Lake Excursion.

The beauty spot of New Jersey is Lake Hopatcong and one who visits the place is charmed with the diversified entertainment afforded. The surroundings are delightful in every respect and a day spent in the purified mountain air of the Jersey foothills will do wonders for the tourist. There are facilities for fishing and boating and one who enjoys the rambles in wooded paths and the quietness of the natural pines, to him Lake Hopatcong is the gem of places. On July 1st 1906 the New Jersey Central is going to run one of its famous low priced and popular excursions to the Lake. Round trip $1.00, and special train leaves Westfield at 11:12 a. m.

His Answer.

Washington was asked why he had cut down the cherry tree.
"Because," he replied, "Andrew Jackson is going to monopolize the hickory."
Thus, with precocious foresight, did he lay the foundation of his career.—Judge.

All Salute His Memory.

On visiting Mt. Vernon recently, as the boat drew near the landing several guns were fired. Asked the reason, the captain said that no vessel passed by Washington's home, no matter under what flag it sailed, without extending to his memory this salute.

Town Water Plant Figures.

The STANDARD has received the following data from one who has been studying the water question:

"Some years ago, the question of a water plant was agitated and approximate estimates obtained based on testing a plot of ground 1 or 2 acres back of Clark's Pond which was then valued at $3500 and 14 miles of pipe 100 hydrants—about pipe of about 200,000 gallons capacity two duplex pumps, two boilers, pump house and foundations, making an average cost of about $75,000.

The money on a plant costing $8000 could probably be arranged in a bank of 4% or $3200.

Operating expenses including engineer, assistant, coal, sundries, supplies, collecting about $200.

Allowance for sinking fund, $1000.
Annual expense about $1800.

An estimate of income was based on the idea that the total paid annually for water in Westfield is about $8000 which would leave a profit of about $2200 over the above estimate of interest, operating expense and sinking fund for continuing and sinking fund and enable the town to get its water for nothing.

In obtaining these estimates the point was strongly made by some of the engineers that by adding an electric light plant the profit to the town would be materially more than by providing a water plant alone and cost of operation would be considerably less than operating such plants independently.

Children's Home Dedication.

The improvements and appointments at the Home are now complete. The new dormitory, the music room and the assembly room have all received their furnishings through the continued liberality of Dr. J. Ackerman Coles and the beautiful stained glass window, a memorial to Maria Ackerman Hoyt and Jenni Bucknell, aunts of Dr. Coles, is now in place. The management desires in public service in the assembly room on Sunday next at 4 o'clock, a dedication of the new wing to the work and service of the Home. This will be in charge of Dr. Stearns and other clergymen of the town and it is hoped that the friends and public generally will accept this invitation to attend.

THE BACK-YARD PROBLEM.

First the Soil Must Receive Attention, Then Cover Unightly Fence with Lovely Vines.

The first gardening problem to tackle in an ordinary back yard is the soil, and it is generally too hard to receive honest attention and a "square deal." It is probably full of bricks and other builder's rubbish and almost devoid of available plant food.

The first year or two a part of the garden allowance should surely be put into compost, which should be thoroughly mixed with the soil when it is spaded. Don't give up the most stubborn, sour-looking soil. If it will grow a pig weed the chances are that it will grow something more desirable. The finer the soil is made the better. Wood ashes, lime and manure will all help the soil in texture as well as in the line of plant food.

Next, the fence and ugly outbuildings must be hidden. Vines will do this. The rear elevation of the house deserves the same careful treatment. On the permanent vines Boston Ivy is best for stone and brick. Virginia creeper for wood. Wistaria is excellent for great elms, but seldom, if ever, blooms there. Its foliage is worth the cost. It needs iron rods for support.

Annual vines of many sorts will cover the fences the first year or so and pay their way in cut flowers. Nasturtiums, scarlet runners, wild cucumbers, morning glories, are all good and cost little. There are more seeds in some packets than you can use. Divide with your neighbors. Half's honey-suckle can be grown from seed if necessary for economy's sake, but nursery-grown plants give quicker results. They eventually climb high on verandas and will make beautiful hedges if they have a framework of woven wire fencing. Their white and straw colored blossoms make fragrant and graceful table decorations.

EGG-PLANT RECIPES.

There Is No More Tender Vegetable Nor More Toothsome When Properly Prepared.

EGGPLANT WITH ONIONS.—Cut an eggplant into thin slices lengthwise; dust over with salt, and let remain until the bitter liquor is drawn out. Then place in a frying-pan with olive oil and butter, whichever preferred, and brown over a brisk fire. Take them out of the pan and lay them at the bottom of the baking dish. Peel four medium-sized onions, cut them in slices and put them in the frying-pan; add more butter if required, and fry until browned. Lay the onions over the eggplant, season with salt and three teaspoonsful of sugar, pour in one teaspoonful of water and half that quantity of vinegar, and set the pan over a slow fire. When the moisture is nearly all absorbed, arrange the eggplant and onions on a hot dish and serve.

BROILED EGGPLANT.—Peel the plant and cut into half-inch slices, roll in flour, put into a pan which has already been supplied with melted butter or sweet oil if preferred. Let broil, turning as needed, for five minutes. Take off and serve with a gill of maitre d'hotel sauce.

EGGPLANT FRITTERS.—Boil in salted water flavored with a little lemon juice; when tender, skin, drain and mash into a pulp. To every pint of pulp use a half breakfast cup of flour, beat up and add two well-beaten eggs; season with salt and pepper to taste. Shape into any form chosen, and drop in boiling fat, and fry both sides until brown.

BOILED EGGPLANTS.—Remove the skin, cut into moderate-sized pieces, put into a saucepan of boiling water, pinch of salt, little parsley and an onion. Boil until tender. Prepare sauce as follows: Place one ounce of butter into a small stewpan with one-third of a tablespoonful of flour and mix it over the fire, then stir in a small bottle of catsup and keep on stirring until it boils, season with salt and pepper. When cooked drain the water off and serve with the sauce.

FRIED WITH CHEESE.—Peel the plant, cut into quarters lengthwise, scoop out the seeds and cut into convenient lengths. Rub garlic over the stewpan and put in a large lump of butter, melt it, then lay in the strips of eggplant, season with salt and pepper, and small quantity of nutmeg, grated Parmesan cheese and more butter if necessary. When quite tender turn the eggplant into a hot dish and garnish with buttered toast.—N. Y. World.

Wicker Furniture.
Unvarnished wicker furniture that has grown unsightly can be made to look very nice by enamelling, preferably white. Another way is to dye them some color, red being particularly effective. Wet the wicker work with clear, hot water before dyeing, so it will color evenly.

Manch Chunk for July 4th.

There is no grander scenery anywhere than you will find on the journey to Manch Chunk via the New Jersey Central.

Jersey is attractive especially in the northern section and the rolling country offers a variety of attractions the like of which no other section can boast. Pennsylvania and its mountains are too widely known to need elaboration, but Manch Chunk and vicinity is a garden spot if ever there was one. The Switchback Railroad is novel inasmuch as no motive power is needed for the operation. The inclines are gradual and in the fourteen-mile journey there are many interesting experiences and fascinating scenes are unfolded with a startling rapidity.

For a day's outing there is no place more thoroughly enjoyable than Manch Chunk and when the small cost of a day's trip is considered there is little to be said. The New Jersey Central will run one of its popular one day excursions to Manch Chunk on the Fourth of July by special train which will leave Westfield at 11:12 a. m., arriving at Manch Chunk before noon. The returning train does not leave the mountain resort until 5:30 p. m., hence there is ample time for journeying over the Switchback, visiting Flag Staff and Glen Onoko.

DIET OF BACON AND EGGS

Upon It Americans Have Done Great Deeds and Accomplished Wonders.

From sanguine San Francisco comes word of a common diet of bacon and eggs.

It is the diet that does things, says the New York World. American wildernesses have been conquered, cities begun and mines opened on bacon with or without eggs. Armies have marched on the same rations, bringing relief to friends and trouble to foes. The frying of the fillet, as an essential incident of life on the plain and in the forest, throws suggestion from the pages of pioneer story and history.

The dispatches bring a note of regret for the earthquake-riven resins, rants and elms of late Golden Gate high life. They are not worth the morning. Besides, they will rise again. With them temporarily are banished dyspepsia and a tendency to gout. Who ever heard of a great deed done or a great victory won on chicken patties a la reine, Capicola salmon hollandaise or a sauce a la Newburg? It is San Francisco's splendid fortune that apparently she has abundant eggs with her bacon.

Locusts in Algeria.

Locusts are devastating southern Algeria. The swarms are so great as almost to defy imagination. It is not easy to conceive of an almost solid phalanx of insects 125 miles long by six miles wide. Unfortunately, the devastation which such myriads of voracious insects must create in vegetation is not so difficult to appreciate. Wherever the host has passed nothing green remains. Even the houses are becoming uninhabitable. The Oran province seems doomed for this year.

Oyster Culture.

The Maryland shellfish commission is studying oyster culture in the proper way by learning in Connecticut just how the thing is done. Oyster culture has long been practiced in France and Japan, to say nothing of Virginia. Many years ago Dr. Brooks' book on the subject laid down the principles that underlie the successful prosecution of the industry.

Oldest Negro Lawyer.

Thomas P. Johnson, 94 years old, the oldest negro lawyer in Arkansas, died recently after 36 years' active practice of law. He was licensed as an attorney by Associate Justice Down, of the Arkansas supreme court, in July, 1870. He was a slave, and belonged to a planter in Desha county, in Arkansas.

Good Army.

The governor of Herat has presented the following report to the ameer of Afghanistan: "The behavior of the army is satisfactory, and there have been no cases of serious crime. The Herat army now says its prayers five times a day, and the men are becoming pukka (very good) Mussulmans."

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

John Got It Twice, and from a Cloudless Sky, Consequently Was Indignant.

It frequently happens that during severe storms the wires of the different public service corporations, such as electric light, electric street railway, telephone and telegraph companies, become entangled at different points, and consequently the wires utilized for carrying but light currents become charged with the much heavier and dangerous currents.

To this condition serious accidents are sometimes due; again, ludicrous conditions arise where no particular harm is done, except to the feelings of the participants.

Some years ago such a storm swept over the territory between Boston and Portland, Me., and, after some hours of duration, had mixed matters generally. The following day was bright and clear, and the work of clearing up began.

An old-time telephone lineman was started from Portland to connect the long-distance wires to Boston, which were unknown to him, twisted up with electric wires in the city of Portland. After driving out some miles this man saw the wires broken down, and prepared to connect them. At the first attempt to handle them he was knocked down. Being somewhat unfamiliar with such conditions, he tried again, with the same result.

He at once drove back to Portland and reported at the office, where the following conversation took place:

"Well, John, did you get your trouble?"

"Trouble he d—," said John. "I was struck twice by lightning, and not a cloud in the sky."

Proceedings of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County.

[OFFICIAL.]

Regular meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, N. J., held on Thursday, June 7, 1906, at 2:30 p. m.

Roll called showed all members present except Freeholder Sessler.

The minutes of the previous meeting were on motion, approved as read.

COMMUNICATIONS, ETC.

From Lloyd Thompson, town clerk, Westfield, N. J., as follows:

June 6, 1906.

Gentlemen: This is to certify that at a meeting of the board of the town of Westfield, in the county of Union, held on Monday evening, June 4, 1906, Chas. A. Smith was unanimously appointed by said council a member of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County to fill the unexpired term of W. W. Canby, deceased.

Yours very truly,

LLOYD THOMPSON, Town Clerk.

On motion of Freeholder Adams the communication was received and placed on file.

The director stated that Mr. Smith had been duly sworn in as a member of this board, his oath of office being on file in the county clerk's office, as required by law, and that he would introduce a motion for Mr. Smith to take his seat in the board. On motion of Freeholder Adams, which was carried unanimously, Mr. Smith took his seat in the board.

From Freeholder M. M. Sessler, as follows:

Westfield, N. J., May 25, 1906.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union:

Gentlemen: I having recently been appointed a member of the County Board of Taxation from this county, do hereby tender my resignation as a member of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union. Trusting that the same will be acted upon at your pleasure, I beg to remain,

Yours respectfully,

M. M. SESSLER.

On motion of Freeholder Chadek, it was unanimously ordered that the resignation of Mr. Sessler be received and accepted, and that the clerk notify the council of the town of Westfield of the action taken by the board.

County attorney Cullington asked permission to say in reference to Mr. Sessler's resignation, that he had received a letter of inquiry from Mr. Sessler relative to his holding both positions; that he had looked up the law governing such matters, and could find nothing to prevent Mr. Sessler from holding both positions at the same time; his resignation from this board was therefore purely voluntary.

From the Union County Board of Taxation, as follows:

June 4, 1906.

Gentlemen: A board of equal taxation of Union county was created by an act of the last legislature of New Jersey. In compliance with that law the Governor has appointed Messrs C. O. Pollard, M. M. Sessler and F. H. Andrews as members of the board for this county. They elected Mr. Thomas Hanna, secretary, at a salary of $100 a month, which salary according to the law is payable by your county board. This board requests that you assign them suitable quarters in the court house, Elizabeth, and furnish them with necessary desks and stationery.

Yours truly

THOMAS HANNA, Secretary.

On motion of Freeholder Cady received and referred to the committee on public grounds and buildings.

From Gen. J. Madison Drake, of the Veterans Zouaves, as follows:

Elizabeth, N. J., June 5, 1906.

Gentlemen: I am instructed by the Veterans Zouaves, whom I have commanded for two generations, to offer for presentation to the county of Union, through your body, the many historical relics presented to them, which have been carefully preserved since the end of the civil war, in which they all took part. The Veterans Zouaves, although still maintaining their organization, have no proper place in which to longer exhibit the relics which have ever been objects of genuine curiosity as well as interest to them and the public, and their transfer to the county for continual preservation within the walls of the court house having been suggested by several members of the board, I have the honor on behalf of the Veterans Zouaves, in tendering the relics to you for that purpose. I shall have satisfaction in delivering the articles, (now in boxes), to such committee or person as you may authorize to receive them.

Very respectfully,

J. MADISON DRAKE,

Br. Brig. Gen. Com'd'g.

After a few remarks by Freeholder Adams, to the effect that the relics as mentioned were deserving of the consideration of this board, and that a suitable case in which to place them could be secured for a moderate sum, it was unanimously ordered on roll call, and on motion of Freeholder Chadek, that the matter be referred with power, to the committee on public grounds and buildings, and to Freeholder Adams, the latter being an expert in relics and ancient weapons of warfare.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

By the committee on Filbert street bridge, Roselle Park, N. J.

Gentlemen: Your committee would respectfully report that they have examined the old bridge, and find it in a very bad condition, rotten and on the verge of collapse; would recommend a new bridge, with stone or concrete walls, with iron beams, with brick or concrete arches, or both, at a cost not to exceed $2,000. Noah Woodruff, G. H. Kline, Elston Darby, Committee.

Freeholder Cady moved that the report be received and recommendation adopted, which was so ordered on roll call by a unanimous vote.

By the committee on Culvert on Elm street, Westfield, N. J.

Gentlemen: Your committee has examined the present culvert, which is of earthenware pipe, and find that this culvert is not suitable either in location or in materials and construction for permanent use at this place. Your committee would therefore recommend the construction of a new culvert of 8 feet opening, by 8 feet 6 inches long, built with masonry walls, and covered with blue stone flagging, at a cost not to exceed $400. The new culvert to be placed diagonally across the street, instead of at right angles, as at present. M. M. Sessler, E. K. Adams, Geo. H. Kline, committee.

Freeholder Gruener moved that the report be received and recommendation adopted, which was so ordered on roll call by a unanimous vote.

NEW BUSINESS.

Freeholder Cady said that he desired to call the attention of the board to the fact that, by reason of sickness and continued illness, county collector E. M. Wood had become incapacitated for the performance of the duties of his office. The county attorney had been conferred with in the matter, and had prepared an opinion, which he (Mr. Cady), presented, and was read by the clerk as follows:

ELIZABETH, N. J., June 6, 1906.

Gentlemen: I have been asked for my opinion as to the best and most appropriate method of conducting the financial affairs of the county during the continuance of the illness of Mr. E. M. Wood, the county collector, and inasmuch as it is the apparent desire of the board to retain the services of Mr. Wood as county collector, so soon as his physical condition will permit him to attend to said duties, I would recommend as a proper course to pursue, that this board, by resolution, duly adopted, nominate and elect some person to sign checks against the account of the county in the various institutions where the county's moneys are deposited; that said checks be countersigned by the director of the board; that the person so appointed be required to furnish bonds sufficient in amount and satisfactory to the board; that said appointment be for a term at the pleasure of the board, and until such authority shall be rescinded by the board, and that a copy of said resolution be filed with the several banking institutions where the funds of the county are now, or may hereafter be deposited.

This it would appear to me, would relieve the board of its present embarrassment, and the banking institutions would be justified in honoring checks so made.

Very truly yours

W. R. CONINGTON, County Attorney.

On motion of Freeholder Krouse, the opinion of the county attorney was received and placed on file.

Freeholder Cady then in a few remarks, nominated N. B. Leavitt for county collector pro tem. He said that Mr. Leavitt had long been associated with Mr. Wood in a business way; that he was familiar with the duties of the office and in every way qualified to perform the duties of county collector. Mr. Leavitt's nomination was seconded by Freeholder Woodruff.

There were no other nominations, and Mr. Leavitt was declared elected as county collector pro tem, receiving on roll call, the unanimous vote of the board.

By Freeholder Cady:

Whereas, Mr. Edward M. Wood has recently been appointed county collector of the county of Union, and has duly qualified as such; and whereas, through illness, he is temporarily incapacitated from performing the duties of said collector; and whereas, for the proper execution of the county affairs, it is deemed necessary that some one should be appointed to perform the duties of the county collector during the incapacity of the present incumbent of said office.

Therefore, Be it resolved, That Nathan R. Leavitt be, and hereby is appointed and designated collector pro tem, and that he be, and hereby is duly authorized to draw and sign checks against the funds of the county wherever the same may be deposited; to endorse and deposit to his account as collector pro tem all checks payable to the county, or to him for the use and benefit of the county, and to do and perform all acts necessary to be done and performed by the county collector; all checks or drafts, so drawn against the funds of the county, wherever the same may be deposited to be honored only after the same has been duly countersigned by the director of this board.

And he it further, Resolved, That before taking upon himself any of the duties of this office by virtue of this appointment, the said Nathan R. Leavitt, be required to furnish bonds in the sum of twenty thousand ($20,000) dollars, and to be approved as to form and sufficiency by this board.

And he it further Resolved, That a certified copy of this resolution duly attested by the clerk of this board, and under the seal of the county, be forwarded to each of the banks, trust companies, or other institutions where the funds of the county now are, or may hereafter be deposited.

Freeholder Smith moved the adoption of the foregoing resolutions, and on roll call they were unanimously adopted.

By Freeholder Adams:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to examine the bridge on Center street, Garwood, N. J., said committee to report on the advisability of constructing a new steel beam bridge, with an estimate of the probable cost of the same, and the committee to report at the next meeting.

On motion of Freeholder Krouse, the resolution was adopted without dissent, and the director appointed as the said committee, Freeholder Adams, Chadek and Darby.

The committee on collector's bond, reported as approved, the bond of Nathan R. Leavitt, county collector pro tem, said bond being signed by Nathan R. Leavitt, Hamilton F. Kern, L. E. Hensch and Richard E. Potts. The conditions of the bond were read in full by the clerk, after which, on motion of Freeholder Woodruff, it was ordered that it be accepted and placed on file.

Freeholder Woodruff said he desired to call up a petition from residents of Roselle Park, relative to nuisance caused by dust on Westfield or North avenue and which petition was presented to this board on May 3, last.

After some discussion as to what action, if any, could be taken by this board in the matter, it was ordered, on motion of Freeholder Robinson, that the said petition be referred to the county road committee.

The director announced that he would assign Freeholder Smith to the places on all special committees, heretofore held by former Freeholder Sessler.

The following bills properly audited and approved were read, and on roll call unanimously ordered paid, viz:

RUSSIAN DUEL BY SUICIDE.

Losers in a Game of Cards for Life Is Compelled to Kill Himself.

A tragedy, romantic on the surface but in reality throwing a repulsive light on the hollowness of life in Russia, is reported from Moscow.

Two young Poles named Nidetzki and Komorovsky, attending a ball, given by Count Feodorov, were both so smitten with the beauty of the count's daughter that, though friends from boyhood, they at once became deadly enemies and before the ball was half over had determined upon a duel to the death by that most strange but most deadly of all methods—the suicide of one of the combatants. It was decided that the loser of a game of cards should kill himself, and toward the end of the ball the infuriated pair went to the card room for their game at death. In a few minutes Komorovsky had lost, and, quietly drawing a revolver, he shot himself through the heart. Nidetzki took the first express for Berlin.

As for the fair cause of the tragedy, she was so little impressed that within a few days she had accepted a proposal from a Russian nobleman.

Medical Journalism.

The medical editor of one of the New York dailies used often to say that medical journalism was played out, for a journal published only once a week or once a month could never compete with the daily papers; at best it could only republish in more elaborate if less sensational style what the lay press had printed days before. In illustration of this view may be mentioned a tremendous "heat" scored recently by a New York daily. This enterprising journal published an interesting and circumstantial account of an operation for renal calculus, performed at one of the hospitals by a well-known surgeon of this city. All the details of the operation were graphically and, as it appeared the next day, quite accurately described. The point of special interest in the article was that the operation which it described was not performed until about 12 hours after the article had been published.—Medical Record.

Roused Her.

"I could die for you!" he cried. "Could you?" retorted the girl, indifferently. "And," he continued, "my life is insured for $50,000." "I am yours," she cried, "till death,"—Answers.

"These United Colonies are and of right ought to be Free and Independent States."—Declaration of Independence.

Since it is deemed well to teach High School pupils something of Shakespeare, and considering that a knowledge of the great dramatist's plays is required as part of the preparatory course for colleges, Andrew Carnegie might wisely endow a theatre for the production of Shakespearean plays by the foremost actors of the time, provision being made for pupils of schools to attend the performances as part of their work. Students might thereby be better educated along those lines. One living interpretation of the great literary masterpieces does more to impress the young mind than many hours of reading from the book. Such a theatre would be not only an educational stimulus, but an encouragement to a high grade of dramatic art.

Argument was made before the Court of Errors and Appeals this week in the test case instituted to determine the constitutionality of the act of the last Legislature providing for the election of Assemblymen by districts instead of by counties, as heretofore. The district system was in force in this State from 1852 until 1893, when it was decided by the Supreme Court to be unconstitutional. This decision was not carried to the higher court, and it was decided by the Republican party leaders last fall to attempt to revert to the old method of electing Assembly representation.

Special interest attaches to the proceedings on account of the present political situation in the State.

The State Commissioner of motor vehicles has sent letters to the Police Departments throughout the State, discussing the enforcement of the new automobile law which goes into effect on Sunday. He tells the police to be firm and fair, and sets forth the rights of the users and non-users of motor vehicles with equal emphasis. The effect of the act will be watched with interest.

Independence Day will be celebrated by the usual dependence on powder and noise for a good time. The small boy will see how near he can come to getting hurt without actual injury, and many of the big folks will become children again just for the day. Every body is glad for the Fourth and glad when it's over.

Theodore Roosevelt is rapidly making himself the only man who will be able to keep W. J. Bryan out of the Presidency at the next running.

The cartoonists are picturing many a lesson to be learned from the revelations of New York's latest criminal sensation.

Arnold-Robin.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Parker Arnold, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Arnold, of the Boulevard, to Dr. Arthur Robin of Glasgow, Scotland, last Saturday night was a brilliant event. The ceremony was performed in the Congregational Church of Christ amid beautiful floral decorations in which hundreds of Easter lilies were prominently featured. The church of New York, had charged the decorating. A throng of friends and relatives attended the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Henry Hoody Cramer, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. James McGibbon, of Hamilton, England. Mrs. Laura Crawford, organist of the Congregational Church, rendered the preliminary music, playing a number of well known Scotch airs. The wedding marches were rendered by Miss Jeanie Peers, of Wallingford, Conn., a student at Smith College where the bride was graduated this month.

Miss Mary E. Root, of Remington, N.Y., was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Bertha Place, of Gloversville, N.Y.; Miss Gertrude Cruden, of Brooklyn; Miss May Barker, of Macon, Ga.; Miss Edna Farrington, of Montclair; Miss Helen Gabe and Miss Marion Johnson, of Westfield. Alexander Robin, of Glasgow, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Douglas C. Arnold, a brother of the bride, of Westfield; John Evin, of New York; George E. Farrington, of Montclair; W. E. Tuttle, Jr., S. Chase Goble and Joseph Sherman, Jr., of Westfield.

The bride was gown in white mousseline trimmed with chiffon cloth and laces. She wore a tulle veil caught up with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. The maid of honor was gown in white mousseline trimmed with laces and carried a shower bouquet of lavender, white and white sweet peas. The bridesmaids wore pink mousseline trimmed with laces and carried bouquets of pink sweet peas. Mrs. Arnold, mother of the bride, was gown in pink silk and Miss Robin and Miss Sarah Robin, sisters of the bridegroom, wore white chiffon trimmed with lace.

A wedding reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Supper was served by Caterer Russ in a large pavilion erected on the lawn. The beautiful electric light effects were arranged under the supervision of Theodore D. Bance. Gloucester's Orchestra furnished the music. Many beautiful and costly wedding presents were received by the bride, among them a chest of linen from her mother, the chest itself a family heirloom, a Crown Derby set of dishes from a sister of the groom, a sterling silver tea set from the bridegroom's mother, a case of two dozen pieces each of a complete set of table silver, from the best man, a gold necklace from the bride's uncle, a set of dresser silver from her brother, a Weber Pianola from Mr. Arnold, and a three stone sapphire and diamond ring from the bridegroom.

The wedding was the sequel to a very pretty little romance in which Miss Arnold met her future husband on the occasion of an illness contracted while travelling abroad. Taken ill when about to leave Scotland the young lady was attended by a talented young physician, and the acquaintanceship thus formed soon ripened into love and an engagement followed. Miss Arnold decided to complete her course at Smith College and the wedding followed a few days after her graduation.

They will return to Westfield to spend the Fourth of July, and will sail for their new home in England next week.

Oliver-Carberry.

An exceedingly pretty home wedding was that of Miss Margaret Josephine Oliver to Mr. Robert Black Carberry at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. B. Taylor, on Prospect Street last night. The house was beautifully decorated with green and white foliage. The Rev. W. O. Jarvis, Rector of St. Paul's Church, read the service. Little Miss Katharine Taylor, niece of the bride, took the ribbons and handed them to Minnie Oliver and Donald Carberry who carried them to the entrance, making an aisle through which the bridal party proceeded.

The bride wore a gown of white chiffon cloth and duchesse lace and tulle veil. She carried white sweet peas. Miss Marion Oliver Taylor, maid of honor, was attired in a gown of white, and carried pink roses. Mr. John B. Taylor, brother-in-law of the bride, gave her away. Mr. Henry Warncke was best man. The ceremony was witnessed by about fifty of the relatives and close friends of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Carberry left for a short trip. They will return to spend the Fourth here, and will leave the following day for Mexico, where they will reside.

Welch-Mumford.

The wedding of Miss Mabelle Brielon Welch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Welch, to Mr. James Dirrickson Mumford, took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents on Westfield Avenue. The bride, attired in an imported white robe of lace and embroidery and carrying white roses, was attended by her sister, Miss Pearl Welch as maid of honor, who wore a gown of blue crepe de Paris and carried white sweet peas. Little Mabelle and Ralph Fitch held the ropes of sash through the aisle of which the bridal party proceeded. William J. Taylor was best man, and Edgar Fitch and Herbert Welch acted as ushers. Miss Louise Trimmer, of Backus-town, played the Cohnen and Mendelssohn wedding marches. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, assisted by the Rev. Dr. John B. Wright. The bride and groom departed later for a trip through the south. They will spend the summer at the sea shore, and will build a home in Westfield in the fall.

Merrick-Lambert.

The marriage of Miss Carrie Frances Lambert to Walter Merrick, of Newark, took place at the home of the bride's mother, on Central avenue, at 4 o'clock on last Sunday afternoon, in the presence of a small company of relatives and friends. The bride is well known in this community, where she has many friends. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. W. L. Stearns. Mr. and Mrs. Merrick will live in Newark.

Unpleasant Experience of One Woman Who Tried to Wear Them.

"Yes, they are very pretty, but how will I ever keep them on?" asked the woman customer, according to the New York Sun, as she sat in the shoe store and gazed at her feet in a pair of smart little pumps.

"That's just what I'd like to know," responded the salesgirl cheerfully. "I got a pair two weeks ago and they looked fine. Sunday morning I put 'em on for the first time to go to mass. 'In the house they looked grand, but when I'd gone two blocks in the street they began slipping up and down. I had to go up some steps, and when I got to the top my foot felt funny, and what do you think? There stood the usher handing me my shoe. 'I didn't know I'd lost it. Maybe I didn't feel awful. You'd better get these, lady.' So she did."

Lawn Tennis.

Tennis was first played in the early part of the sixteenth century in England and France. Matches for considerable wagers were frequently held, and rather than give up the game many men played for parts of their wearing apparel after their money was gone. In England toward the last of that century, covered tennis courts were erected, and nearly all the nobility played, including the women. Henry VII. was a devoted follower of tennis, and Henry VIII. was also fascinated by the sport. The first royal tennis match was played between this monarch with the Emperor Maximilian for a partner, against the prince of Orange and the Marquis de Brandenhorow. Charles II. was the first person to adopt a tennis costume.

Explosive Dust in Mines.

Recent explosions in coal mines have shown that the fine dust which settles on the timber and sides of roadways is an element of serious danger. The risk is kept at the minimum when and where the dust is removed as much as possible and the currents of air forced into the mine through ventilating shafts are made as dry as practicable.

Submarine Monotony.

As a rule with few exceptions, the surface of the earth under the oceans is devoid of striking and abrupt contrasts. It would be monotonous if it were brought to view. The action of the water and the depositing of organic and other matter settling down through the sea have smoothed down the greater part of the subaqueous earth and left it far from picturesque.

Fireworks for the Fourth

Washington's Sad Fourth of July

Day Witnessed His Surrender of Fort Necessity to the French.

It was the 4th day of July, 1754, 22 years before the Declaration of Independence made the day ever familiar.

The light of early morning shone upon a strange scene in the wilderness of western Pennsylvania.

A force of 600 Frenchmen and 100
Indians was camped around a rude stockade a little to the southeast and not far from the present city of Pittsburg. They were commanded by Colonel de Villiers, a young Frenchman, the commandant of Fort Duquesne, who had sworn vengeance against the English for the death of his brother, Jumonville, who had fallen in a skirmish a few days before. Besides, he was pledged to make good the French boast that no English flag should wave west of the Alleghenies.

In the fort a little force numbering less than half the number of the French and Indians had held out for one long day and six hours of the night against the attack of their vengeful and overpowering foe.

Before we relate the story of Fort Necessity, however, it will be well to refer to the causes which led to this Fourth of July episode.

At the commencement of the French and Indian war it was determined by the English, for the better protection of their interests, to build a fort at the junction of the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers, on the present site of Pittsburgh. A body of troops was accordingly dispatched by Gov.
Dunblow of Virginia to accomplish this object.

The death of their colonel on the march threw the command into the hands of the second officer, a tall Virginian of 22, with brown hair and gray eyes, whose gravity of manner and careworn appearance bespoke even then the greatness he was to win.
This Virginian youth was George Washington.

Before he reached the goal of his journey, Washington learned from his scouts the futility of his errand. Instead of driving out the French, he and his command stood in a fair way of being themselves driven out, if not altogether annihilated.

The French had been improving the summer weather. They had captured the few English and built and manned a strong fortress at the very place where the English expected to build one, and a French and Indian force of more than 1,000 men was thronging the adjacent forest.

When within a day's march of the new fort which the French had named Duquesne, after the governor of Canada, Washington halted at a place called the Great Meadows and constructed a fortification of logs and earth.

To this rude stockade he gave the name of Fort Necessity. In it were placed the cannons which he had dragged with so great toil through the forest paths from Virginia.

After a few days' rest, Washington went forward with a portion of his force to meet the Shawnee chief, Half King. A council was held and it was determined to make a night attack upon the French.

The scouts of the faithful Shawnee chief found the enemy's trail, and in the darkness of a rainy night the English made a successful raid. Jumonville, the French leader, was killed, and several of his men fell prisoners into Washington's hands.

Too Romantic.
The following doubtful compliment is a fragment from a love letter:
"How I wish, my darling Adelaide, my engagements would permit me to leave town and come and see you!
It would be like visiting some old ruin, hallowed by time and fraught with a thousand recollections."
On Love.
"When a feller loves a gal," said the Paint Rock philosopher, chewing a violet, "he thinks that every other man he knows is his rival for the gal's affections. And when he finds out that this ain't actually the case, why then," chuckled the philosopher, "he's no longer in love."

She Understood.
"Yes," said the man who was beginning to sour on the national sport, "it's interesting sometimes, but baseball nowadays is becoming very dirty."
"Oh," exclaimed his fair companion,
"I understand now why all those players are wearing gloves."—Philadelphia
