Many severe symptoms arise, headaches, lassitude, pain in the back, all due to the poison coming from the seat of the inflammation being conveyed to all parts of the body. If neglected, the last stage follows.

Doctors call it gastritis. The sufferer reaches a point where he can scarcely eat anything.

Fall River, flass., says:—

"I am happy to add my testimony to the many others in this letter which I cheerfully write. Three years ago I was so I could eat only eggs and milk. This condition used to come on me summers for a long time, and with a complete loss of appetite. I had seen Dr. Greene's Nervura advertised as the prescription of a regular physician, and had confidence in it for that reason, and the many cures I heard of. So I took two bottles and was completely cured, and have had no return of the trouble since. There can be no doubt of the most excellent curative properties of Dr. Greene's Nervura, which I freely endorse. You are at liberty to publish this letter for the benefit of others."

St., Lowell, Mass., says:—

"Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy has helped me of a very had case of nervous dyspepsia. I was taken sick about five years ago from overwork. I was in bed three months and was miserable for a year. I had three different doctors and at last I tried Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and it has done wonders for me. I could not eat anything, and now I can cat as well as anybody. That is all I can tell you. AN EASTER HYMN.

The Lord of Life is risen! Affise And greet him with adoring eyes! All humble hearts that own His hame. Today His victory proclaim.

Our Lord is risen? The earth gives heed To his evanger of the seed,

And, trembling as to a caress With vernal bloom His steps will bless

The flowers that couch in waiting heart, The trembling buds proclaim Him near: The birds, hat with His coming throng Pour forth heir hearts in happy song. 25/2

The Lord of Life is risen! Awakel With heart renewed your burden take. Go forth to the victorious strile Whete leads the conquering Lord of Life! PETER M'ARTHUR.

The fancy for embroidery also extends to the finish of sheets and pll-low cases. Shams are still much used though many house keepers profer cases, into which the pillows are but found. These are large and square. They are laid aside at alight housevery in favor of smaller pillows with plainer covers. Monograms or initials for sheets are two or three inches high and worked in the center just about the hem. For pillow cases the letters are smaller.

Sheets for double beds should be three yards long before hemming. This allows for a three-inch hem at the top one-half the width at the bottom and deaves the sheet a hittle more than 2% yards long after shrinkage in washing.

Xenophon, a devoted follower of Socrates, wrote in a style, simple, gracely ful and versatile, but Pluarch's forty-fix biographies make him the best beloved of all the Greek historians.

Miss Morrow gave an interesting secount of Athens in the age of Pericles She brought vividly before the audience the glory of sthat, wonderful city with Acropolis changed from a strong hold to a height crowned with temples of marble, adorned with ivory and gold, its streets decorated with statues its long walls leading to the harbor; but it was mostly enobled by the number of s learned men and the lofty character of Pericles himself.

An informal discussion followed, by Mrs. Hall and participated in by many libraries was introduced by Miss Bridges and referred to the executive committee.

At the next meeting a lecture is expected from Miss Welles, of Smith Col. lege, who has been engaged in researches in the islands around Greece and who will give personal experiences. It was agreed to invite members of the High School and such friends of the club as
