

WHEN THE CEILING CAME TUMBLING DOWN — A portion of the ceiling in the inside lobby of the Post Office is shown after it collapsed early last Monday morning. There were no injuries and the United States General Services Administration, owner of the building quickly cleaned up the mess. Collapse of the ceiling, is attributed to heavy weekend rains which apparently inundated the space between the roof and ceiling. The section shown above was an estimated 500 square feet. The collapse, took place about 4:15 a.m. Had it come four hours later, a spokesman for the Post Office said injuries would probably have occurred since the section shown contains public counters for certified mail, general delivery and stamps and is generally occupied by customers and Post Office personnel. The building, containing the collapsed ceiling is an estimated seven years old and was part of an expansion program. (C.E. Coveney Photo)

Route 24 Work is Started

The Department of Transportation has announced that improvement of the intersection of Route 24 Freeway with John F. Kennedy Parkway, River road, and Main Street in Summit, Millburn and Chatham began yesterday.

The $5,258,582.85 project calls for construction of bridges, also grading and paving for the .6 mile of roadway on the Freeway.

Two new service roads, north and south, will be built and a V-shaped bridge will carry the south service road and the ramp from the north service road over the Passaic River to Main street. Another bridge will be constructed to carry the south service road and connecting ramp over River road which will be relocated west of the present alignment.

John F. Kennedy parkway will connect with the north service road, Canoe Brook parkway with the south service road, and Wallace road will dead end at the south service road. Fourteen ramps will be constructed to provide access to and from the new freeway, relocated River road, John F. Kennedy Parkway and existing Route 24.

Construction will be carried out in stages, by Mohawk Constructors. Three temporary diversionary roads

Mayor Authorizes Creation Of Civil Rights Commission; Nominees Sought for Board

Summit will have a Civil Rights Commission, it was announced Tuesday night.

With the power of commission appointments in the hands of the mayor, Mayor David E. Trucks Tuesday night authorized Common Council President Elmer J. Bennett to advise that he was in the process of forming such a group.

Speaking for the mayor, Bennett pointed out that the Commission would be "fairly limited" in number in order to permit "effective operation."

He added that in order to preserve present contacts with the black community, Common Council would have at least one member on the Commission.

Mr. Bennett further indicated that the Mayor was presently welcoming suggestions of "qualified, willing" persons to serve on the Commission.

No Deadline

While pointing out that no deadline had been set, Mr. Bennett said the sooner suggestions for appointments were received, the sooner the commission would be created.

While not limiting recommendations to organizations, Mr. Bennett said it was suggested that groups making nominations limit themselves to one.

Councilman Frank H. Lehr pointed out that creation of the Commission would not in any way limit present Common Council contacts on a monthly basis with the black community. Councilman Edwin Votey added that the black community had approved of this continual contact.

Opposition to formation of the commission was voiced by one member of the audience.

Other Action

In other matters, Council: *Received a "Memorandum" of "Understanding" from the Housing Authority whereby 34 parking spaces would be constructed at the Glenwood Place Project area for public parking and that an additional nine would also be

Jefferson Land Eyed As Site of City Pool

A major step toward a municipal swimming pool in Summit was taken Tuesday night when Common Council endorsed a recommendation that city-owned land behind Jefferson School on Ashwood avenue in East Summit, be considered the prime site for such a pool. A 1971 target date for completion has been tentatively decided upon.

The recommendation came from the Board of Recreation and its pool architectural consultants, Vanderclute and Spies, of Cranford. At Tuesday's meeting, Council appropriated $2,000 for an engineering survey and soil studies at the site.

The move was applauded by many in attendance at Tuesday's meeting. A spokesman for the Community Council suggested that an advisory board be set up in regard to the proposed pool construction to work with the Board of Recreation. Council President Elmer J. Bennett said he didn't personally see the need for such a board but said creation of such a body would be up to the Board of Recreation. There was also some concern regarding the approach of Route 78 in relation to the pool's location. Mr. Bennett said that the highway would be separated from the pool site by at least one-half mile.

Two Sites Considered

Watson B. Smith, jr., chairman of the Board of Recreation pool committee, said that his group's study of several city-owned sites had narrowed down to two, Jefferson and Tatlock Recreation Field, and that the former had proved superior from every major consideration. "Now, if our engineering and soil analysis studies prove that the site is feasible for pool construction," Smith explained, "then we shall concentrate the balance of our preliminary work at this one location."

Eight Acres

In the opinion of the Board of Recreation and the architects, the Jefferson School tract of approximately eight acres is ideal for a major swimming facility. "The site provides a natural environment, screened from surrounding areas by woods

City Plans Gala July 4 Observance at Memorial

A substantial increase in the number of aerial fireworks will mark Summit's Fourth of July celebration during this, its centennial year.

The city's festivities will also include a five-act circus, children's rides, novelty races, a band concert and other events that have become part of the all-day Independence Day program at Memorial Field.

The budget for the 22nd annual celebration is larger this year than usual to provide for the extra rockets and star bursts that will go off in honor of Summit's 100th birthday, Phillips M. Delaney, Fourth of July Committee chairman, said.

The committee has already mailed program announcements to all city households asking for the contributions that its needs to meet costs of the celebration.

Highlight of the circus will be the Aerial Leighs, who will repeat an afternoon performance in the evening just before the fireworks start. The Leighs perform on a 40-foot-long aerial apparatus that resembles a seesaw. At each end are rotating circles in which they balance.

Three Car Accidents Hurt Four

The city's road injury toll continued to increase this week when four persons were hurt in three accidents.

Two persons were injured last Thursday when the car in which they were riding went out of control and crashed into a tree at Summit avenue and Whittredge road.

Overlook Chosen for Summer Shop Study

Overlook Hospital has been selected as one of 13 New Jersey hospitals which will be participating in an eight-week summer training educational project, known as SHOP.

The purpose of the program, which is being sponsored by the Hospital Research and Educational Trust of New Jersey, is to make urban high school students aware of the more than 250 career opportunities available today in voluntary hospitals.

In addition, the program is also designed to encourage students to consider furthering their education in preparation for hospital careers.

Funding of SHOP has been made possible by a $41,000 grant to the Trust, which represents the joint effort of CIBA, Summit; Schering Corporation, Bloomfield, and the Merck Company, Rahway, to help alleviate the shortage of health personnel.

A total of 70 students will participate in the program and will receive an educational stipend. All students will be selected on the bases of interest in health careers and scholastic achievement.

Students will rotate through various hospital departments, working under close professional supervision. Each hospital, selected because of proximity to urban areas, will have three to six students each.

Comment on Film

by Jon Plaut

When I first thought about the review I was going to write about Francois Truffaut's "Stolen Kisses", I had decided to do a multi-part review concerned with not only the film but also Truffaut's best works and his affect on the film industry. I wanted to do this because Truffaut is a major film maker with a highly individualized style and a theory about films which is very influential on other film makers. On reflections, I have decided that "Stolen Kisses" is too sweet, too unpretentious and too pleasant a film to stand all that analysis.

"Stolen Kisses" is the story of a few months in the life of a young frenchman just dismissed from the Army. The film is very misc-en-scene and simply records the adventures of this young man as he tries on life and uncovers a little self knowledge. The young man is played by Jean Leaud, who was the pre-adolescent delinquent in Truffaut's much earlier, "The 400 Blows".

The charm of "Stolen Kisses" is its simplicity, and this is not a strange thing to say about a Truffaut film. For, although he is one of the leaders of the French new wave, his films are not particularly abstruse or intellectual, nor are they filled with film techniques difficult for the uninitiated. Thus, Truffaut is not an intellectual or social film maker like Godard, nor is he the film theorist trying to capture time like Resnais. Almost without exception (the exception being "Fahrenheit 451", which was only spottily successful), Truffaut records basically uncomplicated stories about people seeking life, but alienated to some extent from it.

In "The 400 Blows" the alienation was from the parents and adults generally, and the youth was on the verge of criminality. In "Jules and Jim" the triangular lovers fought with the social conventions which continuously displaced them. In "Shoot The Piano Player" (Truffaut's masterpiece, thus far) the alienation is existential and eventually complete.

This simplicity of style does not mean that "Stolen Kisses" is not profound. It deals clearly with the differences between generations. The older one bad, Truffaut always aims first to entertain, and in that he has always (even in a miscalculation like "Fahrenheit 451") succeeded.

For those of my readers who are familiar with Truffaut's work and wish to be advised, I might say that I preferred "Stolen Kisses" to "Jules and Jim" (and it is in many respects quite like it, although not for me as tedious or repetitive), but do also feel that it falls quite a bit short of "Shoot the Piano Player". That rating by the way, for those uninitiated in the films of Truffaut, is a pretty high one.

plans and calculates its future, while the younger one lives more haphazardly and according to the moment. Truffaut, of course, drives this home in the concluding scene, but also in the highly romantic ones that precede it.

In the end, what I particularly like about each of the Truffaut films is that they are made in a lyrical, poetic style. Whether good or

When Will the Wait End?

Hopefully, the city may be finding its way out of the labyrinth of governmental bureaucracy and red tape in regard to the Glenwood Place Housing Project. If this is so, and the Housing Authority says it is, we say Amen!

The Housing authority, created by city statute in September, 1967, was formed primarily to replace the hovels many of our neighbors are forced to live in on Glenwood place. For nearly three years the Authority, in one way or another, has worked hard to come up with a solution to the thorny problem of financing a redevelopment project, and it was successful, when it decided to approach the city's private sector for money. The drive has been termed a success since an estimated $600,000 has been pledged.

However, it seems that the Housing Authority is still entwined in governmental rigamarole regarding the goal of obtaining an outright "OK" from the Federal Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Agency. If all goes well, and we hope it will, the city could expect from HUD an estimated $800,000 to put toward the $600,000 already raised privately. Together, the sum will easily finance the Glenwood Place Project estimated to cost around $1 million.

In order for the Glenwood Place

Project to get off the ground as soon as possible, we would hope that Federal grants are quickly forthcoming. We note that the Authority says it has made "considerable progress" in that revised site layouts and parking plans already have government approval. We would hope that the route to a final "OK" for everything, is short and smooth.

It goes without saying that work on the Glenwood Place Project should proceed as quickly as possible, if only for psychological reasons. For those who live there, start of the project would give many renewed hope. For those who contributed time and money toward the effort, start of the project would mean a successful fruition of their commitment. Also, what better way would there be to crown Summit's Centennial year than to start a major project aimed at helping a segment of our citizenry?

We know that patience must persevere and that the Housing Authority has done a monumental job in bringing the project to the point where it is today. However, since funds, that which were raised by Summit's private sector, are available, we wonder if a start could be made now? Such a start at the earliest possible time would mean much to many.

A Chance to Help Another

With school officially coming to a close tomorrow, summer vacation time surely must be here. The closing of school but signals the start of summer frolic, of trips to the shore, to the mountains and for many, to camp.

Summit is considered an affluent town and we are certain that many of our children will be shortly packing up their gear for two-week to even summer-long camping experiences. However, there are also children in Summit whose parents are not affluent, and their children are destined to stay in town to fend for themselves even though the Board of Recreation provides an excellent vacation play program.

For these children, summer can be long, boring and provide the temptations that can wind up in juvenile court. There is, however, one way to provide a segment of our youthful population the same kind of camping experience as others, and that is to donate to the Summit Herald's annual Fresh Air Camp Fund.

Won't you help today by sending in your contribution to the Summit Herald Fresh Air Camp Fund in care of the Summit Herald, 22 Bank Street, Summit, New Jersey 07901? You may not be thanked personally by the child you help send, but you will know in your own heart that you helped another.

Job Hunting a la SDS - Maplewood South Orange News

Members of Students for a Democratic Society, having brought disruption and riot to college campuses, today are seeking to strengthen their ranks with an alliance with industrial workers and, according to evidence offered by the New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce, are teaching their members to hoodwink prospective employers into giving them summer jobs.

The Chamber has issued a bulletin to its members, pointing out that SDS has prepared a summer Work-In plan which includes making false statements in order to gain employment which would lead them into contact with industrial employees. The plan is intended to "break down the barriers that are keeping students isolated." The work-in plan, as quoted by the Chamber, says: "As intellectual students who seek certain social changes we must begin to ally ourselves with the workers. We should not and cannot remain in our 'ivory tower.'"

Under "How to Get a Job," the student organization says most places won't hire students and urges its members to say they are high school graduates "with a former place of employment for the past one to four years." In faking prior employment, according to the SDS instructions, the applicant should "make sure your former boss knows about it and make sure you were 'laid off' due to slow business etc."

On draft status the instructions say: "Since 1-Y or even 4-F applicants are usually turned down, and 2-S immediately reveals your student status, try not to mention it and use your wits if they do."

Another instruction advises: "If you have to sign a 'non-communist' or 'non-subversive' statement, you can do so without breaking any law unless the company is doing government work (this would be stated). Discuss this with the group if you are unclear." On testing for the job, the instructions say: "If you take an aptitude test, don't show off. On a time test, answer about half the questions or they may be suspicious and want to use you in the 'front office.'"

We urge employers not to permit this insidious campaign to deter them from hiring the bright young people who legitimately seek summer jobs. We urge them also to be cautious in their hiring so that they do not fall victims to the nefarious plottings of a group bent on the destruction of the industries which they seek to infiltrate.

The photograph was taken either in front of the present Board of Health Building on Summit avenue or at the north west corner of Bank street. Would any old-time Summit resident know for sure? Explains PAL Dispute
Editor, Summit Herald:

There has been some implied criticism of the Wilson School baseball team for their having refused to accept the second place trophies recently awarded by PAL. As manager of the Wilson team, I would like the opportunity to defend the team and to commend their decision which I consider to be justified under the circumstances.

This situation rose out of a game played between Lincoln and Wilson on May 25. Both teams were undefeated prior to the game. The game was very close, the score being 1-1 until the last inning when Wilson got five runs, winning 6-1. An "unwritten, but understood PAL rule is that all boys who show up should play. It is an agreed upon fact that Wilson played 14 of the 18 boys who showed up for the game. The other four boys volunteered to me, as manager, that they were willing not to play because of the closeness of the score. It has been alleged, but uninvestigated and unproven, that Lincoln told only their better players to show up for the game and that others on the roster should remain at home.

At the game played the following week, Mr. Kelly (PAL representative who ran the league) asked the Wilson school team if there were players who had been at the Lincoln game but who had not played. The four boys who had not played answered that question truthfully but were not asked if they had volunteered not to play.

During the following week, several discussions were held as to how to reconcile this matter. Prior to the last game, held on June 8, another discussion was held at which the managers and coaches of both teams were present. Mr. Kelly stated that he would announce his decision at the conclusion of the game. After the game, in the presence of 30-40 boys and 15-20 parents, Mr. Kelly did announce that Wilson had won the league and that Wilson should show up at City Hall at 10 a.m. on Saturday, June 14 to receive the first place trophies. The same decision was sent to the Summit Herald by PAL and the Herald reported in its June 12 issue that Wilson was the "undisputed" champion.

On Wednesday evening, Mr. Kelly called me and announced that as a result of a number of telephone calls to him by Lincoln coaches and parents, he had reversed his decision and the Wilson team was to be suspended from the league and awarded neither first or second place trophies. There was not and never has been any "new evidence" or change in the facts between Sunday when Wilson was told it had won and Wednesday when Wilson was told it was suspended.

I advised Mr. Kelly that the Wilson team did not feel that the ruling to suspend was fair or equitable. After further discussion over two

A Piece of the Action?

Deal the students a piece of the action. That's the advice of the New Jersey Education Association on student participation in school affairs.

As "a first-hand model of a democratic institution," public education should involve students in "all phases" of school life, giving them a voice "from conceptualization to evaluation" in policies and practices that affect them.

However, student authority should be "clearly defined," says NJEA, "so that student expectations are realistic and not ultimately disillusioning." Moreover, students should be cautioned that participation in authority requires student responsibility.

"Obviously, the orderly conduct of education is impossible in an atmosphere of disruption," says NJEA. "Violence and vandalism in schools cannot be condoned. But, if schools cannot operate in an atmosphere of disruption, no longer can they operate in an atmosphere of repression."

Many school matters affect the student's present and future well being, NJEA notes. Discipline, staffing, curriculum, textbooks, guidance, job placement, college admission - all are "legitimate questions argued within the teaching profession and in the mass media."

But as much as anyone else, these questions concern the student himself. Thus he, too, should have a voice in proposing changes and improvements.

NJEA's committee on instruction and innovations wrote the recommendations on student involvement, because of widespread youthful unrest. NJEA's policy-making Delegate Assembly has adopted them, and NJEA is advising teachers and schools of its position.

The new NJEA policy takes some exception to the State Board of Education's recent memorandum asking New Jersey school districts to adopt grievance procedures for students and plans to cope with potential student disorder. Agreeing on the need, NJEA's proposals go a step further. They ask the schools to involve students in the formulation of these student grievance procedures. NJEA also wants schools to create "channels of communication" for parents and urges that parents be involved in developing them.

NJEA has been urging its local affiliates to establish joint teacher-administrator councils to advise boards of education on instructional matters. The new policy calls upon these councils to expand their membership to include parents and students.

Council Comment

Public Law Committee

The Public Law Committee is the committee charged with responsibility for the reviewing of the many ordinances introduced by the Council. The normal procedure is that the ordinances are introduced at one Council meeting and referred to the Public Law Committee for study and report at the following meeting. After advertisement in the Summit Herald, a public hearing is held and the Council considers the views expressed. The Public Law Committee then proposes the action which reflects the majority opinion of the Council members.

It is also established practice for the chairman or a member of the Public Law Committee to be appointed as the Council's representative to the Planning Board. By his personal knowledge of the actions of the Planning Board, he can explain to the Council in detail the Board's recommendations. Any matters such as approval of major subdivisions, parking plans, and amendments to the Zoning Ordinance must first be studied by the Public Law Committee and report made to the Council before any official action is taken.

A major part of the Public Law committee's responsibility is to review the transcript and recommendations of the Zoning Board of Adjustment on variances and exceptions to the Zoning Ordinance. The Committee confers with the City Solicitor and may recommend either one or three courses of action to the Council. It can recommend rejection of a favorable recommendation of the Zoning Board; it can recommend approval of the variance or exception, or it can recommend the recommendation to the Zoning Board for additional data and hearings.

Robert S. Stafford is chairman of the Public Law Committee and Ernest M. May is the other member.

The Public Buildings and Grounds Committee was originally, in 1921 called the Parks and Public Markets Committee. In 1934, the name was changed to Water, Light and Public Buildings Committee and in 1955 to Public Buildings and Grounds Committee. Its function is to supervise the operation of the Building Inspector's office and to investigate and recommend improvements to all public buildings and grounds, except those of the independent Boards.

In 1946, when the City Hall was relocated from the corner of Springfield avenue and Summit avenue to its present location it was the responsibility of the Water, Light and Public Buildings Committee, as it was called at that time, to review the plans and determine what would be the necessary space for all of the Departments which at that time included the offices of the Board of Education. The public will recall that the original plans for the conversion of the "Hamilton School" to a City Hall were rejected upon the recommendation of the Committee and Council as being too costly and the present renovations which were thought sufficient and adequate were made.

In 1959, under the Committee's supervision, further renovations were made to the Municipal Building and the Board of Health Building due to growth of City Departments. The Board of Education offices were moved to their present location and the Welfare Department was transferred to the Board of Health building.

In 1969, upon the Committee's recommendation, the Parks and Shade Tree and Welfare Departments were moved from the Board of Health building to the building adjacent to the City Hall at 520 Springfield Avenue. This change will result in more efficient operation and utilization of office personnel.

The three major future projects which are being considered by the Public Buildings and Grounds Committee along with other Council Committees and the entire Council are the Five-Stage expansion program of the Public Works complex on Chatham Road, the problem of multi-level parking facility in the business section of the City, and the future construction of a new City Hall and Community Center.

Horace Kennedy is chairman of the Public Buildings and Grounds Committee and Edwin S. Votey is the second member.

This comment concludes the discussion of the Council Standing Committees and the next two Comments will deal with the program for the reevaluation of the taxable real property now being conducted in Summit by the Municipal Revaluations company.

IN FINLAND — As a member of the World Committee, Mrs. Malcolm S. Edgar, 76 New England avenue, will attend the 20th World Conference of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts now being held in Finland from June 17 to 28. She is a member of the World Committee. Mrs. Edgar, a long time resident of Summit, was president of the Summit Girl Scout Council from 1939-41. She is presently chairman of the international selections committee for the World Association of Girl Guiding and Girl Scouting, and is also an active member of the board of directors of the Girl Scout Council of Greater Essex County with which Summit and New Providence Girl Scouting is affiliated.

one game to Lincoln and award Lincoln first place and Wilson second place. This decision was made known at 9:45 a.m. with the award ceremony scheduled for 10 a.m. I told the Wilson boys of the PAL decision and their virtually unanimous decision was not to accept second place. This was the boys decision alone, made by themselves. They had been prepared to protest the original decision suspending them and took their posters to City Hall protesting their being deprived of first place which they felt they had rightfully won on the baseball field. Their non-acceptance of second place trophies and their handing in of their PAL shirts followed as a logical consequence of their decision.

We often wonder why the younger generation appears to be in revolt against the "establishment!" This incident is an example of one primary reason. When an organization says one thing and then behaves in exactly the opposite fashion, people, particularly children, will act on what the organization does, not what it says. Over 100 years ago, Emerson said "what you are thunders so loud that I cannot hear what you say to the contrary." This statement is very applicable in this situation.

We say to our youth that they should tell the truth and they will be rewarded. But they tell the truth when they say they did not play in that game, and yet, without opportunity to explain why they didn't play, they are punished by being denied their trophies. What will they do the next time they are faced with a similar situation?

We say to them that only the guilty should be punished. If there was any guilt, it was mine as a manager, yet they, the innocent, are deprived of their trophies. What do they learn from this?

We say to them that a man's word is his bond. They were told that they had won. No new evidence was presented to change the decision and yet it is reversed. It is obvious to them that pressures can be brought to bear to win politically what cannot be won on the baseball field. Do they learn something from this?

Finally, in observing them through this period, I believe that they have also learned something of value. They have learned that a man stands up for what he believes is right and does not accept the comfortable, adult solution of second place trophies when he knows in his own heart, that he has won first place. If they take this truth with them out of nights, it was decided to hold a meeting at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday morning with the PAL Advisory Board. At that meeting, I stated that since both teams had been told at various times that they had won, the only way a decision could be reached which would have a degree of acceptance by both sides would be to replay the game with the winners getting first place trophies and the losers getting second place trophies.

I told the board that any other result would appear to the boys to be an arbitrary adult decision which they would not accept gracefully.

There was no support from any other source for a playoff game.

The result of this meeting was a decision to forfeit that

Price of Progress

Editor, Summit Herald:
The Summit Herald has proved its usefulness for these many years! (Is it 60 years old?) But, as a subscriber for eight or so years, I feel an urge to argue with the second editorial in the issue of June 12, regarding noise!

Granted, we will all be prematurely deaf (which will be dandy for the ear-doctors), but your editorial "What Did You Say?" is just plain ridiculous! Has the author read "Airport"? Doesn't he (or she) know that noise is the price we pay for our modern conveniences, and that we just have to live with it?

I do hope I don't know the author, or (heaven, help me!) the author's spouse. Because, surely the author is either an old grouch, or a dedicated newspaper person who is privileged to work until dawn and sleep until noon. Obviously he (or she) has never realized that early mornings and evenings are cooler times (and I'm thinking specifically of the power motor complaint). Also, I think the grass, itself, reacts better in the cool, so that mowing is necessarily an early morning, or late afternoon thing to do.

Why pick on the Saturday and Sunday mowers? Are they not the "tired business men" who have no other chance in which to accomplish this wearisome task? (After all, they have only survived auto traffic, police whistles, subway jams, and left their sanctified offices, where typewriters clack, adding machines tick and computers do all manner of strange things).

We could, perhaps, go back to "As the Earth Turns", "The Good Earth", or maybe to Russian literature. In all of these, methinks, women did the heavy tasks. (At their own pace, let's hope!)

Does the author not know that an American woman's world, today, consists of noise — frequently unabated, unending noise? In my case (a housewife), the noise starts at 5:30 a.m.; with two cats meowing "out". If I'm lucky, the cats don't meow "in for breakfast" until 7 a.m. At 7, the alarm clock shrieks off, anyway, as we don't own the purring kind which ends in rock'n roll.

Also, at 7, John Gambling's program is turned on. John, himself, may be a relaxed soul, but the news reports are usually about shootings in N.Y.C. during the night, fires — anywhere, and, of course, the ghastly reports about Vietnam. The report is disquieting, to say the least!

It is now 6:30 p.m., and my daughter is practicing on the piano. (Actually, this is my favorite half-hour). But, in the hours between the practicing and the cats' meowing (or the dog's barking), have come the dishwasher (it rumbles a bit), the old second hand washing machine, the refrigerator clicking on and off (in season, the oil burner does this, too), and there have been the sounds of an electric razor, of showers being taken, doors being slammed, phones ringing, doorbells going "ding-dong", children playing outside, occasional cars going by. And, at 6:30 p.m., I can look forward to several hours of TV ringing in my ears.

My goodness, I've forgotten the cheery shouts and clangings of the garbage men, the pre-dawn milk deliveries, and probably many other things, including train whistles, birds cheeping, supermarket-buzz, thunder storms, bees, flies, bridge parties, and the grinding gears of a bus. If someone is near the shore, one just might be able to hear a wave break, or a distant fog-horn!

My arguments, really are two: that if one must complain, couldn't it be about something vital, and that lawn mowing is a necessary and almost negligible sound — in this noisy world.

In the Venezuelan jungle, the monkeys chitter all night. In Colombia, church bells ring. (Even in England, church bells toll.) In Rio de Janeiro my main sorrow — was that there wasn't any noise, religious or otherwise — in their celebration of Christmas. (They save that for their five days of Carnival!)

Air traffic is something else! The concerned citizens of Martha's Vineyard are fighting it, right now, tooth and nail, although their gardens are still whizzing with power motors in the early morning.

Cars are yet another problem. I believe there is a rule about mufflers? Otherwise, surely most of the car noises come under the heading of stupid driving (and not always by teenagers!)

Air conditioning is my answer to most of the editorial's complaints. It insulates one, the gentle hum is restful, and the Ivory Tower remains inviolate. (one can still buy ear-muffs, too!)

My daughter answered more directly, more simply, "Imagine if you woke up and there was no noise! Why, you'd think you were dead!"

and topography," Smith said. "This natural wooded area would create a beautiful parklike setting and at the same time provide the privacy a pool complex should have, benefiting both the area's residents and the pool's users."

Bigger Area

Smith pointed out that the size of the Jefferson site was greater than any other area available in Summit and, aside from making it possible to provide a large grassy area and play facilities in conjunction with the pool, had the "advantage of future expansion potential."

In its progress report to Council which recommended the Jefferson site, the Board of Recreation also set forth a tentative timetable that called for opening of the pool for the entire swimming season of 1971. The schedule includes architectural development and planning work for the balance of this year; bidding, grading, construction and planting in 1970; and completion by Memorial Day 1971.

"It is our present plan to complete the preliminary studies at Jefferson, and then present a proposed pool development to Common Council for its consideration. At this stage, we shall be in a position to propose membership fees and other details of pool operation. Then, depending upon the response, including cash deposits signifying membership intent, we shall know if we are to have a municipal swimming pool and, if so, its size and cost."

Smith added that Council and the Board of Recreation were aware of the need to make certain that the pool is available to all residents of the Community, and that studies were going forward on this aspect of the pool planning. "We want to be sure that all citizens, including those unable to afford memberships, will have an opportunity to participate in this proposed new recreational facility," he said. Thomas Greaney, 50 Tanglewood drive, was valedictorian at the 62nd annual commencement of Oratory Prep on June 12. The ceremonies marked the second graduation at the school since the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Newark assumed administration of the school.

Diplomas were presented by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Joseph H. Tuitt, superintendent of schools of the Archdiocese. The commencement address was delivered by Rev. Dr. Frank LoBianco, chairman of the special education department of the Mount Carmel Guild.

In his valedictory address Mr. Greaney extended the thanks of the class of 1969 to the Archdiocese of Newark under which the Oratory School academic program has been enriched. He noted the 70% increase in enrollment for the coming school year as an indication of the transformation that has occurred at the school during the past year. Mr. Greaney, who has been admitted to the school of Engineering of the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., assured the guests that the "class of 1969 will, with responsibility, meet the challenges of modern society."

On the dais at Commencement were two former Oratory Headmasters, Rev. John J. Bain, and Rev. Dr. Joseph Russell. The present Headmaster, Rev. Michael J. Fitzpatrick, presented the graduates.

Overlook agreed to honor the card because, in Dalton's words, "It promises to simplify billing and help reduce operating costs. We are fighting a constant battle to hold costs down for patients in every way possible by utilizing modern business methods."

Administration officials, lasted three days with all elements of the Cape being visited including all Air Force and NASA facilities.

having the largest cubic volume of any building in the world. Major Linker said the building is the equivalent of 56 stories high with two doors at each end of the building. Four Saturn booster rockets with their Apollo payloads on top can be assembled at one time within the structure.

Major Bennett reported that when the doors, which extend up some 40 stories high, are opened the entire United Nations Building in New York City could be rolled into the VAB with space to spare on each side. Also described was how the top section of the building is climatized to prevent rain showers. It is so huge it creates its own weather.

Organizations may contact Majors Bennett or Linker if they would like to see slides in color taken on the trip.

OVERLOOK TO ACCEPT BANKAMERICARD — Gavin Spofford, president of Summit and Elizabeth Trust Company, points to BankAmericard decal on front door of Overlook Hospital. Overlook has become one of the first hospitals in New Jersey to accept a national credit card. Looking on is T.J. Dalton, at left, director of the hospital's financial management operation, and Robert Heinlein, director. Summit and Elizabeth Trust Company is an associate licensee of BankAmericard for New Jersey.

Hospital Care Now ! Pay Later ! Is Overlook's Latest Service

Hospital care now, pay later! Instant medical I.D.! This is a new system for bill payments at Overlook Hospital made possible by the institution's adoption of BankAmericard. Overlook became one of the first hospitals in New Jersey to accept a credit card because it offered the best method of helping us solve our collection problems, while providing our patients with a simple way of paying those bills that are not covered by some form of hospitalization insurance," according to T.J. Dalton, director of Overlook's Financial management operation.

Dalton points out that hospitals face a more acute collection problem than most retail businesses. "About 40 percent of Overlook's patients have Blue-Cross-Blue Shield, while another 30 percent are covered by Medicare. The remaining 30 percent have other types of hospitalization plans or no coverage at all. Additionally, nearly every hospital patient incurs charges such as phone, blood and private room differential; that are not covered by insurance. It's to the patient's advantage to charge these extras on a credit card," Dalton remarks.

Collection Important
Collection is especially important for non-profit hospitals like Overlook, which refuses treatment to no one. "Because there are indigent patients who simply cannot afford to pay, it is imperative that we collect from all those who can," says Dalton.

Although Overlook is believed to be the first New Jersey hospital to honor a national credit card, it has always offered alternate financing plans. Dalton notes that hospitals have traditionally referred patients to banks for loans to finance their treatment. "But if the debtor fails to pay the bank, the loan can be returned to the hospital for collection. With BankAmericard, there is no recourse. We get the money we need to continue operating. It's up to the credit card people to collect the money from the patient."

The benefits to patients are manifold. "When an incoming patient presents his credit card, it reduces red tape to a minimum," Dalton reports. "This is important in an emergency room situation."

There is little or no lag between the time the hospital submits the credit card vouchers to the bank and the crediting of the proper amount to its account. "The hospital is reimbursed almost immediately, and this helps reduce collection costs. Sometimes we spend almost as much in letters, postage, and clerical time to collect a small emergency room charge as the charge itself," Dalton adds.

It also enables patients to pay off their hospital bills on a "monthly revolving charge plan. "Quite often people enter the hospital unexpectedly," Dalton explains. "Although they have the ability to pay their bills, they are sometimes unprepared to do so at the time the statement is rendered."

An important reason for selection of Overlook as one of the first BankAmericard hospitals in New Jersey was the institution's location in the center of an area of general affluence in which "Is the Universe, Including week's Bible Lesson-Sermon which will be heard Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

In the Responsive Reading, taken from Job, one verse asks: "Where wast thou of the earth?"

A correlative passage from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy reads: "The universe, like man, is to be interpreted by Science from its divine Principle, God, and then it can be understood;

but when explained on the basis of physical sense and represented as subject to growth, maturity, and decay, the universe, like man, is, and must continue to be, an enigma."

YMCA Leaders At St. Louis Convention

Kenneth W. Pearl, general executive of the Summit Area
YMCA, and Louis T.
Choquette, Y Central Division director, will join more than 10,000 professional and lay leaders at the YMCA's first national convention to be held in St.
Louis, today through June
22. Highlighting the YMCA's 125th Anniversary observance, the convention's chief purpose will be to set the course and direction for the 1970s.

The Young Men's Christian Association was founded in London in 1844
by George Williams, a 22 year old dry goods clerk, during the chaos and confusion of England's Industrial Revolution. New to London, he gathered a few friends to form a society designed to "steer young country fellows away from the city's perils and to help them and others build a better life."

Now, 125 years later, the YMCA serves the world. In the U.S. alone it has almost 6,000,000 members—approximately one fourth are women and girls—in 1,718 Associations.

One of these, the Summit Area YMCA, was founded in 1886 by Charles B. Grant to provide a place where young men of Summit could spend their evenings, rather than hanging about on street corners or drifting down to Hoboken to become acquainted with urban vice centers."

Today's Y, now in its 84th year locally, serves 5,218 members in the area—not only young men, but boys, girls, men, women, and families—regardless of age, faith, or race. Less publicized than its multitude of mental and physical fitness programs is its work in providing counsel and friendship to individuals, in "building character and leadership in on-going generations of youth, and its services to the community."

program will be held from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m., and for those adults who cannot make the afternoon session there will be a program from 7:30 p.m.
to 9:30 p.m.

Only 55 people can be accommodated at each session. Registrations will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

Applications are now available at the Trailside Nature and Science Center, in the Watchung Reservation.
There will be no fee for the program.

Live below your means.

If you'd like to get around the high cost of living, we have a suggestion.

Cut down on the high cost of getting around. And buy a Volkswagen. It's only $1799* That's around $1200 less than the average amount paid for a new car today. (Leave it in the bank. More's coming.)

A VW saves you hundreds of dollars on upkeep over the years.

It takes pints, not quarts, of oil. Not one iota of antifreeze.

And it gets about 27 miles to the gallon. The average car (thirsty devil that it is) only gets 14.

So the more you drive, the more you save. And chances are, you'll drive it for years and years. (Since we never change the style, a VW never goes out of style.)

Of course, a VW's not much to look at. So a lot of people buy a big flashy car just to save face.

Try putting that in the bank.

SPORTS

Summit High Awarded Conference Cup For All-Round Sports Team Success

For those fans who still may have their doubts, it was proven last week that Summit was the best school in the Suburban Conference this year.

The proof came in the form of a gigantic trophy which signifies the Suburban Conference Olympic Cup, for the school with the most successful teams over the broad spectrum of high school sports.

Points are awarded to each varsity team according to the number of wins it had, on a scaled basis. Hence, football carries the most weight, followed by track, wrestling, and soccer, basketball, and baseball. The remaining sports receive only one point per win.

Summit's overall record for the year was 59-36-3, giving Summit a total of 122 points. Second in the final standings was Verona, with 112, barely edging out Caldwell, 110 and Millburn, 108½. In the second division are Chatham Boro, who is leaving the conference next year, with 91 points, New Providence with 88½, Cedar Grove with 66½, and Madison finished last with 54.

The football team got 24 big points for Summit with its 6-1 record and tie for the conference championship with New Providence. Summit opened with a 26-0 loss to Morris Hills (nuff said), and trailed 12-0 in its only other non-conference game, against Fair Lawn. But in the fourth period quarterback Steve Schroeder threw two touchdown passes, and John Wiebe kicked two extra points to win the game and start Summit's victory machine.

In Trouble

Summit was in even worse trouble the next week, as they opened their Suburban Conference schedule with defending champ and pre-season favorite Madison. Summit trailed 13-0 before Schroeder got the Hilltoppers rolling just before halftime, with Brother Skip Schroeder scoring off tackle from the one. Wiebe made the big extra point, and a minute later Bob Stiner almost singlehandedly stopped Madison on Summit's goal line. With five minutes to go in the game, Summit got going again, and with two and a half to go Skip took a pass from Steve into the endzone to tie it. Wiebe's kick then won the game, and proved that last year's young Hilltoppers had come of age.

From there Summit went on to rout Cedar Grove 42-0, and the week after, John Marcelliano's second-period touchdown gave Summit a 7-0 win over New Providence, with whom they had been tied for first. From here Summit's defense was the key, as Summit won three games in a row by only one touchdown. Marcelliano scored to beat Millburn 7-0, and he scored along with Dave Heitkamp to beat Caldwell 13-7, despite a late rally. Summit dropped a disappointing game 13-6 to Verona, to force a three-way tie for first, but on the last day Summit crushed Chatham Boro 41-0, with Heitkamp scoring on three touchdown passes, and finished tied with New Providence for the championship. And Summit has more returning starters again this year than anyone else in the Conference, indicating that the other teams will have to watch out for Summit again next year. Especially Verona.

Summit's soccer team had its best year in a long time, finishing with a 10-4-1 record and a bright outlook for next season. The Summit soccermen were, in fact, the third biggest point-getters for Summit, with 19. Led by top-scorer Gordon Hartley and a tough defense sparked by all-conference halfback Bill Stockbridge and goalie Doug Sullivan, who recorded eight shutouts, Summit made it into the state tournament, where they lost in the opening round 0-0 because of corner kicks.

Summit had only three teams with losing records in their Suburban Conference schedule. The cross-country team was 4-6, the wrestling team, highly successful otherwise, though only 2-3 in the conference, and basketball, 6-8.

Summit's track team, particularly strong in the running events, was second in the conference in dual meets and third in the Suburban Conference meet, compiling a total of 22 points. The baseball team, despite a disappointing 8-13-1 record overall, was 7-6-1 in the Conference, mainly on the strength of its pitchers, Paul Sperco and Steve Schroeder.

Summit's tennis team, led by Steve Nycum and George Krieger, won the state championship, after finishing third in the Conference with a 10-4 record.

Without the golf team, Summit may never have made it. It was the lack of a golf team that had kept Summit from winning the Cup before, but this year's golfers, only in their second year, were 8-4-1 in the Conference, compiling 8½ big points.

But winning the Olympic Cup does not mean Summit can rest on its laurels. On the contrary, the Hilltoppers now have something to protect. And it is interesting to note that of all the winning teams Summit had, not one won an uncontested championship. So there is much still to strive for. And the outlook for next year is extremely rosy, with flocks of lettermen returning everywhere. In fact, there is already talk at the school of going undefeated next year — in everything.

Each team in the spring sports schedule played an important part in Summit's winning the Olympic Cup.

Nycum Beaten In Net Semis

SUMMIT — Steve Nycum of Summit High was defeated in the semifinals of the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association's singles tennis tournament last week by Bob Tanis of Wayne Valley High, 6-2, 6-2.

Tanis went on to win the State title when highly favored Jeff Miller of Scotch Plains-Fanwood High was forced to default due to a previous commitment to play in the New Jersey State Men's Tennis Championships.

Cellar Dwellers Lead

SUMMIT — The Cellar Dwellers and Savages have taken over first place in the two divisions of the Board of Recreation's High School Softball League.

The Cellar Dwellers (4-1) lead the Royals (3-1-1) and Frogs' Follies' (2-2-1) in Division I, with the 5th Estate (2-3), Wrecking Crew (2-3) and East Side Boys (1-4) trailing.

The Savages (3-1) have a one-game edge over the Budweiser Nine, Expos and Mets (2-2) in Division II, with the Sophomore Jinx (1-3) trailing.

Warren Hills Teacher To Coach Cage Squad

There will be a lot of talent on the Summit High basketball team next year, and one of the most talented will be permanently on the bench. The new head coach for Summit will be Dale Wilson, who joins the Hilltoppers from Warren Hills High School, where he coached the basketball team to a 23-2 record this year.

Wilson replaces Lee Ammerman, who announced his resignation earlier this spring.

In eight years of coaching at Warren Hills Wilson compiled an incredible record of 136-42 and eight winning seasons.

A 1957 graduate of West Virginia Institute of Technology, where he played basketball and golf, Wilson coached a Wheeling, West Virginia, high school, and in 1958 moved to East Liverpool, Ohio. Since 1961 he has established a strong reputation for himself at Warren Hills, a school similar in size to Summit. His teams, known for their man-to-man defense, had their best years in 1964-65, when they were 21-3, and this year.

Besides the head basketball coach job, Wilson will also coach the golf team and teach Physical Education and Driver Education.

Ammerman, whose team was 10-10 this year, will be going to Lake Havasu City, Arizona, where he will be athletic director of a new high school.

It was also learned that Lou DiParisi will replace Ammerman as junior varsity soccer coach. DiParisi was freshman football coach this year. There has been no decision yet as to who will replace head wrestling coach Roger Tremblay, who is definitely leaving Summit High to go into business.

Summit's Freshmen Set Many Season Records

SUMMIT — Summit High's freshmen baseball team rolled to a 13-1 record this season and, in the process, set a number of records. The 13 wins were the most ever for the Summit nine, as was a winning streak of 11 games.

Outstanding all season for Summit was the pitching staff of Roger Hudgins and Mike Reid. Hudgins set individual records for total wins (8); number of innings pitched (61); and strikeouts (95), as he recorded a record of 8 wins against 1 loss.

Reid was just as difficult to hit, winning five games without a loss, and giving up only six walks during the entire season. Both pitchers were extremely stingy in allowing runs, Roger pitching three shutouts and Mike two.

The earned run averages were just as spectacular, Reid's being 0.92 and Hudgins' 1.03. The Hilltoppers' batting attack was led by Greg Pecca, with a .366 average, which was just a shade better than Richard Comstock's .362.

Both boys paced the team in runs scored with 10 each, while Pecca set a new record for runs batted in with 13. Comstock's 17 stolen bases set a new team record and his 17 hits tied the old season record.

Managers were Don Henry and Paul Quinn. Coaching the freshmen was Arthur Cotterell.

4 Score 'Aces' At Summit Club

Four holes-in-one were scored last week at the Summit Municipal Golf Course.

Tom Fusco of 10 Park Pl., Summit, and Frank Dalbo scored "aces" on the No. 3 hole.

Robert Paxson of 10 Ashland Rd., Summit, "aced" the second hole, while Courtney Cromwell, 131 Broad St., Summit, scored a hole-in-one on the eighth hole.

Letters for Corcoran

Bourke Corcoran of 69 Division Ave., Summit, was awarded varsity football and basketball letters during the annual Sports Banquet at Curry College in Milton.

Mass. Letters and sweaters were presented to 72 athletes in five varsity sports by Athletic Director Richard Lasse and his coaching staff.

Keimel Posts Record of 4-2

Fred Keimel of Berkeley Heights posted a 4-2 record this season for Montclair

State College's baseball team, which finished with a 14-5 mark.

Keimel, who had a 2.99 earned run average, worked 36 2/3 innings, allowing 28 hits and striking out 28. He had a three-year mark of 11-2.

Fred is a former Governor Livingston Regional High standout in baseball.

Beacon Hill Nine Nips Balish With Late Rally

SUMMIT — Trailing 3-0 in the seventh inning, Beacon Hill erupted for four runs on four hits, a walk and an error to nip Balish, 4-3, and knock the losers out of a tie for first place in the Summit Men's Recreation Softball League.

Charlines won two one-run decisions last week and took over undisputed possession of first place with a 10-2 record. Balish has a 9-3 mark and is one game back. Beacon Hill (6-6) is in third place, four games out of the lead.

Charlines downed Pulverizing, 9-8, in an extra inning after Pulverizing had rallied to tie the score in the seventh inning. The league leaders survived a 15-hit assault by Sperco in posting a 9-8 triumph.

Beacon Hill balanced its season record by nipping Sperco, 2-1, and took third place, one game in front of Chubb & Son. Balish broke a 5-5 tie in the last of the seventh inning on a sacrifice fly in edging Chubb & Son, 6-5.

Trailing 10-8 in the bottom of the seventh inning, Chubb & Son scored three times to edge Pulverizing, 11-10.

CAR TOPICS

Have you ever watched the owner of a poorly trained pup trying to walk his dog on a leash?

By the end of the stroll, they both are exhausted: the master from continually trying to pull his errant pooch back on the track, and the dog from tugging the other way and having walked at least twice the distance his master covered.

After a few sessions in a good obedience course, the pup heels comfortably and an evening's outing becomes a relaxing time for both.

This is not unlike the case of the car with faulty wheel alignment. The front wheels from want to head for the gutter, while the rest of the car (under its driver's influence) tries to go straight ahead.

By the end of a long day on the road, the driver is worn out and so are the wandering tires. They have been literally dragged sideways back on track every inch of the way.

Obedience training for wheels, of course, is accomplished in an alignment shop. A trained technician checks them for accuracy of toe-in, camber, caster and the other geometric factors that make the car steer and handle properly.

Part of this project is a close examination of all the linkage and suspension parts involved in the steering and suspension system. Loose parts cannot be kept in alignment.

If your car has power steering, which does a lot of the struggling for you, you may be unaware of misalignment. One finger on the steering wheel keeps you going straight ahead. But your tires know the difference.

You may be reducing the life of your tires by 20 or 30 percent just trying to pull them back on course. Their increased resistance will cause your car to use more gas, too.

Unlike the educated pup, your car needs a refresher course every six months in the form of an alignment checkup and, if necessary, adjustment.

You and your car both will be happier for it.

Rabbi Bial, from Israel, Tells Of the Development of Tel Aviv

The following is a letter recently received from Rabbi Morrison D. Bial of Temple Sinai, who has been on an extended visit to Israel. In the following letter, Rabbi Bial describes the cities of Tel Aviv and Jerusalem.

The full text of the letter follows.

The full text of the letter follows.

"Tel Aviv is celebrating its 16th anniversary. Until after World War I it was a tiny suburb of Jaffa, built on a few sand dunes and seeming of no more future than anything built on sand. Today both its population and its skyline rival those of Newark. It is a modern, bustling metropolis with traffic jams and slums. Buildings are going up everywhere and the architecture is often eye-catching. Wandering its streets, one can readily forget he is in the Middle East, in Asia, in a country still not at peace. Any loud noise will only be riveters at work or a pneumatic drill down the road. The cars are many, the people well-dressed, the girls especially so.

Modern and Peaceful

"New Jerusalem is much like Tel Aviv in looking modern and peaceful. There are many more trees and glorious gardens. But one cannot walk more than a minute in any part of Jerusalem without encountering reminders of its special status: an Arab woman wearing a dress that is a direct descendant of the garb of the wives of the Crusaders, and balancing a huge bundle on her head "no-hands", an Arab man with handle-bar mustaches

Solomon's Temple, to the Golden Gate, through which the 'Messiah' is to enter Jerusalem when he comes. Christian and Jew assure us often that he will be coming soon - "before you get back to America," said a Hasid to me last week, "very shortly, very, very shortly," said a pious Christian.

Until the Messiah does come the city and its diverse inhabitants go on. It is hot in Jerusalem now, but its beauties continue, physical and spiritual, Queen City to the world."
