MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 2001

You are at the dawn of a new decade, century and millennium. The question was raised so many times last year, was 2000 the start or the end of the millennium. The issue is mute now. The class of 2001 is the first class of this millennium. You now have to be the trailblazers for all others who follow. A new horizon rises before you. What new and intriguing issues await you?

There is constant talk of global warming and over population. The world searches for cures for diseases like cancer and AIDS. New and more difficult strains of a variety of diseases emerge every day. The rights of minorities and the oppressed are forever endangered. The solution to a fair and equitable distribution of resources and wealth among the people of the world is just beyond our grasp. Words like freedom, equality and democracy have a hallow ring to them for the majority of the world's population. Even though the fear of global conflict has receded, there is the constant sound of war drums in regional and sectarian fighting.

You enter a world bright with promise brought on by advancements in technology, science, medicine, industry and agriculture. Yet at the same time, we see a world froth with challenges and uncertainty. What role will each of you play in the future? You are now entering the adult phase of your lives. You will have to make difficult choices that will have a profound effect on yourself and others.

Take the valuable and broad based education and training that you have received at Waldwick High School and utilize it as a foundation when you enter college or with your post high school experiences. Combine a strong ethical and humane approach to life with your college and post high school training to formulate your philosophy of life. Be a responsible and productive citizen in society. Be willing to give more than you take from life.

FIELDHOUSE PAINTING

Our supportive class advisors: Mrs. Wolf and Mrs. DePetrillo

The field house painting has become a yearly tradition for seniors. This year's motto was "2001: We've just begun." Seniors spent the day planning, sketching, and painting a theme that not only summed up our four great years at Walldwick High School, but also looked towards the future.

FOREVER YOUNG- R. Stewart

May the good Lord be with you
Down every road you roam
And may sunshine and happiness
surround you when you're far from home
And may you grow to be proud
Dignified and true
And do unto others
As you'd have done to you
Be courageous and be brave
And in my heart you'll always stay
Forever Young, Forever Young

May good fortune be with you
May your guiding light be strong
Build a stairway to heaven
with a prince or a vagabond

And may you never love in vain
and in my heart you will remain
Forever Young, Forever Young
Forever Young, Forever Young

And when you finally fly away
I'll be hoping that I served you well
For all the wisdom of a lifetime
No one can ever tell

But whatever road you choose
I'm right behind you, win or lose
Forever Young, Forever Young
Forever Young, Forever Young ...

A large, stylized black fish is depicted, facing left. The year "2001" is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font across the middle of the fish's body. The fish's eyes are represented by two solid black circles. The background is white, with a large black shape extending from the bottom of the fish's body towards the bottom right of the page.

Wrestling Season Highlights

The season does not end till Feb. 23rd. Highlights up to this point have been the dramatic individual record improvements by all returning varsity letterman. Individual records have averaged over 5 wins each as compared to 2 last year. The team has two wins this year and many close matches that could have resulted in 5 more team wins as compared to last years single win. There will also be at least 6 potential place winners at the State District Tournament this year as compared to two last years with one returning place winner. Our biggest accomplishment this year has been a change in attitude into thinking we can win as a team instead of individual achievement.

Top Ten Reasons the Senior Class is happy to be leaving Waldwick High School

10. No more worrying about people taking your parking space.
9. The Warrior that has been in the front hallway since the 1970's is gone.
8. No senior trip!
7. Instead of decorating the halls, we made posters.
6. The computers that our applications are saved on crash every week.
5. Who has ever heard of school ending at 3:01???
4. Sick of looking at the brown and cream hallways when our school colors are blue and white.
3. There are only two teachers left whose names we know.
2. Classes are getting longer while the time in between classes is getting shorter.

And the number one reason why the senior class is happy to be leaving Waldwick is:

1. You are no longer allowed to yell at pep rallies.

Written by Lizanne Barnaba

A large, bold, black number '2001' is the central focus. The number is stylized with thick strokes. The '2' and '1' have small horizontal dashes above them. The '0's are large and oval-shaped. The number is set against a background of large, abstract black and white shapes. Two large, stylized eyes with black pupils are positioned on either side of the number, looking towards it. The eyes are composed of simple black outlines and dots.

May the good Lord be with you
down every road you roam,

And do unto others as you'd have done to you.

Be courageous and be brave, and in our hearts you'll always stay...

Forever young.

May good fortune be with you, may your guiding light be strong.

Continue to shine and be the beacon you are meant to be and know that you are loved.

Congratulations and God bless you,

Dear Ryan:

You on your grandpa's mower, in the swimming pool with grandma, visits to the Wildlife Center, wearing your cowboy outfit - everywhere, and much later, the fun trips we took together to Maine, the Grand Canyon, London, Yellowstone, and the Canadian Rockies, are memories etched in my mind forever!

You were a sweet, compassionate, levelheaded, fun-loving youngster, and I am delighted to tell you, that those qualities have stayed with you as you have entered manhood.

I am very proud to call you my nephew, as were grandma and grandpa to call you their grandson.

Congratulations!

Love always,

Your Aunt Phyl xo xo xo

Jeff, Congratulations on graduating today. We are all so proud of you and have been since the day we held you in our arms for the very first time. You have always brought sunshine to our lives and you have touched so many hearts. Everyone that knows you loves you.

It's time for you to go into the world and use your past experiences as your guide, remember all you have learned, and realize how capable you are and that your possibilities are unlimited.

We want so much for you and wish that all your dreams come true. Always use your heart as a compass as you grow and find your way in the world, but always have an appreciation for the direction of home. Be self-reliant, self-motivated and self-sufficient but know that you will never be alone. We want the people who share your days to realize that they are in the presence of a very special person.

You've always accepted the changes in our lives and were strong when I was weak. I will always remember that you have been my strength. I want you to know that I am always here for you like you were for me. I love you beyond all words, and I promise that I will love you beyond all time. So many treasures await you in your journey of life and being blessed with you.....has been mine.

We all love you,

We have come so far throughout the years, growing up not only as cousins but as best friends. We have shared so much together, from chicken pox to parties, and everything in between. Just as my high school years begin yours are in the past. Congratulations on all of your achievements, you know I am proud of you. I am going to miss you when you go away to college, and I wish you the best of luck. Remember, you may be two grades ahead, but I am not that far behind.

Lots of Love,
Lindsay

through the years
The memories are refreshed with happy tears.

We take great joy in remembering
all of your firsts.
First born, first birthday, first day of school, first soccer game
Just to name a few.
With each one we were so very proud of you.

You have grown into a fine young man with a rainbow of endless possibilities ahead of you.

Congratulations on your graduation

And the woman we know you will be.
All out Love!

To Doug, Joe, John, Justin and Ryan:

Acquaintances are many, friends are few. The passage of time need not diminish your bond of friendship. Though you may go your separate ways remember to be there for one another. There are times in life when you will be tested and only a friend or family will be there, or even care, to help. Good luck and God bless you.

Love to all of you.

The Meyer, Marquis, Milano, Egan and Griffing Families.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations Tara

You have a heart of gold
and a loving presence.
We are all so proud to have

May the Lord always be close

You will always be our little princess.

Love you so much
