C/B Ala Spirite Corsets

Fashion Demands Long Graceful Lines

These corsets are absolute. The effect can only be right when the foundation is right. Never before, perhaps, was corset cutting quite so important to the Women of Fashion as it is this fall. Corsets fitted over C/B Ala Spirite Corsets are invariably desirable, while the wearer enjoys that freedom and support, without which, graceful walk and easy carriage are impossible. C/B Ala Spirite Corsets are offered in styles to fit every type of figure, graduated through forty different models to meet individual peculiarities. In quality, make and finish, these corsets represent the nearest perfection in modern corsetry. The C/B Ala Spirite Alternating System of Duplex and Unified boning gives support and flexibility without adding to the weight. The C/B Ala Spirite Inverted "V" System of Graduated Seams, holds the boning securely in place, so the corset never "rides" or twists. The C/B Ala Spirite Flat Crotch Stitching, never slips or unravels, adding greatly to comfort and durability. The C/B Ala Spirite Automatic Tension adjusts itself to support the abdomen and back, and allows deep, full breathing without increasing the size of the waist.

A NEW FIRE HOUSE.

Town Council Passes Ordinance on First Reading at Meeting Held Monday Night.

TO STAND ON PRESENT SITE.

To Cost $20,000—Four and One-Half Per Cent Interest Bearing Bonds to be Issued.

The Town Council at a regular meeting held Monday night, passed an ordinance upon first reading for the issuing of bonds in the sum of $20,000 for the erection of a building suitable for fire department and other municipal purposes upon the property in North avenue, where the present fire house stands. The bonds will be of a $1,000 denomination and will bear 4 1/2 per cent interest. They will run for twenty years.

The new fire house is to be a two-story brick building, 50 feet 9 inches by 75 feet. The front and side of the building, which will be next to the station park, will be of light brick with stone trimming. There will be four entrance doors and a small door in the front of the building on North avenue. The apparatus floor will be 48 by 50 feet. It will accommodate one hook and ladder truck and six smaller machines. The floor will be of clinker brick.

Stable room will be provided to accommodate six horses and a box or hospital stall. There will be a storage room for grain 25 by 50 feet. The second floor will contain a dormitory 30 by 16 feet, with accommodation for eleven beds, with closets, lockers, etc. A meeting room 31 feet by 30 feet is provided for the department and a room 16 by 30 feet for the exclusive use of the exempt firemen. A reading room and small committee room 15 by 30 feet is also located on this floor and also a battery and alarm instrument room 12 by 8 feet, and toilets and baths.

Racks for drying hose will be located upon the ground floor. Every new improvement for sanitation and ventilation will be used in the building. The structure will be built of steel and iron and will be capable of carrying a third story. The brook at the rear of the structure is to be walled up and the grounds beautified to conform with the station park. This means the removal of the sheds at the rear of the present structure. The fire alarm tower is to be moved to the rear of the lot.

The new fire house is badly needed at the present time, the present wooden structure, built over thirty years ago, having long since been a handicap to the department. This building was originally constructed for a volunteer department and is at present unsanitary and unsafe. The floors are dangerous and the horses have to turn circles to get in front of the machines when the alarm rings.

The new building is to be started in the spring and completed in three months' time. A feature of the new building will be that it will be built entirely for fire department uses.

QUACKENBUSH CO. FAILS.

Local Concern Goes Into Hands of Receiver, Wednesday.

Assemblyman Lloyd Thompson, of Westfield, was on Wednesday appointed receiver for the W. H. Quackenbush Company, an automobile and bicycle concern of this town. In a bill filed by Paul Q. Oliver, as counsel for Walter J. Lee, a stockholder, it was recited that the company was without funds to pay a judgment of $100.73, obtained by the Standard Oil Company, December 30 last, or to pay other debts. It was also stated that at a meeting of stockholders January 19 it was announced by William H. Quackenbush general manager for the concern, that unless all creditors would agree to an extension for one year the company would have to quit. In that event the assets would suffice to pay only about forty or fifty cents on the dollar. The liabilities are said to amount to $3,700.

The company was incorporated June 21, 1900, with an authorized capital of $20,000. The incorporators were William H. Quackenbush, Charles Crickenberger and James Cosgrove, Jr., all of Westfield, and each of whom subscribed for thirty-five shares of a par value of $10 each.

The Elmwood Apartments are the most complete in town. See E. S. F. Randolph, Agent.

EX-GOV. GLENN MAKES PLEA FOR LOCAL OPTION.

Southern Orator Draws Large Crowd at Presbyterian Church.

There was a large attendance, last Sunday afternoon, at the Presbyterian church to hear former Governor Glenn of North Carolina, on the temperance question. His introduction to the audience was a signal for tumultuous applause which lasted several minutes.

Governor Glenn is touring the state in the interest of the Anti-Saloon League of New Jersey, and his address on this occasion was practically the same as the one delivered the preceding Sunday at Elizabeth and Plainfield. He is an eloquent speaker and evidently had the audience with him. Among other things he said, "If I were mayor of Westfield and the law forbade the sale of whiskey there, I would see to it that the law was enforced and no whiskey sold, for no matter what this one or that one man says, prohibition can be enforced. I know that it is enforced in my own state of North Carolina and that the money we were formerly giving to the saloon keepers, we are now putting upon our backs, in our homes and in our schools. You say it will reduce the town's revenue. Suppose it does! What is that in comparison with the welfare of the bodies and souls of your sons and daughters?"

Rev. Mr. Curtis, who introduced the ex-Governor, and is the assistant superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, read a report on the work of the league. He said there was to be a hearing on the local option bill at Trenton next Monday night and urged as many citizens as possible to be present. "If you cannot be there yourselves," he said, "urge your representatives to support the bill."

The meeting was attended by people from all the different churches. Each minister was present as well as Mayor Alpers and some members of the Town Council.

BROKE HER ANKLE BONE.

Miss Bennett Walked All Day Without Knowing Nature of Injury.

Miss L. Bennett, of Elm street, is confined to her home with a broken ankle caused by a fall. Miss Bennett was standing at the telephone, last Saturday morning, when she slipped and fell to the floor. Her ankle pained her all day, but she thought that her injury was nothing but a slight strain, and made several visits in town during the day. The injured member was badly swollen and pained her intensely at night, and she was forced to take to her bed. Dr. Sinclair was called, and declared that in addition to a bad sprain, one of the small bones in the ankle joint was broken. The bone was set. It will be a month before Miss Bennett will be able to be about again.

FIRE AT UNGERER HOME.

Roof Slightly Burned by Sparks From Chimney.

A fire, supposed to have been started by sparks did slight damage to the roof of the home of Frederick Ungerer, on Westfield avenue yesterday noon. The prompt response to the alarm by the firemen saved the house from being destroyed. The roof is made of shingles, and the fire was making progress when the firemen arrived on the scene. In less than five minutes the fire was out. The fire was discovered by John Miller, who in passing saw smoke and a tiny flame issuing from the roof near the chimney. He quickly reported to Mr. Ungerer, and an alarm was turned in. The damage is estimated at $100, which loss is covered by insurance.

Assemblyman Thompson Busy.

Assemblyman Lloyd Thompson's bill to appropriate $10,000 for educational and practical purposes in the state campaign against tuberculosis passed the House of Assembly on Wednesday and has gone to the Senate. This is the second bill of the Union Assemblyman to pass thus early in the season. Mr. Thompson introduced on Monday night two further bills, one to permit towns to construct storm sewers and to pay for them by bond issue instead of by assessment; and another to increase the penalty for violation of excise ordinances in the first instance from twenty dollars to one hundred dollars, and on second conviction from one hundred dollars to two hundred and fifty dollars.

Mr. Thompson will probably introduce at next week's session bills providing for state inspection of meats and regulation of slaughter houses.

THE LICENSES GRANTED

Petition Signed by 466 Men and 342 Women Presented To Council.

BIG CROWD HEARS SPEECHES.

W. A. Dempsey, Rev. Dr. Loomis and Others Address Council—Biggest Meeting In Years.

The excise fight was settled, for a time at least, by the Town Council last Monday night, when retail liquor licenses were renewed to Lawrence Powers for the City Hotel on Broad street; to W. W. Mooney for Mooney's Hotel on North avenue; to J. H. Willet for North Avenue Hotel and to William Machulski for Schaefer's Hotel on Grove street. W. W. Mooney, Herman Frowery and J. H. Willet were granted wholesale licenses. Councilman Middle-ditch did not vote in any case, excepting that of Powers, when he voted against the application; the Mayor doing likewise. Councilman Davis voted against granting any and all of the licenses.

The licenses granted are all renewals and take effect March 1st. No new licenses were applied for. A full board was present.

The town church committee put up a hard fight against the issuing of any licenses, and if they had succeeded Westfield would have been numbered among the "drys." The postal card petition did not seem to have taken the town by storm. There were 466 signed postal cards from voters of the town, and 342 from women, making a petition with 809 signatures all told. This postal card petition was presented to the council by W. A. Dempsey of the committee, who previously to presenting it, addressed the council as follows:

To the Honorable, the Mayor and Council of the Town of Westfield, Gentlemen: On behalf of many legal voters and other residents, as chairman of the committee appointed by the churches, I present for your consideration a petition asking you to refuse to grant for the coming year any and all licenses for the sale of liquor as a beverage. This is not a protest against a man's drinking what he likes, but a petition asking you to exercise your discretionary powers in refusing to legalize the saloon in our town.

But first permit me to say that this action is not intended in any way to embarrass council. You have caused to be printed a notice that the question of granting licenses is to be considered at this meeting and in your notice you ask anyone to come and present facts and objections showing why such licenses should not be granted. We have come in response to your invitation. Nor do we see what objection there is to presenting this petition on the ground that the license question was not submitted to voters at the last town election. Council know, if others do not, that the liquor question as such cannot be directly submitted to voters under the present laws of this State. Therefore our committee in securing signatures have endeavored to divorce this question entirely from politics and are presenting to you tonight signatures from men of all parties. It is possible to do this because the liquor question is generally considered a moral and not a political issue. Recently you have shown that you agree with this view for you raised the license issue although the question of high or low license was not presented at the last election. We have come before you tonight not to request action of you as members of any political party, but as men. And as men we ask you to consider very carefully how this greatest evil of modern times shall be dealt with. Shall we continue to have open saloons or not? You are to say. Your oath to our State requires you to act according to your best judgment. Neither this committee nor anyone else can rightly demand what you shall do on a moral question. On that you are the sole judges. To state this is not unfair to you because none can solve it but you. Under our town ordinances you have the power to refuse or to grant licenses and within the exercise of your discretion you are supreme. Voters cannot interfere even if they desire except in a very indirect way.

Therefore, gentlemen, because we cannot go to the polls and register our convictions separately from questions properly political, we come to you and protest against granting licenses.

Some of the reasons suggesting this action are briefly as follows: 1st: We see no reason why four bars and three places to sell liquor in packages are needed in our town. Nor have we found that any reasons have been presented for the seven licenses other than the making of the

THE SESSION BOOK AGAIN.

To the Rev. William Irwin Steans, D. D.: The Members of The Session; The Trustees; and All Members; of the Presbyterian Church in Westfield, New Jersey.

Hon. Francis E. Woodruff, Morris-town, New Jersey.

September 9th, 1909.

Gentlemen:—On September 23, 1899, The Rev. Newton W. Cadwell, D. D., then being the incumbent, your Session Book No. 2, 1759-1803, was in your archives, and was accessible to the public. It was consulted by the writer that day in connection with his study of the history of his family. On May 12, 1903, Dr. Cadwell having meanwhile departed from Westfield, it had disappeared. (See advertisement in The Union County Standard of July 24, 1903).

Because the writer, Francis E. Woodruff, is a descendant of Joseph Woodruff one of the founders of your church; because he is a kinsman of the Rev. Benjamin Woodruff who entered the records in that book; and because—besides a past and present officer of your church who had indicated unwillingness to aid in the recovery of the missing volume—he was, so far as he knew, the only man who was aware of the disappearance; he felt and feels it his duty to do all in his power to bring about its full restoration to your archives. To keep the unselfishness of his motives above suspicion he has passed a self-denying ordinance never to consult the book. While believing that punishment is deserved by those responsible for its disappearance, and for unwillingness to make effort for its restoration, he declines to have anything to do with it; his sole object being restoration of the status quo ante.

Holding these views he did his best to effect this result through a private correspondence continued to 1905; but while Dr. Cadwell would not deny that sometime during his stay in Atlantic City he had the book in his possession he kept on writing "I do not have the book," "nor can I tell you where it is," etc. etc. etc., all of which however true was irrelevant so long as he did not deny having had it.

Failing with him—in 1907 the writer brought the matter to the attention of your Clerk of the Session, but without result. In 1908 after warning your Session that lacking restoration by a date named, publicity would be unavoidable, he posted and advertised a reward for the recovery of the book. This not bringing it, after a similar warning to your Session, he advertised (U. C. S., July 24, 1908,) extracts from the correspondence, but told only the minimum he thought might (with private explanations) effect restoration. In consequence (letters in his possession prove) of this, the Session Book was restored to your archives, as announced by The Westfield Leader (Oct. 14, 1908).

In 1909 the New Jersey Historical Society having asked access to the restored book your Session replied, "the records of this church are not open for public inspection," that is, not even for a Historical Society. A letter published March 26, (U. C. S.,) stated, "As it is safe to say that outside of Westfield the records of every church in the world are so open, and as prior to Dr. Cadwell's departure this was true also of Westfield, some special reason for this refusal must be sought." In an advertisement of April 30, (U. C. S.,) the Editor of The Westfield Leader (one of your Trustees) was cited as "explaining, in effect, that because old church records may contain much that should never see the light, and because if done for one it must be done for all, public access should not be given to Session Book No. 2." In reply the writer suggested that conditional access can be safely granted under rules on the lines of the following:—

First, for strangers, that they must be introduced by some one known to, and be approved by the Session:—

Second, for all, that anything other than baptismal, marriage and funeral items cannot be copied or divulged until after the Session's formal written consent has been obtained. Such rules would suffice for future users of the book, but the unsubstantiality of this "old time scandal" excuse for refusing access becomes manifest when we remember that Dr. Cadwell has authorized (see letter in U. C. S., of May 14, 1909, original authority in writer's possession) the statement that he "has an exact verbatim copy of all the records of the Westfield organization since 1759 that is, including Session Book No. 2," which he expects to publish in full, when convenient, in a history of the Presbyterian church of Westfield. The "in full" taken literally, means "scandals and all"; but even if that could possibly be his meaning, and even if two or three members of your Session could, understandingly, possibly approve, would not the enforcing such rules as above suggested save him the scandals for his promised history, while no longer depriving the New Jersey Historical Society, and the public generally, of the sought for marriage and similar items?

May 3rd to 5th four writers of standing, two of them officers of the New Jersey Historical Society, applied for such limited and conditional access; and were told that their requests had been referred to your Session for consideration; but to time of writing this, no further word has reached them. On June 12th your Clerk of the Session received a letter, "the delay in replying is of course explainable. I write only to say that it would cause me great regret if an unexplained delay continued so long as to compel the next public step." On July 19, one of those whose May request had been referred to your Session asked when a reply might be expected; but so far unavailingly. The continuance of your Session's unmannerly silence these months, sufficiently indicates its unwillingness to reply, but before taking the next public step the writer makes still another appeal this time to your whole church; and a copy will be sent to Dr. Cadwell.

In large organizations it is usual to leave the guiding to a few, until, exceptionally, some matter arises so important, it needs to be decided by a more general voice. Something of the kind may have occurred when after the offers of rewards, and the advertisements, pressure was apparently brought to bear that helped restore the book. It will not, however, be a restoration to its condition before it was unlawfully removed from your archives so long as your Session, in effect, reserves its information for Dr. Cadwell's benefit; his "verbatim copy" being thus given a monopoly. The writer therefore hopes that the general voice will insist on a practical restoration of the status quo ante by the issuing of rules for conditional access; and end the matter.

If though, unhappily there should be further unexplained delay in the issuing of such rules the writer will feel it his duty to publish this as an open letter.

January 7th, 1910.

Gentlemen:—In a letter to you of Sept. 9, 1909, a choice was given between further publicity and "conditional access" to the restored but suppressed Session Book No. 2 that some time between Sept. 23d, 1899 and May 12, 1903, had been surreptitiously removed from the church archives. On Sept. 21, you sent to the New Jersey Historical Society a copy of the book's vital records; but that left out valuable information in ordinary minutes that could with entire propriety be given to the public, so on October 2nd the request for "conditional access" was repeated.

In October, at Atlantic City, the Rev. Dr. Steans said to the Rev. Joseph F. Folsom, Recording Secretary of the New Jersey Historical Society, that your Session is "willing to grant any reasonable request to examine the records of the church." As requirement of rules for such access of course rests entirely with yourselves, in the interest of the public it only remains to remember that we are mortal, so put this statement on record for the benefit of those who come after us. As to the writer, for more than six years now he has felt it his duty, for reasons given, to strive for the restoration, with reasonable access, of the session book; and he cannot feel that his long task will have been ended until the result of his work has been made lasting by such record.

He would greatly like to stop here and leave the rest to you; but his experience forbids. His courteous appeals to you to do your duty voluntarily have hitherto steadily been ignored. As he has already explained, he believes that this failure to do your duty—by making effort to get back the session book for the safe custody of which you were responsible—has consciously been only on the part of one or more members of the Session. It was they who compelled the writer to bring the force of public opinion to bear; and this opening the eyes of you others to full realization of the false position in which they had placed you they were made by you to consent to the getting back of the session book and the sending of the vital records.

The writer will be very glad if you others will complete your good work by having Dr. Steans' statement put on record; either by a favorable reply to the courteous request for information from the Corresponding Secretary of the New Jersey Historical Society, the Hon. William Nelson, or in any other satisfactory way you may prefer; but unless this is done, and known to the writer, by February 1st, 1910, he must however reluctantly do what he believes it his duty to do, so will publish his letter of Sept. 9th (and whatever else of the correspondence may seem required) until the statement has been satisfactorily put on record.

February 5, 1910.

Gentlemen:—In a letter of January 7, 1910, it was stated that "The writer will be very glad if you others will complete your good work by having Dr. Steans' statement put on record, either by a favorable reply to the courteous request for information from the Corresponding Secretary of the New Jersey Historical Society, the Hon. William Nelson, or in any other satisfactory way you may prefer; but unless this is done, and known to the writer, by February 1st, 1910, he must however reluctantly do what he believes it his duty to do, so will publish his letter of Sept. 9th (and whatever else of the correspondence may seem required) until the statement has been satisfactorily put on record."

This request, so to put on record, plainly seems his duty to make, and only reasonable for you to grant. Yet there has been no reply to Corresponding Secretary Nelson and, so far as the writer knows, no other way has been taken. Copies of his letters of Sept. 9, 1909, Jan. 7, 1910 and Feb. 5, 1910—all of which please re-read—will be in readiness for the printer within a week or so and as soon as possible thereafter will be published. If you will look back throughout the long-drawn proceedings you will find that the writer has invariably kept his word.

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Westfield, N. J., January 14th, 1910.
To the Council of the Town of Westfield.
Gentlemen:

The undersigned, being the owners of at least one-sixth of the lands fronting on the proposed improvement, hereby petition your honorable body to cause the grade of Lawrence avenue from a point 850 feet northwest of the center of Dudley avenue to a point 1000 feet northwest of the center of Dudley avenue to be established in accordance with the annexed profile, and said section of said street to be improved in the following manner:

1. By grading the section street for its full width and length in accordance with the grade indicated on said profile.
2. By macadamizing the carriage-way of said street from the northwesterly end of the existing macadam to the northwesterly curb of Sinclair Place, said macadam to be six inches in depth for a distance of eight feet on each side of the center line, and four inches in depth for the remainder of the carriage-way.

3. By constructing a curb stone culvert with cast iron cover at the intersecting gutter of Sinclair Place.
The cost of the above improvement to be assessed upon the lands benefited according to law.

A deposit of $50.00 accompanies this petition as required by law.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1910.

The Public Meeting.

The Board of Trade has issued a call to the people of Westfield, urging them to be present and take part in the public discussion at the Washington school tomorrow night. The question to be discussed is:

TAXES AND THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

A further question to be asked is:—"Are the people of Westfield indifferent about the question to be discussed?" It is vital. There has been some misunderstanding in regard to the method of directing the affairs of the local schools. "Why," it is asked, "are so many schools needed?" "What benefits do the people derive from free schooling?" etc., ad infinitum.

The board of Education is prepared to answer these questions through its representatives. A conscientious effort has been made to give the people of Westfield ALL of the facts. The talks by members of the Board will be illustrated by lantern slides.

Most everyone has heard that local school accommodations are inadequate to the needs of the town; that a new school house must soon be built. Most everyone therefore should be interested to know the present plans of the Board of Education: the preparations being made to meet the emergency. Our school trustees want the co-operation of the citizens of Westfield in the cause of free education. Now is the time to hear their side of the story and to make known your point of view.

It is a matter of supreme importance that each citizen of Westfield be present at the public meeting in the Washington School auditorium tomorrow night, and, after hearing the speeches made by the members of the Board of Education, speak to the question, fully and freely—if he has something to say.

The New Jersey Children's Home Society.

Those who wish to do to others as they would have others do to them; the kind-hearted, the open-handed, the warm-blooded; those who believe in fair play; those who think all should have an equal chance in the world, no matter what the fortuitous surroundings of birth or fortune may have been, who find time to ponder on the inequalities of life, to bewail the seemingly grave injustice attendant upon human affairs; such people we say are the ones who cannot fail to be moved by the prayers of New Jersey's homeless and helpless children.

C. F. Williams, Superintendent of the Children's Home Society has written a letter in which he asks us to aid its cause by giving publicity to its appeal. As he says: "If the people of the state could but know the unspeakable heart hunger of these poor children, denied parental influence, then they would understand why they need family, rather than institutional life." The Society is receiving homeless children from all over the state and after proper medical examination and treatment if necessary, is placing them with mutual satisfaction, in good comfortable homes, where they will be kept constantly under the influence of the best things in our civilization. Homes are needed for infants and for those partly grown up. (Including colored children.) Temporary homes for those in pressing needs are sometimes most acceptable. There are families who perhaps are not able to provide a permanent home, who nevertheless could be of service to the cause of humanity, by giving a home to some poor child for even a month or two. This is an honest, practical charity; it appeals not only to the highest, finest sentiment, but to the homeliest common sense as well.

A letter addressed to Mr. C. V. Williams Superintendent, Trenton, N. J., would reach its destination.

Miss Ivy Cherry a Hostess.

Miss Ivy Cherry entertained twenty-eight of her friends by a dance at her home on Harrison avenue last Tuesday evening. The merry crowd enjoyed the evening dancing, after which refreshments were served.

Those present were Misses Hazel Alexander, Lucille Todd, of Brooklyn; Hazel Williams, Ella Jarrett, Edna Hyatt, Mary Radford, of Plainfield; Margorite Jimerson, Emma Zimmerman, Clara Hohenstein, Gertrude Lack, Florence Dixey, Marion Keyes, Helen Griffiths; Messrs. George Lavers, Everett Smith, Harry Nash, Fredwell Glawson, Edward Kinsley, of Plainfield; George Taylor, Robert Keyes, Frank Traynor, Harry Miller, George Foster, H. Hunter and Raymond Cherry.

A Teamster's Plight.

A team of horses driven by an Italian employed by William Hund & Son, of Plainfield were stuck in the mud at the corner of Dudley and North avenues, Tuesday morning for nearly three hours. Contractor French had just completed a sewer on these roads and the heavy fall of rain during the preceding night made the ground very soft and dangerous to all teams.

The Italian, however, proved to be one of those energetic, persevering, sagacious sons of Italy and he was equal to the emergency. After several hours of hard labor he was rewarded by the extrication of his horses from the mud and he proceeded on his journey.

Flaxon

is advertised as the "Queen of White Goods." It is difficult to describe this fabric as it is entirely different from and displacing "India Linon," white lawn, Persian lawn, batiste, organdie and the sheer grades of real linen, as it has a combination of the qualities of all the usual white wash dress materials. It is sold from 15¢ to 30¢ per yard at Schaefer's.

It Is Tomorrow Night.

The public meeting under the auspices of the Westfield Board of Trade to discuss "Taxation and the Public Schools," will be held in the Washington High School Auditorium tomorrow night at eight o'clock. Be present and take part in the discussion!

at 20c. a yard is not all silk but you would never know the difference. It has leaped into fame and favor as it lends itself to many varied uses. It makes admirable scarfs, is adapted to wear under yokes instead of chiffon and is much used for slips instead of silk. It makes the most beautiful evening gowns as it can be obtained in all the new pastel colorings. It has practically supplanted China silk. Besides its uses as dress material it makes an excellent drapery for book cases in deep red and green. At Schaefer's.

Real Estate Activities.

Much activity has been manifest the past ten days in the real estate market. All the agents have been on the hustle for properties to rent for their long waiting list.

The agency of Wm. S. Welch & Son report several sales and rentals. They have sold for J. W. Cornell his Summit avenue house to Dr. J. H. Corbin. The property occupied by the Quackenbush Co. for the Pearsall Company to D. L. Darby. Mr. Darby will in the future erect a handsome three story brick building upon this site. The house owned and occupied by Miss Lizzie Woodruff on First street to Catherine Bindewald of this town. A lot for Frances Fitzgerald, corner of Lawrence and Sylvia Place to Robert R. Thompson. They have rented the property now occupied by Wm. H. Davies on Prospect street to Mr. T. T. Harkrader. The James O. Clark property on Charles street to J. F. Sparrell of Dudley avenue. The house occupied by Dr. Corbin to Charles Cook of Cumberland street. To Wm. J. Morgan of Park street the house now occupied by Robert C. Thomson. Apartment on North avenue to E. Edgar.

Often May It Wave!

A week ago this day an American flag, much tattered and torn, was raised over the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pearsall, of Curleton Road, in honor of the arrival of another Son of Liberty. It may be nothing new to chronicle the birth of a baby in the line of Uncle Alfred—may his Tribe increase!—but it will be news to say something about the particular flag raised upon this particular occasion.

It was first thrown to the breeze forty years ago in the city of Brooklyn by Alfred E. Pearsall, in honor of the birth of his first son, the present J. H. Pearsall and dedicating him to good citizenship and the Gospel of the Golden Rule. The flag was then bright and new. There were no Brooklyn bridges in those days; no elevated trains, no electric or trolley cars, no subways, no "sky-scrapers." Omnibuses rumbled up and down Broadway. Twenty-third street was "away up town." Fifty times Uncle Alfred raised that flag as new comers came into his own home; and his children, with homes of their own, now keep the old flag reasonably busy, although, perhaps, not as active as ex-President Roosevelt would have it.

Sisters Brown Married.

The marriage of Miss Lucy Brown, of Buckingham county, Va., to William Phillips, of this town, and Miss Eliza Jane Brown, of Buckingham county, Va., to James Brown, of this town, took place on February 10th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. MR. DAVIS' VIEWS.

Some Reasons Why He Voted Against Saloon Licenses.

Mr. Editor: In view of the fact that I was then a member of the Council who voted against the issuing by the Council of the licenses for the sale of liquor in the Town of Westfield I feel that a word of explanation is in order. It was my intention to express my view upon meeting of the Council Monday night, but owing to a severe attack of laryngitis, my voice was in such a shape I could not attempt to speak.

When I was elected a member of the Council I considered that a sole obligation had been placed on me to discharge the duties of Councilman to protect the best interests of the Town of Westfield and its citizens and its taxpayers.

I believe that the sale or use of intoxicants has no one save the seller many times not even the seller. Drinking of liquor never put a single dollar in a savings bank to the credit of the drinker. Liquor will not add a single thing to the happiness or well-being of the community, but on the contrary will add much to human misery, needs of wives and children, and busy the officers of the law, the police and jail-keepers.

I have resided in this Town for 25 years and while I have known a liquor sold in the Town has caused misery and death, I have never heard a drink of liquor sold in the Town bring a moment of lasting pleasure to the partaker or to add a dollar to the taxable value of the property in the Town.

In looking over the report of the Police Department of the Town I find that 294 arrests were made during the year just ended. Of these arrests are classed as violations of the peace ordinance. A sober man can violate peace ordinance but seldom does. Disorderly conduct 44 arrests. A man is seldom disorderly. On suspicion 36 arrests; begging 13; assault and battery 5; junk dealers 5; Sabbath dancing 9; larceny 6.

The revenue received by the Town from the licenses granted is $2900. In the budget we are asking the tax payers $7500 for police and $1800 for the police. Stop the sale of liquor in the Town. I believe we can reduce both amount and our policemen can devote their time to their legitimate business.

Out of 786,000 arrests in this country last year, over 350,000 were for drunkenness. The annual cost of crime in this country is $1,378,000,000. Our national debt is $964,000,000. 200 persons a day are being murdered in this country. Crime is costing the people $3,500,000 a day and I believe that liquor is responsible for the greater part of this. More people are murdered in this country than are killed on our railroads. An engine driver, overworked, makes a single mistake and a human being is killed, he is arrested and often made fight for his life, while the saloon keeper goes on killing and when one raises objection he is called a crank, a worse, and is read a long lecture on personal liberty and property rights of the poor, poor saloon keeper.

We have in America, sweet land of liberty, more homicides every year than Italy, Austria, France, Belgium, Ireland, Scotland, Spain, Hungary, Holland and Germany combined and we must not close a single saloon in the origin of many, if not all of our murders. This record is one of which the friends of the saloon in Westfield should be proud.

With all these facts before me, after studying the conditions in the Town as I have, I believe I am best representing my ward when I vote against the licensed saloon in Westfield.

Yours truly,

J. WINTER DAVIS

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Mary G. Abercrombie.

Mrs. Mary G. Abercrombie, wife of Bolling G. Abercrombie, died at her home, 118 North Euclid Avenue, at four-thirty last Saturday morning, of Acute Bright's Disease. She was forty years old, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Miller, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Abercrombie were married six years ago, and came to Westfield two years ago from Plainfield. Mrs. Abercrombie was domestic in her tastes, and a host of friends bear tribute to her sweet, lovable character.

The funeral services were held at the house Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, the Rev. W. I. Steans, pastor of the Presbyterian Church officiating. Two favorite hymns of Mrs. Abercrombie, "Abide With Me," and "Lead Kindly Light" were sung at the service by Miss Elda Fink and Miss Rodenbaugh. There were many beautiful floral pieces.

The pall-bearers were, Dr. Carey, Dr. Wilcox, and M. Gates, of Plainfield, William Harper, of Newark, John D. Barry, of Elizabeth, and A. C. Wilcox, of Westfield. The interment was at Fairview Cemetery.

T. Wilfred Powell.

T. Wilfred Powell, for some years a resident of Westfield, died at his home in Plainfield, February 16th after a prolonged illness.

Mr. Powell moved to this town from Plainfield where he had lived for twelve years, an esteemed citizen, and for sometime a member of the city council. He left Westfield to take up his residence in New York City. After residing there for a few years, in October last he returned to Plainfield.

Mr. Powell passed through a critical operation last May, and from that time until the day of his death he was a great sufferer. Throughout his severe illness, patient endurance and Christian fortitude were ever present.

Mr. Powell was a member of the Meriden Center I. O. O. F. of Connecticut, and was connected with the Christian Burial Bearers Association, also with the First M. E. church of Plainfield. A life of wide influence for good, and a death crowned with victory will ever keep his memory sacred to those who knew him.

He is survived by a wife, a daughter, Dr. Grace R. Powell of Plainfield, and a son, Charles D. Powell, who is secretary of a Y. M. C. A. at Dabois, Pa.

Mrs. Julia Miller.

Mrs. Julia Miller, mother of Mrs. Robert Luckey, and formerly a resident of this place, died at her home in New York City, February 21. The body was brought here for burial at Fairview yesterday. Mrs. Miller was 89 years old.

A MODERN JACOB

By A. ROBT. GROH

Anthony Johnson had worked two years as hired man for Laban Walker. "Anthony is a good worker and has money in the bank. Why does he not buy a farm of his own?" people asked. Anthony knew why. So, also, did pretty Rachel Walker. It was for her smiles and presence that Anthony continued to toil for Laban Walker.

Rachel knew that Anthony was in love with her a month after he came to work for her father. In her heart she rejoiced in his adoration. But, like many good women, she was something of a croquette, and so when, as they were driving home from church one day, Anthony asked her to marry him, she smiled regally and said:

"Father wants me to marry Lafayette Fraser."

Anthony bit his lip and struck the horse such a cut with the whip that the animal jumped forward with a suddenness that threatened to upset the buggy.

Fraser was a widower, but he owned more land than any one else in the county. Rachel had smiled on him when he called, especially when Anthony could see her. Fraser had tried in vain to find out whether Walker's farm was mortgaged, and had decided in the end that Rachel was a good "bargain" even without money.

Anthony drove along in silence after Rachel had given him her answer. Finally, when he could trust his voice, he said:

"Do you think you love him—Rachel?"

"Well, why shouldn't I?" she asked, tossing her pretty head.

Anthony was not skilled in the maneuvers of such situations, and as he was not a woman he did not get by intuition the gift of acting well under such circumstances. So he said no more. His heart was too full for utterance.

They soon reached home, and he helped her out of the buggy. Then without a word he drove to the barn and put away the horse. He changed his clothes mechanically and did the chores, barely knowing what he was doing.

That evening, after Rachel had retired and when her father was dozing over the Farm Journal, Anthony approached him.

"My year's up next week, and then I must leave," he said.

"What—what's that?" exclaimed Walker. "Didn't ye tell me just last week that ye would stay another year?"

"Yes," admitted Anthony, "but circumstances have changed since then."

Nothing Walker could say would change his purpose, and he went off to bed, where he passed a sleepless night. What mattered now the money he had saved during the years of toil? She, for whom he had worked and saved and planned great things for the future was going to be another's. He ought never to have hoped for her, he told himself. He might have known he was a fool to aspire to the hand of such a girl.

Rachel had been a little worried during the night about her treatment of Anthony. "He took me so awfully seriously," she reflected. And then she took a little tintype out of a box and looked at it before she went downstairs to get breakfast.

Her father was there, and he told her of Anthony's determination. She was frightened. She hurried back to her room, so her father would not see the tears that welled up in her eyes. She had never dreamed that this could come from her bit of coquettishness.

That evening when Anthony came in from doing the chores he heard his name called in a low voice. It was Rachel.

"You—you didn't think I meant what I said about Lafayette Fraser, did you, Anthony?" she said, her voice trembling.

Anthony's heart gave a great leap of joy.

"Oh, Rachel, do you—can you mean you care for me?"

Her eyes were cast down and she was picking to pieces a flower. She looked up timidly at him, and in the half darkness he saw her slender form sway. The next moment he held her tight in his arms and her smiling eyes were upturned happily to his.

Society of Breakers.

The Secret Society of Breakers is a new organization in Atchison. If a woman receives a platter or any other breakable article as a gift from a friend and knows that to put it on display, where the donor expected it to be put, its ugliness will make a wilderness of her once pretty home, she drops a note to the Secret Society of Breakers, and this is what follows: A member of the society makes a call on the afflicted woman and while there asks casually to see the woman's china; she is so interested in china, she says. She also says she is clumsy and doesn't like to handle dishes. This clumsiness accounts for it when the platter falls to the floor and breaks. It is said of one woman whose husband got her an ugly lampshade that she let it fall herself and broke it without sending for one of the S. S. of B. This was a mistake, as her husband will always feel aggrieved at her carelessness.—Atchison Globe.

A Surprise Party.

Mr. Harry Wahl, of North avenue, was pleasantly surprised by a number of his friends last Friday evening, the occasion being the twenty-first anniversary of his birthday. The favorable weather conditions made it possible for most of the invited ones to be there, and the evening was spent pleasantly playing games. It would be impossible for the writer to tell in detail all of the many things which served to make the evening an enjoyable one, suffice it to say however, that those who were there had the "time of their lives." In the early hours of the morning the guests departed wishing Harry many happy returns of the day and congratulating him on the fact that he had reached the voting age.

NOW BOYS AND GIRLS AND GROWN-UPS WHAT'S YOUR GUESS?

The Standard Census Contest Began Tuesday, February 1 and Continues Through February, March and April.

As heretofore announced in the STANDARD prizes will be given to guessers as to the population of Westfield in 1910, according to the federal census to be taken next Spring. The terms of the contest are as follows:

To the one making nearest correct guess as to the population of Westfield, a prize of Ten Dollars in gold will be given; to the one making the next nearest guess Five Dollars in gold will be given; and to the third, will be given a year's subscription to the STANDARD. All guesses must be addressed "Census Contest" and sent to the STANDARD by May first. It is not necessary to be a subscriber to the paper. All ages, colors, creeds and nationalities are welcome. This offer should appeal to the bright boys and girls of Westfield, who are always glad to get money either for spending or to start a bank account, or would be glad to get a bright, independent newsy paper, every week for a year.

The contest will open February 1st, 1910 and close April 30th, 1910. All guesses must be made over the signature of the contestant. No aliases allowed.

Cut this out, and fill in blank, and mail or deliver to "Census Contest," STANDARD, Westfield, N. J.

Essex Senator Introduces Resolution Urging New Jersey Congressmen To Work for Repeal.

TO AMEND FISH AND GAME ACT.

Senator Mathis Would Change Date of Open Season.—Public Hearing on Important Bills.

TRENTON, Feb. 22.—Senator Osborne, of Essex County, introduced in the Senate Monday night a joint resolution, which stated that the increased cost of living had become an excessive burden to the people of this State, and that the Federal tariff imposed upon food stuffs and necessities of life add to this burden, it should be resolved that the people of New Jersey urgently request the New Jersey Senators and Representatives in Congress to do their utmost to obtain the immediate repeal of so much of the statutes as imposes a tariff on food stuffs and other necessities of life. Senator Osborne asked that this resolution be adopted at once, but Senator Frelinghuysen, who was temporarily out of the President's chair, moved that it be referred to the Judiciary Committee, and by a strict party vote of 15 to 4, this action was taken.

Senator Mathis, of Ocean County, introduced a bill which amends the Fish and Game Act, by changing the open season in the south and middle Jersey interior counties for black or mallard duck to between the first day of November and the first day of March inclusive, and for any other kind of duck, swan or wild water fowl, excepting black duck, wood duck, geese, brant and shell drakes, the open season is to be between the first day of November and the fifteenth day of March. The Act provides a penalty of $20 for each offence. A similar penalty is provided for the killing or destroying of any duck, other than black duck or other water fowl, except between one hour before sunrise and until sunset. The Act further provides that it shall be unlawful after the fifteenth day of March and until the close of the season on April 10th, to carry any decoy on a boat, under a similar penalty. The Act further provides for a general closed season of five years, from and after the passage of the Act, for wood duck in any of the counties of this State, and makes the penalty for a violation of this provision $20.

The Municipal Corporation Committee of the House of Assembly gave a public hearing Monday afternoon on the three bills which have been introduced in the House applying to public utilities. The bills are No. 2, by Mr. Scharff, of Bergen; No. 105, by Mr. Pierce, of Union, and No. 36, by Mr. Sullivan, of Hudson. The hearing on the bills was not finished and will be continued at a date to be announced later by the Committee. The principal speakers in favor of the measure were former Assemblyman William P. Martin, of Essex County, and George L. Record, former Corporation Counsel of Jersey City. Mr. Martin and Mr. Record spoke particularly about Mr. Sullivan's bill, which was introduced last year by Mr. Martin as a substitute of the Pierce bill of that session. This bill is modeled after the Hughes Act of New York, and in this regard is said by Mr. Martin to be particularly strong, as its provisions have already been adjudicated by the courts of New York. Mr. Scharff spoke for his bill and Mr. Pierce for the measure he fathered. The principal speaker opposed to the passage of the measures, although favorable to some public utilities legislation, was Alfred N. Barber, the Secretary of the State Railroad Commission. Mr. Barber pointed out that under the provisions of the bill as they now stand, they would be impracticable at the present time. Taking the Pierce bill as an example, he said that it provided for an appropriation of $35,000 to run the business of the commission. This is about $5000 in excess of the appropriation now being made annually to the Railroad Commission, and Mr. Barber explained that adding all of these other public utilities to the railroad supervision with but an additional appropriation of $30,000, would be impossible. He said that at least $70,000 would be needed for such a public utilities commission.

Glee Club Gives a Dance.

The Glee Club of the local High School and many of their friends enjoyed a dance given at the Washington School Chapel last Monday evening. The jolly crowd, which numbered one hundred and twenty-five, danced all the evening, with Mrs. Hegeman at the piano. After the tenth dance refreshments were served by Mrs. Lullow, caterer. The hall was very prettily decorated with American flags and red and white bunting, while the platform was made into a cozy reception hall.

Miss Bray, musical instructor of Westfield schools, and leader of the Glee Club, is to be complimented for the great success of the affair, which was pronounced "excellent" by all present.

The patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. Sisserson, Mr. and Mrs. Keyes, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. D. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Martin, Mrs. C. Coddling, Mrs. J. J. Savitz, Miss Helen Savitz, Miss Hewson, Mr. Springstead and Mr. LaRoe.

The committee in charge was: Misses Helen Jackson, Grace Collins, Helen Wilson, Madelyn Worth, Edith Maie Gladwin; Messrs. Robert Keyes, Wilson Sisserson, Jack Elliott and Spencer Embree.

Everybody wears Silk Hose now.

May Reject Income Tax.

From a canvass made among the members of the Senate and of the House, in which more than 50 per cent of them were covered including both Republicans and Democrats, on the question as to how they will vote on the proposed amendment to the United States Constitution permitting an income tax, there appears a strong likelihood of the Congressional proposition being rejected by the State of New Jersey. Notwithstanding Governor Fort's message strongly urging approval of the income tax amendment it was plainly seen that a large number of the legislators of the State have been deeply and favorably impressed by the argument made by Governor Hughes, of New York, against the proposition.

February Meeting of Advance Club.

The February meeting of the Advance Club was held on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Douglass and Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Calkins, of Lawrence avenue. Miss Estelle M. Clark gave a review of "Richard Carvel" and followed with well-selected readings. Miss Burtie and Mrs. Pitter played piano solos, Mrs. Douglass and Mrs. Calkins, and Dr. Calkins sang. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Charles McDougall, Ross Place, on March 18th, when "Slavery and the Civil War" is to be the subject of a paper by Mr. Sisserson, with a review of "The Virginian" by Mrs. Stearns.
