BUILDING LOANS GOOD INVESTMENT

Of Great Advantage to Westfield Residents Wishing to Own Their Own Homes and to Investors of Small Means

Believing that there are many people in Westfield who do not belong to a Building and Loan Association who would join one if they had a correct understanding of these organizations, The Standard requested E. A. Merrill, president of the M. R. & I Co., to prepare the following article setting forth briefly and concisely the purposes and advantages of a Building and Loan Association.

BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS.

By E. A. Merrill

The primary purpose of a Building and Loan Association is to encourage the building or buying of their own homes by persons of moderate means.

Experience has shown that home owning makes for better citizenship, for more lasting family relationships, and for the encouragement of thrift and industry.

These are all factors which tend to better government, and therefore the legislatures of the various states have passed laws to encourage such Associations, and to safeguard their operation.

Such Associations require two parties:

THE BORROWER:

There must be the man or woman who wants to borrow for the purpose of building or buying, and who is at the same time a shareholder, and participates in the profits of the Association together with the non-borrowing shareholder. There are four great advantages in a Building and Loan mortgage as compared with the ordinary mortgage loan.

1. The Association is permitted to loan up to a larger percentage of the value of the property than can ordinarily be borrowed on a straight mortgage.

2. Many individual lenders object to loaning on a property when the building is in process of construction because it entails a good deal of trouble in making the advances as the building progresses. This is not the case, however, with the Association, as a part of its business is to make advances in just that way.

3. The borrower pays back his loan in small monthly payments which are not greatly in excess of what he would have to pay for rent, with the result that in the end, and without very much burden on himself, he owns his home free of debt.

4. The ordinary straight mortgage is made for from one to three years, and at any time after the expiration of the time specified in the mortgage the lender may call for his money, and it may be difficult at that time either to pay or replace the loan. The building loan mortgage, however, runs until the maturity of the shares and cannot be called so long as the borrower keeps up his payments, and at the end of that time instead of having the loan still to pay, it has been extinguished.

In some Associations it is also possible, at specified intervals, to surrender the proportion of ones shares represented by the amount paid in on the loan, and thereby reduce the monthly payments, so that the burden becomes lighter as the loan is gradually paid off.

THE INVESTOR:

In order that there may be funds to loan, the Association must also have shareholders who are merely investors and not borrowers. These shareholders also have four advantages in this form of investment over most other forms.

1. The investment may be made just as soon as the money is available and in small amounts. One who can save $2, or $5, or any other amount each month can invest the money immediately, and his investment begins earning interest at once. Most investment securities are so large in amount that one must accumulate quite a fund before the investment can be made, and during the time of saving the money is earning little or no interest.

2. Savings are usually made a little at a time and regularly. The Association provides a correspondingly regular time for investment.

3. The interest earned is generally about 6 per cent, compounded, or at a higher rate if regarded as simple interest, as it is sometimes reckoned. This is a higher rate of interest than can ordinarily be secured upon investments of equal safety where the investor is relieved of all care and trouble with respect to selecting the investment, or collecting his interest, or enforcing his rights.

4. The necessity of making regular payments, and the necessity of keeping these payments up over a period of years is the best possible incentive for continuing systematic saving, and tends to establish the habit of saving.

There is another feature which deserves more attention from investors than it has received, due probably to the feeling in the minds of most people that building loan shares are peculiarly a form of investment for small savings. While that is true, it is equally true that it is peculiarly a form of investment for those who

STRANGE DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT

Edwin A. Francis, Found Injured and Unconscious at Broadway and Thirty-first Street, Succumbs in Bellevue Hospital

As the result of an accident, the cause of which has not up to the present time been fully determined, Edwin A. Francis, a brother of Mrs. L. C. Ganzel and Harold Francis, of this town, died in Bellevue Hospital, New York, on Saturday night, at 8:40. The accident happened at Thirty-first street and Broadway. Mr. Francis was picked up in an unconscious condition and taken to the hospital. From papers found in his pocket it was learned who he was, and his relatives were immediately notified. Mr. Francis was conscious for a few minutes after being taken to the hospital but only long enough to give his name and address. He could not tell what happened to him.

Mr. Francis was for many years a resident of this town, but at the time of his death was living in Brooklyn. He was a graduate of the class of 1889 in the local high school and attended St. Paul's Episcopal church. He was born in Carbondale, Pa., and was 40 years old. He was a member of the New York Consolidated Exchange and had been for the past twenty years.

Besides his brother and sister mentioned above he is survived by a widow and two children, Carolyn and Edwin A. Francis, Jr., and a sister, Miss Dorothy Francis, of Rosebank, S. I. Mr. Francis was the son of the late Edwin Francis, who was for eleven years supervising principal of the local schools.

The body was brought to the home of his sister, Mrs. L. C. Ganzel, on Westfield avenue, Sunday and the funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. The service was conducted by Rev. James A. Smith, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, assisted by Rev. E. A. Dodd, of Rosebank, S. I.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Five of the members of the Consolidated Exchange, L. N. Morris, R. H. Weber, R. D. Bannister, L. J. Dietz and J. E. Lynch and R. H. Sumner, of this town, acted as bearers. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery.

FAMOUS SUFFRAGE SPEAKER TO VISIT WESTFIELD

The Equal Franchise League of this town is much gratified with the acceptance by Mrs. Beatrice Forbes-Robertson-Hale of its invitation to address a mass meeting in Westfield on evening of April 27th.

Mrs. Hale is the niece of Sir John-Stone-Forbes-Robertson, and her father as well as her paternal and maternal grandfathers were noted for dramatic ability.

She came to this country in Ellen Terry's company. Married Swinburne Hale, and became an American citizen.

Mrs. Hale is beautiful, eloquent and witty, while her dramatic training has made her an unusually attractive speaker, capable of holding and interesting her crowded audiences. Besides the subject of Woman Suffrage, she is heard in brilliant lectures upon the drama, poetry and politics, both English and American.

She has an up-to-date outlook upon modern life conditions, and in allaying herself with the woman's movement, she adds the quality of masculine argument to her native grace and fascination. Upon the advent of twin-babies to her family she withdrew from society—believing that she could do justice only to her family and to the lecture platform.

She wishes to invest larger sums, provided the investment can be made regularly, and it is worth while to consider the CHARACTER OF THE INVESTMENT:

During the last seven years the fact has been impressed upon a great many people that there is no form of investment giving the same return which has the same freedom from depreciation of principal, regularity of income, and safety, as a well selected first mortgage on improved real estate. This is the character of the investment of the funds of a well managed Building and Loan Association. Not only does the investor get as high a rate of return as he would if he owned the mortgage himself, but he has the added advantage that a large Board of Directors and an examining committee have passed upon the quality of the investment, that such important details as seeing that the taxes are paid and the property insured, are looked after for him, his interest payments are collected, and his investment is not in one single mortgage, or even in a few mortgages, but is a pro rata part of a large number of mortgages.

The shrinkage of values in stocks and bonds during the last seven or eight years has been something appalling, but except in a very small percentage of cases, good mortgages have continued to be worth one hundred cents on the dollar.

VOCATIONAL TALK BY C. A. BEEMER.

On Thursday morning C. A. Beemer, of the Underwood Typewriter Co., a resident of this town, gave a talk on "Typewriter Salesmanship" before the pupils of the High School. Introductory to his talk he gave a brief history of the typewriter which is not as modern an invention as is generally supposed.

The first machine was made before the Revolutionary War. It is only lately however, that the trade has reached the enormous extent which enables the manufacturers to put out 10,000 typewriters a day. He also said that, contrary to the old method of selling stuff and getting away before the inferiority of the goods was discovered, the duty of the modern salesman was to keep in touch with his customer.

PUBLIC RECEPTION FOR PASTOR AND NEW MEMBERS

Large Gathering Welcomes Pastor Ream to Second Years Pastorate and Greets New Superintendent and New Members

Last Tuesday night the social committee of the First Methodist church tendered a public reception to the new district superintendent, Rev. Dr. F. J. Hubach, the pastor of the church, Rev. G. Franklin Ream, and the new members who had joined the church during the past year.

There was a large gathering of the members and friends of the church and a very pleasant evening was passed. During the evening music was rendered by Harold Welch's and Professor Dushanek's orchestras, and a ladies' quartet, composed of Mrs. C. E. Pearsall, Mrs. L. M. Pearsall, Mrs. Frank Moffett and Mrs. S. D. French sang several delightful songs.

Personal greetings were given to the new pastor, Mrs. Ream and the new superintendent, after which A. E. Brainerd, chairman of the Board of Trustees, welcomed the pastor, Rev. G. Franklin Ream, to his second year as pastor of the church and extended a greeting to the new superintendent and to the new members.

Rev. Mr. Ream made a stirring reply to the words of welcome of Mr. Brainerd. He told how he came to the church a year ago, a complete stranger but that now he felt at home. He welcomed Dr. Hubach and the new members, and gave them words of advice. He also pledged his support to every good cause, religious, moral and civic for the advancement of Westfield.

Rev. Dr. Hubach was the last speaker. He told how his appointment to the superintendency had come somewhat unexpectedly and how he had been taken away from the parsonage which he had occupied and thrown out into the world. In speaking of the work of the district he said that there were many churches which were struggling along and needed encouragement and that he was going to call on such prosperous churches as the local church to help. He congratulated the members on having such a good pastor and upon the progress the church was making under his leadership.

At the conclusion of the speeches, light refreshments were served.

TRUCK COMPANY HOLDS BANQUET

Thirty Members Gathered About the Festive Board at Kelly's Hotel to Enjoy Annual Banquet

The first annual banquet of Truck Company No. 1, horse drawn, of the Fire Department was held in Kelly's hotel on North avenue last night and was a very enjoyable affair. Covers were laid for thirty and the menu which had been prepared by Mine Host Kelly was excellent and all that could be desired.

During the banquet some music and story telling was furnished by a trio of Cabaret performers and they made a great hit with the banqueters. Fire Chief Decker was toastmaster and he did his part with the grace and ease of a professional.

After the wants of the inner man had been satisfied by Mine Host Kelly and his corps of assistants, speeches were in order and nearly everyone present had something to say either about the fire department, the Truck Company or the town in general. Among those who were present and helped in making the affair a success were Mayor Evans, Fire Commissioner Hohenstein, Assessor Charles H. Denman, Chief of Police O'Neill and a number of other town officials.

The committee from the Company who arranged for the banquet was composed of Charles Michel, Robert Arndt and Fred Huber and to them in no small way is due the credit for the success of the banquet.

Councilman DeCamp, who was expected to be present and speak, had a previous engagement and sent regrets to the Committee on his inability to be present.

ADMIRABLE CONCERT AT METHODIST CHURCH

Choral Society and Church Choir Aquit Themselves Well in Rendition of Stainer's Mary Magdalene

About two hundred and fifty people attended the concert at the Methodist Church last evening, given by the Westfield Choral Society augmented by the church choir, under the direction of Charles Gulick.

A chorus of 45 voices with four soloists sang St. Mary Magdalene, by Sir John Stainer. Miss Otilie MacDonald sang the soprano part in her usually acceptable manner and showed the foundation of a very good voice. Doubtless as a singer she will become better known in the near future.

Mrs. Robert Harden sang the contralto part with care and finish, showing conscientious work in the preparation of the part. Her rich, sympathetic voice lent itself to the dignity and simplicity of the Stainer music in such a way as to make a fine effect.

Edward Taylor had in the tenor part, by far the most difficult part of all the work and acquitted himself very creditably. His quiet work proved very pleasant. Although hardly over the effects of a recent illness Mr. Best, who organized the society and also directed it until last January, sang the bass part delightfully.

The chorus labored under difficulties, for it is the first time it has ever appeared without a director. While it is not only possible but very common for large chorus choirs to render works of this kind very creditably under the guidance of their leader at the organ, it will require care and hard work for any chorus to change from reliance on a director in front of them, to guidance by an organist whom they cannot see and this change has not yet been completely effected by the local society. However, taking everything into consideration the work of the chorus was up to its usual standard.

Great credit is due to Mr. Gulick for his labor in preparing this work and his part of the evening was all that could be desired. The modern organ proved a wonderful thing under his hands and added to the work something never before available for the concerts given by the Choral Society.

FOOTLIGHT FANCIES WITH A ZEST

There have been all kinds of excitements in town for the last two or three weeks and if you people have not been jolted or jostled into the knowledge that there are things doing for the home of crippled children on the hill, it has not been the fault of us girls, the Junior Auxiliary of the Children's Country Home. For we girls have been head over ears in work preparing for "The Excitement, alias, the entertainment, frolics-only, called "Footlight Fancies", which is to take place at the Westfield Theatre on Monday night, April 20th.

As this is the Junior Auxiliary's first offense, we hope to have a good crowd and if you don't like our fun, we're sorry but we'll do better next time. If you do like it, tell your friends, or in other words advertise it and maybe we'll repeat.

Now, as to what we are going to do. The tiny tots will appear in tableaux; the little stuttering farm-boy will sing to the girl who lisps. There will be shepherdesses, but you'll have to have strong, even powerful classes to find the sheep, as they're lost; they've "strayed away." But if you think we're going to keep you in America all night you're wrong, for we are like Cook's and shall give you your money's worth in a trip to Europe all for fifty cents. In fact, we're going to take you to France with a little side trip to Holland. Then back to the states, those in the south, for Miss Merlinda Brown will favor us with a song and amid all the excitement, "Aunt Deborah will return" and view the social dances by professionals and amateurs. Who's Aunt Deborah, you say? Why, she's that very important person who controlled a household twenty years after her death. If you want to know how she did it, all you have to do is to come early to Frutchey's, take your stand in the line, that serpentine line, to the right and buy one of those paste-board things that don't look like the real article, the kind you get at other theatres. It's worth the money just to hear that classy orchestra to say nothing of what you'll hear about that obnoxious, slangy, blossom, love-sick, Margaret and those awful "boozey-old", frozzled, weakened old! Well, come and see us and you'll learn the rest.

FIRE DAMAGES RICARDO COTTAGE

Record Run of Fire Department
Saves Distant Home From Destruction. Fire Chief Decker Injured

On Monday afternoon fire destroyed the upper story of the house occupied by Frank Ricardo, on Radley road, at the extreme end of the town line. The fire department was notified by telephone and but seven minutes elapsed from the time they received the call, until they had a stream on the blaze. As there are no hydrants in that section the hose of the fire engine was run to the brook and the reservoir of the water company, 1100 feet away. The firemen worked like Trojans and kept the blaze confined to the upper story although the whole house was soaked with water.

While going upstairs to the second floor with a line of hose, Fire Chief Decker had one of his hands and his feet badly burned, but this did not deter him from fighting the flames until the danger was over. When he returned to town, he had the burns attended to by Dr. Laird.

As soon as the blaze was discovered by the Ricardo family, Mr. Ricardo ran to the home of Mrs. Louis Theiss, a mile away, and telephoned for the fire department.

The record time of the department in getting to the scene no doubt saved the house from total destruction.

It is thought that the fire originated from sparks from the chimney falling upon the roof, which is of wood.

The damage done by the fire and water amounts to about $1500.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS DR. CHAS. GRAY SHAW

Noted Speaker Delivers Lecture on
"Being Ones Self"

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club was held in the Presbyterian Parish House, Monday afternoon, Mrs. H. M. Evans, vice-president, presiding. Mrs. Frank Smith sang two selections, "Open thy Blue Eyes", by Massenet and an "Aria" from Madame Butterfly, and responded to an encore. Mrs. E. A. Merrill accompanied on the piano. Dr. Charles Gray Shaw delivered an interesting lecture on "Being Ones Self." Dr. Shaw divided his lecture into three parts—The Flute or Joy of Life; The Garden or Worth of Life; and The Ivory Tower or Truth of Life.

Joy creates self conscious reality. Pleasure is power. A happy man will conquer. A sad life is a failure. Our business is to play the flute of joy and pleasure.

The Garden or Worth of Life is the exaltation of the individual. We must cultivate the garden. Assert by means of the will. Work out ones' individual salvation with fear and trembling. To be one's self is to will one's self, which is individualism. Before all else we are each a human being. The Ivory Tower or Truth in Life. Selfhood in culture. Culture is internal knowledge and by it we climb the ivory tower of truth in life and so broaden our individualism that the joy worth and truth of life goes out to others.

PARK COMMISSION HOLDS MEETING

The Park Commission met in the town hall Monday night and held its monthly meeting. President Russell presided and Messrs. Gilby, Halsted, Davis and Perry were present. The Commission discussed the question of setting out trees around the triangle park on Mountain avenue and the resetting of trees to take the place of those which were set out last year but had since died. The matter was finally left to the tree committee with power.

The question of having a man look after the trees along the streets and in the parks was discussed and it was decided that such a man was needed and the tree committee was instructed to interview B. C. Howell, of Chestnut street, and see if he would take the job for a nominal sum.

President Russell reported that E. W. Chamberlain had stated to him that he had completed spraying the trees on Mountain avenue, Central avenue, and a part of Summit avenue, for the woolly scale and that he had also sprayed a number which were not affected but out of precaution against it.

The matter of dumping brush and tin cans on the park property on Mountain avenue was discussed and it was decided to write the road committee of the council and see if they could not stop the practice.

Thousands testify that Doan's Kidney Pills have a reviving action on weak kidneys.

What this remedy has done in so many cases of this kind is the best proof of its merit.

Mrs. S. Driscoll, 1009 S. Second Street, Plainfield N. J., says: "A dull pain across the small of my back and in my sides clung to me constantly and any hard work made me worse. I was subject to headaches and dizzy spells, especially when stooping or lifting and I felt weak and run down. I tried plasters and various other remedies but nothing helped me until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They made me a lasting cure. SMALL BLAZE IN BROAD STREET APARTMENT

A fire which might have been a serious one occurred on Tuesday night, about six o'clock in the apartment of A. Goldberg, the Broad street tailor, in the Mooney building, on Elm street. Esther, the seven-year-old daughter of Mr. Goldberg, was looking for some toys under a bed, which was placed near a rope portiere on a window.

She struck a match to enable her to see the toys and the flame from the match ignited the portiere. The little girl gave the alarm to her mother. Neighbors on the next floor heard Mrs. Goldberg scream and went to her apartments and with buckets of water put out the blaze.

The fire department was called out, but when they arrived on the scene, the blaze had been extinguished. The portiere was burned as was the bed coverings. The casement of the doors was smoked. The damage will amount to about $75.

FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1914.

Westfield's Building Loans.

Probably comparatively few people in Westfield realize the important role which our Building and Loan Associations are playing in the development of the town.

Our three Building and Loan Associations have invested in Westfield mortgages about $600,000. This means that the development of homes to the value of nearly $1,000,000. has been encouraged and sustained by these Associations. At the present time loans aggregating about $150,000. per year are being made, which will mean over a 10 year period an addition to Westfield values of about $2,000,000.

Aside from the investment value of their shares these Associations deserve the active support of all who are interested in the development of the town through the local investment of local savings in local homes.

The attractive town, the town with the strong civic spirit, the progressive town, the "work-together" town, the town to live in, is the town of home owners rather than the town of home renters.

Good and Bad.

The tabulation of the tax budget for the past five years which appears on the first page of this paper, serves to emphasize the determination on the part of the Council to keep the town expenses down to a minimum. Notwithstanding the evergrowing demand on the part of the community that the public purse shall be responsible for a greater burden of the public's needs, in some particulars the budget has been cut to a painful degree, while in others a constantly increased amount is named for department work.

Conspicuous in its absence, is an appropriation for the last year or two for the care of parks. While this may be prompted by economy, we doubt very much whether it ever can be good policy to let so important a matter drift along from year to year without the attention it demands.

Will They Dare?

The small board, as amended, is now a law. It remains to be seen whether that faction of the Democratic party, which was so anxious for the small board control, will petition for a special election. The wiser ones of this party, will, no doubt, counsel against such a course, as it would involve a cost of about $20,000 to the County, whereas if the vote is taken at the general election there will be no additional cost. Let us hope, for the sake of economy, that there will be no special election for this matter.

While waiting for the fall election would delay the voters' decision upon this matter for a few months, it would seem that unless some greater reason can be given than that the politicians of Elizabeth want to get control of our county affairs, that we had better save the $20,000 expense, and have the question brought up at our November election.

It is believed that those interested in the success of the Democratic ticket in November will strongly urge that the matter be left for the regular election, as the prospects of the expense of a special election would bring such a taxpayers' protest upon the Democratic party that their ticket would suffer greatly in the fall election.

Good, If It Can Be Done.

The Bill for an amendment to our Constitution, calling for National Prohibition, which is reported to be about to receive a favorable recommendation by the House Committee, promises a very desirable condition, which we hope some day will be present with us. This is the only solution that some advocates of temperance think will solve the problem, contending that if intoxicating liquors are manufactured, they will be used. We only hope this move will meet with success, but we feel that a more modest program is incumbent upon the citizens of our state.

We believe that there is sufficient public sentiment to support a local option law in New Jersey, if it were only organized and expressed so that the legislators would have the support and backing of those who really want such a measure; but in the absence of such an expression of the public's demand, it can hardly be expected that our local option bills will get farther than they have for several years past.

If the Christian people of the State who desire such a law would only express their sentiment in some organized and forceful way, a local option bill would be entirely possible at the next year's session of the legislature, and we doubt very much whether any government would care to take the responsibility of vetoing such a bill.

The funeral was held from her late home on Tuesday night and was conducted by Rev. J. A. Smith, of St. Paul's church. Interment was made in Kinco cemetery, New York, on Wednesday morning.

MRS. STELLA M. PEEK.

Mrs. Stella M. Peek, wife of George W. Peek, Sr., died at her home, 320 First street, Sunday morning, after an illness of five weeks.

Mrs. Peek was born in Scranton, Pa., and was in her 67th year. She had been a resident of this town for the past thirty-five years. She is survived by her husband, one son, George W. Peek, Jr., and one sister, Mrs. Sarah Elliott.

The funeral was held from her late home on Tuesday afternoon and was attended by a large number of friends and relatives. Rev. James A. Smith, of St. Paul's church, officiated. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery.

Miss Theodosia Hutchinson.

Miss Theodosia Hutchinson, 82 years old, died suddenly at the home of her niece, Mrs. George W. Anderson, 411 Boulevard, on Wednesday morning. Miss Hutchinson was found lying unconscious in her room and as she was partially undressed it is thought that she had just come from the bath room when she was stricken with apoplexy.

She was born on Long Island in 1832 and had lived in Brooklyn and Totenville. She had been making her home here with her niece for the past seven months. The funeral was held from the Anderson home this afternoon and was conducted by Rev. Dr. Fraser, of the New Jerusalem church in Brooklyn, of which she was a member, assisted by Rev. Dr. S. L. Loomis, of the Congregational church, which church she had attended since living here. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery.

"BILL" ANDERSON PASSES AWAY.

William Anderson, colored, better known as "Bill", died Monday at the North Avenue Hotel, where he had been employed ever since the hotel became the property of John H. Willett, a number of years ago. Anderson had been employed by the Willett family for over thirty years and had always been a faithful servant.

In his better days "Bill" was a chef of the first class and wherever Mr. Willett conducted a hotel, dinners were a specialty, due in a measure to Anderson's great ability in the kitchen. Of late years Anderson's health had been failing rapidly and recently his lungs became affected which resulted in his death.

"Bill" was born in Richmond, Va., in 1858. The funeral was held from Bethel Baptist Church Wednesday night. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery.

AN UNUSUALLY INTERESTING RECITAL

In spite of the very inclement weather, a good sized audience was present at the piano recital given by Miss Winifred Trembley Barr, at St. Paul's Parish House on Wednesday evening. To those who attended, the recital, the playing of Miss Barr was a revelation. The very difficult program was played with a finished style and technique worthy of the highest commendation.

Why was the recital an unusually interesting one? Because of the personality of the pianist herself. Exquisitely and girlishly gowned as becoming her years, she was unassuming, unaffected, and entirely without mannerisms.

Because of the ambition and confidence shown in the selection of an exceptionally difficult and diversified program, the rendition of which displayed, first, a wonderful memory, for every number on the program was given without notes; second, a technique of virtuoso ability, as was clearly evidenced in a brilliant execution of Rubinstein's Etude in E major, and the "Liebes Tod" by Wagner Liszt. They were taken in a very rapid tempo, yet such was the singing quality of her tone, that the melody stood out distinctly through all the mazes of harmonization; third, a rare depth of feeling, and an unusual interpretative ability. The tender and soulful interpretation, the skillful use of the pedal, the clear and clean-cut phrasing, of her Varum by Schumann, lifted her entirely out of the amateur class; fourth, a touch that is truly elastic. Sure and powerful, yet warm, poetical and delicate, as was demonstrated in an artistic performance of Beethoven's Sonata in C major.

Last but not least a remarkable physical endurance, without which, the still greater promise she gives of the future would be all but impossible of fulfillment.

The spontaneous and hearty applause attested to the impression which her playing made upon the hearts of her hearers, and she was induced to extend her program.

BAPTIST BOWLING TEAM TO BE HOSTS

The Baptist Bowling team is to play host next Tuesday evening, at a supper they are giving to the other teams of the S. S. A. L.

The Baptist bowlers wanted to celebrate the winning of the championship honors so they are going to give the supper and give the boys of the league a chance to get together. It is expected that about forty of the pin-knights will gather 'round the board. Some of the officials of the League will also be present.

The supper is in charge of the ladies and young ladies and they promise a good time and plenty of good things to eat. Those who come, therefore, want to be prepared with a good appetite.

VALLEAU'S MOTLEY COHORTS

FAIL TO FIND COWPERTHWAITHE

In a fast practice game at Recreation Park Saturday, Valleau's "Cublets" went down to defeat at the hands of Green's "Cubs". McMahon's bad throw after a pretty stop put the Cubs in position to score on Davis' wild throw after catching Hunt's drive to centre field. Young went out Valleau to Eldridge. Pearsall hit Davies and he took his base. Cruttenden hit to Valleau, whose throw failed to get Davies at second and left both men safe. Austin hit to centre which scored Ehmling, who had singled after Young was thrown out, but Davies was caught at the plate, Harrison to Himmelberger, which gave the Cubs three runs in the first inning.

In the sixth Douglas went in to pitch for the Cubs and Valleau the first "Cublet" singled. Gilmartin forced Valleau, Dallas to Austin. Himmelberger hit one on the nose which put Gilmartin on third. Eldridge struck out, but Harrison's hit scored Gilmartin. Schmitt then fled out to Davies, giving the "Cublets" their only run.

The "Cubs" had scored their fourth run in the fifth. Hunt safe on Gilmartin's error, he then stole. Young rolled out to Eldridge, which put Hunt on third, and on Douglas' error at second base, let Hunt score. Davies rolled out to Eldridge and Cruttenden fled to Pearsall.

FIRST HOME GAME

BY H. S. SATURDAY

This Saturday the High School plays their first game of the season at the local grounds when they meet the Cubs. The High School has very little trouble with Leal's in their opening game and expect to trim the Cubs in the same manner. Uniforms for the High School team arrived this week and the Schoolboys will look like a league team when they take the field this Saturday at 3:30.

Pearsall, who beat the Cubs last year when pitching for the Methodists, will be in the box for the High School, while Cowperthwaite will occupy the mound for the Cubs. Marengi will catch Pearsall, with Bourne as a reserve. Either Himmelberger or Hunt will be behind the bat for the older team.

Taylor will be on first for the High School and judging from the class he has shown in practises, will shine both in fielding and batting. Green is to guard the initial sack for the men. Gilmartin and Triplet will be the second basemen. Bill Gilmartin, of the High School, and Valleau are both expected to shine in shortstop.

Davies and McMahon will probably be the guardians of the third sack. The High School is well fortified in the outer gardens having Rahb, Martin and Cruttenden, all good batters and fielders. The Cubs also are well fixed in this respect having Worth, Young, and Himmelberger.

The game will be called promptly at 3:30, the place, Recreation Park, the price, 15 cents, 10 cents for school pupils. Mr. Ketcham will umpire.

BOWLING SQUIBS

The best the Arcanumites could do on Tuesday night with the Juniors was to take one game.

Forster and Montross both put up good scores in the Juniors-Arcanum games on Tuesday night.

Baker of the Juniors put up three good games on Tuesday night.

The Juniors made a new high score for themselves on Tuesday night when they posted 927 in the last game with the Arcanum.

The Garwood Woodmen nosed the Westfield Woodchoppers out of the last game by fifteen pins.

It was the leaders against the tail enders on Monday night.

The Westfield Woodmen who are leading the league added two more games to their string of wins on Monday night.

Cox was not in his usual pinning form on Monday night.

HOW TO DANCE THE TANGO, No. 1

By ODGERS T. GURNEE
Illustrated With Specially Posed Photographs

THE tango is erroneously supposed to consist of an intricate maze of steps and figures to the number of a hundred or more. To tell the truth, there is just one basic step, upon which the whole fabric of the dance is founded. This is the corde or, as it is also called, the cortez.

Until one has mastered this step perfectly it is useless to attempt the tango. Although it is simple to describe and looks very easy, it takes quite awhile to get the proper swing. The principle of the step is as follows:

The half corde, which is used a great deal, consists of the forward step, the stamp and a short, slow step back with the left foot. Follow this with a slight dip and go forward on the left.

The side corde is danced in open position—that is, facing in the same direction, with hands clasped in front. The step is the same as in the full corde, except that both are going in the same direction. Another striking step is the "scissors."

Stand facing one another. The man crosses his right foot in front of his left. Turn slightly on the ball of the foot so that both are facing in the same direction. Step forward on the left, turn toward each other and half way around. Raise the left foot and cross it in front of right, take step forward on the right foot, turn and repeat original measure. The girl's step is the same as the man's except that it is on different feet. In this, as in the corde, make the forward steps slow, and on the turn raise the foot quickly so that the motion is a contrasting one.

In the so called Argentine tango, as it was first danced here, there were a number of dips and bends, but the impossibility of doing these steps on a crowded floor has caused the majority of people to give them up. The newer Parisian tango has no dips at all in it, depending entirely upon the corde, and for that reason being a great deal nearer the original.

The following rules for beginners, as compiled by Mr. and Mrs. Rowley Howens, should prove a great aid to any one who is anxious to learn:

Do not stand unnaturally when dancing.

Do not lead weakly.

Hold the lady in a normal position, not too close or too loose.

Do not hold the arm straight out. It should be bent at the elbow, with hands clasped above the head.

Do not dance on the heels.

Conform the length of your step to your partner's.

Adjust your arm to the lady's height. Never accurate movements of the shoulders or hips.

Keep elbows still.

Keep these in your mind's eye and remember them when you are dancing and you will find it much easier to get along.

The continual call for something new must be answered. Why not try and devise a new step yourself. When doing this, however, bear in mind that the grotesque step or posture is not the one that finds popular favor. Make them simple, effective and in keeping with the dance to which they are done.

CORRECT POSITION FOR START OF THE TANGO.

the right foot over till it touches the left heel. Raise the left foot at moment of contact and step back on it. Take another step back on right foot and bring left over till feet touch. From this position raise the right foot and continue with original steps. This is the full corde. After learning the rotation of the foot positions try and get a little snap into the last step. That is when you bring the feet together at the end of the forward and backward steps. The two long steps should be done slowly, and the drag should take the form of a slight stamp such as the Spaniards do in their folk dances. The girl is going in the opposite direction all of the time.

Tango Step From the "Three In One"

Posed by Miss Joan Sawyer and Mr. Jack Jarrott.

A COMBINATION of the waltz, trot and tango is the "three in one." The dancers doing a few steps from each dance, changing with the tempo of the music. The picture shows the first position in the tango after changing from the waltz. A full corde is done, followed by a half corde, four steps and another half corde. More than a steps can be done if desired or a half turn will bring the first one step position.

The Innovation Tango

Posed by Miss Louisa Alexander and Mr. Elvio Logan.

THE Innovation when applied to the tango, although much more difficult than the waltz, is very pretty to watch. The slow, gliding movements of the dance lend themselves perfectly to the Innovation principle. In this case it is also imperative that the partners do not dance too far apart and stand erect throughout. The tango requires a free movement from the hips, but there is no excuse for throwing the head and shoulders.

Report of Freeholders

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union was held at the Courthouse, Elizabeth, New Jersey, on Thursday, March 5, 1914, at 2:30 P. M. COMMUNICATIONS.

Elizabeth, Feb. 18, 1914
Board of Freeholders:

The following resolution was unanimously adopted at the meeting of the City Council held February 5, 1914:

"Resolved, That the finance committee be authorized to negotiate with the property-owners of Baltic street with a view of purchasing a strip of land necessary to complete a highway over a new bridge that is to be built, the same having received favorable consideration at a meeting of the Union County Board of Freeholders held to day."

This resolution is being sent you at the request of Councilman Boyle, the introducer of the above resolution.

JOHN F. KENAL, City Clerk.

On motion by Freeholder Smith this communication was received and ordered placed on file.

March 3, 1914

Clerk of the Board of Freeholders:

The Board of Visitors of the Union County Committee of the State Charities Aid and Prison Reform Association having completed their work for the current year, I am directed to communicate with your honorable board in regard to certain conditions obtaining in the county jail at Elizabeth, N. J., which is one of the institutions coming within the jurisdiction of this committee.

Let me say at once that inspection has shown us that the county jail continues to be that which, in our opinion, it has been for many years, namely, one of the best in the State, both as respects management and discipline, and the care and consideration shown to its inmates.

Among the more recent improvements our committee remarked especially the better and more orderly service of meals, and were unanimous in their appreciation of the excellent work of your honorable board, as well as of those in immediate charge of the establishment. Our recommendations should in no sense, therefore, be taken as criticism but as suggestions for the still further betterment of conditions, which are, even at this date, highly satisfactory.

Our first recommendation has to do with the lighting of the jail, and we realize that there may be difficulties attendant upon a further extension of a system of illumination which is necessarily artificial. Our visitors report that the lighting of the corridors, while sufficient and satisfactory as regards the upper tiers of cells is inadequate as regards the lower tiers, where the prisoners are left in semi-darkness and are unable to read. We recommend, therefore, the placing of an additional row of lights upon the lower level to remedy this defect, or if this is found impracticable, the rearrangement of existing lights, so that the illumination will be more adequately distributed. We feel that the expense involved in this change should be slight, and should be more than compensated for by the increased comfort of those placed in the lower tiers of cells.

Our second recommendation has to do with plumbing and sanitary conditions, and raises a question which we know has been already considered at various times by your board. While we realize that it is most desirable that at some future time a more complete and adequate system of plumbing than is now possible should be installed in the jail, we feel that an improvement in the needful sanitary articles is highly to be recommended. The receptacles now in use in the cells, we feel should be exchanged for others of porcelain or of some thoroughly sanitary material, and should in every instance be provided with covers. A change of this kind cannot be urged too strongly and should aid in a betterment of conditions, which we understand are due entirely to the present system of prison instruction, which cannot at present be obviated.

One further recommendation should perhaps be worded in the form of an endorsement of the plan advocated by the Charity Organization Society of Plainfield and which plan, we believe, has had the consideration of your board. This is, that wherever possible, prisoners confined in the jail should be put at out-of-door work, most notably upon the county institution known as Bonnie Burn, where we learn that the plan has already been tried out with a large measure of success. We wish to place ourselves on record as endorsing and favoring this proposition most cordially, and as recommending that this system have your favorable consideration.

In concluding, and in again recommending all of the foregoing, we trust that you will not view our remarks in the light of criticism, but will understand that our attitude is one of co-operation toward an object as equally desired by this committee, as by your honorable board.

G. C. BROOKS, Secretary.

On motion by Freeholder Doane this communication was received and referred to the jail and public grounds and building committees.

February 27, 1914.

Mr. John N. Cady:

Dear Sir—Confirming our verbal acceptance of Morris avenue, west section Union county, on November 3, 1913, I hereby notify you, and, through you, the Board of Chosen Freeholders, of Union county, that the said road has been completed to the satisfaction of this department, and I hereby accept the same on the part of the State.

E. A. STEVENS, Commissioner.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this communication was received and ordered placed on file.

Petition to the Honorable Board of Freeholders.

Your petitioners, residents of Union county, respectfully urge your honorable board:

First—"To afford temporary relief for horses by spreading sand in slippery weather upon the surface of the slippery roads on hills and other grades as may require it, on Terrill road and similar highways that are in a slippery condition, so that horses may be able to get a foothold.

Second—"And we further pray that early action be taken to remedy the surface of existing roads that are made unfit for horse travel on account of their smooth hard surface, or that side roads for horse travel be laid beside the patent roads that are not safe for horses.

Signed by 48 petitioners.

On motion by Freeholder Jones this petition was received and referred to the county road committee.

BIG AGRICULTURAL LAND OPENING

TWELVE HUNDRED AND FIFTY TRACTS of five and ten acres each to be granted to prospective settlers in throwing open Twenty Thousand Acres of Rich, Southern Georgia Land, which is admirably adapted to the growing of celery, sweet and Irish potatoes, cantaloupes, water melons, corn, oats, cotton, hay, in fact, all staple crops grown in this fertile section, as well as a large variety of semi-tropical fruits, and the famous immensely profitable paper-shed pecans.

Providing you are eligible under the classifications prescribed by us, you are now offered an excellent opportunity to break away from the drudgery and toil of a small wage, or working for the benefit of landlords, and go back to a land of plenty, to which, if granted, you will hold a warranty deed and abstract.

The best security on earth is the earth itself, and land is the basis of all wealth. Owners of productive lands are benefiting by the increasing high cost of living, while others are suffering from it.

An Opportunity to Secure Rich Productive Land Without Capital.

You will not be required to leave your present surroundings now. All we ask of those to whom we grant tracts is that they plan or arrange to have planted, a crop of one of the above-mentioned products within three years, after which we will have it operated (harvested and replanted) for grantees, in consideration of 25 per cent. of the net profits derived from the sale of the crops, thereby allowing the grantee to pursue his or her present occupation until such time as they determine just what the yield of their acres amounts to. Consider what this may mean as a source of income, when statistics show that the yield of one acre of celery amounted to $1,200.45, and that one acre of well-cared-for paper shed pecans, in full bearing, should net its owner as high as $500.00 per year. We are of the opinion that after it is proven by actual results obtained in operating the land that they will need no further urging, and waste no time in locating in the land of plenty. We also require grantees to occupy the land within ten years, or sell it to some one who will occupy it; otherwise it reverts back to the grantor.

The land included in this opening is located directly on and adjoining the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railroad, about twenty-five miles west of Brunswick, a thriving city of fifteen thousand, having direct steamship service to New York and Boston, and excellent railroad transportation facilities to all points. The average temperature for six months of the year, from April to October, is 77 degrees; the climate is most healthful, delightful, and invigorating, and there is an ample rainfall of 51 inches per year.

OUR AIM IS FOR MUTUALLY BENEFICIAL RESULTS.

As we are extremely desirous of having settlers locate on this property, and assist in its development, and thereby greatly increase the value of surrounding and intervening property, which we will hold, and to increase the traffic along the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railroad, and thus facilitate the service, we feel warranted in granting these tracts to those who register with us. We also have in mind business and residence plots which we will offer for sale after the opening, but which will not be included in it. We have "money-making afterward" considerations in this liberal-minded opening, similar to those of the Northern Pacific and other railroads when they granted their lands, and we expect to benefit thereby, as well as the ones who will receive the tracts.

We have also planned to develop what is designed to be the best equipped, most up-to-date, scientific, commercial farm and orchard in existence. It will consist of six thousand acres, and will be included in this opening. All who register and receive tracts will get the benefit of the experiments and scientific methods in connection therewith. We are arranging to prevent over-cultivation, we will avoid many disappointments, such as occurred in other land openings conducted by the United States Government and railroads, by granting those who register in excess of the number of tracts to be granted, an interest in this commercial farm and orchard enterprise, in the hope that they may later locate in one of our town sites.

Examination of the land will cheerfully be permitted, and the opening will be held at Brownstown, Wayne County, Georgia, one of the stations of the A. E. & A. Railroad, which is located on this property, and will occur as soon after the closing of registrations as arrangements can be made.

The presence of those registered will not be necessary at Brownstown on the opening day, unless they wish to attend, for there will be no favoritism shown anyone. It will be conducted by a committee selected for the purpose, and those registered will be notified of what they have been granted, as soon as possible.

With the ever-increasing population of this country there is no corresponding increase in the area of land, and naturally as the population increases and seeks the land in pursuit of health, happiness and independence, it will continue to be harder to secure.

The prospects and contented class in Europe today are the descendants of those who secured land there when it was plentiful, while the descendants of those who obtained no land are now the penniless and slaves. You must realize that this may be your last chance to secure land in this country without a large outlay of capital, so it should not be necessary to urge you to act at once by forwarding us the application for registration attached to this announcement.

ARE YOU SAVING?

Unprecedented Opportunities Offered by Westfield Institutions, European Countries Far Ahead of United States

About two years ago a writer in one of our magazines, which is devoted to a review of the work of the world, drew a very vivid word picture of how far behind our nations the United States was in the important matter of savings.

The statement was made that France, having the lowest scale of wages of the four great industrial countries of Europe, also had the highest percentage of savings bank depositors; Germany, with a slightly increased wage scale, was next in rank of depositors; and England, with a still higher wage scale, occupied third place. In sharp contrast to all of these countries America, having an average wage scale of nearly three times that of France, has an average for savings accounts of about one third that of France.

In discussing this condition a body of representative men reached the conclusion that there were two things which contributed to this condition:

1. Lack of Savings Banks and
2. The High Cost of Living.

But the fundamental reason for the condition was stated to be the ignorance of the people regarding the nature and functions of banks and what those institutions could do for them.

No mention was made of the natural tendencies of the American people as a reason for the conditions as they exist, but doubtless this has something to do with it for to the average American four per cent. interest compounded semi-annually is too slow. And our country would not have reached its present place among the nations of the world if our people had not had this spirit.

However, it is now time that everyone should turn their attention to thrift and economy in every walk of life, for it is only through the cultivation of these important attributes that our Republic may be able to hold its important place among the older nations of the world as well as prove an inspiration and worthy example to the younger ones.

The Westfield Trust Company has been doing much educational work of late in circulating Thrift Talks, explaining the value of savings, and by charts calling attention to the necessity of everyone exercising thrift and judgment in the management of their affairs so that when an unproductive period of life is reached they will be more or less independent.

Perhaps the people of the country, as a whole, do not realize the value of banks as a class but the people of Westfield and vicinity have before them constantly the advantages offered by substantial and well established banking institutions, offering broad and liberal service in every line of the banking and trust business.

RUTGERS COLLEGE SUMMER SESSION.

Rutgers College, in its second summer session, will again offer opportunity for higher education to those who are unable regularly to attend college. The Session will open June 27th and extend six weeks, closing August 7th.

Courses are open to men and women who in the judgment of the instructors are qualified to pursue them. Thirty-seven competent instructors, for the most part regular members of the College faculty, will have supervision over eighty-seven courses in the agricultural, scientific, educational departments. Exceptional opportunities are offered to those interested in agriculture, teachers and students of education. Courses satisfactorily completed in the Summer Session are accepted in lieu of examination by the State Board of Examiners toward credit for State Teachers' Certificates.

The College Dormitory and Dining Hall will be open throughout the Session and provision will be made for recreation and social intercourse. The action of the N. J. State Assembly in appropriating $8000 makes it possible for the State College to offer exceptional advantages to residents of New Jersey. Other funds have been added to this amount, extending the scope of the courses. Tuition in all departments is free to residents of this state. All others are required to pay a tuition fee of $15. A registration fee of $5 is required of all. Further information can be secured by addressing the Secretary.

SCHOOL BOARD LETS BUILDING

Rents Portable Structure to Town
Council. President Stiff Appoints
Officers for Coming Year

At the adjourned meeting of the Board of Education held last Friday evening, permission was granted the Borough Council to use the portable building for council meetings for the rental of $6.00 per month, not including heat, light or janitor service.

The council are also to pay for any alterations necessary. Councilman Max Hessler stated that the owner of the present borough hall, had raised the rent of the rooms from $10 to $20 per month and that as a result the council are seeking a meeting place.

The question was raised of calling a special election to vote on an appropriation to pay the notes issued for the building of the Franklin School and an appropriation to install manual training in that building. It was decided to call a meeting in the near future to decide these points.

The following committees were appointed by President J. T. Stiff for the coming year: Auditing and Finance—Johnston, McManus and Cowell; Teachers and Instruction—Cowell, Henderson and Dushanek; Entertainment—Dushanek, Fromkorth and Rahb; Building and Grounds—Rahb, Anger and Fromkorth; Books and Supplies—McManus, Johnston and Anger.

The plan of connecting the lockers of the new Franklin School with the former Jefferson School, was ordered investigated by the Building and Grounds Committee. This committee was authorized to get estimates on the cost of connecting a ten horse power engine to the ventilating fan in the new school. The committee was further empowered to purchase three dozen chairs for the kindergarten and first grade classes on the recommendation of Principal E. N. Rozelle.

Willow Grove

BENEFIT BAZAAR

The Bazaar which was held at the Willow Grove Chapel, Wednesday afternoon and evening, notwithstanding the stormy weather, was well attended, and will be repeated tonight, to give those who were unable to attend an opportunity to spend a pleasant evening.

The lunch table where Mrs. French and Mrs. Hoagland disposed of hot-dogs, ham sandwiches, etc., showed the inner man was being cared for. Most every one seemed anxious to know what the future had in store for them, so they visited the Gypsy Queen, Sara, where it was accurately (?) foretold. Mrs. Eberly and Miss French were in charge of the grocery booth. The Misses Scudder and Mrs. Darby had charge of the needle work Guild garments.

A large number, especially the gentlemen, visited the candy booth where the Misses Razil satisfied their sweet teeth. Every one was anxious to visit the North Pole where Mrs. Cross and Mrs. Seeley liberally supplied them with ice cream and cake.

Every one forgot the unpleasant weather in having a good time and are looking forward to the continuation of the Bazaar tonight.
