

Pledges of $7,000 Made for Weaver Street Home Project

The drive to raise $50,000 for the construction of a low-cost home project on Weaver street got off to a flying start at a dinner held last Wednesday at the Kemper Insurance Co. building when 200 invited guests gave on-the-spot subscriptions totaling $4,000 with an additional $3,000 being raised over the week-end.

The dinner, sponsored by the Summit Civic Federation, the non-profit corporation spearheading the housing project, was attended by civic leaders, organization representatives and city officials who have pledged support of the project.

With the $7,000 pledged to purchase 3 per cent notes for financing the construction of the 14 two-family units that will replace slum dwellings, the Federation announced Monday that to date it has a total of $57,000 towards its $100,000 goal. Earlier gifts and purchases made on a personal basis netted approximately $50,000. The remaining $50,000 is being sought through a citywide appeal for the purchase of 3 per cent notes in $100, $500 and $1,000 denominations.

The dinner, given by the Foundation, which plans to build the units on Weaver street opposite the condemned Weaver Court apartments, was designed to initiate a campaign to raise additional funds needed to reach the minimum of $300,000 said to be required for construction. Tenants in the project, it was explained, will pay a monthly rental estimated at approximately $80 to meet maintenance costs, taxes, insurance, interest on notes and amortization of mortgages.

Stanley O. Morgan, president of the Foundation, stated that "only a small circle of area residents have invested so far... but there was evidence of additional financial backing in town." He pointed out that almost $50,000 had already been pledged by 40 area residents.

Reveals Opposing Force
At the same time the plea was being pushed, a dinner guest revealed that an organized force opposing the plan had already raised $21,000 with which to purchase the 3 1/2-acre tract.

It is reported that opposition money has either been raised or pledged by residents of Madison and Morris avenues and Kent Place boulevard extending to Montrose and Gates avenues. Although no stipulation has been made, it is planned that the proposed housing will accommodate the present tenants of Weaver Court Apartments who are Negroes.

Families in the adjacent area, it is reported, declare that the proposed housing would devalue their property.

If the residents' group succeed in purchasing the land, the Foundation would be forced to look elsewhere for a new location. The land is owned by the Chadick Realty Company of 7 Beechwood road and is zoned for two-family dwellings.

At the same time, Clarence C. Ford, secretary of the Foundation, and the dinner's toastmaster, urged residents to "solve their own housing problem" by subscribing to the notes.

Cites Unique Investment
Harold T. Graves, Jr., treasurer, said of the notes, "They are a unique investment" as they would "combine financial soundness with civic pride."

Rev. Leonard V. Buschman, D.D., minister of the Central Presbyterian Church, revealed that his congregation has voted to support the project and that a seven-member committee has been named to send letters requesting pledges.

Mayor C. Philip Dean expressed the unofficial viewpoint of his administration when he said, "We are very anxious to see this project rushed to completion. We want the Weaver street eyesore to go once and for all."

Other speakers at the meeting included Oscar D. Dennis, vice-president of the Foundation, who told dinner guests that the 15 remaining families of Weaver Court were "living there on borrowed time." The apartments were condemned by the Board of Health last March as "unfit for human habitation" and the tenants have been served repeatedly with eviction notices. The latest delay in the issuance of removal warrants took place January 16 following an appeal by Common Council in Union County District Court.

Head of School Music Department Gets State Honor

Daniel Kautzman, chairman of the music department of the public schools, was notified this week that he had been chosen the conductor for the 1957 All-State High School chorus of 300 voices that will give concert next November at Atlantic City and Newark.

This is the second successive year such an honor has come to Summit. Last year Harry S. Hanson of the school system was selected to conduct the All-State orchestra.

Mr. Kautzman came here in 1944 as director of instrumental music. Two years later he was named director of choral music and in 1948 was appointed chairman of the music department. He has been musical director for the annual G.O. show since 1947 and is currently engaged in the production of "Brigadoon" to be presented by the General Organization at the High School on February 15 and 16.

In addition to his school work, Mr. Kautzman has directed the Bayway Girls Chorus of the Standard Oil Co. and the Murray Hill Chorus of Bell Telephone Laboratories. His summers have been spent at Silver Bay, Lake George, N.Y., where he has been director of music and violin in the string quartet for the Silver Bay Association.

Heart Fund Drive Here Tops $400 As Appeal Starts

A total of $400.50 toward the county-wide goal of $44,990.17 has been donated to date by Summit Area residents to the 1957 Heart Fund, it was announced today by Mrs. Henrietta Froelich, executive secretary of the Union County Heart Association.

Meanwhile Elmer J. Bennett, chairman of the Summit Heart Fund campaign announced that Mayor C. Philip Dean has been named honorary chairman of the Summit drive which begins tomorrow.

Other committee members include Mrs. William H. Buchanan, vice-chairman; Raymond O. Petersen, treasurer; Robert H. Hartlaub, professions chairman; William H. Heineke, industries chairman and Frederick N. Abbott, merchants chairman.

Mr. Bennett announced that the local campaign will be conducted entirely by mail and that a letter outlining the work of the Heart Association as well as urging contributions to the fund, will be sent to every resident, professional man merchant and industrial plant in Summit.

In Summit contributions already total $309.50; New Providence, $83 and Berkeley Heights, $5.

County donations have now reached $4,399.97 and represent gifts received by the Heart Fund since July 1.

Forbes' Hot in Ring

State Sen. Malcolm S. Forbes last night announced his candidacy for the GOP gubernatorial candidacy at a meeting of Union County Forbes Clubs held at Elizabeth.

Summit Realty Evaluated at $143 Million

The true value of all real estate in Summit is estimated at $143,000,911, according to a preliminary tax equalization table released last week by the Union County Board of Taxation.

The new figure represents an increase of $95,825,011, or 203.76 per cent, from last year's total for this city. The assessed valuation, upon which the tax rate is established, is listed at $47,075,900, or about one-third of the true value. Summit's ratio of assessed value to true value is 32.92 per cent.

True value represents the approximate price property would bring in the current real estate market. It is contrasted to assessed value, a lower figure at which property is evaluated for tax purposes.

Heights Up 377%

Berkeley Heights had its true value total increased $42,397,024 or 377.32 per cent, to a new figure of $53,633,174. Berkeley Heights, which assesses at the low ratio of 20.95 per cent, has an assessed valuation for real property of $11,236,150.

In New Providence the true value is listed at $39,808,024, or $25,743,849 greater than last year. The per cent of increase in the Borough is 183.04. The assessed valuation for tax purposes in New Providence is $14,064,175 and the ratio of assessed to true value is 35.33 per cent.

Protests on the new figures may be lodged until March 10 when the final table will be released by the tax board.

The table is based on figures compiled by the State Division of Taxation on information supplied by the county tax board. Equalization at the county level went into effect in the county for the first time last year. It increased the amounts paid by smaller towns as their share of county expenses.

This developed because such communities assess at a lower ratio than the larger municipalities in the county. Berkeley Heights, for example, taxes at only 20.95 per cent of true value, while Summit used a 32.92 per cent ratio.

Equalization, which brings all valuations to 100-per cent of actual worth in all communities for county tax purposes does not affect municipal assessments. These still are based on fractional, rather than full, valuation.

Girl Scouts Open Annual Cookie Sale Tomorrow

The Summit Area Girl Scout Council will conduct its annual cookie sale starting tomorrow and continuing for two weeks. The sale of Girl Scout cookies is especially important this year since the United Campaign did not make its goal and the Council must make up the deficit in its operating budget through this sale, with a small percentage of receipts going to each troop. Each girl, it is hoped, will sell approximately 15 boxes of cookies apiece, in order to bring the budget over the top.

The cookie sale is under the chairmanship of Mrs. George S. Casebolt of 72 Fernwood road, with schoolchairs as follows: Mrs. William Zeus, Brayton, Mrs. R. D. Hall, Jr., Franklin, Mrs. E. McGovern, Hillview, Mrs. E. Schumacher, Jefferson, Mrs. P. F. Benedict, Lincoln, Mrs. D. T. Badgley, Lincoln (New Providence), Mrs. R. V. Sims, Roosevelt, Mrs. F. J. Masi, St. Teresa's, and Mrs. J. Sayre, Washington. Oak Knoll and Junior and Senior High Troops will pick up their cookies at the home of Mrs. Casebolt.

Elected for two-year terms at the Council's recent annual meeting were Mrs. G. G. Roessner, second vice-president; Mrs. C. M. Biddle, Jr., council co-ordinating committee chairman; Mrs. C. A. Summit, finance committee chairman; Mrs. R. A. Devereaux, public relations chairman, Mrs. Raymond Blumer, and Mrs. H. B. Pennington, members of the membership-nominating committee from Summit; and Mrs. T. G. Burke, member of the membership nominating committee from New Providence.

Service pins were awarded to Mrs. Frank Pecca, 10 year-pin, Mrs. Richard A. Devereaux, 10 years, Mrs. Lloyd L. Hughes, 5 years, Mrs. Felix Masi, 5 years, Mrs. John C. Madden, 5 years.

20-Apartment Co-Op Planned For Bard Tract

Plans for the construction of a new five-story cooperative apartment dwelling to be located on the former Bard property at the corner of Summit and Euclid avenues, were announced this week by Elmer G. Houston, local realtor.

The apartment house will be known as Beacon Hill Towers and will contain twenty apartments of 5 1/2, 6 and 6 1/2 room with two baths. Features of the building will include a basement garage, elevators, electric dumb waiters, individual air conditioning units in each room, science kitchens, incinerators. Houston stressed that all rooms are of generous size with walk-in closets.

Joining Houston in the project are Peter F. Pashberg Associates of Newark and Edward Chiovarou of Summit. Houston will be sales and managing agent. Financing is being arranged by the Peter F. Pashberg Co. and I. Nafaiti of Newark is the architect.

It is planned to have the building ready for occupancy late in the fall.

The Bard property had been owned by Summit Towers, Inc., a group of local investors that included Chiovarou, Edward A. Butler, realtor; Frank W. Olive, lawyer; and Chester C. Barley. Attempts were made in past years to build an apartment dwelling on the land but requests for zoning variances were denied. The new project does not require any changes in the existing hotel-apartment zone for the site, Houston said.

Overlook Gets $520 for Cancer Clinic Operation

A grant of $520 was made yesterday to Overlook Hospital by the Union County chapter of the American Cancer Society. The check was presented to Oliver Johnson, assistant hospital director, by Morton E. Newburgh, chapter treasurer. The money will pay for clerical and nursing assistance in the hospital's cancer clinic.

Funds collected by the society also pay for diagnosis and treatment for needy patients. The doctor's time on these cases is contributed free of charge.

cases, inventory taking. There are excellent buys of brand-name merchandise in practically every item. The shopper will be able to find, at greatly reduced prices, all sorts of winter clothing, household equipment, fur hats, shoes, sport goods, fur care, cosmetics, linens, heavy and light appliances.

Shoppers are advised to make their purchases early as stocks in some instances are limited. An influx of buyers is expected from outlying communities since 25,000 copies of a special Jubilee Days supplement of this issue of The Herald, has been mailed to homes in the surrounding area. Jubilee Days, and its summer-time counterpart, Summit Days, annually draws hundreds of shoppers from outlying districts.

A total of 68 stores are participating in the sales event and orange and blue window posters and banners will be displayed by all participating and cooperating merchants.

Jack McElgunn, chairman of the merchants' division, said that full cooperation of Summit stores has been promised to make the three-day sales highly successful. Stores will remain open until 9 p.m. tomorrow night and shoppers are reminded by Mr. McElgunn that new off-street parking lots on DeForest avenue and at other central locations will provide ample two-hour parking for customers.

Concert Group Again Elects Mrs. Brandin

Mrs. Nils F. Brandin of 556 Springfield avenue was re-elected president of the Summit Community Concerts Association at the annual meeting held last week.

This year's concerts have been very well received, Mrs. Brandin stated, and plans are now under way for the spring membership campaign. New members who live in outlying sections not served by Community Concert associations will be welcomed in the Summit Association. A membership in the Summit Community Concert Association entitles the holder to attend the concerts in Morristown, Westfield, Plainfield and Union as well as Summit.

Thursday, March 7 has been cleared in the community calendar for the 70th anniversary dinner of the YMCA, according to Allan R. Devenney, general secretary. Invitations will be mailed to members and friends of the Association in a few weeks.

Police Find Man Hiding in Closet "To Get Warm"

A Springfield man was arrested by police last Saturday on a charge of breaking and entering a home after he was discovered in the closet of a Warwick road residence where he said he had gone "to get warm."

The man is Wayne Fauntleroy, 27, of Springfield. According to police he was paroled only last Thursday from Bordentown Reformatory where he was serving a two-year sentence on a concealed weapons charge.

The arrest was made by Patrolmen Mario A. Formichella and Ralph Nollig after the police department had received a phone call from Mrs. Richard C. Pohlers of 18 Warwick road.

Police stated that Mrs. Pohlers said she left the house for a short time, returning about noon, and noticed wet footprints on the kitchen floor. She immediately summoned a neighbor, Miss Dorothy Brune of 17 Warwick road, and the two women accompanied by the Bruene's German shepherd dog returned and began a search of the house. They found Fauntleroy in a closet in an upstairs bedroom.

They slammed the door of the closet upon Fauntleroy, called the police and then locked themselves in another room of the house to await the arrival of authorities. Fauntleroy made no escape and when police arrived he was still in the closet. According to Detective Lieut. John Sayre, Fauntleroy told police when they arrived that he broke into the house "to get warm." On the floor of the closet police found a sharp 16-inch garden's tool with a serrated edge. Fauntleroy said the instrument was his.

A housecleaner by trade, Lt. Sayre reported that Fauntleroy had once worked in the house.

Fauntleroy was questioned by Springfield police concerning two recent robberies in that town that netted a loot of $1,000.

Charges May Be Dropped Against 2 in Car Death

Magistrate Albert H. Berman last week declared he would recommend to Prosecutor H. Russel Morris, Jr., that charges be dropped against Paul Falco, 37, of 59 Beauvoir avenue and Mrs. Bridget Tranquilly, 19, of 55 Park avenue in the November 4 accident in which John Bland, 58, of Newark was injured and subsequently died.

Magistrate Berman ruled he could find "no probable cause" against either of the defendants.

Mr. Falco was driving an Overlook Hospital ambulance on Summit avenue and Mrs. Tranquilly a passenger car on Broad street at the time of the accident.

Mr. Bland, a hospital attendant, riding in the ambulance at the time of the mishap died on December 3 allegedly of injuries sustained.

Re-elected to the board of directors were Miss Nora A. Way of 47 Woodland avenue, former visiting teacher with the Summit Public Schools, and Russell T. Kerby Jr. of 266 Woodland avenue. Mr. Kerby is with the law firm of Moser and Griffin, and is a member of the Summit Bar Association, Union County Bar Association and New Jersey State Bar Association. Mr. Kerby has served on the boards of the YMCA, Family Service Association, Summit chapter of American Red Cross and the Municipal Youth Guidance Council.

First National Gets OK For Kenilworth Branch

Approval was given last week to the First National Bank & Trust Co. to establish a branch office at Kenilworth. Approval of the local bank's application was made by the comptroller of currency of the U. S. Treasury Department.

The bank applied for a permit to open a Kenilworth branch last September and has an option on a plot of ground in the center of that town's business district.

Kenilworth has no commercial bank facilities and its sole financial institution is a branch office of City Federal Savings & Loan Association.

Dunsmore's entry into the Council race came as a complete surprise to Republican leaders over the week-end. It was generally considered that Gilson would be unchallenged in his bid for a second term. Gilson announced his intention to run again a few weeks ago.

Robert M. Dunsmore

Dunsmore, who is prominent in civic and business circles, told The Herald he made the decision to enter the Primary election after he had been approached by many groups and individuals who promised full support of his candidacy.

It is understood that he will be aggressively backed by many interested in schools, local business and "solid Republicanism." Dunsmore is the immediate past president of the Summit Area Chamber of Commerce and has been prominently identified with school groups such as PTA and Lay Committee.

Gilson is completing the final year of his second two-year term as Councilman-at-Large. He won the office in a hotly-contested Primary battle in 1953 in which he nosed out Vincent A. Burgher, the incumbent, by the slim margin of 35 votes. During that contest Gilson was attacked for liberal political views and affiliations.

Dunsmore is reported to have strong backing from leading members of the Republican Party here who desire a candidate whose party affiliations are strong, as well as groups and individuals desirous of having a Council representative familiar with school problems from a layman's point of view.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunsmore purchased the former Amy McDowell shop on Beechwood road in 1930 and changed its name to the Marian Dunsmore Shop, now located at 361 Springfield avenue. Before that he was associated with L. Rimmerberg & Co. for ten years in a managerial capacity.

A native of Scotland, he has lived here for the last 38 years, receiving his early schooling in Summit and graduating in 1933 from Rutgers University where he was a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity. In 1939 he received an M.A. degree from N.Y.U. School of Retailing.

Mr. Dunsmore is active in various local organizations and civic affairs. He has been a member of Brayton PTA for the last seven years and its executive vice president for two years as well as its representative to the Lay Committee on Education. He is also a member of the Junior High School PTA.

Last year he headed the Albert J. Bartholomeo Scholarship Fund which netted an additional $10,000 that was added to the existing fund and presented to the High School in Mr. Bartholomeo's name at the ceremony marking his retirement as high school principal.

Mr. Dunsmore has been a member of the Central Committee of the United Campaign for two years and recently was re-elected to a second term. He has headed the business division solicitation for the Red Cross and also has participated in annual Red Cross.

$45,000 Damage Suit for Brawl Denied by Jury

A five hours of deliberation a jury last week returned a verdict of no cause for action in the $45,000 lawsuit brought against four Hanover brothers who were charged with alleged assault on three iron workers employed on a Jersey Central Power & Light Co. construction job in Chatham road three years ago.

Absolved of liability were Robert Deskovich, 26, of Morristown, and Michael, 27, William, 24, and Stanley, 23, all of Hanover. They are sons of Michael Deskovich, 50, of Hanover, president of the Whippany Construction Co. The plaintiffs, James Kenny, 51; Leo McDonald, 25, and William Golden, 27, all of Newark, charged that the Deskovichs beat them at the construction site in Chatham Road, on July 23, 1955. They were employed by Whippany Construction in the erection of a generating station for the New Jersey Central Power and Light Co.

There was no provocation for the assault, according to the testimony of the ironworkers. Mr. Kenny, gang foreman, testified he was assaulted when he came to the aid of Mr. McDonald and several others in his force.

Robert Deskovich claimed he and his brothers acted in self-defense. He said a dispute erupted after he refused to permit the ironworkers to send out for beer during working hours. He was attacked, he continued, and his brothers jumped into the fight to protect him.

The Deskovichs were fined $225 each after a hearing in Municipal Court on assault charges arising from the same incident.

Local Law Firm Announces Two Staff Changes

Two recent changes in the local law firm formerly known as Schmidt & Bourne have been announced. At the end of the last year Clyde M. Noll of New Providence, where he has long been active in civic activities, became a member of the firm, which is now known as Bourne, Schmid, Burke & Noll. Mr. Noll is a graduate of Bucknell University and Columbia University Law School. He also holds the degree of M.B.A. from Columbia. He is married to the former Betty Boyd, of Short Hills, who is also a Bucknell graduate. Wallace W. Barnes of Short Hills, became associated with the firm a few days ago. Mr. Barnes is a graduate of Dartmouth College and Yale University Law School. During World War 2 he served in the European theatre with the 8th Infantry Division, and he is now a captain in the Judge Advocate General's Corps of the United States Army Reserve. In addition to his other activities, Mr. Barnes is an instructor in business law at the Rutgers University School of Business Administration. Women Voters To Discuss Security Laws

The February unit meetings of the Summit League of Women Voters will begin a study of the six federal-loyalty security programs which now directly affect the jobs of six million Americans. The discussion units will examine the programs and their differences and discuss whether or not there is a sacrifice of individual liberties for security, whether or not there is a need for more controls for national protection, and whether one program, not several, is needed.

Dates and locations of the meetings are as follows:
 Tuesday, Feb. 4, 1:30 p.m. at home of Mrs. J. Jerome Kaplan, 105 New England avenue; Tuesday, Feb. 5, 8:15 p.m., at home of Mrs. Ed Goldstein, 71 Butler Parkway; Wednesday, Feb. 6, 9:30 a.m., at home of Mrs. E. K. Gadebusch, 133 Whittridge road; Thursday, Feb. 7, 9:30 a.m. at home of Mrs. Robert Teel, 28 Upper Overlook road; Monday, Feb. 11, 8:15 p.m. at home of Mrs. L. F. Palmer, 208 Blackburn road.

Europe Affects Police Force's Meter Brigade

The European influence in motorized transportation has invaded the Summit Police Department.

Two Italian-made motor-scooters, known as Lambrettas by the experts, were recently purchased by the Police for the prime purpose of aiding the "meter-checking" corps. According to Chief Edward K. Egan, the scooters are ideal for cruising and are economical to operate. They have a maximum speed of 55 mph and can travel up to 80 miles on a gallon of gas. The fuel, it was explained, is a mixture of one-third outdoor oil to a gallon of regular gasoline.

Instead of springs, the scooter rides on torsion bars for smoother riding. The two-cycle engine is made up of three speeds but has no reverse. The scooters, which are painted gray, come complete with a rear bin for supplies and equipment.

Chief Egan said that Vineland was one of the first New Jersey communities to use the new scooters for "meter-checking" and since then several surrounding communities have put them into service.

Each machine costs $800 and are serviced locally by Larry's Cycle and Sport Shop, 377 Broad street.

Mrs. Marie Brown, Teacher Here for 36 Years, Dies

Mrs. Marie Brown of 38 Elm street, head of the social studies department at Summit High School, died last Friday at the John E. Rannels Hospital, Berkeley Heights, after a long illness. She was 63.

Mrs. Brown was admitted to the hospital in November for treatment of a cerebro-vascular ailment. She had been on an extended leave of absence from the school since last January when she suffered a stroke.

She had been a member of the school system here since 1920 and had been head of the social studies department since 1942. She was the widow of Arden Brown, who was killed in an automobile accident on their wedding trip.

Mrs. Brown was born at Homer, N. Y., where she attended Homer Academy. She graduated from Syracuse University in 1915 with a BA degree and the following year started her teaching career at Painted Post, N. Y. She also held teaching positions at Brockport, N. Y., and came to Summit as a high school history teacher. In 1929 she received a master's degree from Columbia University.

Her only survivor is her mother, Mrs. May Goodelle of the Elm street address.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at 3:30 p.m. at the Burroughs & Kohn Funeral Home, 38 Springfield avenue, by Rev. H. Otheman Brown, D.D., of the Short Hills Congregational Church. Burial was on Tuesday at Glenwood Cemetery, Homer.

Want to Feel Better?

Children who get into mischief, aggravate their parents and do wrong, are usually punished with a spanking, or made to sit in a corner. That's the time when a fellow needs a friend.

They used to say "scoldings don't hurt" and "a spanking doesn't last long." After the storm clouds have passed and promises have been made not to do it again, what a grand and glorious feeling it is to be washed and wear some clean clothes. When children grow up, go away to school, get married, serve in the armed forces, or go to business, there may come times when they feel "lousy". The human body is marvelously constructed with nerves, muscles, bones and numerous organs. When these parts function harmoniously there is freedom from aches and pains.

Judging by the amount of aspirin, pills for indigestion, tranquilizers, sleeping pills and thousands of other pills that are advertised and sold, there must be a lot of people who have aches and pains. These are useful signals that indicate something is wrong and instead of taking pills to stop the pain they should be studied to see what was done that caused the pain. Determine then and there that you will, if possible, avoid doing such a thing again.

When the telephone or door bell rings you quickly answer the call. By just as prompt in answering aches and pains. If you are a habitual user of any of the "Hot Spots of Human Destruction", alcoholic beverages, various forms of tobacco, caffeine products and drugs, let them be the first to be suspected and discarded if you really "Want To Feel Better." Nine times out of ten the will power created in overcoming these additives will enable one to keep clean inside and out and to use good judgment in providing healthful conditions for the mind and body. In talking with others always express positive, constructive thoughts. These will generate courage, generosity and good will in oneself and others. These are the first steps to take in order "TO FEEL BETTER."

Proposed Housing

that during the recent sub-zero weather, water pipes at Weaver Court were frozen and that tenants were without running water for nearly 24 hours.

David Ludlow of 332 Springfield avenue, architect of the proposed units, said that "spaciousness will be the first victim of economy." Mr. Ludlow pointed out that the housing will be composed of two and three family units. The rooms, he said, will be compact but that all units will be "so constructed as to enable all tenants to live decently and in a homey atmosphere." Landscaping would take the form of outside gardens, lawns and hedgerows.

Drive For Down Payment

To date, about $60,000 has been pledged by public subscription against the $90,000 needed as a down payment for the proposed housing program. Seventy-five per cent of the total construction costs is to be sought from by tenants.

The Summit Civic Foundation was organized on the recommendation of Mayor Dean to study sub-standard housing in the city last April. The original committee appointed by the Mayor concerned itself chiefly with the immediate problem of Weaver Court tenants facing eviction.

It was the committee's opinion that a non-profit private group be set up to organize a replacement housing program.

The Weaver Court units were built at the turn of the century as temporary housing for local mill workers. Although throughout the years sub-standard dwellings have been razed, no replacement units have ever been constructed.

Dunsmore

United Campaign and other charitable drives.

He has been a member of the board of directors of the Summit Area Chamber of Commerce for the last seven years and was elected to another three-year term at the last election. He is the immediate past president of the Chamber.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunsmore are members of Central Presbyterian Church. They have two children, Margaret, 14, a Junior High School student, and Robin Ethel, 8, a student at Brayton School.

He also is a veteran of World War II, serving from 1942 to 1946 in the Air Corps Supply with the rank of major.

Second Ward voters will be faced with another Primary contest in the battle between Leo V. O'Connell of Baltusrol place and Eugene F. Daly of 767 Springfield avenue for the Ward 2 Council seat that will become vacant upon the expiration of Councilman Carl H. Forsberg's term the end of this year. Mr. Forsberg announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election and has publicly declared his support for O'Connell.

The Councilman-at-large is elected by voters of both wards since the office is one that represents the entire city. The Council is made up of three Councilmen from each of the two wards plus the Councilman-at-large.

The Time Is Now

Last Wednesday night the Summit Civic Foundation sponsored what might be termed a "kick-off" rally to finally rid the city of housing which has been called by the Board of Health, "unfit for human habitation" and a "disgrace to the community."

The plea made by the speakers was a simple one, just and forthright. Summit was asked to support a program which would put an end to the dreary affair of Weaver Court once and for all.

Since last July when the Substandard Housing Committee appointed by Mayor Dean came up with a plan for replacement housing on Weaver street, a band of civic-minded men and women have been working tirelessly to make the plan a reality. The members of the Foundation reported that money has been raised, more has been pledged and the plan is now off the ground.

But last Wednesday night's meeting also brought forth an appeal that more money is needed now if Summit is to provide the kind of housing worthy of its citizens. Residents were asked to invest in Summit's future, but more important, invest in the welfare of those who have had the misfortune of living in what can simply be termed squalor.

To help provide funds for this overdue project, the Summit Civic Foundation, a non-profit corporation, has asked residents to subscribe to three per cent, 30-year debenture notes in denominations of $1,000; $500 or $100.

To date, much has been raised or pledged, but an additional $40,000 is needed now for the purpose of, as one speaker put it, "really getting the show on the road."

The investment is a unique one; for it combines soundness with civic pride. It is a contribution to civic betterment and public interest.

Of the 28 families once living the substandard Weaver Court, about 15 now remain. Since last March when the buildings were officially condemned, those remaining began to remain on borrowed time. Eviction is forthcoming. Only recently an eleventh hour appeal by Common Council to the District Court prevented a mass eviction that would have taken place on one of the coldest days of the year.

Some maintain Summit has waited too long to provide replacement housing for those in Weaver Court. Perhaps it has. But now that a sound campaign has been launched to rectify whatever tardiness Summit has been guilty of, it must be supported.

The city has reached a point where the problem of providing decent replacement housing for low-income families must now be met squarely. Are we to go ahead with the project or are we to sit back and hope for the best, like countless times in the past?

The groundwork has been laid for the successful realization of the project. It now remains for the citizens of Summit to build upon that groundwork. Failure to do so would indeed create a strange paradox in that Summit has come to be known as a community of beautiful homes and tree-lined streets. Visitors imbued with that vision would be sorely disillusioned if the remains of Weaver Court were to be put on display. Weaver Court has been called a "Tobacco Road." The description is not far from the truth.

In this day when people who reside in a town such as Summit are without such facilities as a constant supply of hot water, adequate heat and plumbing, it is time for a serious re-examination of values.

Fortunately, however, there have been those in Summit who have "taken the bull by the horns." They have refused to ponder the problem further and have begun to deal in actualities.

But the project can only result in failure if the majority of Summit residents do not have a hand in its progress. The remaining hurdle which the project must now overcome is whether or not the residents will support this urgent appeal. The yardstick which the Foundation will employ as a gauge for sentiment will be based on how soon pledges can be turned into hard cash. For it is hard cash, not pledges, which will ultimately build the proposed 28 units.

Summit has been called a proud city, comprised of people who have contributed much to our American way of life. It would be a melancholy prospect if in future years Summit was remembered, not for its contributions, but for its failure to provide decent living quarters for its neighbors when a workable plan had been provided.

Summit is now at the crossroads. If it makes up its collective mind to see this project through, the needed funds can be obtained.

If the day arrives when the final brick is put into place, the last bit of mortar consumed and the new Weaver street houses have become a reality, we believe that those things which all of us cherish in this city and land of ours, will suddenly take on a new and warmer meaning.

Call Me Joe

According to Fortune Magazine use of the first name in business circles is becoming increasingly popular. The magazine article states that a study of important concerns shows that 85 per cent of them operate on an informal first name basis. This doesn't mean that an employee, upon being hired, immediately calls the boss Joe, Harry or Tom but it does mean that the old formalities whereby superiors in the firm were always addressed as Mister has largely disappeared.

The custom of Mister still remains in England and other countries but in America dignity has given way to convenience. To call one's boss one thing in the office and other at the club or PTA committee meeting is an inconvenience, likely to produce embarrassment. Today such a distinction is looked upon as pomposity rather than propriety.

As a matter of fact, all this has arisen, we suspect, in the creation of service clubs. The shibboleth of the first name was the basis of Rotary in its early days and remains an integral part of its program. It was believed that first names caused an early ripening of friendship and broke down barriers that hampered comradeship. The custom was quickly adopted by the service clubs that followed Rotary and today there are about a half million men who now call their fellow club members by first names.

Fortune says that even in Britain, where the use of the last name without the Mister, is the mark of close friendship, the Rotary policy of first names is making inroads.

What difference does it make? None at all. The important factor is for the newcomer not to be too hurried in adopting the modern mode. In the end it is sure to come for this is an age of revolt against over-indulgence in habitual marks of respect. Fifty years ago no parishioner would think of addressing his clergyman except by his title of Reverend or Doctor. Today the minister is warmly called by his first name and in some instances is addressed as domine, padre or parson and this informality has wide support in the clergy.

It is easy to see why the new style is popular. The first name is more friendly. There are still a great many who retain the ancient customs and cling to the formal but the tide is sweeping in the other direction. Granted, there has to be a level beyond which the free and easy relationship can not reach but there is much to be said for the loosening of the rigorous rules of the past.

New Jersey Myth — No New Taxes

(Ridgewood Herald-News)
 For many years the fiscal affairs of New Jersey have been hampered by politicians who are conditioned by a myth. The myth is that no political party can win an election unless it pledges "No New Taxes."

The detrimental results of this reliance on myth as a political gimmick are revealed indirectly by one point in Governor Robert B. Meyner's message to the Legislature. It has to do with the deterioration of the State's highway system.

Until 1930 New Jersey led the way in efficient highway development, using the money collected from motorists to maintain old roads and create new ones.

The Constitution of 1947 abolished dedicated funds. Shortly thereafter the State began its raid on motor vehicle revenues. A total of $275 was siphoned out of the gasoline and license tax money in order to maintain the myth of a balanced budget with "No New Taxes."

Now, according to Governor Meyner, it would take more than $2.5 billion to meet New Jersey's current highway needs.

We cite the motor vehicle revenue story as perhaps the most glaring illustration of the mythological character of the political pap this State has been fed on over the past several years.

It doesn't require more than a grain of applied common sense to know that a growing state with its increasing demands upon government for necessary services, cannot get by forever on a myth. Sooner or later the day of reckoning must come, if indeed it has not already arrived.

This is not an argument for higher taxes for we too are taxpayers. We are already on record as urging a tax convention for the overhauling from top to bottom of our antiquated system of patchwork taxation and the installation of a system consonant with the realities of this modern day.

But we challenge the politicians of both parties to come out from behind that mythological smokescreen and face the facts of life.

That old cliché of "No New Taxes" has had its day. It is our guess that the voters of this State will be favorably disposed toward the first office seeker who will have the courage to break this mythological deadlock.

LETTERS

Lunch Issue Clarified
 Editor, Summit Herald:

It is unfortunate that the single most important point in the controversy over the Board of Education's proposed new lunch time schedule at Franklin School has not been brought out clearly in your reporting of the subject.

The Board of Education proposes that when the new cafeteria at Franklin School is opened, all children above kindergarten shall stay at school for lunch. If they do not, they will be given only 30 minutes to make the round trip home for lunch. This is the basic issue.

A sizeable group of parents has objected on the grounds that, first, many desire, for good and sufficient reasons, to have their children eat at home and, second, there is no real necessity for such a restriction on the time allowed.

At a business meeting of the Parent Teachers Association held on Monday evening, January 7, Robert Reed, superintendent of schools, gave the board's reasons for wanting all children to remain at school for lunch. These reasons are a doubtful compliment to parents in the district.

Mr. Reed contends that the Board of Education is better able than is a mother to provide a child with proper diet, an atmosphere in which the child will eat all his lunch, protection of his health in inclement weather, and freedom from indigestion resulting from enthusiastic physical activity. And all this in company of several hundred other children.

He spoke of playtime accidents, implying that the children must be kept off the playground at lunch time. Moreover, he indicates that the teachers apparently have so little to do that they can, and shall, apply themselves to the task of getting to know the children better "socially" during lunch. This actually means that the teachers will be deprived of the opportunity they now have for relaxation at noon.

The reasons given are pure fallacy, particularly when used to support a lunch time schedule that constitutes compulsion to use the school cafeteria.

The business meeting then proceeded to adopt, by a vote of 43 to 42, a resolution advising the Board of Education that the Franklin School PTA desires to continue the present one hour lunch time schedule after the new facilities become available. The 42 people who voted against the resolution will, in any event, be able to continue to have their children stay at school for lunch as in the past. The resolution in no way affects that right. It is difficult, therefore, to understand why they insist that other children be denied reasonable time in which to come home and have the food desired for them by their parents in an atmosphere of their choice.

I trust no one will hazard the assertion that to thus care for children of this age is not a right of parents.

The only conclusion left is that these people must have thought they were voting against an attempt to prevent their children from eating at school. And that is my only reason for writing this letter. I believe the issues involved here are of great importance to all parents in this district, and I'm convinced that, as a group, they are almost completely uninformed of the true situation.

The PTA resolution was presented to the Board of Education at its January 22 meeting. I understand that the Board now plans to present its views in writing to all parents of the school district. I, therefore, earnestly request that my letter be published in your next issue so that all sides of the question will be clear to everyone.

John E. Harrington,

Ministers Back Project

Editor, Summit Herald:

The Summit Ministerial Fellowship, in their January meeting, expressed unanimous and enthusiastic support of the objective of the Summit Civic Foundation—to build attractive medium-cost housing, available first of all to those forced to vacate substandard Weaver Arms. Although the ministers feel strongly that ideally there should be no discrimination against minority groups because of color, national origin or religious affiliation, such discrimination, unfortunately, does exist, with especial force against our fellow-Christians and fellow-citizens of darker skin. The project being undertaken by the Summit Civic Foundation is an important remedial step, well and wisely planned in every detail, which will add to Summit's stature as a city. The Ministerial Fellowship, therefore, heartily second the generous editorial support given to this project by The Summit Herald.

The ministers also commend the plan already initiated by some of our churches, of encouraging members to make a contribution to church or synagogue for the purpose of purchasing bonds to help (Continued on Page 12)

William Webbe, Church Music Composer, Dies

William Y. Webbe of 315 Ashland road, a composer of sacred music and for many years an organist and choir director at local churches, died last Thursday at Overlook Hospital after a short illness. He was 74 and only a few weeks ago celebrated his 50th wedding anniversary.

Mr. Webbe was born at Newark and had lived here for more than forty years. He had been organist and choir master at St. Teresa's Church for the last 15 years and before that was organist at Calvary Episcopal Church for many years.

Mr. Webbe was a graduate of the University of Toronto Music School and was a member of the American Guild of Organists. He was the composer of numerous hymns, masses and motets and has had several of his works published. Most of the music he played at St. Teresa's Church was original. Mr. Webbe was famous for composing music on very short notice for special occasions and many of his works were done on scraps of paper and never compiled into book form. However not long ago many of his organ compositions were published in book form.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Margaret Edmunds Webbe; three sons, Charles E. of Waterbury, Conn., Rev. Gale Webbe of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Daytona Beach, and Robert W. of Springfield, Vt.; a daughter, Mrs. Richard C. Bain of Falls Church, Va.; a sister, Mrs. William Hoyt of East Orange, and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 8:30 a.m. at the Paul Ippolito Memorial, 7 Summit avenue, and at 9 a.m. at St. Teresa's Church where a solemn high requiem mass, was offered. A portion of the mass sung was one of Mr. Webbe's own compositions. Burial was in St. Teresa's Cemetery.

Boro School Board Adopts Budget After Lively Hearing

New Providence—The Board of Education Tuesday night adopted a 1957-58 school budget of $630,777 pending voter approval on February 13. The budget represents a 41 per cent increase over the present operating budget of $449,348.

Major reasons for the hike are an overall increase of $40,000 in tuition costs for Borough high school students attending out-of-town schools; an increase of $80,000 in the new teachers salary guide and for eleven new teachers and $25,000 for debt service interest for the projected high school.

At the public hearing preceding approval, the board was subjected to two hours of intensive questioning on the budget and future school plans by the newly organized Better School Group of New Providence. Headed by Julian Kurzman of Morehouse Place, the group, numbering 30 in its formative stages, is dedicated to raising educational standards in the borough.

Questions fired at the board and its President, Mrs. Audrey Coddington, revolved around school instruction, administration and finance. In response to questions about the salary guide directed by Kurzman, board member William W. Braunwarth, said that while teachers' minimum salaries were among the lowest in the district, average salaries ranked pretty well, districtwise, with the scale "actually moving along faster the guide," based on average years of service.

"For example," Braunwarth said, "average salaries for the present staff will average $4,800 next year if, of course, the present staff remains intact. This compares with our minimum salary of $3,400 listed in the guide."

The salary guide, which is scheduled to be revised upward in April, calls for $25,360 in annual increases to the school staff. This includes $19,910 for 43 teachers; $2,165 for six instructional supervisors; $895 for two administrative personnel and $2,680 for substitutes.

The board noted that while the new high school is imminent, no appropriations are needed in the proposed budget for organization of a high school staff. Walter McCarthy was named assistant principal of the Junior High School in anticipation of his moving in as principal of the high school when it is completed in 1959.

Noting that the entire school transportation setup is in line for review next year, Mrs. Coddington asked the Better School Group and other residents to give careful thought to the problem. Present policy is to transport pupils from kindergarten through third grade who live more than seven-tenths of a mile from school and to transport those from fourth through ninth who live more than 1 1/4 miles away. This item has burgeoned to $20,330 in the proposed budget with the State reimbursing 75 per cent of the cost for elementary pupils who live more than 2 miles from school and for high school students who live more than 2 1/4 miles away.

"Ultimately," Mrs. Coddington said, "we plan to have all schools situated in neighborhoods, thus eliminating the need for any transportation. But we must also consider traffic problems and the need for sidewalks to guarantee the utmost in safety for the children."

The importance of this consideration to taxpayers was pinpointed by Mayor Samuel Jones, speaking from the floor. He said any sidewalk construction in the Borough would result in special assessments to property owners.

At the regular board meeting following the hearing, plans to transfer the Lincoln School kindergarten classes to temporary quarters in the Presbyterian Church Chapel next September were approved. Two 6th grade classes will utilize the vacated kindergarten room.

The board also set March 8 as the date for opening bids for construction of the high school and named Miss Joan Jacobi to the teaching staff from February through June, 1957.

Driver Cleared In Auto Death of Heights Woman

Berkeley Heights—Dr. Michael M. Zelkind of 67 Debbie place was cleared of charges of causing the death by automobile on December 23 of Mrs. Ellen Kennedy, 73, of 209 Mountain avenue.

Magistrate Douglas J. Haberstroh Friday night ruled that the state had failed to produce sufficient evidence to prove a prima facie case. Zelkind, who is 37 and a chemical engineer at Berkeley Chemical Co., was driving the car that struck Mrs. Kennedy as she was walking to a vesper service at Diamond Hill Community Church. She died instantly, according to Dr. Anthony Bebino, township physician, of a fractured skull.

Three policemen testified that visibility was poor at the time of the accident and that Zelkind's car was in "excellent" mechanical condition.

Judge Haberstroh at the same court session gave a mandatory 90-day county jail sentence to John P. Mele, 37, of Chatham Township following his plea last month of being guilty of a second drunken driving offense.

He also received a mandatory loss of license, a $25 court cost levy and paid a $105 fine to a plea of guilt for driving after his license had been revoked three months ago in Morristown for drunken driving. He also paid $5 for failing to have his car registration with him.

Mele was arrested January 12 on Springfield avenue by Patrolman Albert C. Christensen and pronounced intoxicated by Dr. Bebino.

Mrs. L. W. Rhoades, chairman of the fine arts committee of the PTA, will present a talk written by Ralph Rizzolo on instrumental music in the school. Mr. Rizzolo will be unable to attend that evening.

Following this part of the program, Mrs. Lucille Opperman, art teacher, will have a demonstration by students of art work as it is done day by day in the schools. Questions from the floor will be answered after each phase of the program.

Heights to Drop Court Appeal On School Tax

Berkeley Heights—The Township Committee this week indicated it will not fight a New Jersey Supreme Court decision denying its appeal to have a $661,464 regional school tax levy rescinded.

The Regional Board of Education apportioned current expenses and debt obligations among its six municipal members on the basis of a true value equalization table rather than on its own tax assessments.

According to George T. Loman, committee finance chairman, the $661,464 additional levy resulting from the reapportionment raised the Berkeley Heights tax rate 60 points when it was included in the 1956 municipal budget.

The Supreme Court decision affirmed a ruling against Berkeley Heights last year by Superior Court Judge Richard J. Hughes.

Tour of Four Local Plants Attracts 100

Four members of the industrial division of the Summit Area Chamber of Commerce combined to show their fellow members last Thursday what goes on inside four buildings located on Chatham Road.

Members of the industrial division and the board of directors were invited to visit Fred S. Carver, Inc., Columbia Cleaning & Dyeing Co., Central Power & Light Co., and Pulverizing Machinery division of Metals Disintegrating Co., Inc.

Guides conducted the nearly one hundred guests through the buildings where they were given an opportunity to see the laboratory of the Fred S. Carver Company where models of the hydraulic presses for extracting cocoa butter from cocoa were demonstrated; the processes of low temperature dehydration of full fat milk and the low temperature rendering of animal fats were also demonstrated and explained.

At Columbia Cleaners, the latest methods of laundering and dry cleaning were explained. At the Pulverizing Machinery Company's plant the theory of the various pulverizing machines was explained from the small tab size to very large ones for the pulverizing of sugars, etc. Jersey Central Power & Light Company demonstrated the equipment necessary to furnish the area with electricity.

Groups of eight or ten, starting at different locations made it possible for all visitors to proceed without congestion at any point and enabled all to complete the tour in the designated time.

Following the inspection tour, a reception was held at Canoe Brook Country Club followed by dinner. The industrial division, under the chairmanship of Robert Roughsedge, is planning to hold additional plant visitations as well as the dinner meetings usually held during the year.

Fortnightly Program Bares Arts of Crooked Gamblers

Members of Fortnightly Club's American Home department and their husbands and guests will learn that "Gamblers Don't Gamble" next Friday, February 8 at 8 p.m. when Sidney Radner of Holyoke, Mass., will come to the clubhouse to demonstrate the tricks and tactics of dishonest gamblers.

Mrs. Clark N. Breisch, department chairman, will provide and the hospitality committee with Mrs. Herbert Soward, chairman, will serve refreshments after the program.

Mr. Radner's presentation, Mrs. Breisch explained, is especially designed to appeal to the husbands of members, all of whom are invited to come.

Each of Mr. Radner's demonstrations will show his audience a potent reason why one should never sit in on a "friendly" game with strangers. He will expose the dishonest tactics used against the unwary by professional cheats.

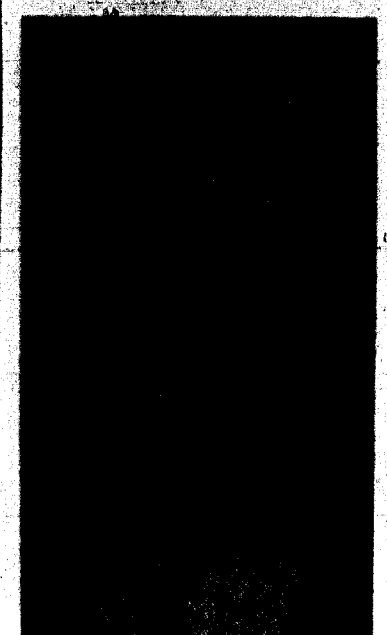

As the author of "Bunko Book," a compilation of his own work on dishonest gambling and that of other leaders in the field, he is an accepted authority in his profession. He is also an outstanding magician and escape artist who learned his profession from Theodore Hardeen, brother and successor to the great Harry Houdini.

As a former agent of the Criminal Investigation Division, known as "the army's FBI," Mr. Radner has often been helpful to the authorities in exposing and crushing outbreaks of dishonest gambling. More than one law enforcement officer who has worked with him thanks his lucky stars that Mr. Radner chooses to use his ability to manipulate cards and dice on the side of the law.

A dedicated foe of crooked games of chance, Mr. Radner emphasizes that "Gamblers don't gamble. It's not chance or luck with them at all. They know what they're doing and you don't."

Named to Dean's List
William W. Emery, son of William W. Emery of 44 Pittsford Way, New Providence, was one of 67 young men named to the dean's list for the winter term 1957 at Babson Institute of Business Administration.

Eleanor is a variation of the name, Helen, which is the Greek word for "light."

Charles E. Starr, Jr.

Local Resident Named to Fill New Esso Post

A Summit man, Charles E. Starr, Jr., of 17 Pine Ridge drive, has been promoted to a newly created position in Esso Research and Engineering Company.

Mr. Starr, who has been manager of public relations since 1951 and who was previously an assistant research director, was named manager of technical and public information.

The appointment was part of a series of organizational changes made by the company to speed its scientific work and conserve technical manpower. One of these moves was the establishment of a special technical information division to gather, evaluate and distribute technical data to scientists in both Esso Research and other affiliates of Standard Oil Company (New Jersey).

In his new post, Mr. Starr has administrative responsibility for both the new technical information division and the public relations division.

Mr. Starr was born in Philadelphia and was graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology with a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering. In 1951-52 he was an instructor in general and analytical chemistry at the University of Miami (Florida).

He was associated with the E. I. du Pont de Nemours company for several years, serving as a chief chemist. In 1938, he joined the Baton Rouge laboratories of Esso Standard Oil Company, Louisiana division, where his positions included that of group head and later section head in charge of analytical laboratories, testing laboratories and analytical research.

He is a member of the American Chemical Society, American Institute of Chemical Engineers and American Petroleum Institute. He is a trustee of Overlook Hospital, and a member of the board of stewards of the Methodist Church. He is the author of more than twenty technical articles and patents, and the co-author of a book, "Light Hydrocarbon Analysis."

Women Voters To Hear Talk By UN Deputy

At the second of two special public meetings planned by the local League of Women Voters to stimulate community discussion of the current crisis in world affairs, Mrs. George B. Martin of Maple street, accredited observer at the United Nations, will speak on "The United Nations and United States Foreign Policy," at 1:30 p.m. Monday, February 4, at B. Altman's community room. The first meeting held January 29 at Lincoln School, was led by Richard C. Rowson of the Foreign Policy Association, who spoke on "A New Framework for U. S. Foreign Policy."

Mrs. Martin, who is an observer at the UN for the American Baptist Convention, is also a consultant on the UN for the international relations committee of the N. J. League of Women Voters, and is a member of the national board of United Church Women. Mrs. Martin has also directed a week-long summer conference on the UN at the Baptist camp grounds at Green Lake, Wisconsin.

Asked about the beginning of her activities in this field, Mrs. Martin, a graduate of Northwestern University, explained that she moved to Summit from the Midwest in January, 1946 just as the United Nations decided to build in New York, and it seemed quite natural to her to want to "know what was going on there."

At that time, observers had to be connected with an organization, and since she was "observing" for United Church Women, the Baptist Church asked her to represent them also. Other organizations represented include most of the national Protestant groups, the Catholic Church, Jewish organizations, the American Association of University Women, the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the national PTA, the Chamber of Commerce, veterans' organizations, service clubs like Rotary and Kiwanis, and lawyers' groups.

Thanks United Campaign
Editor, Summit Herald:
The board of trustees of SAGE wishes to thank publicly all those persons who contributed time, money and hard work to the 1956 United Campaign. We feel a really magnificent job has been done. Few of us realize what a tremendous task the Campaign is until we enter into some phase of the work ourselves. We have the greatest admiration for the leadership and selfless industry of John M. Leavens, the Central Committee Chairman, and Edward C. Holmes, the Campaign chairman. Edward L. Beck, the treasurer, also deserves our highest praise. We are grateful to the entire Central Committee and to the other member organizations for the splendid spirit of cooperation characterizing the campaign.

We are proud to be a member of the United Campaign of Summit.

Philip S. Walters, Jr., President.

Mistaken Identity

Editor, Summit Herald:
I did NOT attend the meeting of the board of education reported in last Thursday's Herald. I have no desire to participate in the Franklin School ruckus.

More to the point, I do not like to have scurrilous remarks about the board attributed to me in the public press.

There are other Wallises in Summit. In fact, some people spell the same sounding name Wallis. It seems to me that your reporter was most presumptuous in selecting my name from the telephone book without checking the spelling and the initials with the person who made the remarks attributed to me.

Should you choose to publish this letter it will perhaps show my friends on the board of education and elsewhere that I have not gone haywire.

A. W. Wallace, 16 Blackburn place.

Dear Mr. Leavens:

The excellent annual report of the Central Committee of the Summit United Campaign, which we received last week, brought to our attention the fact that the Union County Association for Mental Health had not acknowledged your communication of November 17, 1956. Please accept our sincere

How antiquated tax laws penalize progress in New Jersey

An "old hat" tax system, begun in 1884, is today imposing an overwhelming burden on one of the vital arteries of New Jersey's economic life—its railroads. Back in the last century, when this system started, railroads were almost the only form of transportation. They were big business. They were prosperous. They could afford high taxes.

Since then—automobiles, trucks, airplanes and barges have taken over half of the transportation business in New Jersey. Because they use public-provided facilities, none of them pays the heavy property taxes paid by railroads. Result: Railroads are losing money every year in New Jersey—their taxes alone are more than their earnings.

But New Jersey needs its railroads. They are vital to the operation of New Jersey's factories, businesses, and farms. 150,000 New Jersey men and women depend on the railroads every day for business and pleasure travel. And 34,000 New Jersey citizens earn their livelihood in railroad jobs, earning $122,000,000 annually, most of which is spent or saved in the State.

Obviously New Jersey's prosperity could not long continue... and advance... without the day-to-day operation of the railroads. That's why many of New Jersey's leading citizens say the railroads must have tax relief because they want better—not worse—railroad service for New Jersey. That's why railroads say New Jersey needs modern tax legislation that will place them on an equality with other forms of public transportation.

If you agree, write to Railroad Information Bureau, 11 Commerce St., Newark 2, N. J. We ask your support.

RELIC OF 1884—New Jersey's railroad tax system is a crazy-quilt legacy dating back as far as 1884. It has been repeatedly criticized by both political parties, as well as by impartial tax experts. For the good of New Jersey, the doors to railroad progress should be opened by tax relief.

Meinert, Prior Put Summit Back In League Race

Summit High's basketball team, after a shaky start this season, has now improved to a point where it is one of the best in the Suburban Conference. A new scoring weapon was added to the Hilltoppers' arsenal last Friday as they defeated Madison for a second time, 69-45.

Tom Prior, who has been having a hard time with his jump shot, found the range against Madison. Tom sank his jumper eight times, added two fouls to score 18 points. John Meinert clicked as usual—this time for 28 points. Scorewise, these two alone beat the Dodgers. Madison, with three starters from last year's team, at least figured to be one of the conference's best teams this season.

However, the wild shooting and passing in Friday's game showed little trace of any experience. The Summit defense worked well to clog up the foul lane where the Madison boys love to drive and so stymied them.

The Maroon too a lead of five points in the first period, working the ball for a good shot most of the time. In the second quarter they really went to town, scoring 19 points while holding Madison down to just eight. Prior's four baskets and Meinert's nine points put the game out of Madison's reach.

Bill Badgley and Herb Schmidt helped the cause along in the third period and in the final quarter, with the score 69-38 for Summit. Harry Bradley, Dennis Shaw, Art White, John Schippe, and John Hrdgins replaced the first five.

Steve Auer led the Dodgers, scoring with 16 points. Joe Sapio had ten points, seven of which came in the last two minutes.

With this victory Summit moved into sole possession of second place in the Suburban Conference. The next step up to overtake Verona will be a big one.

Miss Dean Leaves Oakes Church Her Home and $1,000

A bequest of $1,000 and real estate located at 114 Morris avenue was made to Oakes Memorial Church by the late Miss Mary P. Dean who died September 30 at a Berkeley Heights nursing home. Several other legacies of stocks and bonds and personal belongings were left to friends and relatives in the will which was filed for probate last week.

Miss Dean, a native of Summit and a descendant of John Dean, who settled here in 1710, left her household furnishings and furniture to Lillian Dean, a cousin. The house, which was left to the church, has been held by the family since John Dean settled that part of the city, which years ago was known as "Deantown."

Other bequests include $600 and Jersey Central Power & Light Co. stocks to Edith Ward, $500 and El Paso Natural Gas preferred stock to Florence Dean Gropper, $500 and South Carolina Electric & Gas Co. stock to Mayor C. Philip Dean. All of the above are cousins.

To a nephew, Elmer Headley, she left $3,500 and U.S. Steel Co. stock. U.S. Savings Bonds are to be divided equally among Edith Ward, Mrs. Gropper and Mayor Dean. The residue of the estate will be divided equally between the above and Oakes Memorial Church.

Edith D. Ward was named executrix of the will which was dated Aug. 12, 1955.

Cadillac

His Golden Anniversary at the Wheel!

In Texas, there is a gentleman who is currently driving out his fiftieth year at the wheel of a Cadillac car.

In New Jersey, there is another gentleman who has purchased every yearly model that Cadillac has produced over the past fifty-three years.

These are simply dramatic examples of one of the most remarkable truisms in all motordom: that once a man takes the wheel of a Cadillac, he usually remains at the wheel of a Cadillac!

To be sure, a motor car would have to offer many unique virtues in order to win so generous a place for itself in the affections of so many.

And, in the case of Cadillac, we think these virtues are self-evident.

There is, first of all, quality. No effort of styling or design or craftsmanship is ever spared to make Cadillac the finest possible motor car.

There is beauty and luxury and performance. The car's magnificent styling and interior coachwork have, over the years, brought Cadillac an inbred majesty and elegance that are entirely its own . . . and Cadillac engineering has been the industry's constant inspiration.

Finally, there is reputation. Never in automotive history has another motor car sustained such an abiding public conviction in its own goodness.

And, certainly, these basic Cadillac ingredients have this year reaped their richest harvest.

So whether you've been at the wheel of a Cadillac for half a century . . . or have yet to spend your first hour in the "car of cars" . . . you should see and drive this newest of Cadillacs!

Need we say more?
