A HOME FOR THE BRIDE

Don't you envy this young couple? Of course you do. While he was courting he was paying for a Pearsall Home Site on our easy payment plan. The lot was soon paid for and a home started and completed in time to make a lovely present to his bride. It's the good old American idea—OWN YOUR OWN HOME—and you can do it as easily as paying rent.

PEARSALL HOME SITES

are extremely desirable for convenience of location, high and dry, large lots and fully restricted. It will be worth your while to drop around to our office and become acquainted with our plan of development. Our terms are very reasonable and a Home Site bought at present prices is bound to show the purchaser a handsome profit.

BAIRD IS OUSTED.

George E. Halsey's Appointment As Member of State Assessor's Board a Surprise.

LOCAL OPTION BILL PRESENTED.

Identical With Plummer Bill of Last Year and Backed by Anti-Saloon League--Other Bills.

TRENTON, Feb. 8.—Governor Fort sent his appointments to the Senate Monday night and among them was the name of George E. Halsey, of Essex County, as the successor to David Baird, of Camden County, as a member of the State Board of Assessors. There was nothing surprising about the fact that the Governor did not name Mr. Baird, but the naming of Mr. Halsey was somewhat of a surprise.

General Lewis T. Bryant, of Atlantic County, was retained to the head of the Department of Labor. The full list of nominations made by the Governor were: Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, of Mercer County, Frederick W. Guichtel, for a full term of five years from April 1, 1910; Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for Somerset County, Clarence E. Case; Prosecutor of the Pleas for Somerset County, Frederick A. Pope; Member of the Fish and Game Commission, Percival Christie, of Hunterdon County; Trustee of the Home for Disabled Soldiers, Sailors and Marines and their Wives, John C. Patterson, of Monmouth County; Member of the Board of Managers of the Home for Feeble Minded Women, Harry H. Pond, of Cumberland County; Member of the Palisades Interstate Park Commission, D. McNeely Stauffer, of Yonkers, New York; Member of the State Board of Health, Herbert W. Johnson, of Camden County; Judge of the Second District of the City of Newark, Thomas J. Lintott.

The local option bill appeared in the House and Senate Monday night, in the Senate through Senator Gehhardt, and in the House through Mr. Ridgway. The bill is identical with the Plummer bill of last year and is backed by the New Jersey Anti-Saloon League. It provides that upon the petition of 30 per cent of the voters of a municipality the Circuit Court Judge shall order a special election to decide whether or not licenses shall be granted. Simultaneously with the introduction of the bill it was announced that former Governor Glenn of North Carolina had been engaged to stamp the state in favor of the bill beginning March 13, next.

The Judiciary Committee of the House of Assembly, composed of Assemblymen Edge, Minard, McCran, DeUnger and Sullivan, gave a public hearing Monday afternoon on Assembly Bill No. 10, introduced by Mr. Otwell, of Hudson County, which provides that baseball and all kindred sports on Sunday shall be legalized.

A large number of clergymen appeared against the bill, claiming that it was offered to break down the Sabbath laws in the interest of capitalists who wished to profit by the enormous crowds that would attend the ball games on Sundays. The speakers claimed that New Jersey, situated as it is between New York and Pennsylvania, would draw big crowds from the big cities of those states to the Sunday baseball games held here. Among those who spoke against the bill were: the Rev. Hugh B. MacCunley, of Trenton; the Rev. Dr. F. W. Johnson, of Washington, N. J.; the Rev. E. J. Kulp, of Camden; the Rev. Hervey Wood, of New York; the Rev. Samuel Wilson, of Jersey City, and former Senator Barton B. Hutchinson, of Mercer County.

The principal speaker for the bill was the Rev. Father William T. McLaughlin, of Union Hill, who pleaded that the men and youth of this State be given an opportunity to see a good, clean baseball game on Sunday. He said that in his priestly experience of 19 years he had become convinced that Sunday baseball would keep the men from saloons and other places just as bad. He made the claim that Sunday baseball would not keep one man or boy from his church services. Assemblyman Otwell also spoke for the bill and made the claim that it was not drawn in the interests of sport promoters.

This bill in the same form passed the House of Assembly last year but was killed by the Judiciary Committee of the Senate.

In the Senate on Monday night Senator Osborne offered a bill providing for the election of delegates to a convention to prepare a new constitution for this State. September 13th next is the date.

THE PUBLIC DISCUSSION OF TAXATION AND SCHOOLS.

To Be Held at High School Auditorium Next Thursday Night.

The public discussion of Taxation and Schools under the auspices of the Board of Trade, will be held in the auditorium of the Washington High School, on Thursday evening, February 17th. Much interest has been aroused among the citizens of the community over the coming meeting and the subject to be discussed, and it is expected that there will be a large attendance at the meeting. After the topic has been formally discussed arguments and suggestions from anyone in the audience will be welcomed. It is hoped that many will avail themselves of this invitation as it is desired to obtain some idea of the trend of public sentiment. The Board of Education will be represented and take part in the discussion. Ladies are particularly requested to be present and to listen to the proceedings, and thus show their practical interest in the matter.

EX-GOV. GLENN TO SPEAK HERE FOR LOCAL OPTION.

Southern Temperance Orator at Presbyterian Church, February 20.

Ex-Governor Glenn of North Carolina, one of the most celebrated temperance orators of his time, will speak at the Presbyterian Church in Westfield on February 20th.

Governor Glenn was running for the United States Senate when the war on the liquor traffic was at its height in North Carolina. He then said he would rather see whiskey banished from the state of North Carolina, than be elected to the U. S. Senate as a representative of the state. In his tour of North Carolina, he made nearly a hundred speeches for the prohibition law, and was greatly instrumental in securing the large majority of 45,000 for the temperance cause. While governor of the state he thoroughly demonstrated that prohibition does prohibit. After his term as governor had expired, he commenced his work in the South as a home missionary and evangelist for the Presbyterian Church, in which he has been engaged ever since. The ex-governor's interest in the temperance cause is still as earnest as ever. Only last fall he campaigned New Jersey in the interest of the Anti-Saloon League and has been engaged to stamp the state for the local option bill introduced in the legislature last Monday night, beginning March 13th.

His eloquence draws great crowds to hear him. When he spoke at the Lyric Theatre, in Newark January 24, 1909, the theatre was jammed twenty minutes before the time set for his speech, and the aisles had to be cleared and the people forced out. He has a record as one of the first lawyer's in his state. Of commanding presence, great personal magnetism and stirring eloquence, he strikes conviction to the hearts of his hearers, and is a might power for good wherever heard.

Every smoker will appreciate greater enjoyment and economy. This is just what the National Cigar Stand in Frutchey's Drug Store means to every smoker in Westfield. Frutchey now buys his cigars through the National organization of three thousand leading druggists throughout the United States. By purchasing together, these druggists are able to command better quality of tobacco and have their brands produced expressly for them in factory quantities. This explains how you get a cigar like the Flashlight at 6 for a quarter.

Slight Blaze Wednesday Morning.

At about 5:30 o'clock Wednesday morning Henry Holmes of 222 Elmer street, was awakened by the smell of smoke and on investigation found his kitchen on fire. He tried to put it out himself, but proved unequal to the task, he therefore very wisely called up the Fire Department which responded with its usual promptness. There was a good pressure of water and the flames were soon extinguished.

The kitchen was wooden and an extension to the main building. Some linen drying on a line over the stove ignited and the flames spread to the tinder-like walls. The fire was confined to the kitchen. The death of Richard Canary, who was asleep on his perch and will never sing more, was the only casualty reported. Loss about $200.

Double value in good quality. Note Paper, fifty sheets of paper and fifty envelopes for 25¢ also pound paper in packages containing ninety sheets for 25¢, envelopes to match 10¢ per package at Schaefer's.

FOR STATE AID ROAD.

Chairman Affleck and Associates Will Confer With Board of Freeholders.

A PLAN FOR JUST TAXATION.

Proposed by Mr. Frederick S. Taggart--Henry C. Piker Appointed Member of Board of Assessors.

The regular meeting of the Westfield Common Council was held in the town rooms on Elm street last Monday night at which a lot of small business was transacted and another one of those ten minute recesses which developed into an hour was declared. Mayor Alpers and Councilmen Floyd, Affleck, Hohenstein, Schmitt, Wilson, Davis, Casey and Middleditch were at their desks and Mr. Vars was appointed acting clerk, in the absence of Mr. Lloyd Thompson.

Mr. Henry C. Piker was appointed a member of the Board of Assessors for two years.

Councilman Affleck and his Road Committee was appointed to consult with the Board of Freeholders concerning the State Aid Road which the Board is considering. This road will connect Westfield to Cranford and Summit and will enter Westfield at the northeasterly end of Broad street. It is expected that some of the property of D. H. Fink will have to be purchased.

A letter was received from Frederick S. Taggart in which he put forth a new scheme to insure just taxation. The plan included that each man's assessment be mailed to him in May, then if he thought he was assessed unjustly and wished to complain, he could have them adjusted before the taxes were levied. This he proposed should be done the first two or three years until taxes could be regulated so that there would be no trouble over them. This matter was referred to Mr. Wilson, chairman of the committee on taxes.

Mr. Hohenstein, chairman of the Fire Committee reported that apparatus was in fine shape and that Westfield stood second in this respect to all other towns in New Jersey. He recommended that a new modern fire house be built as the present one is in bad condition and it was practically useless to repair it. There are fifty-six good earnest and faithful men on the volunteer list, thirteen for the chemical engine, eighteen for the hook and ladder and twenty-five for the hose wagon which carries 1500 feet of good hose. There are five horses, one hose wagon, one chemical wagon and two hook and ladders. There are sixty-nine town fire hydrants and three private hydrants. This report was ordered filed and printed in the town report.

Bills for town expenses amounting to $1,067.69 and $287.80 for town improvements were ordered paid.

The ordinance on the tax budget was adjourned until next meeting.

On recommendation of Councilman Affleck, chairman of the Road Committee, resolutions were passed for improving the following streets in the following manner:

On Lawrence avenue, northwest of Dudley avenue, macadam from curb to curb.

On Clark street from Embree Crescent to Brightwood avenue, concrete curb and macadam from curb to curb.

On Prospect street from Dudley avenue to Brightwood avenue, macadam from curb to curb.

On Prospect street from Dudley avenue to Newton place, concrete curbs and gutters.

On Beechwood place, grade and macadam from curb to curb.

On Ethingham place, macadam from curb to curb.

On Everson place, from Summit avenue to Grove street, macadam from curb to curb and sewers.

On Summit avenue, from South avenue to Park street, curbs and brick gutters.

On South avenue, curbs.

On Quimby street, macadam from curb to curb and curbs.

Hearings for objections on all these road improvements will be held at the regular meeting of council on March 7th.

A communication was received from Mr. Dempsey, chairman of the committee which is fighting for no saloons, inviting the members of the council to attend the mass meeting in the Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon, February 20, when Ex-Governor Glenn, of North Carolina will talk on the excise question.

A petition was received from the property owners of Clark street asking for concrete curbs and macadam from

THE LICENSE QUESTION.

Mr. Walter M. Irving Gives Reasons for Local Campaign.

Westfield, N. J., February 8, 1910.
Editor the Union County Standard:

Dear Sir: The circulation in the churches of the petition against the granting of any and all licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes, as noted in your last issue, was supplemented during the week by the sending of a postal card petition by mail to every registered voter who had not already signed such petition.

The Committee from the churches, of which Mr. W. A. Dempsey is Chairman, and which is circulating this petition, is not doing so for the purpose of embarrassing the members of the Council, nor to put them on record on the license question; but as matters have stood for the past several years, there has been so little done in the way of protest, when applications for license came up for a hearing, that the Council might naturally think that they were representing the wishes of the people in granting them.

This has placed some of the people, and especially the voters who are opposed to the saloon, in the embarrassing position of seeming to approve of, or to consent to, the granting of such licenses—when they were actually opposed to such action.

These card petitions of registered voters, when received by the committee, are to be arranged by Wards, and presented to the Mayor and Council when the hearing on licenses is given, February 21st. This plan affords every voter who does not favor the granting of such licenses the opportunity of saying so.

There is no partisan politics, or any question of town government—other than that of the licensed saloon—involved. The one thing that is involved is whether the men of Westfield, who know and believe that the licensed saloon is harmful to the men and boys of our town, and "is a menace to the home, the church and all that makes for the best and highest good," as the petition states, will let this opportunity pass of expressing their honest conviction, and by not signing the petition will permit themselves to be counted on the side of those who approve of the open saloon, notwithstanding its evil effects.

The responsibility for the evil result, of the saloon cannot all be laid on the man who drinks to his undoing, nor on the saloonkeeper, nor yet on the Council who grants the licenses, for the latter are but the representatives of the people, and under our representative government we, the people, share the responsibility for the saloons, when they are licensed, and we have accepted the license fee for same. They are then our saloons, unless our representatives disrepresent us by voting to license them.

Is it not up to us, who are really opposed to the licensing of these saloons for another year, to say so to our representatives now, by promptly signing the petition?

Yours sincerely,
WALTER M. IRVING.

Lincoln's Birthday Celebration.

This evening the Men's Club of the Presbyterian Church will have a "Lincoln's Birthday Night" in the parish house. Members of other church clubs and the ladies are cordially invited to attend. The principal attraction will be Dr. Hayes of the Methodist Church, who has a fine speech on Lincoln to deliver. There will be music by a quartette and anybody can sing who feels like it. It is to be a patriotic affair from beginning to end. L. Clark Walker, J. C. Ketchum, G. H. L. Morton, W. W. Ewing and A. McL. Rowland compose the entertainment committee.

Golf Club Dance.

Sixty members of the Westfield Golf Club and their friends enjoyed a dance at the Westfield Casino last Monday evening. The hall, which was decorated by Captain Voigt superintendent of the building, was prettily trimmed with American flags, and the stage was turned into a comfortable sitting room. The hall was in the best condition it has been in since the Westfield Club disbanded. The merry crowd danced until the small hours of the morning with Mr. Westerfelt, of Newark, at the piano, with all the latest times. At midnight all partook of the goodly goodies, which were served by caterer Demolli of Plainfield. Mr. William Bogert, Jr., was chairman of the committee in charge.

Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sparrell, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Ungerer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cosgrove, Mr. and Mrs. W. ### Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars, for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Childish Philosophy.

A four-year-old boarded a suburban train at Englewood, says the Chicago Daily News, with his mother one dark evening recently. Like all children of that age he desired a seat next to the window, through which he could look out, explaining that he wanted "to look at the dark." This reminded a hearer of the child who, on being asked why he was afraid on a dark night, replied: "I'm afraid of the danger."

A Last Resort.

"You remind me so much of my brother," she said coyly as they sat in the parlor. "I'm awfully glad of that," he answered, gallantly. "I have always admired your brother. In what way am I most like him?" "Well, Harry seems awfully fond of me, yet he never offers to kiss me." After that it was unnecessary for her to ring in any of her relatives.

No Rest Day or Night

"I would lay awake for hours without any apparent cause, or dream terrible dreams which would bring on extreme spells of nervousness. After taking Dr. Miles' Nervine and Tonic for awhile I could sleep well, and the nervous spells have left me." MISS ALMA HUG, R. R. No. 4, Canal Dover, Ohio.

Without sleep the nervous system soon becomes a wreck, and the healthful activity of all the organs obstructed. Restful, body-building sleep accompanies the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine because it soothes the irritable nerves, and restores nervous energy. When taken a few days according to directions, the most restless sufferer will find sleep natural and healthful. Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it all according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

Taxation And The Schools.

The vital relation which our public schools bear to the tax budget, makes the coming public discussion of the question of "Taxation and the Public Schools," a matter of intense interest to the citizens of Westfield. There is no citizen of Westfield who does not regard free education as essential to progress, and taxes as essential to the maintenance of free institutions of learning, but few agree as to how far the program of education shall be extended, and few have time or opportunity to acquire an intelligent understanding of the modern methods of education, and the needs which make such methods imperative. The public meeting in the Washington School next Thursday night, under the auspices of the Board of Trade, has no less worthy object in view than to ascertain the sentiment of the community, and to remove all misunderstandings and any suspicion of doubt that may be entertained by some as to taxes in its relation to the public schools. The Board of Education will be represented at the meeting by one of its members who will talk on the subject. Citizens also will have the privilege of discussing any mooted points, and of asking questions. Under these conditions the result ought to be helpful to the community at large.

Lincoln.

One hundred and one years ago tomorrow, Abraham Lincoln was born in Hardin county, Kentucky, and about fifty-six years later he was foully done to death, by a ruthless, half crazed fanatic.

"But flaming through eternal paths will burn, the Godward fire of his heroic soul!"

Our youth should know that Abraham Lincoln is the greatest name in our history, and that before its brightness the lustre of all but a very few, in ancient or modern times, seems dull and tarnished. Is this too much to say? Then tell us who his counterpart in history is. Inform us of the man who reared in direst poverty, and with less than a year's schooling, by the sheer force of natural ability, attained such an exalted position as he. Not only was he made Chieftain of a great nation, but he piloted that nation through the horrors of a civil war for four long and heart breaking years, to a haven of rest and safety, with such justice, charity and mercy, such patience and foresight, that the world may never see its like again.

Of Lincoln, Emerson says; he was "No fairweather sailor; the new pilot was hurled to the helm in a tornado. There, by his courage, his justice, his even temper, his fertile counsel, his humanity, he stood a heroic figure in the centre of a heroic epoch. He is the true history of the American people in his time, the true representative of this continent; an entirely public man; father of his country, the pulse of twenty millions throbbing in his heart, the thought of their minds articulated by his tongue."

The admiration of Lincoln's genius is no longer partisan, but well nigh universal. His personality is compelling, and the great political party which once opposed him is now eager to do honor to his name. Even the South has learned to appreciate the knowledge he showed of their peculiar institution and his kindness and forbearance, in dealing with the questions which arose from it.

Parents hold up his character before your sons! He was honest, charitable, patient and brave, without ostentation. When he saw his duty he dared to do it. Nature made him a noble man; Nature made him a gentle man.

Of him the poet Bryant has truly and beautifully said:

Oh, slow to smile and swift to spare,
Gentle and merciful and just!
Who in the fear of God, didst bear
The sword of power, a nation's trust!

The task is done; the bonds are free:
We bear thee to an honored grave,
Whose proudest monument shall be
The broken fetters of the slave.

Pure was thy life; its bloody close Hath placed thee with the sons of light.
Among the noble host of those
Who perished in the cause of Right.

The Red Cross Appeals for Paris.

The Red Cross Society is ever at the front in times of great national disaster. It now appeals for contributions towards a fund for the relief of the sufferers from the recent floods in Paris. This call should be heard and heeded by Americans, and responded to quickly and generously. Quickly because help is needed at once and generously because that need is great.

Contributions may be sent to the treasurer of the New Jersey State Branch of the American National Red Cross, Honorable Daniel S. Voorhees, Trenton, N. J. who will promptly forward same to the treasurer of the National Red Cross at Washington, D. C. All contributions from people of this state should be sent through the treasurer of the State Branch, that they may be credited to New Jersey.

High Finance.

The Canadian government carries second class mail matter for one quarter of a cent a pound and realizes $1,000,000 profit annually therefrom. The U. S. government charges one cent a pound for second class matter at a loss of some $50,000,000 annually—and the railroads make the money.

There is widespread solicitude for the welfare of the venerable Professor Goldwin Smith, with an earnest hope that his injuries may not prove too great for his recuperative powers to overcome. New York (N. Y.) Tribune.

Which is to say: Everybody hopes that Professor Goldwin Smith will recover.

Hurrah For—Paterson!

Paris, The Undaunted.

And the flood subsided, and chandelier crowed, "and the women were dressed as for a ball, in gorgeous costumes."

Miss Baillie's Pupils Give Recital.

The recital of Miss Baillie's pupils last Friday night at the Presbyterian Parish house, was a great success. The hall was entirely too small for the audience and the adjoining rooms had to be availed of to accommodate the overflow.

Tom Daniel, of New York, was delightful in his bass solos. His voice is particularly good in the middle register. Miss Wohlfert was much enjoyed in her violin solo. She and Miss Baillie also gave duets in an exceedingly pleasing and artistic manner. Misses Katharine Dietz, Hazel Wood, Rhoda Hyde and Helen Johnson, pupils of Miss Baillie, played well and received much applause and many encores.

A very pleasing feature of the entertainment was the accompanying of Miss Baillie.

OBITUARY.

Thomas Kenny.

Thomas Kenny aged seventy-five years, died of a complication of diseases at the home of his son Thomas, 510 Washington street on February 2d. Deceased was a widower having lost his wife about eight years ago. He is survived by sons Thomas and John Kenny, who live in Westfield. Funeral services were held last Friday at Holy Trinity church. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery, Plainfield.

Mrs. William R. Renwick.

Alfred E. Pearsall has returned from the West Indies in response to an Associated Press cable informing him of the death at Denver, Colorado, of Mrs. William R. Renwick, daughter of Mrs. Pearsall by a former marriage. For several months past Mrs. Pearsall has been in Denver with her daughter, who, all too late, went to Colorado to make a fight for her life against the White Plague; in a sense wearing her wedding garments to the very end; she had been a bride but for a short year. And such a beautiful bride! Many of the STANDARD's readers will recall her extraordinary personal charms; her frequent visits at the home of her mother having made her a familiar figure here while she was yet at her best. She and her young husband rendered a beautiful home and bright prospects in the East for hope that failed. Mrs. Renwick's views were always broad-minded and in keeping with her own request cremation was resorted to at her death. The stricken mother and husband are now enroute for the East with the time of their arrival made uncertain by the precarious condition in which the sad event has left the mother.

A grouchy stockholder of the Bank of England wants all women clerks discharged from the institution on the ground that they cannot keep a secret. Of course, it was wrong to tell on him. He should have been more cautious.

Of Course Not.

"How do you suppose she manages to keep up appearances on her husband's income?" "What is her husband's income?" "I don't know, but, of course, it can't be as big as it would have to be if they could afford to live as they do."

Never Again

Will you get the house you desire in Westfield at a low rent. So "take time by the forelock" and buy a lot and build or purchase a home at a price that will mean a nominal rent for all time, be your own landlord, and avoid the perennial increase in rent, or notice to move, and consequent annoyance of house hunting—change of location and of school for the children—also avail yourself of the increased valuation, that comes with our rapidly growing population.

Several bargains at present in houses, that can be bought on easy terms.

Our business is to find the proper places for our clients.

We also write Insurance and place it in leading companies.

FROM time to time in the regular course of business, the Westfield Building and Loan Association becomes the owner of its own stock which has been held by some member who retires from the Association. This stock, which varies in age from one to ten years and in quantity from 1 share to 10 shares, was formerly cancelled, but now is placed on sale at a price which makes it a very attractive investment. The regulations governing the sale of this "Re-issued Stock" are such that it is only at certain times that it can be sold. The demand for money is so great that the Association has been obliged to turn away applications for good loans, so that now is the best time to purchase some of this stock for investment. The list of shares on hand is too large to be given in full, but they range in price from $10 up, and if application is made to the Secretary stating the amount to be invested, full information will be given in the matter. Do not delay for now is the time. Every day that is allowed to pass represents a lost opportunity.

February Furniture Sale

Has Again Demonstrated that Our Prices Are the Lowest in Newark

WISE planning many months ago alone made this annual event possible. The greatly advanced prices of to-day which most stores are paying make it quite impossible for them to offer such HIGH-GRADE FURNITURE at a full quarter over our prices—this has been proven since the sale opened by wise buyers, who visited everywhere before coming HERE AND BUYING. These prices prove everything.

Reductions of From 10% to 50% Prevail During This Sale

Vermont,
Maine.

NOTE—When your order does not amount to $5, you can combine it with an order of one or two friends in your home town, sending a combination order for $5 or more, and it will be delivered free within the above limits to one address.

The completion of our new store in New York and the near completion of our building in Philadelphia, with the consequent decrease of expense in arranging for systematic handling of the business, permits us to carry out this plan, long considered, for the free delivery of merchandise all over the world.

We still stand upon the ground we took many years ago when we said in our open advertisement: "Patronize Your Home Stores First," and we still consider it the duty of people living near their local stores to support them. We are inviting only such business as home merchants are unable to take care of.

This New Free Delivery Brings Wanamaker's Direct To Your Home

It brings the exceptional Wanamaker merchandise, the unusual Wanamaker service and the great Wanamaker shopping advantages and privileges right to your own door without extra cost.

It means that you can write a letter to Wanamaker's, ordering what you want, enclosing $5 or over, and have your goods come home without one penny being added to the price of the merchandise.

It means that thousands of families within this greatly enlarged circle will open monthly charge accounts with Wanamaker's (new accounts invited), and thus avoid even the trouble of enclosing money with the order.

This Free Delivery Service is open not only to those who send in their orders by mail, but

To Those Who Come to The Store

And Make Their Purchases Here

and in taking advantage of the many exceptional offerings of the Wanamaker Stores, such as our Silk Sales, Clothing Sales, Shoe Sales, Hosiery and Underwear Sales, etc., the saving in price will often more than pay railroad fare from quite a long distance.

Some years ago there was a great rush cityward of home makers, because people could find comforts and conveniences in the cities that they could not get anywhere else.

Today, in the built-up East, at least, there is practically no city and no country, for both are coming closer together in their relations, one supplementing the other; the country giving to the city its product, its health, its pure air. It is nothing unusual for a man now to conduct his business in a great city and live with his family fifty miles away in the open country. With the mail, the telephone, and now with the whole world is absolutely linked with Wanamaker's.

This Wanamaker Free Out-of-Town Delivery Service

If any one reading this announcement does not understand any part of it distinctly, please write for further information, addressing the undersigned.

Journal of a Neglected Bulldog

By BARBARA BLAIR

Say, it takes a fool to make a fool—of a man, doesn't it? To think that a clever, brainy man like my master would neglect an intelligent and gifted bulldog like myself for a silly girl like this one. Why, she doesn't know anything—or, if she does, she is careful not to let anybody else know it.

She never says anything sensible, though I grant you she can chatter in an amusing enough way, that is for a woman. But her conversation doesn't appeal to me. Some people may like that sort of thing, but I don't. But as for my master—well, the first time she smiled on him he went down like the last tenpin which is hit by the ball of an expert.

It is remarkable the things she can make him do with that smile. She doesn't say much at these times, she just looks up in his eyes and smiles, and—well, that smile does the rest.

She has a large assortment of smiles. When she turns her dreamy smile on him I have seen him tremble and sigh and grow pale. Absurd, I call it. I can show my teeth and growl savagely and he doesn't do any of these things.

If the girl frowns or looks as if she were going to cry, my master just laughs at her and calls her "baby." It is when she smiles that he seems to be afraid of her.

Odd that a smile should have such a remarkable effect upon him, isn't it? My smile don't.

I must say that she can smile in more ways in less time than any girl I ever saw, and being my master's dog, I have met a good many girls—in fact, almost all of his girls.

She has a dreamy smile and a merry smile, a rebuking smile and an innocent smile, a sarcastic smile and a haughty smile, a pleading smile and a questioning smile, a teasing smile and a loving smile. To be sure, my master doesn't call them these names; to him they are all "adorable" and "bewitching."

To-day she said to my master: "Don't you think, dear, Bob is very interesting?" (Innocent smile.)

"No," said my master, in a voice very much like mine, "I don't."

"He has such beautiful eyes. Don't you just love his eyes?" (Dreamy smile.)

"That is the second time you have told me about Bob's eyes," growled my master. "It seems to me you are thinking a good deal about Bob lately."

"I have mentioned him several times, haven't I? I wonder—" (Questioning smile.)

"There is no doubt in my mind that you care a good deal more for him than you do for me. Now, it—"

"Why, surely, dear, you are not jealous?" (Rebuking smile.)

"Jealous? Of course not. Absurd! As if I could be jealous of an insufferable bore, a conceited idiot, a brainless, vapid, empty, intolerable little saphead like Bob."

Gr—gr—gr—gr—gr—I couldn't have done it better myself.

"Why, everyone says he is so clever. He is the most popular man I know. And he has such charming manners; he is so gentle and always speaks so well of everyone. And you know, dear, his eyes are attractive. When he looks at me in that charming little way, I must confess I—" (Eloquent pause, dreamy smile.)

My master sprang to his feet, his eyes wild. I sprang to mine and stood by his side, my teeth showing and my hair bristling.

"How wonderfully alike you two look." (Teasing smile.)

"You are a wretched little flirt," cried my master.

"Gr—gr—gr—gr—gr—I added.

"Oh, Jack." (Pained smile.) "Why, Jack, I just couldn't flirt, no matter how hard I should try. That is my greatest fault—"

"Quite so," snapped master.

"Gr—gr," I said, savagely.

"I mean it is my greatest fault; that I always say exactly what I feel. Jack, dear, you know this?" (Pleading smile.)

"I wish I could think so," said my master, "but—"

I lay down again.

"You must think so, you dear old boy. Please don't be horrid any more, Jack. If you knew how unhappy you make me when you are—" (Loving smile.)

I didn't hear any more until my master said "Good-night" an hour later.

I love my master, but oh, you girls!

Swarming Bees' Scout.

Swarms of bees are sometimes compelled to take refuge in very remarkable shelters. A peculiar and instructive instance was observed by the writer in the spring of 1908. The swarm flew over a large vineyard which contained low buildings. One of these buildings was constructed of hollow concrete blocks. The swarm flew directly toward a small hole in one of the blocks and disappeared in the interior. No doubt the swarm had rested on a tree or shrub on the preceding day and had sent out scouts to seek a home.

The scouts found the little hole leading into the great cavity of the concrete block, and reported their discovery to their comrades. This case furnishes indisputable proof that swarming bees really send out scouts, as they are believed to do, for the little hole could not have been discovered in the rapid and lofty flight of the swarm.—Scientific American.

A Safeguard to Children.

"Our two children of six and eight years have been since infancy subject to colds and croup. About three years ago I started to use Foley's Honey and Tar, and it has never failed to prevent and cure these troubles. It is the only medicine I can get the children to take without a row." The above from W. C. Orstein, Green Bay, Wis., duplicates the experience of thousands of other users of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cures coughs, colds, and croup, and prevents bronchitis and pneumonia. Gales Pharmacy.

For the Mother.
If a child be taught nothing else about the use of its body it should at least be taught poise in standing, walking and sitting, and correct poise is merely a matter of getting the weight on the balls of the feet and raising the chest. Even young children throw their weight on the heels, and that this eventually becomes a habit may be seen by observing men and women upon the streets.

Shakespeareans.
Young Featherley—"Of Shakespeare's plays I think I prefer 'Richard III.'" Miss Clara—"Er—but Shakespeare did not write 'Richard III.'" Young Featherley (with an amused smile)—"Ah! I see, Miss Clara, you are one of the few left who believe that Bacon wrote Shakespeare's plays. I wonder if the question will ever be satisfactorily settled!"

Talking Business.
The Man—"You don't know how beautiful you are!" The Girl—"Look here, I've a mirror, and I've known other men. What I don't know is how rich you are. Do you want to talk business?"

Daily Thought.

We pass for what we are. Character teaches above our wills. Men imagine that they communicate their virtue or vice only by overt actions, and do not see that virtue or vice emit a breath every moment.—Emerson.

Sore Lungs and Raw Lungs

Most people know the feeling, and the miserable state of ill health it indicates. All people should know that Foley's Honey and Tar, the greatest throat and lung remedy, will quickly cure the soreness and cough and restore a normal condition. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar. Gale's Pharmacy.

NOW BOYS AND GIRLS AND GROWN-UPS WHAT'S YOUR GUESS?

The Standard Census Contest Begins Tuesday, February 1 and Continues Through the Month.

As announced in last Friday's STANDARD prizes will be given to guessers as to the population of Westfield in 1910, according to the federal census to be taken next Spring. The terms of the contest are as follows:

To the one making nearest correct guess as to the population of Westfield, a prize of Ten Dollars in gold will be given; to the one making the next nearest guess Five Dollars in gold will be given; and to the third, will be given a year's subscription to the STANDARD. All guesses must be addressed "Census Contest" and sent to the STANDARD by March first. It is not necessary to be a subscriber to the paper. All ages, colors, creeds and nationalities are welcome. This offer should appeal to the bright boys and girls of Westfield, who are always glad to get money either for spending or to start a bank account, or would be glad to get a bright, independent newsy paper, every week for a year.

The contest will open February 1st, 1910 and close February 28th, 1910. All guesses must be made over the signature of the contestant. No aliases allowed.

Cut this out, and fill in blank, and mail or deliver to "Census Contest," STANDARD, Westfield, N. J.

HERE IS THE PROOF

That the best body-building and strengthening tonic for

Delicate Children

— is —
Vinol

"My 9 year old daughter was weak, pale, and had no appetite. I gave her Vinol, and she began to thrive at once. She gained rapidly in weight, color and strength."—
Mrs. W. H. GILMORE, Durand, Mich.

"My two children, who were puny and ailing, rapidly gained flesh and strength when I began to give them Vinol. I proved that Vinol is a splendid tonic for delicate children."—
Mrs. C. ALLEN, New Bedford, Mass.

Vinol builds up healthy flesh and makes thin little limbs round and plump. Children love to take it.

We return people's money without question if Vinol does not accomplish all we claim for it. Try it, please.

BASKETBALL---OUCH!

Cranford Academics Trowned by Locals, 99 to 7.

The boys basketball team of the local High School succeeded in scoring 99 points against the 7 points of the Cranford High School five, last Wednesday afternoon at Washington School. The game was exciting, even though the score was one sided, and was very fast toward the end when the local lads were striving to score "one hundred." The score shows that the town team must have thrown baskets at the rate of one a minute as the game was forty minutes long. This proves that the locals are fast and are above the average. Mr. Ralph Martin refereed the game and Mr. Hamilton of Cranford umpired.

The visitors made their seven points in the first half when the locals had not quite "warmed up." The town quintet really scored 101 points, but as the Cranford time-keeper blew the whistle as the basket was thrown Westfield concluded to let the score stand 99-7. Take note, also, that three of the seven points of Cranford were made by fouls. The line ups were:

Cranford H. S.	Westfield H. S.
Wm. Halsey	R. F. Keeler
G. Reeves	L. F. G. Delatour
W. Oakley	Centres E. Underwood
J. Jones	R. G. S. Bush
Parcella	L. G. W. Sisserson
McConnell	Subs Meyers and Elliott

Have you noticed that the locals also defeated the team of the Roselle Park High School last Saturday by the score of 15-11 at Roselle Park.

The girls team of the local High School defeated the quintet of the Vail Dean High School of Elizabeth last Monday afternoon by the score of 29-22.

Hoarse Coughs, Stuffy Colds, pain in chest and sore lungs, are symptoms that quickly develop into a dangerous illness if the cold is not cured. Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough, heals and eases the congested parts, and brings quick relief. Gale's Pharmacy.

NEEDFUL KNOWLEDGE.

Westfield People Should Learn to Detect the Approach of Kidney Disease.

The symptoms of kidney trouble are so unmistakable that they leave no ground for doubt. Stale kidneys excrete a thick, cloudy, offensive urine, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding. The back aches constantly, headaches and dizzy spells may occur and the victim is often weighed down by a feeling of languor and fatigue. Neglect these warnings and there is danger of dropsy, Bright's disease or diabetes. Any one of these symptoms is warning enough to begin treating the kidneys at once. Delay often proves fatal.

You can use no better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's Westfield proof:

John Dimler, 85 Elmer St., Westfield, N. J., says: "For some time I suffered from kidney trouble and though I used several well known remedies, I failed to find relief. My back was very painful, I had frequent headaches and my health became much run down. I also consulted a physician, but his medicine failed to benefit me. There were also other symptoms which showed that my kidneys were disordered and when Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention, I procured a box at Frutchey's Pharmacy. They gave me such prompt relief that I continued taking them until I was cured. I cannot say too much in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
