A farmer that sowed wheat all over his farm and then expected to reap a crop of cats, wheat and corn from the same, what would you think of him?
What would you say of a man who fed his horse, cow, hog and poultry from the same package of condition powder?
The intelligent farmer uses Fairfield's Tonics because there is a separate preparation for each kind of animal. Sold

Advance Notice.

There will be two special attractions at Proctor's Plainfield Theatre this week, one being moving pictures of the Messiah Earthquake and the Cruise of the American battle ship fleet. There will also be special vaudeville attractions to help add to the interest of the entertainment.

Last week's attraction of Kramer and Krebs made a big hit. The youngsters are clever in every way and kept the large audiences in a roar of laughter all the time.

Then there is the latest novelty of the human microscope which is always looked for with much interest.

Morristown by 25 to 13. The second some players. The line up:

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

RECORDS OF OLD TIMES

political meeting held at Miller's Hall,
then on Broad street next to John M.
Clarke's tavern.

"The old cannon, 'Old One Horn,' is a relic of the Revolutionary War. The last I saw of it was at the time when it was one of the attractions in the procession on the occasion of the anniversary of the 'battle of Elizabethtown,' June 7-8, 1830. It was loaded on a platform truck.

"It is to be hoped that it will be preserved. It is one of the remaining mementoes of the early struggles of our forefathers for liberty.

"Its mate, I have been told, is the old fieldpiece at Union, mounted on a modern gun carriage, presented by the government and located on a triangular plot at the intersection of roads near the historical Connecticut Farms Church."

REAPING BENEFIT

From the Experience of Westfield People

We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors.
The public utterances of a Westfield resident on the following subject will be foremost and benefit thousands of our readers. Read this statement. No better evidence and convincing. No better proof can be had.

Samuel K. Weller, 83 Railway avenue, Westfield, N. J., says: "Mrs. Weller has great confidence in Donu's Kidney Pills. At the time she began using them, she was suffering from pain through her back and was annoyed by headaches and dizzy spells. Her condition became serious and drooping swellings appeared in her ankles. I had used Donu's Kidney Pills myself, and they had proven so satisfactory that I advised her to try them. She procured a box at Frutchey's Pharmacy and has not suffered from kidney trouble since.
We both take great pleasure in giving Donu's Kidney Pills our highest recommendation."

COMMUNICATIONS.

From Sheriff Robert J. Kirkland as follows:

Benjamin King, Esq., Director of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County.
Dear Sir—I take great pleasure in enclosing the within letter from the secretary of the State Board of Health just received by me; I am indeed gratified that the cleanliness of the jail in such a to warrant the closing words of the report.

Very respectfully,

ROBERT J. KIRKLAND,

Sheriff

Attached to the foregoing was the following:

Trenton, Jan. 4, 1909.

Mr. Robert J. Kirkland, Sheriff of Union
County.

Dear Sir—An inspection of the Union county jail was made by a representative of this board on December 10, 1908.
It is the custom of the State Board of Health when there are any sanitary defects in an institution which require remedying to call the attention of those charged with the supervision of said institution to these defects for the purpose of securing improvements, but the report of the inspector shows that there are no objectionable features in the institution. The report closes with these words: "The cleanliness which prevails and which extends to every room and department of the jail denotes intelligent, careful and constant supervision and good management."

Very respectfully,

BRUCE S. KEATOR,

Secretary.

On motion of Freeholder Jones received and placed on file.

From Borough Clerk of Roselle Park
as follows:

Board of Chosen Freeholders:
Gentlemen—I have been directed by the Borough Council to communicate with your honorable body in the matter of the water pipes that supply the dwellings on the north side of Westfield Avenue in this borough. As the water main is on the south side of the avenue, the pipes to supply the houses on the north side have to cross under the trolley tracks. A number of property-owners claim the action of electricity on the pipes destroy them, and they have had to have them replaced at a great expense, which they claim should be reimbursed to them. As your body granted the franchise, council presumes you have some control over the trolley company and see that no one should be damaged thereby.

Yours respectfully,

A. M. WOODRUFF,

Borough Clerk.

On motion of Freeholder Krouse, received and referred to the County Road Committee and County Attorney.

From the Common Council of the city of Rahway:

S. Ruding Ryno, Esq.,
Clerk of the Union County
Board of Chosen Freeholders:

Dear Sir—At a meeting of the Common Council of the city of Rahway, held on December 22, the following action was taken:

Mr. Trembley brought up a matter in regard to the time of the construction of the bridge over the Rahway River at Mourne street. After the bridge was built the brick piers and stone left from the old bridge were not taken out of the river, thereby causing an obstruction at the sewer outlet. Mr. Helmsstadter stated that the same trouble occurred at the Grand street bridge.

On motion, the City Clerk was directed to communicate with the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders and request that they have the river at those points cleared of these obstructions as had been done at the St. George avenue bridge.

Very respectfully yours,

CHARLES H. LAMBERT,

City Clerk.

On motion of Freeholder Swain, received and referred to Freeholders Cla-dok and Stephan.

From Muhlenberg Hospital, Plain-
field, N. J., as follows:

Plainfield, N. J., Dec. 17, 1908.

Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, N. J.:

Gentlemen—I beg to advise you that at a meeting of the board of governors of Muhlenberg Hospital held November 14, 1908, action was taken providing for an increase in the number of the board of governors by one, "to be a member of the Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union, ex officio, such member to be designated by that board."

Kindly advise me of the name of the member of your board whom you designate.

Very truly yours,

HOWARD W. BEEDE,

Secretary.

Freeholder Cady moved that the same be received, the clerk of this board to write to the board of directors of the hospital and ask them to make their own selection. Which was so ordered.

From the Bar Association of Union County, as follows:

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of
Union County:

Gentlemen—At a meeting of the Bar Association of Union County, held yesterday, the secretary was instructed to express to your board the gratification of the members of the association at the steps already taken to install an elevator in the Court House, and their hope that the board can see its way clear to have the work speedily done.

Very respectfully yours,

PAUL Q. OLIVER,

Secretary.

On motion of Freeholder Smith, received and placed on file.

From F. J. Blatz, as follows:

Board of Freeholders of Union County:

Gentlemen—At the regular meeting of the Board of Health of the Borough of North Plainfield, the following resolution was adopted and I was requested to send same to you with a brief explanation:

"Regularly moved and seconded, that our Attorney be instructed to appear before the Board of Freeholders of Union County and Somers County, and urge them to build a retaining wall and keep the bed of Green Brook free and clear, so that there will be no stagnant pools of water during the dry season. This wall to run from Watchung Avenue to Grove Street."

I would ask that your board kindly take this matter under consideration and communicate with me relative as to what disposition you are able to make toward complying with this resolution, and if your board find that it is impossible for you to take action, what recommendation you would recommend toward obtaining the results asked for.

The Board of Health stated that this resolution has met with the approval of the citizens of the Borough of North Plainfield and of the city of Plainfield, who are anxious that something be done toward putting the brook in a proper condition.

Thanking you in advance for an early reply, I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

F. J. BLATZ,

Attorney for Board of Health.

On motion of Freeholder Donno, received and referred to the freeholders from the city of Plainfield and the County Attorney.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

By the Special Committee for Policing County Roads:

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of
Union County:

Gentlemen—Your committee to special officers for the purpose of making arrests for violations of the law by drivers and owners of automobiles using the county roads in this county, we beg to report that after investigation and conference with the County Attorney, we are advised that there is no law warning such appointments as would give the desired effect; and your committee would recommend that the matter be referred to the Legislative Committee of this board, to secure proper legislation enabling the proper appointment of such officers.

Respectfully submitted,

E. K. ADAMS,

S. P. T. WILBUR,

On motion of Freeholder Smith, received and placed on file.

IT PAYS TO BE CONSERVATIVE.

To the Board of Tax Assessors:

Gentlemen:—In the columns of this newspaper you will find the value of certain properties offered to the Westfield Common Council, as available for a Town Hall site. The values, as submitted, are considered by the owners to be very conservative.

Very very truly,
The Tax Payers of Westfield who are assessed at Full Valuation.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

No man in history has been more enologized than Abraham Lincoln. The celebration of the 100th anniversary of his birth, today, has called for tributes from every quarter of the globe, from the press, magazines, pulpit and platform. The anniversary is being everywhere observed in this country, and will not be lightly regarded by peoples of other lands. The magnitude of its must convince us that Lincoln stands first in the hearts of his countrymen. Certainly no man ever lived who was better loved by a people than is "Father Abraham" by every true American citizen.

In this respect Lincoln holds a unique place in American history, and chiefly because of the fact that in his public and private life he exemplified the highest ideals of American manhood, of statesmanship. The man was greater than his greatest performance, and the spiritual Lincoln is, and will be an active force among men so long as time endures.

MR. PECKHAM'S PROPOSITION.

The proposition made by William G. Peckham offering to the Town of Westfield his property on Mountain avenue, opposite the Triangle Park, for the sum of $5,500, the same to be secured by a three years option for $200, and interest on the principle at 6 per cent; provided purchase be finally made, is certainly worthy of more than passing consideration.

The tract which Mr. Peckham offers for sale covers an area of five acres and adjoins at its southern extremity the Westfield Park Lake. The possibilities of a splendid park system here cannot be overestimated. For a nominal sum, the property could be graded, the brook which feeds the lake widened throughout its course, paths and roadways laid out, in a word an effect could be produced similar to that of a large city park. The advantages to Westfield of such an improvement would outweigh anything yet attempted in the line of municipal enterprise.

ECHO ANSWERS, BUT BEGS THE QUESTION.

It is easy enough "to just sit" and make a noise like an echo, but to do so, and be consistent is sometimes an embarrassing task. Standard's issue of Feb. 5.

Why not stand up and try it? The echo, noise of Feb. 10.

Evidently the sound traveled in the right direction, or the Echo would not have answered.

Westfield, N. J., Feb. 5, 1909.

Lincoln: A Colloquy.

Why is Lincoln, born one hundred years ago, immortal?
Because he saved the Union and freed the slaves.

Why will his Gettysburg speech as masterful rhetoric survive the brass in which the imperishable lines have been cast?

Because in it lofty sentiments are expressed in simple English words.

How comes it that such a classic springing from the brain of one whose early life was so barren of means of mental culture? Had he many books in his youth?

Five. One of them he walked twenty miles to borrow. A copy of this work sold at a New York bookstall the other day for five cents. Five books! But here was a Man! "Better a man without books than books without a man."

He had Bunyan and Esop. Did not Bunyan write—
"If it will not read, let it alone;
Some love the book, some love to pick the bone."

Lincoln loved "to pick the bone." With books he was a ruminant. To reflect upon Esop's story of the miller and his son must have comforted the great Emancipator when overwhelmed by the cares of office.

What was the best book he had?

The Bible, of course—etymologically. The Book—that repository of genius of thought holding as in a chalice all wisdom. A newspaper copy reader was once heard to say, "The Sermon on the Mount is great stuff!"

Why did so few books suffice for the boy Lincoln?

Because, as his private secretary said, "he read these five books over and over until he knew them almost by heart." Here is a lesson in application for the rising generation. Lincoln's memory was like a tar bucket. Everything stuck to it. Henry Ward Beecher described the operation in this less homely phrase: "The book seems to pass from itself and to enter the memory, and to hover in a silvery transfiguration there until the outward book is but a body and its soul and spirit are flowing to you and possess your memory like a spirit."

Where do we find evidence of this in Lincoln's works?

Particularly in his second inaugural address, in which stirring document in the closing paragraphs, he makes two apt quotations from Holy Writ, the first from "Christ's Lesson in Humility," Matthew xviii, 7, and the second from the "Psalm of David to God's Glory Seen in the Creation," Psalms xix, 9.

Was Lincoln a Christian?

What further evidence do we need than is to be found in this closing passage of the second inaugural?

"The Almighty has his own purposes. Voo unto the world because of offenses! for it must needs be that offenses come; but woe to that man by whom the offense cometh." If we shall suppose that American slavery is one of these offenses which in the providence of God must needs come, but which having continued through his appointed time, he now wills to remove, and that he gives to both North and South this terrible war as the woe due to those by whom the offense came,—shall we discern therein any departure from those divine attributes which the believers in a living God always ascribe to him? Fondly do we hope, fervently do we pray, that this mighty scourge of war may speedily pass away. Yet if God wills that it continue until all the wealth piled by the bondman's two hundred and fifty years of unrequited toil shall be sunk, and until every drop of blood drawn by the lash shall be paid by another drawn with the sword, as was said three thousand years ago, so still it must be said, "The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether."

"With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow, and his orphan; to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations."

"To finish the work we are in." Before that consummation was reached "from the ladder of fame he stepped to the skies." [P. S. A.]

MAJOR W. K. WHEATLEY FAVORS THE PECKHAM SITE.

Declares That Park System Would Be Greatly Extended Thereby.

Editor of the Standard,
Westfield, N. J.

Dear Sir:—If I have read the report of the Committee on Site for Town Hall correctly, all of the sites costing above $10,000, have been eliminated from their consideration. If this be true, I am at a loss to understand why the Committee failed to advise the purchase of the Peckham property on Mountain avenue. The price placed upon this property by its owner is certainly very reasonable, and the property itself is capable of developments that are impossible in any of the other sites that have been mentioned. For a number of years there has been in Westfield a constant agitation in favor of public parks, and the results that have been obtained cannot be called extensive.

If the Peckham property is purchased it will afford not only an excellent site for the Town Hall, but a tract that can be developed into an ideal park at a reasonable cost. As to matter of convenience, there can be very little difference in placing a Town Hall on the Peckham property, and placing it on any of the sites that have been recommended by the Committee.

I trust that the recommendations of the Committee as presented at the meeting last Saturday night, will not be considered as final, and that an opportunity will be given for some sort of a hearing on other sites that may be deemed suitable.

Very respectfully,
WALTER K. WHEATLEY

ANNUAL DIVIDEND FOR 1909

A 20-Year Endowment Policy for $3,000 was issued by the New York Life Insurance Company through this Agency in 1907. The age of the insured was 30 yrs; the annual premium $153.93. The dividend of the current year to which the insured under this Policy is entitled to $21.36 which reduces this premium for 1909 to $132.57 which is but $44.19 per $1,000. As older Policies receive larger dividends, a Non-participating contract is a poor one to select.

The February Sale of Silk Petticoats At WANAMAKER'S

We inaugurated this money-saving event last year, and there wasn't a moment's doubt in our minds from the first day, that we had hit on an idea welcome to women.

So the second annual sale is ready now—with literally thousands of fresh, charming new Petticoats that makers have been busy for weeks turning out to our special order.

We have picked the styles, selected the colors, inspected the qualities, and bargained over the prices, until we can offer styles that we like, and know women will like, at from twenty to twenty-five per cent. less than their value under ordinary conditions.

Scores of pretty styles, plain and accordion-plated, with adjustable bands or drawstrings, in black and such colors as chocolate, olive, stone blue, taupe, wistaria, and other favorites, in these price-groups:

$6.75 Silk Petticoats at $5

Women's Black Silk Waists, $5

They are just the kind of waists women find handiest for all-around wear as they can be worn plain or made dressy with lace at wrists and neck, and they are quite as tempting in price as they are smart and good-looking. Of black messaline or taffeta silk, some with pretty yokes, all variously trimmed with plaits, fagoting, silk straps, buttons and French knots. Open front or back. Specially priced at $5.

GOVERNOR FORT'S PROCLAMATION ON THE CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION OF LINCOLN'S BIRTH.

On the twelfth of February next will occur the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln.

By the law of our State his birthday has been made an annual legal holiday; but the coming anniversary of his birth demands more than the customary observance.

Born in obscurity, when the place of his birth and early manhood, that is now a part of the great middle West, was on the frontier of the republic, and reared amidst privations and hardships, with few, if any, of the advantages now obtainable by the youth of our day, he surmounted all difficulties and rose by sheer personal merit to the presidency of the republic and died a martyr's death when but fifty-six years of age.

He stood for freedom and the equality of man. He exemplified the pure in personal, domestic and public life. He, as few others ever did, has the confidence of the people. He sprang from them, was of them, and they loved and honored him.

His life and work are unique in American history. To recall his humble birth, his privations, sacrifices, virtues, utterances, principles and public services, is to encourage youth, strengthen the cause of truth and right in all men, and to elevate our standards of political honesty.

Therefore, I, John Franklin Fort, Governor of the State of New Jersey, do hereby call upon all municipalities in the State, all public organizations, clubs, posts of the Grand Army of the Republic, public schools and all civic societies to cause suitable exercises to be arranged for on said twelfth day of February next, or near thereto, that the memory of this great American may be suitably commemorated; and I do further recommend that the clergy of the Stateshall, either upon the Sabbath preceding or succeeding the anniversary of his birth, devote one service in their respective places of worship to appropriate exercises.

Given under my hand and seal, at the Executive Chamber, in the City of Trenton, this eighteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nine, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-third.

JOHN FRANKLIN FORT.

Suits That Are GOOD
Suits That are NEW Suits That Are STYLISH

10.00

THEIR PRICE SHOULD BE 15.00

Some manufacturers are very conservative. The maker of these certainly is, and, just like a conservative man, he ordered a whole lot of blacks and blues. Now that his materials are in, his conservatism again crops out—he is fearful he has bought too many. We suggested the making up of 100 suits without profit, to ease his mind. He did so, and made them up in a conservative model, still stylish and up-to-the-minute, and here they are.

Fresh, Crisp, New Suits

Suits that have life—a month hence a suit like this will cost you 15.00. We have a complete line of sizes for both women and misses—price NOW 15.00.

AN EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY TO BUY Children's Coats and Dresses

In taking stock broken lots are usually taken in groups—to be more explicit, we will take, for instance, all remaining garments that are marked $3.98, $4.08 and $5.08 at a price so that we can retail them at $2.98.

It is just such a lot we place on sale tomorrow. The coats are made of jerseys, heavers, etc., in the manner and styles you expect at the above named prices; the dresses are a similar lot; in it you will find some that retail as high as $10.00. There are cashmere, serges, fancy mixtures, etc., also a goodly assortment of Peter Thompson Suits in the lot.

Coat Values from $3.98 to $5.00 Each, Special $2.98.

Dresses Valued at from $5.00 to $10.00 at $3.98.

The choice patterns are always in greatest demand, and it pays to purchase now when the variety is greatest.

Now is the time to get busy and forestall the warm weather rush.

The house wife knows from experience that the habit of delaying in the making of summer frocks and suits has caused no little annoyance later in the season, when time she would give to out-of-door life, must be taken up with neglected sewing duties.

Winter is the time to prepare for Spring and Summer

Knowing this we have anticipated your wants, and are prepared to meet your early demands. Nothing is gained by further delay, for now

HUGH TALBOT THE VICTIM OF OTHER MAN'S CARELESSNESS

Accidentally Knocked Over in New York, and Two Bones Broken.

While talking with a friend in a cigar store near the Stock Exchange, Broad street, New York, Monday afternoon, Mr. Hugh Talbot, of Highland avenue, was accidentally knocked down, and quite painfully injured, two bones in his right ankle being broken by the fall.

Mr. Talbot was standing near the door, close to the counter, when two men made a hasty rush for the door. As they attempted to pass Mr. Talbot, one of them knocked him over, and both fell on top of him.

Mr. Talbot was lifted to his feet, and a carriage called. Mr. William Duffy, of Mountain avenue, who witnessed the accident, brought him to his home in this place, and Dr. Robert R. Sinclair, the family physician, was called.

Mr. Talbot's injuries are painful, but not serious. He will be confined to the house for some time.
