

Legion Auxiliary Sending Help To Starving People

Fifteen hundred boxes of clothing and concentrated foods have been shipped by the American Legion Auxiliary to children in St. Die, France. Boxes went from every state, each individually packed and addressed to an individual child in the stricken French city, which was completely destroyed during the war.

Unit 134 sent a contribution to a four-year-old girl named Christine Barber of Rue de la Corvee, St. Die. Sisters of Charity in the community of St. Die make certain that the packages are properly distributed, and each one sent is acknowledged.

It was in St. Die, France, in 1807, that the word "America" was born, being used by a local printer to designate the new continent just discovered. Because of this historical connection, Major John Emery of Michigan, while serving as national commander of the American Legion in 1921, presented a plaque to this city, commemorating the spot where the word "America" was born. Oddly enough, when St. Die was destroyed, the American Legion plaque, placed in the city by John Emery, still stood.

The American Legion Auxiliary will hold a card party Thursday evening, April 25, at the Legion Home on Elm street. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments served. Tickets can be purchased for 45 cents.

Madison Jails Summit Veteran For Tavern Break

MADISON—Robert L. Carey, 30, of Plane street, Summit, was committed to Morris County Jail Thursday by Police Recorder J. Alexander Smith to await action of the Morris County Grand Jury on a burglary charge by Police Lt. Anthony Giordano. Police said Carey admitted breaking into the Waverly Tavern in Main street here on April 9 and stealing $80, a bottle of gin, a flashlight and other items. They said he had spent the money.

Carey was arrested April 17 after the management of the Lackawanna Restaurant had difficulty in persuading him to leave that place. He has a previous record for breaking into the Lackawanna in 1938 and stealing money from the cash register, according to police. He was once a dishwasher at the Lackawanna.

Police said Carey served overseas with the Canadian Army and was shot in the right foot while in service. He was discharged last August.

American Red Cross Assists With Milk In Food Program

While plans are being made in Washington for full participation of the American Red Cross in President Truman's food conservation program to aid famine-stricken countries, the long-established civilian relief work of the Red Cross is being continued abroad, John N. May, Jr., chairman of the Summit Chapter announced today.

Mr. May called attention to the continuing relief program after receipt of a report from Ralph Bain, director of the Red Cross program in the Scandinavian countries, who recently returned to the United States.

More than 65,000 Finnish children will receive a half pint of milk daily for a 3-month period this spring through Red Cross facilities. In Norway, 20,000 children will receive a half-pint of milk daily over a four-month period. These phases are part of a total $5,000,000 relief program in the two countries.

Back in the United States for the first time in two years, Mr. Bain, also in his report to Mr. May, said that 32,000 feet of vital X-ray film as well as other supplies will go to Finland. Through the Finnish Red Cross the X-ray film will be transferred to a government unit combating tuberculosis.

The report also pointed out that a principal form of relief in Finland and Norway has been the distribution of 1,500,000 garments produced by Red Cross chapter workers in this country. The American Red Cross has been instrumental also in providing certain much-needed medical supplies.

Boy Scout Troop Presents Program For Family Night

Scouter Thorne, a veteran in the field since 1910 and a former Scoutmaster, gave an illustrated lecture on reptiles at a recent family night program given by Boy Scout Troop No. 62 which is sponsored by the Men's Club of Central Presbyterian Church. Mr. Thorne explained treatment for snake bites, how to handle reptiles, and their economic value. He promised to return at an early date with a demonstration of live snakes.

The meeting opened with a salute to the flag and an explanation of the Scout Law by members of each patrol. Scoutmaster Kraider presented awards to various Scouts who demonstrated "outstanding characteristics or accomplishments throughout the year." Activities of the Scouts demonstrated included the production of fire by friction and by flint and steel. Many of the guests and spectators joined in a game of snatch pin.

J. L. Robinson, overall chairman of Scouting, addressed a few remarks to the parents regarding the advancement program, monthly overnight hikes, the coming camporee slated for May 18 and 19 at Camp Watchung, the summer haven of Scouts in this district. Chairman Robinson explained to parents how their boys may advance in Scouting through overnight hikes and camping.

shocked into putting teeth into the United Nations charter which will permit it to overcome the forces which have so far escaped our control. The common people of our nation have wanted war, yet from time to time they have been driven to make war by influences which elude their understanding.

"The atomic bomb of itself cannot solve the problem. The solution must come by means which would have been effective had there been no atomic bomb, namely good will and understanding. However, there is no simple way to secure understanding. Mistrust can be allayed greatly by delivering the atomic bomb into the care and keeping of the United Nations organization and this object is one which we must strive to accomplish. However, it would be folly to assume that the nations are united because they have formed something called 'United Nations.' It is the fact of union, not the name, which is vital.

"I see no answer but to strive in every way to achieve union, preferring the knowledge of the atomic bomb to the organization when it gives evidence of having become united in fact. That is the direction in which we appear to be moving. The more problems we solve amicably, such as those of Iran and Spain, the nearer we shall be to our goal. In the meantime it is essential that we do nothing to arouse suspicion of an intention to use the atomic bomb ourselves and thus set off an atomic armament race. We might be better off diplomatically today, if we had not used it in Japan—merely announced it and demonstrated it internationally. But that is now water over the dam and all are grateful for whatever shortening of the war the use of the bomb produced.

"Certainly, all our dispositions regarding the bomb should contemplate turning it over to the United Nations. Every step taken should be toward such a consummation but we must not be impatient if it takes another year to realize this result. It is not yet time to escort visiting scientists from all nations to see our atomic bomb plants. That would be paying the money before the contract is signed. There must first be an understanding as to how it will be used, if at all, where the United Nations plants will be located, how international inspections will be carried out—these and scores of other questions. This will take time, but its friendly negotiation will go far to erect the foundation of good will on which the ultimate success of world organization must rest. What is most needed as proof of the existence of mutual faith is the abrogation of the veto power of the big five under the charter. That will mark a new day in history."

"It might interest people in Summit to know that 37 per cent of the total quota is taken from the house-to-house canvass," reported Mr. von Duhn. "This is one of the most difficult jobs in the whole drive, and it's been handled most successfully by Mrs. Bernard for the past eight years. She and all her workers deserve the highest commendation. Special gifts bring in a large share of the money with 33 per cent of the total. Business and industry contribute 13 per cent, and outstanding in this group is Ciba Pharmaceutical Products, Inc., who gave impetus to the campaign with the first and largest contribution of $1,500. The branches raised 10 per cent of the total. In the two movie theaters, $911 was collected. The special events as a whole will net over $2,600. The expenses for running the entire drive are only one per cent which is used mainly for publicity, window displays, car signs, milk bottle collars, etc.

"May I again express my appreciation for the fine public response," concluded Mr. von Duhn, "and to all workers for the wonderful result. There should be a great satisfaction in knowing that we have done our share to maintain the great humanitarian peace-time program of the Red Cross."

strengthen the organization and procedures of the United States Congress, and what economic policies the League can support to insure maximum production and employment in our own country. The League convention will be a "working" affair. There will be no visitors, no parties, no sightseeing trips, no extras. In signing the call to such a strenuous session, Miss Anna Lord Strauss, national president, said: "The United States has only begun to assume its responsibility.

long overdue, for leadership in world democracy. Much practice is needed to become good citizens of 'One World.' Such things are the concern of the League of Women Voters, now, more than ever, determined to make democracy succeed. Such is the important business which we will further if we make wise decisions in the meeting of our representative assembly, the Convention."

trayed by Mr. Bernard as being "a superior group of men." He said the dire prophecies made by some about the number of cases of psychosis and other psychological cases that would result have been entirely unfounded. The speaker declared the number of these cases has been very negligible.

Mr. Bernard explained that employers in this area are most cooperative in restoring servicemen to their former positions as required under the GI Bill of Rights. While not professing to have the solution to the housing shortage which has proved such a problem for returning veterans, the speaker asserted the work of the American Legion toward helping to solve the problem is undoubtedly an effort in the right direction. He gave a couple of instances where veterans had been sold property at a price way out of keeping with its value.

complaints were initiated by the City of Summit against the Suburban Apartments, Inc., each complaint alleging failure to obtain permit to operate a boarding house from January 19 to 23 inclusive.

Last Wednesday the defendant pleaded guilty to all five complaints and agreed to withdraw the appeal and pay the $50 fine and $20 for each of the five other complaints, making a total of $150.

It was further disclosed that the Suburban Apartments, Inc., made application for a writ of certiorari before the Supreme Court which was heard by Justice Case on March 2. The application for the writ was denied.

The Suburban Apartments, Inc., has agreed not to make any more appeals, and if any vacancies occur at said premises, the same are not to be filled. Besides paying the above fines, the defendant also reimbursed the city solicitor for services rendered in connection with the application for the writ of certiorari.

Mrs. Reginald F. Pearson, who has served as treasurer for the past eight years, states that each of those years has shown increasing contributions—1939-$853.25, 1940-$781.32, 1941-$1,102.00, 1942-$1,256.55, 1943-$1,360.18, 1944-$1,843.17, 1945-$2,810.53, 1946-$3,025.00.

The small son of one of Summit's doctors, hearing a lot about the disease, held a sale of little articles and raised 71 cents which he donated. Another boy, who had suffered from polio himself and recovered, collected contributions in his neighborhood to the amount of $12.70.

Mr. Fitzpatrick expressed his thanks to the public who contributed, to the merchants who gave space for the coin boxes, and those who helped advertise, as well as all others who worked for the success of the drive.

times, announced Mrs. Mildred L. Robinson, supervisor of nature recreation, groups of 25 or more will be permitted access to the museum by special arrangements.

Nature activities listed on the program contain a wide variety of subjects. Scheduled for May are: A one-day Nature Conference, on May 5; a field trip, conducted by Mrs. Charles Rogers of Princeton, on May 13; Hiking Clubs, sponsored by the Union County Hiking Club, on May 26; Open House for Garden Clubs, under the direction of Mrs. E. Anderson of the Torrey Botanical Club, on May 30.

A program of scheduled activities for the season is available on request by writing to the Union County Park Commission.

The host club for the month of May will be the Trailside Museum committee, with James B. Hawley as chairman.

In addition to the Sunday programs, the museum will sponsor several nature courses; one of which, "Natural History of This Area," offers two points of college credit to teachers studying at the Newark State Teachers' College.

Outline Plans

filled in the proposed new structure.

The new building will be erected on the site of the present Y.W.C.A. at Maple street and Morris avenue. The building will have a frontage of 191 feet on Morris avenue and will be 100 feet in depth.

Athletic activities of the Association will be concentrated on the lower level floor where will be located the swimming pool, gymnasium, and game rooms.

The pool, 20 feet by 60 feet, has been designed to provide for simultaneous use by both men and women. Adjacent to the pool will be locker and shower rooms. The two exterior walls of the pool will be characterized by large observation windows that will permit entrance of a maximum amount of sunlight. A gallery for spectators will also be constructed at one end of the pool.

In order to provide complete purification of water, the pool will be equipped with an advanced method of sanitation. Hygienic engineers have advised local Y.W.C.A. authorities that the improved chlorination process will purify the water without trace of chlorine or other objectionable after-effect.

The gymnasium, 40 feet by 70 feet, will be equipped to permit adoption of a full program of sports such as basketball, volleyball, badminton, tennis, and indoor golf instruction.

Principal feature of the first floor will be a large meeting room at one end of which will be a completely equipped stage adequate to house local theatricals. It is contemplated by Y.W.C.A. authorities that the room will be used not only for meeting of the Association's own organizations but other community groups as well. The room is planned so that it will lend itself as a site for large meetings, dinners, dances, pageants, and dramatic productions. A modern switchboard, stage lighting, and counterweight system for hanging stage sets will be installed.

Another prominent first floor room will be a club lounge which will be distinguished by a large fireplace. Adjoining the lounge will be a large cafeteria and an accompanying kitchen. Observation windows will open from the cafeteria on to a landscaped terrace.

Other facilities lacking in the present quarters of the Y.W.C.A. but which will be included in the first floor of the new building are arts and crafts shops for hand-work such as woodcraft, furniture redecorating, photography, and other hobbies; a snack bar, additional rooms for discussion groups, and quarters for the health service department.

The second floor will provide space for administrative offices, a board room, and staff quarters.

Mrs. Douglas B. Baker, president of the Association, pointed out that the building plans in their present form are not fixed and final, but have been prepared so as to permit some flexibility as to detail so that the changing and possible unpredictable requirements of the organization may continue to be met.

Consulting architect for the building is Louis Jallade of New York City. Mr. Jallade is adviser to the National Board of the Y.W.C.A.

Real-Silk Salesman Takes Orders, Money

—No Nylon, Ladies

A Summit woman has informed the Herald that a man, H. J. Meredith, with credentials from the Real-Silk Co., recently called on her and took an order for nylon stockings, "delivery date uncertain." She gave him a check which was cashed immediately. Several other women also gave him orders and paid him.

After a reasonable lapse of time, she became uneasy over the non-delivery of her order, and telephoned the Real-Silk Company in Newark, who said Mr. Meredith had been one of their salesmen, but had taken the orders entirely "That movie 'Lost Week End' was terrific, wasn't it?"

 "Yes, I see the distillers are fearful that people won't really understand it and that it will give whisky a black eye."
 "I know their argument is that only 5% 'abuse alcohol.'"
 "That 5% is 600,000 Americans according to a great university. The same university is showing that several million others are excessive drinkers."

"The distillers claim they want people to drink in moderation only, yet science has found no way to determine—who of these—may or may not become an alcoholic—according to a leading scientist."
 "The drays blame whisky, the distillers blame the drinker, who do you blame?"
 "Whisky and those who make, sell, advertise, promote it. All are equally guilty. Certainly its use should be discouraged instead of encouraged, no one in authority can deny that."

National Biscuit Pension Plan

The avowed principle of the National Biscuit Company that "the greatest asset of American business today is its employees" was translated into action recently when that company announced that all employees in the Orange Branch would share in the benefits of a comprehensive pension plan to be put into operation on May 1.

Three major features of the Nabisco plan were outlined at the company's annual stockholders' meeting by George H. Coppens, president. The company will bear the entire expense, employees are given full credit for all years of continuous service with the company and pensions will be based on the last ten years of service prior to retirement, which generally speaking are the employees' years of greatest earnings. The plan makes retirement compulsory at the age of 65, with a credit of one percent for each year of continuous service.

In presenting the plan for stockholders' approval, Mr. Coppens pointed out that the move was dictated by sound business judgment and asserted that, "a soundly based pension system will promote good employee relations, will help stabilize employment by reducing turnover and will generally increase efficiency." He also pointed out that one of the most valuable by-products of the Nabisco pension plan would be its usefulness in keeping the avenues of promotion open to young and vigorous employees by providing security for retiring older employees.

Since its infancy, National Biscuit Company has had in effect an informal pension arrangement, through which the company was currently paying annual benefits amounting to more than $400,000. Under the new plan benefits to workers by the year 1965 will reach more than $1,600,000 annually.

Veterans Loan Problems

Q.—Do I go to the Veterans Administration to make a loan under the G. I. Bill?

A.—No. The Veterans Administration is not permitted to make loans. The money may be borrowed from any place in your community where people normally go to secure loans.

Q.—I am now receiving a pension through the Veterans Administration. If I re-enlist, will my pension continue?

A.—Briefly, the applicant can apply in person at the hospital or submit a completed Form P-10 by mail. In emergency conditions any doctor may phone the diagnosis to the Chief Medical Officer in Lyons, New Jersey and the veteran may be hospitalized immediately.

Q.—What is the procedure for making a loan on my World War I United States Government Life Insurance?

A.—You must personally apply for a loan by executing a Form 804 (policy loan agreement) without alteration or erasure, in the presence of a notary public or other person with a seal who is authorized to take acknowledgements. You should forward the loan agreement to the Veterans Administration with the policy.

Q.—My husband, a veteran, passed away recently. I was told that I can have part of the expenses of the funeral paid for by the government. Is this true?

A.—Yes, the Veterans Administration will pay up to $100 to help defray the burial expenses of any veteran, but you must submit your claim within two years of the date of burial.

Q.—May I claim my weekly $20.00 adjustment allowance checks if I am attending school under Public Law 16 or 346 on a part time basis, and am not receiving subsistence allowance?

A.—Yes, if you are still able and available for work.

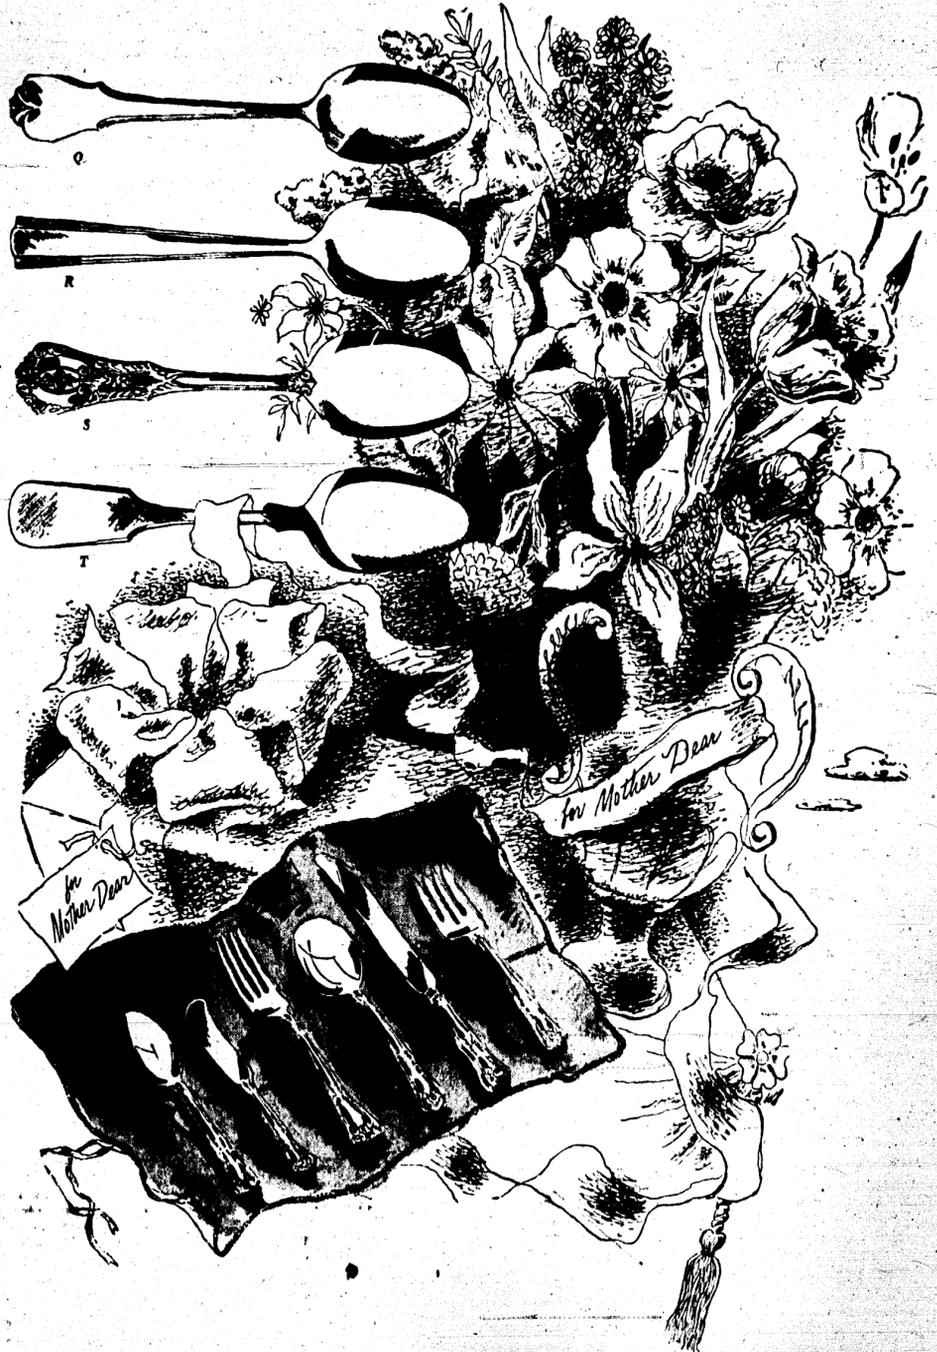

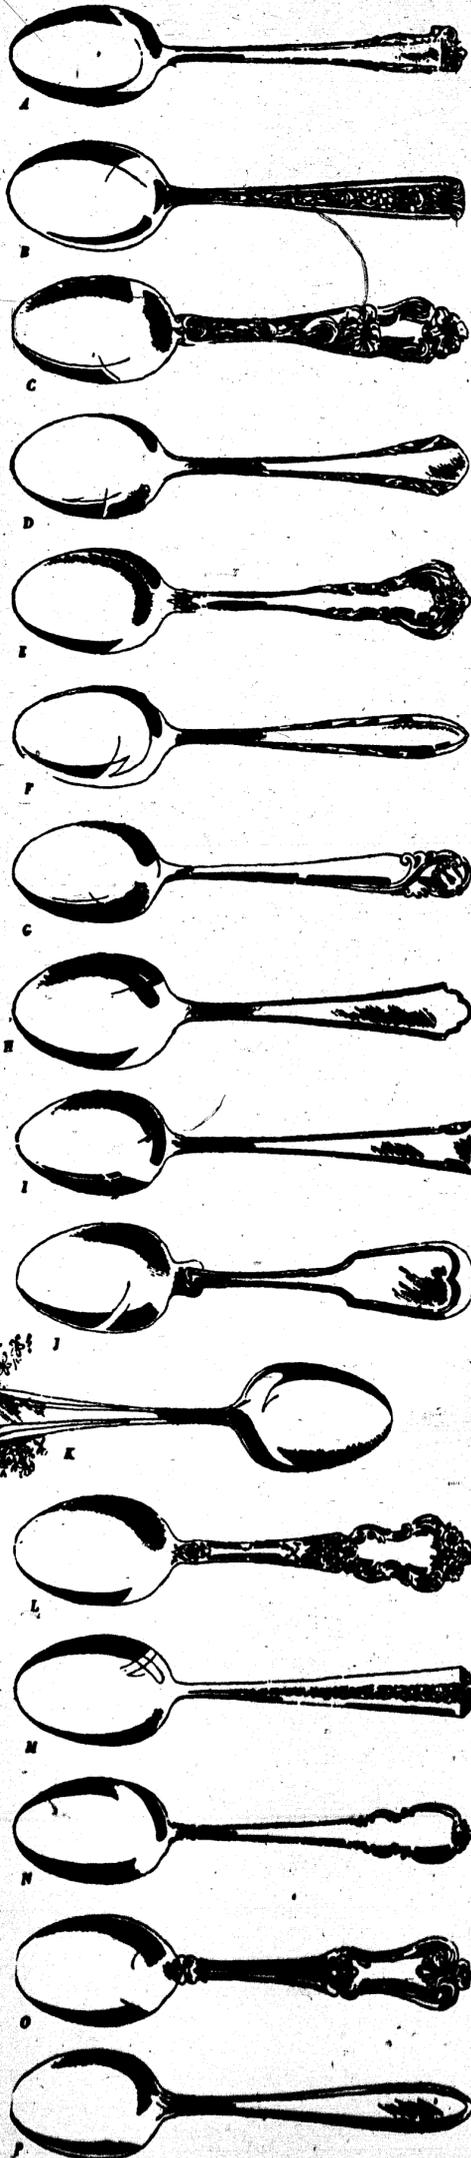

Q.—I was disabled while in service on November 23, 1941. I have applied for pension and am receiving peacetime disability benefits. What is the difference between these benefits and wartime benefits?

A.—Disabilities incurred in service prior to December 7, 1941—the starting date of the second World War, are treated as peacetime disabilities, under different rates than wartime benefits. Under Public Law 359, 77th Congress, wartime rates are provided for peacetime disabilities if the veteran was engaged in extra hazardous service, including such service under conditions simulating war.

GOOD SENSE

A statement by the Millburn-Short Hills Republican Club caught our eye last week. There's a lot of sense in it. We think some of the things it says are worth repeating.

Here's one of them: "There is too much talk against parties and against politics as if parties and politics were bad things. Parties and politics are part of our inheritance as a free, self-governing people. If we don't use them, someone else will."

Here's another: "A time when many people are asking how far communism has spread in this country, is a good time to enlist and re-enlist in our own good American parties. . . . A good way to 'get tough' with foreign 'isms' is to stop complaining and take a new interest in our own parties."

Then there's this: "Parties are a part of our political system in this country. More of us should have active party affiliations. It's part of Americanism."

The Millburn-Short Hills Republican Club made this statement in announcing a plan to stimulate party interest now rather than during the short pre-election periods. They, with a dozen other communities including Summit, South Orange, Maplewood, Irvington, Union, Springfield, Chatham, West Orange, East Orange, Montclair and Essex Fells, are going to bring in as many pre-voting-age youngsters as possible. They are going to have important speakers—beginning on May 2 with Senator Brewster of Maine.

It sounds like good vigorous democracy at a time when everyone needs a good dose of it.

As the saying goes: "We'll buy that!"

Harder Job Ahead? Students Scrub Junior High

Proud of the spring cleaning they gave Summit Junior High School April 17, more than 500 cleanliness-conscious boys and girls and a number of their teachers pondered on Thursday the laying away of their mops and scrubbing brushes and taking to harder tools to polish up the school when school resumes Monday after a week's spring vacation.

Everybody pitched in April 17 during the final 45-minute study period and annihilated dirt wherever they could find it—on walls, windows, desks and lockers.

Scores of pupils, answering a cleanup call issued at a meeting of the principal with the student council, came to school carrying pails, scrubbing brushes, soap powder and other paraphernalia.

The girls and some of the teachers wore slacks and smocks. Some of the boys wore overalls.

The cleanup, the teachers explained, wasn't caused by a lack of janitorial service, but was an experiment to impress upon the students their individual duty to help keep the building clean.

Plans Completed For Scout Trip To New Mexico

Two "wagon trains" of Senior Scouts are scheduled to leave Plainfield on the evenings of July 2 and July 6 for Philmont, the National Scout Ranch, at Cimarron, New Mexico where the Scouts will spend 28 days experiencing the adventure of real western ranch life. Philmont Ranch, a gift of Waite Phillips of Tulsa, Okla. includes 132,000 acres of western ranch land, high mountains, plains and myriads of mountain creeks, designated to be used in the development of American Boyhood through the Scouting movement.

John F. Mason, Plainfield district commissioner, of the Watching Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, has been named as one of the leaders of the two "wagon trains." His "wagon train," composed of 24 Senior Scouts will leave Plainfield on the evening of July 2 and is scheduled to arrive at Raton, New Mexico, for their journey to Philmont on July 5, while "wagon train" 2 is preparing to leave Plainfield. Mr. Mason disclosed that plans are being made to conduct a sightseeing tour of Chicago during the stopover there and that Colorado Springs and Pike's Peak are included on the itinerary for the return trip.

The leaders of the second "wagon train" have not as yet been announced. Only a few of the total of 48 reservations remain unfilled and are now on a first-come-first-serve basis for the qualified Scouts, fifteen years of age and older. Those interested from Summit are urged to act promptly in contacting the Watching Area Council Headquarters at Plainfield.

Major L. C. Jordy Tells of Military Gov't in Germany

Major L. C. Jordy of the Drew University faculty talked to the Old Guard last Tuesday about our military government in Germany. A chemical expert in World War I on poison and incendiary bombs, he was one of a group sent to England in January, 1944, to train our landing forces in meeting air raids. The danger had been great, but before D-Day, Germany had largely lost her air superiority and air raids on open beaches could not be effective. Hence the speaker and many other experts were suddenly plunged into the maelstrom of early military government. They had to do the impossible and in many cases they did it. Thus they were able in Belgium to help in the "Battle of the Bulge." When General Eisenhower's proclamation compelled the complete disarmament and the freezing of practically all equipment and all activity in a given town, it was necessary to attempt rebuilding from the beginning. Its burgomeister, or some one who could act as such, was found and set to work under military authority and all sorts of problems were faced under conflicting authority. The chief of these problems was the disposition of displaced persons, 7,000,000 of whom were in the Ruhr alone. On one occasion, on short notice, some 5,000 French prisoners of war were placed in an air raid shelter overnight and sent on their way rejoicing next day. The great need, the speaker felt, was for trained civilian leaders.

After the meeting, Dr. Jordy was the Old Guard's guest at the Blue Lantern luncheon where he continued to answer questions.

Before the address, Justin Uffinger and Frank Lawrence were welcomed back from Florida and "Rob" McNair from a siege of pneumonia. Director Thorp read a tribute to Charles L. Griffin of Maplewood, who had recently died, and Oliver Wendell Holmes' famous anniversary ode to the Harvard Class of 1829, wherein S. F. Smith, the author of "America" was called "a nice youngster of excellent birth."

At the birthday meeting on April 30, in the "Y" at 10:30 a. m., a silent film will give some glimpses of our National Parks.

Purse snatching increased 8.5%, shoplifting 6.3%, thefts from automobiles 24.6%, while thefts of bicycles declined 4.2% in 1945 over 1944.

Corn Meal Saves Flour for Europe; Some Recipes to Help

In her talk to the American Home Department last Friday, Mrs. Elizabeth Bussing gave some ideas for the greater use of corn meal. Her regular Sunday breakfast is the following:

- Spoon Bread
Scald 3 cups milk, either fresh or dried.
Add slowly 3/4 cup corn meal. Add salt and some butter, margarine, or other fat.
Beat 2 eggs, either separated or not, until foamy.
Add to hot mixture.
In the meantime, heat baking dish with a good bit of fat in it, in the oven. Pour into the hot dish the hot mixture, and bake 15 or 20 minutes at 350-375 degrees.
Serve with bacon if possible. Some prefer butter and syrup.

A Young Man's Fancy Can Turn To Music
If Dr. Gallup polled the middle aged on what accomplishment they wished they had acquired in youth we believe most would say "the ability to play a musical instrument". A big surprise would be the fact that as many men as women had the same wish. Try it among your friends. The ability to make music does not necessarily require great talent and genius. The ability to play the piano requires mostly patience and practice. To be a painter or sculptor and be satisfied with one's accomplishment one must be sparked by genius. But in music there is pleasure for all, layman as well as virtuoso. Men of the world of statesmanship, finance, law, engineering and medicine find relaxation and pleasure in making and enjoying music. Remember this in planning the education of your boy. Long after he ceases to play football or baseball; long after his study of mathematics and physics are over he will find endless happiness in his knowledge and ability to play a musical instrument.

Summit Man Commits a Limerick

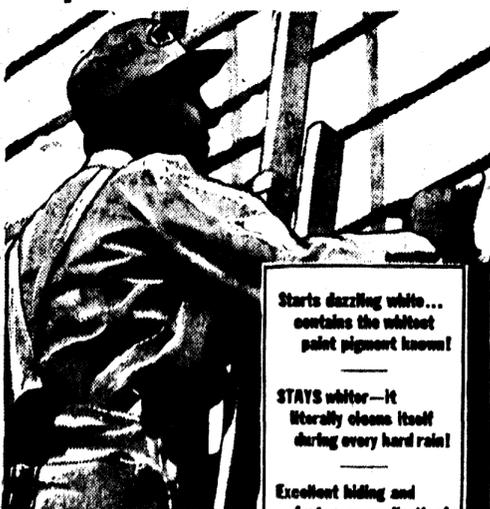

A few days ago a Summit man and his wife were seated in their car watching the bathing on a Florida beach. Young persons were passing their car who "seemed to have something on their minds." In a Delaware car parked nearby sat an elderly woman, her features registering something less than approval. The lyric muse hit the Summit man a staggering blow with the following result:

Said a matronly person from Del.
"Of the up-to-date fashions I'm wel.
Let the young find relief
In the bra and the brief,
I had rath, Del. and."

When he read it to his wife she asked: "That's terribly funny, but where did she get it?"

NEW DUPONT HOUSE PAINT keeps white houses WHITER

Starts dazzling white... contains the whitest paint pigment known!

STAYS whiter—it literally cleans itself during every hard rain!

Excellent hiding and fast, easy application!

Looks better longer... needs fewer repaintings!

New "Self-Cleaning" formula now available in light colors, too.

It's brilliantly white... tough... durable! Du Pont House Paint keeps houses beautiful because it stays cleaner! Here's why:—

Du Pont Prepared Paint forms a tough, durable film which protects the surface from rust, rot or decay. Like all paints, it collects dirt on exposure to the elements. As time goes on, however, a fine white powder forms on the surface of this new paint. This powder is washed away by heavy rains, carrying the dirt with it, and exposing a fresh white surface. This "self-cleaning" process starts after a few months of exposure under normal conditions of weather, but may be delayed under unusual climatic or dirt-collecting conditions. Because the "self-cleaning" process is gradual, the wearing qualities of the paint film are not abnormally affected.

Its economy lies in the fact that it stretches the time between repaintings. Remember: Du Pont House Paint costs no more than other good paints. Ask your painting contractor to use it!

conquer Cancer

CANCER strikes all ages. It takes fathers . . . and with them the family's means of livelihood. It takes mothers . . . just when they are needed to care for a family of little ones. Even little children are often its victims.

Unless we do something about it, 17,000,000 Americans now living will die of cancer.

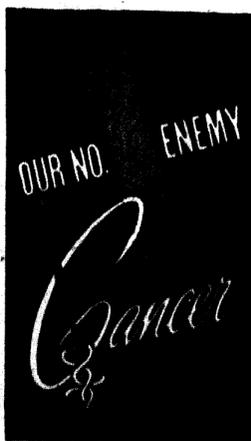

Cancer is not always incurable. Thirty to 50% of those who now die of cancer could be saved if they had recognized the "danger signals" of cancer and obtained proper treatment in time.

By a gift to the American Cancer Society, you can help save thousands of people who will otherwise die needlessly of cancer. And you can help medical science in its comprehensive attack on the cause of cancer.

Your gift to fight cancer will be used in these three ways:

1. To spread the knowledge that cancer is frequently curable if discovered early.
2. To help provide the most modern facilities everywhere for the care and treatment of cancer patients.
3. To make possible a comprehensive research program to determine the cause, prevention and cure of cancer.

No one is safe from cancer—man, woman or child. Give to fight cancer that you, your neighbor and your loved ones may live.

HIGH BRIDGE—There is to be a big celebration in this town in June. Mayor Morris W. Alpaugh called a meeting of local citizens representing Borough Council, fire companies and the American Legion at which it was decided to not only celebrate Flag Day on June 14, but to have a Welcome Home day for the men from here who have seen service in the second World War. The School Board and the Civic Association will also have a hand in the affair, which promises to be one of the biggest events in the history of the borough.

PARAMUS—While many municipalities would welcome an airport that they can't get, this town does not want one. An order to show cause on May 6 why Air Service Incorporated should not be restrained permanently from developing an airport here has been signed by Vice-Chancellor Vivian M. Lewis and a copy filed with the Board of Freeholders. The Freeholders have joined Paramus officials in the fight against the airport. Its establishment would be an annoyance to Bergen Pines Hospital and a threat to safety it is said. The borough's injunction against the airport, up for hearing before the Vice-Chancellor, resulted in a reserve decision, awaiting the outcome of the former restrain order. Legal forces will fight the battle out on May 6.

SADDLE RIVER—Saddle River straddles Saddle river. Saddle river is a noted trout stream—so what? Nothing more than that School Principal Edward J. Van Houten, with the consent of the Board of Education gave those who wanted to fish a half day in which to demonstrate their catching abilities on trout fishing opening day. Young Isaac Waltons began to appear from the streams about 10:30 to display their catches. Prizes were awarded, with first for the most caught going to Carl Stresky, who had six; largest, 12 3/4 inches, Donald Wales; Frank Hyer of the sixth and Betty Nagle of the fourth grade also captured prizes—story doesn't say what their exploits were—possibly for not falling into the stream.

MONTECLAIR—The Board of Education has a tract of land containing 3.15 acres it has decided it has no use for. Therefore it will sell same at a public auction on May 21. The location is between Valley road and the Erie railroad in Upper Montclair. The property was purchased 25 years ago and was named Commonwealth Field, and was used for athletic events. Since each school now has its own playground and as said field is used infrequently, the board has decided its sale would help relieve the housing situation in the town, as the land is in the R-3 garden apartment zone. Bidders must deposit $3,000 with their offers, balance to be paid on or before purchase. They must also agree to hold bids open eight days for investigation.

ORANGE—The National Education Association thinks that the system of preventing juvenile delinquency here is responsible for the reduction of crime in the municipality. This is gathered from the uniform crime report issued by the F.B.I. This brings forth the fact that the reduction of crime in Orange for the past three years has been better than the average for the United States. The churches, the YMCA, the YWCA, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and the Community House come in for citation as having been aids in making the record and the statement is made that they should be thanked and praised.

EAST HANOVER—Coming to town, a million dollar drug laboratory. It will be erected on Route 19 just south of Ridgedale avenue intersection. It will be for the pharmaceutical division of the Sandoz Chemical Co. The lab and administration buildings will be erected within two years. It is said it is intended to spend four hundred thousand dollars on landscaping. The company is doing test work on the migrane headache drug, dihydroergotamine, DHE for short. At the beginning 250 men will be employed which later will expand to 500.

MADISON—This borough, in conjunction with Morris and Sussex county municipalities will open a fund campaign for purchase of a camp site near Water-lous in southwest Sussex. On the property is Frenche's pond, site of a tannery which was operated for fifty years until the turn of the present century. The property contains 800 acres. It is estimated $100,000 will be required to complete purchase and erect buildings to accommodate 2,300 acouts. John Roach, Jr., Morris county freeholder and mayor of Dover has been named as general chairman.

Are You Eating Food Rich in Iron?

If you've noticed a feeling of listlessness in yourself lately, you may have called it a case of spring fever—but it could be a sign that you're not eating the right foods. Perhaps you should make a special effort to include in your diet more of the foods that are rich in iron.

It is a fact that listlessness is one of the symptoms of nutritional anemia; another is paleness or lack of color. A good many people have what is called a "borderline case" of anemia; they are not really sick, but they have a tendency to be "anemic."

This condition is caused chiefly by a lack of iron in the system. Iron is an essential part of the red coloring matter of the blood, or hemoglobin. This substance not only makes the blood a rich red color, but it also carries oxygen to all the cells in the body. This is an important job—for the cells must have oxygen in order to burn the foods we eat and create energy. When the body does not get all the iron it needs, the hemoglobin supply gets low, and the body is not able to utilize food properly—a lack of energy results.

The need for iron varies at different ages and with different people. The ones who need the most are infants, adolescent boys and girls, and pregnant and nursing women. The need is also high whenever there has been a loss of blood—as, for example, when you have given a pint of blood to the Blood Bank.

Not all of the iron in the food we eat is used by the body; so it is important to eat a good supply of foods that are rich in this mineral. The iron in animal foods is used more readily by the body than the iron in most vegetable foods.

Liver supplies more iron than any other food, and pork liver contains more than twice as much as beef liver. All meats are a rich source of this mineral; an average serving supplies about one-fourth of an adult's need for the day. Other foods which are good sources of iron are oysters, green vegetables, apples, low, potatoes, dried fruits, eggs, and whole grain or enriched cereal products.

"THE SUBURBAN MIND"

Harper's magazine this month has sharp interest for Summit residents. The leading article is concerned with "The Suburban Mind." It is at once an indictment of our insularity and a challenge to our citizenship. The author stresses the suburb as a place of retreat from social responsibility and suggests that the suburb is a parasite community which is "subtly undermining the true and personal democracy of our leading men," "an island of conservatism, if not complacency, where the main thing is to keep the status with the quo."

Yet there are many in the suburbs who have not the "suburban mind"—whose religious sensitivity is keen and who are vividly aware of the common fate which the peoples of the world now share. Many are eager to find a way to identify themselves more vitally with the needs of their brothers not so geographically fortunate. Our good intentions, however, are in danger of being frustrated by our protected suburban comfort—there are so many "needs" assailing our consciences at the same time that we are paralyzed by our own lack of focus and procedure.

There is one place we can begin to make ourselves count. It is strategic. It is vital. It is possible for each of us. And it is hopefully redemptive in terms of the "suburban mind." Let us begin with food—less of it for ourselves and more for the rest of the human family. The basic principle of the Christian religion is the worth of the individual person. Adequate nutrition of human beings who are capable of growth as persons, suddenly has become our responsibility—yours and mine—and the commuter trains will not carry us far enough to escape the appeal of starving children. It is a chance we all are given now to answer the author of "The Suburban Mind."

ALLAN R. DEVENNEY,
General Secretary, Summit Y. M. C. A.

Two Missionaries Join Those Aided By Presbyterians

Two new missionaries, just beginning their service in the China area, will be supported by Central Presbyterian Church under the budget adopted by the congregation at its annual meeting this month. The church is already sharing in the support of five missionaries in the foreign field.

The new missionaries are Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Livingston Hoffman, who have just been assigned to the China Council, and are awaiting sailing orders on the West Coast.

Dr. Hoffman is the son of Missionary parents, claiming Korea as his birthplace. His early years were spent in one of the more isolated mission stations in Korea, and he was sent at the age of 12 to a boarding school for American and English children, where he became active in scouting and Christian Endeavor work.

Coming to the United States for his college work, he entered Davidson College in North Carolina, a Southern Presbyterian institution, later transferring to the College of Wooster, where he met his wife, the former Mary Kepler. His medical training was taken at the University of Pennsylvania Medical School, where he was graduated in 1938. In November 1940, he received his appointment to China, but was unable to leave immediately for that field because of war conditions, and so served in the southwest in the home missions areas.

Mrs. Hoffman, who is the niece of Mrs. Frederick Tooker of Summit, was also the daughter of missionary parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kepler, of China. Her mother's family have been missionaries for three generations, and two of her brothers are now missionaries in China, while another is a Presbyterian pastor in the United States. After her preliminary education in China, she entered Wooster College, followed by study at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital, where she received her R.N. in 1938. The same year she was married to Dr. Stanley Hoffman, M.D., and received her appointment to the foreign field at the same time as her husband.

Central Church shares the support of these two missionaries with the Market Square Presbyterian Church of Harrisburg, Pa., where Dr. Hoffman is a member. In addition to the Hoffmans, the Summit Church shares in the support of Rev. and Mrs. Clinton H. Loehlin of the Punjab, India; Dr. Elsie Harris Schuyler, of Lahore, India, and Rev. and Mrs. Leonard S. Hogenboom of the Philippine Islands, who visited this community several months ago.

Christian Science Church

"Probation After Death" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, April 28. Golden Text: "Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. But exhort one another daily, while it is called today; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin." (Heb. 3:12, 13).

Sermon. Passages from the King James version of the Bible include: "Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting." (Ps. 139:23, 24). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "Progress is born of experience. It is the ripening of mortal man, through which the mortal is dropped for the immortal." (p. 296).

Brotherhood Is Only Alternative To the Atom Bomb

"The only alternative to the use of the atom bomb is the use of the power of brotherhood," was the theme of Dr. Harry W. Snyder's talk, "World Relationships at the Crossroads," to the College Club at its annual luncheon, Friday, April 12, at Canoe Brook Country Club.

Rome ruled the world with the atom bomb of that day—the short sword, but Rome fell, while the neighborliness that Jesus was teaching has persisted, and has persuaded men to good, not to killing.

Education toward living and letting others live, as citizens of the world, is the most essential ingredient of any program for peace, the speaker stressed. This is the best time in history to lead men to the use of atomic power for their welfare, not to their destruction.

Dr. Snyder suggested that the success of the United Nations may be better assured by its functioning in public, i. e., with audiences present at every meeting.

Although the situation is serious, with somber implications, the optimistic may depend on educators to perform miracles, if they are given encouragement, he concluded.

Mrs. Walter Gude, president, was in the chair.

Fruit Cup is Always Correct for Any Meal

Fruit cups and cocktails make up one grand group of pleasing dishes which require no recipes. Whatever happens to be on hand, plus what the fresh fruit stands have, padded out with fruits from cans—and the fruit cup or cocktail is sure to please.

Of course, the staples are segments of orange or grapefruit with bits of peach and pineapple. But melon balls, fresh grapes or canned grapes, any of the berries—these are just a few of the interesting ingredients.

Flavoring may be helped out with anyone of several wines, or with maraschino or brandy, if you wish.

Of course, serving the cup or cocktail icy cold is the first essential, and they should always be fresh and appear to have just been made.

And they may be served for breakfast, for lunch, for dinner—and they may come first, or last in the order of courses. Great little contributions, aren't they?

While not generally regarded as a vegetable dish, still what else could one call macaroni. If there is a little left over chicken or veal or pork, it will prove to be enough. Or a near-by delicatessen dealer will be pleased to serve you. And then make Macaroni Trifle.

1 package of macaroni
1 or two cups of chicken, pork or veal, which has been minced.

1 pint or 1 can of chicken broth
½ cup buttered bread-crumbs
1 can mushrooms and a few stuffed olives

Parboil macaroni for about six or seven minutes in plenty of boiling water to which a tablespoon salt has been added. Drain the macaroni. In a well greased baking dish, place a layer of macaroni and then a sprinkling of meat and mushrooms and an occasional olive. Repeat until all is used up, ending with a layer of macaroni on top. Pour the broth over the mixture. Top off with the crumbs and bake in moderate oven for twenty minutes to half an hour, and it is nice and brown on top.

With this, serve assorted relishes, radishes, a slice of tomato and so on. A grand and complete meal for luncheon or dinner.

Parasols are at their best now. They are good with veal and better when glazed. Use a half cup dark corn syrup and a tablespoon butter to make the glazing syrup.

Millsaps College Address Delivered By Wharton Green

Wharton Green, architectural engineer, of Lenox road delivered the Founder's Day address on Tuesday, April 9, at Millsaps College, Jackson, Miss., of which he is a graduate, class of 1898.

Responsible for drawing up plans of Idlewild Airport in New York City, Mr. Green is now supervising construction on that project which when completed will be the largest airport in the world. It will be able to handle a peak capacity of 360 planes an hour and will employ a 40,000 personnel.

Mr. Green was originally employed by the Illinois Central railway studying architecture in his spare time. Three years later he secured a position as architect on a project in England and subsequently was offered a similar post in New York City. He finally opened an office of his own in conjunction with two other engineers and organized the firm now handling the Idlewild project.

Sunday Evening Bible Hour Resumes

The Sunday Evening Bible Hour, which has been held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Marshall, DeBary place, will resume its meetings at the home of Robert B. Knowles, 25 Essex road next Sunday at 7:30 o'clock.

The average age of motor trucks in this country is roughly eight years. Farmers own the oldest vehicles, 25 per cent of their trucks averaging over 15 years of age, with 48 per cent of the trucks dating from 1935 or earlier.

If you are carrying a groch around, bake a cake. It's a sure cure.

Road to Emmaus Traveled by Many Bible Colporteurs

The road to Emmaus was a little old road, Dr. Francis C. Stiffer told his radio audience last Friday evening, April 19. He has traveled it himself. It is not a highway, and had never been one. Nothing ever happened on the road to Emmaus until that eventful evening told in the Bible.

Since that evening the same thing has been happening continuously on the byways of the world, and it has gradually been transforming the world's life.

The colporteurs of the American Bible Society are those who travel the backroads and byways of the world to distribute the Bible. There are hundreds of people doing this, on every continent. They know that their roads will be uncomfortable, with exposures and hazards, and that people will be ignorant, selfish and even hostile.

A book filled with stories of Bible colporteurs would be a thriller, Dr. Stiffer concluded. . . . the story of the nobodies of this world who meet Christ in the Bible and become the leaven that is transfiguring nations.

Dry Skim Milk Aids Nutrition Without Adding Calories

The use of dry skim milk in cooked dishes will serve many purposes, according to Mrs. Elizabeth Bussing in her talk to the American Home Department of the Fortnightly Club on the morning of God Friday in the Methodist parish house. Her topic was "Food Ideas with Zest."

Mrs. Bussing stated that the use of dry milk rather than fresh, enhances the taste of many foods, and is economical as well, costing five cents a quart. It has an added charm for many women because it is low in fat content and will not increase one's weight.

In the face of the "very terrible food situation" today, Mrs. Bussing advised emulating the thrifty recipes of other lands, or approximating them by simplifying them. Some of the recipes she gave were:

Potato Soup
2 cups scallions, leeks, or two kinds of onions, chopped.
2 Tbsp. butter or margarine. Fry onions till soft but not brown. Add 2 cups diced raw potatoes. Add 2 cups chicken bouillon, or water with bouillon cubes added. Put all through sieve.
Add 1 pint milk, and heat well. If dried milk is used, it may be mixed "double strength," making the soup richer.
This soup may be served either hot or cold. When served, add garnish of cress, chives, parsley, etc.

Mixed Green Salad
French or Italian
A ring of escarole.
A ring of spinach leaves.
In the middle of the rings, a mound of finely chopped vegetables, carrots, tomatoes, green peppers, onions, celery, and any other desired. A few beets, turnip tops, carrot tops, etc. may be added.
Pour over all a boiled dressing if a French dressing is not available.

Swedish Meat Balls
Mix dried milk with meat and other ingredients. Omit pepper, using instead nutmeg and allspice, or a little dill and making very small balls. This can be made with cheap cuts of meat and bread crumbs, otherwise wasted. Small potatoes in their jackets are the Swedish accompaniment to this dish.
By using sour cream, this becomes a Russian dish.
A Mexican Sauce
Fry one thick slice of bread and one-half cup blanched almonds in a small amount of oil till brown. Put through grinder. Set aside.
In the oil fry a little garlic or onion.
Add 1 can tomato paste, 1 cup water, salt.
Put ground almonds and bread into this sauce.
Add meat balls and cook till done.
If there is not enough liquid, add bouillon.
Egg Plant Stew—Greece
1 lb. any kind of ground meat. Fry in little olive oil.
Add 1 cup cubed egg plant, 3 onions, 5 cups tomatoes, or bouillon or little wine. Add one-half can tomato paste, thyme, salt, parsley, tarragon.
Cook for 45 minutes. This is

Budge Vs. Riggs At Elizabeth Armory, May 9

ELIZABETH—The world championship professional tennis challenge match between the new titleholder, Bobby Riggs, and the man he dethroned, Don Budge, will be continued Thursday night, May 9, at the Elizabeth Armory.

Riggs, who amazed the tennis world by exploding the myth of Budge's invincibility, currently is holding a big edge in the challenge series, but Budge, who hit his stride after dropping eleven of the first twelve matches, is still confident.

The title changed hands last December in Los Angeles when Riggs upset Budge in the championship match, 9-11, 6-3, 6-2, 6-0. A month later he repeated in a challenge match, 4-6, 8-6, 6-4, 9-7, and then further surprised by agreeing to the challenge series now in progress.

Both have appeared at the Elizabeth Armory in the past. Budge trounced Fred Perry in a pro exhibition there six years ago and Riggs played in an exhibition after regaining the national amateur singles crown in 1941. Budge, runner-up to Fred Perry in the 1936 Nationals, won the title the following year and repeated in 1938.

John Faunce, who ranked No. 4 among the pros and has beaten Bill Tilden, Dick Sweeney, Gene Mako and Lester Stoeft, will oppose Wayne Sabin in a preliminary singles match. Sabin is a former national indoor champion. Closing the program after the singles will be a doubles contest, sending Riggs and Faunce against Budge and Sabin.

Hunt Bros. Circus Coming on May 15; Legion Auspices

On Wednesday morning May 15, the mile long trucks of the Hunt Bros. three-ring circus will arrive in Summit, for a one-day engagement, giving two performances at 2 and 8 p. m., with the doors opening one hour earlier to afford you time to visit the wild animals.

From a barren piece of ground, a city of tents will rise in the air. The sidshow barkers, and the strange people from all parts of the world help make it a gala holiday for the old folks as well as the youngsters.

Many thrills are in store for the visitors to the circus. There will be the Zavattas, Europe's most famous riding act, and aerial stars, the Flying Hartmans, who fly through the air with the greatest of ease, pretty girls in colorful costumes on the swinging ladders, high school horses, keeping time with the circus band, trained seals, and a score of funny clowns with their mysterious gadgets, that is no end of wonder to the patrons, their trained mules, pigs and geese are a source of delight to the kiddies.

The American Legion brings this famous circus to Summit, and their share of the proceeds will be used for some worthy cause. Remember the date, Wednesday, May 15.

Automatic Music Subject at Meeting Of Couples' Club

George Brown of Chatham gave a talk on Automatic Music and the Art of Recording to the Couples' Club of the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, April 23, in which he demonstrated music boxes of various types as well as phonographs dating from an original Edison model of 1877. The program and the dinner were under the auspices of a committee headed by Mr. and Mrs. George Winters.

The music boxes presented, varied in size and shape from the small Swiss box to the large rectangular Regina, popular in the nineties. One model presented a landscape, a clock, a bridge with a moving train, a boat which rocked and rolled, plus tinkling music. An ancestor of the jukebox, which played upon the insertion of a nickel, was also shown.

The music from the old phonographs was interesting rather than beautiful. The story of their invention and development was given, as well as a demonstration.

Mrs. George Brown assisted her husband during the program. She cooperates with him in the research and the repair which are necessary in gathering materials for his lectures. After a summer in Switzerland, the Browns expect to publish a book concerning music boxes.

Substitutes Recommended To Check Prolific Growth

It is not uncommon at this time of year to see doorways and windows almost completely screened by overgrown cedars, arborvitae, and certain of the spruces. When this happens the only thing to do is to dig out the overgrown specimens and replace them with something more suitable.

If trees such as these are pruned carefully when they are young and trimmed back as they grow, it is possible to keep them within bounds for several years. But it is too late to try to remedy the situation when they are fully grown. The best precaution against overgrown foundation plantings, however, is to choose plant materials such as yews, dwarf pines and broadleaved evergreens that will never grow out of proportion to their surroundings and the purpose they are to serve.

Calomel Powder Cures Cabbage of Root Maggots

Growers of early cabbage and cauliflower can not afford to take the risk of not treating their plants as they are set in the field with a calomel mixture for the control of the destructive root maggot. Of the two methods recommended for the control of this insect, the first entails dusting the stem of the plants with a calomel dust mixture before they are set in the field. If the plants have already been planted in the field, treat them with a calomel dust made by mixing five pounds of calomel with 95 pounds of either talc, clay, gypsum, or pulverized limestone.

A thorough examination at the base of the plant should be made the latter part of April in an effort to discover eggs laid by the maggot flies.

Scurf and Stem Rot Can Be Controlled

According to Dr. R. H. Daines the two most commonly occurring field diseases affecting sweet potatoes in New Jersey are the scurf and stem rot. The materials recommended for the control of these two diseases will materially reduce losses. The dipping of both the seed and the sprouts of the plants has been practiced in New Jersey for a number of years and the yields increased because of these treatments.

Dr. Daines concludes from experiments covering a number of years duration that the Thiosan and Improved Semesan Bel are the important materials to use to control these two diseases.

Food Exhibition In N. Y. in June

An exhibition of food and ways to save it and serve it will be held at Rockefeller Plaza in June. Mrs. Elizabeth Busing told Summit women recently. "The exhibit will be made with a sense of humor, and will be dramatized to help cut down the appalling waste of food in this country as contrasted with the starvation in other lands," she said.

Gladiolus Now Available

When you are planting peas, cabbage, broccolli, carrots and beets, take time to put in your hardy annuals, too. If gladiolus is on your planting list this year, it is a good idea to order, come of your favorite varieties right away. Now that materials for the control of thrips are again available, gladiolus plantings will be made in many gardens that were without these blooms during the war years. The flowers are excellent for cutting during the summer months.

Save Vegetables for Soup

By saving out a carrot or parsnip or turnip or a few peas or beans, when cooking these during the week, a nice variety of material is collected for a good soup. Add to these the left-over vegetable juices also, was advice given to Summit women recently.

Cool Weather Vegetables Should Be Planted Now

Many vegetable gardens are under way now and the soils have dried out in good shape for planting all the cool weather vegetables. Among these are beets, carrots, radishes, turnips, kale, lettuce, spinach, swiss chard, broccolli and cabbage.

If you have not planted the seed by this time, it would be better to buy the plants where possible and have your vegetables that much earlier, particularly lettuce and the cabbage family.

The warm weather vegetables such as beans, tomatoes, egg plant, sweet corn and squash should wait another week or two until all danger of frost has passed and the ground has warmed up a bit.

Carrots and radishes may be sown together in the same row so that the slower germinating carrots may have their rows marked by the quicker growing radishes. Turnips for greens and lettuce may be sown in the rows between cabbage or broccolli plants or between the places where tomato plants will be set later.

Nitrogen in Fertilizer Promotes Onion Growth

When the soil is cold, nitrogen for plant use becomes available very slowly. Onions need quantities of nitrogen early in their growth and may have to be supplied by extra applications of fertilizer. There are two fertilizer mixtures recommended for onions on upland soils and one for musk soils of New Jersey.

Onions grow on upland soil for which sets are usually planted, from 1,500 to 2,000 pounds per acre of either a 7-7-7 or a 10-6-4 commercial fertilizer mixture is recommended. For those grown on upland soils and one for musk seed, a 3-12-6 mixture is recommended. Upland growers who have not used the high-nitrogen fertilizers as recommended but who are using a 5-10-10 instead, should use additional applications of nitrogen in the form of nitrate of soda, sulphate of ammonia, ammonium nitrate, or some other form of nitrogen as a side dressing to supplement the regular fertilizer formula.

Ways to Save Salad Oil

Oils and salad dressing are high on the list of essential foods that must be used sparingly if the National Famine Emergency Committee's plan for food saving is to be realized. One suggestion which is helpful in cutting down on the amount of oil used is to mix pickle in equal proportions with French dressing on salad greens. Celery, green peppers and onion ground together and mixed with vinegar give much the same result. Cottage cheese and cream cheese dressing need no oil. And neither does the boiled salad dressing which is particularly good with potatoes and cabbage. Oil from salmon mixed with lemon juice makes a dressing for salmon salad.

Veterans Buy Typewriters From Surplus Property

Individual veterans purchased 529 surplus typewriters of standard makes and veteran-dealers bought an additional 300 during the past week from the War Assets Administration. It was announced yesterday (Wednesday) by the Regional Office of the WAA. Nearly 1,100 invitations to the sale were mailed out to veterans who had established their priority with the WAA, and 840 responded. Of that number, 529 of them purchased machines. The remaining 300 usable typewriters were bought by 16 veteran-dealers who had been certified as bona fide typewriter dealers by the WAA.

Celebrated Artists To Show Paintings At Art Association

Eduard Buk Ulreich and Nura Woodson Ulreich, both artists whose works are in prominent galleries in the United States and abroad, will present oils and water colors in an exhibit opening Sunday, April 28, at 3 p. m. in the Summit Art Galleries, 497 Springfield avenue. This two-man show is under the sponsorship of the Summit Art Association.

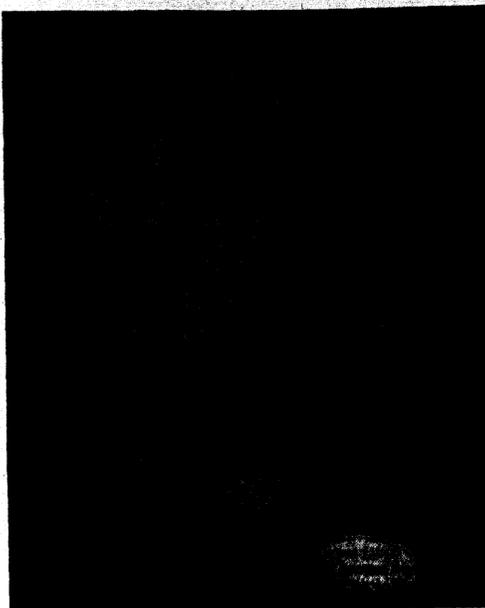

Both artists received their early training in the Middle West. Buk, as he is known to the art world, came to that part of the United States as an infant from Hungary. He was enrolled in the Fine Arts Institute of Kansas City, Mo., as his aptitude for art became apparent. An interest in Indian and cowboy life lured him to the West where he became a cowboy. A painting sent to the Pennsylvania Academy won him a year's free tuition which was later extended to four years. Subsequently his talent and diligence brought him trips abroad. Study and commissions have carried him to many parts of the United States as well as Europe.

Nura, who was born in Kansas City, Mo., and attended schools there, was selected out of 2,000, owing to her unusual talent. Her work was interrupted by economic pressure for a time, but when she again enrolled as a student in the Kansas City Art Institute she was encouraged at receiving two scholarships. War work brought her to New York City where she attended classes at the Art League. A venture into commercial art took her to Chicago where she met Mr. Ulreich, whom she married.

Through his encouragement, she abandoned the commercial field and developed the style characterized as "completely her own," on which her reputation in the art world is based.

George H. Hummel of Hobart avenue has returned home after spending several months in Orlando, Fla.

Brayton Sixth Graders Decorate USO Lounge

Bunnies, chickens, flowers, butterflies and other painted figures are among the decorations made by Mrs. Vogt's sixth grade of Brayton School for the USO Lounge in the Pennsylvania Station at Newark at the suggestion of Miss Mary Baker. Cotton tails, whisk-broom whiskers, flowers and veils add to the Easter spirit of the decoration.

The representatives of the class who went to Newark to place the decorations were Kathryn Caruso, Patsy Kay, Tom Murray and David Siles. Doughnuts and milk at a counter in the station rewarded their efforts.

Comments from servicemen on the appearance of the lounge are proof of the effectiveness of the project.

FUR STORAGE VAULTS

THEY'RE SAFE

The space used by Junure House for this purpose was formerly used by a Morristown bank for storing their customers' most valuable belongings. The steel-walled vaults are both burglar and fire proof. Furthermore, your garments are insured for the amount you specify, from the moment they are put into our hands until they are returned to you.

THEY'RE AIR CONDITIONED

No self-respecting moth would dream of coming near the constant Dry Air Frigid Temperature at which Junure House's vaults are maintained. This temperature also prevents the drying out of fur peltries, one of the most damaging things that can happen to furs that are not properly stored.

THEY'RE REASONABLE

Standard storage rates prevail—you pay no premium for giving your furs and wool clothing the advantage of Junure House's modern, scientific storage.

THEY'RE SUPERVISED BY EXPERTS

Who's our expert? None other than Mr. Benjamin Friedman, known throughout the State as the gentleman who, for fourteen years, was in full charge of Bamberger's Fur Departments, as well as their Fur Repair and Alteration Departments. Mr. Friedman has a national reputation as an outstanding authority on furs, and the furs you bring here for STORING, CLEANING, REPAIRING OR RE-STYLING, will receive his PERSONAL ATTENTION. Estimates for these services will be submitted without any charge.

THEY'RE RIGHT IN MORRISTOWN

When you store your furs and cloth garments with Junure House, they will be right "on tap", so to speak. Space is limited, many of Mr. Friedman's former customers have already expressed a desire to store their clothing with us, so in order not to be disappointed, hurry down with your furs.

"Seventh Heaven", Anniversary Playhouse Production

"Seventh Heaven" Marks Playhouse's 100th Production

The Playhouse Association produced its 100th play Monday night, leading out the perennial favorite, "Seventh Heaven," which, under the experienced guidance of Mrs. Floyd Jefferson, still retains much of its kick, as well as a large measure of the play's original charm.

"Seventh Heaven" is thumping good melodrama, with the necessary dash of Bohemian life to satisfy a thirst for novelty and local color. When the play was written slight attention was paid to the power of suggestion, so that the first scene is peopled with such an abundance of unsavory characters that little doubt is left concerning its location. If the setting is somewhat familiar, the plot is hardly less so, taking as its theme the blossoming of an idealistic love in the mire of the Left Bank. In the course of this romance between a mistreated wife and her hoodlum lover, many obstacles threaten to disrupt the course of true love. These assume such widely different shapes as a large legacy, tempting the girl to abandon her lover for comfortable security, and World War I, which very nearly prevents the happy reunion from taking place in the last act. The most melodramatic scenes include an episode in which the two female leads, played by Bertha McPeck Ayres and Marianne Pyle, slay each other with a fury born of domestic proquity or feminine animosity of both.

As it turns out the matrimonial bark is kept afloat through the heroine's unflinching courage and faith in her husband's eventual return. In this she is both encouraged and impeded by other minor characters who advance the action in a variety of ways. The fact that the characters are slightly on the stock side in no way prevents the actors from exploiting them to their fullest possibilities. Bertha Ayres brings her plastic talents to the role of Diane, while Donald Harman as Chico constitutes the backbone of the performance. Marianne Pyle is convincing in her role of the predatory sister and John J. Summersby, Jr., plays his part with ease and assurance. The other parts are capably handled. Final mention should be made of stage sets which were designed and executed by Jack Manley Rose and his assistants. They merit the highest praise and compare favorably with those of any New York City production.

Youth Organizations Unite to Sponsor Young Adult Activities

Several Summit Youth Organizations have united in an attempt to satisfy the need and demand for local, low-cost entertainment. Their first event in a series of activities is to be an informal dance which will be held at the YMCA Auditorium Saturday, May 4, at 9 p. m.

The theme of this first dance will portray the "Gay Nineties" era and will be entitled "Dancing in the Gilded Cage." The music for the occasion will be supplied by Henry Monaco, his saxophone and orchestra.

Uniting to sponsor this dance are representatives of the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Y. M. C. C., Overlook Nurses Trainees, Methodist Young Adult Group, former U. S. O. hostesses, and employees from Ciba and Bell Telephone laboratories.

New Natural Look Aided by Cosmetics

To achieve the new natural look that is strictly "this year" beauty experts assert there are three simple steps. The first is in the form of beauty grains, which may be moistened with water and applied to the face, neck, hands, elbows or other surfaces prone to become rough from chafing. These have a mild abrasive quality which enables them to remove flaky skin, white heads and even black heads after a few applications.

The next step is the application of a smooth cleansing cream to be removed after a few moments with a mild astringent of any favored brand. Finally a light liquid cream or powder base may be applied to achieve the dewy effect that looks natural and, therefore, beautiful.

Products for this method are available in many favorite brands of cosmetics. A final suggestion, inexpensive and effective, is three glasses of water upon arising.

It is an alarming fact, reports the National Conservation Bureau, that during recent years accidents took more lives among the young people below 19 years of age than pneumonia, heart disease and tuberculosis together.

Note from Holland Thanking Students Of Hood School

A letter received from the School of Dieteren adopted by the students of Miss Hood's School through the Save the Children Federation was evidence of the gratitude felt for the assistance sent abroad. Following is an excerpt from the letter:

"Our school continues 120 children, boys and girls from six till 14 years old. The village Dieteren is situated near Sittard a town in the province Limburg. The cruel war has destroyed the greatest part of the houses. The school got plenty shells. The people and the children of Dieteren have been evacuated for four months, by the Germans. When we were liberated and we came back, all was away. The houses lay burned down and destroyed, the cattle and all we had was robbed by the Germans soldiers, who could use everything.

"Here in the shops we can buy nothing. I am very glad that you will adopt our school, and I thank you very much for your charity. I hope to hear soon from you again. I remain with thanks and kind regards from the children of Dieteren and especially from,

"MR. SEVERE H. JESSEN

"Hooft der School Dieteren 40

"Province Limburg, Holland." The money necessary to sponsor an Overseas School is spent in the United States because of the black market abroad and covers cost of reconditioning used clothing, new shoes and one extra pair of new soles, school supplies, medicines and vitamins, and special needs. The Save the Children Federation has sponsored a total of 616 schools in France, Belgium, Holland and Norway, and over 2,290 individual children.

Miss Hood's School Concert

The Spring Concert of Miss Hood's School was held on Thursday, April 18. Featured on the program were songs of spring sung in English and French by the children. They also gave examples of rhythmic dancing.

"Bitter Sweet" Opens At Paper Mill Playhouse With Dorothy Sandlin

Northern New Jersey's theatrical season opened Monday, April 22 when the curtain went up on Frank Carrington's production of "Bitter Sweet" with Dorothy Sandlin and Ralph Magelsson at the Paper Mill Playhouse, Millburn.

The first production of the sixth season of operetta at the rural theater, is a love story flavored with the music of the author, Noel Coward. During the course of the play, Miss Sandlin appears as a girl in her teens in 1880 and 1885, later goes on to enact a scene as a mature woman in 1900 and finally emerges as an aging dowager in 1935.

Returning for the first time in five seasons to share the honors with Miss Sandlin is Ralph Magelsson who has been seen throughout the world in "This Is The Army" since his last Paper Mill Playhouse appearance. His last appearance before joining the army was also with Miss Sandlin.

The role of Miss Sandlin's mother in the early scenes has been assigned to Ruth Giorloff returning after two seasons' absence, while Albert Carroll, noted for his character portrayals is seen in the dual role of Lord Henry Jekyll and Lord Shayne. A newcomer to the Paper Mill, Hilda Morse, plays the Viennese entertainer, "La Crevette," in his first operetta role at Millburn.

Dayton Lumma, Mantred Hecht and William Hughes, all from the Broadway legitimate stage, make their Paper Mill debuts in key roles while Harold Dyrenforth who also has been seen in earlier productions returns with "Bitter Sweet."

Union Plaza Improvement Association wants Summit and Union place in particular to be the "best example of a post war business section, not only in this city, but in any suburban town in America." To this end the association has prepared a plan for the complete face-lifting of Union place to make it as up to date as any city, large or small in the country. The association hired a Summit architect, David Ludlow, to draw up a master plan as shown above of what the two blocks in Union place ought to look like, along with sketches of what the buildings will look like when the plan is completed. The plans as drawn aim at keeping the over-all cost of the program to a point where a definite profit will be shown to the Union Plaza Improvement Association. All of this will result ultimately in Union place property owners, all of whom are participating members in the association, in attaining higher annual incomes which after a few years will offset the cost of the improvements.

In setting out to design better stores, the association has issued the following prepared statement: "The store, unlike some houses, is not considered a retreat for the chosen few or timid. Rather the store and its ministrations are one phase of contemporary life that all accept. It is one of those rare architectural instances where all are in essential agreement, and logic rules the design. The owner wishes an attractive, comfortable place to which his customers will want to come, view his merchandise under favorable conditions, and purchase. The customer wants to go to an attractive, comfortable place where he may see what gives and, if convinced, buy."

In addition to having been the architect for new and remodeled stores in other communities, Mr. Ludlow has designed the Union Place store for Columbia Cleaners, which will be the first step in the proposed improvement program. "Summit merchants can attain an increasingly large volume of sales by remodeling their stores for greater customer appeal," the architect maintains. He adds, "The new 'open type' store fronts have demonstrated conclusively what

A New Laundry Aid

Commercial laundries may soon be able to offer the public a new kind of war-born "bactericidal service" developed by the Army, in which linens are made antiseptic as well as clean and medically sterile, according to the American Institute of Laundering. The "bactericidal service" may become another one of the special finishes available to housewives as local power laundry plants return to a pre-war standard of excellence.

Organizing Distributing And Marketing Company

A specialist in the field of material distribution, Lt. John K. Hewson was released to inactive duty March 29 after having served two years in Washington, D. C., where he was connected with the Office of Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Material Division.

Lt. Hewson had the major responsibility in connection with establishing of and control over more than 300 Navy field offices engaged in expediting production and inspection of 13 billion dollars worth of war material a year. At present Lt. Hewson is engaged in organizing a new marketing and distribution company for industrial material and industrial equipment with headquarters in Washington and branch offices in New York City, Detroit, Boston, Cleveland and Chicago.

Driscoll Suggests Code Modernization

Modernization and standardization of municipal building codes to encourage the construction of more houses was proposed today by Alfred E. Driscoll, Republican candidate for Governor. He said that the solution of the housing emergency and the long range fulfillment of New Jersey's permanent housing needs depends greatly upon the modernization of codes to achieve reasonable uniformity throughout the state.

MEMO TO ADVERTISERS

1 GIVE NEWS and FACTS IN COPY
2 ADVERTISE REGULARLY
3 BUY SPACE CAREFULLY

Three Simple Rules for Profitable NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

1. Make your advertising copy easy to read, friendly and informative. People read newspapers for the news. Give them facts and news about your merchandise and services.
2. Advertise regularly. Do what successful salesmen do—call on customers and prospects consistently.
3. Protect your advertising investment by insisting on audited circulation reports that tell you just what circulation you get for your money. Guesswork is wasteful.*

*In order that you may know just what you get for your money when you advertise in this newspaper, we are members of the Audit Bureau of Circulations. This is a national, cooperative association of more than 2000 publishers, advertisers and advertising agencies. Organized in 1914, the purpose of the Bureau is to establish and maintain definite standards of circulation, audit the circulation records of the publisher members and report this verified information to advertisers.

Annually, one of the Bureau's large staff of trained auditors makes a thorough audit of our circulation. The verified facts and figures thus obtained are issued in an official A. B. C. report.

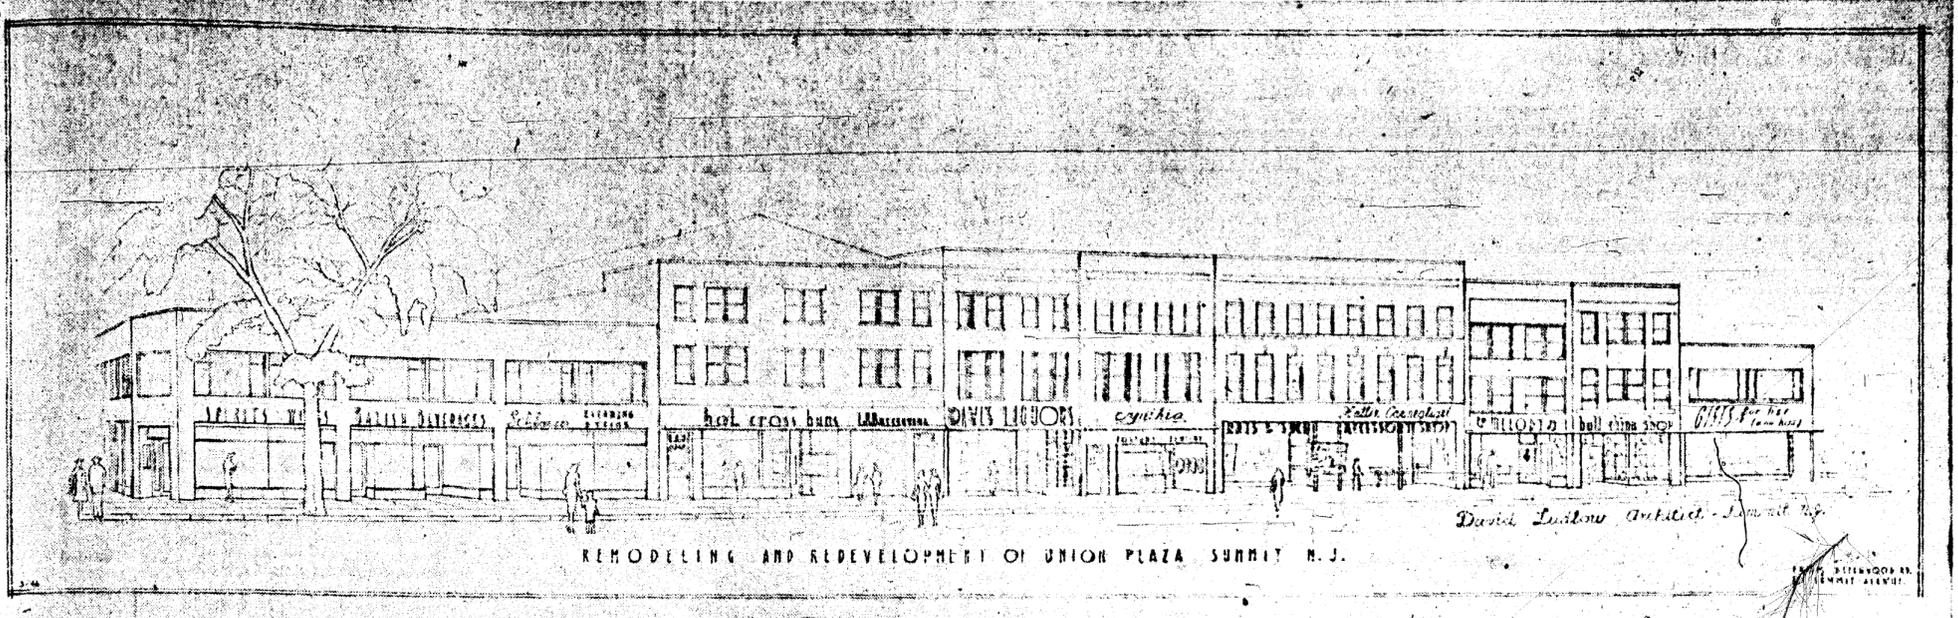

Our A. B. C. report tells how much circulation we have, where the circulation goes, how it was obtained, how much people pay for it and many other facts that you should know when you buy newspaper advertising. Thus when you advertise in this newspaper your investment is in known and verified values.

REMODELING AND REDEVELOPMENT OF UNION PLAZA SUMMIT N. J.

David Ludlow, Architect - Summit, N. J.

This new design principle can do to attract and hold business. An amazing transformation can be made in Union Place which will be reflected not only in better business for those remodeling, but also in an increased prosperity for Summit as a whole.

"Other communities which have remedied have found this to be true." As an architect, Mr. Ludlow has had special training in the new type of post war store design. Last year he visited stores in Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia and New York before opening his Summit office.

He was formerly with the country's largest store designers, Raymond Loewy Associates, for whom he did research in improved store design method.

Plexiglas was put to a new use in the craft shop of an American Red Cross club in Leghorn, Italy, when Matsuo Imai, American soldier from Hawaii, produced a full-

NEW PROVIDENCE Borough

Borough "Southbound" To Boost Cancer Fund

BOROUGH—Judged by the advanced sale of tickets, everyone in the borough is apparently going to see "Southbound," the musical comedy, to be presented Friday and Saturday night in Lincoln School, the proceeds of which will boost this municipality's Cancer Fund quota. In fact, the demand for tickets has been so great that a special matinee is scheduled for Saturday afternoon especially for children.

Sitting in at a recent dress rehearsal this writer was impressed with a number of specialties. For instance, there is a quartet of Negro impersonators, Don Whitaker, Fred Parker, Salvatore Alocco and Robert Blatt. They really give in singing "Lindy Lou" and "Sleep, Kentucky Baby" then there is a song and dance routine that is sure to be a hit. The artists in this include Ida Marzucco, Phyllis Zotti, Louise Anelli, Philomena Cirelli, Ida Paeca, Michael and Nicholas Figna, Alocco and Joseph Stefani.

Considerable preparation is being put into a tableaux focusing attention on the symbolic Cancer Dagger. James Fraiola is all set to give a Paul Robeson version of "Old Man River." Two of the vocal soloists will be Mrs. Margaret Marshie and Irene Panos. Billy Lee, the gambler, is kept busy by the antics of his girl friend, Beatrice Panos as Mame. Helen Panos is in charge of the scenery.

Heroine in "Southbound" is Miss Alice Marzucco and the hero, Donald Maxwell.

"Southbound" Director

MISS ANN CAMPANA

BOROUGH—Miss Ann Campana is director of the musical comedy, "Southbound," being presented by a group of Borough talent Friday and Saturday nights, April 26 and 27 in Lincoln School auditorium. The unprecedented demand for tickets has made it necessary to have a special matinee, Saturday, April 27, for the youngsters. To encourage all the Borough youngsters to see the show, only 10 cents admission is being charged for the matinee.

Eight Fires In Two Days Bring Warning

BOROUGH—Eight brush fires in two days have brought a stern warning from Fire Chief George Sawyer that a $25 fine may be levied against those who start fires without a permit. The chief is of the opinion that these fires have been set by children. He warns parents they will be responsible if their children are caught in any acts of depredations in these respects. Such antics by children are a real imposition upon the volunteer firemen and costs them too much in valuable time away from their work, the chief declares.

Cigarettes and matches have been found at the scenes of recent fires. In one instance a house was seriously threatened. Consequently the chief has called upon all residents to cooperate in the matter of these fires and to report to authorities any "untoward actions" they observe on the part of children.

Candidates Night Set For May 29

BOROUGH—The Discussion Group, an affiliate of the Summit League of Women Voters, met Monday in Borough Hall to further plans for Candidates' Night, Wednesday, May 29 in Borough Hall. All candidates for Borough Council have been asked to attend this meeting and answer questions from the floor. Mrs. D. B. Ryerson presided at Monday's meeting.

Save fats. They are needed.

Plan Kindergarten Registry, Adopt School Calendar

BOROUGH—Kindergartners, who will enter school next September, will be registered next month. This was reported Thursday night to the Board of Education by Supervising Principal Allen W. Roberts. Children, who will be five years of age before October 15 will be eligible to enter. Those whose birthdays fall after that date will have to wait until next year because of crowded conditions in the school building, Mr. Roberts stated.

He urged that a committee, appointed last month by President John D. Blittz to study locations and plans for a new school, start work immediately because enrollment is increasing every year, and all available space in the present school has been utilized.

The 1946-47 school year will have 183 days. School will open September 9 and close June 20, 1947. New contracts will be presented to members of the faculty by May 1, Mr. Roberts reported.

Mrs. Celeste Donley, supervisor of physical education, who has been absent considerably because of illness, reported she could not complete the school year, and turned in her contract for next school year.

The use of the auditorium on May 10 for a Girl Scout Court of Awards was granted.

Alfred Zangara, chairman of the summer activities program of the Borough Recreation Committee, appeared to ask the cooperation of the Board of Education in buying playground equipment, and permitting use of the school equipment and field in carrying out the plans of the recreation committee. The board approved Mr. Zangara's plea.

The report of the school nurse, Mrs. Edna Hardy, showed that two cases of scarlet fever in school children and one pre-school child had been reported. Two school children and one pre-school child suffered chicken-pox, and one pre-school child who had been ill with meningitis is now home from the hospital.

Two hundred and seventy-five Easter baskets were distributed to pre-school children at the annual Easter egg hunt held Thursday in the school grounds. This represents the largest turn-out in the years the hunt has been held.

A Correction
BOROUGH—The Herald erroneously reported last week that Borough Council had adopted its 1946 salary ordinance. While Councilman Frederick A. Lorents expressed himself as opposed to the principle of a bonus and in favor of a straight increase, as was reported, the question was not put to a vote because the general opinion of council members was there should be a full attendance before action was taken.

Award Legion of Merit To M-Sgt. Philip Mattson

BOROUGH—Master Sgt. Philip T. Mattson of the Special Engineering Detachment at Clinton Engineer Works, Oak Ridge, Tenn., has been awarded the Legion of Merit for exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding services in connection with the successful development of the atomic bomb.

Sgt. Mattson, 26, whose home is at 11 Woodland Avenue, Murray Hill, New Jersey, was presented the award yesterday afternoon during a retreat parade at Oak Ridge, near the Central Cafeteria and Jackson Square. Recommendations for the award included endorsements by Albert L. Baker, general manager of the Kellogg Corporation which had the responsibility of design of the gaseous diffusion process of U-235; John R. Dunning of Columbia University; and Brig. General K. D. Nichols, District Engineer of the Manhattan District.

The citation follows: "Master Sergeant Philip T. Mattson, ASN 42101199, Special Engineer Detachment, Manhattan District, Army Service Forces, for exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding services in connection with the successful development of the atomic bomb, as an Enlisted Man assigned to duty involving testing, assembly, development and operation of extremely delicate, experimental mental pump seals, during the period 22 March 1944 to 15 June 1945. Master Sergeant Mattson performed his duties without regard to personal safety, exposing himself to experimental equipment operating at extremely high speeds and working untiringly, often as much as 48 hours continuously without rest. In overcoming the obstacles of his assignment, this Enlisted Man has contributed substantially to the success of the Atomic Bomb Program and in so doing, reflected great credit upon himself and upon the military service."

Sgt. Mattson, prior to induction into the Army in November 1943, was employed by the Worthington Pump & Machine Company, of Harrison, New Jersey. He is a graduate of Summit High School and attended Stevens Institute of Technology, Hoboken. He will be discharged from the Army May 3 and will join the Kellogg Corporation. He has a wife, Mrs. Helen E. Mattson and a one-year-old daughter who lives in Murray Hill.

Conclude Course
In Social Hygiene
BOROUGH—Three final lectures have been given to conclude the course in Social Hygiene Education in Family Life sponsored by the members of the Chatham Township Parent-Teachers Association. On Tuesday evening, April 16, James E. Downs of New Jersey State Teachers' College, Newark, presented Social Hygiene as he taught it to the seniors of Summit High School several years ago. He mentioned the wholesome attitudes that seemed to develop as the students received broader understanding of matters relating to love and marriage. His lecture included a broad history of the family and gradually narrowed to immediate problems of successful wedded life.

Rev. C. L. Lecrone, of the Ogdon Presbyterian Church, Chatham, spoke about his conferences with couples before marriage. It is his custom to discuss with them the economic, physical, social and religious factors involved in this form of partnership. Mrs. Ruth Gilbert, social hygiene teacher in the Plainfield High School, talked with her work along the same line. Her teaching deals principally with the adolescent girl and her problems in adjusting to society.

Cub Circus To Be Friday May 10 in School

BOROUGH—The success of last year's Cub Circus has served as an incentive to a bigger and better show by Cub Pack 63 to be held in Lincoln School, Friday evening, May 3 at 8 o'clock.

Each den is busy practicing its monkeys, elephants, seals, lions, or trapeze artists, in great secrecy, hoping that their act will outdo all others. Den chiefs rate as clowns.

Behind the scenes are the den mothers and one den father, who are strenuously training the acts. This courageous band includes Mrs. Dayton Parcells, Mrs. Fred Rollenhagen, Mrs. D. Ryerson, Mrs. L. Mezzacca, and Sydney Long. Mr. Long, who is a glutton for punishment, is also general chairman of the circus committee and Warren Darling is chairman of the business committee.

Plan Concert For Red Cross, May 10; May Pole Dance Planned For The 3rd

TOWNSHIP—The Music Department of the Regional High School will hold its annual spring concert Friday evening, May 10, in the school. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the American Red Cross. The school choir, the Glee Club, the Male Chorus and the school orchestra will participate.

The Student Council has purchased a new glass cloth ceiling for the gymnasium, which was used for the first time during the recent freshman dance. The cover is of dark blue fire-proof material with silver stars on it. The Student Council took $170.75 from its treasury to pay for the cloth, and in order to put the money back in the treasury, $12 will be charged to each organization using the gymnasium for a social affair.

The Student Council is planning a picnic for the end of May. Six girls from the school were guests at the DAR meeting recently in Short Hills. Each girl modeled a cotton dress she had made in school. Those attending were: Phyllis Colantone, Marian Cowell, Betty Lou Ewan, Ann Haagedorn, Beverl Henry and Mary Ann Kubowitz. Three prizes were received by the group. Phyllis Colantone was awarded first place award and Ann Haagedorn and Mary Ann Kubowitz also received prizes. Phyllis Colantone's dress was entered in the Cotton Dress Contest in Trenton, in which she received honorable mention.

Plans are being made for the annual May Pole Dance which will be held May 3. The identity of the "Queen" and her attendants will be kept a secret until the crowning. The theme will concern the May Pole celebration of other nations and peoples and the decorations will include 21 May Pole scenes depicting International May Day celebrations.

A representative of Stevens Institute of Technology of Hoboken addressed the students in assembly recently on training as engineers. Dress designing will be discussed by a member of the Traphagen School of Fashion at the assembly tomorrow morning. Teaching physical education and coaching will be discussed by a speaker from Panzer College, East Orange, on May 1.

A fashion show was given by the Clothing Department in the school auditorium April 16. Every girl who has taken sewing this year modeled at least one garment she has made during this school term. Among the students selected to attend the forum held recently in New York on "The World We Want" were the following students: Rosemary Honecker, Barbara Klitzkie, Janice Smolley, Richard Weber and Douglas Hall. About 22 students, accompanied by Miss Mildred Midkiff, music teacher, recently went to New York to see "Song of Norway."

Sports' Sidelights

ATHLETICS AND SPORTSMANSHIP

The outdoor season is really here. Men who have hibernated during the colder months will now come forth, as the bear, from his habitat, hungry for sports activity.

Following the coming out, there will be the display of sportsmanship or its opposite. We are interested in knowing whether or not you will be the sport or the die-hard... or the fellow who gives and receives respect, but doesn't follow this same pattern?

We should try to be cognizant of the next fellow in every game, in every sporting activity. The theory "I was here first" or "If you don't let me play I'll squat where you are playing" must go. There is enough room for all, and when there is not we must learn to share. This can only be done where good sportsmanship is in operation.

It is through your contacts on the athletic field that numerous characteristics are cemented into one's mind. He who would use the boycott method or the "acceptance through excellence" theorem will find that he places himself in a distinct class... a class alone by himself.

Remember, the good sport in athletics is usually a good sport otherwise. He listens to all sides of every question, and is fair in his judgments. He is popular. And, most of the time a leader, mainly because he stands for something. The man in this category is of sportsmanlike quality!

H. S. SPRING SPORTS READY

The classroom chores have been pleasant memories during this week as the youths of Summit High have been enjoying their annual spring vacation. Holidays mean nothing to the athletes preparing for the season now upon them as each squad has been knocking down for the tasks ahead.

Coach Dave McNeely's tennis squad has been rounding into shape. He says it is a little early to name the starting combination, but one thing is sure that there will be plenty of vacancies to fill. This year the Suburban Conference teams must be composed of seven men which means that more candidates will be eligible for competition. A team must have an even balance if it hopes to win the championship.

The Maroon and White tracksters under the tutelage of Nat McGiffin have been pushing the cinders at Memorial Field. Conditioning work is still the number one item on the training schedule. Yesterday Summit had an opening date against Regional here, the results of which will be in next week's Herald. Saturday, McGiffin will take his relay team to Philadelphia to run in the annual Penn Relays.

High School baseball activities somewhat monopolized the stage this week with two scheduled games, Union away on Tuesday and Morristown away, today.

Clarks Fans 12 As Summit Blanks Union Away, 12-0

Behind the four-hit pitching of Sonny John Clark, who retired 12 via the strike-out route, Summit High School opened its 16-game schedule Tuesday afternoon by blanking Union High School, 12-0. In a seven inning game, Clark was never in trouble, only 25 men faced him over the route. Four Union players were left on base never more than one an inning.

Summit surprised with its offensive strength, pounding out 12 hits, one a double by Carl Fiers, the only extra-base hit of the game. Coach Elwood C. Cornog charges got off to a flying start, pushing over four runs in the first frame on a single by Clark, passes to Jim Hickok and Cosimo Pedicini, a batter (Frank Donlo) hit by a pitched ball, and errors by Reynolds, Union's erratic shortstop on Fiers and Ahern.

An accounting of Summit's remaining runs would be to repeat the erraticness of the Union team which has resumed baseball after a lay-off of more than a decade. Buzzo led the Summit attack with three clean singles followed by Fiers with a single in addition to his double.

Sneet League Starts April 28 in Park Traps

A Sneet League, consisting of five teams formed from the regular shooters at the Union County Traps, will hold its shoot at 2 p. m. April 28.

Averages of the shooters who have shot at 300 or more targets from January 1 to March 31 were used as a basis for the assignment of the shooters to the various teams.

Three competitions, one per month, will decide the winning team, and each of the five members of the team will be awarded a bronze medal.

H.S. Nine Ready For Morristown Today, Away

Coach Elwood C. Cornog will lead his Summit High School nine to Morristown today to test Jim McIntyre's first post-war edition. The Colonials, reputedly, are not too strong. Yet this is not making the wearers of the Maroon and White over-confident. Weather permitting, the Summit boys have developed the mental attitude, "Well, this is just another game, and we'll take each one in stride."

Cornog desires more time to look over his talent before making a definite statement about the prospects of his outfit. However, he is far from dissatisfied with the progress of his charges to date. The pitching and infield show promise with the two problems being the discovery of a capable catcher and a hitting outfielder. Possibly Larry Luce will be his answer for a catcher. To date, Jim Hickok has given promise of being a distance clouter and a better than average fly-chaser. Much is expected of Cosimo Pedicini at short. He had considerable seasoning last year as a sophomore, playing part of the summer with the Red Sox, where for a youngster he did better than average.

Cornog realizes that more emphasis needs to be placed on hitting strength. Give him three or four boys who can lay the wood to the horsehide and a successful season seems to be in the offing. The burden of the pitching chores will probably be carried by Johnny Clark with some assistance from Stanley Westenberg and possibly a couple of other lads.

Summit Players Get Awards for Y Cage Play at Plainfield

A happy echo of the first annual Gold Medal basketball tournament held earlier this month at the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. sounded Thursday with the announcement by Harold Gref, physical director, of the awarding of various prizes "to deserving members" of the eight competing teams, which included the Summit Y. M. C. A. Comets.

Three all-tourney teams were named and the members of each will receive awards. Whit (Lefty) Moroney of the Comets is among those listed on the second team.

Five sportsmanship awards will be presented to those men outstanding in their actions off and on the floor. Slip Brenn of the Comets is one of the five.

In the case of Brenn, guard on the Comets, whose team lost out to the Flying Eagles for the third place tourney prize, the attractive medal award is especially noteworthy. Brenn tried every way possible to get his recalcitrant teammates to make a game of it against the Eagles.

The Plainfield YMCA will mail the awards to those athletes who cannot be reached otherwise.

During the war about 10 per cent of the nation's total crude petroleum production was refined into aviation gasoline.

'46 USGA Tourney At Baltusrol C. C. In September

With the return of the U. S. Golf Association to Championship tournaments and the selection of Baltusrol C. C. just over the hill from the stone quarry for the national amateur this year, golfers are saying: "Remember the von Elm-Jones final?"

That match was played 20 years ago, but the fans in New Jersey have never stopped talking about it. When you tour Baltusrol today with some of the club's oldtimers, you're stopped at a spot on the course with: "Now Jones was in this creek, stepped into the water, played the ball and darned near reached the green" or "I recall that von Elm did with a special shot from this position, yes, I remember it as if it happened yesterday."

In the Baltusrol locker room you'll hear Fred Fatzler say: "One thing I won't forget was von Elm studying a putt from front and rear and Jones stepping up and knocking the ball away, conceding it to his opponent." To which Augie Kammer, a golfer of the old school, puts in: "No putt should be given in a championship—the short ones can be missed."

It was back in September of 1926 that Jones and von Elm clashed, but in golf circles they talk of the match just as the boxing crowd goes over the long count in the Tunny-Dempsey battle.

There were 15,000 at Baltusrol—greatest gallery in golf championship history up to that time.

It was several years before Bobby's famous grand slam, but even at the time he was "Mr. Golf," seeking to make it his third amateur championship in a row. In that summer of 1926 the star from Georgia had won two open championships.

Von Elm, 26 years old and a former amateur boxing champion of Utah, had met Jones before. In 1924 he was in the final at Merion and was crushed by the smashing margin of 10 and eight. Then 1925 found Bobby scoring another overwhelming victory at Oakmont, von Elm going down seven and six. That day at Baltusrol George knew he was against the greatest golfer in the world, the champion of champions playing at the top of his game.

On the first hole the 15,000 fans thought there would be another Merion or Oakmont. The mighty Jones started with a birdie and was one up leaving the first green in the morning. Von Elm probably thought back to other matches against the master, because George started badly in each clash. There was a big thrill for the fans on the second green. It was one of the best displays of a great day.

Von Elm's ball was six feet from the cup, but a stylic blocked his road to the cup. George changed from putter to masher, played a cut shot around Jones' ball and holed the thing. The match was even. That was the best von Elm ever had against Jones. In the morning round Jones finished one down, each golfer scoring 73. After lunch Baltusrol was jammed as no course had been before. The fairways were lined, tees and greens surrounded by fans. It was the day of knickers for players and fans.

Despite the fine play of von Elm in the morning, and the one up lead, Bobby's thousands of followers were predicting that the match would end at the 15th hole. But von Elm played iron shots to the pin with such accuracy that no fan felt it was the same golfer Bobby had overwhelmed twice before. The match ended on the 35th hole with von Elm the champion by the margin of 2 up and 1 to play.

In September the leading amateurs of 1946 will be in action over the same course. At Baltusrol they expect that the championship will be played on the lower course at Baltusrol, over exactly the same holes used by von Elm and Jones. It will be interesting to check the scores of Ward, Chapman, Billows, Stranahan, Strafaci and all the others and compare them with the figures below, taken from the scorebook at Baltusrol in 1926:

Morning Round
Out-Par	5 4 4 3 4 4 5 4 3-38
Von Elm	5 4 4 3 3 5 4 4 3-38
Jones	4 5 4 3 4 4 5 4 3-37

Judge John L. Hughes of the Third District Court and Director William I. McMane of the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders, both Summit residents, and members of the Dungenroth Whoopers (honorary fishing fraternity), left today for a 10-day salmon fishing trip at the Jack Russell Camp on the Miramichi River, Ludlow, New Brunswick, Canada.

Other members of the Dungenroth Whoopers making the trip include Albert L. Randolph of Plainfield, representative of the Barret Co.; George W. Story Rowland of Plainfield and Judge Jerry Sterner of Hillside.

Softball Opener Sunday At Memorial Field, 3 P.M.

Sunday should provide plenty of color and fast sports action, as Charlins and the American Legion with the North Summit Veterans and Doleys go all out in the opening day two games of the Summit Softball League.

The American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps will be out in all their splendor to play and march for the crowd. The Drum and Bugle Corps will help in the raising of the flag at three o'clock after which Mayor Maxwell Lester, Jr., has been invited to throw out the first ball assisted by Pres. Ernest P. Patton of the Board of Recreation.

The first game on Sunday will feature Charlins with Pete Kivlen doing the pitching, and the American Legion, who will be attired in glistening new uniforms, going to the mound with George Twill. Charlins will field practically the same club which won the city championship for them last year. This consists of D. Parisi, hard hitting catcher, Pete Kivlin who needs no introduction on the mound, Kuback at first base, Ahern covering second, Parisi at short, and Piccolo at the hot corner. For the outfield for Charlins will be Brydon in left, Casper in center, and either Korn or Galbary in right. The revamped Legion team will present a group who are well known from their athletic careers in high school and they will be out there in this first game to show Charlins they mean business. The probable line-up for the Legion will find Monk Trilo, catching; George Twill, twirling; Emil Cattano, at first; Conrad Cattano, at second; Yanotta at short, and Bob Gaffney, at third. The outfield will consist of Amel Bontempo in left; Roy Pease in center, and Charley Twill in right. Game time for this contest is slated for three p. m. At approximately 4 p. m., the second game will get under way. Doleys, another veteran team, going against the North Summit Vets. Doleys' team consists of Piccoli, ss; Brannan, cf; Morton, lf; Corcoran, 1st; Rohey, p; Hensler, c; Wood, 2nd; Royce, 3rd; and Monaco, rf. The Vets of North Summit have Carandio on the mound; Godjas, catching; Piccone, 1st; Bencivenga, 2nd; Paul, 3rd; Incadeca, ss; Reynolds, rf; Dauito, J. c; and Dauito, c. If—all capable men who will put up a tough defense for the slugging, well drilled Doley outfit.

Other regular scheduled games of the Summit Softball League will be played on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings, games starting at 6:45 p. m. On Monday, April 29, the Summit Diner will play Balihais and on Tuesday, April 30, the powerful Easterners will play a new Root's team. There will be no games on Wednesday and Thursday because of this Sunday's doubleheader.

Softball Shaping For Lights, More Donations Needed

Work on the softball field at the Washington School Playground in North Summit is progressing at a good pace, with a force of 10 or 12 men working on field every night from 6 to 8. The infield has finally been leveled off and by the end of the week, it is expected that the six poles to hold the floodlights will be put up, ashes and topsoil laid on the infield and rolled in. Work remaining will be the leveling of the outfield, filling in back of the base lines on each side of the field, putting up the back stop, erect a score board, and install the lights.

Donations have fallen off and only $20 was received in the past week. This makes a total of $825 sent in to date. Since the cost of reflectors, bulbs, wire and topsoil will cost at least $1100, the committee is still short some $300. If you haven't sent in a donation please do so at once, so that the committee will be able to go ahead with the necessary purchases to give Summit one of the finest softball fields in this vicinity.

The competition to be furnished on the field will repay all donors as they will now be able to see the finest softball teams in the state performing here in Summit. Your donation may be mailed to Salem Booruly, c/o Columbia Cleaning and Dyeing Company, Chatham road, Summit, or handed to any one of the following members of the committee: Frank Pryce, Pete Kivlen, Slip Brenn, Henry Long or Red Ahern.

Summit Boy Captain, Peddie Baseball Team

David O. Zenker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Zenker, Whitredge road, is captain of the varsity baseball team at The Peddie School this season. Zenker, a member of the senior class, entered Peddie in 1943. He had previously attended the Central Junior High School.

Two brothers attended Peddie. Thomas J. Zenker, a member of the Class of '42 and Robert Zenker, a member of the Class of '43.

Did You Look Like This on Opening Day?

Here is our artist's conception of how several Summit pleasure artists have looked the past two weeks after enjoying the trout fishing sport at various North Jersey lakes and streams. Although the weather has generally been good for trout angling since the opening of the season, there have been days when it was too cold for full creels. Fishermen are generally agreed that the State Fish and Game Council are to be highly commended for their new stocking program.

Every Team Gains Solace in City Bowling League

The only event to brighten an otherwise set of routine matches at the 28th session of the City Bowling League Thursday night on the Woodruff Alleys in Springfield was a new season's high individual game score rolled by Bontempo of Charlins who amassed a 287. This helped him also win gross honors for the evening with a total of 611 for an average of 203.6.

The all-time high for the league was set four years ago by Sedge Philippi, now rolling with Garguiolos. All Sedge did at that time was to attain every bowler's dream with a 300.

Two for one games prevailed all the way down the line Thursday night, Chamber of Commerce taking the Commuters two out of three; Charlins, aided by Bontempo, chalked up two out of three against Garguiolos, while Roots squeezed two from Carter Publishing Co., losing the opening match by 19 pins.

Memorial Field Has Outdoor Shuffleboard Facilities Available
At Memorial Field this year there are facilities for a new outdoor sport which is popular down south and now the sport has been brought to Summit. This is outdoor shuffleboard.
Two cement courts have been laid out near the field house and are now open to the public for play. Arrangements can be made for their use by calling the field house, Summit 6-2932. The equipment is kept in the field house and will be rented out on a small per-game basis. Anyone who owns his own equipment can play, without a fee.
The standard superbomber fully loaded consumes about four hundred gallons of gasoline per hour.

Board of Recreation Tennis Courts Open
The Board of Recreation tennis courts at Memorial Field were opened for play over the past week-end. The courts are in excellent condition this year. The courts are open for the use of Summit residents and their friends. There is a nominal registration fee, which can be arranged at the field house office or with the man in charge of the tennis courts.
The courts can be reserved for one hour each day by calling the field house. Children have preference during the day on week days and adults have preference for using them during the evening, Saturday, Sunday and holiday. There is no preference during the morning but afternoon and evenings are reserved for adults.

Franklin, Lincoln Nines Engage In Practice Game

Brayton and Franklin Elementary School opened their 1946 baseball season Saturday on the latter's field. In a heavy scoring affair, Franklin finally emerged the winner, although the scorekeeper insisted on keeping the final score as a big secret. The game was in preparation for the annual Elementary School League soon to begin under the supervision of Roger Muse, athletic director for the elementary grades. At Franklin School, members of the Fathers' Council, are taking the responsibility for sponsoring the team made up of 12-year-olds. Take it from Charles Webster and Gerard Tatlock of the Fathers' Council. "There is no finer team anywhere than the Franklin nine." Mr. Tatlock, who is a Giant batter, declares the Franklin boys are even better than the Coogan's Bluff entry in the National League. When peacetime levels are reached, Naval aircraft are expected to total approximately 12,000 planes, of which more than 8,000 would be operational and the remainder spares. This is less than a third top war-time strength.

Hill Golfers Hit At Fee Increase By Commission

The men's and women's division of Galloping Hill Golf Club at a recent meeting voiced disapproval of the Union County Park Commission's increase in playing rates at the public course. The board of trustees of each division met at the clubhouse. John Rooney, president of the men's group, appointed a committee of three—Jack Sullivan, Ed Guenther and Richard Young—to confer with the commission regarding the increased fee and possible improvements to the course and clubhouse. The men also went on record as requesting the commission to consider the purchase of the Schackamaxon course, Westfield public links, to alleviate the expected overflow at the Hill. Close to thirty-five members attended the men's meeting. They set today as the date for their annual stag dinner, acknowledged the State P.G.A.'s date of August 30 for the holding of the second annual Coakley Memorial promoter tournament at the Hill. The women, conferring with F. S. Mathewson, Park Commission superintendent of recreation, strongly protested the increased rates and "discrimination" shown toward purchasers of season tickets. Mathewson said the Park Commission has decided those who purchased season cards at the old rate of $25 before March 21 should be given the benefit of the $10 difference. The women, however, suggested those who purchase tickets at $35 should be given the privilege of playing twelve full months while those with $25 cards be restricted to playing in the regular period from April 1 to December 31. The women also requested that improvements be made to their lounge room, which they claim is not large enough to accommodate their rapidly-expanding membership, now in excess of forty. Mrs. Jean Simpson, acting vice-president, presided in the absence of Mrs. Harriet Middleton, president.

Three to One Matches Prevail In City Doubles

All of the matches in the City Doubles League on April 17 went three to one, with the most important decision going to Brydon-Reinauer over Moroney-Brenn. Baum-Schoenweiser, broke the existing tie for first place and took a two point lead over Moroney-Brenn with one more week of bowling remaining. Fred Paul rolled the highest series of the night—a big 616 on games 207, 213 and 196—which helped in taking three points from Kivlen-Korn. In the other matches, Brydon-Reinauer knocked Moroney-Brenn out of first place by taking three points, and Taylor-Hennessey took three points from Bontempo-Nardiello. Clean games were rolled by Moroney, Wieboldt, Taylor and Paul.

Motor Boat Show Has War Models, Other Attractions

"When my dream boat comes home..." So the song goes. And scores of dream boats are hitting home for thousands of Metropolitans, including a goodly number from Summit, who were on hand Saturday for the exhibit at the 17th Regiment Armory at Park avenue and 34th street in New York where the latest models in motor and sailing craft are on display at the R. H. Macy and L. Bamberger exhibit of Higgins boats. The show is continuing through the rest of the week from noon to 9 p. m. Summit folk attending the exhibit have been attracted to Peggy Field of the Hill City, a professional model, as she sits on the deck of a 23-foot utility runabout. The Higgins showing features post-war civilian adaptations of the war-time genius of Andrew Higgins of New Orleans — PTs, LSTs, LCVAs, etc. These boats are of the larger variety. At Hearns, there are the smaller boats — more for the average pocketbook, too — including one that will fold as small as a lady's ironing board. Feature at the Higgins showing is the 26-foot Eureka Landing Boat, a 92-horsepower sedan cruiser which can do 18 miles per hour. It costs $4,500, sleeps four persons, and will be ready for delivery by 1947. Also available will be 32, 42 and 55-foot craft of the same variety with PT hulls. The 55-footer will sell for $55,000. These are not on display because they would not fit in through the doors of the armory. Another standout is the peacetime variety of the droppable lifeboat used for air rescue in the Pacific. This 28-foot sailing sloop is made of moulded banded wood and is made in an autoclave. Its 3,200 pounds include a 35-foot mast and sells for $4,000. Without its new 2,500-pound keel, it can be dropped from a plane at 1,800. The military model was dropped from a B-17 in a demonstration off Long Beach on Monday. The Higgins runabout line consists of two 17-footers and a 23-foot utility boat, while the 32-foot, 42-foot and 55-foot "PT Junior" cruisers carry the banner in that line. The "PT Junior" is a postwar version of the Higgins motor torpedo boat. The exhibit features films of the various boats in action, both at war and in peace.

Orion O. Oaks Tells Rotarians About Liquid Heat

Orion O. Oaks, of Oak Ridge avenue, chief engineer and inventor with the John B. Pierce Foundation of Summit and Somerville, told Rotarians at their Monday luncheon, what the future holds in store for the heating, cooking and refrigeration of the home of tomorrow.

Mr. Oaks, in conjunction with a fellow engineer, has perfected a single independent source of heat and power for the home's equipment. This is accomplished through the use of a secret liquid heated by any fuel desired and conveyed through pipes to any point desired — in radiators, refrigerators, and cooking stoves. The liquid will not vaporize until it reaches 875 degrees and might freeze at 75 minus. As 600 degrees or less is about the temperature ordinarily used in the kitchen, Mr. Oaks thought there isn't much need to worry about things going wrong.

Further details of Mr. Oaks' invention can be found in the issue of the Herald for April 11, which he gave in a talk before the Summit Kiwanis Club.

The speaker was introduced by Kingsley G. Thomson.

Guests were introduced by Joseph B. Engle of the Board of Trustees; H. B. McCain, Millburn; C. Guy Stephenson, Goshen, N. Y.; Thomas Jadson, Westfield; Ernie Trubenbach, Cranford; Con Chella, Lebanon, N. H.; Preston A. Burroughs, Madison; R. B. Vastine, Charles T. Hassard, Union; Col. R. de Vere Hope, guest of Granville B. Jacobs; Grysch Walter, Abilene, Texas; Chet Hering, guest of Henry W. Harding; Clifford E. Johnson, guest of Edward J. Whitmore; A. A. Hitchcock of Cleveland, guest of Harold F. Hudson.

Podiatrists to Attend National Convention

Doctors Clare and Virginia Harvey of Springfield and Dr. Frank Speigel of Beechwood road will be among the podiatrists from New Jersey and 21 other states who will be the guests of the Chiropodists' Society of the State of New Jersey, Inc., at its Welcome Home Convention and Victory Celebration in Atlantic City, on April 26, 27, and 28. This will be the profession's first major meeting since the outbreak of war and also marks the fortieth anniversary of podiatry.

Chiropodists from Maine to Wisconsin to Florida already are registering for the convention at the Hotel Ambassador, where business sessions and lectures will be held. The committee also will provide a social program for wives and other non-member guests. In the wide area included in the Welcome Home Convention and Victory Celebration are 3,759 practitioners representing 95 per cent of all podiatrists in the United States.

Sounds familiar, doesn't it?

ONLY A MOTHER knows how much time and energy it takes to form the important habits of cleanliness in her reluctant offspring.

It's easier to persuade children to keep clean if there's plenty of hot water on tap all the time... In fact, it lightens almost every household chore. So why not put "continuous hot water" at the top of your list of home improvements?

It costs as little as five cents for all the pure, wholesome water the average family of four uses in a day, and unlike most daily necessities, you are paying no more for it than you did before the war. Are you taking advantage of all the ways city water can contribute to better, more comfortable living for you and your family?
