Proposals for Sewer. Sealed proposals will be received by the Council of the town of Westfield at the town rooms on Thursday, April 19, 1906, at 8 o'clock p. m. for constructing about 1,270 lin. feet of 8 inch sanitary sewer and appurtenances in Mountain avenue from the end of the existing sewer to the Cory homestead.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check for $100 to the order of the treasurer of the town of Westfield as an evidence of good faith and the successful bidder will be required to furnish a bond for $1,000 to guarantee the faithful performance of the contract.

Plans and specifications may be examined and blank forms of proposal may be obtained at the office of A. W. Vans, Town Surveyor, corner of Broad and Elm street, Westfield, N. J.

The Council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

LLOYD THOMPSON, Town Clerk. April 5, 1906.

Midway. Knicker—How do you feel? Bocker—Too tired for winter and not tired enough for spring.—N. Y. Sun.

What He Wanted. "Ah," said the fortune-teller, sighing deeply and getting a mystic expression into her eyes, "you wish to learn what the future will hold for you?" "Not exactly," replied the patron, passing over his dollar, "I want to find out what the future will let go of for me."—Judge.

Southern Farm Values. It is computed that farm properties in the 11 states that once seceded from the union have risen in value more than $1,000,000,000 in two years. The average yield of these lands since this century began is $200,000,000 a year greater than it was in the preceding six years.

Church Town. The town of Willis has 183 inhabitants, and 176 of them belong to the church. Four of the seven who do not belong are town loafers and the other three are infants, who will be taken in as soon the weather warms up and they can be baptized.—Kansas City Journal.

St. Paul's Guild Notes. The annual Easter sale of home-made cake and candy by the ladies of St. Paul's Guild will take place to-morrow in the guild rooms at Gale's Club house from 2 to 5 o'clock. There will be crackers, cake, muffins, biscuits, with a variety of candy, also aprons, plain and fancy, broom covers and towels. The Rummage Sale conducted by the women of St. Paul's Guild will take place April 26, 27, 28. Will anyone having articles for this sale send word to a member of the guild and they will be called for the last week in April. Clothes, shoes, furniture, dishes, pictures in any condition whatever are solicited.

Presbyterian Parish Meeting. At the annual parish meeting of the Presbyterian Church, Monday night, the treasurer reported the church to be entirely out of debt and with a balance on hand in the treasury. The various organizations of the church made their reports, all of which evidenced an active and prosperous year of work. The church voted to accept the provisions of the new church law and trustees were elected in accordance therewith, by ballot. The six old trustees were re-elected, two whose terms had expired for full terms, and the other four for the terms for which he had originally been chosen. They were—A. N. Pierson and G. A. V. Hankinson, one year; J. S. Irving and H. E. D. Jackson, two years; C. B. Smith, and Charles McDougall, three years. The treasurer's report showed that $9801.02 had been raised during the year for current expenses and the debt fund. The session reported an active membership of 658; including reserve list, 762; additions during year 66. The Bible-school numbers 406; home department, 101; cradle roll 76. The Ladies' Sewing Society raised $751.36. The Women's Missionary Society contributed to Home Missions $139.60; to Foreign $81.40. The Christian Endeavor Society, numbering 81 active and 13 associate members, raised $122.01, and the 51 juniors gave $11.00. For the current year the choir has already pledged $18.00 for the support of a foreign and a home mission, and hopes to exceed this. Walter M. Irving was moderator and L. A. Clark, clerk. The Rev. Dr. Steanus, the pastor, made a brief address; also the Rev. Mr. Craig.

Reception to Dr. Wright. A reception will be given to Dr. J. R. Wright and family to welcome them on their return from conference to the Westfield M. E. Church. The congregation friends and are cordially invited to greet them on Thursday evening, April 19th in the M. E. Church parlors from 8 to 10 o'clock.

THE PERFECT LIGHT

There is only one perfect night illuminant—Electricity. Its soft glow floods the room with radiance that almost rivals the sunshine. To the student an Electric portable is a boon. With smarting optics concentrated study is next to impossible. Electricity does away with the strain on the eyes by dispelling darkness.

Mr. Moser at St. Paul's. Mr. Alfred A. Moser, violinist, added greatly to the morning service at St. Paul's Church on Sunday. As a prelude Mr. Moser played an aria from Esther with an organ accompaniment, and his work with the choir through the entire service proved most pleasing. Next Sunday morning Mr. Moser will play at the 11 o'clock service, which will be a full Choral Communion, and as a prelude will play the Sanctus from Gounod's St. Cecilia Mass.

Miss Palmer to Whistle Before Westfielders. Next Thursday night at the "Ladies Night" of Union Council No. 5, L. A. Miss Palmer of New York will appear and endeavor to whistle her way into the good graces of the Council members and their friends. Miss Palmer is said to be the most wonderful whistling soloist in America if not in the world. She will be assisted during the evening by Foster's Funny Fellows who are a whole show in themselves. The business meeting of the order will be held promptly at 7 p. m. in order that the entertainment may commence promptly at 8 o'clock.

Base Ball Again. It is now positively understood that Westfield will have a first class semi-professional team on the diamond this season, who hope to keep up the record of former years. The interests of the team will be looked after by Chas. Nicolas, who is an old-time baseball manager. It is hoped that the base ball fans of the town will support the new team.

Police Court in Public House. The only place in the country where the police-court business is conducted at a public house is at Blofield, Norfolk. This has been going on for 100 years, and the brewers have made no charge to the authorities for the use of the room. A new courthouse is now ready for occupation, and the magistrates are leaving their old quarters with a feeling of regret.

Modest Chief. When Lord Selborne, high commissioner of South Africa, appointed a new paramount chief of the Basuto tribe the other day, and admonished him to walk in the ways of his fathers, the new chief replied: "I am strong, yet I am frightened of the blanket that has descended upon me, and I do not know how I shall carry it."

Exciting Sport. Last winter the Norwegians varied the excitement of sled running by yoking the runner to a motor cycle by a long leather strap, which he grasps with his left hand. The speed attained is enormous, and great skill is required to avoid being pulled over, as the body is apt to outrun the feet. The pastime is growing very popular.

MANY CANDIDATES AT YALE

Honors Won by Acadia College Students Turn the Tide from Harvard—School Becoming Favorite.

New Haven.—Yale has become the star college in the United States for Canadians. A few years ago Harvard attracted them, but since Rev. George H. Cotton came down to Yale from Acadia college, in Nova Scotia, and besides winning a center place on the "Varsity football team" took all the prizes in sight, the Canadian tide has turned New Havenward. This year little Acadia college with its 300 students ranks as the fourth college in the world in number of students studying under President Hilday.

When Mr. Cotton went back to Acadia he told the students there of the great inducements that Yale offered for Canadians, and in the spring of 1902 the Yale officials received word from Acadia that six of her students were planning to come to Yale the following fall if satisfactory inducements could be made regarding tuition.

The Yale people announced at once that the tuition would be free to the students who wanted to come here from Acadia, and the following fall six men from that college matriculated with the senior class. Of these six, three are now members of the Yale faculty.

They all took their degrees from Yale in the following June and made such a brilliant showing that they won from the American students many prizes and scholarships. Four of the men who tried for scholarships and fellowships won about $2,500 during that year, making a phenomenal record.

News of the success of the six pioneers from Acadia college, which is situated at Wolfville, Nova Scotia, within a stone's throw of Grand Pre, the home of Evangeline, has so spread through Canada that this year there are 25 students enrolled in the University from British America, and Yale is offering special inducements for more to come on. Harvard in the meantime is inserting advertisements for students in the various Canadian college organs.

MONKEYS WILL BE STUDIED

Chicago University Students to Be Given Opportunity to Investigate Species.

Chicago.—The top floor of the physiology laboratory at the University of Chicago is beginning to look like the zoological section of a city park. Carpenters are building new cages and repairing old ones, so that the monkeys which will reach the university in a few days will have a commodious place in which to live.

These monkeys will not be used as an attraction for visitors but will be studied in the classroom by the students and in the private laboratories by the professors. For some time the medical authorities have been contemplating the use of monkeys for dissecting purposes.

Because of the extreme likeness of the anatomy of the monkey to that of man it is thought much more can be learned of the human organism.

It is probable several hundred animals will be used in the work during the next three months.

Another subject of importance to the scientists of the university is being discussed. Several of the professors have suggested that while the animals are being used along medical lines it would be a good scheme to study their language. The medical students of the university are enthusiastic over the idea and many of this year's classes have intimated that they intend to devote much time to the study of monkey language.

ENGLAND GROWS SOBERER

In Past Five Years Britain Has Spent $111,000,000 Less for Drink Than in Preceding Half Decade.

London.—One hundred and eleven million dollars less for drink was spent by the people of the United Kingdom in the last five years than in the five years before that. Revenue returns prove that the drinking habit is continuously declining. In England the average expenditure for drink per head was $20 a year; in Scotland, $15.50; in Ireland, $15.25. All classes consume less strong drink than they did five years ago.

This holds good even in the army and navy messes, where heavy drinking has been long considered an evidence of manliness. For instance, in the royal artillery mess at Woolwich, the largest in the British army, three-quarters of the officers of all ages drink water except on special occasions.

The new house of commons apparently typifies the tendency to temperance. The catering department, which laid in a heavy stock of wines, has found that more than 45 per cent. of the members drink water almost habitually, and that out of 670 members, 170 are professional teetotalers.

Tender Bit of Romance.

A Dover, Okla., man sent a shirt to the laundry and by mistake a woman's nightgown was returned to him. He looked her up, mingled his blushes with hers while exchanging the goods and later married her. How's that for a romantic shirt tale in society circles?

Hatpins for Women.

Those two Kentucky women who fought a duel with pistols, and shot an innocent man a block or two away, should have tried hatpins. Thereby they would at least have narrowed the circle of danger.

STICK'S WIDE TRAVELS.

Much Stamped Souvenir That Has Gone 100,000 Miles Through the Mails.

A mailing stick that has probably traveled through American mails for a hundred thousand miles or more, going to and fro between Washington and various internal revenue offices, is in the possession of Collector Chamberlain, waiting to start on another trip to the national capitol, states the Hawaiian Star of recent date. It is decorated nearly all over with the stamps of revenue collectors from Honolulu to Brooklyn. The stick is used to wrap monthly reports around before they are mailed, and the collectors have a habit of putting their rubber stamps on it before remailing it.

The stick appears to have begun its career in October, 1892, by a trip to the collector at Cleveland, O. Since then it has been here twice, and has been one or more times to Arkansas, Illinois, New York, Texas, South Carolina, Indiana, Louisiana, Missouri, California, Tennessee, Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan and Massachusetts. After each trip there is a return to Washington with a report.

The department at Washington returns it with a report. The various collectors report monthly, so that the sticks are going all the time.

"There are many of them going to and fro all the time," said Collector Chamberlain, "and when they get all covered over someone is likely to hold on to them as souvenirs."

HUNT ROOTS FOR LIVING.

Old Men of the Alps Dig Among the Mountains for Medicinal Material.

Throughout the whole chain of the Alps there are men who make it their business to search for and root up the gentian, arnica, puffsballs and other Alpine flowers. High up in the mountains the root grubber, generally an old man, builds a little hut. He clambers precipices to the edges, where the blue flowers grow; or, if he cannot ascend, he lets himself down to their place of refuge by a rope fastened to a pine above. He wanders to a long distance from his hut and does not always trouble to return to it at night, finding shelter under a rock.

Next morning he spreads all the roots he has collected on a rock where they may dry. He collects herbs as well as roots and the resin from the pine besides. When the summer is over and there are signs of snow, the root grubber collects all together in his little hut and finally transports the whole of his six months' collection to the valley.

Arnica and some other roots used in medicine are readily disposed of. From the gentian is made the gentian brandy, which is considered the very elixir of life by the mountain folk. In other days, when gentians grew in great numbers, the root digger was able to realize a good income, but it is otherwise now.

NAMING OF THE INDIANS.

The Difficulty of Finding Suitable Names for Their Absurd Ideas.

Under instructions from President Roosevelt Dr. Charles A. Eastman, a Sioux Indian, has renamed more than 10,000 Sioux with family names, says a writer in the World To-day, in order to make the inheritance of land more simple and secure.

Where possible he has kept the original Sioux name of some member of a family—as in bestowing the name "Matosku," meaning "White Bear," on the family of that chief. Sometimes the combination of wife's name and husband's has made a musical name, as "Winona Otana." The favorite name for women means "she who has a beautiful home," which Dr. Eastman has anglicized in the patronymic "Goodhouse."

But by far the hardest task is in finding new names for the absurdities of Indian nomenclature. "Bob-Tailed Coyote" was a young Indian who has come to prefer himself as "Robert T. Wolf." After a long struggle with "Rotten Pumpkin," Dr. Eastman has at last recorded the owner of the name on the tribal records under the non-committal title of "Robert Pumpkin."

Dalmatian Peasants.

In the interior of Dalmatia the laborers still live in the old patriarchal fashion. The eldest male rules the household as might some czar. In fact, it is not so many years since he had life and death power over his inmates. When a son weds he brings his wife to his father's house, that the property may remain in the family. There, while he works in the field—for they are peasant farmers, working lands held by hereditary proprietors, almost as might the serfs of Russia—she tends the dwelling. When his guests come she sends out not only for him, but for the patriarch, since he alone can really welcome a visitor, and he keeps the keys to the shelf where is stored the gin in which a toast is offered to friendship.

Women Soldiers.

In the Prussian army the commanders of 14 regiments are women and, although the position is purely formal, yet these female colonels enjoy like military rank with the male holders of the title and on occasion wear the uniform of their office.

Better Impression.

"Do you think that travel will enable that young man to make a better impression?"
"Yes," answered Miss Cayenne, "during his absence."—Washington Star.

VERITABLE AMERICAN EDEN

Most Favored Region of All the Earth In Among the Ozarks of Missouri.

The Ozark mountains, where it has been proposed to remove the capital from Washington, is the most favored section in all the world. In no locality on earth has nature done more for man than in southwest Missouri, writes a Washington Star correspondent of that section. It has been fifty and seventy described as the "Garden of the Ozarks." Truly has no favor skies than the Ozarks. There verdure-clad hills alternate with sunny prairies, and babbling brooks course through rich meadows; the rich, golden grain waves like the billows of the sea, or is gathered in countless sheaves; fruits of all kinds wear down the cranking orchards and load their bright colors to contrast pleasingly with the green of the foliage, the great gifts of the Creator are here enjoyed in their fullest and most beautiful realization. In winter the farmer of the Ozarks is abroad in his fields, and mayhap his daughters are gathering wild flowers and strawberries. Although the summers are long, they are very mild. The evenings and nights are delightfully cool and pleasant. There north and south meets on terms of equality.

Springfield, the capital of that section, is known as the "Queen of the Ozarks," a daughter of the gods divinely fair, and well deserves the name. It is 1,500 feet above the sea level and over 1,000 feet higher than St. Louis. In such a climate the spiritual and intellectual becomes as pure as does the material. Graft could not exist in such an atmosphere. With our capital situated so fortunately, not only this government but the entire world would be benefited.

COACHING IS ANTIQUATED.

People Stare Now When a Four-In-Hand Is Seen in the Metropolis.

That motor cars have dealt a very serious blow to coaching it is no longer possible to deny. Until this year, says a New York exchange, it was confidently asserted that there was room for both, and that drag and motor could flourish side by side.

Spring, summer and fall of 1905 have shown this belief to be a fallacy. Several road coaches, which formerly were wont to run out of New York to Lakewood, have been abandoned this year.

The parking places for drags at the races and open-air suburban horse shows are now entirely monopolized by motors, coaches being few and far between, while private four-in-hands on the avenue are nowadays so rare as to cause people to turn around and stare as if at some antiquated mode of conveyance.

Indeed, it is a question whether New York will ever witness again another coaching parade, for the last one, which took place in the spring, was so manifestly attended as a matter of duty rather than pleasure that it is very doubtful whether it will be possible to assemble again a sufficient number of drags in line to warrant a meet of the club.

In Europe matters are still worse from a coaching point of view, and in France the coaching season has been the most disappointing and discouraging ever known since four-in-hand driving was taken up as a popular form of sport.

DAIRIES IN FAR SIBERIA.

Are Now Exporting Annually More Than 80,000,000 Pounds of Butter.

A firm of London importers of food-stuffs predicts that there will be a slump in the price of dairy products the world over as soon as Siberia strikes a steady gait in butter production. The reason assigned for this astonishing prophecy is that Siberia is now exporting annually a little more than 80,000,000 pounds of butter, while the dairy regions are capable of producing 15 times as much or more than the imports of Great Britain from all her possessions.

The London firm, having studied the Siberian dairy products on the ground, thinks that it will be so difficult for Canada and New Zealand, the chief sources of Great Britain's butter supply from her colonies, to compete with Siberian butter that they will have to drop out of that department of dairy exporting and confine their attention to cheesemaking. It adds that Denmark is already feeling the strain of Siberian competition.

However this may be, it is certain that butter making is becoming nearly as important in Siberia as all her other industries put together. Yet it is possible that the great slump in the dairy business will be averted. There is evidence of a growing appetite for butter among the far eastern Asiatics. If those countless millions add butter to their bill of fare the cows will have a busy time of it.

"God will not look for medals and degrees, but for scars."—Robert Hall.

The reform Senator from Essex came over into Union last Saturday night and met a number of men interested, as he is, in the purification of party politics. Senator Colby addressed the gathering, telling them of his experience with the inside of the legislative machinery as affected by the corporations, and of his own awakening to the urgent need of reform. Judge William N. Runyon, who recently announced his withdrawal from the Plainfield organization, was present and intends to join forces with the Colby movement in this county. A temporary committee was appointed to arrange for public meetings shortly to be held and at which the plans of the Colby people will be announced. There seems to be no present disposition on the part of the organization Republicans to criticize the new movement adversely.

The local coal dealers announced to-day that they have been able to make arrangements with the operators which will insure a sufficient supply of coal for this community, and that the price prevailing before the recent advance will now be resumed. They further state that as they now have proper assurances of being able to supply their customers the reason for the advance is no longer applicable and they will therefore refund the difference between the old price and the advanced price for all coal ordered since the advance.

John Moody has resigned the Chairmanship of the Union County Democratic Committee because the latter consider his political views too radical for endorsement. The Committee voted against Mr. Moody's proposed new platform a few days ago. Now he tells them they care less for principles than for politics.

The internal dissension generally rife in both the great political parties is one of the most hopeful signs of the times. It means thinking is being done by individuals and that organizations as such are getting their proper rating.

Wifely Forethought.
Wife: It's all right if you have failed. I have $500 saved up from money that you've given me from time to time.

Gentian Brandy.
From the gentian is made the gentian brandy, which is considered the very elixir of life by the mountain folk. In other days, when gentians grew in great numbers, the root digger was able to realize a good income, but it is otherwise now.

Loves Himself.
Bacon—Don't you think it a pleasant thought to think that all the world loves a lover?

Egbert—Well, I don't know about that! Doesn't that imply that the lover is a little stuck on himself, too?—Yonkers Statesman.

O. S. Club Reception.

One of the most enjoyable receptions that has ever been held in town was given by the girls of the O. S. at the Westfield Club Hall on Thursday evening of last week. Great credit is due to the club for this, their first large dance, proved to be one of the social events of the season. The hall was very prettily decorated with palms and the club colors of red and gold. The patronesses were Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. William J. Alpers, Mrs. Paul Phillips, Mrs. David Collins, Mrs. William H. Jones, Mrs. Wilfred Johnson and Mrs. Frank Perkins.

Among the visiting guests were Miss Dorothy Knight, of Fairwood; Miss Ethel Shubert, of Plainfield; Miss Edna Porter, of New York; Miss Susan Sewell and Anna Woodward, of Watertown, Conn.; Miss Estelle Dickinson, of Ellington Park, Pa.; Miss Eleanor Smith, of Broomfield; Miss Louise Stadelaker, of South Bend, Ind.; Miss Dorothy Armstrong, of Cranford; Miss Hazel Grant, of Plainfield; the Misses Grace Powell, Helen Taylor and Jessie Boyd, of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Reagle and the Misses Miller, Jones, Collins, Johnson, Phillips, Perkins, Ann and Ethel Irving, Alpers, Sjostrom, Cowperthwaite, Bliss, Demann, Harrison, Meyer, Demey, Sinclair, Russell, Sheld, Culbertson, Oswald, Randolph, Clark, Darling, Gale, Arnold, Brumard, and Johnson, of Westfield; Messrs Tooker, Boyd, Day and Macbeth, of Brooklyn; White, Hall Payne and Hutton, of New York; Lodge, of Bayonne; Parks, of Fall River, Mass.; Knight, of Fairwood; Dickinson, of Ellington Park, Pa.; Hunt, of Philadelphia; Van Devanter, of Netherwood; Smith, of Broomfield; Elrich of Bedford Park, N. Y. C.; Macdonay, of Jersey City; Voorhes, of Cranford; Freeman, of Plainfield; Brown, Scribner, Earl and Deming, of Elizabeth; and Welch, Stern, Gilpin, Keyes, Clark, Arnold, Cato, Hodges, Beiser, Poor, Seely, Smith, Reese, Wilcox, Meyer, Gutierrez, Dewey, Lawrence and Raymond Jackson, Doying, Pronan, Sjostrom, Harold and Raymond Edwards, Delatour and Brennessholtz, of Westfield.

Queen Esther Cantata.

The Cantata "Esther the Beautiful Queen" was given at the Westfield Club Hall last Saturday and Monday evenings. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the performances were not so well attended as they undoubtedly would have been with better weather. They were given for the benefit of the Union Fresh Air Mission and were under the direction of Mr. B. P. Waterbury, who gave the Cantata "Belshazzar" last year. Excellent music by the very competent orchestra greatly aided the presentation of the cantata, which as a whole, evidenced sincere and earnest work. The cast was as follows:

Queen Esther, Miss Bertha Van N. Willis; King Ahasuerus, E. P. Waterbury; Haman, the King's Counselor, Leon G. Saunders; Mordecai, a Jew, Charles H. Wetmore; Zeresh, Haman's wife, Mrs. B. P. Waterbury; Haman's Child, Eva Wells; Mordecai's Sister, Mrs. A. B. Price; Prophetess, Miss Jennie Bailey; Median Princess, Miss Marguerite Rathborne; Persian Princess, Miss Katherine Taylor; Scribe, W. T. Reger; Beggar, T. W. Murray; Hegai, High Priest, E. C. Kreidler; Herald, Harbounh, S. Sellers.

Midsummer Night's Dream.

Miss Helen Mar Wilson was heard last Monday afternoon at the Woman's Club in her monologue "A Midsummer Night's Dream," given as part of the Shakespearean program of the Club this season. Miss Wilson had been heard in Westfield a number of times as an eloquent, but only once before in Shakespeare. She succeeded, Monday afternoon, in convincing her hearers of her real artistic ability. The rendition of the famous play was thoroughly appreciated and commended by a critical audience. The Mendelssohn Suite was given in connection with the monologue by Mrs. E. S. Robinson and Mrs. M. B. Dutcher at the piano and Miss Sily Anderson with the violin. The musical feature was a prominent element in the success of the entire program. The platform arrangements were made beautifully effective by an artistic floral display.

Mrs. E. S. Robinson, President of the Club, later entertained at ten the visiting delegates and the officers and committee chairmen of the local club.

Westfielders in a Play.

The play, "Snowball, or His Wife's Maid," a farce in three acts, by Sidney Grundy, will be given in the Westfield Club Hall Friday and Saturday evenings of next week, for the benefit of the Children's Country Home. The cast of characters is as follows:
Polly Featherstone.
Mr. William P. Tuttle, Jr.
Harry Prondargast, his friend.
Mr. Charles E. Thorne.
His Uncle John.
Mr. Andrew A. Smith.
Saunders, his butler.
Mr. Clark R. Swaney.
Mrs. Featherstone.
Mrs. William P. Tuttle, Jr.
Ethel Granger, her sister.
Mrs. H. Winslow Thayer.
Penelope, the maid.
Miss Ella B. Woodward.
Tickets are now on sale at Frutchey & Hathaway's, where seats are to be reserved. No seats received by telephone.

Westfield Woodmen Defeat Bowlers From Elizabeth Camp No. 11, W. O. W.

On Snyder's alleys at Plainfield last night the bowlers from Westfield Camp, No. 20, W. O. W., defeated for the second time the pin smasher from Elizabeth Camp, No. 11, W. O. W., Elizabeth, this being the second match of a series of three rolled. Elizabeth started off well, taking the first game by 13 pins; but in the other two games they did not have a look in, Westfield winning the second by 83 pins, and the third by 75 pins. Snyder did the best individual bowling for Westfield, having an average of 101 for the 4 games. Powers did the best work for Elizabeth, with an average of 153 for the 3 games. The third match of the series will be bowled at Bender's alleys, Roselle, on Thursday night, April 26. By winning last night the Westfield Woodmen are the undisputed champions.

Ungerer-Worth Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Fannie Rebecca Ungerer, to Charles Prindle Worth, took place at noon last Saturday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ungerer, 111 Dudley avenue, in the presence of about twenty of the near relatives of the bride and groom. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. H. Guernsey, pastor of the Congregational Church. Miss Madelyn Worth, daughter of the bride-groom, was flower girl, and J. Allan Worth, the bride-groom's brother, was best man. The bride was given away by her father. The music was furnished by Prof. Westervelt. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Worth left in the afternoon for Atlantic City for a week's stay. Upon their return they will reside at 41 Walnut street.

Mr. Peckham in the South.

The distinguished New Yorker, Mr. W. G. Peckham, the owner of important interests in our community, addressing literary students in Dr. Hume's lecture room, captured all imaginations by his charming literary methods and won all hearts by his generous words concerning the University and Dr. Hume's tested work in it. His tribute to the flavor and richness of the mother tongue and to the efficiency of literary culture in the preparation for the lawyer's vocation, his exquisite selections from the ballads and other literature, and the glow and eloquent charm with which he did it make it well worthy of note.—N. C. University Organ.

OBITUARY.

Anna May Crooks.

Third-nephew of Mrs. Anna May Crooks, wife of Mr. John W. Crooks, occurred early on Wednesday morning. Mrs. Crooks underwent an operation for appendicitis about six weeks ago when it was found that there was no possibility of relief without it. Further complications were discovered, necessitating another operation at the same time. She made a brave heroic battle for life, but the conditions were such that the most skillful treatment could not overcome Mrs. Crooks was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Irving, and resided in Westfield for some time after her marriage in 1897. Her home has been in Newark, N. J., for the past several years. She retained her membership in the Presbyterian Church here, of which she had been a member for fourteen years. She is well remembered by many friends in Westfield where she grew from childhood to womanhood. The funeral will be held at her late home, 112 Broad Street, Newark, N. J., on Saturday at one o'clock. The interment which will be private, will be in Fairview Cemetery. Dr. Stenness will officiate at the funeral. The sympathy of their friends have been manifested for the parents and family here and for the bereaved husband and daughter.

Anna Short.

The death of Anna Short, three years old, daughter of Abram Short, of Prospect Street, occurred last Saturday, the result of ptomaine poisoning.

Edith Mueller.

Edith Mueller, aged three years, died at the home of her father, Albert Mueller, 89 Central Avenue, Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Elizabeth L. Wallace.

Mrs. Elizabeth L. Wallace, mother of William G. Wallace, died at her son's home, 270 Dudley Avenue, Tuesday morning, aged 72 years. Funeral services were held yesterday. Interment to-day at Williamsport, Pa.

John Lambert.

John Lambert, a well-known resident of Fairview Township, died at his late residence at 3 o'clock this morning in the 82nd year of his age. Funeral Monday, April 16, at 3 o'clock p. m., in the Willow Grove Chapel. Interment in Fairview Cemetery. Mr. Lambert came from old English stock. Roger Lambert settled at Elizabethtown in 1683, came to Westfield two or three years later, and his descendants have lived on the same lands ever since. Mr. Lambert leaves a second wife and ten children by his first wife.

Fireside Doings.

At last night's meeting of Fireside Council, Fred Brush was elected vice-regent to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of George H. Birdsall. After the meeting the members enjoyed an entertainment furnished by home talent, members of the council. The program consisted of a song by W. C. Van Bursick, Snake stories by Ira Lambert, a song by "Gene" Hamford, Short talk on my variegated life by E. R. Pearsall. Tom Murray, accompanied by his dress suit, favored the audience with his presence. Uncle "Al" Pearsall sang and told stories as no one but Uncle "Al" can. All went to Dughi's for ice cream on the new vice-regent. At the next meeting there will be the Fireside Council annual race meet, which will be open to all members. Entries close when race starts. Potato race, Sack race, Three-legged race, Backward race, Obstacle race. There will be three prizes for each race, such as Waterman pen, 5 pieces Tiffany glass, an American flag, all of which will be on exhibition at Frutchey & Hathaway's for a week before the events.

Letter to Fred Eiler.

Westfield, N. J.

Dear Sir: Have you found this out? You need less of Devco lead-and-zinc for a job than of anything else; less gallons; less money.

M. A. Thomas, painter, Ignellburg, Va., has found it out; he writes: "The first job I did with your paint I estimated 37 gallons; had 12 gallons left over. Since then I have not used any other kind of paint but Devco lead-and-zinc; I recommend it to all my customers. When I commence a job, I take up a card reading as follows: A. M. Thomas, contractor; Devco Paint."

Putting it on costs two or three times as much as the paint. Have you found this out? You can paint Devco in less time; less money; less paint.

Have you found this out? Devco wears longer than anything else.

You don't object to long time between jobs. Your customers like it. And you like what he likes. It keeps your customers.

Yours truly,

F. W. Devco & Co.

Scholarly Prelate.

Cardinal Perraud, bishop of Autun, France, who died recently, was noted as one of the most scholarly prelates of Europe. He was made an immortal in days when the sacerdotal habit had already come to be a poor recommendation for public honor, but the cardinal, who, like Newman in England, was the head of the Ultramontans in France, never had any difficulty in maintaining a position of quiet dignity.

Reveres the Rite.

Henry D. Moorman, 26 years old, the youngest county judge in Kentucky, was recently elected in Cloverport, and a few days ago performed his first marriage ceremony. He says it will be his last, also, for he thinks marriage is too sacred a ceremony for judges to perform. Says Judge Moorman: "I attach a sacredness above my office to this thing of linking two lives. The seriousness, the sacredness, the solemnity of the thing is not there when an officer of the law ties the knot."

Friend of the Drama.

The bishop of London, generally regarded as one of the wisest prelates of the Church of England, has proclaimed himself an ardent friend and patron of the drama. The bishop holds that one of the chief difficulties facing the social reformer is to keep poor people out of mischief, and he declares that he has seen thousands "dragged from the public" house by the simpler forms of play.

Not Interested.

A man never asks the price of wooden legs until he needs one.

Should Be Electrocuted.

Germs are now being photographed. They deserve no less.

Irish Emigrants.

Since the census of 1900 was taken nearly 200,000 Irish emigrants have settled in the United States, the year ending with July, 1905, showing a larger number than any year since 1895. A new impetus has been given to Irish immigration within the last two years, a turn which is quite perplexing to those native Irish societies which have been unsuccessfully attempting to stop the great national leak for so many years.

Regiment's Severe Test.

In representing colors to the Second battalion, South Staffordshire regiment, at Benares, India, the other day, the prince of Wales recalled the fact that the regiment had been shipwrecked three times, each time showing perfect discipline, and he remarked that a shipwreck tested a regiment's discipline more severely than a battle.

Sorry for the Groom.

"I suppose you've heard that I'm to marry Mr. Green?" she said to one of her old friends.
"No," he replied, coldly.
"You don't seem to be very enthusiastic about it."
"Why should I be? Not knowing Mr. Green, I haven't any grudge against him."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Mikado's Medics.

The emperor of Japan is always attended by physicians despite the fact that he is in excellent health. Four eminent medical gentlemen are attached to the imperial household and one is within call at all hours of the day and night. The pulse and temperature of his majesty are taken four times each day and the results are carefully recorded.

Have Won Titles.

There are now five British peeresses who were actresses, namely: May Carrington (Lady de Clifford), Belle Bilton (Countess Clancarty), Connie Gresham (Countess Orkney), Rosie Boote (Marchioness of Headfort), and Anna Robinson (Countess of Rosslyn).

Not Quiet Then.

Mrs. Gusch—'I like your husband's style very much.
Mrs. Planeley—How do you mean?
"He's such a quiet dresser."
"Huh! You should hear him some time when he can't find his collar buttons."—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Hard-Working Reformer.

"Sometimes," said Uncle Eben, "it seems to me like a reformer was one of deshere people dat has to talk two hours an' a half to 'spress one o' de ten commandments. An' dar warn't no dispute 'bout dat in de firs' place."—Washington Star.

Very Different.

"I think Flora is a mean thing. When her Fido and my Rover were fighting, she kicked my poor Rover."
"Why didn't you stop her?"
"I was too busy kicking Fido."—N. Y. Times.

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.

"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Colman, of Montmorency, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." Sold by Frutley & Hathaway.

Human Nature.

The folks that live the plainest live the happiest, and yet it's only human nature to keep reaching after riches.—Atlanta Constitution.

Menu of the Eagle.
The voracity of the eagle is a well-known fact, but it has been left to a Swiss hunter to define exactly the variations which take place in its daily menu. In a nest in the Alps, side by side with an eagle, he found a hare, freshly killed; 27 chickens' feet, four pigeons' feet, 30 pheasants' feet, 11 heads of fowls, 18 heads of grouse, and the remnants of rabbits, marmots and squirrels.

Coin for Mexico.
The Mexican government lately concluded a contract with the Philadelphia mint for the coining of about $4,000,000 worth of gold which Mexico has been accumulating for about two years. The mint has already begun coining $1,000,000 on a rush order. Since the establishment of the gold standard in that country the capacity of their mints has been overtaxed.

Nearly a Ton.
A reunion of the Weewee family was held recently at the home of Leonard Weewee, west of town, reports the Rushville (Ind.) Republican. There are nine brothers, and their aggregate weight is 1,780 pounds, an average of 178 pounds to the man. All are six-footers. This is probably the "largest family" of boys in this country.

Old Song Writer.
Will S. Hayes, whose songs, "Mollie Darling," "The Little Old Log Cabin in the Lane," etc., were sung two-score years ago, is living in Louisville, Ky., and recently celebrated the seventy-fourth anniversary of his birth.

Bombard the Clouds.
French winegrowers are more than ever convinced that hailstorms can be averted by the timely firing of cannon. In the Beaujolais district alone, 462 cannon are now in use.

Suez Canal Too Narrow.
It is urged by the Liverpool Underwriters' association that the Suez canal be doubled in breadth or else that an entirely new canal be built.

Had It Out.
McTavish—Have you a light, Donald?
Donald—Aye, but it's out.—Scraps.

Getting Dangerous.
The market for American poker chips is said to be seriously threatened by undervaluation of the Japanese article. Many patriots will now begin to believe in the reality of the yellow peril.

STATE LEGISLATURE

Lawmakers Finish Their Winter's Work at Trenton.

MANY BILLS PASS IN LAST HOURS

Parents and Newark Protest Against Sale of Water to New York.—Pro-Bushy's Military Measure Approved—Assembly Orders Sent For Female Employees.

(Special Correspondence.)

Trenton, April 12.—Shortly after the house convened Monday night Majority Leader Perkins introduced a joint resolution fixing the adjournment for Thursday (today) at 3 p. m. Assemblyman Wright asked the leader, through the speaker, if he was sure it was possible to adjourn at this date with so many important matters yet to be acted on. Mr. Perkins stated that he had often heard nothing was sure but death and taxes, but after consulting with members of the house Mr. Perkins believed adjournment could be brought about by Thursday. The resolution for sine die adjournment then passed the house.

Mr. Wise (Passaic) and Mr. Martin (Essex) presented petitions from Passaic city and Newark respectively, signed by the mayor and members of council of those cities, protesting against any diversion of waters from this state to any other state, as proposed by Senator Wakelee's bill permitting water to be carried from New Jersey in pipes to Staten Island. Both petitions upheld the Maccheller law of 1905, which prohibits this diversion.

Amendments presented by Senator Brown to his bill, 330, introduced to help Sheriff Francis in his contest with Close for the sheriff's office in Monmouth county, were defeated on the opposition of Mr. Colby by a vote of 4 to 5. The amendments were so framed as to make the bill completely cover the Monmouth situation. Senator Colby termed them inexcusable and offered amendments that will to all purposes leave the law in its present shape. The bill was later re-committed. A similar bill introduced in the house by Assemblyman Reed was amended by making the act retroactive so it will apply to the Francis-Close contest. Mr. Martin opposed the bill. Mr. Reed declared the bill was intended to clarify the law on such contests as that in Monmouth county.

Firth Wants His Bill Reported.
Mr. Firth presented a resolution for the relief of the committee on labor and industries of his bill requiring wages of all employees of corporations, railroads, etc., to be paid every two weeks. Mr. Perkins objected to the Firth resolution, as did Mr. Barber, who claimed that the committee should sift the bills out. The resolution provoked over an hour's debate, and then the previous question was moved. Firth's resolution was lost.

Senator Frellighuysen's military bill passed the house without opposition. It enables the state to comply with the Dick military law passed by congress, and thus New Jersey can secure its share of the government appropriation for the national guard.

Assembly bill 230, by Mr. Underwood, providing that employers of female help supply seats for such help, which passed last week, was reconsidered Monday night and placed back on second reading. After some slight amendments it was advanced to third reading and passed.

Senator McKee, chairman of the committee on elections, reported, with three pages of committee amendments, Ay's bill, 301, providing for direct nominations for public office at primaries without intervention of conventions.

The following bills were introduced in the senate:

By Mr. Wakelee—Enables a railroad company formed by merger to issue shares of capital stock at par in an aggregate amount equal to the par value of all the consolidated companies and 20 per cent thereof preferred stock not to exceed one-half of its authorized capital.

By Mr. McKee—Permits redemption of property sold under foreclosure proceedings within six months of entry of judgment. Amends act of March 12, 1880.

By Mr. Millery—Removes limit of 15 cents on each $100 on assessed valuation of taxable property in towns for town purposes.

There was considerable debate when Senator McKee's bill prohibiting the use of automatic shotguns in hunting game was reported in the house Monday night and passed by the senate. Mr. Houghland moved for a suspension of rules to place the measure on second reading without a reference.

Mr. Mills objected to the motion, saying that there were similar bills in committee and that there was a house measure in committee similar to it. The bill was finally referred to a committee.

Redistricting Bill Passed.
An hour's time was taken up in the house on Perkins' assembly redistricting bill, which was lost in the house last week. The measure was reconsidered Monday night and passed, 44 to 32, after considerable jockeying.

Another assembly redistricting bill was introduced by Mr. Morgan, it being practically Perkins' assembly redistricting bill, except the Morgan bill is not to take effect until Jan. 1, 1907.

Other bills introduced were:
Mr. Crowther—Amends the jury act providing that common pleas judge may strike from and add to jurors drawn by the sheriff.

Mr. Hines—Authorized governor to appoint three commissioners to revise and codify the police court laws.

Mr. Morris—Prohibes for payment by the state of farm and garden products destroyed to prevent spread of contagion.

Mr. Wise's bill requiring persons or corporations selling steamship or railroad tickets who receive deposits for the purpose of transmitting the same to give bonds to the commissioners of banking and insurance under a penalty of from $50 to $100 fine was passed in the house.

Other bills passed by the house were the following:

By Mr. Seale—Amends the net incorporating cities relative to the condemnation of lands for public or municipal use. Applies to East Orange.

Mr. Barber—Joint resolution authorizes the governor to appoint a commission of three persons to investigate and report the feasibility of a law providing for a division of the profits of public utility corporations between the corporations and such municipalities as grant them the right to do business.

By Mr. Elvins—Fixing the opening for the rabbit and squirrel season on the second Thursday after election day.

Bishops' Bill Amended.

The senate adopted an amendment offered by Senator Millery to senate bill 305, a companion to the Bishops' bill, changing the measure so that it shall not apply to towns of less than 3,000 inhabitants. The bill provides for one license to every 200 inhabitants and places appointments of excise commissioners in the hands of the court of common pleas in cities where excise boards are now appointed. It has been twice amended so as not to apply to seaboard cities or towns or townships along the coast. The bill as amended was passed Tuesday.

Mr. Heck's bill requiring ferryboats to have toilets was loaded with amendments Monday evening and killed. At the Tuesday morning session the vote by which the bill was lost was reconsidered and the bill passed.

The senate by a vote of 13 to 0 passed Millery's new maximum tax bill, with a repealer attached repealing the present maximum tax law.

Senator Millery's joint resolution for a commission to investigate the subject of municipal ownership of lighting plants went through the senate.

In executive session the senate confirmed the appointment of ex-Governor Foster M. Voorhees as judge of the circuit court; Luther M. Halsey, member of the board of managers of the State hospital at Trenton, vice Benjamin W. Andrews, and Richard H. Wilson, member of the board of managers of the Rahway reformatory, reappointed.

Governor Stokes on Tuesday sprung a surprise on the legislature when he sent a special message to both houses relative to the many bills concerning municipal ownership of public utility franchises, the diversity of their provisions and the general lack of uniformity in them. Although many of the bills have passed, only one of the number has as yet reached the governor's hands, and he felt that it would not be the part of wisdom for him to approve of more than one on account of the discord of provisions.

Assemblyman James M. E. Hiltreth of Cape May county, recently appointed judge of the court of common pleas in Cape May county, resigned Tuesday as a member of the assembly to go on the bench at Cape May courthouse.

One Saloon For 200 Persons.
The senate passed Senator Hutchinson's jury reform bill, providing for the selection of persons qualified for petit jury duty by the judge of the court of common pleas from a list prepared by the sheriff of the county. The right of challenge may be made to any person who has served four terms.

The senate also passed senate bill 305, which limits the number of liquor licenses to one to every 200 inhabitants. The provisions of the bill eliminate seaside resorts, boroughs, towns and townships and all municipalities of less than 3,000 population.

The Frellighuysen automobile bill, with the house judiciary committee amendments, was considered in the house at length. Two amendments which do not change the sense of the bill as approved by the senate were adopted without discussion. Assemblyman Houghland's amendment creating seven automobile inspectors who shall have police power was adopted after a great deal of debate. The committee had suggested that there be no state inspectors with police power, contending that the local police forces were sufficient to enforce the law.

The committee amendment authorizing the commissioner of motor vehicles to give power to the chief of police or his deputies in any municipality to grant licenses and giving the commissioner power to revoke licenses of those who have violated the provisions of the auto act was adopted.

There was no objection to the committee amendment prohibiting the granting of licenses to persons under sixteen years of age as automobile drivers and prescribing that applicants for chauffeurs' licenses shall be examined as to their knowledge of the mechanism of the car which they intend to operate.

The automobile bill as passed by the house provides that no person under sixteen can be registered, and thirty horsepower cars and less must pay a fee of $1 a year, with $2 for higher power cars.

The speed limit is restricted to one mile in seven minutes at corners and one mile in five minutes in cities and twenty miles an hour in open country. Doctors and military officers are exempted from the speed limit. If the law is signed it goes into effect July 1.

NERVOUS PEOPLE

Something You Ought to Know.

"No nerves and never irritable." This is what our well-known druggists, Frutley and Hathaway, say people report after taking Vinol. "It is remarkable," said a member of the above firm "how many people buy sedatives and all sorts of opiates to quieten and deaden the nerves, when they are weakening their entire nervous system by doing so."

"Nervous troubles are easily cured," continued he. "It is simply a case of treating the general weakness, not the nerves alone, and that is just what Vinol does in the most direct and simple manner possible. It cures nerve troubles because it builds one up, and makes one strong all over. It invigorates the entire nervous system, makes new blood and vitality."

"Vinol contains no drugs, and you know what you are taking—simply the medicinal quinine found in cod liver oil with a little organic iron added. It is fast superseding old forms of cod liver oil and emulsions because it is so delicious to the taste and has such marvelous vitalizing power."

It is for this reason that we say to every nervous, run-down and debilitated person in Westfield, try Vinol, and if it does not cure you come back and get your money." Frutley & Hathaway, Druggists.

JOHN HAY AS JOURNALIST.

Few Newspaper Writers Have Been
So Well Equipped for the Work as He.

Few newspaper writers have brought to their task the equipment which Hay possessed when he came to the "Tribune" in the winter of 1870, writes Joseph Bucklin Bishop in "A Friendship With John Hay." After passing through the great period of the civil war as the private secretary of President Lincoln, he had served successively as secretary of legation at Paris, charge d'affaires at Vienna, and secretary of legation at Madrid. He spoke several of the languages of Europe as fluently as he spoke his own, and he had that minute knowledge of their art and literature that only a born lover of art and literature can attain. One has only to read his "Castilian Days" to realize the full meaning of what I wish to convey when I say this. His conversation was literally a "joy forever," then as always. I have heard many good talkers in my day, thank God! but never a better one than John Hay.

Scarcely less enjoyable than his talk was his writing. He wrote mainly upon foreign affairs, political, social, and literary; and whatever he wrote, intellectual men everywhere, who read it, talked about. Into whatever he did, then and throughout his life, he put his full powers. He was preeminently a good workman; he would do nothing except his best. But while he always did his best, he never made the mistake of taking journalistic work too seriously. He had the saving grace of humor, without which no journalist can hope to attain the largest measure of power and usefulness.

PREDICTIONS BY MACHINE.

Contrivance Used by Coast Survey
at Washington Preforms Unique Service.

A machine that prophesies is an engine in use by the coast survey at Washington, D. C., which can and does predict the time of high and low tide for a given locality, and makes these predictions for a year in advance. Its performance is not limited to a year, but that is the maximum of work it is usually called upon to do. It is compact and delicate to a degree not easy to appreciate. To make these tidal predictions, which are issued in the form of a fat book of tablets every year by the survey, the machine is first set, then operated by hand. As may be surmised, the setting of the machine is the point at which accurate mechanism and the human brain join forces. There are 19 factors to be determined in making tidal predictions. Each factor alters all the rest. Hence the machine is so constructed that an alteration of one factor has its effect on the others. How this is done is understood in a measure by noting that there is a setting of 19 dials, with pointers. Each pointer is on a pulley mounted eccentrically on its shaft, and over this pulley passes a chain which goes from one to another. Obviously, if the eccentricity of one pulley is altered it has its proportionate effect on all the rest. The engine was invented by Prof. William Ferrel, who presented it to the government without charge for his idea. It cost originally but $3,500 and does the work of 40 expert computers.

NOW THE GRANITE STATE.

Magnitude of Deposits in Texas Give the Commonwealth That Distinction.

The new Granite state of Texas, whose magnitude of granite deposits probably outrank those of any other state. It could with equal fitness be styled the foremost cattle state, and, judging from its famous undeveloped iron ores, it may become a center of metallurgy. With but a fraction of its acres devoted to grain, it produces nearly 200,000,000 bushels a year of wheat, corn and other grains. On 15,000,000 acres it is annually growing nearly $300,000,000 worth of agricultural products. Texas is an empire with less than one-tenth of its area under cultivation—a fraction so small that it might be cut off one side the state without being missed from the other; with a population of 3,000,000, and easily able to support 50,000,000, with a variety of soils suitable for every crop from that of the tropics to that of the higher altitudes of the temperate zone, with great water powers yet unutilized; with a wealth of mineral resources defying description, a beauty of mountain scenery unknown and unappreciated by the world at large, and a charm of climate unsurpassed in the United States, vying from cold regions like the north-west to sunny areas where roses bloom throughout the winter.

Only Born King.

There is a fact about King Alfonso well worth knowing. Of all the kings who have ever lived, with the sole exception of Jean I. of France, who lived but a few hours, he is the only one to be a king from the moment of his first breath—a veritable "born king." And since he is much spoken of these days it is not amiss to know his name, which is, his Most Catholic Majesty Don Alfonso XIII, king of Spain, of Castile, of Leon, of Aragon, of the two Sicilies, of Jerusalem, of Navarre, of Gibraltar, of the Western and Eastern Indies, of the Oceanic Continent, archduke of Austria, duke of Burgundy, of Brabant and Milan, count of Hapsburg, of Flanders, of Tyrol and grand master of the Golden Fleece. This is not really all, but it is a good deal to live up to, even for a king.

"SASSED" THE PRESIDENT.

Irate Farmer Did Not Want His Corn Trampled Down by Hunters.

Cuthrie, Okla.—A story has just leaked out here in regard to President Roosevelt's lobo-wolf hunt in Oklahoma last spring, when he was accompanied by Cecil Lyons, of Texas, and John R. Abernathy, whom he recently appointed United States marshal of Oklahoma. The facts have been bottled up ever since the hunt, until during a banquet, which was given recently by the citizens of Frederick in Abernathy's honor, when half the population of the town were following the experiences and incidents of the president's trip.

It was related that during one of their long chases after wolves Roosevelt and Abernathy were compelled to enter a farmer's corn field in order to follow a fleeing lobo. They dismounted and were about to remount after passing through a fence when the farmer appeared on the scene.

"Here, you fellows, get out of this field," angrily exclaimed the farmer. "You have no right in here, and, besides, you are trampling down my corn. Get out of here, or I'll have you arrested."

Not wishing to advance further against the irate farmer's orders, the two wolf hunters, the president and the Oklahoma cow puncher, did as they were ordered. The lobo got away.

Troopers of the Eighth cavalry, who were near by guarding the pasture line, confirm the truth of the story.

KANSAS HAS 166,762 BABES

Of the Total Population of State One-
Half Were Born There—Other
Census Facts.

Topeka.—The total population of Kansas is 1,544,968, but this does not begin to tell the whole story of the decennial census issued in the form of a report. There are figures about almost everything, from the number of babies, the pride of the state, down to the number of peach trees. The population has increased 100,000 in the past five years, and about 200,000 in the last ten years.

Babies in Kansas under five years old, 166,762.

Persons over 80 years old, 7,053.

Men subject to call in case of war, 316,735.

Persons who work for a living, 500,059.

Of this number 251,956 are farmers.

Of the total population 53.57 per cent. are over 21 years of age.

School children between five and 20 years, 632,937.

Negroes in the state, 51,067.

Germans in the state, 43,124.

Of the total population of Kansas, one-half was born in Kansas.

CURE FOR STOMACH ACHE

Pulling Teeth Said to Be a Remedy for That and Other Ills—Test in German School.

New York.—The board of education is said to be considering the advisability of establishing in this city, with the aid of the legislature, a free dentistry for school children where they must submit to examination and treatment of their teeth.

The board gets the idea from Germany, where the city of Strassburg is conducting a school of dentistry on an experimental scale. Out of 12,601 pupils who were taken to the Strassburg dentistry, 7,065 had their teeth filled and 7,956 had teeth extracted.

Out of 2,269 children in Strassburg between three and six years old only 362 were found to have sound teeth. Of 2,103 pupils between six and eight years only 160 had sound teeth.

Headache, earache and stomach ache as well as toothache, are said to have almost vanished from the Strassburg schools since the free compulsory dentistry was established.

PROVIDING FOR HIS "BOSS"

Mr. Carnegie to the Rescue of a Pension Bureau Employee Who Suffered Reduction.

Washington, D. C.—J. H. Larcomb, an 80-year-old employee of the pension bureau, is going to resign his position, and will live in comfort the rest of his days through the generosity of one of the "boys" that used to work for him. In the years gone by Mr. Larcomb was a boss telegraph operator in Pittsburgh, and Andrew Carnegie was one of the "boys." Since then Mr. Carnegie has prospered and Mr. Larcomb has given the efforts of his latter life to the government.

Recently Mr. Larcomb was reduced in salary to $900 per annum and the reduction caused him to worry. A friend of his, knowing of the former association with Mr. Carnegie, wrote to the steel magnate and explained the circumstances. In reply, the friend was instructed to tell Mr. Larcomb to quit the government service and that he (Mr. Carnegie) would amply provide for his former "boss" during the remainder of his life.

Raise Wage Scale on Stork.

Hereafter it will cost more to be born in Ellwood City, Pa., because the doctors have declared war on the stork. They have organized and formulated a wage scale. One baby will now cost its fond papa as much as two did formerly, for the price per baby has advanced from $10 to $20. Visits to homes of patients are raised from one to two dollars. People there say the town is so healthful that the doctors are obliged to raise the price of visits to make a fair living.

OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS.

THE CIRCUS
MAN'S STORY.

The younger of the three men, looking at them and having something on his mind, slipped it into his hand, told him to draw three "long ones" and keep the change.

The three of them laughed and joked as though they had known each other for years, although it was the first time they had met. They called each other "brother" and, pointing to the little plus that each wore, declared that they all had something to be proud of.

"The young fellow who had ordered was covertly watching the waiter, and, seeing him coming back with the 'long ones' and with a most serious face, turned to the others and laughed.

"I knew he would come back with that money," he said. "I have been trying to get rid of it for the past three months." The waiter explained that the half dollar was a counterfeit and suggested politely that the young man might have another piece of money about him.

"Counterfeit, eh?" the young fellow laughed, innocently. "Is that so? Well, here's a dollar that is all right."

"I'm not in that kind of business, you needn't fear," he said, soberly, after the waiter had left, "but I hate to throw it away. Funny, how some things stick to you, isn't it?"

The large man with the florid features and the florid necktie laughed at this.

"Reminds me," he said, reminiscently, "of something I tried to get shed of when I was in the circus business. The thing was a good-for-nothing little red and gilded chariot that we used in our pony chariot race."

"My name's Sloan," he went on. "I'm in the vaudeville business with Sloan's celebrated trick dogs. Well, in the summer time I'm on the road as manager of Sloan's Mammoth Circus and Hippodrome, and in the winter I make a fight with my dogs."

"My headquarters are in St. Louis, and in May we crossed the river, our route taking us on a bee line west as far as Flora, where it turned south and worked down to Cairo."

"One star feature was our monkeys—monkeys drivin' ponies to chariots. One of our chariots began to look a little rusty, and as we was doin' a pretty fair business I had another one made, intendin' to throw away the old feller."

"We threw it into a ditch just outside of Sandoval, a little town perhaps 70 miles out of St. Louis, believin' that some farmer lad would be glad to get it, but the next day the kid brought the thing back, allowin' that we'd ought to pass him in free for his trouble. The next day we were to show in Salem, and I says to Bill Hayes, one of our drivers: 'Bill, throw that darned cart into some bushes some place where nobody'll see it until we get far enough away.'"

"Bill did as he was told, but, by Hank, when we showed up in Salem, next day, that cart came back to us, by another freckled-faced farmer boy, who also 'lowed he'd ought to get in 'rue."

"Funny we didn't think of givin' it away, but, anyhow, we didn't, havin' it in mind that no one would want it, so I tells Bill the second time to get it. 'Break it up and set it on fire,' I says to Bill."

"The next day we showed in Iuka. We showed and made a fine haul—and our pony chariot came back. Yep, that's what it did. Seen it first, way down the road, bumpin' along behind a farmer's wagon. The jay hunted me out in the crowd and allowed that fer bet' so kind as to bring back the cart that he and his family had oughter get in free. There were seven of 'em in that family. Seven 50-cent pieces—enough to buy two pony chariots."

"The jay paid to get in, and we told him to take away the cart, if he'd promise to hide it for a couple of weeks, until we could get out of the road, but he must have forgot it, because that night, when we silently folded our tents, preparin' to steal away, we found that confounded chariot in the horse tent. I hunted out Bill."

"Bill, I says, 'You get an ax and smash up that chariot, and if it ever comes back again you'll get fired.'"

"Boss," says Bill, "I most solemnly swear that I lit a fire to that thing and saw the varnish a-bubblin' on it before I left it." For proof he pointed out the scorched portion and then, to satisfy me, he got a hammer and knocked off the wheels, kicked off the tongue and splintered the sides of it. Then he gathered up the pieces and threw them into a bush. "That settled it," the circus man said, conclusively. "It never came back again."

"No," he said, "that chariot never came back to us, but when we reached Flora I got this letter that had been following us along the road from Iuka. I'll read it:

"Manager Sloan's Circus," he read. "Dear Sir: The day after your circus showed in our town, Iuka, the undersigned found a small chariot, like the one used in the monkey race, layin' in the vacant lot, where the circus tent was. It was pretty badly smashed up, and, takin' it home my son, who is a carpenter, fixed it up. It is as good as new, and, believin' that you lost it by mistake, and that it was highly valued by you, I wish to state that if you send five dollars to cover the expenses of shippin' and the material used in fixin' it, I will send it back. Respectfully yours,

"HENRY GREENFIELD."

The large man's face grew florid, almost as florid as his necktie.

"Say, now, what do you think of that?" he said.—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Standard and Watson's.

The leading exponent of Jeffersonian Democracy, edited by Hon. Thos. B. Watson, of Georgia, the father of rural free delivery; author of "The Story of France," "Life of Napoleon," "Life and Times of Thomas Jefferson," "Bethany" and other books. Mr. Watson was the People's Party nominee for Vice-President in 1896, and for President in 1904. He is to-day heading a middle-class reform movement which is bound to sweep the country in a short time.

Watson's Magazine is not a Socialist publication. It does not stand for collective ownership of all the means of production. Mr. Watson believes in public or government ownership of railroads, telegraphs and telephones; in municipal ownership of street railways, gas, electric lights, water works, etc.; and he believes in private ownership of all industries not natural monopolies.

The middle class—the home owners, farmers, small business men and property owners—won Jefferson's victory in 1800; won Jackson's victory over Nick Biddle's money power in 1832; won Lincoln's victory in 1860. But each time after the flush of victory had died away, they became careless of their rights and went to sleep. They have slept a good portion of the time since 1865, but—

Watson's Magazine is waking them up. Another great victory is in the air. Keep in touch with the movement.

"THE FOOD OF LOVE."

Modern Music at Its Best.

"If music be the food of love, play on."—Shakespeare.

When he wrote the above sentiment it may safely be averred that the great poet and dramatist had no intention of creating a doubt in the reader's mind as to whether or not music was the food of love. Nor do we think that he meant to insinuate that it might be the only sustenance of the blind god, Cupid. Certain it is, however, that where love is, there is an atmosphere of music, and when music reaches its highest form we may safely look for indications of love in its broadest, truest sense.

Let us point you to the most modern and most favorable medium for providing the home with music—the Piano; and yet a step further, to the most modern and most favored Piano—the "Fischer," which has held its place as a high-grade favorite for nearly four score years. The testimonials of great musical artists have teemed with praise of "Fischer Tone," its purity and power of "Fischer Durability" and of perfection and smoothness of "Fischer Action." That these are not empty phrases is attested by the great number sold, which is now considerably in excess of one hundred and twenty-five thousand.

The "Fischer" Piano is made in Upright and Grand form, and in the making of it, the world's finest woods are used, the case designs being especially artistic and dignified.

To achieve the highest ideal of home life, introduce music. And to secure the most satisfying and most lasting medium, purchase a "Fischer" Piano.

The J. & C. Fischer Warehouses are situated at No. 164 Fifth Avenue, near Twenty-second street, and at No. 68 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, New York City. Write for catalog and prices.

Rush for Rubber.

The Bombay Advocate of India says: "The glowing accounts from Ceylon of what rubber trees will do will result, we are convinced, in a rush to the Spice Isle more sensational than that of ten years ago to the icy Klondike."
