BURNED TO DEATH.

BRAKEMAN REQUOR MEETS HORRIBLE DEATH IN RAILROAD WRECK NEAR CRANFORD.

Oil Tank Cars Explode Endangering Lives and Property—All Traffic Stopped—Bucket & Engine Company on the Scene—Jersey Central Loses Heavily.

What proved to be one of the most disastrous railroad wrecks in this section occurred at the Lincoln avenue crossing, Cranford, at 10 o'clock Friday night. An extra freight going east drawn by engine 456 was stopped at the Union avenue crossing for the engine to get water from the tank. The rear of the train was near the Lincoln avenue crossing, the last seven cars being crude oil tank cars.

Following this train was a heavy mixed freight, drawn by engine 353. The engineer saw the train ahead but the breaks refused to work and his train crashed at full speed into the cabooses of the other freight, the engine plunging its way through the cabooses and bursting one of the oil tank cars. The oil emptied into the gutter along side of the track and soon caught fire. Joseph Requir was in the cabooses when the crash came and was plucked fast and severely injured. Trainmen rushed to his rescue but were driven away by the burning oil which had already set fire to the cabooses and engine and Requir was burned to death before the eyes of the helpless rescuers.

An alarm of fire was turned in at Cranford and the apparatus hurried to the scene of disaster and soon had streaming playing on the flames. A call was sent to Westfield and Plainfield and the new hose wagon of Bucket and Engine Company No. 1 was on the ground and had a team on the fire in ten minutes.

Plainfield sent a hose company down which reached the fire in the quick time of 20 minutes. On a oil tank after another caught fire and blew up, until seven were destroyed along with several other cars loaded with cement, lumber, etc. Flashes of burning oil circled high in the air, often reaching the height of 300 feet and threatening the destruction of the houses along North and South avenues. The gutters along the railroad and streets were all aflame with burning oil and trees and fences were burned, and the heavy steel rails under the burning cars were warped and twisted out of shape.

All railroad traffic was delayed for hours, the west bound tracks being the only ones that could be used. Trolley service was delayed, a fire hose being stretched across the tracks making it necessary for passengers to be transferred from one car to another. Early Saturday morning the oil tanks were still burning fiercely and they were not entirely out until late in the afternoon.

All that was found of Requir was a few handfuls of his charred bones and small pieces of his burned clothing. The bones were put in a paper and sent to the morgue in Plainfield. Had not the engineer and firemen jumped they would doubtless have met the same fate as Requir. The engineer had $175 (his month's pay) burned up in the cab of his engine.

The wrecking crew were at work early Saturday morning getting the debris carried away and laying new rails and by night traffic on the east bound tracks was resumed. The railroad's loss to property will reach $25,000.

J. R. Wand Has Started the Preparation of the New Edition of His Local Directory.

J. R. Wand, who has had charge of compiling the Westfield directory for the past few years, has returned to Westfield and will soon begin the work of getting out a new directory. Since Mr. Wand took up this work this town has had a directory that is not only up to date, but exceedingly accurate. It is printed with a good face of type, well and substantially bound, and is in every way a credit to the city, as well as Scotch Plains, Plainfield, Donnelton and North Plainfield. Mr. Wand deserves the hearty support of every one who will be interested in the directory, and he hopes that all necessary information and every courtesy will be given him in the work. It is to be published by Mr. Wand this year.

Plainfield After Reduced Rates.

A committee from the Board of Trade of Plainfield, has been appointed to wait upon C. M. Bort, passenger agent of the New Jersey Central, with a view to securing reduced rates from Plainfield to New York and other points along the line. The Board of Trade will try to have the excursion rate to New York cut to 80c for the round trip.

The Westfield Board of Trade will doubtless wait upon Mr. Bort in the near future and see if it is not possible to have the commutation rate from Westfield to New York reduced as well as to secure excursion tickets for 75 cents. The excursion rate is now 75 cents.

THE MAIDEN OF THE SMILE.

In that fair land where slope and plain
Shine back to sun and sky
And olives shield the sprouting grain
When wintry arrows fly,
Where snow fed streams seek sun warm
vale,
Through vineyard scarped defile,
The world we enter with a wail
She greeted with a smile.

Slumbering, she smiled and, smiling, woke,
And when she felt the smart
Of grave, sad life smiles still bespoke
Her tenderness of heart,
And nightly when she knelt and prayed
Beside her snow white bed
Her face was one pure smile that made
A heaven about her head.

When love first trembled in her ear
The heart throbs that beguile,
She listened with assenting tear,
Then chased it with a smile.
Borrow and pain with smiles she bore
Unto her latest breath,
But the sweetest smile she ever wore
Was the smile she wore in death.

SELF FLAME OF JEWELS.

The Glow the Diamond Shows When Under Pressure.

A traveler for a diamond house was talking shop the other evening and, speaking of gems, said:

"The most overworked expression used by the unsophisticated and deeply impressed diamond purchaser is, 'It actually looks as if it glows of itself.' Now, it is not generally known that such is actually the case, although not, of course, in the way the public intends. The beauty of the gem in light is, of course, in its remarkable refractive power, but under certain conditions the diamond has more, for it may gleam even in the night with a pale but extremely beautiful light. In short, it becomes phosphorescent. It is, in fact, a certain temperature the diamond shows itself, and under pressure the same is true.

"Some years ago I went to Amsterdam to purchase some special stones for a California millionaire, who had ordered them through our New York house, and while there I was shown the inside workings of the famous diamond cutting establishments of that city. Of all that I saw, however, the self flame of the stones under pressure most surprised me. The manager placed a large rose cut gem between the jaws of a vise and carefully applied a certain amount of pressure. He then extinguished all the light in the shop, and as soon as my eyes had become accustomed to the darkness I saw the diamond emitting a soft radiance of its own like a very pale glow-worm. As I remember it, he said that the yellow diamonds were slightly more phosphorescent than the first water stones.

"By the way, you would be really astonished to know the number of jewels which also possess 'self flame' to a more or less extent, and I have often wondered if the alchemists, who performed such apparently well authenticated wonders in the middle ages, did not know something of phosphorescence and its oddities."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Subjection of Man.

"No, I never have a bit of trouble with my husband," remarked the frail little woman with the intelligent face. "In fact, I have him right under my thumb."

"You don't look very strong," doubtfully commented the engaged girl.

"You mistake me, my dear. 'It's a mental, not a physical, subjection.'"

"Would you mind telling me how?"

"Not a bit. Always glad to help any one steer clear of the rocks. First of all, you must know that a man in love is the biggest sort of a fool and says things that make him almost wild when he hears them in after life. I realized it; and from the very beginning of our courtship I kept a photograph in the room, and every speech he made was duly recorded. Now, whenever my husband gets a little bit obstreperous I just turn out a record or so. Heavens, how he does rave! But he can't deny it. They always will, though, if you don't have proof positive."

"Thank you," gratefully murmured the engaged girl. "I'll get a photograph this very day."

His Price.

An amusing story, which may perhaps be entirely true, is told of a short-sighted but energetic member of the Russian secret police.

He was walking through a little frequented street of St. Petersburg one night when he slipped high up on a lamp-post placard.

"Ah!" he said to himself, scented mischief on the instant and alert for action. "That's one of those incendiary notices about his majesty the czar! It must come down at once!"

With some difficulty, being of a stout build, he succeeded in climbing the post and dislodging the placard. He bore it to the ground, and there, peering at it by the light of the lamp, he read two Russian words, the English equivalent for which is the well known legend "Wet Paint."—Youth's Companion.

DELIGHTFUL FALL EXCURSION TRIP.

One of the most delightful excursion trips for this season of the year is a tour of the Shenandoah Valley and historic and beautiful old Eastern Virginia. The trip is made by the Old Dominion Steamship to Old Point Comfort which is unsurpassed by any resort in this country and has many attractions; nearby being Fortress Monroe, Hampton Indian School and Newport News. From Norfolk the Norfolk and Western Railway is taken to Richmond via Petersburg or you can take the James River day line steamboats to Richmond, which makes a delightfully picturesque sail. The Norfolk and Western is again taken for Lynchburg, Roanoke, Natural Bridge Grottoes and Luray caverns, thence to Shenandoah Junction or Hagerstown.

From Luray, passengers have the choice of returning to New York via either of the following routes: Shenandoah Junction, Harpers Ferry, Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia, or Hagerstown, Gettysburg, Baltimore and Philadelphia, or Hagerstown, Carlisle, Harrisburg and Philadelphia, or Hagerstown, Gettysburg, Harrisburg and Allentown. Either of these return trips being through country interesting and attractive. The trains of the Norfolk and Western Railway are fast, vestibuled and the service offered is the best in the country. Altogether these excursions, with their side trips, are the most attractive and least expensive of any excursions leaving New York. Further information can be obtained from L. J. Ellis, Eastern Passenger Agent, Norfolk and Western Railway, No. 398 Broadway, New York City.

A Cockney.

Bullock, the lexicographer who gave the famous definition for "crocodile tears," was outdone by Minsham, another dictionary maker of London, who in 1617 issued the work which gave the following amusing account of the origin of the word "cockney": "A cockney, or cockney, applied only to one born within the sound of the Bow bells—that is, within the city of London—whence the term came first out of the following tale:

"A citizen's sonne, riding with his father out of London into the country, and being a novice and merely ignorant of how come and catel do increase, asked when he heard a horse neigh what the horse did. His father answered, 'The horse dothe neigh.' Riding further, he heard a cock crow and said, 'Dothe the cock neigh too?' And therefore cockney, or cockneigh, by inversion thus: Incoctus—i. e., raw or unripe in country-men's affairs."

When the Crowd Gathered.

At the close of some sports that were being held at a country village one of the competitors, coming across the local policeman, inquired when the theater opened.

"We have no theater here," said the policeman.

"Well, the music hall, then?"

"No; nothing of that kind here."

"Have you no evening amusement at all?" asked the stranger.

"Oh, yes," said the policeman, rising to the occasion. "If you wait till 9 o'clock, you'll see them shunting the goods train."—London Spare Moments

A Tarantula's Jump.

"There are strange sights in Porto Rico," said a returned traveler. "Tarantulas are one of them," he continued, "and you should see a tarantula jump! One of them went through a marvelous performance, with myself and a dog for spectators. The dog's barking awoke me early one morning, and I slipped into my shoes and ran out. Spot—that's the dog's name—was making frantic plunges at an enormous tarantula, as big as my palm and its legs covering as much ground as a soup plate. Its wicked black eyes made me creep."

"All of a sudden the thing shrank up like a sponge and jumped for the dog. I give you my word, it jumped fifteen feet if it was an inch. Twice the dog ran under the spider's jump—fact. Others were watching by this time, and they all saw it. Usually, though, he just side stepped a hit."

"I broke up little pieces of a branch of a tree and hurled them at the tarantula. My aim was just good enough to stir him up. At first he kept jumping away from us, but Spot always herded him back again. Then he jumped straight for us. At last a lucky shot keeled him over, and a few strokes with a convenient club finished him."—New York Times.

Bathing in Salt Lake.

"Salt lake is a remarkable sheet of water in many ways, and bathing in it possesses features which are unique," says a Utah man. "It is very invigorating and refreshing, to be sure, but it takes some time to become accustomed to the extraordinary buoyancy of the water. It is quite impossible to sink or to drown in the lake, but many people have been killed by the water. When there is a breeze and spray is dashed upon bathers, the water is so densely impregnated with salt that the liquid portion evaporates very quickly and leaves a deposit of salt on the skin."

"On several occasions people have drifted out while bathing or been wrecked and thrown overboard and afterward found dead on top of the water, choked to death by the accumulation of salt in their mouths and nostrils."

W. T. Wesson, Ghosonville, Va., druggist, writes: "Your One Minute Cough Cure gives perfect satisfaction. My customers say it is the best remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles." W. H. Trenchard.

Durability

A Necessity in a Piano.

Mr. Webster has defined the word durability as the power of uninterrupted or long continuance in any condition, the power of resisting agents or influences which tend to cause changes, decay or dissolution." A very little consideration will satisfy any person that this is the great desideratum in a Piano; that a musical instrument that will not resist "influences which tend to decay" is not worthy of the name. And yet there are very many Pianos that are made to sell, and without the slightest consideration of their being of value a few months after their purchase; they are put together at express speed merely with the thought of cheapness in view. Such instruments cannot and will not satisfy a buyer. Reputable houses will not handle them; wary people will not purchase them.

Upon durability of the instruments we handle we stake our whole reputation. We know by expert test of every instrument that enters our warehouses that the quality is right. If not, it is made right or else returned whence it came. We will not handle unreliable instruments. We agree in every instance to exchange if not satisfactory.

We have here the best makes of Pianos that America has produced. We handle exclusively for New Jersey Chickering, Cablers, Hardmans, Sterlings, Lesters, and other fine makes. Each is the best we could find in its class, and, you may be sure, the whole field of the industry is open to the LAUTERCO, for probably not one maker in America whose Pianos we do not handle would not be glad to have us do so, and there are few who have not actually importuned us over and over again to sell their products.

In buying here you have the advantage of the largest stock of Pianos under one roof in all the United States. There is no collection in New York City that is as large as ours; there is none other more than one-fifth as big in New Jersey.

We'll sell you a good Piano at as low as TEN DOLLARS down, and six, eight or ten dollars a month according to value.

Americanism that does not represent Humanity is something else.

The more a man knows the less he says he knows. This also reads backwards.

Do you, Mr. Voter, love your liberty enough to take the trouble to protect it?

The gubernatorial nominees in the political campaign now formally opened in New Jersey are both high minded gentlemen of business and affairs—the Democrats have named James M. Seymour, the Republicans Franklin Murphy. Whichever way the election turns the Commonwealth will be proudly represented by its Governor.

It is likely that the Bayonne Health Board will adopt a law requiring women to wear short skirts. It has always seemed strange to us that women could allow themselves to be dictated to by the fashion setters to the extent of wearing skirts that sweep the streets.

Commissioner Henry Meigs of the Bayonne Board of Health has announced that he proposes legislation relative to women's attire.

"I propose," said he, "to introduce at the next meeting of this Board an ordinance making it a misdemeanor for a woman to wear skirts or gowns that sweep the sidewalks. There is hardly any greater cause of contagion than these dresses, which gather up from the sidewalk germs of every description and carry them into homes to propagate and spread disease."

Dr. George A. Bradford, it is said, agrees with Commissioner Meigs and enumerated several other sources of contagion.

ENTHUSIASTIC CONVENTION.

Mueller, Newcorn and Hall get the Nomination for Assemblymen.

The Union County Republicans held their convention at the Lyceum Theatre, Elizabeth, yesterday afternoon and the comfortable little playhouse was well filled with delegates from all over the county.

Sirrogate George T. Parrot was chairman of the convention and everything went off without a hitch. Westfield was represented by six delegates from the first district and seven from the second district, while F. O. Decker acted as delegate from Mountainside Borough.

James O. Clark made a rattling good speech for Westfield's candidate for assembly honors, the Hon. Chester M. Smith, but it was easily to be seen that things were not going his way and although the delegation gave Mr. Smith a complimentary vote, they changed and stood solid for Mueller, Newcorn and Hall.

Judge Runyon, of Plainfield, made a telling speech for Plainfield's candidate, William Newcorn. The nominations before the convention for the Assembly were Frederick Mueller, Elizabeth; Ellis R. Meeker, Elizabeth; William Newcorn, Plainfield; Chester M. Smith, Westfield; William F. Hall, Cranford, and George Bull, of Fanwood. The successful candidates were Frederick Mueller, William Newcorn and William F. Hall, and the vote was made unanimous.

Dr. H. R. Livengood, of Elizabeth, was the only candidate for coroner and his nomination was made unanimous. While the candidates were being escorted to the stage, Judge Runyon played "My Country 'Tis of Thee," and the delegates sang two verses which made the theatre ring.

Royal Arcanum Notes.
Regent Edwin Hodges, of Fireside Council, No. 715, Royal Arcanum, has just put himself before the members in an ably prepared personal letter thanking the members for the very good work done during the past year and asking an additional effort during the few months still remaining to him in office.

At the last meeting Willis H. Carman was made acquainted with the mysteries of initiation, and three new applications were received. The year 1901, has been, up to this time, one of the most successful that the Council has had for years. Fourteen new members have already been added to its roster and more to be heard from.

Royal Arcanum members who visit Resolute Council at Elizabeth on Nov. 4, have a treat in store. This will be a Union county meeting; Westfield is always in the front ranks and no doubt will be represented by members enough to do her proud.

The Chairman of the Good of the Order of the Grand Council was present at the last meeting and was surprised to learn that the entire Council expected to go there en masse.

Fireside Council, R. A. has received the benefit of Bro. C. F. Conant and same has been turned over to Mrs. Conant, his wife, the beneficiary. This payment is another illustration of the promptness of the Royal Arcanum in meeting its death claims.

Kodol Dyspepsia cure is not a mere stimulant to tired nature. It affords the stomach complete and absolute rest by digesting the food you eat. You don't have to diet but can enjoy all the good food you want. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure instantly relieves that distressed feeling after eating, giving you new life and vigor. W. H. Trenbath.

LIMERICKS LICKED THE LILIES.

Disheartened by Defeat the Lilies File a Protest and the End is Not Yet.

Disheartened by defeat, the Hester Street Lilies still claim a victory over the Limericks in their contest at Recreation Park last Saturday, to settle the championship of the Cranford River League.

The Lilies broad claim is that they were obliged to play with their backs to the sun and consequently the shadows of their noses made them have goo goo eyes and the ball as it came their way had the peculiar illusion of having wings. This caused them to lose the ball and the game. As this is a technicality a full diagram is presented as a protest with the sporting editor of the "War Cry" and his decision is awaited to settle the dispute.

It is necessary to begin the story of the game and first, as that is the way it all happened: The plain facts are that the Base Ball Association wished to end the season with pleasant memories and hit upon the plan of a burlesque game in costume as a means to this end and the plan worked well. To Elmer W. Affleck and A. A. Smith belong the credit of organizing and putting the affair through to a complete success. The teams were made up as follows:

LIMERICKS.
Fluencane, c. F. Hegenan
Gallagher, p. R. Perkins
McGillivray, s. Andrew Smith
Spillane, lb. Wm. Robert
McCue, 2b. C. P. Wilcox
O'Grady, 3b. H. Thompson
Shagnessy, lf. Aubrey Smith
O'Hara, cf. Peter Randolph
Casey, rf. A. S. Flagg

LILIES.
Klaberg, c. Geo. W. Johnson
Higley, p. J. C. Fallon
Kahnopner, s. H. O. Piker
Baumsticker, lb. H. H. Downes
Whiskovitch, 2b. E. W. Affleck
Penney, 3b. A. W. Bruns
Sungster, lf. J. S. Hall
Yetsky, cf. W. Wall
Pawterstein, rf. C. E. Pearsall
Umpire, Carrie Nation. VanZant

Before the game the teams headed by President Denman and the Boys Brigade drum corps paraded the main streets and to Recreation Park, then let loose in a pretense at ball playing that was relaxation for them and rich amusement for the spectators. All the costumes and unke-ups were more ludicrous than can well be described. Mr. VanZant, who umpired as "Curry Nation," Messrs Perkins, Smith, Pearsall, Piker and Wall, of the players, were conspicuously funny without belittling the attempts at burlesque by the rest of the players.

Fred Brunner attempted to keep the score but discreetly threw the paper away when he saw that kind of work was useless. It is to be hoped that the decision on the protest will be equitable as there certainly were some discounts and allowances, rebates and handicaps due the Lilies. Both teams put up a stiff game, that is most of them are stiff yet in spots. While it was a shame that people should pay money to see the sport, the Ball Association and the Public Library will divide about $30 from the proceeds and dissatisfied persons can go to the Recreation Park box office and get their money back.

N. B.—Word has been received from the editor of the "War Cry" that he has conferred with the editor of the "Irish World" and they agree that to settle the dispute the captains of the respective teams shall throw a brick in the air. If the brick comes down, the Limericks win. If it stays up the victory belongs to the Hester Street Lilies. The sporting fraternity are authorized to settle all bets on this ruling.

A SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

The Westfield Base Ball Association has had a good year and has advertised the town well.

It is the purpose of the Standard to publish a complete record of the Ball Association. We give below the record of the games played, to be followed in later issues with the batting and fielding averages of the team and the financial statement.

At the present time there are a few delinquent members. With their dues paid, the Association will be clear of debt with a good investment in ground improvements.

The defeats are indicated by a *. The Association scored in all games 180 runs to their opponents 64.
While the team of 1900 was considered good, that of 1901 was much better and as improvement was made where a weak spot was shown, the team taking part in games after July 4th, at the time when Capt. Mallon took charge, was as good as any semi professional team in the business and could not be improved upon.

PLAINFIELD'S BIG PARADE.

One of The Most Successful Firemen Parades Ever Held in That City.

All Plainfield and North Plainfield was in gala dress yesterday to welcome the visiting firemen and the many people from nearby towns who came to witness the parade. The parade was given by North Plainfield's firemen who gave the visitors a royal welcome and made every one feel at home. About fifteen companies were in line, conspicuous among them being the Rutland company with their drab uniforms and white gloves, the neatly uniformed Flemington company, and the Westfield Hook and Ladder Co. escorted by the Aeolian band. The latter's truck was neatly decorated with American flags and looked about as well as any in line. James Pearsall was color bearer of the company and carried a beautiful silk American flag, the largest in the parade.

Big Democratic Convention.
What proved to be one of the biggest Democratic conventions held in Union County in some years was held yesterday afternoon in Elizabeth. The convention endorsed the platform as adopted at the state convention held in Trenton the nomination of Jas. M. Seymour for Governor and pledging themselves to repeal the anti-election law. They favored the 8 hour days work for labor and economy in County expenses. William E. Tuttle Jr. was chairman of the convention and J. J. Manning of Elizabeth secretary. Charles H. Sulzer of Elizabeth, Geo. R. Vanlever of Rahway and Charles L. Moffett of Plainfield were unanimously nominated as candidates for the Assembly and Dr. T. J. Walsh for Coroner.

Woman's Club Notes.
The first meeting this season of the Woman's Club took place on Monday, Oct. 14, with an attendance of forty members, in spite of the rain. Several resignations were accepted from members who had left town. Mrs. Paul Phillip was unanimously voted an honorary member.

It was agreed to return the compliment received from clubs in Plainfield, Rahway, Roselle and Metuchen, and invite them to attend the lecture to be given on Oct. 29th. Members wishing guest tickets were requested to obtain them from the treasurer a week in advance that the Refreshment Committee might know the number who would probably be present.

A vote of thanks was tendered to Harry Porter for his interest and liberality in the beautiful design for the cover of our new Club book and for his gratuitous services.

Mrs. Burt having refused the office of treasurer, Miss Jane Morrow was elected to fill the position. Many ladies then gave their experiences as "Vacation Notes." Mrs. Robert Johnston told of the method of cooking by electricity employed at the Buffalo Exposition, and Mrs. Welles told how house-cleaning was sometimes done in St. Louis. A man with a wagon containing pneumatic tubes with small brushes attached, would drive up, insert the tubes and brushes through the windows and for a specified sum, would, in one day, clean the whole house, walls, pictures, carpets and furniture.

Mrs. Condit gave a bright ten minutes paper on the "Value of Thorough Work" with a side glance at the dangers attending it, and cleverly drawing attention to the pages of the Club's new program, bespeaking enthusiastic and timely preparation on the part of the readers and talkers, and earnest attention on the part of listeners.

Mrs. Worcester's Dutch songs, a beautiful lullaby being one, formed a charming feature of the afternoon, and Mrs. Robinson's accompaniment was, as usual, an invaluable addition.

Book notes, by Miss Bridges and by Mrs. Salter Clark introduced us pleasantly to many good authors and closed an afternoon full of interest.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They are safe, prompt, gentle, effective in removing all impurities from the liver and bowels. Small and easy to take. Never gripe or distress. W. H. Trenchard.

Letter To A. S. Flagg.
Westfield, N. J.
Dear Sir: There is going to be, from now on in Westfield a good deal of putting done, that will last in good condition from 3 years up—10 years in common; we know of it good in 15 and we know no limit—it seems to be likely to last as long as the house lasts, in favorable conditions. The painter that uses this paint will get all the business he can do.

Devote lead and zinc is the paint. It looks as good as any; costs no more; and is ready—no tinting or mixing to do. The zinc is ground in with the lead by machinery—you can't do that.

Test it yourself, if you like; but there's plenty of evidence for it. We take the risk of how it turns out—there is no risk. Do you want this work?

Yours truly,
F. W. Devore & Co.

Ten Cents Settled It.

The November Designer is strong in Thanksgiving features, among which may be mentioned two short stories—"The Minister's Turkey," and "Maria's Redemption," a comedietta—"Rival Hunters," suggestions for a holiday entertainment embodied in "Thanksgiving Silhouettes," and appropriate poems in "Selections for the Recitationist." In this atmosphere of rejoicing the "shut-ins" are included, for their comfort are given in "The Invalid," "Comforts for the Invalid," and "Delft Embroidery" will supply the fancy-worker with new employment, and "Nursery Lore," "Household Advice" and "Cookery Receipts" will be valued by the tender mother and practical housekeeper. Up-to-date fashions and millinery, which are always prominent in The Designer, in this special number are appropriate for winter and are most artistically set forth. Aside from the regular departments where garment designs for adults and juveniles are presented, there are given this month three special articles—"Furs Fashionable," "Morning Attire" and "Fashionable Dress Sleeves," the latter under "Points on Dressmaking," "Health and Beauty" hints, "Fittness for the Dining Room," "Book Notes" and the concluding chapters of the Kentucky love story, "Faint Heart and Fair Lady," are also to be found in this number.

NEW SHAKESPEAREANA.

The New York Dramatic News of Oct. 12th says:

"The first number of New Shakespeareana, a Twentieth Century review of Shakespearean and dramatic study, has just been issued by the Shakespeare Press, of Westfield, N.J. The magazine which will be issued quarterly, is conducted by the Shakespeare Society of New York. The price is 75 cents a copy or $2.50 for yearly subscription. Coming from so dignified and notable a source as the Shakespeare Society, the New Shakespeareana is of course scholarly in tone, dignified in purpose and artistic in form.

The number contains a review of Hamilton W. Mabie's "William Shakespeare: Poet, Dramatist and Man," which review is well calculated to either arouse Mr. Mabie to most violent anger or to make him hide his head in abject humiliation. The writer says: "Really there is no actual harm in this sort of stuff that Mr. Mabie writes—not in bucketsful of it. But it ought to worry us to think that a possible posterity might be taught to believe that it was the sort of thing that we of the United States in the twentieth century not only tolerated but indulged." The reviewer prints in closely parallel columns, extracts from Mr. Mabie's book and extracts from the works of several of the most noted Shakespearean scholars. The conclusion is that Mr. Mabie's book is decidedly not to Mr. Mabie's advantage. "The utmost that can be said of this book," writes the reviewer, "is, we fear, that some things in it are not worse than some others."

There is another scathing criticism of William H. Fleming's "How to Study Shakespeare."

Other articles in the number, all of which will prove of deep interest to the Shakespearean student, are "A Four Text Hamlet," illustrated with four facsimiles of early title pages; "The Cataloguing of First Folios from an American point of View," "A List of Once Used Words in the Plays," and "Marginalia"—a series of paragraphs upon interesting matters.

The Standard is particularly proud to think that this work was entirely set up and printed in its job office.

Zola Show in Westfield.

A stormy night and scant advertising lost to Mr. Zola a full house last Monday night at the Westfield Club Hall. The show was billed as Zola's Big Opera and Burlesque Company, and 22 people, 15 pretty matrons, 7 funny comedians, special scenery, living pictures, &c., &c., were among the attractions billed through town Monday morning. There were scarcely 100 people in the audience but all got their money's worth; some features of the show being fairly good.

Our patrons are by no means confined within city or state boundaries. We number among our friends many who live hundreds and thousands of miles from Newark.

Within a few days we have sent hats to patrons in Binghamton, N. Y., Kansas City, Mo. and Nashville, Tenn.; shoes to Charleston, S. C.; dress goods to Bald Mountain, Col. and Baker City, Oregon.

These are not rare instances; we are sending goods daily to some remote cities to people who have heard of the goodness of our stocks and our absolute reliability. Every day we fill orders from folks in New York and Brooklyn.

Those who test us have found that we sell the better sorts of goods at lower prices than the Metropolitan stores. And people living at a distance have learned to make use of the mails in ordering, finding that method not only safe and quick, but entirely satisfactory.

We fill all orders the same day they are received and we are careful to send you just what you want.

Glad to have you send for samples for comparison with goods sold by other stores. We sell everything a first-class dry goods store ought to sell—no foodstuffs.

Address all requests or orders to

MUSIC AND DRAMA

THEATRE REPUBLIC.

"The Bonnie Brier Bush" at the Theatre Republic, has attracted to that playhouse in addition to the regular theatre-goers, many people who clearly are not frequent patrons of the drama. Literary folk, ministers and ladies of church society have been much in evidence during the first fortnight of the engagement. Mr. Stoddard has received over two hundred letters of endorsement from the clergymen of New York, and nearly as many more from the prominent educators of the city. "The Bonnie Brier Bush" is the latest, sweetest and most wholesome bit of stage literature that has been seen on Broadway for many a day.

TONY PASTOR'S.

Next week Tony Pastor offers a rattling good bill as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Tony Farrell; Cook & Souren; George Evans; Casey & LeClair; Mr. and Mrs. Litchfield; Hendrix & Prescott; Martha & LeRoy; Rice & Walters; Waldron Bros.; Watson & Newton; Miss Olla Hood; Frank Emerson; The Wonders of Travel, and the American Vitagraph, life motion pictures of current events; always the latest and best; illustrations of events in Europe and America.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

"Arizona" Augustus Thomas' best play, enters upon the ninth week of its remarkable run at the Academy of Music with prosperity still the keynote of its daily story. No attraction which has ever been exploited upon the great stage of Mr. Gilmore's capacious theatre has equaled "Arizona" in point of success. "Arizona" audiences, however, continue to require the utmost capacity of the Academy at nearly every performance. "Arizona" continues at the Academy for four more weeks.

Birds' Eggs Superstitions.

The old, wrinkled, dusky aunties of the south tell children: "Do not eat the bluebirds' eggs. They make you love to wander." They believe that the pale blue eggs of that beautiful creature, "that violet of the air," that bird with "sky tinge on his back, earthing on his breast," will make the greedy nest robber restless as long as he lives. No place, however enticing, can hold the being who has once tasted a bluebird's egg.

He who eats a mockingbird's egg will be compelled to "tell all he knows." The one who robs a killdeer's nest and eats its eggs will surely break an arm.

He who eats a dove's egg will be followed by bad luck; while the egg of any bird of yellow plumage will be sure to cause a fever, and he who eats an owl's egg will be always shrieking. The eater of a crow's egg will always, as old aunties say, "be gylne on foolish like a crow does go on, 'Ha, ha, ha!'" But a partridge's egg, they declare, "du dee make you thrive an' grow fas". Dey is de onlies' sort er birds' eggs dat you kin eat widout findin' 'em danger-some."
