Shows there is much activity on the Pearsall Home Site property.

On Beechwood Place—right among the trees—Contractor Piker is busily at work erecting a handsome half stucco and shingle house for the Company.

On Everson Place Contractor Piker is rapidly pushing to completion an attractive house for B. S. Hoff.

On Prospect street, just west from Dudley avenue, James Moffet & Son are erecting a handsome new house for the Company.

Up on Edingham Place Contractor Piker has a force of mechanics busily engaged erecting a semi-colonial house for M. D. Littlefield.

On upper Clark street, at the head of Edingham Place Harold Thompson is building himself a home.

This activity in Home Building on the Pearsall property is but a forerunner of what will be doing in the near future.

Inspect these new homes while they are building. We want you to see every stick of timber that goes into their construction. A Pearsall Home is going to be a thoroughly honestly built Home.

If you feel interested in PEARSALL HOME SITES we will gladly talk over the matter with you. As to terms, well, that is very easily arranged.

The Telephone— A Friend in Need

WITH a telephone at home, the business man does not feel the urgent necessity of being at the office.

Without a telephone, frequently he goes to business when he should stay indoors, sometimes thus developing a serious sickness from a slight indisposition. A telephone would keep him in touch with his place of business, and his place of business in touch with him, so that all ordinary affairs of the day would go on as though he were at his post.

It does not matter how far a man lives from his office, for Bell Telephone Service is both Local and Long Distance.

ANOTHER SCHOOL SITE

Minority in Board to Submit Proposition to Add Wings to the Washington School.

THE ESTIMATED COST IS $70,000.

Dr. Egel Not Sanguine of Approval of Majority but Declares Alternative Proposition Will Go Before Voters.

Dr. C. M. F. Egel, member of the Board of Education, is authority for the statement that he, with two of his colleagues on the Board who oppose the Mountain avenue site, will submit a minority report at the special Board meeting to be held May 24. At this meeting the final arrangements for calling a special election on the new school proposition will be made. Edward F. Lowe and J. Alston Dennis are the other members who oppose the Mountain avenue site.

Dr. Egel told a STANDARD representative that the idea of the minority report would be to secure the sanction of the entire Board of an alternative proposition, so that those opposing the Mountain avenue site might have the privilege of voting for another site. Dr. Egel said that in the opinion of the minority in the Board there was considerable opposition to an expenditure of more than $70,000 for a new school house and site. He thought that the Mountain avenue site would be vigorously opposed by many not only because of the uncertainty as to its fitness as a site, but also because of the large cost of building the kind of school house planned for that location.

"It is certain," said Dr. Egel, "that the new school house, if built on the Mountain avenue site, will cost at least $125,000 when entirely completed. This is too much money. We propose to offer as an alternative, therefore, a proposition which will not entail an expense of more than $70,000."

"What is your proposition?" he was asked.

"It is simply this. The Washington school grounds are plenty wide enough to allow for adding a wing at each side of the present building. It is our plan to build two such wings, of six rooms each, making in all a twelve room school sufficient to meet the needs of Westfield for some time to come. We consider the plan feasible, economical and in line with the movement to centralize the different grammar grades and the High school. By building the two wings to the Washington school the present plans of the Board made in connection with the building of the school on Mountain avenue can be carried out without material change, and the Town will save some $35,000."

Dr. Egel said that he did not think that the majority in the Board would favor the proposition, but whether it was concurred in by them or not, it would certainly be submitted to the voters at the coming election as an alternative. Dr. Egel said that the plans for the proposed additions to the Washington school were now being drawn, together with specifications. He said that this work was being done without expense to the town.

Dr. Egel said that he would be greatly surprised if the people of Westfield turned down a proposition that called for an expenditure of $70,000 as opposed to one of $125,000, but if it was voted to build on the Mountain avenue site, he could, an alternative plan having been offered, gladly abide by the decision of the voters and feel that he had done his full duty.

TRADE BOARD MEETING.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Trade to be held in the Town Hall, on Prospect street, next Thursday evening, the question of local mail and telegraph service will be discussed. The Town has not been supplied with night telegraph service for some time, and many citizens have entered complaints. There is also a feeling that the local mail service could be improved by the addition of carriers and it is planned to discuss the situation with a view to ascertaining the consensus of opinion.

Carter Gets Two Months Sentence.

Edward W. Carter, of Westfield, charged with breaking into the freight station at Westfield and with stealing $5 in cash, was sentenced to two months in jail by Judge Atwater, in the Court of Common Pleas, Wednesday. A strong plea for clemency was made in his case. It was represented that he was a National Guardsman and that he claimed to have committed the robbery while under the influence of drink.

E. C. STOKES ACCEPTS

Former Governor Will Be Principal Speaker at 2nd Annual Dinner of Trade Board May 24.

OTTO KEMPNER ALSO TO SPEAK.

President of N. Y. & N. J. Real Estate Change to Discuss Municipal Government and Realty—Plans Completed.

Former Governor Edward Casper Stokes has accepted the invitation of the banquet committee to be the guest of honor and chief speaker at the second annual dinner of the Westfield Board of Trade to be held at the Casino on Tuesday evening, May 24 at 7 o'clock. Mr. Otto Kempner, president of the New York and New Jersey Real Estate Exchange, will also speak. His subject will be "The Relation of Municipal Government to Real Estate Development." Mayor Alpers and Hon. Lloyd Thompson are also numbered among those who will address the banqueters. William E. Tuttle, Jr., who presided with such grace and tact over the festive board last year, will be the toastmaster.

The committee in charge of the dinner have held several meetings this week and the plans are now about completed. Demoli will be the caterer, and there will probably be some special music. As the seating capacity of the hall is limited the number of tickets that can be sold is accordingly limited to 200. Applications for them should be filed, accompanied by check, with Mr. Walter B. Toucey, treasurer of the committee on or before Saturday, May 14. After that date, those tickets not purchased by members of the Board will be placed on sale at Frutchey's drug store. Those desiring to be seated together at table should note their respective preferences in their applications for tickets.

Governor Stokes acceptance has contributed much to the general interest in the dinner. He is a convincing and forceful speaker. His speech before the members of the Men's Club of St. Pauls Episcopal Church a few months ago was highly praised, and the members of the Board urged President Tuttle and the Dinner Committee to use every means to secure him as speaker for the annual banquet. Former Governor Stokes acceptance was received Monday night.

Mr. Kempner is also regarded as a good after-dinner speaker. He has selected an interesting subject, and as he is regarded as one of the best informed men in the east on realty matters, his talk will be instructive. Both Mayor Alpers and Assemblyman Thompson can be counted upon to contribute a good share to the festive feast.

The committee in charge of the banquet is: Lloyd Thompson, chairman; Charles N. Coddling, William E. Tuttle, Jr., George T. Crutenden, W. B. Toucey, F. Harry Schaefer, Paul Q. Oliver.

AUTOMOBILES COLLIDE.

Sanborn and McClintock Cars Come Together at Curve.

In turning the short curve from Westfield avenue into North avenue, Tuesday afternoon, S. B. Sanborn's Buick car ran into a large automobile driven and owned by W. A. McClintock, of 535 Carleton road. Both machines were somewhat damaged by the collision, but Mr. Sanborn's car being the lighter, got the worst of it.

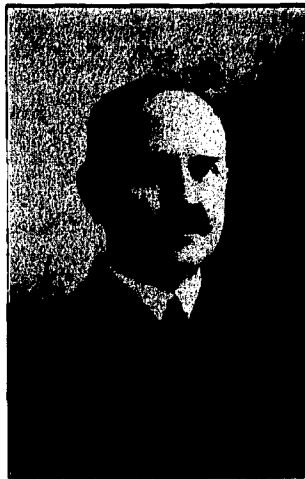

With Mr. Sanborn, who was driving, were his wife and brother, Mr. D. R. Deconey. Fortunately none was hurt. Both cars were taken to the Martine garage for repairs. The lamps, radiator and rear axle of the Buick car were smashed. Mr. McClintock's car escaped with a damaged front mud guard and running board.

Chamber Concert at Mountainside.

Mountainside Borough Council is highly fortunate in having secured for next Tuesday evening the Trio Club, of New York: Mr. Albert Schnitzler, violin; J. R. Youatt, cello, and Edmund Titus, piano; assisted by Mrs. J. R. Youatt, soprano, and Walter H. McIlroy, reader. The program consists of high class instrumental and vocal music, with the genial McIlroy to conserve the demands of such an occasion for contrasts as to the matter of moods. The affair promises to be well worth the moon-light journey to the new Borough Hall at Mountainside, which is a pleasing sight in itself.

PARK COMMISSION RATIFIES MOUNTAIN AVENUE SITE.

The Westfield Park Commission at a meeting Monday night practically ratified the action of the Board of Education in the proposal to acquire the Mountain avenue site for a new school.

The Peckham property has a frontage on Mountain avenue of 201 feet. The rear is somewhat narrower than the front. In order to give ample space for the proposed building, and to provide for possible future extensions, the School Board wishes to acquire 25 feet from the Ernst lot on the south, and 25 feet from the Boardman lot on the north. Each of these lots has a frontage of 75 feet. This would leave 50 feet in each lot to be taken up by the Park Commission and made a part of the proposed park. This would give an entrance 50 feet wide to the Park nearly opposite Walnut street, and a similar entrance nearly opposite Orchard street. A natural extension to the Walnut street entrance would be through to Euclid avenue on the property line between the A. H. Clark and the W. E. Reeve properties fronting on Euclid avenue. At the meeting of the Park Commission Monday night, five members were present, and unanimously voted to recommend the acquisition of these two 50-foot strips, this recommendation to be added to their previous recommendation that the rear be acquired for Park purposes. The Park Commission has suggested to Messrs. Clark and Reeve that if each would contribute to the Town or Park Commission a strip of land sufficiently wide for a street, this would not only give the town an outlet to Euclid avenue without cost to the town, but would doubtless enhance the value of their property by an amount at least sufficient to compensate them for their gift. It is understood this proposition has been favorably received by both Mr. Clark and Mr. Reeve. This outlet would give the residents of Euclid and Harrison avenues not only convenient and much needed access to the school and Park, but also to Mountain avenue, Elmer street and points west.

The Town, just now, has an opportunity which it may not have again for acquiring valuable park and school sites, and a roadway, at almost nominal cost. These would be worth to the town many times the cost. This matter will come before the Council at its next meeting Monday night. It is rumored that the Council will favor the proposition.

Keep yourself posted on what is happening in Westfield by reading the Standard. It contains all the news.

DISCUSS SCHOOL SITE.

Large Crowd Hear Merits of Peckham Property Explained at Men's Club Meeting.

MUCH INTEREST IS MANIFESTED.

Members of Board of Education and Others Speak—Majority Seem to Favor Park Plan.

The Men's Club with their ladies entirely filled the large auditorium of the parish house of the Presbyterian Church to discuss the new school proposition, last night. Among those specially invited and present were the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Loomis, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Stearns, Rev. Sidney Cross, Mayor Alpers and members of the Board of Education were present.

Mr. A. H. Lack, President of the Men's Club, presided and stated the object of the meeting was to bring the school issue clearly before the people. Mr. Lack introduced Mr. Stern, President of the Board of Education who stated the reason for building a new school was that by 1911, 450 pupils would be without accommodation under the present system. He said the matter of a site was important, but less important than a new building at some point. Mr. Stern assumed that all present were from Missouri and urged those present to ask all the questions they possibly could.

Mr. E. A. Merrill, vice-president of the Board, took the platform and put in a plea for a fair and broad discussion of the issue, setting aside all prejudices and animosities. No solution could possibly meet the needs and wishes of all. For example opposition to a gymnasium, or the commercial or manual training courses should not cause a voter to turn down the whole school proposition. Dr. Stearns asked if the site on Mountain avenue would enable the Board to place the primary pupils in the parts of the town to which they would logically belong. The reply was that the Board was considering a site that would discriminate against the least possible number of children, and meet present and future requirements. In response to a question put by Dr. Loomis it was stated that a school devoted entirely to High School purposes would probably not be needed for a number of years to come. Mr. Pierson asked the objection to the site at Euclid and Chestnut. Mr. Merrill displayed a large white print of the eastern part of the

DR. MACNICHOLL'S TALK.

Large Audience Hears Eloquent Plea For Temperance.

A large audience gathered at the Baptist Church last Sunday night to hear Dr. T. A. MacNicholl, of New York City, on "Child Martyrs of the Twentieth Century." The Doctor is recognized by the scientific world as an authority on alcohol and its effect upon the human system. He was a delegate from the United States Government to the Eleventh International Congress against alcoholism, held in Stockholm, Sweden. He is also vice-president of the American Medical Society for the study of alcohol in the United States. He is an attractive platform speaker and marshals the facts of his investigations with convincing logic. Among other things Dr. MacNicholl said:

"To obtain data as to the causes of infant mortality, I selected twenty families for investigation. The families were divided into two groups of ten each. The parents in the first group were all drinkers of alcoholic beverages. In this group there were 50 children. Of these 30 died in infancy, 3 of heart disease, 4 were insane or imbecile, 7 epileptic, anemic and neurotic, 8 tuberculous, 1 diabetic, 3 poor teeth, 3 adenoids, 4 normal. Of those who were able to attend school, 17 were defective in their studies, 6 fair, 2 excellent.

The parents in the second group of ten families were total abstainers. Of the 50 children in this group, 2 died in infancy, 2 were neurotic and anemic, 1 rheumatic, 1 tuberculous, and 64 normal. In their studies 2 were deficient, 10 fair, and 50 excellent. Of the total number of children in these families of the total abstainers, 90% were normal. Of the children of drinking parents, 93% were abnormal. Thus in these two groups of families living under the same general conditions, drink actually sacrificed 83% of the children.

"There may be a dispute among scientists whether acquired talent or diseases can be transmitted to offspring. But there is unanimity of belief that a defective germ cell cannot produce a healthy organism. For every child of a healthy mother that dies in infancy, five children of alcoholic parents die in infancy. Eighty per cent of the children of regular drinkers have convulsions when teething. In the United States, one infant under two years of age dies every five minutes. Alcohol is directly or indirectly responsible for the slaughter of 80,000 infants per year. Since the twentieth century dawned, in the United States alone, 800,000 children under two years of age have died martyrs to alcohol.

"The statement is often made that drinking countries do not sustain the argument which is based upon conditions in America—that wine and beer are temperance drinks and so do not produce such degeneracy. But investigations made under government supervision in the wine and beer-drinking countries of Europe afford a remarkable argument in corroboration of the contention that alcohol in wine and beer produces a deplorable degeneracy among children. For instance, in beer-drinking Austria, of 250,000 school children examined last summer, only 20% were found normal in mind and body. In wine-drinking France the children of the wine-drinkers that survive the first months of infancy are menaced by idiocy, epilepsy and numerous nerve disorders. In Prussia, Dr. Behla, head of the Prussian National Statistical Bureau, reports that during the past ten years there has been an average of one suicide per week among the school children of Prussia. Over one-fourth of the cases were caused by mental disease. In the German Empire the mortality records show that infant mortality is on the increase, 450,000 children under one year of age dying annually. Gustav Lemme, of Nordhausen, in his work on the social causes of infant mortality says: 'If alcoholism in Germany could be removed, it would take away one of the chief causes of mortality.'

"Shall you for a glass of beer, wine or spirits barter away the birthright of the child? Shall the children pay the price of parental indulgence in drink and provide material for dispensaries and hospitals? Shall we continue to slaughter a vast army of infants every year? No! Every parent's heart revolts at the thought. Child martyrdom must stop. This is an emergency issue that calls for immediate action."

town and showed that the 125 and more pupils could be better accommodated by the Mountain avenue site. The Euclid avenue site was too shallow at the front end and would bring two primary schools too close together. Mr. Andrew Smith vigorously protested that the site recommended by the majority of the School Board was marshy, unhealthy and a dump filled with old tin cans, bottles, stumps and limbs of trees. It was pointed out in reply that experienced engineers had tested the ground and found a layer of hard pan beneath the upper soft dirt, and that this could be easily drained and the refuse could be covered with earth. Drainage would eliminate the mosquitoes. Mr. Smith thought the town was getting too bullish, especially in the matter of school expenditures. It was admitted that taxes were high, but, Mr. Merrill asked, whether we are to pinch in the matter of schools or along some other line. The new building would not be an empty monument, but would be filled with pupils. We ought to provide rooms that would not impair the health and eyesight of pupils.

Mayor Alpers in an able speech, was optimistic about the town, and urged all not to take a step backward. The town tax rate would probably be lower in the future, although property values might be raised on the assessors books, but, this would only be just in view of the growth of the town.

Mr. A. N. Pierson said the taxes had given him a night mare or two, but after all, there had not been such a tremendous rise in the school taxes. Mr. Pierson thought our good schools were bringing people into the town, and were a good business investment aside from the educational advantages. It was stated in reply to Mr. J. H. Verleden that the reason the tax rate in Westfield was the highest in Union County, was because there were few towns of importance in Union County. Considering the local advantages, Westfield ought not to be compared with Garwood and Springfield.

Dr. Egel then took the floor in behalf of the minority of the board. He said the minority had no definite report to make, but would have architectural plans, and hoped to place same before the people at a meeting sometime between May 24 and 27. Dr. Egel's plan was to add two wings of six rooms each to the Washington school. This would not mar the architectural beauty of the present building, would have the same number of class room as the new site on Mountain avenue, there would be no expense for site or drainage and would save janitor services. He estimated the two wings would cost $70,000. This plan would not provide a gymnasium, drawing room and rooms for the commercial, manual training and domestic science courses. Dr. Egel said he was opposed to placing a gymnasium in the public schools. He thought a gymnasium should be provided for in some other way, as by public subscription. It would be useless and dangerous to children without an instructor, and all told he estimated it would cost $1,000 a year to maintain one. Dr. Kinch asked how many points this would raise the tax rate. Dr. Egel said he had not figured it out, but, every little bit added to what you get makes just a little bit more. Dr. Egel thought $10,400 would be needed to fill in and drain the Mountain avenue site. Mr. Merrill thought that $5,000 would be the maximum figure, probably less, as a matter of fact. Mr. Dennis when questioned, said he preferred the Euclid avenue site. Mr. David was called on and stated he had nothing to say at present. At the conclusion, Mrs. Loomis made a happy speech and put in a plea for the mothers of the children and spoke against false economy in school matters. Her pungent remarks were frequently applauded. A vote of thanks was given the Board. Mr. Lack stated that the parish house would be at the service of the Board for future public meetings.

School Notes.

A new flag has been furnished for Lincoln School to take the place of the torn emblem which floated from the mast.

Dr. Savitz has handed the written essays in the Woman's Club contest to the Rev. Dr. Loomis, Randall H. Stern and Mrs. C. M. Tremaine, the judges of the contest. The awards will be made known at an early date.

Miss Richards, of the Westfield schools, visited the Belmont Avenue School, in Newark, on Friday, and Miss Heller visited the South Orange school Wednesday.

Miss Edna Houtling, of Morristown, has been engaged to teach the sixth grade at Washington School next fall and Miss Fannie Crist, of High Bridge, has been engaged to teach the fourth grade at McKinley School. Miss Crist will have charge of the new class to be opened in McKinley School in the fall.

The Westfield High School will be well represented at the competitive examinations for scholarships at Rutgers.

The examinations will be held at Elizabeth on June 3 and 4.

The Junior class day exercises of the Westfield High School will be held in the evening this year. The exercises will take place at Washington School on June 15 at 8 o'clock.

The exhibit of manual training, drawing and other work in the school has been postponed until commencement time, when the work will be displayed in the hallways and classrooms of the schools.

Teachers who will be unable to go to New York University on May 21 to take examinations in Educational Psychology will be given an opportunity to take the examinations at the Courthouse in Elizabeth on June 4. Dr. Lough's lectures upon this subject have proven a great help to the teachers. There was a large attendance at the last lecture held on Monday afternoon at Washington School.

CURIOUS CUSTOMS OF ASSAM

Not the Least Peculiar Among Them is That Known as Doing "Genna."

Among the inhabitants of Assam there are curious customs described by a recent traveler: "The local nobleman who had consented to help the cook in return for his food plus pay had complained in the morning of a stomach ache, the result, probably, of a too liberal diet at my expense. I had doled him with strong ginger, but evening found him still in pain, and he refused to take more. He expected one dose to effect a magic cure, and if it did not he considered the medicine was not worth taking a second time. An evil spirit had got hold of him, he confided to me, and the only sure remedy was to propitiate it by sacrificing a white fowl. To do so with full ceremonial three whole days apart from the world were necessary, and therefore he had to tender his resignation."

"He came to see me a few weeks ago in Sadiya, and was much hurt at my mildly suggesting that 'the evil one' had been a surfeit of pork. The custom of shutting one's self off from contact with one's fellows is common all along this frontier, on such occasions as a birth, a death, sickness or some other unusual occurrence. It is called doing 'genna,' and takes place whenever the slightest ground can be found for it."

"There is a story of a certain well-known frontier officer being refused admittance to a house where usually he was an honored guest. On asking the reason, he was told that the household was doing 'genna,' as the family's female dog had just produced pups."

We Make Ourselves.

In the east, writes Frances Campbell, I have heard a woman say: "Oh, I cannot do that; I would be born next time a hunchback!" That may not be true. On the other hand, he would be bold who would say it could not be so—for even in this life we make ourselves. The miser, the evil speaker, the drunkard and glutton, and those who deny the claims of humanity, those who ignore the poor, the suffering, the outcast—see how they have made themselves!

Furtive eyes, hard mouths, unlovely jaws, forbidding countenances. They have no love, so no love is theirs. The false, the wholly mean, the unreal have no beauty; theirs is the hard and stony afterward, for even here we have a choice of ways. We can make ourselves as we will, beautiful or otherwise.—Home Chat.

Varied Mental Diet.

Monotony of thought is the destruction of the brain. Watch yourself and give your mind a varied diet. Force yourself to put away all thoughts of your life work for a few hours every day, and for a few weeks every year. Learn to be frivolous if you are engaged in serious work, and learn to be serious if your work is of a humorous or light character. The brain, like the body, needs more than one kind of food to keep in health.

Pen Point Material.

Iridium is a hard, brittle, silver-white metallic element belonging to the platinum group, discovered by Tennant in 1803. Sometimes found native and nearly pure, but generally combined with osmium. It is, with the exception of osmium, the heaviest metal known, and is used for pen points, contact points in telegraphy and points of scientific instruments liable to wear. Its specific gravity is 22.4.

Pity the Waked Him.

Mrs. Young went to sleep Sunday in church just before the hat was passed. He snored for awhile in a lady-like manner, but suddenly let out a few links that sounded like a trombone solo. At that point in the program his wife jabbed him one in the slats with her elbow which awakened him sufficiently to remark: "Get up and build the fire yourself."—Riverfront (Wyo.) News.

Court Dress of Laureate.

Tennyson's court dress, when he received the laureateship, did not cost him much, for it was the same court dress worn by Wordsworth, who in turn had it from the old poet Rogers, and it is still in the Wordsworth family. It is a wonder how Tennyson and Wordsworth got into it, for Rogers was a little fellow. Tennyson had no pension for courts, and so he went in second-hand to save cost.

Pneumonia Most Fatal Disease.

Health Commissioner Ritchie, of Boston, declares that pneumonia is now the most fatal disease in his jurisdiction. According to the present figures of the board of health, pneumonia comes first, heart disease second and tuberculosis, which was first in 1900, third.

To Keep Lemons.

Lemons may be kept a long time, even months, under glass. If you are not going to use them immediately lay them on a flat surface and invert a goblet over each one. After six months' imprisonment in this way they will be found to be fresh.—Woman's Life.

Bad Taste.

We have quit objecting to anything on the ground that it is wrong. When we wish to be particularly unpleasant we say in a sneering way that a certain action or thing is in very bad taste.—N. Y. Press.

Daily Health Hint.

Poisoning by inhaling chloroform or ether may be treated as for suffocation and artificial respiration should be induced. The great thing in all cases of poisoning is to get rid of the poison by purging or vomiting.

Real Meaning of Tact.

The real meaning of tact is thinking about others. It means considering what others will think and feel, instead of considering only what we ourselves think and feel.—Home Chat.

Still to Be Determined.

The dealer was busy filling bottles from a hoghead of wine. "What kind of wine is that?" queried an innocent bystander. "Don't know," answered the dealer. "I haven't labeled it yet."

Unsanitary Headdress.

In eighteenth century England the fashionable woman's headdress often had to be left untouched for weeks at a time.

Seems a Law of Nature.

Pauperism, destitution, ought to become extinct; but the poor, the wretched, the bereaved, the mutilated, we shall always have.

Self-Made.

A large majority of the good and respectable women in this world have succeeded in being so without the assistance of chaperons.

Guests Carved for Themselves.

It was the custom in medieval times to serve roast meat on a spit, and to pass it round the table for each guest to cut off what he liked.

"FOWLER THE MAN"

J. T. MacMurray Says He Will Be People's Choice.

Plainfield, May 13.—"Charles N. Fowler will be nominated and elected by the people to represent the Fifth Congressional District in the House of Representatives," is the declaration made yesterday by James T. MacMurray, of Plainfield. "At a recent dinner in New York, John H. McGraw, of Morristown, who has been mentioned for the place now occupied by Mr. Fowler, told me that he would not be a candidate as long as the present incumbent was out for reelection."

"I don't know anything about what 'Uncle Sam' Voorhees is going to do," said Mr. MacMurray, "but I am going to be under the Fowler banner, fighting tooth and nail. If he is not nominated by the county chairman, he will be by the people, and he'll be our next Congressman."

"The people of this district want and will have a man of Mr. Fowler's type as their representative. Besides sundry other virtues, he is not afraid to express his opinions, and you will see the insurgent leader back in his place after the coming campaign."

WESTFIELD MAN MUST PAY HIS WIFE $7 PER WEEK.

TRENTON, May 12.—Vice-Chancellor Walker conducted a preliminary hearing Tuesday on the application of Mrs. Dorothea Louise Arnold, of Westfield, for an order requiring her husband, Oscar M. Arnold, also of that place, to pay her an allowance pending the result of an action for maintenance and alimony. The court made an order allowing the wife $7 per week and also $10 for counsel fees.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold separated on April 18 last, the wife charging that her husband was self-willed and pugnacious toward her and had also abused her. Former Assemblyman Samuel Swackhammer, counsel for the husband, declared that all the trouble between the couple was due to the wife's grumbling because he did not provide money enough for her. He is employed in the insurance business at a salary of $1,400 per annum, which he says is much less than he formerly earned. William A. Cadington, of Plainfield, represents Mrs. Arnold.

A Sale to Introduce Pure Ramie Damask

For Which We Are Sole Agents in New Jersey

The remarkable fibre called Ramie bids fair to revolutionize the linen business, for while Ramie is not linen it is so nearly like it in appearance and so much better in wearing qualities that it is likely in time to stand well with pure linens as table dressing.

We are introducing pure Ramie Damask Tablecloths and Napkins—not Ramie Mixtures, but the pure undiluted Ramie without any sizing, and with that soft, beautiful finish.

We will show Ramie grass in its raw state, the finished yarns, and a few beautiful sample napkins made for prominent hotels in London, Eng., for the U. S. Navy and others, with names and designs woven in.

To introduce these splendid goods we are going to sell at the following special prices this week—

Pure Ramie Damask Tablecloths, 56x86 inches, at $2.25 each.

Pure Ramie Damask Tablecloths, 56x86 inches, at $3 each.	Pure Ramie Damask Tablecloths, 64x86 inches, at $4.46 each.
Pure Ramie Damask Tablecloths, 64x86 inches, at $3.46 each.	Pure Ramie Damask Tablecloths, 72x72 inches, at $4.45 each.
Pure Ramie Damask Tablecloths, 64x80 inches, at $4 each.	Pure Ramie Damask Tablecloths, 72x108 inches, at $6 each.

Announce a Sale of Men's $25 to $30 Suits at 19.75

The M. & B. Store is always doing something unusual in merchandising. One of the biggest Suit Sales in our history has just closed, and here comes another offering of still greater importance.

It's a greater opportunity because of the greater values offered. You never saw suits equal to these at such a little price.

They are made of English Worsted and Cheviots and are absolutely the finest garments that can be produced, no matter what price you pay. That's strong talk but the garments back it up.

The choice includes all the season's snappiest gray, blue, brown and olive shades. They're tailored and finished inside and outside by craftsmen who know and who apply their knowledge skillfully.

These Suits are on racks, all pressed and ready to put right. Come in and and pick yours out.

Scholastic Ideals.

The high standard of scholarship attained by the honor pupils of the local high school must be gratifying alike to teacher, parent, and all generally interested in the education of our children. In the past, high marks alone have been considered the one satisfactory test of efficiency in school work. This same standard is used still by most of the grammar and high schools, and the smaller colleges. While not gainsaying the high value of marks, progressive and thoughtful educators and thinkers are beginning to urge that our standard of excellence in matters scholastic be modified. After all, we send our children to school to bring out the qualities which really make for success in after life. In line with this idea the now famous Abbotsholme school in England was founded. Competitive scholarships are wholly abolished because they lead to cramming and strain, and contain an irreducible element of chance; whence the frequent disappointments and discouragement of capable pupils. All awards for excellence as based on the dynamic value of each pupil, viz., scholastic attainments, athletic ability, will-power, and personal reputation. So successful has been the plan that twenty-five schools in Germany, the United States, France and Switzerland, have been founded on the Abbotsholme plan. This may be carrying the dynamic idea too far, and is not practical, in many respects, for American public schools. However the Abbotsholme plan is founded on the right idea, i. e. getting at the worth of a pupil as a whole, and not along the one line of high marks. We think that a high record along scholastic lines is the most important end to be sought, but is for from being the only end. Our boys will soon be the bread winners and the girls the homemakers. In these strenuous days not only book knowledge is needed, but the power to think intelligently, fairly and quickly, and a sound body to serve a good mind.

Congressman Fowler.

Congressman Charles N. Fowler will be a candidate for renomination in the Fifth Congressional District, and the clear and convincing statement of his stand, made in his letter to Mayor Charles J. Fisk, of Plainfield, puts all rumors of his retirement at rest and makes him a lively factor in the coming campaign.

Congressman Fowler is a fighter. He is probably stronger with the people in this district to-day than he ever has been. Not that the aggressive gentleman from Elizabeth has not enjoyed a goodly share of public favor in days gone by, but that now he has come to the front in a crisis in national politics and put himself on record as being opposed to a one-man rule in Congress.

Congressman Fowler has represented his constituency well in the lower house. He has gained a national reputation as a student of and authority on financial questions.

Why is it that a town of approximately 8000 population cannot be supplied with a night telegraph operator? Westfield is being sadly neglected in this important branch of the service. The people are very anxious to know the reason.

"The world is growing worse every day," says a well known clergyman, who forgets that there were no newspapers to spread the glad tidings in ancient time—and for some years afterward.

A Letter from Robert Woodruff.

WESTFIELD, N. J., May 11, 1910.
Editor Union County Standard:

Dear Sir—Will you kindly permit me to deny the news item which appeared in your last issue as follows:

"The local storage warehouses are so crowded that no more goods can be taken. The warehouse claim that the scarcity of houses in this place is the cause of people storing their goods until they can build."

I do not know where you obtained such information, because this is misleading to the people of our town and vicinity.

Being the owner of the only storage warehouse in Westfield, I desire to state that I have taken care of all my patrons who desire storage and still have an abundance of room.

Yours respectfully,
ROBERT WOODRUFF.

Watch the Sky on the 18th.

In an address before the Men's Club of the M. E. Church, last night, Charles E. Appar, of Westfield, said that Halley's comet would cause no serious disturbance when it crossed between the sun and earth on the 18th. The display in the heavens on that night, he said, would be wonderful.

Plans for the Coming Year

we would say that we still have a good list of houses from which to choose a desirable home. These are in ALL sections of the town, and take in, we believe, practically EVERYTHING in the market.

From $6000 to $8000 seems to be the popular priced house and we have them in A-1 locations, and decided bargains.

We shall be pleased to send attractive booklets to friends out of town who may be interested in Westfield if you will kindly send us their names?

A Sneak Thief May be Climbing in Your Window Now!

Your windows can't always be closed. At this time of the year they are usually open.

That makes it easy for the sneak thief to steal your jewelry and other valuables.

Even if the window is closed, he knows how to get in, and what's more, knows how to locate your valuables and get away with them.

The Spring and Summer are favorite times with burglars and sneak thieves.

NOW is the time to buy Burglary and Theft Insurance. If you have such a policy in our company, you simply have to notify us when you are robbed. We get the goods back, or pay you their full cash value.

Less than 25c a week or about 30c a day gives you $1,000 protection for a whole year!

CHARLES N. FOWLER WILL BE CANDIDATE FOR RENOMINATION.

Congressman From Fifth District Clearly States Stand in Letter.

Charles N. Fowler, Congressman from fifth district, in a letter to Mayor of Plainfield, declares his intention of seeking a renomination. It was stated that Mr. Fowler would retire from the field hence Mr. Fisk in a letter asked Fowler to state his attitude on a matter. Mr. Fowler states his attitude clearly and unequivocally in following letter:

"I am just in receipt of your letter of May 10, and in reply want to thank you for your interest in the matter and to you of my attitude with regard to renomination. About three years ago I took the position that the rules of the House of Representatives should be changed. About two years ago I announced myself a candidate for the leadership upon a platform that limited the power of the speaker to the duty of presiding over the deliberations of the House. I did this for the purpose of bringing the matter before the people. We now seem to be upon a very threshold of achieving this reform, although it may project into the next Congress. In May, I did my utmost to have a pro-protect a broad tariff commission instituted in the Dingley tariff law, but after then seemed to meet with no success."

"Nevertheless I have persisted in my belief of this important economic reform. It is perfectly clear in the light of what has happened that if the recent passage of the tariff had been based on facts ascertained by such a commission, the present dissatisfaction and would have been obviated, and business of the country would have been along for years to come without interruption or disturbance."

"It is possible that at this session we may obtain, with the appropriations for the President, such a concession of this kind as to accomplish this desired end, although this is more than we hope for now."

"Since I entered public life I have been making a fight, as you are fully aware, for financial and political reform. This matter seems to be much in the public mind now as it was some time ago. I am greatly interested in all reform measures in particular I consider a renomination an opportunity to carry forward reforms, and therefore even a home than any nomination tendered me. To have a great reform of one's time, receive the approval of one Congress in these slow, at times doubtful, always arduous undertakings, is of profound satisfaction, an incentive to one in his efforts to advance the welfare of his country."

C. E. UNION CONVENTION

OPENS HERE THIS AFTERNOON.

Plans Completed for Two Sessions at Presbyterian Church.

Plans are now complete for the annual convention of the Union County C. E. Union. The convention, which is to be held at the First Presbyterian Church of Westfield, this afternoon and evening, will open at 4:30 with a conference of Junior Superintendents and workers, led by the new County Superintendent, Miss Nell C. Green. An address will be given by Chester Bradley, of Newark, Superintendent of Junior work in Essex County. Supper will be served at the close of the session to Junior workers, by the C. E. Society of the Westfield church.

The executive committee of the union will meet in the chapel at 7:15. All members of this committee, officers, department superintendents, and delegates from the societies are urged to be on time. Each society in the County is entitled to three delegates, the president, junior superintendent, and one other delegate to be appointed by the president. The evening rally will begin promptly at 8 o'clock, and until that hour seats will be reserved for each society of the County, the places being designated by markers.

All societies having badges are requested to wear them, and all delegates are asked to wear the County colors, Yale blue and white. There will be a roll call of all the societies, and the badge banner awarded to the society having the largest percentage of active members present.

The banner was won last year by Greystone Presbyterian Church of Elizabeth, having 80 out of 81 members present.

Officers for the year will be elected.

The chairman of the nominating committee being Fred S. Bontreau, of Summit.

The present officers are: President, Purdy F. Benedict, of Roselle; Vice-Presidents, William D. Newton, of Summit; Clarence B. La Rue, of Plainfield; Frederick L. Mintel, of Rahway; F. Herbert Hand, of Elizabeth; Secretary, Harry F. Brewer, of Elizabeth; Treasurer, Frederick E. Woodruff, of Cranford.

The speaker for the evening will be the "Business Man Evangelist," William Phillips Hall. Mr. Hall is the inventor of the block signal system in use on most of the railroads throughout the country, and is president of the Hall Signal Co., whose plant is situated at Garwood.

FEDERATION TANGLE.

Feeling Displayed at Annual Convention
--To Meet Here in Fall.

The State Federation of Women's Clubs of New Jersey will meet in Westfield this fall. It is expected that little or no important business will come up, as this will be mainly a social session. Hence the Woman's Club of Westfield is making arrangements to receive their guests in a manner befitting this important organization of women and the local club.

Clubs to the number of 121 met at Englewood last Friday and Saturday to hold the 16th annual convention. Sharp words were passed and several lively tilts took place at the council of presidents on Saturday morning with Mrs. Edward S. Robinson of the Westfield club in the chair, when an effort was made to amend the by-law that, "neither shall two members of the same club hold office at the same time."

The larger clubs claimed that clubs of 300 or more members should be allowed to have two representatives. So vigorous were the protests from the smaller clubs that the by-law was not amended. In the election of directors there was considerable feeling and it was evident that the nominating committee did not altogether voice the sentiments of the assembly, for Mrs. Charles B. Seabury, of Boonton, was nominated from the floor and received a larger number of votes than other candidate, although ignored by the nominating committee. The other directors chosen were Mrs. Claude W. Gilson, of Elizabeth, and Mrs. J. W. Acton, of Salem.

The Rare Gift of Courtesy.
Courtesy includes not merely social politeness, grace of speech, absence of rudeness, but honorable treatment of all business associates, and of all the fellow citizens with whom a man of affairs may have business to transact. It is not American to keep one citizen waiting all day at the door because he is poor, and to grant another citizen an interview because it is believed he is rich. Wisdom is not confined in a purse, and frequently much wisdom may be learned from a poor man.

The Wisdom of the Serpent.
The serpent tempted the woman not because she was the weaker, but because she was the leader; not because of her subordination, but on account of her superiority. She was the stronghold of the fortress, and to win her was to win all. She held the key to the situation. She was the keeper of the castle. Where she led for good or evil the man would follow! —From a Sermon by Rev. Mr. Kerr of Chicago.

Thirst for Novelty.
The curse of modern life—the thirst for the new, the rage to get out of the old skin—is the blight on our literature, our art, our drama, our manners—even our morals. It is passion without aim, or conviction, or feeling—a mere restless itch to get free from old habits and to get into something uncommon, it hardly matters what, if only it can announce itself as "unconventional."

Spot for Lady Godiva.
"Talk about vanity!" exclaimed the woman who keeps her eyes open. "I passed a big new building the other day—big enough to be a school or a theater—and what do you suppose it was to be devoted to? Hair—hair! Puffs and braids and swirls and switches and curls and rats and things for women to pin on their heads and make believe belong to them. A building full of hair!"

Eating Oranges on Trains.
If you take the children on the train and wish to feed them oranges, which tend to quench the thirst, prepare the fruit at home and wrap the sections in waxed paper. It is tedious to pare them on the train, and one is liable to soil the clothes in doing so.

To Add Interest.
A little boy was killed on a viaduct in a certain Texas city. A father was trying to describe him to his little son. The child tried to recall the dead child, and, failing, said sorrowfully to his parent, "I wish it had been Patty O'Hagan—I know him." —Delineator.

Life and Strife.
The law of the worthy life is fundamentally the law of strife. It is only through labor and painful effort, by grim energy and resolute courage, that we move on to better things. —Theodore Roosevelt.

Russian Mendacity.
Russian ethnologist concludes that "the highest type of humanity in the new world existed in northwestern America." No consolation in this for New England. —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"Listen at Him."
"Father's trip abroad did him so much good," said the self-made man's daughter. "He looks better, feels better, and as for appetite—honestly, it would do your heart good to hear him eat!" —Everybody's.

Uplift for Farmer's Daughter.
Writing names and addresses on eggs is a great pastime with country girls and just now, is leading to many marriages in rich families. —Buffalo News.

The Diplomat.
"And, oh, mother," said the little girl, "Lucy Jones had such an awful hat on. So Annie gave her an 'int; she said, 'I wouldn't wear a thing like that.'" —Manchester Guardian.

Italian Method of Taxation.
Italy levies a graduated income tax as well as a direct tax on land and houses. Small incomes are exempt from taxation.

The Two Classes.
All the people are divided into two parts—those who wait for the mid-season bargain sales and those who can afford not to.—Life.

A Great Truth.
"Lots of men smoke the cigars their wives give them for Christmas," says the Philosopher of Folly, "and then laugh at the men who wear rubbers."

The Philosopher of Folly.
"The man who throws money to the birds," says the Philosopher of Folly, "has a lot of nerve to pose as a lover of dumb animals."

Give It Another Aspect.
Enthusiasm often dwindles considerably when we try to convert it into hard cash.

A Way to Success.
You will succeed in life if you resist doing things you know you shouldn't do.—Atchinson Globe.

Love.
Love is the art of hearts and the heart of art.—From "Fotus," by Philip James Selley.

Conservation.

The resources of the earth are the basis of our national wealth. By means of them alone, in material things, comes leadership among the nations. The conservation movement now fully under way embraces the forest movement as one of its sources and great divisions. Thus the cause of forest conservation throughout the country has won a powerful ally and a more effective support for the work that lies just before us.—Gilford Pinchot in New England Magazine.

Did Not Worry Her.

Have the terrors of the French revolution been exaggerated? A French woman mentioned in Sir Mount Stuart Grant Duff's diary had lived in Paris through the last 30 years of the eighteenth century, and when asked for her impressions of the tragic times of the terror replied: "The whole affair has been vastly exaggerated. For my part, I never found it necessary to abandon my weekly 'at home' days."

Windfall in Bible.

While reading a Bible which he had bought in a second-hand shop, a Herne Hill (London) gardener named Wallace, recently thrown out of work, came upon two £5 (£25) notes and the following inscription: "I gathered this money with very great difficulty, but, having no relative who is in absolute need, I make thee, whoever shall read this Bible, to be my heir."

New Book of Kings.

A fine book might be written upon the psychology of royalty, containing all the human documents that have come down to us from the rulers of the past. Such a book would make us think more kindly of those rulers—even of that long list of the kings of Israel of whom we are told nothing except that they did evil in the sight of the Lord.—London Times.

English at the Universities.

To an American in England nothing is more surprising than the discovery that neither Oxford nor Cambridge provides any opportunity for the serious study of English. At Oxford, for example, there is only a single professor of English literature, whereas there are ten or a dozen at Harvard and Columbia.—The Forum.

Seek for Words in Things.

It used to be a common saying of Myson's that men ought not to seek for things in words, but for words in things; for that things are not made on account of words but that words are put together for the sake of things.—Diogenes Laertius.

Improved Pumping System.

In California, where many wells yield both natural gas and water, it is stated that a system has been tried whereby the gas is separated and utilized in an engine to pump the water.

Linguistic Policemen.

There are at present on duty in the main thoroughfares of Paris 21 policemen who speak English, also who speak German and six who speak Spanish, and their usefulness has been clearly demonstrated.

Wisdom.

Wisdom does not show itself so much in precept as in life—in a firmness of mind and mastery of appetite. It teaches us to do, as well as to talk; and to make our actions and words all of a color.—Seneca.

Nearest Perpetual Motion.

The man who invented the gas meter has just died. He takes his place as coming the nearest to date to solving the problem of perpetual motion.—Hartford Courant.

Encouraging Dream.

To dream that some one bears you malice foretells a pleasant prospect in your worldly affairs; and that you will soon be advanced to some important station.

His Funeral Pile.

"The man who works himself to death," says the Philosopher of Polly, "finds that his money is nothing but his funeral pile."

Ferocious.

It isn't safe to judge by appearances. The man who acts ferocious abroad may be as meek as a lamb at home.—Chicago Daily News.

An Avaricious Woman.

A New York woman worth $500,000 has eloped with a plumber. The avaricious baggage!—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Character Easily Determined.

Tell me with whom thou art fond, and I will tell thee who thou art.—Goethe.

Division of Labor.

A man's better-half lays down the rules in the house, but allows her husband to lay down the carpets.

Book-Loving Scots.

More books are printed in Edinburgh in proportion to population than in any other city in the world.

Good Definition.

True wit is nature to advantage dressed.—Pope.

Most Deadly of Poisons.

Prussic acid poisons every living thing, plants as well as animals.

Good Breeding.

A scholar without good breeding is a pedant; the philosopher, a cynic; the soldier, a brute; and every man, disagreeable.—Chesterfield.

The Best Lullabies.

The motherly woman who has raised half a dozen children can beat all the divas that ever "dove" at singing lullabies that really lull.

Cattle Raised for Their Hides.

Galloway cattle are being raised in Alaska, their hides being considered equal to bearskins for beauty and service.

Real Pathos.

There is nothing so pathetic as the efforts of a dull mind to produce bright speech.

Views Hard to Condense.

The man with broad views of life cannot condense them into the narrow confines of the home.

Must Keep Hands in Sight.

Every visitor to the White House must keep his hands in sight—during public receptions.

The Borrower of Trouble.

He who foresees calamities suffers them twice over.—Porteus.

THEODORE A. BALL, WESTFIELD NURSERIES

GROWERS OF

FRUIT, SHADE AND ORNAMENTAL TREES

And All Hardy Plants for the Lawn and Garden.

Westfield, N. J., May 13, 1910

Dear Sir:

I have to offer you a choice lot of Parson's Hardy Rhododendrons, named varieties, large plants, 2 to 2½ feet high, covered with flower buds at $1.50 each, including planting and guaranteeing same. Hardy Azaleas, named, 30 to 40 flower buds at 75c each. Other Azaleas, not named, 50c each.

There is no shrub blooming outdoors, that can equal the Rhododendron or Azalea, their decorative effects singly or in groups, are without rival. These plants are dug with a large ball of soil on the roots which will insure their safe transplanting.

Remember, I will plant and guarantee them to grow, but should they fail, will replace with others, gratis.

Yours truly,

THEODORE A. BALL

Phone 144-L, Westfield.

Westfield Represented at Passaic Dinner.

Robert A. Fairbairn vice president, Joseph R. Connolly vice president and secretary, and E. F. Lowe member of the Board of Directors of the Westfield Trust Company, were guests at the annual banquet of the Passaic Board of Trade, Monday night, at which President Taft was the guest of honor and the principal speaker. It was one of the most notable gatherings of National and State public officials ever held in New Jersey. Richard J. Scates, president of the Westfield Trust Company, is treasurer of the Passaic Board of Trade, and was a member of the Banquet Committee. Louis K. Hyde, president of the City National Bank of Plainfield, was also a guest.

The Kitchen God.

The kitchen god of China is perhaps not rightly so called. He has place over the cooking range, but he is the "recording angel" of the Chinese house, and it is his duty to note the actions of each member of the family and report them to the gods at the end of every month. Once a year, too, he goes to heaven in person and makes his annual report. So once a year the family prostrate themselves before him, carry him in procession, and finally burn him, while crackers are fired.

A Journalist is Born.

You cannot teach a man to be a journalist, for he is born, not made; and the real journalists spring at once—like the late G. W. Stevens—into their place. A lecturer on journalism would bore one far beyond the limits of this paragraph. For the journalist is the man who is interested in life and wants to share the interest with other lives. And a lecturer in a crowded classroom would not help.—London Chronicle.

Strange Sight of Ants.

It was proved long ago that ants have the power of seeing the ultra-violet portion of the spectrum. They fear the light for their larvae and when allowed choice between different degrees of light always carry them to the darkest place accessible. When given the choice between a compartment lighted with yellow light and one dark to human eyes, but under the actinic ray, the ants unhesitatingly choose the yellow light, showing that to their eyes it is darker than the other, to man invisible.

Always Wheat Trouble.

Wheat, corn, breadstuffs, the staff of life—this has always been the agony of humanity whenever it progressed into advanced civilization with dense populations. And along with the breadstuffs, of course, all farm products rose till the people, wherever on earth they were, groined under the increased cost of living and cried in vain for relief.—Harper's Weekly.

Plainfielders Score at Entertainment.

A large number was present at entertainment at the Westfield Inn Saturday night. Mr. Leonard G. and Mr. Rankin, both of Plainfield, delighted those present with a clever sleight-of-hand tricks that do credit to professionals. Mrs. B. was at the piano while Mr. Rankin performed. The recitation of Eleanor Bell of Westfield was very good. An encore was called for. Moore did the cake walk to the delight of all present. Dancing and refreshments followed.
