Exercises of Commencement Week
Open Sunday Night With Baccalaureate Sermon.

CLASS DAY ON WEDNESDAY.

Commencement Thursday Night—Boston Olive, the Speaker—Interesting Incidental Exercises This Week.

The closing days of the current school year, are crowded with work and expectation. Examinations will be over today, and then will come the final preparations for commencement week. Several interesting exercises, incidental to the closing of the schools, have been held this week. Among them the exhibits in the various school buildings of the work in drawing, sewing, and manual training. Patrons and friends have been liberal in their support of this department of the school work. On Thursday afternoon, the pupils below the high school gave an exhibition of the work in music, under the direction of Miss Tiffany. A very interesting program was given, and a large audience was present.

The regular exercises of the commencement week will begin Sunday night, with the sermon to the graduates by the Rev. Dr. A. W. Hayes, pastor of the First M. E. Church. The exercises will be held in the Presbyterian Church. All the pastors of the town will take part, and occupy seats on the platform. The graduates will occupy the front seats. There will be special music.

The Senior Class Day exercises will be held in the Washington School on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interesting feature of these exercises will be the awarding of mementoes, and the platform rivalry between the Juniors and Seniors. Both are preparing a few surprises, and some timely admonition will be exchanged by the respective class representatives. At the close, the Seniors will give a reception to their invited friends.

The crowning event will be the graduation exercises to be held in the Washington School, Thursday night at eight o'clock. Dr. A. E. Winship, of Boston, will deliver the address to the graduates. The diplomas will be presented by Mr. Charles McDougall, the president of the Board of Education.

The grammar school commencement will be held Friday morning at 9:30

A THREE HUNDRED YARD BABY CARRIAGE RACE THE FEATURE.

Young Papas to Perambulate at Mon's League Field Day.

These are busy days for the men of the Methodist church. The annual field day of the Men's League will be held at Recreation Park on Saturday, June 10th, and as every member is entered for one or more events all are in training.

Last year's field day was a great success and it is hoped that this year's will be even more successful. Preparations are being made for a great crowd of members and friends, who, in addition to the races and baseball game, will be entertained by the sweet music of the brass band, under the leadership of John S. Burhaus, Jr. The wants of the inner man will be looked after by the pink lemonade and peanut department under the supervision of Thomas W. Murray.

To keep order and compel every entrant to do his "stunt," a police force under Chief Frank B. Han will be on duty all the afternoon.

Nine events are on the program, which will furnish enough excitement to keep the town going all summer. The 300-yard baby carriage race, for which all the now papas are entered, promises to be very close; it will be followed by the 100-foot dash (?) for heavy weights only and it's a question if any of those entered can finish. The three-legged race seems to be popular with the tall men and fast time will be made if the record is not broken. There will be a wheel-barrow race, a half-mile race, sack race and hundred yard dash to be followed by a five-inning baseball game. The last event will be a two-mile go-as-you-please handicap for which many of the prominent citizens of the town are entered, including the old-man-of-the-mountain who is coming down from Pot Luck to make the effort of his life.

If the prizes are ready in time they will be exhibited in one of the Broad street show windows several days before the field day.

Entrants in the baby carriage race will furnish their own equipments. J. A. Davis, F. S. Fisher, L. W. Neefus, M. L. Townley, J. P. Wright, Ben Vervoert and R. O. Pearsall are the bright examples to date—others are eligible but they haven't caught up with their nerve yet. Very useful prizes will be given to the winners.

BAN ON EVENING DRESS.

Board of Education Opposed to Formal Attire at the High School Commencement Exercises.

BOYS SHOULD WEAR CONVENTIONAL GARB.

Medical Examination of Pupils to Be Standardized—Many Bidders for Coal Contract—Books to Be Audited.

An effort will be made this year to influence the boy graduates of the Westfield High School not to wear evening dress at the commencement exercises, next Thursday evening. The question was discussed at the meeting of the Board of Education, Tuesday night, and it was the unanimous opinion of the members that it would be more in keeping with the spirit of democratic education if boys refrained from wearing evening dress. Dr. Savitz, the supervising principal, will have a consultation with all the boys in the class, and will personally request each of them to wear the conventional street clothes.

Mr. Merrill raised the question of standardizing the tests in the medical examination of the pupils, and his plan met with the approval of the Board. Now that medical examination has been made compulsory, it will be necessary to adopt a standard test. The present system is arbitrary, and can hardly serve as a standard for future tests. By the new method, an average of health may be determined which will serve as a model in future tests. This program will be carried out next year.

Alexander Hunt was awarded the contract for painting the Washington School, his estimate being $225; other bidders were, George Larson, $280, and Welch Bros. $349.

There were five bidders for the contract to furnish coal to the schools for the year 1909-10, all but one of which were from local dealers. The B. L. Mowen Co., of Philadelphia, made a bid which was practically the same as the local bids. The local dealers estimating were C. A. Smith & Co., Tuttle Bros., Patrick Traynor and J. S. Irving. The estimates were about the same. The matter was referred to committee with power to divide the contract among the lowest local bidders.

The Audit Company of New York was given the work of auditing the books of the District Clerk for the past two years, and for making suggestions.

THE TARVIA BEING APPLIED.

Euclid Avenue Completed on Monday—A Question of Method Raised.

Councilman Charles M. Anlook, chairman of the road committee, announced at the regular meeting, Monday night, that the work of placing the tarvia on the principal roads of the town had been begun on that day, and would be hurried through as fast as the weather and thoroughness would permit. Euclid avenue was finished on Monday.

There was some question as to whether it was advisable to sprinkle the entire street at one time, because the street was made unfit for traffic until the tarvia had dried. Engineer Vars explained to Councilman Wilson, the inquirer, that the contractor had been compelled to complete Euclid avenue in one day, but that the other streets would be sprinkled with regard to traffic accommodations, first one side, and then the other, a day lapsing between the applications.

WANTS TREES PROTECTED.

Miss Worth Writes Council Asking for Change in Curb on South Avenue.

In a letter to the Common Council, Monday night, Miss Lucy Worth called attention to the fact that unless some provision was made for the placing of the grade line of South avenue, in conformity to the large trees in front of the property of her mother on that thoroughfare, these trees would be destroyed. Miss Worth protested against the destruction of the trees, and requested Council to make some provision for their protection in fixing the new curb line.

Miss Worth declared, in her letter, that the chopping of the trees at the foot of the property to the curb would be fatal to their growth, and suggested that the curb line be changed at this point. The trees were planted by Miss Worth's father in the early days of Westfield and are now the crowning glory of the thoroughfare. For a sentimental reason, and for the reason that the destruction of the trees would despoil the street of its natural beauty, Miss Worth made her request. The matter was referred to Committee, and it is said that it will receive favorable action.

THAT DUDLEY AVE. GRADING.

Is the Cause of a Lively Debate Between Mayor Alpers and Lawyer James O. Clark.

THE LATTER THERE TO PROTEST.

Thinks That Clark Street Should Be Curbed and Graded Also—and With Regard to Curbing of Dudley Avenue.

A discussion between Mayor Alpers and James O. Clark over the fixing of the Dudley avenue curb line, was the only bit of excitement furnished at the regular session of the Common Council, Monday night. The discussion came at the time for the honoring on the proposed improvements, Mr. Clark being given the floor after some petitions of protest had been made on the proposition to grade and curb Clark street and Dudley avenue. The protests were from owners of the Clark estate.

Mayor Alpers raised the question that it was singular that Mr. Clark and his family should protest against an improvement, the direct expense and benefit from which did not accrue to them and for which all the abutting property owners had petitioned save one. In rising to address the chair, Mr. Clark stated that, after the manner of a lawyer he was there to accept the challenge, to plead his case, and to explain the circumstances. The Mayor informed that Mr. Clark was insinuating that floor privileges had been accorded reluctantly; but Mr. Clark said he meant no such thing by his remark.

Nor was he, (Mr. Clark), disposed to hinder or impede the progress of town improvements, particularly in the matter of fixing grades and curbing. He had introduced and secured the passage of the bill through the state legislature, which had made such improvements possible, and he felt that some credit was due to him for this work. Under the circumstances, he was in no way inclined to act arbitrarily. He merely wanted the improvement done thoroughly and correctly. The gist of Mr. Clark's argument went to show that, if Dudley avenue was to be graded, the work should be done with regard to the grade of Clark street, and that the grading of both thoroughfares along their length should be done at the same time. Under the present plan, he said, the grade on Dudley avenue was fixed at such a high level as to interfere with the

WEDDED TWENTY-ONE YEARS.

Dr. and Mrs. Steans Tendered Reception by Members of Presbyterian Church.

Over four hundred members of the Presbyterian Church tendered a reception to their pastor Rev. Dr. W. I. Steans, and Mrs. Steans at the Chapel, Tuesday night, in honor of the twenty-first anniversary of their wedding. The chapel was prettily decorated with flowers and potted plants and an excellent musical program helped to make memorable the occasion.

Receiving with Dr. and Mrs. Steans were the Rev. and Mrs. Craig and the Rev. and Mrs. Calkins of Westfield. The ministers of the town were present and took part in the enjoyable event. During the evening, a musical program was given. There were piano solos by Mrs. Malcomb Dutcher, Mrs. G. A. V. Hankinson, Mrs. J. C. Ketchum, Mrs. Ralph Starry, Miss Peddie, Miss Ballo, and Miss Lucy Johnston, and the members of the church choir sang. A feature of the evening was the presentation to Dr. and Mrs. Steans of a handsome dining room table, the gift of his parishioners.

The committee in charge was: Mrs. J. B. Harrison; chairman of the general committee; Mrs. Sissonson, decorations; Mrs. Gideon Laddow, refreshments; and Miss Julia Fluk, music.

Juniors to Entertain Seniors.

The Junior Hop will be held in the Washington School next Friday evening. This dance is given by the Juniors (1910) in honor of the graduating Seniors. Over two hundred invitations have been issued for the affair. Weston's orchestra will furnish the music. There will be twenty dances after which refreshments will be served by Mrs. Laddow, caterer. The committee in charge wishes to state that no one will be admitted without an invitation.

Seventeen Detectives on Trunk Case.

A Pinkerton detective was in town Saturday trying to get trace of a trunk which had been expressed here from New York by a man named Carlos to the United Express Company's office. The detective found that the trunk had arrived here on May 19 and had been expressed to Lakewood on the 21st. The owner of the trunk is wanted on several charges by the American Express Company. Seventeen detectives are at work on the case and will soon land their man.

THAT DUDLEY AVE. GRADING.

grade on Clark street, from Walnut street and beyond to the north. At this point there was a depression in which water collected, and there was no proper facility for carrying it off, without the refixing of the grade. Mr. Clark said in reply to Mayor Alpers remark that the roadway in front of his property caused a stoppage in the running off of the water, that he had attempted several times to correct the nuisance, but was unable to do so because of the arbitrary grade of the street.

Mayor Alpers didn't see what the grading of Clark street had to do with Dudley avenue, and Mr. Clark pointed out that it was impossible to grade either of the thoroughfares without regard for the other. They intersected at a point where there was a natural depression, and in determining the grade line of either attention must be given to a definite grade for both, which would effect the depression. Mr. Clark further stated, that he was perfectly willing to stand his pro rata share of the expense for the improvement throughout the entire length of Clark street.

"It is my desire, gentlemen, to see the improvement made correctly. I am not here as an obstructionist. I favor all improvements of this nature. I am here simply to point out that, in my judgment, it will be an error, which will sooner or later have to be corrected at an additional cost, if Dudley avenue is graded and curbed according to the proposed plan, and without regard for Clark street."

When the question was again brought up, after the regular recess—Mayor Alpers has lengthened the distance to thirty minutes—the hearing was adjourning for two weeks. The Council will pay a visit the place of the proposed improvement, Saturday afternoon, and will look the ground over thoroughly with a view to ascertaining if Mr.
Clark's plan is feasible.

Proceedings of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County.

[OFFICIAL.]

Regular meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, held on Thursday, May 6, 1909, at 2.30 p. m.

Roll call showed the following members present:

Director King, Freeholders Cady, Gladek, Crane, Darby, Doane, Garrison, Haviland, Jensen, Jones, Krouse, Martin, Meisel, Perry, Robinson, Smith, Stephan, Swain and Wilbur—19.

Absent—Freeholder Adams—1.
On motion of Freeholder Cady it was ordered that the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting be dispensed with, and that the same be approved as per printed copies on the members' desks.

Communications.

Railway, May 2, 1909.
To the Board of Freeholders.
Gentlemen—Accept my sincere thanks for your kind resolutions of sympathy. I assure you they are appreciated.

Yours very truly,
JOHN FARRELL.
On motion of Freeholder Gladek received and placed on file.

From Barry Post, No. 27, G. A. R., as follows:
Railway, May 1, 1909.

Benjamin King, Director Board of Freeholders.
Honorable Sir—Barry Post, No. 27, G. A. R., recommends to the Board of Freeholders our comrade, Alfred T. Crane, senior, for the position of draw tender for the Milton Avenue drawbridge. He is an old soldier, a former member of Martin's Sixth N. Y. Battery, has no other occupation, lives within twelve feet of the bridge, and will devote the whole of his time to it. Hoping our petition will be acted upon by the committee favorably, remain
Your obedient servant,
DANIEL G. URMSTON, Adjutant.

This was ordered sent by resolution of Barry Post, No. 27.
On motion of Freeholder Smith received and referred to the Committee on Railway Drawbridge.

From W. H. Randolph, as follows:
May 4, 1909.
To the Honorable Board of Freeholders.

Gentlemen—This letter is written in the interest of Alfred T. Crane, who is seeking a position as bridge tender at the East Milton Avenue drawbridge at Rahway, N. J. Mr. Crane lives within twelve feet of the drawbridge, and in my estimation could give the very best of attention to the position should he be fortunate enough to secure it. Mr. Crane has, I understand, the endorsement of some of our best citizens, and also from other good sources, as well, which will be presented to you, and I think should have the consideration of your honorable body.

Yours respectfully,

WILLIAM H. RANDOLPH.

On motion of Freeholder Smith received and referred to the Railway Drawbridge Committee.

From A. T. Crane as follows:
To the Honorable Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County.

Gentlemen—At your last meeting on April 1, I had a recommendation for the appointment as bridge tender at the Milton Avenue drawbridge, and it was referred to the bridge committee. I think that justice has not been done to me; I now appeal to your most honorable body as I had the endorsements of the leading Republicans of Rahway, both of our Assemblymen, Tillman and Kirslein, also the Republican club of Rahway passed a resolution endorsing me and instructed the secretary to send to the Director of your honorable body, also the Railway Boat Club had endorsed me, the department commander, G. A. R. of New Jersey, the city and county committee of Rahway, with the exception of two. Barry Post passed two resolutions endorsing me, I pray that your honorable body as a whole will take some action in the matter as stated. I am an honorable discharged soldier of the Civil War with a good army record and live just fourteen feet from the bridge and can perform all the duties that pertain to the bridge as I have no other employment. I will state further that a number of years ago I was bridge tender of the said bridge and when I first took charge of it one man could not open it; I spent a great deal of time cleaning the cog wheels of the gate that was on them and got it working very easily and there never had been any complaint against me. I opened the bridge at all hours of the night; the reason why the bridge was taken from me was because the board was changed to Democratic and my place was filled by a Democrat. Now I ask your honorable body to see that justice is done to me.

Respectfully yours,
ARTHUR T. CRANE.

On motion of Freeholder T. Swain received and referred to the Railway Drawbridge Committee.

The following petition was presented and read:
To the Honorable Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County.

Gentlemen—The undersigned, residents, citizens, property-owners and taxpayers of the city of Elizabeth, do most respectfully petition your honorable body to order and cause George W. Soffel to be appointed as the tender of the bridge recently constructed at South First street crossing of the Elizabeth River. In recommending Mr. Soffel our petitioners feel that they are recommending a man who is in every way able and competent to act in the capacity of bridge tender and that he will prove to be efficient in this respect.

Signed by John F. Kenah, Henry H. Ahrens, William Creler and thirty-three others.
On motion of Freeholder Krouse received and referred to the Committee on First Street Bridge.

By Freeholder Jensen as follows:
To the Honorable Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union.

Gentlemen—At the request of several property-owners near the county wharf at Rahway, Edgar road, Grier Avenue, South Broad street and Maple Avenue, I have investigated the matter of filling in a brook running through the property in that section, which brook is known as cow and pasture brook. This is now a dead brook and is not used, and as some of these property owners wish to build over the course of the brook there would seem to be no reason in my opinion why the property owners should not be permitted to fill in the brook and the above-mentioned culverts closed by the Freeholders. For the purpose of further investigation I suggest the appointment of a special committee, to include the county advisor, County Engineer and Mr. Richards, of the Board of Health.

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES J. JENSEN,
Freeholder.

Freeholder Smith moved that the communication be received and referred to a special committee of three, which was so ordered.
The Director appointed as the said committee Freeholders Jensen, Krouse and Martin.

From Freeholder Jensen as follows:
To the Honorable Board of Chosen Freeholders.

Gentlemen—As a member of the Committee on Bridges I have visited the lift bridge at South First street and the man in charge had considerable difficulty in raising same. The bridge is used so little that the bearings and joints become rusted and it takes two and three men a half-hour to raise or lower it, and I recommend that electric power be installed so that it can be more easily and promptly handled. Also the sill on one end of the bridge was made of poor lumber and a new one is needed at once. It is also my opinion that the bridge gates are too lightly constructed; the present gates do not serve the purpose intended, are easily blown about by the wind and new and stronger ones should be put up immediately.

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES J. JENSEN,
Freeholder.

On motion of Freeholder Cady received and placed on file.

Respectfully submitted,

By Committee on Union Avenue Bridge, New Providence.
To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union.

Gentlemen—Your committee appointed to examine the condition of the Union Avenue bridge, near Berkeley Heights, New Providence, report having carefully gone over the same and find it in a very dilapidated condition and therefore recommend that a new bridge with concrete abutments and I beam and permanent cover be erected at this point at a cost not to exceed $450.

By the Committee on Terrill Culverts.
To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union.

Gentlemen—Your committee to whom was referred the condition of the culverts on Terrill road, at East Second street, Plainfield, and Fanwood, would report having examined the same in connection with the representatives of the Public Service Corporation and find that the present culverts were constructed either wholly or in part by the street railway company at the time of laying its tracks. The improvement of Terrill road brings more water to this point and the culverts have fallen in and are in need of considerable repair as well as of enlargement.

We therefore recommend that new culverts of substantial construction be built at this point, the cost of which shall be borne by the county and the Public Service Corporation in such proportion as may be found equitable or as may be governed by contracts now existing between the said corporation and the city of Plainfield and the township of Fanwood, made at the time the franchise for the road were granted. The cost of said work in no event to exceed the sum of $550 to the county.

By Committee on South Avenue Culvert, Westfield.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union:

Gentlemen—Your committee to whom was referred for examination the necessity of constructing a culvert on South avenue, at Scotch Plains avenue, Westfield, would report having visited the location and find that a large amount of water comes down South avenue at this point and necessitates a deep ditch which makes travel through Scotch Plains avenue at this point impossible in wet weather.

DR. MORGAN WRITES

HIS AUTOBIOGRAPHY.

Impressions of General Winfield Scott, McClellan and Kearney.

But to resume my own experiences—At that time service from the Battery to the north shore of Staten Island was rendered by three small steamers, the "Flora," "Pomona" and "Huguenot" (the latter the last of the old time steamers with upright walking-beams that clanked up and down like a cotton press. One of the delights in crossing on one of these little craft was, that if a fog came up she would cast anchor and begin blowing her whistles to keep other craft from colliding and sending her to the bottom of the bay; or drift until the fog rolled by. One day after the Pomona had been feeling her way in a fog, and I stood on her upper deck watching the ships and steamers loom up and speculating on our chances of collision, we found ourselves off Bedlowe's Island (now Liberty Island) near enough almost for me to have jumped to the sea-wall. Upon the island where the statue of Liberty now stands and down to the sea-wall itself, was a strange looking crowd of tattered men all dressed in a sort of muddy yellow uniform. They were the first Confederate prisoners ever captured, who had been dumped there until Government could make some disposition of them. I was not a little disappointed to find that the Confederate uniform (for so long had already begun to be written about "the Blue and the Gray") was only a battered stain. However it was not so very far from the hue of the present Khaki, which experiment shows is less liable to make targets of poor soldiers than the gaudy red of the British or the Austrian white, or our own discarded blue!

At the outbreak of the Civil War a United States Army could hardly have been said to exist. There were some 25,000 troops somewhere, and at the head of them was Gen. Winfield Scott already in his dotage, huge, corpulent, fussy to such a degree that he was known as "Old Fuss and Feathers."

He was moreover, irascible—stood on an enormous dignity and it was difficult to assume the amount of punctilio which he required in addressing him, so that communication with him was avoided by anything short of resignation of their commissions by his subordinates. Although his headquarters were nominally in Washington, he lived mostly at the Brevoort House, corner of Eighth street and Fifth avenue, New York City. He had a paw in the Church of the Ascension at the corner of Tenth street and the avenue, of which my uncle was at that time Rector. To my boyhood eyes, General Scott was the largest man physically that could be imagined. Almost seven feet in height, when sitting in his paw, he looked like an average man standing up. Old Nitohio, the sexton, when asked to point out General Scott to visitors, would say, "look about ye! He'll be the biggest man ye'll see!"

He was a hero of two wars, but, in the third, was in everybody's way. No possible step could be suggested to him but it met instant and imperious countermand. His only idea seemed to be to fight on the plans of 1812! No Corps—no Divisions—only brigades to be sent here and there on the defensive. But at last he was flattered and coaxed into resigning, and a brilliant young soldier whom the newspapers acclaimed as "The Young Napoleon" was given supreme command. McClellan's career is well known! He created an army, but no man anybody could man, wanted after crowding it to sit down and admit it! Lincoln in despair wanted to "bury it!" Ordered into the enemy's territory, he began beating orders and writing long letters. One of his orders, issued with a vigilant enemy in his front actually driving in his heels, was that the Sabbath must be religiously observed by the Army of the Potomac—"no unnecessary work"—thence must attend Divine service "unless attached by the enemy" (a proviso which was perhaps meant to convey that the army might do a little fighting if there was really no help for it—if actually driven to fight, as the lawyers say, by a Via Major!) The order must have caused some comment among the West Point officers, and old Mexican veterans like General Kearney, of New Jersey, who had lost an arm in Mexico and fought with his horse's bridle-reins in his teeth, and was down there to fight some more, (and who was killed so fighting, the year after, at Chantilly in the moment of his victory, the only victory of those terrible northern defeats of the Second Bull Run.)

Unless it was the regulation of Captain Corcoran of H. M. S. Pinmore that his crew must use no explosive stronger than "Bother It," it is probable no such order was ever read to warriors! (Gen. Lee was the dearest of men and one who sought Divine assistance in prayer constantly. But the only comment he was ever known to make on religious matters in time of War, was that "Gen. (Stonewall) Jackson, by halting his army one Sunday at Ashville for prayer meetings, forced me to fight the unnecessary battle of Mechanicsville where I lost 5000 men.") One might think that religious matters might be left to the Regimental Chaplains; there must have been an hundred of them in the army; were the least comment we used to hear from McClellan's friends, and he had a few left.

Anyhow the question most heard in those days was not—"Will we win?" or "Will France and England intervene?" or "Will Russia's arbitration be accepted?" but "Why don't McClellan move?" Possibly even at this late day I can offer a story as a solution. At any rate, I heard the story in 1863 as follows and I can give my authority for it if desired.

EVERY MARRIED MAN

should make a vigorous effort to own a home. As soon as he has accumulated sufficient money, he should invest in a home, where his family may live permanently. A home owned is more than mere property; it speaks to the heart, enlists the sentiments and ennobles the possessor. Viewed as a matter of economy, a man can occupy a home of his own at less expense than he can pay rent, and avoid the inconvenience and expense of frequent removals. In addition, if he buys right, he may have the satisfaction of knowing that his property is steadily increasing in value while he occupies it.

In Westfield Highlands and Manor Park we have houses that can be purchased very reasonably with a small cash payment and monthly what your rent would cost.

This For You.

There is only one way to obtain a clear, transparent and flawless complexion; massage treatment makes the flesh flabby, the so-called beauty creams containing oil or other greasy substances, fill up the pores of the skin, preventing them from doing their work properly, and also induce the growth of a fine, fuzzy hair on the face. If you would have a face entirely free from pimples, blotches, eczema, black-heads and kindred diseases of the skin, get the following prescription put up at any reliable Drug Store and your troubles will soon be over.

Glenrola one-half ounce, Ether one ounce, Alcohol seven ounces. Mix. Shake well and apply to the face night and morning allowing it to remain at least ten minutes, the longer, the quicker results you will have. In extreme cases apply four or five times daily.

The filmy powder deposits on the face may be wiped off after a reasonable time. Do not use any soap, instead wash the face with oatmeal and a little powderedorris root tied up in a cheese cloth bag, and no matter how bad your face is, or what the cause may have been, this will surely cure it. This prescription is perfectly harmless and can be used on the most delicate skin.

JUST FOR THE BRIDEThe Wedding Gown

"There is something in a wedding gown prettier than in any other gown in the world."

Of course it will be white!

But shall it be of satin—soft, richly shimmering? Or of less expensive messaline or the crepe de Chine that links service with beauty?

A rich collection of all fashionable silks and satins in the Wanamaker Silk Store makes finding what you wish a very pleasant and easy matter.

Ask to see a certain Duchesse messaline—the new kind, soft and supple, 36 inches wide. It is $1.50 a yard because we secured all the maker had. A few months ago we sold it at $2.

Other wedding satins, $2, $2.50 and up to $4.50 for exquisite Satin Royal.

Crepe Metere, 36 inches wide, is $2 a yard.

Crepe de Chine, $1 upwards.

Beautiful Cashmere de Soie, $1.65 to $3.

Yard-wide Messaline, $1.25 a yard.

Lining Messaline, 58c, 65c, 75c and 85c a yard.

First Floor, Old Bldg.

Her Lingerie

"Things farre-fetched and deare-bought are good for ladies." 1589.

Over in Paris we chose the finest of negligees and underclothes for the June bride—delicate as a flower and soft with wonderful real lace—Duchess, rose point, Irish and Valenciennes, and rich with exquisite needlework. But we also thought for the bride who wishes lingerie at small expense. It is here—as pretty a collection as anyone could desire and new styles and shipments coming all the time. Yes, shapes for American women.

The Bride's Millinery

If it is to be a day wedding we shall be glad to specially design wedding hats for the bride and her maids.

Recent Paris hats and adaptations of Paris hats taken from late photographs are ready to companion the morning dress, the tennis suit, the afternoon gown, the traveling dress.

The Bride's Corset

No matter how fine her materials, a bride's gown cannot be right unless fitted over the right corset.

In Paris, where corset making is an art, the corsetier who makes the Lillian corset, exclusively for the Wanamaker Store, is considered the finest corsetier in Paris. The Lillian is famed far and wide for its gracefulness. $5.50 upwards.

Footgear

Just an ill-fitting, too-tight shoe is more feared by Cupid than any other article of dress.

Wanamaker people have been specially trained to fit shoes properly. Wanamaker shoes are bought to give satisfaction. Candidly, Wanamaker's is the safest place we know to buy wedding day shoes and shoes for every day in the year.

White Satin and Kid Slippers, $3.50 and $5.

Entire Shoe Outfits from $1.50 up to $10.

AS TO STOCKINGS, if a bride wishes plain white silk, she will find here the best $1, $1.50 and $2 qualities we can find in the world.

Colored Silk Stockings to match all her gowns, or, as they are now wearing in Paris, contrasting colors, $2 and upwards.

Main Floor, Old Bldg.

Important Adjuncts

The LINGERIE BLOUSE that comes from Paris is $5 to $60 in the French shop.

Tailored WAISTS for outdoor sports and elaborate lace affairs for hotel luncheons, in the Waist Store—styles and dimensions so good and prices so little it seems hardly worth while to make them one's self.

The LONG COAT which is to keep off dust and rain, the dainty cloak for evening, the long tailor-made coat are waiting for the bride in the Women's Coat Store.

Second Floor.

And GLOVES must not be forgotten. The very finest French gloves—the Reynier—is none too good for the wedding day. $2.75, $3.75, $4.25 and $4.75 for long white Reynier gloves. Street gloves—the Royale kind—$1.50; Reynier, short, $2. Cool silk gloves, 50c, 75c, $1.

FRENCH HANDKERCHIEFS a few counters away.

Wedding Invitations and Announcements can be arranged for in a private room adjoining the Jewelry Store, or samples will be sent upon request.

Gifts

A whole Jewelry Store has been solving your "what to give" perplexities for months. Original, out-of-the-ordinary jewelry and silver in every case—and that is what the bride will most appreciate.

But all Wanamaker's is a Gift Store, and it just depends on you what you will select. Will you let us help?

Human hopes and human creeds,
Have their roots in human needs.

Rev. Charles A. Crane, D. D., pastor of the People's Temple in Boston, gives some of his reasons for being a Party Prohibitionist, in the following:

Edmund Burke said, "A political party is a body of men joined together for the purpose of promoting, by their joint endeavor, the national interest upon some particular principle upon which they are all agreed." Horace Greeley said, "There is no legitimate use for any party, except to embody and give effect to enlightened public opinion."

Enlightened public opinion favors the prohibition of the liquor traffic; therefore I go with a company of men joined together for the purpose of promoting the national interest upon this subject. I am a Party Prohibitionist because a license party does not represent my convictions. My party is my agent, representative and servant in the administration of government. What do by my party, I do by myself. If my agent licenses saloons, so do I.

I throw away my vote when I vote for a party that does not represent my views. But my vote is never thrown away where I vote my convictions. License is a system of consent to a wicked thing—the drunkard factory and the vice factory for a price paid in hand. When I consent to it, it becomes mine morally.

License means the continuance of the saloon. To this I cannot consent. To this I do consent when I vote with a political party committed to the license policy.

I refuse to confuse abolition of the drink habit with prohibition of the licensed liquor traffic. The Prohibition Party is not after the drink habit. It seeks to take away the protection of the saloon by the law. Without this protection the saloon would be an outlaw—what it ought to be.

There is nothing in morals or psychology which makes it right for me to vote against license when that is the only question—and vote for license when it is combined with other questions.

Votes are the only language that lawmakers and politicians can hear. To them all other languages are dead.

Saloons came by license parties. All our territory is by right prohibition territory. The saloon would not be among us, except as an outlaw like a thief, if it were not for the license parties. This disposes of that well-worn political heresy which declares that all we have of prohibition has come from the two great dominant parties. The fact is that all we have of the legalized saloon, has come through them, and the inherent right of the people to prohibition territory has by them been denied. The U. S. Supreme Court has decided that no one has an inherent right to sell intoxicants.

The license system is a national policy, a national crime and a national curse. The two great parties refuse to permit me to speak on this matter through them. Therefore I speak through the only political channel open, for my convictions to find expression.

Men Past Fifty in Danger.

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy, especially for enlarged prostate gland, which is very common among elderly men. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint." MANUAL TRAINING WORK.

Exhibition at Washington School Worthy of Skilled Craftsmen.

The exhibition of manual training, mechanical and free-hand drawings and sawing work of the pupils in the Westfield Public Schools during the past week shows very plainly the ability the scholars have attained in these lines.

The manual training classes of the grammar school exhibit their accomplishments by small and fine articles of work such as miniature furniture sets, small log cabins, toys, etc. These show the great advancement that the pupils have attained in the use of tools.

The High School grades show great proficiency in cabinet work. Following is a list of articles made by the High School students which had a prominent place in the exhibition. Two chairs made by Harry Ball and Joseph Laurent; two desks made by Raymond Walsh and J. Laurent; a revolving book-case made by Russel Hunt; a woven top Indian stool and electric lamp made by Raymond Walsh. There are also many mission tabourettes, flower stands, pedestals, etc.; small woven top stools, book racks, household ladders, magazine racks, medicine cases and many other things which require a fine knowledge of the use of tools in the making.

The mechanical drawings show clearly that the pupils thoroughly understand the use of the drawing-boards, the T square, and architect's instruments. Many of the drawings on exhibition appear to be made by expert draftsmen. The free-hand drawings in water colors, pencil and charcoal are very realistic and show that many of the scholars are talented in this respect. The plaster reliefs of flowers and leaves, made by the High School girls also have a place in the exhibition.

The sewing articles show that the girls will be well prepared to fill their niche among the sewing societies of today.

Miss Young, instructor of drawing and manual training of Westfield schools, is to be complimented upon the good work that her pupils have done in the past year. Miss Bosworth's classes have also done exceedingly well considering that they started late last fall.

BIDS RECEIVED FOR THE NEW MOUNTAINSIDE BOROUGH HALL.

Contract to Be Awarded at Adjourned Meeting, June 22.

Bids for the building of the new MountainSide Borough Hall were opened at a regular meeting of the Council Tuesday night. There were nine of them, all coming within the limit of the appropriation, $1000. The bids were referred to the building committee, to be reported at an adjourned meeting to be held on June 22. All the councilmen were present but Messrs. Bechtold and Badgley.

The new hall is to be constructed of brick with stucco finish outside. The plans were prepared by Architect J. T. Tubby, Jr., and are thoroughly artistic, and provide for the erection of a building which will fulfill the needs of the Borough for some time to come. On the lower floor there will be the rooms for the Borough officers, the police, and fire department, when the latter department is formed. An auditorium will occupy the upper floor. The dimensions of the new building are 40x30.

The Road Committee reported progress on the work of repairing and rebuilding the roads, particularly the mountain road leading to Portaupeck. This road is practically being rebuilt. All bills were ordered paid.

MountainSide Borough.

The potato bugs and cut worms have attacked the gardens and are causing the farmers of the Borough great trouble.

Pot Luck and Mrs. A. E. Pearsall visited friends in New York this week.

The strawberry shortcake and ice-cream festival in the chapel on Saturday night was attended by a large number and was a decided success. Besides the strawberry shortcake, and the other good things, there were games, and an enjoyable feature was singing by Thomas Cullins, and the piano accompaniments and solos by his sister, Miss Alice Cullins.

Jaggist in Combative Mood.

Patrick Feeney, of MountainSide, was arrested last Saturday evening, by Officer Ditzel for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was fined $10.

Officer Ditzel while on his beat met Feeney on Walnut street near Elm street about nine o'clock. Feeney resisted when he attempted to arrest him. He made so much trouble that the officer had to strike him before he submitted to arrest.

NEW SCHOOL FACULTY.

Who Says Real Estate is Dead in Westfield?

Walter J. Lee's (the real estate agent of the busy corner in the "Flatiron Building") duties as far as the Elizabeth Court do not interfere with his doing business for his home town, as within a week he has sold three houses, rented one, placed two loans on bond and mortgage and written several insurances for fire, automobiles and motorcycles.

The houses sold were the "Old Colonial" and "Stucco" ones of Harry L. Russell on Carleton Road, to Mrs. W. F. Lewis and Mr. Chas. F. Polhman, respectfully, and the corner lot adjoining for the Suburban Real Estate Exchange. For Mrs. Margaret Bishop, her Walnut street house to J. D. Taylor. Rented for A. F. Cooley, his house, furnished, 208 Elm street, to Capt. Jarvis, U. S. A.
