TOWN EXHIBIT TO BE HELD IN MAY

Governor Fielder Will Open Exhibit—All Northern New Jersey Invited

The week of May 12th has been decided upon by the Board of Trade for the Town Exhibit to be held in Washington School Hall. The opening day of the exhibit will be known as Governor's Day, at which time, the Mayors and Councils, together with the officers of Boards of Trade and Civic Organizations of all the towns in the northern section of New Jersey will be invited to attend.

Governor Fielder will open the Exhibit.

The May Festival of the school children will be held on that day, and an exhibition of folk dances is set for the afternoon exercises.

The Boys Brigade of Westfield have been invited to give an exhibition drill.

The Committees having the work of getting up the exhibit are busily engaged, and the promise is of an excellent exhibit of town activities, one that the people of Westfield can be justly proud of.

INTEREST INCREASES IN LECTURE COURSE

Burma, Java and Malay States Topic For Next Saturday

The lecture at the Washington school tomorrow night will be given by Harry C. Ostrander who will tell of the wonders, points of interest, the people and the products of Burma, Java and the Malay States. This lecture promises to be one of the most interesting of the course which the Board of Education has given this season. It will be illustrated by many stereoscopic views.

The lecture last Saturday night on "The Dangers and Difficulties of Professional Field Photography" by Ernest A. Reed proved to be a most interesting and entertaining one. The slides which Mr. Reed showed on the screen depicted wonderful scenes in obtaining photographs. Some of these scenes which were described by Reed seemed almost impossible of accomplishment but the lecturer vouched for the truth of his statements.

The interest displayed in the lectures seems to increase with each succeeding Saturday night.

FRIENDLY SONS TO DINE AT ELIZABETH.

The banquet of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick will be held on Tuesday evening at the Young Men's Catholic Literary Club, Rahway avenue, Elizabeth. This promises to be a very enjoyable affair.

Among the speakers who will be at the banquet will be Hon. David Healy of the U. S. Immigration service at Ellis Island who will speak on "The Irish Immigrant." Mr. Healy is well known in this town and is a personal friend of John J. Daly, of Lenox avenue.

MRS. PENELOPE GANZEL.

Mrs. Penelope Ganzel died at her home, corner of Fourth avenue and Chestnut street, on Monday afternoon, after an illness of several months. She was the widow of the late Adolph Ganzel and is survived by four daughters, Mrs. William Fleming, of Springfield, Mrs. E. A. Francis, of Brooklyn, the Misses Hattie and Bertha Ganzel, of this town, three sons, Adolph and Louis, of this town, William Ganzel, of Cranford, and several grandchildren. The funeral services were held from her late home yesterday afternoon at 2 P. M. and were conducted by Rev. Dr. W. I. Steans of the Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. Ganzel was a member, and Rev. James A. Smith, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church. The interment was in Fairview cemetery and was private.

FORUM DISCUSSES IMMIGRATION

Believe More Stringent Admission Rules Advisable—Will Continue Subject Next Sunday

There seems never to be any lack of interest in the weekly discussion at the Methodist Men's Forum. Men not accustomed to speak in an open debate lose their undue sense of modesty and are on their feet talking before they know it. The subjects chosen by Leader George Beattys are always of the "live wire" kind and he seems to know just when to drop a word to keep the Forum on its tip toes.

Last Sunday a goodly gathering of Forum members and their friends, for all men of the town are welcome there, considered the subject of "Immigration." Leader Beattys briefly stated the chief phases of this great problem but did not fail to call the attention of the Forum to the fact that "we all came over in the Mayflower and therefore were emigrants at some point, or another in our history. Way back there we may have been considered desirable or undesirable—rather think the latter as the Indian at that time occupied the position we now assume. But he did not know where or how to stop the inflow when he saw it was getting to be an embarrassing matter. We have the power but otherwise seem to be in the same position in which the Indian found himself. So let us be charitable and particularly remember that the United States today is very largely composed of emigrants who entered our country in our own life time. The emigrant built our mills, railroads, highways, schools, houses, and, in fact, has made himself indispensable.

A few generations later and his descendants will have gone through our schools and colleges and he fit to direct great engineering problems which new emigrants will have to figure in as the laborers. There is a good side to the emigrant situation. But what must be said of disease, degeneracy, pauperism, criminals and low mentality that is being continually shipped from foreign countries to our shores. Should we not be much more careful in bestowing our priceless citizenship upon nearly all who may ask for it—many who do not understand or appreciate what is being conferred upon them. Are they not coming faster than we can assimilate them through our various institutions such as the schools, colleges and churches. It would seem we should take at least one more Sunday to discuss this matter and hear specially provided statements from designated members of the Forum.

Many others expressed their opinions on the subject and the "Standard" representative can vouch for the statement that all who attend the Forum come away with bigger, better ideas and the general invitation which the Forum extends to the men of Westfield should be eagerly accepted. Leader Beattys made it clear that discussion was not limited to the members but was open to all present.

BUILDING LOAN PROSPEROUS.

The Mutual Building and Loan Association held its monthly meeting in its rooms on Elm Street Monday night. This Association has taken in 116 new shares during the past month and sold seventeen shares amounting to over $4,000 at 6 1/2 per cent. premium. This makes 350 new shares taken in this year.

As all money is sold in town it means this much money invested in building during the past month.

WEARING OF THE GREEN.

The Young Peoples Society of the Baptist church will give a St. Patrick's social in the church parlors next Tuesday night. No admission will be charged but every one attending must be gowned in green. There will be singing, recitations, instrumental music and games, after which refreshments will be served. Every one is welcome.

A BIT OF ADVICE—OLD, BUT NONE BETTER.

BOYS WELCOME

"DAVE" RANNEY

Noted Bowery Worker Gives Address Before Boys' League

The members of the Boys League of the First Methodist church, of which Herbert Welch is the superintendent, held a mass meeting in the chapel of the old church building last Sunday night, at which "Dave" Ranney, the Bowery worker, made an address which was greatly appreciated by the 123 boys present.

Mr. Ranney gave a homely talk in which he told of the fatal peril of the first cigarette and first glass of beer. Over Mr. Ranney's head was suspended a large sign with red letters, "Welcome to Dave Ranney," and there was a big American flag nearby.

Mr. Ranney got right down to his subject as soon as he was introduced by Mr. Welch. He said that 90 per cent. of the boys on the Bowery come from the country and they are there because they did the first wrong thing in smoking their first cigarette or taking their first glass of beer. He referred to his own life and told of his many experiences and how he was sent to prison and that when he came out he determined to do better and ever since that time he had been working for poor outcasts who thought that they could smoke and take a drink and leave it alone when it got a hold on them with the result that they found that they could not do it and went down and out.

Mr. Ranney related many experiences in his own life and told a touching story about his mother and how he had not heeded her advice. At the close of Mr. Ranney's address Mr. Welch asked the boys if they wanted to thank Mr. Ranney for coming to Westfield to speak to them and every boy present raised his hand and then applauded Mr. Ranney and chattered around him to shake his hand.

Ralph Vervoorst led the singing; Harold Welch played a violin solo and the young men's quartet composed of Class, Parker, Atkins and Russell sang. Burton Dezenendorf delivered the prayer. The meeting was a complete success and made up for the disappointment felt on the previous Sunday when Mr. Ranney was in Westfield to deliver his address but no meeting would be held on account of the storm.

ALL DAY MEETING FOR SEWING CIRCLE

The Ladies Sewing Society of the Presbyterian church held its eighty-seventh annual meeting in the parish house yesterday. It was an all day meeting, the members assembling at ten o'clock in the morning and sewing until 3:30 in the afternoon when the business meeting and election took place.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. J. T. Wilcox; Vice-President, Mrs. Arthur Rule; Secretary, Mrs. G. E. Ludlow; Treasurer, Miss H. M. Williams; Chairman of Directresses, Mrs. W. W. Ewing.

The sewing which the ladies did was for the Harbison College in Irma, S. C. A box luncheon was enjoyed at 1 o'clock. There were about twenty-five members of the society present.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS

DR. W. B. GUTHRIE

Musical Program Furnished By Mrs. Scarff and Mrs. Francis

At the regular meeting of the Woman's Club held in the parish house of the Presbyterian church last Monday afternoon William B. Guthrie, Ph. D., of the College of New York, professor of political science, gave a very interesting address on the "Ideal of Democracy." Mr. Guthrie gave as the definition of ideal democracy the co-operation of all people toward noble purposes. He cited a number of ideals, among them being universality, which he said tended to unite all people; justice, in which he highly complimented President Wilson and said that he was an exponent of justice; ideal peace, which he said could only come when the minds of men were tempered to receive it; the ideal of religious democracy, implying infinity and which could not exist without religion.

Mr. Guthrie referred to universal culture and said that we must appreciate everything that had gone into the past and give it out to others and that we must do unto others as we would have others do unto us. When that time comes, memory will be a dissipation; the present, imagination; and the future, hope.

In closing his address, Mr. Guthrie said that the government in broadening its field of action had vitally touched woman's interests so that she needed the franchise.

The musical program of the afternoon was furnished by Mrs. P. B. Scarff who played two selections on the violin, accompanied by Mrs. Harold Francis on the piano. The selections which Mrs. Scarff played and which were greatly appreciated by the large number of members of the club who were present were, "The Prize Song" from Wagner's "Meistersinger" and "Finale in D Minor" by Gade.

Mrs. F. W. Smith, the president, presided.

ROYAL ARCANUM TO RAHWAY

About forty members of Fireside Council went to Rahway on a special car last evening to participate in a Union meeting of the Councils in the vicinity and to welcome the Supreme Regent.

A short meeting was held in their room and three new applications were read. At the Rahway meeting 14 candidates were initiated and twenty-five applications pending were reported from various councils. The Supreme Regent's address was well received.

Last call for the 400th member dinner on the 20th. Get your tickets from the Committee, you will have a bully time. Don't miss it. Back up your Council officers and push Fireside to the front.

UNION COUNCIL REJOICES.

The members of Union Council, L. A., are all awaiting with much joy the meeting March 19th at which time they will receive the State prize, two individual prizes for best work during the year, and four gold watches as special prizes.

It is practically assured that Union Council has been able to secure the meeting of the Grand Council for Westfield next month. The arguments and advantages advanced for Westfield were successful.

The orator has something up his sleeve—good time and refreshments.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES TO BE ELECTED

At Meeting of School District In Washington School Next Thursday Evening

The annual meeting of the school district will be held in the Washington school next Tuesday night at which four trustees are to be elected and appropriations for the ensuing year voted on. The trustees whose terms expire at that time and who have decided not to seek re-election are Dr. C. M. E. Egel, the president of the present board; C. B. Kellogg and M. H. Phillips. In addition to these a trustee is to be elected to fill the unexpired term of E. R. Perkins who resigned and whose place was filled by the Board by the appointment of Everett E. Thompson.

Up to date only three candidates have been mentioned to succeed Messrs. Egel, Kellogg and Phillips and they are James E. Cutler, E. S. Malmar and W. H. Orr. Mr. Thompson has consented to be a candidate for the unexpired term of Mr. Perkins. Whether there will be any more candidates for the trusteeship between now and the annual meeting is not known but it is generally thought that there will be none as those mentioned are well known and well qualified to handle the affairs of the Board of Education in connection with the remaining members of the Board.

TO SPRAY TREES

This Action Decided Upon by Park Commission to Prevent Scale

At the meeting of the Park Commission held in the town hall last night it was decided by the members present to have the trees throughout town sprayed with scalecide to prevent the woolly maple scale. A barrel of the scalecide was ordered purchased and the tree committee was empowered to employ E. W. Chamberlain to do the spraying at a cost of 75 cents per tree. The poor condition of the trees in the triangle park in the Mountain avenue section was discussed and it was finally left to the tree committee to have Norway maples set out there to take the place of the dead trees.

The Methodist Church sent a communication to the Commission requesting permission to remove a tree from in front of their property on Broad street. The request was granted. The question of taking care of the trees on Summit avenue and the Boulevard, between Washington street and Grove street, was left in the hands of Councilman DeCamp, who promised to look after the work of trimming and spraying them. It was also decided to change the meeting night of the Commission from the second Tuesday in the month to the second Monday. President Russell presided and Commissioners Grape, DeCamp and Perry were present.

FREE CIGARS ON THE STANDARD

Or On George W. Frutchey

The editor of The Standard has laid a wager with George W. Frutchey that a certain number of people would read his advertisement of a special sale of cigars elsewhere in these columns and mention the fact to him.

To get a perfectly good ten cent E. Jerome cigar absolutely free simply walk into Frutchey's Pharmacy any time tomorrow, Saturday, and say you saw his advertisement in The Standard. The loser of the wager will pay for your smoke.

A most interesting afternoon has been planned. There will be several capable speakers. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

TO THE CITIZENS OF WESTFIELD

In order that the work of the SHADE TREE Commission may be as thorough as possible, the members of this committee would appreciate being notified either verbally or in writing, of any trees which in your estimation need attention. ACCIDENTAL DEATH FROM GAS

Frank Quinn, Driver In Street Department, Asphyxiated By Fumes From Leaking Stove

LONG DEAD WHEN FOUND

Frank Quinn, about 45 years old, who had been in the employ of the street cleaning department of the town as a driver was found dead in his room at 317 Central avenue yesterday morning by Fred Warden of the fire department and Police Officer McNeely.

Quinn had not been at the fire house where his team was stabled since Tuesday night at which time he went from there to his room. He did not report to the fire house all day on Wednesday. When he did not appear yesterday morning Harry Free and Fred Warden, both of the fire house, became worried and Free called up the house where Quinn roomed to ascertain what was the matter with him. Mrs. Chilton, in whose home Quinn had a room, went to his room and found the door locked. She at once notified the fire house and Fred Warden went there and found gas escaping from the room. Warden called up the police station and Officer McNeely went to the house and together with Warden broke in the door and found Quinn lying on the floor dead.

Upon investigation Warden and Officer McNeely found that a gas stove which was in the room was burning at several jets and that a tub which had probably contained water was on top of the gas stove. The supposition is that Quinn went home from the fire house on Tuesday night to heat water for a bath had put the tub of water on the gas stove and turned on the gas. It is thought that all the jets of the gas stove did not become lighted and that the gas escaped in this way. Probably Quinn after lighting the gas stove, undressed and lay down on the bed to wait for the water to heat and then fell asleep but was awakened by the smell of the gas and tried to get to the heater to turn it off but was overcome and failed to do so and fell on the floor where he was found.

Dr. R. G. Savoye was summoned and also county physician Westcott and after making an investigation pronounced it accidental death. A burial permit was granted by Dr. Westcott. It was the opinion of Dr. Savoye that Quinn had been dead for at least twenty-four hours when his body was discovered.

Frank Quinn had been a resident of this town for about seventeen years. He had been employed by the trolley company and at other places during that time but for the past two years had been in the employ of the street cleaning department of the town.

He was a communicant of Holy Trinity church a member of the Holy Name Society and of Menno Tribe of Red Men.

Frank Quinn was of a cheerful disposition and had a host of friends in town who are grieved to hear of his untimely death.

It is understood that he has a brother and sister living in New York. The funeral will be held from Holy Trinity church tomorrow morning at nine o'clock and will be in charge of Rev. H. J. Watterson. Interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery, Plainfield.

MISS POLK AT

SONG RECITAL

Miss Daisy Cantrell Polk, soprano of the Studio of New York, will give a song recital assisted by Mrs. Paul R. Scarff, violinist, and Mrs. Malcolm B. Dutcher, accompanist, at the residence of Mrs. H. E. D. Jackson, on Dudley avenue, tonight at 8.15.

Miss Polk is a pupil of Maurice La Farge, specialist in French songs, and of Professor Frederic Bristol. Professor Bristol in a personal letter to Mrs. Jackson has this to say of Miss Polk:

"I think in selecting Miss Polk for this occasion you are preparing a fine treat for your friends. She has a most beautiful voice which she controls wonderfully well for so young a singer and her renditions show careful and conscientious study."

I am predicting for Miss Polk a very fine future.

This will be Miss Polk's second appearance in Westfield she having been heard by the members of the Advance Club at their meeting in February.

Gigantic Production of Mendelssohn's
At New York Hippodrome on Sunday Evening, March 22.

Tali Esen Morgan, the director of the Ocean Grove summer Music Festivals, is to give Mendelssohn's masterpiece, the "Elijah" at the New York Hippodrome on Sunday evening, March 22, with his combined choruses of twelve hundred voices, the greatest body of singers ever heard in New York and possibly in the United States.

In January, Mr. Morgan gave in the Hippodrome, the "Messiah" by the same chorus, and the New York papers without a single exception spoke of the performance as one of the finest ever heard. The "Elijah" will far surpass even that brilliant performance, for the work is of so dramatic a nature that it gives opportunities for tremendous and thrilling effects by soloists, chorus and orchestra.

The sight alone will be well worth going many miles to witness. Twenty tiers of seats, with sixty on each row, rising above each other, the women in white and the men in black, with a sky background, making a picture that will never be forgotten.

The solo quartet includes some of the most famous singers of this country. Mme. Jeanne Jomelli, the Prima Donna of the Manhattan Opera Company, will be the soprano, and Mary Jordan of the Century Opera Company, the contralto. Dan Beddoe, the great Welsh tenor and Gwilym Miles, the best known "Elijah" in America, Clarence Reynolds will play the big Hippodrome organ.

To those living at a distance, special arrangements have been made to sell reserved seats by mail, by addressing Mr. Morgan at the Hotel Gerard, 123 W. 44th Street, New York. It is certain that a performance has never been given in New York that has attracted such wide and universal attention.

MEN'S CLUB HOLDS LADIES NIGHT.

The committee in charge of the entertainment comprised John Morrow, C. R. Dunn, W. A. Stryker, E. R. Merry, H. S. Warner and A. B. Hutchinson. The entertainment was the last ladies night of the season.

MASS MEETING BY MEN'S SUFFRAGE LEAGUE

Notable Speakers To Be Present---
Visitors Expected From Entire State

The Mass Meeting of the New Jersey Men's League for Woman Suffrage to be held at Proctor's Theatre, Elizabeth, on Monday evening, March 16th, is exciting great interest throughout the County and will draw Suffragists to Elizabeth from all over the State. This is not only because of the prominence of the three principal speakers of the evening, the Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Mrs. Beatrice Forbes Robertson Hale and Hon. George M. LaMonte, but because the President of the League, Mr. Champlain L. Riley, has called together at a dinner to be held in Elizabeth at six o'clock on the same evening all of the members of the State Committee of the League and the General Committee in charge of the Elizabeth Mass Meeting to discuss plans for putting a paid worker in the field to organize local Men's Leagues throughout the State.

Union County is a hot-bed of opposition to the Cause and two of the four Assemblymen who recently voted against the Suffrage Resolution are from Union County. The Men's League therefore propose to keep the "pot boiling" in this County and to lend all the aid possible to the women throughout the State in fighting the Suffrage campaign. The Suffrage question will probably come before the voters on referendum in eighteen months and it is intended the campaign shall not lag in any particular. The Women of the County are rallying to the support of the Elizabeth Mass Meeting and even those from New Brunswick and Bound Brook are giving it their support.

The General Committee in charge of this Mass Meeting is composed of the following gentlemen: From Elizabeth: Judge James C. Connelly, Mayor Victor Marvag, Hon. Charles N. Fowler, James B. Calvert, R. Barnard Cissell, John L. Gray, Robert S. Huse, C. P. Morrell, W. R. Richardson, Randolph P. Harrison, Rev. Wm. B. Hamilton, Roland F. Calhoun, William Jones, John Chetwood Elliott, Shiras Campbell, Rev. Joseph Kvie, Alexander Lyon, James C. Kellogg, Jr., S. T. Jones, Edward Olmstead, Gen. D. F. Collins, Abe J. David, Robt. A. Shirriffs, Edgar A. Knapp.

SPREAD OF MEASLES TO BE CHECKED

Health Conditions Very Favorable
During Month of February.

At the meeting of the Board of Health on Friday night the subject of measles was discussed at some length by the members of the Board and Inspector Carney and it was decided to enforce more stringent rules in the future for the prevention of the spread of the disease.

The Board ordered a direct telephone wire placed in the office of the Health Board to take the place of the two telephone system now used by the collector's office and the health board.

Secretary Harden reported receipt of $16 for permits issued during February. A communication from the town clerk stated that the council had referred to the road committee the question of repairing the road to the town dump.

Inspector Carney reported that he had visited the barber shop in North avenue, opposite Prospect street, where it was claimed that too many persons were occupying a room at the rear of the shop. He stated that he found the barber, his wife and five children occupying the room, but that it was well ventilated. He stated that the conditions there were good enough until spring, when the owner of the building promised to change the arrangements.

Inspector Carney's report for the month of February, showed that the milk supply was favorable, the water good, the bakeries in fair condition and the scavengers doing the best they could under the weather conditions. He reported 254 inspections for the month; the acceptance of six plumbers plans; fifty-one cases of measles; two of chicken pox and one of whooping cough.

President of the Board, Dr. Harrison presided and all the members were present.

SUCCESSFUL BENEFIT PERFORMANCE.

Woman Suffrage

Pro and Con

ANTI-SUFFRAGE INCONSISTENCIES.

The opponents of Woman Suffrage hold a weak position on many points owing to their tendency to base their arguments upon theories rather than upon facts.

They contend, for example, that women who disapprove of making sex the basis for giving or withholding the ballot must be neglectful mothers, undutiful and unwomanly creatures altogether. Do we find women of such character numbered amongst the suffragists? Doubtless—Yes! Are such characters confined to the suffragist ranks? Quite as certainly—No! A like narrowness of vision prevents secretaries of the dogmatic type from seeing virtue outside of their particular creed.

Let us be fair and admit that beautiful exemplifications of the fine "Old fashioned womanly" virtues may, without the slightest difficulty be met with amongst women of diametrically opposite opinion on this subject of "Votes for Women."

Likewise on both sides we see those who spend much time outside of their homes in the pursuit of social pleasure, business or work along the lines of social reform. But the Suffragists may justly claim on behalf of their womanly home-making followers an outlook and field of usefulness, which, because not limited by the four walls of one little home or by what outside work can be done without the ballot, is vastly broader than that of their Anti-Suffrage sisters, even if these are not the exact counterparts of the old man in the anecdote who prayed, "God save me 'n my wife, 'n my son John 'n his wife; us four 'n no more."

Women in comfortable American homes, protected and happy, may not need the vote to improve their condition—but Oh! the great multitude of women and children who suffer with no protection and no redress, except from man-made laws which give us no protection and no redress. Working to help them without the vote is futile work as all those true lane Addams who have given their lives to the endeavor tell us: They can go forward a few steps then all progress is blocked as by a stone wall because of laws and conditions which could be changed and have been changed wherever the ballot has been in the hands of women.

And now why should not the women who are too indifferent or too busy to interest themselves in the welfare of children and unfortunate men and women outside their own families—why should not these follow the example of the men whose indifference or stress of special occupations prevent from taking a part in public affairs? These men do not raise a hubbub in the effort to keep those who do wish to do so from taking up politics or expressing their opinions by voting on matters of public interest.

And consider the futility of such opposition. If the Anti-Suffragists can succeed in making the advance of the suffrage movement less rapid it is the most they can hope to accomplish. For whether slowly, or as present conditions would indicate, rapidly, but at any rate very, very surely, the vote is coming to the women of all civilized countries. Even England will not be able long to withstand the pressure as more and more of the European countries line up on the side of common sense and justice by enfranchising women.

Bad Politics But Good Business.

The provision made by the Board of Education in issuing serial bonds for the Grant school and the High School, together with the plans adopted by the Board in establishing a sinking fund for the retirement of the bonds issued for the Washington, Lincoln and McKinley schools, is certainly a good piece of financing. By such a policy, the present generation will pay its just proportion of the cost for schools, and not roll up an accumulative burden of debt for future generations to stagger under. We consider it a compliment to the gentlemen who have conducted the town and school affairs for the past eight or ten years, that such provisions should be made to meet our bond issue.

Many municipalities finance their undertaking by term bonds, without sinking fund provisions. This makes it easy for the present, but seriously handicaps the future.

The full value of such a wise provision should be taken into consideration when we review our tax rate from time to time. It would, no doubt, be called good politics to allow the debt burden to accumulate, as it would hold the tax rate down to a normal figure and give the present administration an added amount of money to spend, but no one would recognize this as a good business policy.

A tax rate is high or low in proportion to the work that it does, rather than in any comparison with the rates of other towns which may or may not use any of the money collected by the annual budget in reducing its bonded indebtedness.

The difference in the program adopted by Westfield for its bond retirement, and the program of many other towns, is the same as between the man who has a straight mortgage and the man who has a building loan mortgage against his house. In the one case, he simply pays the interest and has the full burden of the debt at some future time; whereas, a certain portion of each payment in the building loan is applied to reducing the principle of the debt, until at the end of a fixed period, the whole debt is retired.

Griffin Losing Ground.

The growing unrest at the State House, which found its open expression in the vote of seven Democratic Assemblymen in the party caucus yesterday, gives Union County some hope that the boasted strength of Assemblyman Griffin for his Small Board Freeholder Bill is fading away. The only way that this Bill can pass will be by making it a party measure and with the aid of the Governor, but with the seven Assemblymen refusing to submit to the crack of the party whip, by bolting their party caucus, makes the small freeholder, the new automobile license and the bank tax measures more or less uncertain as to outcome.

We question largely whether the policy adopted by the State in taking away from municipalities their source of revenue, through the personal assessment of the automobile, and putting it into the State treasury is a good piece of legislation.

It might be timely to suggest that the Governor appoint a Commission, which seems to be the order of the day at Trenton, to examine into the reasons for the shortage in the State treasury.

The Passing of Boynton Beach.

According to press reports, the old Boynton Beach property has been bought by a large steel manufacturing concern, and we will soon see the passing of Boynton's Beach, as a pleasure resort, which has been so popular for the past two generations. As far back as the seventies, Boynton's Beach served as a place for excursion and picnic parties from this section of the state, and there are some of our older residents who recall Sunday School and family excursions by stage to this place. With the advent of the trolley and automobile, Boynton's Beach took on the proportions of a miniature Coney Island, with its merry-go-rounds, chute-the-chutes, bathing facilities, dancing, etc., and, thanks to the strict principles of the Boynton family, all without the serving of liquor.

In olden times, a few row boats, a comfortable farm house, inviting trees, and the water, were the only things to invite excursionists, but many were the joyous times had there, even with these limited facilities.

A Devilish Program.

If the feminist movement found an adequate expression in Charlotte Perkins Gilman's speech at the Hotel Astor Wednesday night, we do not hesitate to class the movement as one of the most dangerous and far reaching in its effect of any movement of modern times. The I. W. W., the anarchists, a certain faction of the socialistic movement in our country, and the suffragette movement in England, which seem to be bent on the destruction of property and throwing discredit on, or pulling down some of the institutions which have been potent factors in building up our civilization, are, in many phases of their development, dangerous and bad.

The doctrines set forth by Mrs. Gilman are most dangerous. Mrs. Gilman would do away with all that there is left in this present day of that glorious institution, which has done more to make America a nation of noble men and women, and to preserve the institutions which have done so much and mean so much to the welfare of our fair land. If Mrs. Gilman expresses the tenets of the feminist movement, let us hope that there are no champions of this movement in Westfield, as modern civilization and the spirit of the day is working the destruction of the home fast enough, without the help of an organized movement to tear down this most sacred and blessed institution.

The regret is that a woman of such intellectual ability should lend herself to such a devilish program.

Westfield an Ideal Town

March 12, 1914.

To the Editor of The Standard:
Dear Sir—At a recent meeting held in one of our Churches, the vicious attack upon the Town Council, and the community at large by direct statements and innuendoes, the impression must have been created that WESTFIELD is without a parallel as a hot-bed of iniquity from which all evils emanate.

The fact remains, as a direct consequence of such statements, that of one hundred and forty-four cases recently brought before the Grand Jury at Elizabeth, not one of the cases was from the town of WESTFIELD, and if facts and figures mean anything, this would indicate that WESTFIELD enjoys the distinction of being considerably above the average in maintaining law and order. It would also seem incumbent upon the gentleman responsible for the statements that not one of the Town Councilmen in any previous or in the present administration, had ever been nominated for such office without having first been pledged by the Boss or Bosses to support the "Liquor Traffic", to give the name of the Boss or Bosses who thus throttle the aspirants for the Councilmanic appointments, as it would be very interesting and beneficial to have the name of the man or men who may be instrumental in destroying the manhood of any of our citizens.

I cannot believe that any individual or body of men realize the effect that such a public attack upon our officials, the integrity and morality and law abiding spirit of our community, has upon not only our men and women, but also our rising generation, and just how serious and far reaching such statements are in preventing new and desirable people from choosing WESTFIELD as their homes. Undoubtedly such statements are made without serious consideration and are due to hysterical enthusiasm.

The cold facts as to the condition of WESTFIELD are these: That we have less intoxication, less arrests for intoxication, less assaults, less robberies per capita, than any other municipality in this country. WESTFIELD has been particularly fortunate in securing representative men in its different civic bodies, who sacrifice not only their business interests but their leisure without compensation, either legal or graft, in giving a government, second to none, and should be applauded and encouraged rather than constantly nagged and abused.

The net result of the many indignation meetings that have been held from time to time in WESTFIELD call to mind, very strongly, James Whitcomb Reilly's poem:

But when they pulled the 'kivers' down, he wasn't there at all."

RESOLUTION.

The trustees of the Congregational Church have placed the following resolution on their minutes:

Resolved: That as a board, and as the individual feeling of each one of the trustees, we wish to record our sense of the great loss the Congregational Church has sustained in the death of William J. Alpers, our late companion on this board.
As a man, we have loved and admired him, for his rare wisdom, his courage, never afraid to speak the truth, his keen sense of honor, and for that amiability and sympathy which made every acquaintance a friend.

Associated with this church in a leading position, from its earliest history, he has been, in truth a pillar of strength to it. He was a Christian Gentleman; and deep as was the sense of loss to those nearest to him. In the death of such a man, we can share in it.

MRS. JAMES P. TODD.

Mrs. James P. Todd, mother of Rev. Dr. George L. Todd, of this town died at her home in New Boston, N. H., on Sunday of heart failure. Mrs. Todd was 83 years old and had been a resident of New England all her life. She was a member of the Presbyterian church of New Boston. She is survived by her husband, four sons, Dr. Frank D. Todd, of Danielson, Conn., Dr. Arthur Todd and Pearley Todd of New Boston, N. H., Rev. George L. Todd, D. D., of this town and three daughters, Mrs. Spaulding, of Peterboro, N. H., Mrs. Dane, of Frances-town, N. H., and Mrs. Bridges, of Brookline, N. H.

BANKERS CLUB ADDRESS.

At the regular meeting of the Bankers' Club Tuesday evening Mr. Charles F. Minor, Manager of the Bronx Branch of the Columbia Knickerbocker Trust Company of New York City, delivered a most interesting and instructive address on the "Trust" Company and the Community. Mr. Minor explained in plain and simple language, first, just what a trust company is and, second, how, by reason of its various functions it can and does most efficiently to serve the community.

Mr. Minor during his entire discourse had the undivided attention of his audience and easily demonstrated the fact that he knew what he was talking about. He is a pleasing and entertaining speaker and we hope the Bankers Club will succeed in securing him again for next year's course of practical talks.

Mr. J. Herbert Case, Vice-President of the Farmers Loan & Trust Company of New York City, will address the Bankers Club at their next meeting on Tuesday evening, March 24th, at the Town Hall on the subject of Commercial Paper. Under the new Banking and Currency Law the subject of commercial paper has suddenly become of paramount interest owing to the fact that banks which are members of the new Federal Reserve System may discount commercial paper with the Federal Reserve Bank. Mr. Case is an acknowledged authority on this subject and every banker, merchant and business man in Westfield should hear him.

FOREIGN SPEAKERS
DELIGHT DINERS

That the annual banquet of the Men's Club of the Congregational church which was held in the parish house last Monday night was an enjoyable affair was evidenced by the way in which the one hundred or more men who were assembled at the banquet tables made away with the good things set before them and by the applause which was given the speakers of the evening.

Rev. Dr. M. L. Stimson, the president of the club, acted as toastmaster and he filled that position to perfection. It was Latin-American night and a feature of the evening was the presence of two gentlemen from Cuba and one from Mexico all of whom spoke glowingly of their countries.

Between the courses of the dinner original ditties were sung to popular airs. These "gems of poetry" were reputed to be the effusions of one, Everett L. Thompson. The two "epigrams" of the first effusion were as follows:

THE MODERN REFORMATION.
(Tune—"Wearing of the Green")
Oh folks dear, and did you hear the news that's passin' round?
As how that things are goin' to be reformed in this here town?

How that all "fasi" trains on the Central Road are goin' to stop here, And will land us at Communipaw ON TIME—('bout once a year).
Everett Thompson's goin' to purge the schools of fads, to beat the Dutch,
And persuade the Board to use new books—NOT LIES—far bet' from such!

The Leader and the Standard are goin' to be firm friends
And each is goin' to publish what the other recommends.

Harry Evans has an ordinance that will take you off your perch,
Compelling all the men folks to get up and go to church;
Mr. Dennis says he's for it, with all his might and main,
And Ollie Hall and Doc Savoye say they are for the same.

Oh they're goin' to make a model of this pretty town of ours,
And its going to be lots easier to pass away the hours
Why—its even whispered herabouts—now please don't tell your wife—
That the Congregational Men's Club is coming back to life.

After the banquet had been disposed of and cigars had been passed Dr. Stimson in a few words welcomed the guests and said that there were to be some foreign speakers and that he would give the pleasure of introducing them to Rev. Dr. George L. Todd, a member of the club, who had been the means of having the speakers come to Westfield to address the members and guests of the club.

Dr. Todd in a few well chosen words told of the speakers and then introduced Major Juan Maspons, of Havana, Cuba. Major Maspons who does not speak English made an excellent address on his native language which was translated into English by Dr. Todd in a very comprehensive way.

Major Maspons said that he was pleased to come to Westfield and address the members of the Men's Club and also to express the highest regard of his countrymen for America. He told of the progress Cubans had made along social, commercial, political and economical lines since the little Republic was formed. Major Maspons said that he would like to have the eloquence of Bryan to speak to his audience and express the eternal gratitude of the Cubans to the American people. He told of the fifty years struggle for independence. He referred to the large army sent over by Spain to suppress the men who fought for their liberty and said that many who fought under the Spanish flag were now living peacefully under the Cuban flag, and could not be induced to return under Spanish rule.

Major Maspons also referred to the great sugar industry in Cuba where 173 mills are located and where over 2,000,000 pounds of sugar were produced last year. He said that President Wilson did a great thing for Cuba when he put sugar on the free list and that the sugar business of Cuba would soon be built up on a larger scale. He said that Cuba spent $200,000 for schools before the war but now over $4,000,000 is being spent and that schools are being built in all sections of the island. He referred to the healthy climate of Cuba and the country's low death rate which is 12 per 1,000, the lowest in the world.

The next speaker was Hon. Manuel Quevedo, Cuban Consul in New York, who referred to the large amount of foreign capital being invested in Cuban industries. Mr. Quevedo did not need an interpreter as he spoke good English.

The last speaker was Hon. Juan G. Pesquera, of Chihuahua, but lately of Mexico City. Mr. Pesquera discussed the Mexican situation and means of solution. He told of the recent insurrection in Mexico and its causes. He declared that the whole question could be settled by the leaders of the fighting factions and said that the solution laid with the United States or some other country in bringing pressure on these leaders and getting them to agree on a third man to assume the reigns of government.

Mr. Pesquera said that there are sixteen million people in Mexico, of which number about three million are white people, the remainder being Indians and mixed breeds. He said that his country wanted help from the United States in restoring peace and commerce and in the uplifting of humanity. If the present so-called government is overthrown, he declared conditions would be worse than they are today. While in this country only a short while, Mr. Pesquera spoke remarkably good English.

At the close of Mr. Pesquera's address, Rev. Dr. Todd made a brief address in which he told of the progress of Cuba and said that he had spent many years there and although he was an American, Cuba was the country of his choice as he had always found the Cubans to be loyal friends.

All the speakers were heartily applauded and the addresses received with great interest.

The committee who arranged the banquet was composed of Everett Thompson, M. L. Stimson, W. Edgar Reeve, Dugald McAuslan, F. W. Ellsworth, Ernest Carr, Robert Mills F. J. Turner, and Oliver W. Hall.

The ladies who prepared and served the banquet were: Mrs. M. L. Stimson, Mrs. A. B. Price, Mrs. F. J. Turner, Mrs. J. E. Cutler, Mrs. John Carberry, Mrs. S. L. Loomis, Mrs. F. J. Cheney, Mrs. C. H. Learned, Mrs. N. E. Kirby, Mrs. Robert Mills, Mrs. W. Edgar Reeve and Mrs. Denison.

BOWERY EVANGELIST
SPEAKS IN THEATRE
Sunday Evening Services to be Continued Through March and April

The usual Sunday evening program of pictures for the service of the Congregational church at Flag's Theatre was varied last Sunday to the extent of giving a considerable portion of the time to a talk by David Ranney, the present leader of the New York City Mission to the Bowery and the Prisons. The story of his life as told by himself was of exceptional interest. It was made picturesque by frequent use of Bowery slang, but because of his earnestness and sincerity the lessons of his life of sin and temptation and of final overcoming through conversion to Christ, a strong impression was made on his hearers.

He related how more than twenty years ago he was converted by Alexander Irvine who at that time was doing the same work that he, Ranney, is doing today. His knowledge of life in the slums and among the criminal classes, his native humor and ability to handle men and his fearlessness enable him to reach hundreds that few others could attempt to influence.

Harold Welch favored the audience with a violin solo, "Saved by Grace," and one motion film was shown, depicting the struggles of two ex-convicts to regain a hold on life. Dr. Loomis announced that the subject next week would be, "The Cleft in the Rock" and that these Sunday evening services would be continued through March and April.

DEED DISPUTE CONTINUED TO MARCH 24

Vice-Chancellor Emery, Tuesday, continued until March 24 an application for a receiver to take charge of a $3,500 property in Westfield, title to which is in dispute.

The property consists of a double frame dwelling house on a large lot. It was bought in 1896 by John Dimler, now seventy-three years old, who, according to a bill filed in his behalf by William R. Wilson, directed that the deed be made out in the names of himself and his wife, with the idea that in case of death of either the other would take possession without the necessity of a will, there being no children.

Mrs. Dimler died six years ago, and her husband has continued to live in the house until now. When, last November, he undertook to borrow money on a mortgage he learned to his surprise that his name was not in the deed and that because there were no children his wife's heirs could come in for the property.

Accordingly, Dimler caused a bill to be filed, praying that the deed be reformed by the inclusion of his name.

The property is claimed by Mrs. Caroline Caldwell, of Elizabeth, daughter of a sister of Mrs. Dimler for whom Mr. Eldridge is acting, and Gottfried Sohn, of Germany, a brother.

VOCATIONAL TALK ON WIRELESS.

Charles E. Appgar, of Carlton road, gave a very interesting address on the "Opportunities of Wireless" before the High School and boys of the upper grammar grades of the Washington school yesterday morning.

Mr. Appgar gave a graphic description of the workings of the wireless system and of its coming possibilities. He also mentioned the fact that this was his second electrical talk before the high school, the other being in 1895 when the high school was in the Lincoln school building.

Next Thursday morning James M. Lee, director of the School of Finance, Department of Journalism in New York, will give a talk before the pupils on "Journalism."

STUDENTS REPEAT PLAY "ALICE IN WONDERLAND."

The play "Alice in Wonderland" which was given in the assembly room of the McKinley school some weeks ago by the children of that school was repeated yesterday afternoon in the assembly room of the Grant School. The cast of characters in the play was the same as at the McKinley school and in addition Robert Chamberlain and Earl Winter did a comedian stunt.

The play was greatly appreciated by the large audience present and as a result a neat sum was netted which will be added to the treasury of the Grant School Parent-Teachers Association.

LECTURE ON "IRELAND."

On Monday night Hon. C. A. McGlennon, of East Newark, will deliver an illustrated lecture on "Ireland" in the assembly room of the Westfield Theatre for the benefit of Holy Trinity church.

Mr. McGlennon is an able and eloquent speaker and very conversant with his subject. From the way tickets are selling for the lecture there will be a large audience present. Vocal and instrumental music will conclude the program after which those present will enjoy dancing.

A NEAR FIRE.

Reed Holliday, of Martine avenue, found his house filling with smoke at seven o'clock last Friday evening, but was unable to ascertain the cause. He hurried next door and summoned Henry Jespersen, Jr., who returned with him.

It was evident that there was fire somewhere; but where, was the question. Mr. Jespersen investigated and found an electric iron in a room on the second floor turned on, which was scorching its way through some cloth. He turned off the current, and a bad fire was probably averted. Messrs. Cressey and Knight also came to assist. No alarm was sounded. The loss was trifling.

The Lend-a-Hand Society met at the Baptist Church this afternoon.

Yes! Fanwood people are boosting us, and we are doing our duty. Watch us both grow!
