RUNYON OUT FOR ASSEMBLY

Popular Plainfield Man This Week Announced His Candidacy For Republican Nomination

After much urging by his friends, William N. Runyon, of Plainfield, this week announced his candidacy for a Republican Assembly nomination. Mr. Runyon is one of the best-known Republicans in the county, and his consent to be a candidate met with immediate approval throughout the county. Petitions were quickly placed in circulation and more than the necessary number of signers was secured inside of an hour or two, after his announcement. Mr. Runyon is a lawyer, and former judge of the Plainfield City Court.

Mr. Runyon went before the voters of Union and Morris counties in 1910 and 1912 as the Republican nominee for Congress against William E. Tuttle, Jr. He was unfortunate however, in that the Democratic ticket was headed both times by Wilson, although in 1912 he was only defeated by a plurality vote and not by a majority.

He was mentioned for the Congressional nomination this year, but decided not to take any part in the campaign as a candidate. The pressure for him to be at least a candidate for the Assembly became too strong, however, and his announcement resulted. In making known his decision Mr. Runyon issued the following statement:

"After much careful deliberation, and at the earnest and cordial solicitation of a goodly number of citizens, I am today announcing my candidacy for the Republican nomination as one of the members of the General Assembly from Union county.

"In making this announcement, however, I trust it will not be amiss for me to say that if I had consulted my personal desires only, I should not this year be a candidate for any office, and that my present course is prompted solely by the thought, which has been urged upon me, that I may be able to render some genuine service to the State.

"In the event of my nomination and election I promise the people the best that I have to offer in their behalf. In case of my defeat, either in the primary or general election, I promise a ready and cheerful acquiescence in the will of the majority."

WRIGHT AND STUTHELL WORKING HARD

Many Offices to be Filled at the Fall Election, Including County Clerk and Sheriff

But for the fact that the proposed amendment to the State Constitution did not materialize last year, Sheriff William H. Wright would not now be able to be a candidate on the Republican ticket for the county clerkship nomination. The term of the sheriff is three years and under the law none of them are permitted to succeed themselves in office without skipping one term. Had the change been made in the constitution Sheriff Wright would have had two years yet to serve, for it was proposed to make the sheriff's term five years the same as the county clerk, register and surrogate.

It has been seldom too, that the sheriff and county clerk are both elected at the same election. The register has always been selected with the county clerk and that office will also be filled at the fall election. For this reason it is the most important election to the county in years. In addition to the elective clerical and executive offices the voters will elect a Congressman, State Senator and the customary three Assemblymen, a Coroner and the local officials.

Mr. Wright's team-mate in making his campaign is William T. Stutchell, a fellow townsman of Rahway. The energetic campaign they have been carrying on has attracted State wide attention and it is claimed by their backers, has done more to rejuvenate the Republican party and bring Progressives back into the fold than anything which has been done in the past several campaigns.

While Mr. Wright has been tested in public office and has been found to be a capable, courteous and painstaking official, his teammate, Mr. Stutchell is practically a new comer. He is a good speaker, however, and seems to be making a favorable impression on the people he meets.

MANY LAWYERS SIGN CALVERT'S PETITION

Headed by Signature of Former Chancellor it Contains Names of Many Prominent in Legal Profession in Union County

There is in County Clerk James C. Calvert's office one of the most unique and valuable books in existence. It bears the autograph of every master in chancery who ever practiced in this county. Many of them are now dead, but the majority of those still living and practicing law have affixed their signatures to Mr. Calvert's petition. He is a candidate on the Republican ticket to succeed himself.

The first signer of his petition was former Chancellor William J. Magle, who was also Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of this State. He signed the autograph book many years ago and long before Mr. Calvert ever thought of being the custodian of it. Ex-Chancellor Magle is considered the dean of the local legal profession.

In addition to the former chancellor the petition bears the name of Foster M. Voorhees, a former governor of the State, former Judge Clark McK. Whitmore, former Judge and ex-prosecutor C. Addison Swift, former Judges William N. Runyon and William N. Newcorn, Judge William O. DeMoss, Paul Q. Oliver, President of the Union County Bar Association, Ed. H. Atwater, Jr., B. D. The Board of Education met last Wednesday in School No. 1, Scotch Plains. The Board of Trustees decided to ask the votes of the Borough and township for an appropriation of $16,500, to build a new school near the Westfield Golf Club, and a meeting to vote on the above will be called the first Tuesday in September. On account of the stringency of the times, it was decided not to build an addition to School No. 1, but to divide the assembly room into two rooms temporarily.

Plainfield, Charles N. Coddington and Lloyd Thompson, of Westfield.

The endorsement of these men, all of whom have had intimate associations and business dealings with Mr. Calvert, is a power in the campaign he is now making for the nomination, and carries with it the assurance of his ability and integrity as a public official, for they are men who could not lend their approval to any person or act not in accord with the high standing they have in the community.

On Wednesday morning Frank Tasta, an Italian living on Trenton street, in the Cranford section was bitten by a little dog, owned by a resident of South avenue, as he passed the house where the dog lived.
Tasta made a complaint at the police station and the officer on duty there advised him to see a doctor at once. Special Officer Lanco went to the home of the dog and secured it and it is now being held for examination at police headquarters.

COLORED MEN ARRESTED FOR STEALING APPLES.

Three colored men were before Recorder Springstead on Wednesday morning on a complaint of Theodore Schaffer, of South avenue, who charged the men with stealing crab apples from his property. The men were John Anderson, James Hawkins and Alexander Moore.
The two former claimed that they were from West Virginia and the latter from New York. They told the Recorder that they were looking for work and were on their way to Plainfield, from Jersey City and were hungry and took the apples. The Recorder suspended sentence on the promise of the men to get out of town as quickly as possible. They were arrested by Officer Deter.

Our Park Deferred.

While the Park Commission and the Town Plan and Art Commission have both approved the proposed additions of property for park use, and no doubt the council would have given their sanction to the bond issue for the proposed new ground and to improve the Park next year, the present financial situation and the very unfavorable bond market will no doubt hold up this long talked of improvement for the present. It is one of the hardships we will have to endure as a war burden.

Never mind, we can hope on and anticipate the pleasures which some day will be ours when the Park is a reality.

The Local Political Situation.

The local political situation has taken definite shape with the announcement of the retiring Mayor and the four retiring Councilmen as candidates for re-election. Mayor Evans will have former Mayor Dennis as his opponent. While Mr. Dennis has many friends who will no doubt be glad to support him at the primary and on election day, there seems little doubt of the re-election of our present Mayor, as Mr. Evans has given Westfield a most acceptable administration and has the entire confidence of the people.

In the First Ward, the contest promises to be narrowed down to the primary, as the Democrats have no candidate to offer, whereas present Councilman Perry will have as a primary opponent for the Republican nomination Moses A. Hoppock. While Mr. Hoppock is known as a hard campaigner, the feeling seems to prevail that Mr. Perry's excellent record and his special qualifications for the office will command for him the greater support and the nomination.

In the Second Ward, Mr. Hohenstein will have no competition in the primary for the Democratic nomination. His six years on the Council serves him as his recommendation and proof of his qualification for the position. Mr. Adolph Ganzel, an old Westfielder who is well and favorably known, has consented to accept the Republican nomination. This line up promises to make an election contest that will be as interesting and spirited as any in the Second Ward since the town was incorporated.

Mr. William R. Davis, the present Councilman from the Third Ward, has yielded to the town-wide demand that he accept the nomination on the Republican ticket, which we feel is equivalent to election, as Mr. Davis' services as chairman of the Finance Committee are recognized by both parties, as invaluable, and we feel he is an indispensable member of the Council.

While Mr. Davis' opponent, the Democratic ticket is not so known, Mr. John W. James' is felt that the ticket is counted by the presence of his for Councilman from the Ward. Mr. Stacey Bendis are said to be grooming again for the race Progressive ticket. While we could endorse Mr. Davis for the position he is, as he is a good fellow, admiration for Mr. Davis' is such as to compel us his re-election.

Robert W. DeCamp, the Councilman from the Fourth Ward, has announced his re-election, and with the confidence and support of voters of the Democratic ticket in the Fourth. This year, however, he will have an opponent in Mr. George Brown, who has a wide circle of friends, and a hard campaigner. Neither candidate will have any opposition in the primary, but the support which Mr. Brown has, and the fact that he formerly a Progressive, will give him strength that cannot fail to win.

A Strong Assembly Ticket.

The announcement that Judge William N. Runyon, of Plainfield, is a candidate for member of the Assembly upon the Republican ticket, will receive a gracious response throughout Union County. Mr. Runyon is remarkably well qualified for this office. His experience as city judge in Plainfield equips him with a practical knowledge that will be very valuable at Trenton. In the last two Congressional campaigns, Mr. Runyon was the Republican candidate for Congress in the Fifth District. While he suffered defeat with the rest of his ticket in the Democratic landslide, he received a very complimentary vote from his own city, as well as throughout the whole county. Mr. Runyon hesitated about entering the primary for any office, but at the very urgent demand of his party he finally consented to allow his name to be used, in order to fulfill the universal demand for a geographically distributed Assembly representation. It is conceded by everyone that the western end of the county should have a representative, and that one should come from the central portion and one from Elizabeth.

The Republican ticket is now able to offer to the voters of Union County the opportunity for a well-balanced, fairly distributed representation in the Assembly. Mr. Runyon from Plainfield, Mr. Pierson from Westfield, and one of the three candidates from Elizabeth, would, we believe, fulfill all the conditions called for in a strong ticket, and give the county a proper representation in the Assembly.

Our Tax Rate.

With the assessment returns, practically all in, the nineteen hundred and fourteen assessment budget would seem to show an increase of about seven million dollars over the nineteen thirteen budget. While the final figures may bring the increase up to eight millions, it is hardly probable that we can escape an increase of three points for the county tax and two points for the State School tax.

The increase in the local school budget over last year is eleven thousand dollars. Because of the increase in this item, the council have held their appropriations down to the minimum. Consequently, with the increase in the County and State School tax it seems probable at the present time that we will have a rate of about two hundredths (.02). While this is higher than we would like to have it, the responsibility for this rate is entirely beyond any local control excepting to resort to that foolish expediency, to increase our valuations to save the rate, which has in times past deceived us into bad practices and proved an expensive folly.

Muddled Finance.

The investigating committee in Bloomfield, New Jersey report that their Treasurer's books are over $9,000 out of balance, the improvement bond account overdrawn $117,000, the appropriation $25,000 overdrawn and several misapplied receipts and expenditures.

The whole deplorable situation is beyond a doubt caused by the fact that the best of her citizens are not willing to give themselves for political service—"too busy," "don't like politics," and such excuses—until now the real state of affairs appalls them, and no doubt the busy business man will be compelled to give himself for a few years to a service that he should never have shrunk from.

Westfield would be no better off than Bloomfield today had not a few unselfish citizens given themselves to the work which many should share in.

Let us take this misfortune of our sister town as a warning and when the call comes to us for public service be willing to do our share of the work. If our best citizens will not put themselves into politics the other kind will—and always with the same result.

Bloomfield has no one to blame for her plight but her own best citizens. Let us be thankful to the few who at much cost and in the face of much criticism have stood by our own town.

The Red Cross.

The American Red Cross Society is preparing to engage in the stupendous task of caring for the wounded in the European war. Its appeal for contributions has met with generous response, and the work of equipping the first Red Cross ship for its errand of mercy is well under way.

An immense corps of surgeons, trained nurses and hospital attaches, as well as vast stores of medical and surgical supplies, will be needed at once; and even then the American Red Cross can hope to do but a small part of the work that has to be done. How thoroughly the Red Cross prepares for the care of sick and wounded can be judged from a brief examination of the list of supplies it is laying in. In addition to medicines, bandages and such things, one finds items that must be regarded as absolute luxuries in war times. Jellies, chocolate, preserved fruits, honey and even pipes and tobacco are laid in for the convalescent soldier.

Among the items of hospital equipment one finds such things as mosquito bars, individual drinking cup and fans; among the items of clothing there are pajamas, bathrobes, slippers, tooth and hair brushes, writing paper and pencils. In many respects, it will be observed, the Red Cross provides more fully for its charges than does many a permanent hospital in affluent times of peace.

Thousands will fall in the bloody battles that will be waged between the opposing armies in Europe; thousands will feel the need of pity, tender care and healing. Let this be the proof of our absolute neutrality—that American altruism, American enterprise and American money shall aid in alleviating the sufferings of the wounded of all nations alike.—Philadelphia Press.

New Jersey Horses.

The New Jersey horse is now worth $157.00 per head, according to a report just issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, while a year ago his average value was $147.00. The average price of the New Jersey horse is second highest of any State in the Union.

There are 91,000 horses on the farms of this State and they are valued at $14,287,000.

In 1910 the number of horses in this State was 89,000 and had an aggregate value of $11,926,000.

In the entire United States there are 20,962,000 horses and they are worth $2,291,638,000 or $109.32 each.

The people are watching with a grim smile while the Democrats are vainly trying to transform the old Ship of State into a merchant marine, now that the war in Europe has brought home to this country at last the great necessity for the upbuilding of American shipping along lines advocated by the Republican party for years.

When revenues under a miserable pretence of a Democratic tariff are failing fast, how handy it is to resort to an internal revenue tax and lay it to a European war!

MRS. H. E. FERRIS DIED SUDDENLY

Was in Her 90th Year and For Many Years Prominent in Methodist Church Work

Mrs. Harriet E. Ferris, widow of James R. Ferris, died suddenly at her home, 129 Prospect street, on Tuesday morning at 5:30, after a severe attack of acute indigestion which she endured for an hour and a half. Mrs. Ferris would have been 90 years old next Monday if she had lived. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. M. F. Pearsall and Miss Ella Ferris, nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mrs. Ferris was born in New York, August 31, 1824 and had been a resident of this town for fifty-six years. Her husband died about six years ago. Mrs. Ferris had resided here since the town was a farming district, the Ferris family owning much of the land along what is now known as Prospect street, from Broad street to Dudley avenue, the upper part of Prospect street and Ferris place, having been opened by them.

For many years Mrs. Ferris was a member of the First Methodist church, and was one of its most prominent workers. She was for over forty years president of the Ladies Aid Society of that church. She was also active in missionary and charitable lines and her effective work in the organizations with which she was affiliated is well remembered by the older residents of the town. She was one of the charter members of the old circulating library and was later a trustee of the Westfield Public Library.

Mrs. Ferris was always active in movements for the welfare of the town and only relinquished her work when rheumatism affected her activity. She had all her faculties until the last, was a diligent reader and bright conversationalist, keeping in close touch with National and State and local events and was deeply interested in the European war. Her death removes one of the oldest residents of the town and a noted figure from church and literary work.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 3:30 and will be conducted by Rev. G. Franklin Ream, of the First Methodist church, assisted by Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, of Plainfield, a former pastor of Mrs. Ferris. Interment will be made in Fairview cemetery.

Mrs. Josephine C. Wilbur.

Mrs. Josephine C. Wilbur, wife of Alfred Wilbur died at her home, 710 East Broad street, early Sunday morning after an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Wilbur was 55 years old and had been a resident of this town for a number of years. Besides her husband she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. William L. Reynolds and one son, John Wilbur.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, and was conducted by Rev. Percy Pemberton, pastor of the Branch Mills chapel. Interment was made in the Presbyterian cemetery at Rahway.

The Real Irishman.

Canon Hannay lectured in London the other day on the stage Irishman, which is not, he says, a bit like the real thing. Irishmen do not drink with careless bonhomie, with a jest on the lips and laughter in the eye, he said. They do it with a certain shamed deliberation, and they do not sing. As a rule a drunken Irishman staggers silently home, and if he opens his mouth at all it is to take serious speeches about politics or religion. Irishmen do occasionally borrow money, but not with the genial air of conferring a favor on the lender. They do it with groveling servility, declares Canon Hannay.

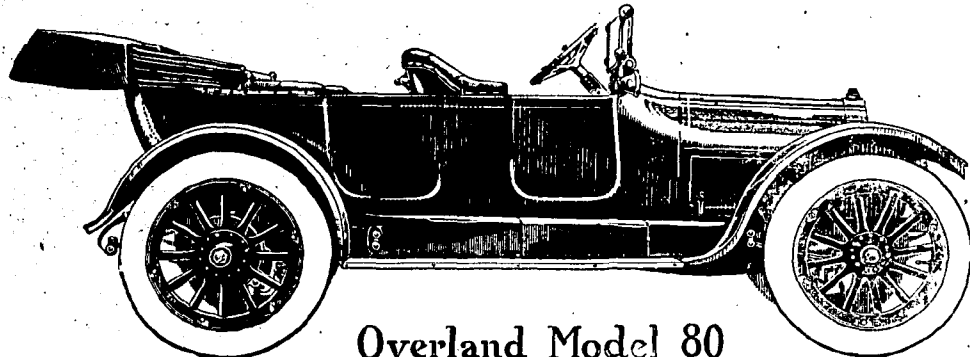

Censor Bans Costly Film.

C. A. Redford, the British censor of films, who was formerly censor of plays, has banned the cinema version of Laurence Cowen's drama, "The World, the Flesh and the Devil." This film cost $50,000 to produce and hundreds of contracts have been made for its exhibition in London and the provinces, while foreign rights have been secured for the film to be shown on the continent, in America, India, and even as far away as Siam and Japan. Redford allowed the production of the play, but held that a scene depicting a young girl's betrayal was objectionable in the film.

Big Explosives Output.

The bureau of mines has compiled some figures on the production of explosives in this country in 1912. It appears that there were manufactured 230,233,369 pounds of black powder, 24,630,270 pounds of permissible explosives and 234,469,492 pounds of high explosives, such as dynamite, nitroglycerin, etc. Of the high explosives 69,703,081 pounds were consumed in mining other than coal and 4,668,399 pounds of permissible explosives in the same industry.—Mining Journal.

CONTRACT LET
BY SCHOOL BOARD.

The contract for grading, seeding and rolling 3,200 square yards of lawn, 800 yards of playground construction, seventy-five feet of concrete culvert and eighty feet of six-inch storm sewer was awarded Monday evening at an adjourned meeting of the Board of Education, held at the Franklin School, to R. J. Montgomery, of Elizabethtown, upon motion of Commissioner Dushanek, for $611.25.

Attorney Oliver was authorized to draw the necessary contract and bond and the proper officials of the board were authorized to execute them. There were six other bidders. The bids were opened on Friday evening and definite action was delayed until the opinion of Attorney Oliver could be procured on various technical matters.

The members of the board and officials present were: President Stiff, Commissioners Rahb, Dushanek, Fromkorth, Anger, McManus and Cowell, Engineer Churchill and Attorney Oliver, Commissioner Cowell acting as secretary in the absence of District Clerk Henderson.

Garwood Beats Turners
In Slow Contest.

In a one-sided game in which the brilliant all-around work of the home team clearly outclassed the visitors, the Garwood Y. M. C. registered a 15 to 2 victory on Saturday afternoon over the National Turners, of Newark. MacIntosh was in great form and held the visitors to four hits. Brown caught in gilt-edge style. With the bases full in the fifth inning, Davis clouted a home run. He secured four hits in as many times at bat, while Miller made four hits in five trips to the plate. Ryan made a sensational catch in left field. The score follows:

R. Garwood Y. M. C. 3 3 0 0 8 0 0 0 1-15
National Turners 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 2

BOY SCOUTS WILL HIKE TOMORROW.

The Boy Scouts held an enthusiastic meeting Tuesday night in the basement of the Presbyterian church. Scoutmaster Foster Carkhuff presided, instructing the boys in the use of signs and calls. At the close, subscription lists were distributed, which will enable the organization to secure uniforms. A social hour followed.

The movement has been met with marked favor in the borough, nineteen lads having already joined, while many more are expected. The society must exclude those under 12, but a special club will be formed to accommodate boys 10 to 12 years old. The Scout officers are: Foster Carkhuff, Scoutmaster; Leslie Cowell, treasurer; Wesley Johnston, secretary; Rev. Wellhoelter, Burton Galloway and Adam Miller, assistant scoutmasters.

Tomorrow the Scouts will hike to the "Deserted Village" near Plainfield. They will start from the church at 1:30 p. m.

The present members are Wesley Johnston, Leslie Cowell, Warren Whitcombe, John Dimler, Fred Dushanek, Walter Marsh, Alfred Doremer, Frank Baggase, Louis Acker, William Marohn, Henry Terp, Archie Darroch, Theodore Henry, Frank Froat, Edward Baggase, William Yetter, Charles Hinkeldey, Walter Haforkorn and William Hinkeldey.
