Council Quietly Kills Anti-Noise Bill by 6-0 Vote

The city's proposed anti-noise ordinance died Tuesday night when Common Council unanimously rejected the measure on grounds that "further study is needed for enforcement."

Common Council President Fletcher P. Thornton, in commenting on the bill's demise, by a 6-0 vote indicated that "if the measure is ever offered again, it will attempt to control actual nuisances rather than noises derived from ordinary activity." Under terms of the defeated bill, almost any noise in the city could have been construed as a violation, and the offender subject to a maximum $200 fine.

At a continued public hearing Tuesday night, R. B. Hiller of 74 Oak Ridge avenue labeled the measure "unrealistic." He pointed out to Council that in the ordinance permitted individuals to determine what constituted noise. Mr. Hiller added that "only those activities regarded as noisy by a majority" should fall under the ban. He also noted that particular jobs which involved some noise could be seriously affected and cited garbage collection and use of the railroads.

Terms Bill "Preposterous" Hendrik Van Rensselaer of 11 Lenox road, termed the proposed ordinance "preposterous and unworkable." Council also received letters from J. L. Hamar, and F. N. Pecca opposing the measure on grounds "it was unrealistic."

The ordinance was originally introduced September 15 with the first hearing October 6. Special targets of the ordinance were power saws, air hammers, drums, TV, radios and other divergent noises such as horn blowing, barking dogs, yelling, shouting, hooting, defective car mufflers, pile drivers and generators.

At the October 6 hearing, Councilman-at-large William R. Gilson pointed out that the ordinance was designed to specify certain disturbing actions and to curtail the hours in which construction and repairs could be made at night and on Sunday. He said that the ordinance tried to classify noises so that residents would not be disturbed.

Objects at the October 6 meeting included Dr. Joseph B. Engle, whose attorney Frederick C. Kentz, Jr., urged Council to consider the problem of maintaining a kennel without barking dogs.

Council postponed until November 4 meeting the awarding of gasoline and fuel oil bids.

Since November 3 is the date of the general elections, the next meeting of Common Council will be held on Wednesday, November 4 at 8:30 p. m. in City Hall.

Goblins Nearing City for Annual UNICEF Invasion

Although posing as all manner of witches, hobgoblins, ghosts, pirates, and dancing ladies, the city's children for the fifth straight year will actually be good samaritans as they again tread the streets carrying their milk cartons for UNICEF during their Halloween rounds.

Throughout the city, children's groups are planning special activities, including a second grade program at Lincoln school yesterday, which featured art work and stories about the United Nations' Children's Fund. A film strip, "Safe Milk Saves Lives," was also shown.

The "Trick or Treat" program, for three years sponsored by the Summit Council of United Chuchwomen, will for the second year be operated by the Summit Committee for UNICEF.

Handing out the milk cartons for distribution to the good-willed ghost will be handled by Girl Scout Troop 54, including Mary Louise Lauffer, Lynn Menzel and Wilma Packard. Twelve hundred such cartons have again been donated by Brennan's Dairy, while the girls are participating in the program as part of their work for a World Neighbor badge.

Separation of the many cans to be collected will be handled by the youth fellowships of some of the churches. F. L. Hellquist, treasurer of the Summit Trust Company, will put the money through the counting machines.

Donations Here $1,673

Last year, the city's primary grade children who take up the collection, collected $1,073. The project sends milk and medicines to over 90,000,000 children.

Best Seller Plays Prominent Role in Trial

Peter La Sasso, of Lincoln street, Berkeley Heights, who is now on trial for allegedly threatening the lives of eight Heights policemen and committing atrocious assault and battery on one of them on Monday pleaded no defense to five of nine indictments filed against him.

The surprise move came as the trial entered its third day of being bogged down in securing a jury and with the best-selling novel, "Anatomy of a Murder," and its film version, playing prominent roles in the selection of a jury. Intensive questioning by Assistant County Prosecutor Leo Kaplovitz and J. Roger Conant of Blackburn road, attorney for La Sasso, relentlessly whittled the long list of prospective jurors in County Judge John E. Barger's court as both lawyers closely questioned each person as to whether or not they had read Robert Traver's novel or seen the picture.

Fourteen jurors were quizzed so far and four, two men and two women, admitted knowledge of the book and film but told Judge Barger they would not be influenced by this.

The book's main character claims he was insane at the time he committed a murder. Mr. Kaplovitz also asked the four whether they thought a person could deceive a psychiatrist by feigning insanity, another point in the novel.

La Sasso is accused of threatening the lives of eight members of the Berkeley Heights police force on Aug. 15, 1958 and of atrocious assault and battery on Patrolman John J. Stafford. According to police, La Sasso seized Patrolman Stafford's revolver and struck him on the head with it as other police attempted to break up a brawl in which La Sasso was involved. He also is said to have held the policemen, including Chief Harold L. Curtis, Jr., at bay for 25 minutes until an uncle persuaded him to drop the revolver.

Mr. Conant has indicated that La Sasso will plead that he was insane at the time of the incident.

The trial also threatens to hamper the operation of the Heights police department of 14 men since eight of its members, including Chief Harold Curtis, all will be called as witnesses during the trial and were on hand at court.

Hayride Victim Wins $35,000 From Boro Man

A $40,000 judgment, of which $35,000 was levied against a New Providence man, was awarded to a 21-year-old Millburn boy in settlement of a $250,000 suit for injuries he suffered when hurt in a hayride accident on Dec. 23, 1958 at Chatham Township.

The Millburn youth suffered a broken back when a car hit the rear of a hay rig carrying 26 vacationing Short Hills and Millburn youths. The driver of the car involved in the accident was Danforth R. Robinson, 38, of 75 Tall Oaks drive, New Providence. The hay wagon was owned and operated by Andrew Fornaro, Jr., 32, of Southview Boulevard, Chatham Township.

Danforth had previously been fined $50 for careless driving in the crash.

The award was made to Philip B. Keenan and his father, Frank Keenan, both of Millburn.

Young Keenan was the most seriously injured in a group of school and college students who were hurt in the accident. He suffered complete paralysis below the waist as a result of his back injury, and the disability is expected to be lasting.

Keenan, who now can get around on crutches, had been employed by the Millburn Shade Tree Commission as a tree surgeon. That kind of work now is out of the question for him, he said but he has a few job possibilities and is planning to go to work in a few weeks.

Under the terms of the judgment approved by Morris County Judge Nelson K. Mintz, Robinson and Fornaro abandoned $15,000 counter claims against each other for damages. Robinson had charged that Fornaro had inadequately lighted the wagon and Fornaro accused Robinson of negligent driving. Fornaro had $5,000 of the total judgment levied against him.

Visiting Nurses Vote Change of Agency's Name

The board of trustees of the Visiting Nurse Association at its meeting last week unanimously voted to change the name of the organization from Visiting Nurse Association of Summit and Vicinity to Visiting Nurse Association of Summit, New Providence and Berkeley Heights.

The name change was made, according to Robert O. Peterson, president, because of "recognition and sustained understanding support given by New Providence and Berkeley Heights to the Association.

The agency was born in 1924 when the Cooperative Services made available to the community professional part-time nursing care.

The support of the program was assumed by the local Red Cross chapter in 1928 and in 1950 it was taken over by the present organization.

The Visiting Nurse Association of Summit and Vicinity at that time was incorporated and its fund appeals were made directly by the Association.

Visiting Nurses serves a 15.8-square mile area that includes Uew Providence and Berkeley Heights as well as Summit. The estimated population for New Providence and Berkeley Heights is presently estimated at 16,500.

Three residents from the newly-named areas are now serving on the Association's board of trustees. They are Mrs. Samuel E. Jones and Mrs. George J. Sawyer of New Providence and Rudolph de Roode of Berkeley Heights.

Spring Fund Drive Still in Planning Stage

The proposed spring fund drive to combine the campaign efforts of four major national agencies was still in the planning stage this week with no definite commitment by any one group, it was learned on Tuesday.

In last week's Summit Herald, it was prematurely announced that a complete committee, comprised of the Red Cross, Heart Association, Visiting Nurses and the Mental Health Association had been named and that plans had been completed for the drive to begin in 1961. It was also stated that a meeting had been planned for this week to begin organizational work.

According to Howard J. Wallis of 56 Blackburn road, chairman of a committee named by Mayor Gensemer to begin initial consolidation work, the meeting will be held sometime next week by the four agencies for the purpose of considering whether such a health fund drive is possible since the Red Cross is governed by a national charter. In order for the Red Cross to join a local joint drive, the chapter would need national approval following discussion and adoption by the Summit group's board of directors.

It has also been learned that none of the agencies invited to join the campaign has officially acted on the proposal and that the plan is still in the discussion stage by them.

The meeting scheduled for this week will deal mainly with how the four agencies could combine into a single fund drive in an effort to hold the various

Donations Spurt As Fund Drive Hits $104,715

The annual Fund for Summit drive came within 35 per cent of its $170,200 goal on Tuesday when contributions were reported at $104,716.

The week's donations of $33,715, brought the amount now collected during the first weeks of the drive, to over $38,000 more than was collected at this time last year.

As of Tuesday the general solicitations division reported that it had collected $25,385, and was within 37 per cent of its goal. Advanced gifts announced that it is now within 42 per cent of raising its quota of $77,000, having already turned over $44,481. The apartments division reported that donations have reached $6,289, or 81 per cent of a $7,800 goal, while industrial and commercial returns show $15,346 collected toward a $27,400 goal. The business division has accounted for $5,400, or 65 per cent of its $8,200 quota. Special solicitations as of Tuesday reported contributions at $7,875, or 81 per cent of its $9,600 quota.

It was announced on Tuesday that at a Central Committee meeting on Monday, Allen Devenney, general secretary of the YMCA, was given a vote of thanks for his work on the drive's advertising campaign and for the exhibit he directed at Summit Trust.

This year's drive was officially launched on October 4, and is expected to run through the entire month.

The nine local agencies which comprise a Fund for Summit and the amounts sought for each include, YMCA, $48,900; YWCA, $43,173; USO, $1,500; Family Service Association, $22,400; Union County Psychiatric, $6,500; Boy Scouts, $10,600; Child Care Center, $12,400; Girl Scouts $7,400; SAGE, $10,420.

Unbeaten Summit Meets Chatham This Saturday

Summit High School's undefeated and untied football team, leaders of the Suburban Conference, will invade Chatham this Saturday to resume grid relations with that school.

Chatham is back on Summit's card after a 17-year lapse and so far is trailing the Suburban Conference in its first year of inter-scholastic football. The Eskimo eleven is coached by Frank Burns, former Rutgers star.

$600,000 School, Recreation Bond Issue Approved

New Ratables Add $47,550 Tax Revenue

Summit, New Providence and Berkeley Heights will chalk up more than $1 million each in new ratables, according to a 9-month report released this week by the Union County Board of Taxation.

A total of seven county municipalities are in the million-plus category with Union leading the list with $1,938,700. The others are Scotch Plains, Linden and Westfield.

Summit's new ratables are listed at $1,404,600 which will bring $630,000 in new assessments and $47,550.70 in new tax revenue.

In Berkeley Heights the value of new ratables is put at $1,236,875, which will add $742,675 to assessment rolls and $63,276 in new tax revenue.

New Providence has new ratables listed at $1,137,250, for $650,698 in new assessments and $41,644 in additional tax income.

For the entire county a total of $15,346,825 is added to tax rolls for all municipalities. This includes all taxable buildings completed or substantially completed between January 1 and October 1. The county will realize $90,896 of this.

Violations Net 22 Near-Record $294 in Fines

Speeding and careless driving took their toll in Municipal Court last Thursday night when 21 traffic violators paid a near record $294 in fines. Twelve of the defendants were charged with either speeding or careless driving.

Denied their drivers' license for 60 days and fined $15 each by Magistrate Albert H. Bierman on charges of careless driving were Orville C. Haines of 161 Broad street and Andras G. Plitz of 319 Springfield avenue.

High School Seen Delayed By Cost, Size

A $600,000 bond issue earmarked for financing of previously approved educational and recreational projects was authorized Tuesday night when Common Council passed a resolution calling for bids on the issue at its November 4 meeting.

Of the $600,000 total to be raised through the sale of municipal bonds, $180,000 is slated for a payment on work at Tatlock Memorial Field in North Summit for a football field, track, parking areas and a field house. An ordinance providing for this was passed last May.

Also included in the bond issue will be $125,000 to be used at the new Wilson School for final payment of equipment and landscaping. Passage of the measure authorizing the expenditure was obtained in January of this year.

Of the total bond sale amount, $275,000 is earmarked for purchase of lands in the North Summit area to be used as the site of the proposed new senior high school. As part of the school plan, purchases have been made of the Von Seifart tract, Kenigeth Estates, formerly the Sasche property, and a portion of the Lager and Harrell land. Purchase of the Ben Day and Weaver Arms tracts are still pending. The ordinance authorizing funds to purchase the lands was passed last June.

Also included in the total bond amount is the cost of the Paradise house on Morris avenue in the amount of $22,500. The property was purchased last year by the Board of Education and it is expected that the house will be razed and the land used for school or parking purposes.

According to Council President Fletcher P. Thornton, Jr., the original expenditures have been carried through notes since the current city budget does not include funds for such capital improvements. He said that funds for payment of the bond's interest and principal would be included in next year's budget and become part of debt service.

Mr. Thornton indicated that if the city included the $600,000 in its next year's capital improvements budget, the local "tax rate would surely increase measurably." Under state law the city is permitted to borrow through the sale of bonds up to 8% of its current ratables.

According to terms of the resolution, all bonds will be open to bids with the first payment to be made on December 1 of this year.

In other matters Council introduced an ordinance which would make a portion of Baltusrol way between Russel place and the Summit - Springfield line a private thoroughfare. The roadway runs through a portion of the front yard of the Stephens-Miller Co. on Russel place, having been purchased by the company in 1927.

Other Council business included a recommendation from the Zoning Board of Adjustment that a variance be granted to L. Burroughs of Burroughs and Kohr, funeral home of 590 Springfield avenue, to permit use of a portion of their property as a parking lot. In a previous request, the funeral home had been denied a variance by the city on grounds that the parking lot would be a traffic hazard to residents on Waldron place.

In another letter, the Zoning Board recommended that Council grant a variance to the Palmer Nursing Home at 788 Springfield avenue to continue operation for another three-year period.

In other matters, Council promoted to patrolman second grade at annual salary of $3,275, Mario Lombardi, Martin Wrisley and Joseph Walsh. The resignation of M. A. Mortarulo from the Fire Department was accepted.

Council also appointed R. Ab-

FBI Nabs Local Man for $35,000 Bank Robbery

FBI agents Monday night arrested Raymond Santoro, 39, of 718 Springfield Avenue, in Hollywood, and charged him with robbing the Middlesex branch of the National Bank in New Jersey of $35,000 on October 7.

The agents said they recovered about $30,000 from Santoro shortly after he had registered at a fashionable Hollywood hotel in the downtown section of the city six hours after he flew in from Miami Beach.

Agents said Santoro was carrying a .33 calibre revolver when he was arrested but made no attempt to use it and offered no resistance when captured. The FBI would not comment how it learned that Santoro was heading for Los Angeles. Santoro refused comment on his activities during the last two weeks. He was brought before a U. S. Commissioner on Tuesday.

It is expected Santoro will be brought to New Jersey for trial. Santoro is accused of holding up the Middlesex branch and exchanging shots with a policeman during a chase which followed. Neither were hit.

Santoro is the father of three children. He was allegedly unemployed at the time of the robbery but had worked as a salesman for home improvement companies.

The FBI said that on the day of the robbery, Mr. Santoro allegedly walked into the bank and demanded that Mrs. Louise Marshall, a teller, fill the large paper bag he carried. As she complied with the request, Mrs. Marshall pressed her foot on a silent alarm which alerted po-

Democrats Have Snarled State Issues, Crane Says

Commuter, educational and taxation problems, now confronting the state, cannot be met by the "present vacillating leadership, lip service and meanness" in Trenton.

This was asserted Sunday by Sen. Robert C. Crane, Republican candidate for re-election, in a talk at a tea in his honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Kentz Jr., 239 Oak Ridge Ave.

Earlier at a tea at the home of Mrs. Barbara B. Whitney of 5 Blackburn Pl. Crane warned of the danger of voter apathy.

He scored the Democratic Assembly for what he called its "lack of initiative and imagination in combatting the major problems of the day."

"No magic wand of referendum passage is going to solve the problems or solve the wounds," the legislator from Westfield said.

"It will take vital imagination, daring initiative and a dedication to place in operation a plan to improve rail transit should New Jersey citizens vote a funding of New Jersey Turnpike funds," the senator said.

"I pledge an active program aimed at maintaining adequate educational facilities beyond 1965, a transit plan that protects our commuter towns from deteriorating service, a firm approach to the problems of juvenile delinquency through better laws covering major offenses and through increased employment opportunities for idle minds and hands."

"I have not found myself bound by some supposed evil caucus system. I am proud of those things I have been able to achieve in response to the needs of the people."

In introducing the state legislation, Mr. Kentz cited the senator's program during three years in Trenton and pointed to favorable comment it had received from newspapers throughout the state.

He commented on several bills sponsored by Sen. Crane to aid the commuter against deteriorating rail service and out-of-state taxation, measures, he said, which have been commended by commuter organizations in Morris County, New Providence and municipalities along the Jersey Central Lines.

Two Injured When Auto Rams Tree

One person was taken to Overlook Hospital and another suffered minor injuries early Sunday morning when the car in which both were riding went out of control and crashed into a tree at Broad street near Ashwood avenue.

When Overlook Hospital for treatment of injuries to his right side, leg and hands, was A. Richard Boehler of Keyport, owner of the car and a passenger. The driver of the car, Allen J. Wright of Irvington, complained of head pains but refused medical treatment.

Police said the accident occurred when Mr. Wright attempted to shift the Volkswagen as diving, into second speed and suddenly lost control. The car crossed Broad street and struck the tree. Mr. Wright said it was the first time he had ever driven the car. The front of the vehicle was severely damaged.

Investigating the accident were Sgt. Hugh Lee and Patrolman Joseph Grobarz.

Vote Registry Sets Record For Off-Year

A surprisingly high registration for the November 3 general election has been reported by the Union County Board of Elections. Those eligible to vote in the county total 238,377 a record for an off-year election and the second highest in the county. Only the 241,667 enrollment in 1956 tops this year's figure.

Summit lists a total of 11,420 for this year, as compared with 11,309 for last year. This includes 380 new voters.

For New Providence the total this year is 4,247 as against the 1956 figure of 3,973. The Borough lists 294 new voters.

Berkeley Heights has a 1959 registration of 3,514 as compared with last year's 3,077 and lists 384 new voters.

in the ELECTRICALLY HEATED home...

it's what isn't there that counts!

No furnace, flues, pipes or radiators. Electric resistance heating is simple—so simple it offers the lowest maintenance costs and the longest life of any home heating system. The heating units are set inconspicuously in the baseboards, walls or ceilings. Because there are no pipes or radiators it cuts decorating and house cleaning problems. And the beauty of it is—now anyone can afford it!

Look for the GOLD MEDALLION, the sign of complete electric living.

Those Public Questions

On the state and federal level the election next month is devoid of interest. Activity is centered upon municipal and county contests. Yet there is an important feature for New Jersey voters throughout the state and this is the fact that the ballot will include four public questions.

There is a welter of confusion regarding each and all of the referenda and it is difficult for the voter to receive impartial information regarding them.

Perhaps the question receiving the most publicity is the College Bond Issue, which will be No. 1 on the ballot. If approved by voters, this will give the state the authority to raise $66,800,000 for new college facilities, mainly at Rutgers but also at teachers' colleges, through a bond issue.

This question has received enthusiastic support from all important organizations, both labor and management, and, of course, from those concerned with the future of higher education in New Jersey. It is a widely known fact that our state lags in providing college opportunities for our youth and that the existing facilities are woefully overcrowded, inadequate and hampered by a lack of buildings and equipment. The $66 million bond issue will do much to correct these inadequacies and a "Yes" vote is recommended by The Herald.

Question No. 2 pertains to a proposed amendment to the State Constitution which would permit legalized gambling in any municipality through action of its governing body—not by local referenda. This question is being pushed by resort counties along the shore where games of chance are an important business.

But it is not confined to shore areas. It would, if approved on a statewide basis, allow our Common Council to pass an ordinance permitting games of chance in this community. True, there are some restrictions, such as a $15 limit on prizes of merchandise. But in general the question is loosely drawn and provides for no age limit of players and does not exclude Sunday as a gambling day.

The act, if approved, would permit any fraternal or civic association to conduct games of chance provided authorization has been given by the local government. The Herald urges a "No" vote on this question.

Third on the ballot is the Turnpike diversion. This referendum asks the public to approve placing state credits behind $428,000,000 in outstanding Turnpike bonds in return for the right to use a present estimated total of $570 million in excess funds of the Turnpike as well as the right to use future year's surplus revenues to help out commuter railroads. It has almost unanimous support by the Assembly and Senate as well as a great many others. But it also has some glaring faults. The greatest, in our opinion, being that it has no time limit. Supporters of the measure say that the Legislature will provide a time limit but as the question now stands any surplus Turnpike revenue can be diverted to the railroads for unspecified years to come.

Opposition to the question comes from the State Automobile Association, which claims that Turnpike surpluses should be used to reduce toll rates or be used for additional highway construction. Also opposed are certain groups contending that if Turnpike revenues can be tapped, then they should be used not to bail out the railroads but for elementary school aid, which in turn takes tax pressure off home owners.

It is generally agreed that some form of financial relief must be granted to the commuter railroads but whether or not this should take the form of an out and out subsidy is the question. Such a method will not alter the unrealistic assessments levied upon railroad property by certain counties, which is, to our way of thinking, the basic problem of the railroads.

The Herald finds itself in the position of not being happy with the proposed bill as it now stands but accepting it since it is better than nothing and is a step in the right direction. Thus, anticipating that the Legislature will correct the present faults, a "Yes" vote is recommended.

The fourth and final question is technically not a statewide one since it will appear only on the ballots in counties where a petition carrying 2,500 signatures has been filed asking for the referendum. Union County is one of these. The question pertains to the Sunday closing of all stores which sell household goods or business goods and furnishings and such items as lumber supplies. It would not affect drug stores, newspaper stands, delicatessens and other stores selling food and drinks only.

This paper has always been opposed to Sunday business, such as is found along the highways. We firmly believe that the Sabbath should be observed as a day of rest and that six days each week are sufficient for any person to complete his shopping needs.

But there is one glaring fault in the proposal as it now stands. It could work a hardship upon the Union County stores customarily conducting business on a Sunday if they be closed in this county but others allowed to remain open in neighboring counties.

In spite of this fault, The Herald believes that a "Yes" vote should be cast and that Sunday sales, as defined in the referendum, be outlawed in Union County. In all probability other counties would soon follow suit and the Sunday sales ban would become eventually statewide rather than localized.

No Double Dose of Daylight

The time arrives this Sunday to reclaim that hour placed in escrow last April. On Sunday Daylight Saving Time will officially end in New Jersey and most of the North Atlantic States and to be on the safe side we suggest that our readers turn their clocks BACK one hour before they retire Saturday night.

This is the second year that New Jersey has extended Daylight Saving into October. Until then the "fast" time ended the end of September.

It is needless to say that most persons who throughout the summer have enjoyed that extra hour of daylight will regret the turning back of the clock. The general regret is reminiscent that not so many years ago—not longer than 1926—many sectors of our country were resentful because of economic reasons, particularly the farmers. They claimed almost to a man that their work and marketing habits were needlessly upset.

And the extension through October upset still others. The broadcasters, for one group, pointed to the losses claimed on the ground that variance in time schedules between the states hurt their business.

However, the fact remains that Daylight Saving is now firmly established. We now rarely hear that any tampering with the clocks will throw out of kilter the feeding times of babies, poultry and livestock.

The tendency these days is toward increased use of daylight saving and the extension of the fall period is an indication of this trend. The trend now breeds even more ideas and one having a fair amount of support is double daylight saving. Under this plan clocks would be kept one hour ahead of the sun throughout the year and two hours ahead during the summer months.

Probably there is as much hazard in venturing to excess with daylight saving as there is in any realm where moderation is discarded. The extension of the extra hour into October has been accepted without protest but that is no guarantee, however, that every plan or notion put forth for a greater dose of daylight saving is worth while. Let's not spoil a good thing.

I wish to heartily endorse the complete letter and remarks of J. L. Hamar which appeared in last week's Summit Herald concerning "anti-noise" needless legislation. Library More Than Building
Editor, Summit Herald:
I want to join those individuals and groups in Summit who are convinced that we need a new and better library. A library is more than a building. It is more than a books on its shelves, however important those books are. It is a symbol of recognition and allegiance, recognition of cultural values both intellectual and recreational; allegiance to the ideal that gives primacy to all institutions and causes which advance the interests of the mind of man.

If we in Summit will reaffirm our devotion to this ideal we shall benefit ourselves. More important, we shall establish values which will guide and inspire our children.

Cites Assembly Record
Editor, Summit Herald:
In your editorial of October 8 you wrote of county elections but included state offices in one paragraph. This lumps together, perhaps inadvertently, two distinctly different categories of government. "County Government" is the Board of Freeholders, an administrative group operating wholly within a county area. On the contrary the Assembly and Senate, although representing counties, are the Legislature of New Jersey and their function is to make laws for the whole State.

The present members of the Assembly from Union County, Mr. Miller, Mr. McGowan, Mr. Wilson and myself, have an excellent record of hard work and constructive legislation which we have accomplished for all the citizens of our county and State. The present Senator who is of the opposite political party stated publicly on many occasions that he is grateful to us for our fine cooperation in moving his Bills on the floor of the Assembly.

We were elected in November 1937 and took office in the middle of January 1938. This gave us about a year and a half to work in Trenton as compared with 43 years the Republicans had had previously. In this short time we have made a record of which we are justly proud. It is not necessary as you say for "Summit Area voters who want honest and sound government" to turn to anyone but us. They have been getting that from their present Democratic Assembly delegation and it is what we intend to give always.

It is a pity that GOP party strategy is attempting to blot out our record by ignoring it. Fairness would indicate that credit be given where credit is due and our transit solution, Sunday closing, College Bond Issue, transfer of "home life assistance", 50% saving on state printing costs—to mention only a few of our accomplishments—should prove that we are doing an excellent job and deserve a return to office on November 3.

All voters should examine our fact sheet now being distributed as extensively as possible because a conspiracy of silence seems to exist in the press as far as the state office of Assembly is concerned. Our opponents are promising to do many things if elected but I should like to point out that what they say they intend to do we have already done. Our record is open for all to see. Check it and you will know how well you have been served by your present incumbent delegation—Hughes, McGowan, Miller and Wilson.

Boro Woman Tries Twice To Take Life

A 39-year-old New Providence woman, Miss Marie Kummer of 364 South Street, is reported in fair condition at Overlook Hospital after two apparent suicide attempts on Monday, according to Boro police.

Police said that the woman, an assistant technician at Bell Labs, first slashed her throat with a razor blade while sitting in her car parked in the Labs' parking area. The bleeding apparently stopped, police said, and she then drove to Lake Surprise in the Watchung Reservation and cut her throat once again as well as both arms and her left wrist.

Later on she drove to her home where she collapsed. Her mother, Mrs. Oscar Kummer, with whom she lives, and a brother, Emil, who was visiting the home, summoned police who gave emergency treatment until Dr. Richard Wagner, Boro police physician, arrived. She was removed to Overlook by the Rescue Squad.

New Providence Chief Carl Ehnis said that Miss Kummer told him she had been under psychiatric care for two years.

Tax Reminders Being Sent by Local Concern
Corby's Enterprise Laundry, Inc. is cooperating with the Elizabeth Social Security office in a project to bring social security requirements to the attention of employers of domestic workers. In the next few days Corby's will enclose a social security pamphlet in all laundry bundles to their customers.

The pamphlet, "Do You Have A Maid," will draw the housewife's attention to the law's provisions when a household worker is employed. The pamphlet also contains an important reminder that social security tax reports must be filed if the domestic worker is paid $50 or more in cash wages in a calendar quarter.

The law requires that a household employer report for social security purposes all cash wages of $50 or more paid in a calendar quarter to a maid, cleaning woman or other household worker. These social security reports are filed with the district director of Internal Revenue in the month following the end of each calendar quarter. The calendar quarters end with the months of March, June, September and December. With these reports the employer remits 2 1/2 per cent that she holds out of the employee's wages and adds another 2 1/2 per cent as the employer's tax—a total of 5 per cent. The quarterly report is made on a simple envelope form that can be completed in a few minutes.

The American wing will be visited by the classes in American history where a lecture will be heard on Colonial days illustrated by a film of early America.

On Saturday, October 24, the upper school faculty will entertain mothers of students. The day's program will begin at 9:15 a. m. with registration followed by an assembly and visits to classrooms. At noon refreshments will be served in the cafeteria.

RAILROAD FEATHERBEDDING:

$500,000,000 LOSS

TO THE NATION—INCLUDING YOU—EVERY YEAR

Featherbedding on the railroads — pay for work not done or not needed — is costing the American people the shocking total of more than $500,000,000 a year.

You pay for it every time you shop, because featherbedding costs are hidden in the price of everything you buy.

Obsolete union work rules, involving the railroad operating employees, are responsible for this gigantic burden. Right now, for instance, these rules require every diesel locomotive to carry a fireman—even though diesels have no fires to stoke, no boilers to tend.

The forthcoming negotiations between the railroads and the unions are urgently important to the whole nation.

In asking the unions to drop these featherbedding rules, all the railroads ask for is a fair day's work for a fair day's pay.

Appointed as a new third grade teacher at Franklin School was Mrs. Grace B. Davison of 14 Myrtle avenue and appointed as a third grade teacher at Jefferson School was Mrs. D. Loretta Fitzgerald of 32 Kent Place boulevard.

Mrs. Fitzgerald, who's appointment becomes effective November 16, will replace Mrs. Rita McDonough who was granted a leave of absence.

Mrs. Davison is a graduate of Grove City (Pa.) College and had graduate work at the University of Pittsburgh. She has previously taught in Pennsylvania schools.

Mrs. Fitzgerald is a Summit High School graduate and received a BS in education from

Newark State Teachers

She has done substitute teaching at Westfield, Madison and Summit.

The Board also approved of the appointment of Miss Marie Clarkson as a kindergarten helper at Brayton School.

Named Grid Doctor

The Board also appointed Dr. Henry Connolly of 159 Mountain avenue to serve as physician-in-attendance at football games to replace Dr. Robert Specht who notified that he was unable to continue in that capacity.

The resignation of Mrs. Eria Engleman, a Roosevelt fifth grade teacher, was accepted effective November 1 with regrets. Mrs. Engleman has been with the school system for 16 years.

Changes in the coaching staff were approved with Howard Anderson, head football coach, also being named head track coach to replace John Dilson, who asked to be relieved because of increasing after school hours work in the guidance department.

Mr. Anderson will be relieved of his position as assistant baseball coach and will be succeeded in that post by Bruce Bears, football line coach.

Other Appointments

Robert Latzer was appointed faculty advisor for "The Top," senior yearbook, and E. Norman Larsen was named tennis coach.

The Board was informed that a need exists for three additional elementary school teachers. These needs are at Roosevelt where a second grade helper is required, a sixth grade teacher for Brayton to create another sixth grade section, now numbering 67 pupils, and a fifth grade teacher for Franklin for a third fifth grade section, now numbering 65 pupils.

It also was recommended that Washington School first grades now totaling 65 pupils be divided into three class sections instead of two.

Winter Market At YW to Sell Theatre Seats

New on the list of offerings for this year's YWCA Winter Market to be held November 18 and 19 will be a limited number of tickets to popular Broadway shows. A service fee such as is added by ticket agencies will be charged for the benefit of the Market.

Ticket purchases have been made with the coming holidays in mind. Some are now on sale and may be had by calling theater ticket booth chairman, Mrs. Walter Good, at CR 3-5703 between 1 and 3 p.m. on weekdays, or the YWCA at CR 3-4242. Currently available are seats for the musical comedy hit "Once Upon a Mattress" for Halloween eve, October 30; and for the evening of November 27, the day after Thanksgiving, for two plays opening that week. These are the "Miracle Worker," the story of Helen Keller, starring Ann Bancroft, Patricia Neal and Torin Thatcher; and "Warm Peninsula," the story of a naive and unsophisticated young girl who comes to Miami Beach, in which Julie Harris, June Havoc and Farley Granger are starred.

For Christmas theater-goers or for gifts, tickets for several premium Broadway productions, to be announced later, will be available only at the Winter Market booth. No reservations may be taken for these ahead of time.

THE WINKLER LP CUTS YOUR OIL BILL UP TO 25% OR MORE

This new development in low pressure oil burners is saving money for thousands of home owners. Here are a few reports from delighted users of Winkler LP Oil Burners:

Saves $112 or 34%

"Our air-conditioning unit with a high pressure oil burner in it was installed in 1949. We used an average of $200 worth of oil last season. This season, we bought only $100 worth of oil with the Winkler Burner and have over 100 gallons left. This is a saving of approximately $112."

Michael Federation, Rochester, N.Y.

Fuel consumption drops from 2140 to 1380 gallons

"The fuel oil used for 1947-48 heating season was 2140 gallons. Fuel consumption for the 1948-49 season, using the Winkler Low Pressure Burner was 1380 gallons—a saving of 760 gallons or about $108."

John J. Sutor, Wataga, Ill.

Saves 80% in oil

"When you told me of the amazing results obtained with the Winkler LP, I was quite skeptical. However, I am now singing the praises of the Winkler LP Burner. A saving of over 80% deserves praise!"

Mrs. Harvey C. Rand, Portsmouth, N. H.

New Areas of Participation for System Specialists
 AT GENERAL ELECTRIC'S LIGHT MILITARY ELECTRONICS DEPARTMENT

Classically defined, the system specialist's role is confined to conceptual realization and design. Frequently this approach limits individual contributions by restricting professional participation to a narrow program area. In its search for more efficient engineering approaches directly applicable to the development of systems with significantly extended capabilities, Light Military has redefined the active role of the system specialist.

At LMED the system specialist's activities remain primarily intellectual in that within his cognizance is the responsibility of conceptual design. But in addition to this classic role, he is encouraged to apply the full range of his skills in a supervisory capacity that will carry his system into the advanced development stage—he holds the authority "to get things done."

Additional considerations about Light Military, of interest to the career-oriented man:

- Salaries fully competitive at all levels of responsibility
- Advancement based on merit
- Well-defined responsibility, with commensurate authority
- Follow-through on your project to include customer contact
- Easy access to top management of this decentralized organization
- Opportunity to consult with top men at many G-E Departments and Laboratories

You are invited to inquire about openings in the following areas:

Electronic Countermeasures	Sonar • Statistics
Microwave Devices & Antennae	Display Devices
Missile Guidance Systems	Fuzing Techniques
Navigational Equipment	Meteoritic Scatter
Digital Techniques	Transistor Techniques
VHF & UHF Transmitter Design	Data Processing
Radar • Infrared	Information Theory

County Trade School is Seen Costly Deal to Area

Mrs. Mary Kanane, a GOP candidate for Freeholder, warned a Summit audience Sunday of a probable county hike of 20 per cent if the Democratic-controlled Freeholder Board goes through with its present plans to establish a $4 million county vocational school.

She challenged the Democrats to explain how the school will be financed and exactly what its purpose will be. It was first presented, she stated, as a trade school for printers, carpenters, etc. but is now being referred to as a school for "scientific research."

Costly for Summit

Mrs. Kanane warned that if each municipality is taxed equally for the school it will be unfair to those with nominal enrollments and for those towns with a predominately college preparatory student body, such as Summit, New Providence, Westfield, Cranford.

"We maintain," she declared, "that assessment should be on a per pupil basis and Elizabeth and Rahway will have the most."

Mrs. Kanane also hit the deficit budgeting she contends is now being carried on by the Freeholders. She cited a deficit of $65,000 in the county welfare department and a lack of $48,000 needed for jury pay.

In addition, Mrs. Kanane stated, before the year's end appropriations for indigent care at county hospitals will show a $125,000 deficit and the County Park Police Department pension fund a $27,000 deficit.

Where Are Funds?

"Where are they (the Democrats) going to find sufficient funds to take care of the deficits? They said they were cutting the budget but the only way to pay for this year's deficit is with next year's taxes," she said.

Returning to the proposed vocational school, voted by the Freeholders earlier this year, Mrs. Kanane declared:

"Lack of foresight and proper planning is causing the Democratic controlled Board of Freeholders to stumble, fumble, and bumble on the county vocational school project.

"Apparently they finally have discovered there is more involved than they first thought, since now, six months after they voted to establish the school, they are calling a conference with the municipal representatives and education officials to discuss such primary items as the school's estimated cost, size, and how it will be financed.

Estimates Vary

"Estimates of its size run from 1,000 pupils to 2,500; its construction cost from $2,000,000 to $5,000,000, and operating cost from $600,000 to $2,000,000 per year. Wide discrepancies at this late date for a project which thousands of dollars of county funds already have been committed!

"But the biggest unanswered question is how will all this be paid for. It is a reported plan to have the cost born equally by all towns in the county in proportion to ratables, despite the

For 57 years Summit's mayors have been Republicans. Surely it's time for a change.

FALLOUT SHELTERS are the best way for Americans to protect themselves from a massive nuclear attack which could unleash dangerous radioactive fallout throughout the nation. Some of the shelters recommended by the Office of Civil Defense Mobilization are less elaborate than this one, which includes an auxiliary generator and an electric air filtering and ventilating system. However, all recommended shelters should include the basic features shown here: a place to sleep, food, water and medical supplies, and at least eight inches of concrete or an equal density of other materials for shielding the shelter against fallout's gamma rays. ## Constant Need for Additional Space Plagued Overlook Even Back in 1925

The problem of increased drive for $3,500,000, the 1925 sum seems a paltry amount, but it was during this year that the volunteer groups were organized in the city and surrounding communities to give aid to the hospital.

Through this team of workers, volunteers all, the need for additional building space to provide 20 per cent more space over the amount normally needed to meet normal demands, the story of the hospital's plight was brought home to the various communities.

In a Summit Herald story of April 21, 1925, it was pointed out that the hospital was providing increased services each year "to the ill and injured in the area," and it was also noted that in 1915, 51 births took place at the hospital, in comparison to 51 for the first three months of 1925.

It was also noted that during periods of epidemics preceding 1925, hospital facilities were particularly put to the task of providing services in extremely crowded surroundings.

New Features Outlined
Among the new features planned in the 1925 expansion program were additional ward, semi-private and private rooms, with the private rooms and the maternity department planned for the "new fireproof wing."

Rearrangement of the old building was the solution then for the need for more ward room and for semi-private rooms.

Also to be included in the 1925 expansion was a brand new clinic, "long seen as a necessity by physicians on the staff," and the broadening of the x-ray department and pathological laboratory.

Additional services were to include a separate home for nurses, a service wing and a unified heating plant.

In conclusion the Herald writer noted at that time, "Overlook Hospital has served its community valiantly with the facilities it has had."

..... and that a hospital belongs to the public and can be only what the public makes it."

Undoubtedly the same sentiments would apply today as the hospital is embarked on an expansion program costing ten times more than the 1925 drive.

fact that one-third of the towns in the county already provide and pay for vocational training for their own students and others have virtually no need for such a facility.

"Naturally the school will benefit tax-wise the urbanized communities where the Democrat freeholders and freeholder candidates come from, but we doubt their citizens wish to take unfair advantage of their neighbors in the rest of the county."

"Since the amortization and annual operating cost of the school probably will, by itself, increase the county budget between 20 and 30 per cent, we believe that when the extent of the need has been demonstrated, and an equitable method of taxation devised to finance the project, it should then be put to the voters in the form of a referendum.

"Finally we feel it is time that our opponents expressed their views on the subject. The public is entitled to know — and before Election Day."

Science Group Lists Programs For Coming Year

Dr. Samuel Koslov of 35 Butler avenue will discuss advances in plasma physics at a meeting at 8 p. m. today of the Summit Association of Scientists in the Celanese Auditorium. He is a member of the physics department of Stevens Institute of Technology, Hoboken.

Among other programs planned, according to Dr. Umberto Gianola of Florham Park, vice president and program chairman, are monthly meetings through February. The public is invited to attend them.

On November 20, Dr. Gilbert Baum of the Bronx Veterans' Hospital, New York, will discuss new techniques he has developed in ophthalmology to observe intra-ocular structures and tumors.

Dr. Gertrude Schneider of the psychology department of City College of New York will speak December 16. Her talk will be on the "sixth sense" or extra-sensory perception.

Speaker at the January meeting will be Dr. E. F. Moore of Bell Laboratories, Murray Hill, and at the February meeting, Dr. Wallace Broecker of the Lamont Geological Observatory. Dr. Moore will discuss self-producing machines. Dr. Broecker will talk in geological clocks and the use of radioactive isotopes to determine the age of geological strata on land and sea.

Dividend News Incorrect

Last week's issue of The Herald erroneously reported a cash and stock dividend as being declared by the National State Bank of Elizabeth. This was in error. The dividend was declared by the Union County Trust Co. of Elizabeth. The Herald regrets any embarrassment the item may have caused to the parties concerned.

Famous Modern Artists Display Works at Jewish Center Exhibit

Famed New York artists, Edna Hibbel, Waldo Peirce, William Gropper, Doris Rosenthal and Joseph Flock agreed this week to have their work included in Art/59, the exhibition sponsored by the Summit Jewish Community Center November 1-5. It was announced today by Mrs. G. Daniel of 851 Springfield avenue, Mrs. H. Finkel of 36 Harding drive, Berkeley Heights, and Mrs. N. S. Freedman of 25 Ford place, Murray Hill, co-chairmen of the event.

Miss Hibbel's canvas, a 60" x 45" "Man with Torah" won wide critical acclaim recently and has been on display, until its present showing at the Center, at the Hall of Art.

A new talent from New York is Sonya Bradley who has captivated the French critic Mrs. Charlotte Scudery in the newspaper France - Amerique. She says of Mrs. Bradley "It is rare to see an artist as young as Sonya Bradley possess a talent of such maturity."

Besides the N. Y. artists, prize-winning New Jersey artists are also represented. Fabian Zaccone of West New York has won the Agnes B. Noyes award for his "Structures". S. Ohrel Carlson of West Orange has won several awards for his "Sea Lovers". His canvas, "The Pool", was used by the lecturer at the Museum of Modern Art to demonstrate modern techniques in painting.

An evening for patrons only has been planned for the preview showing Sunday, November 1. Michael Lenson, noted artist and brother of Sam Levenson, will be guest speaker. All local clergy as well as the mayors of Summit, New Providence, and Berkeley Heights have been invited. The exhibiting artists will also attend.

The exhibition will last till November 5 and will be open daily from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. and from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m.

Summit High Gridmen Overcome 13-0 Deficit to Trounce Scott 27 to 13

The Summit High gridmen moved on to their fourth straight victory last Saturday by wallowing Clifford Scott 27-13, on the Scotties homeground. The Maroon and White, spirited by three touchdowns by Darnell Mallory, came back from a 13-0 lead to march on to a stunning victory.

In the beginning of the first period it looked as though Summit was in for real trouble as the Scotties pushed their way downfield from the 40-yard line in four consecutive first downs to score upon Summit. Getting off to an early 6-0 lead, Coach Anderson's boys knew that they had their work cut out for them. The Hilltoppers progress after the kickoff was slight and again Clifford Scott took over the ball and started another push against Summit.

The end of the first period the Scotties were close to another TD and in the early seconds of the second quarter again scored, and jumped out 13-0. It wasn't until the middle of the second period that Summit started to come alive. Mike Pappio started the ball rolling by rushing through center for Summit's initial first down. Fullback Mason carried for 6 yards and Willie Rhines another three. On Pappio's handoff, Mason went over center for a first down. From midfield, Pappio wound up and threw a 40 yard pass to Mallory who was waiting for it short of the end zone and went over for the Hilltoppers' first TD of the day. Mallory kicked the extra point and the score was 13-7 in favor of the Scotties.

Bill Earl kicked off for Summit deep into Scott territory. Summit recovered a fumble and Mallory, in three consecutive downs went 9 yards. Quarterback Pappio pitched out to Mallory who in turn hit Mason with a short pass, and Summit was in close scoring position with another first down. Mike Pappio, on a keeper, feinted a pitchout, and carried the ball 10 yards for second touchdown. The extra point was good and Summit had the lead 14-13. Backed by loud cheers from the stands, the Summit defensive team held the Scotties tight for four downs. This was attributed to the hard drive put on by co-capt. Frank Pecca, Ralph Gisolli, and Frank Zottl. When Summit took over, they again were on the warpath which started with Pappio's 50-yard pass to left end Frank Zottl.

Again, in the beginning of the third quarter, the Hilltopper defensive team thwarted the Scotties' advancements and Summit took over on its own 20-yard line. Pappio threw a short pass to Mollory who streaked, with precision feinting and faking, in and out around the Scott eleven and raced 80 yards for his eighth touchdown of the year. Putting on the finishing touch himself, Mallory scored the point after and the Maroon and White moved ahead 21-13. Bill Earl's kick-off went deep into Clifford Scott territory and once more they were held and were forced to kick. Pappio returned the fourth down kick to the 50 yard line and with cheers of "We want a touchdown" ringing in their ears, the Hilltoppers started a series of plays that pushed them downfield and resulted in Mallory going 12 yards on Pappio's pitch out for another TD. The point after attempt was blocked but Summit now had a strong 27-13 lead.

Scott's Jim Liggins received a pass and went 40 yards and placed the Clifford Scott team into scoring position. Again the Summit defensive line came through with hard playing and held the Scott team for four downs when they had only 9 yards to go for a touchdown. Summit took over the ball at the third period ended and Pappio pitched out to Rhines who went over center for the first down.

The Hilltoppers were held by a now determined Clifford Scott team and John O'angelo booted the fourth down kick into Scott territory. On the second down for the Scotts, Jim Elliot nailed Frank DeMiro for a loss of 12 yards and they were forced to kick on the fourth down. The fourth down kick was downed lost three points to Temple Sinal and St. John's Lutheran "B" team swept St. John's Lutheran "A" team. There is now a tie for second place with Christ Church and St. John's "B". Temple Sinal's three-point win put them in a tie for third place with Oakes Memorial bowlers who blanked Faith Lutheran. Following close behind are the Combined Churchmen who took three points from the Jewish Community Center and the Churchmen are now in fourth place.

Frank MacKain's 212 game, and Bon Tranquill's 207 were high for the night. Also bowling high games were: Sam Kessler, (204), Nat McGiffin, (201), and Ed McMans (201).

On a tight play in the quarter, Ralph Gisolli was injured and was taken out of the game. Mallory threw a long pass to Mason but was incomplete and the Scotties took over. Rudy Picardi carried the ball upfield 40 yards for the Scotts but before they could get into scoring position, the gun sounded to end the game and Summit had added another victory to their growing list and still remained undefeated in four games.

Costs for New Heights School Found Too High

BERKELEY HEIGHTS—The steel strike and high costs have stalled school construction projects, making it impossible to open the new William Woodruff School in September, the Board of Education was told last week. Recent bids on Woodruff placed the total cost well over the budget by about 13 per cent. The difficulty and uncertainty in obtaining steel was largely blamed. Contracts for general construction, heating and ventilating and electrical work will be submitted again in hopes that lower figures will be obtained. By a recent referendum, $538,000 was voted for the 13-room school to be built in the Briarwood section but the bids for the work totaled $627,000. John D. Wells, president of the board, said that "for at least part of next year, until the school can be built, we'll have to continue to use substandard facilities and find even more sites for temporary classrooms."

In re-submitting the bids the architect for the building will eliminate landscaping, paving of parking areas and curbing in an attempt to cut costs. The items can be added later. The architect told the board "even if bids could be awarded right now, steel would not be available for at least five months. Once construction begins it will take 10½ months to complete the school."

Baller News With Milk

NEW PROVIDENCE—"Candidates Information Sheets covering all state and county candidates in the November 3 election prepared for voters by the League of Women Voters of Union County are being delivered by 14 dairies on their regular routes in New Providence," advises Mrs. Max Mathews, voters service chairman of the local League.

They also are available at the A & P and Acme markets today and tomorrow as well as at the New Providence and Berkeley Heights public libraries.

Heights Plans Cut in School Bus Service

Berkeley Heights—The Board of Education soon hopes to put more school children on foot and eventually more dollars in taxpayer's pockets by decreasing school bus transportation services.

Under a plan being studied by the Board, to be placed into effect when new sidewalk facilities are installed, first and second graders will walk up to seven-tenths of a mile and eventually one mile.

Third through fifth graders now walk if they reside within 1.3 miles of a school and this distance may be increased to 1.5 miles for third and fourth graders with fifth through eighth graders walking up to two miles. Kindergarten pupils will still ride school buses regardless of the distance from home to school.

The changes were proposed by Edwin K. Little who also urged an "understanding" with the Township Committee and Planning Board on sidewalks. Little suggested that walks be constructed on the east side of Fairfax drive from Park avenue to the Mountain Park School, along the commercial sections of Springfield avenue, and that a temporary walk be built on Mountain avenue from Deepdale drive to Cornell avenue.

The Board also hired Mrs. Amy Hausmann of South Plainfield as librarian for Columbia School at an annual salary of $6,300. She will receive $4,410 for the period from December 1 to the end of the school year in June.

Approval was given to a list of 42 substitute teachers and an additional $300 was granted to Walter George who has completed advanced study. In other business the Board voted to take out personal liability insurance for all teachers, received bids for cafeteria supplies and went on record as supporting the College Bond issue.

Heights Artists To Exhibit Work For Art Week

Berkeley Heights—Four local artists, Gershon Benjamin, John McDonough, Hugh Lauren Mills and Fred Scheff will be honored with an open house art exhibit and tea on Sunday afternoon, November 1. The art department of the Woman's Club of Berkeley Heights is sponsoring the event to open American art week November 1-7.

American Art Week is sponsored by the American Artist's and Professional League and is held annually to increase the layman's interest in art and to assist the artist. Mayor Arthur Manner has proclaimed the week of November 1-7 American Art Week in Berkeley Heights and oils, water colors, sculpture and ceramics by local artists both amateur and professional, will be on display in the library, schools and local business establishments.

Tea will be served by members of the art department: Mrs. August Arace, Mrs. James Bryan, Mrs. Carl Gronberger, Mrs. Roger Ellert, Mrs. Valentine Green, Mrs. Wm. Horak, Mrs. Harold Hyland, Mrs. Clarence Jackson, Mrs. Thomas Lumley, Mrs. Edward Spencer, Mrs. Thomas Summerhour, Mrs. Glenn Walling, Mrs. Herbert Walters, Mrs. Thomas Williams, and Mrs. Durbin Woolford. Mrs. William Watson is chairman of the art department.

The public is cordially invited to attend the exhibit and tea from 3 to 5 p.m., Sunday November 1.

Evening Units Of Club List Program Events

Berkeley Heights—The public welfare department of the Woman's Club of Berkeley Heights is giving a party for veterans at Lyons Veterans Hospital on Tuesday evening, October 27. Cakes will be donated by club members and those planning to attend will meet at Union Village educational building at 7 p.m.

The next regular meeting of the department will be held on Wednesday, October 28, at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Russell Romond, 1120 Mountain avenue. A tour of the Rescue Squad building will be made by members, and Mrs. Thomas Moffat will give a demonstration of the new method of artificial respiration. Those members planning to attend have been asked to dress in slacks or shorts.

M. Miller, associated with the World of Tile, will demonstrate the art of decorating small and large objects, from trivets to tables with ceramic and mosaic tiles on October 27 at 8:15 p.m. for the American Home department of the evening membership department.

The meeting will be held at the home of the chairman of the department, Mrs. Harry Hunt, Lenape Lane.

Boro Insurance Policy Chided by Local Agent

NEW PROVIDENCE—Insurance man James Morris made his third trip before the Borough Council this week. His first two visits concerned what he termed the "inequities of placing local insurance out of town."

This week, he presented the findings of a personal study of New Providence insurance coverages. In what Mayor Samuel Jones termed "a very interesting expose," Morris pointed out alleged deficiencies in various Borough insurance policies covering both buildings and equipment. The local business man said he was sorry Councilman John Clay was not present to hear his report since Mr. Clay as head of the insurance committee had debated heatedly with Morris in the past.

After Morris concluded with a discussion of the adequacy of workmen's compensation coverage, Mayor Jones summed up with an aside remark to the Council—"a report from a local man who is trying to get local insurance."

Merritt, Calvary Episcopal Church; Rev. James Mass, Christ Church; Miss Lois Mase, Oakes Methodist Church, and Mrs. Robert Teel, Friends.

On the lighter side, the Board of Recreation is again sponsoring a bonfire on Halloween night, at Memorial Field with a program starting at 8 p.m., featuring a costume contest. Prizes will be awarded for the funniest, cutest, ugliest and most original disguises.

Games and contests with prizes for winners will be included in the program. The Bonfire will start at 9 p.m. Doughnuts and cider will be served and a record-dance will also be held in the bonfire area.

Annual Painting Contest Also, as in years past, the Optimist Club will hold its annual Halloween window painting contest on October 28 with judging to take place the following day. One hundred local windows will be decorated with the symbols of the season by local high school and private secondary school students. In addition to Summit High School, Kent Place School, Oratory School and Oak Knoll School of the Holy Child will participate.

Committee for the event includes Allen Butler, Harry A. Taylor and Dr. Murray Ross.

Next to Vatican City, Monaco is the world's smallest state, only about 370 acres in area.

Heights Voters May Get New School Proposal

Berkeley Heights—Residents may be called upon again by the Board of Education to vote on another school site as a substitute for the Plainfield avenue-Emerson Lane site rejected last week by only four votes.

School board members are studying a proposal which would offer voters three choices. One would be to acquire a different site on Emerson Lane, or, (2) another site on Union County property in Horseshoe road, or, (3) no site at all for the time being.

It was reported that the Horseshoe road land might be bought from the county for $5,500 per acre. It consists of almost nine acres.

Board members said that in spite of the defeat of the Emerson Lane property, it still was favored because it would cost $10,000 less than the Horseshoe road land and its location also would reduce school bus costs. The Board considered meeting again with the Township Committee and Planning Board to discuss the problem and then might call a public meeting to re-present the Emerson Lane property to citizens.

Heights Girls to Visit Douglass College Camp

Berkeley Heights—Five local girls, juniors at Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, will visit Douglass College campus on Saturday for a tour of the college, a picnic lunch and the Rutgers-Lehigh football game. They are Judy Barlow, Diane Chirba, Joan Massa, Mary Ragan and Barbara Heller. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Victor Massa.

Flood Control at Home Sites Sought in Boro

New Providence—In a move to curtail flood conditions homes not yet constructed in the Borough, Councilman Lawrence Mezzacca this week recommended a change in the ordinance covering proximity of new houses to brooks.

Mezzacca requested the current distance of 50 feet from brooks be extended to 100 feet where the "big brook," or Salt Brook, is concerned. The matter will be discussed further at the next council meeting.

Heights Club to Give Puppet Show Saturday

Berkeley Heights—To delight and amuse children from 2 to 12, Mrs. Douglas Brush and Mrs. Donald Tilden, ways and means chairmen of the evening membership department of the Berkeley Heights Woman's Club have arranged for a puppet and magic show to be held October 24 at the Berkeley School.

Miss Jennie Rapicano, well known puppeteer from the Oranges, and Richard Block of Livingston will entertain. Show time is 2 p.m.

Proceeds from the show will be used to help children at the Vineland State School for Girls.

Steel Strike Raises Boro School Costs

NEW PROVIDENCE—Bids amounting to 11 per cent more than anticipated were awarded this week by the Board of Education for the construction of an addition to and improvement of Lincoln School. Major culprit behind the price climb is the steel strike. Even so, construction is set for less than two weeks.

Allen W. Roberts, superintendent of schools, recommended the Board of Education accept the higher prices because of the critical shortage of classroom space.

Successful bidders were: general construction, Becker Construction of Newark, $235,422; steel, Minkoff Steel and Iron of Passaic, $25,200; plumbing, John Duvany of Murray Hill, $33,296; heating and ventilating, Associate Engineers of Clifton, $73,956; and electrical, Eldo of West Orange, $33,951. The total is $401,825.

Buying a New Car?

Here's how Allstate may help you save $100 or more on auto financing and insurance

Offhand you wouldn't expect to call an insurance agent about auto financing. But part of Allstate's service to customers is an auto finance bank plan that might easily save you $100 or more. Here's how it works:

1. Select the car you want, new or used. Find out how much cash you'll need to buy it.
2. Give this information to your Allstate Agent. He'll tell you to the penny what the low finance charges will be through a cooperating bank... what you'll pay for top-quality, low-cost Allstate auto insurance... and what your total monthly payments will be.
3. As soon as you give him the go-ahead, he'll help make the loan arrangements, and handle the details. Then he'll hand you a check.
4. Take the check to the car dealer.

sign the papers, and drive your new car away. It's as simple as that. You get all the benefits of being a "cash buyer" when you select your car. And you get plenty of time to pay. Why not call your Allstate Agent right now, while you're thinking about it. Then you'll be all set to save money when it's time to trade cars.

"May we help you?"

Home Growing Of Fruit Still Thrifty Practice
It costs very little more to grow your own home fruit today than it did twenty years ago, yet the choice, tree-ripened fruits have tripled or quadrupled in price if you can even buy them, says the American Association of Nurserymen.

usually by the pound and not many peaches or apples or other fruits come in a pound. If you're lucky enough to have land for two each of peach, pear, apple, plum and cherry trees you'll be in clover when it comes to delightful living, but even if you can have only a dwarf tree of two, it can be profitable and pleasurable. Grapes and small fruits like strawberries, raspberries and blueberries also might be considered.
