THE WAFER MAN EXPLAINS.

Why He Declared That His Former Abode Was "Not Too-Desirable."

HIS FRIEND TOOK EXCEPTION.

Comments on the Superior Train Service, and Makes Up a Comparative Table To Prove His Claim.

(BY THE WAFER MAN.)

This column is to be a regular feature of the STANDARD. The Wafer Man is on his job, and he's going to tell us all about ourselves. Who is he? Why is he the Wafer Man—that's all. —[Ed.]

Anything you see here that you don't agree with, send along your criticism, and your name won't appear in connection with it if you don't want it to. Then again anything you would like to see "touched on," you can start something by addressing the "Wafer Man."

It's going to be a free lance department!

Wafers are fragile, delicate and easily broken. A valued friend who went through the box of wafers in last week's issue takes two exceptions. The town mentioned as "not too desirable" was formerly his town, and it was through his kind offices that we went there and cast off the city lines. The town has the best of schools, to which he contributed largely, and in other ways he made his presence felt.

I did not intend to cast aspersions on the town. The town is a bully little one, but comparatively speaking Westfield is ever so much better. In our little city we can buy almost anything the market affords and at moderate prices, where the "not-too-desirable" town has but sparse facilities for stocking the household larder and affording the women of the household shopping fields. It was necessary to go to the next town frequently to get things.

The town not too desirable.

The other exception he noted was in my calling the stations at several of the towns along the line "shanties." Of course I did not mean that literally, but comparatively speaking of course the old wooden buildings that do duty for stations are not what we have here, for instance, or what lends dignity and adds ornament to Cranford, Roselle, Plainfield, etc.

The new terminal of the Jersey Central at the foot of Liberty Street gives us on the line something to brag of. It is without doubt the finest thing of its kind on the entire water front of Manhattan. Now with its magnificent station, superior train service, splendid management and comparatively low fares the Jersey Central can lay claim to be the Banner route out of New York.

A little look in at what others get will enhance the situation and serve to show how well we are off in this respect.

Westfield is 19½ miles from New York, and has a daily service in both directions of nearly 70 trains from 4 a. m. to 1 a. m.

No other town within this distance from New York has anywhere near this number, and it exceeds more than three others combined.

The following little schedule will show comparisons:

Train service for train service, the Jersey Central asserts its supremacy as a study of the distances and rates will show.

A man with his eyes wide open will notice any number of oddities of life. A great many "crop up" within the observation of the commuter.

For instance—Take a train full going in or coming out, and the same people are generally paired in the same seat, in the same car. There are commuters who never ride in any but the smoker. And many of these never read a morning or evening paper preferring the fascination of the cards.

The work of the train conductor is made relatively easy by the passengers' regularity in patronizing the same train, and occupying the same seat in the same car. If the conductor has local

BANQUET PROGRAM IS COMPLETE; A QUARTETTE OF GOOD SPEAKERS.

Large Attendance Is Assured—Governor Fort to Receive Royal Welcome.

Particulars of the Board of Trade Banquet, to be held at the Westfield Casino, Tuesday night, were announced at the regular meeting of that organization, last night in the Thompson Building. Lloyd Thompson, on behalf of the committee on accommodations detailed the arrangement of the tables, and president Tuttle announced the list of speakers, and the order of program. Governor Fort is to be the principal speaker, and will be given a royal welcome. Frank Bergen, counsel of the Public Service Corporation will also give an address. It is probable that William G. McAdoo will be present and speak. Mr. McAdoo has been out of town for the past few days, but his secretary has assured the committee that Mr. McAdoo will probably accept as he is anxious to talk to the people of Westfield. Mr. Basler, the General Manager of the Central Railroad will make up the quartette of orators.

It is expected that fully two hundred, the limit of accommodation, will gather 'round the board. The committee on attendance reported that there was a great demand for tickets, and a full attendance was assured. Music has been provided for the occasion, and Demoli, of Plainfield, will be the caterer. The decorations and favors will be a unique feature.

The Board again renewed its efforts to prevent the Sunday land sales. Lloyd Thompson, Arthur N. Pierson and Charles A. Smith, the committee appointed to confer with Prosecutor Swift in the matter, reported through Mr. Thompson. A letter from that official was read in which he enumerated the different legal steps which might be taken to prevent the sales. On the strength of this letter, the committee given full power to prosecute the sales. In its work the committee has the aid of the Trade Board, the Common Council, all of the churches, and the Republican Executive Committee.

A BARN DANCE.

Miss Marjorie Brown Entertained Friends, Friday Night.

Miss Marjorie Brown, of Charles street, gave a barn dance to her friends in Mrs. Smith's barn on Clark street last Friday night. Nineteen people enjoyed a good old dance during the evening and then welcomed some refreshments.

Among those present were: Misses Marjorie Brown, Marion Clark, Rosalie Davies, Margaret Smith, Amelia Eastable, Florence McClintock, Catherine Pearsall, Helen Collins, Dorothy Richardson, Helen Dickey, and Elizabeth Ewing. Messrs. Kenneth Wilcox, Harold Cowperthwaite, George Elliott, Norman Smith, Clarence Nostrand, William Bachmann, Lewis Walker, Harry Miller and George Foster. Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Brown acted as chaperones.

MISS HEWITT'S RECITAL.

Miss Nella Mae Hewitt of New York, gave a song recital at the Westfield Casino, Monday night, which though not well attended, was interesting because of the spirit and art with which Miss Hewitt graced the occasion. Miss Hewitt sang under circumstances that made it impossible for her to display her voice at its best. The day of the recital she was taken sick, but she made the journey from New York to Westfield, and filled her engagement rather than disappoint her local friends.

Miss Hewitt was assisted by Mr. William H. Mend, baritone, and Mrs. Flora Coan Emerson on the piano. Miss Hewitt's singing of the ballads was well done, and particularly in the song, "Maid of Cadiz," by Delibes, she showed the skill of a trained and experienced singer. Miss Hewitt is to be congratulated upon her fine determination, and her appearance in Westfield may be added to her list of successes, since she fulfilled an engagement which many an artist, under even less trying conditions, would have forsaken as impossible. It is to be hoped that she shall be heard in Westfield again, and under circumstances encouraging to her, as an artist, and inspiring to lovers of good music, which is her art.

YOUNG KELLEY CAUGHT.

Police Captured Local Bad Boy In S. O. Winter's Barn, Last Friday.

WANTED FOR MANY CRIMES.

Supposed to Have Stolen Money From Stationers Wittke and Snyder—Has Served Time at Jamesburg.

When William Kelley, Jr., better known as "Young Doc" was sent to Jamesburg Reformatory over a year ago, some hope was entertained that he might learn something besides devilry, and come out prepared to make a man of himself. But since "Doc" has been turned loose on the town again he's been in enough crooked work to stamp him as a real "jail bird." The police feeling that the townspeople ought to be protected against "Doc's" frequent "touch parties," they have after a long, still hunt, succeeded in putting him behind bars at Elizabeth, where he will remain until the grand jury takes action on his case.

"Doc" is charged with having entered the stationery store of O. F. W. Wittke on the night of April 26, and stealing some $31.50 in money. Of this amount $7.50 was in cash, and in trying to get rid of it the next day, "Doc" gave the local police the first clue to the alleged theft. "Doc" handed the ticket agent at the depot some of the coin, which was at first thought to be bogus, but which was afterwards found to be good money, and traced back to its owner. "Doc" then took to his heels, and since then has been in these parts only in the incandescent light. He made a visit not long since to Albert E. Snyder's stationery store, where he got $14.00 in money, and a few blank books. For this he was sorry—so he is supposed to have informed Stationer Snyder by mail the next day, returning, under separate cover, the stolen blank books but keeping the loose change to meet incidental expenses. The letter was a specimen of literary skill. It was neatly typewritten on New York stationery, it was not signed, but the profound knowledge of the author as to particulars of the business of the man he had wronged, made it seem evident to the police, that young "Doc" was playing foxy.

For nearly a month now Chief O'Neil has been busy on the case. His men have been instructed to keep a close eye on "Doc's" old hang-outs, and to arrest him at sight. It was thought certain that "Doc" couldn't stay away very much longer. He didn't. Friday night he stole very quietly to the barn of S. D. Winter on First street. Somebody saw him, and told the police. Patrolman Caulfield was deputized to do the capturing, and he did it before young "Doc" could realize what had happened.

Young Kelley was arraigned before Recorder Toney, Saturday, and sent to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury. It is thought that because of his young and tender years—"Doc" has just turned 18—that the boy will be sent to the Rahway Reformatory. Over a year ago, "Doc" stole quite a sum of money from the cash drawer of G. W. Frutchey's drug store, and for this offence he was sent to Jamesburg. "Doc's" picture in Chief O'Neil's gallery of notables gives evidence that "Doc" is no novice in his profession.

Concert by School Glee Club.

Walter Layton Secretly Married.

Walter Layton and Miss May Kelley, both of this place, were secretly married at the Methodist parsonage, Springfield, May 12. The wedding was arranged for without the knowledge of anyone except two friends, J. P. Kohler, of Newark, and E. Davis, of Cranford, who witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Layton have gone to Washington, D. C. on their honeymoon, and on their return they will live in Elizabeth where he is employed. Mr. and Mrs. Layton are both popular, and have a large circle of friends in Westfield.

TO HOLD SPECIAL ELECTION.

First Warders Will Have Chance To Say Whether Voting Machine Shall Stay or Go.

COUNCIL UNANIMOUS IN MATTER.

Date of Special Election Fixed for Tuesday, June 29—Ordinances and Petitions Galore Passed at Regular Meeting.

At the meeting of the Westfield Common Council, Monday night, a special resolution was passed authorizing an election under the law to decide the question of whether the voting machine shall or shall not remain in the First Ward. The election will be held on Tuesday, June 29.

This action was taken by council after a petition signed by more than the required number of registered voters of the First Ward had been received. The petition was presented by Councilman Hohenstein. The council was unanimous in the action, and there was no debate upon the question.

Resolutions and ordinances galore were passed, and bills were ordered paid to the amount of $1,700.00. The bonds of Joseph R. Connolly and A. H. Clark, as commissioners of the sinking fund, were renewed. W. E. Tuttle, Jr., was re-appointed a library trustee for the term of five years. Hearings on all the resolutions taken up were ordered for Monday, June 7. The ordinances to construct a sanitary sewer in Lawrence avenue; to sprinkle Broad street from South avenue to Scotch Plains road with oil; the Harrison avenue improvement; to pave with bluestone flagging Osborne avenue; to grade and pave North avenue from Elmer street to Fourth avenue; to pave both sides of New York avenue; to pave the northwesterly side of First street; to improve Osborne avenue, from North avenue to South avenue; to grade and flag Central avenue, from Grove street to North street; Myrtle avenue to Grove street; macadamizing and recubing Harrison avenue, and the Highland avenue improvement were all passed on first reading. A petition from Dudley avenue residents for the laying of a curb was presented and a hearing set for June 7. The Elm street improvement, to pave Downer street, both sides, from Union avenue to Scotch Plains avenue, were passed on final reading. F. W. Wohlfert asked for permission to make alterations to his building on Broad and Elm streets, and the matter was referred to the building committee.

NEW ITALIAN-AID SOCIETY.

Westfield Citizens Name It For Duke of Abruzzi.

Articles of incorporation were filed Tuesday in the County Clerk's office in Elizabeth by the Duke of Abruzzi Mutual Aid Society in America. The Italian organization is formed in Westfield with more than eighty members. Its objects are to furnish a sick and death benefit, and to make better American citizens of its members. The incorporators are: Michael Baranoch, Luigi Ottaviano, Luigi D. Francisco, Mariano Irussi and Ercolino Di Fiore, all of Westfield.

NEWARK MAN STOPS HORSE.

Wallace Lear Makes Heroic Rescue of Boy at Roselle.

Wallace Lear, of Newark, received two or three kicks in stopping a runaway horse drawing an awning wagon from Elizabeth yesterday afternoon at Roselle. The wagon was standing on Forest avenue in Cranford with a young lad in the wagon minding the horse. The horse was suddenly frightened and started off at a break-neck speed. Lear saw the danger of the boy and tried to stop the horse but the halter broke and left Lear on the ground. Lear, determined to make another try, mounted on the step of a passing automobile and with the permission of the driver followed the running horse. The horse had quite a lead but was overtaken by the automobile near Roselle. Lear then succeeded in stopping the horse after receiving two or three kicks on his legs. The lad in the wagon was not hurt except for a few bruises from the jouncing of the wagon and his efforts to hold on.

Social Meeting of W. C. T. U.

On Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. S. Burhaus, a social meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at which Capt. George E. Benn, secretary of the "Mission Yacht Association" gave a most interesting address on the work of the Association among seamen.

The yacht goes among the vessels entering New York harbor, distributing literature, magazines and papers. It has been in commission twelve years, and can carry from fifty to seventy-five tons of literature.

There are about five million seamen on all waters; one million five hundred thousand enter New York harbor each year, and of the value of this literature to them we have no idea. The work is done principally among deep-sea seamen those who go on long voyages, when for weeks, and in some cases, for months they see nothing but sea and sky, and a few lose their reason, because of the monotony. Sometimes young men who have run away to sea, would return when they reach this port, but there are those who meet them on their arrival and beguile them to drink, and before they are aware, they find themselves without money, and unable to reach their homes. As far as possible this Association tries to safe-guard them against this evil. The average life of the sailor is twelve years. Five hundred libraries are in circulation. The last two years, at Christmas, gifts have been distributed, and the surprise and appreciation manifested have been most gratifying.

If you desire a clear complexion take Foley's Orino Laxative for constipation and liver trouble as it will stimulate these organs and thoroughly cleanse your system, which is what everyone needs in the spring in order to feel well. Sold at Gale's Pharmacy.

ROBERT V. HOFFMAN, Editor.

FRIDAY, MAY 21, 1909.

"WANTED, A DOG WARDEN."

In almost every city, town and hamlet under the sun where there is need for him, the Dog Warden is not to be found. Plainfield has long sought for an industrious, sober, self-respecting citizen who will act as custodian of the pound for the nominal sum of 25c. if you catch a dog unmuzzled and unlicensed on a public thoroughfare. The citizen who might thus secure the public safety and defy hydrophobia is otherwise occupied. He does not feel the call of the wild.

It may be that the office is humble, that it does not provide a stepping stone to some higher plane of public usefulness, or mayhap, the compensation is not an inducement. We know that in Westfield many have been called but few have chosen to accept. Westfield, as Plainfield, is seeking the man. It is a call to duty. Who will volunteer? Do we not hear a far, faint voice in the Big Woods Section murmur drearily to the sparrows: "The job is too menial for a man of my cast?"

So it usually is when the office seeks the man. The man is TOO BIG for the office. And every spring time those who peruse the local prints may read: "Wanted, a Dog Warden for the Town of Westfield. Apply, Town Clerk."

Lawyer Peckham says that thing opposite the Triangle Park is an Automobile College. We presume that the purpose of its foundation is to educate the horses not to fear the honk honk of the touring car—and this in the light of Herbert Spencer's dictum that compulsory education is an indication that a retrograde movement has begun. Well, "Horses is Horses," as Farmer Jenkins used to say, and not so much in demand as they used to be. Still we deplore their sad state, and feel sorry for the scenery, and the humans who dwell near the campus.

And still the tariff burlesque continues, while the business interests of the country suffer the tortures of oratorical bombast.

Where in Hokus Pokus is the Right Hon. Bill Pensley? Cheer up, Bill!

Wonder if New York State courts are free of the Insanity Plea?

Spring is here, but where are the Mosquitoes?

Messrs. Harkrader, Webb, Fisher, Bishop, and Burhans went to Dunellen on Monday evening to organize a chapter of the Methodist Brotherhood. After several inspiring addresses the organization was effected.

Mrs. Robert Fairbairn will not sail for England on May 22, on account of the recent illness of her brother-in-law, Mr. Raynor. Mr. Fairbairn will leave on the appointed date and will wait for Mrs. Fairbairn on the other side.

In an article published a few weeks ago, it was stated that Elmer Woodruff preferred a charge of assault and battery against one George Wolfe of Grove street. This should have read David Wolfe. Mr. George Wolfe had no part in the affair and did not live on Grove street at the time the offense was alleged to have been committed.

M. E. LEAGUERS RECEIVE.

Present and Former Pastors and Wives
Entertained Last Night.

The reception of the Men's League of the First M. E. Church to their pastor and former members last night was a thorough success. All of the three hundred present enjoyed an evening of great pleasure. President Harkrader who was to preside was called to Virginia on business and sent a telegram stating his unexpected trip and his regret at not being able to be present. Mr. Bishop, chairman of the entertainment committee presided and made the opening address. The program of the evening was: Selection, orchestra; address, Dr. O. M. Anderson, of Plainfield, former pastor of the First M. E. Church; address, Dr. Hayes; solo, Miss Mooney; presentation of baskets of flowers to Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Hayes, by Mr. Webb; solo, Mr. W. H. Orr; selection, orchestra; solo, Miss Mooney; selection, orchestra. Miss Baile, accompanist.

Captain Marsh Property Sold.

Captain Marsh an old time resident of this town visited Westfield in the early sixties and seeing the great future of the little village purchased extensive tracts of land. A few years later he settled in Westfield as his home occupying the dwelling in which Dr. Wright now resides. A few years ago Captain Marsh finding it necessary to leave Westfield appointed Wm. S. Welch & Son the sole agents of his property. Great success has resulted in the sale of the property through this agency. It was reported to a representative of the STANDARD today that they have just sold the last tract of his property lying just beyond Dudley avenue between Highland avenue and Elm street. The purchasers, a New York syndicate, are planning to improve the property in the near future. It is also reported that this agency have this week sold nine lots in Manor Park and have rented a dwelling on North avenue to A. Hallard. They have made several loans amounting to over $20,000. They believe this will be a big year for selling Westfield real estate.

Folger-Meyer.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Councilman and Mrs. R. F. Hohenstein Monday night when Miss Bertha Meyer, a sister of Mrs. Hohenstein, became the bride of Fellowes Penbody Folger, of Buffalo, N. Y. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. W. Hayes. Only the immediate families and a few intimate friends were present. After congratulations and refreshments, the newly-wedded couple left for a wedding trip and upon their return will reside in Buffalo.

Miss Margaret Glendening Lawrence of Deland, Florida, was in town for three days last week the guest of Mrs. Charles Urban on Addison street. Miss Lawrence thinks that if she should be away from Westfield for another year she not be able to find Lawrence Oatley at all so rapidly is Westfield filling itself up with handsome villas. During Miss Lawrence's eighteen months absence more than twenty substantial residences have been built on Park Slope precincts.

NOTICE!

I hereby give notice to my patrons and the Westfield public that the milk of the Westfield Dairy is no longer sold through the stores. All persons who desire to purchase milk from this dairy will be supplied from the wagon direct. I handle no milk but that produced on my own farm from my own dairy. I can be reached by notice to the driver or by postal card. On and after May 1st the price of milk will be 8 cents a quart.

Fidelity Trust Company

NEWARK, N. J.

New Jersey's Great Popular Financial Institution, Through Its Many Carefully
Managed Departments, Affords
THE HIGHEST USEFULNESS TO YOU

Banking
Department
Affords Security and Convenience

Starting in 1890, this department has grown rapidly, its amount of deposits having increased more than 125 per cent. during the past eight years. Accounts are solicited upon favorable terms. Immediate and careful attention is given to all business.

Savings
Department
Offers Services of a Great Institution to All

Opened for business in 1902, has advanced with rapid strides, the last six years showing advance in deposits of over 500 per cent., and in number of depositors of nearly 700 per cent.; over 6,000 depositors now using this department. 4 per cent. is paid on amounts of $1,000 or under, 3 1-2 per cent. on amounts over $1,000. Accounts starting with even small amounts are urged.

Trust
istration of Your Estates*

The original business of the Fidelity has not only advanced greatly in number of trusts, but in their value and importance. The facilities and resources of the Fidelity Trust Company make possible such profit and satisfaction to beneficiaries and heirs that this branch of the business is continually develop- ing itself, each trust bringing others, as might well be expected.

The Fidelity service consists of trained, expert, individual attention, together with the benefits arising from the combined resources of the entire institution.

In this department advice as to the laws of descent, the preparation of wills, the administration of es- tates, the exercise of guardianship for children and all the duties incident to the faithful execution of trusts is given with the best legal and expert service obtainable.

Title
Department
Guarantees Title to Your Home Forever

In this branch Fidelity Trust Company is particularly strong. For years the company has been ac- cumulating a mass of facts, information and records of the most intimate character regarding real estate throughout New Jersey, the value of which cannot even be estimated, so thoroughly have these re- searches been made.

This data is at hand constantly for use in connection with the searching and guaranteeing of titles to real estate in New Jer- sey, and taken as it is, in connection with the careful investigations made right on the ground, as well as the usual searches of records, it makes the work of this department of a most superior and important character.

That these facts are generally recognized is indicated by the growth in number of applications for searches. During the past five years, for example, nearly 9,000 such searches have been made—being more than double the number for the pre- ceding period.

A Fidelity guaranty of title is something to rely upon. The holder need have no worry when he knows that the Fidelity is behind his deed. It protects against all possible undiscovered or even undiscoverable defects.

Mortgage
Department
Loans Money on Real Estate

Includes the placing of loans on real estate and the sale of mortgages. Fidelity is always ready to make conservative loans on well-located real estate, and holds many first-class mortgages for sale, ac- companied by guarantee of title, and making excellent investments for individuals, estates and savings institutions.

Safe
Deposit
Department
Secures Your Valuables

This department has made rapid strides, from 1,000 safe deposit boxes in 1901 to over 3,000 at the present date, showing conclusively that it has filled a needed place in the business requirements of New Jersey. Here can be stored your large, bulky valuables in burglar and fireproof storage vaults, while steel safe deposit boxes for securities and small valuables can be obtained from $5.00 up.

TWENTY-ONE YEARS OF SUCCESS

show how comprehensively the FIDELITY TRUST COMPANY enters into the business life of New Jersey.
Its present financial condition is the best guaranty of dependability.

THE LIBRARY.

The Library's Part in Education.

What constitutes the measure of a human being? A human is worth to himself just what he is capable of enjoying and to the community he is worth what he is capable of imparting. Those two things constitute the true worth of every man and woman on earth. They cannot give out largely unless they take in largely. Therefore it is necessary that we develop all the faculties to the utmost in every human being. There was a day when the tendency was to measure a man by what he got out of the community. He did not know it and we did not know it. Now we measure a man by what the community gets out of him. He who renders a great service to the community gets a great reward and he gets it immediately. Most of us are rewarded beyond our deserts.

How have we undertaken to secure intelligence and character so far? We have trusted to the home and church for character and to the schools for intelligence. We have been at work on our public schools for years and we are doing foolish things today. Some of these things we know about and cannot stop because of the momentum; others we do not know about because we are not yet intelligent enough. We have put lots of money in them and fed them thousands of our children. On an average we give a child 5.4 years of school life. That is rather a narrow portal through which to expect citizens of intelligence to enter upon the duties of citizenship. Some children have been able to go far beyond and some have kept far below this. We are doing this thing and do not know how to remedy it. The strange thing about it is that we have forged ahead so rapidly that we have reached a point where we must have more intelligence and begin to understand what the public library is. It is the great, persistent, continuous means of education through life. The school gives us the foundation. The public library rounds it out and completes the circle of activity. The school gives the beginning and the public library tells you there is no end. The school deals in generalities and the public library deals in specialties. The public library is the supplement of the school and the community can no more safely avoid it than the children can avoid school. If it is necessary to have a compulsory education law, I am almost ready for a law to compel adults to use the library. Public libraries should be scattered through the community as much as schools. You say that the child must not be required to walk too far to school. The same condition is true of our public libraries.

How do I know that life is worth living unless I learn that somebody else has found it so? Where will I find that? In a book! How shall I know that victories are to be won unless I find the records in books? Men and women who have been successful in life are telling us of this on the printed pages. This is uplifting. A book is nothing but an individual. If you sit down with one of Howell's books you sit down with Howell. If you have a public library you have the best men and women of the world as neighbors.

The public library is the hostess who invites you to meet these men and women and will let you sit out with them under the palms if you will. Because of this, the public library is an integral part of public education. The two belong together. My own belief is that if we take hold of an American community, realizing that each is dependent upon the other and that success and happiness are based upon the highest development and character of each individual, I do not care what clouds may appear upon the horizon or whatever wind shall blow, the American community will stand four square to all the winds that blow, forever and forever more.—Dr. James H. Caulfield, Columbia University.

TRADITIONS OF THE NORTH AMERICAN INDIANS.

Origin of Longfellow's Immortal Epic, "The Song of Hiawatha."

When Schoolcraft, the explorer and ethnologist, went to live among the Ojibways at Garden River, their traditional camping ground near the extreme northwestern corner of Lake Huron, he quickly recognized them as the most intelligent and refined Indians he had ever met. He married into the tribe and in time became acquainted with the legends and folk-lore contained in Longfellow's "Hiawatha."

The tribe was ruled in those days by Beek-wij-jí-ní-ní, son of the renowned Shing-wauk. It was from the former that Schoolcraft learned the legends, and although it has been stated that Longfellow personally visited Beek-wij-jí-ní-ní, there is good authority for thinking that Schoolcraft related the stories to Longfellow.

Most of us, however, will be slow to believe that such marvelous accuracy and local color could have been secured at second hand. It is said that Beek-wij-jí-ní-ní thought to his dying day that he had told the legends personally to Longfellow and felt a debt of gratitude accordingly.

An arrangement of the various scenes and incidents of this story of "Hiawatha" has been made by Glenn Clarke who has embellished them with genuine Indian melodies of the various tribes—songs and dances gathered from the Indians on their stamping grounds by Arthur Farwell, the author of the National Movement for American Music.

This presentation is most delightful when participated in by young folks and the people of Westfield will have an opportunity of witnessing it on the 28th inst. when the entertainment will be given under the auspices of the Boys Brigade, who will be assisted by their girl friends and by local musical talent.

Mr. Clarke's reputation as an originator of entertainments is an assurance of the merit of the production.

The Dairyman's profits depend upon the Full Milk Pail and the amount of butter-fat the milk contains. Both these important items are assured by the regular use of Fairfield's Blood Tonic and Milk Producer for Cattle Only. It purifies the blood, increases and enriches the milk and removes all garlic taste. Sold under written guarantee by Patrick Traynor.

"It is astonishing," remarked a well known authority on Diseases of the skin, "how such a large number of people, especially ladies, are, by attractively written advertisements, induced to purchase some one of the many so called Beauty Creams now on the market, not knowing, of course, that they mostly contain oily or greasy substances that clog the pores of the skin and are, for that reason, the very worst thing that they could possibly use. My treatment of Pimples, Blackheads, Blisters and all eruptions of the skin, are as follows and has invariably proved very successful. Wash the face carefully every night before retiring with warm water and a little oat meal tied up in a small cloth bag, then after drying well, use the following inexpensive and perfectly harmless prescription, which can be filled at any Drug Store. Clearol 1/2 oz. Ether 1 oz. Alcohol 7 oz. Use this mixture on the face as often as possible during the day, but use night and morning any way, allowing it to remain on the face at least ten minutes, then the powdery film may be wiped off. Do not wash the face for some little time after using. By following this simple treatment, you will soon have a clear and Brilliant Complexion."

What's in McClure's?

George Kibbe Turner, in the leading article in the June McClure's shows how Tammany Hall, with the aid of crooks, thugs and the lowest order of parasites, controls New York City elections; Prof. E. T. Brewster contributes an article on "The Animal Mind from the Inside" in which he declares that animals cannot reason and that men do not reason anything like as much as they are commonly supposed to; Marion Marlon Hamilton Carter tells of the great work being done for "The Conservation of the Defective Child" by Dr. Witmer of the University of Pennsylvania; George F. Parker writes of Cleveland's part in the insurance crisis and President Taft explains his attitude toward organized labor. There are stories by Elsie Singmaster, Hubert Footner, Viola Roseboro', P. O. Macfarlane, Harriet Lammis Smith and the last installment of Mrs. Humphry Ward's great novel, "Marriage in a Mode."

If you want to feel well, look well and be well, take take Foley's Kidney Remedy. It tones up the kidneys and bladder, purifies the blood and restores health and strength. Pleasant to take and contains no harmful drugs. Why not commence today? Sold at Gale's Pharmacy.

Roads to Wisdom.
There are three ways by which we can come to wisdom: First, by means of meditation; this is the noblest way. Second, by means of imitation; this is the easiest way, and third, by means of experience; this is the most difficult way.—Confucius.

Sermon in Five Lines.
Some people, in addition to crossing bridges before they are reached, go to the trouble and expense of building bridges where there is never likely to be any water.—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Choice is One's Own.
Some persons assimilate only what is ugly and evil from the same moral circumstances which supply good and beautiful results—the fragrance of celestial flowers—to the daily life of others.—Nathaniel Hawthorne.

Her Vacation.
She has looks, youth, money and little trace of the maternal instinct—she was born to be a widow.—From "An Adventure in Exile," by Richard Duffy.

Making a Pistol Safe.
When you wish to show a person how to use a revolver remove the cylinder, put on the safety catch and keep your finger off the trigger.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Fidgetables.
"Kitty" said her mother, rethinking, "you must sit still when you are at the table." "I can't, mamma," protested the little girl, "I'm a fidgetarian."

Was Not to be Improved.
There is an antique anecdote, but one so much to the point that it will bear repetition, which throws a side-light on Mendelssohn's acute criticism. A pupil confessed himself unable to solve a problem in counterpoint—did not know where to put another note. "I am glad of that," was the response, "for neither do I."

Served His Country Well.
Scipio Africanus was one of the greatest soldiers, save Julius Caesar, in Roman history. He defeated Hannibal and his Carthaginians at Zama, a city of Carthage, on October 19, in the year 202 B. C., and gave to Rome the ascendancy over the then known world.

Keep Close to Nature.
For since his blessed kingdom was first established in the green fields, by the lakeside, with humble fishermen for its subjects, the easiest way into it hath ever been through the wicket-gate of a lowly and grateful fellowship with nature.—Henry Van Dyke.

Severe Operation.
"I never saw anybody that suffered from throat trouble as much as my Uncle George used to," said Mrs. Lapsing. "He had it so bad that finally the doctors had to make an incision in his sarcophagus and remove a part of it."

Keeping Weeds from the Mind.
If you don't want dull thoughts to come, you must keep them away as I keep the weeds out of my bit of garden. I fill the beds so full of flowers that there isn't any room for weeds.—Daniel Quorn.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS.

Do Not Endanger Life When a Westfield Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Westfield testimony:

Mrs. H. Wragg, 57 Elmer St., Westfield, N. J., says: "My husband complained of sharp pains through the small of his back, which extended into his loins. He was also greatly annoyed by headaches and dizzy spells. The natural condition of the kidney secretions plainly showed that his kidneys were affected. Deciding to try a reliable kidney remedy, he procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Frutcher's Pharmacy. In a short time, the kidney secretions became clear, the headaches ceased, and the pains in his back were eliminated. He is now feeling ever so much better, and gives Doan's Kidney Pills the credit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Bored.

An article in the London Spectator on "Bored" has called forth the following definition of a bore which was given by the late Bishop Mackarness of Oxford: "A bore is a man who will talk about himself when you want to talk about yourself." Sydney Smith is said to be responsible for the original definition.

International Inquisitiveness.

We are all engaged in an effort to learn more about the rest of the world. The Germans are curious about the French, the French are trying to understand the British, the Americans are striving to find out wherein we differ from Europeans in general.—Saturday Evening Post.

He Wanted Some.

The banquet table was spread and the guests about to be summoned. "Are you sure that there are no reporters present?" anxiously asked the host of the butler. "I've made certain of it, sir." "Then hustle out and get a few," rejoined the host.

To the Grave and Beyond.

Kim Yunwika, a Chinaman, was recently made the subject of a strange jail sentence. After being condemned for life by a Chinese court he escaped and when captured he was tried by another court and a further term of punishment was given him.

One Worthy Remembrance.

The brightest spot in a long and intimate experience with the telephone is that once some one called on the wrong number and got us by mistake and didn't blame us for it.—Ohio State Journal.

Consider the Difference.

Statisticians inform us that the cost of living has increased 250 per cent. during the last 100 years. Still, it will have to be admitted that living is worth a good deal more than it was 100 years ago.

Mr. Speculator or Home Seeker

Dear Sir:

You are invited to consult with us on all matters pertaining to Real Estate and Insurance. We would suggest that you call at either our New York Office, Room 407 at 30 Church St., [Hudson Terminal Building] or our Westfield Office, 221 and 223 Broad St., at your earliest convenience.

If you desire our advice as to relative values in renting, buying or selling vacant plots, houses, farms or acreage, we feel we may be of service to you. Consult us before buying, and if you have property for sale or exchange please list early.

Remember our New York Office is always open to our clients, consequently in listing here at Westfield you are also listed in New York, and are entitled to the services of our salesmen there.

Yours respectfully,
The Company.

The Hartford Fire Insurance Company

For ninety-nine years the Hartford has insured against loss by fire, and in that time has built up the largest fire insurance business in America. It has not only promptly paid every individual loss, but has given safety and satisfaction to its policyholders in all the conflagrations of American history.

The Hartford stands to-day with large assets and ample financial resources the leader among fire companies. But its proudest asset is its reputation for commercial honor and good faith. It will sell you honest and safe insurance. Losses paid "Cash Without Discount." Is not this the company you want?

New Jersey's Greatst Mail Order Organiza- tion.

WE are justly proud of our MAIL ORDER SYSTEM. We feel that it is one of the strongest links in the chain of this great store's success. We want you to use it—test it thoroughly and allow us to demonstrate its many splendid advantages. The Bamberger Mail Order System is not the result of a day, but the culmination of years of painstaking efforts. In fact, this branch of our business is so perfectly organized that you may shop as quickly and conveniently by mail as in person. There are no errors—no delays—satisfaction is snugly packed with each parcel we send out. If you are not a patron (which is highly improbable) send in a trial order and you'll quickly realize the truth of the foregoing statements.

THE WAFER MAN EXPLAINS.

stops he detects a strange face while four or five cents away.

Westfield's news man at the station is gifted with an unusually good memory and though handicapped by the absence of one arm makes his good one do duty for both.

During the winter I have noticed among other things that five minutes before train time not half a dozen commuters had arrived and then in the short interval preceding the arrival of the train two hundred were awaiting the train. Fully half of these buy papers and for a great many change has to be made, and the proper paper has to be selected from the supply under the dealer's good arm. This means some quick thinking as well as quick work.

And the "All Aboard" of the conductor does not mean the end of that train's supply for often there are belated passengers from the southern end, and I have seen as many as four commuters on as many platforms of the rear coaches get their paper "on the fly," pretty much as mail clerk's take on mail with their pouch cutters.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETES GET THEIR REWARD OF MERIT.

The Westfield High School held a contribution dance and ceremonies for the awarding of W's, numerals and class banners in football and basketball last Friday evening in the chapel of the Washington School. Over forty couples enjoyed an evening's dance while many others saw and heard the awarding.

Mr. Springstead, one of the High School faculty, presented the football "W's," the basketball "W's" and the class numerals, seventy-eight in all. In Mr. Springstead's speech, he spoke of the benefit of athletics in a High School, the hard fight that Westfield H. S. had made in the recent years, and of the success achieved considering the handicap other schools had over them.

Dr. J. J. Savitz presented the Junior Class (1910) with the inter-class championship banners with these words, "I take especial pleasure in awarding these banners of championship to the boys and girls of the Junior Class." In his speech Dr. Savitz spoke of school athletics and the results.

Miss Kate Pencheon was given a pair of gold cuff links as a coach and referee of the Girls' Basketball Association. Darrell Losee then stepped forward and presented Mr. McCutcheon with a pair of gold cuff links in behalf of the Boys Athletic Association. Mr. Springstead and Mr. McCutcheon have both coached and refereed the scholars and games and in fact kept the pupils interested and zealous about athletics.

After the awarding all enjoyed a dance to the strains of Wetton's orchestra. The chapel was beautifully decorated with college flags and the side lights were pink, making the hall look very attractive. Mrs. Ludlow served refreshments after the first part. The committee in charge was, Darrell Losee, chairman, Misses Marion Demman, Mildred Bunce, Adele Coddling and Annette Gladwin, Messrs. Springstead, McCutcheon, Raymond Cherry and Edwin Bush.

The patronesses were: Mrs. J. J. Savitz, Mrs. T. D. Bunce, Mrs. O. H. Demman, Mrs. C. N. Coddling, Mrs. H. W. Gladwin, Mrs. F. A. Kinch, Mrs. W. J. Alpers, Mrs. W. Sisserson, Mrs. P. M. Collins, Mrs. J. B. Wilson and Mrs. O. D. Losee.

Those who were awarded with Honor athletic insignia were: Football W's—Edwin Bush, manager, Herbert Buckley, Fairfield Foster, Raymond Cherry, Harry Bill, Roger Browne, Stanley Reese, Robert Koyes, Wilson Sisserson, Sergeant Bush, Charles Taylor and Richard Doerfer.

Girls' Varsity Basketball Team—Misses Adele Coddling, Mrs. Kate Pencheon, Mildred Bunce, Gladys Russell, Gertrude Lack, Marion and Jessie Tice, Edith M. Gladwin.

Boys Varsity Basketball Team—Darrell Losee, Manager, George Delatour, Jr., Edwin Bush, R. Cherry, R. Browne, Harry Parker, W. Sisserson.

Class Numerals—1009 Girls—Anna Bent, Frances Russell, Marjorie Philip, Annette Gladwin, Ethel Taggart and Edith Hastings.

1009 Boys—Edwin Bush, H. Parker, R. Browne, Donald Taggart, Homer Miller, Harry Bill, D. Losee.

M. & B. Suit Sale Ends Saturday Night

Men's $16 to $30 $13.75
Spring Suits at ::

Mr. Man, have you taken advantage of this Extraordinary Opportunity to provide a smartly tailored high-grade Suit for $13.75 that you would ordinarily have to pay $16 to $30 for?

Hundreds of men have, and they've saved enough coin by the operation to pay for a good time on Decoration Day. If you haven't benefited by this Sale, you still have till Saturday night to do it.

Even this unusual store has never quite equaled this Suit Sale. In both suits of our own make and those which we acquired from a leading manufacturer at a big price concession the patterns are a bit more attractive than we have ever shown.

Every garment is unquestioned in quality and style. Not a suit was made to sell for less than $14.00 and from that up to $30.00. There are conservative as well as radical models, in this season's new gray shades and fads, as well as blacks.

Remember, the Sale Ends To-morrow Night. There'll be the usual rush and wisdom suggests that YOU come in early.

Men's Silk Neckwear at Half

Regular 50 Cent
4-in-Hands : : 25c

This opportunity to get two regular 50c Silk Scarfs for the price of one is being taken advantage of by men who know a good thing when they see it.

The patterns are this Spring's newest colorings, in stripes, plaids, pin checks and figures.

These are the slickest lot of silk four-in-hands you've ever seen. Just the same quality that you've paid 50c for many a time.

That's what we sell them for regularly. Your choice, Special at 25c each.

Woman's Semi-Annual Shoe Sale

Regular $4.00
Oxfords & Pumps $2.85

Our Semi-Annual Shoe Sales for women always present unusual attractions, but this sale has created extraordinary interest because the styles are smarter and more attractive than we've ever offered, and the saving just as great.

They're oxfords in blucher style, Two Eyelet and three Eyelet Ties, and Strap Pumps. The leathers are black, tan and gray, suede, russet calf, gun metal and patent calf. Low, medium and high Cuban heels; medium and narrow toes. All sizes and widths.

White Sale Virtues That Really Count

After all, it doesn't interest a woman much to know how hard we've worked to get a White Sale ready, or what we think of it when it's done. The question is, what SHE thinks of it!

And on that point—the point of its successfulness, we acknowledge her to be our most competent critic.

Women like this White Sale—amazingly—to judge by the way the pretty muslin garments have gone. And we guess—

That it's because the MATERIALS are of the sort a woman would naturally buy herself, if she were making the underclothes. (Only, with such low prices as these for finished garments, it would be a waste of time and very false economy.) Most of the nainsooks and cambrics are well-known brands, put in by the makers by our express orders and frequently with much grumbling.

And because the WORK is so neat and careful, and the embroideries and laces (again of our own choosing) are in such good taste. Edgings and insertions, for instance, on a nightgown, are woven to match, not just "nearly alike."

And further because any woman can see with half an eye that there's no such thing as a skimpy garment in the whole gathering. We don't permit that easy way of cheapening the garments to make seemingly low prices. (Spread out the petticoats, the chemises, the nightgowns, and see how full they are around the bottom.)

And lastly, because the VARIETY is great enough to please any woman—plain, practical garments, elaborate, exquisite ones—with many an exclusive design or novelty—but NEVER one in poor taste.

The Splendid White Sale Assortments Are Kept Intact Through the Whole Month of May

The price-ranges include:

Nightgowns at $1, $1.50, $2, $2.25 to $2.4

Chemises at $1, $1.50, $2.50, $2.75, $3 to $6.75

Corset Covers at 50c, 75c, $1 up to $5

Petticoats at $1, $1.50, $2, $2.50 up to $10.50

Short Petticoats at 50c, 75c, $1 up to $3

Drawers at 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50 up to $6

Combination Garments at $1, $1.50, $2, $2.50 up to $10.75

In the Basement Store, the following excellently made garments at lower prices:

Nightgowns at 35c, 50c and 75c

Drawers at 25c, 35c and 50c

Corset Covers at 25c, 35c and 50c

Chemises at 25c, 35c, and 50c

Petticoats at 50c and $1

"Let's Go to the Wanamaker Galleries" A Remark Frequently Prompted by a Whole Day's Program of Attractions

It is not difficult to discover the subtle charm that lures so many daily visitors to the Galleries. There is no spot in New York whose attractions touch people so profoundly because its exhibits are so eloquent of human thought and invention and so full of the HOME INTEREST, and where, we warn you, you are likely to spend the entire day when you "go to the Galleries."

Here is a brief outline of a few of the Galleries' more prominent and seasonable exhibits and attractions in Home-Furnishings:

FIRST GALLERY—Anniversary Month of the Pianoforte Salons which are of such a sumptuous character, and exhibit so many makes and patterns of the world's celebrated pianos and players, that, combined with the magnificent Auditorium and Grand Organ, they are one of the sights of New York. Free demonstrations of Angelus Payer Pianos, and Organ Recital—the latter at 11 o'clock A. M.—daily during the month.

SECOND GALLERY—A world's exposition of Tablewares, and one of the most interesting Art Salons in this country, with the "Fairland of Lighting Fixtures and Lamps" hard by. Especially attractive wares for out-of-town houses.

THIRD GALLERY—One of the largest exhibits of Upholstery Stuffs and Laces ever assembled. Special display of Summer Draperies and Caseiment Hangings. Fitted sections of cottage rooms and color-schemes. Interesting price-features.

FOURTH GALLERY—An area bounded by a city block, entirely devoted to Floor Coverings and Rugs. Summer effects in Floor Coverings, grouped near the Home of Quaintness: "Ye Signs of Ye Olde Fashioned Rug Shoppe." Many unusual price-attractions.

FIFTH, SIXTH and SEVENTH GALLERIES—The famous "House of the Future" whose visitors total about a million and a half people annually. Also the Cressian Walnut and Gold Salons and forty additional perfectly appointed specimen rooms for every type of house or cottage. Furniture of every known desirable style and price exhibited in upwards of three acres of floor space.

SEVENTH GALLERY—Interesting displays of Hygienic Bedding and manufacture. Model Office Suite and Office Equipment. Summer Porch and Garden Furniture.

EIGHTH GALLERY—One of the most charming Displays of Antiquities and Pictures in New York—and the commodious, light Wanamaker Model Restaurant.

DR. MORGAN WRITES HIS AUTOBIOGRAPHY.

His Boyhood Impressions of New York During the First Year of the War of the Rebellion.

[As readers of the STANDARD are aware, our fellow-townsmen Dr. Morgan on the completion of his twenty-fifth year of continuous service as President of The New York Shakespeare Society began the publication in NEW SHAKESPEARIANA of his Autobiography as far as it touched Shakespeare controversy. We are now selecting for printing in the STANDARD some of the chapters of that Autobiography which are of more general interest.—EDITOR STANDARD.]

But even this disclosure attracted small attention. The City was in furor. Every day regiments and companies of splendid looking men with bright uniforms and glittering bayonets marched down Fifth Avenue and Broadway between sidewalks lined and cheering. "How many of them came back? Where is the Army of the Potomac?" somebody asked General Hancock. "Buried between the Rappahannock and the James," was his reply.

As summer came on I went to Staten Island to the residence of my uncle, Dr. P. Appleton, in Richmond Terrace, New Brighton. I don't remember a breakfast or noon-day meal when we boys did not rush from the table at the sound of music on the Kill von Kull as steamboats loaded to the rails with soldiers sailed by. At that time the Government sent its soldiers to Perth Amboy or around to Camden by water. (It sounds like ancient history indeed to remember that in those days there was no Pennsylvania Railroad—but that the only quick route into Philadelphia was the "Camden and Amboy Railroad" whose service was so precarious that John Phoenix (the predecessor of Artemus Ward) suggested the preparation for the Church Liturgy of "A Form of Prayer for those about to travel on the Camden and Amboy Railway" and in his "Phoenix's Pictorial or Second Story Back-Bedroom Companion" (a burlesque on "Glenison's Pictorial or Drawing Room Companion" which was the first American illustrated newspaper—Leslie's came in with the War) he had "a view on the Camden and Amboy Railway." This view was simply one of the little newspaper blocks that used to be printed as headings to advertisements. This block was a railway coach reposing on its roof!

Old timers will remember the Quarantine Riots. We did not remember them as so very much of "Riots," after we had the Draft Riots (of which I have two stories to tell later concerning persons who afterwards were residents of Westfield). But they were important in their day. The gist was, that the Government bought a big tract of land at Castleton, Staten Island—nearer to New Brighton perhaps than Castleton and surrounded it with a high board fence for maintaining a Quarantine. As Staten Island was full of homes the presence of sick and diseased people was not relished. The Riots only took the form of orderly processions and public meetings—except in one instance when the fence was pulled down by an otherwise orderly crowd. But it had its effect. The Government restored the fence but discontinued the Quarantine.

When the War broke out, here therefore, was a huge corral for soldiers! And it was soon full. And at sundown we boys after watching for steamboats all day would go down to Quarantine to see the sunset parade and inspection and the evening salute to the Stars and Stripes! Quarantine was used for collecting a certain grade of soldiers, to wit, such as were gathered, not from rich homes and from the Colleges, but from the slums and the "floaters" of Bovey lodging houses. I used to see them as they were collected while waiting for their uniforms—many a man with an old coffee bag taking the place of the expected trousers. The famous "Billy Wilson's Regiment" (which was said to have been recruited by "Billy" Wilson—a notorious Heeler from "de Ate"—one of the morning crowd of arrests for "Drunka" in the police courts) was placed here. We all remember that Gen. Scott refused to accept this Regiment, saying "my soldiers are gentlemen!" and that the regiment was sent ultimately to the Dry Tortugas—and that once when attacked at night by Confederates not a man of them used his bayonet but pulled a knife or used his fists! At any rate that was the story. Many other stories were told of this "Billy Wilson Regiment." A respected city clergyman raised five hundred dollars for them and called with great ceremony to present it to Col. Billy. He made the presentation speech but on feeling in his pocket for the five hundred dollars it was gone. "O, never mind," said Col. Billy, "its in the regiment somewhere!" Of course the greatest deprivation to Col. Billy's boys was the whiskey! But it did not take them long to supply that want, which I will tell in the next issue.

The Real Teacher.

I care not whether a man is called a tutor, an instructor, or a full professor, nor whether any academic degrees adorn his name; nor how many facts or symbols of facts he has stored away in his brain. If he has these four powers: clear sight, quick imagination, sound reason, and right, strong will, I call him an educated man, and fit to be a teacher.—Henry Van Dyke.

Must Have the Wishbone.

A Connecticut man gleefully announces that he has succeeded in breeding a duck which has no breast-bone. Nobody who has ever carved a duck will object to this new variety, but the ambitious Connecticut man should be warned that any attempt to produce a chicken without a wishbone will be resented by several million children, to say nothing of grown-ups.

Cross Breeding a Success.

For the last few years the Japanese government has been steadily buying stallions, both thoroughbred and hackney, in England, America, France and Hungary. The government representative recently reported officially that a great improvement had already been made in the class of young stock as the outcome of crossing these imported sires with the native mares.

Teacher of Physiology.

"Now we will dissect this odd little animal. But first, Jimmy Phalg, will you tell me what we have here?" Jimmy—"Faith, and it's called a bat, sir." Teacher—"Very well. Now, how many kinds of bats are there?" Jimmy—"There are folve. The black bat, the red bat, the acrobat, the baseball bat and the brickbat, sir."

The Immortals.

Two women were standing recently before some original torsos of gods in an art museum not far from Boston. After gazing at the marbles for some moments one of the women was heard to remark to her companion: "To think that they were once alive!"—Life.

When Success Came.

"Was he a drinking man?" asked counsel of a woman who was testifying on the stand in regard to the habits of her husband. "Well," was the reply, "for the first six months after our marriage he didn't drink any to speak of, but after that he drank to great success."

Sale of Wash Goods

We do not intend making a noisy announcement—that is, noise and nothing else.

We wish to tell simply of the soft, clinging, handsome summery wash stuffs, materials of quality that are marvels of daintiness and beauty and bring thoughts of comfort for warm days.

While at the regular price they are not expensive, the reductions that will prevail during the sale are quite important. The items that follow do not tell the whole story, but are a fair representation of the goods on sale.

59c Yard Wide Nippon Silk 37½c Yard

These goods are so near all silk it would take an expert to tell you the difference. That is the reason you see them advertising as silk, but sold in the Wash Goods Dept.; the most beautiful plain color fabric you ever saw for anywhere near the price, much better than pongees, because it has nippon strands running through the goods, which give it strength and beauty. All the new shades, including old rose, mulberry, natural linen, new gray and all the regular colors, including the finest fast black; reg. 59c yard; special, yard..... 37½c

29c to 50c Fast Black Wash Goods 19c

We have a reputation on black wash goods of years standing, as we never sell any but tested fabrics, insuring you when purchasing that the goods will not crock or fade; we have just made a purchase of a lot of fast black wash fabrics in plain and fancy weaves in all cotton and half silk goods; worth from 29c to 50c a yard, on sale while they last, yard at..... 19c

12½c Linen Finish Suiting 6c a Yard

Plain color linen finish suitings, one of this season's most wanted wash fabrics in three shades of blue; two shades of tan; also white. You can't buy better wearing material for wash dresses for ladies or children. The quality is actually worth 12½c a yard. The colors are the ones most used in this goods. 29 inches wide, the quantity is very large, but will not last long at the sale price, yard..... 6c

Men's Underwear

We shall specially cater to the man this season. Every popular brand in all sizes can be had at the Schaefer store. Only Standard Brands in this line.

Otis Balbriggan, 50c each
Porous Knits, 50c "
B. V. D. Coat Shirt & Knee Drawers, 50c
"American Hosiery" Lisle, 1.00 each

The sale of Union Suits has doubled and tripled. We have kept pace with the demand and can supply any call for this most popular style.

Sanspareil Shirts

We made a change in our brand of negligee shirts in response to the many demands for Sanspareil and have been delighted with the results. Two shipments have come and gone, we have just opened a third lot and the season has just started. We believe we have the best 1.00 and 1.50 value in the market and our sales have proved it.

Standard Brands of Corsets in Batiste

We have greatly extended the department having added several new brands.

Warner's Rust Proof, Royal Worcester, Nemo, c/Bala Spirite, Thompson's Glove Fitting, La Resista (spiral springs) R. & G. Tapering Waist, Kabo (non-rusting eyelets), Ferries Waists for Ladies and Children, DeBevoise Brassieres, Sahlin Corsets.

Ladies' Union Suits and Separate Garments

Union Suits have practically supplanted the two-piece garments. The new directoire fashions, make them a necessity. They are more comfortable, fit better around the waist and cost no more than the old style garments.

News of Interest About the Churches and People There.

Mr. W. A. Dempsey, of Westfield, preached an excellent sermon in the Mountside Chapel last Sunday, his theme being, "The Church." The quartette, Mrs. John Colow, Mrs. Robert Lading, Mr. R. P. Greenes and Mr. B. F. Thomas, sang "Seeking the Lost." Next Sunday Rev. Mr. Snodgrass of Plainfield will be in the pulpit. Rev. Mr. Snodgrass has offered an oil painting to the pulpit who brings in the most new scholars.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Mountside Chapel will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the Chapel where plans for holding a short-cake festival will be discussed.

Thomas Benman and Clarence Robbins returned Tuesday from a bicycle trip to Easton, Penn. The trip took them one week.

Mrs. Benman of Mountside has recently been taken ill, and is under the care of Dr. Harrison.

Mrs. Ball is slowly recovering, under the care of Dr. Kinch, from her fall on the ice last winter.

Road Master Heckel has recently covered many parts of the road with crushed stone.

Albert Knoll, who was recently hurt in an automobile accident at Newark, is coming home for a week from a sanatorium in upper New York. He is not yet fully recovered from his injuries.

John Klopff will open a boarding house at Lake Hopatcong during the summer months.

The tax appeal case of Coles Memorial Home for orphans will go before a full bench in the Supreme Court at Trenton during June.

Robert Lading has broken ground on the Parkway of the Borough for his new house.

Mayor J. M. Schoonover is confined to his bed with a heavy cold.

One hundred orphan children from Newark arrived at the Memorial Home for Orphans in Mountside last Friday.

The Board of Education of the Borough of Mountside has decided that the prizes usually given by Mr. Peckham will not be accepted this year, the teachers saying that the children will need all their spare time in preparing for the annual examinations.

AUTOS IN A SMASH-UP.

Two Touring Cars Wrecked at Mountside But No One Hurt.

Two large touring cars collided on the county road at Carberry's corner in Mountside at nine o'clock last Thursday night, May 13. The cars were badly damaged, but none of the occupants were hurt.

The machine owned by Mr. Becker, of Newark, being out of order, was drawn to the extreme right of the road while he was making repairs. To avoid possible accident Mr. Becker had placed lanterns as signals at the side of his car.

The machine owned and driven by Mr. Fred G. Stone, of Newark, came speeding along toward Springfield and struck Mr. Becker's machine. Sheriff Klopff of Mountside was just passing and saw the collision. Mr. Stone explained to the Sheriff that he did not see the lights nor hear any noise whatsoever. Both men were members of the New Jersey Automobile Association. Mr. Stone sold the remnants of his machine a few days later.
