BOARD OF EDUCATION TO CO-OPERATE WITH PLAYGROUND COM.

Another Playground to be Established at McKinley School In Fourth Ward

John H. Pencheon, of the Playground Commission, appeared before the Board of Education at its meeting on Tuesday night and asked the Board to co-operate with the Commission in its work this year. Mr. Pencheon stated that it was the intention of the Commission to establish another playground on the grounds of the McKinley school in the Fourth ward and that the Commission contemplated asking the Council for an appropriation of $500. The Board after hearing Mr. Pencheon stated that they were in sympathy with the Playground and Dr. Egel, the president, appointed Messrs. Dempsey, Dennis and Grape as a committee to confer with the Playground Commission.

The medical and dental inspectors both presented reports of work done in the schools.

Mr. Kellogg, of the supply committee, reported that the new furniture for the Grant school teachers rooms and auditorium had been purchased and placed in the building.

The matter of increasing the bond of the custodian of school money was brought up and after some discussion it was decided to have the district clerk write the town council to provide the extra amount at once and leave the question of payment of the premium until a later date. An opinion from Town Attorney was read in which he stated that the Board should pay the premium. Some of the members differed with Mr. Oliver in the interpretation of the law.

The building and grounds committee were given permission to remove an oak tree which is decaying from the Walnut street side of the Washington school. The members of the Board were of the opinion that it should be removed for the safety of the children attending school.

On recommendation of Dr. Savitz the Board empowered the teacher's committee to employ an additional teacher for the High School for the remainder of the school year. This teacher will be employed for individual work and will be a big factor in the efficiency of the High School.

Mr. Dennis reported that he had placed new fire doors in the Washington school.

At the request of the Athletic Council the members of the Board created an extension of time for closing after the basketball games. The new hour for closing will be eleven o'clock, provided that everything is out of the building by that time.

Dr. Brown, Field president and all the members were present except Tamm, J. W. Davis.

AN IDEAL WESTFIELD

Rev. Dr. Loomis Draws a Picture Of it at Church Union Meeting

The Union prayer meeting held at the First M. E. Church on Wednesday evening was addressed by Dr. Loomis of the Congregational Church, on the subject of the children of Westfield. Dr. Loomis said Westfield had all the advantages of an ideal suburban town and he craved for Westfield a name in the future as that of a place distinguished chiefly as a home town which had showered countless blessings on its children, given them a high moral training, high ideals and fitted them to be men and women who were a credit to their town, and state and devoted to some real service.

Dr. Loomis described a visit he paid to a little town in Massachusetts, Plainfield, where he heard read in the village church the names of some of the nation's most distinguished men who had been reared there and to give the credit for their greatness to the virtues and ideals they absorbed in the moral atmosphere of the place, when children, which they learned from the example of sturdy virtues in their elders, Charles Dudley Warner, George William Curtis and a host of famous preachers, lawyers and great merchants came from this little place. Dr. Loomis said and he craved for Westfield a similar record.

Dr. Loomis also had many words of praise for our school board, Supt. Savitz and the teachers, who were doing such magnificent work for the children and boys of Westfield, and severely setting the credit due them. The teachers ought to be welcomed into the very best circles as they were in honor to the community and their location called for the very highest display of wisdom, diplomacy and moral courage.

Dr. Loomis' remarks were warmly appreciated by those present. Rev. Mr. Brown and Dr. Stearns also spoke briefly. There was a short session of prayer and those present were reminded of the happy church union sentiment existing in the Westfield churches when Mr. Keam asked all those present at the close of the service to shake the hand of at least four other persons of another denomination. A round of hearty hand shaking followed.

Resolution:
Suggested for adoption by churches, Young People's Societies, Clubs and other organizations, and by public meetings generally.

RESOLVED, That we are in hearty favor of National Constitutional Prohibition and will do all within our power to secure the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution forever prohibiting the sale, manufacture for sale, importation for sale, exportation or transportation for sale of beverages or foods containing alcohol, in accordance with the Joint Resolution introduced in the United States Congress by Congressman Richmond Pearson Hobson.

For the information of those interested we print herewith the joint resolution introduced in the House of Representatives, December 10, 1913, by Congressman Richmond P. Hobson, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

Whereas exact scientific research has demonstrated that alcohol is a narcotic poison, destructive and degenerating to the human organism, and that its distribution as a beverage or contained in foods lays a staggering economic burden upon the shoulders of the people, lowers to an appalling degree the average standard of character of our citizenship, thereby undermining the public morals and foundation of free institutions, produces widespread crime, pauperism and insanity, inflicts disease and untimely death upon hundreds of thousands of citizens and blights with degeneracy their children, threatening the future integrity and the very life of the Nation; Therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, two-thirds of each House concurring therein, That the following amendment of the Constitution be and hereby is proposed to the states to be ratified as a part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of the several states as provided by the Constitution:

Section 1. The sale, manufacture for sale, importation for sale, exportation for sale, and transportation for sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes in the United States, and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof are forever prohibited.

Section 2. Congress shall have power to provide for the manufacture, sale, importation and transportation of intoxicating beverages medicinal, medicinal, medicinal, pharmaceutical or scientific purposes or for use in the arts, and shall have power to enforce this article by all needed legislation.

"WATER FROM THE ROCK."

Topic of Well Attended Sunday Evening Meeting At Westfield Theatre.

In spite of the storm that lasted all day Sunday, the attendance at the regular Sunday evening meeting, conducted by Dr. Loomis at the Westfield Theatre, was good. Those who attended were rewarded by a helpful talk on the topic—"Water from the Rock", by some very beautiful natural scenery slides and by an interesting motion film that illustrated the lesson of the evening's topic. The singing, too, was as hearty as usual.

The topic was suggested by the incident in the journey of the Israelites through the wilderness of Arabia when, after suffering great thirst, the children of Israel complained to Moses and he, in answer to prayer, was commanded to smite the rock. The whole face of the desert was changed by the stream of pure, cool water that issued from the rock, just as today immense tracts of waste land are transformed into fertile areas by great irrigation systems. Paul applied the figure to Christ, calling him the rock from which the water of the river of life issued forth, transforming human lives. Dr. Loomis then told in detail the story of Jesus and the woman of Samaria at the well.

The preliminary slides depicted water in its varied forms in nature—the geysers and springs of the Yellowstone, the falls, lakes and rivers of the Yosemite, the lakes near Pike's Peak and the falls of Niagara. The motion pictures portrayed the temptation and sin of a young man and his final transformation through the beautiful character of a young girl and her blind mother.

The topic for next Sunday evening is "Fighting and Praying" and all are cordially invited to attend.

HOLD UP ASSESSMENT ON HIGHLAND AVENUE

Owing To Objection Report of Assessors is Referred to Road Committee

UTHER IMPROVEMENTS

Owing to the fact that objections were received by the council from W. G. Peckham, Mrs. J. T. Tubby and others, who alleged that the assessment was irregular, the report of the Board of Assessors on the improvement of Highland avenue, which was presented to the council, was not confirmed at the meeting of the council held on Monday night. After the report of the Assessors had been received and the objections read the council took a fifteen minute recess to consider the objections and upon reconvening the matter was referred to the road committee for investigation and report at the next meeting of the council.

No objections were received to the hearing on the improvement of Summit avenue from Grove street to Clifton street and an ordinance authorizing this improvement was passed on first reading.

The petition of residents of the fourth ward for the improvement of sections of Union, Hazel, Scotch Plains, Marion avenues, First street and Austin street was reported on favorably by Councilman DeCamp, the new chairman of the road committee, and a public hearing for objections was set for Monday evening, February 2. The streets are to be graded, macadamized and sidewalks laid.

An ordinance to lay bluestone sidewalks on the west side of Highland and Mountain avenues was introduced and a hearing set for Monday evening, February 2. The new East Main sewer was accepted from Coca & Company, the contractors, providing they furnish an agreement to complete some minor details.

On recommendation of Councilman Taylor a resolution was adopted thanking G. L. Delatour, S. S. Clark, E. A. Merrill and J. M. Walsh for efficient service rendered to the town as members of the Board of Health, library trustees and sinking fund commission during the past year.

Five bids were received for supplying the bonds of the town officers this year. M. M. Sessler was awarded the contract, he being the lowest bidder.

The reports of the town officers for the month of December were received. The town treasurer reported a balance on hand January 1, of $10,374.12; Secretary of the Board of Health C. W. Harden reported that he had turned over to the town treasurer for the use of the Board the sum of $24 for permits issued on sewer of the Board A. C. High reported expenses amounting to $1,235 and a balance on hand of $179.74.

The Board of Health met on January 12, at which time Van Dorn was elected clerk and New Currency Bank was unanimously re-elected.

Mayor Lyons presided at all of the committee were present.

REAL ESTATE MAN ESCAPES FLEEING

About To Close $3,000 Trade
When Dealer is Arrested.

The following special appeared in the Newark Star of Tuesday in regard to Edward Tammy, a real estate dealer of this place, who had a close escape from being forced out of $3,000 yesterday by the arrest in Brooklyn of Harry T. Meyers, thirty-eight years old, who gave his address as 7440 Broadway, New York. Meyers was arrested at the office of the Guarantee Title and Trust Company, Brooklyn, and is being held on the charge of forgery and larceny.

Tammy was induced by Meyers to give him $200 toward payment for two pieces of property in Brooklyn which did not belong to him. According to the police, Meyers has several aliases. His method of fleecing his victims was by forging deeds to property belonging to others, filling the deeds with the register to make his ownership seem sound, and then selling it as his own.

Meeting of Woman's Club.

The Woman's Club will hold its first meeting of the new year in the Presbyterian parish house on Monday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

A feature of the meeting will be an address by Dr. Herman C. Land II. Dr. Randall is a very interesting speaker and all who attend will be afforded a rare treat.

The Mistake Is Made by Mary Westfield Children.

Look for the correct way to do it.

To be used by parents and teachers.

It is a well known fact that the children of Westfield are making a mistake in their spelling.

A Westfield mother, Mrs. J. H. Gargano, of Westfield, N. J., has written a book and has had it printed in a fine and durable binding. It is a book for parents and teachers to use in teaching their children the correct way to spell.

Mr. Dennis' Discussion.

We have endeavored to follow Mr. Dennis' discussion in his attempt to follow and answer what we believe to have been a very expensive two year's administration of town affairs, and in doing so we have covered almost every phase of the town's activities and finances to make reply. These are quite interesting to us, and many of our readers have expressed themselves as not only surprised but interested in the facts and conditions which have been brought to light.

However, we think it would be more profitable to all concerned, that is if Mr. Dennis continues his discussion, that he take up one subject at a time and discuss it on its merits.

We make the above suggestions as few of our citizens are familiar with the many phases of our town's financing. But one subject at a time, clearly and directly discussed, we believe would be profitable and enlightening to almost anyone who would care to follow the discussion.

A Go-to-Church Sunday.

The invitation to be issued by the several Christian churches of our town, inviting the people of Westfield to observe Sunday, January 9th, as a "Go-to-church Sunday", is certainly a worthy and commendable move, and we trust our citizens will take most kindly to such a proposal.

This invitation is given in the most generous and kindly spirit, and has the same purpose as the President's message setting apart Thanksgiving Day as a day of thanksgiving and worship. But we hope that more will accept the invitation to worship.

Certainly nothing but good can come from such a program, and we believe that the invitation to be received in the neighborhood spirit in which it is extended. No matter what our creed or what our faith, we are bound to recognize the forces for good set in motion by the church, and the duties we owe to our God to turn aside at some season and worship Him.

Such a movement, reinforced by such an invitation, is worthy of our confidence and support, and we hope that our citizens will respond in the spirit in which it is offered.

A Failure In Trenton.

The Morris County Chronicle in an editorial this week has the following to say regarding the Republican form of government in Trenton:

"One of the great evils of the state is the failure of the Republican form of government, as it is practiced in Trenton. The Republican form of government is a failure in Trenton, and the people of Trenton are the only ones who will respect so why it is not. Trenton is good as any of the other outlaws revolutionary leaders."

Selling For Cash.

One of our subscribers has written us a letter, which, for lack of space, we cannot print. He suggests that a great saving to the people of our town could be made by having all the merchandise sold for cash only. It is well known that at present those who pay have to carry the cash, who do not pay. We think this would be a most excellent plan, and feel it is an economy that should be effected.

Another feature along this same line, would be the reduction of deliveries made by the merchants. Reducing the number of deliveries would save a large amount of the merchants' overhead expenses, which, with the saving of freight charges, should make a great difference in the cost of things to the people of Westfield.

We believe the merchants would like to have their business put on a cash basis and some reasonable arrangements made by which numerous and unnecessary deliveries can be curtailed.

It appears to us that the Woman's Club and the Board of Trade might take this matter up and they should be given by the commissioners, and, sooner or later, we may know pretty nearly what has been accomplished by commission government in the line of economy and efficiency. It is impossible to tell this by standing on the outside and looking in. Jealousy between heads of departments is doing a whole lot to upset public confidence in the wisdom of the new scheme."

There is something very suspicious in this star-chamber and dark-lantern policy of the Trenton commissioners. If they do not take the people into their confidence pretty soon they will find that confidence a missing quantity so far as they are concerned.

It looks more and more as if Trenton had invested in a gold brick when it adopted the Walsh act. And it is pretty safe to predict that nearly all other municipalities that have done so will come to the same conclusion eventually. A government without a responsible head can only succeed by accident. In most cases it is bound to fail under the stress of natural laws.

Jumping On The Railroads.

"In England and on the Continent of Europe, walking on the railroad tracks is forbidden by law," so testified the Hon. C. C. McChord, of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Mr. McChord might have gone on to say that in this country not only is walking on the railroad tracks not forbidden by law, but that jumping on the railroads themselves has become one of the most popular of pastimes, in spite of the fact that over 100,000 Americans draw their living directly from them, thereby making it a rather dangerous diversion. It would do little harm if the sportive individuals who spend so much time in this pursuit would paste in their hats this little paragraph from the London Economist, to wit:

"When the railroads are prosperous, the good effects ramify through industry in general. When they are crippled, allied industries are crippled, and the harmful effects are transmitted along every nerve-fibre of the industrial organism."

To play ducks and drakes with the living of a tenth of our population would seem to be a rather serious proposition.

Peace With Mexico.

On Sunday last, Secretary of State Bryan offered the following prayer in connection with his Lincoln, Nebraska address:

"The peace movement—God speed it in its passage around the world. I pray God that He may help me to make it unnecessary that this Government shall go to war with Mexico. I do not want men to die before guns for their country; I want them to live for their country."

We join Mr. Bryan in his prayer for peace, and sincerely hope that there will be some way out of the position we find ourselves in with relation to the Mexican situation. We do not believe these people are ready for anything like a Republican form of government, and whoever is President can only rule these people in their present state of civilization by keeping his rifle loaded and his finger on the trigger. Such a man is the only one these people will respect so why it is not. Trenton is good as any of the other outlaws revolutionary leaders."

work out a plan in connection with the merchants which would be mutually acceptable all around, and to which the merchants would be only too glad to subscribe. There is no doubt but that if these two organizations set themselves to work to accomplish this end, that the end would be accomplished. This is far more practical than a town market and well within the range of possibility. In all events, we believe it is worthy of a conference between the Merchants' Association, the Board of Trade and the Woman's Club.

Shopping Out Of Town.

People sometimes tell the home merchant that he does not sell as cheaply as metropolitan stores or mail order houses in more or less distant cities.

Any person wishing to compare the two scales of prices should inquire whether the distant store is selling the same goods. Second grade products can be made to look very handsome in a catalog cut. But the home merchant can not float that kind of goods. They come back to his store too easily.

It is amusing to see the bother people will take for trifling sums they think they are saving. They will travel many miles, spend street car fares, pay for lunch, hotel bills, and tips. They get tired and footsore, tramping ground overgrown stores separated by long distances. They wait for change, carry bundles, and pay express. They pay a high price in money and energy for supposed economies.

Where you buy goods away from home you rarely take them back. The bother and expense looks prohibitive. When you buy at home you would return them if dissatisfied. This takes the time of clerks, frequently the goods have been injured while in your hands.

Where it is so easy to return goods, the customer must be given both the worth of his money, and something suited to his needs. A higher grade of salespeople is thus required in the home store. To make a safe that will stick so near home, the customer must be given intelligent advice.

Thus the public demands from the home store more competent service than it exacts from the distant merchant. This means additional expense, which is counterbalanced by lower rents and like economies. When you consider how generously the home store responds to all kinds of demands, reasonable and unreasonable, the range of its prices is remarkably low.

ANOTHER COMMUNICATION FROM EX-MAYOR DENNIS.

Westfield, N. J., Jan. 6, 1914.
Editor of The Standard,
Westfield, N. J.

Dear Sirs—You state that the figures given by you speak for themselves, but it is not the truth, and the whole truth that they speak.

The Valuations and Town Expenditures as stated are correct; likewise the amounts of the yearly budgets, excepting 1912, which was $65,789, and not $84,805, as stated by you. The unexpended balances were as follows:—1909, not given in the report for that year; 1910, $7,588 and not $23,763 as stated; 1911, $11,750 and not $12,487; 1912, $2,637, not $3,116. The amounts of the Certificates of Indebtedness are correctly stated, but as the amount of taxes collected in 1911-12 were about twice as large as 1909-10, this fact explains the large amount carried over in the first mentioned years.

The Mayor, in his speech, states that they worked satisfactorily during 1913. Regarding the cash balance, those of 1909-10 were built up by the payment of a deposit, and the Board of Education, Public Library, and Sinking Fund, in 1909, the cash balance for that year was $2,576, not $13,492 as stated. 1910, $14,400, not $20,771; 1911, $7,200, and 1912, $11,217, with nothing in the cash balance held back, making them the true balance. The fact of carrying over the cash balance is not a violation of the law, but followed in my term.

The figures given in my last letter which you "assume" to be correct, are undoubtedly correct, as they were compiled by Mr. A. W. Vars from the records during 1911 and given to me.

You say because in 1909-10 there were no bonds issued to carry the town's portion of improvements, that administration was the better. Owing to the lack of records, I cannot dispute that no bonds were issued; but, if in this instance the exception proves the rule, I call your attention to the bond issue, authorized December 6, 1910 for $16,000 covering $4,930 against the property improved, and $11,581 as the town's part. Why was this not taken out of the current income?

You remark regarding "Loans in excess of Borrowing Capacity, $5,731.94." This is stating a part of the truth only and misleading to the public. Our worthy treasurer is not an expert accountant as I learned during my term and it is from this fact and from faulty bookkeeping that the legal limit of borrowing was exceeded by the above amount in Certificates of Indebtedness, and fell short of the legal limit in Improvement Certificates by $18,599. An adjustment between these two accounts would bring us much below the legal limit.

With a million dollars increase in valuation and a tax rate of $2.03, you say my administration was going too strong. Your figures show that the budget of 1911 was responsible for less than two points over the tax rate of 1910. The cost of the tariff in 1911 was included for the first time in the budget, causing an advance of about seven points. The cost of this article was not included in the budget of 1910, but was assessed separately, keeping down the rate for that year. Still the public paid for it even if it did not appear in the tax rate. The town School and the County added seven more, making the total number of points of increase sixteen, as shown by the rate of that year but the administration of 1911 was responsible for only two points, calculated on the valuation of 1910.

I hope your estimate of my worthy Democratic Chairman of Finance is not based on the result of your Republican investigation and its results. The equalization of valuations has made many of those that were wide in the old "jump and leap" as you say in your tax bill, did.

To illustrate your method of handling the town's part of improvements, we will take for example the Broad Street improvement that you were largely interested in. Under your method the town's part of this improvement would cost the town an advance in the tax rate of from ten to fifteen points to cover an appropriation would be exhausted, and where would others be who wanted improvements? I can see in this method a very potent factor to be used for the good of the party. I doubt very much the honesty of your method. Do you know that between 1909 and 1910 there were issued $156,000 in bonds to cover roads, sidewalks and sewer improvements? The town's share was $73,263 or approximately $15.000 per year or about 20 points per year on the yearly tax rate, and do you think the public gullible enough to take for the truth your statement about this being taken from the current income?

In speaking of the great increase of expenditures during my term, do you take into consideration that we inherited from 1910 and paid, County Road Bonds.....$5,575 Improvement Certificates representing cost of approaches to Osborne Ave. bridge..... 3,084 Mortgage on Fire House..... 1,000 $9,659

And as the Fire Department was almost without apparatus we bought, Hose.....$2,000 In addition to Bond issue we paid on Auto apparatus..... 4,000 To finish new Fire House..... 2,000 $8,000

The Road Department was also almost without equipment and it cost for, Wagons, etc., about.....$1,500

Shed for their protection..... 1,000 $2,500

The Republican investigation of two members of the council cost about $800 These are extraordinary expenses and tended to reduce the cost of repairs to the roads and to increase the efficiency of the Fire Department. The Fire Department is not now where it should be as regards equipment and the recommendations of the Chief in his report of 1912 should be carried out at all hazards.

If you will make a comparison of the budgets of 1910 and 1912, showing where the great increase in expenditures are, I will endeavor to explain the reason.

Yours truly,
A. DENNIS.

OUR REPLY TO MR. DENNIS.

It is pleasing to note that at least a portion of the figures given in last week's tabulation are approved by Mr. Dennis, and while we still feel that the figures given for the year ended in 1912 to be correct, we are substituting Mr. Dennis' figures, although they make his overexpenditure in 1912, $35,000, whereas our original figures only charge him with $16,000 over.

As regards the other figures there is no real disagreement between them, we have the showing of the Auditor's report, giving both the debits and the credits, whereas the figures supplied by Mr. Dennis in brackets show debits both from debits and credits, the results are practically the same, and we consider the new basis as the results are the same.

We add a line in the tabulation, "uncollected taxes", as Mr. Dennis makes use of this item of the town's bookkeeping.

OUR REPLY TO MR. DENNIS.

matter, and it is manifestly unfair to bring these figures into this discussion.

We think it timely to suggest that Mr. Dennis stick to the original matter of discussion, viz., to justify the issue of $200,000 of bonds to cover the town's portion of local or assessment improvements during his administration.

The $10,000 was for the north main sewer, only a very small portion of which was in the nature of a local benefit, and is essentially a general or special improvement, the same as the Mountain avenue improvement, the east main sewer, and the separate tank work.

According to the report compiled by Mr. Dennis' Auditor, and handed to the citizens at the beginning of Mr. Dennis' administration, we find that there were actually issued $120,876 worth of bonds between 1900 and 1910. We believe the difference in Mr. Dennis' figures, and the report figures to be unintentional; but under no circumstances are the figures pertinent to this discussion. $70,000 of these bonds were clearly and distinctly local or assessment bonds, against which there were assessments outstanding. The balance is made up of $30,000 for outlet extension sewer, $20,000 for the fire house, and $6,876 for the purchase of the park, all clearly and distinctly general improvements. We contend that Mr. Dennis' proposal in connection with the 20 points per year on the yearly tax rate is entirely irrelevant. The Town's share of the Broad Street Improvement was $4,707, a large portion of which was caused by the frontage of the library, town park, and Grant School properties. In all events, it appears to us that had the town expenditures been held down during Mr. Dennis' administration, he would have had sufficient funds from the extraordinary receipts (franchise, taxes, licenses, etc.) amounting to approximately $20,000,000, to have carried this and several other improvements as well.

We have submitted Mr. Dennis' figures, in which he refers to his "loans in excess of borrowing capacity" to the Town Treasurer and print his reply.

"I give the Chairman of the Finance Committee at each meeting, the exact balances. He plans his own financial, and offers resolutions authorizing the issue of both certificates of indebtedness and certificates of improvements. If he ever issues one class and under issues another, it is clearly up to the Chairman of the Finance Committee."

The cash balance plus the uncollected taxes represent quick assets against which certificates of indebtedness can be issued. The purposes of these certificates are for temporary loans, but the administrations of 1911-12 had borrowed its limit, leaving no margin to conduct the town's business on until the tax budget is passed. This is expensive, and while the present administration was left a heavy legacy of these certificates, they should be reduced to a normal figure as fast as possible.

WOODMEN MAKE NEW HIGH TEAM SCORE

The Woodmen of the World team of the Fraternal Bowling League took three of the games in the match with the Red Men last night and in addition to this scratched the high team score away from the Arcanum team who have been holding it so far this season. In the first game the Woodmen went at the pins like a house afire and when the scores had been totaled up it was found that they had beaten the high score of the Arcanum by four pins. In this game Ehmling and Radin bowled exceptionally good games, the former posting 243 and the latter 212. While the Red Men were beaten in the first and last games they rolled good games and came back in the second with 958. Gripp hung up a two time score for the Indians in the last game; McKelvey 201 in the first and 203 in the second while Stegmeier hung up 201 in the first and 205 in the second. There was a large crowd of rooters for both teams on the alleys and at times the excitement and interest ran high. The scores follow:

ARCANUM DID SOME CLASSY PINNING.

The Royal Arcanum and the Immediate Aid teams of the Fraternal Bowling League rolled three games on Monday night and the Arcanumites had no difficulty in defeating their opponents. The Arcanum team did some classy pinning and hung up two 900 scores.

Montross, of the Arcanum, was the only man on either team to reach the double century mark and this was in the second game when he posted 211. Puck of the Immediate Aid team led a steady game. The Arcanumites now have a tight hold on second place. The scores:

WOODCHOPPERS EASY MEAT FOR LOYAL PINNERS.

Well, Well, Well. Our Loyal Association team of the Fraternal Bowling League showed some class on Tuesday night when they took the Woodmen of the World of Garwood into camp for three games. The woodchoppers were not in with the Loyal aggregation and were easy meat.

Townley and Charley Ortleb were the star pinners for the Loyal Association, Townley hanging up a score of 210 in the third game and Ortleb 229 in the first. While no two time scores were posted by the Woodmen some of the members of the team did some good pinning. The scores:

BOWLING SQUIBS

Powles, of the Immediate Aid team, rolled a steady game in the match with the Arcanum on Monday night.

"Bill" Townley and Charley Ortleb showed some class in the games of the Loyals and Garwood Woodmen on Tuesday night.

Grey, of the Immediate Aid, was hitting the wood in good shape for the Immediate Aid on Monday night. Montross, of the Arcanum team, was the candy kid on Monday night with the lone two time score of the match with the Immediate Aid.

"Top" Forster had an off night Monday in the games of the Arcanum and Immediate Aid.

"Doris" Ortleb had his bowling eye with him but did not reach the double century mark.

McMahon of the Garwood Woodmen rolled three good games in the matches with the Loyals on Tuesday night.

"How" Manning was away off his usual pinning form Tuesday night.

Butler, the lead off man for the Loyals, posted some good scores even if he did not reach the 200 mark.

Rockliffe, of the Garwood Woodmen, was low man in the first and second games but came back in the last game with 176.

Baptist made a terrible showing against Congregational last week. There is no reason why Baptist should not have the strongest team in the league. Come Baptist, pull yourself together!

Bill Kennedy was the only man to roll a 200 game last week. You have got to hand it to Bill and in a couple of years some of the old timers will have to step some to keep alongside of him.

What is the matter with Dempsey this year? He is usually a very steady pinner but hasn't hit his stride yet.

Who's going to beat Baker's 228? Several have come near it but splits have spoiled their efforts every time.

Congregational will bear watching from now on. Trinity has also picked up considerably and will make them all hustle.

CONGREGATIONALISTS SPRING SURPRISE.

The Congregational team of the Sunday School Athletic Bowling League sprung a surprise last Friday night when they took three games from the Baptist team. The Baptists were confident of defeating their opponents but owing to the fact that the wood did not fall in good shape for them they were unable to do the trick. Members of both teams however, did some good bowling, although only one two time score was hung up and that was made by Kennedy of the Congregational team in the first game. The scores:

CUBS ELECT OFFICERS

The home of Fred MacDonald, manager of the Westfield Cubs, was the scene of a Dutch supper which was given by the manager to the baseball team last Friday night. The supper had been tastefully prepared and was much enjoyed by those who partook of it.

After the supper the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, L. G. Venn; vice-president, Geo. Worth; second vice-president, A. Hunt; secretary, Ford Douglas; treasurer, R. Dudley Green; manager, Fred MacDonald; assistant manager, Geo. Vallean; captain, R. D. Green.

The club will hold meetings on the last Friday of every month. A committee was appointed to secure the grounds and tickets for 10 cents admission will soon be ready for subscriptions at $1.50. The club will be at home talent and games will be booked with the well known teams in the circuit.

CUBS RE-ELECT "MAC."

Manager MacDonald has been re-elected for the season of 1914 by the Westfield Athletic Association, and has been given two fine assistants in Captain Green and Asst. Manager Vallean. President L. G. Venn of the Association expects big things of the Cubs in 1914 and Manager Mac and his staff of helpers will do their best to make it a big year.

Recreation Park will be the home of the Cubs next season if the grounds can be secured at a reasonable price. Baseball in Westfield in the past few years has been a failure, but this coming season the team will be picked from the members of the Westfield Athletic Association and will be made up entirely of Westfield men, and this, it is hoped, will interest the Westfield people.

The Westfield Cubs found that there was such a thing as the lucky seventh, as they scored 32 runs in that inning during the past year, while their opponents did their best scoring in the fourth.

Following are the runs scored by each team in nine innings—Cubs—23, 14, 14, 17, 16, 14, 32, 10, 3—Total—133. Oppon.—13, 2, 13, 15, 14, 12, 5, 2, 5—Total—81.

HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATS SOMERVILLE, 37-13.

After playing their poorest at Bound Brook the W. H. S. boys came back and with two subs, defeated Somerville 37-13 on Wednesday. Westfield played together throughout the game and the team work was well-deserving of the victory. The three regulars, Marsh, Day, and Ewing, alone, more than doubled Somerville's score.

FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

John W. Skillen of Sidney, Ohio, Has Found a Remedy.

Experts declare that the reason stomach disorders are so common in this country is due to hasty and careless habits of eating. Stomach troubles and run-down conditions usually go together.

John W. Skillen of Sidney, Ohio, says: "I had a bad stomach trouble for years, and became so weak that I could hardly walk or do any work. My appetite was poor, and it seemed impossible to get any relief. Since taking Vinol I find a remarkable improvement in my health, my digestion is much stronger, and I have gained in weight. I would not be without Vinol."

Vinol makes weak stomachs strong because it strengthens and tones up the weakened, tired and overtaxed nerves of the digestive organs. Vinol is easily assimilated by the weakest stomachs, and is delicious to the taste.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

Woman Suffrage

Pro and Con

LET US THINK.

Upon first thought it may seem that the American public has had ample opportunity to inform itself of the right or wrong of "Woman's Suffrage," and to determine positively either for or against it. Thousands, however, have taken no stand and it is for them that the vigorous campaign must be continued on both sides in order that they may be awakened into action one way or the other. When these thousands have thought and decided, the battle will be either won or lost, but we will at least have peace. It is time they acted. Let them do it advisedly.

For the past few years "Woman's Suffrage" has been discussed by our most cultured and intellectual men and women who have written and spoken volumes on each side of the question. Their sayings and writings have been widely disseminated by the advocates of either side and every means has been used to educate those who must ultimately be benefited or injured by the movement. All this speaking and writing has doubtless been a vast help to many in forming their opinions and to it all those who are still of unsettled mind should go to be enlightened. It should not, however, take the place of individual thought and that is the point I would most strongly urge in taking advantage of the privileges of this column. We have here a question which each man can and must reason out for himself. I know some Americans hate to think, except in a superficial way. They prefer to have their reasoning done by another so long as the result pleases them. As regards certain questions before our Congress and the legislatures today he is doubtless quite right in doing so. Matters, for instance, such as the currency reform, the tariff bill, the various workmen's compensation acts and the hundred other national and local questions that are now uppermost, may be better and more easily dealt with by a few trained and experienced minds than by the public at large. They are matters difficult of comprehension to the average mind and any general movement for thought on such subjects would doubtless be futile.

With the question of Woman's Suffrage this is not so. There is nothing technical nor difficult to understand. The answer may be arrived at by following lines of thought familiar to every one but more dominant in some minds than others.

Then how shall a man who has never given the question any thought begin? First, if he has never attended any meetings at which the subject has been dealt with, let him go to an anti-suffrage meeting with an ardent anti. After that let him attend a suffrage meeting with an enthusiast for the cause. These two meetings will doubtless teach him why he must think for himself and will somewhat console him for the effort he is about to make and for his hour of unrest while he is thinking.

As his first serious thought, he must say to himself from what standpoint am I to approach this. Shall I think selfishly or unselfishly? He decides to do both and he is right. He thinks first, what are the advantages to me if I give woman the right to vote? Has it its disadvantages to me? He may or may not decide that the advantages are greater than the disadvantages. At any rate if he is fair he will go on. He will ask himself, will the woman gain anything by having the vote? Is the direct influence greater than the indirect? Can her former sympathy in certain social matters be more actively and beneficially employed for her sex, can she impress a more humanitarian tone upon the law, if she may use the ballot? Will her broadened insight and more thorough understanding of what is in the world make her any less caring for the home, if that understanding is obtained through the ballot?

These questions may lead him to wonder what has brought about the present almost universal movement. He cannot see that woman's position in the home is any unhappier than in times past, and it becomes hard for him to understand why the ballot should be so eagerly sought after by her. Then doubtless there comes to him the thought that the home of today is not for every woman. The social and financial evidences of the great strides woman has taken in the business world in the past decade, and if he has never before thought of it he is amazed as he contemplates the enormous army of women who are working shoulder to shoulder with men in all the great business enterprises, and working as efficiently as ever men worked. He realizes that the home is an important factor in the education of many a family and that her influence in that line extends over as wide a territory as his own. He perceives that woman, herself, has had no greater part in bringing about this change than he, for his part, has had but that she has taken so prominent a place in the business world, solely through the spread of commercial and social industries. He cannot but applaud the natural and apt way in which she has met the demand for her. Being so placed, he argues, should she be deprived of the rights and privileges that will put her on an equal footing with him in the hard struggle of the workaday world. Is not the ballot such a privilege, given to him, but denied to her?

He turns to the ballot. To him franchise and liberty are doubtless synonymous terms as they have been to many all down the ages. He realizes that the chief factor which has brought him into that state of happiness and prosperity he now enjoys, has been the liberty to speak through the franchise given into his hands from the hands of his fathers after they had fought so well for the unqualified possession of it. He must know if he thinks at all that this is not a prerogative peculiar to him simply because he is a man. If it were an inherent right, he argues, it must inhere to woman as well as to man and be subject to no interference, capable of no broader extension and not within the power of man to give away. This he knows to be untrue. It is rather a special privilege which in this country happens to be in his hands to do with as he pleases within certain limits and it lies in his power alone to extend or retard its usefulness.

If, when he has reasoned thus far, he shall believe that all things are now ready for woman to have the franchise it will follow almost as corollary that she, herself, is ready for it and capable to receive it. He knows from his researches in the realms of history that the time has yet to come when a reform is at hand and the intended beneficiaries of that reform are unready to receive it. If he doubts her capability to comprehend the vast questions of politics and statesmanship let him again turn to history and see in what masterly fashion the rod of empire has been swayed by the numerous women who have been called upon to rule and have done so with more than a man's might. Let him consider how very little he, himself, knows of the mighty questions that today confront the American people and let him ask himself whether a great number of the social problems of today would not be more easily handled, more studiously thought of and more earnestly solved if the man and the woman would work together.

The cause of suffrage has nothing to fear if it can make every man think. Surely there will ever be with us those whose conservatism and love of the old customs forbid them to acknowledge the march of progress and the birth of new ideas. These men think, but there can be no appeal to them. Fortunately the vast majority of men think upon any subject without prejudice or bias and it is to this vast majority that the world says: "Think!"

A DIFFERENCE IN WORKING HOURS.

A man's working day is 8 hours. His body organs must work perfectly 24 hours to keep him fit for 8 hours work. Weak, sore, inactive kidneys can not do it. They must be sound and healthily active all the time. Foley Kidney Pills will make them sound and well. You can not take them into your system without good results following their use. They are tonic in action, quick in results, and contain no habit forming drugs. Try them.—Gale's Pharmacy.

Library Trustees Organize.

The trustees of the Free Public Library held a meeting at the Library on Tuesday night for the purpose of organizing for the year. James O. Clark acted as chairman. Mrs. Mary Tubby was selected as secretary and George Cow, as treasurer.

The trustees will hold another meeting next Monday night at which time a permanent chairman will be selected and other business transacted.

WOMEN AND WET FEET.

Cold and wet feet are a dangerous combination especially to women, who are more prone to kidney diseases than men. Congested kidneys come from a cold, and backache, rheumatism, urinary irregularities and rheumatic forms are not unusual results. Foley Kidney Pills restore the regular and normal action of the kidneys and bladder, and so remove the cause of the trouble. It is an honest and curative medicine that always gives results.

SOCIALISM DISPARAGED.

Able Address Given By David Goldstein at Flagg's Hall on Tuesday.

David Goldstein, of the Boston School of Political Economy, spoke most interestingly to a large audience in Flagg's Hall last Tuesday evening. That his address was appreciated was best shown by the rapt attention of his hearers. Using as proofs the authoritative statements of the high-priests of Modern Socialism, he showed conclusively that Socialism was opposed to Christianity and that consequently a Christian could not consistently be a Socialist. From very many of such quotations, he also proved that the tenets of Socialism were destructive to the family and upheld "Free Love."

Mr. Goldstein's reputation as a speaker of national repute and as an able authority on the subject of Socialism were well sustained. As a debater, he has been most successful and has always routed his opponents.

The lecture was followed by a dance, music being supplied by Carpenter's Orchestra.

The affair was most successful educationally, socially and financially.

Death of Prominent Methodist.

Mr. Wellington Morehouse, of Westfield, superintendent and an earnest worker in the local Methodist Sunday School for many years, died at his home in Embree Crescent, Westfield, last Thursday morning. He was a prominent citizen of his home town, and was a dominant factor in church circles. Only recently, at the first meeting of the Fanwood Township Sunday School Association, he was elected president of that organization. The funeral was held from the First Methodist Church, of Westfield, of which he was a member, on Saturday afternoon. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery.

"CHARLEY'S AUNT"
A BIG SUCCESS

Amateur Farce Comedy Kept Audience Laughing Throughout Performance—To Be Repeated Monday.

The first performance of "Charley's Aunt" by members of the Plio Club in the Playhouse on Monday night scored a big hit and many complimentary criticisms were heard from the large audience present. It was a three act farce comedy and was given by the Plio Club for the benefit of the Children's Country Home.

The leading character in the cast was Charles Taylor who as the make-believe aunt was all that could be desired and performed his part to perfection. Frank Traynor and Charles Brown as college students also did well. Others who did exceptionally well in the cast were Miss Margaret Aline White as Miss Kitty Verdun and Miss Ray Harrison as Miss Amy Spettigue, two charming young belles; Miss Elizabeth Johnston as Charley's Aunt, the real one; Edward Parker as Braslet, the college scout; Miss Frances Peirce as Ella Delckay, an orphan; Harrison Taylor as Stephen Spettigue, Oxford, Solicitor; DeWayne Seaman as Col. Sir Francis Chesney.

The scene of the farce-comedy was laid in merry England and the many complications which arose and the amusing situations in which the members of the cast found themselves kept the audience laughing throughout the performance.

The stage manager was Chester D. Losee. In charge of the property were Kenneth Wilcox and Robert Keyes. The scenery was loaned by J. Harwood Springer.

The second performance will be given next Monday night when it is expected that there will be another large audience present.
