Overlook May Shut Door to Union Patients

Overlook Hospital may close its doors to patients from Union Township unless that community pays up a $25,000 tab for ward service given to its residents last year.

In a letter sent to Mayor F. Edward Bierbaum of Union last week by Walter Beineke, Jr., president of the hospital board, Union was told that it is the only one of 15 towns in the Overlook area that has not made satisfactory payment for care given its residents at Overlook.

Mr. Beineke told Mayor Bierbaum: "There is considerable pressure on the hospital board of trustees to decline to accept patients from Union in the future."

Unless Union settles its hospital bill, he said, "they have no alternative in the light of their responsibilities as trustees but to discontinue the ward service."

Bierbaum said that he would attempt to get all the facts straight then "sit down and talk over with the hospital." Beineke has asked for a meeting with the township before tomorrow.

According to figures cited by Beineke, Union residents received 7,612 patient days in ward service during 1957-58, costing $45,309. Patients paid $10,400 of the cost, the Union Welfare Department paid $1,297, and the township paid $7,612. The net loss to the hospital thus was $25,604, Beineke said.

In his letter to the Union Mayor, Beineke declared:

"The effect of the failure of Union to meet these costs is to throw your charity burden on the surrounding communities and to impose upon the generosity of the citizens of many of these communities who have by their contributions been responsible for the development of the Overlook plant and for meeting operating deficits over the years."

"In the light of these circumstances there is considerable pressure on the board of trustees of the hospital to decline to accept service patients from Union in the future. This is an action which the trustees would take with great reluctance and yet in the light of the foregoing, I think you will agree that they would have no alternative in the light of their responsibilities as trustees for the responsible management of the financial affairs of the hospital."

According to the hospital's director, Robert E. Heinlein, "ward service patients" are people with "not sufficient income to pay for their medical care."

In such cases, Heinlein said, the hospital bill is adjusted according to the patient's ability to pay. This is determined after an "analysis by the hospital's social service department," Heinlein said.

The township is made up by the municipality in which the patient lives, Heinlein indicated.

Service patients are not necessarily welfare patients, Heinlein said. The latter are defined by law, and there are areas of patient care which Welfare Department cannot legally pay.

The sums approved by Union's Welfare Department, however, although they may be the minimum allowed by law, have never come up to the amount necessary.

Last year, for the first time, Heinlein said, Union was asked to appropriate funds to help cover the gap; but the hospital received no final reply.

Christmas Holiday Means Early Deadline

Because of the Christmas Day holiday on Thursday, December 25, the Herald for that week will be delivered one day earlier, on Wednesday, December 24.

Because of the earlier delivery, deadlines for all editorial and advertising copy must be advanced one day. The deadline for display and classified advertising and editorial matter will be 5 p.m., on Monday, December 22, instead of the customary Tuesday. The deadline for photographs will be 12 noon on Monday, December 22.

The cooperation of publicity chairman of all organizations and advertisers is earnestly requested in observance of this holiday deadline schedule.

The same deadlines will be observed for the New Year's edition on the following week when the deadline will be Monday, December 29 at 5 p.m. so that the Herald may be delivered on Wednesday, December 31.

Services for Boy Killed in Crash Held on Tuesday

Funeral services for Andrew E. Howe, 17, of 5 Cedar street, who was killed last Friday night in an automobile accident at New Providence, were held on Tuesday from the Paul Ippolito Summit Memorial, 7 Summit avenue. A Mass followed at St. Teresa's.

The 17-year-old youth, driving a 1937 car alone on a learner's permit, apparently lost control of the car while on a curve in Springfield avenue near Madison avenue.

The car slammed into a tree, according to police. The youth was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. A. J. San Filippo.

Police said young Howe apparently left a friend's home in Berkeley Heights around 9 p.m. and was heading home when the accident occurred. Indications were that the 21-year-old car was traveling too fast to negotiate the curve.

A fire broke out in the motor but was quickly put out by a passerby.

The youth was a graduate of St. Teresa's School and had attended Summit High School. He was employed at the Summit Dog and Cat Hospital. Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Rose Howe; two sisters, Mrs. Marie Mallon and Miss Ruth Ann Howe, both of Summit.

Two Injured In Car Crashes From Icy Roads

A pair of automobile accidents, one on an icy road, injured two persons, one seriously, here last week.

On Wednesday afternoon, Marie Svendsen of Hanover, suffered a cut upper lip and abrasions of the face when the car she was driving went out of control after skidding on an icy patch of roadway and crashed into a fire hydrant at Huntley road and Eaton court. The front end of the car suffered heavy damage.

Earlier in the same day, Joseph Godjas, 36, of 16 Aubrey street, suffered serious back injuries when his car was in collision with one driven by Richard L. Boorujy, 17, of 42 Lewis avenue, at River and Lewis avenues.

Mr. Godjas was taken to Overlook Hospital where police said he appeared paralyzed from the hips down.

Mr. Boorujy was charged with careless driving according to the report of Sgt. Richard Chudoba and Patrolman Charles Carbone and Francis Kelly, who investigated.

Icy road conditions were also blamed for at least a half dozen other minor accidents throughout the city since last Monday.

Yule Fund Drive Picks Up With $940 in Donations

With $920 contributed during the second week of the annual Summit Christmas Fund campaign, the grand total to date now stands at $940. Mrs. Ruth Dudley, director of the Department of Welfare announced today.

While noting that "Christmas giving is best when it helps strengthen family ties," Mrs. Dudley added that by giving money, receiving mothers and fathers are able to do their own shopping for their children's needs. In this way, needy youngsters receive gifts from their parents, just as other children do.

Mrs. Ann Brokaw, executive secretary of the Family Service Association, added that Christmas "is a sharing time" not only for children, but lonely old people as well, she noted that many live in institutions, many in boarding houses, and many alone. "Almost all are living on what could be considered marginal incomes, which after the board is paid, leaves only $4.00 a month for incidentals. While their needs are small, Mrs. Brokaw said, the amount is "wholly inadequate."

Some of the persons who would benefit from Christmas sharing include:

Grace B. hasn't a relative in the world since her husband died last fall. She is a "superior woman" and took care of him for many years when he was an invalid. This, her first Christmas without him, will be grim unless she learns that someone cares.

Following a stroke ten years ago, Mrs. Jones has been bedridden. Her husband is retired and they are living on a very small pension. Christmas will be bleak without the knowledge that some one cares.

Living with a daughter who supports her, Mrs. Smith is 78, and blind. There is no money for clothing which Mrs. S. badly needs.

An arthritic cripple, Helen is over 80 and receives Old Age Assistance. While this income covers most physical needs, there is just not enough for a heating pad which would help relieve her pain.

Christmas Trees Plentiful But Higher Priced

Area residents who still haven't gotten around to buying the family Christmas tree shouldn't worry too much because there is still an adequate selection about town to satisfy even the most critical tastes.

As of Monday, six of the area's Christmas tree markets were still abundantly stocked at prices about the same as or slightly higher than last year. The average price for an average five or six-footer runs to about six dollars according to shape and fullness. Most of this year's trees on sale locally are either from the Maine woods or from Nova Scotia.

There are some spots that are featuring blue spruces and the Scotch Pine found in the Pennsylvania hill country. This particular specimen has long been popular on the West Coast but during the last two or three years, has found itself becoming popular here.

The trees, which began to arrive here as early as mid-November from points in Canada and other northern regions, are reported to be in "excellent health" despite the above-average rainfall throughout the entire north east last summer.

According to some dealers, this year's stock is plentiful but higher freight rates over last year have pushed prices up slightly.

Merchants Urged to Be On Lookout for Bogus Checks

The police department warned local merchants this week to be especially careful in accepting checks from unknown customers during the Christmas season.

It was learned that several merchants have been the recipients of phony checks during the last week with one store owner reporting an $80 check he cashed for one patron last Thursday was returned on Monday.

Heights Man Critically Injured in Auto Mishap

A Berkeley Heights man was reported in critical condition today when he suffered a fractured skull after his car struck a tree at West Orange Tuesday night.

The victim was identified as Walter E. Reasor, 54, of 111 Orchard lane. He was taken to Orange Memorial Hospital.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING, THAT'S FOR SURE! — When Santa paid a surprise visit this week to the tots who are patients at Overlook Hospital, their eyes grew as big as Santa's capacious and bottomless bag of toys. Santa dropped in from Altman's as a result of special arrangements made by Mrs. Thomas W. Johnston of Summit, president of the

Dinners and Parties Usher In Yuletide for Local Firms

Summit's industrial and business organizations and institutions were well into the holiday spirit this week as scores of dinners, entertainments and informal get-togethers ushered in the Christmas season.

Last Thursday some 50 employees of Allstate Insurance Company gathered at the Hills Inn for their annual holiday party which included dinner and entertainment.

On Saturday, Summit Federal Savings and Loan Association held their annual party for 16 employees and their wives at Canoe Brook Country Club which included dinner.

The annual holiday get-together for employees of Celanese was held last Saturday at Martinsville Inn. The affair included dinner and dancing.

The Millburn Inn was the scene for the annual Christmas party for employees of Summit Trust. Approximately 70 staff members were on hand to partake of dinner and view a comedy mind-reading act.

Citizens Trust Company held its annual dinner on December 9 for 44 employees at Canoe Brook Country Club. The program also included an entertainment featuring a magician.

CIBA's annual employee party for 1,400 staff members will be held tomorrow at the Hotel Robert Treat at Newark, while approximately 300 employees of the National State Bank will usher in the holiday with a dinner-dance tomorrow at Elizabeth.

As part of its holiday party, CIBA was host to some 500 children of employees at the Strand Theatre last Saturday morning during the company's seventh annual Yule entertainment.

Santa Claus was on hand during the entire morning to talk individually to the children. Each received a gift and candy was distributed. Movie cartoons were also shown.

PAL Party Saturday

This coming Saturday, the Summit PAL will hold its annual Christmas party for some 500 local kids at the Strand Theatre starting at 10 a.m. The entertainment will include the distribution of gifts and a visit from Santa Claus. Patrolman Lonnie Davis is in charge of the program.

Santa Claus also got a helping hand this year from members of Bell Labs through their annual Christmas drive for toys for needy children.

Approximately 3,100 toys were collected at Murray Hill for distribution to 24 local agencies. The dolls all wore custom-made dresses fashioned by women members at the Labs. Before the distribution, the toys were displayed at the Labs. This week the dolls were delivered to the New Providence Community Service Society, Summit Family Service Association, St. James Hospital and St. James Orphanage at Newark as well as to branches of the Salvation Army. Many Pay Honor To Local Doctor On 90th Birthday

Congratulations are pouring in from all over the country to Dr. John Lewis Meeker of 5 DeBary place who will celebrate his 90th birthday next Tuesday, December 23.

Several days ago the doctor was the guest of honor at a surprise birthday party given by many of his World War I buddies of Summit Post 138, American Legion, and greetings have been received by him so far from Senator Clifford P. Case, Preston J. Moore, national commander of the Legion; Gen. Douglas McArthur, Congresswoman Florence P. Dwyer and numerous state and national Legion officers as well as others.

Although Dr. Meeker will chalk up his 90th year he still maintains his practice, keeping daily office hours and answering calls. Not long ago he was honored by the Summit Medical Society at a party attended by 75 doctors.

Dr. Meeker was born at New Providence but spent his youth at Newark. He graduated from Baltimore Medical School in 1903 and started his career in Newark.

When World War I broke out he enlisted in the Army in March, 1917 at age 47 and took his basic training at Camp Greenleaf, Chattanooga, Tenn., where he received a commission as a lieutenant in the medical corps. He went overseas to France where he was assigned to Base Hospital 53 and was in command there until after the Armistice. He was honorably discharged on Dec. 7, 1919 with the rank of captain.

He then moved to Summit and in 1922 was appointed to the staff of Overlook Hospital and in 1946 he was made a consultant in medicine. He is at present an honorary staff member.

Dr. Meeker scoffs at his ninety years. He still drives a car, is an avid home gardener, a topflight contract bridge player and an amateur botanist of note. Only a few months ago neighbors spotted him on an upper roof of his home busily sweeping leaves from the gutters.

The doctor's recipe for old age is "Select your ancestors" and "watch your diet and keep as active as possible both mentally and physically."

Although the Doctor may not have been able to select his ancestors he is extremely proud of them. He is a direct descendant of Isiah Meeker, a farmer of these parts who sent five sons to fight the British at the Battle of Springfield. Dr. Meeker was born on the old Meeker farm in New Providence, the same as two generations before him.

Dr. Meeker is still an active member of the American Legion and the Summit Medical Society and attends most of the meetings of both groups. In 1957 the New Jersey Medical Society awarded him its gold medal of merit award for having practiced for 39 years.

As of Monday deliveries went on a two-day schedule and will continue through Christmas Eve. (Continued on Page 14)

Police, Firemen and Other City Workers Due for 4% Pay Boost

Pay increases averaging 4 per cent for 40 job classifications in the city's government, police and fire departments are provided under the 1959 salary schedules introduced by Common Council Tuesday night.

Ten of the 40 jobs are slated to get increases of $500 or more, while the balance range from $50 to $415. The largest increase of $840 is scheduled for the yet unmannned post of deputy fire chief, with a proposed salary of $7,350.

A public hearing on the ordinance will be held Monday, December 29.

The second largest increase according to the proposed ordinance would go to the building inspector, raising his salary from $6,405 to $7,000. Next in line for raises would be the police chief, $7,650 to $8,340, and the city treasurer, $8,190 to $8,800.

Police Lieutenants Up $665

An increase of $600 for an annual salary of $5,000 is scheduled for the foreman of the sewer department, while police and fire department lieutenants would be slated for $565 raises, to reach an annual salary of $6,665.

The terms of the ordinance also provide a $350 increase to the fire chief for an annual salary of $6,500, while both the city solicitor and the city engineer would get $300 raises. At present the annual salary for the solicitor is $6,000 and the city engineer is $5,500.

The ordinance would also raise the salary of the receiver of taxes $415 to $6,400 and the city forester $400 to $5,200. In addition, the director of welfare would be raised $360 to $6,400 and detective sergeants would go from $6,025 to $6,375. Sergeants would increase $250 to $6,175 and the superintendent of garbage and trash removal would go up $200 from $3,300.

A $300 raise would also go to the secretary of the Zoning Board of Adjustment for an annual salary of $900, and the street foreman would be raised $200 to $6,150.

Average increases at $165. Other increases are: executive secretary to Common Council, $175 to $9,100; assistant receiver of taxes, $115 to $4,000; assistant director of welfare, $100 to $4,000; janitor at city hall, $140 to $4,350; city physician, $50 to $3,400; garbage and trash removal drivers, $130 to $4,300, and garbage and trash removal laborers, $130 to $4,380. The last two classifications are subject to $150 incentive pay.

Municipal secretaries and stenographers would be scheduled for a $225 raise in the minimum salary bracket, bringing the base to $3,175. The maximum would be raised from $3,885 to $4,000.

Council Weighs New Plan to Pass On Home Designs

After unanimously voting down a proposed ordinance creating a Board of Architectural Review, Common Council Tuesday night introduced a new ordinance which would also create the Board, but with substantial changes in its makeup and power.

The new ordinance stipulates a more lenient attitude in zones other than A-25 and A-43 as far as similar and dissimilar design is concerned.

Under the terms of the defeated ordinance, no look-alikes could be built within 600 feet, but the new proposal limits this footage only to the two highest residential zones, A-25 and A-43.

In eight other zones, the distance is cut back to 300 feet. This ruling would apply in A-15, A-10, A-6, B-15, B-3, G-Multi-family, H-hotel and apartment zones.

Five Man Board

The new ordinance states that the board would be composed of five Planning Board members, appointed by the chairman, with the Planning Board secretary serving in the same capacity on both bodies. Members' terms of office would coincide with those on the Planning Board.

The new proposal gives the Architectural Board the right to "adopt, amend and repeal rules and regulations not inconsistent with the law."

The ordinance also provides that every building permit must be reviewed by the building inspector within 10 days of application. At the same time, the Architectural Board must affirm or deny the building inspector's decision within 20 days of application.

"Aggrieved parties," according to the ordinance would have the same right of appeal that applies in all zoning cases.

Failure to abide by the provisions of the ordinance could result in a $200 fine, 90 days in jail, or both.

A public hearing will be held Monday, December 29.

At the same time Common Council introduced another measure which would amend the newly passed Zoning Ordinance.

Under the amendment, organizations not operated for profit would be permitted in an A-25 or A-43 zone.

The next meeting of Council will be held Monday, December 29, at 8:30 p.m., at city hall.

Christmas Eve Carol Program Being Revived

Good old-fashioned Christmas caroling is being revived this year by a group of residents who fondly recall the days when a community sing on Christmas Eve was one of the major events of Summit's holiday season.

On Christmas Eve at 7:45 p.m. arrangements have been made for an informal community Christmas carol program to be held at the Village Green. The program is open to all and family participation is especially urged. Instrumental music will be provided by a few members of the Summit High School band and the program will be conducted by Harry S. Hunsford of the school music department.

Glassblowing Exhibition On Top of Washington

Under the sponsorship of the PTA, as a special Christmas program, Miss Grace Howell will demonstrate the art of glassblowing at Washington School next Monday.

Along with other decorative items Miss Howell will blow tree ornaments. The items will be kept on display in the school show-cases and then will be distributed to individual classrooms to be kept as souvenirs.

Parents and friends are invited to attend the program which will be given five times in the school auditorium. Tentative schedule of performances is as follows: 9:30 a.m., kindergarten; 10:20 a.m., first and second grades; 11:15 a.m., fifth and sixth grades; 1 p.m., third and fourth grades, and 2 p.m., afternoon kindergarten.

Local Women Aid Lyons Yule Shopping Program

Two Summit women, representing a pair of local organizations, helped participate in the Christmas shopping program for approximately 2,000 patients and member-employees at the Veterans Administration Hospital at Lyons, during the last few weeks.

Representing the American Women's Voluntary Services was Mrs. Charlotte Engelman of 55 Beekman road, while Mrs. Richard Hopkins of 9 Pine Ridge drive, represented the YWCA.

The gifts will be distributed on December 23.

Two Christmas Programs Planned At Lincoln School

Tableaux depicting scenes from Christmas songs will feature the two holiday assembly programs at Lincoln School.

Tomorrow at 1 p.m. the third grades will present a program for the primary assembly. It will be under the direction of the two third grade teachers, Miss Annabelle Byrnes and Miss Beatrice Searles. In addition to the songs and living pictures, the program will include the telling of stories by Paul Greenberg, Pat Gibbons, Joanne Finley, Amy Carr, Molly Saurhille, Ricky Stafford and Jon Wilmer and the recitation of a poem by Brenda Lockhart and Mark Tilden.

The upper grade assembly will be held on Monday at 8 p.m. and will be presented by the three fifth grades under the direction of their teachers, Mrs. Ruth Murray, Mrs. Shirley Vass and Miss Paula Piccione.

Children who will portray characters in the living pictures are Kippy Lachner, Frances Greenberg, Barry Graham, Cynthia Smith, Rhonda Melillo, Janet Gibson, Peter Leonard, Patty Specht, John King, Ronnie Fleming, Richard Shepherd, Jim MacLeod, David Sawyer, Jim Bennett, Peter Nestler, Richard Spitzer, Virginia Hearn, Lisa Case, Gerry Gregory, Connie Crosson, Frank Hewitt, Jeff Sherman, Joan Schumann, Jennifer Hodges, Joan Carr, Molly Clark, and Charles White.

Solos will be sung by Danny Thurier, Robert Fletcher, and Andy Schneider. All other members of the fifth grade are in the choir.

VISITS AIR BASE—John D. Neher, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Neher of 26 Ox Bow lane was one of 28 Naval ROTC midshipmen from the University of Mississippi to visit the facilities of the Naval Air Station at Pensacola, Fla., recently. In addition to a tour of the station, he had an indoctrination flight in a T-34 training plane.

Two Local Men Made Fellows of Radio Engineers

Two Summit men, James M. Early of 38 Oakland Place and Sidney Millman of 17 Fairview Avenue, are among six members of Bell Telephone Laboratories who have been named Fellows of the Institute of Radio Engineers.

Dr. Early, semiconductor device development engineer at Bell Laboratories in Murray Hill, was cited "For contributions in the development of high frequency transistors."

Dr. Millman, director of physical research at Bell Laboratories was cited "For contributions in the fields of magnetrons, traveling-wave amplifiers and backward-wave oscillators."

Early and Millman are among 76 leading engineers and scientists from the United States and other countries to be named Fellows. The grade of Fellow is the highest membership rank offered by the I. R. E. and is bestowed only by invitation on those who have made outstanding contributions to radio engineering or allied fields. The new Fellows were named by the I. R. E. board of directors at a recent meeting in Atlanta.

Dr. Early has been engaged in the development of junction transistors since joining Bell Laboratories in 1951. He has made several significant contributions to the understanding of transistor operation and to the design of high frequency transistor structures. He supervises several groups engaged in development of high frequency transistors.

Dr. Early received the B. S. degree from the New York State College of Forestry at Syracuse, N. Y. He later joined the staff of the Department of E. E. at Ohio State University, where he taught for five years while studying for the M. S. in E. E. and Ph. D. degrees. In addition to the I. R. E., Dr. Early is a member of the American Physical Society, the American Association for the Advancement of Science and Sigma XI, honorary scientific research fraternity.

Dr. Millman joined Bell Laboratories in 1945 and was engaged in research on traveling wave amplifiers until his appointment as director of physical research in 1952.

He received the B. S. degree cum laude from the College of the City of New York in 1931 and the h.d. from Columbia University in 1935. He was awarded two post doctoral fellowships at Columbia for research in the field of nuclear spins and nuclear magnetic moments.

Before joining Bell Laboratories he taught physics at Columbia, City College and Queens College, and in 1942 he returned to Columbia to take part in research and development work on microwave magnetrons under the auspices of the Office of Scientific Research and Development.

Dr. Millman is a Fellow of the American Physical Society as well as I. R. E., and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, the Scientific Research Society of America and the Summit Association of Scientists.

Takes Survival Course

Marine Cpl. Charles F. Donaldson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Donaldson of 67 New England avenue, graduated November 23 from a three-week course in atomic, biological and chemical warfare defense at the El Toro Marine Corps Air Station, Santa Ana, Calif. Students receive basic knowledge of this type of warfare and learn how to survive while saving others in case of enemy attack.

Santa Doctors Doldrums For Overlook's Patients

The Christmas season was officially "on" this week at Overlook Hospital, ushered in by a surprise visit from none other than "Mr. Christmas" himself. Santa dropped in from Altman's on Monday morning, by special arrangement with Mrs. Thomas W. Johnston of Summit, president of the Women's Auxiliary, to find out what the child patients would like to see in their stockings on Christmas.

At the same time Robert E. Heinlein, director, who welcomed Santa, said that Overlook's program this year probably marked a new high in the hospital's outstanding record for Christmas activities designed to make life pleasant for the patients. "We are all proud of the record Overlook has established for bringing the spirit of Christmas into the hospital," he said. "And while everyone on the regular staff has contributed to this custom, much of the credit for the outstanding success of our Christmas programs is due to the efforts of our Women's Auxiliary, numbering 1,800 volunteers from the 15 communities served by Overlook."

The Auxiliary, he added, serves the hospital in many ways throughout the year, and as with the regular hospital staff its contributions to the Christmas program are in addition to day-to-day services.

Many Events Scheduled
Highlights of the hospital's Christmas activities, which are coordinated by Mrs. Dorothy Mosher, director of volunteer services on the staff of Overlook, this year include:

The special visit of Santa Claus to the child patients this week, decoration of windows, halls and

NEW POLICE GRADUATES—Graduating Saturday evening from the New Jersey Police Academy at Sea Girt will be two more members of the Summit Police Department. They are (left) Patrolman Ralph L. Nolting of 26 Miele place and (right) Patrolman Charles J. Smith, Jr. of 10 Park avenue. Both men successfully completed a six-week course in municipal police work.

solariums throughout the hospital, special lobby decorations as well as decorations for the nurses' home and interns' quarters, playing of special Christmas music over the loudspeaker system throughout the full week before Christmas, preparation of Christmas stockings for child patients confined, singing of various choral groups in the halls throughout the week, annual award of service pins to members of the staff, a special Christmas Eve service for ambulatory patients, and serving of a Christmas dinner "with all the trimmings" to patients on Christmas Day.

As announced by Mrs. Mosher, details of the program shape up as follows: The annual Christmas party for the staff of the hospital, given by the doctors, was held last week at the Chatham Fish and Game Club, and the special surprise visit of Santa Claus to the child patients was made this Monday.

Decorations for the solariums and some departments have been in preparation for the last six weeks by four Short Hills Twigs. These decorations were being installed this week. Also installed this week were the decorations of the interns' quarters, including tree trimming, by Twig 3 of Summit, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Walter S. Nuckols of 17 Windsor road.

Carols Being Sung
Decoration of windows throughout the hospital got under way this week, and prizes for the best windows will be awarded at the nurses' party to be held Monday,

December 22 in the nurses' home. The singing of Christmas carols, which will be rendered in the various halls of the hospital during the coming week, is already in full swing. The first sing was given last week by the Chatham Township Girl Scouts. Today, the music department of the Junior Fortnightly Club was scheduled to sing at 3:30 p.m.

Next week, the Overlook Hospital Glee Club will sing Monday at p.m. On Tuesday, Summit Girl Scouts Troop 33 and 36 will sing at 3:30 p.m., and Summit Senior Girl Scouts Troop 11 at 7:30 p.m. And on the day before Christmas, the Overlook Hospital School of Practical Nursing will conclude the week's choral activities with a special performance at 2 p.m.

Oakes Memorial Member Honored For Long Service

Ray W. Salmon of 118 Mountain avenue, was honored at a reception at Oakes Memorial Methodist Church on December 12, upon his retirement as treasurer and a member of the official board of the Church after 40 years of continuous service.

A "This Is Your Life" program was presented, with photographic slides, chronicling Mr. Salmon's life from his boyhood in Hackettstown, his marriage to the former Flora MacDonald of Summit, and his long residence here both as an individual and as vice-president and treasurer of Stephens-Miller Co.

A history was read detailing Mr. Salmon's long association with the Church, which began as a chapel in 1886 known as the East Summit Methodist Church, the name later being changed to Oakes Memorial Methodist Church in memory of Rev. Jay Adams Oakes, who died during his pastorate there.

The early financial struggles of the Church, taken from the official board minutes, emphasized Mr. Salmon's "dedication and devotion as treasurer in keeping the Christmas party given for child patients this last Saturday by the Future Homemakers of Chatham High School under the chairmanship of Miss Judy Agerton; the presentation of service awards to 27 members of the Overlook staff by the administration in the Nurses' Home at 3:30 p.m. today; and, a non-sectarian Christmas Eve religious service for ambulatory patients in the hospital at 6 p.m. next Wednesday.

Church solvent in those difficult times, and his courage when he, with the assistance of all other male members, literally built the present stone Church in carting stone and sand. Working long hours at night to see their dream come to fruition."

Rev. Clark D. Callender read and then presented to Mr. Salmon a certified copy of a resolution adopted by the official board citing his service to the Church. There were solos by Mrs. Raymond Nelson and Robert Collins, and a group of Christmas carols were sung, directed by Miss Ethel Mane, accompanied by Miss Adele Loree, church organist and choir director.

Mr. and Mrs. Salmon were presented with a matched set of luggage, camera equipment, and film.

The committee in charge of arrangements consisted of Mr. B. Herbert Carlson, chairman, Mrs. Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collins, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Quisenbush and Mrs. Mildred W. Clark.

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon at Christian Science services Sunday.

Matthew's account of the coming of the Magi to Bethlehem at the time of the nativity of Christ Jesus will be among the Bible readings.

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include this: "The divine origin of Jesus gave him more than human power to expound the facts of creation, and demonstrate the one Mind which makes and governs man and the universe" (339:27-30).

The Golden Text is from Psalms (86:10): "All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name. For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone."

The Camaraderie of Snow

During this season of the year, minds seem to be pre-occupied with Christmas and weather. And weather will definitely win the race as the all-round topic of conversation until doomsday.

Strangely enough, each winter portends to be the worst in many years. When it first started to snow last week, many persons were heard saying it will be hard winter with snow so early.

Yet, looking back, it would seem that last year it started snowing even a few days earlier, and from then on each week, until the end of March, we had snow at least once every seven days.

It is not likely that we shall forget the "Spring" snow of last year, which succeeded in immobilizing traffic and leaving a trail of aching backs.

And, yet, it was fun. Rarely in our modern life do we have time for the camaraderie that results from the all-inclusive state of being enveloped by the weather.

Recently, we heard a friend say that like everyone else, he grumbled when inconvenienced by the elements, but that he fully appreciated the warm feeling that resulted from the cold snow and that he was looking forward to a regular winter season with all its pleasures.

Looking back on his remark, we note that he has something. The warmth and friendship which transcended our city last spring during the "blizzard" lasted only about as long as it took to shovel our way out. But it was pleasant while it lasted... sort of like Christmas in March.

Tragedy Brings Action

It is comforting to be told by Fire Chief Thomas A. Murray that all of our schools—public, independent and parochial, are rigidly inspected on a monthly basis and have no fire hazards. It is also reassuring to note that other cities, especially New York, are engaged in a drive to eliminate fire dangers.

But it is regretful that this effort is being made as an aftermath to the tragic Chicago school fire. Apparently it takes a tragedy to wake up the public to the need for precautionary action.

Especially interesting was a statement made a few days ago by Fire Commissioner Edward F. Cavanaugh, Jr. of New York City. Mr. Cavanaugh found so many violations of fire safety rules that he threatened to shut down all of the schools for a general house-cleaning to make certain that no dangers will continue to exist. He pointed out that his department makes periodic inspections but that little action follows when violations are reported.

Said Commissioner Cavanaugh, "we could not get the response we are now and be able to cut red tape without such an incident as the Chicago fire. If I tried to close down the schools at any other time everybody would be on my neck. Unfortunately, you don't get public cooperation except after a tragedy such as this. You've got to ride the crest of public feeling."

Mr. Cavanaugh's remarks are a gloomy commentary on the municipal system. We recall that after the disastrous Coconut Grove fire in Boston in 1942 that took the lives of 491, there was immediately a drive across the nation against overcrowding in public places. Also there was a close check in every community on decorations to make sure that they were made of fireproof materials.

And after the Hartford circus fire in 1944 when 168 persons, mostly children, lost their lives, there was a close check on canvas tents to make sure they were not flammable. We wonder if such inspections are being continued in large cities?

Officials entrusted to the protection of the public should be alert the year around. Most of them probably are but they also need the cooperation of their superiors and the general public. There are safety rules in many fields and these should never be relaxed. It is a sad state of affairs when a public official has to wait "to ride the crest of public feeling" in order to do his job conscientiously.

Another Sad Milestone

Almost unnoticed in the more serious, nearer-to-home evidences of the plight of the railroads was a recent incident that took place in New England. With the threat of a drastic curtailment, and even a complete end, of Lackawanna service facing Summit residents, it may seem inconsequential to point to another sad milestone in railroad history that lies hundreds of miles away from us. But it is closely allied to our rail problems and points up the need for immediate aid to railroads all over the nation.

Last week the Boston & Maine Railroad ran its last passenger train through the famed Hoosac Tunnel. For 83 years people have passed through and marveled at the 5-mile long bore that was once considered the outstanding engineering achievement of the world. Construction was started at opposite ends of a mountain and when the two borings met, nearly 2,000 feet under the surface, the shafts were only nine-sixteenths of an inch out of line.

The Hoosac Tunnel cut travel time from New York State to Boston by hours. It became one of the wonders of America. But time and engineering feats elsewhere dimmed its fame and finally the lack of business has made it obsolete.

On hand for the sad event were a group of Williams College students for as a stop-gap economy move the passenger terminus of the B & M some time ago was shifted from Troy, N. Y., to Williamstown, Mass. Now it is being moved to Greenfield, Mass., on the Boston side of the tunnel.

Not so many years ago B & M trains carried several hundred passengers each trip through the tunnel. The last train to go through the tunnel carried 35 persons, most of them Williams students aboard only for the novelty of the last train ride.

Thus the Hoosac Tunnel is closed for passenger traffic. There was a time when it attracted sightseers from all over the world. Some rode trains through it, others just came to see the gigantic openings passing through the mountain.

Now the tunnel is just another hole and no longer a showplace or a world-wide curiosity. Its closing is disturbingly prophetic of things written in a best seller of a year ago called "Atlas Shrugged."

An Open Letter

Dear Governor:

Thank you very much for your Christmas card which arrived the other day. It was a pretty card and the picture of Morven sure does look cozy in a snow setting. Morven's a fine old house but sometimes I get to wondering if you and Helen are keeping warm these cold days. Old houses, you know, are kind of hard to heat and inclined to be a bit drafty about the baseboards and window sills. But I guess you fixed those things up before you moved in.

I didn't send you a card because I honestly didn't think you'd send me one and since I've already used up all of mine I thought the next best thing would be to drop you a line thanking you for your card. I'll certainly send you one next year. Last year I got a card from Malcolm Forbes but I like your card better. You couldn't see too much of Malcolm's house because of all of his kids hiding it from view.

There isn't too much to tell you for there's nothing particularly exciting happening in our town. We just get up every day, do our chores, come home and maybe sit around and look at television for a spell and then go to bed and worry about what you Democrats are going to do to us. Now that Summit is the Bastogne of the Republican Party we don't feel quite as comfortable as we did.

We also are a mite worried about a couple of things. The future of the Lackawanna is one. I guess you know that a lot of people in our town depend upon the railroad to make their money so they can pay their taxes and we'd sort of like to keep them doing that. But a fellow down the road apiece named Shoemaker, who runs the railroad, tells us he's going to have to put away his trains unless he gets a tax break. It would be nice if you'd look into this railroad matter and maybe do a little worrying about it along with us.

We're also upset over this new road program and it would be appreciated if you'd get hold of Dwight Palmer some day and ask him just what he's going to do with that new Route 22. I know he's a pretty busy fellow making speeches all over and doing a lot of talking about needing more money for more roads, but there's a lot of us in Summit that would like to know just what he's going to do with one road (Route 22). Quite a few of us are wondering if we're going to end up with roadside property. Dwight's a mighty nice fellow but he's awful close-mouthed.

Guess you know by now that your party is going to take things over in our Court House in a few days. I honestly can't say that we like it but we're hoping that if you'd keep the boys in line it might not be too bad. Naturally things won't be as good as when our crowd ran the show but still we don't expect the county to go to pot. We just sort of hope that your chaps will be sensible and realize their responsibilities, even to Republicans, and take it easy on the county treasury until we have time to marshal our forces and move back in again.

Guess that's about all. Hope you can get up in Summit again this summer for a little tennis. You know we're always glad to see you. Again, many thanks for the Christmas card and I hope that you and Helen have very nice holidays. Take it easy down in Trenton and don't fret too much about that Kennedy lad up in Massachusetts.

Best regards,
The Summit Herald.

Peace Gas? (Cleveland Fieldesler)

The U. S. Army has produced a gas that appears to make a cat afraid of a mouse, and it has been suggested that it be used as one of America's defense weapons. Some wags have also indicated that it would be a fine thing to use on the boss when asking for a raise or on the wife, when sneaking home late after a poker party.

Certainly, if wars could be fought without hurting anyone, it would be a great advance in civilization. Perhaps if both sides would take a good smell of the aerosol they'd be so scared of each other that there wouldn't even be a war! And with wars wiped out, taxes would drop overnight.

The more we think of it, the better we like the idea. Bring on the gas, gentlemen, and let the whole world take a good, big whiff!

DEATHS

Mrs. Truman P. Carter
Mrs. Elizabeth DeMotte Carter, mother of Miss Alice E. Carter, director of the Summit Public Library, died Monday at Berkeley Hall Nursing Home, Berkeley Heights, after a short illness. She was 87.

Mrs. Carter was born at Jacksonville, Ill., and was the widow of Truman Post Carter. She had lived here for the last five years, making her home with her daughter at Beech Spring Drive apartments. Before moving here she lived at South Bend, Ind. Mrs. Carter was active in the Tuesday Guild of Christ Church, formerly the First Baptist Church.

In addition to her daughter in Summit she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Edgar A. Decker of St. Louis, Mo., and a son, Roger W. Carter of Fillmore, Cal.

Funeral services were held privately and burial will take place tomorrow at Jacksonville, Mo. A memorial service will be conducted at a later date in Summit at Christ Church.

Paul A. Straub
Paul A. Straub of the Hotel Suburban died last Tuesday at a Bernardsville nursing home after a long illness. He was 93.

Mr. Straub was a retired president of Paul Straub & Co., Inc. of New York City, importers of glass and china. He founded the firm in 1915 with his brother, Walter, now deceased. Mr. Straub retired from business last summer when he became ill.

He was a noted coin collector and in 1949 donated his entire collection to the Smithsonian Institution. In 1953 he was made an honorary member of the Institution. His collection of gold coins is considered one of the best in the world and now occupies an entire room of the Smithsonian and is termed "priceless" by the staff. The collections features large gold coins, many of them extremely rare such as 17th Century talers from Brunswick, Germany. Mr. Straub spent nearly twenty years gathering the collection.

He was born at New York City and spent several years in Germany as a glass and china buyer for the former Vawo & Dotter Co. He left Germany at the outbreak of World War I and founded his own company. He lived for many years at Hoboken and later at East Orange.

There are no immediate survivors. His wife, Mrs. Katherine Hathaway Straub, died in 1938.

Funeral services were held last Thursday at East Orange.

Mrs. Frederick P. Bernhard
Mrs. Georgie T. Bernhard of 105 New England avenue, mother of Mrs. Henry G. Coit of 15 Elm place, died Sunday at her home of a heart attack. She was 77.

Mrs. Bernhard was born at Haliburton, Ontario, Canada, and was the widow of Frederick P. Bernhard, controller of the International Nickel Co., who died in 1955.

Mrs. Bernhard lived for 30 years in East Orange before moving to Summit in 1953. She was a member of the Daughters of the British Empire of the Oranges.

In addition to her daughter, Mrs. Coit, she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Jean B. Parkinson of Irvington and a son, Frederick T. Bernhard of Chatham, and also five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held privately on Tuesday at the Burroughs & Kohr Funeral Home, 309 Springfield avenue, conducted by Rev. Elmer F. Francis, rector of Calvary Episcopal Church.

James M. Buchanan
James M. Buchanan of Maplewood, father of Dr. Robert W. Buchanan of 59 Canoe Brook Parkway, died Sunday at Overlook Hospital after a long illness. He was 75.

Mr. Buchanan was born at Trenton and had lived at Maplewood for 26 years, coming there from New York City. He was a retired building and equipment engineer with the N. Y. Bell Telephone Co. Since his retirement in 1948 he had been a consulting engineer for the Presbyterial Hospital in New York.

Mr. Buchanan was a graduate of Princeton, Class of 1904, and a graduate of M.I.T., Class of 1906. He was a past president and life member of Club Manhattan-Empire chapter, Telephone Pioneers of America and a member of the Old Guard of Summit.

In addition to his son he is survived by his wife, Mrs. Kate W. Buchanan, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held yesterday morning at the Burroughs & Kohr Funeral Home, 309 Springfield avenue, conducted by Rev. Herbert H. Cooper of Christ Church, Short Hills. Burial was in Ewing Church Cemetery, Trenton.

George Green
George Green of Florida died last Thursday after a brief illness at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Rockwell Smith of 112 Maple street. Mr. Green was here on a visit, arriving three days before his death. He was 82.

A native of England, he lived in Newark for many years where he was a salesman for the Patent Cereals Co. For the last 14 years he made his home in Florida, moving there upon his retirement.

In addition to his daughter, Mrs. Smith, he is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Alice P. Murray of East Orange; two sons, Alfred G. Green of Livingston and Arthur R. Green of Jackson, Miss., and five grandchildren.

A memorial service was held Saturday evening by Overlook lodge, F.&A.M. at the Brough Funeral Home, 535 Springfield avenue, and a service was conducted Sunday afternoon by Rev. James M. Boyd of the Methodist Church. Burial was on Monday at Bloomfield Cemetery, Bloomfield.

William T. Little
William T. Little of 32 Sunset drive, father of Mrs. Edward A. Pizzi of the same address, died Sunday at his home after a long illness. He was 77.

A native of Winsted, Conn., Mr. Little had lived here for the last four years. He retired ten years ago after fifty years of service (Continued on Page 7)

A Look Ahead Needed

Editor, Summit Herald:

Last Tuesday Commissioner Dwight Palmer of the New Jersey Highway Department addressed the Regional Plan Association. He called for "positive action on the part of our elected representatives to provide the more than 4 billion dollars needed over and above federal funds to finance the state's proposed highway program over the next fifteen years."

He said "unless funds are made available we might as well fold up."

This is serious business! Already the Federal Government is taxing New Jersey gasoline users a total of 50 million dollars a year to finance Federal Aid (?) to the states for highway construction—the federal fund is in the red and it is proposed to collect an additional 25 million dollars a year (1½¢ per gallon) to balance their books!

The New Jersey gas tax collects an additional 70 millions a year. Here we have a 15-year road program that is going to cost New Jersey taxpayers a total of almost 3 billion dollars, not to mention the incidental but substantial costs of carrying up the state.

At the same time our New Jersey railroads are collapsing under the impact of an 18 million dollars a year New Jersey tax bill.

Hasn't the time come for New Jersey citizens to insist on some evidence of overall planning before it is too late?

With the Port Authority planing a 700 million dollar bond issue for additional facilities—the highway department asking for a billion—with the vital part the investment in railroads can play in mass transportation—we need assurance that we are making the best use of our dollars—that we are providing the best answer (Continued on Page 7)

Editor, Summit Herald:
The widely distributed publication of A.P. Stores' "Woman's Day" has given us valuable support with its article in the December issue, "Christmas Eve—the most dangerous night of the year." Fortunately, our clubs and taverns close at midnight on Christmas Eve, but as our closing on New Years Eve has recently been extended one hour, it is our hope that in the light of the statements made in this article, this action will be reversed.

There are more traffic accidents on Christmas Eve than on any other day in the year. New Years Eve is a close second. According to the National Safety Council there were killed in 1955, 609 and in 1956, 435 in 1957, 706 during the Christmas holidays. Between 48 and 55 per cent of these deaths were caused by drunken driving, or by drivers who had something to drink. "The season of cheer has become the season of death. Santa's sleigh will be followed by a grim parade of hearsees." As the holiday season approaches, the admonition of the National Safety Council should be taken very seriously. "If you drink, don't drive. If you drive, don't drink."

In addition to his daughter he is survived by two brothers, Joseph Little of East Orange and Arthur Little of Mohler, Ont.; a sister, Mrs. Francis Gallagher of The Bronx, and four grandchildren. His wife, Mrs. Marie Keenan Little, is deceased.

Funeral services were held yesterday at 9 a.m. from the Brough Funeral Home, 535 Springfield avenue, and at 9:30 a.m. at St. Teresa's Church where a solemn high mass was celebrated. Burial was in St. Teresa's Cemetery.
William Petykowski
William Petykowski of 18 Aubrey street, died Saturday in his home of a brief illness. He was 50. A lifelong resident of Summit, Mr. Petykowski had been employed as a landscape gardener by several landscaping firms.
Mr. Petykowski, who was not married, leaves three brothers, Stephen and John of Summit and Andrew of East Hampton, L. I., and two sisters, Mrs. Stella Bratz of Summit and Mrs. Marianna Stasiak in Poland.

The funeral was held Tuesday from the Paul Ippolito Summit Memorial, 7 Summit Ave, with a Mass at 10:30 a.m. in St. Teresa's Church.

Christmas Holiday Means Early Deadline

Because of the Christmas Day holiday on Thursday, December 25, the Herald for that week will be delivered one day earlier, on Wednesday, December 24.

Because of the earlier delivery, deadlines for all editorial and advertising copy must be advanced one day. The deadline for display and classified advertising and editorial matter will be 5 p.m. on Monday, December 22, instead of the customary Tuesday. The deadline for photographs will be 12 noon on Monday, December 22.

The cooperation of publicity chairmen of all organizations and advertisers is earnestly requested in observance of this holiday deadline schedule.

The same deadlines will be observed for the New Year's edition on the following week when the deadline will be Monday, December 29 at 5 p.m. so that the Herald may be delivered on Wednesday, December 31.

Jefferson School Cites Anniversary Of "Silent Night"

In honor of the 140th anniversary of the writing of "Silent Night, Holy Night," the carol will be the theme of the Christmas program to be presented today at 8 p.m. at Jefferson school.

The program, which will be school-wide in scope, is under the co-chairmanship of Miss Gladys Elliott, first grade teacher and Mrs. Dorothy Merritt, sixth grade teacher. Miss Elliott also wrote the play, which she adapted from the book, "Silent Night," by Herta Pauli.

Music for the program is under the direction of Miss Margaret Thorp, vocal music teacher, assisted by Miss Jean Maxwell, eurythmics teacher.

Scenery and properties were designed by Miss Harriet Henderson, elementary art teacher, Miss Olene Wildasin, fifth grade teacher, and Mrs. T. Chesler, while the play, in ten scenes, is directed by the faculty of the school.

Programs will be prepared by Miss Ann Flynn, school secretary, and lighting and curtain arrangement will be handled by Miss Audrey Dubow, second grade teacher, and Mrs. Betty Klemm, sixth grade teacher.

Stage crew duties will be handled by four sixth grade students: Robert Gimocchio, Paul Danielson, Janet Peterson and Shirley Smith.

Naval Reserve Unit Cited For "Outstanding" Work

In recognition of "outstanding performance in fiscal 1958," Naval Reserve Electronics Division 3-3, which is housed at Roosevelt School, has been awarded a Navy E Pennant for its ranking in the annual Third Naval District training efficiency competition.

In making the award, Capt. John B. Dudley noted that the Summit division has been a leader in the competitions for the last four years and is currently among the top three divisions in the country.

During the year, each member of the unit spends two weeks on active duty. Commanding officer is LCDR J. A. Nervine of Bernardsville. The unit meets Tuesday evenings at the school and "has room for a few more men."

St. Luke's Church Lists Xmas Morning Service

A Christmas family service will be held at 8 a.m. on Christmas at St. Luke's Reformed Episcopal Church in Murray Hill. The service will begin with an informal Christmas carol sing followed by a prayer service and special sermon for the children.

Rev. Walter Mueller will conclude the service with an adult sermon entitled, "Heralds of His Coming." The whole family is cordially invited to attend this special service.

2 Girl Scouts to Attend Colorado 'Senior Roundup'

Two Girl Scouts from the Summit Area Council have been chosen to represent the local group at the Senior Round-Up to be held next July at Colorado Springs, M. S. Robert Potter, chairman of the selections committee announced today.

The two girls chosen are Mara Dilon of Troop 34 and Joan Bentley, troop 45.

In addition, according to Mrs. Potter, six alternates have also been selected. They include Sue Barr, Nancy Boggie, Phyllis Browne, Nancy Dube, and D'Anne Roessner, all of troop 34, and Pat Jordan of troop 11.

Next month the two representatives and two alternates will be

New Department Heads Named at High School

Two new department heads at Summit High School have been appointed to fill vacancies that will be created by recent resignations for retirement.

Arthur De Brito, Junior High School art department chairman has been named Senior High School art chairman to succeed Miss Adele Hepbron who is retiring. James B. Wiebe also was named chairman of the industrial arts department to replace Holmes A. Cliver, also retiring.

Mr. Wiebe has taught both general and metal shop subjects and is a graduate of Newark State Teachers College and has done post graduate work at N.Y.U. and Newark State Teachers.

Mr. De Brito is a graduate of Rhode Island School of Design with a BS degree in art education and has also studied at Boston University and Teachers College, Columbia, where he received a Master's degree in 1954. He taught art at Rhode Island for three years and came here in 1953 as a member of the Junior High School art department.

Additional substitute teachers approved by the Board of Education are Mrs. Jean Blair, John S. DeVries, Mrs. Jean K. Noble, Mrs. Esther M. White, J. Franklin Fitzgerald and Mrs. Evelyn A. Kandrat.

Christmas Holiday Means Early Deadline

Because of the Christmas Day holiday on Thursday, December 25, the Herald for that week will be delivered one day earlier, on Wednesday, December 24.

Because of the earlier delivery, deadlines for all editorial and advertising copy must be advanced one day. The deadline for display and classified advertising and editorial matter will be 5 p.m. on Monday, December 22, instead of the customary Tuesday. The deadline for photographs will be 12 noon on Monday, December 22.

The cooperation of publicity chairmen of all organizations and advertisers is earnestly requested in observance of this holiday deadline schedule.

The same deadlines will be observed for the New Year's edition on the following week when the deadline will be Monday, December 29 at 5 p.m. so that the Herald may be delivered on Wednesday, December 31.

'Holly Hop' Plans Set by Calvary Young People

Jane Veitch and Wynn Allen, cochairman of Tuesday's "Holly Hop" at the Calvary Episcopal Church, have announced arrangement and entertainment aides.

The dance, jointly sponsored by the Junior and Senior Young Peoples' Fellowship, will be held at the Church Parish House from 8 p.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Vocal entertainment will be provided by two groups. Representing the girls is a quintet featuring Nancy Bonardel, Susan Davis, Doris Meyer, Valerie Walker and Eileen Winters. A male foursome will include James Drover, Duffy MacArthur, Bob and Dave Mason.

Ticket arrangements are being handled by Kirk Callahan and Dave Mason. Valerie Walker, Pam Mortenson and Mary Ellen Calvert comprise the publicity and poster committee. Nancy Bonardel and Louise Hall represent the hospitality committee. Also assisting the dance chairman are Carol Freeman, Libby Richardson and William Todd, all of Summit, and Jean Schwebel of New Providence. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hathaway are in charge of the patrons chaperon committee.

Is your telephone animal, vegetable or mineral? The answer: All three are included in the raw materials from which Bell System telephones are made.

Why Lackawanna May End Its Commuter Service

Editor's Note: Because of the impact on this community of the recent announcement by Perry M. Shoemaker of 200 Kent Place boulevard, president of the Lackawanna Railroad, that commuter service may possibly be discontinued during 1959, The Summit Herald is printing Mr. Shoemaker's statement concerning the proposal in full. The announcement was made in an address given by Mr. Shoemaker before a seminar of the New Jersey Press Association at Rutgers University.)

Always I feel it is a special privilege to meet with the newspaper profession. Our newspapers have traditionally been a guarantee that truth will reach all of our people. Never was it more important than it is today for the people to have ready access to the truth.

As a general observation, there is not a great deal of fundamental difference between the business of mass communication, as exemplified by the newspapers, and the business of mass transportation, as exemplified by the railroads.

We are both service industries with the general public as our customers. You inform and educate people. We transport people and their goods.

I have found, too, that people who make up the newspaper industry and people who make up the railroad industry include more than an average number of dedicated men and women. I know that one has to be dedicated to his job to succeed in the railroad industry. I feel that this is true, too, in the newspaper business.

Another common bond is the feeling that our customers have for us. Some of our patrons believe that they could run a railroad a great deal better than the average railroad executive. You, too, have some customers who are convinced they could run your newspapers a lot better than you do. But by and large we like to feel, just as I am sure you do, that the vast majority of our customers are our friends. We want them to be our friends and we try to live the responsible citizenship that connotes friendliness to the people, communities and industries we serve.

Perhaps it is this common bond of ours that is the underlying reason for the almost unanimous support which the railroad industry has received from the press of this State in its efforts to solve its problems of regulation and taxation. I feel honored at having been invited to address this gathering, but even more I am happy and grateful for the opportunity to meet and personally thank the press family of New Jersey, who have so long recognized the importance of the railroads to a healthy development climate for New Jersey's people and industry. I am sure the 35,000 employees of New Jersey's railroads would want my expression of appreciation to reflect the feeling of all of us.

A moment ago I spoke of the common bond between the railroads and the newspapers as a business. Two of the problems which each of us face today are spiraling costs and competition.

High costs are the subject of discussion whenever railroad presidents get together. I would imagine that this subject is discussed whenever publishers meet. In fact, sometimes a railroad president, all alone, talks to himself about it. Do publishers do that, too?

Rail Pay Up 225%
On this subject of higher costs, I would like to point out that this is not unique in the newspaper business. High costs have affected all business, and particularly the railroad industry.

Using the period between 1937 and the end of 1957, the salary or pay of a printer in New York City increased from $1.07 an hour (Continued on page 15)

Final Square Dance of Year on Top Saturday

The last square dance of the year will be held at the Edison Recreation Center on Saturday at 8:30 p.m. Harlan Kennedy, Director of Recreation, will be the Caller.

The square dances are sponsored by the Saturday Night-Square Dance Committee and the Board of Recreation and are held on the third Saturday night of each month.

Summit Skaters Chalk Up Two More Victories

The last week proved to be a profitable one for the Summit Redwings. On Friday night at Haverstraw the Redwings defeated the New Rochelle High School team 3-1. Gage made 17 saves for Summit compared to 28 for New Rochelle. Jim Karr, first line center, was injured early in the first period and was unable to play out the game. All three of Summit's goals were scored by Clark Torell with assists by Bill Cannon, Rick Morgan, Ron Senet and Keith Van Winkle.

On Saturday morning Summit met Morristown Prep. Tony Cox took over the cage very ably for Bob Gage and held Morristown scoreless. Jim Karr, who was injured the night before, returned to play and scored the first goal. Clark Torell again scored two and Terry Young scored late in the third period to give Summit a 4-0 win. This gives Summit a 4-0 mark for the season.

Girls' Rifle Team Defeats Roselle Club

The Summit PAL girls' rifle team last Sunday was host to the Joyce Egner girls' rifle team of Roselle for an invitation match at the local PAL range on Union place with the local shooters winning the match with a score of 666 to 662.

The Summit team served refreshments of cakes, cookies, soda and pizza following the match.

The top four Summit team contestants and their scores were Connie Schott, 170; Jane Newbury, 168; Nancy Farnsworth, 167, and Carolyn Montuori, 161.

Also participating in the match were Gail Reinheimer, Mary Ann Elia, Carol Townsend, Nancy Hill and Etta Montuori.

In other matters, Council received notice from the Zoning Board of Adjustment that a public hearing will be held Monday, December 22, at 8 p.m., at city hall, on the request of the Red Cross for special exception use for a building on Springfield avenue.

At the same time, Council also received a letter from the Board of Recreation recommending that the plan to permit coasting on public streets be dropped. The recommendation was referred to the public welfare committee.

Other business included the granting of licenses to 11 boarding or lodging houses, one kennel, one pool parlor, one theatre, one dance hall, five junkmen, 13 ped-

Annual Yule Mail

There will also be one delivery on Sunday.

Mr. Dunsmore urged that to make the job of delivery more efficient, cards and gift packages should be addressed correctly, using complete addresses, including street number, rural route or post office box number.

There was an indication that the increased postal rates have not affected the volume of mail since Mr. Dunsmore thought that the annual deluge "might hit record proportions."

Service patients come to the hospital in various ways, Heinlein said. In some cases, they are referred to Overlook by physicians; some are sent by the Welfare Department; others come of their own initiative; and emergency cases are brought by police.

Whatever action the hospital's board of trustees may take, Heinlein emphasized, no emergency case will ever be turned away.

to $3.42 an hour. That is an increased rate of about 220%. I would suppose that similar increases took place in newspapers everywhere.

On the Lackawanna Railroad during the period 1937-1937, the average compensation of one of our largest groups of employees, our clerks and freight handlers, was increased more than 225%, plus the so-called fringe benefits which now add about 20% to direct railroad payroll costs. Incidentally, 1938 brought payroll increases of twelve cents per hour more, or $2,160,000 additional per year.

The same thing is true of the materials we purchase. In those days of 1937, newspaper was selling for $42.50 per ton; steel in Pittsburgh was $16.80 per ton. But in 1937, newspaper was $134 a ton, up 218%, while steel had gone to $74 per ton, up 340%. And as you probably realize, a railroad uses considerable steel in its operations; just as you do newspaper.

I mention these figures merely to show that both the railroads' and newspapers' high costs are typical of an inflationary economy. While we do not like it, we have to live with it.

I suppose that you of the newspaper business too have endeavored to offset these rising costs by efficiency, on the one hand and rate increases on the other. Would it surprise you to know that while railroad costs are up more than 200% since 1937, the cumulative effect of our freight rate increases has been but 122%, and that our revenue per ton mile, because of traffic diversion and change in commodity transportation characteristics, has increased but 54%?

Just as the early newspapers, as an instrument of communication, were superior to the old town crier and to notices tacked on a town hall door, so were the early railroads, as an instrument of transportation, superior to the turnpikes and canals.

Unlike the newspapers, the railroads were not able to enjoy their natural superiority for any great length of time. The heavy hand of government regulation was soon upon the rails and it was not long before government was exercising its functions of management in the railroad industry.

Your competitors and ours in those days, however, were people like ourselves, that is — other newspapers and other railroads. But in the years following World War I both of us were beset by new forms of competition. For the newspapers it was the radio and to some extent the news magazines competing for the communication dollar. For the railroads, it was the vast system of government-tax-exempt highways and government's financing and developing of the tax-exempt waterways — competing for the transportation dollar.

Uncle Sam a Competitor

What did you do about your competition? Many newspapers acquired radio stations. Some entered the news magazine field. You were engaged in a free and open contest to determine which media was best or to determine the rightful place of each media in the field of communication.

In our case, the railroads suddenly found themselves competing with Uncle Sam, himself — and may I say, the public treasury.

First of all, the railroads were prohibited from entering other forms of transportation — by the same government which had turned out to be the "not so silent" partner of our competition. Second, the government instituted the vicious practice of protecting the highway and water carriers in the matter of competitive rates. The Transportation Act of 1938 may have improved our situation in that respect, but test cases are still undecided. All of this meant that while government was providing our competitors with a roadbed, or equivalent thereof, signal systems and oil maintenance, the railroads were denied the right to use their natural superiority as the most economical form of transportation.

Now no one, the railroads least of all, can object to the building of highways for the people to travel from place to place in their own automobiles. But the railroads do object when the government builds highways on tax-free land to the specifications of the heavy over-the-road truck, which competes against us for the transportation dollar. Do you realize that maintenance alone of our

Tandberg STEREO

MIRACLE TAPE RECORDER

Records 17 1/2 hours of music on one reel of TAPE

PLAYS ALL TAPES

HIGH FIDELITY & STEREOGRAPHIC

First of its kind! Records four tracks, one at a time monaurally or two at a time stereophonically. Frequency Response is 30 to 20,000 cycles.

ALL THESE HIGH FIDELITY STEREO FEATURES

• 4-Track ERASE HEAD erases one track at a time or two tracks at a time — erase unwanted recordings without affecting other recordings on the same tape. • Two matched amplifier systems and a Hi-Fi speaker completely self-contained in distinctively styled mahogany wood cabinet. • Amplifier systems can be used as PA or audio amplifiers for record changers or radios, stereo or monaural. • Three operating speeds 1 1/2 - 3 1/4 - 7 1/2 I.P.S. • Separate "hand-tailored luggage case" for portability. • Automatic tape stop prevents tape from winding off the reels at end of each play. • Long-Life MOTOR SWITCH shuts off motor automatically when not recording or playing tape. • Foot-proof Ease of operation. A magic lever controls tape start-stop; rewind, fast forward, record-play. • For use in audiophile component systems, Special Switch bypasses built-in amplifier systems.

Record tapes of memorable events, favorite Radio or TV programs, Stereo broadcasts; you can record your phonograph Records, or new stereo Discs on tape and thus have a permanent master copy that won't wear out or get scratched.

TANDBERG CRAFTSMANSHIP

Nothing equals the skill of trained hands. Tandberg craftsmen carefully make all precision parts and magnetic heads. These heads are built up of 99% pure iron laminations, insulated from each other, so that the head generates unusually high and pure audio current. They do not change characteristics and efficiency, even after many years of use.

highway plant is exceeding $5½ billion (1955 figures) and that the federal expense alone under the Federal Highway Aid Act of 1956 will exceed $2 billion per year for sixteen years, with but a small amount recovered by nominal excise taxes?

As you know, a highway for the heavy truck requires the elimination of steep grades, it must be considerably wider, clearances must be higher, and the pavement itself must be thicker and its foundations deeper.

An Ohio highway expert has estimated that it costs 130% more to build a highway for heavy trucks than it does for private autos and light trucks.

In passing, I might mention that in New Jersey the trucks have pretty much of a free ride. Most of them are registered in other states, and unless they purchase gasoline here, which the majority do not, they pay nothing for using our highways. And in New Jersey we have been paying $2.75 in federal taxes for each dollar of "State aid", so our joy ride in highway construction is worse than it appears.

I wonder what your newspaper publishers would do if the government suddenly decided to erect radio transmitters and maintained them for your competitors. Suppose, further, the government would not allow you to make competitive rates because radio stations had to be protected?

That is just about what we of the railroads have been up against.

That, you may say, was grossly unfair, but let us see what the years after World War II brought us.

To newspapers, another competitor for the communication dollar appeared in the guise of television. To the railroads came the commercial airplane.

Air Lines Subsidized
Television, I am told, is pretty expensive to operate, and its customers had to invest considerable money in receivers. In this field, too, the newspapers entered and many acquired stations. Against this form of competition you were permitted to compete in any method you were able.

What has happened to our airline competitors? First of all the government subsidized them to insure they would operate at a profit. Then the public built them free signal systems and constructed airports, which they have the use of for a token payment.

Once again the heavy hand of government said that the railroads could not enter this form of transportation. In other words, the government was setting up a competitor of the railroads, financed by public funds and insured by public funds against loss.

As newspapermen, try to visualize what your newspapers would say if you were compelled to pay taxes to meet a deficit for the operation of competing radio and television stations in your area. The railroads do just that for their highway and air competitors.

Congress and some states have taken cognizance of the discriminatory rules and regulations which are strangling the railroads. At the last session of Congress legislation was enacted which is the first forward step, we hope, toward solving our problems on the federal level. In some states, too, action has been taken toward alleviating the tax burden under which railroads operate.

But, gentlemen, New Jersey is NOT one of them.

The railroad industry in New Jersey is faced with the problem of a deficit-ridden commuter passenger service plagued by exorbitantly discriminatory taxes.

Chief Justice Marshall, in 1819, said that the power to tax is the power to destroy. Today, New Jersey's railroad tax policy is destroying the industry.

As you all know, railroad taxes here are five times the national average. In fact, the industry's tax bill in New Jersey is about $10,344 per mile of road. This means that the railroads of this State paid the New Jersey tax collector about $18.5 million this year. Of this amount Hudson County alone receives more than 60%. Of the Class II property taxes of the railroads which are distributed back to the counties, Hudson County takes more than 75% of the total.

While I am on the subject of taxes, I would like to call your attention to two statements which have appeared in the press. One is that because of the $1.20 rate on a narrow 100-foot right-of-way and on locomotives and cars, the railroads pay at a rate less than half that covering other taxpayers.

The facts are these:
In 1957, the composite average property tax rate for all, including Class II, railroad property was $3.94 per $100 valuation. The average local tax rate for the State was $3.30.

Assessed at 100%

Now these facts don't tell the real story because it is meaningless to compare tax rates without regard to the level at which the properties were assessed. Railroad property is assessed at 100% of true value while other property is assessed on a state-wide average of 28%. Obviously if all property was assessed at 100% of value the $3.30 rate would be well below the railroad average of $3.94.

The other confusing statement which has been quoted in the press is that total railroad taxes paid today are no greater than those paid in 1939. This kind of a statement completely disregards the amount of attrition there has been in railroad property in the past twenty years. In Hudson County alone there have been 1-100 acres of land, with an assessed valuation of $22.2 million, which the railroads have abandoned because they could not afford to pay the taxes.

Gentlemen, this is not taxation. It is confiscation — and for the most part by a single county.

If a newspaper publisher was confronted with problems such as these, he could sell his building, pick up his equipment and move somewhere else. But if we feel that our tax burden in Hudson County is confiscatory — and we do — we cannot dispose of our terminals and relocate (although we are trying) for we are not, as a generalization, selling a product that can be produced in some other county or state. In other words, we are substantially a captive source of tax revenue.

I suppose that some of you newspapermen here are thinking, "If I got a confiscatory tax bill like that I just wouldn't pay it. I'd let the State try and sue me for it," since we all are entitled to fair assessments.

Well, we paid our taxes on December 1. Not because we are not convinced that they are still unjust and confiscatory. We paid them because those taxes were "due and delinquent" on December 1, with interest at one per cent per month, or a penalty of 12% a year on any unpaid balance, and we were able to do so in 1958, in the face of heavy operating losses, largely because of a non-recurring retroactive mail pay adjustment. This provided $1.6 million of the Lackawanna's December 1 tax bill of $2.6 million. Minimum maintenance consistent with safety — salary cuts and property sales provided (Continued on page 27)

Tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. Brayton School will present its annual Christmas program which will feature a play, "Why the Chimes Rang."

The play tells the story of chimes in a cathedral which ring only when a great gift is given. The famous and the rich come bearing gifts but the chimes remain silent until two poor boys present their gift.

Narrators are Ann Kendall, Mitchell Wilk and David O'Brien. Cast members are High Moore, John Marcelliano, Linda Henschel, Paul Horbatt, Andrew Balch, Jane Totten, Linda Bratz, Annette Quader, Diane Larsen, Andy Wilk, Bobby Kaus, Betsy Proctor, Chappy Ostrander, Caroline, Noel, Kathleen McKenna, Jeffrey Sharts, Vincent Brennan, Richard Meisner, Candy Smith, Donald Detjen, Patty Brannan, Tina Sharts, Jimmy Banker and Barbara McLean.

Richard Francois and Donald Gilman are in charge of lighting and Thomas Delaney, Gregory Britt, Paul Prather, Steven Starr, Michael Chelov and Joseph Melillo are stage hands.

Deborah Hopkins, Pamela Dietrich, Christi Limbach and Charlene Whitlock painted the scenery and the stained glass window was painted by Deborah Hopkins and Pamela Dietrich. The prompter is Nancy Ostrander.

A Wishbone ... A Family Cat ... and A Boy's Faith

Scientific evidence, not withstanding, it would take a lot of convincing for one Summit family to believe that one, well-dried, reliable wishbone is not able to perform miracles.

Over on Beekman road, about two weeks ago, around Thanksgiving, one very well-loved black cat, name of Chipper, disappeared and nought could be found of him.

In spite of the fact that Chipper had lived with the family since early childhood, since he is six months old, he did not return.

Realizing that their plight was lost, the family tried to secure the substitute services of an angora kitten, but alas, this, too, fell through.

Peace and serenity again descended on Beekman road, this week when the small boy of the house loudly wished that Chipper might return. And, sure enough, the breaking of the well-dried Thanksgiving wishbone worked: Chipper came home the very next day.

'Tis More Blessed to Give ...

Andy is nine years old, and that makes him almost grown-up.

Andy went Christmas shopping last Saturday—for the first time in his life. In the pocket of his well-worn jeans was a small brown envelope and in the envelope were five crisp new one-dollar bills.

To the little fellow, that easily could have been all the money in the world.

His Christmas list was a small one. Only three items. He had made it up days in advance, so that by now—as he started out on his shopping tour of Summit stores—it was well memorized. In fact, Andy knew exactly what store and what counter held the gifts he had in mind: a bracelet for his older sister, a big fluffy animal for his two-year-old brother, and a warm wool scarf for his widowed mother.

Andy was good at arithmetic, too. The bracelet cost $1.25, the stuffed animal $1.25, and the scarf $2.30. That left him 7 cents, which is about as close as a youngster can figure.

When he had finished his task, Andy let out a sigh of relief. But anyone could tell, from the sparkle in his eye, that the youngster was pleased with his accomplishment. He knew that 7 cents left nothing of material value for Andy—except perhaps a pack of gum. But, as we said, he was almost grown-up, and he realized—probably more than most folks many years his senior—that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

Which was the whole purpose of Andy's shopping tour.

Andy really isn't the boy's name. But that's not important. He was one of 40 underprivileged youngsters who were taken on their annual Christmas shopping tour by members of the Summit Area Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Each youngster, armed with $5 and escorted by a Jaycee "dad-for-the-day," was given the opportunity (for some, their FIRST opportunity) to buy Christmas gifts for his family and friends. And they had a ball.

When the shopping was finished, they gathered at the Odd Fellows Hall for a gift-wrapping party, refreshments, Christmas carols and a visit and gifts from Santa Claus.

Toys distributed by Santa were donated to the Jaycees by Hobby Hall and chocolate milk by Brennan's Dairy Farm. Cakes and cookies—as well as expert gift-wrapping services—were provided by wives of Jaycees.

And, finally, the entire day was made possible with the cooperation of the merchants' division of the Summit Area Chamber of Commerce.

As Jaycee Shopping Chairman Frank MacKain summed up: "It was work and it was fun, but it was the most satisfying project we Jaycees have ever undertaken."

School Chorus to Sing At Grand Central Today

Under the direction of Daniel Kautzman, the 60-voice Summit High School chorus will present its eleventh annual Christmas music program today at 4:30 p.m. in Grand Central Station. The half hour program will include the singing of 12 Christmas carols.

The chorus' annual Christmas entertainment for the area service clubs was held on Tuesday before a joint meeting of the Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary and Exchange Clubs at the Hotel Suburban. The entertainment also included three carols played by a clarinet quartet under the direction of Harry Hannaford. Mr. Kautzman led the chorus.

The Pilgrims may have gotten the idea for their day of thanks from the "harvest home" celebration of the folks back home. Research experts with The World Book Encyclopedia reveal the English feasted on plum pudding and roast beef after the last load of grain had been carried home from the fields.

Little Symphony Shows Gain In Opening Concert

By Janet Cabrera

A program well within the capabilities of both soloist and orchestra was chosen for the Colonial Little Symphony Society's opening concert of the 1958-59 season heard at the Madison Junior High School auditorium last Wednesday evening. The guest artist, Lazlo Varga, first cellist of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, lent his considerable talents and stage presence to a couple of time-honored numbers for solo cello and orchestra: Joseph Haydn's Concerto and Tchaikovsky's Variations on a Rococo Theme. The concerto, so often heard in students' recitals, became again, in Mr. Varga's expert hands, the virtuoso piece intended by the composer. The soloist did not romp through the work, although one had the impression that he could toss off its technicalities with a minimum of effort. Rather, each note was given its just due whether majestic and full-throated in the slower passages or limpid and lightning-quick in the allegros. The cadenza was a musical gem. The Tchaikovsky rendition was memorable chiefly for its lyric romanticism, since never a scrapping bow or thumping string in its more difficult passages marred the effortless flow of the music. "Rococo" might well describe the mood of the evening's program, though chronologically ranging from Handel's Water Music Suite, the opening work, to Stravinsky's Suite No. 20 for Orchestra, the concluding offering. The modern work could not be called fresh or exciting but the archaic charms of the earlier ones gave a satisfyingly quiet pleasure and the playing was superior. The orchestra's conductor, Nicholas Harsanyi, is a perceptive musician and an exacting taskmaster, who has the gift of communicating his wishes to his players who, in turn, respond with a performance that can be favorably compared with larger, professional organizations. The core of the group which Mr. Harsanyi has assembled under his baton has rehearsed and played together since the orchestra's inception seven years ago, with increasing gratification to its members and pleasure to its audiences.

TAX FACTS #2 Don't Pay Tax on Non-taxable Items

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.)

You may think that listing your income is the easiest part of preparing a tax return. Actually, according to the Internal Revenue Service, this is where taxpayers make the greatest number of errors.

Not all of the money that may have come to you during 1958 needs to be reported on your tax form. For example, don't report:

- (1) "Dividends" received on an insurance policy. They are considered merely a refund of part of the premium you paid.
- (2) Social Security benefits, Railroad Retirement Act benefits, or payments received under Workmen's Compensation laws.
- (3) Property or cash gifts received from other people, although the giver may have to pay a gift tax. Tips and other compensation for services must be reported, however.
- (4) Inheritances and bequests. The estate may be taxed, but not the recipient.

If you were injured and received damages, this is not considered taxable income and it makes no difference whether your damages were awarded by a court or settled out of court.

When listing income you can also forget about most government benefits to veterans and their families. Dividends paid on veteran's Government insurance is not considered taxable income, but non-disability retirement pay and the interest on terminal leave bonds must be included.

Sick Pay Benefits
If you were absent from work due to injury or sickness and received payments from your employer or his insurance company, these payments are non-taxable within these two limitations:

First, the maximum amount is $100 per week, plus any amounts which came from your own contribution to the plan.

Christmas Holiday Means Early Deadline

Because of the Christmas Day holiday on Thursday, December 25, the Herald for that week will be delivered one day earlier, on Wednesday, December 24.

Because of the earlier delivery, deadlines for all editorial and advertising copy must be advanced one day. The deadline for display and classified advertising and editorial matter will be 5 p.m. on Monday, December 22, instead of the customary Tuesday. The deadline for photographs will be 11 noon on Monday, December 22.

The cooperation of publicity chairmen of all organizations and advertisers is earnestly requested in observance of this holiday deadline schedule.

The same deadlines will be observed for the New Year's edition on the following week when the deadline will be Monday, December 29 at 5 p.m. so that the Herald may be delivered on Wednesday, December 31.

able, and the value of the award does not have to be included in the student's contribution to his support.

The official instructions contain a list of the types of income which should or should not be included in your tax return. It is important to check this list carefully.

Pumpkin pie is almost as much a part of Thanksgiving as the story of the Pilgrims. But it wasn't on the Pilgrim menu. According to research experts with The World Book Encyclopedia, the early colonists probably didn't know what to do with the strange vegetable.

Insurance Firm Honors Local Man at Dinner

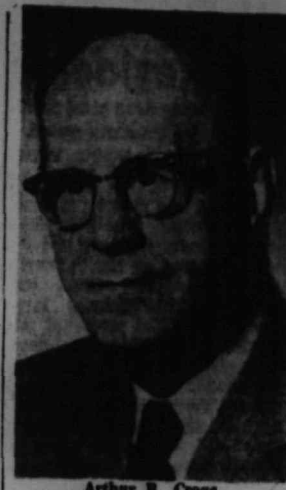

Arthur B. Cross of 145 Ashland Road, vice president in charge of the casualty claim department of America Fore Loyalty Group insurance companies, was one of 12 officers honored at a dinner last Friday at Newark.

Mr. Cross, who has been with the firm for 32 years, was presented with a transistor radio. Born in Baltimore, Md., Mr. Cross received his LL.B. degree from Baltimore Law School and attended courses at the Georgetown University Law School.

He entered the insurance field in 1916 with the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company where he rose to the position of superintendent of claims for the State of Texas. In 1925 he went with the Standard Accident Insurance Co. in Detroit as bond claim superintendent.

He joined the Metropolitan Casualty Insurance Company of New York in 1926 as a secretary and superintendent of fidelity and surety bond claims. In 1930 he was appointed a secretary of all Loyalty companies. He was appointed a second vice president of the Loyalty companies in 1942 and a vice president in 1958.

During World War I, Mr. Cross served 15 months in France with the 125th and 644th Aero Squadrons. He has been vice chairman of the casualty advisory committee of the General Adjustment Bureau and a member of the insurance section of the American Bar Association. He is a member of the American Judicature Society and the Newark Athletic Club.

Yule Pageant at Christ Church Set for Sunday

Under the direction of Mrs. Constance Loux, the Christmas pageant "The Old, Old Story" will be presented at Christ Church, Summit, on Sunday, at 4:30 p.m. Mrs. Loux is in charge of the Children's Theater productions.

Heading the cast, Sarah Ridings will depict Mary, and Joseph Hazen 3rd will be Joseph. Seven angels will be portrayed by Susan Barr, Barbara Gardner, Libby Hazen, Nancy Hill, Jan Hobbs, Jean McAlpine and Dhuane Schmitz. David Arrott, Lindsey Hobbs and Charles Robinson will enact the traditional Shepherd's roles while David Barr, Richard Morgan and John Spooner will be featured as the Magi Kings. Candle lighters will be David Manley, Jared Rodgers, Paul Van de Water, and John Youngdahl.

Music for the pageant will be supplied by the two choirs. The Senior choir is under the direction of Miss Lorraine Adams, of the Union School of Music, New York City. Miss Patti Hoover, of Drew University, has trained the Junior Choir of 20 voices.

Lighting for the production will be supervised by Dennis Riard and Peter Young. Mrs. Donald Horton is in charge of makeup.

The pageant will be held in the Church sanctuary and immediately following the service, there will be a tea in the Church Parish Room. The event is open to the public.

Methodist Church to Hold Two Services Sunday

The Methodist Church will hold two services on Sunday morning, December 21. The family service will begin at 9 a.m. in the sanctuary when the Carol choir, under the direction of Mrs. Robinson, and the Junior choir, directed by Miss Betty Clark, will sing. There will also be special Christmas music at the 11 a.m. service. The Junior High Youth Fellowship will go carolling in the afternoon.

There will be a worship service, "Big of Light and Joy," at 11 p.m. in the sanctuary on Christmas Eve.

DIAMOND BARGAINS

REMOVED FROM THIS FANTASTIC EVA PERON NECKLACE AND SOLD TO BUSCH & SONS BY THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT

EACH GEM ON SALE UNSET OR MOUNTED IN A SETTING OF YOUR CHOICE AT SAVINGS TO 1/2 THEIR APPRAISAL VALUE

Busch & Sons Bargain Scoops have made Diamond History. Remember when the U. S. Government sold us their Smuggled diamonds, the Famous Hetty Green and Gloria Vanderbilt and other important Estates? Here is the greatest of them all—fabulous diamonds belonging to Evita Peron and sold to Mr. Busch by the Argentine Government who liquidated her estates.

Every diamond is magnificently brilliant and lovely fine—white color and expert cutting makes them exceedingly brilliant and full of fire—truly beautiful to behold. Some are flawless, some have natural imperfections that can be detected only with magnification by a trained eye—some are not so slight, but every one is a "Once in a Lifetime" Bargain. A written guarantee of the color, weight and degree of imperfection goes with every one. If you are becoming engaged this Christmas or want to re-live those joyous wedding days of yesteryear with a larger diamond your "Bride" has been waiting for for years—how can you miss this thrilling OPPORTUNITY? Besides a liberal trade-in allowance on your present diamond, you may divide payment to suit your budget.

Always remember—it's the store behind the Low Price that counts. Every transaction carries Busch & Sons dependable guarantee—backed by three generations of fair dealing and integrity—plus their ironclad "5-Day Refund Privilege." Secure your early selection with a small deposit.

Heights Teachers Seeking Boost in Salary Schedule

Berkeley Heights—The Berkeley Heights Teachers' Association is seeking a new maximum salary schedule for teachers in the Berkeley Heights school system. The Association is asking the Board of Education to revise the present minimum salary schedule so that new teachers would start at no less than $4,500, $4,800, $4,900, and $5,100 depending on training, and would, after 13 years, receive at least $7,650, $7,950, $8,050, and $8,350 according to Arthur F. Conk Jr., salary committee chairman.

Teachers with four years' training and holding a Bachelor degree would start at $4,500, receiving $200 increments for the first three years and then would receive $250 increments for the next ten years reaching a maximum of $7,650. Teachers with 30 additional hours graduate training would start at $4,800, advancing the same way until $7,950 is reached. Teachers with a Master's degree would start at $4,900, advancing the same way until $8,050 is reached. Teachers with a Master's degree would start at $4,900 advancing to $8,

Heights Honors Smythe

Berkeley Heights — Outgoing Township Committeeman Luther M. Smythe and his wife were honored at a party Sunday evening at Keller's Grove by some 85 township officials and employees.

The dinner party was given in recognition of Mr. Smythe's three years of service to the township as a member of the committee. Mr. Smythe did not run for reelection in November and will turn over his place on the committee to John Lombardi on January 1.

The Smythe's were presented with a transistor radio.

050, while teachers with a Doctorate degree would begin at $5,800 and would advance until a maximum of $8,350 is reached. This proposal would take effect for the school year 1959-60.

Christmas Holiday Means Early Deadline

Because of the Christmas Day holiday on Thursday, December 25, the Herald for that week will be delivered one day earlier, on Wednesday, December 24.

Because of the earlier delivery, deadlines for all editorial and advertising copy must be advanced one day. The deadline for display and classified advertising and editorial matter will be 5 p.m. on Monday, December 22, instead of the customary Tuesday. The deadline for photographs will be 12 noon on Monday, December 22.

The cooperation of publicity chairmen of all organizations and advertisers is earnestly requested in observance of this holiday, deadline schedule.

The same deadlines will be observed for the New Year's edition on the following week when the deadline will be Monday, December 29, at 5 p.m. so that the Herald may be delivered on Wednesday, December 31.

oter Registry Urged for Coming School Elections

New Providence — Borough and Berkeley Heights residents this week were urged by the New Providence League of Women Voters to be properly registered so that they may be eligible to vote in school elections in both communities that will be held February 10.

Residents are reminded that election laws specify that a voter must be at least six months in the state and 60 days in the county prior to the election date (February 10). Voters must register prior to January 1.

Berkeley Heights residents may register at the Township Hall, clerk's office, or the Union County Board of Elections, Court House, Elizabeth. New Providence residents may register at the Borough clerk's office and also the County Board of Elections.

All are reminded by the League that local tax bills will reflect school expenditures.

New Boro Health Code Fees Will Affect Many Residents

New Providence — Jack Pearl, president of the Borough Board of Health, has pointed out that the recently revised Borough Sanitary Code which became effective October 11 makes mandatory a number of permits that were not required previously.

As of January 1, all public places where food is manufactured, prepared, sold or served, must apply for a Health Board permit and display the permit in a prominent place. This applies not only to retailers but to private schools and industrial cafeterias as well. There is no charge for a permit, however, and they may be obtained by applying in person at the Borough Hall.

In addition, anyone operating a nursery or day school, boarding home, convalescent home, maternity home, home for the aged or other similar types of private or semi-private institution must now secure a license to operate the same from the Board of Health at a fee of $10.

Failure to apply for either the permit or license can result in a fine and closing down of the facility in question, Pearlthree stated.

Homeowners are likewise affected by the new code in several respects. Those planning to build private swimming pools on their property must apply for and receive a Board of Health permit before undertaking actual construction. This includes large plastic pools. The purpose of this regulation, Pearlthree explained, is simply to make sure that pools are adequately fenced to keep children from inadvertently toppling in, and to also assure that pools will not be so close to property lines as to constitute a "nuisance" to neighbors.

Persons desiring to keep horses, cattle, sheep and other large animals must apply to the Board in writing for a permit, stating the types of animals involved, the number, and the facilities for keeping them. The annual fee is $5. Those who want to keep small animals and fowls (other than dogs, cats and pet birds) outside of their house must inform the Board of their intent (a post card will do); if the small animals are to be kept in the house, however, a permit is required, and the annual fee is $2.

"The purpose of these and other changes in the Sanitary Code," Pearlthree said, "is not to raise funds or to work a hardship on anyone, but to provide the Borough residents with up-to-date protection in all matters of the public health."

The new Sanitary Code, which was several years in the writing, is the first revision since 1923. Copies of the Code may be obtained at the Borough Hall for $1.

JR. Prisco says IT'S A FACT!

SANTA CLAUS WAS NOT ORIGINALLY FAT AND HE HAD NO REINDEER.

I GET NO GOES BY AIRPLANE

In Holland "Saint Nicholas" was austere and dignified as became a bishop and a saint. He rode abroad on a donkey, and still does in portions of Europe. In America he developed into the fat, jolly fellow we all know and love. 1.—"Story of Santa Klaus"—Wm. S. Walsh.

OWNER REPORTS—

"SAVED 50% OF OUR FUEL OIL"

WE CHANGED TO A WINKLER LP*

LOW PRESSURE OIL BURNER

Owner writes: "In checking my oil supply, I find that the installation of a Winkler Low Pressure Oil Burner has cut my oil consumption exactly 50%. I might add that the high pressure burner I took out was a new burner, not an old one. Have needed no service so far and no soot cleaning either."

R. E. Rockwell, Tacoma, Wash.

HERE ARE THE REASONS WHY—

The Winkler LP* burns as little as 1/2 gallon per hour—can be accurately sized to the capacity of your heating plant. Hence, no heat is wasted up the chimney. Non-clogging nozzle permits burning all grades of domestic fuel oil—amazingly reduces service costs.

WHY WE BELIEVE IN SANTA CLAUS

To be sure, he has his detractors: Some call him a fraud... a pickpocket... a pagan deity... a commercial trickster. Some say he isn't real.

But of course he is real. We can see him, touch him, talk to him everywhere at Christmas time. And what is he—merely an actor in a red suit? Oh, no, far more than that! Santa Claus is the mighty symbol of a mighty spirit:

HE IS THE SYMBOL OF THE SPIRIT OF GIVING

And we know this spirit is real, and that its place is in the hearts of all men.

Praise be for this spirit and for its symbol. Santa Claus, our faith in you grows only greater every year.

Merry Christmas Everyone!

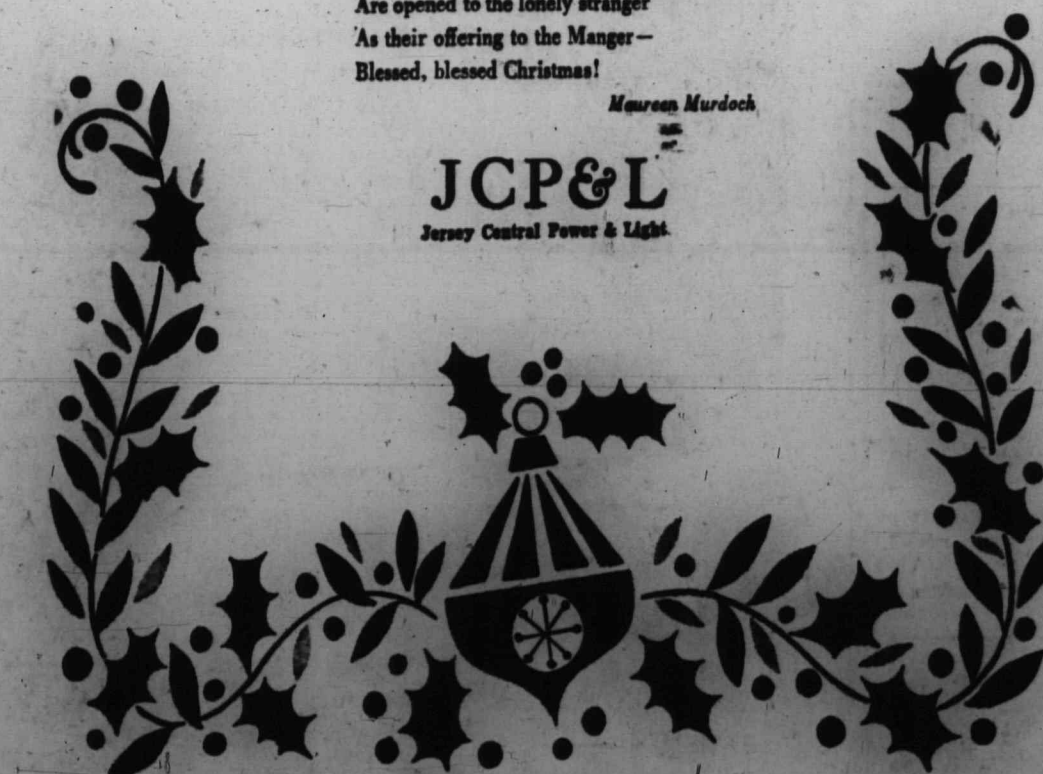

To little children everywhere—
Reluctant feet upon the stair,
Eyes filled with wonder, ears that hear
Elfin sleighbells drawing near—
Merry, merry Christmas!

To parents who so lovingly
Have decked the star-crowned Christmas Tree,
Then join their neighbors as they go
Caroling across the snow—
Happy, happy Christmas!

To men of good will, far and wide,
Whose hearts and homes this Christmastide
Are opened to the lonely stranger
As their offering to the Manger—
Blessed, blessed Christmas!

Frantzen, Johnston Keglers in Slugfest For League Lead

Chell Frantzen and Ken Johnston's Sport Shop continued their battle for first place in the City Girls' bowling league last Tuesday evening at Berkeley Lanes, with both clubs posting 2-1 victories.

Chell Frantzen lost the opening game to Sweet Kleen Laundry as Gayle Sterling sparked the win for Sweet Kleen, but rallied to take the middle and final games as Mary Pennucci and Ann Luciano provided the scoring punch. Ginny Wyatt (478), Charlotte Leonard (458), and Jackie Kukal (419) were the standouts for Ken Johnston's as they rolled to an odd game win over Summit Trust Co. Helen Bahr's 201 opening game and 320 series were the high for the evening.

Miss Nellie won 2-1 over Joseph Tokash Realtors to drive into a possible tie for third place in the league standings. Strand Market won 2 games from the American Legion with Meta McMans (458), and Dot McElgunn (485), the spark.

DeLuxe won the opening game from Bond Furniture on the strength of a top opening game by Dot Hall, then lost the middle and final games as Lee DiGirolomo posted a 170 middle game and a 445 set to spark the double win.

Nijon Posts Double Win Over League Leading Esso
Nijon Office Services posted a double win over league leading Truesdell Esso last Tuesday at Berkeley Lanes to tighten the Berkeley Recreation Bowling league standings.

Ram Electric won all three games from Amiano Bros., Coddington's and Crestview Air Conditioning also won 3-0 over Mazzucco Liquors and the Elks, respectively. Summit T. V. won 2 games from Pagon Glass in a battle of second division clubs. High games were rolled by Len Vans 211-306-223 for a 640 pinfall. Joe Kawan and Johnny Phillippi tied with 234 single game efforts.

Center Stationers Bow 3-0 to Hotel Suburban

Gloria Robinson (493) and Camille Fricke (471), provided the scoring punch as Hotel Suburban rolled to a sweep over Center Stationers last Wednesday evening at Berkeley Lanes.

Ida Serritella (478), and Rose Burnet (454), sparked Harry's Esso to a 2-1 win over William's Market to retain first place by a narrow margin as Nijon's lost ground by losing all three games to Donewell Cleaners. Ginger Ale posted a spectacular 500 series, with Dot Siebert's 452 set helping as Donewell garnered 4 points.

Es and Bud won 3 points by winning the odd game of the series with Montgomery. Gert Clullo and Helen Bascom were the top bowlers for their respective team. Lott's Behrens rolled a sparkling 479 series as Bill's Shell came back from an opening game loss to post a 3 point victory.

Berkeley Captures Lead By 2-1 Win Over Richland

Berkeley Pharmacy captured first place in the Berkeley Heights Township Bowling League last Monday evening by gaining a 2-1 victory over Richland Company.

Lillian Reiman and Lorraine Klebaur were the standouts for the new leaders, with Shirley Caporaso and Ann Kassak the best bets for the losers. Delia's Liquor Store surprised Keller's Grove as they rolled to a 3-0 victory. Marie Amodeo posted a 167 in the finale and a 414 set to lead Delia's, with Ruth Huby's 3-game 431 the top effort for Keller's Grove.

All other series were decided 2-1, with Crestview Agency winning over Dogwood Lane, Delia Builders over Berkeley Bakery, and David's Electrical Shop trimming Serritella News. High series were rolled by Marge Scheer (441), Kathy Howe (441), Ida Serritella (468), Shirley Houck posting the top single game (180) and a 436 set.

Thus 89%, or $2.5 million of Lackawanna's property taxes, go to Hudson County which therefor exacts its toll against every passenger and every pound of freight we carry. Small wonder that Lackawanna's $25 million of New Jersey taxes in the past ten years resulted in no earnings from freight and passenger transportation in the State in the same period.

$18½ Million Tax Bill

The eleven major railroads of New Jersey in the period 1941-1957 — including the heavy-traffic War Years — paid an average of approximately $1.70 in taxes for every dollar of net income earned.

The very nature of your responsibility to the public, as newspaper men and women, requires your objective analysis of matters affecting the public interest. What is your analysis of the justification of Hudson County exacting such tribute — more than $11 million annually — from the railroad industry? This is the same county which has been so liberal in taking property off the tax rolls for the Port Authority facilities and for the New Jersey Turnpike Extension, with their supporting network of new highways, all of which compete with our railroad tax-paying facilities.

Can it be any surprise to you to have me state to you that we are at the end of our rope?

In the Lackawanna's case, our New Jersey tax bill is just about the amount of our suburban passenger service and ferry deficit, the two items totaling almost 5½ million each year, after adjusting so as not to include taxes twice. That is what our freight shippers and stockholders have been paying in a subsidy and tribute.

Must Lift All Taxes

At the request of the railroads, there has been introduced in the Assembly A-545, which would eliminate taxes on passenger facilities — thus putting this part of our property on a parity with the tax-free highways and airports. The bill is not out of Committee. If passed, it would reduce Lackawanna's tax bill by but $745,000. It is not enough.

The railroads must be relieved of all taxes upon transportation property. Only then will our property approach parity with highways and airports, which serve both our freight and passenger competition.

If this is not done quickly — and I mean just that — it is the plan of the Lackawanna, forced by a working capital deficit, to stop all suburban passenger service as promptly as possible. Plans for this are far advanced and our initial moves in that direction are scheduled for the late spring of 1959.

In the absence of action by the State — and it would require political courage which our Governor and the Legislators could exercise — we have no alternative. No management of a private enterprise can sit idly by and permit discriminatory taxation to bankrupt it. We have been contravened in the Courts. We have been frustrated in the Division of Tax Appeals. What would you do?

In closing, blunt as my words may seem to have been, I would emphasize to you the deep consciousness of public interest which New Jersey's railroads have shown for more than a century. If we are compelled by virtue of discriminatory taxes to partially or completely stop serving the public — and I strongly believe that continuing rail service, freight and passenger, is fundamental to the continuing social and industrial development of the State — it will be because our partnership with the community has been severed not of our volition.

For seven years now we have been endeavoring to call the public's attention, through the press, to our precarious situation. This is the real public interest. Gentlemen, the day of reckoning is here and the patient is too sick for a small dose of compromise. May I again thank you for your past support, and voice the earnest hope that this meeting today will helpfully add to your understanding of a basic and critical joint problem of the State and your communities.

HOW'S YOUR TEMPERATURE?

The temperature of your home we mean. But if that is correct, the chances are your own temperature should be right, too.

Eastern heating service makes perfect, healthy temperatures possible, no matter what the winter does. If you aren't as comfortable as you would like to be, call us today and begin to enjoy all the benefits of the most modern heating a family can have:

1. Esso Heating Oil—specially made to assure dependable comfort.
2. Watchdog Deliveries — you never have to think about your oil supply.
3. Round-the-Clock Service—We are always on duty to meet any emergency.
4. Watchdog Scanning—A new checking system by which we regularly watch the performance of every heating plant. Whenever it seems that too much oil is being used we act at once so waste can be stopped.

PENDING ORDINANCE

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR ARCHITECTURAL CONTROL IN THE CONSTRUCTION AND REPAIRS OF BUILDINGS CONSTRUCTED OR ALTERED WITHIN THE CITY OF SUMMIT AND TO GRANT AND ESTABLISH A BOARD OF ARCHITECTURAL REVIEW AND TO DEFINE THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF SAID BOARD OF ARCHITECTURAL REVIEW.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SUMMIT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. The Common Council hereby finds that excessive uniformity, dissimilarity, inappropriateness or poor quality of design in the appearance of buildings constructed or altered in the City, adversely affects the City, impairs the stability and value of the real property in the City and the cost of municipal services provided therefor. It is the purpose of this ordinance to prevent these and other harmful effects of the appearance of buildings poorly designed and to promote and protect the health, safety, morals and general welfare of the City.

Section 2. There is hereby established a Board of Architectural Review which shall consist of five (5) members of the Planning Board of the City of Summit, who shall be appointed by the Chairman of the Planning Board. The members of the Planning Board so appointed to the Board of Architectural Review shall be for such time as coincides with the expiration of their term of office as members of said Planning Board. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of any member whose office shall become vacant. The Secretary of the Planning Board shall act as Secretary of the Board of Architectural Review.

The Board of Architectural Review shall judge the effects of proposed building upon the desirability, property values and development of surrounding areas as hereinafter provided in Section 3 of this ordinance.

Section 3. Meetings of the Board of Architectural Review shall be held at the call of the presiding officer or acting presiding officer elected by said Board of Architectural Review, and at such other times as the Board may determine, but shall be within twenty (20) days of the date of any application for a building permit submitted to the Board as set forth in Section 6 of this ordinance. The presiding officer, or in his absence the acting presiding officer may administer oaths and compel attendance of witnesses. A majority of said Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The Board shall keep minutes of its proceedings and shall also keep records of its examinations and other official actions. The Board shall have power from time to time to adopt, amend and repeal rules and regulations not inconsistent with law or the provisions of this ordinance, governing its procedure and the transaction of its business, and for the purpose of carrying into effect the standards outlined in Section 5 hereof. Every rule or regulation, every amendment or repeal thereof and every order, requirement, decision or determination of the said Board shall immediately be filed in the office of the Planning Board and shall be a public record.

Section 4. Every application for a building permit for the new construction or reconstruction or alteration of a building shall be reviewed by the Building Inspector within ten (10) days of the date of application, provided it conforms to all other applicable laws and ordinances.

Section 5. The Building Inspector may disapprove any building permit referred to him, provided that the building Inspector finds that the building for which the permit was applied for would, if erected, be so dissimilar as to cause depreciation of property values or impair development of the surrounding area so as to provoke one or more of the harmful effects set forth in Section 1, by any of:

(1) excessive uniformity to any other structure existing or for which a permit has been issued or to any other structure included in the same permit application, facing upon the same street and within 600 feet of the A-45 and A-25 Residence District, and 300 feet in the A-45, A-10, A-8, B-10, B-3, G Multi-Family, H-Hotel and Apartment Residence Districts and within 300 feet of all other districts provided in the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Summit, of the proposed site, in respect to one or more of the following features of exterior design and appearance:

(2) substantially identical facade and arrangement of either doors, windows, porches or other openings or breaks in the facade facing the street, including recessed entrances, or

(3) other dissimilar identical features, such as but not limited to, material, roof line and height of other design elements, provided that a finding of excessive similarity shall not only state that such similarity exists, but further that it is of such a nature as to be expected to cause depreciation of property values or impair development of the surrounding area so as to provoke one or more of the harmful effects set forth in Section 1, by any of:

(a) excessive dissimilarity or inappropriateness in relation to any other structure existing or for which a permit has been issued, or

(b) any other structure included in the same permit application, facing upon the same street and within 600 feet in the A-45 and A-25 Residence District, and 300 feet in the A-10, A-8, B-10, B-3, G Multi-Family, H-Hotel and Apartment Residence Districts, and within 300 feet of all other districts provided in the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Summit, of the proposed site in respect to one or more of the following features:

(1) cubical contents,
(2) gross floor area,
(3) height of building or height of roof,
(4) other significant design features such as material, roof line, or quality of architectural design; provided that a finding of excessive dissimilarity or inappropriateness shall state not only that such a nature as to be expected to provoke depreciation of property values or impair development of the surrounding area so as to provoke one or more of the harmful effects set forth in Section 1, and that the finding is not based on preference as to taste or choice of architectural style.

Section 6. Any person aggrieved by the action of the Building Inspector in approving or disapproving a building permit application may take an appeal therefrom to the duly constituted Board of Architectural Review of the Planning Board, in the same manner as is provided for zoning appeals and such Board of Architectural Review after proceeding in the same manner as is provided for zoning appeals, and with the same power and authority therein vested in zoning appeals before it, under the provisions of law and the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Summit, regular in the exercise thereof, may reverse or affirm the action of the Building Inspector.

The Board of Architectural Review shall affirm or reverse the approval or disapproval of the Building Inspector by the vote of at least three (3) of its members, and the Board at any meeting where said vote is taken.

Section 7. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be subject to a fine of not more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) or imprisonment in the County Jail for a term not exceeding ninety (90) days, or both in the discretion of the Magistrate.

Section 8. This Ordinance shall take effect immediately after passage as provided by law, and the City Clerk of the City of Summit, do hereby certify that the foregoing Ordinance was introduced at the first meeting of a regular meeting of the Common Council held on Tuesday evening, December 16, 1938, and that said Ordinance will be submitted for consideration and final action at a special meeting of the Common Council to be held on Monday evening, December 26, 1938, at the City Hall, at 8:30 o'clock at which time and place any persons who may be interested therein will be given an opportunity to be heard concerning said Ordinance.

HARRY C. KATES,
City Clerk.

James Dunsmore Dies Suddenly At Son's Home

James Dunsmore, father of Robert M. Dunsmore, Summit postmaster, died suddenly at the home of his son, 17 Oaklawn road, on Tuesday. He was 87.

Mr. Dunsmore was born at Paisley, Scotland, on August 16, 1871, and attended Glasgow Technical College. He brought his family to this country in 1912 and moved to Summit in 1916.

He was an elder of Central Presbyterian Church and was the last living charter member of the Old Guard of Summit. He was a 32nd degree Mason when he left Scotland. Mr. Dunsmore was active in local civic and charitable affairs.

Surviving in addition to his son, Robert, are two other sons, James Douglas of North Hollywood, Cal., and Rev. Norman M. of Bahia, Brazil; a daughter, Mrs. Margaret D. Duncan of Salina, Kas.; a sister, Miss Annie Dunsmore, and 11 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the chapel of Central Presbyterian Church on Saturday at 1 p.m. It is requested of friends that in lieu of flowers, contributions be sent to the Albert J. Bartholomew Scholarship Fund at 97 Maple street.
