Overlook Hospital Blood Bank Reports For First 6 Months

In the absence of Dr. Camille Mermod, who was to have spoken to the Overlook Women's Auxiliary at their meeting on Monday, January 21, Mrs. Ruth Northrop, secretary of the Overlook Blood Bank, spoke of the work of the Blood Bank. Mrs. Northrop said that the bank was started in June, 1945, with volunteer donors. In the first six months, 190 transfusions were given while in the previous six months before the organization of the blood bank, 120 transfusions had taken place. In the last six months 264 people have had their blood typed and 229 have donated blood. There have been 142 replacements. Donors are given a three year credit of $30 with the blood bank, a credit which can be drawn against at any time within that space of time. A person not a donor, receiving a transfusion of whole blood, pays $30 plus a $10 service charge. Upon his bringing in a donor to replace the blood within 30 days, he is refunded $30. There is a blood bank meeting every Wednesday at 5:30 and appointments can be made ahead of time by those wishing to have their blood typed and to donate blood if it is needed at the time.

Local Support In Dime Drive Is Encouraging

Contributions to the March of Dimes campaign in Summit are very encouraging, Daniel J. Fitzpatrick, local chairman, announced yesterday. Funds will be used to finance the fight against infantile paralysis. Coin collection boxes have been distributed to stores throughout the city and solicitations are now being made by members of the committee, which, in addition to those announced last week, also include John E. Neville, John J. Murray, and Sister Rose Vincenzoni, principal of St. Teresa's School. The Charles R. Scott Hi-Y club has again taken the responsibility of conducting the March of Dimes drive in all of the public schools. Summit Lions Club following a practice of many years having again formed themselves into a committee of their own to solicit funds. To clarify a statement made last week about contributions, Chairman Fitzpatrick explains that while all checks should be made payable to Mrs. Reginald Pearson, treasurer, of 316 Summit avenue, contributions can be made to any member of the committee. Chairman Fitzpatrick points out that special efforts are required this year and that he hopes Summit will respond generously to the appeal. Reports show that cases in New Jersey last year numbered 982, many of which will require months of hospitalization and treatment. Patients carried over from previous years must also be provided treatment. The National Foundation and New Jersey chapter has spent $321,111.67 to care for poliomyelitis patients in this state during 1945; $52,500 was forwarded by the national organization to underwrite salaries of nurses through the New Jersey crippled children commission. In addition to this local chapters spent $288,611.67 for hospitalization, special equipment, transportation of patients, medical and nursing services. One-half of all contributions to the March of Dimes remains with the local chapters of the National Foundation. The rest goes into the national organization for scientific research, education and epidemic aid. According to Chairman Fitzpatrick it is the policy of national that "no infantile paralysis patient shall go without care and treatment for lack of money."

Fast Change Artist Specializes In $20 Bills, Police Warn

Summit police yesterday issued a warning about a "fast change" artist who succeeded this week in working the old "flim-flam" game on a Summit merchant who lost $20 to a man who announced himself as "Dr. Swartz." The genial doctor usually appears in stores early in the morning at a time when merchants are short of change. He then proceeds to make a small purchase amounting to few cents and offers the $20 bill in payment. The doctor also asked, "Don't you remember me? I have been away about five years. Oh yes, I did take on a little weight." The sharpster mentioned a recent boat on which he returned to this country. Then in the interim, the visitor suddenly discovered a $5 bill which he prefers in case the merchant can't make the $20 change. Police describe "Dr. Swartz" as about five feet, 11 inches, with brown eyes, black hair, wearing dark overcoat, and brown pants. Anyone seeing such a person should call Police Headquarters immediately, Su. 6-0052.

Mr. Turner has graciously offered to make his resignation effective at the pleasure of the board. A committee has been appointed to secure a new director.

Estimated local school taxes for 1946 are $425,728 as compared to last year's $398,856. General county taxes for the current year are estimated at $218,510.41, the same as for last year. State school taxes are estimated at $90,182.62 the same in 1945. State and county taxes are estimated because 1246 budgets are not yet fixed. Postponed capital expenditures for which surplus has accrued are listed as follows: purchase of land, $16,537.50; Police Department, car, equipment and accessories, $6,041; Fire Department, car equipment and accessories, $3,380; Street Department, truck and sweeper; Garbage and Ash Department, truck, coupe and modernizing equipment, $7,850; Board of Recreation, shelter house, equipment and accessories; Board of Health, car, $1,100; Free Public Library, survey, $500; public buildings and grounds, $1,800. For details on the proposed appropriations during the current year, the reader is asked to refer to the complete statement of the budget published elsewhere in the Herald as a legal advertisement.

Class Prejudice Is Mental Disease, Says Dr. Miller

The problem of controlling racial prejudice was presented to a Parent-Teacher Association meeting at the High School on Monday night, January 21, when a film titled, "Americans All," sponsored by the "March of Time," was shown, followed by an address by Dr. Clyde R. Miller, professor at Teachers College, Columbia University and originator of "Springfield Plan," program for democratic education. Dr. Miller cautioned his audience against a rise in the tide of racial prejudice which, he said, can easily expand to the proportions of a national disease, similar to that which swept Germany with the advent of National Socialism in 1932 and which Dr. Miller had an opportunity to study when he visited Germany in that year. Upon returning to the United States, he began developing a technique to cope with the contagion, and in 1937, with the help of Edward Filene, founded the Institution of Propaganda Analysis. "Mental diseases are today more dangerous than epidemics, because owing to our widespread system of communications, an idea can circle the world in less time than it takes light to travel," asserted Dr. Miller. "Today groups of people, unaware of the fatal consequences (Continued on page 6)

Human Engineering Foundation Holds Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of Human Engineering Foundation was held at the Hotel Beechwood on January 19. The following members of the Board of Trustees were present: Prof. Irving Fisher, New Haven, Conn.; Dr. Jesse M. Gehman, Paterson; John W. Hornsey, Jr., Philadelphia; Blake Snyder, Caldwell; Harry Merdinger (proxy Henry Katz); James Watson, all of Mount Vernon, N. Y.; Elmer G. Houston, and Howard B. Bishop, Summit. The following trustees whose term expired were re-elected for three years: Messrs. Houston, Snyder and Watson. H. Walter Martin of Summit was elected as trustee for three years. The officers elected for 1946 were: Mr. Bishop, president; Mr. Hornsey, Jr., vice-president; Mr. Watson, treasurer; Mr. Houston, secretary, and Josephine Rack, assistant secretary. During the past year $7,920.77 were expended in educational work introducing to the people of America and many foreign countries "A Formula for a Better Way of Life." Dr. Arthur H. Steinhaus, formerly Professor of Physiology at George Williams College, Chicago, and more recently Chief of the Division of Physical Education and Health Activities in the U. S. Office of Education, was a guest of the meeting and spoke on the health educational program of the Robinson Foundation with which he and Professor Fisher are now associated. It is expected that the co-operative efforts of the many foundations and individuals interested in the field of human betterment will greatly broaden the activities of the Human Engineering Foundation and hasten the acceptance by the public of a Better Way of Life.

Economic Freedom Subject Offered By Frank Chodorov

An analysis of contemporary economics with its consequent repercussions in the political arena, was presented on Thursday night, January 17, by Frank Chodorov, editor of "Analysis," who spoke on, "Do We Really Want Freedom?" before the Men's Club at the Community Church parish house. "The present situation is symptomatic of a state of affairs which has been developing for a long time and for which our absence of a concept of freedom is responsible," Mr. Chodorov believes. "Our concept of freedom, to which only lip service is now being paid, was originally based, when the Constitution was adopted, on the assumption that freedom was an inalienable right of the individual, conferred by God, and inherent in every man's right to live. The Constitution represented the first great experiment in which authority came from the people and not from a highly centralized authority. Over a period of years this concept has undergone alterations until freedom has come to mean anything consistent with the conditions to which we have grown accustomed. An indication of this is noticeable in certain political ideas which no longer arouse the antagonism they once provoked because they have now become incorporated in our system. "The insidious process, involving the concentration of power and control in the hands of the government, has been developing until a point has been reached in which affairs have become so tangled, that the best way to deal with the present crisis is for Mr. Truman and Congress to go on a protracted fishing trip. The government is top-heavy with countless superfluous offices occupied by people unwilling to forego their jobs and salaries. Through failure of the New Deal's planned economy, the Democratic party, in order to stay in office, resorted to political practices known to Pericles over 2,000 years ago. Its failure to solve economic ills has led to a situation in which the people (Continued on Page 8)

Getting Along With Former Allies Hard Part Of Peace

"It is easy to see who wins a war, but it is not easy to see who wins a peace," Gilbert Can't told the Fortnightly Club, Wednesday afternoon, January 16, in the High school. "In war we know our enemies, and do not have to think about getting along with them. And there is no question about getting along with our allies—we have to do it some way. "But when peace comes, such easy categories become complicated. We are faced with the problem of getting along with all nations, and getting along with our former allies is as difficult as with our former enemies." We have finally allowed an Italian government to be set up in that country, with practically no power. The United States government has been more willing to deal with the old extreme right—to support the old crowd that supported Mussolini—a course that will bring into power a "strong man," and before long something remarkably like Fascism. The situation in Germany is vastly more dangerous and complicated, with its four zones of occupation. The best solution would be for us to make Germany a much better place to live in than it was under Hitler, thus gaining the cooperation of the anti-Nazis, the speaker went on. A Carthaginian peace is not possible for civilized nations to put into effect today. Even the destruction of Germany's industry would be foolish, as it would strip (Continued on page 6)

Lay Committee Gives School Housing Report

The Lay Committee on Education has prepared a comprehensive report covering improvement and expansion of Summit's school housing facilities. This report represents a year and a half of fact finding and study. Pamphlets containing the summarized statements and recommendations are being distributed to all organizations represented on the committee. Additional copies may be obtained at Hamilton School in Springfield avenue by interested citizens. Thursday afternoon Summit Teachers' Association held a meeting in Lincoln School to hear the report. Mrs. Arnold Vogt, a teacher from Brayton School and a member of the committee since its origin, presented the summary and answered detailed questions from the original report of more than 30 pages. Committee working procedures were also explained. The Teachers' Association officially endorsed the recommendations and the secretary was directed to inform the Lay Committee. If the report of the Lay Committee meets the approval of the membership of the cooperating organizations, it is planned to submit this to the Board of Education as representing the wishes of this proportion of Summit's citizens. A resume of the committee's findings follows:

Adult Non-Fiction Totals Almost Half Fiction Circulation

In her annual report for 1945 for the Summit Free Public Library, to the Board of Directors on January 8, Miss Emilie Hill submitted figures showing that almost half the circulation of adult books were of non-fiction, which about maintains the proportion of last year. The actual increase in each of the two categories circulated was 1,090 for non-fiction and 2,690 for fiction. The adult non-fiction, circulated in order of popular demand, leaves science, philosophy, and religion on the bottom, as usual; with history and biography switching places in first and second positions. Literature maintained its 3rd place standing, while travel and useful arts exchanged 5th and 7th positions. All these are in relation to 1944. 1945 1944 Biography History Literature Literature Fine Arts Travel Useful Arts Sociology Sociology Science Philosophy Religion Religion Juvenile fiction shows a decrease in circulation of 1,267 and juvenile non-fiction an increase of 308. ## Seek Neighborhood House As Recreation Center

Common Council has received a letter from the Board of Recreation under date of January 22 asking that consideration be given to the purchase of the Neighborhood House in Morris avenue as a public recreation center. The letter follows: "At the meeting of the Board of Recreation Commissioners held Monday, January 21, 1946, letters were received from: Ciba, Arocast, Washington School Parent-Teacher Association, and a petition signed by 21 ex-servicemen, requesting the Board to consider operation of the Neighborhood House as a Recreation Community Center. The Board feels this building would provide facilities for a well-rounded community recreation program for citizens living in North Summit. The Board is giving this matter very careful study and consideration and requests the Common Council to give careful consideration in acquiring this property for public recreation use. "These letters and petition are prompted by the fact that the Presbyterian Church has announced that they are going to dispose of the property." A spokesman for Arocast Corp. of Morris avenue declares that "Since the Presbyterian Church is disposing of their property in North Summit and is being acquired by the city it would make a very desirable place for recreation purposes." Mrs. Harry M. Reed, secretary of the Washington P.T.A. writes: "As Secretary of the Washington School Parent-Teacher Association, I should like to express our views in regard to the disposal of the Neighborhood House. We feel that there is a great need in this section for a Recreation Center and would like to see this property bought by the City of Summit and developed along these lines under the direction of the Board of Recreation. In these critical post-war days we should, I think, spare no effort in providing activities to interest the young people. The more opportunities there are for planned recreation in a community, the less juvenile delinquency there is likely to be." Secretary K. H. Brett-Surman of Ciba Pharmaceutical Products, Inc., states: "I have heard that the Neighborhood House is to be offered to the City for a supplementary recreation center, and of course this is a matter of considerable interest to the residents of this part of North Summit surrounding our plant, many of whom are our employees." A petition signed by 21 ex-servicemen states: "We are all veterans of World War II, residents of North Summit, and regular users of the facilities provided by the Neighborhood House. We feel that the citizens of North Summit, young and old, should have (Continued on Page 8)

An ordinance putting more restrictions on canvassers which was introduced at the January 15 meeting of Common Council will be given a public hearing, Tuesday, February 5. Canvassers have carried only identification cards issued by the police chief and renewed daily. Under the new ordinance the permit must carry the canvasser's photograph and other data, including finger-prints. The ordinance will not apply to charitable campaigns.

Victory Clothing Collection Goes "Over The Top"

"You will be gratified to know that your cooperative effort has put the Summit Victory Clothing Collection over in grand style!" is the message to the people of Summit this week of Salem Borujay, vice-president of the Lions Club, who was chairman of the city's general committee. He said that more than 30,000 pieces of clothing had been deposited at the various public schools and at St. Teresa's School by the contributors. In a prepared statement to Summit residents, Chairman Borujay said: "As Summit's Victory Clothing Collection has so splendidly concluded, I am filled with admiration and gratitude for the enterprise and great good will that you—so many of you for the second time within a year—have brought to this vital effort on behalf of the victims of war. You have given added living testimony to the world that the cities and towns of America have not forgotten the sacrifices of our allies nor the common objectives which we have formulated with them in the second World War." Chairman Borujay especially mentioned for commendation in the drive the workers of the various P.T.A.'s, the Board of Education, the principals of the various schools including St. Teresa's, church workers, Ciba Pharmaceutical Products, Inc., McGregor Sportswear, Mayor Maxwell Lester, Jr., Howell Bros., and The Summit Herald.

Boy Scout Film Shown at Rotary Club on Monday
James E. Boyer, Scout executive of the Watchung Area Boy Scouts, of which the Summit District is a member, gave a short resume of scouting and showed moving pictures of scouts in their progress from cub pack members to the final attaining of their highest merit badges.

Scouting was started thirty-six years ago in this country by Dan Baird, and Mr. Boyer said the Boy Scout movement had emerged from World War II bigger than ever. He said that during the year 506 boys had joined scout troops in the area, representing a 12 per cent gain. Mr. Boyer also said that 146 men made scouting possible in the area.

The speaker was introduced by Henry W. Harding, of the Program Committee.

Two new members, Robert O. Peterson of the Citizens Trust Company and Leonard E. Best, member of the Board of Education, were inducted into the club by the Rev. Walter O. Kinsolving.

Guests introduced by W. Gilbert Baker were Dr. Harry Hays, a member of the local Kiwanis Club; Ralph Seymour of Millburn, Leon

Trio Recovering From Accident In Mountainside
Two Summit boys and their companion from Berkeley Heights are recovering from an accident reported the morning of January 15 by Patrolman Frank Salzer of Mountainside.

At 12:45 a. m. of that day while covering Sky Top drive in the neighboring town, Patrolman Salzer came upon a 1940 Buick with front end buried in a bank where Sky Top drive meets New Providence road. The Buick driven by Hugo Oswald, a returned serviceman age 23, of Diamond Hill road, New Providence Township, did not make the turn into New Providence road for some reason, although the officers reported the road in good condition. The whole front end of the car as well as the steering gear were smashed. The car is owned by Oswald's father, Otto Oswald, a motor vehicle inspector. The two were returning from Plainfield.

Patrolman Salzer took Mr. Oswald and his two passengers, Tom Challen, 18, of Morris Avenue, Summit, an employee at the Summit post office, and Jack Hanville, 18, of Baltusrol place, a senior at Summit High School, to Overlook Hospital. Mr. Oswald suffered injuries to his mouth, teeth, nose and body, but was released to go home on account of lack of room at the hospital. Mr. Challen also suffered cuts about the eyes, nose and face, and had leg and body injuries, but was released due to lack of room. Mr. Hanville was detained, condition fair with cuts about the face and other injuries.

Guido Forster Tells Old Guard Of War Activity
From his many experiences as a naval commander, Summit's former mayor, Guido Forster, selected a few in the South Pacific for his talk to the Old Guard Tuesday morning, January 22. Placed in charge of the naval base on the French Island of New Caledonia in February, 1944, he remained there until the following December. During this time he was able to do much in the development of the island, which is about the size of New Jersey. Among these improvements were a large draining operation, the paving of roads, and the establishment of a good ramp.

He also established a general store, which made a profit of about $120,000 in ten months, which was used for the benefit of the personnel, and a library of 6,000 books. When the "Miss Ellihu Thompson" was mined, he directed its salvaging, and, some time later, he took a number of troops to the battle of Leyte. The Commander's visits to several Australian cities, especially its capital, Canberra, were described.

At the close of the talk, Stephen Collins offered the rising vote of thanks. At the luncheon Commander Forster passed around the pennant which had been flown from his transport "Napa" to Iwo Jima, where many wounded marines were cared for. He has been asked to tell about this at a later date.

Before the talk, Thomas N. Coney was elected to membership. Reports were given of the tenth anniversary of the Elizabeth Chapter on January 18, and the secretary announced a special Old Guard broadcast on WOR next Monday, January 28, at 10:15 a. m. on the Bessie Beatty program, when representatives of the Summit, Plainfield, and Westfield chapters will be interviewed.

At the meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 22, at 10:30 a. m., "Bill" Loane will lead the January Birthday Bunch. The speaker will be Dossert Bassett, of the Veterans' Hospital on the subject, "Recreation for the Veterans of Two Wars." Retired men are specially invited.

New Recreation Center Approved By Kiwanis Club
Summit Kiwanis Club went on record Tuesday by unanimous vote endorsing the action of the Board of Recreation in its asking Common Council to purchase the Neighborhood House in Morris Avenue from Central Presbyterian Church as a recreation center.

Kiwanian George Booruy made the motion for the club's action. He pointed out "the inestimable influence the Neighborhood House has exercised over the young people in North Summit." He declared it would be tragic to have the services at the center discontinued, pointing out what he believes to be "the urgent need of a recreation center in North Summit."

The club through Carl Marwan, its attendance chairman, made awards to various members for attendance records. One year 100 per cent attendance emblems were received by Frank Allen, Arthur Becker, Robert Brough, T. W. Coleman, Spencer M. Maben, Arthur Soderberg, and Dr. Harry Hays. Two-year emblems were awarded Dr. E. P. Leonard and William G. Savage, President Hudson Martin, William H. Kay, Jr., and William Lucas received emblems for three years perfect attendance; Harlan S. Kenney one for 11 years. Special honors for attendance were given John Kentz and Albert G. Dennis, who haven't missed attendance for 17 years.

Chairman Elmer Houston of the annual ladies' night scheduled for Tuesday night at Chi-am-Charon announced that a "banner attendance" is expected. The club will celebrate its 22nd anniversary March 19. At Tuesday's meeting the club contributed $10.35 towards the Summit polo fund drive.

Ciba Employees Receive Long-Service Awards

Long-service awards were presented to 126 employees of Ciba Pharmaceutical Products, Inc., by J. J. Brodbeck, president, at a ceremony held recently at the Ciba plant in Summit.

Gold watches and diamond pins were presented to Sebastiano Terranova, shipping department, who has been with the company since April, 1919, and to Harry A. Kenney, head of the hospital sales division, who joined the organization in 1920.

Awards for service of from twenty to twenty-five years were given to Veronica Brier, William Collins, Charles Dublin, Eldridge Duck, Lester Neil and Joseph Scott. Among twenty-five recipients of awards for service between fifteen and twenty years were J. J. Brodbeck, pres.; Vincent A. Burgher and Norman F. Storm, vice-presidents; Walter Bluntschli, plant service manager; A. Douglas Brewer, advertising manager; Howard Belden, director of convention activities; Glenn Baker, Western Division manager, and R. J. Horlock, manager of the Mid-Western division.

Eighteen employees received awards for service of between 10 and 15 years, and eighty-four for service of between 5 and 10 years. A distinctive gold lapel pin is worn by employees who have earned this symbol of the Company's appreciation for services well and faithfully performed. The Ciba monogram appears in a raised design on the pin which is adorned with jewels depending on the length of service: three diamonds for 25 years; two rubies for 20 years; three pearls for 15 years; one ruby for 10 years, and one pearl for 5 years.

The award ceremony took place in one of the new buildings just completed at the rear of the laboratories, with Granville B. Jacobs, director of personnel, as master of ceremonies. The national anthem was sung by Miss Ruth Meury and musical entertainment after the ceremony was provided by Loretto Paladino, Adam Weck and Al Lang.

Illustrated Talk At Winter Meeting Of S. A. R. Here

The winter meeting of Passaic Valley Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, was held at the home of John D. Hood, on Tuesday evening, January 15, with President F. Monroe de Seiding in the chair. In the absence of the chaplain, the invocation was pronounced by Harry A. Marshall. Salutes to the flag were led by a guest, John Douglas Alden, historian of New Jersey Society S.A.R.

A proposition to distribute copies of the Constitution to recently naturalized citizens of Summit was tabled, and a letter from Hon.

Clifford P. Case, Representative from the Sixth District of New Jersey, was read, in which the statement was made that he favored joining in a movement that December 15 of each year be proclaimed Bill of Rights Day.

Historian Alden was called upon for a few words and related some of the incidents that took place in the State of New Jersey during the Revolutionary War.

After the meeting Mr. Hood gave a talk on Henry Ford's Dearborn Village, illustrating his remarks with colored pictures, among which were the Kentucky Court House where Abraham Lincoln presided as judge, a red brick railroad station that figured in the early career of Thomas A. Edison and the white frame farm cottage where Ford was born and lived as a boy.

Watching Scout Meeting To Be Held At Chemical Plant

Samuel G. Hibben of Montclair will address several hundred Boy Scout men and their wives at the 33rd annual meeting of the Watchung Area Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, to be held on Saturday, January 26, at the Calco Chemical Plant in Bound Brook. This meeting will represent an innovation in that it is the first time in this area that an industrialist will be the speaker in an industrial plant before a meeting of this kind. Watchung Council officials have stated that the holding of this meeting in an industrial plant is in recognition of the unusually fine cooperation given the Watchung Council by corporations in this area.

Marking the first time the annual Council meeting has been held in the Bound Brook District, District Chairman, Raymond L. Cassell, Vice-Chairman Ralph C. Carmen and Bernard J. Hayden, District Commissioner Herbert G. White are developing local plans to entertain a record gathering of more than 400 persons expected for the 6:45 p. m. dinner.

Samuel G. Hibben was chosen as speaker for the occasion not alone because of his reputation as a speaker and his industrial connections, but because of his interest in youth and its preparation to take its place in the business and industrial world. Mr. Hibben is known as the man who engineered the lighting of the Statue of Liberty, the Washington Monument, and was instrumental in arranging the lighting for the two world fairs. Mr. Hibben, who has served the government in two world wars and has recently returned from a tour of Europe, will discuss Scouting as a world force, which will be in keeping with the theme of the 38th Anniversary Celebration of the Boy Scouts of America, "Scouts of the World, Building Together."

James C. Whyte of Bernardsville, president of the Watchung Area Council, will preside at the meeting and the agenda will include the election of Council Officers, Executive Board, Member-at-Large, and delegates to the National Council. A new Constitution and By-Laws is also slated for adoption.

The Committee on program arrangements and ticket sales includes Harry A. Sutton of Summit avenue.

Billions For Housing

Life insurance companies now have more than $4,000,000,000 invested in mortgages covering homes and housing for American families, an all-time peak for such financing aid. The companies are now prepared for a still greater role in post-war housing. At least one billion dollars will be available for new mortgages each year in the early post-war years.

Women's Auxiliary Hears Mrs. R. Miller On Newfoundland

"Seldom-Come-By," the name of a small harbor on the east coast of Newfoundland, England's oldest colony, is an unfrequented and remote spot, Mrs. Robert Miller told members of Overlook Women's Auxiliary on Monday, January 21, at the Nurses' Home. Its remoteness was typical of the island of Newfoundland itself, which, though only seven hours from the mainland by plane, sometimes takes three weeks to reach by boat, owing to fog and infrequent sailings.

Newfoundland, although in the same latitude as England, has a cold climate, because the Labrador current flows near the coast. The main industries are fishing and lumbering. There are no roads in northern Newfoundland, so in the summer people can travel only by boat, but in winter the dog teams pack down a track and travel goes on by land.

The Grenfell mission was started about 50 years ago by Dr. Grenfell, who founded a hospital on the coast. He soon realized the need of preventative health measures and education, and as soon as possible, he set up schools, orphanages, and industries, such as the making of hooked rugs and ivory carvings. This enabled the people to supplement their meager incomes which might range from $200 to $1,000 a year.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Miller had been in Newfoundland earlier with the Grenfell Association. Mrs. Miller taught there one summer and Dr. Miller had gone as physician with the sealing fleet. Both had enjoyed their experiences and had hoped that some day they could go back together. The opportunity came last year and the Miller family spent 15 months in Newfoundland.

The association runs a model farm and dairy and cooperative stores. The clothing store, which deals in new and used garments, fills a vital need of the island, Mrs. Miller said. The clothes are paid for by services rendered rather than by money.

The Grenfell Hospital in St. Anthony, where Dr. Miller was the surgeon, is a modern, fireproof building with 80 beds. There are also two annexes, one of which is for tubercular patients. Tuberculosis is quite prevalent, and there is a need for a large hospital just for those afflicted with the disease. Dr. and Mrs. Miller found the hospital run on informal lines but kept in a spotless condition. It was the only hospital having radium.

The personnel of the hospital in normal times consists of three doctors, but for three months Dr. Miller was the only physician for an area of 400 miles; four trained nurses, some aides who had been trained by the nurses, and a hospital secretary. Many patients were victims of sawmill accidents. There was much malnutrition and some scurvy and beriberi. Always Mrs. Miller said, the patients were appreciative and cheerful.

Besides the hospitals the Grenfell Association runs several nursing stations where first aid is given and clinics are held. At one station the nurse in charge delivered 600 babies during the year, as well as supervising canning, especially salmon, running the clothing store and conducting church services.

During the summer Dr. and Mrs. Miller cruised along the coast of Labrador in a hospital ship, Mrs. Miller assisting as nurse. The living conditions on the coast are hard with the ground too rocky to grow potatoes. Always the people struggle against nature. Their diet consists at times of bread, tea, and occasionally a little fish. Many cases of tuberculosis were uncovered and, on the insistence of Dr. Miller, the men were released from their fishing contracts and were hospitalized.

Mrs. Miller said the people are well worth helping, and that the association is doing an impressive job.

Tea was served by members of the Junior League with Mrs. W. H. Cox, chairman.

Danish Friend Expresses Thanks For Christmas Gift

Among holiday mail reaching the United States from Europe, were two letters written by a young Dane, who as a youth of 17, visited a family in Summit during the summer of 1939. His friends here, wishing to give him something for Christmas, wrote asking him what he would be most pleased to receive. The answer to this letter and a subsequent one sent upon receipt of the gifts, supply a picture of conditions in Denmark.

"You made me glad telling me how lucky you and your family came through the war—as I wrote you I thought the worst things, and I was not sure that my letter ever would reach you. Now I hope with you that the war must be over for ever (Russia?)

"But I will tell you a little about how it goes on here in Denmark. All kinds of goods are rare, as in the rest of Europe too (except Sweden) and what we can buy in the shops are mostly not good things. For instance, instead of coffee we drink burned wheat cooked in water, tea is the leaf of apple trees. Clothes are extra difficult to have, and then made of 'cellwol,' some stuff that shrinks in rain. When I think of tobacco I must laugh aloud—there is almost nothing to buy, but many people have their own plants in the garden and make their cigars at home, these taste terrific. The strictly necessary food is all rationed and therefore we always have something of it, and that is very good, hunger is a bad thing. Coal and gasoline for heating and driving were rare, but the situation is better after V-day, we get it from U. S. and I hardly think we will freeze this winter (I mean I do not hope so)."

The second letter expresses appreciation for the Christmas box. "Of all my heart I thank you and your husband for the splendid present box, it seems quite inconceivable to me that so delicious articles exist—articles which for five years have only existed in our imagination, when we were thinking of something real delicious and luxurious.

"You have now given my wife, my little boy and myself a real Christmas box. When I was writing for it I felt very faint, I thought it quite unworthy to show such a material proposition—good food and material comfort is not the most important in life, you know, but anyhow I was unable to struggle with my better instincts.

"Yesterday your package arrived I unpacked it while Kirsten, my wife, was regarding it. We could not at all speak . . . pineapples, chocolates, tobacco and lots of other delicacies. And rice for Christmas . . . Here in Denmark it is an old custom to eat rice

Future Of The East Of Concern To U. S. Says W. S. Marquet

"The Far East is becoming increasingly important to the United States for both political and economic reasons," stated William S. Marquet, journalist of the Foreign News Desk of the New York Times in an address on Tuesday evening, January 23, before the Men's Club at the Methodist Church.

"Until the war the United States neglected this part of the world, and quite naturally, because the roots of most people here originally sprung from European soil. But now it is evident that China and the East Indies constitute for the modern world a vast treasure house and political arena where democratic and communistic principles will compete with each other to establish their ideas and economic principles.

"The task which lies before the United States is easily defined. First, political differences must be solved and the wounds of war healed before any progress can be made in the introduction of industrial processes with which to extract the great natural wealth of the country. If we can help China get on her feet, a flourishing trade between the two countries will materialize and the United States will have millions of new customers for its commodities. At present the United States enjoys a highly favored position in the eyes of the Chinese people who realize that this country has no imperial aspirations and stands on the principle of freedom for all nations of the world.

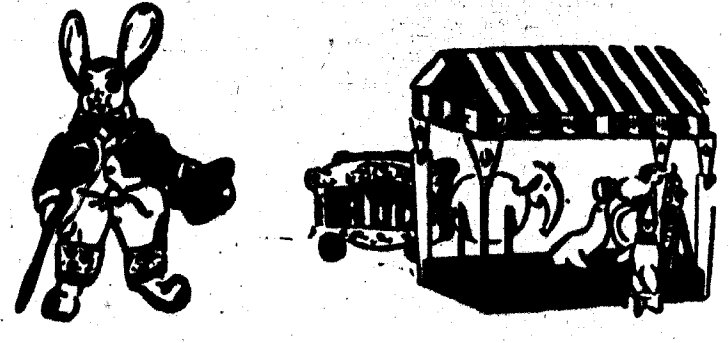

"Another vital area of concern porridge on Christmas eve, and no Christmas is real Christmas without this porridge. Last year and the year before we had no rice, but now a good Christmas is saved for my little family and my mother and sisters. All of them ask me to return their thanks to you and your husband."

to other nations is that of Southeast Asia, including Indo-China, Malaya, the Netherlands Indies and the Philippines where more than 200 million people live. In this area a very inflammable situation exists in which the powers of England and Holland are struggling to maintain their hold on people, seething with revolt and imbued with the rising tide of freedom.

"As a result of the manufacture of synthetic products especially rubber, the United States has become economically independent of this area, and politically we are only responsible to the Philippines where at present the people are asserting their wish to remain a part of the United States. On the other hand it is impossible to ignore the effect on Dutch economy of the annexation of the East Indies from which Holland draws nearly all her wealth.

"The Nationalist's revolt in Java and elsewhere in the Netherlands Indies does not represent pro-Japanese sympathies, but is rather an expression of a feeling which is taking hold of all peoples, who for centuries have been the victims of a colonial system. It is not their desire to achieve immediate independence, but they want assurance that over a period of time, the trend will be towards autonomous rule. It is hoped that this problem will find its solution in the U.N.O."

Toys and Playthings

The march of civilization like the life of an individual has its ups and downs, its childhood, its adolescence, its manhood and finally its period of age. Civilization in America has made great strides during its youth especially in the past fifty years and the Republic has now reached its maturity and like many young people, it is today sowing its wild oats.

Our High Schools, Colleges and Universities are doing a great work in educating the youth of the land but unfortunately they have failed in the most essential part of the training of the mind. It is like an automobile manufacturer turning out an automobile with a sixteen-cylinder engine and bicycle brakes.

Just as various methods of coating steel have been invented to protect it from oxidation and corrosion so our young people need to be made immune to temptation and to avoid the use of their bodies and nervous system as toys and playthings. Think how ridiculous it would be for a college graduate to carry his Teddy Bear on all occasions or for a young lady to carry her doll and toys to business, social and civic groups. For the health and enjoyment of others, it would be far better to do this than to take a package of matches and start fires whose irritating smoke is not only injurious to lungs, tissue and nervous system of the smoker but also to those in the room who are forced to breathe the nauseating atmosphere.

A graduate of one of our famous Universities in discussing a better way of life, remarked that he enjoyed his coffee and cigarettes and, since he had so few things that he liked, he would not want to give them up. There are many hobbies and plenty of things to do to help others that can be done without using the body and nervous system as a toy that will give far more pleasure.

If you happen to have allowed your brakes to weaken and find yourself carrying your toys and playthings wherever you go, try cleaning out your pockets and hand bags. It will add to your prestige as it has for countless others to show the world that you have overcome these forces of destruction and no longer have to depend on toys and playthings for your amusement.

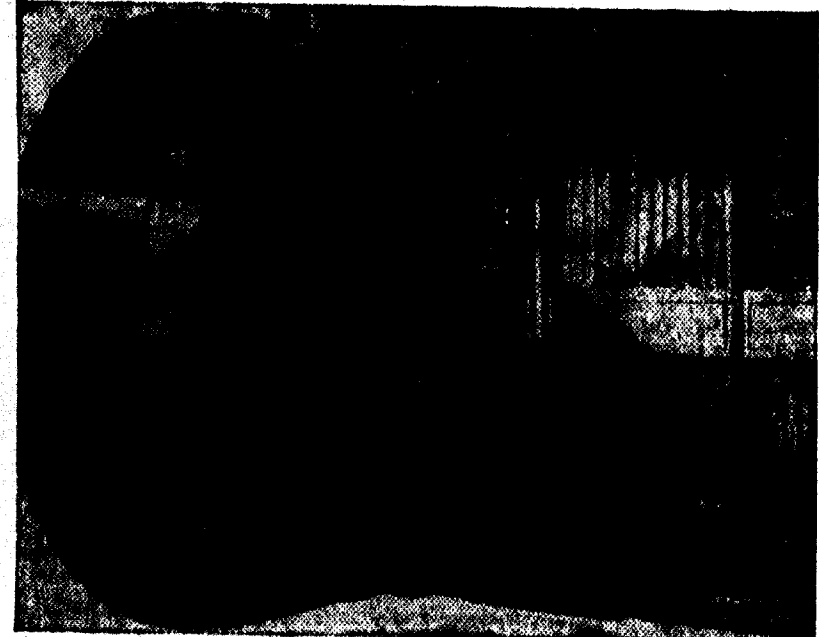

Send one of our leaflets on "Personal Reconversion" to your friends who need it. A supply will be sent without charge on request.

Our Neighbors

GLEN RIDGE—Last week local firemen honored their fellow red demon fighters with a bronze plaque unveiled in fire headquarters. Mayor George T. Minasian did the presenting and Councilman A. Lionel Reid unveiled the plaque. On the bronze plate was one gold star, in memory of Pfc. Kenneth S. Courtney who lost his life in France. There were thirteen other names on the plaque.

WESTFIELD—Children of this town want little Filipino youngsters to have the joy of reading fairy tales. The Children's Department of the Public Library has launched a drive for 100 books to be sent to the islands in the Pacific. The committee is composed of two children and a teacher from each of the schools. Funds are being collected from January 21 to 25. St. Christopher's School will also participate. Leaders of the drive hope children of other towns will do likewise.

RUTHERFORD—Firemen are doing something for the entertainment of teen-agers on the Westside. The movement was launched by the Westend Engine and Hose Company. Mayor and Council granted permission for the use of rooms in company quarters and merchants are donating funds for records, address system and record player. Dancing will be every Friday night. Mothers will serve as chaperons and assist in program directing. The holding of these dances is an effort to assist the youth movement in providing group activities.

HILLSIDE—The Board of Education has adopted a budget that is 12 tax points higher than that of last year. Teachers salaries constitute the largest single item of increase. Capital outlay is also a factor. There was no objection to the budget on the part of citizens.

MONTCLAIR—The Montclair Times states that "in cold figures Montclair purchased $45,938.825 worth of bonds during the eight war loan drives; also, that sales would have been higher had out-of-town workers purchased bonds at home. This, it is said, represents more than $1,000 per capita. But, the Times says, this is only half the town's contribution to the war effort. The other half—sacrifices made, hardships endured, worry for men in the services—never have been told.

BLOOMFIELD—Bloomfield Business and Professional Association is asking a speedy solution to the parking problem. Delay, the association says, will only make conditions worse. It is being urged that a joint meeting of all service clubs, civic clubs, Chamber of Commerce and Manufacturers Clubs be held to help solve the headache of parking. It is also suggested that a planning engineer be employed to assist in solving the problem in all areas.

TOWACO—David Young, who will have served six years in the Assembly when this year ends, thinks he is now deserving of something better. So he has announced that his hat is in the ring for the nomination as State Senator from Morris County. The incumbent, Senator Pierson, wants to go back. Clouds are on the horizon. The Madison Eagle says: "War clouds are gathering. At the moment it looks like the worst kind—civil war.

DOVER—This town has joined the parade which has formed in the metropolitan district for reaching high mark in tax collections. Tax collectors are on their jobs and the citizenry seems to have ready money. Most municipalities are running over the 90 per cent mark. Dover going to 95.88 per cent, highest in its history. General duplicate collections amounted to $491,491.93, with a total from all sources of $537,959.68.

MORRISTOWN—Raymond D. Stitzer, resident here, has been named a member of the Board of Trustees of The Seeing Eye, Inc., with headquarters in Morristown. Mr. Stitzer is vice-president of the Equitable Securities Corporation, New York. The action was taken at the annual meeting of the corporation.

BERNARDSVILLE—Two local residents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Larocque of Mine Mount, artists, will exhibit their work in Argent Galleries, 42 West 87th street, for 10 days, commencing January 22.

State Farmers' Buying Power Up

Gross income of the average New Jersey farm family nearly doubled itself during the war period of 1940-45, according to reports of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Increasing cash surpluses, together with a pent-up demand for war-scarce automatic devices and equipment has created an extensive reserve of purchasing power in farm families.

As materials and equipment become available, it is estimated that the annual outlay for remodeling and improving New Jersey farm buildings and equipment will total more than $1,500,000 for the next five years.

Applied Psychology for Your Young Moderns

For youngsters who know more about stratoliners than Louis XIV, more about atomic energy than tating, Whitney's new modern is the logical furniture. They'll feel completely at home with its uncluttered plain surfaces, with the bland tones of bleached birch. And they won't outgrow it. If your future physicist's experiments in gravity are still limited to standing up, buy the chest, the chiforobe and a crib. When he progresses to the "what makes water run" stage, replace the crib with a youth bed and change the wallpaper. He can use the same furniture until he marches off for his B. S. degree. It will grow up with him because it's ruggedly made and well-scaled by Whitney, who probably made the fine baby carriage you're trundling him about in now. Or, if you've hatched a young antiquarian, comparable pieces can be had in nicely styled Colonial maple. Fourth Floor.

THRIFT SHOP WEEK

This is Thrift Shop Week—January 21-January 26—when all are asked to help re-stock the Shop. Never, according to the Junior Service League, has the need been so great. The Shop has been virtually emptied by buying, not only for local needs, but for shipment abroad for foreign relief.

You are asked to support the Thrift Shop in order to help the many in Summit who depend upon it to meet their buying needs. There is a need for nearly everything—curtains, clothing, shoes, hats, kitchenware and household articles of every kind, china, bric-a-brac and toys.

The Thrift Shop which, as you know, is operated by the Junior Service League, gives all its proceeds to local charities, Overlook Hospital, and the Red Cross. Last year $6,000 of its income were allocated to these organizations. And this came from the sale of articles ranging in price from one cent for stockings to five dollars for a coat, representing the handling of some thirty thousand items. To sell this number of articles required seventy hours of work on the part of the volunteer workers, plus that of a full time shop manager.

The Shop is open for nine months of the year, morning and afternoon throughout the week. Either take your contribution to the Shop, 466 Springfield avenue, or call Su. 6-4563, and arrangements will be made for a pick-up. By the way, do it now.

POTPOURRI

From the calls we have received recently, citizens are becoming more interested in what their Senators and Representatives are doing at the National Capital, as they are asking for their addresses. We print them here for the convenience of any who desire to contact them: Senator H. Alexander Smith, Princeton; Senator Albert W. Hawkes, Montclair, Senate Chamber, Washington, D. C.; Representative Clifford P. Case, Rahway, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. We suggest readers cut this out and paste in on their calendar.

Coin boxes are seen in many stores throughout the city. They are for holding the dimes that later will be added to the money donated in the city for the relief and cure of those suffering from infantile paralysis. Drop in the dime that you receive in change. You will not miss it and it will do a world of good.

Salem Boorujy, chairman of the Victory Clothing Collection, says he is pleased with the response to the appeal in Summit. A goal of 40,000 pieces had been set and while it was not reached—30,000 being the total—thousands of the destitute peoples in the devastated areas of Europe will be the more comfortably clothed for what Summit has done toward their relief. If the rest of the United States does as well millions of those in foreign lands will be the better off. This giving, though it is of used clothing, should make for a better feeling and a better understanding between nations.

Save your wastepaper for the next collection.

The Weather—Believe It Or Not!

The cold wave, which swept this area early this week and transformed streets and sidewalks into a solid sheet of ice, offering hazards to both pedestrians and motorists alike, seems to have abated itself. The thermometer on Monday, January 23, which stood at 4 degrees, represented the coldest day so far this winter. Although the weather on Wednesday remained uncomfortably cold, conditions are predicted for the remainder of the week, accompanied by variable weather conditions.

Correction

In an article in last week's Herald announcing the removal of the Employees Personal Loan Company from Springfield avenue to 48 Maple street, there was an error in regard to the amount of a loan. The article stated "from $25 to $50." It should have read "from $25 to $500."

DEATH NOTICE

MACILVAINE, Anne at Summit, N. J., Jan. 21, 1946. Daughter of the late Edward Shippen and Annie Belleville Macilvaire. Services at Central Presbyterian Church, Summit, N. J., Thursday, Jan. 24, 11 A. M. Burial in Ewing Cemetery at 1 o'clock.

League of Women Voters Public Opinion Poll

SUMMIT SAYS
"Should the United States keep the Pacific Islands taken from Japan or should they be put under control of the United Nations?"
U. S. keep islands—54% United Nations control—39%
Undecided—11%

A higher percentage of men were in favor of the United States keeping control of the islands. 61% of the men said that we should keep control, 34% favored control by the United Nations and 5% were undecided. Of the women, 49% were for United States control, 39% wanted United Nations control and 12% were undecided. Interviewers reported that a number of people qualified their answers by saying that the United States should keep "strategic" Pacific bases and assign other islands to the United Nations.

In the past two weeks announcements made in Washington and London have focused attention on this question of control of Japanese islands taken in World War II and on the whole question of trusteeship of territories. At the UNO Assembly in London, Great Britain has announced that she is turning over to UNO trusteeship her African mandates of the Cameroons, Togoland and Tanganyika. At the same time New Zealand, Australia and Belgium have also announced that they will relinquish mandates to UNO trusteeship. In Washington, at a press conference, President Truman said that the islands taken from Japan would be put under the trusteeship of the UNO with the provision that the United States be sole trustee of the strategic islands.

Miss Anna Lord Straus, national president of the League of Women Voters, has suggested to the president that the American public be reminded that the total acceptance of the principles of trusteeship in no way jeopardizes the vital interests of the United States. She stated the belief that the Pacific Islands are peculiarly our problem. "By the stand our delegation to the UNO Assembly takes with respect to them," Miss Straus says, "we can set the pattern for the post war treatment of non-self-governing peoples, and make a great stride in moral leadership."

LETTERS

Takes Issue with Dr. Trupp

To The Summit Herald:
Dr. Trupp, speaking at the Community Church recently, made what to me is a most amazing statement—amazing that any one could say that "the trinitarian doctrine is post-Biblical—not to be found in the teachings of Paul or the Gospel writers."

Christ, Himself, before ascending into heaven, said to His disciples, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost." (Matthew 28:19.)

The writers of the Bible testified to a Triune God from Genesis through Revelation: Genesis 1:26, "And God said, 'Let us make man in our image'";—and in Gen. 2:7, man, a trinity was formed—body, soul, and spirit. In I Thessalonians 5:23, Paul writes, "And I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord, Jesus Christ." (The body is world consciousness, the soul self-consciousness and the spirit, God-consciousness.)

Matthew, Mark, and Luke all three record the baptism of Christ at which the Trinity was revealed—God the Father speaking from heaven, the Holy Spirit descending upon the Son as he arose from the water.

John's Gospel presents Christ, as Deity and fully explains the work of the Holy Spirit as separate, though in unity, with the work of Christ. Christ said, "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, He shall teach you all things." (John 14:26).

In Romans 8, Paul sets forth a Triune God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. These are only a few references from the many in God's word pertaining to the Trinity.

Very truly yours,
FLORENCE P. FOUNTAIN
(Mrs. Gulon Fountain)
Chatham Township.

Getting Along

her of her pets and pans as well as heavy production. The allied nations can not watch thousands of people starve, or freeze, as they would, if they cannot get the coal for heat and factories. We would have to send food if we would not let them produce it themselves, or disease would be rampant and harm all other peoples. So the alternative arises setting up a state to encourage the people to help themselves, which we have definitely not done.

The morale of our occupying forces is bad, with replacements too young to understand the problem, and with no clear directives as to what they are to do. For the most part nothing is being done.

On comparing these with our relations to our former allies the picture in France is worse in some respects. Our troops are guarding supplies there which might better be divided and part given to France, part sent home, and part destroyed. The people are cold, because their coal pits need props, which are made of wood from sections of the country held by Germans for many months and the French are colder than the people of Germany.

Japan offers peculiar problems. There are two camps in respect to MacArthur. The favorite wisecrack in the army when the Emperor of Japan renounced his divinity, was that MacArthur should follow suit.

MacArthur is an Olympian character, and gives directives only, assuming that they are carried out, and this is not so. The language difficulty is greatly to blame for this, as neither present servicemen nor replacements are trained in the many vernaculars, an essential if the 10 years re-education of Japan is to be accomplished.

Our relations with Britain have become more difficult since we are not driven by the necessity of war. Mr. Cant believes the loan will work out about as well as is possible.

In the matter of Russia, he thinks that mutual understanding is called for. Russia should consider the opinions of Britain and the United States, too, and not expect us to do all the adapting. The of their mental habits, seek to blame their failures on other races or minority groups. Their failure may be for political, economic or social reasons, but their reasoning in every instance is the same and the results identical. They become victims of their own hatred and fears and fall into the habit of conforming automatically to a prejudice or propaganda line which offers them a release from their fears.

"We must guard against this mass madness by offering a system of education which teaches a scientific approach to the problem. Tests indicate that the mind can be conditioned to reflex in very much the same way that the body reacts to outside stimulus. Much of our feeling of insecurity comes from external stimulus that increases the feeling of tension within and makes us susceptible to mass fobias. We must teach children and young people in the schools that these fears usually take the form of blaming our troubles and problems on groups of people. The Springfield Plan calls for an understanding of public opinion and the ability to diagnose the difference between fact and opinion."

Burke To Quit As Prosecutor Aid, Full Time To Firm

ELIZABETH—Norbert T. Burke, resident of Summit and member of the new law firm of Herr, Gordon & Burke, will resign as third assistant prosecutor to devote his time to his private practice, it was learned recently.

Indications were that he would not be a candidate for the Republican State Committee. He was elected to succeed Nils Anderson of Plainfield. Mr. Burke was one of four lawyers appointed assistant attorneys general when Attorney General Walter D. Van Riper took over the office prior to official appointment of Prosecutor Donald H. McLean. Mr. Burke is now associated with former Advisory Master in Chancery Douglas Herr and former Acting Prosecutor Francis A. Gordon.

Mentioned as a possible successor to his post as assistant prosecutor is Recorder Gustave G. Kein, Jr., of Union. He is also mentioned in connection with the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court judgeship to be vacated by Judge Frank J. Pfaff, Democrat of Elizabeth. The assistant prosecutor's appointment will be made by Prosecutor McLean.

Park Commission Asks for $100,000 To Develop Parkway

William I. McMane of Magnolia place, director of the Board of Chosen Freeholders, last week referred a resolution for requisitioning bonds in the amount of $100,000 for the continuation of development of the parkways along the Rahway and Elizabeth Rivers in Union County Park, to Charles E. Smith's finance committee.

Not all the amount will be expended on the parkways, according to W. Richmond Tracy, 189 Oak Ridge avenue, secretary and engineer of the Park Commission. The commission still needs 300 acres to fulfill its original program of adequate recreational facilities for the predicted ultimate population of the county.

Poetry Hour Covers Dr. Trapp's Modern Favorites

Walt Whitman wrote one of the greatest elegies in any language when, on the death of Lincoln he wrote:

"When lilacs last in the dooryard bloom'd,
And the great star early droop'd in the western sky in the night,
I mourn'd, and yet shall mourn with ever-returning spring.

Ever-returning spring, trinity sure to me you bring,
Lilac blooming perennial and drooping star in the west,
And thought of him I love."

With this statement and the reading of part of the poem, Dr. Jacob Trapp began his December Poetry Hour, Thursday, December 27, at the Community House, saying that he would touch upon only his favorites among the moderns, leaving the older poets till another time.

He read the whole or parts of these:
From Gerard Manley Hopkins, a Catholic priest and mystic, who first used "sprung rhythm," he read "Pied Beauty," beginning,

"Glory be to God for dappled things—
"and "God's Grandeur," with its first line,
"The world is charged with the grandeur of God."

From Robert Bridges, one of the greatest lyrics ever written and to Dr. Trapp "mysteriously beautiful"—his "Nightingales"—
"Beautiful must be the mountains whence ye come" and the nightingales' answer, "Nay, barred are those mountains and spent the streams."

From Francis Thompson, a 18th century mystic living in the 19th

Former Officers May Re-enlist As Master Sgts.

Representatives of the U. S. Army Recruiting Service will be at the Summit Post Office on January 24, to answer questions and provide information about enlistment in the Regular Army of the United States.

Former commissioned officers, flight officers, and warrant officers of the U. S. Army, who were released from service between May 12, 1945 and November 1, 1945, now may enlist in the Regular Army as master sergeants, provided they do so before midnight of January 31.

Since November 1, officers were given this opportunity, but those whose final day of terminal leave was on or after May 12, but before November 1, were not. The new regulation extends to those men the chance to avail themselves of the many Regular Army benefits. After February 1, enlistments as master sergeants must be accomplished within 20 days of the officer's last day of terminal leave.

Master sergeants receive a base pay of $138 per month, with five per cent increase for each three years of service completed. Ration and quarters allowances, in varying amounts depending upon the assignment and station of the individual, are paid. Extra pay for overseas service, for certain types of duty and certain military qualifications, are added to the base pay. An enlistment bonus of $50 for each year of prior service, since

What's ahead in Telephone Service?..

This advertisement has two purposes: First, to report what we are doing to improve telephone service and make it available for all who want it. Second, to ask your help in maintaining service while the telephone system is being enlarged.

In the next 12 months...

- More telephones
Switchboard additions will be made in nearly every exchange to provide service for practically all who are now waiting. In the last three months alone we've filled 18,000 "held orders" for telephone service.
- More operators
Throughout the State, we plan to employ and train several thousand more operators to "man" the switchboards and provide faster, more efficient service for everyone.
- More circuits
Thousands of miles of local and long distance lines will be put into service to handle the ever-increasing load of calls. They'll, too, will mean faster and better service.

In the next 5 years...

- New Buildings
About 40 new buildings or additions to present buildings will be erected to house new switching systems. Many other additions will care for expansion of existing switchboards.
- New Equipment
will be installed to care for several hundred thousand more telephones than are now in use... and new dial systems to replace switchboards now serving 300,000 telephones.
- New Reserves
More personnel, more equipment, more of everything will be added—so there'll again be a safe margin to insure good service even during emergencies. Then you can talk so often and as long as you like!

Now... what can you do to help?..

While we're training new operators and installing new lines and switchboards, you can help us handle the present overload and keep service going by using local and long distance service sparingly... and especially by being patient with your operator. She's trying hard to serve you—so live up to her reputation as "the Voice with the Smile."

4. Special classrooms (for mechanical drawing, shops, science).
5. Storage rooms.

"Definite recommendations of the committee agree, in the main, with the Board of Education plans already presented to many of the participating groups and include the construction of a new building at the Central site.

The program of the Lay Committee, if adopted, to cost as follows:

School	Construction	Modernization
Lincoln	$ 350,000
Washington	50,000	8,000
Franklin	50,000	1,300
Brayton	15,000	11,700
Jefferson	80,000	4,000

Item	Amount
Roosevelt	12,000
Junior and Senior	500,000
Total	$1,015,000
Grand total	$328,000
Funds available from sale of Edison Junior High	328,000
Total new money required	$ 727,000

"To finance the $727,000 needed for the proposed improvement program, the estimates of annual cost are:

3% bond issue for a 30-year period $36,350 annually

2% bond issue for a 30-year period $32,311 annually

"Thus, a 3% bond issue would add 11 points to the tax rate, an increase of $6.90 in tax per year for a property assessed at $6,000.

"It is the belief of the Lay Committee that the improvements outlined should be effected as soon as possible. With the concurrence of the membership of the participating groups, it will so recommend to the Board of Education, the Board of School Estimate, and the Common Council."

Raise Orchid Seed With Same Care Given Germ Culture

Orchid seed has to be given the same care used in germ culture in hospitals, John B. Lager told the Men's Garden Club Monday evening, January 7, at the YMCA. The seed is so fine it can hardly be seen, and must be germinated in sterile material, usually agar-agar, in commercial houses. The parents are selected with the greatest care, for, as few orchids bloom under seven years, it is expensive to pick the wrong parents.

Some orchids are fragrant, and this quality is beginning to mean more in the market; smaller and more delicate flowers are gaining in popularity over the very large blossoms.

Orchids are found in many parts of the world, India, Australia, Colombia, and other South American countries. Those found in Central America are numerous but not commercially valuable, Mr. Lager said.

Anyone who is interested enough can raise orchids, he believes, as success depends on a few simple rules. Giving them the proper nutrients with acid content is essential. Even the water given orchids has to contain sulphuric and phosphoric acids. Surface or rain water is good for the plants. All orchids are potted in Osmunda, the cinnamon fern, found to be the most satisfactory material.

Mr. Lager showed slides of a number of varieties, both commercial and non-commercial, including lily of the valley, and moth. The moth orchid is the one grown on the Duke estate, where some fine specimens can be seen, one stem holding 32 flowers. A vermilion variety of the moth is crossed with Cattleya to give magnificent color and form.

Shower of gold is from the Andes frost line; many orchids are found high in the mountains. A lovely yellow one is from Australia; the butterfly has a single bloom at the very tip of a stem, and as each flower fades, another takes its place. Fanny orchids show the same variety of faces that the common pansy shows, and a wide variety will come from one lot of seed.

Orchids are called pure white even though there is a touch of yellow in the lip, as this can not be eliminated, Mr. Lager said.

Many orchids are brought from deep in India, taking three or four months to arrive in this country; they are packed tightly in boxes without other packing, but they will survive if the marrow is not completely dried out upon arrival. They sometimes take a year or two to revive, but this is not considered too bad.

The Cymbidium is becoming more popular. If it is not cut for the Christmas or New Year's trade, it can be kept for the March show, it is such a good keeper on the plant. Orchids as a rule keep very well, either cut or uncut. A corsage can be worn for two weeks by caring for it between times.

Mr. Lager presented a plant of Cypripedium Insigne from Assam for a door prize, which was given to the only woman present at the meeting.

The Watchung Stables in Glenside avenue, Union County's leading equine headquarters, is preparing for a busy season. Major T. N. Tully, who recently returned to take over the supervision of the Summit organization, says events will get under way the second week in March.

One of the stables' features will be the 30th annual Watchung horse show, a three-day event, June 7, 8 and 9. More than 50 classes will be on the program.

The mounted troop divisions for girls and boys will attract record entry applications, according to requests for membership. Advanced

Apply For Lights At Memorial Field For Softball

Manager Frank Pryce of Charlton, 1945 City Softball League champions, has addressed a letter under date of January 21 to President Ernest P. Patten of the Board of Recreation making application for the installation of lights for night softball at Memorial field, for the coming summer season.

The letter:

"Our present thought is to play at least two nights a week. One night would be a four team league composed of teams from Summit, Madison, Chatham and Milburn. All four teams playing on the one night—First game at 8:30 p. m. and the second at 9:30 p. m. The second night would be reserved for playing the top-notch softball teams in the Metropolitan area, such as 5-V's from Plainfield, Phelps Dodge, Singers, etc. with a preliminary game between the girls' teams.

"We would stand all expenses for installing the lights and would want to have full control of their use, as we believe too frequent use of the lights would dim their popularity.

"At the present time we are negotiating for the use of two fields but Memorial field would be the most suitable as the only work necessary on the softball diamond would be to cut basepaths and trim up the infield.

"It will be appreciated if you can give us a prompt reply as we would like to start work immediately."

"Hot Stove" Loop Dinner, 1st Event Of '46 Season

The first baseball "event" of the 1946 season, the 10th Annual "Hot Stove" League dinner of the Union County Baseball Association, which is to be held at the Elizabeth Carter Hotel, Elizabeth, on Wednesday evening, February 6, at 7:30 o'clock, will be better-attended than ever, according to George T. Cron, of the Union County Park Commission.

Cron reports that Leo Durocher, manager of Brooklyn "Dodgers," is expected to attend as well as other outstanding national baseball personalities. Last year's total of 275 at the dinner will probably be exceeded, according to Cron.

The dinner, sponsored by the oldest continuously-active semi-pro baseball association in the State, has proved the means of maintaining interest in baseball all through the winter season. Officials of the association state that it has also helped them in their program of organizing leagues and clubs for youngsters who have not "graduated" into the semi-pro class.

Baseball fans or players interested in attending may obtain tickets from Cron at the park office, Administration Building, Wanaquo Park, Elizabeth, any time before February 1. Summit will be represented by President Frederick G. Sigler of the Summit Athletic Association, Inc., and a number of his officers and Board of Directors.

No Tax Help From Security Board

County residents will get no help from field offices of the Social Security board in the preparation of their income tax returns this year, agency field managers warn.

Hundreds of taxpayers request statements of their annual earnings each year at tax-paying time because they know that this agency records their annual earnings for the calculation of old-age benefits payable in later years.

This year no records will be available in time to assist those who are confronted with the blunt demands of form 1040. Employers' report of wages paid in the last quarter of 1945 are not due before the end of January. Administrative recording of wages reported for the 85,000,000 workers covered in 1945 will not be completed before the end of June.

FIGHT INFANTILE PARALYSIS

The Strongest Argument

We, who have seen the terrible consequences of infantile paralysis among the children of America, are only too conscious of the need for contributing to the annual March of Dimes, January 14-31.

Those familiar and distressing sights—the shrunken limbs, the twisted bodies, the awkward locomotion, the crutches, wheelchairs and all the other reminders of this terrible scourge—are in themselves the strongest argument for supporting the work of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Every cent contributed to this organization works for victims of infantile paralysis. It is used for care and treatment, for research into the cause and prevention of the disease, for emergency aid in epidemic areas, and for training doctors, nurses and physical therapists in modern techniques.

It is the determination of the National Foundation, that infantile paralysis shall be conquered. The people of America share in that determination, and through contributions to the March of Dimes they take an active part in the unrelenting fight against the Great Crippler.

FIGHT FOR OUR 5TH FREEDOM FREEDOM FROM DISEASE

Every good American cherishes the Four Freedoms contained in the now-famous Atlantic Charter: Freedom of Speech, Freedom of Worship, Freedom from Want, Freedom from Fear.

There is another freedom for which all humanity is fighting: Freedom from Disease.

One of the most feared and most insidious diseases that annually threatens this nation is infantile paralysis.

It is high on the list of Public Enemies because its victims are chiefly children under 16.

Infantile paralysis—the Great Crippler—is no respecter of persons. It strikes rich and poor alike, white and black, Catholic, Protestant and Jew.

Through contributions to the March of Dimes, conducted January 14-31 by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, you can help bring the Fifth Freedom closer.

THE SOLUTION

To many people in our strife-torn world it would doubtless sound like mockery to say "Love is the solution for the troubles that impede your progress." If we were to go to the scenes of picket lines, to the conference chambers of labor and management, and say, "If you really want to settle your differences begin by loving one another," we would surely be looked upon as someone from a mental institution. But that was the way one spoke whose influence has meant more to the world than anyone else.

When Jesus was approaching the depth of life's meaning he said to his disciples, "This I command you, that ye love one another." Our whole duty is contained in those words. St. Paul said, "He that loveth another, fulfilleth the whole law," and Jesus said again, "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye shall love one another."

There is too little love and too much self-seeking in the world, and because of this, discords arise. If we would say to our fellows, "We want to do what is fair, honest and honorable toward you, and they in turn would say the same to us, it is inconceivable that such bickerings as foul our fair land could exist. Love doth not frowardly, she is not a provoker."

How quickly our differences dissolve when we seek one another's good. And this is as true universally as individually. A charitable man will not promote himself with the damage of his neighbor. "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friend."

OTTO C. NELSON,
The Methodist Church.

The basketball team from the Central Presbyterian Church is priming its men for the forthcoming struggle with the Calvary Episcopal boys, using the Neighborhood House floor for their practice sessions.

Mr. Hunter, director of Neighborhood House, has pointed out that the gymnasium is now receiving 24 hours a week of heavy use not counting the movie programs, clubs, and incidental use, which bring the total time it is being used to well over 32 hours a week. The clinic, clubs, and religious services not using the gym, take up nearly 18 hours a week in addition to the larger program, making the House in continuous public use about 47 hours a week.

Houseplants Need Well-Grown Roots To Be Successful

Success with houseplants depends upon well-developed root systems that support a sturdy growth. Even such roots can be ruined at this time of year if they are overwatered. The shortness of the days and the lack of sunshine in winter makes this a time when growing conditions are at low ebb, and a time when houseplants will need good care. The advice of Fred D. O'Connell, Union County agricultural agent, is that plants do better in January and February if they are kept rather cool than if they are put in too warm a room. In too high a temperature they will be forced to grow fast without enough sunlight to permit their normal healthy development. With reasonable care, however, most of these plants can be brought through early January in a very satisfactory condition.

It is most important that they have plenty of air around their roots, and this is only possible when they receive just enough water to keep the soil moist without making it too wet. It is helpful to turn the pot upside-down occasionally and jar the soil ball out of the pot. A healthy plant will have sufficient roots to hold the ball of earth together. Roots should be white, not brown, although even if they are slightly discolored the plant is usually still healthy. Brown or black root tips are a definite indication that all is not well.

If any of the soil around the roots is dry, replace the pot and stand it in a pan of water almost as deep as the pot. Remove it from the water in five minutes. After each such watering let the soil become quite dry at the top. Stirring the soil at the top of the pot once in a while, so that it will dry out and air will penetrate the roots, is another beneficial practice.

Many home gardeners follow the plan of making a succession of plantings in pots during the fall months. Once these bulbs have been planted, they should not be brought up into the heat and light of the average house or apartment until the pot is well filled with roots. Bulbs will flower well only when they have good root systems and when they are kept cool until their leaves are well formed. Even after they have been brought into the house from the basement or garage in which they have been stored, it is advisable to put them in a rather cold place (not freezing) until they have made strong top growth.

It is not too late to put bulbs now for bloom in February and March. Water them well and leave them in a cool place until the pot is filled with roots. They will bear watching occasionally to see that they do not dry out. If Christmas gift plants are added to the festive appearance of your home over the holidays keep them rather cool, and, again, the admonition not to overwater is in order. Cyclamen and flowering begonias will last much longer and give far better results if they are kept on the dry side. However, when a plant needs water, all of the soil in the pot must be wet.

Church of England Wants More Publicity Through Advertising

Widespread and vigorous use of advertising by the Church has been urged by a committee of prominent British clergy and laymen who express the belief that, since the gospel teachings of tolerance, peace, and loving one's neighbor are the most important message that could be circulated on the war-torn earth, the Christian Church should adopt the proved methods of big business, and make intelligent use of advertising in widely circulated periodicals. Some of the more conservative British Churchmen have said that such advertising would be undignified and that religion's finest and most effective advertising must be the example of good citizenship and brotherly love set by Christians in their daily lives. The advocates of advertising conceded that the lives of professed Christians necessarily must be religion's best advertisement, but pointed out that a great void remains in the instruction of the general public.

Increasingly Churches in this country are realizing the value of advertising. Inquiry at Episcopal Church headquarters revealed that that Church has had a publicity organization for twenty-five years, and that it is constantly encouraging local dioceses and parishes to use modern advertising and publicity methods in the promotion of their programs of work.

Ex-AAF Officers From Summit Play On Drew Varsity

Two Summit men, both former Army Air Force officers, are regulars on this year's Drew University varsity basketball team. They are Robert Woodward, an ex-first "looney," son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Woodward, Jr., of Woodland avenue, and Billy Morse, a former 2nd "looney," son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Morse of Franklin place.

Woodward has been a consistent performer this season at forward for the Drew outfit while Morse holds down a guard post. On Friday night at Trenton, a first half spree netted Trenton Teachers a 49-38 victory over Drew. Woodward awished a goal and four goals through the rings for six points while Morse came through with a goal and a foul to mark up three points.

While both men are graduates of Summit High, neither played basketball for the secondary school. Woodward, a better than average player, had his pre-college experience on various house teams at the Summit Y.M.C.A., while Morse's background in basketball was gained principally at Mars Hill Junior College.

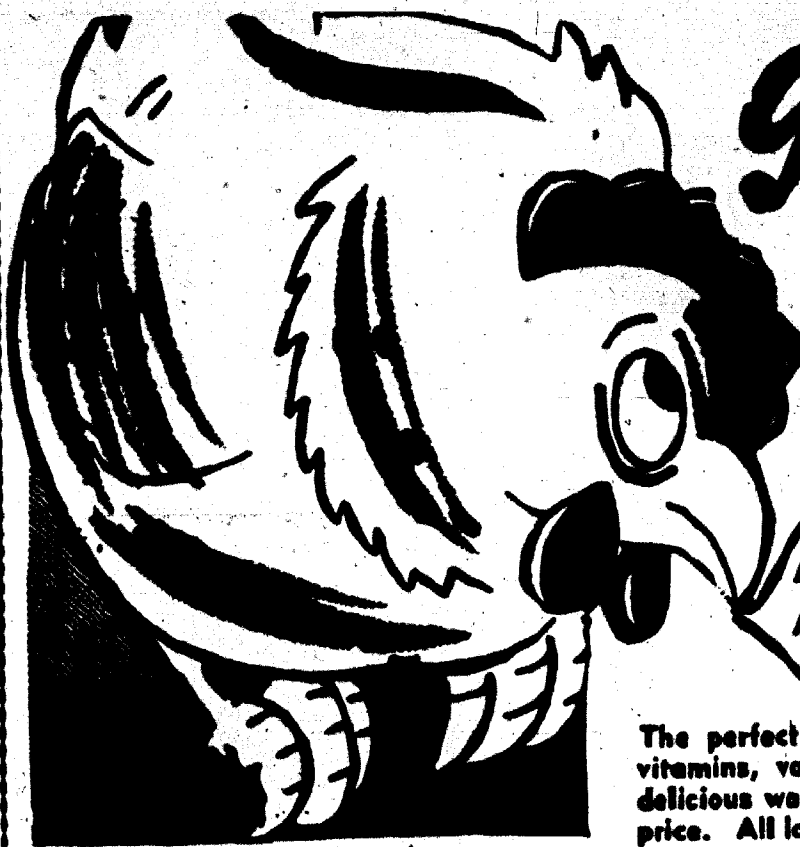

Saturday night Drew won its second game in eight starts setting back Williamtic (Conn.) Teachers, 54-47 in an overtime contest. In the first half of Saturday's game Woodward starred and threw in 11 points before he left the game late in the last half on personal fouls.

Number One Killer

Diseases of the heart and arteries constitute the No. 1 killer among life insurance policyholders today, accounting for nearly one-third of all policyholder deaths annually. The Life Insurance Medical Research Fund plans to make $3,500,000 available over the next six years to get at the causes and cures of these diseases.

Research conducted by William Cruickshank of England in 1901 paved the way for today's process of electroplating.

The word "brida" comes from the old English word bride-ale, a festivity following a wedding at which ale was the principal drink.

'Time' Journalist From Summit Writes Book About Jap War

"The Great Pacific Victory," one of the most recent and accurate accounts of our war with Japan, is written by Gilbert Cant, war editor of Time magazine and resident of Baltusrol road.

No effort has been spared to supply the reader with as much detailed information of actual engagements as anyone can reasonably expect in a book of this size. It is a signal tribute to our journalists in this war that they shared the experiences with the men they wrote about, and the result in this case is first-hand information concisely and brilliantly written with the journalist's natural instinct of what constitutes essential and exciting news.

For the general public, whose knowledge of the Pacific war is composed of fragmentary information, "The Great Pacific War" is a welcome book, for it assembles all the important facts and at the end of each chapter furnishes the reader with a military analysis of each engagement, its significance in relation to the grand strategy, and a brief allusion to its costly lesson, which proved invaluable to our leaders in mapping future operations.

It is gratifying to find a book which neither avoids mentioning the errors of judgment committed by our leaders, nor withholds praise when it is deserved. For Mr. Cant, besides being an outstanding journalist and author, is also an expert in military matters, well qualified to interpret events and evaluate the worth of individuals. On this account his book gains much in conviction and emerges as a decidedly professional document, and it is not imprudent to venture that his book will probably remain the definitive account of the battles he describes. In addition, the book is thoroughly documented with maps and battle diagrams, and contains lists of principal ships involved in all the naval engagements, Army, Navy and Marine units and their commanders, and other relevant information.

The book commences by reviewing the brilliant naval operations under the command of Admiral Halsey, following the desperate fighting on Guadalcanal. At this time the Jap navy was most active, and in their attempts to supply their island bases in the Solomon group, frequent naval engagements occurred in which our ships invariably won against numerically superior enemy units. From this point the progress of the war is traced through all its sinister phases, covering a period of two years, until the climax is reached with the storming of Okinawa and its subsequent capitulation, con-

Church School Lesson "A People at Worship"

Scripture: Exodus, chapters 24 to 40.

Golden Text: "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve."—Matt. 4: 10.

Lesson outline copyright by International Council of Religious Education and used by permission.

When the Hebrews worshipped God they brought the best to Him. The worship described in Exodus 25 may seem to some like an inventory of things, but actually it is an index to the utter devotion they had for their God.

No common cloth was given Him, but the finest of linens. No ordinary oils were offered, but the ultimate in perfection.

Gratitude is a natural reaction on the part of unspoiled people. Little children show their gratitude and thanksgiving much more spontaneously and genuinely than do their parents as a rule. Even when they forget to say "Thank you," their very act of receiving a favor displays their true feelings.

Gratitude should be a fundamental motivation in worship. Too many cynical would-be worshippers go away disappointed from worship because they didn't find what they expected. Those who go with the spirit of what they can give in devotion and praise and thanksgiving generally get an embarrassing wealth of blessings.

Giving is not as basic to our worship as it ought to be. Time and again I hear people saying, "I've given up going to church; I don't get anything out of it." A thorough enquiry into those people's lives might indicate that they went with the wrong motive.

Maybe the forms of worship depicted in today's lesson seem crude to us—but the motives certainly were not! Do you consider your worship a gift or an investment?—W. M. H.

Women Are Asked To Join American Legion Auxiliary

Women whose sons, husbands, fathers and brothers have fought in either of the two World Wars must take the leadership in women's work for peace, according to the American Legion Auxiliary, which further states that "they understand what war means to the families at home as well as to the men at the front, and can help arouse the women of the world to work for peace."

In the American Legion Auxiliary they will find activities in which they can exert their influence for good will and understanding among nations for the success of the United Nations Charter, and for the maintenance of armed forces to protect the peace, is a further statement. "Active interest and endeavor of women are essential if we are not to lose this peace as we did in the last one."

The Auxiliary is extending a special invitation to the women of World War II families whose service men have joined the American Legion. It is also stated that mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of those who have died in service are eligible for Gold Star membership.

More coupons are needed by the Auxiliary to help it carry on its work for returning veterans. These

Storytelling Old Art; Chinese Customs, Tales, Program of Story League

"Storytelling is one of the oldest arts. It is a sharing of heart and spirit," quoted Mrs. Allen Short from "The Way of the Storyteller" by Ruth Sawyer, to the members of the Story League at their meeting, Thursday, December 13, at the Public Library.

An exhibit of Chinese Christmas cards from United Chinese Relief, Chinese prints and books must be handed in by Feb. 28, the deadline, so the special bonus promised can be had and the goal set reached.

The next regular meeting of the Auxiliary will be held at the Legion Home in Elm street on Feb. 7, arranged by Miss Lillian Speer, children's librarian, formed the setting for the program on Chinese folklore.

Three Chinese stories were told: "The Gods Knew," was told by Mrs. Charles Hall; "Jade" by Mrs. James P. Shinn; and "The Lantern Maker" by Mrs. William Percival. Mrs. Percival said that the Chinese "queue" is very adaptable; children play tag with them; laborers use their queues to wrap around towels to make their hats; and beggars use their queues to chase away dogs. Another Chinese custom that was mentioned was that the Chinese do not exchange hands in greeting—each one shakes his own.

Miss Speer was welcomed as a new member of the group.

Hands Across The Keyboard

It has been said many times that peace and understanding would be furthered if all peoples spoke the same language... There is a One-world language that everybody understands, a language that conveys the beauty and sentiment of all mankind over decades of living. It is music. Those who know and understand music best are the world's greatest humanitarians and democrats as well as great artists. Wherever they go throughout the world they are foes of reaction and bring musical culture and inspiration to all who listen to their genius. Thus it is evident that the greater the knowledge and appreciation of music the greater is the appreciation of the soul and personality of all humankind... Why not give your children an early start in music? Perhaps we can help you in selecting the right piano for your home.

Miss Frances Pizzuti, daughter of Michael Pizzuti and the late Mrs. Pizzuti of Park avenue, was married at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, January 19, to Anthony Petraccaro, son of Rocco Petraccaro of Park avenue. The nuptial mass was performed by Father Fleming in St. Teresa's Church and a reception followed that evening in St. Teresa's Hall.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a period gown of white satin. Her tulle veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms.

Daniel Bacc was best man and the ushers were Arthur Rillo, William DeGullo, Dominick Renuccio and Rocco Petraccaro, Jr. Mr. Petraccaro received his honorable discharge from the Army two months ago after serving overseas 18 months.

Music Has Value For Ward Patients To Inspire, Please

"Whether music has a great therapeutic value or not is an open question. But, as a diversional and inspirational agent, there can be little doubt," said Mrs. H. W. Thompson, chairman of Hospital Ward Music, to Beacon Fire Chapter, D.A.R., on Thursday, January 17, at the home of Mrs. H. W. Spooner, Westminister road. The sum of $3,000 was raised at the outset by the Federation of Music Clubs to start the work of providing music for the ward patients of the veterans hospitals, and contributions from other sources have helped cover traveling and other expenses connected with the project. Hospitals visited have been Lyons, Dix, Monmouth and Atlantic City.

The programs for these visits are made up with much care and thought, she went on. The artists giving their services must be prepared to fill special requests from the patients themselves. The Bach-Gounod Ave Maria and The Lord's Prayer are frequently asked for, as well as other religious numbers.

Four artists gave a program following Mrs. Thompson's talk. They were: Anne Runkel, soprano; Louise Bozarth, pianist; Mary Stratford, violinist; and Dorothy Coy Goodell, harpist. This group has been given a citation by the commanding officer of the England General Hospital at Atlantic City.

At the conclusion of the program, a check for $40 was presented to Mrs. Thompson by the chapter. With Mrs. Edwin Florence, regent, presiding, Mrs. Gerald H. Young led the devotional period. The treasure reported that the board recommended making the annual contributions to Ellis Island, five southern endorsed schools, the national library, the new tower at Valley Forge, and to South Hindman School to be used toward a new washing machine. These recommendations were passed. Tea was served by Mrs. Frank E. Hanson and Mrs. Otto C. Nelson.

Jefferson School Invites Everyone "Fursalmling"

What is a "fursalmling"? A social gathering, according to Pennsylvania-Dutch tradition, in which a good time will be had by all.

Through an official of the Stock Yard Association of Lancaster, Pa., two films have been made available to Jefferson School to be shown Monday, January 28. These photographs have been taken in Lancaster County—the heart of the Pennsylvania-Dutch country. They will be informative films—but—more than that—they will show a section of colorful American life. These people came from Germany, Switzerland and Holland to Pennsylvania in search of religious freedom. Their manner of living is simple and has remained so. Bright colored dresses, black aprons, bonnets and shawls for the ladies—bright shirts, black pants and wide brimmed hats for the men. These are the acceptable garb. Babies are miniature adults. Buttons are taboo—automobiles and telephones, worldly.

So that the children will have a feeling for this picturesque bit of American, an exhibition of articles from the Pennsylvania-Dutch country has been arranged. These antiques will include hand woven textiles, painted tin, pewter, slipware, china, pottery, brassware, glass, furniture, "fractur" birth certificate, chalk ware, samplers, baskets, etc. The influence of the art of these people has been wide and is felt in many articles in use today.

There will be an exhibit of modern articles showing the Pennsylvania-Dutch influence. Included will be stationery, glassware, handkerchiefs, table mats, napkins, card boxes, greetings, match cases,

Annual Winter Carnival At Middlebury College

Middlebury College's 16th Annual Winter Carnival opened Thursday evening January 17, with a student presentation of the play "You Can't Take It With You."

The Klondike Rush took place Saturday evening with 103 students Friday night and was followed on Sunday by a coronation of the King and Queen of the three day sports holiday. The college chimes announced the official opening of this first post-war carnival.

Ski events were under way Saturday with downhill races scheduled for the morning on Bread Loaf Mountain, and slalom events in the afternoon. Sunday morning the competing teams raced the cross country course in Middlebury, and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon the competition ended with the colorful jumping event.

Ten men's and eight women's college ski teams participated in the meet.

Among the New Jersey students at the Middlebury Winter Carnival were: Mary Corcoran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Corcoran of Blackburn road; Gene P. Edgar, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm Edgar of Hobart avenue; Sarah McCullough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip M. McCullough of Morris avenue.

"Prelude To a Poem" Orchestral Score At Newark Library

The Music Department of the Newark Free Public Library has recently acquired for its shelves the orchestral score of "Prelude to a Poem," a composition by Rutherford H. Merriam of Elm street. The work is based on the poem by Felicia Hemans, "The Landing of the Pilgrim Fathers." The score has some 36 pages and the work was performed in an arrangement for the organ at a recent Union Thanksgiving Service at the Central Presbyterian Church by the organist, Nellie Gordon Blasius. It is hoped the work can have a hearing by some of the major symphony orchestras.

Princeton Glee Club Here Feb. 2; Benefit Buxton School

The Princeton University Glee Club, under the auspices of the Buxton Country Day School, will give a concert on Saturday evening, February 2, at 8:30, in the Summit High School auditorium. The proceeds will be placed in the Buxton Endowment and Improvement Fund. With this concert for Buxton, the Princeton Glee Club will return to its full peacetime program.

Despite many handicaps, the organization continued to function on a skeleton basis throughout the war, with limited support from the student body. Now with many former members returned from war service, it has again become one of the most popular organizations at Princeton.

Among its 75 members are boys from the Naval ROTC, and Marine V-12 program as well as veterans and civilians.

The director, Russell Aimes Cook, now in his fifth year of leadership, is the conductor of the Portland, Me., Symphony Orchestra, as well as a nationally known conductor of collegiate, choral and orchestral groups.

The repertoire of the Glee Club ranges from the Sacred church music of Bach and Handel, through some modern music of Debussy and Prokofeff, to arrangements for men's voices of selections from Gershwin's "Porgy and Beas" and the currently popular "Oklahoma."

Particular attention is being paid to the music of Randall Thomson, distinguished composer, now a member of Princeton's music faculty.

Mrs. Ralph E. Hartwell, of Fairview avenue, Orange is chairman of the benefit, and Mrs. E. Allen Smith, Jr., of Hillview terrace, co-chairman of the Buxton committee in charge of affairs. Mrs. R. C. Hazen of Beekman road is chairman of the committee in charge of the sale of tickets.

Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Hazen at Summit 6-3825 or by calling the Buxton Country Day School, Short Hills 7-3030. Other members of the committee working for the success of the concert are: Mrs. Percy W. Brough of Summit avenue; Mrs. J. E. Allen and Mrs. John Morgan of Orange, Mrs. Ralph Seaman of Short Hills, Mrs. H. C. Brewster of Madison, Mrs. C. S. Smith of Morristown, Mrs. W. L. Houson of Chatham, Mrs. M. W. Salsbury of Maplewood, Mrs. Claren Irion of Essex Fells, and Mrs. S. J. Mar-rant of Elizabeth.

Thrift Shop Manager

MRS. RUTH BURRAS

Thrift Shop Profits Given For Welfare Work In Summit

"Everything from a gas stove to a toothpick" is what customers of the Thrift Shop come looking for, says Mrs. Ruth Burras, manager of the shop for the Junior Service League. The League took over the Thrift Shop in 1934, and Mrs. Burras has worked with League members on the project for nearly ten years. Last year she was elected the League's first honorary member "as a token of the sincere friendship and esteem" which League members felt for her. Mrs. Burras is also well known in Summit for her work in the Playhouse, which she has served in many capacities, as secretary, actress, and on various committees.

This is Thrift Shop week, when the Service League appeals to Summit to help re-stock the shop with contributions of used clothing, housewares, bric-a-brac, and miscellaneous articles. From the proceeds of last year's sales, the League contributed $6,000 to Summit charities, Red Cross, and Overlook Hospital.

While the Herald reporter was in the shop, one customer bought 30 pairs of shoes at ten and twenty cents a pair, to send to overseas relief. Three salesgirls, volunteer workers from the League, wrapped them for her.

"I hope Thrift Shop week will bring us in more shoes and clothes," said Mrs. Burras. "They have been going out as fast as we get them. We know how great is the need abroad, but we still have our needy in Summit. There's one man, a veteran of the last war, who has been coming in every week for months now; he needs a suit; but we just haven't had one to sell him."

Mrs. Burras turned to answer an inquiry about an electric hot-plate, another about baby-bottles, a third about an antique pitcher. None of them, she said, is unusual. "We may have any one of those things among the contributions that come in this week or next," she said.

Asked how she felt about her decade of Thrift Shop work, Mrs. Burras said she has thoroughly enjoyed it. "Our customers include a representative cross-section of Summit, and all ages from four to eighty. I've enjoyed meeting them. "Most of all," she continued, "The Thrift Shop is doing such a very worthwhile job in Summit that I'm proud to be associated with it. All our profits go to help Summit welfare work. And the Shop itself helps Summit people who need a place where they can outfit them-

Victory Clothing Drive Opens, PTA Gives Direction

TOWNSHIP — The Township's Victory Clothing Collection got under way Tuesday and will continue through January 31 under the direction of the Columbia School P.T.A. All donations of clothing are to be sent to the Columbia School in Plainfield avenue on any school day between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m.

Committee members include Mrs. O. H. Hutchins, Mrs. R. C. Stephenson, Mrs. N. J. Eich, the Rev. Norman Walz, and Supervising Principal of Schools, Leo G. Fuchs.

Chairman Salem Boorujy of the Summit drive has contributed cartons in which to pack the clothes as well as trucks with which to move the collection after it has been completed.

The committee is anxious to inform the public of the things desired and not desired. Things most needed are coats, suits, trousers, skirts, dresses, shirts, sweaters, underwear, shoes, overboots, pajamas, night gowns knitwear, blankets, bedding piece goods, remnants, draperies.

The things not desired are straw hats, toys, feather beds, pillows, mattresses and household furnishings.

The test of what to give is not the article's state of repair, but whether it will be useful. Garments should be clean and sanitary but need not be ironed or dry cleaned.

In case you don't know, the local drive is part of a nation-wide clothing drive for overseas relief being conducted on behalf of UNRRA (the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration). President Truman believing that campaign to be imperative called upon Henry J. Kaiser, West Coast industrialist to be its national chairman.

TOWNSHIP — Filing as candidates for election to the Regional Board of Education are two new candidates from Mountaintop and two from Garwood, while James M. Duguid, incumbent, will be unopposed as the Springfield candidate, Anton S. Swenson, district clerk, reported yesterday.

Ice Hockey Under The Lights On The Berkeley Heights Municipal Skating Rink

TOWNSHIP — See the youngster with a patch on each knee. He is providing a bit of comedy Friday night on the Berkeley Heights Municipal skating rink as he gets in the road of a hockey player hard after the puck. Operated under the auspices of the Recreation Committee of New Providence Township, the skating rink attracts hundreds of youngsters every week both day and night. Two powerful arc lights make the rink as light as day after sunset. The rink also attracts many oldsters. On school days, the rink offers an additional facility to the athletic program at Columbia School where a number of hockey teams have been formed. Chairman George S. May of the Recreation Committee and Township Committeeman Charles M. Monica testify to the many congratulations they have received from parents here in the township for "pioneering in this kind of constructive youth work."

Mr. Monica as chairman of the Township Committee's recreation committee is credited with the idea of establishing the rink and placing it opposite the Municipal Building where it can be supervised to the best advantage—all with the approval of the Township Committee as part of the money appropriated for recreation.—(Photo by Jay.)

Out of a total of 667 pupils taking the Patch Test for tuberculosis last month, 528 were negative and 139 were positive. Records show that 231 cases were positive from other years. All positive cases (371) will be X-rayed in the gymnasium Thursday.

Miss Kay Johnson, art instructor, plans to purchase a canopy to cover the ceiling of the gymnasium. The Student Council will advance the money for the canopy, and any class giving a dance will repay the Student Council with the money that would have been used for decorations.

Addresses P.T.A. On Progress Of New School

TOWNSHIP — The money is in hand and the architect has completed his plans for the new addition to Columbia School, President Joseph Mulholland of the Board of Education declared Tuesday night as he addressed the Columbia School P.T.A. on various matters of school interest to the community. He reported that the bus firm transporting township children to Regional High School in Springfield had purchased a new modern bus for this purpose which seats 54. The school board head urged all voters to exercise their franchise at the Regional School Board election in February, further announcement of which will be found elsewhere in this paper. He also placed emphasis upon the township's school election on Wednesday, February 13, announcement of which is also found elsewhere in this paper.

Speaking of the proposed enlargement of the Township Board of Education from three to five members, President Mulholland said that five members could better represent the whole community since the population of the municipality is now so widely scattered. Too, he explained, the enlarged school plant and its added educational program and facilities placed a very heavy burden of responsibility upon the present three members of the board.

President Mulholland explained that should the electorate approve the enlarged board, they would take office February, 1947, with two members being elected for three years, two for two years, and one for one year. In the meantime the present board will continue to serve until 1947. Should the vote not be favorable, the board member elected at the February 13 next election here will take office for three years. At present writing the only candidate to file has been President Mulholland.

Prizes at the Salmagundi Party were awarded as follows: first prize, Mrs. Larry Proesch, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris, and Mrs. Harold I. Curtis. The refreshment committee with Mrs. Leighton C. Seaver as chairman concluded the evening's program. Mrs. N. J. Eich, president, conducted the meeting.

BLEACHER SEATS AVAILABLE

It can't be said that bleacher seats are available at the High School basketball games. "First there, first served" is the motto. The January 11 game here against Chatham saw a new all-time record for attendance established for a High School game according to Al Gast, faculty manager of athletics. In all probability tomorrow night's game here when Summit plays host to Millburn will find another all-time record established.

However, "standing room" only can't be applied to the Saturday night games of the Y.M.C.A. Comets on their own floor nor to the Community Basketball League games on the High School court. Plenty of good bleacher seats go begging at these games. If it is class fans are looking for, they will find plenty of it at these non-school games, for most of the players are former high school and college luminaries. Yes, the games are plenty fast and the officiating is of the best.

MIGHT AS WELL BE SPRING

The warm, spring-like weather that bobs in between days of freezing temperature, etc., and the talk of baseball makes it spring in January. Much to this writer's surprise he has heard considerable baseball talk at recent basketball games. As far as the High School's fortunes on the diamond this coming spring are concerned, the talk inevitably turns to Johnny Clark. It seems that every season Coach Elwood C. Cornog always bobs up with an outstanding mound performer. For the past two seasons Summit High had a stellar mound performer in "Lefty" Bill George, whose brilliance somewhat overshadowed the excellent work that Clark was doing. Unless this scribe is all wrong, this will be Clark's season to shine.

And talking about baseball, the Summit Red Sox will stand to gain if Bob Brydon, ex-Marine sergeant decides not to continue his professional career. Summit fans don't have to be reminded that Brydon is one of the most colorful and brilliant players to come up from local ranks in the past decade. Should he decide to cavort on local pastures this coming season, opposition fielders should start to get their legs in shape now to chase some of "Bull's" extra-base plys. For opposition catchers—when Brydon gets on, you had better keep an eye on him because stealing bases is a specialty with the ex-Marine.

THE STRONG HELPS THE WEAK

Basketball games, several dozen of these appealing shows, have been scheduled in all sections of the State as a means of raising funds to carry on the fight against infantile paralysis in hospitals and research laboratories throughout the nation. Inquiries have been made of local cage leaders if they would be willing to undertake such a game in Summit, the entire proceeds to go to the Polio Committee here headed by Postmaster Daniel J. Fitzpatrick. To date no action has come of these inquiries. The March of Dimes program extends over a two weeks' period ending January 31. This hasn't deterred Jersey's sports minded followers who don't recognize such trivialities as deadlines. They're determined to do their share for this worthy cause. How about it? Aren't there two basketball teams in Summit of accepted class who will step forward and do their share for this worthy cause? The Herald is willing to work with any groups who will organize such a game, all the proceeds of which will go to the polio fund. Such a game will be a magnificent response of the strong to the needs of the weak.

Two Games Tonight in Community Loop

The third session of the Community Basketball League tonight on the High School gym will find the Comets squared off against North Summit starting at 8 o'clock and the Easterners pitted against the Hilltoppers starting at 9 o'clock.

Summit Faces Columbia Away; Millburn Here

Summit travels to Columbia High School, South Orange-Maplewood, Monday afternoon seeking revenge for a setback suffered earlier this season from the Essex County aggregation who have been bumped around aplenty. Coach Roy Nuttall's Cougars will face a Summit team greatly improved over the haphazard outfit encountered here at the start of the season. Unless all predictions go by the board, tomorrow night will find a record attendance of basketball fans in Summit High's gym as the Maroon and White play host to Coach Frank Focht's Millburn quintet.

Both teams have a somewhat similar record playing in and out ball, looking good one game, and then slipping away the next time. The Millers put up their best game of the season holding Verona, the Suburban Conference leaders, to a 36-53 score. Captain Bobby Pearson of the Millers will get plenty of help tomorrow night from Russio Pollock, a transfer student from Chicago and a Buster Sampson. Unless there is a deviation from previous games, Luce and Clark will probably pace Summit's game with Donio, Kietzman and Sorenson in supporting roles.

Freddy (Red) Cochrane, world's welter-weight champion, and Tony "Two Ton" Galento, erstwhile heavyweight stellar attraction, sparked St. Teresa's Holy Name Society's corn-beef and cabbage dinner January 18 at St. Teresa's which more than 250 were attracted. Reader's left to right: Galento; Ray Smith, general chairman for the dinner; Cochrane, who acted as toastmaster, and Father John A. Kelly, assistant pastor at St. Teresa's. Also prominent among those at the dinner was Victor Marsella, fight promoter from Camden. Serving with Smith on the dinner committee were Ray Kerrigan and Larry Jones. Galento and Cochrane emphasized the part that sports could take in the society's program.—(Photo by Jay.)

Independents Take Pole Cats in Second Swing

The Independents, winning in the first round robin of the Senior Basketball League, worried themselves Saturday through their first win of the Y.M.C.A.'s second swing around the local loop. The entire game was close as the Independents and the Pole Cats tried to outdo each other mid hoops and nets and hounding balls. Art Cotterell and his cultured arm proved too much for the Pole Cat five. Cotterell's 10 points were the foundation around which the Independents built their victory. Phil Trowbridge produced a 10-point gift by means of his five field goals and thus made himself an active part of the offensive play. John Ace Clarke followed the pace setters with six tallies.

Verona Too Strong For Summit, 44-36, in Loop Tilt

Verona High won undisputed possession of first place Tuesday afternoon in the Suburban Conference race on its own floor by handing Summit a 44-36 defeat. It was the old story of too much Buckley Hatchett and his scoring twin, Mac Hemion. Hatchett won scoring honors with 18 points closely followed by Hemion with 14 markers. None of the Summit boys were able to hit the double scoring list though Luce chalked up nine points with Sorenson and Clark chipping in with eight each.

Three-Way Tie For 2nd Place in City Pin Loop

As the result of the matches at the 15th session of the City Bowling League Thursday night on the Woodruff alleys in Springfield a three-way tie ensued for the loop's runner-up position. This state of affairs developed as Garguilo took two out of three from the Commuters and Carter Publishing Co. administered similar medicine to the Chamber of Commerce. As matters stand Garguilo, Carter Publishing Co. and the Chamber of Commerce are tied for second place. Roots swept their three matches against Charlins.

Moroney-Brenn Add to Lead in City Doubles

Moroney-Brenn added another point to their lead in the City Doubles League on January 18 by taking three points from Nardello-Bontempo, but it is expected this lead will be cut when they bowl the high scoring team of Baum-Schoenweiser this week, with the possibility of again rolling them next week on bump night. Roy Baum rolled high three game series of 601 with high game of 224. Bob Hennessey rolled high game for the night 234, which was wasted as Ray Taylor hit 159 in this game and they lost it to Faul-Casper by one pin. Both Hennessey and Casper, each working on strikes in the ninth frame, struck out—Casper needed his last strike to win the game. Brydon-Reinauer, with the aid of 26 pins, pulled an upset by taking three points from the second place team of Dorwart-Wieboldt.

Elementary Schools Basketball Loop In 2nd Session

Last Friday afternoon the teams which comprise the Elementary School Basketball League, found themselves playing to a capacity crowd at the High School gymnasium. The assembled crowd was composed of students of the respective schools and parents who came to see their sons play, which had a "heart warming effect" upon those in charge of the league to know that the community actually has this Elementary School athletic program in its interests.

In the first game of the afternoon the boys from Jefferson School romped off to a 17 to 4 victory over Roosevelt School. It was Anthony Petraco of Jefferson who held scoring honors for this game with six points, closely followed by Richard Dennis and Donald Crann with four points each. The Roosevelt team just could not seem to find the basket, but both teams improved in guarding their opponent.

The afternoon's second game had Brayton School defeating Franklin School by the slim margin of 11 to 9. Franklin School squad showed much improvement over the previous week and began to score. Brayton team had a well rounded floor game with emphasis on guarding their opponent in the final minutes of play. Barry Closs was high man for Franklin with six points, while Van Goltz led Brayton team with six points also.

The final game of the day brought Washington and Lincoln together, in a game which featured the height of Lincoln's team over the passing ability of the Washington squad. Lincoln defeated Washington by the score of 29 to 1. It was Johannes Grisy who showed Lincoln team the way to victory by scoring 11 points, with Craig McClelland and Russel

Stocks scoring eight points each for the Lincoln cause. Luigi Santelli was the bright spot in the Washington attack scoring all three of his teams points.

The league standing to date is as follows:

Summit Reaches .500 Mark Taking Westfield, 51-43

Summit High School's cagers invaded the lair of Westfield High's Blue Devils on Friday night and came away having won its fourth game in eight starts. The final score of 51-43 could be considered a good indication of the superiority displayed by the Summit boys.

Luce and Clark, Summit's scoring twins, won honors in this department Friday night with 18 points and 15 points, respectively. Summit displayed uncanny ability in making fouls, garnering 13 shots out of a possible 17 which is a new high for this season for the Maroon and White in this department.

Considering that Westfield had only nine free shots and made seven of them, shows that both teams were "on the beam." Summit had a slight advantage in goals, marking up 19 to 18 for the home team. Summit's Sorenson won scoring honors shooting fouls marking up five out of eight.

Summit's jayvees didn't fare as well as their varsity brethren, losing a 30-20 match to their Westfield (counter)-parts. In this junior game Brady and Schroppe swished the hopes for 11 points for the victors.

At the Strand

FRED ASTAIRE

All the facets of entertainment are blended in the new M-G-M technicolor musical, "Yolanda and the Thief," which is now at the Strand Theater for three days, today, Friday and Saturday. It is an ideal vehicle for Fred Astaire and Lucille Bremer, who scored in "Ziegfeld Follies," and who again prove themselves an acting, dancing and singing team of calibre.

Astaire is at his best as the light-fingered crook who finds himself "guardian angel" of a beautiful young heiress. Charming his way into her heart, as well as into her safe, he is well on his way to confiscating her fortune when the girl's real guardian steps in with unexpected results.

Miss Bremer is delightful as the naive maiden who places her trust and her bonds into Astaire's slippery fingers, and in the numerous musical sequences proves herself a perfect singing and dancing partner for Astaire.

Much of the picture's laughs and it abounds in them—come from Frank Morgan and Mildred Natwick, the Broadway comedienne. Morgan is cast as Astaire's partner in crime, affable and willing but not much of a help since his is the type of mentality that tries to sell an oil well to the man who owns it! Miss Natwick is riotous as Yolanda's aunt who can't resist a salesman, or any man, for that matter.

Imagination has been shown in the settings of the mythical state in which the story takes place, and the musical scenes, including a carnival scene and a dream ballet, are strikingly lovely.

Scott Hi-Y Pancakes Blue Streaks, 41-14

In the second game played Saturday afternoon in the Senior League of the YMCA, a strong Scott Hi-Y team overpowered the new Blue Streaks to the tune of 41-14. The first quarter was close, ending 11-7, in favor of the Scotts; however, early in the second quarter the Hi-Yers pulled away from the Streaks, leaving them decidedly blue. The remainder of the con-Dean Travis led the losers with five points with Allsopp-Ghizzoni and Corcoran adding up 10 points between them.

For the Scott Hi-Y team, Pott and Croyder both totaled 15 points. Scott and John Bunnell shared five point honors and Steeber heaved in a foul shot.

Indians Take Potts', 8-3

The Eighth Grade Indians moved into first place in the Neighborhood Hockey League Saturday afternoon by defeating Potts' team, 8-3, at Surprise Lake. Bebe Thole tallied four of the winners' goals. Johnny Eades and Herb Moser taking the place of the Pattison brothers, who were unable to attend, played a creditable game. Leyton Schultz scored four for the Indians. Norman Pott pushed over two goals for the losers and Euing a lone tally.

How to Keep Nuts So Plentiful Now For Summer Needs

Why not conserve the crisp, fresh goodness of those nuts so plentiful now?

Even a few days in a warm, moist atmosphere and the pleasant crunchy texture is no more. The action of air, hastened by heat, turns the oil in the kernels rancid. Mold and insects also cause damage if shelled nuts are left exposed to atmospheric conditions.

Remember the days last summer when neither walnuts nor pecans most wanted for home cooking were available, either shelled or unshelled?

There are ways of keeping the nuts you use most on tap always fresh and ready for use. And there are tricks to shelling pecans so none of the meat is lost.

One good way to keep nut meats is to can them. The meats are first heated and dried in a slow oven, then packed hot in sterilized pint jars, and either processed 15 min. in a boiling water bath with the water two inches up on the jar, or in a steam pressure canner for 10 min. at five lb. pressure.

Almost anyone welcomes a tip to take the drudgery out of shelling nuts. And pecans are frequently hard to remove, even after the shell is broken. That is why the Extension Agents in Mississippi found last year that demonstrations on short cuts in shelling were as popular as demonstrations on canning pecans.

Pecan Custard Pie is one suggestion for an extra-special dessert.

Pecan Custard Pie

Change Baked Ham By Adding Cranberries
If you are one of the numerous families that are being invited out for dinner and still feel that you should serve a warm meal at home at night when you return, plan on something like Baked Ham with Cranberries. It can be partly cooked hours ahead, or even the day before, and then finished just before serving. Really it's a grand dish, and has a nice honey festive air about it.

Baked Ham With Cranberries
3 cups cranberries
1 1/2 cup strained honey
2 tablespoons whole cloves
2 slices ham (3/4 to 1 inch thick)

Mix cranberries and honey. Gash edges of fat on ham. Place one slice ham in baking dish. Spread the center with a mixture of cranberries and honey. Top with second slice. Cover with remaining cranberry and honey mixture. Garnish with whole cloves. Bake until done in a moderate oven (350 F.) about 1 1/2 hours—basting occasionally with liquid in dish.

Spaghetti Recipe For Small Family

What is better than a plate of spaghetti? Every now and then every woman craves it and every man demands it!

Here is a recipe that is for a small family—and one that seems to fit right into the heart of everyone.

Spaghetti A L'Ohio
1/2 package spaghetti (small package)
1/2 cup mushrooms
2 slices lean bacon
1 medium sized onion
1 pound ground round steak
1 can tomato soup
1 small chopped pimento
1/2 teaspoon salt
Speck pepper

Parboil the spaghetti for seven minutes. Drain. Peel and stew the mushrooms for 15 minutes. (Canned mushrooms may be used.) Cut the bacon in small pieces, and fry crisp. Add chopped onions and meat and cook five minutes. Add the spaghetti and mushrooms, the soup, pimento, seasonings and butter. Combine thoroughly and pour into well greased baking dish. Bake in an oven of 350 F. for 30 minutes.

Try baking a slice of ham in spaghetti sauce. Pour syrup left from pickling fruits over a veal roast, or add flavor.

Add a Little Extra

Often you have heard it said that familiarity breeds contempt—but there's one time you'll find that it is not true. If you serve the family deserts such as rice pudding, snow pudding, blanc-mange and apple betty, they'll never tire of them. And there are a dozen different ways each particular dessert can be changed—not much, but just enough to make it appear that it's something entirely different. For instance, dress puddings up with such delicious ingredients as coconut, and notice the complete change that takes place!

Coconut Rice Pudding
4 tablespoons uncooked rice
4 cups milk
1/2 cup sugar

1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup shredded coconut

Wash rice thoroughly, combine with milk, sugar, salt and butter in greased baking dish. Bake in slow oven (325 F.) 2 hours, stirring well every 30 minutes. Add coconut and mix well; then continue baking 1/2 hour more. Serve hot or cold.

5 1/2 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 cups milk

Add coconut and cool. Fold in egg whites and vanilla; turn into individual molds. Chill. Unmold and garnish with tart jelly.

Condiments, such as catsup and chili sauce, need not take up valuable space in your refrigerator.

Peanuts Mean a Lot More Than a Circus

Peanuts may mean a circus to some people or peanut butter and jelly sandwiches to others, but to me they mean peanut butter in ice cream.

Here is a really melt-in-your-mouth and trickle-down-your-spine, utterly captivating ice cream whose claim rests most delightfully on the fact that peanut butter is one of the ingredients.

And then when you add the chocolate sauce upon serving, well—need I say anything more!

Peanut Butter Ice Cream
1 cup sugar
1/8 teaspoon salt
1 cup peanut butter
1 cup hot water
2 cups cold water

Mix sugar, salt and peanut butter. Add hot water. Stir to blend thoroughly. Add remaining water and milk. Pour into freezing tray and stir every half hour until frozen. This makes about two quarts.

Stuffed Squash For Main Dish
There are so many times when a hearty vegetable dish provides a most tempting main course for dinner. Baked squash, when used in combination with other vegetables is ideal.

Baked Stuffed Squash
Cut two small sweet potato squash in halves, lengthwise, remove seeds and scrape out all the stringy fibers. Dust with salt. Mix together two cups soft bread crumbs, one teaspoon sage, one-half teaspoon salt, few grains pepper and one fourth cup melted butter and add enough liquid to moisten (between two and four tablespoons). If canned beans are used, liquid from beans is excellent. Add one cup stringless cooked beans cut in inch pieces and all the squash with this stuffing. Bake slowly (325 F.) until squash is tender, from one to one and one-half hours. Serve four.

Rabbit Can Almost Be Made Into Deer
If "daddy" goes out for a deer, and comes home with only a rabbit, here is a way to prepare it that will make him forget his disappointment and really be glad that he did get the little bunny.

Rabbit Roast
3 tablespoons olive oil
1 rabbit
4 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 clove garlic
2 cups water

Rub frying pan with garlic. Cut up rabbit and cook in olive oil until brown. Remove meat from pan. Stir flour into oil, brown well, add water, salt and pepper, and let it come to a boil, stirring constantly. Place meat in baking dish, pour gravy over it, cover closely and bake in a moderate oven (350 F.) until tender.

OPA Head Praises Local Members
Loyal and effective volunteer workers of local OPA boards deserve full credit for the stability of our war-time economy. State OPA director Richard Tarrant declared in a plea for cooperation in the post-war battle against inflation.

Recent consolidation of OPA administrative headquarters into the Newark office will not affect the activities of local volunteer workers, whose efforts must continue, Tarrant warned. If consumers are to receive full information about anti-inflationary measures designed to hold down the cost of living.

Urging consumers to look upon the local OPA boards as their own community information center, he stated that a large body of consumers, fully informed on price control, and determined to hold down their cost of living, is absolutely essential to the success of our program to stabilize the country's economy.

War Eclipsed Bananniversary
War news and the problems of returning peace closed 1945 newspaper pages to the seventy-fifth anniversary of the arrival of the first banana in the United States. It was in 1870 that Capt. Lorenzo Dow Baker, of the little Cape Cod village of Wellfleet, Mass., succeeded in bringing a cargo of bananas to the United States from Jamaica, British West Indies.

Previously all attempts to import the fruit had failed because the bananas spoiled during the long voyage from tropical ports. In that year, however, Baker made the trip from Jamaica in the then breath-taking speed of eleven days, and the bananas arrived in prime shape.

Transportation difficulties kept bananas off the markets to a great extent during recent years, but now that cereal competition and soda fountain delicacy is returning in greater quantities.

Dress Up in Fat

MISS RUTH ADLER examines the parts of the dress she is modeling at Perky Frox, Inc., New York City, as Arthur Fried, background, finishes the cutting process. Depleted supplies of fats and oils are one of the major reasons for the limited production of fabrics and dresses. Women are urged to accelerate their used fats to speed the production of hundreds of these household and personal items they need.

Sweet Snack Served With Hot Tea on Cool Afternoon

Chilly afternoons are wonderful times for teas—whether it is just for your family and a neighbor or two, or a large group of friends—coming for that special occasion. Nowadays we seldom plan elaborate refreshment for our own teas, nor do we expect them when we are being entertained. Something simple, but something good, and, when just one thing is to be served, most people like something sweet so we suggest—

Maple Frosting
1 1/2 tablespoons butter
1 cup confectioners' sugar
Dash of salt
1/2 cup maple-flavored syrup
Cream butter; add part of sugar gradually, blending well. Add salt and remaining sugar, alternately with maple-flavored syrup, beating after each addition until smooth.

Maple Buns
1 cup sifted flour
1/2 cup whole wheat flour
1 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 egg
1/2 cup hot water
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup maple-flavored syrup
1/2 cup cooking oil
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup chopped nut meats

Sift flour together one, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Beat egg with rotary egg beater until thick and light; add hot water gradually and continue beating until mixture thickens. Add sugar gradually, beating after each addition. Add maple-flavored syrup and oil gradually, beating only enough to blend. Add vanilla and

New Type Window Ventilator Feb. 1; Celanese Product

A new type window ventilator, virtually stormproof and at the same time admitting maximum quantities of filtered air and daylight will be obtainable in department, home furnishings, hardware and chain stores and through mail order houses beginning February 1.

Called "Air-In," the new ventilator uses translucent plastic-covered wire mesh in the form of baffles, fixed vertically over a single layer of copper screening and the whole mounted in a featherweight aluminum frame, to provide protection against drafts, dust, snow and rain. Made of Vimlite, a lightweight, weather-proof, wire-reinforced plastic glazing material produced by Celanese Plastics Corporation, the baffles also admit healthful ultraviolet and infra red rays. The frame is provided with channels for adjusting the ventilator to window sizes up to 36 inches and for catching dust. The dust can be removed later by wiping with a cloth or running water through the dust trough.

The combination of plastic and shining metal will lend a modern note to any decorative scheme, inside or out.

"Air-In" is distributed by Salmonson & Company, 1107 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

Navy Discharge Clean Sweeps Market Past Week in Boro Bowling League

BOROUGH — The 18th session of the New Providence Bowling League on the Hy-Bowl alleys in Union saw the top three teams in the league make clean sweeps of their matches against the other three teams in the loop.

The only rate in the league at the present time is the stip and took pull for second place, only a game separating the Men's Club in second place from the Five Aces resting in third place.

The Personnel Separation Center at Lido Beach announced on Saturday the honorable discharge from the Naval Service of OSF William P. Weller of Springfield Avenue.

Music Assembly At Lincoln School

BOROUGH — Friday's assembly at Lincoln School starting at 9 a. m. will feature a music program under the direction of Miss Dorothy R. Omer.

The Y.M.C.A. Comets engaged in another one of those "knock-em-down, drag-em-out" basketball games Saturday night on their own floor defeating the Roseville A. C. 54-44.

Slip Brenn and Frank Paul were the big guns for the Comets, winning first and second scoring honors with 15 and 11 points, respectively.

The Comets were unduly in their ability to shoot foul, racking up 18 points out of a possible 23 in this manner while the visitors garnered 11 out of a possible 23 via the free shot route.

Mr. Roberts points out that these tests are not to be confused with intelligence tests which are administered every three years during the nine years that pupils are in the borough schools.

The Intermediate boys of the Young Men's Christian Association launched their 1946 basketball season Saturday morning on the local "Y" court when the Jokers and the Eight Balls split a doubleheader.

Again To Give Achievement Tests In Local Schools

BOROUGH — Supervising Principal of Schools Allen W. Roberts has announced plans to administer the tests to the pupils for the ninth consecutive year.

The home room teachers will administer the marks on the tests while a group of special teachers under the direction of Miss Krayer will compile results and make the charts and graphs necessary for interpretation.

The school head adds that the results of the tests form a basis for the teachers establishing an inventory of the work of the individual pupil and to note the progress that each pupil makes.
