Library Collection Incomplete In Many Important Categories

(Editor's Note: The following article, which will be run in installments, is a continuation of a survey made of the facilities of the Summit Free Public Library. The report discloses many interesting facts and shortcomings of the library, caused mainly by a lack of space and finances. It is requested that the articles be read in full so that the public will have a better understanding of the problems facing one of the most important cultural centers of our city.)

Objectives of Service

Any survey or evaluation of the services rendered by a library as a publicly supported institution must be based upon a clear understanding of the function of the library in a democratic society. As defined by the American Library Association, "the objectives of the public library should be to assemble and preserve books and materials in organized collections, and through stimulation and guidance to promote their use, to the end that children, young people, men and women may have opportunity and encouragement:

To educate themselves continuously.
To keep abreast of progress in the sciences and other fields of knowledge.
To maintain the precious heritage of freedom of expression and a constructively critical attitude toward all public issues.
To improve their ability to participate usefully in activities in which they are involved as citizens of the United States and of the world.
To equip themselves, and to keep themselves equipped, for efficient activity in useful occupations and practical affairs.

To improve their capacity for appreciation and production in cultural fields.
To aid in the advancement of knowledge.
To make such use of leisure time as will promote personal happiness and social well-being.

Present Organization
The Summit Library is organized under the provisions of Title 40, Chapter 54: Articles 1 to 29 of the Revised Statutes of New Jersey and operates under By-laws adopted by the Board in 1942.

The present appointed members of the board are:
James E. Downs, president, term expires January 1, 1950.
Miss Marie G. Libby, vice-president, term expires January 1, 1948.
David H. Knowles, secretary, term expires January 1, 1949.
Harold T. Graves, treasurer, term expires January 1, 1951.
Mrs. Gerald Winsor, term expires January 1, 1952.

Annual Vacation Exodus Gets Into Full Swing

Summit's annual exodus to lake, shore and mountain resorts is now in full swing, as is indicated by the personal items appearing in the Herald. Both the Lackawanna and Public Service report a spurt in travel which they attribute to vacationers on their way.
Present indications are that the majority of residents going away will spend the summer season at the Jersey shore or else at Cape Cod and other New England spots. Numerous Summit residents maintain summer homes at either of the two places while the Pennsylvania and North Jersey lakes also attract a large portion of residents.

Pop Still Home
For the most part, the early vacationers are leaving by train or bus to their favorite haunts. Railroad and bus officials say this is a normal procedure since the majority leaving are mothers and children. The male heads of families in most cases will not join them until mid-July and August except for occasional week-ends.
In view of the rising cost of living and rumors of a recession, observers view this year's exodus as an indication that Summit people are taking an optimistic slant of the economic scene or else are intent on enjoying one more vacation season before any possible business decline causes a further clamp-down on budgets.

Shopping at Home
"Vacation buying is always noticeable at this season of the year," was the way one merchant put it, "and so far, while the peak has not been reached, it appears that this will be a good season for the merchants. Women are not buying as many trills and fancies as formerly, perhaps, but they are still interested in the substantial needs of summer and particularly those of vacation resorts. They have learned from experience that it is cheaper to buy at home than it is away."

Traffic in the central business section of Summit already reflects the vacation season, although the average motorist looking for a parking space probably will find this hard to believe. But listen to the word of one of the traffic cops on motorcycle patrol:
"Even a week ago, especially in the early morning hours and in the late afternoon, it was noticeable."

Two Utilities Seek Rate Hike, One Gives Cut

Local customers of two utilities, the Commonwealth Water Co. and the New Jersey Bell Telephone Co., face an increase in rates with the announcement this week that both companies have filed for rate increases with the Public Utilities Commission. At the same time it was announced that the Jersey Central Power & Light Corp. and the Commission had negotiated a readjustment resulting in a forecasted rate reduction of $724,000 annually. The reduction became effective July 1.

The telephone company filed with the Public Utilities Commission a proposed additional rate increase of $5,349,000, making a total of $15,150,000. The original figure of $10,781,000 filed in January, has been the subject of hearings before the Commission.
The company said the cost of general wage increases after a six-week strike, settled in May, was reflected in the amended tariffs.

The revised tariffs make no change in the Company's proposal made in January to eliminate, when the new rates are introduced, all toll charges between points in the state where a 5 cent toll charge applies. Areas in which tolls would be toll-free are Chatham, Cranford, Fanwood, Madison, Millburn, Short Hills, South Orange, Summit, Unionville and Westfield.

Commonwealth Water Co., serving Summit and the Borough and Township of New Providence as well as other nearby communities, last week filed application with the Commission for a 20 per cent rate increase. The average residential consumer will be paying 35 cents a month more under the proposed schedule.

Cities Raising Costs
In a letter to consumers, the water company said decision to seek the rate boost was "taken reluctantly and only after a conscientious attempt to offset increased costs of operation by all possible economies."

The Water Company's last attempt to raise rates was in June, 1942, when it applied for a 15 per cent increase. At that time the municipalities affected fought the application which was later withdrawn.

Former Chaplain Accepts Call to Calvary Church

Appointment of an assistant to Rev. E. F. Francis of Calvary Episcopal Church was announced this week. Accepting the call to the local church is Rev. John Frederick Hamblin, Jr., former Navy chaplain and now curate at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Essex Falls. Mr. Hamblin will assume his duties here September 1.
A graduate of Lehigh University, Mr. Hamblin was ordained to Diaconate in June, 1944, following completion of his studies at General Theological Seminary. He was ordained to the priesthood the following year. Mr. Hamblin will assist Mr. Francis in various duties and will be in charge of the church school and young people's work.
During the month of August the parish will be in charge of Rev. Frank L. Rose of Varina parish, Richmond, Va.

Fireworks and Circuses Feature Nearby Fourth of July Programs

Although Summit is having no official Independence Day celebration, nearby communities are once again having their traditional July Fourth outings, parades, circuses, fireworks displays and other events.

In Maplewood, which is famed throughout this section of the state for its annual Fourth of July program, a circus during the afternoon opens the list of attractions. Included in the circus are animal, aerial and comedy acts of top billing. The circus will begin at 2:30 p. m. and be held at Memorial Park, Maplewood. Other activities also at Memorial Park are a track and athletic meet in the morning and community singing in the evening. Municipal fireworks display will close the day's program.

Millburn will hold its second annual Fourth of July celebration at Taylor Park and will offer an all-day program which will also include fireworks and a circus, as well as an athletic meet. Festivities will begin at 10 a. m. with a flag raising and at 10:30 a. m. a six-act circus will be staged on the baseball diamond of the Park. A ten-piece band will accompany the circus. Features include balancing acts, trained dogs and other animals, clowns and aerial bicyclists.

Water Carnival at Lake
At 1:30 p. m., following a picnic lunch period, there will be a water carnival at Taylor Park Lake which will feature swimming, diving and races. A comedy diving team has been secured. A ball game is scheduled for 3 p. m. and at 7 p. m. there will be a band concert and soloists, some from the Paper Mill Playhouse. At 9 p. m. a fireworks display will wind up the day's events. As an added attraction, the Town of Millburn will spray the Park grounds with its newly purchased mosquito spraying machine, thereby guaranteeing relief from the pests.

Springfield Baby Parade
A 21-gun salute will open Springfield's holiday at 11 a. m. and events thereafter will move at a fast pace with a baby parade and contest scheduled at 9:45 a. m., which will be followed by a flag ceremony in which various veterans' organizations will participate.

In the afternoon there will be track events at Meisel avenue athletic field and a softball game between the American Legion and Springfield Produce teams. During the afternoon, soda and ice cream will be sold by Girl and Boy Scouts. The evening program starts at 8 p. m. in front of Regional High School with a public block dance to the music of Don Gibson's orchestra. The dancing will be interrupted at 9 p. m. for a 45-minute period for a fireworks display and will be resumed until midnight. Springfield will also have its public grounds "logged" for the comfort of spectators and participants.

Past Governor Installs Rotary Club Officers

Newly-elected officers of the Summit Rotary Club were installed at Monday's meeting, of the club at the YMCA by Joshua R. Golightly of Summit, past district governor and a member of the Millburn Club. The new officers are Joseph B. Engle, president; Allan R. Devenney, vice-president; and George M. Delaney, treasurer. John Davidson, Jr., Leonard E. Best and Louis E. Stahl were inducted as members of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Golightly, in his introductory remarks, said that those members who read their Bibles would find that installation ceremonies had been the practice in Bible times and mention of such services would be found in the old testament. This, he said, has been carried on through the history of all countries—autocratic, republican, democratic, and it is fitting that Rotary observe similar ceremonies.

Many Guests Present

Club Had Good Year
Before relinquishing the gavel, Mr. Davidson spoke of the good year Rotary of Summit enjoyed in its history, with many being taken in and some losses, nevertheless there had been a net gain, the membership now standing over the 60 mark. This, he said, was due to the good work of the officers, committees and members as a whole, for which they should be given credit. He also said the

Becker Tells of Population Rise Expected in Area

Morris County Chamber of Commerce officials were warned to prepare for a large influx of population within the next few years by Arthur Becker, president of the Summit Chamber of Commerce, at the fourth annual dinner of the Madison Chamber of Commerce, held last Monday night at the Concord Restaurant.

In his analysis of the effect of population increases in the Morris County area, Mr. Becker gave a comprehensive survey of population trends in the area directly affected by the establishment of new industries between Summit and Morris Plains. More than 3,000 employees will migrate to this section before the end of 1949, he said.
In the speaker's opinion, the housing problem is directly related to the local chambers of commerce. He pointed out that the stability of the type employed by the firms will be a factor in the desirability of attracting them to the community. The new residents will increase the potential buying power by from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000 annually, he said.

Becker said that 75 per cent of these new workers would be college graduates and specialists, technicians, engineers or research workers in these new plants. They will need low-cost single family houses to buy, he said, as well as apartment units.

In advocating the construction of garden apartments, Mr. Becker seemed to anticipate the argument of increased school cost in educating the children. On the basis of his survey only one in five apartment house dwellers have a child in school.
"The Chamber of Commerce should take active part in any decisions on apartments," Becker said, since these new families will bring an estimated three to five million dollars in new business to the area.

"There is no other place in New Jersey so fortunate in having that much business handed to it on a silver platter," Becker said, pointing out that this potential new

Higher Apartments, Stores, Favored by Planning Group

A recommendation that the proposed zoning ordinance be revised to permit an increase in the height of business buildings and apartments other than garden type, was made at the final meeting of the season of the Civic Planning Committee last Tuesday night at the Hill City Savings & Loan Association.

The Committee, which approved of the proposed ordinance in most counts, also felt that sections devoted to loading and unloading in the business area were more of a city problem than that of the individual merchant.
Under the proposed ordinance, business structures would be limited to four stories in height and apartment dwellings to three. The Committee advocates that the business height be set at five stories and apartments at four because of the fact that elevators can be installed more economically in building of the recommended height rather than those set forth under the ordinance.

Suggest Rear Alleys
The ordinance as now drawn up also requires that loading and unloading facilities be provided for on each lot. The Committee is of the opinion that this "need not be mandatory" if there is a rear alley wide enough to accommodate loading and unloading and at the same time allow free passage for vehicles. It was strongly recommended that the City take immediate steps to build rear alley space in all cases where it is practical in the business section as the problem was municipal and not one of the individual businessman.

Among other recommendations made by the Committee are that the proposed ordinance provide that lots in the business section be 150 feet deep rather than 100 feet as is now set forth in the ordinance. The reason being that the trend is now towards deeper lots as they provide more store space.

The most controversial provision of the ordinance discussed, but not acted upon, was the proposal to extend the business section on Springfield avenue to Hobart avenue. The Committee discussed this matter in full but made no recommendations.

Abolish B-6 Class
The group also went on record as favoring the abolishment of the B-6 residential zoning class and combining it with the B-5 class. The B-6 class requires that two-family homes be built on a lot 6,000 square feet in area and B-5 calls for 5,000 square feet. The Committee felt that the actual area covered by a B-6 zone would be so small that it would be incorporated with the B-5 zone.

The Committee voted to stay in existence even though it was formed solely to study and exchange ideas about the proposed ordinance. The Committee is made up of representatives from the following organizations:

Merchants Set July 17, 18, 19 For Annual Summit Days Sales

Substantial savings are once again assured Summit shoppers with the announcement this week by Harold Spitzer, co-chairman of the Chamber of Commerce's merchants committee, that July 17, 18 and 19 have been set aside for the annual Summit Days sales.

Amos Hiatt

YMCA President Elected to Serve On National Board

Announcement was made yesterday that Amos Hiatt, president of Central YMCA since 1943, was elected to membership on the International Board of YMCAs, which body functions as the overall policy-making group for the YMCAs of the United States and Canada. Mr. Hiatt was voted to the three-year term at a meeting June 6-8 of the National Council of the YMCAs of the United States and Canada in Buffalo.
Selected for nomination to the board because of his keen interest in YMCA international affairs, it will be recalled that Mr. Hiatt spent some time in Czechoslovakia last summer as an unofficial observer of the restoration work.
An executive of Pan-American Airways, Mr. Hiatt resides on Edgemont avenue.

Board Members Explain Non-use Of Vote Machine

Called before the County Board of Elections on Wednesday night, June 25, to explain why the voting machine delivered to Ward 2, District 2, located in the Field House, Myrtle avenue, for the June 3 primaries, was not used, board members stated there was no time to set it up when the rush was on.
Several complaints reached the county board that one of the machines was idle while voters stood in line to get to the other. In explanation, the statement was made that only the one machine was used up to 6 p. m. as the vote was light, only 123 persons voting.
When the voting became heavy there was no time to put the idle machine into operation.
County board members stressed the fact that all machines delivered to a district should be used.

Library Will Display Winning Photos

The prize winning photographs of the seventh amateur contest, sponsored by the Union County Park Commission, will be displayed at the library from July 7 to 12.
Among the exhibits will be "shots" taken by Harold C. Ross of Beech Spring drive, R. S. Kennedy and John Henriksen, both of New Providence.

These early-summer sales popularly called a "shoppers' bonanza" have been held each year since 1936. The three-day event represents a community-wide move supported by merchants and civic-minded local organizations to promote Summit as a suburban shopping center serving a tri-county area.

Drastic reductions for the three days are pledged by each cooperating merchant.
"We can promise the shopper that this year's Summit Days will be the biggest ever held," said Mr. Spitzer. "For the first time since the war, we have stock and will be able to offer the public a wide selection of goods at a considerable saving. More and more, Summit is becoming known as the suburban shopping center of this section of the state and by making special summer merchandise available at a saving, we merchants feel that we are doing our share to insure Summit's place as a tri-county shopping center."

Banners on Broad Street
The city will take on a gala appearance during the three-day event. Red and white banners announcing the sales will be placed across the upper and lower ends of Broad street and Springfield avenue to catch the eyes of motorists using those thoroughfares. Store windows in the business section will also display placards and pennants announcing special sale items and local newspapers of neighboring towns will carry announcement of the sales to their readers.
Special store hours from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. have been arranged for the duration of Summit Days, the committee said.

Serving with Adolph Root, chairman, in organizing this year's Summit Days are Harold Spitzer, Matthew Zeigler, Harry T. Doyle, Donald Burns, H. Goldstein and J. Scholnick. W. Rae Crane, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, is also a member of the committee.

50 Stores Back Plan
The following stores and organizations have pledged 100 per cent cooperation. In the three-day sale event the merchants have promised to reduce prices to continually attract local and out-of-town shoppers.

Vanguard of Old Guard Pays Visit To Flat Tire Club

Charles H. Hall, representing the Old Guard, accompanied by William F. Kerr, Roy M. Baker, Arthur B. Gordinier and Harry M. Guest started on a trip Wednesday morning, June 26, with Elmira, N. Y., as the objective, where Mr. Hall was to visit officially the Ancient Order of Flat Tires of that city.

The party first stopped at Harshby, Pa., where a sight-seeing tour was taken, including the city's parks, the Harshby Hotel, the sports arena, and stadium. This took so much time that the party spent the night in Harshby at the Community House.

Leaving Harshby the next day, the tourists went through Harrisburg and Williamsport, over the scenic highways of the Keystone state, through the wooded mountains and by the winding roads, up and up, until sign asked along the highway showed 1,100 feet above sea-level. Elmira was reached in time for the luncheon.

Tell Old Guard Aims
Mr. Guest explained that the Ancient Order of Flat Tires differs from the Old Guard in that its membership is not composed of retired men, having only six of such on its roster. Luncheon was in the Mark Twain Hotel.

All the visitors had a few words to say, during which Mr. Baker outlined the workings and objectives of the Old Guard. Mr. Hall was the given the floor and presented his talk, "A Walk Through the Garden of Poetry." The visitors were assured that sometime during the season a delegation of Flat Tires would be in Summit at an Old Guard session.

The night of the 26th was spent in Elmira and the next day the return trip was made. A stop for lunch was made in Stroudsburg at the Penn-Stroud Hotel, where they were surprised when the waitress said, "Gentlemen, it has been a pleasure to wait on you." After leaving Stroudsburg the delegation came home by way of the scenic Delaware Water Gap. The round trip covered 564 miles.

Atom Work Safer Than Car Driving, Scientist Claims

The newly organized Summit Association of Scientists were told at their first meeting Thursday night in the Central Y.M.C.A. that work in an atomic research laboratory is much safer than driving a motor vehicle on Route 1. The speaker was Dr. Phillip M. Morse, director of Brookhaven National Laboratories.

Admitting that atomic research workers had to take the utmost precautions, he speaker explained that his fellow workers are eligible for group insurance at regular rates and that they have a pension plan.

The UN Atomic Energy Commission has designated Brookhaven as one of three research labs in the country in the promotion of peacetime study of harnessing the uses of atomic energy undeveloped during its wartime application. Brookhaven is operated by the Associated Universities, Inc., a corporation of nine Eastern Universities financed by Uncle Sam.

Granting that there are a number of "Buck Rogers" predictions about the possible uses of atomic energy, the speaker declared that some definite predictions pointed to the production of heat and power for peacetime uses, together with advances in biological and chemical presentations. He expressed the belief there will be atomic power plants someday, though he was skeptical about the use of atomic power in automobiles and airplanes.

A few days after his talk in Summit, Dr. Morse made headlines when he and six other atomic scientists, including Dr. Albert Einstein, said that the United Nations is helpless to prevent an atomic war and called for an American realization that only a "supra-national government" can save the world from disaster. The group also agreed that war might come by 1965.

Busy Program Faced by Lions At Luncheon

The Lions Club faces a busy program at its July 3 luncheon today at the Suburban. It was announced yesterday by Walter A. McNamara, installed Thursday night at a ladies' entertainment program.

Mr. Gannon, as treasurer, will make the annual financial statement of the club fiscal year ended June 30.

At Thursday's installation at the Suburban, 13 members were presented "perfect attendance" pins for the last year. John A. Blaust was commended for 14 years perfect attendance and Pearce Rogers for five years. Others receiving the awards: Mr. Booruy, Sidney Cole, Walter Crann, Elmore F. Furth, Mr. Gannon, Albert Musson, Ernest P. Patten, John Smosnek, Joseph Walguarnery, Mr. Woodside

Elks and Kiwanis To Vie for C of C Cup at Shore Meet

Already the links teams of the Elks and Kiwanis are sharpening their shoes preparatory to the annual golf match, which regularly features the Chamber of Commerce's annual outing. The outing will be an all-day affair at its most popular spot, the Manasquan River Golf Club, Manasquan, August 18.

The Elks and Kiwanis each hold two legs on the C. of C. cup which must be won three times for permanent possession.

The Elks are expected to go to the greens relying on Oakley M. LaVance (the Squire of Manasquan), John Rillo, Secretary William Rae Crane and Bob Reynolds. The latter is chairman of the golf committee.

Kiwanis are counting on their best stick work from Harlan S. Kennedy, Arthur Becker, Bryant Griffin, John Voegtlin and Ferguson Bass.

The Lions, who were a dark horse last year, coming in second, will probably shoot the works with Salem Boorjy, John Smorancik, Edward Butler, Fred Behre and Frank Van Tronk. Besides playing for the cup, considerable interest is always taken in the kickers' handicap.

Off-Shore Fishing Planned
No shore outing of the Chamber of Commerce has ever been considered complete without an off-shore fishing party. While it will be too much to expect any one of the "Isaac Waltons" to agree on the number and variety of the catch to be established on their exhibition, it is expected that prizes will be available for the "best fisherman" and the fisherman with the "best accolade" as a sailor.

The more prominent among the merchants who will go fishing will probably include former Mayor G. Harry Culla, William G. Savage, Executive Official Fred Mort, James Hogg, Sanitary Inspector Walter Crann, John Brown and Hudson, not to mention others, among which group will be found Joseph Zeigler, who is making all plans for the piscatorial artists.

Dinner the Grand Finale
Grand finale to the outing, General Chairman Thomas Miller explains, will be the shore dinner. First will be the entree of steamed clams and clam broth. Then will come the lobsters, potatoes in some form with a salad... and then the main course, steak or chicken, corn on the cob, fresh lima beans and peas, not to mention watermelon and cantaloupe.

and other delicacies. At least this was the general idea of a last year's dinner and there is no reason to suppose this year's dinner will be of any less character.

Interested? Well, Mr. Crane in his capacity as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and about a dozen other members will have tickets for sale at an early date.

Chatbam Artist Has Exhibit At Paper Mill

During the run of Victor Herbert's "The Fortune Teller," the gallery of the Paper Mill Playhouse, Millburn, will hold a "double-headed" exhibition. New Jersey talent. Water colors by E. Turnbull of Millington will share the walls with the pen and ink drawing by Gertrude Swayze of Chatham.

Mr. Turnbull is best known to residents of New Jersey for his work in portraiture. His likenesses of local celebrities have appeared in most of the leading art shows in this neighborhood. Miss Swayze, a member of the Chatham Art Club, in her finely detailed pen and ink drawings gives life and spirit to a technique, the delicacy and minuteness of which would exceed the patience of most present-day artists.

A method of x-raying oil fields by remote operation in the research laboratories that is expected to increase the yield of the world's petroleum industry reservoirs has been developed.

Good Deeds Not The Test

Someone handled a queer five dollar bill the other day. It had done a heap of good—paid the widow's rent, bought food for the hungry, squared up three or four accounts, made a church treasurer happy when he found it on the plate, and made the sexton happier when he found his back salary was paid by it. But in due course it came back to the bank whose name it bore and, lo, the teller threw it out. "What's wrong?" asked the depositor. "Counterfeit," said the teller. All its good deeds had not made it pass the bank where its real character was discovered.

Our Lord in Matt. 7:23 speaks of some who said they had done many wonderful works in His name; to whom He said: "Depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

FISH AND FISHING

Fish seem to have some of the same characteristics as people. They get together in schools and migrate according to the seasons of the year. They are usually hungry and swim from place to place in search of food.

Millions of amateur and professional fishermen have studied the ways and habits of fish and have learned how easy it is to catch them in nets, traps and on the hook. The manufacture and sale of fishing equipment as well as ocean fishing have become profitable industries employing thousands of people.

Some fish are so stupid that they fail to see any harm in taking food from a hook, line and sinker. The experienced fisherman knows the kind of bait and hooks to use and how to cast the line. If the fish are hungry they will bite and soon get hooked/cut short their natural life span.

In a similar way some people are unaware of the nets, traps and hooks that are elaborately prepared to catch them. The trick that has been used for many generations to catch people, get them hooked in the mouth and fastened to a line that shortens the span of life is to entice them to a party and then tempt them to partake of products in which the "hook" is carefully concealed.

When the innocent and unsophisticated see others who are apparently well educated and leaders in society, business and the professions taking the "bait," they little realize that there is a concealed "hook" and a line that may hold them the rest of their life.

The manufacturers, advertisers and salesmen of liquor, tobacco and the caffeine drinks are like the fishermen, they have studied the human frailties and have learned how to put out an advertising line and attractive bait. By casting and playing their line they quickly hook the boys and girls with habit forming nerve irritants that soon drive them to drink and here another "hook" is put in the mouth.

This kind of fishing for people is so profitable that it has been going on at an ever increasing rate until today $15,000,000,000 per year (10% of the national income) is spent for such non-essential things as champagne cocktails, whiskey, wine, beer, cigarettes, cigars, tobacco, coffee, tea, chocolate, colas and drugs. The poisons in these additives are largely responsible for 23,000,000 people being physically, mentally and economically handicapped and partially disabled.

Your friends and relatives will hold you in everlasting remembrance if you show them the nets, traps and concealed "hooks" that are being spread everywhere to catch them.

If you happen to be caught with a "hook" in your mouth that is holding you in slavery, you can, like a lively fish, wiggle out of it or break the line.

Try it and see how much more alive and alert you will be when you exercise your will power and self control and free yourself like thousands of others are doing every day.

able that there are fewer women engaged in making their shopping rounds," he said. "We can tell every year when the vacation season gets under way. The wives depart and the husbands keep at the old grind until their two or three weeks roll around." Change of Address While most Herald subscribers are prompt in making their change of address for the summer, there are still a few who overlook the necessity of making this temporary change. Your promptness in making this change will facilitate your receiving the Herald each week. In making the temporary change of address, it is important that you give the name of the subscriber, his regular address and the address to which the Herald should be sent for your summer vacation.

The Police Department is also anxious to know when you are closing your Summit home, how long you are going to be away and where you are going. This cooperation on your part will enable the police to give your property the best possible protection. The patrol checks regularly on all vacant homes.

Summit Midshipmen On Summer Cruise

Three Summit men who are members of the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps unit at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, are participating in a summer training cruise to Panama, Bermuda and the West Indies. The cruise began June 21 and will continue until August 15.

The Midshipmen are James K. Hickok, son of Councilman-at-Large and Mrs. Ernest S. Hickok of 133 Summit avenue; Daniel M. Barton, son of Mrs. Charles R. Barton of 27 Hawthorne place; and Carlisle W. Fiers, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle W. Fiers of 615 Springfield avenue.

drawn by the Company in February, 1943, because of the "hold-the-line" order of the President during the war period before the Public Utilities Commission had decided the case.

The other communities besides Summit which are served by Commonwealth are Chatham Township, Millburn, Springfield, Passaic Township, Livingston, Irvington, Maplewood, West Orange.

Jersey Central notified customers that effective July 1 rates would be trimmed so that an annual reduction of $724,000 would be realized.

Jersey Central's cut in rates will save the following types of customers annual amounts as follows:

Home Rates Cut

Residential, $211,000; Commercial and mixed light and power, $209,800; power, $196,400; and municipal street lighting, $107,000.

The new residence rate will increase the first block of use at $1 from 11 to 14 KWH. While the kilowatt-hours in the next block are increased from 39 to 46, the rate is decreased from $.06 to $.056 per KWH. The kilowatt-hours in the third block are reduced from 80 to 70, the price remaining at same at $.035, while all use over 130 KWH per month remains at $.02.

The company had reduced its rates effective February 1, 1946, to account for a saving of $1,000,000, the board noted.

Commonwealth Water cites rising costs in all lines as being the cause for asking for a higher rate and points out in the letter that "one of the largest increases we have had to meet has been in the field of labor. It has always been our policy to pay our men a reasonable wage for their labor. . . . Since 1940, our average hourly wage rates have increased 70 per cent.

"Everything we buy has gone up in the same way everything you buy has increased since the beginning of the war. Coal, Diesel oil, valves, cast iron pipe—just to mention a few items—have increased 42 per cent, 47 per cent, 145 per cent and 70 per cent, respectively.

"Our local taxes have grown from $25,000 in 1940 to an estimated $310,000 for 1947, an increase of 32 per cent. This does not take into consideration our increase in Federal taxes, which have been substantial."

Pays Lottery Fine

Wallace Payne, 57, of South street, was fined $175 Friday by Police Judge Albert H. Bierman on a charge of possession of lottery slips. Identification Officer Frank Van Tronk and Detective Nicholas Grass picked up the man on Railroad avenue earlier that day.

attendance had been almost perfect and that all objectives had been attained. The retiring president was presented with a past-president's pin by Mr. Golightly.

Arthur T. Daly, reporting for the scholarship and student loan fund committee said that one whole and two half scholarships had been awarded, the latter two because no grant was made last year. Winners are Richard Jensen, full scholarship; Alfred Guida and W. Gilbert Baker, Jr., one-half. Jensen will attend Purdue, taking mechanical engineering; Guida, N.Y.U., accounting; Baker, University of Rochester, medical. Mr. Daly reported 17 scholarships, totalling $6,800 had so far been awarded; 21 had been granted loans, totalling $4,600.

The meeting was concluded by the new president with a word picture of his trip to and attendance at the Rotary International Convention in San Francisco last month.

Why Commonwealth Water Company is asking for a rate increase . . .

COMMONWEALTH Water Company has mailed a letter to its customers explaining in detail why we are seeking an increase in water rates from the New Jersey Board of Public Utility Commissioners. If granted, this increase will amount to about 35 cents a month for average domestic customer.

HERE ARE the chief reasons that have made it necessary for us to ask for a rate increase:

OPERATING COSTS have advanced enormously in the last few years. For example, since 1940, the price of coal has risen 42%; Diesel oil is up 47%; cast iron pipe, up 70%. Almost everything we buy shows a similar increase.

TAXES—Our local taxes alone have increased 32% since 1940. This year our estimated bill will be $310,000, as against $235,000 in 1940; Federal taxes have also increased substantially.

WAGES—Since 1940, our average hourly wage rates have increased 70%. It has always been our policy to pay our employees a reasonable wage. We believe our customers approve this policy. But obviously such an increase was not contemplated when the present rate schedule went into effect in 1935.

RATES for water are fixed by the Board of Public Utility Commissioners. Such rates cannot reflect changing economic conditions as do prices of goods and supplies bought in stores. The last time our rates were changed was in 1933, during the depression period. They were reduced at that time. We believe our customers will agree, from their own experience, that they could not operate their businesses today on the basis of prices established in 1935.

IT HAS always been our aim and our pride to provide the communities we serve with water service of the highest standard of efficiency, purity, and adequacy. To do so means that we must be in a sound enough financial position to provide for improvements and extensions as the needs and growth of these communities require. That is another consideration that has influenced our decision to seek an increase in rates, because at this time we have an improvement program in progress which will involve the expenditure of about a million dollars.

TRUSTING in the fairness of our customers and in the knowledge that they desire and are entitled to the best water service possible, we feel that they will realize that our action in asking for an increase in rates is necessary and unavoidable.

THURSDAY, JULY 3, 1947

Alive or Dead July 5

"In my father's house are many mansions." We have all heard these words spoken many times, but no one ever heard them spoken after his death.

Our great national holiday—July 4—is Friday, July 4, 1776, the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia rang out the independence of these United States, guaranteeing the Constitution's statement of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness to our people. But it does not guarantee license. One man's liberty stops where the other man's begins; neither does it guarantee that one can run wild with a shot-gun nor yet with an automobile, leaving death and destruction in his wake.

There were enough accidents that caused the deaths of people before the 1890's and the coming of the automobile. Since then the accident death rate has increased by leaps and bounds, until now there isn't a day that goes by but some one meets death in an accident. And the rate for the Fourth of July is the highest—last year the total reaching 8,300, by far the most being the result of automobile accidents.

One wonders what the death toll of this coming Fourth will be. Unless our people are more careful, the three-day holiday will show an increase. The exodus from cities and towns throughout the land will be great—by train and auto and other means of travel—to other cities and towns, to the country and to the seashore.

Friday night the trek will start and Saturday will see the highways and by-ways all over the country carrying a steady stream of cars—millions and millions—to nearby and distant points of the compass. Automobile drivers should exercise extreme caution (not to say they should not do so at all times) over this period in order that accidents may not happen. They should be careful to observe all the rules of the road and observe the speed limits, definite stop lights and the red flash (for that means stop also) and stop signs. They should watch for pedestrians crossing streets against lights, children running at large and boys and girls on bicycles. Better be careful than dead.

There are, of course, other ways of getting killed than by an automobile—firecrackers in some states (illegal in others), shot-guns and revolvers, accidents in the home, being bitten by poisonous snakes—and others you can think of without too much strain on the imagination.

All the forces of law and order will be on the watch for infractions and disobedience to the laws of every Middlesex, village, and farm—but this will not be enough—it will still be up to the individual to keep within the law.

The watch-word should be—be careful under all circumstances. And again, better be careful than dead.

And be alive on July 5!

Summit Days

Summit Days are almost here again! On July 17, 18 and 19, for the eleventh year, local merchants will again slash prices in their annual three-day sale for the benefit of the shopper. These yearly sales have become an institution and are not only looked for by our own residents but also in neighboring towns as well, for Summit, through its variety of excellent stores, has now become a trading center for a large suburban area in three counties, Union, Morris and Essex.

It is not hard to understand why. Our city is easily reached from outlying communities by car, bus and rail. Our shops are attractive, our merchants courteous and our parking problems are less than those of neighboring towns.

Summit Days have always been a highlight of the summer for the consumer because it is the only event of its kind in this section and it is a recognized fact that substantial savings can be realized. Although merchandise is far more plentiful than it was a year ago, prices still remain high and it is something of a sacrifice for our businessmen to arbitrarily reduce stocks for the duration of the sales. Yet they willingly do this so that Summit can maintain its place as a growing shopping center serving the needs of many communities.

The coming sales, the merchants' committee of the Chamber of Commerce promises, will be the biggest and best of all. Shelves are filled with a wide selection of goods and the support among stores is more enthusiastic than ever before. Proof of that can be had by reading the list of cooperating business houses. The result is bound to be a three-day bargain spree for the shopper.

Summer Clothes Are Summer Woes

Now that summer has officially arrived, mere man enters one of his most trying times of the years. Man, always a creature of convention and circumstance, definitely takes a back seat to woman in hot weather. Man, suffering from delusions, has always fancied himself to be bolder, more practical, and more adaptable than woman but this fiction quietly melts away each summer.

If there is any doubt in any mind that this is not fiction, then let him saunter down Springfield avenue on a hot day and observe his hapless brothers. Already, at the very onset of summer, women have donned light, cool garments while men still bravely wear the collar and tie, hat, and, in many cases, vests. Man is held timid about changing his attire with the seasons or departing from customs in dress established by his forefathers.

The merchants and men's wear publications tell that man is showing a little more sense each year when it comes to donning clothes appropriate for the climate and the credit for this slight trend is given to those dauntless sartorial pioneers in linen, seersucker and other tropical fabrics. However, the move is progressing too slowly for complete liberation from discomfort because to the great majority of males a "summer" suit is usually only a trifle lighter in weight than the "fall" and "spring" suit and it is still worn with the usual "year-round haberdashery."

We do not approve of men who traverse city streets in ridiculous resort togs, nor do we think the day has come for men to discard trousers for shorts, but we would like to see men display sense and fortitude in wearing apparel that makes it no longer possible for practical women, in cool cotton print, to talk about us behind our backs in pitying and condescending tones.

Mayflower Descendants
(Providence Bulletin)

There is something inevitable about ancestors and something equally inevitable about mathematics, and when you mix the two you get something even more inevitable—and much more discouraging. For example, William B. Browne of Pittsfield, Mass., who makes a business of looking up other people's ancestors, has come to the conclusion that within a few generations everyone in the United States will be able to trace his lineage back to the Mayflower.

And don't say stuff and nonsense; for William can prove it mathematically. Mayflower descendants are spreading like wildfire. What's more, they're becoming so independent of their ancestors that they are marrying whom they please, and this, of course, spreads the Mayflower blessing among a lot of candidates who came over in later ships.

That's where the inevitable law of mathematics sets in and makes cousins of us all. John Alden, Mr. Browne points out, had 15 children and 180 grandchildren. Today he has at least 5,000,000 living descendants. You can see for yourself how splendidly the movement is progressing.

We personally haven't the slightest doubt that Mr. Browne can show you on paper how utterly impossible it will be for your grandchild six or eight generations off to escape having come over on the Mayflower, just as he can prove to you that every Englishman living today is related to every other Englishman through William the Conqueror, who ruled England 32 generations ago, making it mathematically certain that they're all descendants of his.

It's all pretty discouraging especially for those believers in democracy who haven't got anything but ancestors to be snobbish about. But we dare say a proud and spirited family like us Mayflower descendants can find other grounds for uncousinly distinctions—the love of horses, maybe, or even mental superiority.

Please Others
(Plainfield Courier)

There's no two ways about it, you've got to please others if you want to get along in this world. So paste those five words in your hat, slip them into your wallet, write them on your college diploma to remind you that nothing can take the place of agreeableness. And you please others when you're honest with them, smiling and considerate, and willing to take them as you find them, leaving them that way, if that is the way they like it. But whatever the means, this is the end; you have to put yourself out for people if you're going to live with them, work with them.

Choose Your Poison
(Chicago Daily News)

The excitement of a card game is more harmful than moderate drinking, according to an eminent heart specialist. Since some doctors do not agree, the patient can now shop around and get a choice of evils.

However, there is a saying in the legal profession that many a man has gone to jail by taking bad legal advice. For all we know, men may have met even worse fates by taking the wrong medical counsel.

We see no objection for the United States to meet Russia half-way, but we're darned if she should crawl on our hands and knees to do it.

Memorial Service Held Here for Leonard Robbins

Leonard H. Robbins, newspaperman and author, died June 24 from a heart attack at Wolfboro, N. H., where he made his summer home. With him were his daughter, Mrs. Rome A. Betts of Summit, and his son, Anthony Robbins of Pompton Plains.

Mr. Robbins, for 24 years a member of the staff of the Sunday Department of The New York Times, had resided with his son since the death of his wife, the former Lena Anthony, in 1945. Prior to Mrs. Robbins' death, they lived in Montclair.

Born in Lincoln, Neb., Mr. Robbins was educated at the University of Nebraska, where his instructor in basic military drill was Captain, later Gen. John J. Pershing.

After coming east and attending Princeton University for a while, he returned to Nebraska for a short time in 1908 where he worked on a newspaper.

Back in the east again, Mr. Robbins worked briefly in Philadelphia before joining the staff of The Newark Evening News. He stayed with The News from 1901 to 1917, during which time he conducted a humorous column, "In the Air." In 1916, he went to the Mexican border where he renewed friendship with General Pershing. He also served as correspondent for The News in England during World War I.

After temporary retirement at that time because of ill health, Mr. Robbins joined The Sunday Times in 1923. He wrote the "About" column of the magazine, which he signed L. H. R.

A versatile author, he wrote as discerningly about New York as about the west, and could be as keen in an article about subway construction as about brook trout fishing.

Recently returned from a trip through the midwest and west, where he first became ill, Mr. Robbins had just completed an article concerning the heart and spirit of the State of Missouri.

A private service for Mr. Robbins and burial was held last Saturday at Pompton Plains. A memorial service was held Sunday at the First Baptist Church, Summit.

The eulogy at the service was by Rev. Dr. Samuel A. Hamilton, professor of religion at New York University, a friend of Mr. Robbins. He said Mr. Robbins was a man of humility, "who had a kind and friendly soul and whose life meant much to all of us who knew him."

"He was a man of strong conviction," added Dr. Hamilton. "There was no preposterousness nor stiffness about him. His humor made him sympathetic. He had a Christ-like quality, which made him many friends. His memory will not be allowed to perish. He had an unwavering devotion to righteousness."

The Scripture was read by Rev. Dr. David K. Barnwell, pastor of the church. Mr. Robbins' favorite hymns were sung, including Whit-tier's "Peace," "Oh, Master Let Me Walk With Thee" and "When Morning Glids the Skies."

In the gathering were many of Mr. Robbins' co-workers on The Times.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Edna B. Zipprodt and son, Elliott, wish to thank all friends for their assistance and sincere expressions of sympathy extended to them during their recent bereavement.

Dear Marge—

Of course I LOVE you. Of course I want to get married. But, Marge, you know when I got out of the Navy and went into this business of bottling Vernor's gingerale I told you we would just have to wait until I CONVINCE the people of New Jersey that Vernor's is the best sweet gingerale this side of the Rocky Mountains.

I told a fellow today about Vernor's being 81 years old and he said he guessed he'd wait another 81 years before he tried any. I sure hope other people help us more than that.

Now DON'T TELL YOUR DAD, but I want to do better than just support you in the manner to which you are accustomed. Folks are finding out about Vernor's . . . and like it. So please hurry and get your dental bill paid up.

A Plea for Safety Over the Holiday

In a statement to the Herald, Mayor Maxwell Lester, Jr., had this to say regarding carelessness on the part of citizens so as to avoid accidents over the Fourth of July week-end:

"I earnestly ask every citizen of Summit to join with me in accepting personal responsibility for avoiding accidents over the Fourth of July week-end. "Our community wants to take its rightful place in the nationwide Fourth of July program now being conducted by the National Safety Council to hold down the holiday accident toll.

"Let us not blacken this bright day of celebration of our nation's freedom and independence—which should mean freedom, too, from the tragedy and suffering brought by accidents.

"Let each one of us dedicate himself to making this Fourth of July a safe and sane day of festivity."

LETTERS

Asks for Quietness

June 23, 1947.

Editor, The Summit Herald: It seems to me that there should be more respect in Summit for the funeral parlors, and especially when there is a funeral service in progress.

Sunday, during the funeral service for my father at Burroughs Funeral Home, a string of cars came by blowing their horns continuously from one end of the business section to the other. I know that it made me feel very disgusted and I feel a lot of other people at the service felt the same way.

Isn't there something that could be done to stop this type of horn-blowing while driving through town, and especially near a funeral home? It seems to me that there should be at least some respect for the dead. Which is to come first: Happiness and joy at a wedding, or deep sorrow and grief at the funeral of a loved one?

ELLIOTT ZIPPRODT.

CARD OF THANKS

It is often said that nothing reveals the depth of one's friendships, or the loyalty of relatives, like death. In our recent hour of bereavement it was comforting, encouraging, yes inspiring, to suddenly find so many true friends and loyal relatives at our side offering kind words of sympathy and condolence and unhesitating assistance. Our thoughtful and obliging funeral director, Mr. Warren E. Patten, the Rev. Joseph H. Dempsey, Parson's Council, Knights of Columbus, the Holy Name Society, the gentlemen who acted as bearers and those who donated cars helped immeasurably to ease our burden. And in the floral expressions, silent tribute to our loved one, we found peace. May we offer our humble thanks? Bereaved Family of John Joseph Dineen.

MRS. JOHN J. DINEEN.

ROBERT HANSON

H. S. Graduate Plans Six Years Study of Music

Robert Hanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hanson of Glen Oaks avenue, has his program all "cut-out" for the next year. A graduate this year of Summit High School, young Hanson has been accepted at Oberlin for the fall term to begin a six-year course in music and the arts leading to a B.A. and B.Mus.

After his completion of this program, Robert plans to make music his life work. His fondest hope would be to return to Summit and teach music.

Started Early
Hanson has lived his 17 years in Summit. He started playing the piano accordion in the fifth grade at Brayton School. At various times he took the opportunity to play for his friends and at parties and school affairs. Up to the present since those days in Brayton School, Robert has continued his music studies in East Orange and Irvington.

From entry into junior high and through senior high, the Glen Oaks lad has spent three years at Lake Placid music camp, two of which he was an accordion instructor.

Branching into other music field, Hanson started playing string bass less than three years ago in dance bands, Summit Symphony Orchestra, the Acoustical Society of America electronic string band, and others.

Versatile Instrumentalist
During the past few years, Hanson has learned also to play

Most their arrangements are original. For the last few years, Hanson has had his own dance band and worked occasionally with other bands. His weekends have been busy playing for dances, parties, weddings and other occasions requiring music.

In lieu of paying a $15 fine, Thomas Keating of Summit was sentenced Saturday to 30 days in Union County jail by Police Judge Albert H. Bierman on a charge of intoxication. Keating was picked up Friday night in the railroad station by Patrolman Aloysius Duffy.

Summit Kiwanians Are Attending Chicago Meeting

Summit Kiwanians are represented this week in Chicago at the annual convention of Kiwanis International by George Boorjy, chairman of the local club's convention and by Harlan S. Kennedy, club secretary. The Summit men left Summit early Friday morning and drove to the "Windy City," arriving there Sunday morning where they are stopping at the Palmer House.

While in Chicago, the Summit men plan to "take in" some of the sights for which Lake Michigan metropolis is noted, among them the stock yards, the University of Chicago and its world famous chapel and its International House.

Club Activities
At its luncheon meeting last week, a report was made by H. Marsh Shorrock, treasurer, stating that the club had netted $101 from a recent stag dinner. The proceeds will go to the club's youth program. Approval was also given a contribution of $50 to a blind aid camp and home to be constructed in Morris County. A contribution of $25 was also made to the High School band.

To Telephone Users in New Jersey

On January 6 we asked the Board of Public Utility Commissioners of New Jersey to approve a general increase in telephone rates. This was the first such request in twenty-one years, and no provision was included in the application for a general wage increase.

On the basis of wage increases granted to members of two of the unions and offered to the others, the Company estimates the cost of such wage increases in 1947 at $6,000,000 annually. This adjustment is necessary so that telephone wages will continue to compare favorably with wages paid in other industries in New Jersey.

To meet the higher payroll and other costs, we have found it necessary to ask for an additional increase in telephone rates. These revised rates would add 16% annually to the gross revenues present rates produce, compared with the 12% increase requested in our original application.

Without higher rates for service, it is estimated that this Company's earnings in 1947 on the $181,000,000 net telephone investment would be less than one per cent and possibly might show a net loss. The additional revenue we seek is necessary to assure sound operation of the business and is in the interest of all telephone users.

Ellen Craigy Robbin Has Saturday Wedding to Lewis K. Robinson, Jr.

Central Presbyterian Church was the setting for the marriage last Saturday of Miss Ellen Craigy Robbin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Robbin of Woodmere drive, and Lewis Kinney Robinson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Robinson of Prospect street, East Orange. The ceremony was performed by Dr. L. V. Buchman, and a reception followed at the Robbin home.

The bride's ivory satin gown was trimmed with heirloom rose point lace at the sleeves and pointed neckline, and was fashioned with a basque bodice, long fitted sleeves, and a full skirt with train. The fingertip illusion veil fell from a coronet of rose point lace. She carried a prayerbook with an orchid marker and stephanotis streamers.

Miss Beverly Helmer of Chester Springs, Pa., was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Hunt of Woodland avenue and Miss Barbara Llewellyn of Plymouth road, Summit; and Miss Martha Dimock of Elizabeth and Miss Polly Bruch of Bethlehem, Pa. Their gowns were all of pale lavender taffeta and they carried cascade bouquets of orchids and violets and wore orchids in their hair.

The bride's mother wore ice-blue flat crepe with a pink hat and corsage of sweetheart roses. The groom's mother wore champagne flat crepe with a turquoise hat and orchid corsage.

Jerome O. Kushef of Brooklyn was the best man. Ushers were Jonathan E. Robbin, the bride's brother, Geoffrey B. Harrison of New York City, Edwin E. Beach of Hillcrest avenue and Allen Sheldermine of Summit avenue, Summit.

The bride is a graduate of Kent Place School and attended Bryn Mawr College, Bryn Mawr, Pa. Mr. Robinson is an alumnus of Salisbury Preparatory School, Salisbury, Conn. He was with the 86th Division in Europe and Pacific for 30 months, and has now returned as a student to Yale University.

After taking a wedding trip to Canada, staying a week at Grand Manan and three weeks at Mont Tremblant, they will live in East Orange until fall when they will go to New Haven.

NEW PROVIDENCE Township

Steps Outlined For Vacating of Paper Streets

TOWNSHIP—Legal procedure necessary for the vacating of paper streets and the filing of a new map, deemed necessary for the installation of service utilities in Horseshoe road, was explained to the Wilhelm family Thursday night by the Township Committee at an adjourned meeting.

Mr. Wilhelm had previously appealed to the Committee for assistance after the Jersey Central Power and Light Company had refused to extend power lines along an existing road to his property because of the irregular outline of the road.

He was told that the old streets must be vacated and a new map filed before the improvements could be carried out. Mr. Wilhelm objected to paying the cost of legal procedure necessary for the vacating process. He contended that his roadway had been a thoroughfare for more than 25 years and, in his opinion, should be recognized as a street.

Township Committee Chairman George W. Robbins, Jr., informed Mr. Wilhelm that the township was unable to assist him in the matter.

Referred to the Light Committee was a communication from the Blue Mountain Farms Association requesting additional street lighting in that vicinity.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel Society was granted permission to hold a carnival on its property in Plainfield Ave. from July 12 to 18 with a display of fireworks on the closing night. The fireworks display will be directed by the New Vernon Fireworks Company of Millington, which will be requested to post a bond against personal injury or property damage.

Adjustment Action Approved
The Committee approved action taken by the Board of Adjustment recently in granting permission to Arthur Mann to erect a poultry house on his property and the erection of two signs in the township.

The Bell Telephone Laboratories in Murray Hill were granted permission to run portions of a proposed sewer system through the township.

Township Attorney Frank Pizzi reported on a conference held with several property owners in Diamond Hill road, who are reluctant to deed frontage of their lands for the widening of the thoroughfare without reimbursement. He reported he had told the citizens to put their requests in writing and forward them to the Township Committee for consideration.

Chairman Robbins stated the township was not in the position to pay for the land needed for the improvement and indicated that condemnation procedures may have to be instituted in an effort to acquire the property for the county, which is expected to spend in the neighborhood of $100,000 for the work.

Vacation schedule for members of the Police Department was approved and the police chairman was authorized to hire temporary police while the men are off duty.

District Clerk of Schools to Wed College Instructor

TOWNSHIP—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel G. Patterson of South Bend, Ind., and formerly of Kline boulevard, Berkeley Heights, announce the coming marriage of their daughter, Miss Katherine Patterson at a date yet to be determined near the middle of July, to William B. Cooper of Marlton, N. J.

Miss Patterson, a graduate of Scotch Plains High School, has been secretary to successive superintendents of schools here since 1937. Since 1943 she has also been district clerk for the Board of Education. Miss Patterson has been an active member of the Township of New Providence Rescue Squad.

Mr. Cooper, who is a graduate of Trenton State Teachers College, with a B.S. in education, is an instructor at Girard College, Philadelphia.

After a wedding trip, the prospective bride and groom will make their home in Philadelphia.

Bonnie Burn Marks 35th Year; Maps Expanded Service

TOWNSHIP—Bonnie Burn Sanatorium, an institutional pioneer in the battle against tuberculosis, is marking its thirty-fifth anniversary this year, with an impressive record of health service behind it and future plans which are likely to include expanding services in the field of treatment of numerous diseases.

The sanatorium, situated on a pleasant slope of the Watchung Mountains, in New Providence Township, currently has 320 patients, including 72 children. It has facilities adequate for the care of about 400 persons. The unused capacity is exclusively in the children's division, the preventorium being used less now than formerly because of the reduced number of family contacts and the advances in various preventative measures other than institutional treatment.

Dr. Morris B. Watson, president of the institution's board of managers, pointed out Thursday that the sanatorium already cares for children's cases in cardiac, lung cancer and other non-tubercular calcifications. He said the number of such cases appears likely to increase.

There is also a possibility that hospital facilities may be used for older persons suffering various chronic illnesses, Dr. Morris said.

Rehabilitation Work

The hospital's program in recent years has been expanded to include rehabilitation work among patients as well as their treatment. Facilities for photography, woodworking, shorthand and typing, in addition to library, make it possible for patients to keep in happier frames of mind, and to acquire skills which help them to obtain employment.

Included among the patients are some twenty veterans. The Veterans Administration compensates the county for their treatment. A few of the patients are from counties other than Union.

Bonnie Burn was the second county sanatorium to be opened in New Jersey, preceded only by Hudson County Sanatorium, founded in 1900. The ravages of tuberculosis were much worse in those days, and many patients were sent to hospitals in distant locations. Bonnie Burn like other hospitals, has helped to establish convincing proof that no special climate is necessary for curing the disease. It was pointed out by Dr. Morris.

Scout Troop Wins Camp Week-end as Prize in Contest

TOWNSHIP—Berkeley Heights Girl Scouts held their annual Court of Awards Friday, June 20, at the Union Village Church for parents and friends of scouting. Girls of Intermediate Troop 73 and Senior Troop 22 received badges and awards for their year's work, and the annual report of activities was presented.

"Troop 73 has reason to be proud of its year's work," reported Elsie Fuchs, leader. The entire troop won second prize, a free week-end at Camp Blue Heron, in the Plainfield Area camp fund raising contest. "It took many a bar of candy to raise the $46.10 the Scouts cleared from their candy sales. The play, 'The Smiling Sixpence,' cleared $60.70 for the camp fund, and a community drive brought $58.20," said Mrs. Fuchs. In the Girl Scout Birthday Exposition in Plainfield, Troop 73 made an exact model of Camp Blue Heron as its exhibit. Anna Patrick, a member of Troop 73, won a Girl Scout ring for selling the second largest number of Girl Scout calendars in the Plainfield area.

Patsy Rocco, Eleanor Johannsen, June Sturm, Marie Bryan, Gail Shaffer, Adele Irving, Virginia Lawson, Beverly Fuchs, Camille Sprank, Carol Thompson, Geraldine Altwater.

Dancer and Group Music Badge: Kathleen Monahan, Anna Patrick, Mary Knopf, Patsy Rocco, Gertrude Fuchs, Ann Sturm, Campcraft: Mary Knopf, Gertrude Fuchs, Outdoor Cook and Foot Traveler: Anna Patrick, Kathleen Monahan, Ann Sturm, Basketball: Design Pottery: Rosemarie Rychnick.

These two girls were also graduated into Senior Troop 22.

Year Pins and Membership Cards were presented to the Scouts. The Five Year pin was awarded to Leader Fuchs.

Senior Scout Troop 22 received four new members from Troop 74: Mary Lou Hartig, Barbara Case, Joyce Walling, Peggy Ralston; and two new members from Troop 73: Ruth Gruending and Rosemarie Rychnick. Heidi Gruending was awarded a scholarship to Camp Blue Heron. Rosemarie Fuchs and Elsie Phillips were made junior scout leaders, and Rosemarie Fuchs will be assistant junior councillor at Camp Blue Heron. Leader Southworth announced her resignation and introduced Mrs. Betty Winner as new leader. Mrs. Winner reported that a successful outing at Camp Blue Heron was held June 15, 16, 17, with six senior scouts present.

Troop Leaders Fuchs and Southworth presided at the Court of Awards. Plainfield Girl Scout headquarters was represented by Miss Wren, and Mrs. Edna Werner represented the Berkeley Heights girl scout committee. Miss Helen Cronin, assistant leader, trained the scouts for their group music and dancing awards; Mrs. Anna Rychnick, committee member, trained them for their outdoor badges; and Mrs. Fuchs taught them the mark for their remaining badges.

BOROUGH — During the last three months the Women's Society for Christian Service of the New Providence Methodist Church have been making plans and preparing for the Turkey Town Fair to be held at the church on November 15, just in good time they hope, to help with Christmas shopping.

Everyone will help the money of the church constructing the booths and doing the general decorating.

A considerable amount of stock has been amassed for the sale but the women are meeting each week to add to it competing fancy work, aprons, needlework, and many other articles. All women of the church are invited to take part in this activity.

Wooden and metal articles will be found in one booth potted plants and flowers in another. Homemade food, Christmas wrappings, "white elephants" and a grabbag will compete for one's nickels, dimes and quarters.

PICNICS ARE FUN, BUT...

SUMMER picnics are swell, but there's a lot to be said for good old "civilization," too.

For instance, you've learned by now that it's best not to trust brook water or untested wells when you're out camping.

But when you furnish your picnic basket with a thermos of clear sparkling water from your home faucet you know you can rely on its purity and good taste.

The quality of your city water is guaranteed by frequent analyses. That's why, when you drink city water, you're sure it's pure.
