

FOR ADVERTISERS

A paper that goes into the home and reaches the buying public.

THE STANDARD

FOR SUBSCRIBERS

A comprehensive, accurate and impartial review of each week's happenings.

VOL. XXX. NO.

A. W. Vars,
174 Webster Place.

WESTFIELD, UNION COUNTY, N. J., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1914.

PRICE 2 CENTS

BISHOP QUAYLE
TO VISIT WESTFIELD

Rare Treat in Store. Noted Author, Nature Student, and Humorist to Give One of His Human Nature Studies Here

William A. Quayle, is one of the great products and assets of our great west. Born on the Kansas prairies, brought up on a Kansas farm, entering as a farmer boy at Kansas College, he rose to fill some of the greatest pulpits in the Mississippi valley. Thence he was called by his denomination to be one of its chief officers with world wide supervision, but his present special assignment is that of resident bishop, at St. Paul, and his special field the great northwest.

While not neglecting theology, he has added nature studies to his accomplishments, and has written some dozen works on various subjects. Perhaps the best known of these are collections of short stories such as "The Poet's Poet" and "The Prairie and the Sea."

He spares little time from his northern prairie field. In view of the great demand for his services, the Westfield committee which began their efforts last spring to secure him are congratulating themselves on the success of their efforts.

If he excels in any field it is as a delineator of human nature. His great lectures bear for the most part the names of the heroes of history and fiction. You may expect to laugh loud, long and hard when you hear him. But do not think it is all laugh. He will make you think. He has a literary style all of his own. If you never heard him you never heard anybody just like him.

A Methodist bishop presides over the conferences of ministers, whose business is usually transacted along a somewhat dull routine and few outsiders attend. But when Bishop Quayle presides crowds attend all day long, and the business gets efficiently transacted with a day full of humor thrown in.

His subject at the Methodist Chapel election night will be Shylock and David, and his description of those two Jews will give him abundant field for describing human nature in his usual humorous way.

PRETTY WEDDING
FOR MISS WHITE

The Congregational church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday night when Miss Margaret A. White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. White, 215 Prospect street, became the bride of Ray C. Neal, of Buffalo, N. Y.

The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the church, Rev. Dr. S. L. Loomis. The matron of honor was Mrs. Arthur A. Moore, of Buffalo, a sister of the groom. The bridesmaids were Miss Edith Mae Gladwin and Miss Madelyn Worth, of Westfield; and Miss Edith S. Robinson, of New York. The best man was Arthur A. Moore, of Buffalo, a brother-in-law of the groom. The ushers were Arthur Hoddick, of Buffalo; W. R. Gomes, Robert E. Perry, Jr., and Kenneth O. Wilcox, of this town.

The bride was attired in a white crepe satin gown with pearl trimmings and a long square train caught up with a white rose. She wore a white Brussels net veil with chantilly lace caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and lavender orchids. The matron of honor wore her wedding gown of white satin with pearl trimmings and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The gown of Miss Gladwin was a turquoise blue tulle with a tulle of blue tulle. She carried a bouquet of old rose chrysanthemums. Miss Robinson and Miss Worth, the other bridesmaids, wore yellow tulle with a tulle of yellow tulle and carried bouquets of old rose chrysanthemums.

All of the bridesmaids wore French veils to match their gowns. Mrs. White, the bride's mother, wore white satin with black tulle drapery.

The wedding music was played by George Needham the organist of the church.

Immediately after the ceremony a small informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at which there were present only the relatives and a very few intimate friends of the contracting parties.

At the church the pulpit was decorated with palms, ferns, and autumn leaves while on each side was a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The decorations at the home consisted of autumn leaves and garden flowers.

Late in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Neal left for a wedding trip and upon their return will be at home to their friends at 82 Eldwell Parkway, Buffalo, N. Y.

MAYOR APPOINTS COMMITTEE TO
TO AID POOR

Owing to the fact that there are many needy families in town and that the overseer of the poor is limited by law to aiding those only who have resided here for five years or more, Mayor Evans has appointed a committee to provide aid for the needy.

This committee will meet for organization next Monday evening, at the Town Hall.

The following letter explains the mayor's action:

Editor Standard:

Representative citizens interested in the charitable and humanitarian work of the town have presented to me, in terms that cannot be ignored, the grave situation confronting many families in town owing to the lack of work and laying off by manufacturing and business concerns of large number of employees, with the result that distress is beginning to be felt among a class of people who are ordinarily self-supporting and able to care for their families comfortably. It is suggested to me that I name a committee of leading citizens to inquire into conditions and plan such aid as may be necessary to prevent actual suffering. This course, I learn, is being done in other communities and it is needless to say I am in hearty sympathy with the movement. I therefore name as such committee the following gentlemen:

W. A. Bishop, Chairman; S. D. French; Dr. George S. Laird; Lloyd Thompson; T. T. Harkrader; Thomas Hutchinson; W. Edgar Reeve. I bespeak for this committee the co-operation of the citizens of Westfield.

HENRY W. EVANS, Mayor.
October 20th, 1914.

PHTHISIS EXHIBIT BEGINS MONDAY

Admirable Displays and Excellent Speaker Provided. Special Lecture in Italian on Thursday Night

On Monday of next week the tuberculosis exhibit with motion pictures conducted by the State Board of Health under the auspices of the local Board of Health will open in the assembly room of the Washington school and will continue for four days closing on Thursday night. The exhibit will be open every day from 2 to 5 in the afternoon and from 7:30 to 10 in the evening. There will be a lecture and motion pictures every day. The exhibit in the afternoon will be for the school children and in the evening it will be for adults. The president of the local Board of Health, together with the other members, have perfected all arrangements and the exhibit will be a big success and should be attended by every citizen in the town. There will be addresses each evening by prominent men of the town and a lecture by one of the doctors of the State Board of Health. A cordial invitation is extended by the local Board of Health to all to attend and co-operate with them in this exhibit. On Thursday night a special invitation is extended to the Italians of the town as on that evening addresses will be made by Italian speakers in the Italian language.

The following is a list of the speakers who will speak each evening:

Monday, October 26th, 8 P. M., Hon. H. W. Evans, Mayor of Westfield, N. J.; Hon. William E. Tuttle, Jr., United States Congressman; Mr. W. A. Dempsey, President of Board of Education; Dr. Millard Knowlton, Director of Tuberculosis Work for the State Board of Health.

Tuesday, October 27th, 8 P. M., Mr. A. N. Pierson, President of Westfield Board of Trade; Mr. George D. Beatty; Mr. G. W. Ellsworth; Dr. Millard Knowlton.

Wednesday, October 28th, 8 P. M., Mr. J. J. Savitz, Assistant Commissioner of Elementary Schools of New Jersey; Mr. E. E. Thompson; Dr. Millard Knowlton.

Thursday, October 29th, 8 P. M., Dr. F. R. DiMatteo, Newark, N. J.; Dr. Millard Knowlton.

N. B.—Dr. DiMatteo's address will be given in the Italian language, and Italians of both sexes are cordially invited to attend.

Dr. Knowlton's lectures will be illustrated with stereopticon slides and motion pictures.

ANNUAL MEETING
CHILDREN'S HOME

Mrs. Burtis Declines to Serve Longer as President. Miss Bridges Replies to Criticisms in Aply Prepared Paper

The twenty-third annual meeting of the Children's Country Home Association was held in the parish house of the Presbyterian church on Monday afternoon. The following directors were elected for three years: Mrs. E. A. Merrill, Mrs. Walter Day, Mrs. J. T. Tubby, Mrs. P. Q. Oliver, Mrs. F. B. Sanborn, Mrs. E. H. Westlake, Mrs. Douglas Smythe and Mrs. C. N. Codding.

The advisory board was re-elected as follows: John Platt, James O. Clark and E. A. Merrill. Mrs. V. O. Burtis presided at the meeting. She announced that she would decline to serve as president of the association for another year as she had held the position for twenty years and the time had come for her to give it up and let someone else have the position. Many of the women expressed appreciation of Mrs. Burtis' work and expressed regret that she would not continue as the head of the association.

The report of the treasurer showed that the total receipts for the year had amounted to $4,452.78, including a donation given by Dr. Ackerman Coles, which amounted to $2,352.31 and which was spent on the barn on the property. The total expenses of the year were $4,286.96 leaving a balance of $270.10.

A feature of the meeting was the reading of a paper entitled "The Inner Workings of the Home" by Miss Emma L. Bridges who has been interested in the home ever since it was begun. The paper was prepared by Miss Bridges to answer criticisms of the management of the association and Home. The paper told how the home was started in a small way in 1892 at Mountain avenue and New Providence road; that the institution began its life from gifts of persons who desired to aid the poor and that the first children cared for were from a newspaper fresh air fund in New York. Later the children came from charity organizations in New York and this was continued until 1904 when two epidemics of measles in the home caused the managers to care for only the children from the hospitals. The reason why these children were cared for was because the money was contributed by men whose business was in New York. Later the management changed this rule and gave New Jersey children the preference.

For two years children were cared for from Dr. Twinch's Hospital for Crippled Children in Newark. This institution finally decided not to contribute to the home. Miss Bridges said that the statement made that local children were not welcome at the Home was untrue as they had always been welcome. She said that no cases of tuberculosis were admitted to the Home and that the reason why the grounds in better condition was because of the cost. In answer to the criticism that only baker's bread was fed the children, Miss Bridges said that it was impossible to bake enough bread at the home to feed the inmates. The reason why money was put in a reserve fund was to meet any emergency.

Tuttle League Popular.

A meeting of those interested in the Tuttle League which was organized in this place by the Democratic Club at its meeting about two weeks ago was held in the office of E. R. Collins last night. The League is becoming very popular, not only here but throughout Union County and Morris County and already has a large membership. L. H. Phelps is chairman of the League and E. R. Collins secretary. The committee of the League is composed of E. C. McMahon, John Goltra, ward, 290; third ward, 371; fourth H. H. Butler and Linus Hefield.

WHO'S GOT THE BUTTON?

What has become of the millions of campaign buttons the Democrats had manufactured, bearing the legend, "Watchful Waiting Wins?"

Why do we not hear more of the motto that adorns both the front and back pages of the Democratic campaign book,

"War in the East!
Peace in the West!
Thank God for Wilson!"

Evidently Villa and Carranza did not stage their recent outbreaks to fit in with the Democratic campaign plans. We would suggest a revision of the above to something like this:

War in the East!
War in the South!
"War" tax at home!
God pity the Democratic candidates!

LAY CORNER-STONE
WITH FITTING CEREMONIES

Large Assemblage Present. Children Play Impressive Part. Many Documents Placed in Container

With exercises appropriate to the occasion the cornerstone of the new high school building which is being erected at the corner of Elm and Walnut streets was laid on Monday afternoon before a vast assemblage including the pupils of the various schools. Proceeding the exercises the various schools assembled on the campus of the Washington school and at a signal marched to the strains of music, played by four school boys, across the campus to Walnut street where the exercises were held. It was a most inspiring sight to see these children, from little tots up to high school boys,

MAYOR H. W. EVANS.

Marching perfect time marching like drilled soldiers. As soon as they arrived at Walnut street the children gave the Flag Salute led by D. Ralph Starry principal of the Grant school. They then sang the "Star Spangled Banner" under the leadership of Miss Bray and accompanied on the cornet by Donald Pearsall. The invocation was pronounced by Rev. H. C. Rush. Moving pictures were taken of the proceedings and will be shown week after next in the Westfield Theatre.

President Dempsey of the Board of education announced that Rev. Dr. S. L. Loomis of the Congregational church would make a short address on "The Cornerstone of Freedom." Dr. Loomis gave a very interesting talk. He said that the schools were a free institution and did not come by chance. That they were for the poor as well as the rich; that the most precious of our institution is the public schools.

Following Dr. Loomis' address the rest of the exercises took place on Elm street where the corner stone was laid. Here Mayor H. W. Evans delivered his address. He spoke as follows:

The ceremonies this afternoon mark an epoch in the history of Westfield and its progress from the first school built of hewn logs on the Coe farm in

(Continued on Page 8.)

LARGE REGISTRY LIST.

Tuesday was the last registration day and as a result a large number of voters were added to the registry list in the various wards. There were about two hundred more names added and the workers in both parties are much pleased with their efforts in getting the voters ready for the election. The registration in the wards was as follows: First Ward, first district, 218; first ward, second district, 317; second ward, 290; third ward, 371; fourth ward, 348; total, 1,544.

COUNTY CLERK
CALVERT INJURED

And Companion Seriously Hurt When Machine Driven By Woman Collides With Them in Plainfield

As a result of an automobile crash which occurred at East Front street, near Berckman street, Plainfield, on Tuesday afternoon, County Clerk James C. Calvert, of Elizabeth, and Court Crier Henry Shoppe, of Elizabeth, were injured to such an extent that they had to be taken to the Muhlenberg hospital. The car containing Mr. Calvert and Mr. Shoppe, was proceeding east on Front street toward Fanwood, where the county clerk was to distribute a quantity of election ballots secured in Plainfield, and collided at right angles with a car driven by Mrs. Godfrey Weinmann, of Westervelt avenue, Plainfield, who was coming out of Berckman street in a northerly direction. Every attempt on the part of both drivers was made to avoid the crash, but the two cars came together with a great jolt. None of the occupants of the Weinmann car was injured, although they were badly shaken up.

JAMES C. CALVERT.

Mr. Calvert's car, which was considerably larger than the auto which hit it, was turned completely around and reduced to a heap of wreckage. The Weinmann car was slightly damaged.

Mr. Calvert and Mr. Shoppe were given first aid and Mr. Calvert was removed to the office of Dr. Albert Pitts and later taken to the Muhlenberg hospital. Mr. Shoppe, who it was thought was seriously injured, was taken to the hospital at once. Mr. Shoppe was thrown through the windshield and his shoulder was broken and several ribs crushed. Mr. Calvert's injuries were scalp wounds and cuts about the eyes. The Elizabeth car was carrying a large supply of election ballots and other literature which Mr. Calvert was distributing in the interests of his campaign for re-election for county clerk and these were scattered along the roadside.

Opens Dancing Classes.

The dancing classes of Miss Marion Denman were opened one on Monday evening and the other on Wednesday afternoon in the assembly room of the Westfield Theatre. Miss Denman has about fifty pupils. During the afternoon and evening in question Miss Denman gave an excellent exhibition of the fancy dances, dancing the "Lulu Fado," "La Russe," "Fox Trot," "Waltz, (Canter)," "Polka, Brazilian" and "Ta Tao." She also danced with Adolph Albertson, one of her pupils. A large number of the parents of the pupils were present and highly appreciate the exhibition given by Miss Denman.

Bird Songs by Edward Avis.

The lecture which is to be given at the Washington school tomorrow night in the course of free lectures under the auspices of the Board of Education promises to be most interesting as it is out of the ordinary. It will consist of a lecture with a recital and bird songs, by Edward Avis, who is noted for his wonderful talent and ability to imitate the calls and notes which are produced by the various birds in this country. Mr. Avis has been here several times and has been highly appreciated by those who have heard him in the past and he will no doubt be greeted by a large audience tomorrow night.

LADIES' TOURNAMENT
AT GOLF CLUB

Participated in by 72 Women Representing Clubs Throughout the State. Luncheon and Tea Served Visitors by Local Club

The one day tournament of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association was held at the Westfield Golf Club yesterday and was participated in by seventy-two ladies representing different clubs in the State and country. In addition to the players who took part in the tournament there were about two hundred members of the club and friends who witnessed the events. There were three events—the Metropolitan Golf Association event, which was played in the morning between nine and twelve; the driving contest, which took place at 2:30 in the afternoon; and the approaching and putting contest, which took place at 3 o'clock.

The gross score in the Metropolitan Golf Association event for which there was a cup offered by the Association, was won by Mrs. H. R. Stockton, of the Plainfield Country Club. Her score was 44-44-88. Mrs. F. B. Ryan, of the Cranford Country Club, won the net score with 44-47 and 7 handicap making 54. Mrs. L. L. Blake, of the Cranford Country Club, won the driving contest with three balls, driving an average distance of 192 yards. Mrs. Uebelacker, of the Hackensack Country Club, and Mrs. H. E. Manville, of the Westfield Golf Club, tied for second place. In the play off Mrs. Uebelacker was the winner. In the tie both ladies drove an average distance of 156 yards and in the play off Mrs. Uebelacker drove an average distance of 192 yards. The prize offered by the club professional, A. J. Conway, for those making the most holes in par or better were won as follows: Mrs. H. R. Stockton, Plainfield Country Club, 8; Mrs. F. B. Ryan, of the Cranford Country Club, 7; Mrs. W. J. Faith, 5; Mrs. L. L. Greenhall, of the Hollywood Country Club, 5. In this event Mrs. Greenhall was pronounced the winner as the two other ladies had won other events.

The approaching and putting contest was won by Mrs. H. A. Fraser, of the Baltusrol Country Club. The prize in this event was a cup. The second prize was won by Mrs. W. J. Faith.

Luncheon was served to the visitors from the various clubs and at four o'clock a pink tea was served at which the men were not excluded.

The clubs represented at the tournament were the Forest Hill Country Club; Hackensack Country Club; Essex County Country Club; Cranford Country Club; Arcola Country Club; Hollywood Country Club; Knowlwood Country Club; Woodmere Country Club; Fox Hills Country Club; Baltusrol Country Club; Plainfield Country Club; Westfield Golf Club; Montclair Country Club; Glen Ridge Country Club; Englewood Country Club; Anawams Country Club; Morris County Country Club; New Brunswick Country Club; Wygalle Country Club and Scarsdale Country Club.

The events were a great success owing to the fine weather and those who participated in the play of the day were very enthusiastic over the Westfield Golf Club house and the hospitality shown them by the local ladies. Many of the club ladies assisted as hostesses at luncheon and tea. Among those on the committee were Mrs. W. R. Davis, Mrs. C. S. Hinckman, Mrs. Hugh Talbot, Mrs. Swaney, Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Worth, Mr. Barr, Mr. McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Fred White.

ROOF BURNED OFF

A fire which occurred shortly before noon on Monday burned a large portion of the roof off the house owned by Joseph Bonetti, in South avenue near North street. The fire was discovered by a resident of North avenue, who telephoned the fire department. The firemen extinguished the flames. The building is a three story structure and considerable damage was done to the upper stories which were used for lodgers. The damage amounted to about $500.

Men's Club Banquet.

The Eleventh Annual Banquet of the Men's Club of the Presbyterian church will be held at the Parish house tonight at 7:15. Mr. Anthony Finia will be the speaker. The affair is informal and tickets may be secured at one dollar each.

GOVERNOR FIELDER VISITS WESTFIELD

In the Interest of County Democratic Candidates. Urges That Present Administration be Supported

Last Saturday afternoon this town was honored by a visit from Governor Fielder, who with the Democratic candidates for county offices were making a tour of the county in the interests of their campaign. The Governor with the candidates arrived here in automobiles at three o'clock and were accompanied by a brass band which discouraged music to draw the crowd. The county candidates were the first to arrive and while waiting for the Governor to put in an appearance the candidates for the assembly, sheriff, county clerk and register made a few remarks in which they introduced themselves and asked the voters to support them at the coming election.

As soon as the Governor arrived he was introduced by L. T. Russell, the chairman of the Democratic County Committee. The Governor urged the voters to elect the Democratic senator and assemblymen as he said that his policies would not be put through unless he had the support in the legislature of those who were in sympathy with him. He urged the voters to return William E. Tuttle, Jr., to Congress as he said it was the same way with President Wilson, unless he had congressman who were in sympathy with his administration he could do nothing.

At the close of the Governor's address Percy A. Stewart, who is Mayor of Plainfield, and a candidate for State senator made an address. He was followed by Assemblyman Dobbins of Rahway, who is a candidate for reelection. The last speaker was Congressman Tuttle who told of the work that Congress is doing and urged the voters to return the Democratic candidates for Congress to Washington so that the hands of the President may be upheld.

A large crowd of people heard the address of the Governor and Candidates.

Junior Honor Roll Presbyterian Bible School.

The following report of the Junior Department of the Bible School of the Presbyterian Church for the quarter ending September 30, has been made by M. B. Dutcher, the Superintendent of the school:

Honor roll for perfect attendance for three years, Beatrice Darsh, Verna Gilby; for two years, Julia Morrow; for one year, Donald McDougall, Carl Darsh, Warren Winter; for nine months, Alice McDede, Esther McDede, Kathryn Verelenden; for six months, Caradog Ellis; for three months, Marion Douglas, Elizabeth Pierson, Elizabeth Timberlake, Lucile Verelenden.

Honor roll for work books, Marion Douglas, Beatrice Darsh, Janet Warfield, May Wells, Donald McDougall.

The following pupils were promoted by examination: Mildred Cairns, Lydia Collins, Beatrice Locke, Florence Mereness, Ruth Morton, Robert Glass, Arthur Sexton, Raymond Welch, Russell Welch.

Work books completed for the quarter, Ernestine Bunnell, Verna Gilby, Julia Morrow, Patricia Rule, Kathryn Verelenden, Lucy Williams, Arthur Bunnell, Carl Darsh, Caradog Ellis, Stanley Irving, John Miller, Adrian Wilcox, Warren Winter.

Vocational Committee Meeting.

The next meeting of the vocational committee of Board of Education will be held at eight o'clock, on October 30, in the Washington school. The topics and subjects for discussion at this meeting will be as follows: "Insurance," by C. R. Pitcher; "Salesmanship," by C. G. Edmonds; "Law," by G. A. Springstead. Ladies are invited to be present at this meeting.

Older Boys Conference.

The New Jersey State Conference for Older Boys began in the Young Men's Christian Association Building in Morristown, today and will continue tomorrow and Sunday. An interesting program has been announced. A number of those interested in the conference from this town will attend.

What Does He Mean "Right?"

The following advertisement appeared the other day on the first page of the London Times: "Americans please note. A marquess, with an invalid mother needing great care, will sell her right to an old European title. What are the offers?"

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him.

NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Write for circular.

SOME HOT SHOTS ON THE NEW TAX

War Not Cause for the Tax.

In the brief time which the Democratic "gag rule" permitted for the discussion of the Democratic deficit tax, Republican Congressman poured hot shot into the Democratic ranks. Representative Frank W. Mondell, of Wyoming, said:

"It is not the war in Europe, it is your war on prosperity, and your reckless extravagance which has, in the main, created the situation that has urged your action. Your revenue bill failed from the start. Your extravagance accentuated the shortage. The loss of customs revenue through decreased imports, due to war, did not in the month of August exceed two and a half millions, and is not likely in the future to exceed that amount per month, or twenty-seven millions in a year, if the war lasts that long. The reduction in the appropriations for the current year, below those of last year, for pensions and the Panama Canal alone amount to almost exactly this sum. If it were not for the fact that, in spite of these decreases in expenditure, the total of your appropriations this year is the greatest in all our history, these reductions in expenditures would alone more than balance any loss of revenue by reason of the war in Europe."

Let the Democrats Explain.

"Let the Democrats explain the so-called war revenue bill. In the first place, the name itself is a misnomer. This country is at peace with all the world. We are neither at war nor are we in need of war revenue. Comparisons are made between this bill and the act of 1898. At that time we were engaged in war and needed the revenue to support the Army and Navy of the United States. The speeches of the gentlemen advocating this bill today, made at that time, make pleasing reading now. The present Speaker of the House and the able leader of the minority both made speeches against the enactment of what was at that time necessary legislation. Let the Democrats cover up and make such explanations as they can, the people during the next month will learn, if they do not already know, the real cause of the enactment of this bill."—Representative Treadway.

HUSKIN' BEE BIG SUCCESS

Corn a Plenty With Liberal Sprinkling of Red Ears. Prizes Taken by Mrs. Leslie Broome and Edward Taylor

Ladies' Aid Societies are famed for devising ways and means of raising funds but it remained for the Society of the Methodist Church to take the contract for husking the corn at Fair Acres Farm. S. D. Patrick, the owner, had figured how with his other chores he could get his big corn crop husked and in some way his dilemma became known to a group of the ladies of the Aid Society. "Give us the contract" they said "and we will not only get plenty of help but charge the workers for the privilege of husking." The bargain was closed, and on Saturday night last Westfield was invited to a real old-fashioned Husking Bee with all the fixins.

The Automobile Corps of the Church was requisitioned for conveying people from their homes to the Farm and coined many a dollar, as the majority gladly parted with the small fare in preference to the long jaunt to the farm.

Arriving at Fair Acres one was held up by Farmer Russell who said the Bee was a "pay-as-you-enter" affair and a quarter was the price of not only the fun but the "eats" as well. That word "eats" sounded good and made the price look very small indeed. Entering the gateway the query was what to see first. The display of sun bonnets, calico dresses, overalls, straw hats, etc., made it plain that the best fun would be to "see who's here."

Farmer Wright seemed to be master of ceremonies and announced the attractions, and he had but to ring his big dinner bell to instantly gather a crowd. The Husking Bee came first and was staged in the big barn. Boxes and boards were arranged to form parallel lines of seats and in between there seemed to be tons of unhusked corn. The contestants were seated and on a signal from Boss Patrick tackled that corn with a vim and in less time than it takes to write it the yellow ears were piled up in heaps. And once in a while a red ear showed itself, and then—but why go further? Everybody knows what happens when a red ear appears. On signal the count was taken and prizes awarded. Mrs. Leslie Broome took the lady's prize and Mr.

Edward Taylor walked off with the man's prize.

On one side of the barn door Farmer Waterman conducted a menagerie and on the other Farmer Abrams commercialized Patrick's scales and for a nickel one could have his choice of seeing the freaks or having his weight guessed. Many chose the latter in order to see how much the "eats" added to their avoirdupois.

A tug of war for men and another for women afforded much amusement and were participated in freely as they "cost you nothin'."

Last but not least came the "invite" to the farm house to "have a little somethin'." When a wooden platter containing a large piece of home-made pie and a cruller and a cup of steaming coffee were handed to each person there came a look of complete satisfaction with the price of admission and no one could be found who asked for any refund.

Farmer Murray drove in with a load of big yellow pumpkins and asked permission to auction them off. How they attracted the crowd and from the prices realized some folks evidently count pumpkin pie the best of all kinds.

After the Gypsy Carnival of two weeks ago and so successful an event as the Husking Bee, Westfield people are busy asking "What's next," and well they may for the enterprising Ladies' Aid Society has seven grand projects working on big things and the surprises that are in store for the town until some time in January will afford pleasant amusement a plenty. In January the different groups are to hold a social and announce how much each has been able to gather for the Building Fund. In addition to the money raised the friendly rivalry will have made possible a social intercourse which strengthens the ties in any organization.

THIRD LECTURE GIVEN.

The third lecture of the course under the direction of the Board of Education was held in the assembly room of the Washington school on last Saturday night and was attended by over 300 persons. The lecture which was given by Harry C. Ostrander, was on "Northern Africa and the Mediterranean." The lecture was illustrated with many beautiful stereoptical views and Mr. Ostrander told in a very pleasing manner of his travels in Africa and on the Mediterranean. He was introduced to his audience by E. E. Thompson, of the Board of Education. The lecture next Saturday night will be given by Edward Avis, who has been heard here several times before. His subject will be "An Evening in Birdland."

"I CANNOT understand why there would be a single individual with any responsibility whatsoever, who has family, relatives or friends, who has not an assurance upon his life. I hold as benefactors of humanity and society those who do go around using eloquence, poetry and persuasion and everything else, and win them to go out and assure their lives."

—John Ireland, Archbishop of St. Paul.

The Prudential
FORREST F. DRYDEN, President

Hon. WM. E. TUTTLE, Jr.

OUR FELLOW TOWNSMAN

The "Man on the Job" with Wilson

Democratic ascendancy in the Nation is established during the full term of the next Congressman. Shall this district be put in an attitude of OBSTRUCTION or shall it have voice and influence in shaping legislation? Congressman Tuttle has had exceptional recognition from the administration.

Paid by W. E. Tuttle, Jr., Campaign Com.

Phoenix Stores Co.

Let us supply everything for your table.

Deliveries Free.

A Westfield Institution. Phone 850

Read the Trey O'Hearts on page 10
Then see the pictures at the Westfield Theatre

Woman Suffrage

Pro and Con

At a meeting of the N. J. State Association opposed to woman suffrage the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

That: In consideration of the resolution recently adopted by the General Federation of Women's Clubs at its convention held in Chicago in June, we, as members of the New Jersey Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, protest that many women belonging to the Federated Clubs of the State of New Jersey are not in favor of Woman Suffrage.

And we urge that the past absolutely neutral attitude of the clubs, on the subjects of politics and religion be maintained.

Attempts to bring about the passage of a resolution endorsing woman suffrage threatened the disruption of the convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women here to-day.

Bitter feeling has been aroused over a demonstration made by the suffragists. The anti-suffragist leaders promise to fight to the finish against adoption of the resolution proposed. They have the support of a factor: that believes the federation should avoid going on record in any way as regards politics.

On one occasion when the suffragists visited the White House they refused to shake hands with President Wilson. On their recent visit because he did not offer to shake hands with them they blamed him. Some people are hard to please!

One million, six hundred thousand club women insult the President of the United States! Is this true? No! Neither is it true that 1,600,000 club women endorse woman suffrage, as the suffragists claim they have done. What is true is that some of the representatives of this army of club women have been guilty of discourtesy to the president, just as some of their representatives at Chicago, in a package convention, endorsed woman suffrage!

The Rev. Anna Shaw has felt it necessary to write a letter of apology to the president of the United States for the behavior of the 700 club women who recently visited him on behalf of woman suffrage. These 700 women were advertised as representing the 1,600,000 club women of the United States. Heretofore the public acts of these club women have not been such as to call for public apologies. How do they enjoy the fact that their endorsement of suffrage has led immediately to conduct by their representatives which calls for a public apology?

The St. Louis Star of August 19 says: "The Louisiana Woman's Suffrage Club, which voted down a resolution of sympathy for President Wilson upon the death of his beloved wife, harmed the cause more than any one thing which has happened since the suffrage movement gained headway."

New York suffragists have had a parade as a protest against the "blighting of European civilization" by the present war. Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch says: "Our great-grandchildren will feel the result of this war. Art galleries and libraries will be destroyed. But priceless paintings, historic buildings, beautiful churches have been destroyed for months past by Mrs. Blatch's fellow-suffragists in England. It evidently never occurred to the New York suffragists to parade with muffled drums and in mourning garb to show their grief at this wanton destruction. On the contrary, they expressed great admiration of 'the splendid courage of those devoted women,' who were destroying the fruits of civilization. Curious isn't it?"

A writer in North Dakota sends the following admirable letter to the Minneapolis Journal. It is reprinted because the questions asked are equally pertinent in all the other suffrage campaign states:

"When an established order of government is attacked by a proposed reform, it is not only right, but the duty of every citizen, to acquaint himself with the character of that reform, and the probable results of its operation. At the present time North Dakota stands on the eve of a great decision regarding the ballot. Before the final step is taken would it not be well to know more definitely the exact platform of the suffrage movement? Excitement does not constitute reason, or popularity justify unqualified acceptance of any proposition. Will some informed member of the suffrage movement kindly answer a few questions?"

"1—What particular form of injustice are we enduring in this state that woman's suffrage will right, or the pres-

Temperance Mass Meeting

The mass meeting which was held in the Westfield Theatre on Sunday afternoon in the interest of the temperance movement which is sweeping over this country was attended by a large number of people. The meeting had been arranged by the pastors of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches. The speaker of the afternoon was O. Bell Close, secretary of the Anti-Saloon League of New Jersey. Mr. Close gave one of the finest and most interesting addresses on temperance ever heard in this town. His address was along common sense lines, earnest and convincing in its appeal to the people. Rev. Dr. W. I. Stearns, of the Presbyterian church, presided. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. S. L. Loomis, of the Congregational church, and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. G. Franklin Ream, of the First Methodist church.

SENTENCES SUSPENDED.

Recorder Springstead had three cases before him in the police court Sunday morning. The first one was that of Frank Caponnetti, who was arrested by Officer Collins on Saturday for going on the wrong side of the traffic post at North avenue and Prospect street. Sentence was suspended. Darrell Losee was brought in by Sergeant Rosecrans for stopping his automobile on the wrong side of Elm street in violation of the traffic ordinance. Sentence was suspended. Victor Tony was arrested by Lieutenant Causfeld for being drunk and his sentence was also suspended.

ent laws cannot rectify, if properly enforced, or the ability of our men cannot meet?"

"2—Has the suffrage movement in other states, where longest tried, proved of such benefit that the promoters of the cause feel justified in asking North Dakota to follow in their footsteps?"

"3—To what extent has the temperance cause been benefited in suffrage states?"

"4—Is the suffrage movement in North Dakota a justified outcry against oppression, or a contagion of disorder we had better pause and investigate?"

"5—Since the departments of government are complicated, and political questions are manifold, how extensive and how many duties are women assuming with the responsibility of the ballot?"

"6—To what extent have moral conditions been improved, and industrial problems solved in suffrage states?"

PRESIDENT DRYDEN OUTLINES BENEFITS

To be Derived From the Proposed Mutualization of the Prudential Insurance Company of America

In issuing a call for a meeting of the 12,000,000, and more policyholders of the Prudential Insurance Company of America, at which time the proposed mutualization of the Prudential will be voted on, President Forrest F. Dryden outlines some of the direct benefits which he and his associates believe will follow. It is the first statement the Company has made on mutualization since the project was started in January 1913.

The date for the policyholders' meeting has been set for December 7. Every policyholder above the age of 21 years, and whose policy has been in force at least one year, will be privileged to either attend the meeting and vote, or else send a proxy to be voted in his or her name. Former Chancellor William J. Magie, former Supreme Court Justice Bennett Van Syckel, and Vice-President John K. Gore have been selected to represent the policyholders who are unable to be present at the meeting.

Among other things Mr. Dryden has this to say on mutualization:

"The plan of mutualization was adopted in the belief that it would inure to the welfare of the Company and would result in substantial benefit to its policyholders. As the proceedings have progressed we have become more firmly convinced of the correctness of these conclusions.

"While the Company must maintain an impartial position in connection with the policyholders' meeting, it is nevertheless proper at this time to advise the policyholders of the reasons which have actuated the management in instituting the proceedings and carrying them to their present stage.

"The mutualization of the Company will provide for the election of directors by the policyholders, which will insure for all time a continuance of the uniform practice of The Prudential to accord to its policyholders the greatest degree of liberality commensurate with safety.

"When mutualization is effected, distribution of the surplus earnings of the Company will include all its policyholders, both participating and non-participating. While under the existing low rates, the net cost to the present policyholders may not, at the outset, be greatly reduced on account of mutualization, nevertheless every dollar earned by a continuance of the sound and economical conduct of Prudential affairs will, from the very beginning, be credited to the policyholders as the owners of the company. "We believe that the substantial benefits to be gained through the acquisition by the policy holders of the stock at a price judiciously ascertained to be fair and reasonable will appeal forcibly to them and will induce them to give approval to the plan.

"We shall be glad to answer any inquiries that may be made prior to the meeting by any interested policyholders."

After the legislature of New Jersey had passed an act early in 1913 enabling the Company to mutualize the main problem presented was an accurate ascertainment of the value of the capital stock of the Prudential. This was finally done by appraisement, the appraisers being Former United States Senator James Smith, Jr., former Governor John Franklin Fort and former Assistant Postmaster General William M. Johnston, who were appointed by Chancellor Walker of New Jersey. The interests of the policyholders in this proceeding were looked after by former United States Attorney-General John W. Griggs and Merritt Lane, of Jersey City. After a long and careful deliberation the value of each Prudential share having a par value of $50 was fixed at $455, and a recent meeting of the stockholders of the Company, attended by seventy-seven per cent. of the share-holders, this price was approved without a dissenting vote. The meeting of the policyholders is the next step.

Teachers Hold Reception.

Last Friday night the teachers of the McKinley school assisted by the officers of the Parent-Teachers Association entertained the teachers, principals and members of the Board of Education of the town in the auditorium of the McKinley school. Vocal solos were given by Miss Gladys Meyer and Miss Elda Fink. Various games were played after which dancing was enjoyed to the music of a Victrola. Refreshments were served. Over sixty persons attended the affair. Miss Holcomb was chairman of the teachers committee in charge of the evening's program.

British Wool Importations.

Wool to the estimated value of $100,000,000 arrives annually in the port of London, about a third of which passes through the authorities' warehouses, while rubber of various qualities worth between £300,000 and £350,000 is placed on the show floors and in the sheds every three or four days and dealt with.

BUTTONS FROM EUROPE FOR UNCLE SAM'S SERVANTS

The brass buttons for American soldiers' uniforms have been made in England under contract awarded by the Democratic Secretary of War and Democratic Secretary of Navy.

Uncle Sam's soldiers and sailors wear a lot of brass buttons. Some of them have two double rows down the front of their uniforms. Then, there are army and navy ornaments, shoulder-straps and other kind of official insignia. Uncle Sam's Revenue officers, under Secretary McAdoo, wear brass buttons, too, and even the Capitol policemen and watchmen at the doors of the Government departments are adorned with these shining emblems of official authority.

The civilian who doesn't care much about brass buttons anyhow may find it difficult to realize that Uncle Sam spends from sixty to seventy thousand dollars a year for brass and bronze buttons, but he does. In the "basket clause" of Schedule G, of the Democratic tariff law, the duties on these buttons was reduced from 32 per cent. to 15 per cent., ad valorem.

As soon as this cut was made, an English firm entered competition for the button contract and because of cheap labor was able to underbid the American manufacturers who had handled the contract satisfactorily for several years and had given employment to hundreds of men in the making of American buttons for American soldiers.

As soon as the contract was awarded to British button manufacturers, New England manufacturers, naturally, made a big protest. No attention was paid to this until the protest became so strong that Democratic Senators and Congressmen from New England saw their mistake and urged the cancellation of these contracts. Not until July, however, was the contract to the British firm cancelled and then it was given up on the ground that unsettled conditions made delivery uncertain. Thus, the war was a very present need in time of trouble to the Democrats.

Second Subscription Dance.

The second subscription dance of the season was held at the Westfield Golf Club on Saturday night and was enjoyed by a large number of the club members and their friends. Music for dancing was furnished by the Al Brown Trio. Supper was served at midnight. The clubhouse was prettily decorated with autumn leaves and fall flowers. The committee in charge comprised Charles Cumming, Edward Clark, Charles P. Worth and Douglas Arnold.

Overland

$850

Overland Model 81

With Electric Starter and Electric Lights

TWO-PASSENGER ROADSTER, $795

A few of the many Model 81 Features

30 H. P. MOTOR.
STREAM-LINE BODY.
AMPLE ROOM FOR FIVE PASSENGERS.
ELECTRICALLY STARTED.
ELECTRICALLY LIGHTED.
ELECTRIC HORN.
HIGH TENSION MAGNETO.

ALL ELECTRIC SWITCHES ON INSTRUMENT BOARD OF COWL DASH.
HIGH-GRADE UPHOLSTERY.
THERMO-SYPHON COOLING FIVE-BEARING CRANKSHAFT.
DEMOUNTABLE RIMS—ONE EXTRA.
REAR AXLE, FLOATING TYPE.
EXTRA LONG UNDERSLUNG REAR SPRINGS.

106-INCH WHEEL BASE.
33 x 4 TIRES.
LEFT HAND DRIVE.
RAIN VISION VENTILATING TYPE WINDSHIELD.
BODY COLOR: BREWSTER GREEN WITH IVORY WHITE STRIPING.
COMPLETE EQUIPMENT.

NOW HAVE THIS CAR IN STOCK.

CALL AND SEE IT.

Demonstrations Cheerfully Given

H. L. FINK, Proprietor, The Westfield Garage

135 ELM STREET

WESTFIELD, N. J.

GOVERNOR FIELDER VISITS WESTFIELD

In the Interest of County Democratic Candidates. Urges That Present Administration be Supported

Last Saturday afternoon this town was honored by a visit from Governor Fielder, who with the Democratic candidates for county offices were making a tour of the county in the interests of their campaign. The Governor with the candidates arrived here in automobiles at three o'clock and were accompanied by a brass band which discoursed music to draw the crowd. The county candidates were the first to arrive and while waiting for the Governor to put in an appearance the candidates for the assembly, sheriff, county clerk and register made a few remarks in which they introduced themselves and asked the voters to support them at the coming election.

As soon as the Governor arrived he was introduced by L. T. Russell, the chairman of the Democratic County Committee. The Governor urged the voters to elect the Democratic senator and assemblymen as he said that his policies would not be put through unless he had the support in the legislature of those who were in sympathy with him. He urged the voters to return William E. Tuttle, Jr., to Congress as he said it was the same way with President Wilson, unless he had congressmen who were in sympathy with his administration he could do nothing.

At the close of the Governor's address Percy A. Stewart, who is Mayor of Plainfield, and a candidate for State senator made an address. He was followed by Assemblyman Dobbins of Rahway, who is a candidate for reelection. The last speaker was Congressman Tuttle who told of the work that Congress is doing and urged the voters to return the Democratic candidates for Congress to Washington so that the hands of the President may be upheld.

A large crowd of people heard the address of the Governor and Candidates.

Junior Honor Roll Presbyterian Bible School.

The following report of the Junior Department of the Bible School of the Presbyterian Church for the quarter ending September 30, has been made by M. B. Dutcher, the Superintendent of the school:

Honor roll for perfect attendance for three years, Beatrice Darsh, Verna Gilby; for two years, Julia Morrow; for one year, Donald McDougall, Carl Darsh, Warren Winter; for nine months, Alice McDede, Esther McDede, Kathryn Verleden; for six months, Caradog Ellis; for three months, Marion Douglas, Elizabeth Pierson, Elizabeth Timberlake, Lucile Verleden.

Honor roll for work books, Marion Douglas, Beatrice Darsh, Janet Warfield, May Wells, Donald McDougall.

The following pupils were promoted by examination: Mildred Cairns, Lydia Collins, Beatrice Locke, Florence Mereness, Ruth Morton, Robert Glass, Arthur Sexton, Raymond Welch, Russell Welch.

Work-books completed for the quarter, Ernestine Bunnell, Verna Gilby, Julia Morrow, Patricia Rule, Kathryn Verleden, Lucy Williams, Arthur Bunnell, Carl Darsh, Caradog Ellis, Stanley Irving, John Miller, Adrian Wilcox, Warren Winter.

Vocational Committee Meeting.

The next meeting of the vocational committee of Board of Education will be held at eight o'clock, on October 20, in the Washington school. The topics and subjects for discussion at this meeting will be as follows: "Insurance," by C. R. Pletcher; "Salesmanship," by C. G. Edmonds; "Law," by C. A. Springstead. Ladies are invited to be present at this meeting.

Older Boys Conference.

The New Jersey State Conference for Older Boys began in the Young Men's Christian Association Building in Morristown, today and will continue tomorrow and Sunday. An interesting program has been announced. A number of those interested in the conference from this town will attend.

What Does He Mean "Right?"

The following advertisement appeared the other day on the first page of the London Times: "Americans please note. A marquis, with an invalid mother needing great care, will sell her right to an old European title. What are the offers?"

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 16 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out all obligations made by his firm.

NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

SOME HOT SHOTS ON THE NEW TAX

War Not Cause for the Tax.

In the brief time which the Democratic "gag rule" permitted for the discussion of the Democratic deficit tax, Republican Congressman poured hot shot into the Democratic ranks. Representative Frank W. Mondell, of Wyoming, said:

"It is not the war in Europe, it is your war on prosperity, and your reckless extravagance which has, in the main, created the situation that has urged your action. Your revenue bill failed from the start. Your extravagance accentuated the shortage. The loss of customs revenue through decreased imports, due to war, did not in the month of August exceed two and a half millions, and is not likely in the future to exceed that amount per month, or twenty-seven millions in a year, if the war lasts that long. The reduction in the appropriations for the current year, below those of last year, for pensions and the Panama Canal alone amount to almost exactly this sum. If it were not for the fact that, in spite of these decreases in expenditure, the total of your appropriations this year is the greatest in all our history, these reductions in expenditures would alone more than balance any loss of revenue by reason of the war in Europe."

Let the Democrats Explain.

"Let the Democrats explain the so-called war revenue bill. In the first place, the name itself is a misnomer. This country is at peace with all the world. We are neither at war nor are we in need of war revenue. Comparisons are made between this bill and the act of 1898. At that time we were engaged in war and needed the revenue to support the Army and Navy of the United States. The speeches of the gentlemen advocating this bill today, made at that time, make pleasing reading now. The present Speaker of the House and the able leader of the minority both made speeches against the enactment of what was at that time necessary legislation. Let the Democrats cover up and make such explanations as they can, the people during the next month will learn, if they do not already know, the real cause of the enactment of this bill."—Representative Treadway.

HUSKIN' BEE BIG SUCCESS

Corn a Plenty With Liberal Sprinkling of Red Ears. Prizes Taken by Mrs. Leslie Broome and Edward Taylor

Ladies' Aid Societies are famed for devising ways and means of raising funds but it remained for the Society of the Methodist Church to take the contract for husking the corn at Fair Acres Farm. S. D. Patrick, the owner, had figured how with his other chores he could get his big corn crop husked and in some way his dilemma became known to a group of the ladies of the Aid Society. "Give us the contract" they said "and we will not only get plenty of help but charge the workers for the privilege of husking." The bargain was closed, and on Saturday night last Westfield was invited to a real old-fashioned Husking Bee with all the fixin's.

The Automobile Corps of the Church was requisitioned for conveying people from their homes to the Farm and coined many a dollar, as the majority gladly parted with the small fare in preference to the long jaunt to the farm.

Arriving at Fair Acres one was held up by Farmer Russell who said the Bee was a "pay-as-you-enter" affair, and a quarter was the price of not only the fun but the "eats" as well. That word "eats" sounded good and made the price look very small indeed. Entering the gateway the query was what to see first. The display of sun bonnets, calico dresses, overalls, straw hats, etc., made it plain that the best fun would be to "see who's here."

Farmer Wright seemed to be master of ceremonies and announced the attractions, and he had but to ring his big dinner bell to instantly gather a crowd. The Husking Bee came first and was staged in the big barn. Boxes and boards were arranged to form parallel lines of seats and in between there seemed to be tons of unhusked corn. The contestants were seated and on a signal from Boss Patrick tackled that corn with a vim and in less time than it takes to write it the yellow ears were piled up in heaps. And once in a while a red ear showed itself, and then—but why go further? Everybody knows what happens when a red ear appears. On signal the count was taken and prizes awarded. Mrs. Leslie Broome took the lady's prize and Mr.

Edward Taylor walked off with the man's prize.

On one side of the barn door Farmer Waterman conducted a menagerie and on the other Farmer Abrams commercialized Patrick's scales and for a nickel one could have his choice of seeing the freaks or having his weight guessed. Many chose the latter in order to see how much the "eats" added to their avoidupois.

A tug of war for men and another for women afforded much amusement and were participated in freely as they "cost you nothin'."

Last but not least came the "invite" to the farm house to "have a little somethin'." When a wooden platter containing a large piece of home-made pie and a cruller and a cup of steaming coffee were handed to each person there came a look of complete satisfaction with the price of admission and no one could be found who asked for any refund.

Farmer Murray drove in with a load of big yellow pumpkins and asked permission to auction them off. How they attracted the crowd and from the prices realized some folks evidently count pumpkin pie the best of all kinds.

After the Gypsy Carnival of two weeks ago and so successful an event as the Husking Bee, Westfield people are busy asking "What's next," and well they may for the enterprising Ladies' Aid Society has seven groups working on big things and the surprises that are in store for the town until some time in January will afford pleasant amusement a plenty. In January the different groups are to hold a social and announce how much each has been able to gather for the Building Fund. In addition to the money raised the friendly rivalry will have made possible a social intercourse which strengthens the ties in any organization.

THIRD LECTURE GIVEN.

The third lecture of the course under the direction of the Board of Education was held in the assembly room of the Washington school on last Saturday night and was attended by over 300 persons. The lecture which was given by Harry C. Ostrander, was on "Northern Africa and the Mediterranean." The lecture was illustrated with many beautiful stereopticon views and Mr. Ostrander told in a very pleasing manner of his travels in Africa and on the Mediterranean. He was introduced to his audience by E. E. Thompson, of the Board of Education. The lecture next Saturday night will be given by Edward Avis, who has been heard here several times before. His subject will be "An Evening in Birdland."

"I CANNOT understand why there would be a single individual with any responsibility whatsoever, who has family, relatives or friends, who has not an assurance upon his life. I hold as benefactors of humanity and society those who do go around using eloquence, poetry and persuasion and everything else, and win them to go out and assure their lives."

—John Ireland, Archbishop of St. Paul.

The Prudential
FORREST F. DRYDEN, President

Hon. WM. E. TUTTLE, Jr.

OUR FELLOW TOWNSMAN

The "Man on the Job" with Wilson

Democratic ascendancy in the Nation is established during the full term of the next Congressman. Shall this district be put in an attitude of OBSTRUCTION or shall it have voice and influence in shaping legislation? Congressman Tuttle has had exceptional recognition from the administration.

Paid by W. E. Tuttle, Jr., Campaign Com.

Phoenix Stores Co.

Let us supply everything for your table.

Deliveries Free.

A Westfield Institution. Phone 850

Read the Trey O'Hearts on page 10
Then see the pictures at the Westfield Theatre

Woman Suffrage

Pro and Con

At a meeting of the N. J. State Association opposed to woman suffrage the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

That: In consideration of the resolution recently adopted by the General Federation of Women's Clubs at its convention held in Chicago in June, we, as members of the New Jersey Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, protest that many women belonging to the Federated Clubs of the State of New Jersey are not in favor of Woman Suffrage.

And we urge that the past absolutely neutral attitude of the clubs, on the subjects of politics and religion be maintained.

Attempts to bring about the passage of a resolution indorsing woman suffrage threatened the disruption of the convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women here to-day.

Bitter feeling has been aroused over a demonstration made by the suffragists. The anti-suffragist leaders promise to fight to the finish against adoption of the resolution proposed. They have the support of a factor: that believes the federation should avoid going on record in any way as regards politics.

On one occasion when the suffragists visited the White House they refused to shake hands with President Wilson. On their recent visit because he did not offer to shake hands with them they hissed him. Some people are hard to please!

One million, six hundred thousand club women insult the President of the United States! Is this true? No! Neither is it true that 1,600,000 club women endorse woman suffrage, as the suffragists claim they have done. What is true is that some of the representatives of this army of club women have been guilty of discourtesy to the president, just as some of their representatives at Chicago, in a package convention, endorsed woman suffrage!

The Rev. Anna Shaw has felt it necessary to write a letter of apology to the president of the United States for the behavior of the 700 club women who recently visited him on behalf of woman suffrage. These 700 women were advertised as representing the 1,600,000 club women of the United States. Heretofore the public acts of these club women have not been such as to call for public apologies. How do they enjoy the fact that their endorsement of suffrage has led immediately to conduct by their representatives which calls for a public apology?

The St. Louis Star of August 19 says: "The Louisiana Woman's Suffrage Club, which voted down a resolution of sympathy for President Wilson upon the death of his beloved wife, harmed the cause more than any one thing which has happened since the suffrage movement gained headway."

New York suffragists have had a parade as a protest against the "blighting of European civilization" by the present war. Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch says: "Our great-grandchildren will feel the result of this war. Art galleries and libraries will be destroyed. But priceless painting, historic buildings, beautiful churches have been destroyed for months past by Mrs. Blatch's fellow-suffragists in England. It evidently never occurred to the New York suffragists to parade with muffled drums and in mourning garb to show their grief at this wanton destruction. On the contrary, they expressed great admiration of "the splendid courage of those devoted women," who were destroying the fruits of civilization. Curious isn't it?

A writer in North Dakota sends the following admirable letter to the Minneapolis Journal. It is reprinted because the questions asked are equally pertinent in all the other suffrage campaign states:

"When an established order of government is attacked by a proposed reform, it is not only right, but the duty of every citizen, to acquaint himself with the character of that reform, and the probable results of its operation. At the present time North Dakota stands on the eve of a great decision regarding the ballot. Before the final step is taken would it not be well to know more definitely the exact platform of the suffrage movement? Excitement does not constitute reason, or popularity justify unqualified acceptance of any proposition. Will some informed member of the suffrage movement kindly answer a few questions?"

"1—What particular form of injustice are we enduring in this state that woman's suffrage will right, or the pres-

Temperance Mass Meeting.

The mass meeting which was held in the Westfield Theatre on Sunday afternoon in the interest of the temperance movement which is sweeping over this country was attended by a large number of people. The meeting had been arranged by the pastors of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches. The speaker of the afternoon was O. Bell Close, secretary of the Anti-Saloon League of New Jersey. Mr. Close gave one of the finest and most interesting addresses on temperance ever heard in this town. His address was along common sense lines, earnest and convincing in its appeal to the people. Rev. Dr. W. I. Stearns, of the Presbyterian church, presided. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. S. L. Loomis, of the Congregational church, and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. G. Franklin Ream, of the First Methodist church.

SENTENCES SUSPENDED.

Recorder Springstead had three cases before him in the police court Sunday morning. The first one was that of Frank Caponnetti, who was arrested by Officer Collins on Saturday for going on the wrong side of the traffic post at North avenue and Prospect street. Sentence was suspended. Darrell Losee was brought in by Sergeant Rosecrans for stopping his automobile on the wrong side of Elm street in violation of the traffic ordinance. Sentence was suspended. Victor Tony was arrested by Lieutenant Caulfield for being drunk and his sentence was also suspended.

ent laws cannot rectify, if properly enforced, or the ability of our men cannot meet?"

"2—Has the suffrage movement in other states, where longest tried, proved of such benefit that the promoters of the cause feel justified in asking North Dakota to follow in their footsteps?"

"3—To what extent has the temperance cause been benefited in suffrage states?"

"4—Is the suffrage movement in North Dakota a justified outcry against oppression, or a contagion of disorder we had better pause and investigate?"

"5—Since the departments of government are complicated, and political questions are manifold, how extensive and how many duties are women assuming with the responsibility of the ballot?"

"6—To what extent have moral conditions been improved, and industrial problems solved in suffrage states?"

PRESIDENT DRYDEN OUTLINES BENEFITS

To be Derived From the Proposed Mutualization of the Prudential Insurance Company of America

In issuing a call for a meeting of the 12,000,000, and more policyholders of the Prudential Insurance Company of America, at which time the proposed mutualization of the Prudential will be voted on, President Forrest F. Dryden outlines some of the direct benefits which he and his associates believe will follow. It is the first statement the Company has made on mutualization since the project was started in January 1913.

The date for the policyholders' meeting has been set for December 7. Every policyholder above the age of 21 years, and whose policy has been in force at least one year, will be privileged to either attend the meeting and vote, or else send a proxy to be voted in his or her name. Former Chancellor William J. Magie, former Supreme Court Justice Bennett Van Syckel, and Vice-President John K. Gore have been selected to represent the policyholders who are unable to be present at the meeting.

Among other things Mr. Dryden has this to say on mutualization:

"The plan of mutualization was adopted in the belief that it would inure to the welfare of the Company and would result in substantial benefit to its policyholders. As the proceedings have progressed we have become more firmly convinced of the correctness of these conclusions.

"While the Company must maintain an impartial position in connection with the policyholders' meeting, it is nevertheless proper at this time to advise the policyholders of the reasons which have actuated the management in instituting the proceedings and carrying them to their present stage.

"The mutualization of the Company will provide for the election of directors by the policyholders, which will insure for all time a continuance of the uniform practice of The Prudential to accord to its policyholders the greatest degree of liberality commensurate with safety.

"When mutualization is effected, distribution of the surplus earnings of the Company will include all its policyholders, both participating and non-participating. While under the existing low rates, the net cost to the present policyholders may not, at the outset, be greatly reduced on account of mutualization, nevertheless every dollar earned by a continuance of the sound and economical conduct of Prudential affairs will, from the very beginning, be credited to the policyholders as the owners of the company. "We believe that the substantial benefits to be gained through the acquisition by the policy holders of the stock at a price judiciously ascertained to be fair and reasonable will induce them to give approval to the plan.

"We shall be glad to answer any inquiries that may be made prior to the meeting by any interested policyholders."

After the legislature of New Jersey had passed an act early in 1913 enabling the Company to mutualize the main problem presented was an accurate ascertainment of the value of the capital stock of the Prudential. This was finally done by appraisal, the appraisers being Former United States Senator James Smith, Jr., former Governor John Franklin Fort and former Assistant Postmaster General William M. Johnston, who were appointed by Chancellor Walker of New Jersey. The interests of the policyholders in this proceeding were looked after by former United States Attorney-General John W. Griggs and Merritt Lane, of Jersey City. After a long and careful deliberation the value of each Prudential share having a par value of $50 was fixed at $455, and a recent meeting of the stockholders of the Company, attended by seventy-seven per cent. of the shareholders, this price was approved without a dissenting vote. The meeting of the policyholders is the next step.

Teachers Hold Reception.

Last Friday night the teachers of the McKinley school assisted by the officers of the Parent-Teachers Association entertained the teachers, principals and members of the Board of Education of the town in the auditorium of the McKinley school. Vocal solos were given by Miss Gladys Meyer and Miss Elda Fink. Various games were played after which dancing was enjoyed to the music of a Victrola. Refreshments were served. Over sixty persons attended the affair. Miss Holcomb was chairman of the teachers committee in charge of the evening's program.

British Wool Importations.

Wool to the estimated value of $100,000,000 arrives annually in the port of London, about a third of which passes through the authorities' warehouses, while rubber of various qualities worth between £300,000 and £350,000 is placed on the show floors and in the sheds every three or four days and dealt with.

BUTTONS FROM EUROPE FOR UNCLE SAM'S SERVANTS

The brass buttons for American soldiers' uniforms have been made in England under contract awarded by the Democratic Secretary of War and Democratic Secretary of Navy.

Uncle Sam's soldiers and sailors wear a lot of brass buttons. Some of them have two double rows down the front of their uniforms. Then, there are army and navy ornaments, shoulder-straps and other kind of official insignia. Uncle Sam's Revenue officers, under Secretary McAdoo, wear brass buttons too, and even the Capitol policemen and watchmen at the doors of the Government departments are adorned with these shining emblems of official authority.

The civilian who doesn't care much about brass buttons anyhow may find it difficult to realize that Uncle Sam spends from sixty to seventy thousand dollars a year for brass and bronze buttons, but he does. In the "basket clause" of Schedule G, of the Democratic tariff law, the duties on these buttons was reduced from 32 per cent. to 15 per cent., ad valorem.

As soon as this cut was made, an English firm entered competition for the button contract and because of cheap labor was able to underbid the American manufacturers who had handled the contract satisfactorily for several years and had given employment to hundreds of men in the making of American buttons for American soldiers.

As soon as the contract was awarded to British button manufacturers, New England manufacturers, naturally, made a big protest. No attention was paid to this until the protest became so strong that Democratic Senators and Congressmen from New England saw their mistake and urged the cancellation of these contracts. Not until July, however, was the contract to the British firm cancelled and then it was given up on the ground that unsettled conditions made delivery uncertain. Thus, the war was a very present need in time of trouble to the Democrats.

Second Subscription Dance.

The second subscription dance of the season was held at the Westfield Golf Club on Saturday night and was enjoyed by a large number of the club members and their friends. Music for dancing was furnished by the Al Brown Trio. Supper was served at midnight. The clubhouse was prettily decorated with autumn leaves and fall flowers. The committee in charge comprised Charles Cumming, Edward Clark, Charles P. Worth and Douglas Arnold.

Overland

$850

Overland Model 81

With Electric Starter and Electric Lights

TWO-PASSENGER ROADSTER, $795

A few of the many Model 81 Features

30 H. P. MOTOR.
STREAM-LINE BODY.
AMPLE ROOM FOR FIVE PASSENGERS.
ELECTRICALLY STARTED.
ELECTRICALLY LIGHTED.
ELECTRIC HORN.
HIGH TENSION MAGNETO.

ALL ELECTRIC SWITCHES ON INSTRUMENT BOARD OF COWL DASH.
HIGH-GRADE UPHOLSTERY.
THERMO-SYPHON COOLING FIVE-BEARING CRANKSHAFT.
DEMOUNTABLE RIMS—ONE EXTRA.
REAR AXLE, FLOATING TYPE.
EXTRA LONG UNDERSLUNG REAR SPRINGS.

106-INCH WHEEL BASE.
33 x 4 TIRES.
LEFT HAND DRIVE.
RAIN VISION VENTILATING TYPE WINDSHIELD.
BODY COLOR: BREWSTER GREEN WITH IVORY WHITE STRIPING.
COMPLETE EQUIPMENT.

NOW HAVE THIS CAR IN STOCK.

CALL AND SEE IT.

Demonstrations Cheerfully Given

H. L. FINK, Proprietor, The Westfield Garage

135 ELM STREET

WESTFIELD, N. J.

SENATOR PIERCE AND THE TAXPAYER.

The abstract of ratables recently issued by the Union County Tax Board, brings into clear relief the operation of the Pierce Bank Tax Act passed last winter.

For the current year, a total of $29,407, is to be collected from the banks of the county, of which one-half is applied in reduction of the county tax, and the other half in reduction of the local rate where the bank is situated.

The effect of the law is to make the average tax rate throughout the county, about two points less than it would otherwise be. The total bank tax collected in the State, is $704,623.

Of equal value to the State, in the service rendered by Senator Pierce in securing the re-valuation of railroad property, the work completed about two years ago. The re-valuation acts were drafted by Senator Pierce, and were passed mainly through his efforts, in co-operation with the efforts of Senator Smalley of Somerset County, then in the Assembly, and Senators Frelinghuysen and Ackerman. The re-valuation established that the railroads were under-assessed. The additional yearly revenue now coming to the State as a result of the re-valuation is approximately the sum of $750,000, the greater part of which goes to the School Districts in reduction of the local school tax. It is safe to say the average tax rate through the State is two points lower by reason of this income than it would otherwise be.

We believe the people of the county will recognize this service such as Senator Pierce has rendered in their behalf, by giving him the largest vote ever received by a senator in Union County. Senator Pierce is not only the taxpayers best friend, but the most tireless worker for the peoples interest Union County has ever had at Trenton.

Equal Franchise League Meets.

The meeting of the Equal Franchise League held at 503 Boulevard on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock was well attended. Very interesting and encouraging reports of the convention at Newark, on October 5, were given by some of the members.

Several new members joined the League.

Safety First.

The reason we wouldn't hire a man who never makes mistakes is because he would soon have our job.—Galveston News.

To Be Married Next Month.

The wedding of Samuel Silberg, of the firm of Silberg Bros., of Broad street, and Miss May Rubin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rubin, of 379 Littleton avenue, Newark, will take place in Achel-Stetter's Hall, Broad street, Newark, on Sunday afternoon, November 1, at 6 o'clock. Edwin Silberg, a brother of the groom, of Cranford, will be the best man. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Ada Rubin, Miss Stella Feldman and Miss Anna Jacobson, of Newark. The ceremony will be performed by Dr. Grau, of Temple Emanuel, in Newark. Over 200 guests have been invited to the wedding and reception.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Silberg will reside at 549 Westfield avenue.

Social and Literary Circle Holds Meeting.

The Social and Literary Circle of the First Methodist church held the first of a series of five meetings, to consider the subject of "Famous Women" at the home of Mrs. S. D. French, in Stoneleigh Park, on Friday afternoon. Notwithstanding the stormy weather there was a large number of the members present. The topic of the afternoon was "Women Before the Eighteenth Century." Mrs. W. Hart, read a paper on "The Women of the Bible," Mrs. H. H. Griswold, read a paper on "The Women before the Eighteenth Century" including those of the Greek and Roman periods. A paper on current events was read by Mrs. R. H. Collins. Miss Winifred Barr gave two piano numbers. Mrs. L. M. Pearsall sang "A Lotus Flower," and "Longing for You." Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Taylor, on Carlton road, on the afternoon of November 20.

ADVANCE CLUB MEETS.

The second meeting of the season of the Advance Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Taylor, on Elm street, last Friday night. It was expected that Superintendent of Playgrounds, Brennan, of Brooklyn, would be present and make an address on Playgrounds, but he sent word that he would be unable to come on account of illness. As a result of this disappointment the members of the club present at the meeting furnished their own entertainment, the principal feature of which was the singing of a group of child songs by Mrs. Arthur Rowland.

Republican Mass Meeting

For Westfield and Vicinity

TO BE HELD IN HALL OF WESTFIELD THEATRE

Saturday, Oct. 24, 1914, at 8 O'clock

Congressional, State and County, as well as Local Candidates, Will Speak

ALL VOTERS ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO BE PRESENT

Paid for by Westfield Republican Executive Committee

REGULAR DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE

FOR

COUNCILMAN

SECOND WARD

ROBERT F. HOHENSTEIN

Having filled this office for eight years, I am familiar with the wants of the ward and know Westfield's needs. WHY CHANGE?

Paid for by the Robert F. Hohenstein Campaign Committee

Regular Republican Nominee

FOR

COUNCILMAN

FOURTH WARD

GEORGE F. BROWN

A BUSINESS MAN

A PROPERTY OWNER

A TAX PAYER

Paid for by the George F. Brown Campaign Committee

Business Cards

E. D. TEETS
GENERAL BUILDING CONTRACTOR
Formerly of the Teets Construction Co.
Twenty-two years of practical experience
123 Under Ave. Tel. 174-W Westfield, N. J.

O'DONNELL BROS.
CONTRACTORS AND TEAMSTERS
Moving Vans for City or Country
Plumbing, Heating and Hot Water
LAWN GRADING—Sodding and Seeding a Specialty
OFFICE TELEPHONE 538-J
HOUSE TELEPHONE 548-W
Office 214 Central Ave. WESTFIELD, N. J.

Farms, Country Seats, Town Property, Anything you want.
HOLMES, 241 North Avenue
Woodruff's Storage, Westfield, N. J.

Florence L. Decker
Insurance Contractor Policies written in leading companies covering Fire, Liability, Theft, Plate Glass, Automobile.
173 E. Broad St. Westfield, N. J.
PHONE 24-M

Everything usually found in a Hardware Store.
ROYAL GRANITE STEEL WARE is absolutely safe.
FINE TOOLS AND CUTLERY

Gayle Hardware Co.,
Centre of City
Front St., & Park Ave., Plainfield

First Class
Accommodations
For Transients

Kelly's Hotel
John W. Kelly, Prop.

Phone 533 411 North Ave.

Under New Management CITY HOTEL
224 E. Broad Street
D. J. Burke, Prop.
CHOICE WINE, LIQUORS AND CIGARS
Excellent accommodations for permanent and transient guests.
Steam Heat and Electric Light.
TEL: 110. Stables attached

J. SELL,
Baggage and Local Express
Prompt Attention Careful Handling
Moderate Prices
Office Phone: 61-M House 359-M

Manning's the Man
TO DO YOUR Plumbing, Heating and Tin Work
14 Elm Street Phone: 454-M.

John L. Miller,
SANITARY PLUMBING
Steam, Hot Water and Hot Air Heating
Tin Roofing, Etc.
SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO LOW PRESSURE STEAM HEATING
28 Prospect Street, Westfield, N. J.
Telephone 274

No Cash Payment Down
You can buy six and seven room houses on Fourth avenue near North avenue same as rent. All improvements.
Parquet floors, decorations, steam heat and electric lights, lots 50x152. One sold this week. Two more left.
Own Home Realty Co.,
129 Franklin St. BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

Ernest W. Wilcox
FORMERLY OF WILCOX & POPE
CARPENTER & BUILDER
340 CUMBERLAND ST
Tel: 642-W. WESTFIELD
Estimates Cheerfully Furnished Jobbing Promptly Attended to.

Alexander Hunt
219 North Ave.
Painting & Wallpapering
Tel: 188-R WESTFIELD

North Avenue Hotel
J. H. WILLETT
Dinners and Suppers for Automobile Parties a Specialty.
NEW ATTRACTIVE DINING ROOM
EXCELLENT AND EFFICIENT SERVICE Accommodations for Permanent and Transient Guests
NORTH AVE. WESTFIELD, N. J.

SUCCESSFUL CARD PARTY

The card party held at the home of Mrs. Paul Q. Oliver, on the Bosward, Tuesday afternoon for the benefit of the District Nurse Association was attended by a large number of the ladies of this town and was a very successful affair. There were thirty-four tables in play and the games were bridge, five hundred and euchre. The awards were an escutcheon handkerchief which was given at every table.

The hostesses of the card party were Mrs. P. Q. Oliver and Mrs. Douglas Smythe. As a result of the party $68 was realized which will go into the treasury of this most worthy institution. It was decided to hold another of these card parties on November 10, at which Mrs. F. D. Mooney and Mrs. F. B. Sanborn will be the hostesses.

The District Nurse Association is one of the most important institutions in this town and it seems too bad that it cannot be kept up by popular sentiment instead of these card parties and other entertainments. It is purely a local institution and one which everyone should be interested in and should help to maintain. Appeal after appeal has been made to the public for this worthy cause but up to now the sentiment that should be for it has not been aroused as it should be. All the ladies who are interested in this institution have worked hard for its success and it is hoped that the citizens will awake to the benefits that are to be derived from it.

Holy Trinity Bazaar Nets $1,800.

The fair and bazaar of Holy Trinity church which was held in the assembly hall of the Westfield Theatre all of last week closed on Saturday night.
The fair was well attended each night especially on the last night when there was a record crowd. Prizes in gold were given to those who held the lucky numbers and various other prizes were awarded. As a result of the fair, which was one of the most successful ever held by this church, about $1,800 was realized which will be added to the church treasury.

Wrecks Two Cars by Reckless Driving.

Reckless driving on the part of Max
Dungee, colored, chauffeur for A. W.
Hogeland, of St. George Place, was the reason given for the wrecking of the Hogeland car and a car belonging to Walter Hoffman, of Maplewood, in Central avenue near Sussex street on Saturday afternoon. Dungee drove his car directly into the Hoffman car which was standing in the gutter to the right of the road. Mr. Hoffman was lighting the headlight nearest to the gutter, otherwise he might have been killed by the impact of the two cars. Mrs. Hoffman and their young child were seated in the car but escaped injury.

Dungee was the only occupant of the Hogeland car. Judge E. R. Collins witnessed the accident. Mr. Collins who is connected with the State automobile inspector's office ordered Dungee to leave his car and not to drive it again until he had reported to Commissioner Lippincott. The axles of both cars were badly bent and the lamps and mud guards wrecked. The Hoffman car was towed to the Darby garage and the Hogeland car to the Westfield Garage. On Sunday afternoon Dungee was arrested by Sergeant Rosecrans. He was given a hearing before Recorder Springstead on Monday morning and fined $15 for reckless driving.

Not Likely to Become Expert.
A beginner at golf was playing his first game, and his opponent was struggling with his emotion as he watched the attempt to hit the ball.
But he was unable to do so and when he was asked to do so he said: "I am not a golfer."
The man who was playing golf with him was a golfer and he said: "You are not a golfer."
The man who was playing golf
with him was a golfer and he said: "You are not a golfer."

ROUTINE BUSINESS OCCUPIES COUNCIL

Accept Deed to Clark Property for Extension of Pleasant Place.
Order Lights on Poles Holding Fire Alarm Boxes

The meeting of the town council on Monday night was a very short one and nothing but routine business was transacted.

No objections were received to the work done and materials furnished on the improvement of North street, between Central avenue and Ripley Place.
On recommendation of Councilman
Davis the request for an apportionment of taxes on the estate of John S. Burhans, which was made by Samuel Burhans, the executor, was referred back to Mr. Burhans, as the map which was presented by Mr. Burhans did not agree with the tax map and it was therefore referred back for correction.
On resolution presented by Mr. Davis and adopted, a certificate of indebtedness was ordered issued for $2,000 and an improvement certificate for $2,975.49.
A certificate of improvement amounting to $7,512.39 was ordered canceled.

On recommendation of Councilman DeCamp, of the road committee, the deed which James O. Clark, presented to the town for some property to continue Pleasant Place through his property on Clark street and Duane avenue was accepted.

The hearing of the reports of the Board of Assessors on improvements in the town was set for November 16.
The work done by the Weldon Contracting Company on North street, was accepted by the town. The hearing on the improvement of Lenox avenue was continued.

On recommendation of Councilman
Ferry, of the Street Lighting Department, The Public Service Electric Company was requested to place lights on the remaining three poles where there are fire alarm boxes which at present have no lights on them. The Electric Company was also directed to erect two poles on Parkview avenue near Chestnut street for the purpose of furnishing lighting current to some residents there.

The town treasurer reported a balance on hand of $12,557.07. Town Engineer Vars, reported that he had issued nine permits for sewers for the month of September and a check for $27.75 was turned over by him to the town treasurer.

A petition was received from H. W.
Plester and others asking that the grade of Chestnut street from East Broad street, to Mountain avenue be established. This petition was referred to the road committee.

Bills amounting to $1,395.66 were approved and ordered paid. Mayor Evans presided and all the members of the council were present except Councilman Casey.

Park Commission Holds Long Deferred Meeting.

The Park Commission after several attempts to hold a meeting owing to the failure of enough members to form a quorum, were able to hold one on Tuesday night after President Russell had kept the telephone at the police station busy rounding up members enough to constitute the quorum needed. The bill of the Middlesex Contracting Company for trees planted in the town was ordered paid after being approved by Messrs. Grape and Halsted. B. C. Howell who has been caring for the trees in the town presented a bill for labor and catering to the amount of $160.88, which was ordered paid. It was decided to leave the matter of replacing the dead trees over until next spring. These trees were planted under the contract of the Middlesex Contracting Company.
Messrs. Russell, Halsted, Grape and Perry were present at the meeting.

AN INNOVATION Hot Water Radiator Operated By Gas

At this season of cool mornings and evenings—too soon to start the furnace—there are times when some heat is necessary. After you have started the furnace perhaps your bath room, your dining room, does not warm up—or some room seems impossible to heat. With the installation of our

HOT WATER RADIATORS operated by gas, the cold, comfortless rooms disappear. Our Radiators are always ready when needed—are Economical, Efficient and Odorless, giving out the moist heat which is accepted as the Best.
You are invited to visit the Gas Company's office and see the Radiator in operation.

The Copper Coil Radiator Co., Inc.
19 and 21 CLIFF STREET, NEW YORK
E. C. HANFORD, Direct Representative
IT HAS NO EQUAL

No Chance for An Argument Here when it comes to the proper making of garments for

MEN and WOMEN
OUR WORKMANSHIP
OUR STYLE
OUR FIT
OUR PRICE IS RIGHT

WHAT MORE CAN YOU ASK?
Of Course you know our Famous Cleaning, Pressing, Dyeing, Repairing. Furs Remodelled and Repaired

The New York Tailoring Company
A. GOLDBERG, Prop.
132 Broad Street Tel. 249-J Westfield, N. J.

Boys & Girls, Attention!

5 Young America Saving Stamps
FREE! There are no strings or conditions to this offer. Simply present coupon and get stamps

The attached coupon is worth
5 Young America Saving Stamps when presented at the office of The Standard.

THIS COUPON
Entitles the holder to 5 Young America Saving Stamps when presented at the office of THE STANDARD.

That is all this establishment wishes for its

MILK
and CREAM

for we know that its that trial that will make you our regular patron.
Purity and richness of undoubted quality makes our milk and cream the kind the exacting, particular public desires. Why not try us!

AUGUST DANKER,
167 Broad Street Tel. 620

ESTABLISHED 1860. TELEPHONE 59
E. N. BROWN
FUNERAL DIRECTOR, EMBALMER
47 ELM STREET, Lady Assistant

PHOENIX STORES Co.

Everything in Groceries, Delicatessen and Fresh Vegetables.

PRICES ALL ATTRACTIVE

A Westfield Institution
Phone 850

THE STANDARD

Published every Friday afternoon by The Standard Publishing Concern (Incorp.)
The Standard Building
319 Elm Street, Westfield, N. J.
BYRON M. PRUGH - Managing Editor
Entered at the Post Office at Westfield, New Jersey, as Second-class Mail Matter.
SUBSCRIPTION...$1.00 per year
Official paper for Town of Westfield.
Telephone, Westfield 271.
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1914.

REPUBLICAN TICKET

CONGRESS.

John H. Capstick.

STATE SENATOR.

Carlton B. Pierce.

ASSEMBLY.

Arthur N. Pierson.

William N. Runyon.

Charles L. Morgan.

COUNTY CLERK.

James C. Calvert.

SHERIFF.

George C. Otto.

REGISTER.

Frank H. Smith.

CORONER.

Henry P. Dengler.

MAYOR.

Henry W. Evans.

COUNCIL.

1st ward—Robert E. Perry.

2nd ward—Adolph Ganzel.

3rd ward—Wm. R. Davis.

4th ward—George F. Brown.

The Diphtheria Situation.

By J. B. Harrison, M. D.
President Board of Health.

Inasmuch as frequent telephone inquiries about the status of Diphtheria in Town indicates a developing misapprehension regarding it, perhaps a frank statement of facts will not be amiss.

There have been seven cases to date reported to the Board of Health. Four of the seven are from one home. Five of the seven are school children; and all of these are in one grade in the school. All the cases are very light; and in most instances so light that a diagnosis is impossible without the aid of the laboratory. In fact not more than three have been ill enough to keep to their beds.

Notwithstanding the fewness and lightness of the cases, the public can be assured that both the Boards of Health and Education are alert and are co-operating thoroughly in efforts to control the spread of the disease; leaving undone nothing which will aid in the accomplishment of this need. Fumigation and airing of the school rooms have been done and will be repeated. No child is allowed to remain in school who manifests the slightest illness regardless of its nature.
No child is allowed to attend school who is known or suspected of any exposure to the disease for at least ten days after the latest exposure. Every case of the disease is required to be isolated and quarantined until well and the premises fumigated and cleaned up whether it be mild or severe.
If the public will co-operate with the doctors and the Boards of Health and Education there is every reason to believe the disease will not gain much foothold.

The danger lies with the mild cases and failure of attendants in such cases to strictly observe the precautions necessary to prevent its spread. It seems to be forgotten by some that the disease can be spread by mild as well as severe cases; and that a fatal attack can be contracted from a mild case. Two often mothers will presume to determine a child is well of the disease and no longer a menace to others because to them the throat looks all right and the patient feels and acts quite well. Here again it is necessary to resort to the laboratory to determine the question of removing quarantine, cleaning up and freeing the patient.

There is another source of error and danger—not frequently encountered perhaps, but often enough to demand a warning, which consists in a failure to quarantine and isolate a child during the interim of determining whether or not the illness is Diphtheria.
In many instances the symptoms are so mild that even a few days and a laboratory test are required to determine definitely the nature of the trouble. In fact in a certain proportion of cases errors will occur though every possible precaution has been taken. Even suspects should be treated as genuine cases until an investigation clears the matter up. If all concerned will take the precaution well known to prevent it, there is and will be little likelihood that Diphtheria will become epidemic in Westfield. Without the co-operation of the people the efforts of the Boards of Health and Education can prove only partially successful.

A Good Omen.

The large registration on Tuesday, which shows about 200 more votes in Westfield than last year and a total of 2,000 more in the county, indicates that there is keen interest in the coming election, especially in the national and State ticket.

Both parties are claiming the good omen of this registration, but, of course, the count of the ballots only will determine which side is right in their claims.

The increasing interest in political affairs should be taken as a good omen for the welfare of our land, as the selfish and baser sort of politics is always represented at the polls, and it is surely true that much of our political disorder can be charged to the lack of interest of our otherwise well disposed citizens.

Can it be that we are at the dawn of a new day in these matters?

Tuberculosis Exhibit.

The moving picture feature of the tuberculosis exhibit, is, we feel, the forerunner of the use of this very practical means of conveying knowledge. It will, no doubt, add considerable interest to the exhibit as well as add greatly to its instructive features.
Westfield is indebted to the State Board of Health as well as to our local Board of Health for the valuable instruction on this subject, and we trust that our people will be alert to their opportunity, and attend the exhibit in large numbers. Study this subject as it is, an opportunity that should not be allowed to go by unused.

That Elusive Balance.

Economy and efficiency have ceased to be an issue with the Democratic party, as it was in their previous campaign. They claim that the condition of the State finances is not an issue, that nothing has happened in this department of our State to warrant an issue.

The Governor in his recent tour of the county almost forgot to say anything about finances. He did, however, allude to them in the last speech of his tour in Plainfield, when he said that Assembly candidate Pierson was using figures for which he had no justification; that there never was a balance of anything like two and one half million dollars in the State treasury. The Governor very kindly invited his audience to challenge anyone who stated that there had been a two and one half million dollars free treasury balance to prove their case. We thank the Governor for this opportunity, and will not wait for a direct request for proof, but quote a clause of the Democratic platform of 1911, adopted at a convention of which the Governor was a member:

"A CONSERVATIVE ESTIMATE
WILL SHOW THAT ON OCT. 31, 1911, THE END OF THE STATE'S FISCAL YEAR, THERE WILL BE IN THE STATE TREASURY A FREE BALANCE OF AT LEAST TWO MILLION FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, A BAL-ANCE NEVER EQUALLED UNDER REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION."

We submit that the Governor can hardly evade the conclusion that either his statement in Plainfield or his party platform is not according to facts, and conse-

EXECUTOR

ADMINISTRATOR

The Westfield Trust Co.

Bank Square

Fathers---Mothers

This is the age of young men. In business, in the professions, in every activity—young men are forging to the head. Unless you wish to handicap your son in the race for success you will teach him to save money and to open a bank account today.
It teaches business and money handling. Won't you help your boy to open a bank account?

ASSETS OVER $1,000,000.00

TRUSTEE

GUARDIAN

quently must be only campaign talk.

It is disappointing that the Governor did not favor us with a justification for the attempted grab made by his last legislature at our school moneys. However, we understand the Governor is contemplating another tour of the county, and we would invite his reply at that time, as this is a matter of very vital interest to the people of Union county.

The Tariff The Issue.

From campaign literature and orations, it is clear to see that the tariff is the issue which the Republican party is presenting to the voters in this fall's campaign.
The Democratic orators seem to be as insistent that the issue is anything and everything but the tariff. They are trying to make President Wilson and his administration the issue, but it seems quite clear that business conditions and the ever increasing number of unemployed will, after all, make the tariff the crux of the campaign, and the next Congressman will win on this issue.

Made in America.

Made in America, in the light of the present business and industrial conditions, has a new and very real meaning to those who are affected adversely by the new tariff. It is only another way of expressing Abraham Lincoln's famous protective tariff speech. Mr. Lincoln said that "When we purchase goods made abroad we get the goods but the other fellow gets the money. When we purchase goods made at home, we get both the goods and the money." What more eloquent or convincing campaign speech could be made for our present campaign?

Should Not Forget.

Americans must not forget that the present war will be over some time. In the adjustments of the relations of the nations to each other what is said and done now by each will not be forgotten. The United States will be held accountable for any unfair attitude; any prejudiced and unsympathetic opinions made against the nations involved.

Possibly there has been no other nation that has been a better customer of this country than Germany. Very satisfactory trade relations have existed between the two nations for many decades. In many other ways there have been very intimate relationships established between the two countries. This country has been a beneficiary of German science and culture. This country has opened its doors very wide to German immigration.
The Teuton has added much substance and integrity to American citizenship.

Yet there is now a very determined anti-German sentiment in this country. Much of it is inexcusable and unfounded.
Some of the criticism of Germany is so harsh as to be offensive. It will all be recalled when the nations are again at peace. It will sink deep at this time when nerves are so strained and sore, into the conscience of the German people.

It will hardly do to offend the best customer this country has had by ill-advised and arrogant criticism. It will hardly do to wound too deeply the feelings of a good friend of the United States by any schemes of grabbing German trade with other nations.
This is a time for neutrality, in spirit and in action. Our relations to all the nations should be open, prudent, fair and judicious.
It is not yet time for final ions. It is not yet a time for condemnations, until there is a better opportunity afforded for knowing the truth. Let us keep faith with the nations until it is proved that they do not deserve our confidence.

—Elizabeth Journal.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

Congregational Church.

Tonight there will be a song recital in the Parish House by Mrs. Elizabeth Clements, "An Evening of Child Life in Song."
Sunday morning services at 10:30.
Dr. Samuel L. Loomis will preach.
Topic "The Gospel of a Sound Body."
This discourse has in view the proposed exhibit of the Board of Health.
Sunday School at the usual hour.
Mid-week meeting Wednesday at 8 o'clock. Preparatory lecture by Rev.
R. H. Middelditch.
Friday at 7:30 Junior Boys Brigade in gymnasium.
Friday at 8:00 Parent-Teachers meeting in Parish House. Miss Jessie M.
Fowler will give an illustrated lecture entitled "The Mind of the Child."

First Baptist Church.

Rev. Chas. T. Snow, Acting Pastor.
Sunday Services.
Worship and Sermon, morning at 10:30 and evening at 7:45.
Sunday school at noon.
Meeting of Young People's Society in the evening at 6:45.
Prayer and Conference meeting of the church, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.
The Woman's Missionary Society and the Young People's Society hold a Harvest Home Social in the church Friday evening, to which all are cordially invited.

First M. E. Church.

10:30 a. m., Morning worship and sermon.
12:00 m., Sunday School. Men's Forum.
3:30 p. m., Gospel Team prayer meeting for men.
6:20 p. m., Boys' League.
7:00 p. m., Epworth League.
7:30 p. m., Organ Prelude.
7:45 p. m., Evening Worship and Sermon.
Mid-week service in the chapel Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.
Class meeting in the Pastor's Study on Friday evening. Leader, Mr. J.
F. Johnston.
G. Franklin Ream, Pastor.

Presbyterian Church.

Sunday services in the morning at 10:30, the pastor will be in charge.
Evening worship at 8 o'clock. Special music by the choir.
Young peoples' devotional meeting in the Parish House at 7 o'clock.
The regular weekly drill of the Boys' Brigade in the Parish House Monday evening.
Regular midweek devotional meeting Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.
Rev. W. I. Stearns, Pastor.

St. Paul's Church.

Holy communion at 7:30 A. M.
Morning prayer and sermon at 11
A. M.
Sunday School at 9:45.
Evening service at 4 o'clock.
Rev. James A. Smith, Rector

An automobile owned and driven by A. Rosenthal, of Plainfield, and an auto truck, owned by the Flint Furniture Company, of New York, collided on South avenue, Monday night and as a result both the auto truck and car were damaged and Mrs. Rosenthal, who riding with her husband had her leg injured.

Arthur N. Pierson, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Pierson, of Euclid avenue, who has been attending the Kingsley School at Essex Falls, this year had the misfortune to break one of his legs while playing on the football team of the Freshman class last Saturday. Arthur was brought to his home on Sunday where he will be confined for some time as a result of the accident.

No Man Infallible.

To conduct great matters and never commit a fault is above the force of human nature.—Plutarch.

Is Your Business Good?

And are you able to keep your income up to the normal, or nearly so? When men meet with business reverses, lose their positions, or are reduced in income the problems are often very hard to face.

How much harder is it for a family to get along without its head and be compelled to forego all income except that produced by money already saved.

Are you the income producer in your family?
Have you prepared for the great emergency?

Life Insurance Agency of W. Edgar Reeve

TELEPHONE 58-SECTOR 115 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

THE NATIONAL BANK OF WESTFIELD

POST OFFICE BUILDING

To those desiring to change or make new banking connections we offer the services of this conveniently located and progressively managed institution, affording intimate relations between patrons and management.

Special Service for the New and Small Depositor

Our Show Rooms

is filled with hundreds of the most artistic designed wall covering. You can spend an afternoon with great pleasure just looking over our up to date line. We have always made interior decorating our specialty. We have pleased many and we are confident that we can please you.

WELCH BROS., Inc.

ESTABLISHED 1808

The Oldest and Largest Painting and Decorating Concern in Westfield.

214 East Broad Street.

Tel. 168

We have the following amounts to loan on first mortgage:

$1500

$1000

$1000

M. R. & I. CO.

S. S. CLARK, Jr., Secretary

7 PROSPECT STREET

Telephone 700

Bread

HOT, if you get it in the afternoon

Fresh Pumpkin and Mince Pies

Rolls, Cakes, Buns, Pies

The best Coffee Cake in the country

The American Bakery

117 Broad Street, Westfield, N. J.

"SAFETY FIRST"

Vote The Republican Ticket

Residents of Westfield

Is there not a decided advantage to you in having your Savings Account in this strong local National Bank, where your funds are immediately available and the most of whose directors, living in Westfield, you know personally and meet daily.

The Peoples National Bank
WESTFIELD
Corner Broad and Prospect Streets
The MILLION DOLLAR BANK

Lumber and Mill Work

Sash, Doors, Builders' Supplies, Masons' Materials

COAL

Lay in your supply now before cold weather sets in Tuttle Bros.

Tel. 414 OFFICE: Westfield Ave. and Spring St.

Personal Paragraphs and Newsy Gleanings

Rev. N. W. Cadwell, of Atlantic City, has been visiting friends in town this week.

R. V. Hoffman, of Summit, is on a business trip in the New England states.

Alfred E. Pearsall will go to his winter bungalow in Melrose, Fla., on October 27.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. French, of Stoneleigh Park, have returned from a visit in New York state.

Star of Westfield Council, Daughters of America, will hold a dance in Arcanum hall tonight.

Miss Florence Howarth, of Mountain avenue, is spending the week in Newark with friends.

A young daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Price, of Park street, on Wednesday.

Thos. E. Clements and family, of Rahway avenue, will move to Brooklyn the early part of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Conover have returned from their wedding trip and are now residing in Plainfield.

Mrs. James Nixon, of Washington, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Hutchings, of Broad street.

Mr. and Mrs. Southwick, of Brooklyn, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Price, of Cumberland street.

Miss Elizabeth Beebe, of Dudley avenue, has resumed her classes in English Literature and spends Tuesday mornings with the poets.

An autumn luncheon was served in the parish house of the Congregational church yesterday afternoon by a number of the ladies of the church.

The Harvest Home Social of the Ladies' Missionary and Young Peoples Society of the Baptist church will be held in the church parlors tonight.

The management of the Children's Country Home has received a donation of $22.40 from the Sunshine Chapter, Flossie Fisher Club of Mountainside.

The Men's Club of St. Pauls church held a meeting in the parish house on Wednesday night. After the business meeting refreshments were served.

Mrs. George H. Gabler, a former resident of this town, but now of Sarnia, Ontario, is spending a few days at the home of Postmaster A. K. Gale, on South avenue.

The engagement of Miss Lottie Rosalind Beaumont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Beaumont, of North avenue, and Maurice Elmer Affleck has been announced.

George E. Valentine, has taken a position in the local post office as mailing clerk, succeeding Arnold Finkle, who was killed in a motorcycle accident last week.

The Kate Greenaway, at 180 West Broad street, has proved to be a great asset to Westfield. Excellent lunches and teas are served every day. Everyone should take the time to look into this attractive dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Whitehead, of Central avenue, will leave on Tuesday for their winter home in Melrose, Fla.

William F. Howarth, of Mountain avenue, has been confined to his home this week with an attack of tonsillitis.

Fire Chief F. C. Decker is attending the Fire Chief's convention which is being held in New Orleans this week.

The ladies of the Mountainside chapel will hold a chicken supper in the chapel on Tuesday evening of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. James McNeil, of New York, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. James Fogarty of Prospect street.

Miss Katherine Page, daughter of the American Ambassador to England, has been visiting her cousin, Miss Helen Underwood.

Miss Hazel Chamberlin, of Lenox avenue, has been spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Marion Miller, in Plainfield, this week.

The wedding of Miss Margery Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Wilfred Johnson, of 224 Rose place and Charles Cummings, will take place in the Congregational church tomorrow night.

The wedding of Miss Marguerite Ditzel, daughter of Mrs. F. Ditzel, of North avenue and Arthur A. Hensel, of the Boulevard will take place at the home of the bride's mother tomorrow night.

At the meeting of the Union County Sunday School Association, held last Thursday at the Greystone Presbyterian church, in Elizabeth, Rev. M. L. Stimson of this town was elected president and Walter M. Irving was made a member of the nomination and finance committees.

The twenty-ninth annual convention of the Elizabeth District of the Epworth League is being held in the First Methodist church to-day. There are three sessions. At the session to-night an address will be made by Rev. Ernest D. Caldwell, D. D., of Foochow, China.

The Women's Club will meet in the Presbyterian Parish House at three o'clock on Monday afternoon, October 26th. A lecture on "The Vikings and Anglo-Saxons" will be given by Mr. J. Herbert Low, of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences. Miss Helen Scholder will render selections on the violin and cello. This lecture will be open to the public for payment of a small admission fee.

Ask Me ABOUT SHIRTS

50c to $3.00

That's All for this Week

GORDON

53 ELM STREET

OPEN EVENINGS

FOOT COMFORT

Foot Comfort is remembered long after the price is forgotten. The shoes that we are showing for Fall will leave pleasant recollections in your memory.

You cannot find more real shoe satisfaction for the money.

And the style is always right. The makers see to that and we fit your foot correctly.

ERNEST T. HAND

S. E. FIELDS, Manager

REPAIRING

Telephone 75-J

109 BROAD ST.

PHOENIX STORES CO.

You should visit our delicatessen department. Imported and Domestic cold cooked meats. Also cheese—both Domestic and Imported.

A Westfield Institution. Phone 850

It is Easier to Talk
Than to Walk

Phone Your Orders

Here we are ready to serve you at any time, ready to supply you with very best grades of medicines or drug store goods, ready to serve you in an absolutely satisfactory manner, ready to save you money, time, travel, bother.

COUGHS

A COUGH—What it may lead to
A cough can readily, quickly, lead to most serious results. Then why give a cough opportunity to cause serious trouble? True, a cough is not easily avoided, but CASEY'S BRONCHINE will head it off and give relief from present distress, as well as prevent a cough from affecting the lungs. As a remedy for coughs, colds, hoarseness, bronchitis, throat and lung troubles this cough remedy is certainly superior. We believe it valuable, and recommend it accordingly—25c

CIGAR SPECIALS

Edwins Cigars are very fine—none better at any price

Two for the price of one

EDWIN SENIORS

Cut to 3 Cents

We are proud to recommend them. Smoke one, with us.

M. R. EDWIN

5c PANATELAS

CUT TO

2 FOR 5c

Warranted Havana Filled

COUPON—With this Coupon We will sell you Candy Specials

20c ASSORTED FRUIT TABLETS.....15c lb
15c PEANUT BUTTER STRINGS.....10c lb
20c AFTER DINNER MINTS.....15c lb
20c JELLY GUM DROPS.....15c lb
20c ROCK CANDY.....15c lb
20c HOREHOUND TABLETS.....15c lb

SATURDAY SPECIAL—Imperial Just to Get Acquainted.....5c
The Standard 15c Cigar of America

JAMES G. CASEY

Broad and Prospect Sts.

Westfield, N. J.

PARENT-TEACHERS ASSN HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The Parent-Teacher Association of the McKinley school held its first meeting of the season in the assembly room of that school building yesterday afternoon with an attendance of about forty members. The new president of the association, Mrs. A. A. King, presided. It was decided to hold a cake sale in November. At the next meeting it was decided to have a question box at which the members will be given the privilege of putting questions in a box and they will be read at the meeting and discussed by the members.

One of the pleasant features of the meeting was an address made by Acting Supervising Principal Linn, who spoke on "The Relation of the Parent to the Schools." Mr. Linn divided his subject into three parts: the Parents, the Teachers and the Schools. In speaking of the parents he said that there was need of co-operation in habit formation, neatness and the use of English. The children are with the teachers only a few hours each day and the school hopes to lay a foundation and the home must build upon it. Spirit of co-operation is needed. An attempt should be made to understand the purposes and aims of the schools. In the second division of his subject he contrasted the old training with the new. He said that educational experts are trained especially for the work. Training is becoming better all the time. There are different phases of education—teaching, administration and supervision. Teaching is the greatest work because it touches children in numerous ways; humblest, also, because the school serves the community. The last division of Mr. Linn's subject was the schools. He said that the emphasis should be put on their present usefulness and they should not be considered simply college preparatory.

Mr. Linn closed his address with an explanation of New Jersey's School System. Mr. Linn's address was highly appreciated by the members of the association.

A number of the members of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Grant School were present.

FIRESIDE COUNCIL CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Largest Meeting of Year Entertained by Smoker and Long List of Sports

If the members who failed to come around to the smoker last night will inquire of some of the seventy-five who were there what was doing they will turn over a new leaf and be sure to remember that the Royal Arcanum meets the Second and Fourth Thursdays of each month.

The Orator was gratified to have the pleasure of entertaining the largest meeting of the year. After the usual business meeting Supervising Deputy Ward, spoke to the members about the big meeting in Elizabeth on November 16, when Supreme Regent Wickersham will visit a Union meeting. Fireside Council should attend at least 200 strong. It is the Big Night of the year in Arcanum Circles.

Then the fun commenced. A drawing was held for a pair of Bantams and Mr. Geo. Crutenden was the lucky man on the 32nd drawing with No. 48.

Mr. Will Lyle, then gave the boys a half hour of lively minstrel work that all enjoyed. It was hard to choose between his songs, his stories and his banjo playing, as to which was enjoyed the most for it was all good.

Then Brothers Balsh and Hoplan entertained with piano duets that were very enjoyable and they certainly received hearty applause for their efforts.

Refreshments were then served consisting of Pumpkin Pie, home-made doughnuts and elder also pipes and tobacco, after which the baseball game was started. Capt. Hall was out for revenge but Capt. Hanford refused to get licked again so Capt. Cosgrove led his white Sox on the field. After a stiff 7 inning game, Capt. Cosgrove's white Sox won out 7 to 6. Game was called on account of the balls all being used up and also the players.

As the clock struck mid-night the members left for home.

On November 12, Fireside Council will have their Ladies Night. Every member knows that the Ladies will get a royal reception and that the entertainment will be good. Mr. Leslie J. Bossin will be the principal entertainer, and all who are acquainted with the personality and ability of this gentleman know he is worth going miles to hear. Fireside will be prepared to care for a record crowd.

THE KATE GREENAWAY

130 WEST BROAD STREET

One of our Maids' Day Out Dinners
Thursdays and Fridays, 6 to 7.30 P. M.

DINNER

Kate Greenaway Relish .15	Tomato Soup .10
Venel Oysters .20
Candied Sweet Potatoes .10	Creamed Potatoes .10
Spinach .05	Cauliflower Salad .10
Ice Cream .10	Pie .05
	Layer Cake .10
Cup Cake .05	Coffee .05

PRINTING of the BETTER KIND
THE STANDARD PRESS

ARE YOU READING
The Trey O' Hearts

SPORTS

Golf. Basketball. Football. Bowling.

WESTFIELD TO HAVE REAL FOOTBALL TEAM

The Knickerbocker football eleven has been organized in this town and is composed of some of the best players of the High School for the past three years. It is the intention of the eleven to play all home games and arrangements are being made to play such elevens as the Rutgers Freshmen and scrubs; Holy Cross of Plainfield; Peddie Institute and other crack elevens. The first game will be played tomorrow and it is expected that the Rutgers Freshmen will be the attraction. Roy Marsh is captain and Norman Smith manager. The members of the eleven consist of Reginald Ralli, George Elliott, Harold Cowperthwait, Douglas Glass, Raymond Tice, Stewart Saunders, Harry Randall, Fred Hohenstein, Richard Brower, Roy Marsh, Norman Smith, William Cherry and Raymond Miller.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL ELEVEN DISQUALIFIED

The members of the Westfield high school football team are up in arms over the fact that the Health Committee of the Board of Education has decreed that there shall be no more high school games this season and that if the team plays it will be under another name and not as a high school. This came about when the Health Committee held a meeting on Saturday night, October 10th, and it was ruled that two students who were scheduled to play on the high school team were not bona fide pupils of the school and were disqualified pending the result of their October work. On October 12th one of these pupils, who had been disqualified by the Health Committee, played in the last half of the game of the local high school with Plainfield high school. In view of the direct violation of instructions it was deemed necessary by the Health Committee to withdraw the authority of the high school eleven from playing under the high school name. The Health Committee did not make known its purposes to the members of the team until Tuesday when Acting Supervisor Linn, of the schools, read the letter of the Health Committee to them. As a result the members of the high school eleven and its followers are very much incensed and say that they will play the rest of the games scheduled under the name of "Outcasts." While the members of the eleven have not as yet given their side of the matter, it is said that the coach of the team told the pupils who played in the last half of the game with Plainfield not to go into the game with a uniform of the H. S. on as it was against the rules. The Health Committee it is said has given orders to have all games canceled but the manager of the football team has sent word to all the teams with which they have games that they will play them but as "Outcasts" from the high school. While the pupils of the high school are keenly disappointed by the action of the Board of Education, they realize that the Health Committee acted within its rights in upholding the rules of the school and rules which every member of the high school knew.

Stacey Bender Defeats F. M. Hegeman.

Those competing in the consolation sixteen for the G. C. Abernethy cup played better golf than those competing for the Dr. R. R. Sinclair cup and the first round was completed on Saturday. The surprise of this round was the defeat of F. M. Hegeman by Stacey Bender. Hegeman thought it would be a cinch to defeat his opponent but Bender played him to a tie at the seventh hole. The eighteenth is one of 400 yards and Bender performed a feat rarely done by making this distance in 3 shots and defeated Hegeman 1 up. On Monday R. E. Ferry and W. J. Willoughby started their match which ended in a tie at 18 holes and as Willoughby had to leave town on a business trip he could not complete the play and defaulted to Perry on the final day. The results of this round follows: S. Bender defeated F. M. Hegeman, 1 up. H. R. Ferris defeated A. J. Nichols, 1 up. R. E. Perry defeated W. H. Willoughby by default and tying at 18 holes. W. E. Brown defeated A. R. Whitman, 3 up and 2. G. H. Miller defeated E. Alpers, 2 up. R. H. Aronson defeated C. S. Hinckman, 5 up and 3. R. L. McIntosh defeated W. H. Stover by default. H. Smith, defeated W. R. Gomes by default.

PARKER'S HAIR BALM
A toilet preparation of merit, giving to the hair a soft, healthy and shining texture.
For Restoring Color and Beauty to Gray or Faded Hair.
Sold Everywhere.
Bottle, 25c. Jar, 50c.

FRATERNAL BOWLING LEAGUE

—STANDING OF THE TEAMS—
	W.	L.	H.S.
Red Men	9	0	878
Royal Arcanum	7	2	951
Woodmen	7	2	902
Loyals	3	6	760
Juniors	1	8	702
Immediate Aid	0	9	809

S. S. A. C. BOWLING LEAGUE

—STANDING OF THE TEAMS—
	W.	L.	H.S.
Congregational	5	1	851
Episcopal	3	0	776
Baptist	3	3	872
Methodist	1	2	823
Trinity	0	3	730
Presbyterian	0	3	711

RED MEN DEFEAT LOYAL ASSOCIATION

The Red Men and Loyal Association teams of the Fraternal Bowling League rolled three games on the Westfield Theatre alleys last night and the Indians were the winners of all three. It was a walk away for the Red Men and they gave no chance of a look in for any of the games to Loyals. In the first games Gripp of the Red Men posted 223 while Butler of the Loyals posted 204 in the same game. In the last game Wittke of the same team posted 209. O'Kane of the Red Men posted 204 in the second game. The scores:

RED MEN.
Gripp	223	176
O'Kane	160	204
McKelvey	136	149
Fiehl	158	155
Stegemeier	164	146
	841	830

LOYAL ASSOCIATION.
Butler	204	171
Clark	139	115
Wittke	178	148
Egan	131	134
Ortleb	146	171
Hohenstein	122	122
	798	727

Woodmen Take Three From Immediate Aid.

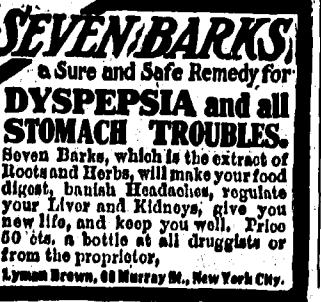

The woodmen of the World and the Immediate Aid teams of the Fraternal Bowling League were the attraction on the alleys of the Westfield Theatre on Tuesday night and the Woodmen had the better of the argument winning all three games. Grey of the Immediate Aid team posted 200 in the first game which was the only two hundred score made during the games. Beaman was near the mark with 195. The scores:

WOODMEN.
Miller	160	163
Koons	147	140
Brown	170	112
Beaman	195	143
Radin	189	186
	844	744

IMMEDIATE AID.
Miller	132	146
French	161	130
Grey	200	143
Hahn	139	132
Powles	177	164
	809	715

GOLF NOTES.

At the Westfield Golf Club last Saturday the first round for the Sinclair cup was played and several of the good players were eliminated. The results were as follows: C. Clark defeated T. H. Ludwig, 1 up. F. Slater defeated S. Armstrong, 1 up. M. Yamawaki defeated J. M. Cunningham, 0 up and 5. G. J. Morgan defeated O. Knight, 2 up. D. Smyth defeated C. P. West, 5 up and 4. R. S. Gales defeated W. B. Mehl, 3 up and 2. W. A. Gardner defeated F. White, by default. A. E. Mottlach defeated W. R. Morrison, by default.

SEVEN BARKS
A Sure and Safe Remedy for DYSPEPSIA and all STOMACH TROUBLES.
Seven Barks, which is the extract of Roots and Herbs, will make your food digest, banish Headaches, regulate your Liver and Kidneys, give you new life, and keep you well. Price 50 cts. a bottle at all druggists or from the proprietor,
Lyman Brown, 68 Murray St., New York City.

CONGREGATIONAL TEAM INCREASES ITS LEAD

The Congregational team of the Sunday School Athletic League increased its lead in the bowling tournament last night when it defeated the Baptist team two out of three games. The Congregationals won the first and third games while the Baptist took the sandwich. In the last game the Baptist lost out by fifteen pins. Only one two hundred score was made and that was posted by Mann of the Congregational team in the second game. The scores:

CONGREGATIONAL.
Kimball	186	159
Mann	132	200
Cowperthwaite	156	158
Smith	146	141
Kennedy	159	101
	779	759

BAPTIST.
Shotwell	165	192
Venn	101	163
Dempsey	167	148
Glimore	166	178
Worth	162	191
	761	872

EPISCOPALS WIN FROM PRESBYTERIANS.

The Presbyterian and Episcopal Bowling teams of the Sunday School Athletic League tried conclusions against each other for the first time on the Playhouse alleys Tuesday night and the Episcopalian bowlers proved to be the best pin hitters as they defeated their opponents three straight games. While no high team scores were posted Meyer of the Episcopal team hung up 204 in the second game which was the only double century score made by any member of either team. The scores:

EPISCOPAL.
Keyes	142	131
Sinclair	144	150
Moody	132	143
Delatour	139	144
Meyer	145	204
	702	772

PRESBYTERIAN.
Stevens	135	103
Dushanek	139	138
A. Clark	135	124
L. Clark	135	154
Wittke	139	171
	681	695

TERRACE PARK BOWLERS.

The Terrace Park Bowlers met on the Playhouse alleys again on Wednesday night and after doing some practice work divided in to two teams of six men each and rolled three games. While no two hundred scores were posted by any member of either team some good scores were hung up. Team B proved to be the winner of all three games. The scores:

TEAM B.
Cornell	164	175
Weed	156	153
Reed	134	142
Curran	112	134
Ryer	159	150
Scheffer	145	160
	870	926

TEAM A.
Egan	169	142
Sweet	138	144
Leonard	136	110
Dunn	140	130
Johnston	120	107
Merry	158	139
	861	772

JUNIORS ARE EASY FOR THE ARCANUM

The Royal Arcanum and Jr. O. U. A. M., teams of the Fraternal Bowling League tried conclusions on the Westfield Theatre alleys on Monday night and the Arcanumites were too much for the Juniors who never had a look in for any of the three games rolled. In the second game the Arcanumites went crazy and were hitting the pins at a lively clip and posted a score of 951. In this game Montross was the star hanging up a score of 222. The scores:

ARCANUM.
Tobin	141	190
Montross	184	222
Westenberg	146	107
Forster	154	100
Embling	160	181
Wilson	101	100
	741	951

JUNIORS.
Fink	121	123
Doming	138	125
Wintor	138	121
Olivo	84	100
Allen	156	155
M. Howarth	144	137
	625	602

LAY CORNER-STONE

(Continued from Page 1.)

1750 to our present system that ranks with any in the state. It is cause for congratulation to every man, woman and child in our town that these additional facilities are being provided for higher and further education of our children which will aid in the bettering of conditions and the advancement of civilization.

In these days of depression there are two factors that stand out in sharp contrast. They are optimism and pessimism. Optimism is not afraid. It forges ahead and accomplishes while pessimism bolts, waivers and loses ground.

Westfield is signally fortunate that the men who plan for the instruction and welfare for her boys and girls are optimists, men who construct and who are not afraid to do that which they think is for the best interest of their town. And in recognition of their labor and unselfishness, because this service is freely given without money and without price, and to show our appreciation we should be loyal to them. My friends it is easy to criticize and find fault but it is not easy to do what these men are doing for their town. And because of the influence for good their work has had and will have upon the lives and future of the children, your Board of Education is entitled to your support, and with the Board should be included the long roster of those who have served the town faithfully and well in this capacity, for our present splendid system of schools was not attained except by years of hard unceasing, unremitting labor. I hold that these men have attained success in the highest and truest sense because they have given the best that is in them to the service and for the benefit of others. And because of these things their names should always be remembered with respect and esteem and accorded the high honor and appreciation that is their due.

At the close of the Mayor's address the stone was set in place by President of the Board of Education W. A. Dempsey assisted by Mayor Evans. The container which held a roster of all the grades of the schools, documents of the various organizations of the town, and copies of the local newspapers was put in the stone. The school then sang "America" and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. L. D. Caulkins.

Architect H. C. Pelton, who designed the school was not present but was represented at the cornerstone laying by his clerk, Mr. Thompson, who spread the mortar under the stone.

THESE HOT DAYS.

"It may be so, but I don't see how it can ever be."
"What is it?"
"My nephew says that the reason we feel so exhausted these hot days is because of the humor in the atmosphere."

The Goller.
He couldn't beat a carpet.
He was feeble, was poor Jinks;
And that is why you'll always see Him golfing on the links.

Not Impatient.
"Did it ever occur to you that it would be a good idea for you to study Spanish?"
"No," replied the official; "I prefer to depend on the services of a translator. There's no use of increasing facilities for the communication of unpleasant news."

Got the Duke Excited.
"Now, duke, I am going to entrust you with something very precious."
"Yes, yes."
"That is to say, my daughter."
"Confusion!" hissed the duke. "I thought you were going to turn over ze stocks and bonds."

Family Traits.
"What a long and enlightening lecture your daughter gave at the graduation exercises."
"Yes," replied Mr. Meekton. "It's the first time I ever realized how much that girl takes after her mother."

Great Relief to Him.
"The two-dish dinner seems destined to become popular."
"It's going to be extremely popular with the man who never knows which fork to use at a seven-course dinner."

A Timid Traveler.
"Mrs. Twobble got hardly any sleep on her recent trip across the Atlantic."
"What was the matter?"
"She sat up every night for fear the ship would hit an iceberg."

WESTFIELD THEATRE

Friday, October 30th

"THE CHRISTIAN"

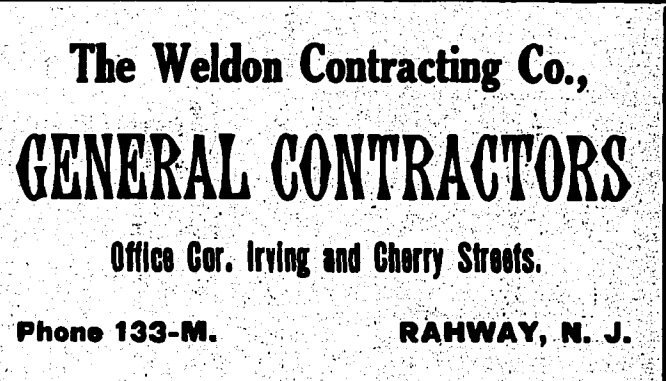

BY HALL CAINE

IN EIGHT REELS

Featuring EARLE WILLIAMS and EDITH STORY

Matinee at 3 o'clock
Evening at 7.15 sharp

Children, 10c; Adults, 15c
Children, 15c; Adults, 25c

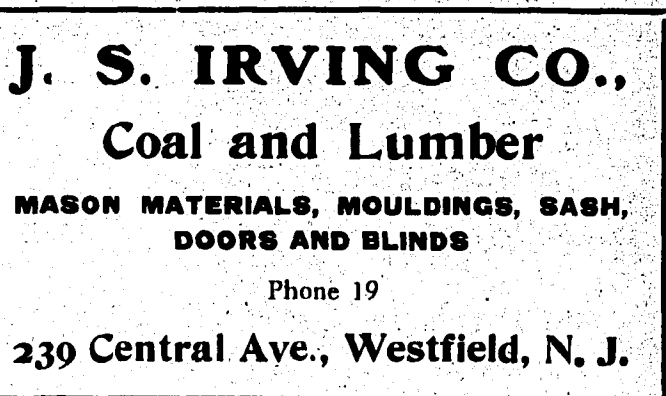

The Weldon Contracting Co.,

GENERAL CONTRACTORS

Office Cor. Irving and Cherry Streets.

Phone 133-M. RAHWAY, N. J.

J. S. IRVING CO.,

Coal and Lumber

MASON MATERIALS, MOULDINGS, SASH, DOORS AND BLINDS

Phone 19

239 Central Ave., Westfield, N. J.

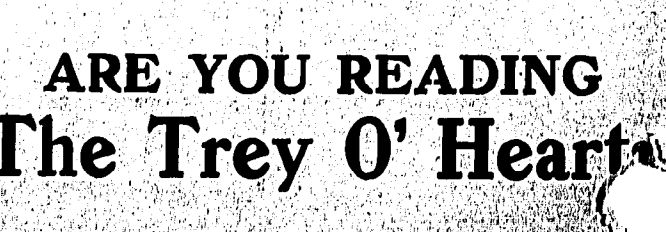

Paved With Satisfaction

every foot of the way is when you are taking a drive in a rig from Barton's. Our carriages are comfortable and our horses well groomed and well fed, and it lays with the driver to use him well and he will serve him well when he takes him from BARTON'S stable.

Wm. H. Barton,

Livery and Boarding Stables
OPPOSITE DEPOT, Westfield, N. J.

ARE YOU READING

The Trey O' Heart

ELIZABETH TO CELEBRATE 250TH ANNIVERSARY

Elizabeth will celebrate next week in appropriate ways the 250th anniversary of its settlement. Broad street and other business centres, as well as residential districts, are gaily dressed in flags and bunting, and everything will be in readiness when, at twenty minutes after six o'clock next Sunday morning, the bells of the many churches will help the sun usher in the first day of ceremonies. All the churches will hold religious and patriotic services during the morning, and in the afternoon Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, will address an open-air mass meeting in Union Square, where the Minute Man's Statue looks out upon the spot where the sturdy men of Elizabethtown skirmished with Hessians in Revolutionary days.

Especially will the First Presbyterian Church observe this day, for this congregation dates its origin to the first year of settlement. So President Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia University, descendant of Nicholas Murray, an Elizabethan, and President John Grier Hibben, of Princeton University, will be speakers at the two services in the "Old First"—for it was in Elizabeth that the Rev. Jonathan Dickinson obtained, in 1746, a charter for the "College of New Jersey," out of which grew Princeton University.

There will be no formal exercises on Monday, but on Tuesday morning at half past 10 o'clock Councilman Edward Nugent will call to order a civic meeting and exercise in the "Old First" church over which William J. Magie, formerly Chancellor of New Jersey, will preside, and at which Governor James F. Fielder will respond to a welcome extended by the Mayor, Dr. Victor Moravlag, Justice Francis J. Swayze, president of the New Jersey Historical Society, and Dean William J. Magie, Jr., of Princeton University, will also speak. A public reception to Governor Fielder and others in the rotunda of the Union County courthouse will follow, and then a luncheon to distinguished guests, including representatives of patriotic and hereditary societies, given in Carteret Arms, one of the many historic mansions of the city.

Following this gathering, the Society of Colonial Wars will unveil, at 3 o'clock, a commemorative tablet on St. John's Episcopal Church. And to this service will come a procession of school children, completing a sentiment pilgrimage during which wreaths of bay leaves will be placed at monuments, cannon and historic tablets in various parts of the city. Band concerts in the evening will conclude the day's exercises.

Such a celebration would be incomplete without recalling coherently some of the chief events in the history of Elizabeth. So, on Wednesday, October 28, the "Pageant of Elizabeth" is to be given, afternoon and evening, in the Second Regiment Armory. The various episodes, in which several hundred persons will participate, will depict, with proper costume and setting, the life of the Indians, the coming of the settlers, colonial and revolutionary days, life in the early part of the last century, civil war times and the coming of the industries which have helped develop Elizabeth into the manufacturing centre of to-day. Miss Mary Porter Beagle, of Barnard College, assisted by the Rev. J. H. M. Dudley, pastor of the First Congregational Church, will direct the pageant.

An elaborate display of fireworks will also be given on Wednesday evening and will close the celebration.

His Sentence.

"I knowed how things 'ud turn out ef he kept on foolin' wid politics," said the old darkey, "an' now I ain't a bit surprised. Day done took an' sent him ter de legislature, an' he sho' hez got ter sarve his time out."

NOTHING BETTER FOR WEAK WOMEN

"I Never Spent Any Money
That Did Me So Much Good as That I Spent for Vinol."

Bellefontaine, Ohio.—"I wish every tired, weak, nervous woman could have Vinol for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good as that I spent for Vinol. My nerves were in a very bad condition, making me very weak, tired, and worn out and often drowsy headaches. I had tried cod liver oil, doctor's medicines, and other preparations without benefit.

"One day a friend asked me to try Vinol. I did and soon my appetite increased, I slept better and now I am strong, vigorous and well and can do my housework with pleasure."—Mrs. J. F. LAMBORN, Bellefontaine, Ohio.

Nervous, weak, tired, worn-out women should take Mrs. Lamborn's advice and try Vinol for there are literally thousands of men and women who were formerly run-down, weak and nervous, who owe their good health to Vinol.

It is the medicinal, tissue building elements of the cod's livers, aided by the blood making, strengthening influence of tonic iron, contained in Vinol, which makes it so efficient in all such cases.

FRUTCHRY PHARMACY CO.,
WESTFIELD, N. J.

Double Surety Coupons
With All Purchases
All Day Monday

HAHNE & CO.

NEWARK

Double Surety Coupons
With All Purchases
All Day Monday

Beginning Monday, October 26, We Shall Sell O'Neill-Adams Company's Tremendous Stocks at About Half-Price

In Accordance With the Terms of an Order of the United States District Court the Business of O'Neill-Adams Co. Is Now Being Liquidated

A Gigantic Sale of Merchandise at Unheard-of Low Prices

---For close upon half a century the O'Neill-Adams Company, of New York, ranked as one of the most important of all New York department stores. An institution that occupied two entire blocks on Sixth Avenue---two mammoth buildings which housed one of the largest retail stocks in the country.

The old famous Sixth Avenue retail stands are now practically extinct. The shopping district has moved uptown, keeping pace with the trend of the times.

---To dwell on the character of the O'Neill-Adams Company's immense stocks is not necessary---their stocks were known far and wide.

---Hahne & Company---"New Jersey's Greatest Store"---was most fortunate in securing these great stocks at tremendous concessions from ordinary figures. These great stocks (one department excepted) we place on sale Monday at prices averaging, and in most instances

At Half Former O'Neill-Adams Prices

Hahne & Company--New Jersey's Greatest Store--Sell O'Neill-Adams Co.'s Mammoth Stocks at Nearly Half Price

The Biggest and Most Remarkable Sale New Jersey Has Ever Seen

—A stupendous merchandising achievement—the greatest in the history of retail mercantile business, to our best knowledge. Few stores would even consider a purchase of so great magnitude. For here's what we have done—we've purchased the huge Dry Goods stocks from the O'Neill-Adams Company—one department only excluded. And this immense purchase, without any undue exaggeration, is the most sensational stroke of enterprise in the history of the retail dry goods business. The prices are truly startling—the savings even beyond comprehension. This sale will only further demonstrate the wonderful powers of this great Newark store—Hahne's—"New Jersey's Greatest Store."

—The enormous outlet at the disposal of this great store—our huge building—these and other factors were instrumental in bringing these great Dry Goods stocks to the Hahne store. This great store will be jammed to capacity limit with throngs of eager buyers on Monday—packed, likewise, with some of the greatest money-saving opportunities that have ever been offered to the public.

—In hundreds of cases the original O'Neill-Adams Company's prices have been clipped to considerable less than half price. Clearance is the word—a quick and instantaneous turnover—stocks must go regardless of precedent.

The Savings to Customers on Monday Approximate Nearly $1,000,000

"Half-Price" is the Slogan of This Great Sale

DOUBLE SURETY COUPONS WITH ALL PURCHASES---ALL DAY MONDAY, OCT. 26

The Trey O' Hearts

By LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

The most extraordinary moving picture play ever produced.

It cost a big price to get it for this community, but we have it, and you can see it in weekly installments

CHAPTER XV.

The Masked Voice.

For a matter of twelve hours the fog, leaden, dank, viscous, as inextinguishable as the dominion of evil, had wrapped the world in an embrace as foul and noxious as the coils of some great, gray, slimy serpent.

Through its sluggish folds the ponderous, power-impelled lifeboat crept at a snail's pace, its stem parting and rolling back from either flank a heavy-hearted sea of gray.

In the bows a young woman rested in a state of semi-exhaustion, her eyes closed, her head pillowed on a cork-belt life-preserver, her sodden garments modeled closely to the slender body that was ever and again shaken from head to foot with the strength of a long, shuddering respiration.

Seated on the nearest thwart, Alan Law, chin in hand, watched over the rest of this woman whom he loved with a grimly hopeless solicitude. He was in no happier case than she, so far as physical comfort went—he was in worse, since he might not rest.

Premeditation of misfortune darkened his heart with its impenetrable shadow.

In the stern Tom Barcus presided morosely over the steering gear; and Law was no more jealously heedful of his sweetheart than Barcus of the heavy-duty motor that chugged away so purposefully at its business of driving the boat heaven-knew-where.

Lacking at once a compass, all notion whatsoever of the sun's bearings, and any immediate hope of the fog lifting or chance bringing them either to land or to rescue by some larger and less comfortless craft, Barcus steered mainly through force of habit—the salt-water man's instinctive feeling that no boat under way should ever in any conceivable circumstance be without a hand at the helm. It had seemed impossible that it could long escape repetition of the disaster, but somehow, it always did escape, and that by a wide margin; never once had it passed near enough to another vessel to see it.

And now for more than an hour the silence had been uncannily constant, broken only by the rumble of the motor, the muted lisp of water slipping down the side, the suck and gurgle of the wake.

Forebodings no less portentous than Law's crawled in the mind of Barcus. It was as likely as not that the lifeboat was traveling straight out to sea. And gasoline tanks can at oftentimes do become as empty as an official weather prophet's promise of fair weather for a holiday.

More than this, Mr. Barcus was a confirmed skeptic in respect of marine motors; on terms of long and intimate experience with the ways of the demon of perversity that tenants them one and all, he knew that the present sweet-tempered performance of the exhibit under consideration was no earnest whatsoever of future good behavior, that when such a complicated contraption was concerned there was never any telling.

Delivered Into the Hands of the Enemy.

In view of all of which considerations he presently threw open the battery switch.

And the aching void created in the silence by the cessation of that uniform drone was startling enough to rouse even Rose Trine from her state of semi-somnolence.

With a look of panic she sat up, thrust damp hair back from her eyes, and nervously inquired:

"What's the matter?"

"Nothing," Barcus told her. "I shut the engine off—that's all."

Tempers were short in that hour, and Alan was annoyed to think that the rest of his beloved should needlessly have been disturbed.

"What did you do that for?" he demanded sharply.

"Because I jolly well wanted to," Barcus returned in a tone as brusque.

"Oh, you did—eh?"

"Yes, I did—eh! I happen to be bossing this end of the boat and to, have sense enough to realize there's no sense at all in our wasting fuel the way we are—cruising nowhere!"

"Well," Law contended, struck by the fairness of this argument, but unable to calm his uneasiness—"Just the same, we might—"

"Yes; of course, we might," Barcus snapped. "We might a whole lot. We might, for instance, be heading for Spain, for all you or I know to the contrary. And in such case, I for one respectfully prefer to have gas enough to take us home again if ever this da—blessed fog lifts!"

And for several seconds longer the stillness strangled their spirits in its ruthless grasp.

Then of a sudden a cry shrilled through the fog, so near at hand that it seemed scarcely more distant than over the side:

"Ahoy! Help! Ahoy there! Help!"

So insistent, so urgent was its accent that, coupled with the surprise, it brought the three as one to their feet, all a-tremble, their eyes seeking, one another's faces, then shifting uneasily away.

"What can it be?" Rose whispered, aghast, shrinking into Alan's ready arm.

"A woman," Barcus put in harshly, "Judith," the girl moaned.

Alan shook himself together. "Impossible!" he contended. "I saw her go down—"

"That doesn't prove she didn't come up," Barcus commented acidly.

"Ahoy! Motorboat ah-o-o-y! Help!"

"And that," Barcus pursued sadly, "just proves she did come up—blame the luck! Alive she is, and kicking; stand clear. An able-bodied pair of lungs was back of that hail, my friend; and you needn't tell me I don't know the dulcet accents of that angelic contralto!"

Without heeding him, Alan cupped hands to mouth and sent an answering cry ringing through the murk:

"Ahoy! Where are you? Where away?"

"Here—on the reef—half-drowned—perishing with chill—"

"How does my voice bear?" Alan called back.

"What the dickens do you care?" Barcus interpolated suspiciously.

"To port," the response rang through the fog. "Starboard your helm and come in slowly!"

"Right-o! Half a minute!" Alan replied reassuringly.

"Like hell!" Mr. Barcus muttered in his throat as he jumped down into the engine pit and bent over the fly-wheel.

Leaping on the forward thwart and balancing himself perilously near the gunwale, Alan strained his vision vainly against the opacity of the fog.

"Can't make out anything," he grumbled, looking back. "Start her up—but slow's the word—and 'ware reef!"

"Nothing doing," Barcus retorted curtly. "The motto is now 'Full speed astern!' as you must know."

"O come! We can't leave a woman out there—in a fix like that!"

"Can't we? You watch!" Barcus grunted malevolently, rocking the heavy flywheel with all his might; for the motor had turned suddenly stubborn.

"Alan!" Rose pleaded, laying a hand upon his sleeve. "Think what it means! I know it sounds heartless of me—and it's my own sister. But you know how mad she is—wild with hatred and jealousy. If you take her into this boat, it's your life or hers!"

"If we leave her out there," Alan retorted, shaking his arm impatiently free, "it's her life on our heads!"

At this juncture the motor took charge of the argument, ending it in summary fashion. With a smart explosion in the cylinder, it started up unexpectedly, at one and the same time almost dislocating the arm of Mr. Barcus and precipitating Alan overboard.

It was not given him to know what was happening until he found himself in the water; he struggled to the surface just in time to see the bows of the lifeboat back away and vanish into the mist.

CHAPTER XVI.

The Island.

Not more than twenty seconds could have elapsed before Barcus recovered from the shock of the motor's treachery sufficiently to reverse the wheel, throttle down the carburetor and jump out of the engine-pit.

But in that small space of time the lifeboat and Alan Law had parted company as definitely as though one of them had been levitated bodily to the far side of the earth.

It could not have been more than a minute after the accident before Barcus was guiding the boat over what, going on his sense of location and judgment of distance, he could have sworn was the precise spot where Alan had disappeared, but without discovering a sign of him.

And for the next twenty minutes he divided his attention between attempts to soothe and reassure the half-distracted girl and efforts to elude a reply from Alan by stentorian hailing—with as little success in the one as in the other.

"Alan!" he shrieked at the top of his lungs. "Alan! Give a hail to tell us you're safe!"

There was a little pause; he was racking his brains for some more moving mode of appeal when the answer came in another voice—in the voice of Judith Trine, clear, musical, effervescent with sardonic humor:

"Be at peace, little one—bleat no more! Mr. Law is with us—and safe—oh, quite, quite safe!"

In dumb consternation Barcus sought the countenance of Rose. Her eyes, meeting his, were blank with despair. He shook his head helplessly and let his hands dangle idly between his knees.

With no way on her, the lifeboat drifted with a current of unknown set and strength.

"What can we do?" Rose implored. "We must do something. We can't leave him—"

"Oh, when I think of him there, in her hands, I could go mad!"

"If only I knew," Barcus protested; "but my hands are tied, my wife are as helpless as my eyes are blind."

There's nothing to go by—except the bare possibility that the reef she spoke of may be Norton's. It doesn't seem possible, but we may have made that much southing. In that case we're about three miles off the mainland, somewhere in the neighborhood of Katama Island, a little, rocky, desolate bump of earth, inhabited mainly by fishermen.

The girl wrung her hands. "But how could Judith get there—and with her men—and ammunition?"

"Don't ask me. Going on my experience with the lady, I'd be willing to bet that she was picked up by the steamer that ran us down, and proceeded to make a prize of it—or try to. One thing's certain—she must have found or stolen a boat from somebody; they couldn't have made Norton's reef by swimming—it's too far. That's the answer; they were picked up, stole a boat, and piled it up on the reef."

"And there's no hope—I"

"Only of the fog relenting. If we could make the mainland and get help—"

His accents died away into a disconsolate silence that was unbroken for upwards of an hour.

So slowly the current bore the lifeboat toward the beach and so still the tide that Barcus never appreciated they were within touch of any land until the bows grounded with a slight jar and a grating sound.

With a cry of incredulity he leaped to his feet—"Land! by all that's lucky!"—and stooping, lent a hand to the girl, aiding her to rise.

Hardly had Rose had time to comprehend what had happened, when Barcus was over the side and wrestling with the bows, dragging the boat farther upon the shoals.

She was, however, more than one man could manage; and when her stem had bitten a little more deeply into the sands, Barcus gave over the attempt and, lifting Rose down, set her on dry land, then climbed back into the vessel, rummaged out her anchor and cable, and carried them ashore, planting the former well up towards the foot of the cliff.

And as he rose from this last labor he was half blinded by the glare of the westering sun as it broke through the fog.

In less than five minutes the miraculous commonplace was an accomplished fact; the wind had rolled the fog back like a scroll and sent it spinning far out to sea, while the shore on which the two had landed was deluged with sunlight, bright and beautifully warm.

He showed a thoughtful and considerate countenance to the girl.

"You're about all in?"

She nodded, confirmation of this, which was no more than simple truth.

"Where are we?" she added.

He made her party to his own perplexity.

"You're not able to travel," he pursued. "Do you mind being left alone while I take a turn up the beach and have a look round? We can't be far from some sort of civilization; even if it's an island there are no desert isles along this coast. I'll find something soon enough, no fear."

By tacit consent both avoided mention of Alan, but each knew what thought was uppermost in the other's mind.

"There's a niche among the rocks up here," Barcus indicated, "almost a cave. You'll be warm and dry enough, and secure from observation overhead. Maybe you can even snatch a few winks of sleep."

She negatived that suggestion with a weary smile; no sleep for her until sheer exhaustion overpowered her, or she knew of Alan's fate.

And so, reiterating his promise to be gone no longer than absolutely might be needful, he left her there.

CHAPTER XVII.

This Mortal Tide.

She was very certain she would never sleep before her anxiety was assuaged by word of Alan's fate; but she reckoned without her host of trials that had bred in her a fatigue anodyne even to her mental anguish.

For a time after Barcus had left her she lingered upon the sands, in the mouth of the shelter he had selected for her, staring hungrily out on the shimmering sea that now wholly divested of its shroud, smiled up to the heavens, whose sapphire face it mirrored, as fair and sweet of seeming as though it had never veiled a heartless tragedy.

Slowly it darkened as the sapphire above grew darker, blending insensibly into rare ultramarine with the slow decline of the sun; by whose altitude above the horizon the day had not more than ninety minutes to run.

And she thought drowsily that if that sun sank without her learning that her lover lived, it would not rise again upon a world tenanted by Rose Trine.

It was not true, she told herself, that people never die of broken hearts.

She knew that, were he taken from her, she could no longer live.

And sleep overwhelmed her suddenly, like a great, dark cloud.

But its dominion over her faculties was not of long duration. Slowly, heavily, mutinously, she was rescued from its nirvana—came to her senses with an effect of one who emerges from some vast place of blackness and terror, to find Barcus kneeling over and gingerly but persistently shaking her by the shoulder.

And then she sat up with a cry of mystified compassion; for in the brief time that he had been absent—it had not been more than an hour—Mr. Barcus had most unquestionably been severely used.

He had acquired a long cut over one eye, but shallow, upon which blood had dried, together with a bruised and swollen cheek that was badly scratched to boot. And what simple articles of clothing remained to him, after his strenuous experiences of the last forty-eight hours, had been reduced to even greater simplicity; his shirt, for example, now lacked a sleeve that had been altogether torn away at the shoulder.

"No!" he told her, as soon as he saw her wits were awake once more—"don't waste time pitying me. I'm all right—and so is Alan! That's the main thing for you to understand; he's still alive and sound—"

"But where is he? Take me to him!" she demanded, rising with a movement of such grace and vigor that it seemed hard to believe she had ever known an instant's weariness.

"That's the rub," Barcus confessed, squatting on the sands and knocking his hair. "I daresent take you to him. Judith might object. Besides, you can see for yourself it isn't safe to mingle with the inhabitants of this tight little island—and you can't get to where Alan is without mingling considerably. Sit down, and I'll tell you all about it, and we'll try to figure out what's best to be done. Maybe we can manage a rescue under cover of night."

And when the girl had settled herself beside him he launched into a detailed report.

"It's Katama Island, all right," he announced, "but a change has come over the place since I visited it some years ago. Then it was a community of simple-hearted villagers and fishermen; now, unless all signs fail, it's a den of smugglers. I noticed a number of Chinese about; and that, taken in connection with the fact that, when I ventured to introduce myself to the village ginmill and ask a few innocent questions, the entire population, to a child, landed on me like a thousand brick—the two circumstances made me think we'd stumbled on a settlement of earnest workers at the gentle art of helping poor Chinamen evade the exclusion laws."

With a wry smile, he pursued: "As for me, I landed out back of the joint, on the nape of my neck, and took the count, surrounded by a lot of unsympathetic boxes and barrels that had seen better days. And when I came to and started to crawl unostentatiously away, I was just in time to witness the landing of your amiable sister, that gang of cutthroats she keeps on the payroll, and Alan in company with as choice a crew of scoundrels as you'd care to see. I gathered from a few words that leaked out of the back door of the barroom, that it was as I had thought—Judith had stolen a boat from the ship that picked her up, and rammed it on Norton's reef; and after she gathered Alan in the schooner of these smugglers happened along, and she hailed it and struck a bargain with the captain and signed co-partnership articles, or something like that. Anyway, her lot and the islanders were soon as thick as thieves, and tanking up so sociably that I actually got a chance to whisper a word to Alan and tell him you were all right, and that he'd find us both down here on the beach, if luck served him with an escape. That was all I got a chance to say, for Judith marched up just then and yanked him off to his cell. I mean to say, he's looked up now in a little stone hut on the edge of the cliff, with the door guarded and the window overlooking a sheer drop of thirty feet or so to the beach. When I'd seen that much I calculated it was about time for me to get quit of that neighborhood, before Mam'selle Judith nicked me with the evil eye."

"You don't think she saw you?" the girl cried.

"I don't think so," Barcus allowed gravely; and then, lifting his gaze, he added as he rose in a bound: "I just know she did—that's all."

In another instant he was battling might and main with three willing ruffians, who had come suddenly into view round a shoulder of rock; but his efforts were shortlived, foredoomed to failure. He was weakened with suffering and fatigue—and the three were fresh and had the courage at least of their numbers. He was overborne in a twinkling, and had his face ground brutally into the sand while his hands were made fast, with stout rope, behind his back. And when he rose, it was to find, as he had anticipated, that Rose's resistance had been as futile as his own; she, too, was captive, her hands bound like his, the huge and unclean paw of one of Judith's crew cruelly clamped upon her shoulders.

They were granted time to exchange no more than one despairing glance when a curt laugh fairly chilled the blood in Mr. Barcus; and he swung sharply between his two guards to confront Judith Trine.

The woman he saw at first glance, was in one of her most dangerous moods—if, Barcus mentally qualified there was a pin to choose between her moods. But now, beyond dispute, she exhibited a countenance new in his experience with her, and one well calculated to appall.

Her face was bloodless, even as her lips were white with the curb she put upon her passion. Her eyes were lurid with the glare of rage approaching mania. Her hands trembled, her lips quivered, all her actions were alight with nervousness.

He was by no means poor-spirited, but he shrank openly from the look she gave him, and was relieved when she, with a sneer, passed him by and planted herself squarely before her sister.

"Well?" she demanded brusquely. "How much longer do you think I'm going to tolerate your interference—you poor little fool! How many more lessons will you require before realizing that I mean to have my way, and that you'll cross me only to suffer for it?"

The courage of the other girl won the unstinted admiration of Mr. Barcus. Far from cringing, she seemed to find fresh heart in her sister's challenge. Her head was high, her glance level with illimitable contempt as she replied:

"So you've tried again?" she inquired obliquely, with a tone of pity. "You've offered him your love yet another time, have you?"

"Silence!" Judith cried in fury. "Only to learn once more that he would rather die than you!" Rose persisted, unflinching. "And so you come to take your spite out on me, do you? You pitiful thing! Do you think I mind—knowing as I do now that he could never hold you in anything but compassion and contempt?"

For an instant there was silence; by the scorn of her sister the heat of Judith's fury had been transformed into a cold and malignant rage. She controlled herself and her voice marvelously.

"You will see," she said in even and frigid accents. And the light of her mania leaped and leaped again in her eyes like a living flame. "I have prepared a way to make you understand what opposition to me means."

She waved a hand toward the nearer point of rocks. "Take them along," she commanded.

The understanding between her and her men was apparently complete; for these last, without hesitation or further instructions, marched Rose and Barcus down to the end of the spit and on, into the water.

It was nearly knee-deep before Barcus was halted with a savage jerk, backed up to a rock, forced despite his frenzied resistance to sit down in the water, and swiftly, with half a dozen deft hitches of rope and a stanch knot, made fast in that position—submerged to his chest.

This accomplished, the men turned attention to Rose, lashing her in similar wise at Barcus' side.

Standing just above the water-line, with every sign of complete calm and sanity other than that ominous flickering in her eyes, Judith superintended the business till its conclusion, then waved the men away.

Quietly, like well-trained servants, they turned their backs and marched off.

And again, after a brief wait, the woman laughed her short and mirthless laugh.

"The tide will be high," she said, "precisely at sunset. You may time your lives by that. When the sun dips into the sea, then will your lives go down with it."

She turned on her heel and strode swiftly away, with not so much as a backward glance, overtook her men, and passed quickly from sight around the farther point of rocks.

For some time Barcus struggled

(Continued on page 11)

Already, the Waters Had Risen Over an Inch.

deft hitches of rope and a stanch knot, made fast in that position—submerged to his chest.

This accomplished, the men turned attention to Rose, lashing her in similar wise at Barcus' side.

Standing just above the water-line, with every sign of complete calm and sanity other than that ominous flickering in her eyes, Judith superintended the business till its conclusion, then waved the men away.

Quietly, like well-trained servants, they turned their backs and marched off.

And again, after a brief wait, the woman laughed her short and mirthless laugh.

"The tide will be high," she said, "precisely at sunset. You may time your lives by that. When the sun dips into the sea, then will your lives go down with it."

She turned on her heel and strode swiftly away, with not so much as a backward glance, overtook her men, and passed quickly from sight around the farther point of rocks.

For some time Barcus struggled

(Continued on page 11)

Already, the Waters Had Risen Over an Inch.

deft hitches of rope and a stanch knot, made fast in that position—submerged to his chest.

This accomplished, the men turned attention to Rose, lashing her in similar wise at Barcus' side.

Standing just above the water-line, with every sign of complete calm and sanity other than that ominous flickering in her eyes, Judith superintended the business till its conclusion, then waved the men away.

Quietly, like well-trained servants, they turned their backs and marched off.

And again, after a brief wait, the woman laughed her short and mirthless laugh.

"The tide will be high," she said, "precisely at sunset. You may time your lives by that. When the sun dips into the sea, then will your lives go down with it."

She turned on her heel and strode swiftly away, with not so much as a backward glance, overtook her men, and passed quickly from sight around the farther point of rocks.

For some time Barcus struggled

(Continued on page 11)

Already, the Waters Had Risen Over an Inch.

deft hitches of rope and a stanch knot, made fast in that position—submerged to his chest.

This accomplished, the men turned attention to Rose, lashing her in similar wise at Barcus' side.

Standing just above the water-line, with every sign of complete calm and sanity other than that ominous flickering in her eyes, Judith superintended the business till its conclusion, then waved the men away.

Quietly, like well-trained servants, they turned their backs and marched off.

And again, after a brief wait, the woman laughed her short and mirthless laugh.

"The tide will be high," she said, "precisely at sunset. You may time your lives by that. When the sun dips into the sea, then will your lives go down with it."

She turned on her heel and strode swiftly away, with not so much as a backward glance, overtook her men, and passed quickly from sight around the farther point of rocks.

For some time Barcus struggled

(Continued on page 11)

Already, the Waters Had Risen Over an Inch.

deft hitches of rope and a stanch knot, made fast in that position—submerged to his chest.

This accomplished, the men turned attention to Rose, lashing her in similar wise at Barcus' side.

Standing just above the water-line, with every sign of complete calm and sanity other than that ominous flickering in her eyes, Judith superintended the business till its conclusion, then waved the men away.

Quietly, like well-trained servants, they turned their backs and marched off.

And again, after a brief wait, the woman laughed her short and mirthless laugh.

RELIGIOUS NOTICES

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OF CHRIST—Pastor, Samuel Lane Loomis, D. D. Pastor, Residences, 303 Mountain Avenue. Sunday Preaching Services at 10:30 a. m. Sunday School at 12 o'clock. General Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 8 p. m. A hearty welcome to all.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH—Westfield, N. J. Sunday Services, Preaching at 10:30 a. m. Sunday School 12 o'clock. Young People's Society 7:00 p. m. Preaching 7:45 p. m. Mid-week prayer meeting, Wednesday 8 p. m. You are cordially invited to attend these services.

REBYTERIAN CHURCH—Rev. W. J. Stearns, D. D., Pastor. Services: Sunday, 10:30 a. m., 8:00 p. m. Social meetings—Wednesday Prayer Meeting 8:00 p. m.; Sunday School 12 m. M. B. Dutcher, Superintendent. Strangers made to feel at home.

ST. PAUL'S PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH—Services: Sundays, Holy Communion, 7:30 a. m.; Morning prayer, with sermon, 11 a. m. Sunday school 9:45. Evening service at 5 p. m. Rev. James A. Smith, Rector.

LODGES AND FRATERNAL ORDERS.

COURT PROVIDENT—No. 3130 Independent Order of Foresters. A sound organization. Offering $500 to $5,000 insurance. Meets second and fourth Monday of each month. Bank Building, Elm and Broad Streets. Daniel Snyder, Garwood, Chief Ranger. W. R. V. Howell, 127 Marion Avenue, Recording Secretary.

FIRESIDE COUNCIL, 715 ROYAL ARCANUM—Meets Second and Fourth Thursdays of each month at 8 p. m., in Arcanum Hall; Ernest H. Carr, Regent, 424 Mountain Avenue. Eugene G. Hanford, Collector, 150 Dudley Avenue, West. George W. Peek, Secretary, 326 First Street.

WESTFIELD CONCLAVE—515, Improved Order Heptasophis, meets first and third Tuesdays of each month at Masonic Hall. Provides Fraternal Life Insurance on a sound financial basis. Edwin Shield, Secretary.

WESTFIELD POST OFFICE.

A. K. GALE, Postmaster.
WM. M. TOWNLEY, Ass't Postmaster
OFFICE HOURS
Open from 7 a. m. to 7:30 p. m.
Holidays from 7 to 10 o'clock a. m.
COLLECTIONS FROM BOXES
Begin at 7 a. m., and also when passing boxes on their first and second deliveries.

MAILS RECEIVED
From New York, East, South and Southwest, open for delivery at 7:00, 8:30 a. m., 2:30, and 5:15 p. m.
Way mail from Easton 9:00 and 11:00 a. m. and 7:00 p. m.

MAILS CLOSE
For New York, Philadelphia, the Northeast, South and Southwest at 7:30, 9:15, 10:00 a. m., 12:30, 3:05, 5:30 and 7:30 p. m.
For Plainfield, Easton and way stations 7:30 a. m., 1:30 and 4:30 p. m.
For Elizabeth only 11:10.

FREE DELIVERY
Carriers first delivery commences at 7:30 a. m.
Carriers' second delivery commences at 1:30 p. m.
R. F. D. No. 1, leaves 8:30.

Fire Alarm Box Locations.

NOTICE—Everyone should know the location of their nearest box.

- 21—Elm St. and Kimball Ave.
- 23—Emingham Place and Clark St.
- 25—Clark St. and Dudley Ave.
- 27—Clark and Charles Sts.
- 31—Broad and Elm Sts.
- 35—Lincoln and Girard Aves.
- 37—Broad St. and Euclid Ave.
- 322—Highland & Mountain Aves.
- 344—Mountain Ave. nr Chestnut St.
- 43—North and Central Aves.
- 465—North and Fourth Aves.
- 499—Stanley and St. Mark's Aves.
- 537—Central Ave. and Park St.
- 579—Washington St. & Boulevard.
- 639—Westfield Ave. and Park St.
- 75—South Ave. & Cumberland St.
- 738—First St. and Osborn Ave.
- 78—Fire Headquarters Building.

SPECIALS:

- 1 Tap of Bell will mean Time, Test or Break.
- 2 Taps of Bell "Recall, Fire is Under Control."
- 3-3 Taps of Bell will be special call for Truck No. 1.
- 4-4 Taps of Bell call for Chemical Engine No. 1.

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

Trains Leave WESTFIELD

For New York and Elizabeth at 5:51, 5:18, 6:02, 6:39, 7:06, 7:15, 7:32, 7:37, (7:53 New York only), 7:56, 8:08, 8:24, 8:45, 8:53, 9:40, 10:35, 11:38 a. m. 12:45, 1:06, 1:55, 2:35, 3:03, 3:23, 4:09, 4:25, 4:48, 5:51, 6:59, 7:51, 9:41, 10:26, 10:43, 11:54 P. M. Sundays 8:51, 7:35, 9:03, 10:45 A. M., 12:50, 1:06, 1:38, 2:03, 3:25, 5:40, 7:20, 8:22, 8:47, 10:43 p. m.

For Newark, 5:18, 6:39, (7:15 through train), 7:56, 8:45, 9:40, 10:35, 11:38 a. m., 12:45, 1:06, 1:55, 2:35, 3:03, 4:25, 4:48, 5:51, 6:59, 7:51, 9:41, 10:43 p. m. Sunday, 7:35, 9:03, 10:45 a. m., 12:50, 1:06, 1:38, 2:03, 3:25, 5:40, 7:20, 8:22, 8:47, 10:43 p. m.

For Philadelphia, 6:30, 6:57, 8:03, 9:05, 11:45 a. m., 1:46, 2:19, 4:52, 6:39, 7:19, 8:39, 9:59, 10:20, 12:40. Sundays 6:05, 8:15, 9:40, 10:55, 11:54 a. m., 12:54, 1:46, 2:39, 4:47, 5:25, 6:22, 8:39, 9:39, 10:46, 11:44 p. m., 1:11 a. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, 5:02, 8:08, 9:05, 10:35 a. m., 1:51, 4:52, 5:30, (6:49 Easton only) p. m. Sunday 5:05, 8:13, 9:40 a. m., 1:48, 5:25, 6:29 p. m.

For Wilkes-Barre and Scranton, 5:02, 8:06 a. m., 5:20 p. m., Sundays 5:05, 9:46 a. m., 5:25 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 8:51, 9:40 a. m., 12:45, 1:06, 3:23 p. m. Sunday 9:53 a. m., 2:26 p. m.

Saturdays only. 12-29-13.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF REGISTRY AND ELECTION.

In conformity with the provisions of an act entitled, "An act to Regulate Elections," (Revision of 1898), approved April 4, 1914, and the amendments thereto, notice is hereby given that the Board of Registry and Election in and for each election district in the Town of Westfield, N. J., will meet on Tuesday, November 3, 1914, from 6 o'clock A. M. to 7 o'clock P. M., an election will be held for the purpose of electing persons for the offices herein after mentioned.

The places in the several districts where the said Board of Registry and Election will meet are as follows:

- First Ward, First District, Town Hall, 121 Prospect Street.
- First Ward, Second District, Randall House, No. 229 E. Broad Street.
- Second Ward, E. N. Brown's Undertaking Parlor, 47 Elm Street.
- Third Ward, Plumbing Shop, near First and Westfield Avenues.
- Fourth Ward, W. Irving Carpenter's Tinning Shop, 209 W. Broad Street.

The officers to be nominated and elected at said Primary Election are as follows:

- State Senator
- Member of the House of Representatives from the Fifth Congressional District
- Three Members of the General Assembly
- County Clerk
- Register of Deeds and Mortgages
- Coroner
- One Councilman from each Ward.
- One Constable from each Ward.

Witness my hand this 2nd day of September, 1914.

CHAS. E. CLARK, Town Clerk.

SHERIFF'S SALE—Union County Common Pleas Court.

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the sheriff's office in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on WEDNESDAY, THE FOURTH DAY OF NOVEMBER, A. D., 1914, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all tract or parcel of lands and premises, situate, lying and being in the town of Westfield, in the county of Union and State of New Jersey, to-wit: Beginning on the southeasterly side of Madison Avenue seventy-nine (79) feet southwesterly from the westerly corner of lands of Highland Heights, thence south 48° 7' east at right angles to Madison Avenue two hundred and twenty-seven and eighty-five hundredths feet to the northwesterly side of Liberty street; thence south 38° 50' west along Liberty street thirteen and forty-two hundredths feet to the easterly corner of lot No. 17 on a map entitled, "Addition to Washington Heights, Westfield, N. J.," and filed in the Union county register's office; thence north 51° 10' west along said lot 17 and at right angles to Liberty street one hundred and twenty-eight and sixty-nine one hundredths feet; thence south 41° 53' west along the end of said lot No. 17 eighteen and seventy-four hundredths feet to the easterly corner of lot 35, Scandia Heights; thence north 48° 07' west along said lot 35, one hundred feet to the southeasterly side of Madison Avenue; thence north 41° 53' east along Madison Avenue thirty-nine feet to the beginning.

Being part of lot No. 36, on map of Scandia Heights aforesaid and part of lots Nos. 18, 19 and 20 on "Addition to Washington Heights Map" aforesaid.

Second Tract—Situate on the northwesterly side of Liberty street and known and designated as lot No. 17, on map of Washington Heights, Westfield, N. J., and filed in the Union county register's office.

WILLIAM H. WRIGHT, Sheriff.

FREDERICK S. TAGGART, Atty.

oc12 4M EDJUCS Fees $17

ESTATE OF HARRIET E. FERRIS, Deceased.

Pursuant to the order of GEORGE T. PARROT, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of said undersigned, Administratrix of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands within nine months from the SEVENTEENTH day of SEPTEMBER, 1914, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

LLOYD THOMPSON, Proctor.

oc12 4M EDJUCS Fees $11.10

NOTICE OF HEARING.

Notice is hereby given that the Council of the Town of Westfield, in the County of Union, will meet in the Town Rooms, 121 Prospect Street, Westfield, N. J., on MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1914, at eight o'clock, in the evening, to receive and consider objections in writing, to the work done and materials furnished and used in the following improvements, to-wit:

- 1. Improving Kimball Avenue, from Elm Avenue to Harrison Avenue, under the provisions of Special Ordinance No. 380, passed and adopted July 20th, 1914.

CHARLES CLARK, Town Clerk.

Oct. 16 23 20. Fees $5.20

Weights of Different Shoes.

In Haverhill, Mass., where they know, they say that a pair of men's dress shoes weighs a little more than two pounds, a pair of men's street shoes about two and one-half pounds, and a pair of men's work shoes three pounds or more. A woman's shoe weighs about three-quarters of a pound. A pair of silk pumps may weigh only a pound.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Westfield Readers Have Heard It and profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Westfield are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Miss Kate Brady, 543 Downer St., Westfield, N. J., says: "Backaches and headaches troubled me for a long time and there seemed to be no relief for me. Whenever I caught the least cold, it settled on my kidneys and at those times, the kidney secretions were a source of annoyance. When I stooped, I felt dizzy and there was a blurring before my eyes. I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills through reading of them and I began their use. My back was soon strengthened and the pains were removed, together with the other symptoms of kidney complaint. I have not had backache or kidney trouble since, I gladly confirm my former public endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Miss Brady had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Official Report of Chosen Board of Freeholders.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union was held at the Courthouse, Elizabeth, N. J., on Thursday, September 3, 1914, at 2:30 P. M. The meeting was called to order by Director Cady with the following members present: Director Cady, and Freeholders Bourdon, Carroll, Darby, Hall, Hennessy, Jones, McMane, Meisel, Meyerholz, Perry, Smith, Teller, Thompson, Trembley, Wilbur, Noah Woodruff. Absent—Freeholders Doane, Krouse Randolph and John Woodruff.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur the reading of the minutes of meeting of August 6, 1914, and also special meeting of August 20, 1914, were dispensed with, and they were approved as per printed copies on members desks.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Hennessy gratefully acknowledge your expression of sympathy and kindness in their bereavement.

On motion by Freeholder Bourdon this communication was received and ordered placed on file.

Rahway, N. J., August 10, 1914.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders, Elizabeth, N. J.:

The undersigned respectfully petitions your honorable body for the privilege of maintaining and operating a line of automobile stages on St. George Avenue in the Township of Linden and city of Elizabeth, and such portions of Wood Avenue, Linden as may be within the jurisdiction of honorable body. The object is to run a line of buses between Pennsylvania station at Linden and Jersey Avenue in Elizabeth, to be operated by electricity, gasoline or other motor power, and run half-hourly.

Very respectfully,
RUSSELL M. REALL.

On motion by Freeholder Smith this communication was received and referred to the county road committee and county attorney.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Board of Chosen Freeholders:

Gentlemen—Your committee on jail inspection would respectfully report that it has examined the jail, also the books of the warden.

Number of prisoners in custody August 1, 72; number received during the month of August 74; number in custody September 1, 1914, 68; number days' board, month of July 2,210.

Maintenance

Groceries, etc., $412.00; salaries, $433.33 cost per prisoner per day .3982.

Respectfully submitted,
JOS. PERRY, W. A. BOURDON, Committee.

On motion by Freeholder Smith this report was received and ordered placed on file.

Report of committee on Springfield ave. bridge, Cranford, N. J.

Gentlemen—Your committee on the above-named work would report that bids have been received for the same and the contract awarded to James E. Gano, of Neshanic, N. J., at $6,820.

Your committee would further report that after the contract was let they altered the plan of the work somewhat by raising the level of the new bridge one foot higher than was proposed. This entailed an additional cost of $325.

Your committee would also report that it has appointed Mr. Bernard Doyle as inspector on this work at $3 per day.

GEORGE G. TELLER, ELSTON DABRY, S. P. T. WILBUR, CHAS. A. SMITH, Committee.

On motion by Freeholder Meisel this report was received and ordered placed on file and the recommendations contained therein were on roll call adopted unanimously.

Report on repairs to Meadow street bridge over the south branch of the Rahway River, Rahway, New Jersey.

Gentlemen—The undersigned members of this board were called together by Freeholder Trembley on August 24 to examine the bridge on Meadow street over the south branch of Rahway River, Rahway.

It was found that a portion about fourteen feet in length of the main abutment wall on one side of this bridge had caved in part of the stonework dropped out into the stream. It was also found that one of the wing walls was badly bulged and needed repairs.

It was ordered that the street be shut off to traffic owing to the bridge being dangerous for the passage of heavy loads. An estimate was obtained for the reconstruction of the main wall and wing wall of the bridge above low water level; also the backing up of one corner of the bridge which had settled. James Moran, of Rahway, agreed to do this work for the sum of $350, and he was authorized to proceed with the work at once. It is requested that this action be confirmed by the board.

D. H. TREMBLEY, WILLIAM J. THOMPSON, NOAH WOODRUFF, Committee.

On motion by Freeholder Hall this report was received and ordered placed on file and the recommendations contained therein were on roll call adopted unanimously.

Report of Committee on culverts in streets in Linden where township is making extensive road improvements.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders:

Gentlemen—Your committee on the above-named work would respectfully report that it has visited the ground and examined the work, and finds that the Township of Linden is making extensive road improvements in laying concrete curbs and gutters and in macadamizing roadways. Some small culverts will have to be rebuilt, as they are not strong enough to take a steam roller. In other places pipes are to be taken out, and in some other points new basins and pipes are necessary.

Your committee would therefore recommend the construction of the following work:

- Two basins in Gibbons street with pipes to bridge, near Wood Avenue; two basins with pipes to bridge in Wood Avenue, at West Brook; alteration and lengthening of pipe crossing Wood Avenue and Eighteenth street; removal of several culverts on Forty Acre road; reconstruction one culvert about 80 feet by 2 feet by 3 feet on Forty Acre road, near Twentieth street; removal and reconstruction of some five small pipe culverts from lower road to Rahway; extend one bridge on Peterson lane, near Edgar road; alter and replace several pipe culverts on Brunswick Avenue.

The total cost of all the above work not to exceed the sum of $650.

GEORGE G. TELLER, W. A. BOURDON, Committee.

On motion by Freeholder Hennessy this report was received and the reconstruction of one culvert about 80 feet by 3 feet on Forty Acre road, near Twentieth street, was on roll call ordered constructed and vainly with his bonds. As for Rose, she wasted no strength in struggling—perhaps had none to waste. When he looked her way he saw her exquisite profile unmarred by any line of fear or doubt, sharply relieved against the darkness of the rising flood. Her level gaze without a tremor traversed the abiding flood to its far horizon.

(Continued on page 12).

THE TREY O' HEARTS.

He noted that already the waters had risen more than an inch.

Humbled even in his terror by that radiant calm that dwelt upon her, he ventured diffidently: "Rose—Miss Trine—"

She turned her head and found the heart to smile. "Rose," she corrected gently.

"I'm sorry," he said—which was not at all what he had meant to say. "I've done my best. I suppose it's v.ong to give up—but they've made it too much for me, this time."

"I know," she said gently.

"You"—he stammered—"you're not afraid?"

"There is nothing to fear," she said, "but death."

"Then," he said more bravely, after a time—the water now was near his chin—"good-by—good luck!"

"Not yet, dear friend," she returned, "not yet."

But the sun was perilously close upon the rim of the world. But a little time, and it would be night.

He closed his eyes to shut out the vision of its slow, implacable descent.

The water was now almost level with his lips; it seemed strange that

They Fought Like Madmen.

his throat could be so dry, so parched . . .

He opened his eyes, shuddering.

"It's good-by now," he faltered.

"Not yet!" Her voice rang beside him, vibrant. "Look—up there—along the cliff!"

He lifted his gaze . . .

Two men were running along the cliff—and the man in the lead was Alan. But his lead was very scant, and the man who pursued was one of Judith's, and stuck to the trail like a blood-hound fresh from the leash.

And now the water was at his lips; Barcus could no more speak without strangling.

Of a sudden he groaned in his heart; though there was no passable way down the cliff, still the sight of his friend alive and unharmed had brought with it a thrill of hope; now that hope died as he saw Alan stumble and go to his knees.

Before he could rise the other was upon him, with the fury of a wolf seeking the throat of a stag.

For an instant they fought like madmen; then, in a trice, the sky line of the cliff was empty; one or the other had tripped and fallen over the brink, and falling had retained hold of his enemy and carried him down as well.

By no chance, Barcus told himself, could either escape uninjured.

Yet, to his amazement, he saw one man break from the other's embrace and rise. And he who lay still, a crumpled, inhuman heap upon the sands, was Judith's man.

With a violent effort Barcus lifted his mouth above water and shrieked: "Alan! Alan! Help! Here—at the end of the point—in the water—help!"

A precious minute was lost before Alan discovered their two heads, so barely above that swiftly rising flood.

Then he ran toward them as he had never run before, and as he came whipped out a jack-knife and freed its blade.

Even so—since it was, of course, Rose whom Alan freed the first—Barcus was half-drowned before Alan helped him in turn up to the beach.

And as this happened the last blood-red rim of the sun was washed under by the waves.

Two minutes later the lifeboat was afloat, and Mr. Barcus, already recovered, was laboring with the flywheel of the motor, stimulated to supreme exertion by the sight of a party, led by Judith, racing madly down the beach.

But it was not until well out from shore and on the way to the safety promised by the mainland—now readily discernible on the horizon—that any one of them found time for speech.

Then Mr. Barcus straightened up from his nasidious attentions to the motor, and observed:

"You bear a charmed life, my adventurous friend. I want to tell you that when I saw you go over that cliff I made up my mind your usefulness would be at least permanently impaired. As it is, I don't mind telling you that if ever I get out of this affair alive, I'm going to have a try at your life myself, just once, for luck!"

(To Be Continued.)

W. & J. SLOANE

The Advantages of Dealing at W. & J. Sloane's

For over seventy years the house of W. & J. Sloane has been identified with all that is best in Floor Coverings. Our guarantee of reliability, which accompanies every purchase made here, has back of it the highest possible reputation for integrity. This important advantage is augmented by such benefits as naturally accrue from expert knowledge gained by long experience.

Our salesmen are qualified by experience and training to speak with authority upon all matters of furnishing and decorating.

Our vast stocks, without equal in variety and of a higher average of quality than can be found anywhere else, are laid out in well-lighted salesrooms where purchases can be made to the best advantage.

Our prices are uniformly reasonable—an equitable valuation upon every article we offer for sale is assured.

Samples and Estimates upon request.

Attention is also called to our large and well equipped Division of Furniture and Decoration.

FIFTH AVENUE & FORTY-SEVENTH ST., NEW YORK

Work in a Warm Room

WHEN you take your sewing upstairs, take the heat along too. The Perfection oil heater is easily carried anywhere. You draw it up beside you and work in comfort, even if the room has no other source of heat.

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATERS

The Perfection is solid, good-looking, easy to clean and take care of. It is smokeless and odorless.

At hardware, furniture and general stores everywhere.

Look for the Triangle trademark.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY

(NEW JERSEY) NEWARK

Read the Trey O' Hearts - - on page 10

Flour!

Another Carload Has Arrived Hutchinson's Special

By the Bag or by the Barrel

The Flour that has become familiar to the Westfield housewife for its fine quality for bread making and pastries.

If not acquainted with this particular brand try a bag and be convinced.

Hutchinson & Son GROCERS

Broad and Elm Streets

Westfield, N. J.

TELEPHONE 148

This is Juvenile Week Oct. 26th to 31st

in which are brought to the front all the good books that boys and girls like to read. Inspection by parents, and children is cordially invited. For this week only, the following books are being sold at special prices:

Regular 25c Books

10c

THIS WEEK ONLY
The Moving Picture Boys
The Motion Picture Chums' First Venture
The Outdoor Chums
The Boys of Columbia High
Tom Swift and His Motor Cycle
The Outdoor Girls of Deepdale
The Girls of Central High
The Moving Picture Girls
The Bobsey Twins
From Office Boy to Reporter

Drop in and look them over, and get a free complete list of titles.

Regular 50c Books

20c

THIS WEEK ONLY
Dick Hamilton's Fortune
The Rover Boys at School
The Putnam Hall Cadets
Ralph of the Round House

Now is the time to take advantage of this big Juvenile book event. Special prices withdrawn after October 31st.

FOR ONE WEEK
ONLY

F. H. Schaefer & Co.

"NO POOR GOODS AT ANY PRICE"

Telepoone 450

76 Elm Street

Oysters ARE in Season

Special this Week on Genuine SPRING LAMB

Fancy Roasting Chickens and Fresh Killed Poultry of all kinds

Two phones, 536-537 insure quick service.

SCUDDER'S CASH MARKET

9 Elm Street

FAREWELL PARTY FOR H. B. HOLLOWAY

Who Left for Phoenix, Arizona, Yesterday. Mr. Holloway Was Active and Popular in Fourth Ward

Mr. H. B. Holloway, of 437 First street, who has been confined to his home during the past year on account of poor health left for Phoenix, Arizona, Thursday morning. Hearing of the necessity for a change of climate conditions, his friends of the fourth ward gave him a most pleasant surprise and farewell reception last Monday night. L. H. Phelps invited the members of the Fourth Ward Tax Payers Association and other gentlemen friends of Mr. Holloway, to meet at his house at 8:30 P. M. At 8:45 Mr. Phelps crossed the street to ask Mr. Holloway to his house to answer an out-of-town phone call. When he entered he was greeted with a chorus of "He's a jolly good fellow," instead of the usual "hello."

After listening to the rendition of some very fine music Mr. Phelps invited his guests to the Dining Room to enjoy a repast during which Mr. Phelps, in a few chosen words, presented to Mr. Holloway on behalf of those present a solid gold watch chain pocket knife, as a token to show the respect and high esteem in which he is held by his friends. Mr. E. D. Clark, also expressed on behalf of those present best wishes for his speedy recovery and return to his own fireside.

Among those present were L. B. Denison, T. K. Bray, Thomas Cutto, W. H. Bush, C. W. Clotworthy, H. W. Wechler, E. D. Clark, T. O. Young, M. S. Bennett, C. E. Cox, O. W. Jaquish, Jr., B. L. Meyer, W. F. Watts, H. B. Holloway and L. H. Phelps.

Mr. Holloway has always been very much interested in the welfare of his town and especially in this the fourth ward.

As Treasurer of the Fourth Ward Tax Payers Association, he worked hard to obtain the much needed improvements put in that section of the town during the past three years.

Mr. Holloway has been an employee of the Hannover National Bank of N. Y., for the past sixteen years, and through his close attention to business rose to the position of Receiving Teller. He over did it, however, and was compelled to ask for a leave of absence in October, 1913, and has not been able since to resume his duties.

Official Report of Chosen Board of Freeholders.

the rest laid over until the next regular meeting of the board.
Report of committee on repairs to Little's bridge, also culvert on Elkwood avenue, New Providence, N. J.
Gentlemen—Your committee on the above-named work would respectfully report that it has visited the ground and finds that it is necessary to place a new concrete deck on the culvert on Elkwood avenue

GROWTH MARKS UNION COUNTY

Frank H. Smith, Register, Has Been Compelled to Install Modern System to Take Care of Rapid Increase of Business

The growth of Union County since it was created by a division of Essex County in 1857, is one of the most phenomenal in the history of the country. In no section has the development of property, establishment of industries and increase in population been more steady than here. That there has been nothing spasmodic or of mushroom nature in any of the advances is indicated in the records of the County Register's office.

During recent years the increase has been more rapid than in those preceding, and plainly showed that the system of recording deeds, mortgages, assignments, transfers, contracts, releases, etc., would soon be inadequate. The first person to realize this fact was Frank H. Smith, the present county register. He is at present a candidate on the Republican ticket to succeed himself. In again going before the people he does so strictly on his record with the motive of having it publicly approved and being returned to complete a self assigned task in installing a system with more useful and modern conceptions to meet the demands being made upon the office and to provide and ensure their fulfillment in the years to come.

When Mr. Smith realized the need of a change in the method of indexing and recording the public's papers and documents, and that with the greatest efficiency, facility and economy, he set about devising one which would do. Even with his deep and intimate knowledge of the office and its functions, this was a staggering undertaking for it meant that not only would the daily work have to be handled as it came in, but the records made in the past half century would have to be turned over to conform with the plan and be done in such a way as not to interfere with the work of the throng of searchers who use the books each business day.

The work would have been simple enough if the new system was only to effect the records made from the time it became operative, but then the office would have had two systems and this would have been contrary to Mr. Smith's idea of business methods. These and his office he takes seriously and it is for this reason that his administration has been endorsed by members of the bench and bar and real estate men in all parts of the State who have had business with the official. The two systems would therefore, to his mind, offer chances of confusions and complications, things which to him are dangers with no place in any properly conducted or well ordered establishment, whether private or public.

Several plans were carefully worked out on paper and in his mind by Mr. Smith, only to be rejected wholly or in part, before the one now being installed was hit upon. The work of installing it was started nearly two years ago and will probably require two more years to complete. So efficient has that now completed demonstrated itself, that it has been adopted by a number of other counties in the State, New York, Connecticut and elsewhere. As an economic proposition it is a saving, both money and labor, and as the County continues to increase, the system will not become any more expensive to maintain and will not lose any of its facility or adequateness, for it was designed with a long look into the future by Mr. Smith. After a careful analysis of the growth in the past, he made proportionate and ample allowances for the years to come.

If returned to the office by the voters on November 3, he will be enabled to complete the installation of the system and the county will have what is now recognized as the most concise, economic and efficient indexing and recording method in the country. Then at the expiration of his term, his successor will go in with less responsibility both to himself and the residents of the county on account of his absolute ignorance of the momentous and important constructive work now under way. The opinion of attorneys and real estate men generally is that a change at this time would be highly unwise.

owing to the rotten condition of the present timber work. Your committee would recommend this work to be done at a cost not exceeding the sum of $250.

The Little bridge should be redecked with wooden plank and should also be painted. The Morris County Board of Freeholders has agreed to have this work done, and your committee would therefore recommend that this work be authorized, the total cost thereof not to exceed the sum of $400, of which Union county is to pay half.

BRADFORD JONES, WILLIAM I. McMANE, JOHN WOODRUFF, Committee.

On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this report was received and action on same deferred until the next regular meeting of the board.

Report of Committee on Culverts in Summit. To the Board of Chosen Freeholders: Gentlemen—Your committee on culverts in Russell place and on Passaic avenue, city of Summit, would report that the culverts in question are old culverts built by the county prior to the establishment of the city government in Summit. The committee reports that the county attorney has been consulted as to the legality of reconstructing these culverts and is of the

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

One Cent a Word. Minimum Charge 15 Cents.

Advertising Accepted by Telephone.

Telephone 271

Automobiles.

FOR SALE—Overland Touring Car, 5 passenger, 1912 model, good condition. Price $350. Apply W. Gale, Jr., 169 Broad street, Westfield, Telephone 24-J.

FOR SALE—Overland Touring Car, five-passenger, perfect condition, fully equipped, extra tires, weed chains, robes, goggles, etc. Very snappy appearance. Price $450. Apply Hiram L. Fink, The Westfield Garage.

WANTED—Small touring car, Ford, Maxwell or Overland. Must be in good condition and recent model. Address Car, The Standard.

Dogs.

WANTED—Young puppy, St. Bernard or Newfoundland preferred. Address Puppy, The Standard.

Family Washing.

WASHING—Our family wash plan, 20 pounds for 75 cents, is cheaper than a washwoman. All table and bed linen nicely ironed, also many of the body clothes. Send us a trial wash and be convinced. We do not mark your linen. Each allotment is washed separately. Phone 135-W, Westfield Laundry.

For Sale.

FOR SALE—Richardson and Boynton Perfect hot air furnace, No. 144, including pipes and registers. All in perfect condition. $40. 734 Boulevard. Telephone 342-R.

FOR SALE—About 3 tons good timothy hay. Will sell cheap and deliver myself if desired. Cepas Jones, 325 S. Broad St., corner Rahway avenue.

FOR SALE—Burdett Organ in good condition. Cheap. 507 Westfield Avenue.

PIANO Opportunity—Elegant new upright piano, sacrificed on account of departure. Reliable make, latest improvements. Any reasonable cash offer accepted, investigation invited. Address: Young Couple, Box 653, Plainfield.

Help Wanted.

WANTED—Plain sewing and mending to do at home. Address C. D., Standard.

EMPLOYMENT WANTED—By young girl, either in office or store. Previous experience. Good references. Address E. V., The Standard.

WASHING and Ironing done at home. 112 Clark street.

CARPETS, Rugs, Upholstery, Mattresses cleaned without removal by the vacuum process. Work done by the day or hour. Estimates given. J. S. Miller, Phone 112-J.

Houses For Sale or Rent.

FOR RENT—House corner of Lenox and Central avenues. H. Willoughby or your own agent.

FOR SALE OR RENT—House: 8 rooms and bath; all improvements, oak trim throughout, windows and porch screened, lot 60x125. Terms reasonable. 123 Union avenue, phone 174-W.

FOR RENT OR SALE CHEAP—House, six rooms, improvements. Rent $18. Apply to any real estate office.

FOUR ROOM HOUSE, part improvements, 2 minutes from station, $12 month. Inquire 223 Central Ave.

FOR SALE OR RENT—House, furniture and pigeons. Poole 1025 Rahway Avenue.

FOR RENT—Flat, 7 rooms and bath; all improvements, 558 Summit Ave. J. E. Crosby, Westfield.

Horses and Carriages.

UNITED EXPRESS COMPANY
Disposing of all their horses and mares. Bargains for everyone, as all must be sold at once. Suitable for general business purposes and heavy trucking. Weight 1000 to opinion that it is incumbent upon the Board of Freeholders to take care of these culverts.

Your committee would therefore recommend the construction of a new culvert on Russell place to take the place of one now composed of pipe, which is too small in size and not sufficiently strong—the new work not to cost more than $200.

With regard to the two culverts on Passaic avenue, your committee would report that these culverts are entirely closed up and your committee would recommend laying all new corrugated iron pipe at these points; also the construction of a new corrugated iron pipe across West End place at the easterly side of Passaic avenue—the total cost of these three culverts not to exceed the sum of $200.

WILLIAM I. McMANE, PETER H. MINKEL, Committee.
On motion by Freeholder Wilbur this report was received and the action on same deferred until the next regular meeting of the board.
To the Board of Chosen Freeholders: Gentlemen—The undersigned committee, (To Be Continued.)

M. Welch, at office, Corner Orange and Nesbit Sts., Newark, N. J. Tel. 4193 Branch Brook.

FOR SALE—Bargain; wagon suitable for carpenter or painter, used only few months, newly painted. Can be seen at 123 Union avenue, phone 174-W.

Lost.

LOST—Silk work bag on Westfield avenue, Park street or Boulevard. Finder please return to 577 Westfield avenue.

Manicuring—Massaging.

MRS. ARTHUR B. CARPENTER, Manicuring, Facial Treatment, Scalp Treatment, Shampooing by appointment. 305 West Broad Street. Phone 162-J.

Messenger Service.

MESSANGER SERVICE—To New York. F. Bauer, Phone 812 Westfield. Daily service, excepting Saturdays.

Mortgage Loan.

MONEY TO LEND ON BOND AND MORTGAGE IN SUMS TO SUIT BORROWER. CODDING & OLIVER, TRUST COMPANY BUILDING.

Painting and Decorating.

AN ESTIMATE for your painting or decorating from Voller Bros. of Scotch Plains costs nothing and will save you money. Drop a postal.

HOUSE REPAIRING of all kinds done at a reasonable price. Apply at 580 Adams avenue, Elizabeth.

Photography.

YOUR HOME looks now the prettiest. Have it photographed. Post cards $1.00 a dozen. Baumann, Broad St., Tel. 331-J.

Real Estate.

FOR EXCHANGE—Will exchange two valuable lots, four minutes walk to trolley and train, in Netherwood, for small house in Westfield. Address P. Standard.

Roofing.

GENUINE RU-BER-OID roofing and Roof paints tested by 18 years constant use. For Sale by C. A. Smith, Westfield, N. J.

Rooms and Board.

TO LET—Large front rooms, also table board. 217 Prospect Street.

FOR RENT—Rooms with board, also table boarders. 425 Summit avenue, Mrs. C. Brennessoltz. Telephone 42-J.

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms. Single or connecting. Convenient to table board. Everything first class. Telephone 238-R.

Rooms To Let.

FOR RENT—Three rooms, furnished or unfurnished, private family, select; 117 North Euclid avenue.

FOR RENT—Nicely furnished room without board. Apply 305 West Broad street.

FOR RENT—Two large connecting rooms, first floor, nicely furnished, together or separately. 207 Clark Street.

FOR RENT—Two furnished rooms for light housekeeping, 317 Central ave.

TO LET—Part of large barn, 672 Rahway avenue. Telephone 232-J.

WE HAVE listed several new, high class Dwellings, that are offered at attractive prices and terms.

Herbert L. Abrams, Searsall Building 1 Prospect Street

FURS

Remodeling, Repairing, Altering

It's time for you, MADAM, to think about your pretty FURS. Come in and let us advise you what is best for them and show the new creations in FURS. We will

Make Your Old Furs Look Like New

Our expert way, is the safe way.

A. GOLDBERG,

Ladies Tailor and Furrier
132 BROAD ST. Tel. 249-J

Printing of the better kind
The Standard Press