A MacDOWELL AFTERNOON

Given by the Woman's Club in the Parish House on Monday

The Woman's Club held a most interesting and delightful "MacDowell Afternoon" in the parish house of the Presbyterian church on Monday afternoon, the entire time the members were assembled being devoted to piano selections and vocal solos composed by this noted author.

Mrs. Barney Kent, who was a pupil of MacDowell and a member of the colony of the Peterboro Memorial College in New Hampshire, played "An Old Garden," "In Deep Woods," from the New England "Idylls," "To a Humming Bird" sung outside of the Prince's depository, and ended with an etude de concert. Mrs. Gertrude Foster sang simply and delightfully the following songs of MacDowell: "My Jean," "Idyll," "Thy Beaming Eyes" and responded very graciously to an encore by singing "Bluebell." Mrs. W. G. Spencer read a very interesting paper on MacDowell.

Mrs. Alfred Allen Watts presented a tentative program for the coming year. It is entitled "Men and Books." It will be of a literary and historical nature and will be divided into three periods--the period of Queen Elizabeth, the period of Queen Ann, and the period of Queen Victoria. There will be several noted lecturers from New York during the year.

A detailed program will be given at a later date. Mrs. F. W. Smith, president of the Club, presided.

CLASS OF 1914 HOLD SPREAD.

The Senior Class of Westfield High School held its annual spread on last Tuesday night, January 27th, at Plagg's Theatre. The seniors gathered together at eleven o'clock and several hours of dancing, and games, which were followed by refreshments and speeches, were enjoyed. Every attempt upon the part of the Juniors and their friends to waylay seniors on the way to the spread were in vain, as the members of the class of 1914 simply went on and brought in their classmates.

The Seniors also captured the Junior Class President, another victory for the class of 1914. All the members of the Senior class and most of the faculty were present and all agreed that they had had a splendid time. Practically no trouble was given by the Juniors as any advance upon their part was quickly squashed by the Senior class. At about three A. M. the Seniors started for home with another victory tacked on to their already long list.

TWO OFFENDERS ARRESTED.

Frank Brush, of Scotch Plains, and John Capeza, of North street, were arrested on Saturday by Officer McNeely, the former for carrying concealed weapons and the latter for interfering with the officer when he was making the arrest.

At the hearing on Sunday morning before Recorder Springstead, Brush was held for the grand jury in $300 bail and Capeza was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. A 32-calibre revolver was found on Brush when he was searched at the police station.

WESTFIELD WOODMEN INSTALL OFFICERS

Past Commanders Surprised by Remembrances Given For Faithful Services

At the meeting of Westfield Camp, Woodmen of the World held last Friday night in Odd Fellows hall the following officers were installed by Past Council Commander Quipp of Cranford Camp: Council Commander, Frank Somers; advisory lieutenant, James P. Edwards; clerk, A. E. Snyder; banker, A. D. Marengli; escort, H. T. Carlson; watchman, George Woodruff; sentry, Theodore Brum; manager, Percy DeLong.

One of the pleasing features of the meeting was the presentation of Waterman fountain pens by District Deputy Snyder to Past Council Commander Quipp of Cranford Camp, for services he had rendered the local Camp at various times, and one to Past Council Commander C. C. Malsbury, for his services as Council Commander during the past three years. Both Mr. Quipp and Mr. Malsbury were taken completely by surprise but responded in brief addresses. After the business session of the Camp a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served. Frederick Thayer was initiated into the mysteries of the order.

During the past year Westfield Camp has had a considerable growth owing to the efforts put forth by Deputy Snyder and the membership now numbers close to one hundred.

WESTFIELD CHORAL SOCIETY

The Westfield Choral Society, after its holiday vacation, resumed regular weekly rehearsals Tuesday evening at the Methodist Chapel. Mr. Charles L. Gulick, the organist of the Methodist Church, has been secured as director of the Society to succeed Mr. Alfred M. Best, who resigned on January 1st.

It was with great regret that Mr. Best's resignation was received and accepted for without question the success and popularity which the Society has enjoyed during the past five years has been due very largely to his earnest, capable leadership. Mr. Best, although not now a resident of Westfield, has been persuaded year by year to retain his position as director, and it has been at considerable personal sacrifice that he has given the Society of his time and talent. It is only because of recently increasing business engagements that Mr. Best has found it absolutely necessary to give up the work. The Society, indeed all music lovers in the community, owe Mr. Best a debt of gratitude for his splendid work in behalf of good music.

The Choral Society is fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Gulick who, since his engagement as organist in the new Methodist Church, has demonstrated his ability as a musician of the first order.

The next work which will be publicly produced by the Society will be the oratorio Mary Magdalene, which will be rendered about Easter time. In all probability Mr. Best will have one of the solo parts.

AUGUST DANKER HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

August Danker, proprietor of the East Lawn Dairy on Broad street, had a narrow escape on Wednesday morning when he attempted to jump into one of his milk wagons while it was in motion on Dudley avenue. Mr. Danker slipped and fell and one of the rear wheels ran over his right foot and arm. Fortunately the horse stopped as Mr. Danker fell or the wheel would have passed over his head. His arm and foot are very sore but no bones were broken.

JUDGMENTS OBTAINED IN DISTRICT COURT.

Howarth, of Mountain avenue, also secured a judgment for $104.15 against Mrs. William Van Borstal, of Mountainside, for work he had done on her house. Mr. Howarth was represented by A. C. Nash. Mrs. Van Borstal was not represented.

The Choral Club which was recently formed in the Fourth ward held an organization meeting and their first rehearsal in the McKinley school building on Monday night.

There was a large attendance and the members are very enthusiastic over the outlook of the club. The club was formed as a branch of the Parent-Teachers Association and will add in the work of the Association.

BRILLIANT LECTURE HEARD BY SMALL AUDIENCE.

The lecture given in the assembly room of the Washington school on Saturday night under the direction of the Board of Education by Nat. M. Brigham on "The Grand Canyon of Arizona" was considered by those who attended as one of the best lectures in the series which the Board of Education is giving. The audience was not large owing to the stormy weather but those who were there were well repaid. The descriptive powers of Mr. Brigham were wonderful and the stereopticon views were beautiful.

Mr. Brigham was introduced to the audience by W. A. Dempsey, vice-president of the Board of Education. Mr. Brigham is to return to this town next season when he will give his illustrated lecture on "Yellowstone National Park."

The lecture tomorrow night will be given by Dr. Curtis Lee Laws who has been heard here several times. His subject will be the "British Isles" and will be illustrated with many stereopticon views.

Cold and wet feet are a dangerous combination especially to women, who are more prone to kidney diseases than men. ### "Know Your Town."

The plans for the much talked of municipal exhibit, which is promised by the Board of Trade are now said to be well under way.

At first thought, it would seem there would be little of interest or of value to be made out of such an exhibit for Westfield, but under the direction of an expert, the committees are developing many interesting features, which promise to be of great value to our citizens and the town.

Every feature of town life will be represented and an intelligent demonstration made of each department's work.

"Know your town" might be a good slogan for such an undertaking, as it is the purpose of the Board of Trade to give every opportunity for the citizens of Westfield to get acquainted with everything that goes to make Westfield the best place to live in, to play in, and to bring up our families in—which of course it is.

What higher ideals and more perfect conditions could be demanded of any town?

While the committees are giving great thought and energy to this exhibit, we trust the people will assist in every way and mark the occasion as one to which they shall give their support.

A Church Town.

The beautiful spirit in which the invitation to observe "Go-to-Church Sunday" was received by everyone, and the large attendance at the churches last Sunday, encourage us to believe that Westfield is true to its reputation of being "a church town." It is encouraging to feel that while some of our good people are not found in the house of public worship every Sunday, they have a kindly regard to the invitation when given.

Perhaps some who received the invitation accepted it because of the promptings of conscience, which suggested that in their old home they were found with consistent regularity in their churches, and while they never intended to fall away from the wholesome habit of setting apart at least one hour during the week for the worship of God in His house, they found themselves for some reason or other to have gotten away from this custom.

To such, as well as to those who have never at any time been regular attendants at the house of worship, the churches of Westfield continue a most hearty invitation to their services.

Westfield has as good a corps of preachers as can be found in any town in our State, and we believe their preaching is true to their mission, in holding no Jesus Christ as the Saviour of men, consequently we feel no reasonable excuse can be offered for neglecting the privileges of public worship by any of our citizens.

The Price of Coal.

The decree filed by Judge Grey, of Philadelphia, requiring the investigators of the coal trust to conclude their investigation not later than March 5th, meets the demand of public opinion in this matter. These trust proceedings and examinations have been in the past altogether too drawn out to inspire a great deal of public confidence.

Whether the investigation or a command from the powers that be will rid the people of New Jersey from the extortion and injustice which they have suffered so long be at a price of the Anthracite coal trust matters little, so long as we get the relief. The coal companies will never be able to justify their course so long as they charge the dealers in Elizabeth, Bayonne and Jersey City, one price, and the dealers in Cranford, Westfield, Plainfield, and other line points, a greater price. Before the Interstate Commerce Commission required the transportation lines to cease discriminating against inland points, the railroad charged a less rate per ton for hauling their coal through Westfield and delivering it to Elizabeth than to deliver it to Westfield, but since the I. C. C. made the railroads stop such discrimination, the coal companies accomplished the same purpose by charging a less schedule—Twenty-two cents at the mine for tide water points than for line points. It amounts to the same thing, and the consumer in Westfield cares little whether it is the coal companies or the railroad companies that are discriminating against them so long as the discrimination remains. Besides the discrimination, there is no question but that the price of anthracite coal in Westfield has been arbitrarily advanced from time to time until we are paying 15 per cent, to 20 per cent, more for coal than there is justification for. All we want is fair treatment and a reasonable price for this necessity.

Two Bad Bills.

Thus far there have been presented at the present session of the Legislature two very bad bills. One is called the Boxing Bill, which is, in reality, letting down the bars for prize fights and such affairs. It is the same character of legislation that the Dix Administration placed upon the statute books of New York State, the evils of which are already too apparent.

The other bill is "The Sunday Sports Bill", which would legalize all manner of Sunday sports after one o'clock in the afternoon.

This is a trend toward a condition that should not be tolerated by a State that is so close to the metropolitan cities of New York and Philadelphia. Whatever might be the results in inland towns, it surely would make the Sabbath day in the territory adjacent to either of the large cities one grand holiday which would invite all manner of rough characters, and when once established would surely demand open saloons to make the carnival complete.

While we believe the time has come when the old Puritan Sabbath is no longer observed by the people of New Jersey, we feel perfectly sure that a reckless disregard for the Sabbath day, which would surely be ushered in by such a law, would rob our town of much of its charm and make it possible for Westfield to become the picnic ground for the rougher elements of some of our neighboring cities.

Small Board Bill.

All praise to the stand which Assemblyman Frank Dobbins, of Rahway, has taken in relation to the small board of freeholder bill, which his associates in the Assembly have declared they would, at all hazards, attempt to pass at the present Legislature.

Mr. Dobbins sees the unreasonableness and the true viciousness of this bill, and while much pressure is being brought to bear upon him by the coterie of politicians in Elizabeth, who are so anxious to have this bill passed, he has the strength of his convictions, and unless he has departed much from his reputation as a tireless fighter, we believe Mr. Dobbins will be a strong factor in assisting the people of Union County in defeating this small board bill when it is presented.

The members of all parties, outside of Elizabeth, are entering the strongest sort of a protest against this measure, which Assemblyman Griffin, of Elizabeth, has declared he would push to the bitter end regardless of public sentiment, his claim being that for a year he has been trying to get the small board bill to operate in Union County, and now that success is near, he does not propose to give up his fight. He claims to understand all about the protests that are being made, but notwithstanding, he is not going to be controlled by them.

While this may be entirely reasonable from Mr. Griffin's point of view, he has never displayed much interest in Union County outside of Elizabeth and since he has so boldly laid down his ultimatum regarding the small board bill, there is nothing left but to class Mr. Griffin as a henchman of that political gang, which has for so many years been trying to get control of county affairs.

A New County.

What do you imagine would become of the plan fathered by former Mayor Smalley, of North Plainfield to have the Legislature create a new county composed of Plainfield and its environs were a bill for that purpose to be sub-

Increase of Stockholders.

The notion that the railroads and industrial corporations are owned by a few persons is fast being corrected by information disseminated by the press. A recent issue of the Wall Street Journal demonstrates that 191 corporations represent 9,292,282 shareholders owning certificates of stock representing $8,626,015,315. Of these corporations, 46 are railroads and 145 are industrial. It is worth remembering that nearly a million people are deeply interested in the success of these railroads and corporations, and that the average holding is less than a hundred shares.

WHY SOME MERCHANTS ARE LOSING TRADE.

I next went to Taylorville, a beautiful little city of 7,000 population, the county seat of Christian County. Surrounded by one of the most fertile farming sections of the state it is also an important mining center and should be a profitable location for retail merchants instead of a market for the large stores of Decatur, Springfield and St. Louis, as well as a dumping ground of the mail order houses. When I visited the freight stations with a merchant I found more goods consigned to consumers than there were shipments consigned to merchants. I was not at all surprised to find that the merchants of Taylorville were not advertisers in their local papers.—A. O. Charles in the Drygoodsman.

WHY DON'T YOU?

A farmer who was carrying an express package from a city mail order house, was accosted by a local merchant: "Why didn't you buy that bill of goods from me? I could have saved you the express and besides you would have been patronizing a home store, which helps pay the taxes and build up this locality." With characteristic frankness, the farmer asked: "Why don't you patronize your home paper and advertise? I read it and didn't know you had the goods I have here, nor do I ever see your name in the paper inviting one to come to your store." —The Pomotrope.

EDGEWOOD PARK CIVIC CLUB.

The Edgewood Park Civic Club is the name of a new organization, which has been organized recently among the residents of the Edgewood avenue section with J. W. Phelps, president, and William G. Patterson, secretary. The club has a membership of about twenty and the object of the club is to get improvements in the way of streets, sidewalks and lights in that section. Petitions are being prepared which will soon be presented to the town council for these improvements. One petition, asking for permission to lay sidewalks and requesting the council to give the grade of the street, is now being circulated. Among those who belong to the club are: H. L. Becker, H. J. Holmes, W. G. Patterson, R. M. Smith, J. W. Phelps, Paul Christianson, Harry Wahl, Messrs. Reimberg, Werner, Anderson and Groth.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of H. L. Becker, on Friday night.

FORMER RESIDENT DEAD.

William J. Orr, a former resident of Clark Street but who has been spending the winter months in Brooklyn, died at the home of relatives on January 19. Mr. Orr was in his sixtieth year. He had been an employee in the New York office of the Norfolk and Western Railroad for the past forty-five years and was the oldest employee in point of service.

He was a member of Altair Lodge, F. & A. M., of Brooklyn. He is survived by a widow and two sons, W. H. Orr, of this town, and A. E. Orr, of New York. Mr. Orr had a number of friends in this town.

SAVINGS BANKS DISCUSSED AT BANKERS CLUB

Proposed Amendment to Postal Savings Laws Disastrous to Small Banks.

The Bankers Club of Westfield held its regular meeting last Tuesday evening and was presided over by Mr. F. W. Ellsworth. After a few brief remarks, Mr. Ellsworth introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. E. G. McWilliam, of the American Bankers Association.

Mr. McWilliam spoke of the origin of the Savings banks, and said the first real savings bank was introduced by Dr. Duncan, in Scotland, in May, 1810, but that a bank in Edinburgh, organized in 1814, was the first to use the pass book. The first Savings bank in the United States was founded in Philadelphia in 1816.

The speaker emphasized the matter of investments and the good a savings bank could do a community. Mr. McWilliam impressed upon the minds of his hearers the value of banks advertising—to make their advertisements instructive to the community, telling their readers the advantage of the saving habit which establishes relationships from which there is much to be gained.

The proposed amendment to the Postal Savings laws was also spoken of by Mr. McWilliam who said that the proposed amendment would result in disaster to the smaller banks and he advised that individuals take the matter up with their representatives.

The audience greatly enjoyed his interesting address.

At the close of the address, Mr. McWilliam answered a number of questions on the subject of Savings banks, asked him by members of the club.

MRS. SARAH J. MAXWELL.

Mrs. Sarah J. Maxwell, died at her home, 550 Carlton Road, early yesterday morning after an illness of about four months. J. Brainerd.

W. G. PECKHAM PROMINENT IN FLORIDA AFFAIRS.

An issue of the St. Cloud Tribune, published in St. Cloud, Florida, which has been received by this office shows that William G. Peckham of this town, who is spending the winter in Florida, is taking quite an active interest in the affairs there. Mr. Peckham is mentioned as among the number who have signed applications to the United States Fish Commission to have the East Lake Tuleep Club stocked with young fish and make it one of the best angling places in that part of the country.

At a meeting of the Woman's Improvement Club held there Mr. Peckham made the report of a committee, to judge the relative merit of well kept yards in St. Cloud. Mr. Peckham made a witty speech and also made some suggestions for club work. At the close of his report and address he was given a rousing vote of thanks by the members of the club, and to show their further appreciation the ladies by vote made Mr. Peckham and his grandson, "Young Bill", honorary members of the club.

BOWLING SQUIBS

"How" Manning's bowlers failed to take the Immediate Aid aggregation into camp on Monday night.

It was too bad the fifth man on the Garwood Woodmen and Immediate Aid teams did not show up Monday night as it might have made a difference to the former team.

Fred Grey of the Immediate Aid team was the only two time man in the games on Monday night.

Powles of the Immediate Aid team bowled three good games on Monday night in the clash with the Garwood Woodmen.

Butler, the lead off man of the Loyals, was not in usual pinning form in the games with the Juniors on Tuesday night.

Townley of the Loyals, posted 200 in the last game and Baker of the Juniors 208.

Winter bowled well in the last game but in the first and second was not hitting the wood for good scores.

Allen did some good bowling although he did not reach the 200 mark.

Beaman did good work in the first and last games but fell down in the second.

Gilmore had three good games.

S. S. L. BOWLING NOTES.

There will be a change in the schedule for this Friday and next Friday. Congregational will roll Baptist tonight and Presbyterian will roll Congregational next Friday. It looks to an outsider as if Charley Kimball's pinners were in for two strenuous evenings.

Ed. McMahon had quite a busy time rounding up his team last week as most of the "regulars" were away "on business." But you got 'em out anyway, Ed!

Ed. Marengi took another try at the high score last Friday but a split put Eddie just out of reach. Now once again, Ed.

Arthur Clark hit the pins with the best results for Congregational last week.

Kimball, Cowperthwaite, Smith and Kennedy all had the same average for last Friday's games. Very sociable those Congregational boys!

Last time Baptist went up against Congregational they dropped three games. Capt. Clements will have this in mind tonight and see that history does NOT repeat itself.

The Elm Streeters will have out their strongest team tonight as they want to break that tie with Presbyterian.

FRATERNAL BOWLING LEAGUE IN EXECUTIVE SESSION.

The executive committee of the Fraternal Bowling League held a meeting last Saturday night for the purpose of acting on the protested game of the Junior-Arcanum match. It was decided that a full game shall be rolled with the original lineup previous to the regular scheduled game on February 19 and that it shall start at 8:15. Owing to the fact that several of the Immediate Aid team members have moved from town, Captain Brown asked to have Richard Doerfer and N. Lambert added to his team and his request was granted.

PLAINFIELD TAKES HOCKEY SERIES.

After each team had won one game in the hockey series, Plainfield H. S., won the play-off on Monday by the small score 1-0. The game was fast played throughout and several times it looked as though Westfield had scored. Vanderveender was the whole Plainfield team. Hohenstein, Clark and Martin did good work for Westfield.

GIRLS LOSE TO BATTIN.

The girls were off their game last Friday and were at a disadvantage in playing on the big Armory floor. As a result they lost their first game to Battin by the closest possible score, 17-16. Owing to the nature of the court, the ball was out of bounds about half the time and only fifteen or twenty minutes of a 30 minute game were actually played. The local girls will have a chance for revenge on Lincoln's Birthday when Battin plays here in the first game of a double-header, the boys playing the Alumni in the second game.

Taking the game as a whole the forwards were about evenly matched as were the guards. The Westfield center got the jump on her opponent but the side-center was handicapped by being shorter than her opponent. Miss Martin held the star Battin forward to four baskets. Miss Pearsall shot the same number while Miss Kjellmark, who had the hardest luck of any one on the floor, got two.

INDOOR ATHLETIC MEET

Many Witness Annual Events of Boys Brigade

The annual indoor athletic meet of the Boys Brigade of the Presbyterian church was held in the parish house on Monday night and was attended by a large number of the members and friends of the Brigade who enjoyed the events run off.

Private Harold Crutenden scored the greatest number of points, eighteen, and won the Brigade gold watch fob. Sergeant George Howarth was second with eleven points and won the Brigade tie clasp. Corporal Harold McMillan was third with eight points and won the Brigade stick pin. The results of the games follow:

Fifteen-yard dash—won by Harold Crutenden; Sergeant George Howarth, second; Private Lincoln Clark, third. Time not taken. Running high jump—won by Corporal Harold McMillan; Sergeant George Howarth, second; Corporal Russell Stiles, third; distance, 4 feet 7 inches. Clark, second; Sergeant Guy Dushanek, third; distance 24 feet 6 inches.

Lieutenant Reese acted as starter and Privates Gordon and Bush and Corporal Coddington were the judges.

W. H. S. LOSES SECOND GAME TO P. H. S.

Last Wednesday, after starting out as though they intended to shut Plainfield out, the local High School lost 47-30. With about three minutes to play the W. H. S. five had a six point lead, then Snyder started a rally for Plainfield and before the final whistle P. H. S. had scored 17 points to Westfield's none.

In the beginning of the first half Ewing, Burns, and Sisserson scored before Plainfield had a chance to shoot. Then Plainfield made up the lead and the score kept even throughout the first half, ending 18-18. The second half started the same way, except that it took Plainfield longer to make up the lead. The game had been quickly played until the last few minutes then the Plainfield rooters went wild at the thought of losing. The Westfield quintet blew up when the yelling started and the result was the same as last time, game lost by eleven points.

Rosenson of Plainfield was the individual star of the game, shooting alone half as many points as the Westfield team. Sisserson shot best for Westfield but Taylor played the best defensive game.

Summary:

B. A. C. DEFEATED BY W. H. S.

With three of their best men on the High School five the B. A. C. lost last Friday evening 29-17. The game far surpassed those put up by the other clubs in the previous Friday night games.

At the start of the game everything looked like B. A. C. They got a five point lead before the High School came to. But they were not in as good condition as the High School and were unable to hold their lead. The half ended with the score 11-15, favor High School. In the second half the B. A. C. played a much poorer game, the score for the half being 6-14.

It is hard to judge what might have happened in an outside game but since 14 of the High School's points were scored by the B. A. C. fellows it looks as though the B. A. C. might have trimmed them with their regular team.

Summary:

B. A. C.	W. H. S.

COMPLETE CHURCH CENSUS

Committee Reports With Many Recommendations Upon Work Begun December 20 and Completed January 15.

WESTFIELD'S POPULATION INCREASED 14% IN LAST FOUR YEARS.

The committee appointed by the Men's League of the Methodist church to make a census of Westfield made public the report of their work on last Tuesday. The report gives many interesting facts and we publish it in full for the benefit of our readers. Among other things it shows an increase in population from 6420 at the U. S. census of 1910 to 7344 at the present time, a gain of 14 per cent. in four years.

The report follows:

January 20, 1914.

Men's League of

The First Methodist Episcopal Church at Westfield, N. J.

Your Committee, appointed on November 17, 1913, to take a Religious Census of Westfield, obtaining if possible the co-operation of the Men's Clubs of the other churches, reports as follows:

The Committee was organized on December 1st and after the preliminary work canvassers were put in the field on December 20th and the work was completed at the time appointed—January 15th.

We have covered every dwelling within the defined limits of Westfield, and endeavored to get the names of every soul within these boundaries, regardless of color, nationality, age, sex or creed.

We present the original records of the census, showing the names and addresses, ages of children, sex, color, nationality, church preference, Sunday School data, etc.

We recommend that this record be turned over to our Official Board, and suggest that the Board, through its representatives in the Interchurch Committee, offer to each of the other denominations a list of the persons preferring that particular denomination. If this be done and the other churches of the town follow up the possibilities attending such a list, the usefulness of all the churches can be greatly increased and the number of townspeople inactive in church work greatly reduced.

We suggest also to the Official Board that our own church organizations will be greatly assisted if various card indexes are made up from these census lists. For instance: a card catalogue of all Methodist men either by preference or membership; a similar catalogue of Methodist women; a catalogue of all Methodist young people and children under 21; a catalogue of all possible material for the Sunday School. These and many other lists can be made from these census blanks as the activities of our various committees and organizations proceed.

We further recommend that the Men's League appoint a Continuation Committee which shall give careful study to the full contents of these census blanks as to the possible lines of local activity and service which they may indicate. We suggest that a more careful study could be well given to the facts about our Italian population and our colored population, the question of housing and health and the conditions of poverty. Attention might also be given to the number of young men and boys under the age of 21, their home conditions, recreation and opportunities for self-improvement.

We also recommend that in those cases where the canvasser has noted an opportunity for immediate ministry of any sort, they be followed up as soon as possible with the proper service.

Our enumerators were, with very few exceptions, cordially received. They met a few people who did not understand our purposes and were not inclined at first to respond with information, but on the whole they have nothing but thanks and appreciation to express. We remark, however, that the January weather of this year has not been altogether favorable to census taking. This is our most serious complaint.

Respectfully submitted,

RELIGIOUS CENSUS COMMITTEE:

1,769,889,284 RODE ON NEW YORK CARS

Greatness of City Illustrated by Statistics.

New York.—Professor Supan of Gotha, whose annual "Bevolkerung der Erde" is accounted the authority on such statistics, last year estimated the population of the world at 1,623,300,000.

During the year which ended June 30 last the ground, underground and overground transportation lines of New York carried more passengers by 146,589,284 than this total, tables made public by the public service commission giving the number of passengers as 1,769,889,284.

By boroughs the traffic was distributed as follows: Manhattan, 1,112,008,828; Brooklyn, 521,233,013; Bronx, 74,711,453; Queens, 47,407,014; Richmond, 13,578,006. The year's increase for the city was 90,074,580, which is almost equal to the population of the United States.

The figures for the subway and elevated lines in Manhattan are regarded by the engineers of the commission as being the most significant in the new tables. For the first time the subway carried more passengers than the elevated lines, its total being 327,471,510—more than 1,000,000 each working day.

The elevated lines carried 306,845,006, a gain of only 2,574,165, while the subway gained 24,397,654. During the year ending June 30, 1912, the "E" exceeded the subway by 1,296,985.

BRIDE'S WEIGHT IS 560.

While Bridegroom Only Tips the Scales at 133 Pounds.

Davenport, Ia.—Hundreds attended the marriage of A. L. Woodlett, weight 133 pounds, of Orushy, Wis., and Miss Anna Gene Bare, weight 560 pounds, of Olympia, Wash., the bride being the heaviest woman in the west. Miss Bertha Delhoy was bridesmaid, while acting as best man was James Boyd.

Both contracting parties are with a carnival company, but have been acquainted for sixteen years. They attended school together.

The ceremony was performed by Deputy Treasurer C. C. Gibson, formerly a minister of the Church of Christ. A handsome silver service was given to the bride by members of the carnival company following the marriage.

Rat Short Circuits Current.

Argos, Ind.—The charred body of a rat explained the reason for the sudden going out of electric lights here. Argos gets its current from Rochester, south, in Fulton county, and lights there were affected. The rat's body formed a short circuit that played havoc with the lighting system.

PLANS FEDERAL UNIVERSITY.

Dr. James to Ask Congress For an Appropriation of $500,000.

Urbana, Ill.—The establishment of one great institution of learning for students from all sections of the United States on the order of the universities of Berlin and Paris is the plan of Dr. Edmund J. James, president of the University of Illinois.

Dr. James is now at work on a bill which will be introduced at the next session of congress providing for such a school. It would be located in Washington, and rates of tuition would be arranged so that it would be a great democratic school, where the son of the poor man would have equal rights with the wealthy.

It is proposed in the bill, now being framed, that the college should be governed by a board of trustees selected by the president of the United States, and it would be under the control of congress to a greater or less extent. An advisory board consisting of one delegate from each state in the Union would meet and form a definite policy for the institution.

An appropriation of $500,000 to cover the cost of preliminary arrangements and other details will be embodied in the bill which Dr. James is now preparing.

Such an idea as this has never been attempted in this country, although abroad the large universities, which get their students from all over the countries, have proved most successful. The progress of the bill in congress and the efforts of the Illinois teacher will be watched with marked interest in all sections of the United States.

Rifling a Barrel.

The grooves in a rifle barrel are made with special machinery, and unless one has this he could not do the work properly, no matter how skilled he was. When the grooves of a rifle barrel are filled with lead it is usually necessary to have an expert gunsmith clean them out.

Woman Suffrage

Pro and Con

"LET US THINK."

The writer of an article in a recent issue of the Standard, under the above caption, when asked if he had heard Miss Bronson, the speaker for Anti Suffrage, said "No! I know where I stand and did not wish to hear her", he did not attend Mr. Roes' address on Woman Suffrage, probably for the same reason; that he felt that he did not need to hear him. So, serene in his cast-iron opinion, he bids the rest of us think, as he does, to follow his line of thought, and then "let us have peace."

Far different has been the attitude of the present writer who has heard every public lecture on Suffrage, Pro and Con, in Westfield, has read the printed articles on the subject in our town papers and intends to listen to Dr. Shaw when she shall speak before the Woman's Club. Standing, at first, on the academic ground that universal, unrestricted manhood suffrage has not always proved for the public good (indeed it bids fair to become a menace when the socialistic, anarchistic vote is enlarged) and that there was no reason why universal, unqualified suffrage for woman would be any the more advantageous, she has advanced step by step, thinking all the way, and is today a convinced, conscientious Anti Suffragist.

Yet, the words of the gentleman are pertinent. Indeed, let us all think. The pity of the whole matter is that so little right thinking is given to this subject. It ought to vitally interest every one concerned in the future welfare of the State, the Country, the position of woman herself, should she be enfranchised. How many men say, "oh if woman wants the vote, let her have it"; not recognizing the fact that her entrance into political life cannot be for her best good and has not proved to be in the Equal Suffrage States. There Suffrage has brought woman down to the level of man, she has been brought into too familiar contact with him, she has her "rights", she is equal to him, on his level and where man were generally courteous now they are rude. Such is unbiased testimony.

But the women here in Westfield! They have need to think more carefully as the question of the day comes to them. Probably many, who have enrolled themselves as opposed to woman suffrage, would confess that their main reason for so doing is their instinctive womanly feeling against having the ballot forced upon them, and great responsibility therewith, and that they have no desire to enter into the turmoil of political life and strife that must surely come if woman is enfranchised. A little deeper thinking by such would convince them that, logically, they hold the "right" position, that the ballot is not a "right" nor, as the writer of the previous article puts it, a "privilege which happens to be in his hands to do with as he pleases", but a grave responsibility and a solemn duty to uphold and support our form of government. The testimony in the Suffrage States shows that among women there is strife for political power and preferment, the same buying and selling of votes, the same "repealing" at elections as among men.

The writer in last week's Standard says "Woman's Suffrage is a matter of Justice." Is it, when only ten per cent. of the women of the country say they want to vote? How about the ten per cent. who actively oppose receiving the vote and the eighty per cent. who give no expression of their opinion? A writer in the New York Herald of the 27th inst., says, "So soon as fifty-one per cent. of the women of voting age are officially found to want the ballot I think men will readily concede it to them." Until that time let not a small minority prate of "justice" in demanding the ballot.

As for the Suffragists here! Undoubtedly the great majority of them do little individual thinking and are carried away with the feeling that, with the little white piece of paper to deposit in the ballot box as they go to their marketing, great and far-reaching good can be accomplished. They hear, they read, the assertions of such results in the Equal Suffrage States and believe that, in spite of different and varying conditions in our Eastern States, the same might be reached here had they the ballot. The assertions are in many instances mere assertions which the facts do not warrant. In the article by Minnie J. Reynolds, in the Suffrage Edition of the Leader, she claims, in addition to laws favoring women as "won by women" in Equal Suffrage States, that similar laws have been won in 25 per cent. in 31 per cent. and in 10 per cent. of thenon-Suffrage States "by women." The coolness of that assertion! Mrs. Feickert in the same Leader says that "our own organization" (State) has 9,000 members. Miss Reynolds at the Legislative hearing in Trenton on Wednesday said "we have one organization with 9,000 members." Where is the city or town with that number of or avowed suffragists. Was that a slip of speech or an assertion designed to impress the Committee of the Legislature with the great strength of the Suffragists in our State?

Mrs. Feickert, in the same Leader, speaks of the great success in House to House canvasses stating that a thousand signatures were obtained on the first day of such a canvass in Passaic. Heaven save the mark! The percentage of native-born dwellers in our New Jersey manufacturing centers drops rapidly, reaching in Passaic to only nine in every one hundred. You may go only one block from the principal street to find yourself among foreigners, speaking only their own language, with no appreciation of American ideals and institutions. And to give the women of these peoples the same power of the ballot as to the men!

And the pitiful thing about this question is that the Suffragists have, as leaders, no blind leaders of the blind. The leaders are alert and keen-eyed, looking ahead, striving for political place and power and their efforts to achieve these ends have brought them into close affiliation with the Socialists, the Red-handed Socialists and their very own words show them to be ready for militancy. Where leaders go the rank and file are expected to follow. Are the suffragists of Westfield ready to go these extremes?

And the Younger Suffragists are openly avowing Feminism and all that it means. But a short time ago Feminism was to most of us but a word, but since the publication in magazines and newspapers of all that it stands for a true woman stands appalled.

The social economic and industrial independence of women is to be extended to her every relation in life. Mr. George, the exponent of Feminism says in the Atlantic Monthly: "Personally I am inclined to believe that the ultimate aim of Feminism in regard to marriage is the practical suppression of marriage and the institution of free alliance." Mrs. Catt asks. If a woman possesses ability, great or small, talent, genius loyal ideals, should she contribute these directly to the world's welfare or through the doubtful channels of influencing her husband and children.

Mrs. Philip Snowden, the first public speaker for Woman Suffrage in Westfield is reported to have said in a recent speech at Dayton, Ohio, "Any woman who allows father, brother or even husband to support her is no better than a kept woman of the streets."

More utterances of these "advanced" Suffragists might be quoted, but space forbids.

And so to all who read, and especially to the Suffragists of Westfield, is repeated with solemn emphasis the caption at the head of this column—"LET US THINK."

THEATRE SERVICE

INTERRUPTED.

Owing to a long standing engagement the Westfield Theatre was not available for the usual evening service last Sunday. It seemed unfortunate that the interruption of the service there should come on Go-to-Church Sunday but it was unavoidable. With the aid of a stereopticon machine Dr. Loomis conducted a similar service at the Congregational Parish House. The usual crowd, however, was not present.

Those who did attend enjoyed a very interesting "Trip to India." Dr. Loomis and the stereopticon took them by rail from a southern port up into the Madras district. There they saw all sides of Indian life, from the primitive occupations of a people in whose polytheism there are thirty three million gods; to the work in the modern American missionary hospitals and colleges. They were shown some of the results of the great work already done and the greater work yet to be done in the lifting of thousands of souls out from the sadness and misery of their present polytheism into the joy and gladness of the life governed by the belief in the one living God. Surely any one seeing the slides must believe with Dr. Loomis that to know the facts about such a people must change any civilized person holding an antagonistic attitude towards missions into a firm supporter of the whole missionary movement.

The service next Sunday will be held as usual at the Westfield Theatre at 8 P. M. The subject will be "The Golden Call."

COLDS TO BE

TAKEN SERIOUSLY.

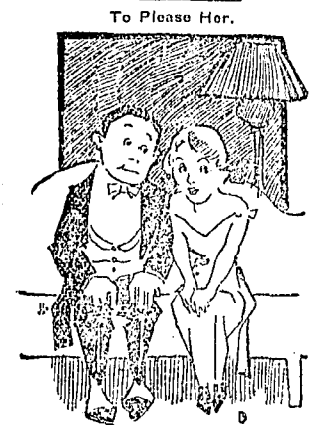

Intelligent people realize that common colds should be treated promptly. If there is sneezing, with chills and hoarseness, tickling throat and coughing, the latter especially annoying at bed time, use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It is effective, pleasant to take, checks a cold, stops the cough which causes loss of sleep, and lowers the vital resistance to disease. Remember the name, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and avoid substitutes.

ROYAL ARCANUM
PLANS YEAR'S WORK

Expect to Reach Membership of 450 Before 1915.

The newly elected officers of Fireside Council R. A. met Wednesday evening at Regent Carr's house on Mountain avenue and mapped out the year's work. Much enthusiasm was displayed and all were hopeful of a very successful year for Old Fireside. They have enough faith to put the goal to January 1, 1915 at 450 or a gain of 51 for the year.

As a stimulus to the workers to get out and hustle, in addition to the prizes offered by the Grand Council for members, the officers decided to offer a prize to the value of $15.00 to be called "The Officers' Prize", which will be given to the brother having initiated into Fireside Council the largest number of candidates between February 1st and December 31, 1914 on condition, however, that he must have five or more to qualify. In this contest card members from states other than New Jersey will count two card members as one.

Plans are being perfected to run off the banquet in celebration of reaching the 400 mark.

CHATTANOOGA NOW
NEARER THE ORIENT

Tennessee River Made Navigable the Year Round.

Chattanooga.—Completion of the lock and dam at Hale's bar, near this city, marks one important step by the government in its plan of making the Tennessee river navigable all the year. It presages the time when there will be an uninterrupted navigation between all points on the Tennessee, Mississippi and Ohio rivers, and also between this section and the Orient via the Panama canal.

The great project at Hale's bar, thirty miles below Chattanooga, includes a lock built by the government and a dam and powerhouse erected by the Chattanooga and Tennessee River Power company. Many serious obstacles to navigation have been forever obliterated by increase in depth of water for many miles above the dam.

The project is peculiar in that it is the first instance where a private company was permitted to construct a dam across a navigable river, where river improvement and power development have been combined. The work has been done under supervision of the secretary of war.

The lock at the opposite end of the dam from the powerhouse is built against a rock bluff and has a clear width of sixty feet. It is about 300 feet long inside the gates. The lower gates are fifty-nine feet high. Each gate weighs 120 tons. The dam is 1,200 feet long; average height, fifty-two feet; eleven feet four inches wide at the top and from fifty-seven to sixty-four feet wide at the bottom, according to depth of foundation. The powerhouse is sixty-six feet wide and 253 feet long. It contains fourteen turbine mills, each capable of delivering 5,250 horsepower or a total of 73,500.

The power from this station will be carried to Chattanooga at 40,000 volts over 175 steel transmission towers, the line crossing the winding Tennessee river twice in order to maintain a straight course. A substation in the city, not far from the river bank, has equipment to step down the current for the various uses to which it will be put.

CAT SAVES A THEATER.

Awakens Actor as Flames Devour the Scenery.

Ithaca, N. Y.—Phuky, the Lyceum theater pet cat, saved that large play house from destruction and also saved the life of George Williamson, who was asleep in one of the dressing rooms.

Williamson was sleeping soundly when the cat, which is admired by local theater goers, began pawing his face. Its persistence finally caused Williamson to awake. Williamson saw flames near the dressing room.

They gained headway so that he could not put them out with the fire extinguisher, and he called out the fire department.

About $3,000 worth of scenery was damaged.

Garwood

Mrs. Conrad Keim of Centre Street is visiting in Connecticut.

Francis Schespey, the four-year-old child of Mrs. Mary Schespey, died last Tuesday.

A farewell reception will be tendered the Rev. Gordon M. Russell of the Presbyterian Chapel on February 5th.

Abner Stiles, Jr., of Springfield, formerly of South avenue, Garwood, died at the home of his parents last Friday.

The Keystone Delicatessen Store of Westfield will open a branch store in Garwood in the former Lipshitz tailor shop.

Mrs. Warren Fuhrmann and children, of Boston, are visiting Mrs. Fuhrmann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Davison, of Willow avenue.

The mid-term examinations are scheduled on the 2, 3, 4 and 5th of February. The questions were prepared by Principal E. N. Rozelle and will be given in all grades above the first.

Hiram Shultz, who died in the Elizabeth General Hospital last Saturday, was buried in Helyvire cemetery last Tuesday. The funeral services were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Opdyke, of Willow Avenue East. Rev. Gordon M. Russell, of the Presbyterian Chapel, officiated. The remains were honored by a large number of friends.

The Garwood Schools are making a great effort to have a good representation at the County Speaking Contest to be held in Westfield on Friday evening March 6th. The school is allowed to enter one boy and one girl from the grammar grades and one boy and one girl from the primary grades. The local contest to select the best four pupils to represent the school will be held on Tuesday, February 4th.

The fourth grade under the supervision of Miss Mallory took the honors in attendance last week with a percentage of 98. The other grades were seventh and eighth grade 97.7 per cent; fifth grade 96.2 per cent; second and third grade 95.8 per cent; second grade 94.8 per cent; third grade 93. per cent; sixth grade 92.5 per cent; first grade 89.3 per cent; kindergarten 74.5 per cent.

The punctuality pennant was captured by the second grade taught by Miss Haas. The winners had a perfect record and all but two grades, the kindergarten and the sixth, were above 98 per cent.

Principal E. N. Rozelle hopes to have all the grades except the kindergarten and ungraded special class in the new Franklin School. The portable building may also be used for domestic science.

Mrs. Annie S. Bartow, the teacher of the seventh and eighth grades, has presented the school with a handsome frame for the picture of the 1913 graduating class.

Five new members will be elected to the Board of Education next March. The terms of A. D. Washburn, William Anger and Joshua Henderson, expires, and the position of Howard Manning not refilled after his expulsion.

Fanwood

"THE PALESTINE OF TODAY."

Topic of Lecture at Baptist Church This Evening.

Dr. Charles E. Herring, of Plainfield will deliver his most popular lecture entitled "The Palestine of To-day" in the Scotch Plains Baptist Church this evening at eight o'clock. The Doctor will tell of the Holy Land as it is today, making it highly interesting because his own actual experiences are interwoven with this talk of a mystic land.

Moses described Palestine as "a land of hills and valleys." The Jordan plain, a waste of sand, is contrasted with the Esdraelon plain, or "Valley of Jezreel," a fertile and well cultivated section. Mount Hermon is the tallest peak, reaching some 9,000 feet heavenward. The old caves used as the burial places of patriarchs will prove of interest. The strange Dead Sea lends its mystery.

"The flora of Palestine is large and varied. Among the trees are the cedar, oak, ash, olive, palm, sycamore, orleander, walnut etc. Wheat, barley, and other grains are cultivated; the vine is almost neglected now, though there is no country better suited for its cultivation than Palestine. The number of mammals inhabiting this land is large for the extent of the country, amounting to about eighty in number. Of the animals mentioned in the Bible, the lion and the reem or unicorn, that is, the aurochs, are no longer found in Palestine."

FOR YEARS THOUGHT HIMSELF AN ORPHAN

Recently Found Mother Living and Reunion Followed.

Minneapolis, Minn.—A meeting of a mother and son who had thought each other dead for nineteen years took place when Charles Hatch, twenty-three years old, stepped off a train at Bemidji, Minn., into the arms of his mother.

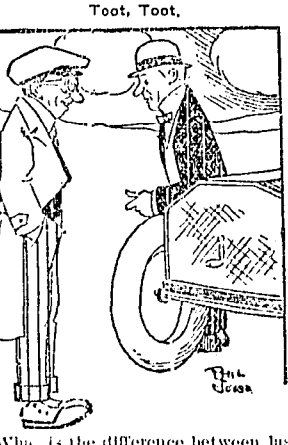

For nineteen years the Hatch boy has wandered around in state institutions in Minnesota and Illinois, with no knowledge of his parentage. Placed in the state home in Owatonna, Minn., when he was four years old, after he had seemingly been left an orphan in Minneapolis, Hatch grew up in the belief that his parents were dead.

When he was fourteen years old he left the home and worked for various farmers in southern Minnesota and later wandered to Illinois. Some weeks ago he was taken sick with typhoid fever and placed in a county hospital at Edwardsville, Ill. Here the officials started to search for the young man's relatives. They learned he had a brother at the school for the feeble minded at Fairbault, Minn.

A letter from that institution stated that the brother had died. It was suggested that the Minneapolis Associated Charities might know the mother.

Hatch was brought to Minneapolis, and for the last four weeks the Associated Charities has made a search for his mother. J. J. O'Connor, secretary of the organization, learned his mother had remarried and was living on a farm near Bemidji. A telegram was sent her, and she at once forwarded money and a railroad ticket for her son.
