Foreword

Whoever has no knowledge of music knows other things to no purpose. (Seneca)

We of the Weather Vane staff, speaking for the Class of 1954, are proud to dedicate our Yearbook to Miss Janet M. Grimler, and to choose for our theme one of the finest of all the arts — music.

"She Shall Make Music Wherever She Goes"

Dedicated to . . .

MISS JANET GRIMLER

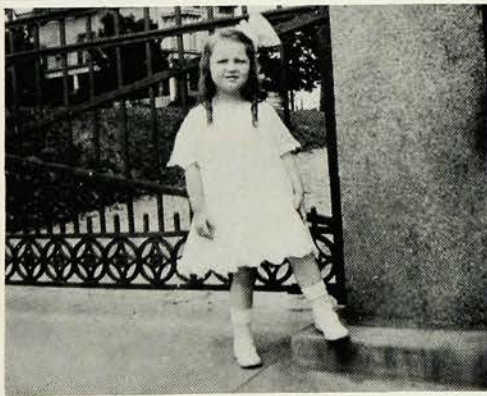

In the last fourteen years of devoted service to Westfield High School, Miss Grimler, or "the Duchess" as she is popularly known, has won an ever increasing amount of admiration and respect. She has given unselfishly of her time and talents in teaching and training the musical groups of which we are so proud.

After graduating from Kearny High School as valedictorian of her class, Miss Grimler received her Bachelor of Science degree from the Juilliard School of Music and then her Master's degree from Columbia University. She taught for several years in Pitman, New Jersey, and then came to Westfield, where she is Supervisor of Music in the Public Schools.

Along with the work she does in the schools, Miss Grimler directs the Westfield Music Club Chorus. She is active in the New Jersey Educational Association and has just finished her term as president of the music department of the organization. In 1944 Miss Grimler directed the All State High School Chorus, which is sponsored by the New Jersey Educational Association.

By inspired directing, by superb organization of groups, and, though we hate to admit it, by those much maligned 7:45 A. M. rehearsals, Miss Grimler has had great success in producing superior high school music. Miss Grimler's success cannot be measured, however, only by laudatory criticism and widespread acclaim. Success in teaching lies far beyond achievements such as that. Miss Grimler feels that her real purpose lies in teaching her students to sing properly, in helping them to gain poise and confidence before an audience, and in giving them an understanding of and a taste for good music that can be a never ending source of pleasure and relaxation for the rest of their lives. Since she came to W.H.S. fourteen years ago, Miss Grimler's influence has reached practically every student who has entered its doors, for music is a vital part of our school life.

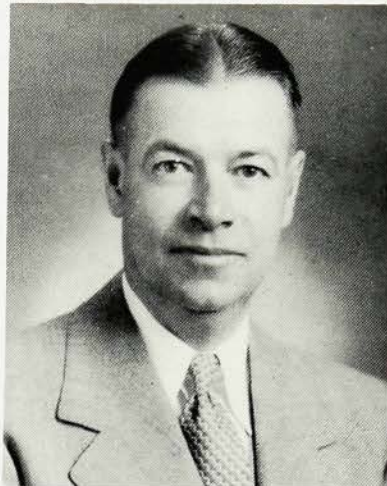

The members of the Class of 1954 hope that the dedication of this yearbook will express in a small way their appreciation of and gratitude for Miss Grimler's inspiring work.

"You'll Never Walk Alone"

IN MEMORIAM

Miss J. Isabella Dodds was a well-known, well-loved teacher and friend whom no one will or can ever forget. Although mere printed words can never express the depths of our sympathy and sorrow, it is our sincere hope that this memorial to Miss Dodds will continue to honor and preserve her memory among us as the years pass.

Her willingness to help those in need was far beyond her duty. "She devoted her life to the students and made their interests and problems her own." Among other things she helped many students obtain scholarships, who, otherwise, might not have received the opportunity for a college education.

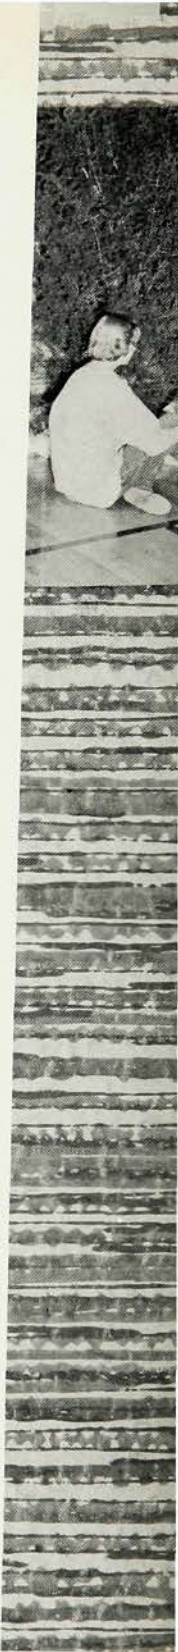

Although Miss Dodds had been ill for about two years, her sudden death in February, 1954, came as a great shock to all of us. Born in Claremont, Minnesota, Miss Dodds lived and taught in Westfield for nearly twenty-six years, first as a teacher of German and English, and later as the guidance director. Her undergraduate work for a Bachelor of Arts degree was completed at Macalester College, St. Paul, Minnesota. From Columbia University, New York, she received her Master of Arts degree.

The students and staff of Westfield Senior High will cherish through the years the memory of one who can never be replaced in the hearts of the many who knew and loved her.

STUDENT COUNCIL "Happy Talk"

Two representatives from each homeroom and four officers, elected by the school as a whole, comprise the Student Council, the school's governing body. The council began its year's activities with the annual "Kick-off" dance in September. It has also sponsored the sale of school book-covers and the annual Mid-Winter Ball which was based on a Fire-and-Ice motif.

Any student may submit ideas to the council, either through the suggestion box in the library or through his homeroom representatives.

Officers are Robert Marik, president; George Holzwarth, vice-president; Gloria Vitale, secretary; and Hugh Williams, treasurer.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY . . . "That's My Desire"

The National Honor Society is an organization for students in the eleventh and twelfth grades who are in the upper ten per cent of their class scholastically. The faculty elects the members on the basis of not only scholarship, but also leadership, service, and character.

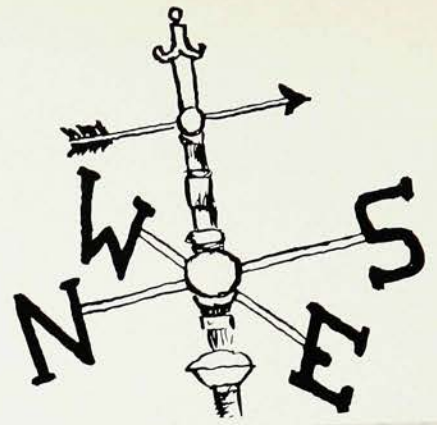

Each year an induction ceremony is given in assembly. At this time the new members are formally taken into the society. This ceremony is repeated for the parents of the new members at a reception held the following week.

Each year the society awards a prize to the two seniors who have advanced their class standing the most during their three years in high school.

The activities of the Yearbook Staff have been an overlapping combination of planning and doing. Early in the school year, planning received the most attention; as time passed, actual work was begun. Committees met in Miss Bordner's room and went to work. Thus the 1954 Weather Vane was produced.

This year's staff followed closely the criticisms made by Mr. DeWitt D. Wise, judge of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Yearbook Contest. It has been the first group, according to the adviser, willing to identify every student in every group picture. Therefore, twenty-five years from now no one will have to ask, "Who's that?"

The Hi's Eye staff published two special issues this year. The first was a six page issue honoring the fifth anniversary of the United Nations and the second, the February issue, was in honor of Lincoln. The staff of the Hi's Eye includes the following editors: John De Jong, editor; Elsie Helme, assistant editor; Jim Tindall, sports editor. Other members are Ruth LaDue, Barbara Lewis, Judie Botts, Patsy Miller, Marne Sparre, and Sally Mitchell. The adviser is Mr. Bernard O. Thomas. The journalism I class published its annual issue in May. The editor was Duke Gould; assistant editor, Zilpha Bentley; sports editor, David Weed.

Judges Select Cheer Squad

After a series of try-outs, eight girls were selected as cheerleaders for the coming season. The judges for the try-outs were Miss Lerner, Miss Taylor, Miss Lay, Miss Gruber, Miss Miller, and Miss Fosse. The cheerleaders were chosen in accordance with the cheerleading committee of the Westfield athletic council.

...vice-president, Bob Mark, secretary, George Holzworth, treasurer, Hugh Williams, and editor, Harold Thompson and Albert Bohl every other Thursday during school.

Once every two years, a handbook is issued by the student council to all students, giving the essential information about each department in the school. A committee of council members works with Mr. Fosse in compiling the year's handbook was Helen Kyriakou, a senior last year.

The council sponsors two dances a year, the Kick-Off and the Mid-Annual get-acquainted dance which is held the weekend of the first school.

Students may ask questions and make suggestions to the council in the library for this purpose. At Tuesday morning meetings, held on the council read and met the officers of the council. Those that are recommended by a majority vote is carried. Answers to all questions will be posted on a bulletin board in the library.

Each fall the council sends a delegation to the Rutgers' cheer schools in discussing problems and exchanging ideas. The Union County Student Council is a similar organization. One of its functions is to arrange exchange assemblies with other schools.

The Student Activities organization is composed of 27 captains, one from each hamerson, and when the students purchase their tickets. From each class there are three representatives: one in charge of the class officers, another who assigns the tickets, and a third who will coach the class in October 1953 and will be assistant coach of the track team. Mr. Duncan will be head coach of the track squad.

Having coached here since 1946, Mr. Michaels had an overall record of 21-12 as well as coaching several state and county champions.

Heck only retaining letters, team project, are good prospects. Mr. Smith is very optimistic about these boys' prospects.

Holding the list of juniors are Don Foley, another high ranking prospect. Glen Green seems to be the top sophomore prospect.

There are a total of twenty-one boys out for the team.

The Weather Vane Magazine, which has been published for thirty-two years, provides an outlet for creative work, both artistic and literary. Because of the cost of publication, it is issued only once a year. It is edited by a competent staff of seniors, juniors, and sophomores, directed by Miss Dolores Bordner.

The Writers' Club is made up of a group of students interested in various phases of creative writing. In addition to the monthly club periods, they also meet outside of school time, frequently serving refreshments. The members read their short stories, poems, and essays and receive criticism on them.

The Library Council does its share in serving the school by working at the library desk, helping in the magazine room, shelving books, and setting up book displays. The members also edit book lists sent to the homerooms.

Training given in our library frequently leads to employment in college libraries.

Fourth row: Ellen Miller, Alice Freeman, Mary Jane Hogan. Fifth row: Bill Wyman, Pete Tishler, Tom Gerhart, James Tindall, John Barlas, Charles Chrissey, Bob Field, John Tartar, Tony Brandt.

An interest in debate and a free evening are the two most important requirements for membership in the Forum Club, which meets in private homes once a month.

At each meeting both sides of some currently controversial issue are presented and each member is given a chance to give his own views on the subject. Among the topics discussed were "McCarthyism," "Lowering the Voting Age," and "Socialized Medicine."

One of the members, Arthur Weintraub, spoke on the panel of the "Union Junior College Town Meeting of the Air."

Each year club members attend the annual meeting of the Union County Student Forum, the association of the Forum Clubs in schools throughout the county.

Budding critics and authors, and those who are just interested in books, are eligible for membership in the Literary Club. The club meets monthly at private homes. As the name implies, the meetings are devoted to discussion of literary works of all types. Occasionally there is a speaker who discusses some literary topic. The programs this year were arranged so that the literary works under discussion were pertinent to the season of the year. Each year the club sees a current Broadway production. This year the club saw "The Teahouse of the August Moon." Adviser to the club is Miss Margaret Dietrich of the English Department.

The Photography Club has been organized by and is run by students interested in the art of photography. During club meetings, Mr. Taylor teaches and demonstrates methods of taking, developing, and printing photographs. The club is limited to eighteen members and has access to an extremely well-equipped darkroom.

An active Sportsman's Club was under the direction of Vincent King, who replaced the former adviser, Anthony Ingram. This year's program was enlivened by various movies and guest speakers. The outstanding event of the club's program will feature either a fishing trip or a visit to the state fish hatchery.

AERONAUTICS CLUB "From Here to Eternity"

The Aeronautics Club was organized this year by a small group of air-minded senior boys. With the aid of faculty adviser, Mr. Palencar, a former member of the Air Force, they have been able to hear speakers on such phases of aviation as AFROTC, private flying, and the advantages of serving with the USAF.

The purpose of the Radio Club, formed in 1951, is to create an active interest in amateur radio among the students of Westfield High School. The meetings are devoted to learning about the radio in order to pass the Federal Communications Commission examination and to receive amateur radio licenses.

RADIO CLUB "TV's the Thing"

CATALYST CLUB "Black Magic"

The Catalyst Club under the advisership of Mr. C. Blair Rogers and the presidency of George Holzwarth comprises twenty-two able chemistry students. The club sponsored lectures, demonstrations, and an assembly program on petroleum chemistry.

The French Club, "Le Quartier Latin," gives students a chance to improve their knowledge of the language and the people of "la belle France." At the monthly meetings, members play games, sing songs, perform in plays, and even conduct elections in French. On the annual New York trip in April the club eats at a French restaurant and sees a French movie.

The German Club is sponsored by Miss Louise Theurer, who recently returned from a year of study and travel in Germany. Through discussions, movies, games, and music, members become acquainted with the customs, dress, daily life, and cultural contributions of the Germans, and learn to associate language and people.

LATIN CLUB "Buried alive"

The Latin Club concluded a successful year. In December the group saw "The Robe" in New York. Movies and slides in Latin helped the members to have a greater enjoyment of the Roman customs and language. In the spring the club attended the New Jersey Junior Classical League Convention at Rutgers.

"Upon them hath the light shined." (Isaiah 9:2)

"Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people."
(St. Luke 2:10)

"And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed . . . And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem . . . to be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. (St. Luke 2:1-5)

The traditional tableau once again inspired overflowing audiences at Christmas time. The art, music, and drama departments cooperated to achieve miraculous perfection. The narrator, Tom Thomas, read the Christmas story, which was supplemented by the music of the choir and the colorful, realistic pageantry presented by the Mask and Mime Club.

"You liar, what is he to you?"

"Oh, Robert, if I could but write poetry like that!"

The senior class successfully presented "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" on February twelfth and thirteenth. The production represented a good deal of hard work on the part of the senior class. The show portrayed the intensity of the love shared by Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning, despite the jealous attempts of Mr. Barrett to prevent it. The period costuming added to the success of the play. The production of this play was the biggest project of the senior class. The proceeds helped to finance "The Weather Vane Annual," the class gift, and the senior banquet.

First row: Tommy Thomas (reader), Alison Bailey, Caroline Stewart, Betsy Riederer, Betty Day.

CHOIR "At Dawning"

In the fall the choir gave its first performance for the P.T.A. Convention in Atlantic City. This was followed by the Christmas Tableaux, given annually by the choir and Mask and Mime. The choir spent a great deal of time in the spring rehearsing in the "wee hours" of the morning for their trip to Scarsdale and N.Y.U. on March 26. The following week their successful year was culminated in the annual Spring Festival — a memorable experience for all those who attended. Included in their repertoire were "Waters Ripple and Flow," "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes," "I Won't Dance," "Howl Ye," "Night and Day," "The Lord's Prayer," "Joshua Fit de Battle ob Jericho," "Advent Motet," and "Yonder Yonder."

CHORUS I "I Can't Carry a Tune"

Girls' Chorus I, largely composed of sophomores, is the beginning group for first-year students in the music department. This year's chorus has done especially well, singing in both the Christmas assembly and the Music Festival. Susan Dowell was elected chairman and Peggy Smyers assistant chairman. The accompanist this year was Sally Ahearn.

The advanced Girls' Chorus is made up of seniors and those underclassmen who have proved their ability in choral music. The group's first performance was for a P.T.A. meeting in the fall. Later in the year the chorus participated in the traditional Christmas program for the school and the annual Spring Festival. The girls have worked hard under the leadership of Joan Hovendon (chairman), and Diane Packard (assistant chairman). Kathy Wellman is the group's capable accompanist.

CHORUS II "With a Song in My Heart"

BOYS' GLEE CLUB "Ain't We Got Fun"

The Boys' Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Janet Grimler, has again received recognition as a superior choral group. This year they appeared in the Christmas program and the Spring Festival and also gave an assembly program for the junior high school. The officers were Robert Jones, chairman, and Howard Bonnett, assistant chairman. Marcia Bauer was the accompanist for the group, whose repertoire included such songs as "Erie Canal," "Two Guitars," "Serenade," and "Testament of Freedom."

THE TWELVE "Find Me a Primitive Man"

"The Twelve," which was chosen in the fall, is the girls' specialty group. They sang for the girls' hockey day, a civil defense meeting, the McKinley School Founders' Day luncheon, the Rotary Club, and the Spring Festival. Among the songs they will be remembered for are "Wonderful Guy," "Speak Low," "Ten Little Indians," "Where or When" and "I'll See You Again."

ORCHESTRA "Symphony"

"Seeing is believing"

The Westfield High School Orchestra, under the direction of Robert Banks, played a variety of music in accompaniment to the Mask and Mime and the Senior Plays. In March the Orchestra also presented a fine selection of numbers for the Annual Spring Music Festival. In addition to these performances the Orchestra played for the assemblies and other school functions.

Under the leadership of their new director, Robert Banks, the 1954 Band performed excellently during both the football and the concert seasons.

The Band displayed many new gridiron formations and spectacular shows for half-time entertainment. The Hallowe'en and Memorial Day Parades were also important functions of the Marching Band.

The Annual Winter Concert and the spring "Pops Concert" were the high spots in an exciting year.

Although the football season this year was rather disappointing from a won and lost standpoint, there were enough twisting runs and "last ditch" goal line stands to thrill even the most lukewarm crowd. One Saturday after another, the Blue Devils proved their fightin' spirit and, in spite of injuries and setbacks, came back undaunted. One of the high points of the schedule came in our long overdue victory against

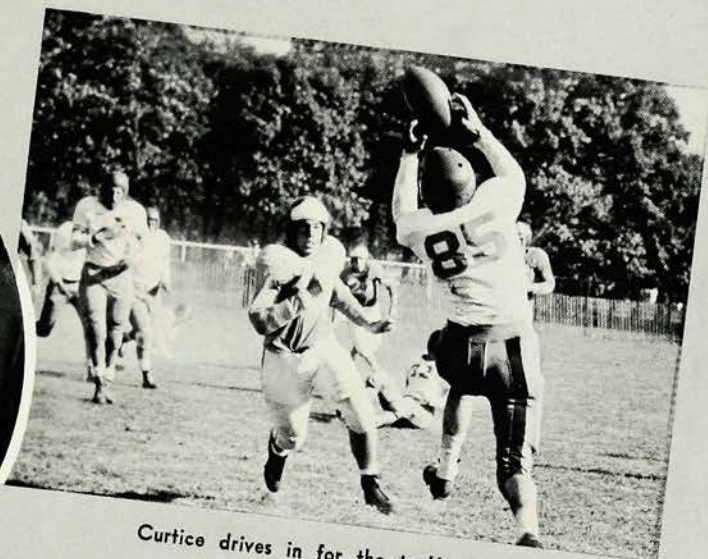

Bound Brook. No fan will ever forget that cold, gray November afternoon when the Big Blue Team rose to defeat a highly favored Regional eleven. Snake dances, car parades, and hoarse shouts of victory lasted far into the night. It was easily the greatest display of school spirit seen in quite a while. Playing a rugged slate of powerhouses did not discourage the boys in the least. The Union and Rahway games were particularly tough ones to lose. Certainly the 1953 Westfield Senior High School football team, led by Captain Curt Oertel, reached new heights in spirit and determination, while playing to the limit of their ability; and it is these factors, not won-and-lost records, which determine the true value of a football team. The coaches, the school, and the whole town can rightfully be proud of their 1953 team.

BASKETBALL .

The basketball team this year was the best in many seasons. Not only did the hoopsters compile an enviable record, both in scheduled and tournament play, but the games themselves were tense and colorful. Time and again, just when the game seemed hopelessly lost, the boys poured in 3, 4, and 5 baskets in a row, snatching victory from impending defeat, usually in the last few seconds of play.

These "Garrison finishes" became a trademark throughout the season, much to the joy of jampacked crowds. The school supported the team magnificently, and at most of the home games there was standing room only.

“Stout-Hearted Men”

Ably co-captained by Harris Mosher and Bob Medley, and including such court stalwarts as Joe Ventimiglia, Jack Wiley, Howard Bonnett, and Bob Ericsson, the 1953-54 Basketball Team sent many fans scurrying to their mental record books, unable to remember more exciting play.

Who can forget the overtimes against Summit and Linden, or the flying fists of the Cranford game, or even the heart-breaking tournament loss to a powerhouse St. Mary's Team? Coach John Lay and his boys have enjoyed a wonderful season in every sense of the word.

BASEBALL "Play Ball"

Coach Noel Taylor is looking forward to a fine baseball campaign. Depth at several infield positions and on the mound seems to be his chief worry at the moment. Captain Joe Ventimiglia and Sonny Bonneau are slated for two of the outfield positions, while Jack Wade and Bob Medley will grapple for 3rd base.

Curtice Oertel and Dale Grosvenor will divide 2nd base duties, but there will be a wide open battle for the remaining spots. Bob Marik and Bob List are expected to share the hurling assignments, with relief aid coming from Duke Gould. Artie Horner seems to have the catching position "wrapped up."

The swimming team this year had only a mediocre season. In his second year as swimming mentor, Coach Vincent King lost quite a few lettermen and spent much time rebuilding, with an eye to the future.

This year, however, the Westfield natators scored impressive victories over Jefferson, Rahway, and North Plainfield, while placing second in Union County. The team was built around freestyler Roger Anderson and backstrokers John Scott and Captain Hugh Williams.

Anderson, next year's captain-elect and a member of the All-American Swimming Team, proved to be a very bright star. He eclipsed many freestyle records in his specialty, the 200 yard distance, and culminated the season with a second place in the All Eastern Championships held at Princeton, N. J.

SWIMMING "Drifting and Dreaming"

Co-captains Harris Mosher and Alden Welch with coaches Kenneth Smida and Robert Duncan.

Coach Robert Duncan and his assistant, Kenneth Smida, will face a giant rebuilding job to meet the challenge of this year's Spring Track schedule.

The only returning lettermen are the senior co-captains, Alden Welch and Harris Mosher. Welch is an outstanding high jumper who also runs in the hurdles, while Mosher is a jack of all trades, running the hurdles and sprints and throwing the shot.

The distance men on the 1954 team include Ed Robinson, Ronny Randall, and Pete Heck. Jim Robinson, Gil Paradies, and Pete Pfaff will be the mainstays of the weight events. The balance of the team will be selected from a host of sophomores and juniors.

TRACK "Speed Away"

The 1953 Cross Country team, coached by Kenneth Smida, compiled a 2-3 record in five dual meets. Lettermen in this grueling sport were Captain Pete Heck, George Holzwarth, Don Feeley, and Eddie Robinson.

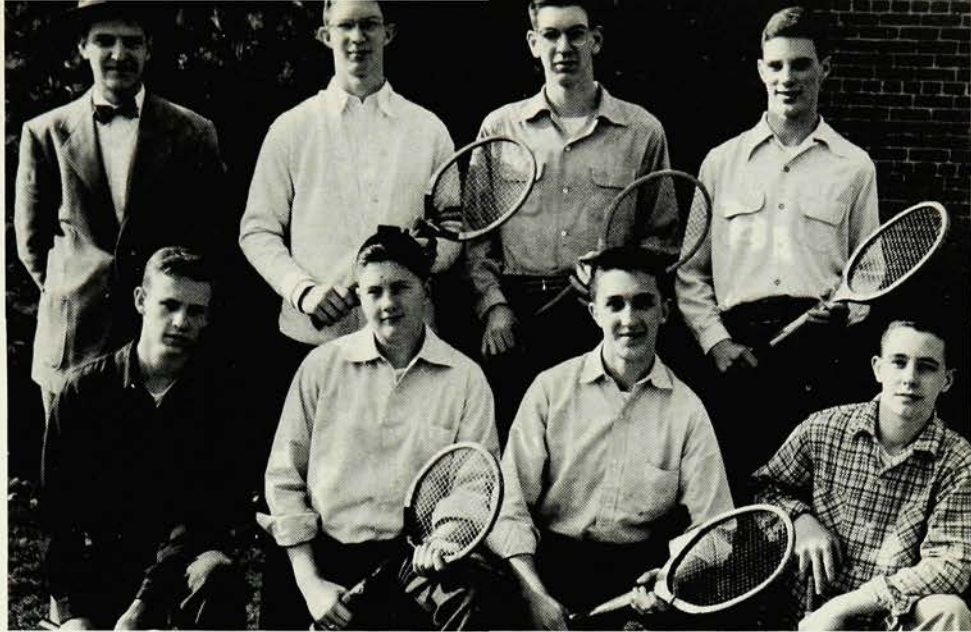

The Westfield harriers were hampered throughout the season by injuries and bad weather, but managed to record wins over Roselle and Kearny and to place 5th in the Union County Championships. Eddie Robinson placed 12th in the New Jersey State Championships. Captain-elect Feeley is looking forward to a better season next year.

The 1954 Tennis Team, coached by Samuel Bunting, is looking forward to another good season. They will have last year's nearly perfect 12-1 record to aim at. Despite the loss of several let terms, the team this year should be quite well-balanced.

Returning veterans Bill Fullard and Bob Cassidy and the top doubles combination of Howard Bonnett and Don Drake should be the nucleus of this year's netsters.

Home matches are held at the Westfield Tennis Club.

TENNIS "Changing Partners"

GOLF "It Happens Every Spring"

Coach Walter Johnson's linksters are looking forward to a successful season. Ralph Bennett, the only returning letterman from last year's Union County Championship Team, will form the nucleus of this year's squad. Ralph played consistent golf last year and lost the County Championship by one stroke to Westfielder Alan Schuster.

Battling for place on the Golf Team will be last year's returnees: Johnny Tartar, Bruce Crichton, Barry Maxwell, and Tommy Thomas plus a host of sophomores.

Home matches are played at Echo Lake Country Club; and the team expects to enter the County and State Tourneys as well.

The cheerleaders this year did an unusually fine job of inspiring school spirit. They planned football and basketball rallies, demonstrated many new cheers, and encouraged school attendance at athletic events.

Led by co-captains Martha Ellis and Kathy Steiner, the cheer squad planned many novel programs and cheer assemblies.

During solo routines or in connection with the band, the twirlers performed consistently well during the 1953 football season. With sparkling rhythm and finesse, they put on many thrilling shows, including the daring fire-baton act by Dolores De Caprio, head twirler. At the head of parades or on the gridiron, the twirlers personified the great Westfield High spirit.

G. S. C. "Isn't It Kinda Fun"

The Girls' Sports schedule, headed by the GSC (Girls' Sports Committee), provides an integrated program of school and extra-curricular athletics, including hockey, basketball, badminton, modern and country dancing, and marching.

The Girls' Sports year is climaxed by Field Day, which features marching competition as well as recognition for good grooming among squads and platoons. All girls participate in this finale of their year's sports program.

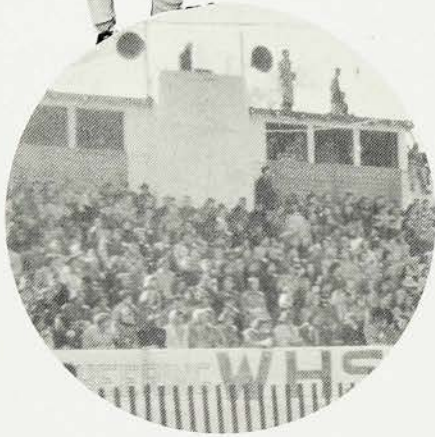

AWARD GIRLS "You're the Tops"

CLASS PROPHECY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 20, 1969 (AP) — Recently elected President Jack Schaible's inaugural ball was held last night in Washington. The event was broadcast over station WWHs by Ruth LaDue and John DeJong, of the Lunar News, through the courtesy of Mary Yenser and the Healey Inc. Used Car Lot and the Richard Peterson Trucking Co. One of those interviewed was Judge Marcia Bauer, recently appointed head of juvenile courts. Judge Bauer helped point out such interesting personages as Greg Devers, the world's foremost authority on the art of bar tending; Mary Lou Dowell, who just established a housing project at Seaside Heights which she rents at cut rate prices to the seniors from W.H.S.; and Lois Littlefield, who crushes grapes in her bare feet for Manoshevets Wine Co.

The former Mary Jane Hogan was there also. She is now a horticulturist raising little "bushes." She was talking with Jack Wade, who just recently told Dan Bowers why "Life Is Worth Living." Ed Ferrari and Jim Quinn, co-owners of a million dollar ranch in Brazil; Tony Turner, the president of Standard Oil; and Diane Packard, who claims she spends most of her time "Sittin' in the sun, countin' my money," attended.

A special space telegram of congratulations was received by the President from Space Ranger Robert Wilson, who, with Alden Welch as chaperon, recently blasted off from Captain Video's secret hideout with Kathy Steiner, newly elected Miss Pluto; Nick Caniguila, who is building huts on Mars for the Lyndhurst Laplander; botanist, Nancy Jane Buhren-dorf, who left for the moon with an exploratory group under the command of Bob Jones to see if mushrooms grow there (the group went in Bob Priddy's flying saucer); and the two party goers, Gig Hollingsworth and Marvin Denning, both of whom are making whoopee on foreign planets.

Among the best dressed there were Sylvia Carver and Diane Johnson, co-demonstrators of veils for Farouk's exile haven, and Joyce Benninger, Delores De Caprio and Mary Ann Romagnoli, who run a Coconut-Drive-In-Bar on Seaweed Lane in Hawaii. These three girls mentioned that their best customer is Kathy Wellman, who is directing a high school choir there while she waits for Tommy Thomas to finish roller skating up Mount Everest. Diane said that she had recently heard from Ellen Miller, who reported sighting Emily Ferguson riding in a rickshaw pulled by Edna Mae Dietrich as she was soloing on her Stradivarius in downtown Bombay, India.

The armed forces were well represented last night, also. Dorothy White, a sergeant in the WAC's, looked very chic. Larry Boyle and Melvin Knight, Air Force captains, and Serge Gonzales, an admiral in the Navy, were seen talking to Liz Beck, who runs a co-ed military academy, and Liz Rugh, who spends most of her time mending bell bottom trousers.

The refreshments for the evening were "Sloppy Joes" supplied by Dot Eiffler, and tortillas supplied by Elna Fortenbaugh. They were a real challenge to Patsy Steiger, who just planned a bigger and better reducing diet, and to Mary Rumble, who is trying to follow it. Near the refreshment table Grace Alpher, who is reputed to be still contemplating the composition of the cosmos, was sighted talking with Bruce Crichton, the only one of the class of 1954 who hasn't graduated yet. He is trying to pass math.

Among the members of the class that were unable to be there were Pat Duff, Pat Klein, Nancy Lagergren, Barbara Lewis, Barbara Lippman, and Elizabeth MacFarland, who are on a safari in the African Jungle; Charles Bartel, who is leading a safari through the Japanese garden at WHS; Grace Mirabella, Geraldine Fuchs, Helen Earhart and Betty Bunker, who are taking a world cruise on Betty's 98 foot full-rigged ship; Doug Peterson, who was reading "Pogo" while repairing electric chairs in the federal penitentiary; Peggy Fleming, who is helping Eartha Kitt look for the ding-dong; Judie Couzens, the first woman to bail out of a jet over Estonia; Joan Grander, the beachcomber "Down By the Brandywine"; and Margaret Flint, who is living in a cabin "Somewhere Over the Rainbow." One of the more adventurous of the class is Marcia Yocom. She was the first woman explorer to round Cape May, and she is still recovering from the experience. Marilyn Miller is now 4,000 feet under water in a diving bell. Carol Reddell, much to the envy of the ladies present, is diving "Beneath the 12 Mile Reef" with Robert Wagner. Tony Brandt and Barbara Rescorla are digging clams for Tony's Bait and Tackle Shop.

Among the late arrivals was Jean Harrison, the house mother of the Deke's. The young men surrounding her were her charges. They're also the reason why Chris Mowry is often seen "On the Banks of the Old Raritan." The other late guests included Ginny Perkins, who arrived in her Siata Spider; Peter Laffan, who made his fortune selling "Beat Army" buttons at Annapolis; John Scott, who built the second 102 stories on the Empire State Building; Harris Mosher, a moonshiner from the Ozarks; Margie Staub, who runs a taxi service to all away basketball games; Diane Clark, the laundress in a Chinese Laundry; and Alice Freeman, who just made the football team.

The entertainment was provided by Pat McKee, who plays the baritone horn with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and Lill Hansen, the famous trombone player. Elsie Helme and Audrey Gleason played the organ. Marilyn Leslie, the prima ballerina of the Russian ballet, danced, and Dick Peterson, who first became famous by standing in front of Hoyerman's singing "How Dry I Am," sang that selection.

The President arrived with the Chief Justice and his secretary, Joyce Lee Wirth. He made a brief speech of welcome, and also took time to thank publicly Arline French, the talented young artist who recently painted murals on all the White House walls. Mr. Schaible then mingled with his guests, and spent a very enjoyable evening, one that will long be remembered by all.

Class Will

We the completely disgruntled and virtually disgusted class of 1954, do hereby set forth for posterity and for lack of anything better to do, our Last Will and Testament in which we bequeath to those poor unfortunate species of homo sapiens still faced with another year or more at the "Plant," all those things that have become near and dear to us during our three years of transgression.

- First: To the junior boys we leave Miss Solomon.
- Second: To all future classes we leave the dream of another Senior Day.
- Third: To Tage Forssen we leave a Thompson Sub-Machine Gun so he may quickly cut down any insurrection that arises during lunch period.
- Fourth: To anyone who is fool enough to want it, we leave Marlowe Szelzer's car.
- Fifth: To the relief of Sonny Bonneau, we leave behind us all the nickle debts that he has incurred.
- Sixth: To the junior or sophomore girl who most desired it, we leave Dixie Berse's walk.

Seventh: To the cafeteria we leave one horse, forlorn and weary, to be used to improve next year's hot plates.

Eighth: To Mr. Boss Thompson we leave a Breath-O-Meter so that he may determine the tobacco content of certain members of the student body.

Ninth: To anyone, absolutely anyone, we leave Bob Walker's stale jokes!

Tenth: To Mr. Rogers we leave Fantoni's bottle of Charles DeWitt's Formula Nine.

Eleventh: To any deserving group of junior girls we leave the F.O.'s.

Twelfth: To the great joy of Mr. Foote, Mr. Thompson, the faculty, and the majority of the student body, we leave.

Signed and witnessed in those mysterious hours before dawn, when Joe Friday and Frank Smith were still smoking Chesterfields.
