's Woodrow McDonald, who smashed a single to center, with the bases loaded in the seventh; Summit's Pete Belko, who doubled to open the seventh, took part in a double steal in the same inning, and was the fielding luminary of the game; East Orange's Frank Araneo, who speared a lined drive on a hard smash to his right in the eighth inning; and Millburn's Jim Tedesco, who knocked down a sizzling grounder, fell on his back, and recovered in time to throw to first.

George Eehalt of Irvington tripled off Marshall's glove in the third inning to score Steve Bonzek, also of Irvington, with the first run of the game. The other Eastern tally came in the first half of the seventh inning when Mastro walloped one of DePalma's fast balls into deep left-center field to score Art Piccirillo.

McDonald featured the Eastern rally in the last half of the seventh with his sharp single to center that scored Belko and Bruno. Rocco Carella of Millburn grounded out to permit Marshall, who had walked earlier, to score the decisive run.

Pinkey Pengitore (Madison) and Chuck Ward (Millburn) were co-managers of the Western club. Nick Mastro (East Orange) and Vito Miele (Irvington) were co-managers of the Eastern club. Pengitore has been playing baseball for thirty-four years; his uniform is twenty-two years old. He played in three games this season, collecting two hits in ten trips to the plate.

Fifteen players were used by the West. The East used twelve performers. Among those who were unable to appear were Summit's Pete Kivlen and Irvington's Frank Hillier. Five Summit players appeared in the line-up. Six Millburn boys performed. No player on either side had more than one hit.

SUMMIT'S GREAT SHOPPING DAYS Friday and Saturday, August 15 & 16

Many Will Lose Present Jobs With Night Ban On Selling Of Gasoline

Local gasoline dealers met with mixed emotions the declaration of gasless evenings made by Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes on Thursday, which took effect in states along the Atlantic seaboard on Sunday. The new ban on the sale of gas will shut more than 6,000 retail stations in New Jersey from 7 p. m. to 7 a. m., while the present national defense emergency exists or until such time as the supply in the nation can meet the demands of both defense and civilian use.

Indications last night were that most of the dealers in Summit, New Providence and Chatham were willing to comply with Ickes' request, although many of the managers and owners stated that cutting the number of hours in which gas could be purchased would not reduce the total amount of gas dispensed. It was further noted that the emergency move would force owners in many cases to strike present night workers from their pay rolls.

Some of the dealers expressed confidence that increased business during the twelve "open" hours would enable them to retain all of their present help. If ration cards are issued, however, as has been rumored from Washington, the employers would necessarily be forced to cut down on hired salesmen, it was stated by several dealers.

One dealer volunteered that "closing our stations every night will mean laying off employees and might force some of us out of business. We think the average motorist is patriotic enough to volunteer to cut down on his use of motor fuel. Since the government requested that motorists cut down on their fuel consumption several weeks ago, we have noticed great reduced sales."

Operators in general were of the opinion that rationing of gas on an all-hours basis would prove more practical than the twelve-hour closing plan. They admitted that sales would be greatly curtailed, but declared it would not upset the industry so greatly.

Very few Summit stations stay open all night. The average closing hour fluctuates between 10 and 11 p. m. Only about 5 per cent. of the New Jersey stations stay open twenty-four hours a day.

Some opinions on the nightly closing of filling stations follow: Joseph A. Panella, manager, corner Broad and Maple—"Ickes' ruling may cut down gas consumption at some stations, but certainly not in Summit. Highway stations will take licks. Most local stations have steady day-time customers and sell very little gas in the evenings. I was planning on putting another man on this month, but will have to forget the idea now."

Bob Weeks, salesman, corner Summit and Franklin—"New law won't make any difference in the amount of gas sold. We noticed on Friday and Saturday, just before 7 p. m., that motorists were already getting into the habit of making a last minute rush for full tanks of fuel."

Jim Corcoran, salesman, corner Springfield and Morris—"Start talking about a shortage and people will keep their gas tanks full instead of buying a few gallons when they need it. Business will not be affected until ration cards are issued."

William Savage, proprietor, Springfield and Morris—"There in all probability will be no cut in gasoline sales. As far as I am concerned there will be no 'pay-offs' or reductions in salaries, unless sales drop sharply or a rationing system is put into effect. The station with enough men to properly serve customers between 5 and 7 p. m. will get greater business during the present emergency."

Virginia L. Marshall, a daughter, 98 Blackburn road, Summit, was named as executrix of the will of Rachel P. Williamson, who died in Summit, July 26. Another daughter, Louise Williamson, also was named executrix in the will, but she is not yet of legal age. The estate, according to the will filed Thursday with Surrogate Charles A. Otto, Jr., will be disbursed to the daughters, including another, Connie Williamson, and a son, Arthur E. Larter, Morristown.

Summit Man, Loyal American of German Descent, Comments

The Summit Herald of July 29 told of the formation nationally of the "Loyal Americans of German Descent," a militant pro-democracy, anti-Nazi organization as a center of practical guidance for the 10 million Americans of German Descent," with Dr. Gottlieb P. Bronisch of Summit as the executive vice-president and a member of the Board of Directors. The article brought forth a letter from a Summit resident, H. A. Croyder, of 16 Valley View avenue, addressed to the newly formed society as its New Jersey headquarters. Written from the viewpoint of one "born in Germany of German-English extraction" and who later became an American citizen of his own free choice, the letter follows:

July 30, 1941.
Society of Loyal Americans of German Descent
17 William Street, Room 303,
Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen—The Summit Herald of yesterday carried an item on its front page with regard to your newly formed society. This article gave me much pleasure, for at last I saw a real opportunity to place myself squarely in a position which would indicate to all and sundry just where I, as a German born American, stand in these difficult days.

If you will kindly mail me an application form, I will gladly furnish you with whatever data is required in order for me to become a member in good standing.

I was born in Germany of German-English extraction, my mother being an English woman. I have been in this country for over 32 years. I became an American citizen many years ago of my own free choice, knowing full well what I was doing, which has, so I believe, some advantages over the person who just happens to be so fortunate as to be born in this beautiful country, and who therefore only too frequently does not recognize or appreciate all the rights and privileges to which he is entitled as a citizen. Furthermore I married an American girl, have three sound children all born in this country, have paid taxes for years, attended strictly to my own affairs, have never been connected with any German or German-American clubs or societies, carefully refrain from public utterances which could be misinterpreted, have lived in the same community for years, and yet some of my friends and acquaintances feel a restraint towards me, and others similarly placed, which is not only painful to endure, but which makes for bitterness, if not carefully guarded against.

Please understand, I do not blame these good friends. Their attitude is a natural consequence of all the wickedness and slimy machinations of the present German government, and all its people, who are just as much at fault. However, it seems to me that good common sense should be the ruling guide, and not passions, for whenever passion enters, reason departs.

Faithfully yours,
HARRY A. CROYDER.

Lincoln Y. M. C. A. Notes

The Daily Vacation Bible School which has been going on for the past four weeks at the Lincoln Young Men's Christian Association came to a close on Friday at 8 p. m. A program consisting of Bible stories, facts and truth, was presented. Handicraft work also was on exhibition. The total enrollment for the month was eighty. More than one hundred parents and friends were present. The Bible School committee is very grateful to the North Summit Neighborhood House, the Hill City Lodge No. 13 Masonic Order, the Wallace Chapel A. M. E. Z. Fountain Baptist and Pilgrim Baptist Churches for the financial aid given the school.

The Religious Work Committee met on last Tuesday night, and made plans for a series of Vesper services this coming year. The subject of the series will be, "Reality and Religion." Those present were: William Chavis, chairman; J. L. Chisley, James H. Humes, Clyde Davis and the "Y" Secretary.

The following boys returned from Camp Downing, Downingtown, Pa., on Monday, where they enjoyed a week of camp life: Roger Dillingham, Tom and Irving Gallop, Lovelace and Cleveland Dillingham. All expressed their desire to return again next year for a longer period. Sinclair Halé, who is remaining in camp the whole season, was reported as being on the campers' honor roll.

"City Fathers" Asked To Revoke Permit Of Balish Service Station

ayette, unusually hazardous. That the traffic danger was very great as the location of the service station was at a point of heavy traffic and danger to the children crossing and recrossing Morris Avenue from the Washington School and the Neighborhood House would be greatly increased. That there was an additional fire hazard in the house next north, a wooden structure, which would be less than 34 feet from the proposed service station.

"That on December 3, 1940, application was again made by Mr. Balish for permission to erect such gas station and again the Central Presbyterian Church objected to the granting of such permit and presented to the Common Council a further protest, dated December 31, 1940, objecting to the granting of such permit for the following reasons:

1. That the former application for a similar permit was denied by the Common Council on May 7, 1940, on the ground that such permit would be detrimental to the health, safety and general welfare of the neighborhood. 2. That no reason was presented in said application which would or could change the former holding of the Common Council.

3. The attention of the Common Council was called to the objections raised in the former protest dated May 1, 1940 and the objections raised on the former hearing were repeated. "That again the Common Council found and determined that the use applied for in the application of Mr. Balish was detrimental to the health, safety and general welfare of the neighborhood.

"Thus there are two findings of the Common Council that a permit granting permission for the erection of a gasoline filling station at Lafayette and Morris Avenues would be detrimental to the health, safety and general welfare of the neighborhood. No reason was presented at the hearing on July 17th, 1941, which would in any way tend to show that such permit would not be detrimental to the health, safety and general welfare of the neighborhood. Its fact, there was no good reason shown why the former ruling that such permit would be detrimental to the health, safety and general welfare of the neighborhood should be changed.

National Defense Cited
"The Neighborhood House had good reason to believe that the Common Council would adhere to its former ruling and deny such application.

"A further reason for revocation of this permit is the request made by the Secretary of the Interior of the United States for a voluntary reduction of one-third of the gasoline consumption in the East in order to avoid compulsory rationing, as otherwise the stocks of industrial fuel oils, motor fuel and petroleum would not be adequate to meet essential demands this winter.

"The head of the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply has also ordered a reduction during the coming twelve months of up to 50% in the production of automobiles and trucks and there is a likelihood that Sunday pleasure driving will be prohibited.

"Therefore, there is still less need for a gas station at Lafayette and Morris Avenues as there is ample provision for supplying the need for gasoline in the immediate neighborhood.

"Should the Common Council ask why the Neighborhood House was not represented at the hearing on July 17, 1941, the answer would be that, owing to the fact that the Common Council had declared such license detrimental to the health, safety and general welfare of the neighborhood on two different occasions, the Neighborhood House did not consider it necessary to be forever on the outlook for a new application for the same permit to be made by the same party. As a matter of fact, the Neighborhood House had no actual notice of this application.

"Mr. Balish was notified July 18 by registered letter of the request made of Common Council to rescind its July 15 resolution.

"Council has given no indication of the action it will take in the request of the Neighborhood House Committee."

The Negro History Club Officers and Standing Committee met on last Friday night and made plans for the ensuing year. Included on the program for the coming year will be an "Emancipation Proclamation Celebration Program." A number of books on the Negro were added to the Library. Plans were made to have the Library open each Thursday from 2 to 5 p. m. starting in September for those who desire to read these books and other periodicals. Those present were as follows: Walter M. Johnson, president; Miss Grace Edwards,

Y. W. Stay-At-Home Camp Closes With Exhibition

Special activities held Wednesday and Thursday at the Young Women's Christian Association brought the 1941 season of the Stay-at-home Camp to a close. Exhibition Day, on which parents and friends were invited to visit the camp for a tour of inspection, was held on Wednesday. Thursday was similar to Wednesday in its final activities except for the archery tournament with Camp Cannondus and the excitement of saying goodbye until next year.

The high spot of Wednesday afternoon came when the guests moved into the living room to watch an hilarious comedy entitled "The Child Wonder." This was followed by an exhibition of folk dancing, and the marionette show "Rip Van Winkle." After the performance refreshments were served to actors and guests. Those taking part in the play were: Alice Hanser, father of a prodigy; Jean Radtke, his wife; Meredith Stolz, the prodigy; Jean McNeil, her nurse; Gene Faltoute, the butler; Lee Brereton, a writer; announcer, Jean Karpenski; and properties, Barbara Murray. Jane Dougall and Alvera Schuyler coached the play.

Those participating in the marionette show were: Martha Swenson, Rip Van Winkle; Mina Gahn, Dame Van Winkle; Joan Parkin, Judith Van Winkle; Eve Betts, a neighbor; Joan Stromberger, announcer; and Marion Muldowney, properties. The show was directed by Eileen Muldowney and Martha Swenson.

On display Wednesday were various crafts and handiwork made during the season: gayly painted dishes and letter holders made from old phonograph records; miniature cigar store Indians, dignified little black scotties all made of plaster of paris; Gahn, Bernice Petty, Margaret Sam-colorful gimp bracelets; and bright picture frames, coin purses, and wallets fashioned in leather.

The camp, sponsored each summer by the YWCA, runs for the month of July. In addition to the indoor activities, tennis, badminton, archery and folk dancing are always on the program, while the YMCA pool offers excellent swimming facilities to the campers.

Those participating in camp activities were: records: Margaret Winkler, Thelma Westburg, Jean McNeil, Mina Gahn, Bernice Petty, and Mrs. Sims, instructor. Wooden dishes: Alvera Schuyler, and Lee Brereton. Plaster of Paris: Edna Dittmar, Jane Dougall, Joan Stromberger, Mina Gahn, Gene Faltoute, Erma Linda Gallitelli, Nancy Flindell, Margaret Winkler, Sally Marshall, Marion Muldowney, Margaret Dampman, Frances Dentz, Sylvia Anderson, Gimp; Jean Pellet, Ann Stahl, Thelma Westburg, Jean Radtke, Frances Dentz, Marion Arnold, Jeanne McNeil, and Mina Gahn. Leather: Ruth Bakker, Mina Gahn, Molly Somodis, Margaret Winkler, Frances Dentz, Mary Cladine, Wilma Geunz, Nancy Flindell, Carolyn Baldwin, Edna Dittmar, Betsy Ann Heath, and Sylvia Anderson.

Folk dancing: Margaret Samuel, Marion Muldowney, Carolyn Baldwin, Barbara Murray, Wilma Geunz, Betsy Ann Heath, Dorothy Pellet, Edna Dittmar, and Priscilla Pratt, leader. Archery: Anna Stahl, Ruth Bakker, Emelinda Gallitelli, Sylvia Anderson, Sallie Marshall, Lee Brereton, Jean McNeil, and Muriel Hauser, coach. Badminton: Alice Hanser, Bernice Petty, Mina Gahn, Joan Stromberger, Ruth Westberg, Gene Faltoute, and Priscilla Pratt, leader. Tennis: Jean Pellet, Barbara Reinman, Dorothy Pellet, Eva Betts, and Ruth Bennett, Mrs. S. A. Perkins, coaches.
