FOREWORD

Seasons come; seasons go; and yet some seasons stay. They remain in your thoughts as memories. Four seasons are gathered here so that each of you might remember, not once but often, many "fabulous" hours. Thus we, the Class of 1958, humbly offer to you this collection of your memories.

DEDI

Swifty and Mr. Lay, we the Class of '58 dedicate this yearbook to you in appreciation of the inter-

MRS. GERTRUDE ROGERS

"Forward hunch!" This familiar Swiftyism has for thirty years exemplified Mrs. Rogers' enthusiasm and desire to help teen-age girls adjust and mature. Through our participation in her physical education program we learn not only the important techniques of sports but also the essential concepts of fair play which Swifty is so well qualified to teach. Despite the many time consuming responsibilities and duties she assumes, Swifty manages to call most of her 600 students by name. Swifty, by her example of sincere and personal concern, has made us aware of the importance of accepting our responsibilities as underclassmen, as seniors, and as the leaders of tomorrow.

in us throughout our high school days.

MR. JOHN LAY

Mr. Lay, our "great guy," is the well-liked basketball and golf coach. In his six years at Westfield High he has continually produced outstanding teams. Much of this success certainly can be attributed to the efficiency and perseverance for which he is known.

Through his contact with the boys of Westfield High School, Mr. Lay instills in them a valuable sense of responsibility which influences their attitude toward the competition in sports, studies, and everyday life.

We indeed know how fortunate those future students of Westfield High School will be, for they will also benefit from Mr. Lay's friendship and guidance as we have.

Hampered by a small turnout of football candidates and the Asian Flu epidemic, Westfield's Blue Devils posted a 3-6 record for the 1957 campaign.

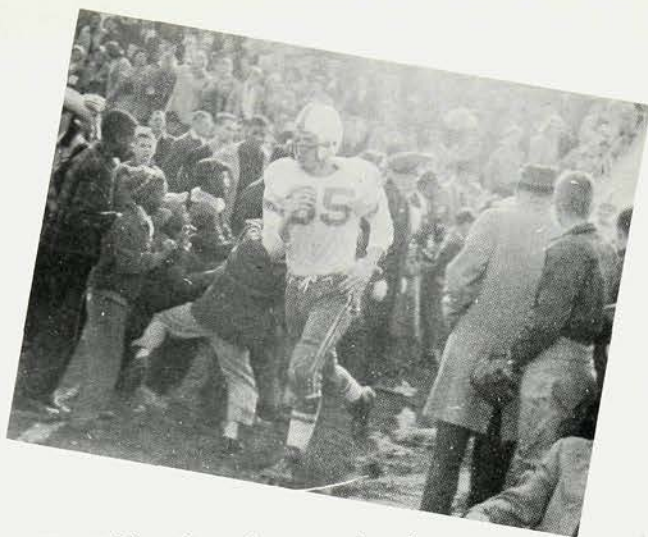

The Blue Devils had a rough time getting started under their new head coach, Les Zorge, but their performances improved in every game. After dropping three of their first four contests, they knocked off Bound Brook and Springfield Regional to bring their record to the .500 mark.

Then they ran up against three of the best teams in the state, North Plainfield, Rahway, and Plainfield. Although they put up a good fight against these three opponents, fate was simply against them. After showing up better against Rahway and North Plainfield, the Blue Devils looked forward to the traditional turkey day classic with Plainfield.

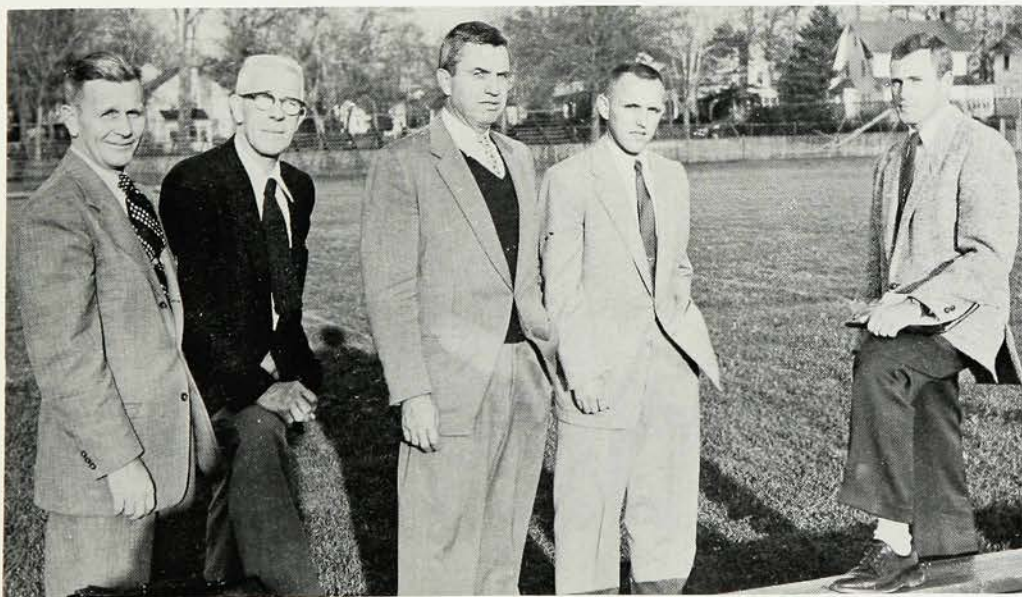

All those who witnessed this hard fought battle realized that the Cardinals did not leave Westfield with all their feathers as was predicted by all the local newspapers. At half time the score remained 0-0. In the third period we scored, but were not able to hold the lead, and Plainfield notched their last win. The Devils played the best game of the year that morning and left the gridiron with their heads high.

Trotman, Westfield's right end appears keyed up for the second half of the Turkey Day Game.

"Thanksgiving Day Game"

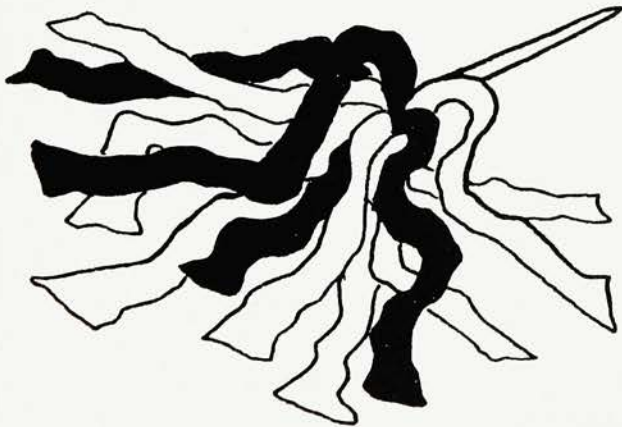

The night before the game brings out a crowd to the Pep Rally, where the Plainfield Cardinal is burned in effigy.

Twirlers

This year the twirling squad received additional help from Miss Marion Taylor who not only aided in devising their routines for each game but also introduced a new style of marching. Specialties during the season were majorette Susan Jacobus's half time routines and an Indian War Dance at the North Plainfield game. The climax, of course, was the Plainfield game when Sue introduced twirling with fire. Seniors Susan Ruckert and Ethel Anne Mount performed with two batons, and the underclassmen waved blue and white flag batons in unison.

Cheerleaders

Once again Westfield produced the unique. Many students had requested the revival of boy cheerleaders, and when football season arrived four handsome seniors answered the call. Many hours of practice were put in before each game by both the boys and the girls supervised by Miss Marion Taylor. Much of the credit for our high Westfield spirit this year should go to Captain Elizabeth Putnam and her cohorts who managed to keep enthusiasm at a feverish pitch.

When basketball season arrived these girls quickly changed their blazers and skirts for jumpers and the gridiron for the gym, but they still kept that same Westfield spirit resounding throughout the game.

The Band, composed of sixty people under the direction of Mr. Robert Banks, performed in three concerts this year, its formal concert, an exchange program for Scotch Plains High School, and an informal "Pops" concert in the spring. During the football season it marched at all the games, surprising many of the spectators with its intricate formations. The officers this year were Jim Duncan, president; Danny Pearce, vice-president; Jini Clarkson, secretary; and Bruce Graham, treasurer.

Coach Lou Recchia's harriers finished up their season this year with a 4-6 record. The Asian Flu and injuries plagued the team, allowing the new coach to field an entire team only once all season. Captain Tom Sisko, however, pulled through in time for the county meet, placing himself eighth of 100 runners and boosting the team's standing to fifth place.

Next year's co-captains, Ed Ayers—who posted the best time of the year—and Jim Heatly, are looking forward to a fine season. Right on their heels will be Nick Martain and Miles Schmidt, two more returning lettermen.

Variety is the keynote of the Girls' Physical Education Department, for there are as many activities as there are months in the school year. Autumn brings field hockey and soccer, the latter having been initiated just this year. After Thanksgiving, basketball, volleyball, and modern dance move into the spotlight along with badminton and stunts. Before exam time several class periods are devoted to lessons on relaxation, and after the gym program in May there is still time for softball.

Many of these sports are also held after school for the benefit of those who are especially interested and want to learn more. Often the girls who participate in hockey, basketball and softball after school compete against teams from neighboring high schools.

LEADERS

Weekly throughout the school year, approximately eighty girls meet to discuss leadership responsibilities and to learn skills in hockey, soccer, or basketball. These leaders aid the physical education instructors by taking attendance and managing various other jobs in the department.

In the second semester another group, composed largely of sophomores, meets to learn the duties and qualifications of a leader in preparation for possible leadership the following year. The trainees either have been recommended by past leaders or else have requested leadership themselves.

GIRLS' SPORTS COUNCIL

The Girls' Sports Council, more commonly referred to as the G.S.C., is composed of twenty-six girls who represent all the girls in the school.

During the year the G.S.C. sold blue and white beanies with a blue devil monogrammed in front and also sponsored two dances, the Turkey Trot in November and the country dance in March. In the fall the girls were hostesses to the North Atlantic Field Hockey Tournament held in Westfield this year.

Supervising the G.S.C. are Mrs. Gertrude Rogers, Miss Barbara Ayres and Miss Marion Taylor.

The Mask and Mime Play

The Mask and Mime fall play, Onions in the Stew, a sensitive and extremely humorous portrayal of the life and family of authoress Betty MacDonald (The Egg and I), delighted large audiences. In it, the family, her husband Don and two teenage daughters, Joan and Anne, succeed in involving themselves in all sorts of problems which proved amusing to the audience.

The play opens as the MacDonalds are moving to the lovely, but isolated, Vashon Island near Seattle, Washington. The MacDonald family manage to pull through the numerous crises of island living—clanking plumbing, unexpected weekend guests, and week-long snowstorms—to emerge with their love of Vashon and their good humor intact.

The Choir means different things to different people. Those not in the Choir see the group perform only twice a year, but the production of these performances is impressive. To mothers of choir members, the Choir is the reason they awaken their children for morning rehearsals and iron choir robes. To the choir members, the Choir is the succession of rehearsals, the embarrassment of jumping a lead, the candles that will not light, the tradition of "The Hallejuah Chorus," the crying senior girls at the end of the Spring Festival, and the fun of the choir picnic, when the work is over and only the pleasure of accomplishment remains.

Hallelujah: for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth:

TABLEAUX

And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given:

GIRLS' CHORUS II

The Advanced Girls' Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Gleason, performed at the school Christmas program and the Spring Festival. This group studies challenging musical pieces, and hence it requires vocal ability to be chosen as a member. This year's chairman of Chorus II was Susan Jacobus, and the vice-chairman was Priscilla Putnam. The group was accompanied by Judy Werner and Barbara Elcome.

GIRLS' CHORUS I

The Girls' Chorus I is a beginners' group in which the girls are taught the fundamentals of choral music. Under the direction of Mrs. Gleason, this year's chorus made appearances in the Christmas assembly program and the Music Festival. Leila Bunnell and Nancy Ullrich accompanied Chorus I, and the chairman and vice-chairman were Judy Kiepe and Nancy Schneider, respectively.

FIRST ROW: A. Fisher, P. Larsen, D. Frantz, B. Darby, P. Hallam, J. Hackett, D. Dixon, T. McCrann, C. Guttenberger, T. Lightbown, A. Strock. SECOND ROW: M. Bristol, M. Martin, J. Reed, C. Wistar, K. BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The Boys' Glee Club, under Mrs. Gleason's direction, made two appearances this year, in the school's Christmas program and at the Spring Festival. Accompanied by Malcolm Mackenzie and Alan Fisher, this group sang a variety of music, including both religious and humorous pieces. Jay Pierson was the chairman of Glee Club this year, with Joel Thompson serving as vice-chairman.

“THE TWELVE”

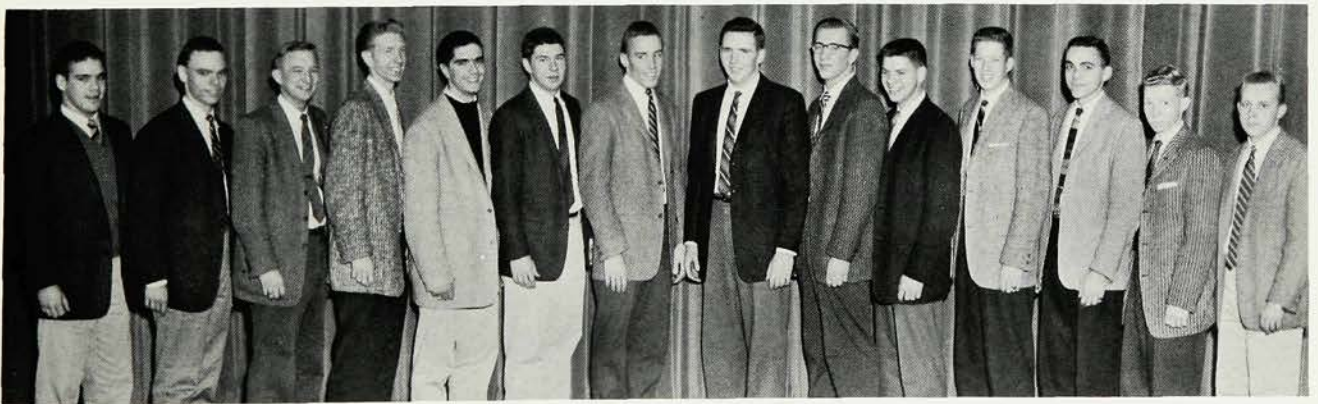

J. Carlisle, J. Leavy, S. Fortenbaugh, C. Flannery, S. Jacobus, E. Litch, J. Arundale, J. Barnett, P. Loeb, D. Sparre, B. Bigelow, M. Harrison and J. Werner, accompanists.

After weeks of competitive auditions, twelve senior girls were chosen to compose this year's "Twelve." Accompanied by Martha Harrison and Judy Werner, and directed by Mrs. Gleason, these girls appeared at gatherings of various organizations, including the Junior Women's Club, the YWCA, the Methodist Men's Club, and the American Legion. The highlight of the year for the "Twelve" was its appearance at the Spring Festival, at which the girls sang "Stairway to the Stars" and "Thumbelina."

Several times during the year, the "Twelve" and the "Thirteen" joined forces to sing "Comin' Thru the Rye" and "Stardust."

The "Thirteen," composed of thirteen senior boys, made its first appearance at "Back-to-School Night," in September, and continued to appear before various groups in the community, some of which were the American Legion, the Women's Club, and the Methodist Father-Daughter Banquet. The boys were ably accompanied by Andrew McCashin. At the Music Festival, the "Thirteen" made a memorable appearance in red tuxedo jackets to sing "Birth of the Blues" and "Without a Song."

“THE THIRTEEN”

R. Beck, D. MacLaughlin, B. Lenskold, J. Thompson, D. Luerssen, J. Reis, T. Bentley, T. McCrann, F. Schmidt, B. Darby, C. Hermann, D. MacNeil, A. Strock, A. McCashin, accompanist.

Duncan, Mr. Banks, director; E. Leonhardt, D. Johnson, E. Weaver, M. Morris, L. Badeau, S. Merrill, A. Heiple, B. Woodruff, W. Mozealous.

The Westfield High School Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Robert Banks, has performed at various times throughout the year. It provided music for the Fall Play and the Senior Play, and also for several school assemblies.

THE SENIOR PLAY

The Senior Class production of William Shakespeare's Twelfth Night was highly successful, both to the class and the audiences who showed their appreciation and delight by braving the heaviest snow-storm of the year to attend the play. Charming, bright Elizabethan costumes and strikingly effective scenery enlivened the plot of mistaken identity and misplaced love. All involved in the play, from the highly efficient stage crew to the cast itself, made the first Shakespearian play presented in Westfield High School an occasion to be remembered.

Spence Thompson of the Alumni sinks a hook; guarding him is Bob Haines of the Varsity.

The Westfield Alumni cagers returned on December 23 to engage this past year's varsity in the second annual alumni game sponsored by the Class of '58. Trailing 43-29 after three periods, the '58 Blue Devils rallied to produce a thrilling finish but could not overtake their varsity predecessors and bowed 51-49. John Guthrie, senior star, led all scorers with 17 points, followed by '57 captain, Mac Quigley, who had 12. Other outstanding alumni performances were turned in by Harris Mosher, Delaware; Spencer Thompson, Holy Cross; and Ferdy Shoemaker, Princeton.

J. V. WRESTLING

The year 1958 marked the comeback of wrestling to Westfield High School. The team was comprised of juniors and sophomores only and was coached by Mr. Kehler, the backfield football coach. Westfield's grapplers compiled a 5-3 record, which is exceptional considering the amount of training the team had received. The boys are looking forward to varsity wrestling next year and are preparing themselves now.

Captain John Guthrie, an all county prospect, inspired Coach John Lay's court men to a winning season. The 1958 campaign led to a 9-8 tally.

The team was seeded sixth in the county and almost upset Linden in the most thrilling game of the year. Linden, the outstanding team in the county, was brilliantly held to a tie till the last two minutes, when the Lindenites broke the deadlock to win 47-40. The team suffered from inexperience, having only one senior returning. Ken Hite and Bob Haines, guard and center respectively, should be outstanding players next year. They will be backed up by Tom Gilson, Tom Dudley and Larry Richie, a trio of trouble.

Coach Kursar's mermen led by Captain Terry Bentley completed the 1958 campaign without feeling the pains of defeat. One of the high points of Westfield's season was traveling to Columbia and becoming the first team to defeat them in their own pool!

This is the first swimming team in the history of Westfield High School that has been undefeated. These powerful swimmers easily grasped the county title and went on to the greatest victory we have had. On March 8, 1958, at Princeton's Dayton Memorial Pool the Westfield Swimming Team splashed to a thrilling victory, bringing home with them the State Championship Trophy. Inspired by an immense cheering section from Westfield, our mermen drowned Columbia and Trenton, their opponents.

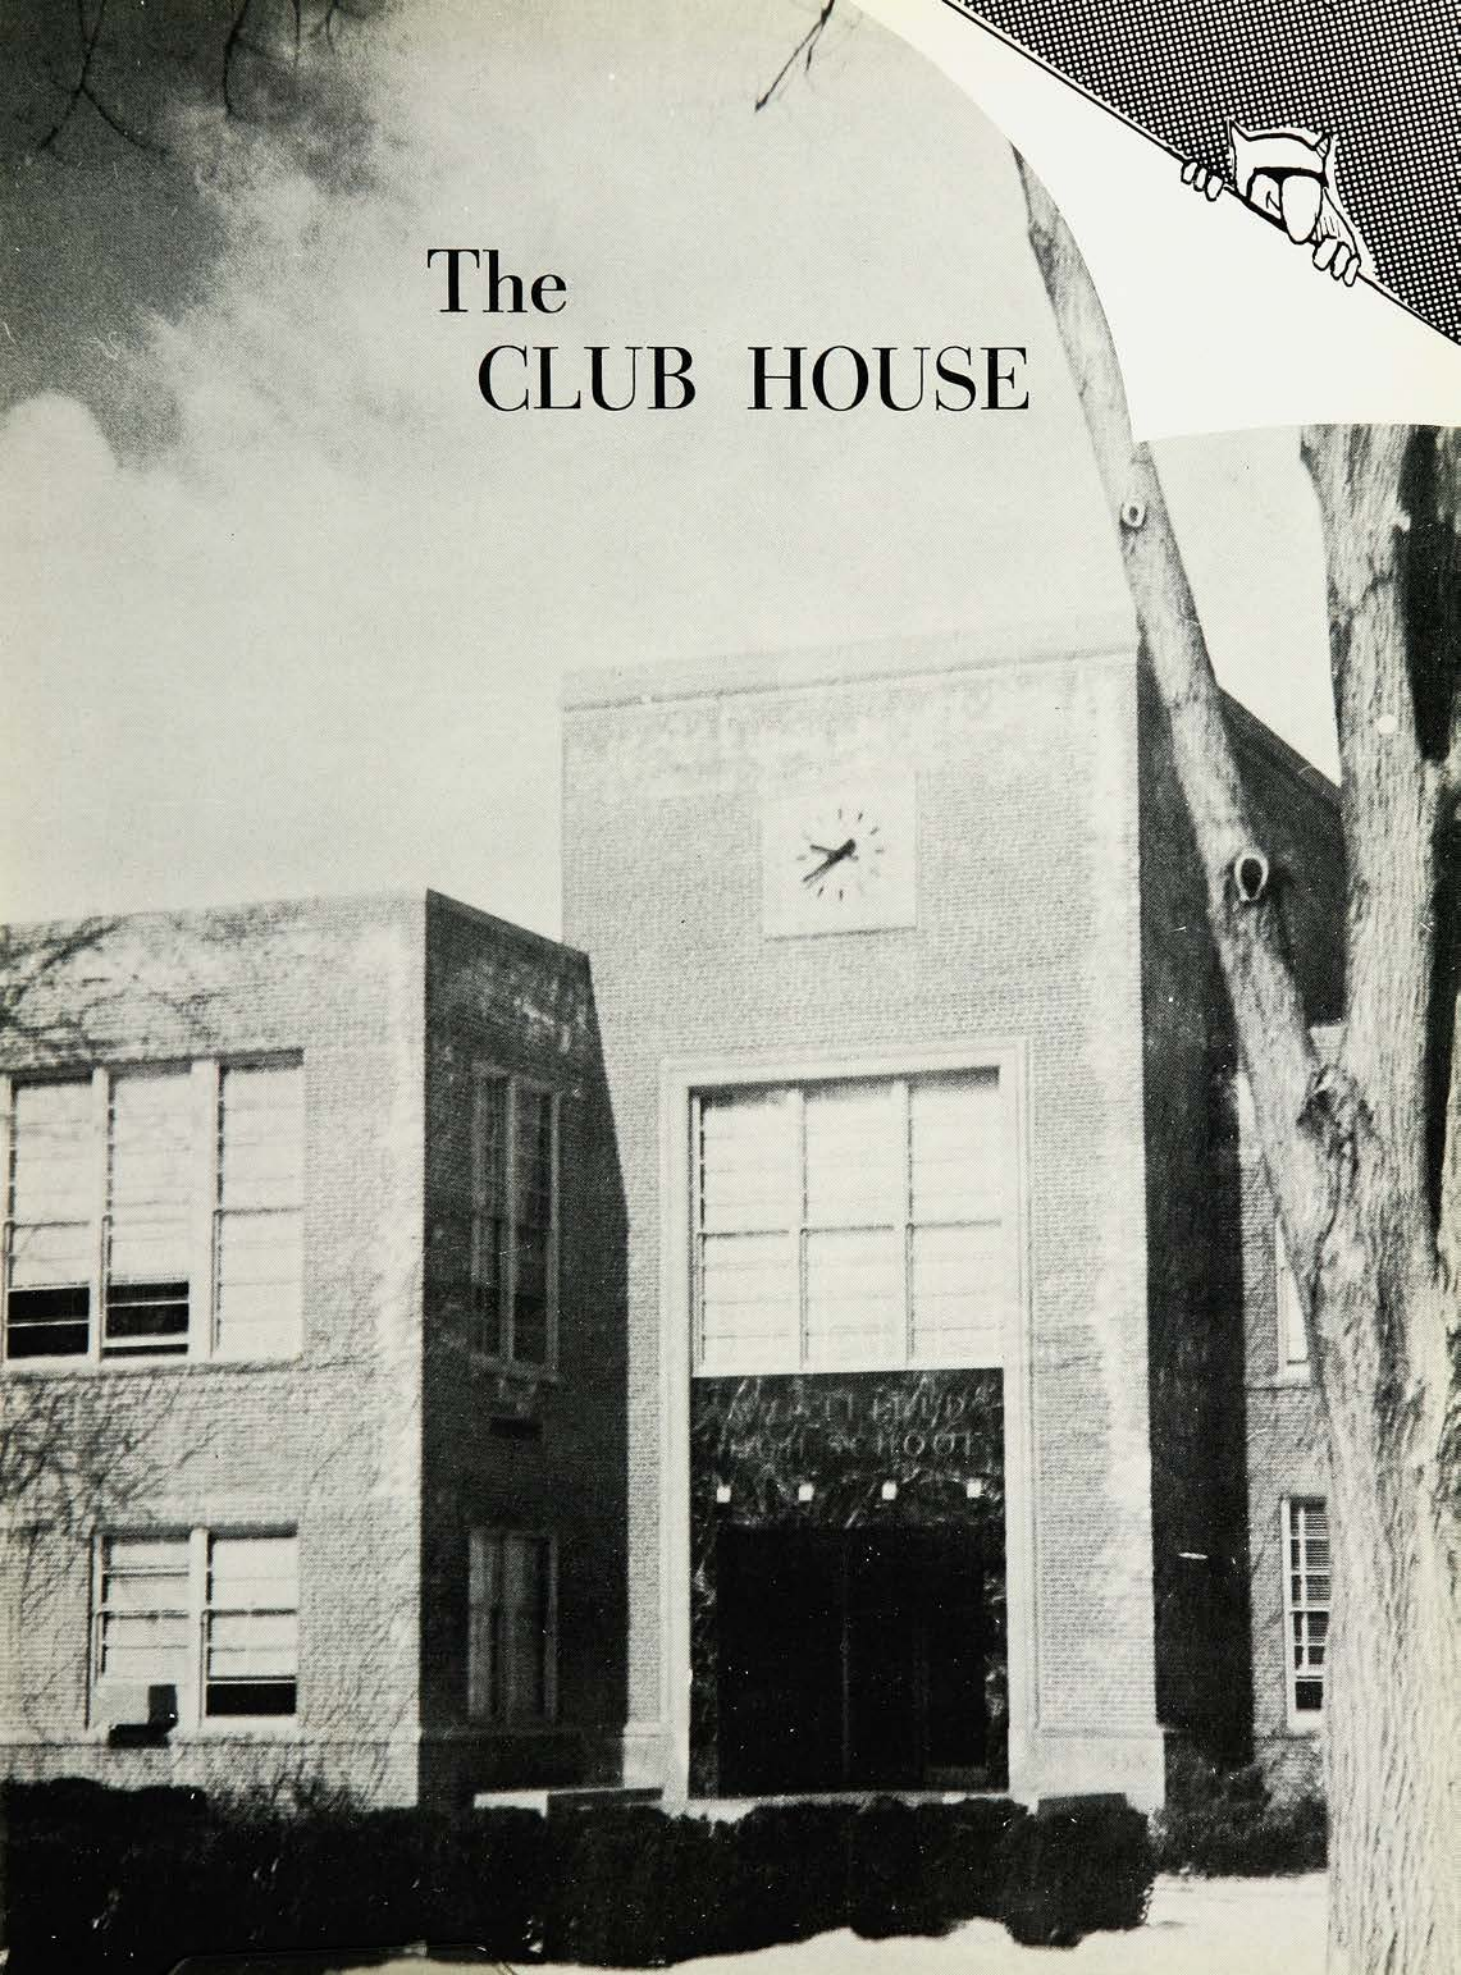

Among the high scorers were Bentley, Pierson, Hinebauch and Marshall who consistently shared the first place honors. The boys left a trail of records throughout the state and established themselves as one of the best teams Westfield High has ever produced.

Although our Student Council has always been an active organization, this year's group has been an exceptionally energetic one. The legislative body of the school, its members are the voice of the students. This year through the efforts of the Student Council, the school boasts a wrestling team for the first time since 1941. A school store carrying all materials needed by students has been set up and is being supervised by the council. Arrangements have been made for a blue devil mascot at sports events.

To raise money for these and other activities, the Student Council holds two dances, the Kick-Off Dance and the Mid-Winter Ball, and holds a book cover sale. The money has gone to finance projects such as an exchange student program, buses to away games, and the Thanksgiving Pep Rally.

The student body is kept informed of Council activities through open meetings, the newspaper, and by reports by homeroom representatives.

The Junior Red Cross Council, under the guidance of Mrs. Cameron and Mrs. Florey, is primarily a service club. The club conducts two drives a year: the first, the Jr. Red Cross Membership Drive and the second, the Children's Country Home Drive. Projects during the year include decorating the Lyons Hospital and packing Overseas Gift Boxes.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

Members of the Library Council give one period each week to the many and varied tasks of running the library. Helping at the desk, shelving books, tiling magazines, arranging displays, checking new books, all give the member a familiarity with the library which benefits his school work and often leads to part-time library jobs. A charter member of the New Jersey School Library Association, our council has at various times held office. Social events are an important part of the program. Especially interesting are exchange meetings with other schools.

Advised by Mrs. Barber, the Future Nurses of America Club gives its members an opportunity to get a preview of their careers as nurses by working as nurses' aides at Overlook Hospital. The club often hears lectures by persons in the medical profession. The only requirement for membership other than an interest in nursing is that a girl be at least sixteen years old.

Future Teachers of America

The J. Isabella Dodds chapter of the Future Teachers of America, under the capable direction of Miss Theurer, encourages students to consider teaching as a career. The highlight of the club year is their day spent in local schools. Movies and speakers concerned with the teaching profession and service projects are features of the programs.

Firm opinions and the desire to express them are the only requirements for membership in the Forum Club. Meetings are held each month in the homes of various members. During the meetings members debate on various problems of the day. They participate in the Union County Forum and belong to the New Jersey Forensic League. Members have made occasional radio or television appearances.

Art Club

Mainly for those students sincerely interested in art, the Art Club was created to stimulate the interests of amateur artists or of those who are planning to make art their career. Interesting trips are taken to museums and to other places of interest. Occasionally a special speaker is invited to talk and to demonstrate techniques at meetings. During other club periods members work on projects in sculpture, sketching, and painting.

Job Opportunities Club

Organized this year by Mrs. Merrill for girls in the business education department, this club seeks out different types of employment opportunities for those graduating in the next year or so. The club has had many speakers who talked on positions ranging from dress design to medical technology. In addition the girls have taken several trips to visit such places as the Katharine Gibbs School, the Latin-American Institute, and the Children's Country Home.

Catalyst Club

The Catalyst Club offers its members an opportunity to explore the science of chemistry to greater depths than they are able in classes. This year the club under the direction of Mr. Baloga has performed several interesting experiments, one of which involved the use of potassium chlorate and sugar in the making of amateur rocket fuel. One of the members is working with ozone and its properties. A trip to the Franklin Institute is planned.

Naturalist Club

The Naturalist Club combines enjoyment with serious study. At the meetings programs concerning different phases of natural science are presented. Discussions, movies, and reports vary the program. To further their knowledge, the members take several field trips each year. Mr. Jones, one of the school's science teachers, is the club's enthusiastic adviser.

Writers' Club

For any student who enjoys writing, the Writers' Club offers an interesting program. Members bring to meetings pieces which they have written, short story, poetry, essay. Other members offer constructive criticism. Different types of writing or methods of improvement are discussed. The highlight of the year was a talk by Mrs. Charlotte Montgomery, professional magazine writer, who gave excellent help to the members.

FIRST ROW: Miss Bordner, adviser; P. Collins, vice-president; B. Dunning, president. SECOND ROW: M. Harbin, D. Umbreit, N. Koorse, R. Michaels, J. Marshall. ABSENT: D. Lee, secretary-treasurer; J. Maines.

Slide Rule Club

The objective of the Slide Rule Club is to teach its members some of the many uses of the slide rule and to increase their efficiency in its use. Usually the meetings consist of lectures and demonstrations; occasionally these are supplemented by films. This year the group has also instituted meetings outside of club periods. A trip of a scientific nature is also in the formative stage. Although the slide rule will be of greatest value to the future engineer, the members profit from the club in all mathematical and scientific courses here in high school to some degree.

FIRST ROW: K. Lane, R. Wanless, vice-president; S. Britten, treasurer; D. Vanderbilt, secretary; D. Eaton, president. SECOND ROW: M. Bazaral, R. Durgan, C. Davidson, D. Mayne, D. Alles, D. Dixon, J. James, O. White, J. Thomas. ABSENT: S. Campbell, D. Koppe, J. Bernstein, K. Yablonski, Miss Hill, adviser.

Knitting Club

Two knitting clubs are running active programs this year. This is the fourth year for the group which Mrs. Gleason advises and the first for the girls who meet with Mrs. Hollingsworth and Mrs. Annonio. The main purpose of both groups is improvement of their knitting. If a member does not know how to knit when she joins the group, she soon learns through the help of the other members. At the end of the school year the club has a display of projects for the past year.

FIRST ROW: A. Lantz, S. Vance, A. Denholm, B. Bourns, chairman; S. Fortenbaugh, vice-chairman; J. Morgan, A. Holschuh. SECOND ROW: N. Heller, C. Coy, S. Wilcox, D. Mason. THIRD ROW: P. Defoe, C. Senior Literary Club

Organized for seniors interested in current and classic literature, the Literary Club offers serious and thought-provoking discussion on many phases of literature, such as novels, poetry, drama. This year the club has had several outside speakers and the customary trip to the theatre in New York. The group meets at the homes of members for fun and fellowship as well as discussion. Miss Dietrich is the club's very excellent adviser.

FIRST ROW: Miss Dietrich, adviser; K. Yablonsky, N. Brunton, A. Lepow, vice-president; J. Robb, treasurer; K. Sasso, secretary; M. Bristol, president. SECOND ROW: J. Varnum, J. Whitney, B. Bunker, M. The Spanish Club

Under the supervision of Miss Vicedomini and Mr. La Costa, the Spanish Club provides an interesting program for all interested in finding what makes the Spanish language tick. The programs of the club range from slides of Spanish countries to participation in Spanish games. Plans have been drafted concerning the organization of a small combo. The highlights of the year will be the "Piñata," and the spring trip to New York.

The Junior Literary Club

One of the largest and most successful clubs in Westfield Senior High is the Junior Literary Club, which strives, under the supervision of Miss Gertrude E. Foutz, to enlighten the over one hundred members on the style, opinions, and thoughts behind the works of noted authors through monthly meetings in which well-known works, classic and contemporary, are discussed. Through presentations of plays such as "A Child Is Born" by Stephen Vincent Benét, through lectures by distinguished personalities, and through a trip to a New York play, the members have gained an appreciation of literature.

FIRST ROW: J. Kammerman, treasurer; J. Hadley, vice-president; R. Foose, president; P. Putnam, secretary. SECOND ROW: G. Oberlin, S. Mumford, M. Mackie, A. Betts. THIRD ROW: L. May, B. Lincoln, T. The French Club

This year, under the guidance of our new French teacher, Mrs. Young, "Quartier Latin" has had many different and interesting meetings which helped even more to promote a better understanding of the French language and customs.

In the spring a Mardi Gras was given with authentic French foods and entertainment. The members finished the year with a trip to a French restaurant and movie in New York City.

FIRST ROW: C. Edmon, first vice-president; T. McAllister, treasurer; J. Morrison, second vice-president; Mrs. Young, adviser; J. Werner, president; J. Carlisle, secretary. SECOND ROW: G. Thompson, M. The Auto Club

The Auto Club sponsored by Mr. Robert Dello Russo is for those boys who are interested in restoring old cars or improving their own. This club was formed only last year. The only requirement for club membership is the possession of a driver's license. Films and trips add variety to their activities as grease monkeys.

FIRST ROW: D. Frantz, P. Reuther, J. Bonnetti, K. Ludlum, B. Darby, D. Sapp. LEFT OF CAR: J. Yockel, S. Willits, D. Ludewig, C. Haney, S. Luebeck, P. Mof-fett, J. Thompson, P. Wilday, D. Damron, B. Graham, J. Falk. RIGHT OF CAR: B. Hall, K. Weyman, D. Kern, S. Simms, J. Falk.

The Collector's Club

Almost everybody is a collector at heart. For just such people Mr. Harold Thompson sponsors the Collectors' Club which has been in existence for over thirty years. During club meetings the members display their collections, describe enthusiastically the reasons for their collections, and trade ideas concerning collecting in general.

FIRST ROW: B. Schultze, C. Benz, H. Stier, Mr. Thompson, adviser. SECOND ROW: J. Gottlich, T. Balling, C. Reeder, L. Edwards, R. Rommelle, H. Elliott.

Photography Club

The Photography Club members, under the direction of Mr. Taylor, learn fundamental darkroom procedures and are introduced to special equipment such as is needed for color photography and micro-photography. Instruction in portrait photography is also given.

Duffer or pro, anyone is welcome in the Golf Club. This year the abilities of the members covered a wide range; however, every member benefited from participation in the club activities. Professionals from local clubs spoke to the members on technique in golfing. Movies of the greats in the golfing world added to the programs. Most of all, the members played as much golf as they could. Each member helped the other to become a better golfer. Mr. Lay, physical education teacher, is the club adviser.

The Twirling Club, organized this year, is under the supervision of Mr. Banks. The girls are divided into groups according to their ability and headed by a member of the twirling squad. Since their meeting place is the band room the girls must go outside in order to provide sufficient space for the forty-one members to twirl. The purpose of the club is to train girls properly for the twirling squad. They are taught the basic and more advanced twirls, according to their ability.

Are you a born Fred Astaire or are you the type who cannot help falling over your own feet? It really does not matter because the Social Dance Club, under the able direction of Miss Taylor, aims to improve everyone's dancing. This year the club, which meets in the gym during club periods, was instructed in dance technique by local dancing teachers. Of course, instruction was not the only part of the program; at some meetings the members put into practice what they had learned. A club with a large membership, the Social Dance Club welcomes anyone who has an interest in dancing. Remember, boys, coats and ties!

The Hi's-Eye

The Hi's-Eye, the school newspaper, is published by the Journalism II students advised by Mr. Richards. The students solicit ads, write stories, make up the dummy, and write headlines. In addition reports from teachers in other schools are written up by the staff and given to the "Leader." Interviewing prominent persons, such as congressmen or actors, is a highlight of the program as well as the annual trip to New York City to attend the Columbia Scholastic Press Conference.

Weather Vane Magazine

The Weather Vane Magazine staff, composed of members of all three classes who volunteer or are recommended by their English instructors, selects and edits contributions from the English classes and the Writers' Club for publication in the school magazine. Members of the staff also provide an attractive cover and appropriate illustrations. Under the direction of their adviser, Miss Dolores Bordner, and their editor-in-chief, Bruce Dunning, the staff published a distinctive issue in the spring.

Weather Vane Annual

The yearbook got an earlier start this year because Drude Sparre was elected editor-in-chief last spring, and was able to get all the editors chosen immediately. Consequently, work began on the very first day of school and continued until the book was issued in June.

Fourteen able editors tackled their jobs with the help of willing staffs: Janet Carlisle compiled the Senior Write-Ups; Elizabeth Putnam handled the Senior Pictures; Senior Activities were in the hands of Barbara Yoder; Bruce Dunning took charge of the club section; all art work was under the direction of Lynda Wright and Mrs. Schenck; Mary Laffan was in charge of the Dedicatees; Joanne Morrison handled the Faculty section; Peggy Loeb edited the Music Division; the Sports Editors were Pete Wilday and Lynn Fisher; Carroll Flannery headed the Feature Staff; Mike Bristol served as business manager; and all Publicity was under the direction of Judy Haller. The indispensable "Gal Friday" for the Yearbook was Sue Knight, the Assistant Editor-in-Chief.

The Columbia Yearbook Conference prompted many new ideas, and under the guidance of Miss Bordner, all ideas were applied to complete the yearbook.

Technicians' Club

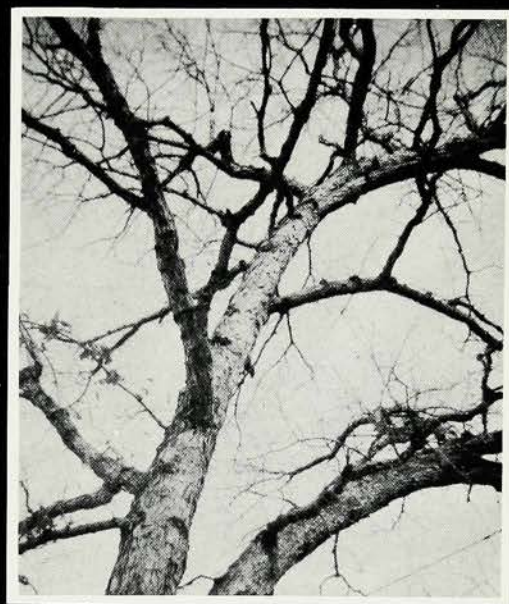

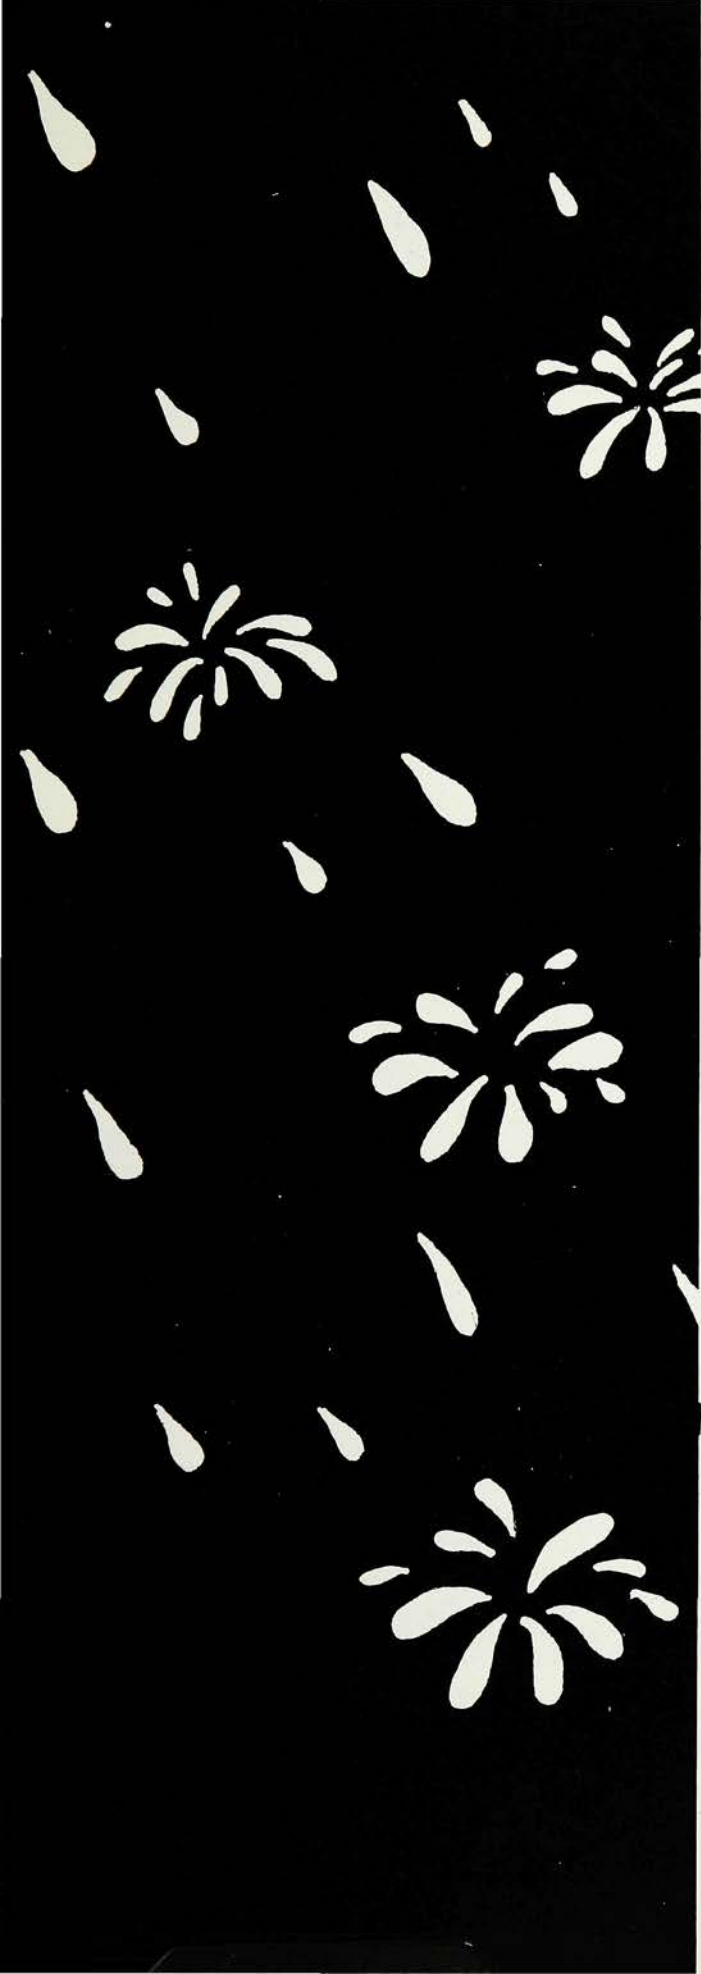

On duty for all school activities which involve the use of audio-visual materials, lighting equipment, or any of the stage apparatus, the Technicians' Club for many years has performed a valuable service. Members give much of their time both in school and out to their duties. They are trained by other members and by Mr. Thompson. The school owes a great debt to these hard working people.

Our Junior Prom

From garbage cans to flower carts, from numerous quaint shops to Washington Square. What else could it be, but Greenwich Village, the scene of our Junior Prom? In a few hours, our familiar old gym was transformed into this fascinating fraction of Manhattan Island.

The general chairman, Janet Carlisle, was elected in early February by the class and she in turn chose the committee chairmen.

GYM PROGRAM

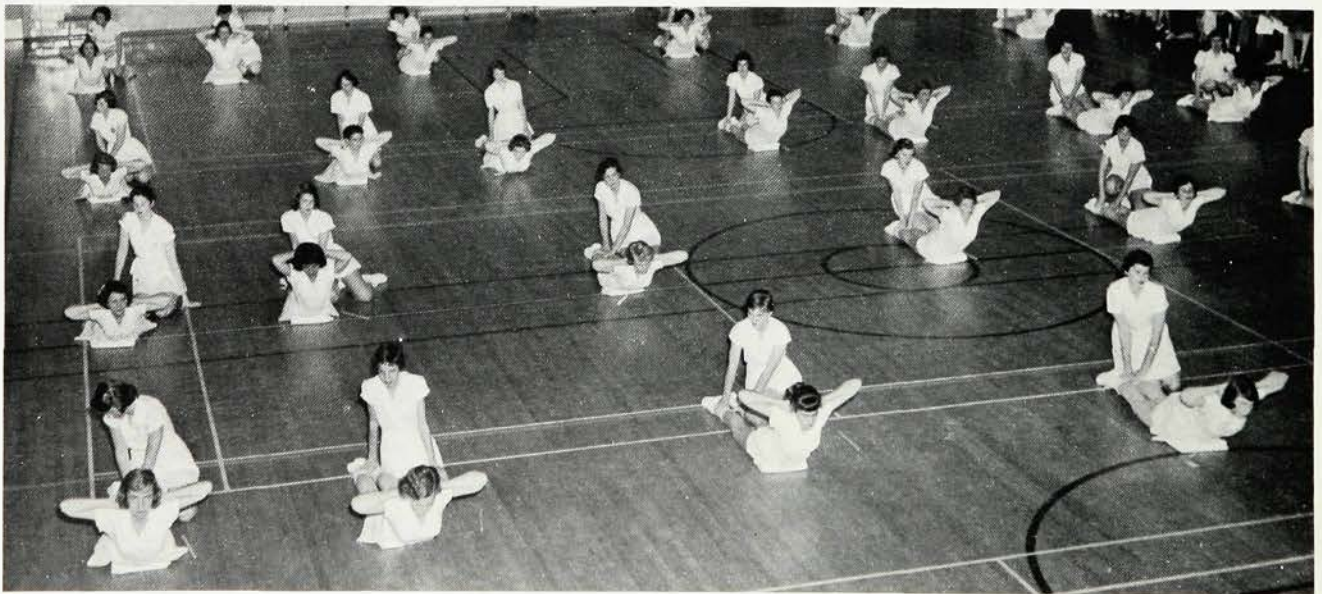

As a brief resume of the physical education program throughout the year, the Physical Education Department presents an annual gym program in which each girl in high school participates.

To begin, the Leaders do a routine march which is followed by demonstrations of stunts, modern dance, and physical fitness. There are also several relay races between the seven class periods.

To climax the evening each gym class presents an original one minute march in the hope of attaining the handsome first place award. Other presentations are made to the class best groomed throughout the year and to the most outstanding Commanding Officer, Right Guide, and Guidon-Bearer of the evening.

Guide right! The entire gym is filled with the sound of marching feet as every gym class parades in for the final competition.

TRACK

Captain Dave Leitz appears ready for any opponent.

TRACK TEAM (Spring '57)

FIRST ROW: J. Heatly, B. Grotefend, J. Ray, D. Leitz, S. Appezatto, captain; D. Craver, T. Hill, D. Pearce. SECOND ROW: Mr. Smida, coach; B. Lane, N. Bailey, B. Cliver, T. Lake, E. Ayers, M. Martin, M. Schmidt, T. Sisko. THIRD ROW: C. Reeder, manager; R. Beck, B. Shellenberger, B. Mozealous, B. McKee, J. Cooke, J. Swinton, T. Gates, B. Muller, manager. FOURTH ROW: K. McDermott, R. Greiner, B. Page, B. Reddell, B. Smith, G. Yeakley, R. Schmidt, J. Duncan, G. Butterfield, manager.

Prospects for this track season are very good according to Captain Dave Leitz, who is one of the county's leading pole vaulters and quarter-milers.

Another senior, Jim Yockel, is a potential state champion in the hurdles, and from his performances last year, great things are expected of him. The Blue Devils are also quite strong in the sprints where they boast two standouts, Danny Pearce and Nick Bailey.

However, it will be tough to better last year's performance when the only Westfield defeat was a disputed loss to Bound Brook, who later discovered that they had used a boy in an event in which he was ineligible to compete, according to state rules.

GOLF

John Lay, the new golf coach succeeding the recently retired Walter Johnson, will inherit a veteran squad which showed tremendous potential last year in compiling a 10-3 record. In addition, they took third in the county tournament and twelfth in the state.

The number one man on the golf team will undoubtedly be John Guthrie, a senior, who held that position throughout last year. Jay Pierson and Abe Bell will be fighting it out for the second spot, and a number of promising sophomores and juniors should fill out the squad.

BASEBALL

1957 BASEBALL TEAM

FIRST ROW: S. Willits, P. Wilday, J. MacBean, J. Freeman, F. Novello, N. Angelo, J. Bonnetti.
SECOND ROW: Mr. Stiles, trainer; C. Cline, R. Binkley, R. Littlefield, D. Stern A. Fritz, J. Torburg, Mr. Taylor, adviser.

Prospects for the 1958 baseball season are extremely bright, for the Blue Devils have the nucleus of what could be one of the best diamond teams WHS has seen in recent years. Only one regular, Dave Hackenburg, last year's captain, was lost through graduation.

Pitching presents the major problem for Coach Noel Taylor this year. Jody Freeman, senior, was expected to do most of the hurling for the Devils, but Freeman injured his arm playing basketball and it may hamper him this spring. Several juniors, however, are expected to take up the slack.

Two seniors, Captain Jim MacBean and Frank Novello, are expected to pace the Westfield hitting attack. Both MacBean and Novello ranked near the top of the county's leading hitters along with seniors George Reasor and Pete Wilday and junior Jeff Torburg, who also compiled fine averages.

Westfield will undoubtedly be trying to at least reverse last year's record of 4-11, and with the outstanding number of returning veterans, they stand a fine chance of doing so.

TENNIS

Captain Terry Bentley looks forward to another successful season.

LEFT TO RIGHT: Mr. Bunting, coach; B. Rescorla, J. Bernstein, T. Bentley, J. Hinebauch, T. Gilson.

Sam Bunting's racket squad is looking forward to another successful season behind Captain Terry Bentley, a fine singles player. Terry will be backed up by John Hinebauch, Tom Gilson, Roger Twitchell, Joel Bernstein and Bob Rescorla. Twitchell, a greatly improved junior, will be a prime factor in the success of this team. The squad is hoping to repeat last year's record, which was 14-0, as well as to bring home the first place trophy from the state meet again.

SENIOR COUNCIL

FIRST ROW: L. Wright, J. Robb, R. Lenskold, J. Carlisle, J. Pierson, A. Fritz, D. Alles, C. Sparks, R. Binkley, E. Putnam, J. Duncan, B. Fletemeyer, class president. SECOND ROW: J. Varnum, J. Luginbuhl, M. Cowles, M. Laffan, B. Muller, A. Gehrlein, S. Jacobus, D. Sparre, J. Yockel. THIRD ROW: Miss Dietrich, adviser; J. MacBean, T. Hill, B. Pond, B. Fitzgerald, J. Hinebauch.

Being an ambitious bunch, the seniors began their hectic year by electing two council members from each homeroom who would plan the class activities and decide the class policies. Under the capable hand of Bill Fletemeyer, class president, and the guidance of the adviser, Miss Dietrich, they started in by setting up the budget. The yearbook was the largest item in the budget and therefore was planned first.

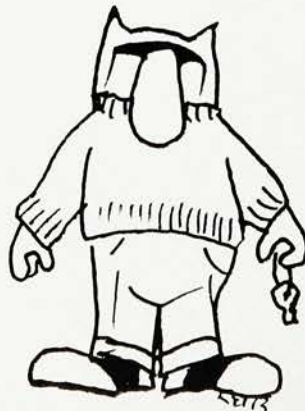

As the year progressed, the council sponsored such events as the Senior Picnic in October at Tamaques Park; the Varsity-some way. Every council member reported to his respective homeroom the plans for coming events, and class meetings supplemented the council's reports.

The Senior Banquet came next on the list of things to plan, along with the selection of the class motto and seal. Graduation gowns were also chosen by the council as their last job.

With the year at an end, the council looked back on the plans they had made and carried out and realized it had been a successful year for the seniors.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS AND ADVISORS

FIRST ROW: E. Putnam, secretary; Miss Dietrich, adviser. SECOND ROW: R. Binkley, treasurer; W. Fletemeyer, president; J. Duncan, vice-president.

The junior class held elections for their senior class officers last spring. Two class officers, President Bill Fletemeyer and Secretary Elizabeth Putnam, were elected again for the same jobs, and in Elizabeth's case it was her third year as class secretary. James Duncan was elected to fill the shoes of vice-president, while Roger Binkley was the choice for treasurer.

In close co-operation with the senior adviser, Miss Dietrich, the four officers made a hard-working team that strove for the general welfare of the senior class.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

FIRST ROW: Miss Gromlich, adviser; M. Mackenzie, vice-president; M. B. Harris, treasurer; E. Pond, secretary; R. Rescorla, president. SECOND ROW: J. Carlisle, B. Riker, J. Barnett, C. Kurtz, L. Bevelheimer, L. Williams, C.

Mowen, J. Meyers, J. Sexton. THIRD ROW: D. Sparre, B. Yoder, D. MacLaughlin, J. Freeman, B. Dunning, E. Putnam, S. Fortenbaugh.

The National Honor Society gives recognition to junior and senior students who are outstanding in their class in service, scholarship, leadership, and character. Students must pass all examinations, must stand in the upper twenty per cent of their class, and must have been members of their class for one year. Membership may not exceed ten per cent of the class. At a special assembly program, new members are inducted into the society. The induction ceremony is repeated for the parents at a reception. Each year two awards are presented to the two seniors who have increased their class standing the most during their high school years.

We discovered the lucky number.

No, there aren't any washing machines!

Good old camp!

Wowiel!!

I like to grin.

type.

What's so funny?

Could this be Varnum?

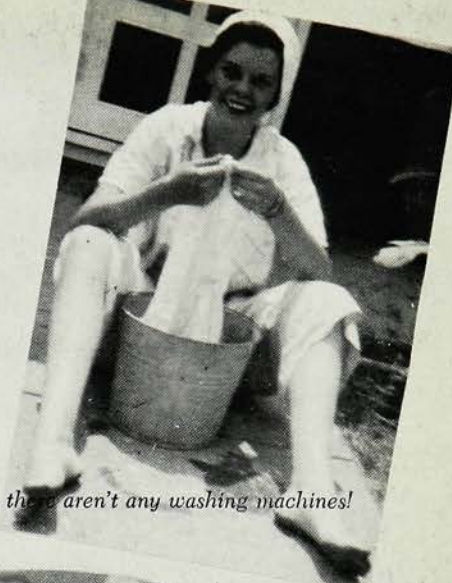

The "casual" look. . .

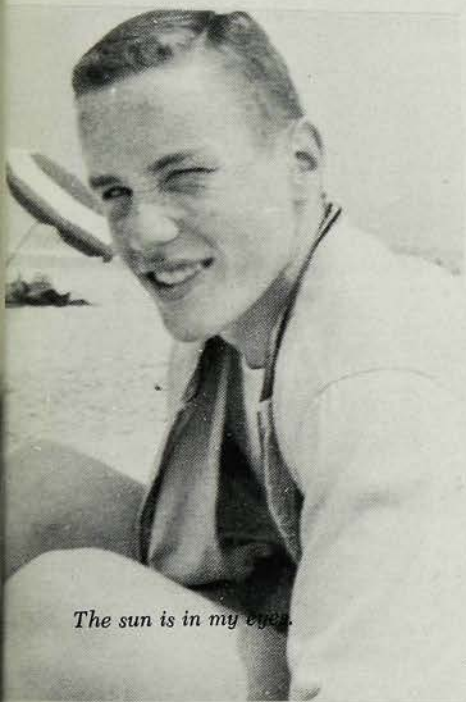

This is no laughing matter!

We discovered the lucky number.

No, there aren't any washing machines!

The sun is in my eyes.

Good old camp!

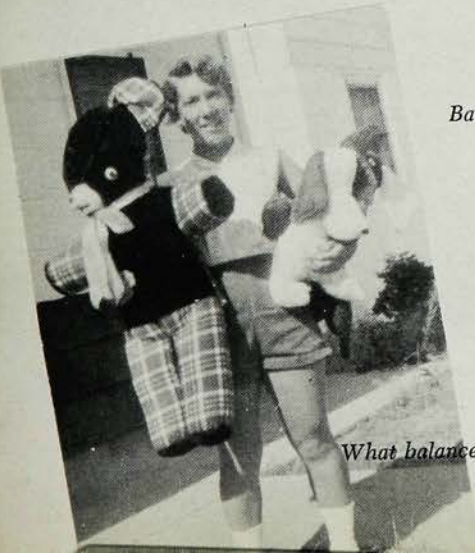

Wowie! !!

I like to grin.

... and I won them both on just $10.00.

What balance...

Back to our youth...

Now I wouldn't say that!

Class Prophecy

June 18, 1968

Dear Mom,

This afternoon I attended the wedding of my old friends Prudence Goocher and Terrence Farfaglia, and I thought you'd like to hear all the news about my old chums. It was held in a huge, modernistic church designed by Hugh Clark, and constructed by the Bonnetti-Post Construction Co. As I entered the church, Art Strock and Bill Darby, accompanied by Edda Leonhardt's violin, were singing a duet of "Oh Promise Me," and shortly after, Maestro Mackenzie's organ broke into the glorious strains of Mary Harbin's "Take Me Back to Seaside Heights." It was a moment beyond description when dear old Prue came tripping (think I'm kidding?) down the aisle in her elegant gingham gown designed by Suzanne Ullrich of the Roberta Harten Shops. Her jewels by Charles Koos were stunning! Prudence was attended by her high school chums, with Judy Varnum, who has just made "grotesque" a household word, as maid of honor. Her bridesmaids were Nancy Brunton, Barbie Bunker, and Carroll Farrand, all three of whom had giggling fits while walking down the aisle. Sue Fortenbaugh was flower girl, quite appropriate after her recent thesis concerning "The Life Before Birth of the Petunia." Terry had chosen Don Damron to be his best man. The radiant couple repeated their vows before the Rev. Robert Rescorla and then turned to face Jim Bigelow's popping flashbulbs and the onslaught of rice.

An elegant reception followed at the world-renowned Moffett-Christiano Hotel, with Susan Ruckert and Mike Tierney as co-hosts. The catering service was handled beautifully by the Mereness, Incorporated, firm, while Skippy Adrian acted as coordinator in her position of mistress of ceremonies. Entertainment was provided by the now-famous Bill Fletemeyer and his All-Stars: Jim Duncan, Paul Burbage, Bruce Graham, and Wayne Smith. Jayne Leavy sang torch songs against a backdrop of exotic flowers, donated by Bob Lenskold and arranged by Kathie Sasso. As the party progressed, various groups were chatting in all corners of the room. I wandered around catching all the latest; Betsey Pond and Joan Grant were telling a group about the trials of operating their fashion salon, while Carol Mowen was complaining because she has been awarded every possible college degree and now she's bored! Margaret Morgan, Sue Knight, Carroll Flannery and Janie Robb were discussing bridge at the other end of the room, near the world famous artist, Dave Leitz, who was talking to the newly-elected president of the Republican National Committee, Jon Hinebauch, and the German ambassador to the U.S., Heinrich Fisher.

Suddenly a hush fell upon the room and the guests gave a cheer as the 1968 Olympic Swimming Team consisting of Terry Bentley, Jay Pierson, Dave Frantz, Tom Hill, Wayne Kochenderfer, Ken Weyman, and Pete Wilday entered. Following the team were their lifesavers, Elaine Monti and Karyl Wheeler, and timer and scorer George Rochat. During the hub-bub of their entrance I noticed the Mother of the Year, the former Mary Laffan, who was explaining that the ten kids had been left in the expert care of Meg Cowles, professional baby-sitter.

In the center of the room Barbara Yoder and Bruce Dunning were discussing the phenomenal success of the Trotman-Novello rock 'n' roll singing duo. Nearby was sportswriter, Jim MacBean, recently returned from his Universal Tour with the outstanding sports figures of the decade; namely, Fred Schmidt, Tom Sisko, John Guthrie, and Stanley Luebeck. With them were George Reasor, Bill Lane, and Jody Freeman who had been originally included in this group until they decided to combine talents and become professional gigglers. Following close behind Jim was his ever-present battery of secretaries, headed by Christa Klappert, and including Judy Umstead, Barbara Watson, Margaret Williams, and Christine Roney. Jim told me that his next tour would feature Swifty's Nifties, nationally known basketball team consisting of Jo Ann Myers, Joann Sexton, Debby Burnham, Cindy Baker, and Plum Jensen.

Hilarious laughter was heard across the room, and when I rushed over, I heard the end of one of the Fisher-Creed jokes (pat. app. for). At the same time, Drude Sparre and Art Lepow were having a heated debate about woman's role in society, when Elizabeth Putnam, president of the Universal Federation of Women's Clubs entered, gavel in hand. Just then Susan Phillips' Expert Taxi Service delivered Lynda Wright and Joyce Muller, joint Queens of Cuba, to the door. With them was Peggy Loeb who apologized for being late, explaining that she had had car trouble. She immediately cornered Dave Luerssen, the friendly financier, and talked him into a loan on a new car.

As I strolled into the ballroom, I saw Bob Heras, owner of a model agency, dancing with Emily Spencer, her brilliant tooth paste ad smile flashing radiantly. At that moment Linda Smith, decked in mink trapped by Abe Bell, cut in, and the couple waltzed off. Coming through the door was Beebit Bourns, one of America's ten best-dressed women, on the arm of Tom Davies, proud owner of a new haberdashery store. Behind them Janet Carlisle, this year's Mardi Gras queen, hurried in to join the fun.

When the dance ended, Bill's band played a magnificent fanfare, and in walked Ferris Buck and Jack Reis, co-stars of the current Broadway hit "Twelfth Onion," written by Mike Bristol, directed by Paul Burbage, ticket sales managed by Norman Bendel, and financed by Jay Pierson, America's most successful businessman. Katy Yablonsky, New York's top critic for Judy Haller's "City Eye News," reported that the play was remarkably well-acted. Katy also told me that another member of our class, Jean Barnett, was receiving "rave" reviews from all the critics for her performance at the new Met, while Richard (Sir Toby) Beck and Art (Sir Andrew) Fritz were rapidly becoming America's top comedy team.

While I was chatting, Bette Ann Holland hobbled in from her latest skiing trip with casts on both legs, and struck up a lively conversation with Pat Malkin, the most famous lobbyist of the time, and Betty Anne Rogers, new owner of the Jane Smith Shops.

It seemed all too soon an ending when the guests gathered to bid Prue and Terry a fond farewell, as Jerry Garrison's helicopter zoomed in to rush them off. As I turned to leave, I saw Prue slip into a pair of Snazzy Sneakers, fashioned by Idamae Trenner and Audrey Gehrlein. Then, with a gleam in her eye, she tore across the room to recapture the fleeing Terrence.

Well, it was a wedding I'll never forget! I guess our li'l old class of '58 did all right for itself, eh Mom?

Puddles of Passion,
Me

Class Will

We, the Class of 1958, no longer being of sound mind and body, do hereby set forth for posterity and complete want of anything better to do, our Last Will and Testament, in which we bequeath to our subservient followers all those things that we have come to hold most dear during our three years at Westfield High School.

First: To Miss Scott we leave a tape recorder playing "I think there has been enough talking."

Second: To the Junior girls we leave a map to Bartell Place.

Third: Tom Davies leaves his "tweedy look" to Jim Jones.

Fourth: To anyone who craves adventure Dave Leitz and Bob Heras leave their trips to the Sewer.

Fifth: Bob Fitzgerald leaves his eye-lash curler to Diane Serbe.

Sixth: We leave our Buddy Code to promote good relations among the Junior girls.

Seventh: To the "college widows" we leave the hope of a speedy mail delivery.

Eighth: The shore crowd leaves the sand dunes to the romanticists of the Junior Class.

Ninth: Pat Malkin leaves her steady stream of chatter to Margie Mackie.

Tenth: Norman Bendel leaves his salesmanship to Evans Hemsath.

Eleventh: To the sophomore girls we regret that we cannot leave the Senior boys.

Twelfth: To Sue Stanaway, Peggy Loeb leaves her pad of blue slips.

Thirteenth: To the overwhelming relief of the principal, the faculty, and the majority of the student body, we leave.

Signed and witnessed in the wee small hours of the morning before choir rehearsal, chalk talks, and leaders' training have begun, we hereby declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.
