What "They" Said & What Happened

SHOWING HOW PREDICTIONS

FAILED TO PREDICT

We all know by this time how accurately the results of the election have been forecasted. We know what both sides said yesterday. We know that nobody knew what everybody thought they knew, and to-day we see predictions without number "knockt into a cockt hat."

Do you remember what a lot of prognostications were made when this store was built and first opened? Don't you remember what a lot of doubting people there were who seriously predicted all sorts of calamities for this great enterprise?

"Ten years ahead of its time," said many, looking grave.

"Too big for the town," said others, shaking their heads knowingly.

"Too far up the street," said some wisecracks.

"To close to New York for such a big store," said a good many others

And, now—really, it is amusing—this big store which was "too soon" and "too big" and "too close," is employing more people than ever in its history and eagerly searching for more good helpers; it is bulging with goods to beyond its capacity. Retailing departments—some of them the largest in the country—crying for more space! Storehouses jammed! Receiving room, with its enormous space, requiring constant, herculean effort to keep it clear! Delivery, with several times the capacity of any other store, taxed to its utmost—this is the Hahne & Co. Store to-day—one of the biggest mercantile successes in the United States.

Few Women Stutterers.
"Did you ever see a woman who stuttered?"
"Now that I come to think of it, I never did."
"They are very rare," said the physician. "I think it is safe to say that the average person passes through life without ever meeting a stuttering woman."
"There are two reasons for this. First, woman naturally—I don't know why—is less liable to the disease of stammering than man. Second, if she develops this disease she sets out with the determination to cure herself, and she succeeds, whereas careless men rather than take the trouble of a cure will go stammering on to the end."

Rehearsed His Own Funeral.

Charles V. of France on one occasion celebrated his own funeral. Some years before his death he caused his tomb to be built in the chapel of the monastery, and was annually carried thereto as if he was dead. The king was placed in his coffin, and the burial ceremony enacted with all due solemnity. Tears were shed as if he was in the calm sleep of death. Chants and prayers were said over him, and then the mourners left him in his coffin in the chapel, where he remained for about two hours.—The Sunday Magazine.

On Westfield avenue, in Westfield, 550 feet of road repaired with 1 1/2 inch stone; 2,300 feet of gutters cleaned.

Making a total of 17 1/2 miles of road in State aid roads; 734 miles of 1 1/2 inch work in county roads; 3 miles of top dressing; 22 miles of gutters cleaned.

Total cost of repairs on State aid roads, $17,838.

In addition to this there was 3,112 feet of road on North avenue, in Lawrence, top-dressed with tarvia and screenings.

Also on St. George avenue, 1,162 feet top-dressed with tarvia and screenings.

Making a total of a little less than 1 1/4 miles.

Cost of labor, screenings and tarvia, $919.66.

Also oil was applied, as follows: On North avenue, 9,043 feet of road, and 11,080 feet on St. George avenue.

The cost of oil and application of the same in 3 1/4 miles was $316.15.

Very respectfully submitted,
LAWRENCE W. FINK,
County Road Inspector.

On motion of Freeholder Cady, received and placed on file.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.
Freeholder William J. Woodruff, as chairman of committee on repairs, reconstruction, etc., of bridges on Leland and Scott avenues, in the city of Plainfield, that the work on said bridges was finished, and that he said bridges had been accepted by the committee, which report was received.

By committee on resolutions on the death of the late County Collector, Edward M. Woodruff, which report was received.

Whereas, in his death the county of Union has lost a most capable, upright and honorable official; therefore be it

Resolved, That we herein express our highest appreciation of the eminent and valuable services rendered by the late collector to the county of Union. During his term of office the financial affairs of the county were conducted with the strictest integrity and the greatest fidelity to the interests of all the people. In his personal relations he was always most kind and courteous; he was generous, ever willing to extend a helping hand, and all were fortunate who came in contact with him. In his death we feel the loss of a wise counselor, a man of excellent judgment, uprightness of character, and a sincere friend; and be it further

Resolved, That we tender to the family of the deceased, in this time of their great affliction and sorrow, our most sincere sympathy; and be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread in full on the minutes of this board, and a copy, suitably engrossed, be presented to the family of the deceased.

GEORGE H. KLINE,
JOHN N. CARY,
JOHN WOODRUFF,
JOHN ROBINSON,
W. H. SWAIN, Committee.

On motion of Freeholder Gruener, the foregoing preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

By the committee to settle with the County Collector: October 2, 1906.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union:

Gentlemen—Your committee to settle with the County Collector, having the honor to inform you that it has examined his books, showing all receipts and disbursements, together with his vouchers, bonds and coupons paid and paid books, and it finds the same correct and correct in every particular.

His total receipts from the beginning of the fiscal year to October, 2, 1906, are—$128,775.87

Total disbursements—119,489.59

Leaving a balance in hands of . . . $8,886.33

HENRY KROUSE,
JOHN N. CARY,
CHARLES A. SMITH, Committee.

On motion of Freeholder Chandler, received and placed on file.

By the committee on bridge over Morris Creek, Linden Township, N. J.:

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union:

Gentlemen—Your committee would respectfully report that the work of repairing the bridge is now well under way. During the progress of the work, however, the steel floor beams of the bridge were completely uncovered, and it was found that they were in very poor condition, being for the most part badly rusted. It is the opinion of your committee that these beams are in such bad shape as to require repainting. While the bridge is out of commission by reason of the work already under way, your committee would respectfully recommend that these door beams be replaced with new steel beams at a cost not to exceed $300.

HENRY KROUSE,
JOHN N. CARY,
JOHN ROBINSON, Committee.

Freeholder Adams moved that the report be received and the recommendation adopted, which was on motion of the roll call by an unanimous vote.

By the committee on culvert in Mountain side borough:

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union:

Gentlemen—Your committee on culvert in county road in Mountain side borough would respectfully report that it found said culvert in bad condition, and recommends that the said culvert be rebuilt at a cost not to exceed $150.

ELSTON DARRY,
JOHN N. CARY,
DENNIS S. MURPHY, Committee.

Freeholder Gruener moved that the report be received and recommendation adopted, which was on motion of the roll call by an unanimous vote.

By the committee on public grounds and buildings:

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union:

Gentlemen—Your committee on placing an electric plant in the Courthouse building, carefully reports that it has carefully considered the advisability of installing an electric plant in this building, and finds it inadvisable to do so at the present time. It therefore takes that the committee be discharged in the matter.

HENRY KROUSE,
JOHN N. CARY,
JOHN WOODRUFF, Committee.

Freeholder Cady briefly explained that the committee had gone very thoroughly into the question, and after careful investigation had decided to recommend as above.

On motion of Freeholder Chandler, the report was received and committee discharged as requested.

By the commissioners on the new Courthouse:

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union:

Gentlemen—On the twenty-first day of March last, the undersigned, together with I. Frank Hubbard, the then Director of this board, were constituted "The County Building Committee." Shortly after said appointment this committee entered upon the discharge of its duties, and the Courthouse and other buildings now being completed, furnished and occupied, we beg herewith to submit our report.

Our first duty was to ascertain the best of our knowledge, have been paid and satisfied. The money with which the same were paid was raised by an issue of bonds authorized by this board, and the following statement will show the amount of money raised and how expended:

Bonds authorized $350,000.00
Bonds issued $350,000.00
Bonds not sold 16,000.00— $55,000.00

RECEIPTS.
Bonds sold at premium $515,000.00
Premium received on same 30,250.00
Bonds sold to sinking fund 24,000.00
Cash received from sale of old building 701.50

Total $605,951.50

DISBURSEMENTS.
New jail $35,367.20
Miscellaneous, printing and incidental 1,939.70
Ventilating, heating, 1,300.00
Furniture 6,500.00
Price money for plans 1,000.00
Construction of Courthouse building 497,248.88
Furniture 5,467.00
Lauding 6,113.88
Architect's fees 27,730.68
Consulting architects and electrical engineers 885.00
Metals 5,467.00
Building Commissioners' fees 6,113.88
Unexpended balance 4,272.88

Total $605,951.50

Your committee begs leave to state that in the discharge of its duties it has been greatly assisted in its work by the late County Collector, Mr. E. M. Woods by Mr. W. S. Adams, the architect, and by Mr. W. R. Codrington, the County Attorney, each of whom performed his respective duties with ability and integrity.

Owing to the magnitude of the contract and the various classes of work to be performed by the various contractors, it required constant vigilance on the part of your committee to secure the full and complete fulfillment of the contract, and to guard against the various delays occasioned by strikes and other unavoidable causes, and the necessity of requiring the contractors to do over again the work of their said work, in order that the same might fully comply with the requirements of all which, however, was done by the contractors and without additional expense to the county.

Dated October 4, 1906.
Very respectfully submitted,
JOHN FARRILL,
JOHN BRUCKLACHER.

On motion of Freeholder Robison, received and placed on file.

NEW BUSINESS.
By Freeholder Jensen:

To the Board of Freeholders:

Gentlemen—Upon investigation I learn that the duties of the bridgekeeper of the South "Front Street" bridge, Mr. John Van Pelt, are extremely laborious, and as he is at times required to be almost constantly at the bridge, night and day, his present salary of $400 per year is in my opinion inadequate for the services performed, and I offer a resolution to the effect that John W. Van Pelt's salary be increased to five hundred dollars per year.

Freeholder Chandler moved the adoption of the foregoing resolution, and on roll call it was unanimously adopted.

By Freeholder Jensen:

Whereas, The bridge contracted to be built on Elm street, in the town of Westfield, by acceptance of the board, is now completed and ready for acceptance.

Resolved, That the County Collector is hereby authorized to pay for the same when work has been approved by this engineer and the bill audited by the committee, in amount of $281.

Freeholder Robison moved the adoption of the resolution, and on roll call it was unanimously adopted.

By Freeholder Woodruff:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed, with power, to examine a bridge known as the "North Union Township" bridge, and to repair the same at a cost not to exceed $100.

Freeholder Krouse moved the adoption of the resolution, and on roll call it was unanimously adopted.

Freeholder Cady then addressed the board as follows:

"It seems to me that something should be said at this time upon the retirement of the County Courthouse Commission. They have had a long and difficult task; they have carefully and conscientiously executed their trust. A beautiful and commodious building has been completed, all within the appropriation and utterly free from any suspicion of taint. They have given us a most satisfactory building, which will long remain an honor to the county of Union and to the State of New Jersey. I therefore wish to offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the retiring Courthouse Commissioners receive the hearty thanks and appreciation of this board for their careful and efficient services in the erection and completion of this beautiful and commodious County Courthouse.

Freeholder Swain said that he most willingly and cheerfully seconded the resolution as offered, and the same was then unanimously adopted.

Freeholder Krouse then moved that the county building committee having completed its labors, be and is hereby discharged from further duty, and that it at the same time be tendered the most hearty and sincere thanks of the members of this board for the great work accomplished by it, all of which was so ordered without dissent.

Brief speeches were then made by Messrs. Farrell, Brucklacher, and Ackerman. Ackerman, in his speech, expressed not only at the completion of the building, but also the fact that during the time the building was under construction, the most harmonious feeling always prevailed between those having charge of the building and the members of the board of freeholders, all of which tended to the present successful ending.

The following bills, properly audited and approved, were paid and, on roll call, unanimously ordered paid, viz.:

ROOSEVELT AND HUGHES.

If Hughes measures up to expectations in his career as Governor of New York the alleged necessity of having President Roosevelt run for a third term will be baseless. Roosevelt has said he will not run again. No one seriously believes he did not mean what he said, or that the statement was made with any mental reservations. His entire public career entitles him to be taken at his word. It is possible that a threatened national calamity, and a well nigh universal demand for his continuance in office, might justify his reconsideration and acceptance. It is doubtful whether the national calamity will appear, and therefore doubly doubtful that the American people will not prefer to see their President rather keep his word than his office. The good feature about it is that, though Roosevelt ceases to be President, the President will not cease to be Roosevelt, and we may therefore expect to see him actively engaged in public life in one capacity or another as long as he retains his power for work. Action is as necessary to his well being as repose would be better for Bryan, and as sleep would be beneficial to Hearst. Theodore Roosevelt will not retire to become the Sage of any place.

Hughes has the greatest opportunity for making a brilliant record at Albany that has ever been given to a successful candidate for Governor of the state. The times call for great deeds and heroic conduct. He has his office by virtue of the fact that, the politicians having disagreed among themselves, he was named as an independent to save his party from defeat. The result is, he comes to his duties free from the embarrassment of gratitude to any but the people who elected him.

If we mistake not, future histories of the United States will refer to President Hughes.

The appointment of Leigh M. Pearsall as a member of the Board of Education is a just recognition of the south side of town, as well as a wise choice personally. Mr. Pearsall is a conscientious and active worker in any field he enters and will be a valuable recruit to the Board of Education.

Hearst intends to try for the Presidency. It would be quite a novelty to lose the Mayoralty of a great city, the Governorship of a great state, and finally win the Presidency of a great nation. Is there not something about rising from our dead selves to higher things?

Senator Dryden should have his political life insured in the company of which he is the head.

Bryan and Hearst will fight it out for honors as to who is the most defeated candidate.

Carl Lentz's valedictory was one of the political features of the week.

Will the President's trip revive the Panama hat?

Thanksgiving next!

Mr. Dana at Woman's Club.

The Woman's Club met Monday afternoon with a large attendance. The resignation of Mrs. Van Ness Dana, mayor and Mrs. William H. Lynde were read and accepted with regret. Mrs. E. D. Drouillard was elected a member of the club. Other business was suspended in order to give all the time possible to Mr. John Cotton Dana, Librarian of the Newark Public Library and one of the State Board of Library Commissioners. Mr. Dana lectured informally on the subject of New Jersey History and the Young People. His remarks were full of suggestion for his audience. He criticized the teaching in general throughout the schools of the State in regard to the history and geography of New Jersey. Mr. Dana made the statement that there is no short text book suitably prepared and illustrated on New Jersey history. New York State has an admirable work of the kind that is giving great satisfaction. Mr. Dana also complained of a general lack of interest in matters relating to the State. He spoke of a very fine set of topographical maps issued by the State at a considerable expense. These maps were finely mounted and boxed and distributed to schools and libraries throughout the State. The maps in most cases have not been used and many are lost and destroyed. Mr. Dana also called the attention of the women to a number of good poems on New Jersey that could not find a publisher. He gave a most interesting account of the good work the Newark Library is doing in interesting Newark children in the history and care of their city. He recommended work along similar lines for our own library. The members of the club felt that there was much work to be done along the lines suggested by Mr. Dana. He talks was not in the least discouraging. He praised much that was being done in many places, but in a spirit of kindly criticism pointed out defects and opportunities to do much good in New Jersey towns.

Mr. Penchoen Scores the Central's Treatment of Westfield.
Editor of the Union County Standard,
Westfield, N. J.:

Dear Sir:—
A rumor is prevalent that the Central Rail Road is about to take off the 5:45 p. m. train, which stops at Westfield at 6:20. The alleged reason is that the train is too heavy to stop there. The Central Rail Road has practically a monopoly of the passenger, and an entire monopoly of the freight traffic at this point, and with these advantages, can do as it pleases; but it should not be permitted to take any such action, without a vigorous protest on the part of the citizens, and an endeavor to prevent it. Our community has grown in the past five years extensively, and the passenger facilities should be increased, in a ratio proportionate to the increase in population and commerce. This train especially is patronized by Westfield, and its abandonment would work a real hardship and wrong to those who cannot arrange to take an earlier one. The entire policy pursued by the Central Rail Road towards Westfield is a selfish, niggardly and pernicious one; and we get but little comparative return for the money paid yearly into its treasury. The sidewalks, surrounding the station, are a disgrace to the town; they would be uselessly and unsightly in a village with a population of 500. Messrs. Jones and Smith are compelled to put down stone sidewalks, with a mill-ye, and miles have been laid in the past two years even in unfrequented streets; yet these rotten boards, traversed by every one, are left to offend us, and increase the output of profanity. The meadows immediately abutting on the track, both on the south side, are surrounded by fences which would be depreciated by a back-woods farmer, and the station on the south side, houses and jettison of the flood, while valuable as a relic, (I believe that the spot where Noah slept is pointed out to the visitor) is of no earthly use for the purpose to which it is put and offends the eyes and olfactory organs of everyone. Cranford and Roselle, with populations less than ours, have had new stations and the immediate surroundings have been beautified and cared for; but they didn't get these improvements without a good stiff fight, and a vigorous campaign on the part of their citizens; all of which go to show that Cranford and Roselle are all right, and we are all wrong and drowsing.

Surely there is a civic virtue in Westfield, and we should look to those who have the affairs of the town in hand to secure for us those benefits to which we are entitled. I sincerely trust that, as a public spirited citizen, you will take up these matters, and endeavor to develop a sentiment which will result in diverting our energies from the prevention of "crimes to trees," and in turning them to some of those measures, which would prove of real and lasting good. I have watched with a good deal of interest your conduct of the STANDARD, and read with much pleasure the editorials of each week, and I desire to congratulate you on the vigor, intelligence and epigrammatic force which characterize them. Keep it up.

Very truly yours,
JOHN H. PENCHOEN.

Some few years ago a few entomologists were quite hopeful that insects like grasshoppers and cicada bugs might be killed at wholesale by scattering the germs of a disease among them. The plan seems to have been a failure.

The One Universal Struggle.
It is the inevitable that we are all struggling against—LIFE.

Paint Store on Fire.

Littleton F. Welch discovered that the rear of the paint store at Welch Brothers on Broad street was in flames shortly after he returned from dinner last Saturday noon. He quickly telephoned an alarm, and the fire companies were on the scene in short order. Chief Decker got the streams playing on the rear rooms, while everybody helped to remove as many of the effects from the front of the store as could be gotten out. The paint and oils caused the fire to spread rapidly, and the firemen had a fierce struggle with the flames. They finally succeeded in getting them under control. At one time it looked as if the front store could not be saved. The flames communicated with that portion of the building by sweeping along the oil on the surface of the water which layed in under doors and partitions. The danger was averted by prompt action. The origin of the fire is not known. The loss will amount to two thousand dollars, covered by insurance. Welch Brothers had just completed extensive improvements in their place. The work of the fire department was remarkably quick and efficient.

CARD OF THANKS.

FREDERICK DECKER,
Chief Westfield Fire Dept.
Dear Sir:—
We wish to extend our heartiest thanks and congratulations to you and the other members of the fire department for the rapidity and skill with which the fire was extinguished at our building last Saturday. In three minutes after the alarm was given there was a stream on the building, and notwithstanding the flames surrounding the barrels of oil, carpenters and kerosene making it difficult to fight. Every man stuck to his post and in less than forty minutes had conquered the fire. Again thanking and congratulating you, we are Yours very truly,
WELCH BROTHERS.

Thanksgiving Dinner.

Miss Sara Curry, of the Little Missionary Day Nursery, 93 St. Mark's Place, New York City, has her sleeves rolled up preparing to give 600 families Thanksgiving dinners. When you consider there are from 5 to 8 persons in each home you realize a little the formidable proposition she has before her. With every thing much higher she looks to her friends to respond more generously in money, fowls, vegetables, etc. Miss Curry calls our attention to two homes; in one the mother has not been out of the house for 22 years, and in the other 20 years. Miss Curry has quietly cared for these invalids, calling several times a week to look after their wants since she came into the field. If any one wants his Thanksgiving dinner to taste real good let him send to Miss Curry the means to furnish a good dinner to some of these unfortunates. It will do you good.

Police Court News.

A. Sawyer, a farm hand, was arrested last Saturday by Officer Canfield for drawing a knife on the policeman. Judge Toney sent him to the county jail for thirty days.

Donick Pasque and his son, Michael, created a disturbance at the Ripley farm Sunday night, and were fined five dollars each for their brawl.

On complaint of P. J. Flanagan on Tuesday night, Richard Rochford was arrested for creating a disturbance while intoxicated in front of the North Avenue Hotel. His sentence suspended.

Arnold R. Miller enlisted at the Naval Station at Newport, R. I., in January of this year. He was given a leave of absence in June and failed to return. The police department here, acting under instructions from the government, arrested Miller yesterday morning and returned him to the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

—The November Suburbanite has excellent cuts of the exterior and interior views of the home of Edward S. Low on Dudley Avenue.

—The Westfield Medical Society met at the home of Dr. F. A. Kinch on Tuesday evening. Dr. Kinch read the essay of the evening.

—“Sunbonnets,” the successful entertainment given in the Presbyterian Chapel recently, will be repeated in Mountinside Monday night.

—Aunt F. Grant will make an address at the Seventeenth Anniversary of the Sunday School of the New York Avenue Baptist Church a week from next Sunday.

—The Advance Club meets to-night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. D. Jackson on Dudley Avenue. Shakespear will be the subject of the literary part of the evening.

—John D. Gluck, Jr. has charge of the large importers' interests in the case against them by the U. S. Appraisers to fix the value of straw-mattings under the Dingley tariff.

—The Union Thanksgiving Service will be held in the Congregational Church this year. The sermon is to be preached by the Rev. C. J. Greenwood, pastor of the Baptist Church.

—Harry N. Taylor, Jr., narrowly escaped a serious accident Monday night, when he crossed the trolley track at Broad and Prospect streets on his bicycle behind one car and in front of another, going the opposite way, and which he could not see. The car struck the bicycle and demolished it, but young Taylor fell out of the way of the car and was unhurt.

—Don't forget the Children's Home

Entertainment, soon to be given.

—Mrs. Henry C. Herganott is very seriously ill as a result of paralysis.

—Miss Mary Clark, who recently left here for a visit in Virginia, is reported to be quite ill there.

—James Backwell and family of New York, have taken up their residence at 23 Cumberland Street.

—The new time-table of the Central Railroad goes into effect one week from next Sunday, and will affect all divisions.

—Mrs. J. J. Hatch, of Chelsea, Mass., who has been visiting friends in Westfield, returned to her home on Wednesday.

—Frank Lincoln, the noted Humorous Lecturer, will appear Tuesday night at the Men's Club Entertainment in the Methodist Church.

—The report that a constable was sent from Elizabeth to get the election returns from the third ward is not true. A. F. Grant says he personally delivered them promptly.

—The executors of the estate of the late W. W. Connolly have sold to Charles M. Brown the house on Elm Street formerly occupied by Mr. Connolly. Cogor and Dilts were the agents.

—Mrs. Laura Crawford, organist of the Congregational Church has been ordered by her physician to go abroad to regain her health. Mrs. Crawford will shortly give up her work as organist.

—Doctor H. E. Savoy was initiated into the mysteries of Fireside Council, No. 715, Royal Arcanum, at their last meeting. He stood the test and proved himself a good fellow. Who'll be the next?

—Owing to the illness of both the Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Guernsey they will be unable to entertain the young people of the Congregational Church this evening as expected. A later date will be arranged.

—It will not be safe to await the receipt of a tax bill before paying taxes after December 20th, as taxes are payable whether bill is sent or not. The Collector does all he can to get bills out, but they sometimes miscarry.

—A special meeting of the shareholders of the Westfield Building and Loan Association will be held November 27, for the purpose of increasing by $10,000 the sum of money that may be borrowed on the notes of the association.

—Next Friday evening the B. O. H. will give a subscription dance at the Westfield Club. It will be the first of a series of such dances to be given by the Club during the winter. Tickets may be procured from the committee in charge.

—Alfred E. Pearsall entertained the Royal Arcanum and invited guests last night at Westfield Club Hall. Mrs. Pearsall accompanied him in several solos. “Genial Gene,” as he has come to be called, rendered a new parody on an old song.

—A Thanksgiving banquet is to be given by Fireside Council, 715, Royal Arcanum at the meeting next Thursday night when there will be refreshments that will reward every member of Thanksgiving. As usual a good time is promised to all.

—Through a mistake in receiving a telephone message a report gained currency here a few days ago that the Rev. Dr. Ryman, formerly of this town, had died suddenly. The report shocked his many friends here, who were later overjoyed to learn the error of the news.

This Is a Millinery Store.

Making use of a large force of capable Trimmers, Milliners and Saleswomen, our entire organization devoting their best talents and whole time to the study and production of stylish Millinery, it naturally follows that we are able to please more women and show Millinery with more style and more character and supply better materials at a less price than stores that have diversified interests.

In no other store in this vicinage, will you find such a splendid variety of Trimmed Hats—several hundred, no two alike—Untrimmed Hats and materials for trimming, whatever price you pay us, you'll get better value than anywhere else.

Natural Inference.

“Last night, when I accepted George,” said Miss Roxley, who was suspicious as she was homely, “he kissed me on the forehead.”

“You don’t say?” replied Miss Knox.

“Yes; now I wonder why he didn’t salute my lips. O! horrors! probably he had been drinking!”

“Very likely. You say he proposed last night?”—Catholic Standard and Times.

Seems Reasonable.

Worth All It Costs.

A warm, fresh blackberry pie made by a skilled cook who knows how to get the crust just right, is very delicious. We think of the seedless apple while picking the berries, says the Farm Journal, and wonder if we will ever have thornless blackberry bushes; and there are more chiggers to the square inch in a blackberry patch than in any other spot on the farm. But we smile over these small annoyances when the berries are in the pie.

Refrigeration of Fruit in Transport.

At a meeting of refrigerating engineers in New York, it was stated that where apples are shipped from the orchard without cooling and are from three to ten days in transit, large losses occur, especially in the top layers of fruit. The only way to obviate this is to have the fruit thoroughly cooled before it is placed in the car or have the refrigerating arrangements so perfect in the car that the fruit will be cooled uniformly throughout.

Genius in Overcoats.

Genius is defined as a capacity for taking infinite pains. The same definition applies to the capacity of Stoutenburgh designers and tailors; and their talent for expressive tailoring is exhibited no less in Stoutenburgh Overcoats and Suits at $10, $15, $20 and $25 than in Stoutenburgh Overcoats priced from $40 to $50. Herein lies the superiority of Stoutenburgh clothes at every price over any and all others ready for service.

Let us show you our series of Overcoats on the Essex and Chesterfield models, in exclusive gray weaves, Oxford and black, Stoutenburgh tailored thruout; $0 to $50 in all sizes for men and young men.

WORK OF THE YEAR

STATISTICAL REPORT AS TO COUNTRY'S RAILWAYS.

Total Mileage Shows Enormous Increase—Large Additions to Locomotives and Cars in the Service—The Salary List.

An abstract based on summaries included in the eighteenth annual statistical report of the Interstate Commerce Commission for the year ending June 30, 1905, has been issued by the commission giving the mileage and capitalization of railroads and treating of equipment, employees, capitalization of railway property, public service of railways, earnings and expenses and railway accidents.

The report shows that the total single track railway mileage June 30, 1905, was 218,101.01 miles, an increase of 1,196.70 over the previous year. The aggregate length of mileage, including tracks of all kinds, was 306,796.71 miles. These figures show increase of 9,723.40 miles in the aggregate length of track of all kinds, of which 35.48 per cent, was extension of yard track and sidings. The report represents 2,167 corporations.

On June 30, 1905, 18,357 locomotives were in service, an increase of 1,611. Of this number 27,839 were freight engines. Cars of all classes in service numbered 1,812,871, an increase of 14,310. This census does not include cars of private corporations. Of this number 1,731,409 were freight cars and 70,719 were in company service.

Of the total of locomotives and cars in service, 1,611,395 were fitted with train brakes, an increase of 8,623. Of the total, 1,571,590 were fitted with automatic couplers, an increase of 8,560. Passenger service stock was nearly all equipped with train brakes, and all but 82 locomotives had automatic couplers. Nearly all of the freight locomotives had train brakes and automatic couplers, and a large proportion of the cars in the service were equipped with train brakes and automatic couplers.

The immensity of the wage provision in the railway service is shown by the fact that an average of 647 employees were on the rolls for every mile of line, a total of 1,382,154 which is an increase of $6,075. Of the total, 54,817 were conductors, 57,894 firemen, 41,061 conductors, 111,407 other trainmen, and 45,532 switchmen. The total salaries paid was $839,944,680.

On June 30, 1905, the par value of the amount of railway capital outstanding was $3,805,258,121, or a capitalization of $65,926 per mile for the railways in the United States.

The number of passengers carried by the railways in the year was 7,831,407, an increase of 23,414,985. The passenger mileage was 23,809,115,435 the increase being 1,570,935,900 passenger miles.

The number of tons of freight reported as carried was 1,127,731,905 which exceeds the tonnage of 1904 by 117,832,740 tons.

The gross earnings from the operation of 216,973.61 miles of line were $2,082,482,406, being $107,308,315 greater than for the year 1904. Their operating expenses were $1,390,602,152, or $1,705,839 more than in 1904.

Operating expenses averaged $6.40 per mile of line, an increase of $10 per mile in comparison with the year 1904.

The net earnings of the railways amounted to $691,880,254. This amount exceeds the corresponding one for the previous year by $5,602,116.

The total number of casualties to persons on the railways for the year was 95,711, of which 9,703 represented persons killed and 86,008 injured. Casualties occurred among three general classes of railway employees as follows: Trainmen, 1,590 killed and 29,553 injured; switch tenders, crossing tenders and watchmen, 123 killed, 883 injured; other employees, 1,235 killed, 16,097 injured.

The number of passengers killed in 1905 was 537 and the number injured 10,457. In the previous year 441 passengers were killed and 9,111 injured. There were 341 passengers killed and 1,653 injured because of collisions and derailments. The total number of persons other than employees and passengers killed was 5,305; injured, 8,718. These figures include the casualties to persons trespassing, of whom 1,867 were killed and 5,251 were injured. The total number of casualties to persons other than employees from being struck by trains, locomotives or cars was 1,669 killed and 1,163 injured. One trainman was killed for every 123 employed, and 1 was injured for every 9 employed.

Plundered by Revolutionaries.

A passenger train on the Vienna railway was stopped near Warsaw recently by the application of the automatic brake. Fifty revolutionaries then alighted from the train, and uncoupling the mail van, compelled the engine driver to take it about two miles farther on, where, having plundered it, they disappeared with $20,000 of government money.

Game Killed by Third Rail.

A man who walked from Iowa to the station at Franklinville this morning stated that he saw 21 rabbits and two snakes that had been killed by coming in contact with the third rail. The snakes were burned in two, while the rabbits seemed to have been thrown away from the rail.—Philadelphia Record.

GROWTH OF THE DICTIONARY.

Twenty Years of Work Before Book Is Completed.

What would the wise men of Nineveh, who, 700 years before Christ, wrote down the words of their language on small tablets of clay, think could they come to earth and see, after its completion, the master dictionary which is now under process of making in Philadelphia.

Those wise men of so many centuries ago were the infant beginners in the business of lexicography. One set of encephalic tablets for the Assyrian king's library was all that they were required to furnish.

Not so easy is the job of dictionary making in these advanced times. The Philadelphia publisher above referred to has kept a large staff at work on his new dictionary for 14 years, expending $100,000, and has just completed for printing the matter from "A" to two-thirds of "Z." It is estimated that $250,000 more will be required to complete the work, which will consume at least five years in accomplishment.

Hitting Back.

The suburban trolley was tied up and they had been walking toward home for an hour.

"John," she ventured after a long silence, "how far have we walked?"

"Dunno," growled John, as he felt his melting collar. "You didn't take a pedometer for a husband."

She said nothing. The next morning John was going fishing and instead of awakening at four he slept till seven.

"Great Scott!" he exclaimed, searching for his shoes. "Why didn't you arouse me earlier?"

"Arouse you?" she said, sweetly. "Why, my dear, because you didn't take an alarm clock for a wife."

PLAINFIELD THEATRE.

Miss Florence Gale, probably the best liked Juliet in Romeo and Juliet, and Rosaline in As You Like It, will be seen here shortly in either of those famous roles. These are not the only Shakespearean heroines that Miss Gale has enacted successfully, but being her favorite ones and the ones in which she has won the most fame, she has decided to offer them almost exclusively on her present tour. Which one she will offer for local presentation will be announced
later.—Monday, Nov. 26.

The beautiful actress, Miss Florence
Gale, in a sumptuous scenic production of Romeo and Juliet, will be the welcome attraction at the New Plainfield Theatre on Monday, November 26.

THE CHOIR SINGER.

An event which will in many ways
mark a new era in theatricals in this city is the production here at an early date of "The Choir Singer," which has recently been passed upon by the New York critics, where it was characterized as "a decided hit." A carload of handsome scenery specially designed for this production and a large and well balanced company will be employed. At the New Plainfield Theatre Monday, Nov. 19.

THE IDIOT AT HIS WORK.

Youthful Critic Aims Himself at to Women and Books.

The young man with the disappearing chin and the lofty forehead was laying down the law to a circle of so-called friends on the all-embracing subject of "Woman."

"Well," he remarked, as he raised his glass of beer and viewed its amber tint through one eye with the air of a connoisseur, "women are really very tiresome to a man of intellect. I have had some experience with the sex," and he winked knowingly at his companions, "but I never yet met a woman who had any brains
or education."

Some one in the corner sniffed audibly, and was promptly frozen into silence with an icy stare. Then the misogynist continued: "A short time ago I attended a party given by a man I know. There were a number of women present, and the conversation was most exasperating to an intelligent mind. I strolled into another room and picked up 'Moses from an Old Manse.' After awhile a girl followed me. I don't know, I'm sure, why they always take to me
so. She looked at the book and remarked: 'Oh! Moses in an Old Manse; do you like those religious books?'"

An appreciative snicker went round the audience, and the young man went on with a triumphant glance at the man who had sniffed:
"But, what would you expect, a book
like that, the most dramatic tale that Scott has written, would be thrown away upon a woman."

And the man who had sniffed went softly out in search of the bar.

Problem of the Panama Canal.

The troubles which beset the Panama officials in their efforts to obtain and retain workmen and clerks,
has been told in various ways. "You have no idea how hard it is to get canal employees to stick to the isthmus," said an official of the isthmian canal commission. "It keeps us busy finding men to take the places of those who go to Panama and leave
after a few weeks of work."

I shall say that four months is the average length of time put in by most of our clerks. Of course, some of the men stay longer. They get higher pay and seem content to remain. But the great bulk of our employees are fellows with roving dispositions and a love for adventure. They think they will see some fun on the isthmus, and a few weeks of the hard work and dreary life are enough for them."

New Use for 'Phone.

A telephone girl tells the Philadelphia Record of a new use of the telephone. Three women occupy a house near where the girl lives. They had been away in the country for some time when one day the operator was surprised to hear one of them call up a pay station, asking for her own home number. The girl says: "I rang the 'phone several times, but,
as the house was closed, there was no answer. Then my curiosity got the better of me and I disclosed my identity and asked why she was calling her own number, when she knew the house was closed. 'That's just the point,' came the response over the wire, rather tartly: 'we wish to scare any burglars away if there are any in the house.'"

A Novel Way of Fishing.

A correspondent writes: As I was walking along the promenade at Eastbourne recently I saw a gentleman with a big black retriever dog, tied to a post. I stopped and watched him; so did some more people. After awhile he let the dog go. He swam out to sea a little way and brought back what I thought was a walking stick. But as the dog got closer to shore, I saw there was some string attached to it, which turned out to be a fishing line, and, to the surprise of the people around him, it had on the end of it a small salmon bass, which weighed about four and one-half pounds. Surely this is a novel way of fishing!—Weekly Telegraph.

Feet of the Tongquinese.

So peculiar is the formation of the feet that night and day the Tongquinese can run with perfect security over most dangerously rough and smooth places. From a narrow heel the feet broaden remarkably toward the toes,
of which the great one is so separated from the others as to form with them
a wide angle. And from the toes grow wails that can be fixed in the ground like hooks. This peculiarity in the feet of the natives of Tongqua has obtained for them among the Chinese the name Cao-Chi—the people with the crooked toes.—Rosary Magazine.

Bullet That Does Not Kill.

A bullet that hits the mark but does not kill has just been invented by Dr.
Dehlers of Paris. The details of its construction are not mentioned, but it is said to be hollow and can be used several times. In a test for duel practice pistols were used with steel guards resembling a sword hilt, because, although the bullet does not penetrate the clothing, it will wound naked flesh. Both men wore goggles.
Out of 272 shots 202 struck some part of the bodies of the duellists.

Very Suggestive.

"That burst of admiration from Miss Smart when young Flatboy showed her the picture of his country estate
was quite an apostrophe to its beauty."
"Yes, and don't you forget that the apostrophe is the sign of the possessive case."

A HANDY WAGON BOX.

Easily Constructed and Can Be Used
for Variety of Hauling.

This homemade wagon box may be constructed with little labor and expense and is very useful for a variety of hauling. For the sides I used two timbers 15x8 inches by 12 feet long of hard pine. For the floor I used six pieces of No. 1 sheeting hard pine for the top of the rack, each 3 inches

Sides and Ends of Wagon Box.

wide. For the floor ordinary hard pine flooring was used. For stays at the side I used 2x3 inch strips. The front end gate was made solid, as shown in corner left of cut, but the back gate was made in two pieces, either one of which could be left out.

This is a fine rack, says the Farm
and Home, for hauling wood, hogs, hay, fodder or corn. For ordinary purposes the slatted sides can be turned down, but when loose stuff like cut corn or fodder is hauled the sides can be raised. The material for this box costs $10.

USE ROAD DRAG OFTEN.

Use With Flat Road in First-Class Condition.

The King road drag does first-class work. Our road was in such a bad shape that it was almost impossible to travel, says a Minnesota farmer in Farm and Home. I worked on it one and one-half days and it put the road in pretty good shape, a distance of four miles, with that amount of labor.
If I put in another day and a half the road will be in fine condition.

I think that one man, four horses and the King drag will do just as much and as good work or more, than five men and some other graders. The King drag should be weighted down with the driver and 200 pounds besides, the horses hitched ahead. If all the farmers would own one of the King drags and use the machine right after a rainfall we could soon have good roads.

ABOUT COUGHS

Some Reliable Local Advice.

"In conducting a large drug business
we naturally meet a great many people
at this season of the year who suffer from coughs, colds and bronchial troubles.

"As these troubles are easily controlled
if the right means is taken to cure them,
we want to say to the people of Westfield
that we guarantee our old liver preparation, Vinol, will cure hanging-on colds, stubborn coughs, bronchial and lung troubles quicker than any preparation
we have ever sold.

"This is because Vinol contains no oil
or grease to clog the system and upset
the stomach, yet it does contain every one of fifty old medicinal curative elements actually taken from the fresh livers, with the tonic iron added.
Vinol is not a patent medicine; and you know what you are taking, so without reservation we recommend Vinol to cure coughs, colds, bronchial troubles, increase the appetite, build up the run-down,
tired and debilitated and create strength
and renewed vitality for the aged.

"If Vinol fails to do what we say we will refund every dollar paid for it."
G. W. Frutchey, Druggist.

NOTE—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Westfield, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

Mexican Wood for Railroad Ties.

Arrangements have been completed
here by a company of the City of Mexico to ship 1,000 railroad ties a day to this city for the use of the various railroads which are building in here.
The ties will be of the zapote wood which is harder than mahogany and which is not affected by water.

Dr. Lorenzo Syper, who is representing the company here at the present time, said that the wood had been tried in Mexico for ties, and it had been found that the minimum life of a tie of the wood was 50 years.—

Governor Stokes' Proclamation.

Governor Stokes has, and the following proclamation:

"It is a time honored privilege annually accorded to the citizens of this mighty and prosperous republic, to pause
for a day and ponder upon the bounty
of an all-wise and all-powerful Father.
History records another year of plenty,
of gifts bestowed upon us in rich profusion. Our civilization is advancing;
our influence as a nation ever widening.
The fruits of labor are abundant and he who toils receives a liberal reward.
Rich and poor alike share in opportunity,
in the blessings of freedom, of justice,
of wider knowledge and higher standards. Happiness and contentment abide with us. Pestilence and plunder have long ceased to menace the homes of our people. Hopes of the past, realized in the present, inspire greater efforts for the future and it is meet that a day be set apart to render thanks to Him who has guided us in prosperous paths.

"Therefore, I, Edward C. Stokes,
Governor of the State of New Jersey,
do designate Thursday, the twenty-ninth day of November as Thanksgiving Day, and do recommend that the people of this commonwealth gather together
in places of religious worship to lift their voices in songs of praise to our Heavenly Father for the marks of His Divine favor already enjoyed and to ask that He continue to lead us in the way of peace.

"Given under my hand and seal at the executive chambers, in the city of Trenton, this twelfth day of November,
one thousand nine hundred and six.

GAVE UP "CONSCIENCE MONEY."

British Railroad Gets $6,000 From an Unknown Debtor.

A remarkable "cash" entry in the accounts of the London, Brighton & South Coast railway was referred to
at the ordinary meeting of the company, says an English exchange.

Lord Cottesloe, who presided, called attention to the fact that the general insurance fund was credited with the sum of $6,000 under the simple entry of "cash." The circumstances in which the money was paid over to the company were unusual.

A London solicitor called on the company's solicitors in January and stated that a client of his (whose name he was not allowed to divulge) was in the possession of a sum of money which he considered to belong rightfully to the company and which he wished to pay over. The solicitor declined to give any information as to how the money came into his client's possession, and he was only prepared to say that his client was not, and never had been, connected with the company. If the acceptance of the offer was declined, he added, he would advise his client that, having made the offer, he might retain the money
with a clear conscience.

The true facts connected with this payment, said Lord Cottesloe, would probably never be known. It was a very unusual circumstance for a railway company to receive what unquestionably must be "conscience money."
The offer was accepted.

Landslide Wrecked Train.

A remarkable train wreck occurred at Chelsea, New York, on the New York Central railway, at which point
the metals run between precipitous cliffs on one side and the Hudson river on the other. The railway company has spent thousands of dollars
in building supposedly indestructible retaining walls, but the heavy rains undermined the cliffs, causing a landslide, which covered the metals with tons of sand and rocks. An express, traveling at full speed, struck the debris, with the result that the engine tumbled completely over and plunged into the river, 20 feet below, the driver and fireman being instantly killed.
Six other persons were badly injured
by the consequent derailment of the train.

Moving Train on Fire.

As Burlington train No. 6 was running through Devier a spark from the engine ignited the canvas forming the vestibule in the rear of the second coach, and the train soon started a sheet of flame flowing over the cars.
The reverse action also sent smoke
and flames into the second coach,
which was crowded with women shoppers coming to Macon. In the confusion several grabbed up their grips and ran frantically to the platform.
The train was stopped before they jumped off, and no one was hurt. The crew got buckets of water and succeeded in extinguishing the flames.—

Corsets Held Ties Best.

Railroads of the world are confronted with the problem of the tie supply, and many plans for prolonging the life of the tie or finding some substitute are being investigated.

At least a partial solution seems to be in the use of screws, instead of spikes, in laying track. When these are made use of in laying new track,
the life of the tie is greatly prolonged, and apparently useless ties
may be made to do renewed service.

"The part of the tie which gives way in use is that immediately under the tracks, where the slight movement of the rail cuts into the fibers of the wood, and where the spikes holding the rails in place enter the tie. This wood may be sound at all other points
but, because of its weakness where it is needed to drive the spikes, it is necessary to throw the log away.

Not in His Dominion.

The scientist Karnachoff was working in his study, when a servant burst into his room, saying that the house was on fire. "Go and tell your mistress," replied the great man. "I do not mix myself in the affairs of the house."—La Ritsula.

Seems Reasonable.

"It's dreadful queer," said the housewife, "that the potatoes you bring me should be so much bigger at the top of the sack than they are at the bottom."

"Not at all, mem," said the honest farmer. "It's jest this a-way. Potatoes is growin' so fast jest now that by the time I dig a sackful the last ones dug is ever so much bigger than the first ones."—Harper's Weekly.

Literary Treasure Found.

The custodian of the royal library
in Vienna found, the other day, in a pile of unsorted parchment, a valuable manuscript of the thirteenth century
—about 300 lines of a versified translation of the Bible into the Bavarian Alemannic dialect, made by Rudolf von Ems, in Switzerland. Its importance lies in the fact that this was really the first Bible version into German.
