Hawkes and McLean Speak at G.O.P. Rally In Edge's Absence

United States Senator Albert W. Hawkes, of New Jersey, and Congressman Donald H. McLean, representative from the 6th Congressional District, were the main speakers at the pre-election rally sponsored by the Summit Republican Committee, Thursday night in the Hotel Beechwood.

Walter E. Edge, Republican nominee for governor, stated as the main speaker, did not appear because the half day given to a tour of the county did not allow time to come here.

The first inkling that Mr. Edge would not appear was revealed when Col. Edward B. Twombly, chairman of the meeting, arrived at the hotel and found Senator Hawkes, who brought the word.

The senator spoke briefly in Mr. Edge's interest, reviewing the nominee's record in support of labor and his background of being New Jersey's World War I governor and later ambassador to France. Along side Mr. Edge's record, Senator Hawkes declared the record of Vincent Murphy, the Democratic aspirant for governor, was very weak.

Congressman McLean, in addition to endorsing Mr. Edge, stressed the necessity "of getting out the vote" and cited the dangers of failure to vote. He said the Republicans could be defeated by a light vote.

Assemblyman Milton Feller made an appeal for a favorable vote on the referendum to revise the State constitution.

Col. Twombly appealed to the committee members and other party workers "to bend every effort" to get out the vote. He expressed alarm at the light vote cast in the September primary and recent other elections.

Housing Conditions, Subject Of Hearing Tomorrow Night

Charges of sub-standard housing conditions at 88 Summit avenue will be heard tomorrow at 8 p. m. in City Hall before Building Inspector Seaman L. Wright, it was announced Sunday by David Ludlow, a member of the Summit Inter-Racial Committee. The charges were preferred by the inter-racial committee, of which Stanley Morgan is chairman. This committee also has a sub-committee on sub-standard housing, of which Raymond Taylor is chairman. The Summit avenue property is owned by Anthony Gargiulo, Mr. Ludlow states.

Tomorrow's hearing is based upon a State law enacted last year establishing minimum standards for "human habitation" and a Summit enabling ordinance.

Under this law and ordinance, the city has already procured action looking towards the improvement of 18 Sayre street, the sub-standard conditions being in the process of elimination.

"Have a Heart" Tag Day Sponsored By Local Committee

The Volunteers of America will conduct their annual "Have a Heart" tag day in Summit on Saturday, October 30, when local children will sell tags to help raise funds for destitute mothers with children and other unfortunate in care of the organization. The drive is being sponsored by a local committee composed of Acting Mayor G. Harry Cullis, Rev. A. Powell Davies, Mrs. James Bancker, Mrs. George T. Bean, Mrs. Montague Hankin, Mrs. L. Skidmore, Mrs. M. G. Bensley and Mrs. J. J. Summersby, with Miss Wanda Renda in charge of headquarters in the building.

The Volunteers of America have grown to include over 200 relief stations where food, clothing, lodging and medical aid is given the needy; they also maintain day nurseries, summer camps for poor and underprivileged children; maternity homes; homes for destitute girls, free clinics and other philanthropic institutions. At Christmas they send thousands of gift boxes to our men in service, as well as maintaining year around canteen service.

The Summit merchants have generously offered prizes to the children who secure the largest amount for their tags.

The cause is most worthy and the committee hopes each citizen will have "two hearts" on Saturday, one of their own and one to help an unfortunate.

16,067 Given Ration Book 4 In Summit

Distribution of 16,067 copies of War Ration Book No. 4 was completed Friday night in Summit in the final session of the three-day registration for the new ration book in Brayton, Lincoln and Roosevelt Schools.

Probably due in large measure to the inroads selective service has made in the male population, the three-day distribution completed Friday night was 400 books under the total given out when the schools handled the issuance of War Book No. 2 last February.

On Wednesday, first day of the registration, the schools issued 4,633 books, 2,554 at Lincoln, 737 at Brayton, and 732 at Roosevelt. The peak was reached on Thursday when 6,776 copies were given out, 3,895 at Lincoln, 1,468 at Brayton, and 1,433 at Roosevelt; 5,248 copies were distributed Friday, 3,135 at Lincoln, 1,076 at Brayton, and 1,037 at Roosevelt.

The actual work of registering for distribution of the books was conducted by 118 members of the Summit public schools' teaching staff. The teachers, in turn, were assisted by staff assistants from the Red Cross and members from the various P-T-A's. Cub Scouts acted as messengers. Site administrators at the schools were as follows: Lincoln, Miss Emily H. Quigg, assisted by A. J. Gast and Miss Sarah E. Cadou; Brayton, Miss Edna Brandenburgh, assisted by A. J. Bartholomew; Roosevelt, J. Bindley Hoff, assisted by Miss Grace, Freeland. Seventy-three of the teachers were on duty at Lincoln School, 24 at Brayton, and 21 at Roosevelt School.

MacArthur Awards Legion of Merit To Col. R. Woodward

Somewhere in Australia—General Douglas MacArthur, Commander-in-Chief, Southwest Pacific Area, has awarded the Legion of Merit to Colonel Robert E. Woodward, of 47 Norwood avenue, Summit; "for exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding services as Special Service Officer of the United States Army Services of Supply in the Southwest Pacific area."

"With elements of the command widely dispersed, and with few facilities initially available, Colonel Woodward planned a comprehensive Special Service program for the command and initiated measures for obtaining needed personnel and equipment. He completed arrangements for the broadcasting of radio programs for the troops, and for the local publication of a weekly magazine. Colonel Woodward, by his foresight, organizing ability and energy, contributed materially to the recreation, welfare and morale of United States forces in the Southwest Pacific area."

Officials Commend Police Reserves At Venison Dinner

Area No. 1 of the Summit Police Reserve received commendation for their police work from a group of speakers Tuesday night at a venison dinner in the Elks Club.

Captain H. K. Weed, ordinance officer for the entire corps of Summit Police Reserves, said "Area One had the largest number of members to qualify in the annual match held this summer." Acting Mayor G. Harry Cullis, who presided at the dinner, "for the esprit de corps" prevalent in his group. Director Maxwell Lester, Jr., of Summit Defense Council, congratulated Area 1 for "his loyalty and devotion to duty."

President George C. Warren, of Summit, of the State Fish and Game Commission, through whose office the venison was made available, acknowledged an introduction by Commander Reynolds, as did Alex Twombly, commander of the city's entire corps of police reserve, and Chief of Police Edward K. Egan.

Guest speaker was Major Francis Kernan, of Summit, of the U. S. Army, Department of Internal Security. Besides going into details about his own work, he reviewed the history of defense activities in Summit from the resurgence of the National Defense Organization three years ago to the present time. He gave it as his belief the police reserve are doing a very necessary work.

Commander Reynolds presented Adjutant A. W. Brydon of the area with an honor roll of the men from Area 1 now in service. The roll includes the names of Joseph O'Mahoney, Robert Dittmar, Vincent Rosati and George Haney.

Among other guests introduced were Alex Saxton, commander of Area 2; William Bigelow, commander of Area 4 and Bunny Goodwin, commander of Area 5. Councilman Rome A. Betts had to leave before introductions were made.

Mr. Saxton was winner of the door prize, while Robert Furth was winner of "a special prize." Music for the evening was furnished by Whitey's Buckaroos of Elizabeth. The dinner and program was in charge of a committee with Elmore Furth as chairman, together with Dorwart Blasser, Charles Scheck, Nicholas Caporaso and Sam Aquaviva.

Due to printing difficulties caused by the recent move of the Summit Herald office to Bank street, the next two issues of the paper will be on the newsstands Friday morning rather than Thursday. It must be stressed, however, that deadlines for news copy remains the same.

OUR TOWN

WHY WE'RE FOR A NEW STATE CONSTITUTION

Next Tuesday you'll have a chance that you may never get again.

On that date you can say that you want a new constitution for the State of New Jersey—that you want to take a look at a new model.

You may not get another chance because every possible means has been used to prevent this question from being submitted to you and the forces clinging desperately to the old, draughty, antiquated constitution may succeed in keeping the question off the ballot again for generations.

Frankly we don't see how there can be two sides to this one. You are not being asked to vote against the present constitution and in favor of a new one. You are simply being asked whether you would like to take a look at a new one.

Some pretty decent and thoughtful citizens are ardently urging us to vote "Yes." As a matter of fact it appears that the need for a new constitution is so great and so obvious that there is almost no open opposition. The opposition is all secret—and, we understand, frantic.

The fact of the matter is that the present constitution helps men who want to play politics and hinders men who want to get things done in the public interest!

Very simply, no one has the gall to say that the present constitution is any good and a whole lot of decent people are saying: "Let's at least have a look at a new one."

We think you should vote "Yes."

IT'S GOING TO BE UP TO THE SMALL GIVER

As we watch the thermometer in front of the Summit Trust Company go up, we are very much encouraged about the United and War Fund but at the same time we realize that the early returns usually come in from the people who can afford to give most. The last half is always harder to get than the first half.

The job is going to be done by the people who last year couldn't afford to give anything and the people who couldn't afford to give more than $5. There are nearly 3,000 such people in Summit and if each one of them gives at least 50 cents to each of the 24 agencies in the United and War Fund, or a total of at least $12 each between $30,000 and $35,000 will be raised from that group.

That's not too much to expect, or to ask, because many of the smaller givers have much better incomes this year. Some of them are in families where today several members are working at high wages. Besides they are giving in a lump sum what they probably would not hesitate to give to the individual organizations during the year if they were approached by each one separately.

We say again that $117,418 is a lot of money and its going to take generosity and courageous giving on everybody's part if Summit is to make its goal. (And we also say again that Summit will probably make it.)

LEADS CAMPAIGN

Leonard E. Best, who is chairman of the United and War Fund Campaign, spoke to campaign workers at a dinner which opened the campaign Monday evening, October 19, at the Presbyterian parish house.

Owner of Lost Pig Makes Gift of Same To Chief of Police

Chief of Police Edward K. Egan will have a three-month-old pig to roast for Thanksgiving. The pig, found last week by the police roaming on Ruthven place, was lost by Donato Caporaso of 6 Shunpike road, who made a present of it to the chief. The chief immediately made plans to use it for his holiday dinner.

The pig, picked up by the police in company with another porker out of a brood of thirty-six, decided to take a stroll on October 19. Undersheriff Charles Fischer saw the pair of pigs sauntering up Springfield avenue hill. The pig not picked up by the police, was later found by Mrs. Emilio Poli of 67 Springfield avenue, who notified Mr. Caporaso.

CIBA Employees To Help Finance CAP Cadet Training

More than 400 employees of CIBA Pharmaceutical Products, Inc., of Summit through the Pharmaceutical and Drug Workers' Local 22014, are sponsoring a benefit dance at the Hotel Beechwood, Summit, Saturday evening, November 6, in aid of the Summit Squadron, Civil Air Patrol. About 110 young men who face induction within the year are now taking pre-flight, pre-induction and basic military training with the Summit CAP Squadron. This training has been designed and approved by the armed forces to prepare youths for their eventual service, particularly those who are already enlisted in a reserve capacity in Army Air Forces and who will be inducted following their 18th birthdays.

Financing this extensive training, which includes such subjects as navigation, meteorology, general service of aircraft, handling of arms, etc., has presented many problems to the Summit CAP unit which is directly responsible to the AAF for the successful administration of the training program. Interested residents of the community have made individual contributions in amounts ranging up to $25 to sponsor the training of Cadets. However, the Cadet ranks are swelling in number at a pace far exceeding funds available for their training. Sensing that something had to be done and without delay, employees of CIBA volunteered to help and through Local 22014 set up the machinery to sponsor this benefit dance on November 6.

While the affair will be a gala one, with music by Bob Laurie's Orchestra and entertainment by Ruth Meury, Peggy Lolatte, Lisa Luciano, Marianne Firebaugh, and Ruthanne Corlett, its major purpose is one of providing a means for residents of the surrounding communities in addition to those of Summit to make contributions to the CAP Air Cadet Training Program. Accordingly a goal of not less than 2,000 ticket sales has been set and from present indications of interest it is believed that this number will be exceeded in a substantial degree. All funds will be turned over to the Summit Trust Company for administration.

63.8% Of Quota Already Raised For United Campaign

According to reports made Monday evening by teams soliciting funds, the United and War Fund Campaign in Summit has made a successful start. A total of $74,918, 63.8% of the quota, has been raised already. Of this $58,487 was raised by the Advance Gifts captains. This amount is approximately $12,000 above the amount turned in by that group during the entire drive last year.

Ciba Pharmaceutical Products, Inc. contributed $4,000 to the fund and the Junior Service League gave $1,000. Other advance gifts were made by individuals.

According to Leonard E. Best, chairman, many Summit residents have contributed from 40% to 100% more than they gave last year. From 3,500 to 5,000 individuals have yet to be contacted by the volunteer workers.

The campaign is being staged to raise money for national and international relief agencies, the U. S. O., and seven local member agencies including the Y. M. C. A., Lincoln Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the Boy and Girl Scouts, the Co-operative Service and the Summit Home for Children.

At a dinner which opened the drive Monday evening, October 19, at the Presbyterian Parish House, Leonard E. Best, chairman, told workers for the campaign that "this campaign of ours is not primarily to raise funds. It is something far more vital and important—it is a basic part of the American way of life."

"When we consider that our local men and women are giving up evenings and week-ends to put this drive across, we realize that this must be something vibrant and real that we, as Americans, want to see preserved and continued, and that we want it sincerely enough that we are willing to give both our time and money to reach that objective."

It is through the local agencies this campaign is designed to aid, said Mr. Best, that this American way of life is instilled into our children. Through these agencies they learn the rudiments of democracy; how to play fair, to be good sports, to help the other fellow and to develop teamwork. They develop minds that can do their own thinking, clearly and rapidly, as contrasted with the Nazi's regimented sports and exercise programs that are designed to crush young minds.

Naturally, too, continued Mr. Best, we wish to help our boys who have gone abroad to fight for us, and this we can do through the U. S. O., the Merchant Seamen's Fund and the War Prisoner's Fund. The same spirit, he said, that makes us want to help our own, makes us wish to lend a hand to the less fortunate people of Europe and Asia. We can do this through the Allied Nations War Relief, also benefited by the drive.

Second Annual Issue For Service People On December 2

The second annual issue of The Summit Herald dedicated to men and women in the armed forces from Summit and the Borough and Township of New Providence will be published December 2.

Because of the many more people in service as compared to a year ago, this year's issue will be much larger than last year's. Further details about this issue will be published next week.

A RELIGIOUS EDITORIAL

YOUTH AND THE FUTURE

Much has been said in recent months about post-war planning. Everyone knows how important it is to look ahead and plan for the future. However we should also realize that there must be more than talk.

A secure future depends on the young people of today. A co-operative spirit and the will to do the right thing are two requirements for healthy living. Such an organization as the United Youth Council has established the fulfillments of these requirements as its ideals. But a youth group needs more than ideals. It needs young supporters, workers who have such ideals as their goal.

If the youth of today could understand and desire these ideals, a better future could be insured. They must be urged to participate in groups that are made up of persons from all the cross-sections of American young people.

Better thinkers and better workers are essential to a good democracy. The Council's program is not expected to make a worker out of a shirker in three days; it is merely hoped that it will act as a stimulant for thinking and co-operation in the days to come.

ANNA WOODWARD,
United Youth Council.

Youth Council Vesper Service

The young people of Calvary Church will participate in the United Youth Council Conference to be held this week-end in Summit, and on Sunday night will play host to the Conference at a Vesper Service in the church, at which time the address will be delivered by the Rev. Preceding the service the Young People's Fellowship will hold a supper meeting at 6:30 p. m. at which their guests will be the members of the planning committee of the Conference.

Lesson-Sermon

"Everlasting Punishment" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, October 31. Golden text: "Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plentiful redemption." (Psalms 136:7).
Sermon—Passages from the King James version of the Bible include: "I, even I, am he that blot out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember they sins." (Isaiah, 43:25).
Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "We acknowledge God's forgiveness of sin in the destruction of sin and the spiritual understanding that casts out evil as unreal. But the belief in sin is punished so long as the belief lasts." (p. 497). "Science removes the penalty only by first removing the sin which incurs the penalty. This is my sense of divine pardon; which I understand to mean God's method of destroying sin." (p. 40).

Sermon Topic At Presbyterian Church

Church Women Plan Union Meeting On Armistice Day

Women of Summit are uniting with women throughout the country in plans for the celebration of Armistice Day "not as a celebration of an accomplished military peace, but as a preparation for the world brotherhood that is to come."

The day is being called World Community Day. The women of Summit, under the auspices of the United Council of Church Women, are combining for a meeting that day. It will be held in Calvary Episcopal Church at 2 p. m. and is open to all. Miss Caroline Romer will occupy the chair. Dr. Emily Hickman of the New Jersey College for Women will speak on "The Price of Enduring Peace."

The United Organization of Summit have included this as one of a joint series of Forums on Public Affairs.

The meeting is religious but non-sectarian.

Postmaster Makes Early Mail Plea For Sailor Gifts

In view of the last-minute rush to beat the deadline for mailing Christmas parcels to the army personnel overseas, Postmaster Daniel J. Fitzpatrick yesterday issued a plea to persons intending to send gifts to members of the navy, marine corps or coast guard serving abroad to do so at once.

Postmaster Fitzpatrick points out the last day for overseas gift mailing to other branches of the service is Nov. 1 and that those who send them now will not only spare themselves much inconvenience, but will be performing a patriotic service by lessening the load which the under-staffed postal service otherwise would have to carry at a later date.

Looking forward further to the usual rush of civilian mail immediately preceding Christmas, the Post Office also has this contingency to face, the postmaster said. Instructions from Washington on the handling of holiday mails already have been received here. Stating that "during a period of approximately five weeks preceding Christmas the mails increase to several times the normal volume," these instructions point out that special preparations are made in railway post offices and terminal railway post offices to handle these mails in transit.

The ban against the use of adhesive seals or stickers other than lawful postage stamps, which is in effect the rest of the year, will be suspended from November 1 to January 1, the Post Office announced, to permit the use of Christmas seals. Such seals or stickers, however, should not be affixed to the address side, it is stated.

Lest We Forget

... SONS, DADS, HUSBANDS, yes, MOTHERS, WIVES and DAUGHTERS, too, are giving their "all" today to preserve for us a Democracy wherein we personally choose our public officials. Surely we will not fail to exercise the right of franchise—the privilege to vote—they are fighting so desperately to retain! The extent of our interest in Democracy is demonstrated in no better way than by our active participation. We owe it to these gallant heroes and heroines of today, to vote.

Preserve the American Way of Life by the steady purchase of War Bonds. Give our Government that extra lift—protect all we cherish here—BUY AN EXTRA BOND—AND SOON, THEY'LL BE COMING HOME.

THE BLACK MARKET IN FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

No. 2 in a series of advertisements designed to show how you, the Consumer can assist in eliminating a vicious, unpatriotic practice.

Your response to our last week's expose of the black market in fruits and vegetables, in which we showed the only remedy was your co-operation, was overwhelming and gratifying to us. It definitely proved our belief that the people of Summit would not buy black market items if they could recognize them. (How to identify them is shown below).

We had long known of this black market's existence, but our hope for its elimination by O. P. A. ceiling prices stayed our public appeal for your co-operation until this time, when there seemed no alternative but to seek your aid. Meanwhile, in the light of our knowledge of the black market, we attempted for some months past to get you to stock your larder against the day when it might become necessary for us to acquaint the general public with the urgency of a black market boycott. That day is now at hand.

The Winter season always sees an increased demand for certain produce items which, as they become scarcer, could fall an easy prey to black market manipulation. Due to our forethought, however, we have made it possible for you to by-pass this black market.

If you have taken advantage of the canning specials offered in our advertisements all Summer and Fall, your pantry should be well enough supplied with home-canned fruits and vegetables to enable you to give full co-operation to our proposal.

According to nutrition experts, a well-balanced meal contains two vegetables. If one or two of these happen to be black market items any week this Winter, you can avoid their purchase and still have a nutritious meal by choosing from the remaining variety of produce offered on our counters and supplementing your choice with your own home-canned goods. Simple, isn't it.

All we ask you to do is to refrain from buying such fruit and produce items which may be considered black market items any one week. You may safely assume that when we do not offer for sale, in our ads or on our counters, any regularly stocked item in the future, that produce is probably a black market item of that week. It is also reasonable to assume that we have refused to purchase it for resale to you at a price exceeding the O. P. A. ceiling.

We thank you for your initial and continued support in our mutual fight against this un-American enemy, the black market. Our first appeal was to you, the consumer, who must play the major part by not asking for black market items. We also solicit the co-operation of other fruit and produce merchants.

Please Be Patient With Us

If the news isn't in its accustomed place --- if there are errors in proofreading --- if we have made other "boners" that annoy you --- please forgive us. Our new plant is only half finished, we have only part of our machinery operating, and we are all cold because our heating system is not yet ready, so anything may happen (and probably will).

Last week we were late for the mail (and we are not sure about this week). We were operating in three locations in Summit, and one in South Orange, and it was only through the hard work and loyalty of our composing room men that we were able to publish on Thursday at all.

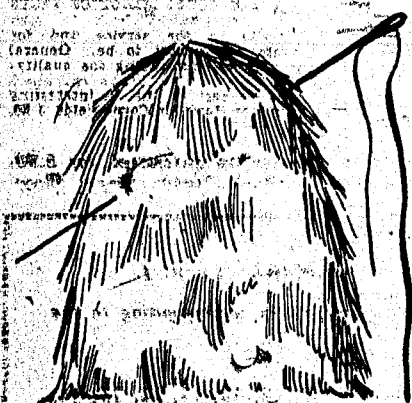

These conditions will exist for the next two or three weeks, depending on how much rain we have. You can help greatly by bringing all news items and advertising copy to the new Herald office at 22 Bank Street as early as possible. In this way we can better plan our production, and publish the Herald so you will get yours at the regular time.

go directly into the Cadet Training Fund with only the expense of the orchestra deducted. William Lucas, manager of the Hotel Beechwood, has donated the hotel facilities for the occasion, and Thomas A. Denning Co., Inc., Jersey City, is providing the ballroom decorations. There will be dance contests and door prizes, all of which have been donated by local business houses for the occasion.

Residents of Summit and those surrounding communities whose boys are receiving this advanced type of pre-induction training with the Civil Air Patrol are being urged by CIBA employees to get behind this project in a wholehearted manner, and to see to it that it receives the full support of the many hundreds who are concerned with the welfare of those boys who will next take up arms against our common enemies. The purchase of a single ticket buys a share in the training of a Cadet. The more advanced training given him now, the better will be his chances of coming through the "Big Push" to Berlin and Tokyo.

Tickets are available at $1.10 each from any CIBA employee, CAP Cadet or directly from Lieut. K. H. Brett-Surman, Adjutant, Lafayette Park, Summit, N. J.

OUR SCHOOL SYSTEM

To equip young people to live useful and satisfying lives is the function of all education at all times. Particularly heavy responsibility for developing those skills, concepts, attitudes, appreciations, and ideals necessary in a democratic society rests upon the social studies. The senior high school takes its pupils already well grounded by the elementary and junior schools in the fundamentals of democratic living and through its courses and extra-curricula activities geared to the age, experience, interests and maturity of its pupils, aims to develop further competence in group living. The war has created new needs but it has not eliminated old responsibilities. John Dewey said, "Democracy has to be born anew every generation." The three year sequence of courses taught—Modern European, American, and Problems of American Democracy—all aim to prepare for intelligent understanding and participation in life in a democracy; to build an appreciation of the long struggle through the ages for the rights and liberties we enjoy and of our responsibilities in maintaining those rights in peace as well as in war; to develop a sympathetic insight into the world of which the United States is an integral part; to ground thoroughly in the political, social, economic, and cultural development of our own country; to train in critical thinking; to clarify the problems of the post-war world and to create a desire to participate in the making of a better world.

In peace times student government affords wide opportunities for the practical functioning of democratic procedures. The war has augmented those experiences; planning and executing school programs for its sale of stamps and bonds; collection of scrap; cooperation with community groups in wartime activities. With such a program we can meet the challenge of not only winning the war but preparing an intelligent public opinion for the making of a peace for an interdependent world.

As executor-trustee, it is our business to keep informed on matters affecting estate administration and conservation. We invite you to discuss this subject with our trust officers. Their advice may prove valuable. Write or telephone, TODAY, for an appointment.

SUPERVISING SPECIAL DIET TRAYS AT OVERLOOK HOSPITAL

On an average day Overlook Hospital serves about 800 meals to nurses, patients and employees. Of this number from 20 to 25 are for special diets. In order to handle this number of meals the Nutritional Department of the hospital has a Head Dietician, (Miss Elizabeth Eastwood at left above), two Assistant Dieticians, and approximately 25 other employees including the chef.

Normally they would have more in the department but for the duration the service to nurses and employees is on a self-service or cafeteria basis. Only the best of food is purchased and the menus are planned both for the patients and employees with proper balance of diet, etc. A complete new refrigerage rooms has been installed. It is expected that in the near future the entire kitchen will be filled and new equipment will be installed.

HOME SERVICE CORPS

Fourth of a series of articles prepared by the Home Service Office of the Red Cross to better inform Summit citizens of the local service available to members of the armed forces and their families.

"Private Jerry Smith Admitted Hospital last week. Minor physical symptoms. Nervous condition puzzling physicians. Desire picture home background and family advice. Request visit and subsequent report. Rush reply." This might well be a telegram received today at the office of the Home Service Corps because requests for this type of service are frequent. It is part of the "Reporting Service" maintained by the Red Cross which is the only active liaison between the service man in the field and his family at home. Upon receipt of a message such as this, one of the trained Home Service Workers follows the instructions for an immediate call and the information is relayed back to the military authorities for the early treatment of the patient.

Other kinds of "reporting" are constantly carried on. There may be a request from a camp to locate and send back to his post a soldier who is A. W. O. L. Again a serviceman requests a furlough from his commanding officer. This again is best managed through the Home Service office which corroborates the emergency through investigation. Home Service by wire must verify the need for his return home. His furlough may need to be extended. A Dependency Report required at the time a service man requests a discharge on the basis of dependency is still another technical form which Home Service Workers are trained to care for.

From "Induction into the army" to reintroduction to civilian life they can be helpful.

Attend Get-Together In London For Jerseymen

First Sergeant Stephen J. Rosales, of 2 South Street and Sergeant William C. Bloss of 42 DeForest Avenue, were among 160 American soldiers who recently crowded the American Red Cross Mostyn Club in London for the third dinner and reunion of men from New Jersey. Greetings were sent by the men to Governor Edison. Guests of the soldiers were William B. Cruise, director of the club, from Passaic.

On June 1 of this year Western Union monthly receipts showed an average increase of 70 per cent over January, 1940.

F. Kompany Hears World Series Games With Joe DiMaggio

Private First Class Frank Kompany, a graduate of Summit High School, class of 1939 and captain of the school's 1938 football team, wrote Coach Elwood C. Cornog at the school of his listening to the recent World Series at Santa Anna, Cal., in company with Sgt. Joe DiMaggio, erstwhile Yankee outfielder.

Pfc. Kompany is now at Williams Field, Arizona. He recounts his army life to date, as follows:

"I've been kept busy. First I was at Miami Beach as a drill instructor, then from there to Boca Raton Field, Florida, where I worked on the line checking bombers in and out. Then I was transferred to the Western Flying Command, and sent to Santa Anna, Cal., for classification. Joe DiMaggio worked in the gym right across the street from me, and I talked to him often. In fact I listened to the World Series games with him.

"From California I was sent here, as a Link Training Instructor. I'm going to school here for that purpose, and I'm sure I'm going to like it plenty. This is an advanced flying school here, and it's the prettiest field I ever saw. It's called the country club of the Western Flying Command, and be darned if it doesn't look like a country club with plenty of lawn, flowers and trees around us. Barracks are painted white, and are air conditioned. They look more like apartment houses than barracks. There is plenty of recreation supplied for us besides a great big outdoor swimming pool, plenty outdoor basketball courts, and about 3 ball fields, besides the other usual camp activities."

About 2,200,000 long-distance telephone calls are being made in this country per day, at an average connection speed of 3.7 minutes.

John Daiuto Writes Of Camp Wheeler Life

Private John Daiuto of 16 Gates Avenue, a graduate of Summit High School last June, who is with the 17th Infantry Training Battalion, Camp Wheeler, Ga., writes The Herald in part as follows:

"Boy, the High School football team this year really smells. I hope the basketball team is better and I know it will be, with 'Red' Reynolds playing. I always knew that the good players came from North Summit.

"We've had pretty cool weather down here lately and already they have been having heat in the barracks. We just started wearing our winter uniforms and they are pretty warm. Whoever tells you that the Army gives you a perfect fit, tell them they are crazy, and I'll back you up.

"Well, to get to my training, I've been doing practical work on the 60mm. mortar and also had the privilege of firing it. We've been doing most of our work in the fields and also our eating. I never knew there were so many weapons until I came in the Army.

"I'm telling you that I've been doing a lot of running in these past thirteen weeks of my basic training and am still doing it. I have only four more weeks to train and then I will be finished. This training is tough as the 'Marines' and don't let any one kid you, I've gone through plenty of sweat and took plenty of a beating. I saw guys fall out left and right and boy it wasn't a pretty sight. This is tough but it is going to be tougher when we are shipped overseas. My training ends Nov. 20th and it isn't far away. I forgot to tell you but we've had about nine night problems and it is just like walking blinded. On two of these night problems we went on fifteen mile hikes."

Roger C. Ward Receives Commission In Naval Reserve

Roger C. Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waldron M. Ward of 74 Whit-tredge road, Summit, received his commission as an ensign in the United States Naval Reserve today after completing the fifteen-week V-7 training course at the New York U.S.N.R. Midshipmen's School.

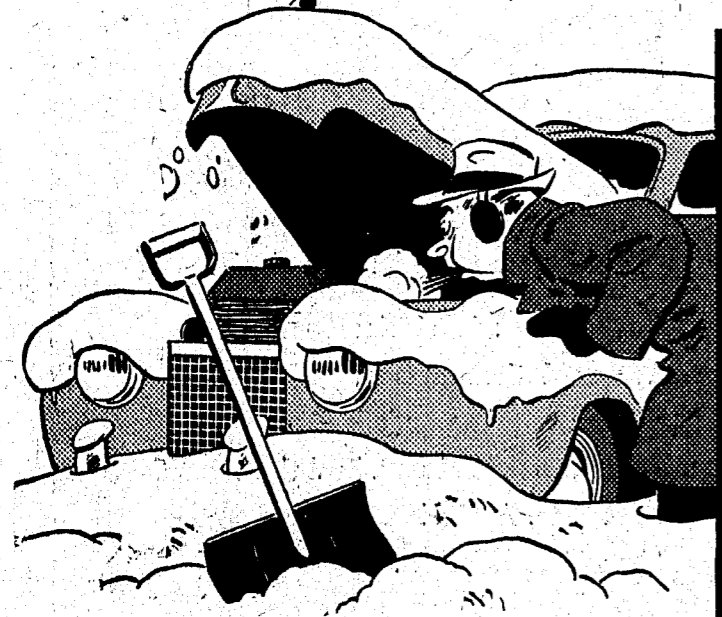

This was the 14th class to be graduated from the school since its inception 3 years ago aboard the U.S.S. Prairie State, formerly the U.S.S. Illinois, flagship of the "Great White Fleet."

THIS WINTER WILL BE TOUGH ON HITLER IF WE KEEP BUYING WAR BONDS!

Hitler's war machine is strained to the limit. Let's give our fighters all the equipment they need to smash it, by purchasing all the War Bonds we can possibly buy.

THIS WINTER WILL BE TOUGH ON CARS IF WE DON'T GET SET FOR IT NOW!

Winter's toll gets heavier as cars grow older. Worn engines are harder to start. Radiators that have become partially clogged are more apt to boil off anti-freeze. Scratched and weathered paint leaves the metal more vulnerable to rust. That's why the coming cold weather will be harder than ever on America's irreplaceable automobiles UNLESS they get pre-winter protection now. Before it's too late, before Old Man Winter has sabotaged your transportation, have your car prepared for winter. Check the list of important pre-winter services at the right... Let us check your car for the care it needs, now!

Take These Precautions Before Cold Weather Comes

INSTALL ANTI-FREEZE  Make sure you start off with enough to protect in the coldest temperatures winter may bring.	CHECK ELECTRICAL SYSTEM  Generator, battery, starter and ignition system all must be in tip-top condition for their heavier job in winter.
CHANGE ENGINE OIL  Lighter oil is absolutely necessary to prevent dangerous wear when the temperature goes below freezing.	CHECK COOLING SYSTEM  Leaks must be sealed, clogged radiators must be cleaned, to prevent loss of anti-freeze and freezing of engine.
CHANGE LUBRICANTS  Most cars need thinner lubricants in transmission and differential to insure cold-weather protection of costly gears.	TOUCH UP FINISH  Frost and the calcium chloride often spread on icy roads are especially hard on metal. A touch-up will prevent rust.

Telephones' Relation To War Effort Explained To Lions

For every bomber that is completed 12,000 telephone calls are necessary; for every Liberty Ship that is completed 63,000 telephone calls are required, Tom Page, a representative of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Co., explained Thursday to Summit Lions Club at its weekly luncheon in the Hotel Beechwood.

The speaker said "Summit is quite fortunate in escaping so far the embargo effective in many communities for new service demands. He said the telephone company hadn't been making new instruments for over a year. On the one hand, Mr. Page asserted, all records are being broken in the number of telephone calls being made, while on the other hand materials for building up the service to meet this demand are not available for they are needed in the war effort. He gave as example the 20 pounds of copper used by a machine gun for every four minutes it was fired. This same amount of copper, it was explained by the telephone man, would be sufficient to meet the requirement in the manufacture of a mile of telephone wire.

The gist of a large part of the address was summed up in the idea, "Prepare to shoot more, talk less."

Accepted For Training As Aviation Cadet

John David Smythe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor D. Smythe of 76 Division avenue, has qualified for Aviation Cadet Training before a board of officers at the Aviation Cadet Examining Board, Federal Building, Newark. He attended the Summit High School.

After a period of progressive training, he will be selected as a member of the U. S. Army Air Force Flying Crew as a pilot, bombardier or navigator. He then will be rewarded with the "Silver Wings" and a commission as an officer in the Air Corps.

His greatgrandfather, David M. Smythe, was the first editor and publisher of The Summit Herald.

Use of airmail in the U. S. has increased almost 70 per cent over a year ago.

AN OFFICIAL PROGRAM OF THE WAR MANPOWER COMMISSION

Iva Kitchell, Dance Humorist, At Fortnightly Club

Iva Kitchell will present her amusing yet artistic program, Dance Pantomimes and Parodies, to the Fortnightly Club on Wednesday, November 3, at 8:15 p. m. in the High School auditorium. With high artistry underlying the humorous effort, Miss Kitchell successfully satirizes the Art of the Dance, without stooping to conventional stage burlesque. Clad in myriad costumes which she doffs and dons in a twinkling, she gives a most diversified and captivating program. Always during the performance she drops her humorous role and presents a straight number which brilliantly demonstrates her ability for the serious dance as well as mimicry.

Miss Kitchell's career as a dance humorist began at an early age when she was featured with the Chicago Opera Ballet. Without the serious technique she never could have attained the high place she has earned as a foremost artist in the unique and fascinating field of dance mimicry. It was during a rehearsal that the ballet master caught her giving some impersonations of the temperamental first soloist, a bit of terpsichorean treason. Instead of ending Miss Kitchell's dance hopes, that episode actually began a new and increasingly successful career for her, for she was promptly assigned her first comedy role and she has been a madcap mime ever since.

Iva Kitchell has made five coast to coast tours. In addition to the Chicago Opera Ballet she was featured with the Pavley Okrainisky Ballet. She has been starred in engagements with such outstanding motion picture houses as the Radio City Music Hall, and the Paramount Theaters in New York City. In 1938 Miss Kitchell made a tour of Europe and was to have returned for the 1940-41 season but the war intervened. She has performed in concert series, and before many of the leading women's clubs and colleges of the country.

Miss Kitchell is well known as the favorite model of the artist Stokely Webster. In private life she is the artist's wife. Portraits of her have been exhibited by the Allied Artists and the James St. L. O'Toole Gallery in New York City, the Corcoran Museum in Washington, D. C., and the Roullier Gallery in Chicago.

Ted Frost Writes Of Navy Training

A/S Ted Frost, who left his senior studies this year at Summit High School to join the Navy, writes, in part, of his "boot" training experiences at Newport, R. I., as follows: "This week our company is on mess duty. My job is to wait on officers. I thought I would land up in the brig when I spilled some milk over an officer but he didn't notice so I walked calmly away. There is one good thing in waiting on them, you can get all of what you want to eat."

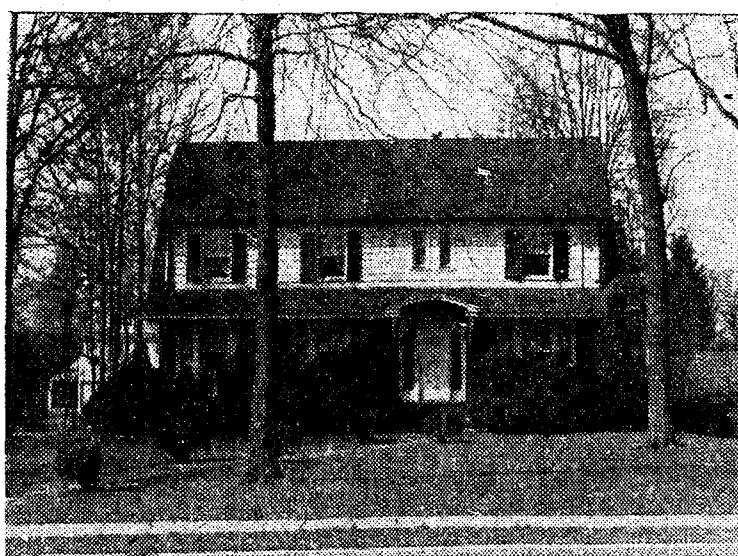

"We had a boxing match between our company and company 201. I took part in the fight. With all luck I won the match."

"The next day we had a double typhoid shot. An hour after the shot the fever hit me. I was sick from 4 p. m. Thursday till 11:30 p. m. Friday. First I got cold, then hot, then cold, cold, headache, sore arm, and upset stomach all combined. I sure was a poor excuse for a man."

WHY PAY FOR TRYING TO HEAT THE GREAT OUTDOORS?

INSULATE—keep the cold outside and the heat inside. During this winter, when you must make all fuel do a big job, it's important to your family's health. It's important to Uncle Sam, for he needs all possible transportation, as well as fuel to get on with this War.

Phone 6-0029 for a free estimate and monthly terms. Remember, too, that insulation soon pays for itself.

REFERENDUM

Presented for Approval to the People of New Jersey

THE QUESTION

Shall the one hundred sixty-eighth Legislature be authorized to agree, by a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses, upon a revised Constitution for the State, which revised Constitution shall include the provisions of Article 1 of the present Constitution, commonly known as "The Bill of Rights," and shall include provision for a Senate composed of one Senator from each county and a General Assembly composed of not more than sixty members apportioned among the counties as provided by the present Constitution so that each county shall at all times be entitled to one member, and to submit the same as a whole and in such manner as said Legislature shall prescribe to the people, for their approval and ratification or rejection, as a whole, at the general election to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-four?

The League of Women Voters is a non-partisan organization, so DOES NOT endorse a candidate for any party, but the League DOES take stands upon measures. This public question authorizes the State Legislature to write and present a new state constitution for your approval at the election of 1944. Our basic law needs strengthening for the problems which New Jersey must meet after the war. The League of Women Voters urges you to vote "YES" on this referendum. Every state candidate listed below urges you to vote "YES" on this Referendum.

November 2, 1943

GOVERNOR OF NEW JERSEY (VOTE FOR 1)

TERM OF OFFICE—3 years.
(Cannot succeed himself).

SALARY—$20,000 per year.

FUNCTION—Chief Executive Officer of the State.

CANDIDATES

WALTER E. EDGE

Educated in the public schools of Pleasantville and Atlantic City, N. J. During vacations he worked as a newsboy, and later as a printer's devil on the Atlantic City Review; later with an advertising agency. At 22 years of age, he started his own newspaper. His public career included the following: Clerk of the State Senate; State Senator; Governor of New Jersey; U. S. Senator; Ambassador to France.

Senator Edge was an early advocate of old age benefits, public health insurance, joint labor-management agencies and sound pension systems for teachers and other public employees. He voted for the Child Labor Amendment in Congress. As State Legislator and Governor, he anticipated and initiated measures establishing employers' liability, workmen's compensation insurance, reduced working hours for women, and industrial safety requirements. As Governor, he ended the competition between prison labor and free labor, and effectively installed the system by which prisoners make products solely for the use of the State and its institutions. As U. S. Senator, he succeeded in passing a measure which raised the inadequate salaries of federal postal employees an average of $300. a year.

QUESTION: State your position on the Referendum for Constitutional Revision.

MR. EDGE: "At the General Election to be held in November a referendum will appear on the ballot, which will give the people the opportunity to indicate whether or not they wish the 1944 Legislature to prepare a revised Constitution and submit it, for the people's approval or disapproval, as a whole at the General Election of 1944.

"We believe the Constitution of our State should be modernized and liberalized to conform with present-day requirements. Revising or changing the Constitution rests solely in the hands of the voters. This is the one activity of government wherein the people rule directly and not through their representatives. The only question to be decided now is one of method.

"As I have frequently publicly stated, I will vote 'YES' on the referendum and personally hope the people of the State vote likewise."

MR. MURPHY: "I am and always have been in favor of Constitutional revision. I have campaigned for it in the past and I am calling upon all citizens of our State to vote 'YES' in favor of the referendum on Election Day. If we are to plan now for the future economic security of our men and women in the armed forces and our civilian workers at home, we should be able to use an efficient, streamlined state administration."

MR. WILKINSON: "The Legislature's passage of the Feller Bill (to present the Referendum for the people's approval) is a concrete victory, as it gives the people a chance to speak for themselves, to make clear whether they are content with machine politics and with the constitution which makes machine politics so easy in New Jersey or whether they want a new constitution and a chance for better government. During the present campaign, we have been vigorously urging a 'YES' vote in the referendum on the ballot on November second."

MR. BINSS: "Constitutional revision is a part of the platform of the National Prohibition Party in New Jersey."

QUESTION 1—If the people of New Jersey direct you to write a new Constitution next year, for what major changes will you work?

MR. FELLER: "I will work for most of the changes recommended by the N. J. Constitutional Revision Commission which includes the specific recommendations made from time to time by Governor Charles Edison and former Governor Walter E. Edge." Mr. Feller stated at the Candidates' Meeting at the Summit Y. M. C. A. on October 11: "I introduced the Bill in the Assembly to place this referendum before the voters. If it fails, I fear that New Jersey Constitutional Revision will undergo a setback that will endure for many years."

MR. GUARIELLO: Did not reply to our questionnaire. Has stated that he will vote "YES" on the Referendum.

MR. HAND: "I will consider the Report of the Revision Commission, the recommendations of Governor Edison and Senator Edge, the advice of such organizations as yours is, and will be governed by a genuine desire to give to the State of New Jersey the best Constitution of any state in the Union."

MRS. BRANAGAN: "Four-year term for Governor with right to succeed himself; two-year term for Assemblymen; four years for Senator. Executive functions vested solely with the Governor, with veto power only overridden by two-thirds vote. Consolidation of various departments of the government."

MR. CASE: 1. A simplified and less expensive process for future constitutional amendments. 2. A better division of powers between the three branches of government. 3. Permanent constitutional status for civil service and the merit system. 4. Longer terms for legislators and a removal of present restrictions on a Governor succeeding himself. "I presently feel that annual legislative sessions are preferable for our state than biennial sessions." 5. Simplification of our judicial system. 6. Revision and modernization of the tax structure."

MR. KIRKPATRICK: Did not answer our questionnaire. He will vote "YES" on the referendum.

MR. MUIR: "Will consult my constituents."

MR. KUNZMAN: Did not reply to our questionnaire. He has stated, "With regard to the Referendum, I expect to vote 'YES'."

QUESTION 2—Do you believe the State should have a uniform fiscal year and one pocketbook?

MR. FELLER: "I believe the State should have a uniform fiscal year if certain practical difficulties connected with such a program can be eliminated. Let the people decide this question by voting for a revised constitution."

MR. GUARIELLO: No reply.

Junior Red Cross Annual Roll Call Comes Next Month

The annual Roll Call for the Junior Red Cross will take place throughout the nation from November 1-15. Children's membership in the Red Cross is handled through the schools, and it is hoped that the boys and girls of Summit will join 100 per cent. The children pay what they are able to give—a minimum of 10 cents in the grade schools and 25 cents in the high schools. The parents are urged to see that the children earn the money they give in order that they may have a real sense of contribution to the work of the Red Cross. Out of the donations received, 30 cents from each classroom in the grammar schools and $1.00 from each class in high school is sent to the National Junior Red Cross. The rest is kept in Summit to buy supplies for the Red Cross work of the children. During the year each school usually has one or two other projects to raise additional funds for the Junior Red Cross. If, at the end of the year, there is any surplus in the treasury a contribution is made to the National Children's Fund. Last year the children in Summit gave $200 to this organization, which under the supervision of the Junior Red Cross, handles relief work for children throughout the world. The production quota for the Red Cross in the schools of Summit is according to the committee in charge, a source of great pride to the boys and girls. The need of money to buy supplies to carry on their work is real and urgent.

Benefit Bridge For Hospital Linens At Beechwood Hotel

Mrs. Paul Gadebusch, chairman, reports an excellent sale of tickets for the Overlook Hospital Auxiliary Bridge Benefit to be held in the Beechwood Hotel at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon, October 29. However, says Mrs. Gadebusch, still more players can be accommodated at the 100 odd tables to be set up in the Beechwood Ball-Room and on the large enclosed verandah (where smoking is allowed). Those who have not yet acknowledged the receipt of their tickets are urged to do so, even at this late hour. A contribution, no matter how small will be greatly appreciated if they cannot attend the party. Anyone who has not received tickets and would like to play is urged to phone Mrs. Gadebusch at Summit 6-0535. "The pleasure to be derived from this bridge," says Mrs. Gadebusch, is two-fold: the fun of playing with the reward of a donated prize (there are enough for each table to have one—and they are worth playing for) and more important, the satisfaction of contributing in such a pleasant way to the fund for replenishing, for a year the linens used at Overlook. The proceeds of the Bridge Party buy the linens and the Hospital depends upon the yearly card party of the Women's Auxiliary to replenish the supply of these necessary articles. Pvt. Edgar D. Hazelton, son of Daniel Hazelton of De Forest avenue is taking his basic training in the U. S. Air Force at the University of Galveston, Fla. He is a graduate of Summit High School and enlisted in the service in July.

Jr. Service League Contributes $1,000 To United Campaign

The Junior Service League of Summit has contributed $1,000 to the current drive for the United Campaign. The gift, which represents a substantial increase over the amount donated by the League last year, is given as "a tribute to the splendid work of the local organizations involved in the campaign and to the vital need of the war and national relief organizations seeking funds." The main money-making project of the Junior Service League is the Thrift Shop which it operates at 466 Springfield avenue. At the Thrift Shop used articles donated by the citizens of Summit are sold at greatly reduced prices and the proceeds are divided, at various times during the year, among local charities. It is as a result of the cooperation of all of Summit in contributing stock to the Thrift Shop that the League is enabled to make its gift this year to the United Campaign.

MR. HAND: "I believe that the principle of a uniform fiscal year for our State is a very meritorious one. Thereby, better business methods can be achieved. However some of our County and Municipal Governing Bodies feel that the present system is very helpful in enabling them to prepare their local budgets and manage their finances generally. Largely, because of this opposition, I voted against the Glickenshaus Bill during the 1943 session. In theory, one pocketbook is an excellent idea; in practice, we must contend with existing practices and not create any further inequities in an effort to cure the situation too precipitously."

MRS. BRANAGAN: "Very definitely. This is a most essential and badly needed reform."

MR. CASE: "I am presently inclined to favor a uniform fiscal year for the State and its departments and agencies. I have not yet determined in my own mind whether it is desirable to abolish all so-called 'dedicated' funds. Recognizing the advantages in simplicity of administration and other ways of a single State pocketbook, I can still see that the present system of dedicating funds has had an important effect as a check on non-essential State spending."

MR. KIRKPATRICK: No reply received.

MR. MUIR: "Have always left this matter to State Departments most concerned. Would vote to change if Union County wishes it."

MR. KUNZMAN: No reply received.

QUESTION 2—What do you consider should be the place of the State in the plans for post-war readjustments?

MR. FELLER: "The State should take its place in plans for post-war readjustment. This State, however, will be in a better position to withstand the strains and rigors of the post-war period if it is governed by a new revised modernized constitution which will give our State Government the flexibility necessary to keep pace with changes in personal habits, economic pursuits, social needs and political horizons."

MR. GUARIELLO: No reply received.

MR. HAND: "Certain general thoughts of a constructive nature seem to be generally prevalent. Some of these are: planning to provide peacetime employment as soon as possible for those returning from the Armed Forces; rehabilitation of disabled veterans; hospitalization of non-service connected cases; development of certain essential public works; readjustment of educational opportunities for Service Men and Women; and generally the development of opportunities within New Jersey for young men and women to enjoy the advantages of a free economy, a free State, and a well-ordered government."

MRS. BRANAGAN: "The State should take a very prominent part in post-war readjustment and can only do so if a State Planning Commission is named with the highest type of representative men who will have a very definite program outlined. Unless our State does this, and is prepared, there is no doubt we shall have further encroachment of the State's rights by the Federal Authorities."

MR. CASE: "I. To maintain and operate the State Government in the most efficient and economical manner possible. In this connection a revision of the Constitution would be an important contribution."

MR. KIRKPATRICK: No reply received.

MR. MUIR: "Legislative Commission will investigate and report fully."

MR. KUNZMAN: No reply received.

QUESTIONS TO LOCAL CANDIDATES

QUESTION 1: Can you suggest items on the City Budget which could be curtailed without disadvantage to the city?

MR. CULLIS: "This can be answered more intelligently, in my humble opinion, towards close of present year, which has been and is an abnormal year, and we get a picture of actual expenditures."

MR. HICKOK: "Nothing specific, but present conditions demand rigid economy."

MR. TRUSLOW: "The Council checks every item with economy in mind."

MR. REEVE: "No."

MR. BETTS: "The operational budget of the city is pretty well trimmed down at present, but possible savings might be made in next year's Welfare and Defense Council budgets."

MR. LONG: "I suspect that suggestions for curtailment would be more to the point if based on a professional study, such as the Princeton Survey."

QUESTION 2: Do you think a professional study such as the Princeton Survey might suggest economies without loss of efficiency to the city?

MR. CULLIS: "No, because I feel that a Summit Civic body, or committee formed by them, knowing local conditions, could do a better job."

MR. HICKOK: "I believe we have enough local talent to do a worthwhile job if required, and I do not subscribe to the theory that the Council should authorize large expenditures to prove to the public that they are not incompetent wastrels. If there is any question about it, the remedy is at the polls."

MR. TRUSLOW: "No, but I welcome advice."

MR. REEVE: "No."

MR. BETTS: "I seriously question whether the Princeton Survey would reveal any startling deficiencies or point the way to great savings."

MR. LONG: "Yes, I do."

QUESTION 3: Will you insist on the enforcement of the recent ordinance on repair of substandard dwellings?

MR. CULLIS: "Definitely yes."

MR. HICKOK: "Yes—naturally."

MR. TRUSLOW: "Yes."

MR. REEVE: "No."

MR. BETTS: "Definitely yes, since it was the Summit Council which first presented this as a state bill, saw it through to become a state law, and then passed the necessary enabling ordinance."

MR. LONG: "I would insist on enforcement, or removal of ordinance for something that could be made effective. I have seen some of these buildings. Definitely, something should be done."

VOTE YES ON REFERENDUM

Township Dedicates New Quarters For Rescue Squad

NEW PROVIDENCE TOWNSHIP—Amid a Halloween setting Monday night, the township formally dedicated to its rescue squad the new quarters built for the latter's use. The rescue squad's quarters are a part of the municipal hall building and are accessible by two large overhanging doors to the west and through the quarters of the Berkeley Heights Volunteer Fire Co.

Mayor Anton C. Swenson, in making presentation to the rescue squad on behalf of the township committee, reminded his listeners that the squad's ambulance was purchased by public subscriptions and that he felt confident the squad would always carry on in the interests of the whole community. The quarters were accepted for the squad by its president, Raymond Murray. Mayor Swenson, in his comments, told of the interest all of the committee members had in the rescue squad. He referred to Committeemen George Robbins, Charles Monica, H. M. Kent, and Angelo M. Del Duca. Judge Joseph Mulholland, chairman of the Township's Defense Council, responded to an introduction. Also in attendance was Township Clerk W. C. Russo.

A committee of four women prepared and served refreshments. They were Mrs. George May, Mrs. Xavier Masterson, Mrs. Leslie Sawyer and Mrs. Hazel Corby.

According to Captain Francis Kerrigan of the rescue squad, the ambulance since it was put in duty last December has been used in twenty-nine different cases. Captain Kerrigan points out that the squad's ambulance is equipped with an inductor and three tanks of oxygen.

Taking a prominent place in the new headquarters is an honor roll with the names of its two members now in service: Thomas Hansen, electrician's mate second class in the Navy and Private Robert Andrus in the Navy.

Besides Captain Kerrigan, other active members of the squad include Barney Kent, Caroline May, George May, George Gula, John Law, Xavier Masterson, James Lyth, Herbert Crockett, Salvatore Del Duca, Michael Negro, Gilbert Bischoff and Matthew Fornary.

Among the guests was Otis Williams from Summit, chief observer of the tri-community observation post in New Providence Borough.

Edison Association Questions Decision Of Education Board

Parents and interested neighbors attended the first meeting of the Edison Community Association, Monday evening. After an introduction by the chairman, Mrs. W. C. Ande, Miss Margaret Baker, who has been a teacher at Edison School since its inception, in a talk illustrated by diagrams, told of the advantages of the well equipped school.

A discussion regarding the proposed sale of Edison School was followed by a tour through the building conducted by student commissioners.

It was the decision of the Association that the reasons as to why the present Board of Education seek to change the present decentralized Junior High system, thereby reducing the carefully considered long term planning of the previous Board of Education, have not as yet been clearly defined. Concern was expressed lest definite and hasty action be taken by the Board before confidence in their judgment has been justified.

The Association therefore unanimously voted to take whatever means necessary to delay such action. C. H. Forsberg, Adolpho Corradi, William McCue, O. P. Oakes, Mrs. William Rae and Franklin Deems were elected as a committee to investigate into the matter further.

A special session will be held Thursday evening, October 28, at which time a report of the committee will be given.

J. W. Duffield Will Tell Rotary Of Coming Victory

The members of the Summit Rotary Club meeting at the Y. M. C. A. last Monday, saw several movie films showing former conventions of Rotary International at Nice and Paris, France.

In addition to the interest Rotarians would have in viewing pictures of the leaders of their organization, the movies also had a historical interest as it will probably be many years before tourists will again visit these places and even then many changes will undoubtedly have occurred.

Next week the Summit Rotary Club will be host to J. W. Duffield of the New York Times Speakers' Bureau, who will speak on "The Coming Victory." Mr. Duffield has spoken to every Rotary Club in New Jersey as well as to hundreds throughout the country and in foreign lands. Rotarians are asked to invite guests, and members of Rotary Clubs in nearby towns are invited to attend.

MEN IN SERVICE

Mario Critelli, first class petty officer U.S.N. Const. Batt., writes from Southwest Pacific:

"I have been in the Navy for ten months and to tell you the truth I'm very proud to be a Navy man. I received my basic training at Camp Perry, Va., and my advance training in Port Hueneme, Cal. From Port Hueneme I was sent to the Fiji Island for three months and now I'm somewhere in the Southwest Pacific. Again I say thank you very much for the Herald."

A/S Hwang Eng writes from Dickinson College:

"My brief army life had been very pleasant and educational. At my pre-flight basic training in B.T.C. 10, Greensboro, N. C., I gave many lectures and conducted discussions for hundreds of soldiers on subjects such as the Asiatic people, politics, history, current events. Guard duty and K.P. are the darker side of my army experience.

"On Monday, October 4, I was transferred to Dickinson College and became an aviation student. Dickinson is an historical and a medium size college, attended by hundreds of aviation students plus 400 to 500 civilian (co-ed) students. The characteristics and "strategies" of aviation students in Dickinson College reminds me of the motion picture, "The Major and the Minor."

"This 32nd C.T.D. operates similar to West Point. It is impressive; discipline, neatness, and cleanliness are up to perfection. A/S are unable to see or speak to civilians during week-days. Shoes are shined six to eight times daily; clothing is cleaned, pressed, buttoned and placed in precise order at all times.

"Mathematics, physics, history, and geography constitute the main subjects taught in Dickinson as well as in all other C.T.D. Calisthenics is strongly emphasized; physical fitness is vitally important in training."

Arthur Charles Culbertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Culbertson, 27 Beckman terrace, Summit, was graduated last week from the Transportation Corps Officer Candidate School, New Orleans, and commissioned a second Lieutenant in the Army of the United States. Having successfully completed the four months training course at the only Transportation Corps OCS in this country, he has now been assigned to active duty in this, the newest branch of the Army Service Forces.

Prior to his induction into the Army, February 14, 1942, Lieutenant Culbertson was employed by American Home Products Corp., Jersey City, N. J.

Michael John Formichella, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mario Formichella, 15 Cedar street, was graduated recently from the Naval Training School (Signals) at the University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill., where he won recognition as a "qualified striker" for the rating of signalman third class.

The Bluejacket was sent to this specialty school upon the basis of recruit training aptitude test scores.

The successfully completed course included receiving and sending International code by blinker, searchlight and semaphore. He also received instruction in the use of the pelorus and navigator's range finder as well as instruction in the fundamentals of weather, tides, light, and sound, optics and electricity.

After further experience aboard a Man o' War, the active duty assignment which he is now awaiting, the Navy man will be eligible for advancement to a petty officer rating.

Receives Commission

Lt. William G. Ingram, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ingram of Lee Lane, Countryside received his commission as a bombardier in the Army Air Corps Saturday at Midland Field, Texas. Lt. Ingram is a graduate of Admiral Farragut Academy and attended the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. He is now home on a ten day leave.

Club Advisors Feted By Members At Tuesday Tea

The advisers of the Girl Reserve Clubs of the Y. W. C. A. were the guests of the Girl Reserve Committee at the Association building on Tuesday, October 26 at 4 o'clock. Mrs. A. J. Bartholomew, chairman, and Mrs. N. W. Sester, member of the committee, presided at the tea table which had been arranged by Mrs. H. M. Forster. Club advisers are adult members of the department who work in an advisory capacity with the Girl Reserve clubs, made up of Junior and Senior High School girls, in helping to plan and carry out their program as a part of the purpose of the Y. W. C. A.

During the meeting of the advisers, Mrs. Eric M. North, president of the Association, spoke of the total Association and their work in wartime in Summit. Miss Janet Lincoln, Girl Reserve secretary, spoke on technique of the work, resource material, program ideas and took those present on a tour of the building that they might be familiar with the facilities of the building in their work with the clubs.

The Girl Reserve Department, started nearly seventy years ago, grew out of the need for some kind of program in the Y. W. C. A. in a war period. The Y. W. C. A. feels that this is a very important phase of war work and those volunteers who work with these groups are doing an important war service. Young women with special skills of ability to work with girls are always needed. Mrs. Bartholomew or Miss Lincoln will be interested to talk with any young women who wish further information.

Relation of Religion And Democracy Explained To Kiwanis

The close relationship between religion and democracy was explained Tuesday to Summit Kiwanis at their weekly luncheon in the Hotel Beachwood by the Rev. Dr. Leonard V. Buschman, pastor of Central Presbyterian Church.

He prefaced his definition of democracy by stating there are many "hazy ideas" of its meaning. "Democracy," declared Mr. Buschman, "is a three-fold proposition. It recognizes the worth of the individual man. Too, in a democracy, the individual has certain rights given him by his Creator. Also, there is resident in this world certain moral values that have been put here by the Creator."

William H. Kay, Jr., general chairman for the Kiwanis annual dinner and stag party of Kiwanis to be held November 10 at the Elks Club, told the club, "the response to the sale of tickets has been gratifying. The actual sale of tickets will close next Tuesday."

WHY WERE MORTGAGES EVER "INVENTED"?

Mortgages came into existence because of the desire of so many folks to own their own homes—men and women who work steadily, but do not have enough money to pay for a home all at once. But who CAN pay for one in installments, over a period of years.

A Summit Federal Savings Mortgage makes this possible. It is "self-reducing"—each payment includes interest, taxes and a REDUCTION OF THE PRINCIPAL. These payments are made monthly, just like rent, and never exceed an amount that can be comfortably afforded.

"If this mortgage plan sounds sensible to you, won't you come in and let us tell you how it would work out in your case?"

Your vote is important this year!

Sons and brothers, husbands and fathers, are fighting on every battle front for us—dying to preserve our right to be free, to be self-governing, to elect the public officials we prefer, to say what their policies shall be.

A heritage won by the blood of the patriots of the past and defended now by brave American men and women battling in every clime is not to be tossed aside with the casual excuse of "an off year."

Suffering and death have no "off year" in war. The struggle for right and victory is ceaseless. A showery day doesn't stop it... no minor ills retard it. Life depends on constant vigilance.

Nor dare good Americans at home relax their watch over these blood-bought privileges! The ideals for which our men are fighting can be destroyed behind their backs. Indifference can shatter the highest purpose. Neglect can undermine it. Protection against all internal dangers is our responsibility.

Keep faith with our fighting men. Exercise the right they die to preserve. Vote next Tuesday.

Men and Women Over Sixty Work On Leather Goods

Summit's new industry, Barnard Stember's leather goods plant at 95 Summit avenue, is unique among such firms in that it specifically searches for employees of sixty years and over. Retired men and housewives who have not worked for many years are now at the plant occupied in the assembling and making of billfolds and pocket-books. Not one had ever done this type of work before coming to Stember's.

The work is easily accomplished by older people for it is neither tedious nor laborious. As one employee put it, "Once you catch the knack of doing it, it's more like play than work. There's nothing hard about it."

There is no stitching or tooling so there is no eye strain. Different departments cut, glue and fold the leather into billfolds and "cash caddies" for women. Employees state that they feel they are "doing a little something for the war by replacing younger folk who can do heavier work."

The number of employees fluctuates from 12 to 20. At present there are seventeen, most of them Summit residents, supervised by James S. Rude, a former railroad man, who is shop foreman. Says Mr. Rude, "Anyone with any brain at all can do the work. They just have to be careful and neat. After they've been here awhile they begin to take pride in the work and see who can do the best job."

Mr. Stember has had his plant at 95 Summit avenue for three weeks now, having started the work at 116 Summit avenue. He has been in the leather goods trade for thirty years and has been associated with Delve and Devon. He himself, trains his employees and he hopes soon to expand and to take over more space at his present location.

Old Guard Shown Hunting Pictures By Richard Lum

Richard Lum, attorney of Chatham, was guest speaker at the Tuesday meeting of the Old Guard held in the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Lum spent some time hunting and fishing in the woods and streams of Northeastern Canada, covering many secluded spots about 120 miles north of Quebec. He showed motion pictures which included scenes of camp life as well as the various activities connected with outdoor sports. From the mouse he killed, the campers made "Mooseburgers" which they claimed were not inferior to our hamburgers.

Summit Favored To Defeat Madison In Annual Game

Sports commentators of The Summit Herald and other North Jersey newspapers unanimously pick Summit High School's football team to defeat Madison High School on Saturday at Memorial Field in the annual game between these rivals of two decades. The game is scheduled to start at 2 p. m.

Last year Madison enjoyed the best year in its gridiron history, winning the Suburban Conference championship. However, a year sometimes makes considerable difference. Madison and Summit will start Saturday's tilt with each team seeking its first conference victory of this year. Each team has lost three conference games. Madison defeated Summit last year, away, to the tune of 23-5.

Looking elsewhere in the conference race, Caldwell looms as the only threat to Glen Ridge's winning this year's title. Glen Ridge faces Caldwell on Election Day in its conference schedule. Caldwell plays Verona on November 6 and Summit here on November 13 to close its conference schedule. The November 13 game will end the season for Summit, except for the annual Charles R. Scott Hi-Y banquet to honor the local school team. Plans have not been announced for this affair.

Farrell Hits Golf Shots In Tuesday's Show

Johnny Farrell, Baltusrol pro who defeated Bobby Jones for the national open championship in 1928, hit golf shots and gave some pointers to duflers in a television broadcast over the Mutual network (WOR) Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. Johnny gave a mashe niblicke demonstration with cotton balls. The former champion has been scoring well on the difficult Baltusrol course, having to his credit a 62 on the upper layout of 18 holes and 64 on the lower 18-hole course.

Steve Ellis acted as announcer on the program. Tuesday marked the first of the WOR television broadcasts.

Unbeaten Glen Ridge Wins 5th Straight, Tops Summit, 18-0

Nothing that happened at Hurler Field, Glen Ridge, on Saturday, could come under the head of surprise. Outmanned and overpowered, the maroon and white football team of Summit High School was unable to cope with the gridiron forces of Glen Ridge High School and the result was an easy 18-0 triumph for the Essex County team, its fifth victory in a row. The game ran true to form.

Quickly sensing that his charges would not defeat the Riders, Coach Elwood C. Cornog soon after the start of the game used mostly under-classesmen to keep the score as low as possible. He believes that with the experience this year gained, Summit will have a team next year that will step with the best of the teams in the Suburban Conference.

The Riders wasted little time getting started. Midway in the opening round, they took the ball, following an exchange of kicks, on the Summit 40. Seelye Romaine circled right end to the 20 and Charles Brady made his way to the 16. Romaine and Alan Corbo bucked to the three, and diminutive Frankie DIMIRO went over with the opening score.

Late in the second session, Glen Ridge drive 40 yards to the one-yard line only to lose the ball on downs. In the third period Glen Ridge broke back into the scoring column. Summit kicked to the Rider 15 and Brady ran the kick back to the 25. On first down, Romaine passed to Brady at the 45 and the latter galloped to the Summit 18 before being tackled from behind by Wiebe, Summit back. Two line plays failed and Romaine pitched a pass down the center to Frank Leonard for the second score.

Corbo, Rider back, gave the fans a thrill when he intercepted a Summit pass and raced 22 yards to the enemy 40. With Romaine, DIMIRO and Corbo bucking the Summit line, the Riders drove to the five-yard line. The drive ended when Vic Salmon, Summit back, intercepted Romaine's pass intended for Leonard.

With five minutes left to play, Coach Cartmill's charges led the game with a third touchdown. Nelson ran a Summit kick-back to the 32. Romaine plowed to the 25 and Nelson on two attempts went to the five. On the first play after first down, Palmer Dunn, sub-Rider back, broke off right tackle and romped to the tally.

High School Javees Continue Losing Ways

Summit High School's football javees lost their third straight game Monday afternoon losing 6-0 to Regional High School's javees at Springfield. Regional scored early in the second period from the two-yard line on a buck by Aldrich. A pass for the extra point was broken up. Summit made a threat in the last minute of play by moving to the 14-yard line, but Hollister fumbled and Regional recovered, ending the threat.

Annual Bargain At Golf Course

The winter rate will be in effect November 1 at Galloping Hill Golf course, Kenilworth and Union. County residents may play the 27-hole course for 50 cents and out-of-county players are to pay double that rate. The above date will continue in effect until April 1.

Summit H. S. Booters Defeat East Orange For 2nd Straight Win

Summit High School's soccer team chalked up its second victory of the current season on Friday when it defeated East Orange, away, 1-0, on a muddy, rain soaked field.

Summit attained its goal soon after the half way mark in the first period when Summit's Lee Howard, the right inside, kicked the only goal of the contest. From then on it was a see-saw battle with Summit getting a slight edge. Summit drove down field a number of times but was never able to capitalize on these drives.

Bob Duncan, Summit's goalie, was a big factor in turning back East Orange. Asks Benefit Game Between High School And Oratory School

Harvey J. Gannon, 133 Summit avenue, a graduate of Summit High School and associated in recent years with Merck & Co. in its railway plant, writes:

"I would like to suggest that Summit High and Oratory School book a football game this Thanksgiving for the benefit of our boys from Summit who are in the services. The money collected at this game could be used to defray part of the expenses for the Honor Roll of boys and girls in service from Summit."

One observer puts it this way about Oratory School's football team: "Maybe I'm wrong—but have you ever heard of a school with an enrollment of 95 putting out a team and a real good one, too, with a squad of 20? To see the boys in practice session is a treat. Their line play is teeth rattling, their tackling sharp, their blocking enthusiastic, although a bit unpolished."

About two weeks ago Oratory School played their first game against Holy Trinity High School of Westfield and lost 14-6, missing a touchdown chance by being declared off-side on the two-yard line. Oratory School is having trouble booking games because it's new to football. The line averages 150 pounds and the backfield 150.

Watchung Riders In Paper Chase Next Saturday

The Watchung Stables at Summit, Union county's popular equestrian center, is enjoying a busy autumn season. Troop classes meet during the week on afternoons and Saturdays ride with full groups.

The Watchung troops, organized several years ago, have developed many good riders. Trooper Jean Damitz of Millburn won the Maclay cup at the Rock Spring show last week and finished second to Al Torek in the horsemanship championship. Other members of the advanced troop groups who won ribbons recently include Donald Mitchell, Miss Betty Smith and Miss Renate Oppenheimer, all of Summit.

The first meeting of the Watchung paper chase will be held at the clubhouse Saturday. Beginning at 2:30 o'clock, the members of the chase will follow a trail through the reservation. In the field will be Doug Bailey, Tom Mason, Mrs. Virginia Thackeray and Mrs. Ruth Tully. These "hunts" will be held every Saturday in the autumn.

OUR SCHOOL SYSTEM

The following was prepared by a committee appointed to develop a statement on the philosophy of the Summit elementary schools.

"We believe the elementary school is essentially a place to learn the fundamentals of social behavior, to develop appreciation, and attitudes, and to master the fundamental skills and knowledge."

"In order to assure security and develop stability, the elementary school program should be routine with enough elasticity to take advantage of opportunities for enrichment."

"We believe in a program for health and physical development and that a healthy body is conducive to a healthy mind. We believe in the principles of mental hygiene and the adjustment of individual emotional personalities."

"We believe these are the paths that lead children to acquire emotional control and poise necessary for happy living."

"Teaching and teacher are inseparable. Optimism, patience, sympathetic understanding, and inspiration are indispensable qualities of acceptable leadership."

"Every child is creative, and we believe that we should furnish opportunities which will open new worlds to him. The message in great paintings, sculpture, music, dancing, literature, and nature, are not fully appreciated until he has created something that is his own."

"Finally, we believe in a spirit of tolerance and appreciation of all creeds, races, and nationalities. We believe in international good will and world peace. We fervently believe in the basic principles of our American democracy and in an understanding of those principles and responsibilities which will perpetuate these United States of America."

Ralph Hall Writes Parents of Customs In Fiji Islands

Private Ralph Hall, who has recently left the Fiji Islands for an unannounced destination, has written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Hall, of 36 DeForest avenue, "a bit about the islands" as follows:

"It is now possible to inform you of the place we were stationed at before coming to this new island. The island we were stationed on was Fiji. To get there one must cross the International Date Line and what was Wednesday becomes Thursday. As if that weren't disturbing enough you find it is now mid-winter in these parts, a mild, cool season that begins in June and lasts through most of September. It's no wonder most GIs here call these, 'The Islands of Uter Confusion!'

"You can find the Fijis on most any map if you look hard enough. They may be just a wee pinpoint but nevertheless they are there. The Fijis are very interesting in a way. There we find many customs which are quite different from those we find back home.

"Now a bit about the islands. As you may know the Fijis are under British control. There are many islands in the Fiji group but the largest of them is Viti Levu. The Capitol of the Fijis, Suva, is located on this island. The town of Suva may be called definitely English from the traveller's point of view. Many of the buildings are modern but there are others which date back to many years ago. The traffic runs on the wrong side of the road and the English make of cars have the steering wheel on the 'wrong' side, that is comparing them to our American cars.

"To enforce the law, the British have native Fijians as policemen. They are a colorful lot with their black bushy hair and picturesque uniforms. They have a blue blouse, a red sash around the waist and a white skirt serrated at the bottom which comes down to the knees. Imagine our surprise to follow a 'skirt' down the street only to find it was a policeman. They are very husky persons and it wouldn't pay to tangle with them.

"Walking down the streets you see black Molanestians, Indians, Chinese, New Zealanders, Australians and Englishmen. Drug stores are called 'chemists', steaks without fried eggs on top are unthinkable—coffee is deplorable, ice cream rare and 'tea' is an excellent excuse for knocking off work just about any hour of the day. The daily newspaper carries most of the advertisements on the first page.

"Suva, however, is not the only town on the island. There are the towns of Nadi, Lautoka and Sigatoka, and a score of little places which may be classified as villages but those I mentioned are the most important. All of the island is not made up of cities. There are places which I imagine white men have never seen.

"Travel on this island is limited to trucks and foot. We made several trips around the island and some places in the road were pretty precarious. It looked as though we were up in the middle of nowhere where we were. At times it seemed as though we were travelling in our own Rocky Mountains. There is an abundance of rainfall maybe 20 inches in 24 hours, usually 10 to 20 feet a year, and of course, we were on the wettest island in the group.

"Now a little bit about some of the natives. Until several generations ago the Fijians were in the head hunting business. At the present they are quite civilized. I certainly wouldn't like the idea of being around if they were not that way. The natives are generally called 'Bulas' because their greeting to you is 'Bula', which is shortened Fijian for 'Bula Vanaka', meaning 'long life to you'. When some of them wanted a cigarette, and they usually did, they would say these words, 'Bula, Joe, cigarette.' Everybody is 'Joe' to them. They are great spongers. American soldiers have been Americanizing them and golly what results.

"The women are another topic again. If anyone back home thinks they are beauties as Hollywood would have you believe they are mistaken. Their particular pride is their hair. It is not an uncommon sight to see some with colored hair such as red, yellow, orange or blue, or maybe all four. You can well imagine the contrast it makes to their dark skin. The principle purpose for coloring their hair is not mainly for dyeing but also for doing away with 'mechanized dandruff', to the layman lice, cooties or other objectionable insects. Occasionally you see a young woman with her head shaved. She is a woman of sin and her punishment, dealt out to her by her village chief or 'rahi', is the loss of her hair.

Private Harry Sommo, of Summit, writes he has moved out of Camp Berkeley, Texas, to Los Angeles, for desert training. He adds, "I am beginning to feel like a gypsy. Lt. George H. Martin Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Martin of Euclid avenue has been selected from the 343rd Medical Group stationed at Madison Barracks, N. Upon completion of the course he will rejoin the 343rd Medical Group to take up his new duties as staff officer.

"The natives as a rule go bare-footed and many of the English children follow their example. They either like to run around that way or it is because there is a shortage of shoes, which is quite possible in times like these. While we were stationed near the town of Lautoka, there were some Australian people who treated us like one of their own. A number of times we were invited to 'tea' and the word 'tea' happened to mean a whole meal, too.

"One of the oddities I saw was an Indian boy who had more fingers on his hands and more toes on his feet than the ordinary human being.

"There is an abundance of mosquitoes, insects and other kinds of creatures which make life miserable. Occasionally you take cover from what seems to be a dive bomber but investigation discloses the pesky 'censored' mosquito. But that is about all I can say for now on the subject. At another time I'll give another travelog on the isles of the South Pacific."

Private Anthony Piraneo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Piraneo, of 24 Chestnut avenue, is now serving with the U. S. Marine Corps and is stationed at Parris Island, S. C., for his basic training. He has a brother Joseph who was decorated for action with the Marines at Midway, receiving the Distinguished Flying Cross. The latter was reported "missing in action and presumed lost."

Anthony says, "They got one of my brothers. When I get the chance I'll get even. The new Marine has five brothers and three sisters who are Frank, John, Joseph (missing), Sofia, He-man, Lucy, Virginia and Mary, all of Summit. Herman, who will soon be 17, has a desire to join the Marines."

Pvt. William Thoele writes from Camp Crowder, Mo., that he is nearing completion of his basic training with one week to go. He says, "It really is a good physical fitness program and I enjoyed every bit of it. After basic we started our specialized training in our particular fields. I like the camp very much as it affords plenty of variety for our spare time activities. We have movies, all kinds of sports, recreation halls and the like to keep us busy."

Pvt. William E. Thomson the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Thomson of 117 Tully street, has arrived at the Greensboro Basic Training Center, Army Air Forces Eastern Technical Training Command, Greensboro, N. C.

While attached to this station Pvt. Thomson will undergo a course in physical conditioning and instruction in military fundamentals.

He was formerly employed by Firemen's Insurance Co. of Newark.

Lt. John Owens, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Owens of Summit, was promoted recently from a second to a first lieutenant in the Adjutant General's Department. He is stationed at Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

Richard A. Ralph, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Ralph of Hawthorne place, has been classified an aviation cadet and sent to Nashville, Tenn., for training. For the past five months he has been at the Tower of Learning, Pittsburg, Pa., as an aviation student.

Corp. Roland P. Beattie, 2nd, having successfully completed his course at the Air Forces Officer Candidate School at Miami Beach, Fla., has received his commission as 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Forces of the Army of the United States. His duties will be to direct vital administrative and supply operations of the rapidly expanding Army Air Forces ground forces, thus relieving trained pilots for full time flying duty.
